THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY VOTE ACCEPTING THE RESIGNATION WAS 77 TO 10 WITH 41 MEMBERS ABSTAINING.

ONLY LAST WEEK THE ASSEMBLY, WITH ONLY ONE MEMBER DISSENTING, HAD VOTED AGAINST ACCEPTING LEE'S RESIGNATION.

LEE COMPLAINED, IN SUBMITTING HIS RESIGNATION, THAT HE HAD NO REAL AUTHORITY. HE ALSO VOICED CRITICISM OF PRESIDENT SYNGMAN RHEE'S CABINET SELECTIONS.

IN THE REPERCUSSIONS FOLLOWING THE RESIGNATION THERE WAS SOME TALK AMONG RHEE'S OPPOSITION OF BRINGING IMPEACHMENT PROCEEDINGS, BUT POLITICAL OBSERVERS WERE INCLINED TO DOUBT THE SUCCESS OF ANY SUCH MOVE.

A GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN SAID RHEE DID NOT WANT TO RUN FOR RE-ELECTION NEXT MAY. HE GAVE NO REASON. BUT HE DENIED PUBLISHED REPORTS THAT THE 76-YEAR OLD PRESIDENT WAS BOWING OUT BECAUSE OF OPPOSITION IN THE ASSEMBLY.

OBSERVERS PREDICTED RHEE MIGHT CHANGE HIS MIND. IF HE DOES, THEY ARE CONFIDENT HE COULD WIN AGAIN.

IF RHEE DOES NOT RUN, KIM SUNG SOO, HEAD OF THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL PARTY, WHICH OPPOSES RHEE, OR P.H. SHINICKY, CHAIRMAN OF THE ASSEMBLY, MIGHT SEEK THE PRESIDENCY.

PUSAN, KOREA, MAY 14-(AP)-ALLIED FIGHTING MEN NOW ARE GOING TO HAVE SOMETHING THEY'VE LONG WANTED IN KOREA--FRESH VEGETABLES.

ABOUT 6,500 POUNDS OF RADISHES AND ONIONS, GROWN UNDER AMERICAN SUPERVISION ON HYDROPONIC FARMS NEAR TOKYO, WERE FLOWN IN TODAY AND QUICKLY DISTRIBUTED.

THE TROOPS HAVE BEEN WARNED AGAINST LOCALLY-GROWN VEGETABLES, WHICH ARE NOT GERM FREE.

CAPT. LOWELL J. MEYERS, HARLINGEN, TEX., SAID TWO EARLIER TEST SHIPMENTS OF FRESH VEGETABLES HAD PROVED SATISFACTORY AND SHIPMENTS NOW WILL BE MADE DAILY.

HYDROPONICS IS SOILLESS FARMING. VEGETABLES ARE GROWN IN WATER ENRICHED BY MINERAL SALTS.

U. S. FIFTH AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS, KOREA, TUESDAY, MAY 15-(AP)-A B-26 LIGHT BOMBER SHOT UP TWO TRAINS AND A CONVOY OF COMMUNIST TRUCKS IN A STRIKE OVER NORTH KOREA LAST NIGHT.

SGT. WALLACE T. MOFFETT, CREW MEMBER, OF (422 EAST SOUTH HEIGHTS STREET) LOUISVILLE, KY., SAID:

"ONE LOCOMOTIVE WAS COMPLETELY DESTROYED AND THE OTHER WAS SADLY DAMAGED. THERE WERE ABOUT 50 BOXCARS ALTOGETHER AND WE STRAFED THEM BUT COULDN'T OBSERVE RESULTS."

FIFTH AIR FORCE PILOTS CLAIMED MORE THAN 400 TROOPS KILLED OR WOUNDED AND 350 BUILDINGS AND 50 VEHICLES DESTROYED IN MONDAY'S OPERATIONS.

IN THE HWACHON RESERVOIR AREA ONE FLIGHT OF SWIFT F-84 THUNDER-JETS CLAIMED 75 ENEMY TROOPS KILLED OR WOUNDED AND 10 TRUCKS DESTROYED OR DAMAGED.

WHEN THE FLIGHT LEADER, CAPT. RICHARD C. RUTHERFORD OF AUSTIN, TEXAS, RETURNED TO HIS BASE HE FOUND THAT HE HAD COMPLETED THE 10,000TH F-84 SORTIE OF THE KOREAN WAR.

TAIPEH, FORMOSA, MAY 14 (AP)-THE PRESENCE OF THE AMERICAN MILITARY ASSISTANCE ADVISORY GROUP IN FORMOSA DOES NOT AFFECT U.S. POLICY OF NEUTRALIZING THIS ISLAND, MAJ.GEN. WILLIAM C. CHASE TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE TODAY.

CHASE SAID THE GROUP WHICH HE HEADS, NUMBERING ABOUT 30 OFFICERS AND MEN AT PRESENT, WOULD RESTRICT ITS ACTIVITIES TO THE U.S. SEVENTH FLEET DEFENSE ZONE, EMBRACING FORMOSA, THE PESCADORES AND OTHER ISLANDS IN THE AREA.

HE ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT GROUP PERSONNEL WOULD VISIT PLACES OUTSIDE THIS ZONE, INCLUDING QUEMOY (CHINMEN), NATIONALIST OUTPOST ISLAND NEAR THE RED MAINLAND OPPOSITE FORMOSA.

THE NATIONALIST CHINA UNION PRESS AGENCY MEANWHILE REPORTED A BATTLE IN SOUTHERN KWANGSI PROVINCE IN WHICH NATIONALIST GUERRILLAS SMASHED A COMMUNIST DIVISION SENT TO ROUT THEM.

TAIPEH, FORMOSA, MAY 14-(AP)-MAJ.GEN. WILLIAM C. CHASE, HEAD OF THE U.S. MILITARY ASSISTANCE ADVISORY GROUP (MAAG) SAID TODAY "THE ANNOUNCED U.S. POLICY OF 'NEUTRALIZATION' OF FORMOSA IS STILL IN EFFECT."

PRESUMABLY HIS STATEMENT WAS INTENDED TO SCOTCH ANY REPORTS THAT THE UNITED STATES WOULD STRENGTHEN NATIONALIST CHINESE FORCES FOR AN INVASION OF THE COMMUNIST MAINLAND.

CHASE TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE THE POLICY "IS IN NO WAY CHANGED BY OUR PRESENCE HERE TO ADVISE AND ASSIST THE ARMED FORCES OF THE CHINESE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT."

HE SAID MAAG WOULD CONFINE ITS WORK TO THE U.S. SEVENTH FLEET ZONE, EMBRACING FORMOSA, THE PESCADORES AND OTHER SATELLITE ISLANDS OF FORMOSA.

BUT HE SAID HE AND OTHER MAAG OFFICIALS INTEND TO VISIT PLACES OUTSIDE THIS ZONE, SUCH AS QUEMOY, THE NATIONALIST DEFENSE OUTPOST NEAR COMMUNIST AMOY.

HE REFUSED TO SAY WHETHER THERE WOULD BE ANY INHIBITIONS ON RE-INFORCEMENT AND AIR SUPPORT OF QUEMOY IN EVENT OF A COMMUNIST ATTACK ON THAT ISLAND.

CHASE SAID SELECTED NATIONALIST PERSONNEL WILL BE SENT TO THE UNITED STATES FOR ADVANCED TRAINING, BUT HE WOULD NOT SAY WHETHER ANY PLAN EXISTED TO EXPAND THE NATIONALIST FORCES.

CHASE DESCRIBED ALL RANKS OF THE NATIONALIST ARMY HE HAD SEEN AS "KEEN AND ALERT AND WORKING VERY HARD AT WELL-PLANNED EXERCISES."

SINGAPORE, MAY 14-(AP)-TOP BRITISH, AMERICAN AND FRENCH MILITARY GATHERED IN SINGAPORE TODAY FOR HIGH LEVEL TALKS ON THE COMMON DEFENSE OF SOUTHEAST ASIA AGAINST ANY COMMUNIST ONSLAUGHT.
THE DISCUSSIONS, TERMED "OF GREAT IMPORTANCE" BY A HIGH BRITISH SOURCE, WILL BE HELD TOMORROW AND WEDNESDAY IN THE WELL-WALLED SECLUSID OF BUKIT SERENE, THE PALATIAL OFFICIAL RESIDENCE OF BRITISH HIGH CTMMISSIONER FOR SOUTHEAST ASIA MALCOLM MACDONALD.
IT WAS DOUBTFUL THAT ANY STATEMENT TELLING OF ANY MAJOR MILITARY POLICY WOULD BE MADE AT THEIR CONCLUSION. IT WAS STRESSED THE DISCUSSIONS WILL BE STRICTLY MILITARY IN NATURE--NOT CONCERNED WITH THE FORMATION OF A PACIFIC PACT OR OTHER POLITICAL MATTERS.
BRITISH--GEN.SIR JOHN HARDING, COMMANDER IN CHIEF, FAR EAST LAND FORCES; ADM.SIR GUY RUSSELL, COMMANDER IN CHIEF, FAR EAST NAVAL STATION, AND AIR MARSHAL SIR FRANCIS FOGARTY, COMMANDER IN CHIEF, FAR EAST AIR FORCES.
FRENCH--GEN.JEAN DE LATTRE DE TASSIGNY, COMMANDER IN CHIEF OF FRENCH FORCES IN INDOCHINA AND HIGH COMMISSIONER THERE; GEN.FAY, CHIEF OF STAFF OF THE FRENCH AIR FORCE, WHO CAME HERE FROM PARIS VIA SAIGON; VICE ADM.ORTOLI, FRENCH NAVAL COMMANDER IN CHIEF IN INDOCHINA; AND LIEUT.GEN.PELISSIER, AIR OFFICER COMMANDING IN INDOCHINA.
UNITED STATES--VICE ADM.ARTHUR D.STRUBLE, COMMANDER FIRST FLEET AND FORMER COMMANDER OF THE SEVENTH FLEET IN KOREAN AND FORMOSAN WATERS DURING THE EARLY MONTHS OF THE KOREAN FIGHTING, AND BRIG.GEN.FRANCIS G.BRINK, CHIEF OF THE U.S. MILITARY AID AND ADVISORY GROUP IN SAIGON.
ALL WERE ACCOMPANIED BY AIDES AND ADVISERS.
ADM.STRUBLE ARRIVED LATE TODAY BY NAVY TRANSPORT PLANE FROM SAN DIEGO, CALIF., AND MANILA. HE SAID HE HAD NOTHING TO SAY ABOUT THE COMING TALKS.
GEN.DE LATTRE REACHED SINGAPORE SUNDAY AND WAS JOINED TODAY BY THE REST OF THE FRENCH CONTINGENT.
THE SUDDENLY DEVELOPED MILITARY PARLEY STARTED A CROP OF RUMORS OF VARIED NATURES IN SINGAPORE CIRCLES RANGING FROM TALK OF A PACIFIC PACT TO ESTABLISHMENT OF U.S. AIR BASES AT STRATEGIC POINTS IN SOUTHEAST ASIA. HIGHLY PLACED SOURCES SAID THESE WERE PURE SPECULATION, HOWEVER.
ONE QUALIFIED SPOKESMAN SAID THE SITUATION IN SOUTHEAST ASIA HAD EASED IN RECENT MONTHS. IT WAS CLEAR, HOWEVER, THAT THE CONFERENCE WOULD TAKE UP PLANS FOR DEFENSE OF THE AREA SHOULD THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS UNLEASH AN ATTACK IN FORCE AGAINST INDOCHINA, THAILAND OR BURMA.

B41 (Q)
THE LOCAL PRESS SPECULATED THAT THE MUCH-DISCUSSED RED ASSAULT MIGHT BECOME A REALITY DUE TO THE FACT THAT MALAYA IS CERTAIN TO FOLLOW BRITAIN'S LEAD IN BANNING RUBBER EXPORTS TO RED CHINA, THE COMMUNISTS' NEED FOR THE RICE BOWL OF SOUTHEAST ASIA AND THE SHARPER ORIENTATION OF BRITAIN LAST WEEK TOWARD AMERICA'S FIRMER STAND AGAINST THE PEIPING GOVERNMENT.
ATTENDING THE TALKS AS OBSERVERS FOR AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND ARE MAJ.GEN.KEITH STEWART, FORMER AUSTRALIAN ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF, AND AIR COMMODORE IAN MCLACHLAN.
THE FINDINGS OF THE "EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION" WILL BE FORWARDED TO WASHINGTON, LONDON AND PARIS, IT WAS EMPHASIZED.
THE TALKS TAKE ON ADDED SIGNIFICANCE FROM BEING THE FIRST CONFERENCES IN THE AREA OF TOP MILITARY LEADERS OF THE THREE NATIONS SINCE WORLD WAR II. WHETHER THEY WOULD DEVELOP RECOMMENDATIONS FOR PERMANENT MILITARY MACHINERY OF THE THREE NATIONS IN THE AREA WAS NOT INDICATED.

WELLINGTON, NEW ZEALAND, MAY 14-(AP)-NEW ZEALAND'S RECORD IN KOREA "IS DEFINITELY NOT ONE WHICH DESERVES REPROACHES BY OUR AMERICAN FRIENDS," FREDERICK DOIDGE, MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS, SAID TODAY.
HE WAS COMMENTING ON THE SECOND EDITORIAL PUBLISHED BY THE WASHINGTON (D.C.) POST DUBBING NEW ZEALAND AND AUSTRALIA "LAGGARDS" IN THEIR KOREAN AID.
THE EDITORIAL WAS CALLED TO THE ATTENTION OF DOIDGE YESTERDAY, BUT HE DECLINED COMMENT UNTIL HE CONFERRED WITH PRIME MINISTER SIDNEY G.HOLLAND.
THE AVERAGE MAN IN NEW ZEALAND IS STEAMING ABOUT THE POST EDITORIALS. THE CONSENSUS APPEARS TO BE THAT THEY HAVE HURT CORDIAL RELATIONS BETWEEN THIS COUNTRY AND THE UNITED STATES.
IN HIS STATEMENT, DOIDGE SAID:
"THE POST MIGHT MORE PROPERLY HAVE DIRECTED ITS ATTENTION TO THE REAL LAGGARDS--THOSE MEMBERS OF THE UNITED NATIONS WHO HAVE CONTRIBUTED NOTHING OR THOSE WHO UNLIKE NEW ZEALAND HAVE MADE NO MOVE TO CONTRIBUTE ARMED FORCES.
"THESE COUNTRIES," HE CONTINUED, "ALSO HAVE A STAKE IN COLLECTIVE SECURITY. I CAN ONLY EMPHASIZE THE FACTS OF NEW ZEALAND'S CONTRIBUTION, THAT NEW ZEALAND WAS ONE OF THE FIRST TO RESPOND TO THE UNITED NATION'S CALL AND IS RESPONDING AGAIN TO THE CALL FOR ARMED ASSISTANCE, AND THAT OUR MEN ARE SERVING WITH DISTINCTION IN THE FIELD. AS FOR NUMBERS, I WONDER HOW MANY OTHER COUNTRIES APART FROM SOUTH KOREA AND THE UNITED STATE ITSELF PROVIDE AS HIGH A PROPORTION OF FIGHTING MEN AS NEW ZEALAND.
"IF EVEN A MAJORITY OF THE MEMBERS OF THE UNITED NATIONS WERE, PRO RATA TO POPULATION, THE SAME KIND OF LAGGARD AS NEW ZEALAND THERE WOULD BE NO LACK OF EFFECTIVES FOR ANY DEMAND OF THE KOREAN BATTLEFRONT.
"NEW ZEALAND HAS LONG DENIED MILITARY SUPPLIES OF ALL KINDS TO AGGRESSORS. THE UNITED STATES HAS BEEN PRESSING THE UNITED NATIONS THROUGH THE ADDITIONAL MEASURES COMMITTEE FOR SOME MEASURE OF ECONOMIC SANCTIONS. SO FAR AS NEW ZEALAND IS CONCERNED, THE COLLECTIVE EMBARGO NOW BEING DISCUSSED AT LAKE SUCCESS WILL MERELY FORMALIZE OUR OWN PRACTICE."

NIGHT LEAD PARATROOPS
BY TOM OCHILTREE
LONDON, MAY 14-(AP)-TROUBLE-SHOOTING TROOPS OF BRITAIN'S CRACK 16TH INDEPENDENT PARACHUTE BRIGADE GROUP RUSHED TONIGHT TO ASSEMBLY AREAS AT ALDERSHOT, NEAR LONDON, UNDER ORDERS TO GET READY FOR AN UNDISCLOSED EMERGENCY ASSIGNMENT.
ARE THEY INTENDED FOR IRAN?
STRONG INDICATIONS ARE THAT THE LABOR GOVERNMENT INTENDS TO TAKE FIRM MEASURES IF IRAN INSISTS ON NATIONALIZING THE HUGE BRITISH OIL INTERESTS THERE WITHOUT FIRST TRYING TO NEGOTIATE A SETTLEMENT.
THE ALERTED 4,000 PARATROOPERS--KNOWN AS THE "FIRE BRIGADE" BECAUSE OF THEIR TRAINING FOR USE IN EMERGENCIES -- COULD HAVE AN IMPORTANT PART IN THESE FIRM MEASURES.
MILITARY SOURCES SAID THAT THE GROUP, MADE UP OF THREE PARACHUTE BATTALIONS AND ATTACHED UNITS OF AIRBORNE ARTILLERY, ENGINEERS, SIGNALMEN AND A FIELD AMBULANCE SETUP, HAS NO DEPARTURE ORDERS. THE SOURCES SAID THE ALERT WAS ROUTINE WAR OFFICE BUSINESS.
BUT THE SUDDEN ALERT BROKE UP WHITSUN HOLIDAY LEAVE FOR MANY OF THE MEN IN THE GROUP AND BROUGHT SOME OF THE BRIGADE'S UNITS BACK FROM HALF-COMPLETED MANEUVERS IN NORTH WALES, KENT AND DEVON.
THE LONDON DAILY MIRROR SAID THE TROOPS ARE BEING ISSUED TROPICAL UNIFORMS AND EQUIPMENT AND WILL SOON GET INNOCULATIONS AGAINST TROPICAL DISEASES.
THE IRANIAN OIL CRISIS THREATENING SEIZURE OF ONE OF BRITAIN'S BIGGEST SOURCES OF PETROLEUM, ALSO INTERRUPTED FOREIGN SECRETARY HERBERT MORRISON'S HOLIDAY.
FROM HIS VACATION SPOT ON THE ISLE OF WIGHT, MORRISON KEPT IN CLOSE TOUCH WITH THE FOREIGN OFFICE BY TELEPHONE. HE ALSO PUT THE FINAL TOUCHES ON A NEW BRITISH NOTE PROTESTING IRAN'S RAPID MOVES TO CARRY OUT A LAW NATIONALIZING THE BRITISH-OWNED ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY.
THAT NOTE -- EXPECTED TO BE FIRMER IN TONE THAN EARLIER BRITISH COMMUNICATIONS -- PROBABLY WILL BE DISPATCHED TO TEHRAN IN THE NEXT DAY OR TWO.
IT WAS UNDERSTOOD THE UNITED STATES IS BEING KEPT INFORMED OF ALL DEVELOPMENTS.
BRITAIN'S GROWING CONCERN WAS HIGHLIGHTED BY THE EMOTIONAL AND DRAMATIC ACTION OF IRANIAN PREMIER MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH IN BARRICADING HIMSELF IN THE PARLIAMENT AFTER ANNOUNCING HIS LIFE WAS THREATENED AND DECLARING HE INTENDED TO STAY THERE UNTIL HIS DREAM OF NATIONALIZATION IS PUSHED THROUGH.
THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT HAS EXPRESSED THE HOPE THERE WILL BE NO DISORDERS IN IRAN'S SOUTHERN OIL FIELDS, WHERE THE ANGLO-IRANIAN COMPANY HAS EXCLUSIVE OPERATION RIGHTS UNDER A TREATY WHICH DOES NOT EXPIRE UNTIL 1993. THE GOVERNMENT STILL HOPES THE DISPUTE OVER OIL CAN BE SETTLED BY NEGOTIATIONS.

A3
BUT SOME SECTIONS OF THE BRITISH PRESS HAVE DEMANDED A STRONG STAND AGAINST THE MOVE BY IRAN'S NATIONALISTS -- HEADED BY MOSSADEGH -- TO SEIZE THE OIL AND OUST THE BRITISH.
THESE PUBLICATIONS MAINTAINED EDITORIALLY THAT THE OIL RESOURCES OF THE MIDDLE EAST COUNTRY ARE SO IMPORTANT TO THE NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE THAT BRITAIN SHOULD NOT LET THEM PASS FROM HER CONTROL.
THE PRO-EMPIRE EVENING STANDARD SAID PRIME MINISTER ATTLEE'S CABINET HAS "ALREADY DECIDED ON THE VARIOUS FORMS OF ACTION WHICH MIGHT BE NECESSARY TO PROTECT BRITISH OIL INTERESTS IN PERSIA."
THE INDEPENDENT WEEKLY ECONOMIST SAID A FEW DAYS AGO THAT MORRISON'S NEW NOTE TO IRAN WOULD HINT THAT BRITAIN WILL RESIST WITH FORCE ANY NATIONALIZATION ATTEMPTS BY IRAN.
THE JOURNAL SAID BRITAIN "STILL BELIEVES FORCE WILL NOT BE NECESSARY, BUT IT HAS RIGHTLY DECIDED THAT, UNLESS SOME FIRM ATTEMPT BE MADE TO CONTROL THE IRRESPONSIBLE NATIONALISTS NOW IN POWER IN TEHRAN, THEY WILL NOT ONLY DESTROY THEIR OWN COUNTRY BUT WILL INFLAME THE WHOLE ARAB MIDDLE EAST."
THE AIR MINISTRY SAID THE TRANSPORT COMMAND IS COOPERATING WITH THE WAR OFFICE IN PLANNING FOR THE ALERTED BRIGADE. THE TRANSPORT COMMAND WOULD PROVIDE THE PLANES FOR THE PARATROOPS.
BRITAIN ALSO HAS CRUISER AND DESTROYER NAVAL FORCES IN THE PERSIAN GULF AREA.
THE BRIGADE IS UNDER THE COMMAND OF BRIG. KENNETH THOMAS DARLING, A 41-YEAR-OLD OFFICER WITH A DISTINGUISHED FIGHTING RECORD IN NORTHWEST EUROPE IN WORLD WAR TWO. THE BRIGADE RETURNED FROM SERVICE WITH THE RHINE ARMY IN GERMANY ABOUT TWO YEARS AGO.

FIRST LEAD PARATROOPS

BY TOM OCHILTREE

LONDON, MAY 14-(AP)-BRITAIN TOLD ITS TROUBLE-SHOOTING 16TH INDEPENDENT PARACHUTE BRIGADE GROUP TODAY TO BRING ITSELF AT ONCE TO A STATE OF READINESS.

SIMULTANEOUSLY FOREIGN SECRETARY HERBERT MORRISON -- INTERRUPTING HIS WHITSUN HOLIDAY ON THE ISLE OF WIGHT--KEPT IN TOUCH WITH THE FOREIGN OFFICE BY PHONE ON THE LATEST DEVELOPMENTS IN IRAN.

THERE WAS SPECULATION THAT THE TWO EVENTS WERE CONNECTED, AND THAT BRITAIN WAS READY TO MAKE A STRONG STAND, IF NECESSARY, TO HOLD ITS RICH OIL CONCESSION IN IRAN.

BUT THIS SPECULATION WAS WITHOUT OFFICIAL CONFIRMATION. A WAR OFFICE SPOKESMAN STRESSED THAT THE PARACHUTE BRIGADE WAS NOT UNDER SAILING ORDERS. HE DESCRIBED THE ALERTING ORDER AS ROUTINE WAR OFFICE BUSINESS.

THE UNIT NOW IS ASSEMBLING ITSELF AT ALDERSHOT, 35 MILES FROM LONDON. IT IS KNOWN AS THE "FIRE BRIGADE", BECAUSE IT IS GEARED FOR EMERGENCIES.

SOME SECTIONS OF THE BRITISH PRESS HAVE BEEN DEMANDING A STRONGER ATTITUDE TOWARD IRAN. THE LINE TAKEN BY THESE PUBLICATIONS IS THAT IRAN'S OIL IS SO IMPORTANT TO BRITAIN AND THE ATLANTIC POWERS THAT THE BRITISH SHOULD RESIST ANY ATTEMPT BY IRANIAN AUTHORITIES TO TAKE OVER THE INSTALLATIONS OF THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY, AS IRAN'S PARLIAMENT HAS VOTED TO DO.

A FEW DAYS AGO THE ECONOMIST, A WEEKLY INDEPENDENT JOURNAL OF OPINION, SAID MORRISON HAS DRAFTED A NOTE TO IRAN HINTING THAT BRITAIN WILL RESIST BY FORCE, IF NECESSARY.

THE ECONOMIST SAID THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT "STILL BELIEVES FORCE WILL NOT BE NECESSARY, BUT IT HAS RIGHTLY DECIDED THAT UNLESS SOME FIRM ATTEMPT BE MADE TO CONTROL THE IRRESPONSIBLE NATIONALISTS NOW IN POWER IN TEHRAYAGUIICNLN FIRM ATTEMPT BE MADE TO CONTROL THE IRRESPONSIBLE NATIONALISTS NOW IN POWER IN TEHRAN THEY WILL NOT ONLY DESTROY THEIR OWN COUNTRY BUT INFLAME THE WHOLE OF THE ARAB MIDDLE EAST."

UP UNTIL THE LAST FEW DAYS, AT LEAST, PRIME MINISTER ATTLEE'S CABINET HAS HELD TO THE HOPE THAT THE WHOLE ISSUE COULD BE WORKED OUT BY PEACEFUL NEGOTIATION. THAT STILL IS THE PUBLIC POSITION OF THE CABINET. MORRISON'S ACTIVITIES TODAY, HOWEVER, INDICATE INCREASING ALARM. THE FOREIGN SECRETARY'S LATEST NOTE IS EXPECTED TO BE DISPATCHED TO TEHRAN SOON.

THE UNITED STATES IS BEING KEPT INFORMED ABOUT BRITISH MOVES.

THE ALERTED PARACHUTE BRIGADE GROUP CONTAINS ABOUT 6,000 MEN. IT IS COMMANDED BY BRIG. KENNETH THOMAS DARLING, 41, AN OFFICER WITH A DISTINGUISHED FIGHTING RECORD IN NORTHWEST EUROPE DURING WORLD WAR II.

SOUTHERN COMMAND HEADQUARTERS ISSUED A STATEMENT SAYING:

"THE BRIGADE IS BEING HELD AVAILABLE AT SHORT NOTICE, BUT IT IS NOT UNDER ORDERS TO PROCEED TO ANY SPECIFIC DESTINATION."

EVEN IF SUCH ORDERS HAD BEEN GIVEN, IT IS ASSUMED THEY WOULD BE TOP SECRET.

W. WARDE, THE SHIP'S EXHIBITION MANAGER, SAID HE WAS TOLD BY TELEPHONE THAT MORRISON RECEIVED AN "IMPORTANT" TELEPHONE CALL EARLY TODAY AND WAS STANDING BY. units of the parachute brigade have been taking in

THE RECALL ORDER CUT SHORT BY TWO WEEKS THE TRAINING EXERCISES THAT, [redacted] NORTH WALES, KENT AND DEVON. MEMBERS ON LEAVE ALSO ARE BEING CONCENTRATED AT ALDERSHOT.

THE AIR MINISTRY SAID THE TRANSPORT COMMAND WHICH PROVIDES PLANES FOR THE PARACHUTE TROOPS IS COOPERATING WITH THE WAR OFFICE IN PLANNING FOR THE BRIGADE.

BRIGADIER K.T. DARLING COMMANDS THE BRIGADE, WHICH RETURNED FROM SERVICE WITH THE RHINE ARMY IN GERMANY ABOUT TWO YEARS AGO. IT CONSISTS OF THREE PARACHUTE BATTALIONS TOGETHER WITH AIRBORNE UNITS OF ROYAL ENGINEERS AND ROYAL SIGNALS.

PARIS, MAY 14-(AP)-RUSSIA'S ANDREI GROMYKO ACCUSED WESTERN DIPLOMATS OF ENGAGING IN "VERBAL EQUILIBRISTICS."

GROMYKO USED THAT TERM TO DESCRIBE WESTERN STATEMENTS DURING TODAY'S 91ST MEETING OF THE BIG FOUR DEPUTIES TRYING TO ARRANGE AN AGENDA FOR A MEETING OF THE BIG FOUR FOREIGN MINISTERS.

THE MEETING ENDED AFTER NEARLY TWO AND A HALF HOURS WITH THE FOUR DEPUTIES NO CLOSER TO AN AGREEMENT.

THEY STILL ARE DEADLOCKED ON JUST HOW MUCH THEY SHOULD REFER TO THEIR FOREIGN MINISTERS AS "DISAGREED ITEMS" FOR THE AGENDA. THE WEST WANTS TO TELL THE FOREIGN MINISTERS THE DEPUTIES WERE UNABLE TO AGREE ON JUST WHERE TO PLACE GERMAN DEMILITARIZATION ON THE AGENDA, AND ON JUST HOW TO WORD THE AGENDA ITEM DEALING WITH DISARMAMENT.

AMERICA'S DELEGATE, U.S. AMBASSADOR PHILIP JESSUP, PROPOSED TODAY THAT THE AGENDA'S AGREED ITEMS BE SENT TO THE FOREIGN MINISTERS WITH A FOOTNOTE EXPLAINING THE DISAGREEMENTS. HE SAID THE FOOTNOTE SHOULD POINT OUT THAT "THERE IS AGREEMENT THAT THE DEMILITARIZATION OF GERMANY SHOULD BE INCLUDED IN THE AGENDA. BUT THERE IS DISAGREEMENT AS TO WHETHER IT SHOULD BE THE FIRST OR SECOND SUB-ITEM UNDER ITEM ONE."

"THEN," ADD JESSUP, "IF THE SOVIET UNION SHARES THE WILLINGNESS OF THE THREE WESTERN POWERS TO ARRANGE A MEETING OF FOREIGN MINISTERS, WE CAN PROCEED IMMEDIATELY" WITH THE COMPLETION OF THE AGENDA.

THOSE STATEMENTS, SAID GROMYKO, WERE MERE "VERBAL EQUILIBRISTICS."

RUSSIA IS INSISTING THAT THE DEMILITARIZATION OF GERMANY APPEAR FIRST AS A SUB-ITEM UNDER THE POINT DEALING WITH "CAUSES AND EFFECTS OF PRESENT INTERNATIONAL TENSIONS IN EUROPE AND OF THE MEANS TO SECURE A REAL AND LASTING IMPROVEMENT IN THE RELATIONS" AMONG THE BIG FOUR.

THE WEST WANTS TO TALK ABOUT GERMAN DEMILITARIZATION ONLY AFTER A FOREIGN MINISTERS' DISCUSSION OF DISARMAMENT. ON THE LATTER SUBJECT, THE DEPUTIES ARE DISAGREED ON THE WORDING OF THE ITEM ITSELF. RUSSIA

WANTS TO LIMIT DISARMAMENT TALKS TO THE BIG FOUR POWERS, WHILE THE WESTERN DEPUTIES INSIST ON MAKING IT A WORLDWIDE DISCUSSION.

THE DEPUTIES ALSO ARE DISAGREED ON WHETHER THE ATLANTIC TREATY AND U.N. OFFICIALS MAKE SHOULD BE DISCUSSED AS ONE OF THE "CAUSES AND EFFECTS OF PRESENT INTERNATIONAL TENSIONS."

THEY MEET AGAIN TOMORROW.

BACKGROUND

B russels, Belgium, [illegible] may 14-(ap)-[illegible] Fyke Farmer of Tennessee, [illegible] a delegate to the privately sponsored world constituent assembly

(WCA) has accused gen. eisenhower of breaking international agreements in his role as supreme military commander of the atlantic pact army.

Farmer challenged the atlantic commander to a public debate in [illegible] belgium on the worth of a world parliament instead of increased armaments.

The tennessee legislator is in belgium in connection with the WCA campaign in favor of a Belgian law which would permit the parliament of this country to name nine delegates to [illegible] a world assembly.

In a letter dated may 10 and sent to eisenhower's paris headquarters, farmer says:

"It is but fair to inform you that I think your acts in europe are illegal. It seems to me that you are engaged in war preparations contrary to the international treaties, agreements and assurances by which both the belgian and the a merican governments have bound themselves to refrain from war."

Inviting Gen. Eisenhower to set a time and place for a debate, farmer wrote:

"Humanity has advanced beyong the fallacy of keeping the peace by preparing for war. I invite you to hand back your military orders and assist us in the creation of a world parliament to establish permanent institutions for the enforcement of the principles of international law declared at nuernberg."

This referred to the principles under which leading nazis were tried and condemned by a four-power tribunal after the war, setting forth that ~~xxx~~ preparation for war of aggression or war ~~xxxx~~ in violation of international agreements is a crime against humanity.

the WCA first met a t geneva early this year, with several

seeking establishment of a world government. The only legally elected present delegates were farmer and ex-state senator v. a. harwell of tennessee.

Farmer, a nashville lawyer, played a leading part in getting the tennessee legislature to pass a bill electing three delegates to the meeting. [illegible]

THE REDS HAD PLANNED ALL SORTS OF SUNDAY SPORTS ATTRACTIONS THROUGHOUT THE CITY IN CONNECTION WITH THEIR THREE-DAY WHITSUNTIDE RALLY WHICH ENDS TODAY.

LACK OF ANY AUDIENCE CAUSED CANCELLATION OF SOME OF THE GAMES. AND SUCH USUAL CROWD DRAWERS AS FOOTBALL AND SWIMMING MEETS MANAGED TO ATTRACT NO MORE THAN 200 SPECTATORS ALTOGETHER.

INSTEAD, NEARLY EVERYONE IN VIENNA--INCLUDING MANY BLUE-SHIRTED COMMUNIST YOUTHS BROUGHT HERE FROM ALL OVER AUSTRIA--GATHERED TO GET THEIR FIRST GLIMPSE AT A HELICOPTER AND TO WATCH THE PARADE. HUNDREDS OF WHITE-CLOTHED CHILDREN, CELEBRATING THEIR ROMAN CATHOLIC CONFIRMATION, RODE IN COLORFUL HORSE-DRAWN CARRIAGES THROUGH PRATER PARK IN THE RUSSIAN SECTOR.

THE HELICOPTER WAS FLOWN HERE FROM THE U.S. AIR FORCE BASE AT WIESBADEN, GERMANY, TO PULL ATTENTION AWAY FROM THE COMMUNIST GAMES. THE PILOT, CAPT.ROBERT J.MARTIN OF MANCHESTER, CONN., SCORED A GREAT SUCCESS AND ATTRACTED HUGE CROWDS WHEN HE LANDED AT THREE STRATEGIC SPOTS IN THE CITY.

BUDAPEST, HUNGARY, MAY 14-(AP)-KAROLY KISS, VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE PRESIDENTIAL COUNCIL, HAS SUCCEEDED GYULA KALLAI AS HUNGARY'S FOREIGN MINISTER. KALLAI'S RESIGNATION WAS ANNOUNCED SATURDAY NIGHT.

KALLAI HAS BEEN FOREIGN MINISTER SINCE THE DISMISSAL OF LASZLO RAJK IN 1949. HE WAS THE LAST GOVERNMENT MEMBER FROM THE RADICAL "YOUTHS OF MARCH" GROUP OF INTELLECTUALS WHO FIRST JOINED RAJK'S PRE-WAR STUDENT ORGANIZATION AND WERE ASSOCIATED WITH LEFTIST POLITICIANS AGAINST THE GERMANS IN WORLD WAR II.

RAJK WAS CONVICTED OF TREASON AND EXECUTED OCT.15,1949.

KISS, 47, IS A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY'S POLITBURO AND PRESIDENT OF ITS CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

--DASH--

KALLAI REPRESENTED HUNGARY IN PROTRACTED NEGOTIATIONS WITH U.S. MINISTER NATHANIEL P.DAVIS WHICH RESULTED IN THE RELEASE TWO WEEKS AGO OF AMERICAN BUSINESS MAN ROBERT A.VOGELER AFTER HE HAD SERVED 17 MONTHS OF A 15-YEAR ESPIONAGE SENTENCE.

IN EXCHANGE FOR VOGELER'S RELEASE THE UNITED STATES AGREED TO PERMIT REOPENING OF HUNGARIAN CONSULATES IN CLEVELAND AND NEW YORK, APPROVAL FOR AMERICANS TO TRAVEL IN HUNGARY AND THE RETURN OF NAZI-LOOTED HUNGARIAN PROPERTY HELD IN THE AMERICAN ZONE OF GERMANY.

BELGRADE, MAY 14-(AP)-YUGOSLAVIA DISCLOSED TODAY THAT ITS SECURITY POLICE HAVE SEIZED A MILITARY OFFICIAL OF THE CZECHOSLOVAKIAN EMBASSY HERE AND TWO ALLEGED CZECH INTELLIGENCE AGENTS AS SPIES.

A COMMUNIQUE ISSUED BY THE INFORMATION MINISTRY REPORTED THAT THE ARRESTS TOOK PLACE LATE LAST NIGHT IN A PARK AT ZEMON, ABOUT 20 MILES FROM BELGRADE. IT IDENTIFIED THE EMBASSY MILITARY OFFICIAL AS JAROSLAV NJEMEC. IT DID NOT GIVE HIS RANK. NOR IS HE MENTIONED IN THE CURRENT DIPLOMATIC LIST. THE TWO SO-CALLED AGENTS WERE UNIDENTIFIED.

THE COMMUNIQUE SAID THE ARRESTS TOOK PLACE "AT THE MOMENT WHEN THE AGENTS WORKING FOR THE CZECHOSLOVAKIAN INTELLIGENCE SERVICE WERE HANDING OVER TO HIM (NJEMEC) MATERIAL OF POLITICAL, ECONOMIC AND MILITARY NATURE.

"TOGETHER WITH HIM WERE ARRESTED TWO AGENTS WHO HAD BEEN HANDING OVER THE MATERIAL TO HIM. ON BEING QUESTIONED, NJEMEC CONFESSED THAT HE HAD RECEIVED ESPIONAGE REPORTS AND DATA AT THE MEETING PLACE WHERE THE ARRESTS OCCURRED. HE ALSO GAVE FURTHER DETAILS OF HIS ESPIONAGE WORK AND HIS CONTACTS. THE INVESTIGATION IS BEING CONTINUED."

NIGHT LEAD MOSSADEGH (360)
BY ROBERT B.HEWETT

TEHRAN,IRAN,MAY 14-(AP)-PREMIER MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH, SUFFERING A HEART AILMENT AND UPSET NERVES, BARRICDED HIMSELF BEHIND LOCKED DOORS IN THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING TODAY. HE SAID HE WOULD STAY THERE TO AWAIT THE SHOWDOWN ON OIL NATIONALIZATION AND TO THWART DEATH THEATS FROM "RASCALS."

THE EMOTIONAL NATIONALIST LEADER FAINTED AND FELL HEADLONG ON THE FLOOR OF PARLIAMENT YESTERDAY AFTER ANNOUNCING HE WOULD STAY INSIDE THE BUILDING UNTIL THE OIL NATIONALIZATION LAW IS CARRIED OUT.

HE HINTED THAT HIS PERSONAL DANGER ORIGINATED FROM FEDEYAN ISLAM, THE FIERY MOSLEM NATIONALIST MOVEMENT, AS WELL AS FROM LEFTISTS. BUT LATER HE ANNOUNCED THROUGH A SPOKESMAN THAT HE BELIEVED THE BRITISH-OWNED ANGLO-IRANIAN COMPANY INSTIGATED THE DEATH THREATS.

SOME SKEPTICAL DEPUTIES PRIVATELY DESCRIBED HIS SELF-IMPOSED SIEGE AS A POLITICAL STUNT -- DEATH THREATS ARE RECEIVED BY EVERY IRANIAN PREMIER. NEVERTHELESS, STRICT PRECAUTIONS WERE IMPOSED.

MOSSADEGH HAD HIS BED AND FOOD BROUGHT TO TWO SECOND FLOOR COMMITTEE ROOMS WHERE HE LIVED AND WORKED BEHIND LOCKED DOORS.

A FOUR-HOUR CABINET MEETING WAS HELD IN THE ROOMS, BUT NO DETAILS OF THE DISCUSSIONS LEAKED OUT.

IF MOSSADEGH WAS USING A DRAMATIC GESTURE TO HURRY UP ACTION ON THE PHYSICAL TAKING OVER OF THE $500,000,000 (M) OIL COMPANY IT SEEMED TO BE WORKING.

SOME DEPUTIES LAUGHED YESTERDAY WHEN THE PREMIER DRAMATICALLY DESCRIBED HOW HE TOLD SHAH MOHAMMED REZA PAHLEVI THAT HE WAS CARRYING A GUN FOR SELF-PROTECTION.

BUT THEY SPEEDILY CHOSE FIVE REPRESENTATIVES, WHO ALONG WITH FIVE SENATORS AND THE FINANCE MINISTER WILL MAKE UP THE BOARD EMPOWERED BY LAW TO TAKE OVER IMMEDIATELY THE SUPERVISION OF THE OIL COMPANY.

ANGLO-IRANIAN OFFICIALS AND BRITISH DIPLOMATS HAVE PROTESTED THAT OIL NATIONALIZATION VIOLATES INTERNATIONAL LAW.

THERE WERE UNCONFIRMED REPORTS THAT THE BRITISH WERE READY TO MAKE SOME COMPROMISE OFFER TO THE BOARD FOR AN AMICABLE SETTLEMENT, BUT A BOARD MEMBER SAID NO PROPOSALS HAD BEEN RECEIVED.

A SHOWDOWN IS EXPECTED AS SOON AS THE BOARD DEMANDS ACCESS TO ANGLO-IRANIAN BOOKS AND TRIES TO SUPERVISE COMPANY ACTIVITIES.

MOSSADEGH, WHO FREQUENTLY SOBS AND FAINTS AT THE END OF PASSIONATE SPEECHES, HAS BEEN ATTACKED BY FEDEYAN ISLAM FOR NOT RELEASING A DOZEN MEMBERS OF THE SECT ARRESTED BY FORMER PREMIER HUSSEIN ALI ON CHARGES OF PLOTTING FURTHER ASSASSINATIONS. THE MOVEMENT WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE KILLING OF FORMER PREMIER ALA RAZMARA LAST MARCH.

TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 14-(AP)-FEARING FOR HIS LIFE, AGING PREMIER F. MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH MOVED LAST NIGHT INTO THE SANCTUARY OF THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING. HE SAYS HE WILL REMAIN THERE UNTIL HIS "DREAM"--NATIONAL-IZATION OF IRAN'S HUGE OIL INDUSTRY -- IS COMPLETED.

MOSSADEGH FAINTED AND FELL HEADLONG FROM THE ROSTRUM YESTERDAY AFTER TELLING THE MAJLIS (LOWER HOUSE OF PARLIAMENT) OF THREATS ON HIS LIFE BY THE FANATIC SECRET MOSLEM SECT OF FEDAYAN ISLAM, WHOSE ASSASSINATION TACTICS HAVE MADE IT A POWER IN IRANIAN POLITICS. CARRIED FEET FIRST TO THE PRALIAMENT DISPENSARY, HE WAS DECLARED FULLY RECOVERED

A FEW MINUTES LATER BY DOCTORS THERE.
THE JITTERY PREMIER WAS LAUGHED AT DURING HIS TALK BY SKEPTICAL DEPUTIES, MANY OF WHOM FELT HE USED DRAMATICS CHARACTERISTIC OF HIM TO PRESSURE THEM INTO QUICK ACTION.
HOWEVER, THE MAJLIS SPEEDILY ACCEDED TO MOSSADEGH'S DEMAND THAT IT ELECT FIVE MEMBERS TO WORK JOINTLY WITH A SENATE FIVE-MAN GROUP ON A BOARD TO RUN THE GIANT ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY WHEN IT IS TAKEN OVER FROM THE BRITISH.
ALL FIVE BOARD MEMBERS NAMED BY THE MAJLIS ARE KNOWN SUPPORTERS OF MOSSADEGH--MAKING IT APPEAR THERE WILL BE LITTLE COMPROMISE WITH BRITAIN. THE SENATORS ON THE BOARD LIKEWISE FAVOR NATIONALIZATION, BUT MOST ARE BELIEVED TO HOLD MODERATE VIEWS. THE 11TH MEMBER IS FINANCE MINISTER ALI VARASTEH, FROM MOSSADEGH'S CABINET.
NATIONALIZATION OF THE HUGE BRITISH-OWNED OIL COMPANY HAS BEEN APPROVED BY PARLIAMENT. STARTING WITH THE ASSASSINATION OF PREMIER ALI RAZMARA LAST MARCH, THE DRIVE FOR THE TAKE-OVER WAS MARKED BY KILLINGS, STRIKES IN THE OIL FIELDS AND CLASHES BY RIVAL DEMONSTRATORS.
AFTER YESTERDAY'S VOTE MOSSADEGH ORDERED SERVANTS TO TAKE HIS BEDDING TO A COMMITTEE ROOM. HE SET UP HIS OFFICE NEARBY.
IN ADDITION TO THE THREATS FROM FEDAYAN ISLAM, WHICH WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR PREMIER RAZMARA'S ASSASSINATION, THE PREMIER SAID HE WAS ENDANGERED BY SMALL LEFTIST GROUPS DEMANDING RELEASE OF THEIR FOLLOWERS FROM PRISON. A GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN ADDED LATER THAT MOSSADEGH HAD ACCUSED ANGLO-IRANIAN OF HAVING INSTIGATED THE DEATH THREATS AGAINST HIM.
THOUGH FEDAYAN ISLAM VIOLENTLY PUSHED OIL NATIONALIZATION AND SUPPORTED THE PREMIER, THE ORGANIZATION LAST WEEK DISTRIBUTED LEAFLETS THREATENING TO "SETTLE ACCOUNTS" WITH MOSSADEGH UNLESS HE RELEASED A DOZEN OF ITS MEMBERS JAILED ON CHARGES OF PLOTTING ASSASSINATIONS.

AT THE NORTHERN ISRAEL FRONTIER, MAY 14-(AP)-ISRAELI AUTHORITIES HAVE STEPPED UP THE SPEED ON THE HULEH SWAMP DRAINAGE PROGRAM WITHOUT ANY INTERFERENCE FROM SYRIAN FORCES, AND PROSPECTS SEEMED BRIGHTER TODAY FOR SETTLING THE ISRAELI-SYRIAN DISPUTE.
THE HULEH SWAMP PROJECT HAS BEEN A SOURCE OF BITTER CONTENTION ON THE FRONTIER AND PLAYED A PART IN THE RECENT OUTBREAK OF HOSTILITIES BETWEEN SYRIA AND ISRAEL. THE ISRAELIS WANT TO DRAIN THE SWAMPS SO THE LAND CAN BE RECLAIMED. THE SYRIANS CLAIM THE DRAINAGE PROJECT VIOLATES THE ARMISTICE AGREEMENT WHICH ENDED FIGHTING IN 1949.
THE ACTING CHIEF OF THE UNITED NATIONS STAFF HERE, COL. BENNET DE RIDDER, IS REPORTED TO HAVE URGED THAT WORK ON THE PROGRAM BE STOPPED FOR A MONTH IN VIEW OF THE TENSION OVER THE DEMILITARIZED BORDER ZONE, BUT IT IS KNOWN THAT ISRAEL WOULD REJECT SUCH A PROPOSAL.
THE CHIEF OF THE U.N. TRUCE COMMISSION, MAJ.GEN. WILLIAM E.RILEY, IS ON HIS WAY BACK HERE AND IS REPORTED READY TO PRESENT NEW PROPOSALS FROM THE SECURITY COUNCIL FOR A PERMANENT SETTLEMENT. SYRIAN AND ISRAELI REPRESENTATIVES ALREADY HAVE DRAFTED A NEW AGREEMENT ACCEPTING SECURITY COUNCIL CEASE-FIRE PROPOSALS TO END THE RECENT BLOODY FIGHTING IN THE FRONTIER AREA.

HE TOLD THE HOUSE OF COMMONS HE BELIEVES THE UNITED NATIONS WOULD BE "PROFOUNDLY MISTAKEN" TO ADOPT SUCH A POLICY.
PEARSON MADE HIS STATEMENTS IN CONCLUDING A DEBATE ON CANADA'S FOREIGN AFFAIRS.
HE MADE NO REFERENCE TO GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR, BUT HE SAID SOME IN CANADA AND UNITED STATES HAD ADVOCATED THE BOMBING OF MANCHURIAN BASES, THE BLOCKADING OF CHINA AND THE USE OF CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS IN KOREA TO END THE WAR.

WASHINGTON,MAY 14-(AP)-NEW REPUBLICAN STRATEGY TO FORCE THE OUSTER OF SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON WAS PROPOSED TODAY BY REP.PHILLIPS (R-CALIF).
ADMINISTRATION LEADERS CONCEDED, BUT NOT FOR DIRECT QUOTATION, THAT THEY ARE NONE TOO CONFIDENT OF STOPPING THE GOP FIRE-ACHESON CAMPAIGN WHICH HAS BEEN DEVELOPING IN CAPITOL CLOAKROOMS FOR SEVERAL WEEKS.
PHILLIPS TOLD NEWSMEN HE HAS DRAFTED AN AMENDMENT DESIGNED TO CUT ACHESON FROM THE STATE DEPARTMENT PAYROLL WITHOUT MENTIONING HIM BY NAME. PAST ATTEMPTS TO GET RID OF FEDERAL OFFICIALS BY NAME HAVE BEEN BLOCKED BY COURT RULINGS.
BUT PHILLIPS SAID HIS AMENDMENT WOULD GET AROUND THAT HURDLE. IT WOULD BAR THE USE OF STATE DEPARTMENT FUNDS TO PAY ANYONE IN THE DEPARTMENT WHO IN THE PREVIOUS FIVE YEARS WAS "CONNECTED DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY" WITH A FIRM WHICH DERIVED PART OF ITS INCOME FROM SERVICES TO A FOREIGN GOVERNMENT.
"THAT WOULD GET ACHESON," PHILLIPS SAID, "BECAUSE HIS LAW FIRM REPRESENTED SOME FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS WITHIN THE PAST FIVE YEARS WHILE HE WAS STILL ASSOCIATED WITH IT."
AMONG OTHER THINGS, ACHESON'S FIRM HELPED NEGOTIATE A U.S. LOAN TO POLAND.
PHILLIPS SAID HE QUESTIONED THE LEGALITY OF AN EARLIER PROPOSAL BY SOME HOUSE MEMBERS TO NAME ACHESON DIRECTLY IN A SALARY CUT-OFF AMENDMENT.
HEARINGS ON LEGISLATION FOR STATE DEPARTMENT FUNDS WERE ENDED WEEKS AGO AND THE BILL WAS SCHEDULED FOR HOUSE ACTION EARLY THIS MONTH. HOWEVER, THE MEASURE WAS SIDETRACKED WHEN WORD OF THE GOP DRIVE TO OUST ACHESON LEAKED OUT.
PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS REPEATEDLY DENIED RUMORS THAT HE PLANS TO DROP ACHESON. MR.TRUMAN HAS TOLD HIS NEWS CONFERENCE HE INTENDS TO KEEP ACHESON AS LONG AS HE REMAINS IN THE WHITE HOUSE.
MEANWHILE, REP.LAWRENCE H.SMITH (R-WISC) URGED CONGRESS TO REPUDIATE SECRET AGREEMENTS MADE BY THE ROOSEVELT-TRUMAN ADMINISTRATIONS AT YALTA AND POTSDAM.

WASHINGTON, MAY 14-(AP)-SENATOR H.ALEXANDER SMITH (R-NJ) PREDICTED TONIGHT THE SENATE WILL PASS A $190,000,000 GRAIN-FOR-INDIA BILL ON THE BASIS OF A 100 PER CENT LOAN.

ORIGINALLY, PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAD PROPOSED LEGISLATION TO SEND 2,000,000 TONS OF GRAIN TO FAMINE-THREATENED INDIA AS AN OUTRIGHT GIFT. MR.TRUMAN URGED IT AS A HUMANITARIAN GESTURE.

THE PRESIDENT'S PROPOSAL HAD BEEN WATERED DOWN TO A 50-50 BASIS--HALF GIFT, HALF LOAN--AS THE SENATE OPENED DEBATE ON THE CONTROVERSIAL ISSUE TODAY.

BUT SMITH TOLD A REPORTER THAT BOTH SIDES HAVE AGREED TO AN AMENDMENT BY SENATOR FERGUSON (R-MICH) WHICH WOULD REQUIRE FULL REPAYMENT FOR THE GRAIN.

AS AMENDED BY FERGUSON, THE SENATE BILL PARALLELS THE HOUSE VERSION, SLATED FOR DEBATE IN THE HOUSE CHAMBER LATER THIS WEEK.

THE NEW JERSEY SENATOR, ONE OF THE ORIGINAL SPONSORS OF THE AID LEGISLATION, SAID HE EXPECTS THE SENATE WILL PASS THE BILL BY TOMORROW NIGHT.

SENATOR GILLETTE (D-IOWA) OPENED DEBATE TODAY WITH A STATEMENT THAT DELAYED ACTION MIGHT RESULT IN HEAVY LOSS OF LIFE IN INDIA.

NIGHT LEAD TAXES

BY FRANCIS J.KELLY

WASHINGTON, MAY 14-(AP)-THE HOUSE WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE TENTATIVELY VOTED A $614,500,000 INCREASE TODAY IN TAXES ON CARS, TRUCKS, CIGARETTES, TELEVISION SETS AND A LONG LIST OF HOUSEHOLD APPLIANCES.

CONTRARY TO EARLIER UNOFFICIAL REPORTS, HOWEVER, THE FEDERAL TAX ON GASOLINE WAS LEFT UNCHANGED AT 1 1/2 CENTS A GALLON.

TOTAL PROSPECTIVE ADDITIONAL REVENUE FROM THE 1951 TAX BILL NOW STANDS AT $6,325,000,000 WITH SEVERAL EXCISE TAX FIELDS REMAINING TO BE EXPLORED. PRESIDENT TRUMAN ASKED FOR A $10,000,000,000 REVENUE INCREASE THIS YEAR.

THE COMMITTEE VOTED TO RAISE THE CIGARETTE TAX FROM 7 CENTS A PACKAGE TO 8 CENTS FOR AN ESTIMATED $177,000,000 ADDITIONAL INCOME. THE TREASURY HAD ASKED FOR A THREE-CENT HIKE. AN UNSUCCESSFUL EFFORT WAS MADE TO EXEMPT ECONOMY-BRAND CIGARETTES FROM THE INCREASE.

CIGAR TAXES WERE LEFT UNCHANGED. THE TREASURY HAD RECOMMENDED A $25,000,000 INCREASE.

IF THE COMMITTEE'S RECOMMENDATIONS BECOME LAW, THE TAX ON PASSENGER AUTOMOBILES AND MOTORCYCLES WILL RISE FROM 7 PER CENT AT THE MANUFACTURERS' LEVEL TO 10 PER CENT, RATHER THAN 20 PER CENT AS SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY SNYDER RECOMMENDED. THIS IS COUNTED TO BRING IN AN EXTRA $196,000,000 A YEAR.

THE MANUFACTURERS' TAX ON TRUCKS AND BUSES WOULD GO UP FROM 5 TO 8 PER CENT, FOR ANOTHER $61,000,000. AN IDENTICAL INCREASE IN THE RATE ON AUTO PARTS AND ACCESSORIES IS ESTIMATED TO COLLECT $56,000,000 ADDITIONAL.

THE COMMITTEE REJECTED THE TREASURY'S PROPOSAL TO INCREASE THE 10 PER CENT MANUFACTURERS' EXCISE RATE ON HOUSEHOLD ELECTRICAL, GAS AND OIL OPERATED APPLIANCES TO 25 PER CENT. HOWEVER, THE BASE OF THE TAX WAS BROADENED TO TAKE IN THE FOLLOWING ADDITIONAL APPLIANCES:

MANGLES, DISH WASHERS, CLOTHES DRYERS, ELECTRIC RAZORS, FLOOR POLISHERS AND WAXERS, ELECTRIC AND POWER DRIVEN LAWNMOWERS, HEDGE CLIPPERS, BELT DRIVEN FANS, DEHUMIDIFIERS, DOOR BELL CHIMES, ELECTRIC FOOD CHOPPERS AND MEAT GRINDERS, ELECTRIC ICE CREAM FREEZERS, HOME MOVIE PROJECTORS, AUTOMATIC TIMING DEVICES, AND ELECTRIC PANTS PRESSERS.

THE ADDITIONAL REVENUE FROM THESE ITEMS WAS ESTIMATED AT $20,000,000.

THE COMMITTEE VOTED TO HIKE THE RATE ON RADIOS, TELEVISION RECEIVERS, PHONOGRAPHS, PHONOGRAPH RECORDS AND MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS FROM THE PRESENT 10 PER CENT TO 25 PER CENT FOR AN ESTIMATED $55,000,000 ADDITIONAL REVENUE.

THE TAX WRITERS VOTED SPECIFICALLY NOT TO TAX SEWING MACHINES, WASHING MACHINES AND GARBAGE DISPOSAL UNITS. THE EXISTING 10 PER CENT TAX ON REFRIGERATORS, QUICK FREEZERS AND AIR CONDITIONING UNITS WAS LEFT UNCHANGED.

REVISION OF THE BASE FOR TAXATION OF SPORTING EQUIPMENT LEFT A PROSPECTIVE $1,000,000 LOSS IN THAT CATEGORY, EVEN THOUGH THE RATE WAS RAISED FROM 10 TO 15 PER CENT. AN EFFORT WAS MADE TO LIFT TAXATION FROM SPORTING GOODS PRINCIPALLY USED BY SCHOOLS. THUS FOOTBALLS, GYMNASIUM EQUIPMENT AND VOLLEY VALLEY WOULD NOT BE TAXED, BUT EQUIPMENT FOR SUCH POPULAR SPORTS AS GOLF, TENNIS, BASEBALL AND FISHING WOULD BE.

IN OTHER DECISIONS, THE COMMITTEE VOTED TO:

EXTEND 20 PER CENT RETAIL JEWELRY TAX TO INCLUDE CIGARETTE LIGHTERS, FOUNTAIN PENS, BALL POINT PENS AND MECHANICAL PENCILS; $38,000,000 INCREASE.

EXEMPT BABY OIL, BABY POWDER AND BABY LOTION FROM THE 20 PER CENT RETAIL TAX ON TOILET PREPARATIONS; $3,000,000 LOSS. EXEMPT TOILET PREPARATIONS PURCHASED BY BARBER SHOPS AND BEAUTY PARLORS FOR USE IN THOSE ESTABLISHMENTS; LOSS $4,000,000.

EXTEND THE 3 PER CENT TAX ON TRANSPORTATION OF PROPERTY TO INCLUDE THE TRANSPORTATION OF OIL BY BARGE OR TANKER WHERE THE OIL IS OWNED BY THE CARRIER.

LOWER THE 25 PER CENT MANUFACTURERS TAX ON PHOTOGRAPHIC APPARATUS TO 20 PER CENT; INCREASE THE 15 PER CENT TAX ON PHOTOGRAPHIC FILM TO 20 PER CENT; NET INCREASE $9,000,000.

THE COMMITTEE REJECTED A PROPOSAL TO APPLY A 20 PER CENT TAX TO FURNITURE AND FLOOR COVERINGS. IT ALSO TURNED DOWN A PROPOSAL TO MAKE THE TAX ON TRANSPORTATION OF OIL BY PIPE LINE ALSO APPLY TO THE TRANSPORTATION OF GAS BY PIPE LINE, AND ANOTHER TO EXTEND THE 3 1/3 PER CENT TAX ON ELECTRICAL ENERGY TO INCLUDE SALES BY GOVERNMENT OWNED PLANTS.

WHEN THE COMMITTEE RECESSED FOR LUNCH, TWO MEMBERS SAID THE GASOLINE TAX HAD BEEN RAISED FROM 1 1/2 CENTS A GALLON TO 2 CENTS. THE TREASURY HAD ASKED FOR A THREE-CENT TAX. HOWEVER, WHEN THE DAY'S WORK WAS OVER AFTER MORE THAN 60 VOTES, THERE WAS AN OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT THAT THE GASOLINE TAX RATE HAD BEEN LEFT UNCHANGED, BUT THE BASE BROADENED TO TAKE IN DIESEL FUEL USED ON THE HIGHWAYS.

THESE ARE THE SPORTING GOODS ITEMS THAT WOULD BE SUBJECT TO THE 15 PER CENT TAX: BASEBALLS AND OTHER BASEBALL EQUIPMENT; BADMINTON EQUIPMENT; BILLARD AND POOL TABLES, BALLS AND CUES; BOWLING BALLS AND PINS; CLAY PIGEONS; CROQUET BALLS AND MALLETS; CURLING STONES, LAWN AND DECK TENNIS EQUIPMENT; GOLF CLUBS AND EQUIPMENT; POLO EQUIPMENT; SKIS AND SKI POLES; SNOWSHOES; SQUASH EQUIPMENT; TRAPS FOR THROWING CLAY PIGEONS;

EXEMPT FROM FUTURE TAXES WOULD BE BASKETBALLS, BOXING GLOVES AND BOXING EQUIPMENT; CRICKET BALLS AND BATS; FENCING EQUIPMENT; FOOTBALLS AND FOOTBALL EQUIPMENT; GYMNASIUM EQUIPMENT AND APPARATUS; HOCKEY, LACROSSE AND INDOOR BASEBALL EQUIPMENT; MASS BALLS, PUSH BALLS, SKATES, SLEDS AND TOBOGGANS, SOCCER BALLS, SOFT BALLS, TRACK HURDLES, VAULTING EQUIPMENT, VOLLEY BALLS, WATER POLO EQUIPMENT AND WRESTLING HEAD HARNESS.

(400) DEFENSE-HEADQUARTERS

"ALTERNATE LOCATIONS HAVE BEEN SELECTED," IT SAID.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID ALL GOVERNMENT AGENCIES ARE DEVELOPING EMER-GENCY PLANS TO CARRY ON IN CASE OF HOSTILE ATTACK UPON WASHINGTON.

PENTAGON EMPLOYES WERE TOLD TO REPORT AT ANY OF 20 EMERGENCY ASSEMBLY STATIONS IN AND NEAR WASHINGTON, IF AN ATTACK OF ANY KIND MAKES THEIR PRESENT OFFICES UNUSABLE.
THE ANNOUNCEMENT FROM SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL'S OFFICE SAID EMERGENCY INSTRUCTIONS WERE ISSUED TO ALL PERSONNEL IN THE PENTAGON AND OTHER DEFENSE DEPARTMENT OFFICES. THESE ARE DESIGNED TO KEEP THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT FUNCTIONING WITH THE LEAST POSSIBLE INTERRUPTION.
THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID THE LOCATION OF THE EMERGENCY HEADQUARTERS WILL REMAIN A SECRET UNLESS CIRCUMSTANCES SHOULD MAKE IT DESIRABLE TO ANNOUNCE IT.
HOWEVER, AS EARLY AS LAST YEAR AND ON OTHER OCCASIONS SINCE REPORTS HAVE BEEN PUBLISHED THAT A "SECOND PENTAGON" --AN ALTERNATE NATIONAL COMMAND POST---WOULD BE ESTABLISHED AT CAMP RITCHIE IN WESTERN MARYLAND.
ANY SECRET HEADQUARTERS INSTALLATIONS PRESUMABLY WOULD INCLUDE LIVING QUARTERS FOR SOME EMPLOYES, POSSIBLY UNDERGROUND OR SHIELDED BY HEAVY WALLS. ALSO THEY WOULD INCLUDE SUCH THINGS AS COMMUNICATION FACILITIES WHICH REQUIRE QUANTITIES OF COMPLICATED EQUIPMENT.
THERE ARE ABOUT 140,000 DEFENSE DEPARTMENT EMPLOYES IN THE WASHINGTON AREA NOW.
TODAY'S ANNOUNCEMENT SAID THE FIRST DUTY OF ALL DEFENSE DEPARTMENT EMPLOYES WILL BE TO "HELP SAVE LIVES BY RENDERING AID TO OTHERS IN EVERY WAY POSSIBLE."
"AS SOON AS POSSIBLE TRY TO REPORT TO YOUR REGULAR POST OF DUTY," IT CONTINUED. A MEMORANDUM TO EMPLOYEES, SIGNED BY MARSHALL, SAID:

A26WX
"IN THE EVENT OF AN ATTACK WHICH MIGHT DESTROY OUR FACILITIES FOR OPERATING AT OUR PRESENT HEADQUARTERS, WE MUST BE PREPARED TO OPERATE AT LOCATIONS REMOVED FROM WASHINGTON. SUCH ALTERNATE LOCATIONS HAVE BEEN SELECTED. FOR A SHORT PERIOD FOLLOWING AN ATTACK, ONLY THE MOST VITAL FUNCTIONS WOULD BE PERFORMED AT SUCH ALTERNATE LOCATIONS. IT IS HOWEVER ESSENTIAL THAT OUR TOTAL FUNCTIONS BE RECONSTITUTED AS SOON AS POSSIBLE."
MARSHALL ADDED THAT STEPS SIMILAR TO THE ONES HE OUTLINED ARE BEING TAKEN IN "MANY OTHER PLACES IN THE U.S. AND REPRESENT PRECAUTIONARY MEASURES DESIRABLE IN VIEW OF THE CONTINUED TENSION IN THE WORLD SITUATION."

WASHINGTON,MAY 14-(AP)-BRIG.GEN.JOHN H.MICHAELIS SAID TODAY THE EIGHTH ARMY IN KOREA HAS ACQUIRED THE PROFESSIONAL'S APPROACH TO THE JOB OF KILLING CHINESE REDS.
MICHAELIS, FORMER COMMANDER OF THE HARD HITTING WOLF HOUND DIVISION, ILLUSTRATED HIS POINT:
"THE MEN NOW WILL FIGHT BACK AND FORTH AGAINST THE ENEMY JUST BECAUSE HEADQUARTERS HAS ORDERED IT."
HE SAID AT A PENTAGON NEWS CONFERENCE THE TROOPS NO LONGER ARE BLOWING UP EVERY BRIDGE AND ROAD THEY PASS AS THEY DRAW BACK FROM THE ENEMY.
"THEY KNOW THEY WILL BE BACK UP THE ROAD IN A FEW WEEKS SO THEY DON'T BLOW EVERYTHING UP," HE EXPLAINED.
HE SAID THE AMERICANS INFLICT SO MANY MORE CASUALTIES ON THE ENEMY THAN U.S. FORCES SUFFER THAT MORALE IS HIGH.
MICHAELIS SAID SOME CHINESE SOLDIERS THAT ARE DEFINITELY SECOND RATE HAVE APPEARED IN KOREA.
RECENTLY HE SAID THAT AMONG 33 CHINESE WHO SURRENDERED THERE WERE ONE HUNCHBACK AND SEVERAL MEN OVER 55 YEARS OLD.
"THEY APPEARED TO BE SHOCK TROOPS JUST THROWN IN TO BE WASTED," HE ADDED.
MICHAELIS CAUTIONED THAT HIS COMMENTS ARE BASED UPON HIS OWN PERSONAL EXPERIENCE AND CANNOT BE APPLIED TO THE ENTIRE KOREAN SITUATION.
MICHAELIS ARRIVED IN THE UNITED STATES LAST WEEK FROM KOREA. HE IS ENROUTE TO JOIN THE STAFF OF GENERAL DWIGHT EISENHOWER IN EUROPE.

NIGHT LEAD CONTROLS
BY ROGER D.GREENE
WASHINGTON,MAY 14-(AP)-CHAIRMAN GEORGE W.TAYLOR OF THE WAGE STABILIZATION BOARD TOLD CONGRESS TODAY WAGE CONTROLS SHOULD BE FLEXIBLE ENOUGH TO AVOID ANY SLOW-DOWN IN THE NATION'S HUGE DEFENSE PRODUCTION PROGRAM.
HINTING AT THE POSSIBILITY OF NEW BREAKS IN THE GOVERNMENT'S CEILINGS ON WAGES, TAYLOR SAID IT IS UP TO THE 18-MAN WAGE BOARD TO DECIDE WHETHER A GENERAL POLICY CHANGE IS DUE.
THE PRESENT POLICY IMPOSES A 10 PER CENT CEILING ON WAGE INCREASES ABOVE THE LEVELS OF JANUARY, 1950.
AS FAR AS HIS JOB IS CONCERNED, TAYLOR SAID, THE IMPORTANT THING IS TO HOLD WAGES IN CHECK WITHOUT HAMPERING THE DEFENSE EFFORT.
THE WAGE BOARD CHIEF GAVE HIS VIEWS AS PART OF A CONCERTED ADMINISTRATION DRIVE TO GAIN CONGRESSIONAL APPROVAL FOR EXTENDING AND STRENGTHENING THE 1950 DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT--THE BACKBONE OF THE FEDERAL CONTROLS PROGRAM--FOR TWO YEARS.
UNLESS CONGRESS VOTES ON EXTENSION, THE ACT EXPIRES JUNE 30.
GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS LAID THEIR ARGUMENTS BEFORE THE BANKING COMMITTEES OF BOTH THE SENATE AND HOUSE.
SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL INFORMED THE SENATE COMMITTEE THAT THE FULL IMPACT OF DEFENSE PRODUCTION ON THE NATION'S ECONOMY IS YET TO COME. HE SAID THERE MAY BE PRODUCTION EMERGENCIES AND SHORTAGES BEFORE THE GOAL IS REACHED.
MARSHALL WROTE THE COMMITTEE THAT DEFENSE MOBILIZATION EXPENDITURES FOR THE NEXT FISCAL YEAR, STARTING JULY 1, WILL SOAR TO APPROXIMATELY $39,000,000,000 COMPARED TO $19,000,000,000 FOR THE CURRENT YEAR.
HE ESTIMATED THAT BETWEEN 18 AND 20 PER CENT OF THE NATIONAL OUTPUT WILL GO INTO OVER-ALL DEFENSE PRODUCTION IN 1952.
CHAIRMAN JOHN D.SMALL OF THE MUNITIONS BOARD TOLD THE SENATORS THAT IF THE DEFENSE ACT IS ALLOWED TO DIE, "IT WOULD BE FATAL TO OUR WHOLE PROGRAM OF A MILITARY BUILDUP."
SMALL SAID THE LAW MUST BE EXTENDED TO ACHIEVE THE DEFENSE PRODUCTION GOALS OF THE NEXT TWO YEARS.
"THE NEXT TWO YEARS WILL BE A CRUCIAL TIME FOR OUR MOBILIZATION EFFORT," HE SAID.
ON THE OTHER SIDE OF CAPITOL HILL, CHAIRMAN TAYLOR OF THE WAGE BOARD TESTIFIED BEFORE THE HOUSE BANKING COMMITTEE AND EMPHASIZED THE NEED FOR FLEXIBILITY IN WAGE CONTROLS.
TAYLOR TOLD NEWSMEN LATER HIS BOARD IS STUDYING WAGE DISPUTES INVOLVING LARGE SECTIONS OF THE MEAT PACKING, TEXTILE, RAILROAD, AND SHIP BUILDING INDUSTRIES.
SOME OF THESE CALL FOR A SIXTH ROUND OF POST-WAR INCREASES, AND, IF ALLOWED, MIGHT LEAD TO A GENERAL PATTERN OF NEW WAGE BOOSTS.
ONE OF THE BOARD'S MAJOR DECISIONS, TAYLOR INDICATED, WILL BE WHETHER COST-OF-LIVING INCREASES SINCE LAST JANUARY'S WAGE FREEZE WOULD JUSTIFY RAISING THE LID FOR NEW WAGE BOOSTS.

TIN PRICES

BY JOSEPH C.GOODWIN

WASHINGTON, MAY 14-(AP)-TIN PRODUCERS -- PARTICULARLY IN BRITISH MALAYA -- HAVE BEEN ACCUSED BY SENATOR LYNDON JOHNSON (D-TEX) OF TRYING "TO SOAK" THE UNITED STATES WITH EXORBITANT PRICES.

AND REP. COX (D-GA) CHARGES THAT INDIA IS TRYING TO "BLACKMAIL" CONGRESS INTO A FREE GIFT OF 2,000,000 TONS OF GRAIN BY PLAYING RUSSIA AGAINST THE UNITED STATES.

THE TWO BITTER ATTACKS, MADE SEPARATELY SATURDAY, STEMMED FROM THE FREE WORLD'S MILITARY AND POLITICAL DUELS WITH COMMUNISM.

"WE FEEL THAT THE TIN PRODUCERS HAVE BEEN TAKING ADVANTAGE OF A DESPERATE WORLD SITUATION," JOHNSON WROTE AN OFFICIAL OF AN AMERICAN TIN COMPANY OPERATING IN MALAYA.

COX TOLD A REPORTER THAT RUSSIA IS "THE DOMINATING INFLUENCE IN INDIA RIGHT NOW," AND ADDED:

"INDIA IS USING THIS SITUATION TO BLACKMAIL US INTO GIVING THEM WHEAT. IF WE DON'T GIVE IT TO THEM, THEY SAY THEY WILL GET IT FROM RUSSIA. WE ARE SIMPLY FOLLOWING THE OLD POLICY OF APPEASING EVERYTHING THAT'S RUSSIAN."

COX'S CHARGE WAS THE FIRST ROUND TO BE FIRED IN WHAT IS EXPECTED TO BE A DING-DONG FOREIGN POLICY DEBATE TOMORROW WHEN THE $190,000,000 (M) INDIA GRAIN BILL COMES TO THE HOUSE FLOOR.

THIS COUNTRY STOPPED BUYING TIN -- A STRATEGIC WAR METAL -- AFTER A SENATE PREPAREDNESS SUBCOMMITTEE RECOMMENDED THE ACTION MARCH 4 UNTIL SUPPLIERS QUIT "GOUGING." JOHNSON HEADS THE COMMITTEE.

HE REVIVED THE ISSUE SATURDAY BY RELEASING AN EXCHANGE OF LETTERS BETWEEN HIM AND F.S.MILLER, OF NEW YORK, VICE PRESIDENT OF THE PACIFIC TIN CONSOLIDATED CORPORATION.

MILLER SAID HE HAD DISCUSSED THE COMMITTEE REPORT WITH "LEADING ENGLISH AND CHINESE TIN PRODUCERS FROM MALAYA" AND HAD FOUND NO PROOF OF CHARGES THERE HAD BEEN RESTRICTION OF PRODUCTION, BOOSTING OF PRICES, AND FAILURE TO COOPERATE IN THE COMMON DEFENSE AGAINST COMMUNISM.

HE ALSO QUOTED AN EDITORIAL FROM "THE STRAITS TIMES OF SINGAPORE" WHICH SAID IN PART:

"WHAT MALAYA WANTS, BOTH FOR RUBBER AND TIN, IS A REASONABLE PROSPECT OF A PROSPEROUS STABILIZED FUTURE. UNTIL THERE IS SOME SAFEGUARD AGAINST A COLLAPSE OF PRICES WHEN STOCKPILING ENDS, MALAYA OWES AMERICA NOTHING."

IN ANSWER TO THIS, JOHNSON WROTE THAT "IT WAS THE BLOOD AND TREASURE OF AMERICA THAT PLAYED THE DECISIVE ROLE IN SETTING MALAYA FREE (FROM JAPANESE CONQUEST IN WORLD WAR II) AND, INCIDENTALLY, RECOVERED THE TIN MINES FOR THEIR OWNERS."

B2WX HKUP

TIN PRICES AT SINGAPORE DROPPED FROM $1.75 A POUND TO $1.33 SOON AFTER THE U.S. QUIT BUYING. THE SENATE COMMITTEE HAD REPORTED THAT PRICES SOARED MORE THAN 150 PER CENT IN THE FIRST MONTHS OF THE KOREAN WAR.

MILLER BLAMED THE PRICE RISE ON "INEPT HANDLING" OF THE U.S. STOCKPILING PROGRAM. HE SAID MALAYAN TIN MINES ARE NOW PRODUCING AT THE MAXIMUM RATE UNDER VERY DIFFICULT CIRCUMSTANCES, INCLUDING COMMUNIST GERRILLA ATTACKS AND A SHORTAGE OF CERTAIN TYPES OF PERSONNEL.

JOHNSON SAID THIS COUNTRY IS WILLING TO RECOGNIZE ANY SPECIAL PROBLEMS OF TIN PRODUCERS AND NEGOTIATE ON A REASONABLE BASIS.

BUT IF TIN PRODUCERS "WISH TO REJECT SUCH AN APPROACH AND TO SOAK US WHAT THE TRAFFIC WILL BEAR, THE UNITED STATES MUST BE FREE TO ACT IN WHATEVER MANNER WILL PROTECT ITS OWN BEST INTERESTS," HE SAID.

NIGHT LEAD SUPREME COURT

BY CHARLES F.BARRETT

WASHINGTON,MAY 14-(AP)-JOHN MARAGON, ONE TIME KANSAS CITY SHOE-SHINE BOY WHO CLIMBED TO HIGH WHITE HOUSE CIRCLES, WAS ALL BUT DOOMED TO JAIL TODAY BY AN EIGHT-TO-NOTHING SUPREME COURT DECISION.

THE HIGH COURT REFUSED TO UPSET MARAGON'S CONVICTION FOR LYING IN 1949 TO A SENATE SUBCOMMITTEE INVESTIGATING "FIVE PERCENTERS"--MEN WHO SOUGHT GOVERNMENT CONTRACTS FOR A COMMISSION.

THE 59-YEAR-OLD MARAGON, WHO WORKED FOR A TIME AS A STATE DEPARTMENT EMPLOYE, FACES A SENTENCE OF EIGHT MONTHS TO TWO YEARS. PRESUMABLY ONLY A PRESIDENTIAL PARDON OR PAROLE COULD SPARE HIM FROM PRISON.

IN ANOTHER CASE THE COURT RULED THAT TOP OFFICERS OF THE CIO AND AFL MUST SIGN NON-COMMUNIST AFFIDAVITS UNDER THE TAFT-HARTLEY ACT, IF THEIR UNIONS ARE GOING TO COME UNDER THE NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD (NLRB).

THE NLRB HAD SAID ONLY OFFICERS OF SEPARATE UNIONS HAVE TO SIGN--NOT THE BIG LABOR FEDERATION OFFICIALS. AFL AND CIO OFFICIALS HAVE SIGNED ANYHOW, SINCE THE COURT CASE STARTED.

IN STILL ANOTHER CASE, THE COURT REFUSED FOR A SECOND TIME TO REVIEW THE CASES OF SEVEN NAZIS SENTENCED TO BE HANGED FOR WORLD WAR II ATROCITIES.

A JURY A LITTLE OVER ONE YEAR AGO FOUND MARAGON GUILTY OF PERJURY WHEN HE TOLD INVESTIGATING SENATORS:

1. HE HAD NO OTHER EMPLOYMENT WHEN THE STATE DEPARTMENT HIRED HIM AS A MEMBER OF A MISSION TO GREECE IN 1946. THE GOVERNMENT CHARGED HE WAS ALSO GETTING $1,000 A MONTH FROM A PERFUME COMPANY.

2. HIS ONLY BANK ACCOUNT IN 1945-46 WAS ONE HERE. THE PROSECUTORS SAID HE DEPOSITED $26,000 IN 1945 AT A BANK IN SAN ANTONIO,TEX.

MARAGON WAS A KEY WITNESS IN THE SENSATIONAL SENATE "INFLUENCE" INVESTIGATION IN THE SUMMER OF 1949. HE IS THE ONLY FIGURE IN THE PROBE TO BE CONVICTED OF A CRIME. SENATOR HOEY (D-NC) WAS CHAIRMAN OF THE SUBCOMMITTEE.

AT ONE TIME MARAGON HAD FREE AND EASY ACCESS TO THE WHITE HOUSE AS A FRIEND OF MAJ.GEN.HARRY VAUGHAN, PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S MILITARY AIDE, BUT MARAGON DENIED HE EVER SOLD POLITICAL INFLUENCE FOR A FEE.

A6WX

TODAY'S DECISION, REFUSING HIM A HEARING BEFORE THE SUPREME COURT, WAS ANNOUNCED IN A BRIEF ORDER WITH NO DISCUSSION.

IN THE LABOR CASE, THE HIGHLAND PARK MANUFACTURING CO., OF ROCK HILL, S.C., SOUGHT TO KNOCK OUT AN NLRB ORDER ISSUED ON A COMPLAINT OF THE TEXTILE WORKERS UNION OF AMERICA (CIO). SINCE CIO OFFICERS AT THE TIME THE ORDER WAS ISSUED HADN'T SIGNED NON-COMMUNIST AFFIDAVITS, THE COMPANY SAID THAT UNDER THE TAFT-HARTLEY ACT THE UNION WAS INELIGIBLE TO COME BEFORE THE NLRB.

THE COURT SUSTAINED THAT VIEW BY A SIX-TWO VOTE. X.14

THE MAJORITY SAID THE LANGUAGE OF THE ACT REQUIRES THE OATHS FROM OFFICIALS OF ANY "NATIONAL OR INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATION," AND HELD THAT THIS PHRASE CLEARLY INCLUDES THE AFL AND CIO. JUSTICES DOUGLAS AND FRANKFURTER, DISSENTING, SAID THE NLRB WAS THE BEST JUDGE OF THE MEANING AND THE COURT SHOULD NOT UPSET THE DECISION OF THAT AGENCY. JUSTICE BLACK TOOK NO PART IN THIS CASE.

THE COURT, IN ANOTHER ORDER SIMILAR TO THAT IN THE MARAGON ECISION, REFUSED TO REVIEW A SECOND CASE INVOLVING GOVERNMENT CONRACTS.

MELDON MITCHELL OF NEW YORK CITY SOUGHT TO COLLECT A FEE ON HIS CLAIM

HAT HE HELPED THE FLINTKOTE CO., OBTAIN GOVERNMENT CONTRACTS FOR CAMOUFLAGE PAINT.

A JURY AWARDED MITCHELL $19,832 BUT THE FEDERAL CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS IN NEW YORK RULED AGAINST HIM. COMPANY ATTORNEYS ARGUED THAT CHARGING OR PAYING FEES FOR GOVERNMENT INFLUENCE IS CLEARLY AGAINST PUBLIC POLICY UNDER PREVIOUS COURT DECISIONS.

IN OTHER DECISIONS TODAY THE COURT:

1--RULED THAT STATES HAVE REGULATORY POWERS OVER AN OUT OF STATE UTILITY SEEKING TO SELL DIRECTLY TO LOCAL CONSUMERS. SPECIFICALLY, THE PANHANDLE EASTERN PIPE LINE CO. MUST GET APPROVAL OF THE MICHIGAN PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION BEFORE IT SELLS NATURAL GAS TO THE FORD PLANT AT DEARBORN, MICH. JUSTICE FRANKFURTER, WRITING A DISSENT IN WHICH JUSTICE DOUGLAS JOINED, SAID THE SEVEN-TWO DECISION STRIKES AT FREE TRADE BETWEEN THE STATES.

2--DISMISSED, AT THE COMPANY'S OWN REQUEST, AN APPEAL FILED BY THE PIONEER NEWS SERVICE, INC. OF ST.LOUIS, AGAINST AN ORDER SHUTTING OFF ITS TELEPHONE SERVICE. THE MISSOURI PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION ISSUED THE ORDER, CHARGING THE SERVICE WAS USED IN HORSERACE BETTING. PIONEER GAVE NO REASON FOR REQUESTING DISMISSAL OF ITS APPEAL.

SCOTUS - NAZIS

MAY 15 19

WASHINGTON,MAY 14-(AP)-THE SUPREME COURT TODAY REFUSED FOR THE SECOND TIME TO REVIEW THE CASES OF SEVEN NAZIS SENTENCED TO HANG IN GERMANY FOR WORLD WAR 2 ATROCITIES.

THE REFUSAL REMOVES THE LAST PENDING LEGAL OBSTACLE AGAINST THE EXECUTIONS.

THE SEVEN ARE THE LAST NAZIS UNDER DEATH SENTENCES. THE GROUP INCLUDES FORMER SS (ELITE GUARD) OFFICERS AND CONCENTRATION CAMP OFFICIALS WHO WERE ACCUSED OF THE MURDER OF THOUSANDS OF CIVILIANS.

TODAY'S HIGH COURT ACTION CONSISTED OF A BRIEF ORDER NOTING THAT THE TRIBUNAL WOULD NOT CHANGE ITS 6-2 APRIL 23 DECISION WHICH REFUSED THE NAZIS A HEARING AT THAT TIME. JUSTICES BLACK AND DOUGLAS SAID THEY FAVORED A HEARING FOR THE GROUP. JUSTICE JACKSON HAS DISQUALIFIED HIMSELF FROM THE CASE. HE SERVED AS CHIEF U.S. PROSECUTOR AT THE FIRST WAR CRIMINAL TRIALS AT NUERNBERG,GERMANY.

THE PETITION ASKING RECONSIDERATION SAID A GREAT MASS OF NEWLY-DISCOVERED EVIDENCE HAD BEEN OBTAINED AND PROTESTED AGAINST "ILLEGAL DEATH SENTENCES AGAINST NATIONALS OF A FRIENDLY NATION NOW COOPERATING WITH THE UNITED STATES IN THE DEFENSE OF EUROPE AGAINST COMMUNISTIC AGGRESSION."

A147WX

THE SEVEN ORIGINALLY WERE SCHEDULED TO DIE FEBRUARY 14, AT THE U.S. PRISON AT LANDSBERG,GERMANY. THE EXECUTIONS WERE POSTPONED PENDING FINAL ACTION BY THE SUPREME COURT ON THEIR APPEAL.

THE CONDEMNED NAZIS ARE: SS GENERALS OTTO OHLENDORF AND OSWALD POHL; HANS SCHMIDT, ONETIME SS ADJUTANT AT BUCHENWALD CONCENTRATION CAMP; GEORGE SCHALLERMAIR, FORMER ROLL CALL CHIEF AT MUEHLDORF CONCENTRATION CAMP; WERNER BRAUNE, FORMER GESTAPO OFFICER; ERICH NAUMANN, FORMER SS BRIGADIER GENERAL, AND PAUL BLOBEL, FORMER SS COLONEL.

"ALL I'VE HEARD ARE UNOFFICIAL REPORTS," HE SAID. "SO FAR I HAVE NOT RECEIVED A CALL FROM ARMY HEADQUARTERS AT HEIDELBERG."

SCOTUS - LABOR

WASHINGTON,MAY 14-(AP)-THE SUPREME COURT TODAY DECIDED THE TAFT-HARTLEY ACT REQUIRES OFFICERS OF "PARENT" LABOR FEDERATIONS SUCH AS THE CIO AND AFL TO FILE NON-COMMUNIST ADDIDAVITS.

THE COURT DISAGREED WITH A RULING BY THE NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD THAT THE OATH REQUIREMENT APPLIES ONLY TO UNION GROUPS WHICH TAKE PART IN COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AND ARE EMPOWERED TO CALL STRIKES.

THE HIGH TRIBUNAL AT THE SAME TIME REJECTED AN NLRB CONTENTION THAT AN EMPLOYER HAS NO RIGHT TO A COURT FINDING AS TO WHETHER UNIONN OFFICIALS HAVE PROPERLY COMPLIED WITH THE AFFIDAVIT REQUIREMENT. THE BOARD INSISTED ITS OWN DECISION ON COMPLIANCE IS FINAL.

JUSTICE JACKSON DELIVERED THE 6-2 DECISION. JUSTICES DOUGLAS AND FRANKFURTHER WROTE DISSENTING OPINIONS. JUSTICE BLACK TOOK NO PART.

THE TAFT-HARTLEY LAW SAYS THE BOARD MAY NOT ACT ON A COMPLAINT FILED BY A LABOR ORGANIZATION UNLESS IT AND "ANY NATIONAL OR INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATION OF WHICH IT IS AN AFFILIATE OR CONSTITUENT UNIT" HAVE FILED NON-COMMUNIST OATHS.

A145WX

THE U.S. CIRCUIT COURT IN RICHMOND REFUSED TO ENFORCE A BOARD ORDER ISSUED ON A COMPLAINT BY THE CIO TEXTILE WORKERS UNION OF AMERICA. THE CIRCUIT COURT SAID THAT AT THE TIME THE BOARD ACTED THE OFFICERS OF THE CIO HAD NOT SIGNED NON-COMMUNIST OATHS. OFFICERS OF THE TEXTILE WORKERS UNION, HOWEVER, HAD SIGNED.

LATER THE CIO OFFICIALS SIGNED NON-COMMUNIST AFFIDAVITS--AS DID AFL OFFICERS.

IN OTHER ACTIONS TODAY THE HIGH TRIBUNAL:

1. REFUSED FOR A SECOND TIME TO REVIEW THE CASES OF SEVEN NAZIS SENTENCED TO HANG IN GERMANY FOR WORLD WAR II ATROCITIES. THE REFUSAL REMOVES THE LAST PENDING LEGAL OBSTACLE AGAINST THE EXECUTIONS, ORIGINALLY SET FOR LAST FEBRUARY.

2. UPHELD 7-2 THE RIGHT OF STATES TO REGULATE THE SALE OF NATURAL GAS PIPED ACROSS THEIR BORDERS IF IT IS TO BE SOLD IN COMPETITION WITH AN ESTABLISHED UTILITY. THE HIGH TRIBUNAL RULED SPECIFICALLY THAT PANHANDLE EASTERN PIPE LINE COMPANY MUST GET APPROVAL OF THE MICHIGAN PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION BEFORE IT SELLS NATURAL GAS TO THE FORD PLANT AT DEARBORN,MICH.

3. DENIED A HEARING TO JOHN F.MARAGON, ONE-TIME WHITE HOUSE INTIMATE AND PROMINENT FIGURE IN THE SENATE "FIVE PERCENTER" INVESTIGATION, SENTENCED TO EIGHT MONTHS TO TWO YEARS IN PRISON FOR LYING TO SENATORS DURING THE INQUIRY.

4. DISMISSED AN APPEAL BY THE PIONEER NEWS SERVICE,INC., OF ST. LOUIS, AGAINST AN ORDER SHUTTING OFF ITS TELEPHONE SERVICE BECAUSE IT WAS USED IN HORSE RACE BETTING. PIONEER ITSELF ASKED THAT THE APPEAL BE DISMISSED BUT GAVE NO REASON.

IT WAS NOT IMMEDIATELY CLEAR HOW FAR-REACHING TODAY'S TAFT-HARTLEY ACT DECISION MIGHT BE SINCE OFFICERS OF BOTH MAJOR LABOR ORGANIZATIONS HAVE NOW COMPLIED WITH THE OATH REQUIREMENT.

LOWER COURTS PREVIOUSLY HAD DISAGREED ON THE MEANING OF THE AFFI-

DAVIT PROVISION OF THE ACT.

THE RICHMOND COURT SAID IT REGARDED THE CIO AS "UNQUESTIONABLY A NATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATION," AS LISTED IN THE AFFIDAVIT REQUIREMENT. IT NOTED THAT ITS DECISION CONFLICTED WITH A RULING BY THE U.S. COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA BUT WAS IN LINE WITH ONE BY THE U.S. CIRCUIT COURT IN NEW ORLEANS IN A SIMILAR CASE.

THE NLRB ORDER WHICH THE RICHMOND COURT REFUSED TO ENFORCE WAS AGAINST THE HIGHLAND PARK MANUFACTURING COMPANY, OF ROCK HILL,S.C. THE ORDER CALLED ON THE FIRM TO STOP ASSERTED UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES AND TO BARGAIN WITH THE UNION.

JACKSON'S OPINION SAID THE CIO, "BEING ADMITTEDLY A LABOR UNION AND ONE OF NATION-WIDE JURISDICTION, OPERATION AND INFLUENCE, IS CERTAINLY IN THE SPEECH OF PEOPLE A NATIONAL UNION, WHATEVER ITS INTERNAL COMPOSITION."

AS TO THE LABOR BOARD'S CONTENTION THAT AN EMPLOYER HAD NO RIGHT TO BRING SUCH A CASE AS THIS IN FEDERAL COURT, JACKSON COMMENTED:

"WE THINK THE CONTENTION IS WITHOUT MERIT AND THAT AN ISSUE OF LAW OF THIS KIND, WHICH GOES TO THE HEART OF THE VAIDITY OF THE PROCEEDINGS ON WHICH THE ORDER IS BASED, IS OPEN TO INQUIRY BY THE COURTS WHEN THEY ARE ASKED TO LEND THEIR ENFORCEMENT POWERS TO AN ADMINISTRATIVE TRIBUNAL."

FRANKFURTER'S DISSENTING OPINION SAID THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCY'S DETERMINATION IN THIS CASE SHOULD BE FINAL.

DOUGLAS' DISSENT SAID THAT IN SITUATIONS NO MORE DIFFICULT THAN THE ONE IN TODAY'S CASE, "WE HAVE TAKEN THE ADMINISTRATIVE CONSTRUCTION OF STATUTORY WORDS." HE ADDED THAT UNTIL TODAY:

"THE TEST HAS BEEN NOT WHETHER THE CONSTRUCTION WOULD BE OUR OWN IF WE SAT AS THE BOARD, BUT WHETHER IT HAD A REASONABLE BASIS IN CUSTOM, PRACTICE, OR LEGISLATIVE HISTORY."

EUROPEAN PRODUCTION

BY JOHN SCALI

(ADVANCE)-WASHINGTON,MAY 14-(AP)-THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION (ECA) TODAY REPORTED NEW PRODUCTION RECORDS IN WESTERN EUROPE AND CALLED FOR EVEN GREATER OUTPUT TO MEET DEFENSE GOALS.

INDUSTRIAL OUTPUT IN THE MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES HAS REACHED AN ALL-TIME PEAK, 38 PER CENT HIGHER THAN IN 1938, ECA SAID IN A REPORT TO CONGRESS.

THE REPORT, COVERING THE LAST THREE MONTHS OF 1950, SAID AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTION ALSO ESTABLISHED A NEW RECORD, 10 PER CENT HIGHER THAN PRE-WAR LEVELS.

BUT, THE AGENCY CAUTIONED:

"WESTERN EUROPE'S PRODUCTION MUST BE FURTHER EXPANDED IF DEFENSE PROGRAMS ARE TO BE ACCOMPLISHED WITHOUT MATERIALLY REDUCING LIVING STANDARDS."

ECA CONCEDED THAT GREATER INDUSTRIAL AND AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTION WILL BE DIFFICULT IN COMING MONTHS BECAUSE OF RISING PRICES AND "CRITICAL SHORTAGES OF BASIC RAW MATERIALS."

BUT, IT SAID, IT IS IMPERATIVE FOR OUTPUT TO INCREASE FURTHER IF THE WESTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS ARE TO "MAKE A CONTRIBUTION TO DEFENSE PRODUCTION OF THE MAGNITUDE THAT IS NEEDED."

SINCE THE MARSHALL PLAN WAS STARTED IN APRIL OF 1948, A TOTAL OF $12,300,000,000 HAS BEEN ALLOCATED TO 16 EUROPEAN NATIONS AND THE TERRITORY OF TRIESTE. IN DETAILING EUROPE'S ECONOMIC COMEBACK IN THE LAST QUARTER OF 1950: ECA LISTED THESE ACHIEVEMENTS:

GOLD AND DOLLAR HOLDINGS--UP $500,000,000, BOOSTING THE TOTAL GAIN SINCE CURRENCY DEVALUATIONS IN SEPTEMBER 1949 TO $2,400,000,000.

INTRA-EUROPEAN TRADE--34 PER CENT HIGHER THAN THE SAME QUARTER OF 1949--"AN EXTRAORDINARY RISE."

FOREIGN TRADE--NOW AVERAGING 157 PER CENT OF THE 1938 LEVEL WHEREAS IMPORTS FROM THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA HAVE DROPPED FROM AN AVERAGE OF $500,000,000 MONTHLY TO $300,000,000.

STEEL PRODUCTION--CLIMBED TO 13,600,000 METRIC TONS IN THE QUARTER--"THE HIGHEST VOLUME ON RECORD." THIS WAS 18 PER CENT HIGHER THAN A COMPARABLE 1949 PERIOD.

TEXTILE PRODUCTION--A NEW POSTWAR HIGH, 35 PER CENT ABOVE 1949.

MOTOR VEHICLE OUTPUT--A NEW POSTWAR PEAK, AVERAGING NEARLY 150,000 VEHICLES MONTHLY. THIS RANKS 80 PER CENT HIGHER THAN THE PREWAR FIGURE.

SHIPBUILDING--TONNAGE DURING THE 1950 YEAR TOTALED MORE THAN 2,400,000, A THIRD MORE THAN 1938.

HOWEVER, ECA WARNED THE "RATE OF IMPROVEMENT IS SLOWING DOWN," AND LIVING STANDARDS ARE STILL "DANGEROUSLY LOW" FOR WORKERS IN FRANCE, ITALY, WESTERN GERMANY, AUSTRIA AND GREECE.

DECLARING THAT WESTERN EUROPEAN DEFENSE BUDGEETS FOR THE 1951 FISCAL YEAR, ARE EXPECTED TO BE DOUBLED THAT OF 1949, ECA ADDED:

"FOOD REQUIREMENTS WILL INCREASE AS THE REARMAMENT PROGRAM DEVELOPS. CONSUMPTION PER CAPITA IN THE ARMED FORCES IS GENERALLY LARGER THAN AMONG CIVILIANS AND LARGER STOCKS FOR THIS PURPOSE ARE NECESSARY.

A66WX

"UNDER THESE CIRCUMSTANCES, FOOD SUPPLIES MUST BE INCREASED OR THE RESULTING SHORTAGES AND INFLATED PRICES MAY INTERFERE SERIOUSLY WITH THE REARMAMENT PROGRAM."

WITHOUT NAMING ANY SPECIFIC COUNTRY, ECA CALLED FOR "CONSIDERABLE CHANGES IN GOVERNMENT POLICY AND IN LONG-STANDING HABITS OF THOUGHT" IN ORDER TO SPUR BIGGER FARM YIELDS."

MCCARTHY-

WASHINGTON,MAY 14-(AP)-SENATOR MCCARTHY (R-WIS) SAID TODAY HE HAS NOT YET DECIDED WHETHER TO MAKE PUBLIC A LIST WHICH HE SAYS CONTAINS THE NAMES OF THOSE WHO CONTRIBUTED THE TRIAL DEFENSE FUND OF ALGER HISS.

THE SENATOR ANNOUNCED MORE THAN A MONTH AGO HE HAD A LIST OF THE CONTRIBUTORS, AND THAT THE LIST CONTAINED THE NAMES OF GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS--SOME ELECTED AND SOME APPOINTED--AND OTHERS.

HISS, A FORMER STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL, IS SERVING A FIVE YEAR PRISON SENTENCE AFTER BEING CONVICTED OF PERJURY FOR DENYING THAT HE HANDED OFFICIAL SECRETS TO A COURIER FOR RUSSIAN SPIES.

MCCARTHY SAID HE IS COMPILING SEPARATE LISTINGS OF PERSONS WHO CONTRIBUTED TO THE DEFENSE FUND FOR HISS' FIRST TRIAL, IN WHICH THE JURY DISAGREED, AND OF THOSE WHO HELPED TO FINANCE THE SECOND TRIAL, IN WHICH HISS WAS CONVICTED.

"THOSE WHO CONTRIBUTED TO THE SECOND FUND DID SO WITH THE GUILTY KNOWLEDGE OF THE EVIDENCE HEARD AGAINST HIM IN HIS FIRST TRIAL," MCCARTHY SAID, "BUT IF I MAKE PUBLIC ANY OF THE NAMES I WILL MAKE PUBLIC THE NAMES OF ALL CONTRIBUTORS."

THE SENATOR SAID HE ALREADY HAS MADE SPEECHES NAMING SOME OF THE PERSONS WHO CONTRIBUTED BUT WILL KEEP SECRET FOR THE TIME BEING THE OTHER NAMES.

WASHINGTON, MAY 14-(AP)-REP. LAWRENCE H.SMITH (R-WIS) TODAY CALLED UPON CONGRESS TO REPUDIATE "PRIVATE AGREEMENTS" MADE AT YALTA AND POTSDAM AND HE SAID HE WAS INTRODUCING A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION TO CARRY OUT HIS PROPOSAL.

"THE FREE WORLD IS PAYING A STAGGERING PRICE FOR THE PRIVATE AGREEMENTS MADE BETWEEN STALIN, ROOSEVELT AND CHURCHILL AT YALTA AND CONFIRMED AND CONCLUDED BY TRUMAN, STALIN AND ATTLEE AT POTSDAM," SMITH SAID IN A SPEECH PREPARED FOR DELIVERY IN THE HOUSE. HE ADDED:

"THE UNDERSTANDINGS REACHED AT THOSE CONFERENCES BUT NEVER PRESENTED TO THE CONGRESS FOR APPROVAL, HAVE PLUNGED THE FREE WORLD INTO A STATE OF CONFUSION AND DESPAIR.

"THE ARRANGEMENTS CLAIMED PEACE AS THE OBJECTIVE AND IN THIS THEY HAVE UTTERLY FAILED, AS WE PREPARE FOR ANOTHER WAR.

"THE BASIS FOR A JUST AND LASTING PEACE RESTS ON HIGH MORAL GROUNDS. AT YALTA AND POTSDAM MORAL PRINCIPLES GAVE WAY TO EXPEDIENCY, WISHFUL THINKING AND POLITICAL CHICANERY."

SMITH CHARGED THAT THE CHIEFS OF STATE MEETING AT YALTA AGREED TO DISARM GERMANY AND JAPAN "AND THEREBY REMOVED ALL EFFECTIVE BARRIERS THAT EXISTED BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE FREE WORLD."

HE CONTENDED ALSO THAT THEY AGREED TO THE PARTITION OF POLAND IN THE ABSENCE OF ANY POLISH REPRESENTATIVE; "BETRAYED" CHINA, AND "INDUCED" STALIN TO ENTER THE WAR AGAINST JAPAN" UPON THE PROMISES OF ROOSEVELT AND CHURCHILL THAT COMMUNIST RUSSIA SHOULD GET THE KURILE ISLANDS, SOUTH SAKHALIN, OUTER MONGOLIA AND A PREFERRED POSITION IN MANCHURIA, PORT ARTHUR AND SPECIAL POSITION IN DAIREN."

WASHINGTON, MAY 14-(AP)-CHARLES LAFOLLETTE, CHAIRMAN OF A PANEL WHICH WILL RULE IF THE COMMUNIST PARTY MUST REGISTER AND LIST ITS MEMBERS, DESCRIBED TESTIMONY BY A GOVERNMENT WITNESS TODAY AS "VERY, VERY UNPLEASANT."

THE WITNESS WAS BENJAMIN GITLOW, ONE-TIME SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY.

HE TESTIFIED HE HAD DISCUSSED "CONDUCT" OF PANEL MEMBERS WITH A SENATE COMMITTEE INVESTIGATOR.

THE MATTER CAME UP WHILE GITLOW WAS BEING CROSS-EXAMINED BY FORMER REP.VITO MARCANTONIO, ONE OF THE ATTORNEYS REPRESENTING THE COMMUNIST PARTY IN THE PROCEEDING BEFORE THE SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES CONTROL BOARD.

MARCANTONIO ASKED GITLOW WHETHER HE HAD HAD ANY DISCUSSIONS WITH BENJAMIN MANDEL, CHIEF INVESTIGATOR FOR THE ANTI-SUBVERSIVE SUBCOMMITTEE OF THE SENATE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE. GITLOW SAID HE HAD.

LAFOLLETTE ASKED GITLOW WHETHER HE DISCUSSED MEMBERS OF THE PANEL WITH MANDEL. GITLOW ANSWERED AFFIRMATIVELY.

LAFOLLETTE ASKED GITLOW WHETHER HE KNEW MEMBERS OF THE BOARD HAD NOT BEEN CONFIRMED BY THE SENATE. HE KNEW THAT, HE REPLIED.

THIS PROMPTED LAFOLLETTE'S REMARK ABOUT THE TESTIMONY BEING "VERY, VERY UNPLEASANT."

IN ADDITION TO LAFOLLETTE, BOARD MEMBERS HEARING THE CASE ARE PETER CAMBELL BROWN AND DR.KATHRYN MCHALE. CHAIRMAN SETH W.RICHARDSON AND DAVID J.CODDAIRE ARE NOT TAKING PART.

IN EARLIER TESTIMONY, GITLOW HAD IDENTIFIED MANDEL AS A ONE-TIME ASSOCIATE IN THE COMMUNIST PARTY. GITLOW WAS KICKED OUT OF THE PARTY IN 1929.

THE SENATE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE HAS NEVER ACTED ONE WAY OR THE OTHER ON PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S FIVE APPOINTMENTS TO THE BOARD. THIS COMMITTEE AND THE ANTI-SUBVERSIVE SUBCOMMITTEE WHICH EMPLOYS MANDEL ARE HEADED BY SENATOR MCCARRAN (D-NEV).

WASHINGTON, MAY 14-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN TODAY SIGNED A BILL CLEARING THE WAY FOR CITIZENSHIP FOR MRS. OKSANA STEPANOVA KASENKINA, RUSSIAN TEACHER WHO LEAPED FROM A WINDOW OF THE SOVIET CONSULATE IN NEW YORK TO ESCAPE RETURN TO RUSSIA.

THE LEGISLATION RECORDS MRS. KASENKINA'S ENTROY INTO THE UNITED STATES FOR PERMANENT RESIDENCE, A MOVE PRELIMINARY TO APPLICATION FOR CITIZENSHIP.

THE TEACHER ATTRACTED INTERNATIONAL ATTENTION BY HER LEAP FOR FREEDOM ON AUGUST 12, 1948, AND THE REFUSAL OF UNITED STATES OFFICIALS TO RETURN HER TO CUSTODY OF THE SOVIET CONSUL. SUBSEQUENTLY SHE WROTE A BOOK TITLED "LEAP TO FREEDO."

MRS. KASENKINA ENTERED THE UNITED STATES ON JUNE 15, 1946, AND TAUGHT AT THE RUSSIAN CONSULATE SCHOOL IN NEW YORK. SHE WAS SCHEDULED TO RETURN TO RUSSIA ON JULY 31, 1948, BUT HID OUT AT THE REED FARM OPERATED BY THE TOLSTOY FOUNDATION UNTIL HER "RESCUE" BY SOVIET OFFICIALS ON AUGUST 7, 1948.

SHE WAS BORN IN RUSSIA ON JAN. 24, 1896.

ALASKA DEFENSE

BY ELTON C.FAY

ASSOCIATED PRESS MILITARY AFFAIRS REPORTER

WASHINGTON, MAY 14-(AP)-THE MILITARY HOPES TO USE REGULAR ARMY UNITS IN MEETING CONGRESSIONAL DEMANDS FOR A BUILDUP OF THE ALASKAN GARRISON, KEEPING FEDERALIZED NATIONAL GUARD DIVISIONS INTACT FOR OTHER ASSIGNMENTS.

A REGULAR ARMY REGIMENTAL COMBAT TEAM MAY BE THE FIRST MAJOR ADDITION TO THE FORCE GUARDING ALASKA AGAINST THE DANGER OF A POSSIBLE RUSSIAN ATTEMPT TO GAIN A FOOTHOLD THERE, IT WAS LEARNED TODAY. ONLY THE NARROW BERING STRAITS SEPARATE ALASKA AND SOVIET SIBERIA.

A SENATE ARMED SERVICES SUBCOMMITTEE ON PREPAREDNESS, HEADED BY SEN. LYNDON JOHNSON (D-TEX) TURNED IN A CRITICAL REPORT EARLIER THIS YEAR ON THE STATE OF ALASKAN DEFENSES.

LAST WEEK DEFENSE SECRETARY MARSHALL, TESTIFYING IN THE SENATE INVESTIGATION OF FAR EASTERN POLICY, SAID HE WAS CONCERNED IN 1948 OVER THE ARMY OBTAINING ENOUGH MEN TO GUARD EVEN AIR STRIPS IN ALASKA AGAINST A POSSIBLE SEIZURE ATTEMPT BY AIRBORNE TROOPS. HE DID NOT SAY WHAT HE THOUGHT ABOUT THE SITUATION NOW.

BY MIDSUMMER OF 1949, THE ARMY GARRISON HAD INCREASED TO ABOUT 6,500. THIS INCLUDED BOTH COMBAT AND NON-COMBAT UNITS. THE FORMER INCLUDED ONE BATTALION OF AN INFANTRY REGIMENTAL COMBAT TEAM (SUCH A BATTALION USUALLY IS COMPOSED OF BETWEEN 600 AND 1,000 MEN) AND ONE ANTIAIRCRAFT BATTALION.

ALTHOUGH THERE HAVE BEEN FEW ALASKAN STRENGTH FIGURES PUBLISHED SINCE THEN (AND NONE AT ALL SINCE THE START OF THE KOREAN WAR) THERE HAVE BEEN INDICATIONS OF SOME INCREASE BEYOND THE 1949 STRENGTH, PARTICULARLY IN ANTIAIRCRAFT UNITS. SUCH UNITS ARE ESSENTIAL FOR HOLDING AIRFIELDS AGAINST ENEMY PARATROOPS.

THE STRATEGIC CONCEPT OF DEFENDING ALASKA IS PREDICATED ON THE IDEA OF USING COMPARATIVELY SMALL BUT HIGHLY MOBILE AND HEAVILY ARMED UNITS WHICH COULD BE DEPLOYED TO THREATENED POINTS. A "TOTAL" DEFENSE OF ALL CORNERS AND THE INTERIOR OF THE VAST AND ROADLESS TERRITORY WAS RULED OUT AS TOO COSTLY IN MANPOWER.

AN AIRBORNE REGIMENTAL COMBAT TEAM IS CONSIDERED BY SOME STRATEGISTS AS THE IDEAL NUCLEUS FOR AN ALASKAN DEFENSIVE FORCE. (THE SIZE OF AN RCT VARIES CONSIDERABLY, BUT USUALLY RANGES BETWEEN 4,000 AND 7,000 MEN.) AIR-TRANSPORTED, A ROADLESS COUNTRY WOULD BE NO PROBLEM FOR SUCH A FORCE.

A REGIMENTAL COMBAT TEAM COULD BE FORMED FROM ONE OF THE FEDERALIZED GUARD DIVISIONS IN THE UNITED STATES. HOWEVER, THE ARMY IS RELUCTANT, FOR BOTH MILITARY AND POLITICAL REASONS, TO DETACH ELEMENTS OR OTHERWISE BREAK UP THE STATES' MILITIA DIVISIONS. AT LEAST ONE REGULAR ARMY RCT IS KNOWN TO BE AVAILABLE FOR USE IN ALASKA IF EVENTS DO NOT REQUIRE ITS ASSIGNMENT TO KOREA OR EUROPE.

LEXINGTON, VA., MAY 14-(AP)-SECRETARY GEORGE C.MARSHALL FACED A NEW BARRAGE OF QUESTIONS TONIGHT BUT FEW OF THEM WERE ANY MORE WEIGHTY THAN "GEORGE, BY GAD, GEORGE. HOW ARE YOU?"
IT WAS A REUNION DINNER OF THE CLASS OF 1901 OF VIRGINIA MILITARY INSTITUTE, WHICH TOMORROW HONORS THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE IN MARSHALL DAY CEREMONIES.
MARSHALL, LOOKING FIT AND FRESH AFTER A WEEK OF TESTIFYING BEFORE THE SENATE COMMITTEE ON THE FIRING OF GENERAL MACARTHUR, ARRIVED AT NEARBY ROANOKE BY PLANE FROM WASHINGTON AND CAME OVER TO LEXINGTON BY CAR.
A DOZEN OF HIS CLASSMATES OF A HALF CENTURY AGO WERE WAITING FOR HIM IN THE BASEMENT OFFICERS MESS AT CROZET HALL OF VMI. THEY'D BEEN REMINISCING AND BUILDING UP APPETITES FOR THE FILET MIGNON DINNER TO FOLLOW.
MARSHALL, THE ONLY MAN IN A DINNER JACKET, STRODE IN.
THERE WAS AN IMPROMPTU TOAST OF "HERE'S GEORGE" AND A CHEER.

ROBERT W.JOHNSON, A NEW YORK ARTIST, GREETED HIS DISTINGUISHED CLASSMATE.

"WELL, ROOSTER. MY LORD, IF IT ISN'T ROOSTER," MARSHALL SAID, GRASPING JOHNSON BY A HAND AND A SHOULDER.

JOHNSON YIELDED TO OTHER GREETERS AND SAID YES, HE WAS ROOSTER, BUT HE HADN'T BEEN CALLED THAT IN ALMOST 50 YEARS AND WOULD BE PERFECTLY GLAD TO FORGET IT.

"GEORGE NEEDS A TODDY, GET GEORGE A TODDY," SAID A CONSIDERATE CLASSMATE. AND THREE PEOPLE SPRANG TO ARRANGE THE ELIXIR.

THE OLD GRADS DIDN'T BOTHER THE SECRETARY WITH THE BIG ISSUES NOW BEFORE HIM IN WASHINGTON. BUT AMONG THEMSELVES THE PARTISANSHIP BUBBLED OVER.

"BEEN A GEORGE MARSHALL MAN FOR 50 YEARS, AND I DON'T INTEND TO CHANGE," SAID A CLASSMATE.

SOME OF THE SURVIVING 37 MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1901 SENT LAST MINUTE REGRETS THAT THEY WERE UNABLE TO BE ON HAND FOR THE FESTIVITIES TONIGHT AND TOMORROW. FINANCIER BERNARD BARUCH, THE ELDER STATESMAN, WILL BE THE SPEAKER AT CEREMONIES DEDICATING THE GEORGE CATLETT MARSHALL ARCH AT THE ENTRANCE TO THE NEW BARRACKS ADDITION AT THE EXERCISES TOMORROW.

GENERAL MARSHALL WILL SPEND THE NIGHT HERE AT VMI.

"IN YOUR SAME OLD ROOM?" A REPORTER ASKED.

"NO INDEED," SAID MARSHALL. "I'M GOING TO STAY IN THE ELEGANT QUARTERS RESERVED FOR MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF VISITORS."

MARSHALL IS ELIGIBLE FOR THE QUARTERS. HE'S A MEMBER OF THE BOARD.

AMS BUDGET (425)

NIGHT LEAD U.N.

BY FRANCIS W. CARPENTER

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., MAY 14-(AP)-A GLOBAL EMBARGO ON SHIPMENTS TO RED CHINA OF ARMS AND WAR MATERIALS, INCLUDING MATERIAL FOR MAKING ATOMIC BOMBS, WAS APPROVED TODAY BY THE UNITED NATIONS SANCTIONS COMMITTEE.

THE VOTE WAS 11 TO 0 WITH EGYPT ABSTAINING.

THE MEASURE GOES TO THE 60-NATION POLITICAL COMMITTEE OF THE UNITED NATIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY FOR ACTION THURSDAY MORNING. IT IS CERTAIN TO MEET A HOT RECEPTION FROM THE SOVIET BLOC AND PERHAPS FROM THE 12-NATION ASIAN-ARAB GROUP BUT ITS FINAL PASSAGE BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY APPEARED ASSURED.

THE COUNTRIES VOTING FOR THE EMBARGO, WHICH WAS URGED BY THE UNITED STATES, WERE: U.S., BRITAIN, FRANCE, AUSTRALIA, CANADA, BELGIUM, BRAZIL. THE PHILIPPINES. TURKEY. MEXICO AND VENEZUELA. TWO OTHER MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE, BURMA AND YUGOSLAVIA, REFUSED TO SERVE WHEN THE 14-NATION GROUP WAS ESTABLISHED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY LAST FEB.1.

EVEN THOUGH THE COMMITTEE, TECHNICALLY CALLED THE ADDITIONAL MEASURES COMMITTEE, APPROVED RECOMMENDATIONS FOR AN ARMS EMBARGO, AMERICAN DELEGATES ERNEST A.GROSS SAID THE U.S. AND OTHERS EXPECTED THE U.N. GOOD OFFICES COMMITTEE TO CONTINUE ATTEMPTS TO NEGOTIATE PEACE IN KOREA.

PEIPING SO FAR HAS IGNORED THE COMMITTEE AND AN INFORMED SOURCE SAID TODAY THERE IS NO SIGN YET THAT COMMUNIST CHINA IS READY TO TALK.

THE RESOLUTION CALLS FOR:

1--AN EMBARGO ON THE SHIPMENT TO AREAS UNDER THE CONTROL OF RED CHINA AND COMMUNIST NORTH KOREA OF "ARMS, AMMUNITION, AND IMPLEMENTS OF WAR, ATOMIC ENERGY MATERIALS, PETROLEUM, AND ITEMS USEFUL IN THE PRODUCTION OF ARMS, AMMUNITION AND IMPLEMENTS OF WAR.

2. EACH COUNTRY WILL DETERMINE WHICH COMMODITIES EXPORTED FROM ITS TERRITORY FALL WITHIN THE EMBARGO AND WILL SLAP ON CONTROLS.

3. EACH COUNTRY WILL TRY TO PREVENT CIRCUMVENTION OF CONTROLS, SUCH AS TRANSSHIPMENT BY A STATE NOT COMPLYING WITH THE EMBARGO.

4. EACH COUNTRY WILL COOPERATE WITH OTHER STATES IN CARRYING IT OUT.

5. EACH COUNTRY WILL REPORT TO THE ADDITIONAL MEASURES COMMITTEE, WHICH WILL OVERSEE THE EMBARGO, WITHIN 30 DAYS ON THE MEASURES TAKEN.

6. THE ADDITIONAL MEASURES COMMITTEE WILL CONTINUE ITS CONSIDERATION OF STEPS TO MEET THE AGGRESSION IN KOREA.

7. THE U.N. REAFFIRMS ITS POLICY CALLING FOR A CESSATION OF HOSTILITIES IN KOREA AND THE ACHIEEVEMENT OF U.N. OBJECTIVES BY PEACEFUL MEANS.

8. THE U.N. "REQUESTS THE GOOD OFFICES COMMITTEE TO CONTINUE" ITS WORK.

GROSS, WHO HAS FOUGHT FOR THIS FIRST STEP IN ECONOMIC SANCTIONS FOR WEEKS, TOLD THE COMMITTEE THE UNITED STATES BELIEVED THE PROCLAMATION OF AN EMBARGO WOULD HAVE A DEFINITE MORAL VALUE AND WOULD DEMONSTRATE THE UNITY OF THE U. N. TO AGGRESSORS.

HE SAID ADOPTION OF THE RESOLUTION WOULD REPRESENT THE FIRST TIME IN HISTORY THAT AN INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION ACTUALLY HAS PUT ECONOMIC RESTRICTIONS AND AN EMBARGO ON ARMS AND SUPPLIES OF WAR INTO EFFECT.

THE RESOLUTION HAD BEEN BOGGED DOWN BY DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN. THEN SUDDENLY LAST WEEK SIR GLADWYN JEBB OF BRITAIN TOLD THE COMMITTEE HIS COUNTRY WOULD GO ALONG WITH THE MOVE.

THE BRITISH HAD SAID THEY FELT AN EMBARGO WOULD IRRITATE THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS AND CAUSE THEM TO TAKE STRONGER MEASURES AGAINST THE U.N.

TODAY JEBB TOLD THE COMMITTEE HIS GOVERNMENT FELT THE TIME HAD COME BECAUSE PEIPING REMAINS UNWILLING TO TALK ABOUT A CEASE-FIRE OR A SETTLEMENT.

SELIM SARPER, TURKEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE, URGED THE MEMBERS TO CONSIDER MORE EXTENSIVE STEPS TO PUNISH THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS. HE SAID THE RESOLUTION TODAY SHOULD BE ONLY A BEGINNING.

AFTER THE COMMITTEE ADJOURNED, IT WAS UNDERSTOOD THAT MAHMOUD BEY FAWZI, EGYPT, WHO WAS THE LONE ABSTAINER, WAS ANXIOUS FOR THE ASIAN-ARAB GROUP TO MEET BEFORE THE POLITICAL COMMITTEE CONVENES TO STUDY THE POSSIBILITY OF ANOTHER PEACE MOVE TOWARD COMMUNIST CHINA.

AMBASSADOR GROSS SAID TONIGHT IN A RADIO PROGRAM THAT THE U.S. DID NOT AT THIS TIME INTEND TO PRESS FOR A COMPLETE EMBARGO. HE MADE HIS COMMENT ON THE RADIO SHOW "UNITED--OR NOT?" SPONSORED BY THE UNITED NATIONS CORRESPONDENTS ASSOCIATION AND THE AMERICAN BROADCASTING COMPANY.

GROSS SAID EXPERIENCE WITH THE STRATEGIC EMBARGO NOW BEING DRAWN UP

MAY INDICATE THAT A COMPLETE EMBARGO MIGHT BE DESIRABLE IN THE FUTURE.
ONE REPORTER SAID INDIAN, BURMA, CEYLON AND INDONESIA WOULD NOT COOPERATE WITH AN EMBARGO AND ASKED GROSS HOW HE EXPECTED IT TO BE EFFECTIVE. GROSS REPLIED THAT HE DID NOT ASSUME AT ALL THAT THOSE COUNTRIES WOULD NOT COOPERATE. HE SAID HE SAW NO DISTINCTION BETWEEN SUPPLYING THE ENEMY WITH TROOPS AND WITH WAR MATERIALS.
ASKED IF THE U.S. WOULD REFUSE AID AND HELP TO A COUNTRY WHICH REFUSED TO OBEY THE U.N. RECOMMENDATION, GROSS SAID EACH COUNTRY MUST DECIDE WHAT IT DOES ON THE EMBARGO. HE SAID THE U.S. CERTAINLY WOULD TAKE INTO ACCOUNT THE USE MADE OF PRODUCTS AND WHETHER THEY HAVE BEEN PROHIBITED.
HE SAID THAT SO FAR AS HE KNOWS, THE UNITED STATES IS NOT CARRYING ON ANY NEGOTIATIONS FOR A KOREAN PEACE WITH THE SOVIET UNION, COMMUNIST CHINA OR THE NORTH KOREANS.
THE ONLY SUCH ATTEMPTS ARE THOSE BEING CARRIED ON BY THE U.N. GOOD OFFICES COMMITTEE, AND THAT GROUP HAD NOT EVEN BEEN ABLE TO MAKE CONTACT WITH THE RED CHINESE, HE OBSERVED.
THE QUESTION RESULTED FROM PEACE RUMORS, ORIGINATING IN WASHINGTON, WHICH SWEPT THE U.N. TODAY. IT MUSHROOMED FROM A SENTENCE BY SEN. RALPH FLANDERS (R-VT.), THAT THERE "WAS SOMETHING INTHE AIR."
ALL U.N. OFFICIALS AND DELEGATES SAID THEY KNEW OF NO CURRENT PEACE EFFORTS.
(END ADVANCE FOR USE AT 8 PM., EST, TONIGHT, MONDAY, MAY 14).

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., MAY 14-(AP)-THE TEXT OF A RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY THE U.N. SANCTIONS (ADDITIONAL MEASURES) COMMITTEE TODAY IMPOSING AN EMBARGO ON SHIPMENTS OF WAR GOODS TO COMMUNIST CHINA: (ABOUT 400)
THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
NOTING THE REPORT OF THE ADDITIONAL MEASURES COMMITTEE DATED - 13 MAY 1951
RECALLING ITS RESOLUTION 498 (V) OF 1 FEBRUARY 1951:
NOTING THAT A--THE ADDITIONAL MEASURES COMMITTEE ESTABLISHED BY THAT RESOLUTION HAS CONSIDERED ADDITIONAL MEASURES TO BE EMPLOYED TO MEET THE AGGRESSION IN KOREA; THAT
B--THE ADDITIONAL MEASURES COMMITTEE HAS REPORTED THAT A NUMBER OF STATES HAVE ALREADY TAKEN MEASURES DESIGNED TO DENY CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE MILITARY STRENGTH OF THE FORCES OPPOSING THE UNITED NATIONS IN KOREA; AND THAT
C--THE ADDITIONAL MEASURES COMMITTEE HAS ALSO REPORTED THAT CERTAIN ECONOMIC MEASURES DESIGNED FURTHER TO DENY SUCH CONTRIBUTIONS WOULD SUPPORT AND SUPPLEMENT THE MILITARY ACTION OF THE UNITED NATIONS IN KOREA AND WOULD ASSIST IN PUTTING AN END OF THE AGGRESSION; RECOMMENDS THAT EVERY STATE:
(A)--APPLY AN EMBARGO ON THE SHIPMENT TO AREAS UNDER THE CONTROL OF THE CENTRAL PEOPLE'S GOVERNMENT OF THE REPOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA AND OF THE NORTH KOREAN AUTHORITIES OF ARMS, AMMUNITION AND IMPLEMENTS OF WAR, ATOMIC ENERGY MATERIALS, PETROLEUM, AND ITEMS USEFUL IN THE PRODUCTION OF ARMS, AMMUNITION AND IMPLEMENTS OF WAR.
(B)--DETERMINE WHICH COMMODITIES EXPORTED FROM ITS TERRITORY FALL WITHIN THE EMBARGO, AND APPLY CONTROLS TO GIVE EFFECT TO THE EMBARGO;
(C) PREVENT BY ALL MEANS WITHIN ITS JURISDICTION THE CIRCUMVENTION OF CONTROLS ON SHIPMENTS APPLIED BY OTHER STATES PURSUANT TO THIS RESOLUTION;
(D) --COOPERATE WITH OTHER STATES IN CARRYING OUT THE PURPOSES OF THIS EMBARGO;
(E)--REPORT TO THE ADDITIONAL MEASURES COMMITTEE, WITHIN 30 DAYS AND THEREAFTER AT THE REQUEST OF THE COMMITTEE, ON THE MEASURES TAKEN IN ACCORDANCE WITH THIS RESOLUTION:
REQUESTS THE ADDITIONAL MEASURES COMMITTEE
(A)--TO REPORT TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, WITH RECOMMENDATIONS AS APPROPRIATE, ON THE GENERAL EFFECTIVENESS OF THE EMBARGO AND THE DESIRABILITY OF CONTINUING, EXTENDING OR RELAXING IT;
(B)--TO CONTINUE ITS CONSIDERATION OF ADDITIONAL MEASURES TO BE EMPLOYED TO MEET THE AGGRESSION IN KOREA AND TO REPORT THEREON FURTHER TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, IT BEING UNDERSTOOD THAT THE COMMITTEE IS AUTHORIZED TO DEFER ITS REPORT IF THE GOOD OFFICES COMMITTEE REPORTS SATISFACTORY PROGRESS IN ITS EFFORTS.
REAFFIRMS THAT IT CONTINUES TO BE THE POLICY OF THE UNITED NATIONS TO BRING ABOUT A CESSATION OF HOSTILITIES IN KOREA, AND THE ACHIEVEMENT OF UNITED NATIONS OBJECTIVES IN KOREA BY PEACEFUL MEANS, AND REQUESTS THE GOOD OFFICES COMMITTEE TO CONTINUE ITS GOOD OFFICES.

BULLETIN
FIRST LEAD UNITED NATIONS
BY STANLEY JOHNSON
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., MAY 14-(AP)-THE UNITED NATIONS SANCTIONS COMMITTEE TODAY VOTED A WORLDWIDE BAN ON SHIPMENTS OF WAR GOODS TO COMMUNIST CHINA. THE VOTE WAS 11 TO NOTHING, WITH EGYPT ABSTAINING.
THE SANCTIONS GROUP, FORMALLY KNOWN AS THE ADDTIONAL MEASURES COMMITTEE, IS A 14-NATION BODY SET UP TO CONSIDER PUNISHMENT OF RED CHINA FOR HER INTERVENTION IN KOREA. THE COMMITTEE'S VOTE IS ONLY THE FIRST STEP TOWARD IMPOSITION OF THE WORLDWIDE EMBARGO.
COUNTRIES VOTING FOR THE PROPOSED EMBARGO WERE: THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, FRANCE, AUSTRALIA, CANADA, BELGIUM, BRAZIL, THE PHILIPPINES, TURKEY, MEXICO AND VENEZUELA.
EGYPT ABSTAINED BECAUSE SHE HAS NO TRADE WITH COMMUNIST CHINA AND BECAUSE HER DELEGATION IS ONE OF THE 12-NATION ARAB-ASIAN GROUP WHICH HAS BEEN ATTEMPTING TO WORK OUT SOME KIND OF CEASE-FIRE WITH COMMUNIST CHINA.
YUGOSLAVIA AND BURMA, NAMED TO THE COMMITTEE, DECLINED TO SERVE.
ERNEST A. GROSS, UNITED STATES DELEGATE, TOLD THE COMMITTEE BEFORE THE VOTE THAT ADOPTION OF THE RESOLUTION WOULD DEMONSTRATE U.N. UNITY AND MAKE IT CLEAR THE U.N. INTENDS TO MEET AND REPEL AGGRESSION IN KOREA.
SIR GLADWYN JEBB OF BRITAIN, WHOSE COUNTRY FOUGHT SUCH A RESOLUTION UNTIL IT MADE A SUDDEN SWITCH IN POSITION LAST WEEK, SAID THE UNITED KINGDOM HAS BEEN APPLYING RESTRICTIONS ON TRADE WITH COMMUNIST CHINA FOR SOME TIME. HE SAID THE RESOLUTION SUBSTANTIALLY RECOMMENDS THAT OTHER STATES DO WHAT "WE HAVE BEEN DOING." HE SAID THE BRITISH CHANGED THEIR MINDS BECAUSE OF THE CONTINUED UNWILLINGNESS OF THE PEIPING REGIME TO MAKE ANY MOVES TOWARD A CEASE-FIRE OR PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT.
SELIM SARPER, TURKEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE, SAID HIS COUNTRY SUPPORTED THE RESOLUTION AND CALLED FOR FURTHER STEPS.
FOLLOWING THIS, THE BAN MUST BE DEBATED BY THE POLITICAL COMMITTEE OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, AND THEN BY THE ASSEMBLY IN PLENARY SESSION. THE SOVIET BLOC IS EXPECTED TO FIGHT IT IN BOTH FORUMS TO THE LAST DITCH. INDIA, LEADER OF THE NEUTRALIST GROUP IN THE U.N., IS ALSO EXPECTED TO OPPOSE THE EMBARGO AS ENDANGERING ANY CHANCE OF PEACE NEGOTIATIONS WITH PEIPING.
ALL SIGNS POINT TO EVENTUAL ASSEMBLY ACCEPTANCE, HOWEVER, AND THE U.S. HOPES ADOPTION WILL BE BY AN OVERWHELMING MAJORITY.

BRITISH AND FRENCH OPPOSITION TO THE MOVE, BASED ON THE FEAR THAT IT MIGHT ENLARGE THE AREA OF CONFLICT, EVAPORATED LAST WEEK. INFORMED SOURCES SAID CONSERVATIVE PROTESTS IN THE BRITISH HOUSE OF COMMONS ABOUT RUBBER SHIPMENTS TO RED CHINA PLUS MUCH ADVERSE U.S. COMMENT HELPED CHANGE LONDON'S MIND.

BRITAIN ANNOUNCED LAST THURSDAY THAT IT WAS CUTTING OFF FURTHER RUBBER SHIPMENTS FROM MALAYA TO AREAS CONTROLLED BY PEIPING.

PUSHING OF PUNITIVE MEASURES AGAINST THE CHINESE REDS INDICATES THE EXTREME PESSIMISM WITH WHICH THE U.N. REGARDS THE POSSIBILITY OF A NEGOTIATED PEACE IN KOREA. THE ADDITIONAL MEASURES COMMITTEE, SET UP UNDER THE RESOLUTION BRANDING RED CHINA AN AGGRESSOR IN KOREA LAST FEB.1, WAS TO HOLD OFF RECOMMENDATIONS FOR PUNISHMENT UNTIL A U.N. GOOD OFFICES COMMITTEE HAD EVERY CHANCE TO TRY CONCILIATION.

A4

MEMBERS OF THE PUNISHMENT GROUP ARE AUSTRALIA, BRITAIN, BELGIUM, BRAZIL, CANADA, EGYPT, FRANCE, THE PHILIPPINES, TURKEY, MEXICO, THE UNITED STATES AND VENEZUELA. [redacted] AND BURMA WERE NAMED TO THE COMMITTEE BUT HAVE REFUSED TO SERVE. YUGOSLAVIA

THE AMERICAN EMBARGO RESOLUTION PROPOSES:

1. SHIPMENTS OF ARMS AMMUNITION, IMPLEMENTS OF WAR, ATOMIC ENERGY MATERIALS, PETROLEUM, AND ITEMS USEFUL IN THE PRODUCTION OF ARMAMENTS BE PROHIBITED TO AREAS CONTROLLED BY COMMUNIST CHINA OR NORTH KOREA.
2. THAT EACH STATE DETERMINE THE EXTENT TO WHICH EXPORTS FALL INTO THAT CLASSIFICATION AND APPLY CONTROLS.
3. THAT ALL STATES PREVENT CIRCUMVENTION BY SUCH MEANS AS TRANSSHIPMENTS.
4. THAT THE COMMITTEE STUDY ADDITIONAL MEASURES AND MAKE A FURTHER REPORT. THIS WOULD BE DEFERRED, HOWEVER, IF THE GOOD OFFICES COMMITTEE REPORTED PROGRESS.

THE DAN'S EFFECT IS EXPECTED TO BE MORE MORAL THAN PRACTICAL SINCE THE SOVIET UNION, WHICH SUPPLIES MOST OF RED CHINA'S ARMS POTENTIAL, WILL MOST LIKELY IGNORE IT.

MOREOVER, AN ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION HAS ONLY THE POWER OF A RECOMMENDATION AND CAN BE ENFORCED ONLY BY MORAL PRESSURE.

STATES WHICH FLOUT THE REQUEST AND CONTINUE SHIPMENTS OF WAR GOODS TO RED CHINA, HOWEVER, PROBABLY CAN EXPECT SOME SORT OF RETALIATION FROM COUNTRIES OBSERVING IT. THE U.S. SENATE ALREADY HAS APPROVED LEGISLATION TO END U.S. ECONOMIC AID TO COUNTRIES "TRADING WITH THE ENEMY" AND A HOUSE COMMITTEE IS WORKING ON SIMILAR LEGISLATION.

NIGHT LEAD ATOMIC (AMS BJT) (230)

NEW YORK, MAY 14-(AP)-WIRELESS SIGNALS FLASHED AROUND THE WORLD IN A SPLIT SECOND TODAY AND SET OFF A MINIATURE EXPLOSION IN THE VERY MIDTOWN ARMORY WHERE THEY ORIGINATED.

THE EERIE LITTLE BLAST, SPARKED BY A SMALL ATOMIC ENERGY PILE, SPLIT A SMALL RIBBON AT THE ENTRANCE OF THE SEVENTH REGIMENTAL ARMORY.

THE COMPLICATED BUT ALMOST INSTANTANEOUS EXPLOSION OPENED THE FIRST BIG "ATOMS FOR PEACE" EXHIBIT, A FEATURE OF ARMED FORCES WEEK.

THE MORSE CODE IMPULSES GIRDLED THE WORLD WITH THE SPEED OF LIGHT. ONCE AROUND, THEY ACTIVATED A SMALL MODEL URANIUM PILE. THIS IN TURN SET OFF A SMALL MAGNESIUM CHARGE THAT BROKE THE RIBBON.

BROUGHT HERE FROM OAK RIDGE, TENN., THE SHOW PROVIDES THE MOST COMPLETE LAYOUT ON ATOMIC ENERGY EVER PUT TOGETHER FOR MASS PUBLIC SHOWING.

DAVID SARNOFF TAPPED OUT THE MESSAGE IN CODE THAT STARTED THE WEEK-LONG DISPLAY OF SOME PEACETIME USES OF THE ATOM. HE IS BOARD CHAIRMAN OF THE RADIO CORPORATION OF AMERICA, JOINT SPONSORS OF THE EXHIBIT.

HIS MORSE CODE MESSAGE CARRIED THE HOPE THAT THE DISPLAY WILL "SPREAD THE SEED OF HOPE AROUND THE WORLD THAT THE ELECTRON AND THE ATOM WILL BE HARNESSED FOR PEACE, SECURITY AND FREEDOM."

THE ARMED FORCES WEEK EXHIBIT, INTENDED TO SHOW THE PERILS AND PROMISES OF ATOMIC ENERGY, TAKES UP MORE THAN 7,000 SQUARE FEET OF FLOOR SPACE.

ITS AIM IS TO DEMONSTRATE THE USES OF ATOMIC ENERGY IN FARMING, RESEARCH AND INDUSTRY AND ALSO DEFENSE AGAINST ITS DANGERS IN ATTACK.

IT IS THE FIRST SUCH SHOWING OUTSIDE THE AMERICAN MUSEUM OF ATOMIC ENERGY AT OAK RIDGE.

NEW YORK, MAY 14-(AP)-SPECTATORS WATCHED SILENTLY IN THE SEVENTH REGIMENTAL ARMORY TODAY AS A WIRELESS CODE WAS TAPPED OUT. SIGNALS BLINKED ON THE BIG PANEL ABOVE THE KEYBOARD.

WITH THE SPEED OF LIGHT, THE MESSAGE CIRCLED THE WORLD AND CAME BACK TO THE ARMORY WHERE IT SET OFF A SMALL ATOMIC ENERGY PILE ACTIVATING A MINIATURE EXPLOSION THAT OPENED THE FIRST BIG "ATOMS FOR PEACE" EXHIBIT.

THE TINY BLAST, WHICH CAME AN INSTANT AFTER THE ROUND-THE-GLOBE CODE LEFT THE TRANSMITTER, SPLIT A SMALL RIBBON AT THE ENTRANCE OF THE EXHIBIT BUILDING IN MIDTOWN MANHATTAN.

THE SHOW, THE MOST COMPLETE DEMONSTRATION OF ATOMIC ENERGY EVER ASSEMBLED FOR MASS VIEWING, WAS BROUGHT HERE FROM OAKRIDGE, TENN., AS A MAIN EVENT OF ARMED FORCES WEEK.

DAVID SARNOFF, HEAD OF THE RADIO CORPORATION OF AMERICA, WHICH IS JOINTLY SPONSORING THE EXHIBIT, TAPPED OUT THE MESSAGE THAT STARTED THE WEEK-LONG DEMONSTRATION OF WHAT THE ATOM CAN DO.

THE MESSAGE EXPRESSED HOPE THAT THE DISPLAY WILL "SPREAD THE SEED OF HOPE AROUND THE WORLD THAT THE ELECTRON AND THE ATOM WILL BE HARNESSED FOR PEACE, SECURITY AND FREEDOM FOR ALL MANKIND."

ON HAND FOR THE OPENING WERE TOP MILITARY OFFICES, SCIENTISTS AND CIVILIAN OFFICIALS.

THE EXHIBITS, OCCUPYING MORE THAN 7,000 SQUARE FEET OF FLOOR SPACE AT THE ARMORY, ARE DESIGNED TO SHOW BOTH THE PERILS AND THE PROMISES OF ATOMIC ENERGY TO MANKIND.

GRAPHIC ILLUSTRATIONS, LEAPING BEAMS AND "LIVE" ELECTRONS DANCING ON SCREENS ARE PART OF THE MASS OF DISPLAYS SET UP TO GIVE THE GENERAL PUBLIC AN INSIGHT INTO THE COMPLEX SCIENCE OF NUCLEAR ENERGY.

AIR FORCE MAJ.-GEN.JAMES P.HODGES SAID THE EXHIBIT AIMS TO SHOW THE USES OF ATOMIC ENERGY IN AGRICULTURE, SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH AND INDUSTRY, AND ALSO TO SHOW DEENSES AGAINST ITS DANGERS IN AN ATTACK.

IT IS THE FIRST SUCH SHOWING OUTSIDE THE AMERICAN MUSEUM OF ATOMIC ENERGY AT OAK RIDGE.

PART OF THE DISPLAYS SEEK TO REMOVE NEEDLESS FEARS OF THE ATOM. ONE EXHIBIT, ENTITLED "CHEER UP", DEBUNKS THE IDEA THAT SUPER-BOMBS MIGHT START A CHAIN REACTION THAT WOULD DESTROY THE WORLD.

IN ONE DISPLAY, "SHOOTING STARS" ARE THROWN UP WHEN 200,000,000 ELECTRON VOLTS OF ENERGY ARE RELEASED BY THE SPLITTING OF AN ATOM OF U-235.

PRETTY WAVES, WAFS AND WACS WERE ON DUTY AS GUIDES TO EXPLAIN THE DISPLAYS.

USES OF RADIOISOTYPES AS TRACERS IN MEDICINE AND BIOLOGY, THE TREATMENT OF THYROID CANCER WITH ATOMIC ENERGY, AND THE BENEFITS OF DIRECTED NUCLEAR ENERGY IN FOOD PRODUCTION ARE SHOWN.

BESIDES THE ATOMIC DISPLAYS, THE ARMY, AIR FORCE, NAVY AND MARINE CORPS HAD ON DISPLAY SOME OF ITS NEWEST SCIENTIFIC WEAPONS, AS WELL AS LIFE-SAVING AND COMMUNICATION DEVICES.

"HAM" RADIO OPERATORS WERE ON DUTY TO ALLOW VISITORS TO SEND MESSAGES TO MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES ANYWHERE IN THE WORLD.

NIGHT LEAD UNDATED MEAT PRICES

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

(NY) MEAT DEALERS SHUFFLED THEIR PRICE TAGS TODAY ON MANY BEEF CUTS. IN MOST CASES IT BROKE ABOUT EVEN -- THE TOTAL PRICE OF ALL THE CUTS FROM A SIDE OF BEEF CAME TO JUST ABOUT THE SAME AS IT DID LAST WEEK.

HOUSEWIVES, SHOPPING FOR BARGAINS UNDER THE NEW DOLLAR AND CENTS CEILING THAT THE OFFICE OF PRICE STABILIZATION ORDERED TODAY ON A LIST OF BEEF CUTS, FOUND PRICES SLASHED AS MUCH AS EIGHT OR TEN CENTS A POUND IN A NUMBER OF BEEF ITEMS IN BOTH THE HIGHER PRICED AND LOWER PRICED CATEGORIES, IN MANY CITIES ACROSS THE NATION. THE PRICE CHANGES WERE FAR FROM UNIFORM.

BUT MANY HOUSEWIVES, WHO APPARENTLY HAD BEEN UNDER THE IMPRESSION THAT ALL MEAT PRICES WERE BEING ROLLED BACK, FOUND TO THEIR SURPRISE THAT SOME BEEF CUTS HAD ACTUALLY ADVANCED BY AS MUCH AS TEN CENTS A POUND. IN ATLANTA, HOUSEWIVES WERE QUOTED AS SAYING THEY GUESSED THEIR FAMILIES WOULD JUST HAVE TO GET ALONG ON LESS MEAT.

IN DALLAS, COMPETITION KEPT PRICES IN MANY BUTCHER SHOPS AS MUCH AS EIGHT CENTS A POUND UNDER CEILING PRICES. IN LOS ANGELES, MORE PRICE ADVANCES THAN REDUCTIONS APPEARED TO BE CONFRONTING THE CUSTOMER.

IN KANSAS CITY, PRICE CHANGES RANGED FROM EIGHT CENTS LOWER TO NINE CENTS HIGHER. IN ST.LOUIS, ONE LARGE RETAIL CHAIN SAID, "ON 100 POUNDS IT FIGURES OUT JUST ABOUT EVEN."

IN NEW YORK, HOUSEWIVES WERE OFFERED A WIDE CHOICE OF HIGHER PRICES ON SOME CUTS AND LOWER ON OTHERS. IN CHICAGO, ONE DEALER LOWERED PRICES ON SOME OF HIS CHOICE CUTS BUT RAISED PRICES ON HIS GROUND BEEF. IN ST.LOUIS, A 65-CENT CEILING ON HAMBURGER WAS DECRIED BY BUTCHERS AS TOO LOW AND SHORTAGES WERE PREDICTED.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., BUTCHERS SAID: "WE ARE IN A STATE OF UTTER CONFUSIN. ALL WE KNOW IS THAT THE MARKET IS WOEFULLY SHORT." BOSTON BUTCHERS PREDICTED A SHORTAGE IN LOWER-PRICED BEEF AS A RESULT OF THE CEILINGS. A CHICAGO RETAILER PREDICTED A SCARCITY IN TOP GRADE BEEF. ANOTHER CHICAGO DEALER SAID: "I DON'T THINK I'LL BE ABLE TO KEEP SUPPLYING CUSTOMERS WITH PRESENT QUALITY. FARMERS AREN'T GOING TO CONTINUE FEEDING."

A LOS ANGELES CHAIN STORE SPOKESMAN SAID: "THERE'LL STILL BE PLENTY OF CHEAPER CUTS OF MEAT." INDEPENDENT DEALERS IN KANSAS CITY SAID THAT THE SUPPLY OF BEEF CUTS WAS BECOMING SHORT, BUT BEEF SIDES WERE FAIRLY PLENTIFUL. ANOTHER KANSAS CITY GROCER SAID ONE MAJOR PACKER HAD DONE NO BEEF SLAUGHTERING SINCE THURSDAY.

BEEF WAS PLENTIFUL IN INDIANAPOLIS BUT THE PRICE SITUATION WAS REPORTED CONFUSED. MOST STORES THERE SAID THEY HAD BEEN SQUEEZED IN RECENT WEEKS UNDER THE OLD PRIZE FREEZE AND EXPECTED TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF ANY PRICE ADVANCES ALLOWED UNDER THE NEW REGULATIONS.

PRICES VARIED WIDELY ACROSS THE NATION. BUTCHERS CALCULATED THE NEW CEILINGS BY ADDING A FIXED MARGIN PERCENTAGE TO THE PRICE THEY PAID WHOLESALERS FOR EACH CUT. IN MOST CASES THE MARKUPS WERE FIGURED ON PRE-KOREA DOLLAR MARGINS PLUS INCREASED OPERATING COSTS SINCE.

ONE NATION-WIDE CHAIN STORE SAID ITS PRICE CEILINGS WERE DIFFERENT IN EACH CITY IN WHICH IT OPERATES.

HERE A FEW OF THE PRICE CHANGES, IN VARIOUS CITIES:

PORTERHOUSE STEAK: NEW YORK, UP FROM $1.09 TO $1.24; ST.LOUIS, UP FROM $1.19 TO $1.23.

CHUCK BLADE COAST: LOS ANGELES, UP FROM 65 CENTS TO 72 CENTS; ST. LOUIS DOWN FROM 73 CENTS TO 69 CENTS; KANSAS CITY, DOWN FROM 72 CENTS TO 69 CENTS; NEW YORK, UP FROM 69 CENTS TO 73 CENTS.

HAMBURGER: INDIANAPOLIS, UP FROM 59 CENTS TO 63; KANSAS CITY, UP FROM 58 CENTS TO 62; ST.LOUIS, DOWN FROM 69 CENTS TO 65; LOS ANGELES UP FROM 65 CENTS TO 72.

THE CIO COMMITTEE ON ECONOMIC POLICY SAID IN A STATEMENT:

"THE WELL FINANCED MEAT LOBBY IN WASHINGTON IS SPENDING MONEY LAVISHLY IN AN EFFORT TO CONVINCE CONGRESSMEN AND GOVERNMENT ADMINISTRATORS THAT IT IS EVIL TO CONTROL MEAT PRICES. FROM THE BIG CATTLEMEN COME THREATS OF BLACK MARKETS IN THEIR ATTEMPT TO COERCE THE GOVERNMENT TO FOLLOW THEIR DICTATES.

"AN EXAMINATION OF THE OFFICE OF PRICE STABILIZATION'S BEEF PRICE REGULATION PROVES THAT IT IS FAIR AND JUST."

SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE TOLD THE HOUSE BANKING COMMITTEE DURING THE DAY SAID HE IS IN ACCORD WITH THE OPS ORDER ROLLING BACK THE PRICE OF BEEF.

IN RESPONSE TO QUESTIONS FROM COMMITTEE MEMBERS, BRANNAN SAID THE ORDER IS "ESSENTIAL" AND THAT HE DOES NOT BELIEVE IT WILL CUT DOWN PRODUCTION.

HE SAID THE NUMBER OF CATTLEMEN OR PROCESSORS WHO MIGHT BE HURT WILL BE "VERY SMALL."

NEW YORK, MAY 14-(AP)-GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S WIFE SPENT PART OF MOTHER'S DAY "WINDOW WISHING" ALONG FIFTH AVENUE.

SHE STROLLED ALONG THE AVENUE YESTERDAY FOR ABOUT A MILE, ACCOMPANIED BY HER HUSBAND'S DOCTOR, COL. CHARLES CANADA. FEW PERSONS RECOGNIZED HER.

"I'VE ONLY BEEN WINDOW WISHING," MRS. MACARTHUR SAID LATER. "THERE ARE SO MANY THINGS THAT I NEED THAT IT WILL REQUIRE A LITTLE MORE THINKING BEFORE I ACTUALLY BUY."

MEANWHILE, MACARTHUR REPORTEDLY REMAINED IN THE FAMILY'S WALDORF-ASTORIA HOTEL SUITE.

A MEMBER OF HIS STAFF SAID HE HAD NO PLANS FOR PUBLIC APPEARANCES TODAY.

THE GENERAL MADE HIS FIRST APPEARANCE IN CIVILIAN CLOTHES IN ELEVEN YEARS ON SATURDAY, WHEN HE WENT TO THE POLO GROUNDS WITH MRS. MACARTHU

AND SAW THE PHILLIES BEAT THE GIANTS, 6 TO 5.

NIGHT LEAD MACARTHUR-MARSHALL

BY DON WHITEHEAD

WASHINGTON,MAY 14-(AP)-SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL TESTIFIED TODAY HE BELIEVES THE NATION'S TOP MILITARY MEN STAND SOLIDLY AGAINST GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S WAR PLANS FOR KOREA. MARSHALL SAID ADOPTION OF THE MACARTHUR POLICIES MIGHT CRIPPLE THE BUILDUP OF EUROPE'S DEFENSES.

THE DEFENSE CHIEF INSISTED THE MACARTHUR PROPOSAL TO BOMB AND BLOCKADE RED CHINA AND USE CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS MIGHT DRAW RUSSIA INTO THE CONFLICT AND TOUCH OFF A THIRD WORLD WAR.

AND HE NAMED GEN.DWIGHT D.EISENHOWER, COMMANDING THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT FORCES IN EUROPE, AND LT.GEN.MATTHEW B.RIDGWAY, WHO SUCCEEDED MACARTHUR, AMONG THOSE HE BELIEVES SUPPORT THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION'S PRESENT LIMITED-WAR PROGRAM.

MARSHALL GAVE THESE VIEWS TO THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES AS HE ENDED HIS SEVENTH DAY OF TESTIMONY IN THE INQUIRY INTO THE FIRING OF GENERAL MACARTHUR.

THE NEXT WITNESS AT 9 A.M. EST, TOMORROW, WILL BE GEN.OMAR N. BARDLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF. LIKE MARSHALL AND MACARTHUR, HE ALSO WEARS FIVE STARS.

MACARTHUR TOLD THE COMMITTEES 10 DAYS AGO THAT "EVERY OFFICER I HAVE TALKED TO" SHARED HIS VIEWS ON THE KOREAN WAR. HE SAID RIDGWAY'S OFFICIAL REPORTS WOULD SHOW AGREEMENT ALSO.

BUT MARSHALL TOOK ISSUE WITH HIM ON THIS SCORE DURING A DAY IN WHICH CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA) OF THE ARMED SERVICES GROUP SAID SECRETS "OF POSSIBLE VALUE TO RUSSIA" ALREADY HAVE LEAKED FROM THE HEARING.

RUSSELL PLEADED WITH HIS COLLEAGUES NOT TO DISCLOSE HIGHLY SECRET TESTIMONY WHICH CENSORS HAVE DELETED FROM THE PUBLIC TRANSCRIPT.

HE SAID: "IF ANY ACTION OF OURS ADDS EVEN REMOTELY TO THE DANGERS THAT FACE OUR FIGHTING MEN, IF CARELESSNESS OR INDISCRETION INCREASES THE PERILS THAT FACE OUR NATION, NEITHER OUR GOD NOR OUR FELLOW CITIZENS WILL EVER FORGIVE US, NOR WOULD WE DESERVE SUCH FORGIVENESS."

RUSSELL SAID AT LEAST TWO NEWSPAPER STORIES HAVE BEEN BASED ON EVIDENCE WHICH WAS NOT IN THE RELEASED TRANSCRIPT AND HE CALLED THIS "A DANGEROUS COURSE." HE DID NOT IDENTIFY THE STORIES.

TWO REPUBLICAN SENATORS--HICKENLOOPER OF IOWA AND IVES OF NEW YORK--COMPLAINED THAT THE ADMINISTRATION HAS BEEN LEAKING INFORMATION TO SOME NEWSPAPERS FOR A LONG TIME--BUT THEY SUPPORTED RUSSELL IN HIS PLEA.

SENATOR LYNDON JOHNSON (D-TEX) RAISED THE QUESTION OF HOW MUCH SUPPORT THE PRESENT WAR PROGRAM HAS AMONG THE MILITARY LEADERS. THIS PLAN IS TO LIMIT THE WAR TO KOREA AND INFLICT SUCH CASUALTIES ON THE RED CHINESE THAT THEY WILL BE FORCED TO SUE FOR PEACE.

MARSHALL SAID HE KNEW OF NO DISAGREEMENT AMONG THE THREE CIVILIAN HEADS OF THE ARMED SERVICES OR AMONG THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF.

JOHNSON SAID: "DO YOU KNOW OF ANY RESPONSIBLE OR RESPECTED HIGH MILITARY MAN IN THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE THAT FEELS THAT OUR POLICY IS UNWISE?"

MARSHALL: "NONE HAS BEEN BROUGHT TO MY ATTENTION."

JOHNSON: "IS IT YOUR OPINION THAT GENERAL RIDGWAY FEELS THAT OUR COURSE OF ACTION AND OUR PROGRAM IS A WISE ONE?"

MARSHALL: "WE HAVE HAD NO INDICATIONS FROM HIM TO THE CONTRARY."

JOHNSON THEN ASKED IF THE ADOPTION OF THE MACARTHUR PROGRAM "WOULD REQUIRE ADJUSTMENTS OF GENERAL EISENHOWER'S PLAN (IN EUROPE) AND WOULD SERIOUSLY AFFECT THOSE PLANS?"

"WE FEAR THAT IT MIGHT," MARSHALL SAID.

GENERAL MACARTHUR HAS ARGUED THAT BOMBING OF RED CHINESE BASES--AND THE USE OF A FEW MORE AMERICAN GROUND UNITS--WOULD BEAT THE CHINESE INTO SURRENDER WITHOUT AFFECTING THE EUROPEAN PROGRAM.

THE SENATE HAS VOTED ITS APPROVAL OF SENDING SIX AMERICAN DIVISIONS TO THE DEFENSE FORCE COMMANDED BY EISENHOWER.

EISENHOWER HAS REMAINED SILENT ON THE TRUMAN-MACARTHUR DISPUTE EXCEPT TO SAY HE HOPED MACARTHUR WOULD NOT RETURN HOME AND BECOME THE CENTER OF A POLITICAL CONTROVERSY.

MAY 15 19

JOHNSON ASKED MARSHALL WHETHER EISENHOWER HAS GIVEN "ANY INDICATION THAT HE FEELS THAT OUR PROGRAM IS AN UNWISE ONE IN KOREA?"

"HE HAS GIVEN ME NO SUCH INDICATION," MARSHALL REPLIED.

THERE WERE NUMEROUS CENSORSHIP DELETIONS THROUGHOUT MARSHALL'S TESTIMONY AND RUSSELL SAID THIS WAS NECESSARY BECAUSE "IT CONTAINED ACTUAL WAR PLANS AND ACTUAL BATTLE ORDERS."

"IT MAY BE POSSIBLE TO MAKE SOME OF THE DELETIONS PUBLIC LATER," HE SAID, "IF THE MATERIAL WERE ASKED IN A DIFFERENT WAY. BUT A LOT OF IT INCLUDED ACTUAL WAR PLANS AND ACTUAL ORDERS FOR BATTLE."

QUESTIONED BY SENATOR SALTONSTALL (R-MASS), MARSHALL CONCEDED THAT HE AND MACARTHUR WERE IN AGREEMENT IN SOME OF THEIR VIEWS, BUT HE SAID THEIR BASIC DIFFERENCE LIES IN WHAT RUSSIA MIGHT DO IF CHINA IS BOMBED AND NATIONALIST TROOPS ARE USED IN THE FIGHT.

"THAT IS A POSITIVE DIFFERENCE," MARSHALL REPLIED.

A207WX

SALTONSTALL: "HAVEN'T WE, AS MEMBERS OF THIS COMMITTEE, GOT TO DETERMINE X X X AS TO WHETHER THE CALCULATED RISK IS BEST, ONE WAY, OR THE CALCULATED RISK IS BEST THE OTHER WAY, AS FAR AS THE UNITED STATES IS CONCERNED?"

MARSHALL: "I THINK SO X X X."

SENATOR JOHNSON, QUIZZING MARSHALL ON THE OPINION OF THE MILITARY LEADERS, ASKED IF THE ADMINISTRATION WAR PROGRAM WAS OPPOSED BY EITHER LT.GEN.JAMES A.VAN FLEET (8TH ARMY COMMANDER), LT.GEN.GEORGE STRATEMEYER (FAR EAST AIR FORCE COMMANDER), OR ADMIRAL JAMES JOY (FAR EAST NAVY COMMANDER.)

MARSHALL SAID HE RECALLED THAT STRATEMEYER HAD MADE SOME STATEMENTS "ADVOCATING I BELIEVE THE BOMBING IN MANCHURIA."

JOHNSON SAID: "HAVE YOU SEEN ANY OFFICIAL RECOMMENDATION OF EITHER GENERAL VAN FLEET, GENERAL STRATEMEYER OR ADMIRAL JOY IN THAT REGARD?"

"I HAVE SEEN NONE," MARSHALL SAID. HE ADDED HE DID NOT WANT TO SPEAK FOR MEMBERS OF THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL, SEVERAL OF WHOM ARE CABINET MEMBERS.

SENATOR MORSE (R-ORE) READ FROM A DOCUMENT PREPARED FOR THE COMMITTEE AT THE PENTAGON WHICH SHOWED THAT LAST AUG. 4---AFTER MACARTHUR HAD VISITED THE NATIONALIST STRONGHOLD OF FORMOSA---THE JOINT CHIEFS ADVISED HIM:

1. ONLY PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS AUTHORITY TO AUTHORIZE ANY MILITARY ACTION AGAINST THE MAINLAND; AND

2. IT IS VITAL THE UNITED STATES NOT PRECIPITATE A GENERAL WAR "OR GIVE EXCUSE TO OTHERS TO DO SO."

MORSE SAID: "DOES NOT THIS MESSAGE MAKE CLEAR X X X THE POLICY OF OUR GOVERNMET IN RESPECT TO ITS POSITION ON ANY ACTION THAT MIGHT LEAD TO WIDENING THE WAR OR CONDUCTING OPERATIONS ON THE MAINLAND OF CHINA?"

"I THINK IT DOES, SIR," MARSHALL SAID. AND HE ADDED HE BELIEVED THE MESSAGE IN PART SHOWED THAT WASHINGTON HAD KEPT MACARTHUR ADVISED ON ASIATIC POLICY.

THE DOCUMENT FROM WHICH MORSE READ WAS A COMPILATION OF ACTIONS TAKEN BY THE JOINT CHIEFS AND MESSAGES SENT TO MACARTHUR OVER A PERIOD OF SOME TEN MONTHS.

THE SENATOR CALLED IT "THE BEST EVIDENCE TO DATE OF THE LENGTHS TO WHICH THE GOVERNMENT WENT" TO AVOID ANY MISUNDERSTANDINGS WITH MACARTHUR.

MARSHALL AGREED WITH MORSE THAT THE DOCUMENT "PRESENTS A GREAT DEAL OF EVIDENCE IN SUPPORT OF THE CONCLUSION THAT THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF KEPT GENERAL MACARTHUR INFORMED IN GREAT DETAIL AS TO ALL STEPS" THEY PLANNED IN THE KOREAN WAR.

EXCEPT FOR MACARTHUR'S PROPOSAL TO TAKE 60,000 CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS TO KOREA FROM FORMOSA, MARSHALL SAID HE DID NOT RECALL ANY CONFLICT WITH MACARTHUR OVER THE DEFENSE OF FORMOSA. HE ADDED THAT HIS RECOLLECTION WAS THE U.N. ALLIES HAD PROTESTED SUCH A MOVE.

THEN MORSE DISCLOSED THAT ON AUGUST 29, 1950, PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAD SENT A SECRET MESSAGE TO MACARTHUR LISTING SEVEN POINTS OF AMERICAN POLICY TOWARD ASIA.

THE SENATOR SAID HE COULD NOT "UNDERSTAND THE CHARGE THAT THE GOVERNMENT FAILED TO KEEP GENERAL MACARTHUR ADVISED AS TO BOTH ITS MILITARY AND POLITICAL POLICY FOR ASIA."

HE ADDED: "TO THE CONTRARY, I THINK THE GOVERNMENT WAS JUST AS METICULOUS IN KEEPING MACARTHUR ADVISED, AS MACARTHUR WAS METICULOUS IN CARRYING OUT, TO THE LETTER, THE MILITARY DIRECTIVES THAT HE RECEIVED."

THEN MORSE SAID HE HAD CONCLUDED: "THE SAD FACT IS THAT FOR MONTHS--ALTHOUGH BOTH THE GOVERNMENT AND GENERAL MACARTHUR WERE PARTICIPATING IN VERY METICULOUS CONDUCT IN KEEPING EACH OTHER INFORMED AS TO THEIR RESPECTIVE POSITIONS--THAT UNFORTUNATELY THEY WERE DEALING AT ARMS LENGTH, THAT APPARENTLY A LACK OF MUTUAL CONFIDENCE HAD DEVELOPED."

BUT MARSHALL DECLARED HE DID NOT THINK THE GOVERNMENT WAS DEALING WITH MACARTHUR "AT ARM'S LENGTH."

HE SAID: "I DO FEEL THAT BEYOND THE DECISIONS AS TO POLICY, IT WAS THE VIEW OF THE GOVERNMENT THAT WE HAD TO PROCEED IN A VERY CAREFUL MANNER IN OUR INTERCHANGES WITH GENERAL MACARTHUR BECAUSE OF HIS ATTITUDE, BECAUSE OF WHAT HE HAD STATED PUBLICLY IN REGARD TO THE MATTER, BECAUSE OF OUR ALLIES AND THEIR REACTIONS, AND THE GENERAL COMPLICATIONS AND DELICACY OF THE SITUATION UNDER THOSE CONDITIONS."

MORSE ASKED IF THE DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE ADMINISTRATION AND MACARTHUR HAD NOT CREATED "A VERY SERIOUS SITUATION" BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND HER U.N. ALLIES.

"I THINK THAT IS CORRECT," MARSHALL REPLIED.

THE DOCUMENT READ BY MORSE ALSO SHOWED THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN FEARED CHINESE ENTRY INTO THE WAR AND THAT HE TOLD MACARTHUR LAST SEPT.15 FINAL DECISIONS IN KOREA MUST BE DETERMINED BY:

"(1) ACTION BY THE SOVIET UNION AND THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS;

"(2) IN CONSULTATION WITH FRIENDLY MEMBERS OF THE UNITED NATIONS;

"(3) AN APPRAISAL OF THE RISK OF GENERAL WAR."

AT THAT TIME, THE PRESIDENT SAID THE U.N. FORCES HAD "A LEGAL BASIS" FOR DRIVING NORTH OF PARALLEL 38 "TO COMPEL WITHDRAWAL OF THE NORTH KOREAN FORCES BEHIND THE LINE OR TO DEFEND AGAINST THESE FORCES."

MORSE SAID MACARTHUR WAS TOLD:

"IN THE EVENT OF EMPLOYMENT OF MAJOR CHINESE COMMUNIST UNITS SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL, THE UNITED STATES WOULD (1) NOT PERMIT ITSELF TO BECOME ENGAGED IN A GENERAL WAR WITH COMMUNIST CHINA; (2) AUTHORIZE GENERAL MACARTHUR TO CONTINUE MILITARY ACTION AS LONG AS IT OFFERED A REASONABLE CHANCE OF SUCCESSFUL RESISTANCE."

A39WX

EARLIER, SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH) HAD FIRED A ROUND OF CRITICAL QUESTIONS AT MARSHALL DEALING WITH THE OFFICIAL U.S. ATTITUDE TOWARD CHIANG KAI-SHEK AND HIS NATIONALIST FORCES.

BRIDGES SAID THE CHINESE REDS ADMITTED 1,300,000 CASUALTIES IN THEIR FIGHTING WITH CHIANG'S TROOPS ALTHOUGH MARSHALL HAD TERMED THEIR OPPOSITION INEFFECTIVE.

"THAT DIFFERS QUITE A LOT," THE SENATOR SAID, "FROM THE INFORMATION WHICH IS PUT OUT IN THIS COUNTRY THAT THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS DIDN'T FIGHT."

BRIDGES WENT ON TO ASK IF MARSHALL BELIEVED THE STATE DEPARTMENT WAS JUSTIFIED IN ITS "OPPOSITION TO CERTAIN CONGRESSIONAL DEMANDS FOR AID TO CHINA?"

"WOULD YOU SAY NOW," HE SAID, "THAT THE RATHER PUBLICIZED 80TH CONGRESS POSSESSED SOME FORESIGHT, AND MIGHT HAVE BEEN UNNECESSARILY BELITTLED, IN OUR ACTION, IN THE LIGHT OF RECENT EVENTS IN ASIA?"

PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS CALLED THIS REPUBLICAN-CONTROLLED CONGRESS ONE OF THE "WORST" IN AMERICAN HISTORY.

MARSHALL SAID AS HE RECALLED HE ASKED CONGRESS FOR $575,000,000 (M) TO HELP THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS AND CONGRESS VOTED ONLY $400,000,000.

BRIDGES CHALLENGED THE STATEMENT AND BOTH AGREED TO CHECK THE FIGURES LATER.

BRIDGES REFERRED TO MARSHALL'S MISSION TO CHINA IN 1946 WHEN HE ATTEMPTED--AND FAILED--TO BRING AN END TO THE CHINA WAR.

"MY INFORMATION," BRIDGES SAID, "IS THAT THERE WAS A DRAFT PREPARED FOR YOU, WHICH WAS PREPARED AND CLEARED BY THE HEADS OF THE (WAR) DEPARTMENT AT THE TIME. AND THEN YOUR FORMAL DIRECTIVES OR INSTRUCTIONS WHICH YOU RECEIVED THE STATE DEPARTMENT WERE FAR DIFFERENT X X X."

BRIDGES SAID HE THOUGHT THE SENATORS SHOULD HAVE A COPY OF EACH OF THESE DIRECTIVES TO BE CHECKED ONE AGAINST THE OTHER.

MARSHALL TOOK SHARP ISSUE WITH BRIDGES OVER THE SENATOR'S CONTENTION THAT MARSHALL'S MOVE IN 1945-46 CUTTING OFF MILITARY AID TO CHIANG HAD HELPED THE REDS SEIZE CONTROL OF CHINA.

MARSHALL ARGUED THE NATIONALISTS HAD RECEIVED MUCH AMERICAN AID AND THAT THEY "WRECKED THEMSELVES" WITH POOR LEADERSHIP AND FAILURE TO GAIN THE SUPPORT OF THE CHINESE PEOPLE.

(630) MARSHALL HIGHLIGHTS
WASHINGTON, MAY 14-(AP)-HERE ARE THE HIGHLIGHTS OF SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL'S TESTIMONY BEFORE THE COMBINED ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES OF THE SENATE TODAY.
QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ARE TAKEN FROM THE CENSORED RECORD OF THE PROCEEDINGS, WHICH ARE CLOSED TO THE PUBLIC.
SENATOR CONNALLY (D-TEX): GEN. MARSHALL, DO YOU BELIEVE THAT OUR AIR POWER AND NAVY (ALONE) COULD WIN A WAR AGAINST RED CHINA AND KEEP THEM FROM MAKING AN INVASION OF KOREA?
SECRETARY MARSHALL: I DO NOT THINK THEY COULD, SIR.

SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH): I WANT TO ASK YOU IF IT IS NOT TRUE THAT RUSSIA HAS CONSISTENTLY MAINTAINED LARGE NUMBERS OF GROUND FORCES AND AIR FORCES AND SO FORTH ON THESE BORDERS (NORTH OF KOREA) FOR A PERIOD OF MANY YEARS EVEN BEFORE THIS THING STARTED.
MARSHALL: THAT IS CORRECT, SIR, BUT I WAS GIVEN THE IMPRESSION OR THE INFORMATION THAT MORE RECENTLY, NOTABLY SINCE, I THINK, DECEMBER, THAT THERE HAD BEEN SIZEABLE INCREASES IN THE GARRISONS IN THAT REGION.

SENATOR GEORGE (D-GA): NOW, GENERAL, IN EMPHASIZING THE NUMBER OF CASUALTIES THAT WE MIGHT SUFFER IN THE EVENT OF THE BOMBING OF AMERICAN CITIES, I THINK IT HAS BEEN SUGGESTED HERE AND OUTSIDE AS WELL X X X THAT THE BOMBING OF A SINGLE AMERICAN CITY WOULD RESULT IN MORE CASUALTIES THAN WE HAVE SUFFERED IN KOREA SINCE JUNE 27 LAST. DO YOU NOT BELIEVE THAT THE BOMBING OF A SINGLE AMERICAN CITY WOULD UNIFY THIS COUNTRY AGAINST THE SOVIET FORCES EVERYWHERE INSTANTLY AND TO A HIGHER DEGREE THAN THEY HAVE YET BEEN UNIFIED?
MARSHALL: I WOULD ASSUME THAT WOULD BE THE CASE, EXACTLY AS IT WAS WITH PEARL HARBOR.
GEORGE: IT WOULD MEAN IF RUSSIA SHOULD BOMB A SINGLE AMERICAN CITY SHE WOULD HAVE DECIDED UPON ALL-OUT WAR. IS THAT RIGHT?
MARSHALL: THAT WOULD BE MY CONCLUSION.

SENATOR H. ALEXANDER SMITH (R-NJ): DID RUSSIA TURN OVER THE JAPANESE CAPTURED ARMS AND SO FORTH WHICH THEY GOT IN MANCHURIA BY SURRENDER, TO THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS?
MARSHALL: SO FAR AS WE KNOW, THEY LEFT THEM IN DUMPS IN MANCHURIA, AND WHEN THEY WITHDREW THEY WERE OPENED TO CHINESE COMMUNISTS, WHO REARMED THEMSELVES.

A63WX
SMITH: IS THE REPORT TRUE THAT THE REMOVAL OF GEN. MACARTHUR HAD BEEN PLANNED BY THE EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT FOR A LONG TIME X X X ?
MARSHALL: I WOULD HAVE SAID THAT THAT WAS NOT THE CASE AT ALL. XXXX THE GENERAL ASSUMPTION WAS THAT GEN. MACARTHUR WOULD REMAIN IN OFFICE UNTIL THE JAPANESE PEACE TREATY WAS SIGNED.

SMITH: DO YOU BELIEVE, GEN. MARSHALL, THAT WHAT HAS HAPPENED IN CHINA IS A CONQUEST OF THAT COUNTRY BY SOVIET RUSSIA, AND THAT THERE IS CONSEQUENTLY A CONTROL OF CHINA TODAY BY AN EXTERNAL POWER, NAMELY RUSSIA?
MARSHALL: I THINK THAT IS GENERALLY A FACT.
SMITH: DOES THAT IMPLY THAT THE ADMISSION OF COMMUNIST CHINA TO THE UNITED NATIONS WOULD MEAN THE RECOGNITION BY THE UNITED NATIONS OF THE CONQUEST OF CHINA BY AN EXTERNAL POWER -- RUSSIA?
MARSHALL: I THINK THAT WOULD BE A NATURAL ASSUMPTION. IT MEANS AN ADDITIONAL VOTE OF THE COMMUNIST GROUP.

SENATOR MORSE (R-ORE): XXX I THINK THE GOVERNMENT WAS JUST AS METICULOUS IN KEEPING MACARTHUR ADVISED, AS MACARTHUR WAS METICULOUS IN CARRYING OUT, TO THE LETTER, THE MILITARY DIRECTIVES THAT HE RECEIVED, BUT AS I READ THIS EXHIBIT, I ALSO COME TO THE CONCLUSION THAT THE SAD FACT IS THAT FOR MONTHS XXX UNFORTUNATELY THEY WERE DEALING AT ARM'S LENGTH - THAT APPARENTLY A LACK OF MUTUAL CONFIDENCE HAD DEVELOPED.

SENATOR LYNDON JOHNSON (D-TEX): IS IT YOUR OPINION THAT GEN. RIDGWAY (MACARTHUR'S SUCCESSOR) FEELS THAT OUR COURSE OF ACTION AND OUR PROGRAM IS A WISE ONE?
MARSHALL: WE HAVE HAD NO INDICATIONS FROM HIM TO THE CONTRARY.

JOHNSON: YOU HAVE INDICATED THAT IN YOUR OPINION WE ARE NOT AS PREPARED AS WE MIGHT BE OR AS WE SHOULD BE AT THIS TIME. I WONDER IF YOU WOULD GIVE THIS COMMITTEE THE BENEFIT OF YOUR RECOMMENDATIONS AS TO WHAT WE CAN DO, X XX TO SPEED THE DAY WHEN WE WILL BE PREPARED?
MARSHALL: THE MOST IMPORTANT ACTION THAT I CAN THINK OF AT THE MOMENT IS THE CONCLUSION BEFORE CONGRESS OF THEIR CONSIDERATION IN RELATION TO THE MANPOWER ACT, WHICH CONTAINS THE BASIS FOR A CONTINUED IMPROVEMENT IN OUR MILITARY POSTURE WITH A DECREASED COST. XXXX THE ATTITUDE OF THE PEOPLE OF COURSE IS A VERY IMPRESSIVE FACTOR IN THE WHOLE AFFAIR. I AM VERY HOPEFUL THAT THEY CAN ALL REALIZE THAT WE MUST MOVE TOGETHER IN REASONABLE UNITY AND VERY SOLIDLY BEHIND THE WHOLE PROGRAM.

Transcript of Secretary Marshall's Seventh Day of Testimony at Foreign Policy Hearing

*WASHINGTON, May 14 (AP)—Following is the censored transcript of today's hearing by the Senate Armed Services and Foreign Relations Committees into the Administration foreign policy (censorship deletions are indicated by * * ):

CHAIRMAN RUSSELL—The committee will be in order.

Gentlemen, before we resume our questioning of General Marshall this morning, I desire to make a brief statement. It relates to a subject which has caused my increasing concern as these hearings have progressed.

Since this inquiry was first ordered I have experienced a deep sense of uneasiness. It was apparent from the first that the subject matter would be broad, as broad as the foreign policy of the United States. It was equally obvious that it would deal with almost every vital military and diplomatic issue and penetrate to the very heart of the plans for our nation's survival. Such has been the case.

We are taking testimony not only on the general outlines of American foreign policy but on some of the intimate plans and information possessed by our nation. We are entering doors that have been barred, we are opening books that have been guarded, we are unlocking secrets that have been protected in steel safes; in short, we are stripping the nation's security framework to the bare skeleton.

In some instances not only is the evidence stamped with the highest security classification, but the very form in which we receive it is secret. Its release without a paraphrase of the words would aid an enemy in breaking our carefully guarded codes and cryptographic system.

I had considerable sympathy for General Marshall the other day when he said that he sometimes feels as though he were compelled to act as a sort of intelligence agent for the Soviet. Many of us have shared his frustration as we have seen his estimates, his recommendations and his proposed actions printed each day in the press for all the world to read. A certain amount of public discretion on these subjects is inherent in our system. It is unavoidable in a democracy.

At the outset we agreed unanimously that the matters under inquiry are so important we must have all of the available facts. We have also agreed that the American people are entitled to every single piece of information that can be safely spread on the public record. To those agreements I am a party, but I have insisted with all the power of my being that these hearings should not serve to create an arsenal from which our enemies can draw intelligence weapons that they may use to kill our men in Korea or to imperil our future security.

Russell Cites Cases Of Committee Leaks

Gentlemen, I can scarcely conceive of a graver responsibility. American boys are fighting and dying on a little tip of land thousands of miles from this hearing room. Our country is confronted on a perimeter of half a world with the most serious challenge to its very existence.

If any action of ours adds even remotely to the dangers that face our fighting men, if carelessness or indiscretion increases the perils that face our nation, neither our God nor our fellow citizens will ever forgive us, nor would we deserve such forgiveness.

We have undertaken to probe out of these hearings every possible security safeguard that human ingenuity can provide. The original documents and the undeleted record are guarded as carefully as such things can be. The transcript issued to the press and to the public is being censored by the most competent and trustworthy man that we could find, but, gentlemen, all of these safeguards, all of these carefully planned measures depend ultimately upon our acceptance of our responsibilities as Senators.

We can consult security officers, we can install safes, we can post armed guards, but only an individual sense of responsibility can prevent any member of this committee or any guest Senator from walking outside that door and revealing his knowledge to the world.

There are already cases in point. I have seen at least two newspaper stories purporting to quote unidentified Senators on evidence said to have been submitted to this committee which did not appear in the released transcript. I shall not of course comment on the accuracy or inaccuracy of such stories. To do so might give the Soviets a touchstone fo. determining which of them are authentic and which are not.

Perhaps neither of these will do material harm, but if others are to follow, we are indeed embarking upon a dangerous course. Somewhere along the line there will be a vital slip, and because of the slip men will die needlessly.

I am of course convinced that no Senator would deliberately release information that would endanger his nation or his fellow Americans. That is not the problem.

The great danger is the ever present threat of a careless word, a slip of the tongue or in disclosing facts in confidence to those unworthy of such confidence. It takes very little to give the agents of the Kremlin a clue which may lead them to a rich motherlode of information.

The evidence being adduced here has not been brought us to appease an appetite for the sensational or to satisfy idle curiosity. It is being supplied to aid us in fulfilling our high Constitutional duties.

There have been occasions when I have received information on secret matters that I would rather not have. It was unnecessary to me in the discharge of my duties. Some such information will be presented to this committee. This has caused me serious misgivings.

I have lain awake at night wondering whether by some incautious act, some error of judgment, we may betray something of vital import to our country. Although carefully censored, even the public record has carried some material which strikes me as dangerous. I am sure it is a great understatement to say that there have been some matters publicized which it cannot help the country to have our enemies know.

As the custodians of secret information, we have a double responsibility to the American people. It is our responsibility to make wise, courageous and patriotic use of it.

We have the added responsibility of jealously protecting it to insure it will not be used to our nation's harm. This is no time to gamble with security.

Such stakes as the lives of Americans and the safety of our nation are too precious to hazard. Let us embrace this opportunity to prove that democracy can meet such a challenge. This we can do if we accept in full the responsibilities of Senators of the United States.

Now, gentlemen, when we recessed on Saturday we had completed the first round of questioning of Secretary Marshall. There are those who had not been present and, of course, they will be reached on this second round. I have only one question, Mr. Secretary.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—Mr. Chairman?

THE CHAIRMAN—Yes, Senator.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—If it is not offensive, before we get into your question, may I be accorded the privilege of a slight comment on your statement?

THE CHAIRMAN—Yes, sir.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—I agree with the most sensible purposes and objectives of the chairman's statement. I think we ought to try to follow it most meticulously.

Now, I think that an admonition is not out of order, or out of place; but I call the chairman's attention, and the committee's attention, to the great discouragement that occurs to the members of Congress when certain newspaper men apparently get access to top-secret documents that could come only from administrative agencies, and where no effort is made in tracing down these leaks that come out of administrative agencies; and I think that an admonition and concern should be the position of this committee about those unwarranted and unauthorized access to top-secret information that is given certain favored newspaper men and certain favored columnists.

Those things have happened with too great frequency in the past, and have happened under such circumstances that they could not have come from members of Congress or Congressional committees, but could have only come from administrative agencies; and I think the admonition can well be taken by the administrative agencies, and I would like to see a far greater zeal on the part of those agencies to protect top secret documents in the future than they have exercised, apparently, in many instances, in the past.

Reference Is Made To Wake Island

Now, just one example, Mr. Chairman: I refer to the Wake Island top secret minutes. That is one of the latest. There is a myriad of them that emanate; and so, I think the chairman is perfectly proper in his statement to this committee.

I also feel that there are administrative agencies that have a primary responsibility regarding these doceuments, these top secret documents, that can well exercise not only a great deal more discretion but a great deal more of their legal responsibility in seeing that leaks do not occur, and that information, portions of information out of these top secret documents, are not made available to the public and in that way letting the Kremlin know, if you please, what newspaper men have particularly favored access to information that committees of Congress are not permitted to have.

THE CHAIRMAN—I should like to say in reply to that that release from any source whatever, whether it be executive, administrative, or any other branch of our Government, on the part of anyone who is charged with responsibility of handling documents that are classified is abhorrent to me, as abhorrent as it is to the Senator from Iowa or anybody else.

I have been greatly concerned about releases that have apparently come through the administrative agencies of the executive branch. Some of them occurred even before this incident we have under inquiry here that I condemned, but I, of course, have no control over the administrative branch of the Government.

But I do have a very definite responsibility here that has disturbed me greatly, and for that reason I made that statement; but certainly the same admonition that I have undertaken to state here applies with equal force to any portion of the executive branch of the government.

SENATOR BRIDGES — Mr. Chairman, may I comment on it, too, just a moment? The thing Senator Hickenlooper refers to disturbed me. If you recall, the Wake Island report which appeared in THE NEW YORK TIMES, it appeared when it was classified top secret. It appeared there, and the version that appeared in THE NEW YORK TIMES contained the things that when it was declassified and given to this committee, the release to THE NEW YORK TIMES carried certain items and certain matter that, even when it was declassified, were considered to be too classified to be released.

Now, that is certainly a serious breach, and personally I would like to see us find out who released that. That is a violation of a top secret thing of the United States Government. Who gave this to THE NEW YORK TIMES, which was classified top secret?

That is the most specific case in connection with these hearings, but there have been others, and, as far as I know, I haven't heard of one single, solitary thing that the Defense Department or anybody else has done to find out where that leak came from, not only find out where it came from, but take steps to punish the people that gave it out.

Now, I agree with you on all you say about the committee and the Senators, but I also say that people who have originally in their possession this top secret classified information are the chief offenders.

THE CHAIRMAN—I reiterate that I condemn, rather than condone, any of the releases to which the Senator refers or any other releases that might have taken place, but I shall not use dereliction on the part of anyone else as an excu for dereliction on my part, nor do I think this committee would like to use that as an excuse.

Now, General Marshall, I have one question that I do not intend for you to answer now, but I wish to have you prepare an answer for the benefit of this committee.

I would like to have you furnish in writing for the record the text of all of General MacArthur's statements which are regarded as having significance in connection with his dismissal.

I would also like you to furrnish in writing a full explanation as to why it is contended that each of these statements was considered to be in violation of directives or in conflict with known policies of the United States.

I think it is very important that the matter be presented for the record. We have dealt with it here in bits and dribbles but I should like to see a complete statement, and I think it would be very helpful to this committee.

Secretary Marshall Resumes Testimony

SENATOR CONNALLY—Senator George is in a hurry.

SENATOR GEORGE—Go ahead.

SENATOR CONNALLY — Very well.

Testimony of Secretary of Defense George C. Marshall, accompanied by Felix Larkin, general counsel (resumed).

SENATOR CONNALLY — General Marshall, do you believe that our air power and Navy could win a war against Red China and keep them out of an invasion of ——

SECRETARY MARSHALL — Keep them from ——

SENATOR CONNALLY — Keep them from making an invasion of Korea.

SECRETARY MARSHALL — Formosa, you mean?

Q.—No. I mean keep them from coming over like they are now. Could our Navy and Air alone, without any ground troops —— A.—I do not think they could, sir.

Q.—I believe it is contended by General MacArthur that he would not favor sending a single soldier, ground soldier to China, General. A.—That was my understanding.

Q. (continuing)—If we become involved in a war with Red China, and Russia should intervene, and then in that case we would have to send ground troops, would we not? A.—Well, we would have to accept the fact that we could not reach the ground in China proper except by air and close naval action otherwise.

SENATOR CONNALLY—I believe that is all for the present.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Bridges?

SENATOR BRIDGES — General Marshall, you said that the reason why General MacArthur was recalled, as he was, and that he got the rather unusual notice, was due to the fact that the plan which you set up or was set up for notifying him of his recall, that of having Secretary Pace formally call on him and notify him, was changed, and you indicated that it was changed for two reasons: One, that the power facilities broke down, and the message could not get through to Secretary Pace on time and, secondly, there was a leak.

Now, we have been talking about leaks this morning, and I would like to ask you who was present at the conference where this decision was reached on the recall of General MacArthur?

SECRETARY MARSHALL — I was not present, Senator, but General Bradley was, and I think the question had better go to him, because I don't recall exactly who was present.

Q.—Well, you were not present when the decision was made? A.—I was not present.

Q.—So, my point that I was getting at is that the leak must have come from a pretty high source, and if you were not present and did not know about the procedure to be followed, why then, of course, you could not be considered responsible for the leak, and the question should be addressed to somebody who was present. A.—I was communicated with over the telephone.

Q.—Yes. A.—About 10:30 at night, I believe.

Q.—Mr. Secretary, with regard to the question that has been asked you on the conflict between the views of the Defense Department and the State Department, are you familiar with the Joint Chiefs of Staff views on the National Security Council policy paper toward Asia which was being considered by the Security Council in 1949? A.—No, I am not familiar, sir.

Q.—If you are not familiar with it, then you could not comment on whether the Joint Chiefs of Staff were in conflict with the position taken by the State Department? A.—I am not familiar with that, sir.

Q.—What is your basis for believing — you reiterated several times here in answer to several questions that the bombing of Chinese Communist bases and attacking of Chinese Communist lines might involve us in a war with Soviet Russia. But, as I followed your answers to the questions, at no time have you given a specific reason as to why you think the bombing of Chinese Communist bases might bring on a war. I mean, you have referred to it in very general terms. I mean, do you have some reason for that belief, specific reason for that belief?

A.—I am sorry my previous statements were not clear enough. I thought I had explained.

However, it starts with the treaty relationship between the Soviet Government and the Chinese Communist regime; the possible reaction that might be the basis is one factor. Another factor is that carrying of the war into Manchuria, that is, north of the Yalu, would involve a very considerable reaction, and as to the Chinese Communist regime, whether or not the Soviet Government was letting them down in the circumstances that were created by that bombing, and the Soviet reaction as to what extent they could have a satellite as important to them as the Chinese Communist regime develop a feeling that they would have to go it alone.

Those would be the main considerations involved in the opinion that it was dangerous to carry out that bombing you have referred to. * * * (Three and one-half lines deleted).

Q.—Mr. Secretary, you referred several times to the unusual strength or the very sizable strength on the borders up there in this area and indicated it is of unusual strength. I want to ask you if it is not true that Russia has consistently maintained large numbers of ground forces and air forces and so forth on these borders for a period of many years even before this thing started.

A.—That is correct, sir, but I was given the impression, or the information, that more recently, notably since, I think, December, that there had been sizable increases in the garrisons in that region.

Q.—General Marshall, another thing that you have referred to quite consistently in your testimony is the Berlin airlift, and commenting very favorably upon our ability to meet the challenge to the airlift. You haven't discussed at all who was responsible for the necessity of meeting such a challenge to the airlift, in other words, who negotiated the terms which allowed us holding Berlin, for example, without a land corridor accessible or in access to it. Are you familiar with that, General Marshall?

A.—I think that came to its head in the Potsdam agreement, but I cannot be too certain between Yalta and that period.

Q.—But who would we ask that could give us that? A.—The State Department would have the records.

Q.—The State Department would have the details of that thing? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—You, General Marshall, according to your testimony, do you see anything strange in the logic which blames the Government of the Chinese Nationalists for its failure to stave off communism after aid had been cut off to it, and which praises the governments of Europe for being wise enough to accept our aid so that the same thing did not happen to them? A.—I am not quite certain that I understand the question, Senator.

Q.—What I mean is there a difference of logic here, as I see it, in running through your testimony where Chiang Kai-shek and the Chinese Nationalists we are blaming for their failure to resist the Communist hordes in China, after we had given them certain aid, and then we turn around and we are praising European governments who have been resisting on communism, and after accepting our aid.

In other words, what I am getting at is that we have done the reverse in these areas of the world.

A—Well, I am still a little doubtful, but I will try to answer. It seems to me that the way you have stated the question implies that the withdrawal of our aid from the Chinese Nationalist Government brought about the fall, the inability of that government to resist the Communists' infiltration and military—

Whether the Nationalists Inflicted Heavy Casualties

Q.—That was what I intended to infer, that it was a major cause of it. I said you were right, I intended to infer that was a major cause in China.

A.—Then if I have got the question right, I don't think it's comparable on that basis for the reason that we provided a great deal of aid, and I know while I was Secretay of State we brought before Congress an item of 570 millions which involved the practicability of the Chinese Nationalists or Kuomintang Government of utilizing the funds that they already had to pay for imports into China, to buy the armament they might need, and that would be replaced out of this 570 million that I referred to. Four hundred million was actually appropriated, I believe, and one portion of 125 million, I think, was left for them to dispose of as they saw fit. In other words, they could buy arms with it or not as they saw fit.

What actually happened, as I analyze the situation, was that they had taken the equipment that we had given them, the munitions that we had provided them and the airlift and fighting planes that we had provided them with, and had attempted something that we all considered was a military impossibility for them, and they had wrecked themselves on that basis together with the character of leadership that was involved.

They had a great advantage in equipment, they had an advantage in numbers. They lacked in leadership and they lacked the general support of the Chinese public, because of the character of government that had been carried on through a period of years.

Now when they had overextended themselves, particularly in the matter of capturing cities, which they had to support, and the communications which they had to cover, they fell, you may say, of their own weight. That was quite a different situation in Europe. That is as near as I can answer the question, Senator.

Q.—Are you familiar with the statement made by one of the principal leaders of the Communist Government of Red China to the effect that—back here while the fighting was still going on on the mainland—that they had suffered terrific losses, and that they had lost 1,300,000, or had 1,300,000 casualties? Are you familiar with that? A.—"They" being who?

Q.—The Chinese Communists announced that they had suffered great losses. A.—I don't recall that statement, sir.

Q.—That differs quite a lot from the information which is put out in this country, that the Chinese Nationalists didn't fight. If the Chinese Communists suffered 1,300,000 casualties, certainly somebody did something to inflict these casualties, and that came as a statement from one of the Chinese Communist government officials.

Are you familiar with the statement that Mr. Acheson made on March 20, 1947, before the House Foreign Affairs Committee, in which he said:

"The Chinese Government is not in the position at the present time that the Greek Government is in, not approaching collapse, not threatened with defeat against communism. The war with the Communists is going on much as it has for the last twenty years."

A.—Well, if I was familiar, at that time, I presume I was, I have forgotten just the details of that.

Q.—Do you think that is a correct statement, at that time? A.—Hearing it today, the way you have read it, it would seem so.

Q.—You think that the State Department was justified in its opposition to certain Congressional demands for aid to China? Would you say, now, that the rather publicized Eightieth Congress possessed some foresight, and might have been unnecessarily belittled, in actions, in the light of recent events in Asia? A.—That is quite a question, Senator.

Q.—If you remember, the Eightieth Congress did take rather a forthright position on aid to China, and so that it would be—just asking you for comment, General. A.—All I can say is, in the document I read here before a committee, we asked for $575,000,000, and as I recall, I may be incorrect, but as I recall, the Congress appropriated $400,000,000, which would have some bearing on that particular question.

Q.—I did not get that. A.—Which would have some bearing on that particular question.

Q.—You asked for how many? A.—$570,000,000.

Q.—And Congress appropriated how much? A.—$400,000,000. That can be checked. I can be wrong, but that is my recollection.

Q.—I want to check on it, too, because I think you are wrong; but I would not say so now. You are talking from memory, and I am, but I certainly would like to check it very carefully.

Well, do you think the statement that Senator McCarran made in the United States Senate recently, when he said, "Thanks to General MacArthur, Japan, who was our enemy, is now our friend, while thanks to the State Department, China, who was our friend, is now our enemy," is correct?

A.—I do not think it is. In part it is correct; in part it is not, in my opinion.

Q.—Now, General, do you have a memory of a copy of a draft prepared before you went to China on your mission, Chinese mission, and was there a draft prepared of instructions to you by the Defense Department at that time? A.—I don't recall. There may have been, sir; I don't recall.

Q.—Would you check for us and find out whether that is true? My information is that there was a draft prepared for you, which was prepared and cleared by the heads of the department at that time, and then your formal directives or instructions which you received from the State Department were far different from this directive which was prepared or suggested by the then heads of the Defense Department; and if so, I think that the committee should have a copy of each to see the changes in the two directives.

A.—I presume when you say "Defense Department," of that period, you are talking about the War Department.

SENATOR BRIDGES—Let me see—1947, 1948—we had a Defense Department—yes, that is right; it would be the War Department at that time. No more questions.

Could Russia Utilize Middle East's Oil?

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator George?

SENATOR GEORGE — General Marshall, have you any dependable estimates of the petroleum supplies held by the Soviets in Siberia, the Vladivostok area, or in that area?

SECRETARY MARSHALL—No, Sir, I have not with me. I would have to go back to find out.

SENATOR GEORGE—Have you that? Is that available?

SECRETARY MARSHALL — Well, I will inquire of the Munitions Board and see if we have anything, and submit it to the committee, if you wish me to do so.

Q.—I would be very glad if you would do so. There is no oil in that area that is being taken out of the ground now, is there, of any consequence? A.—I think so, but I am too vague at the moment to answer that.

Q.—Of any great consequence. Have you any estimate of the oil supplies available to Soviet Russia, the Soviets, in the Western European area? A.—I have not myself, sir. Baku is the nearest principal supply that I recall.

Q.—General, this perhaps does not lie within your knowledge, but even if we had—if Russia had the oil supplies in the Middle East now, it would take her months, would it not, under the circumstances of war, to lay pipelines and construct the necessary machinery and equipment for the refining of that oil?

A.—If she did not control the refining establishments already in that region and they were not destroyed, I would assume that would be the case.

Q.—It would take her months. Would you be able to estimate how many months? A.—I could not do that offhand, sir. I think possibly —

Q.—I think it is generally conceded, is it not, General Marshall, that even their refining processes are not strictly modern, even those that they have in the Western European and the Baku area, let us say. So I would like for you, if you can, to give us an estimate of the oil in storage, held in tankers —I can conceive of no other way Soviet Russian could have any great supply of oil in the Far East, in the Siberian or Vladivostok area or Manchurian area, available to them.

A.—I will take your question from the record and see what information they can give you.

Q.—What she has available in storage or from production in the Western European area in comparison with the supplies that would be available to the North Atlantic area countries in Western Europe in the event of an outbreak of hostilities.

Now, General, in emphasizing the number of casualties that we might suffer in the event of the bombing of American cities, I think it has been suggested here and outside, as well, by responsible spokesmen of the Government, that the bombing of a single American city would result in more casualties than we have suffered in Korea since June 27 last.

I want to ask you one question, General. Do you not believe that the bombing of a single American city would unify this country against the Soviet forces everywhere instantly and to a higher degre than they have yet been unified?

A.—I would assume that would be the case, exactly as it was with Pearl Harbor.

Q.—It would mean if Russia should bomb a single American city, she would have decided upon all-out war; is that right? A.—That would be my conclusion.

SENATOR GEORGE — No further questions.

THE CHAIRMAN—Senator Saltonstall.

SENATOR SALTONSTALL — Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I would like to ask just a very few questions in summing up.

General Marshall, Chairman Russell has asked you for the written statements of General MacArthur that the Defense Department considered violating the President's instructions, and why. That is one question that is before this committee, as I see it.

The other question is the question of the policy in the Far East.

Now, may I just ask you to see if I have these summed up fairly clearly in my mind—the differences between you and General MacArthur.

Now, I have read and reread General MacArthur's speech before Congress, and I have listened to your testimony. General MacArthur stated emphatically that we should never let Formosa get into the hands of the Chinese. On that I understand you agree with him?

SECRETARY MARSHALL — Yes.

Q.—Mr. Secretary, General MacArthur has stated that we should never assent to the Red Chinese becoming a member of the United Nations. Do you also agree with him on that? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—General MacArthur advocated an economic and a naval blockade of China. An ecomonic blockade is now, we hope, becoming more effective. When it is effective, I understand from you that you consider a naval blockade becomes relatively unimportant. A.—That is correct.

Q.—You also agree with General MacArthur that no ground troops should under any circumstances be sent onto the mainland of China? A.—Correct.

Q.—General MacArthur advocates the removal of restrictions on air reconnaissance of Chinese coastal areas and Manchuria. As I understand it, on this you do not agree with him as you believe it might tend to bring Russia actively into the war. A.— * * * (two and a half lines deleted).

SENATOR SALTONSTALL — General MacArthur advocates the bombing of centers of supply in Manchuria.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—Mr. Chairman, I hope the Senator from Massachusetts will excuse my interruption, but I believe his question applied both to the coast of China and to air reconnaissance of Manchuria, and I do not know whether General Marshall understood that fully in the answer to the question. * * * (one and two-thirds lines deleted).

SENATOR SALTONSTALL — I thank the Senator from Iowa. General MacArthur's statement was on air reconnaissance over China and Manchuria. * * * (six lines deleted). You are also not in agreement with him as to the advocacy of bombing the supply centers in Manchuria?

SECRETARY MARSHALL — Under present circumstances, * * * (four lines deleted).

SENATOR SALTONSTALL — General MacArthur advocates the removal of restrictions on Chiang's forces on Formosa and logistical support to contribute to effective operations against the Chinese mainland. As I have listened to your testimony and to the evidence given Congress, we are now doing more to help Chiang's forces, and we are sending over a military mission to advise with them. On this, how much difference of opinion now exists between you and General MacArthur?

SECRETARY MARSHALL — * * * (eight lines deleted).

We also feel that at the present time while we are endeavoring to hold this to a limited war confined to the Korean peninsula, that it would be ill advised to carry out such action, since we are directly contributing to the defense of Formosa by the instructions to the Seventh Fleet, by our mission that we have established there, by the supplies that we are shipping there, and that therefore we would be endangering the confinement of the present operations to the Korean peninsula. I think that covers the attitude.

Oh, I remember now. May I add what I was trying to think of? It does not appear to us—and you can question the Chiefs of Staff very directly on this—that the return from such action would be in proportion to the probable results brought about by such action. That is all, sir.

Q.—I thank you, sir. Do I sum that up, what you have just said, reasonably correctly from your previous testimony and what you have just said * * * (four and a half lines deleted.) Is that a fair statement, summary of your statement? A.—Yes, sir, but it implies the general trend of my answer which I prefer to have off the record.

Differences Pinned To Calculated Risk

Q.—Yes. Now I believe that those sum up General MacArthur's recommendations. As I see it, you and he agree on some, the principal ones of which you do not agree are the questions of bombing in Manchuria and the use of Chiang's forces on the mainland.

Does not the real difference between you—and I have been trying to get the differences of opinion to make up my own mind—boil down, as I tried to ask you the other day, to an effort to determine the Soviet's intentions and the Soviet's capabilities to carry out those intentions in the Far East, and as to their effect on the starting of World War III?

A.—Senator, the portion of your question which brings up the consideration of developing the Soviet intentions I don't quite understand because we could find out very quickly if we did some of these things that we think hazard our entrance into a full war. We would learn their intentions in a very positive manner. Now other than that, I assume you are referring to our Intelligence services as to what is going on.

Q.—No. Perhaps I didn't put my question clearly, General Marshall.

What I was trying to analyze was the difference of opinion between you and General MacArthur, through your testimony and his, before this committee, particularly of the effect of bombing in Manchuria, and the use of Chinese Nationalist forces on the mainland.

As I get it, I am asking you, to put it in the form of a question: Doesn't the difference of opinion between you really boil down to the question of trying to analyze, as a calculated risk, to use that expression, the Soviet's intentions in the Far East, and their capability of carrying out those intentions, in other words?

A.—I understand that question; and I think—

Q.—That is what I am trying to say. A.—That is a positive difference. Analyzing that difference met my previous comment.

Q.—Well, haven't we, as members of this committee, got to determine, in our judgment, if we have to reach a conclusion on this subject, as to whether the calculated risk is best, one way, or the calculated risk is best the other way, as far as the United States is concerned?

A.—I think so. I might add a consideration to those questions that you have just asked, which I would assume General MacArthur did not bring into his statements here in this country: That is, the effect of utilizing Chinese Nationalist troops from Formosa, in Korea; and I would disagree as to that.

Q.—What was that last? A.—I would disagree as to that.

SENATOR SALTONSTALL—I thank you, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Smith.

SENATOR SMITH — General Marshall, I have a few questions here that I would like to ask you, if I may.

I was talking to Senator Thye, of Minnesota, on Saturday, after the hearing, and he raised a question with me with regard to the Yalta Conference; and I told him that I would be glad to join with him in asking certain questions to clear up some doubts in my own mind on that subject.

My first question is: You testified that you were one of the United States representatives at Yalta.

SECRETARY MARSHALL — Yes, sir.

Q.—Let me ask you: Why were Nationalist China and Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek not included in the Yalta Conference?

A.—Well, that is a question directed at a portion of the conference with which I am not familiar. I should imagine the reason was that the Russian Government was not at war with Japan at that time, and one of the problems the Japanese had to consider was whether or not the Russian Government would go to war with Japan.

The Chinese Nationalist Government under Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek was at war with Japan. I should imagine in those circumstances there was that reason, though I don't know, and you will have to ask that of some other source.

Q.—The reason for my question is that there was some disposition of China's status, and so forth, at the Yalta Conference. I was wondering why— A.—I was not in the political portion.

Q.—That was the political side, of course. Do you recall what was the secret agreement that affected China at Yalta? A.—Well, I wish you would ask that of the State Department and not of me, sir.

Q.—I find in the book by Edward R. Stettinius Jr. entitled "Roosevelt and the Russians; the Yalta Conference"— A.—I think I know what you are talking about. I remember your question the other day. We have been checking to see if there was a secret agreement of a military nature.

Secretary Did Not Know Factors of 'Secret' Pact

SENATOR SMITH—Mr. Stettinius was there as Secretary of State at that time. He says on Page 93 and 94 of that book that on Feb. 11, 1945, the following agreement was signed by Marshal Stalin, Prime Minister Churchill and President Roosevelt, and then follows the agreement, which is just a page.

Mr. Chairman, if I may have this insserted in this place in the record, I won't read it, except the high spots, but if it has to go in the appendix——

THE CHAIRMAN—In accordance with our policy, it will have to appea. in the appendix unless you read it.

SENATOR SMITH—The following agreement, referred to later as the secret agreement, is as follows. Now I am quoting from Mr. Stettinius:

"The leaders of the three great powers—the Soviet Union, the United States of America and Great Britain—have agreed that in two or three months after Germany has surrendered and the war in Europe has terminated, the Soviet Union shall enter into the war against Japan on the side of the Allies on condition that:

"1. The status quo in Outer-Mongolia (the Mongolian People's Republic) shall be preserved;

"2. The former rights of Russia violated by the treacherous attack of Japan in 1904 shall be restored, viz:

"(A). The southern part of Sakhalin as well as all the islands adjacent to it shall be returned to the Soviet Union.

"(B). The commercial port of Dairen shall be internationalized, the pre-eminent interests of the Soviet Union in this port being safeguarded and the lease of Port Arthur as a naval base of the U.S.S.R. restored,

"(C). The Chinese-Eastern Railroad and the South-Manchurian Railroad, which provides an outlet to Dairen, shall be jointly operated by the establishment of a joint Soviet-Chinese company, it being understood that the pre-eminent interests of the Soviet Union shall be safeguarded and that China shall retain full sovereignty in Manchuria;

"3. The Kurile Islands shall be handed over to the Soviet Union.

"It is understood that the agreement concerning Outer-Mongolia and the ports and railroads referred to above will require concurrence of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek. The President will take measures in order to obtain this concurrence on advice from Marshal Stalin.

"The heads of the three great powers have agreed that these claims of the Soviet Union shall be unquestionably fulfilled after Japan has been defeated.

"For its part, the Soviet Union expresses its readiness to conclude with the National Government of China a pact of friendship and alliance between the U.S.S.R. and China in order to render assistance to China with its armed forces for the purpose of liberating China from the Japanese yoke."

That is the end of the secret agreement as reported by Mr. Stettinius. That is important. Mr. Stettinius goes on to say in his book on Page 94, just following the quotation of the text of this secret agreement:

"This agreement regarding Japan, a top-secret document, did not appear in the protocol of the Yalta conference. It was taken to Washington and deposited in the President's personal safe. Few of the President's closest advisers knew of its existence. It was feared that if too many people knew about it, the information would leak out and reach Japan."

Then, a little lower down the same page, Mr. Stettinius writes, and I quote again:

"The Chinese were not notified immediately of this agreement at Yalta for fear the secret would not be kept in Chungking. Marshal Stalin told President Roosevelt at Yalta that the Russians would start sending divisions across Siberia but insisted that this must be done in complete secrecy. The President agreed, therefore, that only after the troop movements were completed would he explain the situation to the Chinese.

"The President, of course, did not live long enough to do this."

That is the end of Mr. Stettinius' quotation.

Now, the question I would like to ask you, first, is, were you familiar with this so-called secret agreement with regard to China?

SECRETARY MARSHALL — I did not know the factors of it at the time.

Q.—Can you tell me how was this agreement with Russia carried out; in other words, if Russia was to take over the surrender of Manchuria? I do not remember that. A.—Russia did.

Q.—That was my recollection. Did Russia turn over the Japanese captured arms and so forth which they got in Manchuria by surrender, to the Chinese Communists?

A.—So far as we know, they left them in dumps in Manchuria, and when they withdrew they were opened to Chinese Communists, who rearmed themselves.

Q.—The Chinese Communists got them. Did this possibly cause Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek to lose face in China, and especially in Manchuria? He was not notified of something happening. The Russians came in and took over the surrender of the Japanese, and these arms were turned over to the Communists, just at the time the Generalissimo was having his trouble with the Communists.

A.—I think, Senator, most of the weapons from dumps in Manchuria were taken over by the Chinese Communists at a much later date, after the Generalissimo was and had been apprised of the factors that you have been referring to.

My own recollection is that that apparently occured with the Russian formal withdrawal from Manchuria, after I went to China, and in 1946.

I know they were as far south, as the reports show, as the Yellow Sea at the time I was there, and this was quite a long period before they made the evacuation.

The Chinese Government, I believe, requested a delay of one or two months in the evacuation schedule for the Soviet troops, because they were not prepared to take over, and they wished to take over from the Soviet troops before the Communists could arrive in force. Now, I think after that—

Marshall Feels Proposals Were a Worry to Chiang

Q.— You meant by that, the Nationalist Government, Chiang Kai-shek's Government? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Very well.

A.—Now, after that, the Soviet troops withdrew, and my recollection of the factors involved in that were that they virtually removed most of the rolling stock in that withdrawal, which left little for the National Government to utilize for its troops in following up the withdrawal, and we never knew specifically what happened, but there were rumors, and there were accusations, on the part of the Chinese Nationalist Government that Communist troops had been facilitated in their movement north, and then they obtained these dumps of supplies.

Q.—Well, those are the rumors that, I think, and the story, that we have all heard with regard to that; and, of course, it would be followed up by the thought, I think—or I was told so—in China that with those developments, the people of China felt that Great Britain and the United States, at least had not done much for Chiang Kai-shek; and to use a slang expression, they had sold him down the river at Yalta in this secret agreement with the Russians taking over, and those supplies going to the Chinese Communists.

My question is to this purpose: We have been saying later Chiang Kai-shek lost his prestige, lost face. A lot of his troops defected, went over to the other side.

Now, is it not a fair question to ask whether these developments in Manchuria, this secret agreement at Yalta, was not an important contributory factor because of the loss of morale in Chiang's troops, and their later defection, and also the falling away of the Chinese people from Chiang, which you testified to earlier, which undoubtedly was the case?

A.—I assume that the knowledge of these proposed concessions, as it were, to be made by the Chinese Nationalist Government in their established relations with the Soviet Government, certainly were a great worry to the Generalissimo. How much was publicized over China generally I don't know. But, on the other hand, there was a movement of troops into Manchuria, which was carried out by our Navy, and they were landed there; and supplies were gotten for them there.

I personally arranged to have all of our sub-Arctic clothing brought down; had the officer go with it until it was all shipped, headed for the Manchurian coast.

We also transported ammunition, I think, directly from Okinawa to the Manchurian coast as a base of supply for those forces because they were going in with very inadequate supplies and very inadequate clothing into the winter of early 1946, so that so far as the military reaction is concerned, we had a very large movement, I think, of five or six armies to Manchuria—these figures are obtainable from the records—and transported by our naval shipping, and the troops themselves equipped with these special clothes that we were providing for them when the first units had gone in there with cotton clothes from down near Canton, and it was 30 to 40 degrees below zero, so you will have to make your own estimate as to the reaction of the troops, as to the Generalissimo losing face.

I would suppose that so far as those troops are concerned, that would not have been the case.

Q.—One question more on that China situation when you were there. What steps, if any, were taken by the United States to help train a free and democratic leadership in China? We have heard General Chiang criticized for not developing a democratic leadership and meeting the needs of the people.

Now, I know we did contribute military aid and advice for a time there, but did we contribute any efforts to develop a free and democratic leadership in China to bring about reforms that might have helped Chiang Kai-shek's administration?

A.—I am trying to figure out in my own mind how much is the military part and how much is the political part.

On the military side, we set up this military mission to which I have referred, and did it under the war powers of the President, and that was to engage in developing an effective army.

We ran into the difficulty of not being able to convince them that they could do a great deal south of the Yangtze River in preparing a solid basis for their military forces, what we are doing in this country, what we call basic military training.

I wanted that established all over that portion of central China south of the river, and had virtually picked out the man to direct it and arranged it so it would be done in such a manner it wouldn't revitalize the military control of the civil authority which we were trying to see developed, but we were not successful in that.

As to the commanders, where I thought their great weakness lay, a large number were demobilized but had to be continued on the payroll, and as to top commanders, we were far less successful because where I proposed the relief of this one and the relief of that one, I was not successful in doing so, notably in Manchuria. They were getting into trouble in which they could not sustain themselves.

That is the best I can give you on the military side. Now on the political side, in the set-up of the military system that was proposed and which was approved in connection with the demobilization of the forces and their reorganization and their integration, it was so set up that the military would no longer have control of the civil authorities, that military command would be restricted to military forces just as it is in this country.

And the supply factor would be handled so nearly as it was arrangeable in a way that could not be perverted and twisted off to some other use, and would be less subject to bad faith in the way it was conducted.

That is a statement largely military, but it was basic as to the build-up of any kind of a democratic government, because in each region where there was a military commander, he commanded that region and his troops were his sanction for that control. That had to be broken down or we got nowhere beyond a military dictatorship, in effect. So the terms of the demobilization, which are in print, as a matter of fact, envisaged a very careful set-up to prevent the continuance of that manner of military control, which was exerted throughout the country.

Q.—During that, General, as I read the White Paper, is just about the time some of our representatives in China were arguing in favor of the Chinese Communists, as agrarian revolutionists, and we ought to be turning our attention to them and giving less support to General Chiang and the National Government. It is that turnover of policy that I am trying to locate the timing of.

A.—I think you are involved there, Senator, in a gradual procedure.

Relations With MacArthur Before the Korean War

Q.—Yes.

A.—For example, there was the period there along about August and September of 1946 when a last effort was made to see if we could call off the military contests, in central China in particular, that we ceased shipping munitions for use on the battlefield during this final effort to try to bring to a halt the military operations that were then going on and which were developing into a general war all over North China. It had developed into a fight in Manchuria, but we had been able, up to the middle of June, to avoid that in North China.

Now it was in the final effort to try to control that, in which it was quite evidently a campaign of the Generalissimo to defeat the communistic effort by military action, that the first step was taken to cut off the further shipments at that time of munitions that could be immediately used on the battlefield.

For instance, it didn't affect transport planes but it did affect combat planes. However, their state of equipment was such that they were amply provided up through, we will say, into the middle of the winter. It did not succeed to that end. And then there was a gradual procedure where the supply of military matériel, part of that was resumed later on. I have forgotten just what the dates are, but that can be gotten out of the record and particularly out of the State Department evidence.

Q.—Thank you, Mr. Secretary.

I want to turn again to the MacArthur situation and ask you this question: Whether any misunderstandings or disagreements between General MacArthur and the Department of Defense or the Department of State existed prior to the Korean aggression of 1950, June, 1950. We have been discussing here the differences between the departments here and the general since the Korean outbreak. Well, what I want to know now is whether any disagreements or misunderstandings existed between General MacArthur and the Department prior to the Korean outbreak.

A.—I cannot answer that, sir. I can find out, on the Defense Department side. I could have the records looked into and send you an answer; but you can get a direct answer, I think, from General Bradley, as Chief of Staff; and, on the State Department side, I do not know.

Did Policy Leaders Visit MacArthur in Far East?

Q.—You were, I think, Secretary of State prior to the Korean aggressoin? A.—I was Secretary of State until Jan. 3, 1949; and I ceased to function as Secretary of State the first week of December—

Q.—Do you recall any disagreement or misunderstanding with General MacArthur while you were Secretary of State?

A.—I would not wish to answer that offhand, because we were in the midst of discussions all the time as to the manner of how the Japanese nation was to be set up again, and more particularly in regard to the economic procedures. All of those matters were settled in the discussions. Now, just the various phases of the matters, I couldn't testify to, offhand.

Q.—Well, could you say whether those discussions on economic and other problems were on an amicable basis, or were there sharp divergencies? I understand that some of those conferring with General MacArthur on the economic situation came to some disagreement with the general. A.—Well, I couldn't answer that very well. I know we sent out various people in connection with it.

Q.—Now, General, did any of the policy-makers in the Department of State or the Department of Defense get to the Far East, and consider General MacArthur's problems with him, prior to the Korean aggression, in June of 1950; and I ask specifically if any of the following with the Department of State were there:

You testified you didn't go, yourself.

I understand that Mr. Lovett, Under Secretary Lovett, hadn't been out there; Secretary Acheson of the State Department had not been out there; Under Secretary Webb of the State Department never was out there; Assistant Secretary Dean Ruck, up to that time, had not been out there; Ambassador Jessup, who had taken quite an active part in developing foreign policies, I was told, had never been out there until after my trip in 1949, and I am just wondering whether I am mistaken in the information that I have that none of the group, this group had ever been out there and discussed with General MacArthur, on the ground, some of the problems that he was facing?

A.—I think that Mr. Dean Rusk, present Assistant Secretary of State, who is involved in Far Eastern policy, made the trip out there.

Q.—Of course, he has been there since the Korean outbreak, I know, a number of times; but I was wondering if he had been there prior to that time? A.—I think so, but that information can be obtained from the State Department. I will ask for it.

Q.—Now, none of the following, from the Department of Defense was out there:

The Secretary of War, or of the Navy, prior to unification; yourself, since you have been Secretary of Defense—you testified you have not been out there; Secretary Lovett, of Defense, has not been out there.

I understand that of the Secretaries of the Army, Navy and Air, only Secretary Pace has been out there, and that is very recently.

A.—Mr. Matthews has been out there.

Q.—Secretary Matthews was out there? A.—Yes.

Q.—But not prior to the Korean outbreak? A.—After the Korean outbreak.

Q.—Of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, only General Collins came out there, when I was there in the fall of 1949. Of course they have all been out there since the Korean outbreak; but prior to that, when some of these other problems were brewing, I cannot find that any of our Joint Chiefs of Staff, or any of our leaders in the Defense Department or State Department ever went out there, although all of them were going to Europe constantly.

A.—General Eisenhower was out there in April and May, 1946.

Q.—'46? A.—Yes.

Q.—Was he Chief of Staff then? A.—He was Chief of Staff then, and——

Q.—I am glad to get that— A.—And General Collins was there in '49.

THE CHAIRMAN—Let the witness finish answering the question, please.

SECRETARY MARSHALL—General Collins was there in '49. Those are the principal visits I have here.

SENATOR SMITH—That is what I thought, from your testimony, that General Collins had been there, and you say now, General Eisenhower.

SECRETARY MARSHALL—Now, I am not including Secretary Pace. We would have to look that up, because I think that he was out there several times.

Q.—I just am not clear why, with these matters developing out there, if there were any misunderstandings with General MacArthur, there wasn't some attempt made to go out there and try to straighten them out.

Let me ask you this question: Did any of those named, since the outbreak in Korea, like the Joint Chiefs of Staff, you testified at the time that they had never been to Formosa—that none of our chief policy-makers have ever been to Formosa?

A.—They are looking up the record now. I haven't got the word, but they can tell you directly, when they come in here.

Q.—My next question on this same line is: Were there any disagreements with General MacArthur that were taken up with him at Wake Island? From this report that we have had published here, apparently there was nothing very much in the way of a disagreement at Wake Island.

A.—All I have had is that report. I have had nothing in addition to that; and General Bradley, who was present, can give you a direct answer.

Q.—Well, finally, on this point: I am troubled by this question: Why could not a personal meeting in Washington and Tokyo have been arranged with General MacArthur, to request him to turn over his Korean command to General Ridgway, in the light of the differences, and discuss the general S. C. A. P. situation with him?

It would seem to me, with a matter of this importance, it is hard to understand why some one of the Joint Chiefs of Staff wouldn't have gone to General MacArthur and called attention to this disagreement, and asked him, as I asked him here, the question—whether he wouldn't turn over his Korean command to General Ridgway, in the light of those differences, and he answered that he would have, of course, had he been asked; and I am not clear why it was necessary to take this abrupt action with a man of his caliber, and a five-star general.

A.—It was felt, in the opinion of all those I have mentioned, sir, it was necessary to do that.

Q.—Had to move rapidly. Now, could I ask you this question, which may be a little embarrassing, but I do want to get an answer to it.

Is the report true that the removal of General MacArthur had been planned by the Executive Department for a long time, long before you were made Secretary of Defense?

A.—It would have to be—depending on just a guess, on my part, or a statement from what I'd know.

I would have said that that was not the case at all; that there was really very genuine regret that the action of dismissal was actually taken, and that every careful consideration was given to ways and means possibly to avoid that action.

I cannot speak of the President. I cannot speak for my predecessors, but I have received no indication whatsoever that there was any such idea on foot. The general assumption was that General MacArthur would remain in office until the Japanese peace treaty was signed; and the question then was, how—where should he go, and where did he wish to go?

Q.—That would be after the Japanese peace treaty —. A.—After the peace treaty was signed.

Q.—That is what I understood him to say, that it has been in his mind to retire, himself, after the peace treaty was signed, because he felt that he should then withdraw.

A.—That was the general assumption, and I have already stated that one of the considerations that were talked over, was this action that was taken, and whether it could be stayed until such time as the peace treaty had been accomplished—and that was considered at some length.

Q.—Now, this is just confirming, I think, what you have testified to here before. It has been stated in some quarters that the United States Government plans eventually to agree to the entrance of the Red Chinese Government into the United Nations. The testimony presented thus far has not produced any clear understanding on this point.

I think you have testified, or stated quite categorically, that as far as the Defense Establishment was concerned, it is unalterably opposed to Red China's entrance into the United Nations. I think you stated that previously.

A.—That part that applies to the Defense Department is correct, but you can question the State Department on the general procedure.

Whether MacArthur Knew Of Change in Attitude

Q.—Will it continue to be the policy of the Department of Defense, or does the department stand ready to consider the question of the entrance of the Red Chinese into the United Nations as a bargaining point in the Korean peace settlement? A.—I don't think that I could be more categoric in my replies than I have already been on that subject.

Q.—That lays the foundation for the next question: Do you believe, General Marshall, that what has happened in China is a conquest of that country by Soviet Russia, and that there is consequently a control of China today by an external power, namely, Russia? A.—I think that is generally a fact.

Q.—Does that imply that the admission of Communist China to the United Nations would mean the recognition by the United Nations of the conquest of China by an external power—Russia? Wouldn't that inevitably follow? A.—I think that would be the natural assumption. It means an additional vote of the Communist group.

Q.—Would this be something quite different from the mere determination of a procedural question of credentials when the question of the veto comes up? A.—It is undoubtedly a consideration, but as to the procedural part, I won't attempt to answer that.

Q.—The statement has been made that it is simply a procedural point for the credentials to be accepted. Here we have a conquest by an external power and control by an external power. A.—Which they will deny.

Q.—They will deny it, of course, but they will ask that their puppet be admitted to the United Nations. Now, the next question is this: Would this control of China by an external power be a sound ground to use the veto against the admission to the United Nations and to the Security Council of this externally controlled Peiping Communist government?

A.—I have already involved myself in the legalistic, and I would rather not answer the question.

Q.—I want to get the question in the record as a suggestion. One more question and I am through.

I just want to get this clear, because I a mstill confused in my own mind by the Joint Chiefs of Staff statement of Jan. 12. You have testified several times, General Marshall, that the Jan. 12 Joint Chiefs of Staff recommendations were modified later in January in light of the improved conditions in Korea.

General MacArthur stated before the Congress and before these committees that the Joint Chiefs of Staff shared his view on the four important courses of action he recommended.

I have gone through the record carefully to see if at any point General MacArthur had been notified that the Joint Chiefs of Staff had changed their views. I can't find any place that MacArthur was notified of the change in their views. I wonder if I am wrong about that. Were his views shared by the Joint Chiefs of Staff on Jan. 12 or did he share the Joint Chiefs of Staff views on Jan. 12 and was he incorrect in any respect when he said he had not learned that they had changed their views since that time?

A.—Senator, I have done my best here a number of times to explain the relationship between the paper of Jan. 12 which was to the Security Council, and its reference to General MacArthur by General Collins in person as a matter of information, which would naturally be of great interest to him, and the directive of the Chiefs of Staff of the previous day, Jan. 11, and its relationship to the President's message of Jan. 13.

Now, really, I think you should go further for information from the Joint Chiefs of Staff themselves.

SENATOR SMITH—I thank you. I do not want to press that, I just want to make it clear I am not clear on that matter. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN—I have just received notification from Senator Byrd's office that he telephoned and asked that I be informed that he was detained in Virginia due to the illness of his mother. He asked that the message go in the record.

Most of us have had the privilege of meeting Mrs. Byrd, the mother of Tom, Dick and Harry team, three great Americans who have contributed to their country.

I am sure that I voice the sentiments of every member of this committee and the members of the Senate who are visitors here, when I say that we all fervently hope that Mrs. Byrd's illness will not be serious and that she will soon be restored to complete health.

Senator Johnson.

SENATOR JOHNSON—General Marshall, in the light of present world conditions and present conditions in the Far East, you are of the opinion that the programs and policies that we are now carrying out in Korea is the most prudent and wise policy that this Government could carry out under the circumstances?

SECRETARY MARSHALL—That is correct, sir.

SENATOR JOHNSON—General, do you know whether your viewpoint is shared by the civilian heads of the three services, the Army, the Navy and the Air Force?

SECRETARY MARSHALL—I wouldn't answer that. I don't know of any difference in viewpoint.

Q.—Do you know of any disagreements they may have as to the wisdom of the present policy? A.—I don't know of any, sir.

Q.—Do you know of any disagreement that any individual member of the Joint Chiefs of Staff may have with the wisdom of the present policy? A.—No, sir.

Q.—Do you believe that they are in harmony and agreement with the wisdom of that policy? A.—That is the impression that I have.

Q.—Do you know of any responsible or respected high military man now in the Department of Defense that feels that our policy is unwise? A.—None has been brought to my attention.

Q.—Is it your opinion that General Ridgway feels that our course of action and our program is a wise one? A.—We have had no indications from him to the contrary.

Q.—Have you had any indications from General Van Fleet or General Stratemeyer or Admiral Joy that they would prefer to embrace or substitute any other program for the progra mwe are now following?

A.—I recall, of course, in the case of General Stratemeyer that he made statements in an interview in relation to the U. S. weekly magazine [U. S. News & World Report] advocating, I believe, the bombing in Manchuria.

Q.—Have you seen any official recommendation of either General Van Fleet, General Stratemeyer or Admiral Joy in that regard?

A.—I have seen none. There may have been communications, as I think there frequently has been, between General Stratemeyer and General Vandenberg. I don't know on this particular point, but General Vandenberg can answer that.

Q.—Do you know of any member of the National Security Council that feels it would be the better part of wisdom to embark upon the MacArthur program instead of the one now being carried out?

A.—Senator, I do not think that I should comment on the views of a group like that. It is a matter of the individual himself. I hesitate to answer this way because it sets up the implication that there have been such disagreements.

Q.—I know of none but I just assumed that the National Security Council was well aware of our policy and our program, and if there had been any vital disagreement with that policy, that program, we would have heard about it.

A.—Well, I am establishing a precedent when I begin to interpret the various members. I am quite sure that our action has been sufficiently harmonious.

Q.—Have you at any time received any recommendations from any of the foreign commanders to the effect that we should abandon our present program and embark upon the MacArthur recommendations?

A.—Such recommendations would normally go to the Supreme Commander in Tokyo, and I have no information on that subject. The Chiefs of Staff could give you a more detailed answer.

Prompt Action Asked On Manpower Bill

Q.—You have indicated that in your opinion we are not as prepared as we might be at this time. I wonder if you would give this committee the benefit of your recommendations as to what we can do? What the country can do, what the Congress can do, what your department can and should do to speed the day when we will be prepared.

A.—The most important action that I can think of at the moment is the conclusion before the Congress of their consideration in relation to the manpower act, which contains the basis for a continued improvement in our military posture with a decreased cost. That is not to my mind merely the question of the general discussions but the time factor is becoming very serious because our further actions, particularly in the way of legislation regarding the reserves and all, are dependent on what the set-up is to be.

At the present moment then I feel that prompt action regarding that manpower bill, and I hope action that does not destroy the most important phase of the matter, should be brought to a conclusion.

As to the appropriations, I think I have already said that I thought the Congress had acted with commendable promptness despite the large sums involved in regard to the various supplementary appropriation items. I believe the Senate still has to act—I am not quite certain—on the Third Supplemental of some $6,500,000,000. But what comes in your actions relating to the new 1951-52 budget I can make no comment on. The hearings seem to be going along all right and with a very considered understanding of the problems involved.

The general procedure under Mr. Wilson, I would not attempt to analyze that because it is a very complicated matter, I am principally concerned with the inflationary factors which cut down our Defense Department purchasing requirements.

The attitude of the people, of course, is a very impressive factor in the whole affair; and what I am always worried about, and reference has been made to something of the sort this morning, is that we have to wait for some catastrophe to bring the unified action that the country will always give you.

I am very hopeful that they can all realize that we must move together in reasonable unity and very solidly behind the whole program.

That is talking in generalizations, but my main consideration there is that we don't have to wait for a catastrophe to bring about that energy, that unity that is so essential.

Q.—You mentioned the important basic phases of the manpower program. Would you care to elaborate on what you consider the more important ones?

A.—The most important factor in the manpower bill is, of course, the Universal Military training and Service.

I have talked about that so often, I almost give offense by talking about it again. I was concerned in General MacArthur's statement in regard to it. But he prefaced his comments by the fact that he had not studied the bill, and he made a special reference to his concern as to its effect on labor.

Well, of course, he was not aware of the fact that labor has endorsed the bill, and it has been written in a way to cause the least unfortunate effect on the labor situation in our industries.

As to the part that gave me most concern, it was the implication, if not the direct statement, that it was a matter that must have very serious consideration. He had said almost the same words before the Seventy-second Congress, and I think ever since then we have been giving it very, very serious consideration; and I cannot think of much else that can be said on the subject.

Q.—Do you know of any proposal advanced by the Department of Defense in your experience that has had more adequate consideration than the Universal Military Training program? A.—Offhand, I cannot think of any, except, maybe—but in a quite different manner—the question of what an officer can and should talk about before a committee, and what he should not, if anything. (Laughter)

Q.—There is certainly no disagreement within the services or within the department that you are aware of with regard to the bill passed by the Senate on manpower?. A.—It had the complete endorsement of all the various portions concerned.

Q.—Are you satisfied with the deliveries that are being made to the various services of equipment that would be required to give training and equip them for combat? A.—I have had no reports brought to my attention or to me of what were thought to be serious delays in the matter. But I cannot give you any details at the moment because they have not been brought to my attention, as they would most certainly have been if there were undue delays in the production deliveries.

Q.—In short, it is your opinion that the civilian heads of the services and the military heads of the services, namely, the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and the other responsible and respected officials in the department believe as you do that the program we are now carrying out in Korea is the more prudent one, and the wisest one in the light of all the conditions? A.—The secretaries, the Chiefs of Staff, and my immediate associates that I work with give me that impression.

Q.—And if they felt otherwise, you think they would be frank enough to submit recommendations to you? A.—I am quite certain they would. I get a great deal of frankness in a day's business.

Q.—Is General Eisenhower familiar with the program we are carrying out in Korea? A.—I think he is.

Q.—Have you received from him at any time in your discussions with him and his problems, have you received any indication that he feels that our program is an unwise one in Korea? A.—I have had no detailed report from General Eisenhower since he has gone to Europe except in one matter which concerned his own local problem, in which he wished to be certain we all understood it and took his point of view.

Q.—I am not asking for detailed reports. Undoubtedly before he went there he was aware of what our policy was and what our program was and how it meshed in with his plans and his program and what I want to ask you is: Has he at any time given you any indication that he thinks the course we are following out there is not a wise and prudent one?

A.—He has given me no such indication. I have been trying to think of what had happened in my few conversations with him before his departure, and I think his only concern was that he was not left without any American acquisitions to his military force.

Q.—Do you think the adoption of the MacArthur recommendations would require adjustments of General Eisenhower's plans and would seriously affect those plans? A.—We fear that it might.

SENATOR JOHNSON — Thank you, General.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Green.

SENATOR GREEN—Mr. Chairman, the questions I had in mind to ask are minor ones. They are matters of minor importance, and in view of the length of General Marshall's testimony, I will shorten it by not exercising my right to ask questions.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Morse.

MacArthur Declared Fully Informed

SENATOR MORSE — General Marshall, I hold in my hand a document, a secret document, entitled "Joint Chiefs of Staff Report for Senate Committees on Korean Operations." It is a report which purports to set forth the actions taken by the Joint Chiefs of Staff from the beginning of the Korean war starting June 25, 1950, to April 11, 1951.

It sets forth paraphrased statements of messages and communications which the Joint Chiefs of Staff sent to their superiors, the Secretary of Defense, President of the United States, along with communications which they sent to other officials of Government, such as the Secretary of State.

It also contains paraphrased statements of communications which the Joint Chiefs of Staff sent to General MacArthur, referred to constantly in the volume as CINCFE. [Commander in Chief Far East].

With that description of the exhibit, Mr. Secretary, I ask you first: Are you familiar with the exhibit?

SECRETARY MARSHALL—I have read it, sir.

Q.—Next I ask you if, in your opinion, the exhibit presents a great deal of evidence in support of the conclusion that the Joint Chiefs of Staff kept General MacArthur informed in great detail as to all steps which were being taken on the part of the Joint Chiefs of Staff in connection with their command obligations and responsibilities with the Korean war? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—In your opinion, does the exhibit show that the Joint Chiefs of Staff sought at all times in connection with every major problem and many problems that might be classified as not major arising in connection with the Korean war to obtain General MacArthur's views and recommendations with respect to the same? A.—I think it does, sir.

Q.—Now, General, I want to turn to the exhibit—I shall not dwell on it any longer than I feel necessary—in order to establish one thing that I think needs to be established in this record, because I look upon this exhibit as the best evidence that anyone has submitted in this hearing as to the relationship, the official relationship, that was maintained between the Joint Chiefs of Staff and General MacArthur, and also the best evidence of any information that has been supplied to the joint committee to date as to the lengths to which the Government went in its relationship with General MacArthur as CINCFE, in an endeavor to avoid the development of any misunderstandings between the general and the Government.

I think it rather important that the record relate rather definitely some of the major events in connection with the Korean war concerning which subsequent differences of opinion seem to have developed between General MacArthur and the Government.

On Page 24 of this document, under Item 32, I find that the Joint Chiefs of Staff are very much concerned about Formosa, and

"On July 28, 1950, informed CINCFE that the Chinese Communists had announced their intention of capturing Formosa and that the Communist capabilities therefore could probably be resisted effectively only if the Chinese Nationalists made timely efforts to defend that island.

"The Joint Chiefs of Staff also informed CINCFE of their recommendation to the Secretary of Defense that the Nationalist Government be permitted to employ its military forces in defensive measures to prevent Communist amphibious concentrations directed against Formosa on the Pescadores, even if such measures included attacks against concentrations on the mainland.

"CINCFE was further informed that the Joint Chiefs of Staff had recommended that the United States inform the Nationalist Government, if the recommendations of the Joint Chiefs of Staff were approved. Later, on 2 August 1950, the Joint Chiefs of Staff informed CINCFE that no action had been taken on their recommendations and that pending such action the existing policy toward Formosa would remain unchanged.

"In his reply to the Joint Chiefs of Staff, dated 29 July 1950, CINCFE stated his complete concurrence with their recommendations regarding the Island of Formosa and the Chinese Nationalists. He also informed them that he was proceeding to Formosa with a selected group of staff officers on or about 31 July 1950 to make a brief reconnaissance of the situation there."

Now, in view of this exchange between the Joint Chiefs of Staff and CINCFE, is it not true, General, that on July 28, 1950, the Joint Chiefs of Staff and CINCFE were in agreement as to the policies that should be followed with regard to Formosa? A.—It appears so.

Q.—Do you know of any incident since July 28, 1950, when the Joint Chiefs of Staff and CINCFE were not in agreement as to policies to be followed in regard to Formosa? A.—The only one I can think of at the moment is the desire of General MacArthur in November to bring some 60,000 Formosan Nationalist China troops into Korea.

Q.—Into Korea. But with respect to Formosa itself——. A.—That has a relation to that as to what it would do to the garrison of Formosa.

Q.—That is correct. I think my question is certainly subject to the qualification you make in respect to it. But let me put my question this way: Save and except for General MacArthur's recommendation in November, 1950, that some 60,000 Nationalist troops should be taken to Korea from Formosa, was there any difference between General MacArthur and the Joint Chiefs of Staff as to the defense of Formosa proper? A.—I do not recall any, sir.

Q.—In respect to——. Let us pause for a moment now that you have raised this and ask a question or two with regard to his recommendation concerning the use of Nationalist troops in Korea, some 60,000 or thereabouts. * * * (Twenty-three lines deleted.)

Q.—Another question or two in regard to the Formosan issue and its relationship to the Nationalist troops, General. Am I correct in my understanding that the Joint Chiefs of Staff recommended against General MacArthur's proposal of November, 1950, for the use of some 60,000 Nationalist troops? A.—I think that is correct, sir. Of course, they can give you a very specific answer, but I think the records show that. * * * (Twenty-five lines deleted.)

Q.—At the time of the general's proposal in November, 1950, to use some 60,000 Nationalist troops in Korea, had strong representations already been made to the Government by our allies through which representations they made clear that they were opposed to the use of Nationalist troops in Korea? A.—That is my recollection, Senator, but I would prefer that you go to the State Department.

Q.—But it is your opinion that this whole question of the use of Nationalist troops in connection with the Korean war from the very beginning of that war has raised a complicated problem with our allies? A.—That is correct, sir.

Q.—Now while we are still on this point of the Nationalist troops, General, it is my understanding that General MacArthur favors the sending of a mission to Formosa, American military mission, to give technical advice and technical training. It is my understanding that he also favors an increase in American military aid by way of equipment to the Generalissimo's troops, is that your understanding? A.—That is my recollection. * * * (Thirteen lines deleted.)

Q.—That should be off the record. However, I just do not see how we can go through the record in the exhibit which the Defense Department has submitted to us with giving some attention to the chronological steps that occurred which I think outline the final disagreement that caused the removal of General MacArthur, and that is why I am—— A.—I am not making any suggestions as to the chronological steps. It is the reasons for the viewpoint of the Chiefs of Staff.

Q.—It is my understanding, General, that it is the position of General MacArthur that after we supply the Generalissimo's troops with military aid and technical advice, the question should then be left up to the Generalissimo to decide what he wants to do with his troops thereafter. A.—So long as it does not involve us in a world war, or an enlargement, which we think is dangerous.

Aid to Chiang Called Defensible

Q.—I am glad to have your answer. You have anticipated another question I was going to ask you. A.—Of the Korean conflict, without giving adequate return.

Q.—I simply say, that I happen to be one who has felt for some time that it was a mistake for us, by way of unilateral action, to prevent the Generalissimo from carrying on war on the mainland of China if he wanted to carry it on.

It seems to me that when we took that course of action we necessarily involved ourselves in a phase of the China war that was bound to result in some embarrassment. But, be that as it may, that is the situation in which we find ourselves, so I now ask you the question, do you know of any offer on the part of the Generalissimo to fight on the mainland without—mainland of China — assistance from American troops, if we desist, if we desisted, from our naval policy of preventing him from conducting a raid on the mainland, and he wanted to do it?

A.—I don't recall such.

Q.—Do you think the Joint Chiefs of Staff will be in a better position to advise this committee if the Generalissimo has ever made an offer since the outbreak of the Korean war to fight on the mainland of China on his own initiative, without support from American troops, if we release him from the naval restrictions which now prevent him from conducting an amphibious landing on the mainland, if he wants to?

A.—Well, the Chiefs will give you a better answer to that than I can, sir; a more precise answer.

Q.—Do you agree with me, General—strike that. General, do you not think it would be a proper course for our Government to follow if we are to provide the Generalissimo with the military mission and the military aid which he apparently seeks, find out before we make all those commitments whether or not he would be willing to conduct an operation on the mainland of China?

A.—Read the first part.

(The question was read as requested.)

A.—I become involved in a rather difficult answer because I would consider at the present moment it would not be advantageous to our interests to have him do so. In a general way, we should know what he would purpose doing with better equipment, but as to our implying that the equipment would only be produced for that specific purpose or that general purpose, I find myself in some doubt.

We want to make certain that he can manage the defense of Formosa without assistance by ground troops from us, and with the assistance that we could divert from Korea in the air, and by sea to the defense of Formosa.

Q.—Am I correct in my understanding that the military assistance we now propose to give to the Generalissimo, including both technical training from a military mission and military equipment, would not be needed in the quantity that we propose to supply it if his function is to be primarily the defense of Formosa, and not an attack on the mainland of China?

A.—I would think the present proposal as to equipment and such, all of the equipment involved, would be needed to make certain of his capability of defending Formosa. * * * (Four lines deleted.)

Q.—I am very glad to have that answer, General, because I think, for the record, it is a very important answer because of this problem, namely, I assume that we will be confronted with a rather complicated situation in relation to our allies if they continue to hold what I think is a mistaken point of view, but they have held it to date, the point of view that the United Nations should not give support to the Generalissimo in conducting a civil war in China. But I understand your answer to mean that whatever assistance we now are giving or propose to give to the Generalissimo can be defended, as far as the United States is concerned, on the ground that it is assistance that can be used very effectively in the defense of Formosa, irrespective of whether he sends one soldier to the mainland of China.

A.—That is correct, sir.

Q.—Now, returning to the exhibit of secret information previously identified and referred to, I notice on Page 26, Item 38. It says that:

By the end of July it became apparent that it was necessary to expand the scope of air operations beyond that of close support of ground forces and air supremacy. Accordingly on 31 July 1950 the Joint Chiefs of Staff informed CINCFE that they would make available to him two additional bomber groups for the destruction of certain military targets."

Item 37 points out: (Thirty-one lines deleted; entire additional page deleted).

Page 27 of the secret exhibit previously referred to indicates, and I find that:

"On August 4, 1950, the Secretary of Defense, with the approval of the President and the Secretary of State, dispatched a message to CINCFE's visit to Formosa, reaffirming the decision of the President of 27 June with respect to Formosa, and pointing out that only the President has authority to order or authorize military action against concentrations on the mainland.

"While keeping the Joint Chiefs of Staff fully informed as to intelligence matters, the message to CINCFE stated that it was in the most vital national interest that no United States action precipitate general war or give excuse to others to do so. He was also informed, however, that his recommendations as to action to be taken were desired whenever appropriate."

Does not this message make clear to CINCFE the policy of our Government in respect its position on any action that might lead to widening the war or conducting operations on the mainland of China? A.—I think it does, sir.

Q.—Does it not, in part, provide an answer to the question that one reads so frequently in the press these days, did the Government keep CINCFE fully advised as to its position on Asiatic policy? A.—I think it does, sir.

Q.—Item 41, Page 27 of this exhibit says:

"CINCFE replied on 5 August 1950 to the effect that he was operating meticulously in accordance with the President's decision of 27 June which he fully understood. He further stated that he would under no circumstances extend the limitations of his authority as theatre commander, and expressed the hope that neither the President nor the Secretary of Defense had been misled by false or speculative reports from any source."

30.24- 23019

I have two questions on that paragraph, at least, General. One, does not General MacArthur's reply to the communication of August 4, 1950, previously referred to, make clear that General MacArthur understood the import of the message of Aug. 4, and apparently also understood that the message of Aug. 4 might be subject to the interpretation that there was some concern on the part of the Government as to whether or not General MacArthur was in agreement with the policies that the Government had set forth in not only that message but previous messages?

A.—It seems so.

Position Declared Clear to MacArthur

Q.—It is rather difficult, is it not, to interpret his assurance set forth in the latter part of this message, that he hopes that neither the President nor the Secretary of Defense had been misled by false or speculative reports from any source, in any other light; is that not right?

It would be rather difficult, I say, to interpret the language from the latter part of his report, which I just read, in any other light than that General MacArthur himself was apparently concerned as he read the message of Aug. 4 ——

A.—I think so.

Q.—Concerning whether or not the Government was concerned about his attitude.

In fact, may I ask this question, General, at this point. Is it not true that although General MacArthur did meticulously carry out to the letter the directives that were given to him in regard to military matters, nevertheless, this exhibit as well as other evidence in regard to which you have already testified in this hearing, shows that for many months preceding his recall the relationship between the Commander in the field and the Government was such that a considerable amount of effort was gone to by the Government in exchanges with MacArthur to make clear in detail the Government's position on Asiatic policy?

A.—I think the record indicates that, sir.

Q.—General, would it be a fair interpretation in your opinion to draw from the exhibit, through which I am now going, logically as to what I consider to be some of its major points, that although the relationship between General MacArthur and the Government did not show any failure on the part of the general to carry out meticulously his military directives, it did show a considerable degree of difference between the general and the officials of the Government in regard to the over-all Asiatic policy, both military and diplomatic?

A.—Read that, please. (End pending question was read by the reporter.)

A.—That is correct, sir, in my opinion.

Q.—It is only your opinion that I seek.

True, I am suggesting certain tentative conclusions that I think the record supports to date, and I am checking those conclusions against your opinion, because I want to be fair to all parties concerned.

Do you think, General Marshall, that in view of the contents of the exhibit which I am now examining in this questioning of you, it would be fair to say that the Government on the one hand and General MacArthur on the other seem to be dealing at arms length with each other in connection with the conducting of the Asiatic operation?

A.—I do not think of any actions on the part of the Government that suggests that it was proceeding on the basis of being at arms length. I do feel that beyond the decisions as to policy it was the view of the Government that we had to proceed in a very careful manner in our interchanges with General MacArthur because of his attitude, because of what he had stated publicly in regard to the matter, because of aur allies and their reactions and the general complications and delicacy of the situation under those conditions.

Differences Declared Serious Situation

Q.—Would it be fair to say that one of the problems which developed between General MacArthur and the Government was due to the fact that although General MacArthur carried out meticulously military directives that were sent to him, he nevertheless was inclined from time to time to make such public statements or release such news releases that created both within the Government and within American public opinion that there was not complete harmony and agreement between his administration of affairs in Asia including those of his military command, and the announced policy of the Government with respect to the same.

A.—I think that was the case.

Q.—In your opinion did not the creation of that attitude concerning what appeared to be a difference between General MacArthur on the one hand and the Government on the other create a very serious situation in connection with our Government's relation to her allies in the Untied Nations? A.—I think that is correct.

Q.—Do you think that the subject matter I am now discussing, which can be summarized by saying that irrespective of cause, the impression was abroad in this country and in the world that there were differences between MacArthur and his Government is one of the reasons for our allies wanting to know whose voice spoke in Asia, our Government's or MacArthur's?

A.—That is correct, sir.

Q.—And is it fair, do you think, for me to say that the impression of a difference which was created over a period of many months can be pretty much summarized by a phrase that you have already used in this testimony, namely, it was a mistake to have two voices attempting to speak for American policy in Asia? A.—That is correct, sir.

Q.—Now returning to the exhibit previously identified, Mr. Secretary, I find on Page 27 the following:

"The Joint Chiefs of Staff on Aug. 5, 1950 authorized CINCFE to conduct aerial reconnaissance over all Korean territory including up to the Yalu River on the west coast but short of the Korean-Soviet boundary on the east coast in order to establish the fact of support to the North Koreans by the U. S. S. R. or the Chinese Communists; but that all such flights must respect the northern frontiers of Korea."

Now that was Aug. 5, 1950, where apparently again he was authorized to do some aerial reconnaissance up to the Manchurian border in one case and apparently on the east coast of China, is that not true?

A.—I do not see an indication here of furtner reference at this time to the general coast of China. With that exception I think that is true.

Q.—I think you are right. It doesn't say the east coast of China but does include all of North Korea. A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Now, General, Page 29 of this exhibit, Item 48, under the heading, "The Decisions to Pass to the Offensive in Korea," it reads:

"The Department of Defense made a major effort to build up United States forces in Korea first for the purpose of halting the North Korean aggression, next for the purpose of stabilizing a military front, ultimately with the objective of passing to the offensive. Although there were some deficiencies, the requirements of CINCFE were met to the extent it was within the power of the Department of Defense to do so, but with due regard to United States military commitments and requirements elsewhere."

Now I raise this particular point, Mr. Secretary, because of the use in this paragraph of the phrase "for the purpose of stabilizing a military front," and I want to relate that to the so-called directive or plan of Jan. 12 in which the word "stabilize" is used.

As I read this exhibit — and I have studied it with considerable care—I have formed the conclusion—and I want you to check me as to whether or not you think it is proper — that by "stabilize" our military officials meant a status of our troops in defense, they meant laying down a line of defense that we could hold without further retreat, they meant a defense position in contrast to an offensive position, and that the proposal of Jan. 12 has to be read in light of what the military meant by "stabilize." Am I correct in that interpretation of "stabilize" as it is used in the directive of Jan. 12?

A.—I think that is correct, sir. you might add to that that it was used in connection with the situation at that time where we had been involved in retirements.

Q.—This reference that I have just read on Page 29 is in connection with instructions to General MacArthur concerning changing his tactics from a position of stabilization to a position of offensive. Does that not show that the defense establishment here in this country and CINCFE in Asia understood what the Joint Chiefs of Staff meant by the use of the word "stabilize"?

A.—I would assume so, sir.

Instructions to MacArthur Are Cited by Senator

Q.—The Jan. 12 proposal was not only a proposal in which the Joint Chiefs of Staff told General MacArthur of their tentative plans, set forth their tentative recommendations and proposals, but the very language of the order itself made clear, did it not, that they were talking in terms of falling back to the Pusan area or in a territory of proximity thereto, or evacuation?

A.—Yes sir; except that it was not an order, nor was it a directive. It was not to General MacArthur, it was to the National Security Council.

Q.—I am sorry that I used the word "directive," and I think I did in my question. I think I also said or meant to say, tentative proposals for a program to be followed by CINCFE in case the retreat then being engaged in continued to the point of the beachhead of Pusan or the complete evacuation of Korea. But for the purposes of reiteration and clarification, I want to put the question this way: Am I correct in my interpretation of the tentative proposals which the Joint Chiefs of Staff advised MacArthur on Jan. 12 they were giving favorable consideration to, involved a military plan for continued retreat, possible evacuation, and that they were proposals that should be followed, carried out, when the American-United Nations forces position became stabilized?

A.—Yes, correct.

Q.—And by stabilization the Joint Chiefs of Staff meant, and the exhibit from which I am quoting shows, that the word "stabilize" is used in that connection in military exchanges, a defense line which they were to hold?

A.—Correct.

Q.—Against the offensive of the enemy?

A.—That is correct, sir.

Q.—Do you think that this exhibit from which I am taking excerpts shows that when the Joint Chiefs of Staff sent to General MacArthur either directives or recommendations in connection with an offensive, they did not use the term "stabilize"?

Q.—On Page 35 of this exhibit, General, I read:

"Item 20. On Aug. 29, 1950, the President dispatched a personal message to General MacArthur giving him, for his information, the text of a letter which had been forwarded to Ambassador Austin on Aug. 27, 1950. The President mentioned a letter which Ambassador Austin had, on Aug. 25, addressed to Secretary General Lie. This letter admirably summed up the position of the United States Government, as stated by the President in his address on June 27, 1950, and again in his message to the Congress on July 19, 1950."

And then it sets forth seven points, covering the United States Government's position as to policy in Asia.

Do you think, General Marshall, that this message on the part of the President of the United States, to General MacArthur, was a very clear notice to General MacArthur as to his Government's policy as of that time?

A.—I think it was.

Q.—In Asia? A.—I thought so, sir.

Q.—Do you think, then, General Marshall, that I make a correct conclusion from this exhibit, that it does supply an answer to the question: did the Government keep General MacArthur advised as to its policy in Asia, both militarily and politically? A.—I think it does.

Senator Questions Charge MacArthur Wasn't Informed

Q.—May I say again, to you, sir, that the purpose of this particular examination, as far as the questioner is concerned, is that I think it is of vital importance that the record of this case produce an answer to the question: "Is it true that the Government failed to keep MacArthur advised as to its policy in Asia?" Because I think the American people are entitled to know the answer to that question; and as I have completed my examination, or my study of this exhibit, I cannot understand the charge that the Government failed to keep General MacArthur advised as to both its military and political policy for Asia.

To the contrary, I think the Government was just as meticulous in keeping MacArthur advised, as MacArthur was meticulous in carrying out, to the letter, the military directives that he received; but as I read this exhibit, I also come to the conclusion that the sad fact is that for months, although both the Government and General MacArthur were participating in very respective positions, that unfortunately they were dealing at arms length—that apparently a lack of mutual confidence had developed.

As a juror, I ask you that; but I think you ought to know what is going through my mind, as I ask more questions.

As a juror I would say, after studying this exhibit, which I think to date is the most important exhibit in this whole record—and we have to deal with most of it in secret—but as I studied this exhibit page by page, I came to the conclusion as a juror that the parties to the controversy were dealing at arm's length, because apparently each side felt that was necessary; and I think that is unfortunate, but I think it explains—according to my lights, at least—why the final break became inevitable.

I just don't think you can have a situation where you even have to go to all the detail that apparently the Government felt it had to go to in its communications with General MacArthur in order to keep the record perfectly clear.

Now, on Page 31, Item 21, we find that:

"Prior to the dispatch of the above message" — referring there to the President's message of Aug. 25, 1950, covered by my preceding question—"prior to the dispatch of the above message, General MacArthur had been invited to speak at the fifty-first national encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars in Chicago. Unable to appear in person, by a cover letter dated 21 August, he sent a paper to be read at the meeting.

"In his paper General MacArthur placed much emphasis on the strategic aspect of Formosa and on its importance to American security. President Truman came into possession of a copy of General MacArthurs Veterans of Foreign Wars statement early Saturday morning, 26 August. The President instructed the Secretary of Defense to direct General MacArthur to withdraw his statement to the Veterans of Foreign Wars in order to avoid confusion as to the United States position with respect to Formosa. General MacArthur complied immediately with this directive." As I think the record shows he did with every directive that was placed in his hands, but the report goes on to say:

"The statement by General MacArthur, however, was published in the United States News & World Report."

General, in your opinion, did the publication of the General's letter to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, referred to in this Paragraph 21 on Page 37 of the exhibit, accomplish practically the same amount of harm that would have been accomplished if the General had delivered his message in person and had not complied with the request to withdraw his letter?

A.—I was not in office at that time. I would assume from what I know of such matters that the fact of the withdrawal would increase the interest in the terms of the message.

Witness' Opinion Asked On Release of Letter

Q.—Is it your opinion that the publication of the letter in United States News & World Report provided further evidence that there was not complete agreement between General MacArthur and the Government concerning Asiatic policy? A.—I know nothing whatever, Senator, regarding the circumstances of that release.

Q.—Page 41 of this exhibit, Paragraph 33, or rather Item 33, I find that

"On 15 September, 1950, CINCFE was informed of the following conclusions which had been approved by the President concerning United States course of action with respect to Korea:

"A. Final decisions cannot be made at this time in as much as the course of action best advancing United States national interest must be determined in the light of:

"(1) Action by the Soviet Union and the Chinese Communists;

"(2) In consultation with friendly members of the United Nations; and,

"(3) An appraisal of the risk of general war;

"B. The United Nations forces have a legal basis for conducting operations north of the Thirty-eighth Parallel to compel withdrawal of the North Korean forces behind the line or to defend against these forces."

And then the message to General MacArthur sets out further details, including Item C:

"C. The Joint Chiefs of Staff were authorized to direct General MacArthur to plan for the possible occupation of North Korea but to execute such plans only with the approval of the President;

"D. General MacArthur should undertake no ground operations north of the Thirty-eighth Parallel in event of occupation of North Korea by Soviet or Chinese Communist forces. In this event, air and naval operations north of the parallel should not be discontinued; and,

"E. In the event of employment of major Chinese Communist units south of the Thirty-eighth Parallel, the United States would (1) not permit itself to become engaged in a general war with Communist China; (2) authorize General MacArthur to continue military action as long as it offered a reasonable chance of successful resistance, * * * (eleven words deleted.)"

Then the message sets forth other details.

In your opinion, General Marshall, does this message to C. I. N. C. F. E. on Sept. 15, 1950, constitute another piece of evidence in support of a conclusion that the Government kept MacArthur advised in detail as to its position and policies on the questions presented by our Asiatic struggle?

Q.—On Page 42 I read:

"On 27 September, the Joint Chiefs of Staff advised the Secretary of Defense that they had no objection to the Department of State proposals for action by CINCFE in the event the North Koreans sued for peace or for an armistice. Further, they had no objection to the Department of State program with respect to bringing Korean hostilities to an end. General MacArthur advised, from the standpoint of the field commander, that both proposals seemed entirely feasible and practicable."

General Marshall, does not this exchange of messages on Sept. 27, 1950, show that the Government not only was keeping General MacArthur fully advised as to the plans it had under consideration for attempting to bring about an armistice in the Korean war, but as of that date, Sept. 27, 1950, General MacArthur advised the Government that he was not in disagreement with those proposals for an armistice?

A.—Correct, sir.

Q.—Therefore, am I again correct in my conclusion that certainly up to Sept. 27, 1950, there is no doubt about the fact that the Government was keeping General MacArthur fully advised as to its policies, both military and diplomatic? A.—It seems so to me, sir.

Q.—Page 43 of the exhibit, I find a paragraph, paragraph 36, which reads as follows:

"General MacArthur then submitted his plan for operations north of the Thirty-eighth Parallel, the substance of which was an attack north along the western coastal corridor by the Eighth United States Army and an amphibious landing by the United States Tenth Corps at Wonsan on the East Coast of North Korea. The Joint Chiefs of Staff approved MacArthur's plan on 29 September 1950."

Does not this item show, General Marshall, that as late as Sept. 29, 1950, this Government and General MacArthur were in agreement as to the military policy that ought to be followed in the immediate future following Sept. 29, 1950, in respect to operations north of the Thirty-eighth Parallel?

A.—It would appear so.

Action Viewed as Prompt On MacArthur's Requests

Q.—Does not the paragraph from the secret exhibit from which I just read, in your opinion, justify the conclusion that General MacArthur was certainly receiving prompt action from the Government in response to his requests for authorization in connection with his recommendations for the conduct of the war in Korea? A.—I think that is fact, sir.

Q.—On page 46 of this exhibit I find the following paragraph:

"On Oct. 6, 1950, the Joint Chiefs of Staff transmitted to General MacArthur the text of the proposed United Nations General Assembly resolution on post hostilities in Korea. He was informed that the General Assembly would probably vote on the resolution on Oct. 6, 1950, and that any textual changes would be immediately transmitted to him. The Joint Chiefs of Staff further stated that it was considered that the resolution provided for support of operations north of the Thirty-eighth Parallel. After approval of the resolution by the General Assembly General MacArthur was requested to transmit immediately the text of the resolution to North Korean authorities and to call upon them to lay down their arms.

"On Oct. 7, 1950"—which, incidentally, was the very next day—"the Joint Chiefs of Staff informed CINCFE that the General Assembly had passed the resolution on post hostilities in Korea with certain minor textural changes, of which he was informed.

"On 9 October 1950 the Joint Chiefs of Staff, recognizing that the Chinese Communists might intervene in North Korea, amplified CINCFE's current directive and included, among other things, the provision that, in the event of the employment in Korea of major Chinese Communist units without prior announcement, CINCFE should continue the action as long as, in his judgment, his forces had a reasonable chance of success. He was cautioned, however, that he would obtain authorization from Washington prior to taking any military action against objectives in Chinese territory."

Do not these three paragraphs in your opinion, General Marshall, taken from Page 46 of the exhibit previously identified, show again that our Government was keeping General MacArthur informed step by step of minute details of negotiations that were taking place between our Government and the United Nations?

Q.—On Page 49 of the exhibit, Item 24, I find that——

"On 21 October 1950 CINCFE replied to the Joint Chiefs of Staff message of 20 October regarding the redeployment of the Second and Third Divisions. CINCFE stated that this matter had been discussed with the President at Wake Island. He believed that, upon the close of hostilities, the Eighth Army should be withdrawn to Japan. He hoped this movement would start before Thanksgiving and be completed before Christmas. Upon the cessation of hostilities the Second Division would be made available for return to the zone of interior."

Does not this exchange in your opinion, General Marshall, between CINCFE and the Joint Chiefs of Staff show again that detailed information and careful consideration was being given mutually by CINCFE and the Joint Chiefs of Staff in connection with the post hostilities problems that would develop in Korea once the North Koreans were defeated?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Does not the particular language that I have just cited from the exhibit show that as far as the recommendations of the Joint Chiefs of Staff were concerned there was at that time no serious disagreement between them and General MacArthur as to what should be done by way of post hostilities operations? A.—I think that is the case, sir.

Q.—I refer now, General Marshall, to Page 51 of the exhibit, paragraph 29:

"On 25 October CINCFE informed the Joint Chiefs of Staff that the instructions reported in his message regarding the lifting of restrictions with regard to the employment of United Nations forces in North Korea were a matter of military necessity.* * * (Two-and-a-half lines deleted)—more seasoned commanders were necessary. CINCFE further stated that he saw no conflict between the removal of these instructions and his directive dated 27 September.

This directive indicated that the instructions sent to CINCFE could not be considered final since they might require modifications in accordance with developments. CINCFE felt that he had the necessary latitude for modifications in a message from the Secretary of Defense on 30 September which gave CINCFE tactical and strategic latitude to proceed north of the Thirty-eighth Parallel.

"He further stated that he understood the basic purpose and intent of his directive and would take all precautions. However, he felt that tactical hazards might result from any action other than that which he had directed. He pointed out that the entire subject had been covered in his conference at Wake Island." * * * (Eight lines deleted)

A.—I think, Senator, that there is a confusion there in exactly what is being referred to. That question could be better answered by the Chiefs of Staff. But my recollection is the issue was whether or not he was pushing the United Nations forces, excluding the South Korean forces, too far to the front in connection with the desire to have the South Korean forces carry out the forward movement towards the Yalu River, and avoiding the necessity of having the other United Nations forces approach close to the river, and his answer is made to that. But it could be answered more definitely for you by the Chief of Staff.

THE CHAIRMAN—Gentlemen, I regret very much to interrupt this interrogation at this point, but on Friday last, you will all recall that it was stated that General Marshall had had an engagement of long standing at the Virginia Military Institute for this afternoon and tomorrow.

I assured him that we would undertake to release him by 1 o'clock today. It is almost 1 o'clock now. The matter was discussed, and I am quite sure that all members of the committee are aware of the factors involved, and it is unnecessary for me to go into any more details.

It is my intention to have General Bradley here tomorrow morning.

Mr. Secretary, it would seem to be necessary for you to return at some later date, and I will communicate with you some time later in the week.

SECRETARY MARSHALL—Yes, sir.

THE CHAIRMAN—I will communicate with you to arrange a mutually convenient time for your reappearance before this committee.

SECRETARY MARSHALL—If you wish to do so, I can manage to 1:30 without undue inconvenience.

THE CHAIRMAN—Well, I have told several members of the committee that I intended to recess about 1 o'clock and I think that perhaps, we had best follow that course, so, we thank you very much.

SENATOR MORSE—Mr. Chairman, may I say that if I find it possible in the meantime to cover, through other witnesses, further questions on the particular exhibit to which I have been referring this morning, without recalling, as far as I am concerned, General Marshall, I will so advise the chairman.

General Bradley Scheduled As the Next to Testify

THE CHAIRMAN—Very well. Of course, so many of these questions are peculiarly within the jurisdiction of the Joint Chiefs that we may save time by interrupting General Marshall's testimony.

I ordinarily do not like to do that, but in this case, I think that, perhaps, it will serve a useful purpose, and we will have General Bradley here tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, and if it is possible to do so without too great interruption of the business of the Senate, gentlemen, I intend to have an afternoon session. I will notify you prior to the recessing tomorrow morning as to whether that is possible.

General, I wish to extend to you again our very best wishes for a pleasant day down at V. M. I. I know something about the feeling that all of us have about returning to the atmosphere of the campuses where we had our education.

I also wish to thank you for your assistance to this committee over a period of seven days. It has been a remarkable exhibition of stamina, both physical and mental, to handle the very wide field of questioning to which you have been subjected, and I think it has covered nearly every point on the globe, and all of the history of the last ten or fifteen years; indeed, if I recall correctly, why, we went as far back as the Napoleonic wars, and the strategy employed in some of those campaigns on one or two occasions.

It has been a very gruelling experience, I know, and it is one that would have tested the fire of any man. Throughout it all, you have handled yourself as a soldier would—as the soldier we know you to be.

You have answered the questions fully and frankly, and I am convinced that you have not hesitated to state the facts as you see them to be. Of course, I did not anticipate any other course.

There are few men in the history of our country who have played as prominent a part in the outstanding events in the past several years as you have done.

I referred the other day to the very remarkable fact that you had, within a relatively short period of time, served as Chief of Staff during the greatest war in which this country has ever been engaged; as Ambassador to China during a very critical period in our history, and as Secretary of State and as Secretary of Defense.

You have participated in thousands of important decisions and have helped to shape the course of our nation during the years to follow the war. You have been generously sharing with this committee your vast information on a wide variety of subjects.

I also wish to thank you for the time you have given us. You occupy a very important position today, one of the highest in the Government, that of Secretary of Defense; and I know that you have innumerable problems to settle every day in addition to answering the questions that have been propounded here.

The hours that you spent here must have caused a great accumulation of work on your desk.

On behalf of our committee, I wish to express to you my sincere thanks for your testimony.

SENATOR CONNALLY — General Marshall, I want to join the Chairman in congratulating you upon the vivid and dramatic events that have transpired at the Virginia Military Institute and these celebrations which will be held. I know what pride and interest the V. M. I. has in your career.

I had occasion some years ago to make an address to the cadets of the Virginia Military Institute, and I know of the high position which you occupy in their admiration and affection. I thank you deeply along with the Chairman for the labor and the toil through which you have gone in these examinations.

I want to say that as co-chairman I have not asked many questions, practically no questions, very few. My reasons for that have been that, as co-chairman, I wanted to give every member of this committee opportunity to fully investigate all the questions pending before us without my consuming a great deal of time which otherwise might be allocated to them.

Furthermore, as chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, over the years I have been more or less familiar with many of these questions and have had contact with you as Chief of Staff and as Secretary of State and now as Secretary of Defense.

It is possible that, when you return, I may desire to ask a number of other questions, but I have endeavored to so conduct myself as to shorten as much as possible the time that we have consumed or about to consume in the investigation of all these questions.

I think this is a most unusual procedure, but I do not regret it because in a democracy like ours we like to think that the people are fully advised as to all important decisions, whether the decision is to be made by them or by their constitutional authorities that they have set up. So thank you, General, very, very much for the marvelous memory that you possess, for the great ability which you have shown in all of the high positions which you have occupied by your frankness and by your courage in answering the great variety of questions covering such a long period of years.

I marvel at your ability to remember and recall and to refer to all of the many and multitudinous questions which you have been called upon to decide or to participate in.

So sir, I strike hands with you across the distance from here to the Virginia Military Institute, and wish for you a great occasion and much joy and success and happiness.

SECRETARY MARSHALL — Thank you, Senator; thank you, sir.

SENATOR BRIDGES — Mr. Chairman, are we going to decide before tomorrow, and the taking of a new witness, on Senator Morse's motion as to limiting the first round of questioning?

Vote on Morse Motion To Be Considered Today

THE CHAIRMAN—I have heard no objection to the course suggested, of limiting each Senator to thirty minutes, in order to expedite the hearing, and get around the table.

SENATOR MORSE—Mr. Chairman, in fairness to all of our colleagues, some of whom are not here at the moment, I would like to serve notice that I will renew my motion——

THE CHAIRMAN—I had understood that your motion was pending here, to be acted upon prior to another witness being introduced.

SENATOR MORSE—I meant to renew——

THE CHAIRMAN — The first thing in the morning, the first matter to be considered will be a vote on Senator Morse's motion, which I am sure you all understand, to limit the questioning to thirty minutes for each Senator, on each round of questions, and that the questioning will be completely exhausted by the time we get through.

That will be the pending business in the morning.

General, there is one other matter I should bring to your attention.

General Bradley has communicated with me, and advised me that he, and each of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, have had some speaking engagements for some months for Armed Services Day [next Saturday] which of course, is one of the notable days recognized in our country.

The importance of it, as a great day, is as great as it has ever been.

General Bradley will be available on tomorrow and, I think, through Friday noon.

SENATOR BRIDGES—I think, Mr. Chairman, of course, that the Joint Chiefs of Staff, on the one day of the year when it would be particularly appropriate, and when they would be most pleased at being shown the courtesy of not being involved before our committee.

THE CHAIRMAN—Thank you, and we will arrange it so as not to interfere with their program on that day; but that does not mean that we won't have a hearing on Armed Forces Day.

SENATOR KNOWLAND—One question, Mr. Chairman, on the list of information which you indicated to Mr. Larkin, I think either yesterday or the day before, there was one additional bit of information which I do not think we have yet received; and that was—on the day before these hearings commenced, when you first brought up the Wake Island report—you recall that we requested a list of those that had been entitled to receive a copy of the, I think, forty copies that were distributed, and that information has not been supplied to the committee as yet.

MR. LARKIN—No, sir; it has not; but now I will have a little time to check into that matter for you, sir.

SECRETARY MARSHALL — General Bradley controlled that, and he can give you that information.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Sparkman.

SENATOR SPARKMAN—Along that same line, I had intended to ask, and forgot, when questioning General Marshall, if we might not have a listing of the members of the United Nations showing, not just the contributions that they have actually made, and which have actually been received in Korea—General Marshall gave that several days ago—but to offers that have been made at any time, and the disposition that has been made of them.

MR. LARKIN—We will get that for you.

THE CHAIRMAN—The committee will stand recessed until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

(Thereupon, at 1:09 o'clock P. M. [E. D. T.] the committee stood in recess until 10 o'clock A. M. the following morning, Tuesday, May 15, 1951.)

(350) MARSHALL-YALTA

WASHINGTON, MAY 14-(AP)-SECRETARY MARSHALL TESTIFIED TODAY THAT, ALTHOUGH HE ATTENDED THE YALTA CONFERENCE, HE DID NOT KNOW ANY DETAILS OF THE SECRET AGREEMENT REACHED THERE WHICH MADE CONCESSIONS TO RUSSIA AS A MEANS OF GETTING THE RUSSIANS TO JOIN THE WAR AGAINST JAPAN.

"I DID NOT KNOW THE FACTORS OF IT AT THE TIME," MARSHALL SAID.

THE YALTA CONFERENCE, HELD IN A RUSSIAN TOWN OF THAT NAME, WAS A MEETING OF PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, PRIME MINISTER CHURCHILL OF BRITAIN AND PREMIER STALIN OF RUSSIA IN FEBRUARY-MARCH, 1945.

AT THAT TIME, THE DEFEAT OF GERMANY ALREADY APPEARED TO BE A CERTAINTY AND PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AND PRIME MINISTER CHURCHILL WERE EAGER TO GET RUSSIA TO ENTER THE WAR WITH JAPAN.

MARSHALL, THEN ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF, ACCOMPANIED MR. ROOSEVELT TO THE MEETING.

QUESTIONED BY SENATOR H. ALEXANDER SMITH (R-NJ) TODAY AT SENATE HEARINGS ON THE OUSTER OF GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR, MARSHALL SAID ALSO THAT HE DID NOT KNOW WHY GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK WAS EXCLUDED FROM THE YALTA CONFERENCE ALTHOUGH THE AGREEMENTS MADE INVOLVED CHINA'S TERRITORY AND INTERESTS. BUT HE ADDED:

"I SHOULD IMAGINE THE REASON WAS THAT THE RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT WAS NOT AT WAR WITH JAPAN AT THAT TIME, AND ONE OF THE PROBLEMS THE JAPANESE HAD TO CONSIDER WAS WHETHER OR NOT THE RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT WOULD GO TO WAR WITH JAPAN."

SMITH TOLD MARSHALL THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS FEEL THEY WERE "SOLD DOWN THE RIVER" AT YALTA.

THE DEFENSE SECRETARY ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THE YALTA CONCESSIONS "CERTAINLY WERE A GREAT WORRY TO THE GENERALISSIMO."

ONE OF THE YALTA PROVISIONS WAS THAT THE CHINESE EASTERN RAILROAD AND THE SOUTH MANCHURIAN RAILROAD SHOULD BE JOINTLY OPERATED BY THE RUSSIANS AND THE CHINESE.

MARSHALL SAID THE RUSSIANS LEFT CAPTURED JAPANESE ARMS IN DUMPS IN MANCHURIA WHERE THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS PICKED THEM UP AND REARMED THEMSELVES.

SMITH SAID THIS CAUSED CHIANG TO "LOSE FACE IN CHINA AND ESPECIALLY IN MANCHURIA."

"BUT, ON THE OTHER HAND," MARSHALL SAID, "THERE WAS A MOVEMENT OF (NATIONALIST) TROOPS INTO MANCHURIA, WHICH WAS CARRIED OUT BY OUR NAVY, AND THEY WERE LANDED THERE; AND SUPPLIES WERE GOTTEN FOR THEM THERE.

"I PERSONALLY ARRANGED TO HAVE ALL OF OUR SUBARCTIC CLOTHING BROUGHT DOWN; HAD THE OFFICER GO WITH IT UNTIL IT WAS ALL SHIPPED, HEADED FOR THE MANCHURIAN COAST."

(150) MARSHALL-MANPOWER

WASHINGTON, MAY 14-(AP)-SECRETARY MARSHALL TOOK A CRACK TODAY AT GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S SUGGESTION THAT CONGRESS DELAY CONSIDERATION OF UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING (UMT) UNTIL AFTER THE PRESENT EMERGENCY. HE SAID MACARTHUR HAD THE SAME ATTITUDE 20 YEARS AGO.

MARSHALL WAS TESTIFYING AT SENATE HEARINGS ON MACARTHUR'S OUSTER FROM HIS FAR EASTERN COMMANDS.

THERE WERE REFERENCES TO THE DRAFT-MANPOWER BILL NOW PENDING IN CONGRESS, AND MARSHALL SAID THE UMT FEATURE WAS "THE MOST IMPORTANT FACTOR."

THEN, ALLUDING TO STATEMENTS MACARTHUR MADE ABOUT UMT WHEN HE WAS BEFORE THE SENATORS, MARSHALL SAID.

"AS TO THE PART (OF MACARTHUR'S STATEMENTS) THAT GAVE ME MOST CONCERN

IT WAS THE IMPLICATION, IF NOT THE DIRECT STATEMENT, THAT IT WAS A MATTER THAT MUST HAVE VERY, VERY SERIOUS CONSIDERATION.

"HE HAD SAID ALMOST THE SAME WORDS BEFORE THE 72ND CONGRESS, AND I THINK EVER SINCE THEN WE HAVE BEEN GIVING IT VERY, VERY SERIOUS CONSIDERATION."

THE 72ND CONGRESS CONVENED IN 1931.

MARSHALL-REMOVAL PLAN

WASHINGTON, MAY 14-(AP)-SECRETARY MARSHALL SAID TODAY HE KNEW OF NOTHING TO INDICATE THE REMOVAL OF GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR FROM HIS COMMANDS WAS PLANNED A LONG TIME AGO.

AT SENATE HEARINGS ON MACARTHUR'S OUSTER, SENATOR H. ALEXANDER SMITH (R-NJ) ASKED MARSHALL: "IS THE REPORT TRUE THAT THE REMOVAL OF GENERAL MACARTHUR HAD BEEN PLANNED BY THE EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT FOR A LONG TIME, LONG BEFORE YOU WERE MADE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE?"

MARSHALL SAID HE HAD RECEIVED "NO INDICATION WHATSOEVER THAT THERE WAS ANY SUCH IDEA AFOOT."

MARSHALL BECAME SECRETARY OF DEFENSE LAST SEPTEMBER.

(160) MARSHALL-DECISION

WASHINGTON, MAY 14-(AP)-WAS SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL AMONG THOSE PRESENT WHEN PRESIDENT TRUMAN DECIDED TO FIRE GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR?

THE SECRETARY HIMSELF HAS SAID YES---AND NO.

THE RECORD SHOWS THAT ONE WEEK AGO MARSHALL TOLD SENATORS THAT ON THE MORNING OF APRIL 9 HE WAS AT A MEETING ATTENDED BY THE PRESIDENT, GEN. OMAR N. BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON AND W. AVERELL HARRIMAN, SPECIAL ADVISER TO THE PRESIDENT.

"WITH THE UNANIMOUS CONCURRENCE OF ALL THOSE PRESENT" MARSHALL SID, "THE PRESIDENT

"WITH THE UNANIMOUS CONCURRENCE OF ALL THOSE PRESENT" MARSHALL SAID, "THE PRESIDENT AT THAT TIME TOOK HIS DECISION TO RELIEVE GENERAL MACARTHUR."

BUT TODAY SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH) ASKED MARSHALL: " X X X WHO WAS PRESENT AT THE CONFERENCE WHERE THIS DECISION WAS REACHED ON THE RECALL OF GENERAL MACARTHUR?"

MARSHALL REPLIED: "I WAS NOT PRESENT, SENATOR, BUT GENERAL BRADLEY WAS, AND I THINK THE QUESTION HAD BETTER GO TO HIM, BECAUSE I DON'T RECALL EXACTLY WHO WAS PRESENT."

BRIDGES: "WELL, YOU WERE NOT PRESENT WHEN THE DECISION WAS MADE?"

MARSHALL: "I WAS NOT PRESENT."

FIRST LEAD RUSSELL-SECRETS (350)

WASHINGTON, MAY 14-(AP)-SENATOR RUSSELL (D-GA) SAID TODAY SECRET INFORMATION OF POSSIBLE VALUE TO RUSSIA ALREADY HAS "LEAKED" FROM THE CLOSED-DOOR HEARINGS ON GENERAL DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S OUSTER. HE EXPRESSED A "DEEP SENSE OF UNEASINESS" ABOUT POSSIBLE FUTURE "LEAKS."

TWO REPUBLICAN SENATORS RETORTED THAT THE ADMINISTRATION HAS BEEN LEADING SECRET DATA TO SOME NEWSPAPERS FOR A LONG TIME.

HOWEVER, BOTH GOP SENATORS, HICKENLOOPER OF IOWA AND BRIDGES OF NEW HAMPSHIRE, BACKED RUSSELL'S PLEA THAT ALL SENATORS KEEP THEIR LIPS SEALED ON TESTIMONY GIVEN IN THE MACARTHUR HEARING BUT STRICKEN FROM THE PUBLIC RECORD BY MILITARY AND STATE DEPARTMENT CENSORS.

RUSSELL SAID "IT IS A GREAT UNDERSTATEMENT TO SAY THAT THERE HAVE BEEN SOME MATTERS PUBLICIZED WHICH IT CANNOT HELP THE COUNTRY TO HAVE OUR ENEMIES KNOW."

BOTH BRIDGES AND HICKENLOOPER SAID THE ADMINISTRATION ITSELF TOOK LIBERTIES WITH SECURITY IN RELEASING TO THE NEW YORK TIMES THE TOP SECRET MINUTES OF LAST OCTOBER'S WAKE ISLAND CONFERENCE BETWEEN PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR.

THE COMMITTEE LATER MADE THIS ACCOUNT AVAILABLE TO ALL NEWSPAPERS.

HICKENLOOPER SAID THERE WERE A "MYRIAD" OF OTHER SECRET DOCUMENTS WHICH HAVE BEEN PASSED OUT BY THE ADMINISTRATION AND ADDED THAT EXECUTIVE AGENCIES SHOULD EXERCISE "A GREAT DEAL MORE DISCRETION."

INDISCREET PUBLIC OFFICIALS, THE SENATOR DECLARED, ARE "LETTING THE KREMLIN KNOW, IF YOU PLEASE, WHAT NEWSPAPERMEN HAVE PARTICULARLY FAVORED ACCESS TO INFORMATION THAT THE COMMITTEES OF CONGRESS ARE NOT PERMITTED TO HAVE".

BRIDGES SAID THE MATERIAL RELEASED TO THE NEW YORK TIMES CONTAINED "CERTAIN ITEMS AND CERTAIN MATTER THAT, EVEN WHEN IT WAS DECLASSIFIED, WERE CONSIDERED TO BE TOO CLASSIFIED TO BE RELEASED." HE ADDED:

"NOW, THAT IS CERTAINLY A SERIOUS BREACH, AND PERSONALLY I WOULD LIKE TO SEE US FIND OUT WHO RELEASED THAT.

"AS FAR AS I KNOW, I HAVEN'T HEARD OF ONE SINGLE, SOLITARY THING THAT THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT OR ANYBODY ELSE HAS DONE TO FIND OUT WHERE THAT LEAK CAME FROM, NOT ONLY FIND OUT WHERE IT CAME FROM, BUT TAKE STEPS TO PUNISH THE PEOPLE THAT GAVE IT OUT."

RUSSELL REPLIED:

"I REITERATE THAT I CONDEMN RATHER THAN CONDONE ANY OF THE RELEASES TO WHICH THE SENATOR REFERS OR ANY OTHER RELEASES THAT MIGHT HAVE TAKEN PLACE, BUT I SHALL NOT USE DERELICTION ON THE PART OF ANYONE ELSE AS AN EXCUSE FOR DERELICTION ON MY PART, NOR DO I THINK THIS COMMITTEE WOULD LIKE TO USE THAT AS AN EXCUSE."

THE EXCHANGE IN THE COMMITTEE WAS TOUCHED OFF BY RUSSELL'S ASSERTION AT THE OUTSET OF TODAY'S HEARING THAT HE HAS A "DEEP SENSE OF UNEASINESS" ABOUT POSSIBLE SECURITY LEAKS.

"WE ARE TAKING TESTIMONY NOT ONLY ON THE GENERAL OUTLINES OF AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY BUT ON SOME OF THE INTIMATE PLANS AND INFORMATION POSSESSED BY OUR NATION," RUSSELL SAID.

"WE ARE ENTERING DOORS THAT HAVE BEEN BARRED, WE ARE OPENING BOOKS THAT HAVE BEEN GUARDED, WE ARE UNLOCKING SECRETS THAT HAVE BEEN PROTECTED IN STEEL SAFES; IN SHORT, WE ARE STRIPPING THE NATION'S SECURITY FRAMEWORK TO THE BARE SKELETON."

THE SENATORS HOLD THEIR HEARINGS BEHIND CLOSED DOORS BUT A STENOGRAPHIC REPORT OF WHAT IS SAID IS SENT TO NEWSMEN. FIRST IT GOES THROUGH THE HANDS OF CENSORS WHO CUT OUT ANYTHING THEY THINK MIGHT DAMAGE THE NATIONAL INTEREST IF MADE PUBLIC.

AT TIMES MARSHALL'S TESTIMONY HAS BEEN HEAVILY CENSORED, PARTICULARLY WHEN HE WAS REPLYING TO QUESTIONS ABOUT POSSIBLE FUTURE ACTIONS.

RUSSELL SAID HE HAD "CONSIDERABLE SYMPATHY" FOR MARSHALL'S STATEMENT THE OTHER DAY WHEN THE CABINET MEMBER "SAID THAT HE SOMETIMES FEELS AS THOUGH HE WERE COMPELLED TO ACT AS A SORT OF INTELLIGENCE AGENT FOR THE SOVIET."

"AMERICAN BOYS ARE FIGHTING AND DYING ON A LITTLE TIP OF LAND THOUSANDS OF MILES FROM THIS YEARING ROOM," RUSSELL SAID. "OUR COUNTRY IS CONFRONTED ON A PERIMETER OF HALF A WORLD WITH THE MOST SERIOUS CHALLENGE TO ITS VERY EXISTENCE.

"IF ANY ACTION OF OURS ADDS EVEN REMOTELY TO THE DANGERS THAT FACE OUR FIGHTING MEN, IF CARELESSNESS OR INDISCRETION INCREASES THE PERILS THAT FACE OUR NATION, NEITHER OUR GOD NOR OUR FELLOW CITIZENS WILL EVER FORGIVE US, NOR WOULD WE DESERVE SUCH FORGIVENESS."

HE SAID ALL POSSIBLE SECURITY SAFEGUARD HAD BEEN TAKEN BUT ADDED: "ALL OF THESE SAFEGUARDS, ALL OF THESE CAREFULLY PLANNED MEASURES DEPEND ULTIMATELY UPON OUR ACCEPTANCE OF OUR RESPONSIBILITIES AS SENATORS."

HE SAID HE HAD SEEN "AT LEAST TWO NEWSPAPER STORIES PURPORTING TO QUOTE UNIDENTIFIED SENATORS ON EVIDENCE SAID TO HAVE BEEN SUBMITTED TO THIS COMMITTEE WHICH DID NOT APPEAR IN THE RELEASED TRANSCRIPT." HE SAID HE WOULD NOT COMMENT ON THE ACCURACY OF SUCH STORIES.
RUSSELL SAID THAT PERHAPS NEITHER OF THE STORIES "WILL DO MATERIAL HARM, BUT IF OTHERS ARE TO FOLLOW, WE ARE INDEED EMBARKING UPON A DANGEROUS COURSE."
"SOMEWHERE ALONG THE LINE THERE WILL BE A VITAL SLIP, AND BECAUSE OF THE SLIP MEN WILL DIE NEEDLESSLY," HE DECLARED.
OBSERVING THAT HE DOESN'T BELIEVE ANY SENATOR WOULD DELIBERATELY RELEASE INFORMATION ENDANGERING HIS NATION, RUSSELL SAID "THE GREAT DANGER IS THE EVER PRESENT THREAT OF A CARELESS WORD, A SLIP OF THE TONGUE OR IN DISCLOSING FACTS IN CONFIDENCE TO THOSE UNWORTHY OF SUCH CONFIDENCE."
"IT TAKES VERY LITTLE TO GIVE THE AGENTS OF THE KREMLIN A CLUE WHICH MAY LEAD THEM TO A RICH MOTHERLODE OF INFORMATION.
"I HAVE LAIN AWAKE AT NIGHT WONDERING WHETHER BY SOME INCAUTIOUS ACT, SOME ERROR OF JUDGMENT, WE MAY BETRAY SOMETHING OF VITAL IMPORT TO OUR COUNTRY. ALTHOUGH CAREFULLY CENSORED, EVEN THE PUBLIC RECORD HAS CARRIED SOME MATERIAL WHICH STRIKES ME AS DANGEROUS."

WASHINGTON, MAY 14-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS SAID AFTER A WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE TODAY THAT THEY ARE NOT EVEN CONSIDERING A RECESS AT THE PRESENT TIME.
"WE'VE YET TO SEE FURTHER AHEAD BEFORE WE CAN TALK ABOUT A RECESS," SPEAKER RAYBURN (D-TEX) TOLD WHITE HOUSE REPORTERS.
A NEWSMAN HAD ASKED ABOUT TALK THAT THE LAWMAKERS MIGHT TAKE A BREATHER JULY 31 AND COME BACK INTO SESSION LATER.
RAYBURN WAS ASKED ABOUT CRITICISM THAT CONGRESS HAS DONE LESS AT THIS SESSION THAN THE GOP CONTROLLED 80TH CONGRESS WHICH MR. TRUMAN DENOUNCED DURING THE 1948 CAMPAIGN AS A "DO NOTHING CONGRESS".
RAYBURN SAID THAT THE SAME CRITICISM WAS MADE AGAINST THE DEMOCRATIC-CONTROLLED 81ST CONGRESS BY GOP CRITICS, BUT IT "DID A TREMENDOUS JOB BEFORE IT GOT THROUGH."
"WE'LL DO A LOT BEFORE WE GET THROUGH THIS SESSION," RAYBURN ASSERTED.
SENATE DEMOCRATIC LEADER MCFARLAND (ARIZ) OBSERVED THAT "A CONGRESS CAN'T BE MEASURED BY THE NUMBER OF BILLS IT PASSES," AND ADDED "SOMETIMES IT IS BEST TO DEFEAT SOME BILLS."
MCFARLAND SAID THAT WHEN DEBATE ON FOREIGN ISSUES AND OTHER PROBLEMS IS TAKEN INTO CONSIDERATION, "OUR RECORD IS PRETTY GOOD."

HE AND RAYBURN BOTH SAID THE QUESTION OF WHEN CONGRESS MIGHT RECESS DID NOT COME UP AT THEIR CONFERENCE WITH THE PRESIDENT, IN WHICH VICE-PRESIDENT BARKLEY AND HOUSE DEMOCRATIC LEADER MCCORMACK (MASS) PARTICIPATED.
RAYBURN SAID THEY TALKED ABOUT PLANS OF LEADERS IN BOTH HOUSES TO GET ACTION THIS WEEK ON WHEAT-FOR-INDIA BILLS.
MCFARLAND SAID HE HOPED THE SENATE WOULD PASS A RECIPROCAL TRADE AGREEMENTS BILL.
RAYBURN PLUGGED FOR PASSAGE OF AN APPROPRIATION BILL EACH WEEK FROM NOW ON.
THE USUAL MONDAY MORNING BRIEFING ON THE MILITARY SITUATION IN KOREA WAS OMITTED FROM TODAY'S SESSION OF THE PRESIDENT AND HIS LEADERS. RAYBURN SAID THE SITUATION HAD NOT CHANGED MATERIALLY FROM LAST WEEK.

SECOND NIGHT LEAD KOREAN WAR ROUNDUP (375)
BY TOM STONE
TOKYO, WEDNESDAY, MAY 16-(AP)-CHINESE AND NORTH KOREAN COMMUNIST TROOPS STRUCK TWO SHARP BLOWS IN CENTRAL KOREA TODAY AND THE STEPPED-UP RED ACTIVITY INDICATED THE LONG-AWAITED COMMUNIST PUSH MIGHT BE IMMINENT.
SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS WITHDREW FROM INJE, STRATEGIC ROAD CENTER FOUR MILES NORTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL, UNDER COMMUNIST PRESSURE. SOON AFTERWARD THE REDS MOVED INTO THE TOWN.
FIELD DISPATCHES DESCRIBED THE NEW RED THRUSTS AS "HEAVY PROBING ATTACKS." THEY WERE ACCOMPANIED BY THE USUAL WHISTLE AND BUGLE-BLOWING THAT MARK THE CUSTOMARY CHINESE ATTACK.
AP CORRESPONDENT NATE POLOWETZKY AT U.S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS SAID THE CHINESE STRUCK AT ALLIED POSITIONS EAST OF CHUNCHON AT 1:30 A.M. THEY LAID DOWN RAKING RIFLE AND ATUOMATIC WEAPONS FIRE UNTIL UNITED NATIONS FORCES WITHDREW.
THEN ALLIED BIG GUNS ROARED AND DISPERSED THE RED ATTACKERS WITH HEAVY LOSSES FORTY MINUTES AFTER THE FIGHT BEGAN.
FARTHER EAST NORTH KOREANS SWARMED OVER AN ALLIED OBSERVATION SOUTHWEST OF INJE.
THERE WERE FEW DETAILS AVAILABLE ON ABANDONMENT OF INJE ITSELF. THE TOWN WAS RE-TAKEN LAST WEEK BY SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS AS THE COMMUNISTS BUILT UP HEAVY CONCENTRATIONS OF MEN AND SUPPLIES TO THE NORTH.
AN EIGHTH ARMY BRIEFING OFFICER ANNOUNCED THAT FOLLOWING THE SOUTH KOREAN WITHDRAWAL, COMMUNIST TRUCKS FILLED WITH SOLDIERS WERE OBSERVED MOVING INTO THE TOWN LATE INTO THE NIGHT. RED ARTILLERY OPENED UP IN A THREE-HOUR BARRAGE AGAINST SOUTH-KOREANS STILL NORTHEAST OF THE TOWN.
THE COMMUNISTS WHO HAVE BEEN PREPARING A NEW MAJOR SPRING DRIVE SINCE EARLY MAY APPARENTLY SHIFTED THE CENTER OF THEIR ATTACK FORCE FROM THE WESTERN FRONT NORTH OF SEOUL TO THE CHUNCHON AREA IN THE CENTER OF THE PENINSULA.
THE BRIEFING OFFICER SAID THAT "THE ENEMY ATTITUDE HAS CHANGED FROM RELATIVELY LIGHT TO STRONG RESISTANCE AGAINST FRIENDLY PATROLS." HE ESTIMATED 2,850 REDS WERE KILLED OR WOUNDED IN GROUND ACTION TUESDAY.
BAD WEATHER PROVED A BOON TO THE REDS AND A HINDRANCE TO THE ALLIED AIR ARM. HEAVY RAIN AND LOW CLOUDS LIMITED FIFTY AIRFORCE PLANES TO ONLY 15 SORTIES AFTER DARK. IT MADE A TOTAL OF ONLY 178 SORTIES FOR THE DAY.

A93KX
ONE ENEMY PLANE FOLLOWED A U. C. C-47 TRANSPORT PLANE AS IT DROPPED FLARES NORTH OF THE FRONTLINES TO ILLUMINATE COMMUNIST SUPPLY MOVEMENTS BUT DID NOT ATTACK. IT WAS THE ONLY SIGN OF RED AIR ACTIVITY TUESDAY, ALTHOUGH THE REDS ARE KNOWN TO HAVE STRONG AIR SUPPORT STANDING BY ON MANCHURIAN AIRFIELDS.
RED FORCES WERE ON THE MOVE TUESDAY BOTH WEST AND EAST OF CHUNCHON IN THE CENTER OF THE ALLIED DEFENSE LINE. THEY HURDLED TWO RIVER DEFNESE BARRIERS IN FRONT OF STRONG AMERICAN DEFENSE POSITIONS.

A FRONT LINE OFFICER CONSIDERED THE MOVES PRELIMINARY TO THE NEXT OFFENSIVE, WHICH MAY BE THE GREATEST YET LOOSED BY THE COMMUNISTS IN KOREA.
"THE EXPECTED CHINESE OFFENSIVE HAS NOT BEGUN," HE EMPHASIZED. "THERE IS NO CHINESE OFFENSIVE UNDER WAY NOW."
SMALL PROBING ATTACKS FLARED DURING THE NIGHT ALONG THE CHUNCHON SECTOR. THAT AIR AND ARTILLERY-BASHED TOWN, 45 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOU IS THE KEY TO ROAD NETWORKS LEADING SOUTHWARD IN THE MOUNTAINOUS CENTER OF THE PENINSULA.
NEITHER SIDE NOW CONTROLS THE TOWN ALTHOUGH ALLIED PATROLS HAVE ENTERED IT ALMOST DAILY FOR THE PAST 10 DAYS.
THE REDS CROSSED THE PUKHAN RIVER SOUTHWEST OF CHUNCHON DURING THE NIGHT IN UNDISCLOSED NUMBERS. THEY MOVED UNDER COVER OF RAIN SHOWERS AND LOW-HANGING CLOUDS THAT SHIELDED THEM FROM ALLIED NIGHT FIGHTERS AND BOMBERS. THEY OCCUPIED HIGH GROUND JUST SOUTH OF THE RIVER.
THE SECOND RED MOVEMENT WAS ACROSS THE CHOYANG RIVER WHERE THE COMMUNISTS PLANTED A BRIDGEHEAD SEVERAL DAYS AGO IN SPITE OF HEAVY ALLIED ARTILLERY FIRE. THIS COLUMN MOVED TO A POINT 15 MILES DUE EAST OF CHUNCHON AND CONTINUED SOUTHWARD.
AMERICAN TROOPS TANGLED WITH THE REDS SOUTHEAST OF CHUNCHON IN SEVERAL SMALL BUT SHARP CLASHES. THESE WERE THOUGHT TO BE RED ATTEMPTS TO FEEL OUT ALLIED DEFENSES.
TIGHT FIELD CENSORSHIP DID NOT PERMIT CORRESPONDENTS TO MENTION THE SIZE OR EXACT LOCATION OF THE CHINESE AROUND CHUNCHON.
AP PHOTOGRAPHER ED JOHNSON ON THE CENTRAL FRONT WAS PERMITTED TO SAY, HOWEVER, THAT THE NEW RIVER CROSSINGS WERE IN THE "RAINY CLOUD-SHROUDED MOUNTAINS AROUND CHUNCHON."
THIS MOVEMENT WAS THE MOST SIGNIFICANT OF THE DAY ALTHOUGH ALLIED PATROLS DREW FLASHES OF FIGHT FROM THE CHINESE AND NORTH KOREANS ON BOTH WESTERN AND EASTERN ENDS OF THE 100-MILE WIDE FRONT.
SOUTH KOREAN PATROLS OPERATING ABOUT 15 MILES NORTHWEST OF SEOUL DREW FIRE FROM CHINESE FORCES CONCENTRATED NEAR MUNSAN.
IN THE UIJONGBU SECTOR, 11 MILES NORTH OF THE OLD KOREAN CAPITAL, TWO U.N. TANK-INFANTRY PATROLS PROBED WITHOUT DRAWING MAJOR RESISTANCE.

A208KX
SOME 15 TO 33 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL ON THE WEST-CENTRAL FRONT AP CORRESPONDENT GEORGE MCARTHUR SAID A FIGHT WAS STILL IN PROGRESS AT TUESDAY NIGHT WITH SEVERAL HUNDRED REDS SOUTHEAST OF KAPYONG AND SOUTH OF THE PUKHAN RIVER.
THIS WAS THE FIRST TIME IN A WEEK THAT SUCH A LARGE GROUP OF CHINESE WAS ENCOUNTERED SOUTH OF THE PUKHAN. PATROL CLASHES HAVE ERUPTED THERE FOR SEVERAL DAYS, HOWEVER.
ON THE EASTERN FRONT, SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS FOUGHT AROUND INJE WITH AN INCREASINGLY STRONG RED CONCENTRATION. THAT ROAD CENTER IS 11 MILES SOUTHEAST OF YANGGU ON THE EASTERN TIP OF THE HWACHON RESERVOIR WHERE THE COMMUNISTS HAVE BEEN ASSEMBLING STRONG FORCES FOR MORE THAN A WEEK.
AT U.S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS AP CORRESPONDENT NATE POLOWETZKY REPORTED THE COMMUNISTS NOW WERE BELIEVED STRONGER THAN THEY HAVE EVER BEEN BEFORE IN KOREA.
"THEY HAVE MORE TANKS, MORE ARTILLERY, MORE RESERVES AND MOST IMPORTANT, MORE AIRPLANES BASED IN NORTH KOREA, THAN AT ANY TIME SINCE THEY ENTERED THE WAR," ONE OFFICER SAID.
OTHER COMMANDERS WERE JUST AS FIRM IN THEIR BELIEF THAT THE COMMUNISTS WERE NOT CAPABLE OF FOLLOWING THROUGH A SUSTAINED FULL-SCALE OFFENSIVE BECAUSE OF AN INADEQUATE SUPPLY SYSTEM.
THESE OFFICERS REASONED THAT BECAUSE THE AIR FORCE HAD PLAYED HAVOC WITH THE RED SUPPLY LINES FROM MANCHURIA, THE ONLY THING THE CHINESE AND NORTH KOREANS COULD DO WOULD BE TO MOUNT "SHORT AND SHALLOW OFFENSIVES."
LT.GEN.EDWARD M. ALMOND, U.S. 10TH CORPS COMMANDER WHO LAST WEEK DESCRIBED THE REDS AS "WILTING ON THE VINE" FOR LACK OF SUPPLIES, SEEMED TO AGREE WITH THE LATTER THEORY.
WHEN THE NEXT BIG COMMUNIST OFFENSIVE BEGINS, ALLIED COMMANDERS PROBABLY WILL FOLLOW THE SAME TACTICS THEY USED TO COUNTER THE APRIL 22 ATTACK NORTH OF SEOUL. THEN U.N. TROOPS ROLLED BACK WITH THE BLOW.

KILLING A MAXIMUM NUMBER OF CHINESE AT A MINIMUM LOSS OF ALLIED LIVES.

THE U.S. EIGHTH ARMY ESTIMATED 1,650 CASUALTIES WERE INFLICTED ON REDS MONDAY.

BAD WEATHER PLAYED HOB WITH THE AIR WAR TUESDAY. A DOZEN B-29'S USED RADAR SIGHTINGS TO DROP ABOUT 90 TONS OF BOMBS ON THE RED SUPPLY CENTER AT SARIWON, SOUTH OF PYONGYANG. FIFTH AIR FORCE TACTICAL SORTIES WERE HELD TO ABOUT 100 AGAINST RED VEHICLES, SUPPLY DUMPS AND TROOPS. ONE F-51 MUSTANG FLIGHT DROPPED JELLIED GASOLINE ON 12 SUPPLY STACKS OF FOOD ON THE CENTRAL SECTOR.

SECOND LEAD KOREAN WAR ROUNDUP (160)

BY OLEN CLEMENTS

MAY 16 1951

TOKYO,MAY 15 (AP)-CHINESE COMMUNIST TROOPS WERE REPORTED TONIGHT TO BE CROSSING TWO RIVERS ON THE RAINY CENTRAL KOREAN FRONT AROUND CHUNCHON IN FRONT OF STRONG U.S.POSITIONS.

AN AMERICAN OFFICER, HOWEVER, SAID FLATLY THAT THE EXPECTED CHINESE OFFENSIVE HAD NOT BEGUN, A POOLED FIELD DISPATCH REPORTED.

THE DISPATCH SAID UNKNOWN NUMBERS OF CHINESE REDS CROSSED THE PUKHAN RIVER, SOUTHWEST OF CHUNCHON AND REACHED HIGH GROUND JUST SOUTH OF THE RIVER.

OTHER COMMUNISTS HAVE CROSSED THE CHOYANG, NORTHEAST OF CHUNCHON, AND MOVED TO THE SOUTHEAST OF THAT RUINED CITY, WHERE CLASHES WITH AMERICAN TROOPS WERE REPORTED.

THE AMERICAN OFFICER SAID HE DID NOT EXPECT A CHINESE OFFENSIVE TO START TONIGHT, BUT PREDICTED PROBING ATTACKS AT VARIOUS POINTS IN THE CHUNCHON AREA. CHUNCHON IS 45 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

BUT SPEARHEADS OF THIS GATHERING RED FORCE WERE AS MUCH AS 12 MILES SOUTH OF PARALLEL 38, THE OLD POLITICAL BOUNDARY BETWEEN NORTH AND SOUTH KOREA.

UNITED NATIONS PATROLS SPOTTED COMMUNISTS IN UNITS OF 500 OR 600 SLOGGING THROUGH THE HILLS EAST OF KAPYONG. THE U.S. EIGHTH ARMY DID NOT INDICATE HOW CLOSE THEY WERE TO U.N. LINES.

BUT NO FIGHTING WAS REPORTED FROM THIS AREA. CLASHES ELSEWHERE ON THE RAINSWEPT BATTLE LINE WERE BETWEEN GROUPS OF 100 OR 200.

THE EIGHTH ARMY SAID THE REDS EAST OF KAPYONG WERE SOUTH OF THE PUKHAN RIVER. THIS WOULD PUT THEM 35 TO 40 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL AND ROUGHLY 15 MILES NORTHWEST OF HONGCHON, U.N. BASE ON THE CENTRAL FRONT.

AN ALLIED OFFICER SAID WELL PROTECTED U.N. POSITIONS AND RESTLESS PATROLS PROBABLE WOULD INSURE ABOUT 24 HOURS WARNING BEFORE THE CHINESE HIT IN STRENGTH.

A CENTRAL FRONT BRIEFING OFFICER SAID THE WEATHER PROBABLY WOULD SPEED UP THE EXPECTED RED OFFENSIVE ABOUT TWO DAYS. THE STRIKE GENERALLY IS EXPECTED NEXT WEEK.

"THIS IS THEIR MEAT," ONE OFFICER COMMENTED. "THE CHINESE CAN DO A LOT OF MOVING UNDER THESE CLOUDS WITHOUT BEING SEEN FROM THE AIR. THEY ARE UNDOUBTEDLY TAKING ADVANTAGE OF IT."

B-29S WERE OUT TUESDAY DESPITE HEAVY WEATHER. THEY BOMBED THE SARIWON SUPPLY CENTER, ABOVE THE WESTERN FRONT,, BY RADAR.

ON THE WESTERN FRONT 10 ALLIED SOLDIERS--EIGHT AMERICANS AND TWO TURKS--RETURNED TO THEIR OWN LINES AFTER BEING RELEASED BY CHINESE. THEY WERE TAKEN PRISONER APRIL 25 IN THE REDS' FIRST SPRING OFFENSIVE. AP CORRESPONDENT JOHN RANDOLPH SAID ALL TOLD OF COMPARATIVELY GOOD TREATMENT BY THEIR CAPTORS. THEY SAID THEY WERE TOLD NEVER AGAIN TO FIGHT THE CHINESE, AND RELEASED.

RAIN WASHED OUT MOST FIGHTING TUESDAY.

HEAVY ARTILLERY WAS DIRECTED ON RED FORCES OF UNDETERMINED SIZE 15 MILES EAST OF CHUNCHON. THE REDS APPARENTLY HAD WIDENED THEIR BRIDGEHEAD SOUTH OF THE CHOYANG RIVER IN THIS AREA.

BUT A TANK LED PATROL ENTERED CHUNCHON AGAIN WITHOUT FINDING TRACE OF THE REDS. CHUNCHON IS ABOUT FIVE MILES NORTHEAST OF THE KAPYONG PENETRATION.

IN TWO SECTORS THE REDS RAPIDLY BUILT UP ASSAULT FORCES CAPABLE OF STRIKING OVER THE SOGGY GROUND.

SOME U.N. OFFICERS SAID THE CHINESE FINALLY HAVE MASSED ENOUGH STRENGTH TO FORCE A MILITARY DECISION IN KOREA. OTHERS SAID THEY NEVER COULD SUPPLY A SUSTAINED OFFENSIVE. BUT ALL AGREED THE STEADY PELTING RAIN FAVORED THE COMMUNISTS.

IT SHIELDED RED MOVEMENTS FROM ALLIED AIR AND GROUND PATROLS. RAINS CUT DOWN THE REACH OF ARMORED TASK FORCES, GROUNDED MANY PLANES.

THE BAD WEATHER MAY SPEED UP THE REDS' TIME TABLE, A U.S. EIGHTH ARMY OFFICER SAID.

COMMUNIST FORWARD ELEMENTS STIFFENED AGAINST PROBING ALLIED UNITS IN FRONT OF THE BUILDUP AREAS.

THE MAIN RED BATTLE FORCES WERE MASSING IN THE YANGGU AREA ON THE EASTERN FRONT AND NORTH OF CHUNCHON ON THE CENTRAL SECTOR.

A THIRD CONCENTRATION WAS NORTH OF SEOUL, FORMER SOUTH KOREAN CAPITAL.

THERE WAS FIGHTING AROUND INJE, 10 MILES EAST OF YANGGU IN THE EASTERN SECTOR, AND NORTHEAST OF UIJONGBU ON THE APPROACHES TO SEOUL IN THE WEST. AND REDS WORKED TO EXPAND A BRIDGEHEAD SOUTH OF THE CHOYANG RIVER, BETWEEN INJE AND CHUNCHON.

FIGHTING WAS ON A SMALL SCALE MONDAY. NEVERTHELESS, AN EIGHTH ARMY BRIEFING OFFICER SAID ABOUT 1,600 REDS WERE KILLED OR WOUNDED DURING THE DAY. ANOTHER 75 WERE TAKEN PRISONER, INCLUDING SOME DESERTERS.

THE STUBBORN MANNER IN WHICH REDS HELD THEIR DUG-IN POSITIONS SUPPORTED THE U.N. THEORY THAT A SECOND CHINESE SPRING OFFENSIVE IS IMMINENT. SOME ALLIED OFFICERS SPECULATED IT MIGHT COME IN A WEEK.

SOME OFFICERS HELD THAT WHEN THE BLOW COMES IT WILL BE AN ALL-OUT OFFENSIVE INTENDED TO DRIVE THE U.N. ARMY INTO THE SEA. ONE EIGHTH ARMY OFFICER SAID:

A40FX

"THEY HAVE MORE TANKS, MORE ARTILLERY, MORE RESERVES, AND MOST IMPORTANT, MORE AIRPLANES--BASED IN NORTH KOREA--THAN AT ANY TIME SINCE THEY ENTERED THE WAR LAST WINTER."

BUT AP CORRESPONDENT NATE POLOWETZKY REPORTED OTHER OFFICERS HELD THAT THE CHINESE NEVER WOULD BE ABLE TO MOUNT A SUSTAINED OFFENSIVE. THESE OFFICERS SAID THE REDS COULDN'T SUPPLY THEIR FORCES WITH FOOD AND AMMUNITION FOR MORE THAN A WEEK. WITHOUT RICE AND BULLETS, THE CHINESE HAVE TO FALL BACK TO REGROUP.

"THEY HAVEN'T GOT THE MEANS TO BRING FOOD AND OTHER EQUIPMENT DOWN FROM MANCHURIA," THESE OFFICERS SAID. "OUR AIR FORCE IS PLAYING HAVOC WITH THE LITTLE TRANSPORT THAT THE CHINESE HAVE AND HAVE PRETTY MUCH DESTROYED THEIR SUPPLY ROUTE."

U.N. PLANES KEPT UP THEIR POUNDING OF RED TRANSPORT LINES DESPITE THE RAIN. FAR EASTERN AIR FORCES FLEW 800 SORTIES MONDAY.

U.N. TROOPS IN OUT-OF-THE-WAY PLACES RECEIVED SUPPLIES BY AIR. NINE C-119 FLYING BOX CARS OF THE 314TH TROOP CARRIER GROUP MADE THE HIGHEST AIR DROP OF THE KOREAN WAR MONDAY. THEY PARACHUTED 35 TONS OF RATIONS AND AMMUNITION TO ALLIED TROOPS ATOP A 5,200 FOOT MOUNTAIN.

TOKYO, MAY 15-(AP)-TWO BRITISH SOLDIERS WERE RELEASED BY THEIR NORTH KOREAN CAPTORS BECAUSE--A RED COLONEL SAID--"IT WOULD BE TOO MUCH TROUBLE TO TAKE YOU TO NORTH KOREA."
ONE OF THEM, PVT. DESMOND FOX, 10 EVERSHAM ROAD, BLAKELY, MANCHESTER, ENGLAND, HAD BEEN REPORTED KILLED IN ACTION. THE OTHER, PVT. HERBERT GRAHAM, WENTWORTH PARK, NEAR ROTHERHAM, YORKSHIRE, ENGLAND, HAD BEEN LISTED AS MISSING.
BOTH WERE MEMBERS OF THE GLOUCESTERSHIRE BATTALION AND BOTH WERE CAPTURED APRIL 25. THEY WERE ESCORTED TO ALLIED LINES SATURDAY AND BROUGHT TO A GENERAL HOSPITAL HERE.
FOX WAS CAPTURED AS HIS OUTFIT TRIED TO FIGHT ITS WAY OUT OF A COMMUNIST TRAP DURING THE RECENT RED OFFENSIVE.
"I JUMPED INTO A DITCH AS THE CHINESE CAME RUNNING DOWN A HILL, SHOUTING AT US TO STOP," FOX SAID. "I FOLLOWED THE DITCH FOR A LITTLE WHILE AND THEN MADE MY WAY DOWN A SLOPE TO SOME WATER."
"THEY TOOK ALL MY PAPERS AND BELONGINGS. I WAS TAKEN TO A DUGOUT WHERE I WAS GIVEN FOOD AND SLEPT THE NIGHT. WHEN I WOKE UP I FOUND GRAHAM WAS THERE, TOO."
WITH AN INJURED PUERTO RICAN THEY WERE KEPT ON THE MOVE FOR FIVE DAYS, FORCED TO CARRY HEAVY MACHINEGUNS FOR THE ADVANCING REDS.
ON THE SIXTH DAY THEY ESCAPED AT MIDNIGHT THROUGH A WINDOW. THE NEXT MORNING THEY SEPARATED FROM THE PUERTO RICAN. THEY NEVER SAW HIM AGAIN.
TWO DAYS LATER THEY WERE RECAPTURED WHILE LOOKING FOR FOOD.
THEY WERE GIVEN A SHAVE, A BATH AND A LECTURE ON COMMUNISM. A RED KOREAN COLONEL THEN RELEASED THEM. HE EXPLAINED IT WOULD BE TOO MUCH TROUBLE TO TAKE THEM NORTH.
FRIDAY NIGHT THEY BEGAN A 20-MILE MARCH UNDER RELAYS OF ESCORTS, CHANGED ABOUT EVERY FIVE MILES. THE LAST PAIR OF ESCORTS POINTED OUT THE UNITED NATIONS LINES AT 10 A.M. SATURDAY.

U.S. 8TH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, KOREA, MAY 15-(AP)-ALLIED OFFICERS IN KOREA HAVE THEIR OWN VERSION OF AMERICA'S "GREAT DEBATE."
THE QUESTION HERE IS: HAVE THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS FINALLY MASSED ENOUGH STRENGTH TO FORCE A MILITARY DECISION IN KOREA--ASSUMING THEY WANT TO?
ONE GROUP ANSWERS WITH AN EMPHATIC "YES."
THEIR ARGUMENT:
"THE REDS HAVE MORE TANKS, MORE ARTILLERY, MORE RESERVES AND--MOST IMPORTANT--MORE AIRPLANES BASED IN NORTH KOREA THAN AT ANY TIME SINCE THEY ENTERED THE WAR LAST DECEMBER.
"THE APRIL 22 COMMUNIST PUSH WAS NOT AN ALL-OUT OFFENSIVE. THE CHINESE ATTACKED ONLY BECAUSE THEY WERE GOADED BY OUR INCESSANT AIR AND ARTILLERY ATTACKS. THAT ATTACK WAS PREMATURE. IT WAS A REFLEX TO OUR CONSTANT STABBING INTO THEIR LINES, LIKE A SWARM OF HORNETS ATTACKING WHEN YOU PROD THEIR NEST WITH A LONG STICK.
"THE CHINESE ARE READY FOR THE BIG ONE. THEY ARE GETTING REPLACEMENTS. HEAVY RAINS ARE COMING AND THEY WILL HURT THE MECHANIZED UNITED NATIONS ARMY MORE THAN THE CHINESE. LOW CEILINGS ARE HOLDING DOWN TACTICAL AIR SUPPORT.
"WHEN THE CHINESE STRIKE AGAIN THEY CAN MOUNT AN ALL-OUT DRIVE DESIGNED TO DESTROY THE UNITED NATIONS ARMY OR DRIVE IT INTO THE SEA."
THAT'S ONE VIEW.
OTHER OFFICERS ARE JUST AS EMPHATIC IN REBUTTAL.
THEY SAY:
"THE CHINESE SUPPLY SYSTEM IS BAD. THEY HAVEN'T GOT THE MEANS TO BRING FOOD AND OTHER EQUIPMENT DOWN FROM MANCHURIA. OUR AIR FORCE IS PLAYING HAVOC WITH THE LITTLE TRANSPORT THE CHINESE HAVE. WE HAVE PRETTY WELL DESTROYED THEIR SUPPLY ROUTES.
"THEREFORE, THE ONLY THING THEY CAN DO IS MOUNT SHORT AND SHALLOW OFFENSIVES, DESIGNED TO PENETRATE OUR POSITIONS. ONCE THAT PENETRA-TION HAS BEEN MADE, THE COMMUNISTS HOPES THEY CAN FIND A NEW FOOD SUPPLY. THEN THEY CAN GO ON TO EXPLOIT THE BREAKTHROUGH."

LT.GEN.EDWARD M.ALMOND, COMMANDER OF THE U.S. 10TH CORPS, SEEMS TO AGREE WITH THE LATTER VIEW.

A48FX

LAST WEEK HE SAID THE CHINESE ARMIES WERE "WILTING ON THE VINE" FOR LACK OF SUPPLIES.

"IT IS A WONDER TO ME HOW THEY ARE ABLE TO FEED THEIR MASS ARMY," HE SAID.

HE ADDED THAT BY TRADITION THE CHINESE HAVE ALWAYS "FOUGHT FROM ONE RICE BOWL TO ANOTHER. BUT WE HAVE DENIED THEM THE GRANERIES OF KOREA."

THE KEY TO THE PUZZLE PROBABLY LIES IN THE ANSWER TO THIS QUESTION: "DO THE COMMUNISTS ACTUALLY WANT TO REACH A MILITARY DECISION IN KOREA?"

NO ONE KNOWS.

PERHAPS, AS ONE OFFICER SAID, "THEY JUST WANT TO KEEP US HERE IN THE HOPE THAT WE WILL EXPEND ALL OUR ENERGY IN A FRUITLESS WAR AND ULTIMATELY BLEED OURSELVES TO DEATH. AFTER ALL, THEY HAVE THE BRITISH TIED DOWN IN MALAYA AND THE FRENCH IN INDO-CHINA. ALL OF EUROPE LIES OPEN TO THE RUSSIANS, WHO HAVEN'T A SINGLE SOLDIER COMMITTED IN BATTLE IN ANY PART OF THE WORLD."

THE ALLIES IN KOREA CAN ONLY FIGHT, WAIT AND SEE.

HONG KONG, MAY 15 (AP)-HONG KONG OFFICIALS BREATHED EASIER TODAY WHEN IT WAS ANNOUNCED THE FREIGHTER NANCY MOLLER, HER HOLDS LOADED WITH RUBBER FOR RED CHINA, WOULD NOT STOP HERE AFTER ALL.

INSTEAD THE FREIGHTER WILL GO DIRECT FROM SINGAPORE TO WHAMPOA, ABOUT 16 SEA MILES SOUTHEAST OF CANTON. OFFICIALS HOPE THAT WILL CLEAR THEM OF RESPONSIBILITY.

THE FREIGHTER LEFT SINGAPORE SATURDAY, ONE DAY AFTER SIR HARTLEY SHAWCROSS, PRESIDENT OF THE BRITISH BOARD OF TRADE, TOLD THE HOUSE OF COMMONS BRITAIN WOULD SEND NO MORE RUBBER TO THE COMMUNIST MAINLAND.

EARLIER, LOCAL OFFICIALS SAID THE CARGO WOULD BE STOPPED HERE IF THE SHIP'S MANIFEST SHOWED THE RUBBER WAS "IN TRANSIT." BUT, THEY SAID, IF THE MANIFEST WAS ON A "THROUGH BILL OF LADING"--CONSIGNED DIRECT FROM SINGAPORE TO RED CHINA--THEY "ORDINARILY WOULD BE POWERLESS TO INTERVENE."

THERE STILL IS A POSSIBILITY THE SHIP WILL BE STOPPED BEFORE SHE ENTERS THE PEARL RIVER ESTUARY FOR WHAMPOA.

PRECEDE TEHRAN (290)
BY EDWARD CURTIS

LONDON, MAY 15-(AP)-BRITAIN WILL PROPOSE SENDING A HIGH LEVEL GOVERNMENT MISSION TO SEEK A SETTLEMENT OF ITS OIL DISPUTE WITH IRAN, INFORMED SOURCES SAID TODAY.

THE OFFER WILL BE CONTAINED IN A NOTE TO IRAN EXPECTED TO BE SENT TOMORROW. IT WILL URGE IRAN TO NEGOTIATE A SETTLEMENT, THE INFORMANTS SAID.

WHILE THE FOREIGN OFFICE WAS PUTTING THE NOTE INTO FINAL FORM, THE WAR OFFICE WAS WHIPPING INTO READINESS A 4,000-MAN PARACHUTE BRIGADE. THERE WAS SPECULATION THAT THIS HIGHLY MOBILE FORCE -- KNOWN AS THE "FIRE BRIGADE" BECAUSE OF ITS USE IN EMERGENCIES -- WOULD BE SENT TO IRAN TO PROTECT BRITISH LIVES AND PROPERTY, IF NECESSARY.

BUT BOTH THE FOREIGN OFFICE AND THE WAR OFFICE DECLINED TO SPECULATE ON THE REASON FOR THE SUDDEN CALL TO THE 16TH INDEPENDENT PARACHUTE BRIGADE GROUP TO BE READY FOR "OPERATION UNKNOWN."

LEAVES WERE CANCELLED OVER THE WHITSUN WEEKEND HOLIDAY THE BRIGADE NOW IS 95 PER CENT ASSEMBLED AT ALDERSHOT. MEDICAL INSPECTIONS AND INOCULATIONS WERE GIVEN SOME TROOPERS TODAY. OTHERS WERE DOING PRACTICE PARACHUTE DROPS FROM PLANES.

A WAR OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID NO DEPARTURE ORDERS HAD BEEN GIVEN THE PARACHUTISTS.

OFFICIALS SAID BRITAIN HAS CONSULTED THE UNITED STATES ON ITS LATEST MOVES TO SAVE THE GIANT BRITISH OIL CONCESSION FROM BEING TAKEN OVER BY THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT.

MANY BRITISH OFFICIALS BELIEVE THE DISPUTE IS RAPIDLY APPROACHING A SHOW DOWN.

IRAN HAS NATIONALIZED ITS OIL RESOURCES AND HAS SET UP A JOINT PARLIAMENTARY BOARD TO TAKE OVER THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY, OPERATOR OF A RICH OIL CONCESSION ALONG THE PERSIAN GULF.

THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT OWNS MORE THAN HALF OF THE COMMON STOCK OF THE COMPANY, WHICH SUPPLIES ABOUT 30 PER CENT OF BRITAIN'S OIL, AND MUCH OF THE FUEL FOR THE BRITISH NAVY.

SOME BRITISH OFFICIALS ARE QUESTIONING PRIVATELY THE STABILITY OF PREMIER MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH. THEY SAY THE OIL NATIONALIZATION LAW WAS FORCED THROUGH PARLIAMENT BY PRESSURE OF TERRORIST THREATS.

THESE OFFICIALS SAY THE COMMUNIST-SPONSORED TUDEH PARTY HAS BEEN PRESENTED WITH THE OPPORTUNITY FOR A COUP.

"WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO IF THE COMMUNISTS SEIZE IRAN?" ONE OFFICIAL ASKED. "JUST STAND BY AND LET THEM HAVE IT."

THE PREMIER HAS EXPRESSED FEAR FOR HIS LIFE AND HAS TAKEN REFUGE IN THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING. COMMUNIST SEIZURE OF THE GOVERNMENT WOULD MEAN A LOSS OF THE RICH OIL FIELDS TO THE WEST AND THE SHUNTING OF THEIR PRODUCTION TO THE SOVIET UNION.

ONE SOURCE SAID THE LATEST BRITISH AND AMERICAN EXCHANGES OVER THE SITUATION CENTERED UPON HOW FAR THE UNITED STATES WOULD SUPPORT BRITAIN IN THE STRUGGLE TO KEEP IRAN'S OIL.

SINGAPORE, MAY 15-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE OPENED A TWO-DAY CONFERENCE OF ARMY, NAVY AND AIR CHIEFS TODAY TO DOVETAIL MILITARY STRATEGY IN SOUTHEAST ASIA.
THE TALKS AT HEAVILY GUARDED PHOENIX PARK, IN THE HEART OF SINGAPORE ISLAND, WERE BELIEVED AIMED AT AN ASSESSMENT OF THE POSSIBILITIES OF ANY NEW COMMUNIST AGGRESSION IN THIS PART OF THE WORLD AND HOW IT SHOULD BE COUNTERED.
NEW DISPOSITIONS OF FORCES IN THE EVENT RED CHINAA INTERVENES IN INDOCHINA, THE GATEWAY TO THE TIN AND RUBBER OF MALAYA, WERE BELIEVED HIGH ON THE AGENDA.
NO STATEMENT WAS ISSUED AT THE END OF TODAY'S TALKS. A COMMUNIQUE MAY BE HANDED OUT TOMORROW, BUT IT IS UNLIKELY TO DISCLOSE RECOMMENDATIONS THE PARTICIPANTS WILL MAKE TO THEIR GOVERNMENTS. NO FINAL DECISIONS ARE EXPECTED TO BE REACHED HERE.
PHOENIX PARK IS THE HEADQUARTERS OF MALCOLM MACDONALD, BRITISH COMMISSIONER GENERAL FOR SOUTHEAST ASIA, AND THE BRITISH ARMY AND NAVY IN THE FAR EAST.
GEN. SIR JOHN HARDING, ARMY COMMANDER IN THE FAR EAST, ADM. SIR GUY RUSSELL, FAR EAST NAVAL STATION COMMANDER, AND AIR MARSHAL SIR FRANCIS FOGARTY, FAR EAST AIR FORCE COMMANDER, TOOK PART IN THE TALKS FOR THE BRITISH.
VICE ADM. ARTHUR D.STRUBLE, COMMANDER OF THE UNITED STATES FIRST FLEET, FLEW HERE FROM SAN DIEGO, CALIF., FOR THE CONFERENCE. HE FORMERLY COMMANDED THE U.S. SEVENTH FLEET IN KOREAN AND FORMOSAN WATERS.
THE IMPORTANCE OF INDOCHINA IN THE DISCUSSIONS WAS INDICATED BY THE PRESENCE FOR THE FRENCH OF GEN. JEAN DE LATTRE DE TASSIGNY, COMMANDER IN INDOCHINA.
AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND HAD OBSERVERS PRESENT.
--DASH--
A DISPATCH FROM SAIGON, INDOCHINA, SAID GEN. DE LATTRE WILL BE ABLE TO TELL THE CONFERENCE THE RED CHINESE HAVE MISSED THEIR BEST CHANCE FOR A SUCCESSFUL INVASION OF INDOCHINA. THE FIREPOWER OF HIS REINFORCED TROOPS HAS BEEN QUADRUPLED AND HIS AIR FORCE OF ABOUT 100 COMBAT AIRCRAFT MORE THAN DOUBLED BY AMERICAN AID IN THE LAST SIX MONTHS.

SINGAPORE, MAY 15-(AP)-HIGH-RANKING ARMY, NAVY AND AIR COMMANDERS OF THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE OPENED TALKS HERE TODAY ON OVERALL MILITARY STRATEGY IN SOUTHEAST ASIA AND WHAT SHOULD BE DONE TO COUNTER ANY NEW COMMUNIST AGGRESSION.
HIGH ON THEIR AGENDA, IT IS KNOWN, IS WHAT DISPOSITION SHOULD BE MADE OF ALLIED ARMED FORCES IN THE EVENT COMMUNIST CHINA INTERVENES IN INDOCHINA, GATEWAY TO RUBBER AND TIN RICH MALAYA. MALAYA IS CERTAIN TO FOLLOW BRITAIN'S LEAD IN BANNING RUBBER EXPORTS TO RED CHINA AND IT IS FELT THIS MIGHT PROVOKE THE MUCH DISCUSSED RED ASSAULT.
THE PARLEY IS EXPECTED TO END TOMORROW NIGHT. A COMMUNIQUE PROBABLY WILL BE ISSUED THEN OUTLINING WHAT WAS DISCUSSED, BUT IT IS UNLIKELY THE CONFEREES WILL DISCLOSE WHAT RECOMMENDATIONS THEY ARE MAKING TO WASHINGTON, LONDON AND PARIS.
AN OFFICIAL SPOKESMAN SAID THE TALKS WILL ONLY RECOMMEND. THERE WILL BE NO OUTRIGHT DECISIONS.
STRICT SECURITY PRECAUTIONS WERE TAKEN TO ASSURE THE SECRECY OF THE TALKS.

INFORMED SOURCES COMMENTED THAT PARTICIPATION IN THE TALKS BY FRENCH AIR FORCE GEN.PIERRE FAY WAS AN INDICATION THAT NEW DISPOSITIONS FOR AMERICAN AND BRITISH AIR FORCES IN THE FAR EAST WOULD BE THOROUGHLY DISCUSSED.

SPOKESMEN FOR THE CONFEREES AGAIN EMPHASIZED THAT THE TALKS WERE STRICTLY MILITARY AND WOULD INVOLVE NO SUCH POLITICAL ISSUES AS THE PROPOSED PACIFIC PACT.

BASIC OBJECTIVE OF THE TRI-NATION PARLEY, WHICH ALSO IS BEING ATTENDED BY OBSERVERS FROM AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND, WAS DESCRIBED AS CLOSER COORDINATION OF ALL ALLIED DEFENSE PLANS TO MEET THE PRESENT MILITARY SITUATION IN SOUTHEAST ASIA AND TO COPE WITH ANY EXTENSION OF COMMUNIST AGGRESSION.

SAIGON, INDOCHINA, MAY 15-(AP)-FRANCE'S FAR EASTERN COMMANDER IS EXPECTED TO TELL AMERICAN AND BRITISH MILITARY LEADERS TODAY THAT IF THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS ATTACK INDOCHINA, THE FRENCH WILL NEED ANGLO-AMERICAN SUPPORT.

THE FRENCH CHIEF, GEN.JEAN DE LATTRE DE TASSIGNY, WILL SUBMIT PLANS FOR THE DEFENSE OF INDOCHINA TODAY WHEN HE MEETS WITH SENIOR U.S. AND BRITISH COMMANDERS IN SINGAPORE.

FRANCE'S PLANS TO RESIST CHINESE COMMUNIST ATTACK HAVE BECOME FEASIBLE ONLY IN THE LAST SIX MONTHS BECAUSE OF THE BUILDUP OF WESTERN POWER STRENGTH IN ASIA.

ALTHOUGH INDOCHINA IS STILL FAR FROM SAFE, MILITARY OBSERVERS HERE BELIEVE THAT PEIPING HAS ALLOWED THE IDEAL TIME FOR INVASION TO PASS. SIX MONTHS AGO CHINESE TROOPS WITH THEIR INDOCHINESE ALLIES, LTHE CO MUNIST-LED VIETMINH, COULD EASILY HAVE BRUSHED ASIDE FRENCH RESISTANCE.

DE LATTRE WILL BE ABLE TO TELL THE SINGAPORE CONFEREES THAT THE FIRE POWER OF HIS REINFORCED TROOPS IN NORTH INDOCHINA SINCE THEN HAS BEEN NEARLY QUADRUPLED, LARGELY BECAUSE OF AMERICAN MILITARY AID. HIS AIR FORCE OF ABOUT 100 COMBAT AIRCRAFT HAS BEEN MORE THAN DOUBLED.

BUT THE FRENCH UNION GARRISON OF 150,000 TROOPS BACKED BY AN EQUAL NUMBER OF INDOCHINESE AUXILIARIES IS STILL NOT STRONG ENOUGH TO FIGHT MORE THAN A DELAYING ACTION IF THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS ATTACK IN STRENGTH. THIS FORCE IS ENGAGED WITH HO CHI MINH'S ARMY OF MORE THAN 100,000, WHICH IS AIDED BY THOUSANDS OF GUERILLAS.

DAMASCUS, SYRIA, MAY 15-(AP)-COMMITTEES OF THE SEVEN-NATION ARAB LEAGUE WENT INTO SESSION HERE TODAY TO DISCUSS ARAB SOLIDARITY AGAINST A BACKGROUND OF RENEWED HOSTILITIES ON THE FRONTIER BETWEEN SYRIA AND ISRAEL.

REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NATIONS WHICH COLLECTIVELY FOUGHT A WAR IN PALESTINE AGAINST THE ISRAELIS IN 1948-49 EXPRESSED CONFIDENCE THAT A STRONG FRONT WOULD BE CEMENTED.

THE COUNCIL OF THE ARAB LEAGUE OPENED DAMASCUS SESSIONS LAST NIGHT WITH A 50-MINUTE MEETING AND THEN ADJOURNED TO PERMIT ITS POLITICAL COMMITTEE AND A SPECIAL COMMITTEE TO COMPLETE THEIR WORK. THE COUNCIL IS EXPECTED TO MEET AGAIN LATER THIS WEEK.

AFTER LAST NIGHT'S MEETING, HUSSEIN UWEINI, PREMIER OF LEBANON, TOLD REPORTERS:

"ISRAEL'S ACTIONS ARE INCREASINGLY ENDANGERING MIDDLE EASTERN PEACE, AND I AM CONFIDENT THAT ARAB COLLABORATION AT THIS STAGE WILL BE STRONG AND FIRM."

THE LEBANESE PREMIER PRESIDED AT THE COUNCIL MEETING LAST NIGHT. IT WAS ADDRESSED BY THE PREMIER OF SYRIA, KHALED BEY AZEM, WHO SAID THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE MEETING IN SYRIA'S CAPITAL WAS THAT THE ARAB STATES WOULD BE UNIFIED AT THIS TIME (APPARENTLY AGAINST ISRAEL.)

EVEN THE REPRESENTATIVE OF JORDAN, WITH WHICH ISRAEL HAS BEEN HAVING RELATIVELY GOOD RELATIONS, FELL IN LINE WITH THE OTHER ARAB MINISTERS. THE JORDANIAN MINISTER TO LEBANON, JAMAL TUQAN, REPRESENTING HIS COUNTRY HERE PENDING THE ARRIVAL OF JORDAN'S FOREIGN MINISTER, SAID ISRAEL MENACED JORDAN NO LESS THAN SYRIA AND THE OTHER ARAB COUNTRIES. HE SAID JORDAN WOULD NOT STAND ASIDE, BUT WOULD JOIN THE OTHER ARAB STATES IN SUPPORTING SYRIA IN HER CURRENT DISPUTE WITH ISRAEL. (ISRAEL AND SYRIA HAVE AGREED TO A U.N. CEASE-FIREM)

WITH THE PRELIMINARIES OUT OF THE WAY, THE ARAB REPRESENTATIVES SOON ARE EXPECTED TO GET DOWN TO THE BUSINESS OF DISCUSSING WHAT SORT OF MILITARY AGREEMENT, IF ANY, THEY WILL SEEK TO EFFECT.

THE MEMBERS OF THE ARAB LEAGUE ARE SYRIA, LEBANON, JORDAN, IRAQ, SAUDI ARABIA, YEMEN AND EGYPT.

NEW DELHI, INDIA, MAY 15-(AP)-FOOD MINISTER K.M.MUNSHI REFUSED TODAY TO DISCLOSE TO PARLIAMENT THE PROGRESS OF NEGOTIATIONS UNDERWAY IN PEIPING FOR SUPPLY OF 1,000,000 (M) TONS OF CHINESE GRAIN TO FAMINE-THREATENED INDIA.

PUBLICATION OF THE INFORMATION, HE TOLD QUESTIONERS, IS "NOT IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST."

HE SAID INDIA WOULD PAY CHINA IN CASH, NOT IN BARTER, FOR 50,000 TONS OF MILO (GRAIN SORGHUM) AND 30,000 TONS OF RICE WHICH THE GOVERNMENT PREVIOUSLY ANNOUNCED IT WAS GETTING FROM THE COMMUNISTS.

ASKED IF PROPOSALS FOR THE UNITED NATIONS TO BLOCKADE CHINA WERE LIKELY TO INTERFERE WITH THE DELIVERY OF FOOD FROM THERE, MUNSHI SAID IT WAS "TOO EARLY TO SAY ANYTHING WITH CERTAINTY." HE ADDED THAT SHIPS TO TRANSPORT THE FOOD FROM CHINA HAD BEEN OBTAINED FROM THE BALTIC SHIPPING EXCHANGE.

LEFT-WING INDIAN NEWSPAPERS HAVE CHARGED THAT THE PROPOSED BLOCKADE OF THE CHINA COAST WAS PLANNED MAINLY TO PREVENT CHINESE FOOD FROM REACHING INDIA.

THE FOOD MINISTRY ALSO ANNOUNCED THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAS ASKED ITS SUPPLY MISSION IN WASHINGTON TO BUY 500,000 TONS OF WHEAT FROM THE UNITED STATES UNDER THE INTERNATIONAL WHEAT AGREEMENT.

A MINISTRY OFFICIAL, RECALLING THAT THE U.S. HAS BEEN INDIA'S CHIEF SOURCE OF FOOD GRAIN SUPPLIES, SAID THAT FROM JAN.1 TO MAY 9 THE U.S. EXPORTED TO INDIA 177,300 TONS OF WHEAT AND 242,850 TONS OF MILO. IN THE SAME PERIOD CHINA EXPORTED TO INDIA 42,150 TONS OF RICE AND RUSSIA EXPORTED NO FOOD GRAINS TO THE INDIANS. THE FIRST ARRIVAL OF RUSSIAN WHEAT FROM THE 500,000 TONS THE RUSSIANS OFFERED FOR SALE IS DUE TO ARRIVE IN MID-JUNE -- TWO SHIPLOADS TOTALLING 26,000 TONS.

PRECEDE TEL AVIV DAY (220)

BY ERIC GOTTGETREU

JERUSALEM, MAY 15-(AP)-POLICE ANNOUNCED TONIGHT THE ARREST OF 41 YOUNG ORTHODOX RELIGIOUS ZEALOTS, INCLUDING ONE GIRL, SUSPECTED OF PLOTTING TO SABOTAGE ISRAEL'S PARLIAMENT (KNESSET). A SCORE OF INCENDIARY AND SMOKE BOMBS WERE SEIZED.

MEMBERS OF THE GROUP LOOKED OVER THE INSIDE OF PARLIAMENT YESTERDAY AND THEN WENT TO YESHIVA SINAI, A BOARDING SCHOOL FOR RELIGIOUS TEACHERS, TO CACHE THEIR BOMBS AT AN ARMS HIDEOUT IN AN INSIDE WALL, A POLICE SPOKESMAN SAID. PLAINCLOTHES MEN TRAILED THEM AND LAUNCHED THE ARRESTS.

A SCHEDULED DEBATE AND VOTE YESTERDAY ON "THE ISRAELI WOMEN'S NATIONAL LABOR AND MILITARY SERVICE LAW"--A MEASURE WHICH ULTRA-ORTHODOX JEWS OPPOSE--HAD BEEN POSTPONED FOR TECHNICAL REASONS.

FORMER MEMBERS OF THE OUTLAWED STERN GANG WERE AMONG THOSE ROUNDED UP IN THE REPUTED PLOT TO EMPHSIZE BY "HOLY WAR" VIOLENCE A DEMAND THAT THE GOVERNMENT PAY GREATER HEED TO ORTHODOX VIEWS.

ALSO HELD WERE A NUMBER OF YOUTHS WHO, IN PROTEST AGAINST MODERN TRENDS, WEAR SIDE CURLS AND LONG BLACK GARMENTS OF AN OLD POLISH STYLE.

INFORMED SOURCES SAID A MORE RIGOROUS OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH IS SOUGHT BY THE UNDERGROUND GROUP. OTHER TARGETS ARE TWO PROPOSED LAWS. ONE OF THESE INVOLVES LABOR REGULATIONS WHICH THE ULTRA-ORTHODOX CONSIDER TOO LIBERAL AND AGAINST THE SPIRIT OF THE TORAH, HOLY LAW AS LAID DOWN IN THE FIVE BOOKS OF MOSES. THE OTHER IS THE SERVICE LAW, WHICH PRESCRIBES NATIONAL ARMY OR LABOR SERVICE FOR ALL JEWISH GIRLS BETWEEN 17 AND 19 YEARS OLD AND DOES NOT PROVIDE FOR EXEMPTION ON GROUNDS OF RELIGIOUS CONVICTION.

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, MAY 15-(AP)-ISRAELI POLICE ANNOUNCED TODAY THEY HAVE FOILED AN ATTEMPT BY AN UNDERGROUND GROUP OF RELIGIOUS ZEALOTS TO DYNAMITE THE PARLIAMENT (KNESSET) BUILDING HERE.

THE GROUP, POLICE SAID, WAS PLANNING A "HOLY WAR" AGAINST AN ANTI-RELIGIOUS ATTITUDE IT ATTRIBUTED TO PRIME MINISTER DAVID BEN-GURION'S GOVERNMENT.

OFFICERS SAID THEY HAD ARRESTED 35 YOUTHFUL SUSPECTS AND HAD CONFISCATED AN ARSENAL OF EXPLOSIVES AND SMALL ARMS.

THE ARRESTS, CARRIED OUT BY PLAINCLOTHESMEN, BEGAN YESTERDAY BOTH INSIDE AND OUTSIDE THE KNESSET BUILDING WHILE FOREIGN MINISTER MOSHE SHARETT WAS GIVING A STATEMENT ON ISRAELI-SYRIAN RELATIONS.

THOSE ARRESTED REPORTEDLY DEMANDED A MORE RIGOROUS OBSERVANCE OF THE JEWISH SABBATH, OPPOSED AS TOO LIBERAL NEW LABOR REGULATIONS NOW BEFORE THE PARLIAMENT AND ALSO WERE AGAINST PROPOSED LEGISLATION PRESCRIBING ARMY OR NATIONAL LABOR SERVICE FOR ALL JEWISH GIRLS BETWEEN 17 AND 19 YEARS OLD AND ALLOWING NO EXEMPTION ON GROUNDS OF RELIGIOUS CONVICTION.

OTTAWA, MAY 16-(AP)-CANADA AND HER BIG NEIGHBOR TO THE SOUTH STILL ARE ON THE BEST OF TERMS, EXTERNAL AFFAIRS MINISTER L.B. PEARSON ASSURED THE HOUSE OF COMMONS LAST NIGHT.

THAT WAS HIS REPLY TO A REQUEST BY OPPOSITION LEADER GEORGE DREW OF THE PROGRESSIVE CONSERVATIVE PARTY THAT THE MINISTER BRING "OUT INTO THE OPEN" ANY REASONS FOR RECENT CRITICISM OF THE UNITED STATES IN HER RELATIONSHIPS WITH THIS COUNTRY.

PEARSON SAID THERE APPARENTLY HAS BEEN SOME MISUNDERSTANDING OF A RECENT SPEECH IN TORONTO,ONT., WHERE HE SAID CANADA WILL NOT BE CONTENT TO BE AN ECHO TO THE U.S. ON FOREIGN POLICY. MAY 16 1951

PEARSON SAID HE HAD NOT, AS DREW SUGGESTED, SPOKEN FROM A "PERSONAL PIQUE." PEARSON DECLARED THAT AS MINISTER FOR EXTERNAL AFFAIRS, HE SPOKES AS A CANADIAN, ANXIOUS THAT CANADA'S VOICE BE NOT MISUNDERSTOOD AND THAT CANADA STAND ON HER OWN FEET WHILE MARCHING IN STEP WITH HER NEIGHBORS, ESPECIALLY THE U.S.

"OUR RELATIONS WITH THE UNITED STATES," HE ADDED, "CONTINUE TO BE ON A GOOD AND FRIENDLY BASIS."

COMPLETING A LENGTHY FOREIGN-POLICY DEBATE, PEARSON ALSO REITERATED HIS BELIEF THAT THE UNITED NATIONS WOULD BE "PROFOUNDLY MISTAKEN" IF IT ADOPTED A POLICY OF BOMBING RED BASES IN MANCHURIA, BLOCKADING THE CHINESE MAINLAND AND USING CHINESE NATIONALIST FORCES IN KOREA.

SUCH A MOVE WOULD NOT END THE WAR IN KOREA, HE SAID, AND MIGHT LEAD TO UNLIMITED ACTION--THE ENTRY OF RUSSIA DIRECTLY INTO THE KOREAN CONFLICT AND THE UNLEASHING OF A THIRD WORLD WAR.

WHILE HE DID NOT REFER DIRECTLY TO GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR, HE RECALLED THAT SOME IN CANADA AND THE UNITED STATES HAVE ADVOCATED THE ADOPTION OF SUCH STRATEGY.

DREW URGED THAT CANADA DISCONTINUE WHAT HE DESCRIBED AS UNWARRANTED ATTACKS ON THE UNITED KINGDOM AND THE UNITED STATES AND RESUME HER ROLE AS INTERPRETER BETWEEN THIS CONTINENT AND EUROPE.

OPTIONAL SECOND NIGHT LEAD MACARTHUR-BRADLEY
BY DON WHITEHEAD

WASHINGTON, MAY 15-(AP)-GEN. OMAR N.BRADLEY OPENED FIRE ON GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S KOREAN WAR PLANS TODAY BUT HE REFUSED TO TELL SENATORS ANYTHING THAT WAS SAID AT THE FIRST WHITE HOUSE MEETING ON THE MACARTHUR OUSTER.

THE CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF DECLARED MACARTHUR'S WAR PROPOSALS "WOULD INVOLVE US IN THE WRONG WAR, AT THE WRONG PLACE, AT THE WRONG TIME AND WITH THE WRONG ENEMY."

WITH THIS SWEEPING DECLARATION, BRADLEY REJECTED THE MACARTHUR PROGRAM FOR STRONGER MEASURES AGAINST RED CHINA. HE ALSO SAID SUCH A MOVE WOULD "INCREASE THE RISK OF GLOBAL WAR" AT A TIME WHEN THE UNITED STATES IS NOT READY FOR A SHOWDOWN WITH RUSSIA.

THEN BRADLEY LINED UP WITH SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL IN HOLDING OUT HOPE THE CHINESE REDS CAN BE FORCED INTO PEACE TERMS IN KOREA WITHOUT SPREADING OPERATIONS BEYOND THAT COUNTRY.

"WE THINK," HE SAID, "THAT IF WE CAN PUNISH THE CHINESE SEVERELY ENOUGH IN KOREA X X X THEN WE WILL BE IN A POSITION, AND THEY WILL BE IN AN ATTITUDE, WHERE SOME KIND OF AN ARRANGEMENT MAY BE REACHED AND A SETTLEMENT MADE."

IN THE MIDST OF THIS TESTIMONY, THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES' HEARING INTO ASIA POLICY AND THE MACARTHUR FIRING WAS THROWN INTO SHARP DISPUTE WHEN BRADLEY REFUSED TO TELL WHAT WAS SAID AT THE MEETING ON APRIL 6--FIVE DAYS BEFORE THE GENERAL OFFICIALLY WAS FIRED.

THE REFUSAL IMMEDIATELY BROUGHT TALK OF POSSIBLE CONTEMPT ACTION TO TEST BRADLEY'S RIGHT TO REFUSE BUT THERE WAS NO REAL INDICATION SUCH ACTION WOULD BE TAKEN.

"IF I HAVE TO PUBLICIZE MY RECOMMENDATIONS AND MY DISCUSSIONS," BRADLEY SAID, "MY VALUE AS A (PRESIDENTIAL) ADVISER HAS BEEN RUINED."

HE SAID HE COULD NOT REVEAL WHAT WAS SAID AT THE MEETING WITHOUT THE PERMISSION OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN HIMSELF. OTHERS PRESENT WERE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL, SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON, AND PRESIDENTIAL ADVISER W.AVERELL HARRIMAN.

SENATOR WILEY (R-WIS) SOUGHT TO GET THE INFORMATION FROM BRADLEY DURING TODAY'S SESSION OF THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES, WHICH ARE INQUIRING INTO ASIAN POLICY AND MACARTHUR'S OUSTER.

CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA) OF THE INQUIRY GROUP UPHELD BRADLEY'S POSITION BUT HE SAID THE COMMITTEE MEMBERS HAVE "A VERY EFFECTIVE AND THOROUGH WAY" OF DECIDING THE MATTER IF THEY DESIRE.

"THEY CAN OVERRULE THE CHAIR," RUSSELL SAID, "AND DECIDE GENERAL BRADLEY IN CONTEMPT AND LET THE COURTS PASS ON THE ISSUE ONCE AND FOR ALL."

30.24- 23035

BRADLEY WAS CALLED BACK TO THE WITNESS CHAIR FOR ANOTHER SESSION TOMORROW, STARTING AT 9 A.M., E.S.T. THE TRANSCRIPT OF THE HEARING SHOWED THAT CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA) TOLD HIM: "BE BACK WITH US (TOMORROW), GENERAL. I DON'T KNOW WHETHER YOU WILL HAVE A CHANCE TO TESTIFY OR NOT."

IT WAS NOT STATED WHETHER THIS MEANT THE COMMITTEE MIGHT CONSUME TOMORROW'S TIME ARGUING WHETHER TO TRY TO COMPEL BRADLEY TO TESTIFY ON WHAT WAS SAID AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

SENATOR LODGE (R-MASS) SAID: "I DO THINK WE MIGHT AS WELL FACE THE FACT THAT WHAT WE FACE IS THE QUESTION OF CITATION OF CONTEMPT." BUT HE SAID THE QUESTION SHOULD NOT BE PUSHED AT THIS TIME BECAUSE HE IS CONVINCED THE PROCEDURE NEVER RESULTS IN GETTING THE DESIRED INFORMATION.

SENATOR WILEY BROUGHT UP THE QUESTION OF THE TOP-LEVEL MEETING CALLED TO DISCUSS THE MACARTHUR SITUATION.

MAY 16 1951

"ALL RIGHT," WILEY SAID, "TELL US WHAT WAS SAID."

BRADLEY REPLIED: "SENATOR, AT THAT TIME I WAS IN A POSITION OF A CONFIDENTIAL ADVISER TO THE PRESIDENT. I DO NOT FEEL AT LIBERTY TO PUBLICIZE WHAT ANY OF US SAID AT THAT TIME."

WILEY TURNED TO SENATOR RUSSELL (D-GA) WHO IS CHAIRMAN OF THE INQUIRY GROUP AND ASKED IF BRADLEY SHOULD BE REQUIRED TO ANSWER.

AFTER A LENGTHY DISCUSSION, RUSSELL UPHELD BRADLEY BY RULING "ANY MATTER THAT TRANSPIRED IN THE PRIVATE CONVERSATION BETWEEN THE PRESIDENT AND THE CHIEF OF STAFF (BRADLEY) X X X CAN BE PROTECTED BY THE WITNESS IF HE SO DESIRES."

SENATOR MORSE (R-ORE) SIDED WITH RUSSELL AND SAID THE ONLY POWER THE COMMITTEE WOULD HAVE TO FORCE AN ANSWER WOULD BE TO START CONTEMPT PROCEEDINGS AND TAKE THE MATTER TO COURT FOR A DECISION.

BRADLEY SAID HE WOULD HAVE TO TAKE THE QUESTION TO MR.TRUMAN. BUT CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) OF THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE SAID "I DON'T THINK WE OUGHT TO ESTABLISH ANY SUCH DOCTRINE FOR SIMILAR CASES --THAT WE RUN OVER TO THE WHITE HOUSE AND GET THE PRESIDENT'S OPINION."

WILEY ARGUED THE WHOLE CASE HAD BEEN OPENED UP BY THE PRESIDENT HIMSELF "AND EVIDENCE OUGHT TO BE GIVEN TO THE PEOPLE AS TO JUST HOW IT HAPPENED THAT THIS VERY UNUSUAL AND CRUEL ACTION WAS TAKEN BY THE ASSOCIATES OF GENERAL MACARTHUR AND BY THE PRESIDENT."

WILEY ADDED THERE WAS "A LOT OF TESTIMONY AND EVIDENCE THAT SOME OF YOU DEFENDED MACARTHUR--IF YOU DID, I WOULD LIKE TO KNOW ABOUT IT."

WILEY FINALLY WITHDREW HIS APPEAL BUT HE LATER TOLD REPORTERS HE EXPECTS THE ISSUE--WHETHER BRADLEY SHOULD BE REQUIRED TO ANSWER -- TO COME UP FOR A SHOWDOWN VOTE TOMORROW.

TONIGHT, EIGHT OF THE 12 REPUBLICANS ON THE JOINT INQUIRY COMMITTEE MET TO DISCUSS WHAT SHOULD BE DONE ABOUT BRADLEY'S REFUSAL TO ANSWER.

WILEY TOLD REPORTERS AFTERWARD THAT THE GROUP HAD DECIDED TO STUDY THE LEGAL PRECEDENTS OVERNIGHT AND MEET AGAIN IN THE MORNING TO DECIDE A COURSE.

SENATOR FERGUSON (R-MSS), NOT A MEMBER OF THE COMMITTEE, SAT IN AT TONIGHT'S MEETING. WILEY SAID HE WAS CALLED IN BECAUSE "HE HAS HAD SOME EXPERIENCE WITH SORT OF THING." FERGUSON WAS GIVEN THE JOB OF DIRECTING THE STUDY OF PRECEDENTS.

IF THE RECOMMENDATION SHOULD BE TO SEEK CONTEMPT PROCEEDING, PROVIDED BRADLEY STILL REFUSES TO ANSWER, THE MATTER THEN WOULD BE BROUGHT UP FOR DISCUSSION BY ALL 12 REPUBLICANS ON THE INQUIRY COMMITTEE, WILEY SAID.

WILEY SAID HE ALREADY HAS MADE UP HIS MIND THAT BRADLEY SHOULD BE REQUIRED TO ANSWER, BUT HE SAID HE WOULD ABIDE BY THE DECISION OF THE MAJORITY OF THE REPUBLICANS.

"I AM A TEAM MAN," WILEY DECLARED.

IN ADDITION TO WILEY, BRIDGES AND FERGUSON, THESE GOP SENATORS ATTENDED TONIGHT'S STRATEGY HUDDLE:

SMITH (NJ), BREWSTER (ME), HICKENLOOPER (IOWA), SALTONSTALL (MASS), CAIN (WASH) AND KNOWLAND (CALIF).

THE REPUBLICANS ABSENT WERE FLANDERS (VT), TOBEY (NH), MORSE (ORE) AND LODGE (MASS). FLANDERS ATTENDED AN EARLIER, PRELIMINARY POW-WOW.

THE DISPUTE CAME AFTER BRADLEY HAD SAID THAT NO ONE COULD PROMISE "DECISIVE RESULTS UNDER WHAT WE ARE DOING." BUT HE ADDED THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF DID NOT FEEL "YOU WOULD COME MUCH NEARER" A DECISIVE RESULT IN KOREA WITH THE PLAN OFFERED BY MACARTHUR.

THE FIVE-STAR GENERAL PLEADED WITH THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES--AND INDIRECTLY WITH THE NATION--TO ACCEPT THE ADMINISTRATION'S "POLICY OF PATIENCE AND DETERMINATION" IN THE KOREAN WAR.

"CERTAINLY," HE SAID, "THE COURSE OF ACTION WE ARE PURSUING HAS AVOIDED A TOTAL WAR WHICH COULD ONLY BRING DEATH AND DESTRUCTION TO MILLIONS OF AMERICANS, BOTH IN THE UNITED STATES AND ON THE BATTLEFIELD."

AND THEN HE ADDED: "THE STRATEGIC ALTERNATIVE--ENLARGEMENT OF THE WAR IN KOREA TO INCLUDE RED CHINA--WOULD PROBABLY DELIGHT THE KREMLIN MORE THAN ANYTHING ELSE WE COULD DO."

BRADLEY SAID HE DID NOT WANT TO SAY ANYTHING "TO DISCREDIT THE LONG AND ILLUSTRIOUS CAREER" OF GENERAL MACARTHUR, WHOSE OUSTER BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN TOUCHED OFF THE INQUIRY INTO U.S. POLICY IN ASIA.

THEN HE WAGED A FIGHTING DEFENSE OF THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION'S WAR PROGRAM WHICH HE SAID HAS THE FULL SUPPORT OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF.

A211WX

BRADLEY DECLARED THE RUSSIANS KNOW THIS COUNTRY IS NOT READY FOR A WORLD WAR "ALTHOUGH WE COULD HURT THEM BADLY IF THEY ATTACKED US OR OUR FRIENDS."

THE GENERAL ADDED THE RUSSIANS KNOW "IN THE LONG RUN THEY COULD NOT WIN A WAR WITH A UNITED STATES THAT IS ALERT, AND CONTINUOUSLY PREPARED."

HE SAID HE IS UNDER NO ILLUSION THAT THE PRESENT STRATEGY WILL GUARANTEE A WORLD WAR "WILL NOT BE THRUST UPON US." BUT HE INSISTED THIS COURSE IS THE BEST ONE AT THIS TIME.

HE DECLARED IF A SETTLEMENT OF THE KOREAN WAR IS IMPOSSIBLE UNDER THIS PROGRAM--"THEN OTHER MEASURES MAY HAVE TO BE TAKEN."

BRADLEY LASHED OUT AT CRITICS WHO SAY IT IS "APPEASEMENT" NOT TO BOMB RED BASES IN CHINA AND MANCHURIA, BLOCKADE THE RED COAST, AND USE CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS AS MACARTHUR HAS PROPOSED.

HE SAID: "THESE CRITICS IGNORE THE VITAL QUESTIONS:

"WILL THESE ACTIONS, IF TAKEN, ACTUALLY ASSURE VICTORY IN KOREA?

"DO THESE ACTIONS MEAN PROLONGATION OF THE WAR BY BRINGING RUSSIA INTO THE FIGHT?

"WILL THESE ACTIONS STRIP US OF OUR ALLIES IN KOREA AND IN OTHER PARTS OF THE WORLD?"

BRADLEY ASSERTED THE PRESENT POLICY IS NOT APPEASEMENT--BUT IS "A MILITARILY SOUND COURSE OF ACTION UNDER THE PRESENT CIRCUMSTANCES."

THEN UNDER QUESTIONING BY CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA) OF THE JOINT COMMITTEES, BRADLEY MADE THESE POINTS:

(1) THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF AGREE THERE IS "REAL DANGER" OF RUSSIAN INTERVENTION IN KOREA IF THE MACARTHUR PROGRAM IS ADOPTED--ALTHOUGH THE DEGREE OF THAT DANGER IS "ANYBODY'S OPINION."

"IN OUR CASE," HE SAID, "WE BELIEVE IT IS A RISK WHICH WE SHOULD NOT TAKE AT THIS TIME."

(2) THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAS NEVER OVERRULED BY ITS ACTIONS ANY PROPOSED DIRECTIVES FROM THE JOINT CHIEFS IN THE KOREAN WAR, ALTHOUGH

THERE WERE DIFFERENCES OVER FORMOSA BEFORE THE FIGHTING BEGAN.

(3) THE FIRST NOTICE THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF HAD THAT THE CHINESE HAD ENTERED KOREA IN FORCE CAME ABOUT NOV. 6 WHEN MACARTHUR ASKED--AND WAS GIVEN--PERMISSION TO BOMB THE BRIDGES ACROSS THE YALU RIVER.

"FROM THEN ON," BRADLEY SAID, "THERE WERE INTIMATIONS THAT HE (MACARTHUR) WOULD LIKE TO GO RIGHT ON INTO MANCHURIA AND BOMB THE BASES ACROSS THE YALU."

(MACARTHUR HAS CLAIMED THAT IF HE COULD HAVE TAKEN THE WRAPS OFF HIS AIR POWER LAST NOVEMBER, HE COULD HAVE DEFEATED THE REDS BEFORE THEY DROVE HIS ARMY INTO RETREAT.)

(4) MACARTHUR WANTED TO USE THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS LAST NOVEMBER IN KOREA BUT THE JOINT CHIEFS FELT THESE TROOPS "HAD VERY LIMITED CAPABILITIES, PARTICULARLY FOR OFFENSIVE ACTION."

(5) HE (BRADLEY) IS IN FAVOR OF AN ECONOMIC BLOCKADE OF CHINA BUT DOES NOT FAVOR A NAVAL BLOCKADE BECAUSE IT COULD BE TAKEN AS AN ACT OF WAR--AND A NAVAL BLOCKADE WOULD NOT BE EFFECTIVE WITHOUT COOPERATION OF ALL THE UNITED NATIONS MEMBERS.

(6) AN EXTENSION OF THE WAR AGAINST CHINA BY THE U.S. ALONE MIGHT CAUSE A SPLIT BETWEEN THE U.S. AND HER ALLIES.

"THEY ARE UNDER THE GUN MORE OR LESS IN EUROPE," HE SAID, "AND THEY ARE VERY RELUCTANT TO SEE ANYTHING DONE WHICH MIGHT BRING ON WORLD WAR THREE AT THIS TIME."

MAY 16 1951

RUSSELL ASKED BRADLEY'S "PROFESSIONAL MILITARY OPINION" ON THE RUSSIAN POTENTIAL FOR WAGING WAR IN ASIA. MACARTHUR HAS MINIMIZED THE RUSSIAN STRENGTH AND WAR-MAKING ABILITY IN ASIA.

BRADLEY REPLIED: "IN MY OPINION THEY HAVE THE CAPABILITY OF CAUSING US A GREAT DEAL OF DIFFICULTY TO SAY THE LEAST." AT THIS POINT THE CENSOR DELETED 20 WORDS.

THE GENERAL DECLARED THE MAIN ISSUE AT STAKE IS TO DETERMINE "THE COURSE WE SHOULD FOLLOW AS THE BEST ROAD TO PEACE."

HE ADDED THE ISSUE HAS BECOME "OBSCURED IN THE PUBLIC MIND BY MANY DETAILS WHICH DO NOT RELATE TO THE TASK OF KEEPING THE PEACE AND MAKING AMERICA SECURE."

THEN BRADLEY WENT INTO THE BACKGROUND OF MESSAGES EXCHANGED BETWEEN MACARTHUR AND THE JOINT CHIEFS.

HE SAID A "GLOOMY MESSAGE" LAST JAN. 10 FROM MACARTHUR SHOWED THAT MACARTHUR THOUGHT "WE WERE GOING TO HAVE DIFFICULTY STAYING IN KOREA."

AS A RESULT OF THIS MESSAGE, HE SAID, THE JOINT CHIEFS SENT MACARTHUR A DIRECTIVE TWO DAYS LATER WHICH SAID IN PART:

"WE ARE FORCED TO THE CONCLUSION BASED UPON ALL THE FACTORS KNOWN TO US, INCLUDING PARTICULARLY THOSE PRESENTED IN YOUR RECENT MESSAGE, THAT IT IS INFEASIBLE UNDER EXISTING CONDITIONS, INCLUDING SUSTAINED MAJOR EFFORT BY COMMUNIST CHINA, TO HOLD THE POSITION IN KOREA FOR A PROTRACTED PERIOD."

DURING HIS TESTIMONY THREE WEEKS AGO, MACARTHUR MADE NO MENTION OF HIS JAN. 10 MESSAGE TO THE JOINT CHIEFS. HE SAID THE JOINT CHIEFS FEARED AN EVACUATION FROM KOREA BUT THAT HE WAS CONFIDENT HIS FORCES COULD HOLD.

BRADLEY ALSO SAID THAT A DOCUMENT PREPARED BY THE JOINT CHIEFS JAN. 12--WHICH MACARTHUR SAID PARALLELED HIS PROGRAM FOR KOREA--DID NOT BECOME A DIRECTIVE BUT REMAINED IN THE STUDY STAGE.

IT WAS ABOUT THIS TIME THAT MACARTHUR PROPOSED--AND THE JCS REJECTED--HIS PLAN TO CARRY THE WAR AGAINST CHINA.

THESE EXCHANGES LED PRESIDENT TRUMAN TO SEND HIS MESSAGE OF JAN. 13 TO MACARTHUR OUTLINING THE POLITICAL AIMS OF THE UNITED STATES AND CAUTIONING HIM AGAINST ANY SPREAD OF THE CONFLICT BEYOND KOREA BECAUSE THE ADMINISTRATION FELT THIS WOULD RISK A THIRD WORLD WAR.

EARLIER, BRADLEY SAID MACARTHUR "VERY PROPERLY" ESTIMATED HIS NEEDS FROM THE VIEWPOINT OF OPERATIONS IN HIS THEATER.

BUT HE ADDED THE JOINT CHIEFS HAVE A GLOBAL RESPONSIBILITY "AND ARE IN A BETTER POSITION THAN IS ANY SINGLE THEATER COMMANDER TO ASSESS THE RISK OF GENERAL WAR."

GENERAL MACARTHUR HAS SAID THAT IF THE U.N. ALLIES WILL NOT JOIN IN CARRYING THE WAR TO CHINA, THE UNITED STATES SHOULD "GO IT ALONE."

BRADLEY STRESSED WHAT HE TERMED THE NEED FOR ALLIES IN THE FIGHT AGAINST COMMUNISM. "IT IS UP TO US," HE SAID, "TO GAIN STRENGTH THROUGH COOPERATIVE EFFORTS WITH OTHER NATIONS WHICH HAVE COMMON IDEALS AND OBJECTIVES WITH OUR OWN."

(570) BRADLEY HIGHLIGHTS

WASHINGTON, MAY 15-(AP)-GEN. OMAR N. BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, STATED HIS CASE IN THE MACARTHUR CONTROVERSY TODAY BEFORE THE SENATE'S ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES.

HERE ARE THE HIGHLIGHTS OF HIS TESTIMONY, TAKEN FROM A CENSORED TRANSCRIPT MADE AVAILABLE TO THE PRESS:

GEN. BRADLEY (IN A PREPARED STATEMENT): THE FUNDAMENTAL MILITARY ISSUE THAT HAS ARISEN IS WHETHER TO INCREASE THE RISK OF A GLOBAL WAR BY TAKING ADDITIONAL MEASURES THAT ARE OPEN TO THE UNITED STATES AND ITS ALLIES. XXXX

FROM A GLOBAL VIEWPOINT -- AND WITH THE SECURITY OF OUR NATION OF PRIME IMPORTANCE -- OUR MILITARY MISSION IS TO SUPPORT A POLICY OF PREVENTING COMMUNISM FROM GAINING THE MANPOWER, THE RESOURCES, THE RAW MATERIALS, AND THE INDUSTRIAL CAPACITY ESSENTIAL TO WORLD DOMINATION. IF SOVIET RUSSIA EVER CONTROLS THE ENTIRE EURASIAN LAND MASS, THEN THE SOVIET-SATELLITE IMPERIALISM MAY HAVE THE BROAD BASE UPON WHICH TO BUILD THE MILITARY POWER TO RULE THE WORLD. XXXX

THREE TIMES IN THE PAST FIVE YEARS THE KREMLIN-INSPIRED IMPERIALISM HAS BEEN THWARTED BY DIRECT ACTION. IN BERLIN, GREECE, AND KOREA XXX

KOREA XXX IS JUST ONE PHASE OF THIS BATTLE THAT WE ARE HAVING WITH THE OTHER POWER CENTER IN THE WORLD WHICH OPPOSES US AND ALL WE STAND FOR. FOR FIVE YEARS THIS "GUERRILLA DIPLOMACY" HAS BEEN GOING ON. XXXX

BUT A POLICY OF PATIENCE AND DETERMINATION WITHOUT PROVOKING A WORLD WAR, WHILE WE IMPROVE OUR MILITARY POWER, IS ONE WHICH WE BELIEVE WE MUST CONTINUE TO FOLLOW. XXXX

THE STRATEGIC ALTERNATIVE, ENLARGEMENT OF THE WAR IN KOREA TO INCLUDE RED CHINA, WOULD PROBABLY DELIGHT THE KREMLIN MORE THAN ANYTHING ELSE WE COULD DO. XXXX RED CHINA IS NOT THE POWERFUL NATION SEEKING TO DOMINATE THE WORLD.

FRANKLY, IN THE OPINION OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, THIS STRATEGY WOULD INVOLVE US IN THE WRONG WAR, AT THE WRONG PLACE, AT THE WRONG TIME, AND WITH THE WRONG ENEMY. XXXX

WE ARE NOT IN THE BEST POSITION TO SEEK A SHOWDOWN, EVEN IF IT WERE THE NATION'S DESIRE TO FORFEIT THE CHANCES FOR PEACE BY PRECIPITATING A TOTAL WAR.

THEY (THE COMMUNISTS) ALSO KNOW THAT WITH OUR POTENTIAL, AND THE STRENGTH OF OUR ALLIES, IN THE LONG RUN THEY COULD NOT WIN A WAR WITH A UNITED STATES THAT IS ALERT AND CONTINUOUSLY PREPARED. XXXX

A63WX

I THINK OUR GLOBAL STRATEGY IS PAYING OFF AND I SEE NO REASON TO LET IMPATIENCE ALTER IT IN THE FAR EAST.

CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA): WERE THE JOINT CHIEFS (OF STAFF) UNANIMOUS IN THEIR OPINION THAT FROM THE MILITARY STANDPOINT GEN. MACARTHUR SHOULD BE RELIEVED?

BRADLEY: YES, SIR.

RUSSELL: DO YOU FAVOR IMPOSITION OF AN ECONOMIC BLOCKADE ON CHINA?

BRADLEY: YES, SIR. ECONOMIC SANCTIONS IS WHAT I THINK YOU MEAN.
RUSSELL: DO YOU FAVOR A NAVAL BLOCKADE AGAINST CHINA UNDER THE EXISTING CIRCUMSTANCES?
BRADLEY: NO, SIR. XXXX IT MUST BE REALIZED THAT A NAVAL BLOCKADE IS ACTUALLY AND CAN BE TAKEN CERTAINLY AS AN ACT OF WAR XXX

BRIDGES: XXX DO YOU BELIEVE THE METHOD USED IN REMOVING HIM (MACARTHUR) WAS CORRECT? I MEAN HIS SUMMARY REMOVAL?
BRADLEY: I THINK, FRANKLY, IT WOULD HAVE BEEN BETTER HAD IT BEEN HANDLED IN A LITTLE DIFFERENT WAY, AND IT WAS INTENDED TO BE HANDLED IN A DIFFERENT WAY, AND THEN THE DECISION WAS MADE TO HANDLE IT DIFFERENTLY.
BRIDGES: DO YOU THINK IT WAS GOOD FOR THE MORALE OF OUR TROOPS TO DO IT THIS WAY?
BRADLEY: I DON'T THINK IT HAD ANY PARTICULAR EFFECT ON THE MORALE OF OUR TROOPS.

Transcript of First Day of General Bradley's Testimony at Senate Foreign Policy Inquiry

WASHINGTON, May 15 (AP)—Following is the censored transcript of today's testimony before the Senate Armed Services and Foreign Relations Committees inquiring into the administration foreign policy (* * denotes censorship deletions):*

CHAIRMAN RUSSELL—Gentlemen, the first matter that we have before us is the motion of Senator Morse that each member of the committee be limited to thirty minutes in his questions as we go about the table under the order that we have followed up until now. Those of you who favor that motion will say, "Aye."

(Chorus of "Ayes.")

THE CHAIRMAN—Those opposed will say, "No."

(No response.)

THE CHAIRMAN—The chair hears no "No's" so the "Ayes" have it. The motion is unanimously agreed to.

Senator Flanders requested a few minutes to make a statement this morning before we welcome General Bradley officially.

SENATOR FLANDERS — Mr. Chairman, when you were making your observations yesterday morning with regard to being sure that no secrets leaked out, I sat here in smug self-righteousness and listened to you. I do not know that any secrets leaked out through my agency, but as a matter of fact I did apparently say things that I did not intend.

I am not a radio fan. I do not listen to the radio unless there is some particular reason, so I was not aware until later that the radio broadcasts yesterday morning were indicating that I thought the war was going to end or something of that. I did not hear them, so I do not know.

I was, however, surprised when I got hold of the first edition of yesterday's Evening Star, against which I was headlined and Senator Kefauver was modestly put down two lines below the top as indicating that there was big news going to break.

Now as nearly as I can remember—this all seemed incidental to me at the time. As near as I can remember the original story came about something like this:

Being asked over the telephone by a reporter, I think for a broadcast, as to what I thought was the interesting thing in Saturday's hearing, and I thought that Generer Marshall's optimism was the most interesting thing in that hearing. And "What was it all about?" And I said, "He seemed to think that we might have some very favorable developments before long."

And "What were they?" I said, "I can't tell; read the record." And two or three other reporters called up, and I said, "Read the record." And when I came to look at the record of Saturday, the words in which that was expressed had been deleted, and anyone who read the record could not find them.

I assure you, Mr. Chairman, that I fervently hope that this will not ruin our political and military program in Korea, and wish further to assure you that it has been an experience from which I have learned a little something, probably not enough, but I still have learned a little something from it, and will not make exactly the same mistake again. I may make some other kind but not this kind.

Russell Gives Tribute to Bradley

THE CHAIRMAN—I may assure you, Senator Flanders, that my remarks of yesterday were not directed to any predictions. Any Senator is free to make any prediction he might desire to make, having due regard, of course to the fears they might boomerang on him. I did not have predictions in mind. I think any Senator can make any predictions he wishes. I was talking about quoting what transpired within these walls relating to this testimony. Any prediction any Senator wishes to make would not, of course, come within the scope of my admonition.

SENATOR FLANDERS—I do suggest, if it is agreeable to you, Mr. Chairman, that this part of the proceedings be considered as highly restricted and be not spread upon the public record.

CHAIRMAN RUSSELL—Under the procedure that we have adopted, Senator Flanders, I am afraid that will have to address itself to the discretion of Admiral Davis.

SENATOR FLANDERS — All right. I just thought that if left as I worded it, it would strengthen the impression that there was something definite and important —it would strengthen that impression.

THE CHAIRMAN—I am sure that Admiral Davis will take due note of your suggestion, but I doubt very much whether it will be compelling with him as to whether or not it should be deleted.

SENATOR FLANDERS—That is right.

THE CHAIRMAN—Gentlemen, we are glad to welcome here today General of the Army Omar N. Bradley, who is the third of America's great military leaders to appear before this committee.

To my mind, General Bradley holds a unique position in the history of our country. He is not only one of the ablest of our fighting generals, a man who has earned promotions by his actions on the field of battle, but he is one of the most efficient administrators, as was demonstrated by his efficiency in running one of the largest and most complex businesses in this country, our Veterans Administration.

But even more important than that he has earned the respect and affection of the American people as a man with a rare combination of qualities of great humanity and great humility.

Throughout the world's history, popular and successful generals have earned their descriptive titles, and have been known by those titles.

A few of those that come to mind are "The Swamp Fox," "The Iron Duke," "Unconditional Surrender," "Stonewall," "Old Rough and Ready." There have been any number of adjectives used to describe those who have obtained success in war.

But it is particularly fitting that General Bradley emerged from World War II with but one characterization, and that was "The G. I.'s General."

These titles given to him are usually used to measure people's feeling toward their leaders. In this case, I believe the term was a fitting recognition of the fact that here was a man who, despite his high rank and commanding position, still walked in sufficient humbleness to look at the world through the standpoint of the common soldier, the man who carries a rifle.

It is seldom that a nation, however great, is blessed with such leaders. I feel it is one of the finest tributes that could be paid to our democracy to say that we can produce men of that character and type.

I know, of course, that it would be impossible here to go into great length into General Bradley's great accomplishments and his contributions to the nation; and it is unnecessary to do so because they are as well known to all of the members of the committee, and indeed to all the American people, as they are to me.

We do know that he was a fighting general in the days when the fighting was hot and under great handicaps in Africa and in Sicily. There he demonstrated the qualities to which I have referred.

Had he chosen to retire after the German surrender, his place in history would have been secure; but he did not make that decision. Instead he went on to some of the toughest jobs his country had to offer—that at the Veterans Administration, to which I referred; the Army Chief of Staff; Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

He appears before this committee today to give us the benefit of his experience and counsel with us in the crucial plans that we face.

Now, General, before you begin your testimony, I would like to know what your commitments are for the rest of the week. I heard you, I believe, when we were talking to Senator Knowland and the photographers were taking our pictures. You mentioned some addresses you had had scheduled for some time to deliver at Los Angeles or some other place in California.

I would like to find out if these commitments have been outstanding for some time, in order that the committee know that you should be entitled to fill them. So, will you please tell us first what those commitments are?

GENERAL BRADLEY — Mr. Chairman, as you undoubtedly know, for the last couple of years instead of having separate sevice days we have had an armed service day, in which all the services get together. That comes on the third Saturday of the week ending with the third Saturday in May. I believe you will find that all the Chiefs of Staff have made commitments that they have had for some time. I know this commitment that I made here in Los Angeles was made a month or two ago in connection with Armed Services day.

Out there they are having their principal get-together on Friday noon. Then a further display on Saturday. So long as I was going to be out there, I agreed to appear off the record with the Press Club Thursday night, similar to the Washington Press Club, that we all have to go to once in a while.

Then Friday noon at this principal celebration and then Saturday evening I agreed to go to the display where there will be several thousand people in a ball park, a display of equipment, and so forth.

So actually my first one is Thursday night. If I have to cancel it, I will get in a little trouble, but I am just hoping I could leave here some time Wednesday night, so as to get out there for that 6 o'clock in the afternoon of Thursday, if possible.

THE CHAIRMAN—Well, am I correct in assuming that you can be with us today and tomorrow, all day, without interfering with your commitments?

GENERAL BRADLEY—Yes, sir.

Some Afternoon Sessions Favored by Chairman

THE CHAIRMAN—General, due to the unusual nature of these hearings, the committee has voted that I, as chairman, should administer the oath to all witnesses appearing. You will therefore stand and raise your right hand.

Do you swear that the evidence which you are about to give to this committee, upon the matter under inquiry, shall be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

GENERAL BRADLEY—So help me God.

(Twenty-six lines, procedural matter, deleted from transcript by a member of the committee staff.)

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Lodge.

(Discussion off the record.)

SENATOR BREWSTER — The Majority Leader said to me yesterday that he proposed to object to afternoon sessions. When he was in here he thought we had to give them up, and I do not know whether he discussed that with you or not.

THE CHAIRMAN—It had not been discussed with me and I had told all of the members of the committee who had asked me anything about afternoon sessions that I hoped that we could have them on those afternoons when it was apparent that no votes would be had in the Senate.

Of course I realize where matters of importance are being voted upon, it is very difficult to have an effective meeting of the committee.

SENATOR BREWSTER—If the schedule could be worked out so that we would know if we were to have afternoon sessions, why one could plan a little. Could we discuss that with the Majority Leader and see whether he could work out a week's schedule or so?

THE CHAIRMAN—I endeavored to do that on Monday but at that time it was thought that the reciprocal trade bill would be under consideration. Now it develops I believe that that is to be taken up Thursday, isn't it, Senator George?

SENATOR GEORGE—Not before Thursday. It may go over for a week.

THE CHAIRMAN—So that will cause considerable confusion. That bill was really set ahead of the grain-to-India bill. If the committee wishes to take any action on it, my only purpose is to try to expedite these hearings as rapidly as we can consistent with a thorough full investigation of the matters under inquiry.

SENATOR SMITH—Mr. Chairman, I think Senator Gillette and I—I do not want to speak for him—hope we can get the grain-to-India bill disposed of today. We started debate last night and I feel myself committed to go back to the floor when we open up today to participate in that debate.

SENATOR CONNALLY—There is no asurance that there will be a roll call vote.

SENATOR SMITH—There is no assurance of anything.

THE CHAIRMAN—Well, suppose we proceed here this morning and determine that before we recess at the noon hour. General Bradley, do you have any statement you desire to make?

GENERAL BRADLEY — Mr. Chairman, with your permission I would like to read a short statement and then of course try to answer any questions you may have.

THE CHAIRMAN—Very well.

Testimony of General of the Army Omar N. Bradley, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, accompanied by Lieut. Col. Chester V. Clifton, assistant to General Bradley.

GENERAL BRADLEY — Mr. Chairman and members of the committees:

At the very outset, I want to make it clear that I would not say anything to discredit the long and illustrious career of General Douglas MacArthur. We may have different views on certain aspects of our government's military policy, but that is not unusual.

Certainly there have been no personal considerations in our differences of opinion. In matters of such great scope and of such importance many people have different ideas and might consequently recommend different courses of action.

As Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, I am one of the military advisors to the President, the Secretary of Defense, and the National Security Council. I pass on to them the collective advice and recommendations of the Joint Chiefs.

When the Joint Chiefs of Staff express their opinion on a subject, it is from the military point of view, and is given with a full realization that considerations other than military may be overriding in making the final decision. The relative importance of the military aspect varies. In some cases it is greatly overshadowed by other considerations. In other cases, the military aspects may be the decisive ones.

When all of these aspects are considered the Government's policy is determined. As military men we then abide by the decision.

Before your interrogation on the details of our Government's policies in Korea and the Far East, I would like to ask myself this question: What is the great issue at stake in this hearing?

Principally I would say that you are trying to determine the course we should follow as the best road to peace. There are military factors which must be evaluated before a sound decision can be made. At present the issue is obscured in the public mind by many details which do not relate to the task of keeping the peace and making America secure.

The fundamental military issue that has arisen is whether to increase the risk of a global war by taking additional measures that are open to the United States and its allies. We now have a localized conflict in Korea. Some of the military measures under discussion might well place the United States in the position of responsibility for broadening the war and at the same time losing most if not all of our allies.

General MacArthur has stated that there are certain additional measures which can and should be taken, and that by so doing no unacceptable increased risk of global war will result.

The Joint Chiefs of Staff believe that these same measures do increase the risk of global war and that such a risk should not be taken unnecessarily. At the same time we recognize the military advantages that might accrue to the United Nations' position in Korea and to the United States position in the Far East by these measures. While a field commander very properly estimates his needs from the viewpoint of operations in his own theatre or sphere of action, those responsible for higher direction must necessarily base their actions on broader aspects, and on the needs, actual or prospective, of several theatres.

Joint Chiefs Held In a Better Position

The Joint Chiefs of Staff, in view of their global responsibilities and their perspective with respect to the world-wide strategic situation, are in a better position than is any single theatre commander to assess the risk of general war. Moreover, the Joint Chiefs of Staff are best able to judge our own military resources with which to meet that risk.

In order that all may understand the strategy which the Joint Chiefs of Staff believe the United States must pursue, I would like to discuss in broad terms this perspective in which we view our security problems.

As a background to our consideration of global strategy, we must realize that human beings have invented a great variety of techniques designed to influence other nations. Right now, nations are being subjected to persuasion by propaganda, and coercion by force of arms. It is my conviction that broad and comprehensive knowledge of the strength, aims, and the policies of nations is basic to understanding the problem of security in a world of tension.

We must understand—as we conduct our foreign affairs and our military affairs—that while power and nationalism prevail, it is up to us to gain strength through cooperative efforts with other nations which have common ideals and objectives with our own. At the same time, we must create and maintain the power essential to persuasion, and to our own security in such a world. We must understand the role and nature, including the limitations, of this power if we are to exercise it wisely.

One of the great power potentials of this world is the United States of America and her allies. The other great power in this world is Soviet Russia and her satellites. As much as we desire peace, we must realize that we have two centers of power supporting opposing ideologies.

From a global viewpoint—and with the security of our nation of prime importance—our military mission is to support a policy of preventing communism from gaining the manpower, the resources, the raw material and the industrial capacity essential to world domination. If Soviet Russia ever controls the entire Eurasian land mass, then the Soviet-satellite imperialism may have the broad base upon which to build the military power to rule the world.

Three times in the past five years the Kremlin-inspired imperialism has been thwarted by direct action.

In Berlin, Greece and Korea the free nations have opposed Communist aggression with a different type of action. But each time the power of the United States has been called upon and we have become involved. Each incident has cost us money, resources and some lives.

But in each instance we have prevented the domination of one more area and the absorption of another source of manpower, raw materials and resources.

Korea, in spite of the importance of the engagement, must be looked upon with proper perspective. It is just one engagement, just one phase of this battle that we are having with the other power center in the world which opposes us and all we stand for. For five years this "guerrilla diplomacy" has been going on. In each of the actions in which we have participated to oppose this gangster conduct we have risked World War III. But each time we have used methods short of total war. As costly as Berlin and Greece and Korea may be, they are less expensive than the vast destruction which would be inflicted upon all sides if a total war were to be precipitated.

I am under no illusion that our present strategy of using means short of total war to achieve our ends and oppose communism is a guarantee that a world war will not be thrust upon us. But a policy of patience and determination without provoking world war, while we improve our military power, is one which we believe we must continue to follow.

As long as we keep the conflict within its present scope, we are holding to a minimum the forces we must commit and tie down.

The strategic alternative, enlargement of the war in Korea to include Red China, would probably delight the Kremlin more than anything else we could do. It would necessarily tie down additional forces, especially our sea power and our air power, while the Soviet Union would not be obliged to put a single man into the conflict.

Under present circumstances, we have recommended against enlarging the war. The course of action often described as a "limited war" with Red China would increase the risk we are taking by engaging too much of our power in an area that is not the critical strategic prize.

Red China is not the powerful nation seeking to dominate the world. Frankly, in the opinion of the joint Chiefs of Staff, this strategy would involve us in the wrong war, at the wrong place, at the wrong time and with the wrong enemy.

Joint Chiefs Declared Behind Administration

There are some other considerations which have tended to obscure this main issue. Some critics have not hesitated to state that the policy our Government is following, and its included strategy, is not that which has been recommended by the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Statements have been made that the Presiden as Commander in Chief, and the Secretary of State and the Secretary of Defense, have a policy all their own, and that the Joint Chiefs of Staff have been overridden.

This is just not so. The Joint Chiefs of Staff have continually given their considered opinion—always from a military viewpoint—concerning our global capabilities and responsibilities and have recommended our present strategy in and for Korea. This has been the course of action which the Secretary of Defense and the Commander in Chief have adopted as far as practicable.

I pointed out earlier that many times the international policy considerations, including the views of our allies, are also considered and in some instances modify the course of action.

In other instances, even after the international considerations and the views of our allies have been considered, the proposed military strategy has not been altered.

Our over-all policy has been one of steadfast patience and determination in opposing Communist aggression without provoking unnecessarily a total war.

There are many critics who have been impatient with this strategy and who would like to call for a "showdown." From a purely military viewpoint, this is not desirable. We are not in the best military position to seek a showdown, even if it were the nation's desire to forfeit the chances for peace by precipitating a total war.

Undoubtedly, this statement will be misconstrued by some critics who will say, "Why are the Joint Chiefs of Staff advertising the fact that we are not militarily in a position to have a showdown?"

I can assure those critics that with the methods we must pursue in a democracy in order to support a military establishment—including this present investigation of our strategy in the Far East—our capabilities are not unknown to the Communists.

They are apt students of military power, and fully realize that although we are not prepared to deliver any ultimatum, we could hurt them badly if they attacked us or our friends.

They also know that with our potential, and the strength of our allies, in the long run they could not win a war with a United States that is alert, and continuously prepared.

I would not be a proponent of any policy which would ignore the military facts and rush us headlong into a showdown before we are ready. It is true that this policy of armed resistance to aggression, which we pursue while we are getting stronger, often risks a world war. But so far we have taken these risks without disastrous results.

I think our global strategy is paying off and I see no reason to let impatience alter it in the Far East. Certainly the course of action we are pursuing has avoided a total war which could only bring death and destruction to millions of Americans, both in the United States and on the battlefield. Our present course of action has at the same time won us respect and admiration everywhere in the world, both inside and outside the Iron Curtain.

There are also those who deplore the present military situation in Korea and urge us to engage Red China in a larger war to solve this problem. Taking on Red China is not a decisive move, does not guarantee the end of the war in Korea, and may not bring China to her knees.

We have only to look back to the five long years when the Japanese, one of the greatest military powers of that time, moved into China and had almost full control of a large part of China, and yet were never able to conclude that war successfully. I would say that from past history one would only jump from a smaller conflict to a larger deadlock at greater expense. My own feeling is to avoid such an engagement if possible because victory in Korea would not be assured and victory over Red China would be many years away. We believe that every effort should be made to settle the present conflict without extending it outside Korea. If this proves to be impossible, then other measures may have to be taken.

In my consideration of this viewpoint, I am going back to the basic objective of the American people—as much peace as we can gain without appeasement.

Some critics of our strategy say if we do not immediately bomb troop concentration points and airfields in Manchuria, it is "appeasement." If we do not immediately set up a blockade of Chinese ports—which to be successful would have to include British and Russian ports in Asia—it is "appeasement." These same critics would say that if we do not provide the logistical support and air and naval assistance to launch Chinese Nationalist troops into China, it is "appeasement."

These critics ignore the vital questions:

Will these actions, if taken, actually assure victory in Korea?

Do these actions mean prolongation of the war by bringing Russia into the fight?

Will these actions strip us of our allies in Korea and in other parts of the world?

Refusal to Enlarge War Called a Sound Course

From a military viewpoint, appeasement occurs when you give up something, which is rightfully free to an aggressor without putting up a struggle, or making him pay a price. Forsaking Korea—withdrawing from the fight unless we are forced out—would be an appeasement to aggresion. Refusing to enlarge the quarrel to the point where our global capabilities are diminished, is certainly not appeasement but is a militarily sound course of action under the present circumstances.

It is my sincere hope that these hearings will encourage us as a nation to follow a steadfast and determined course of action in this world, which would deny any free nation to Soviet imperialism, and at the same time preserve the peace for which so many men died in World War I, World War II, and in Greece, Indo-China, Malaya and Korea.

THE CHAIRMAN — General Bradley, just by way of background would you make a brief statement for the record of your long and distinguished military career?

GENERAL BRADLEY—Yes, sir. I entered West Point from Missouri on Aug. 1, 1911, graduated 1915, commissioned second lieutenant of infantry and joined the Fourteenth Infantry Regiment. I served with that regiment for about four years at various stations in the West and Southwest and left the regiment in 1919 to serve as Professor of Military Science and Tactics at South Dakota State College for one year, at which time I was ordered to West Point in 1920, where I served as instructor in mathematics until 1924.

I went to the advanced course in the Infantry School in 1924 and '25, at which time I was ordered on foreign service in Hawaii. I served with the Twenty-seventh Regiment of Infantry, then known as Wolfhounds, and still called Wolfhounds in Korea, commanded by Colonel Michaelis recently.

Then I served with the National Guard, and Reserve in downtown Honolulu in 1927 and 1928. I then went to the Command and General Staff School, Fort Leavenworth, where I stayed for a while, and then went from there to the Infantry School, 1929 to 1933. I came to Washington to attend the Army War College in 1933 and '34, after which I again went to West Point as an instructor in military science and tactics from 1934 to 1938.

I then served on the General Staff here in Washington from the 1st of June, 1938, until the end of February, '41, at which time I was sent to Fort Benning, Ga., as commandant of the Infantry School. After being there about a year, I was given command of the Eighty-second Division, which was being reactivated at Camp Claiborne, La.

After being with it three or four months, I was transferred to the Twenty-eighth Division, also at Alexandria, Camp Livingston. I took it to amphibious training in Florida during the winter, and in February, 1943, I received orders to go overseas to join General Eisenhower.

I served as his personal representative and as deputy corps commander of General Patton's Second Corps until about April 15, in other words, about a month and a half, at which time I took command of the Second Corps in North Africa, and after the Northern Tunisian campaign was finished on about May 12, '43, I went back and planned for the Sicilian invasion, headed the Second Corps into Sicily, and was there until Sept. 8, 1943, when I left Sicily to go to England to form a staff of the First United States Army and the First United States Army Group, and plan the invasion of France.

I commanded the First Army then, on invasion, and was with it until the first of August, in other words, about two months after D-Day, at which time we broke up the divisions then in France into two American armies, and I then became the army group commander, Army Group Headquarters becoming operative, and commanded the army group which had been changed to Twelfth Army Group in designation, until the end of the war.

I then came home, and as the chairman said, I was in the Veterans Administration from Aug. 1 until November—Aug. 1, 1945, until Nov. 30, 1947, a little over two years.

I then returned to the Department of the Army and became Chief of Staff of the Army on Feb. 8, 1948, which position I held until I was made chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff on Aug. 15, 1949, sir.

THE CHAIRMAN — The statement has been made here that you commanded the largest body of American troops that had ever been in action against any enemies. Do you care to comment on that?

GENERAL BRADLEY — Of course they referred to combat troops. I think at one time there were forty-five divisions in my army group, and the total of the men assigned to the army was about 1,200,000.

Q.—The memorandum of Jan. 12 has played quite a large part in these hearings, General Bradley.

I wish you would outline for the committee your understanding of the four items in the Jan. 12 memorandum to which General MacArthur referred, with special reference to whether that was a directive or whether there were any contingencies involved in the four items to which he referred.

A.—Mr. Chairman, if I might, I would like to go back a little on that because I think there has been some confusion on this memorandum, because there are really three things that took place about that time.

There was a directive dated Jan. 12. There was a study which you speak of dated Jan. 12 and there was a letter from the President to General MacArthur dated Jan. 13. In other words, there are three things in this period. I will confine my remarks now to the study which you speak about.

Three Items Involved

Discussed by Witness

Q.—No, I want you to clear up the confusion. You have named those three documents. I want you to start with Jan. 11.

A.—Well, I will have to go back a little farther than that on the study, sir. I just want to bring out to start with that there are three things involved and I think there has been some confusion here because there was a directive dated the twelfth which I don't think has been discussed much here, there was a study dated the twelfth which has been discussed a great deal, and then there was the President's letter to General MacArthur on policy dated the thirteenth.

Q.—Well, I have had some of the confusion and that is the reason I have asked you to clarify them. A.—May I take them up one at a time, sir?

Q.—Yes.

A.—In late November, in fact Nov. 28 when things were looking pretty bad in Korea, the Joint Chiefs of Staff directed one of their joint staff committees to make a study of possible lines of action which might be taken if the war in Korea developed into an all-out war against China, either declared or undeclared.

Now, that was a directive which finally ended up with the Jan. 12 study. They came up, first, with a study which was not agreed upon. There were split views in it between the services.

Then they reworked that paper and came up with another one, another version of it, dated Jan. 3, which was also not acceptable, and that one was reworked and we finally got down to a paper on which the Chiefs agreed, dated Jan. 12.

Now, when we consider one of these studies, which are primarily for our own use, we consider a whole series, so to us we were thinking of this in terms of the conditions under which we started the study.

However, as we went forward in writing these different studies, the preamble or the reason for the study dropped out of it, so when we got up to the Jan. 12 study, taken by itself, it does not have the conditions under which we started the study, and at that time it was boiled down to merely the statement that it is tentatively agreed, was the term used, on the following objectives and possible lines of action.

I want to emphasize again that it was not a directive. It was a study, and I would like to explain right there that when we send a directive to the Commander in Chief, Far East, we draw up a draft of the study, a draft of the directive, take it to the Secretary of Defense, who approves it or disapproves it, and if he approves it, if it has political implications we then discuss it with the Secretary of State or Department of State and then it is taken to the President, who okays it or passes judgment on it.

It is then sent out as a directive. This particular study never went through that routine. In other words, it was never intended as a prospective directive to be handled in that way. It was a study for consideration along with other things that were going on at that time in trying to determine the policy, future policy toward Korea, and it was used for that purpose.

Q.—Well, what was the directive now as contrasted with this study or memorandum?

A.—On January the 10th General MacArthur came in with a message pointing out that under the present conditions he thought we were going to have difficulty in staying in Korea. He pointed out that the morale of the troops was not too good after a long fight, and some of the remarks that had been made about them at various places in the world and it was rather a gloomy message.

The Chiefs proposed an answer to that and it was discussed with the Department of State and they wanted to put certain political reasons also in this directive. The Joint Chiefs of Staff objected to that. It ended up in a discussion at the White House with the President and the decision was made that the miltary part of this discussion would be pulled out and sent as a directive to General MacArthur, and then the State Department would prepare with the President a letter on political policy which he would send separately, so the military part of that was pulled out and sent in the directive of January the 12th.

The political part of it was pulled out and fixed up with the President, and he sent it under his signature on the 13th.

Q.—Now the Jan. 12 directive was then in response to this communication from General MacArthur? A.—It was in response to his communication two days before, yes.

Security of Troops Declared Paramount

Q.—Will you give us the broad outlines of that directive. A.—Yes, sir. It directed him to defend in successive positions if necessary, and always with the understanding that the security of his troops was paramount.

That is in brief form what it was. It told him, as I say, to defend in successive positions; in other words to stay in Korea. In addition to that we were so concerned with the situation as painted in General MacArthur's wire of Jan. 10 that two of the Chiefs, General Collins and General Vandenberg, left on the evening of the 12th right after we had cleared the directive and went to Japan and on into Korea to see for themselves just what the situation was. Fortunately, about that time the situation began to improve and from then on the position was stabilized and we even started to come back.

Q.—The Jan. 12 directive then was to the effect that he should stay in Korea if that could be done without endangering the security of his forces? A.—I can give you a paraphrase of that message if you desire, Mr. Chairman.

Q.—Well, that will be all right, give a pharaphrase. I just want to get—I have been somewhat uncertain as to the sequence—the reason for these three papers since these hearings opened, and I want them clarified. A.—Yes, sir. I would like to emphasize again that the one that was started back in November ended up as a study. This one was a directive which took—the formulation of it took place over two days, and the political one really over three days.

SENATOR MORSE—Do you have the page from which the general is reading, Mr. Chairman?

GENERAL BRADLEY—No, sir; I have a paraphrase of a message I will give you, Sir, if I may.

Q.—I thought you were reading from an exhibit. A.—I am reading from a note I have in my book, sir.

"We are forced to the conclusion based upon all the factors known to us, including particularly those presented in your recent message, that it is infeasible under existing conditions, including sustained major effort by Communist China, to hold the position in Korea for a protracted period.

"It would be to our national interests, however, and also to the interests of the U.N. before you issue firm instructions for initiation of evacuation of troops from Korea to gain some further time for essential military and diplomatic consultations with UN countries participating in Korean effort.

"It is important also to the future of U.N. and N.A.T.O [North Atlantic Treaty Organization] organizations, to the United States prestige world-wide and to efforts to organize anti-Communist resistance in Asia, that maximum practical punishment be inflicted on Communist aggressors and that Korea not be evacuated unless actually forced by military considerations. In Washington it is not possible to evaluate present state of morale and combat efficiency of UN forces.

(Eight lines deleted.)

"In your messages of 30 December, 1950, and 4 January, 1951, you had indicated it would not be necessary to make an anticipatory decision to evacuate until our forces had arrived at the old Pusan beachhead.

"Including consideration of the factors outlined above, your estimate is desired as to timing and conditions under which you will have to issue instructions to evacuate Korea.

"Directive contained in Paragraph (C) of our message of 9 January [illegible] remains in effect." That was, as I said, to fight in successive positions.

THE CHAIRMAN — Now, did you construe the four paragraphs which were outlined by General MacArthur in his address, I believe, the bombing of the bases, or air reconnaissance, and the use of Chinese troops—I have forgotten just what the others were—blockade the coast of China—I believe that is the gist of it—did you construe that as having been contained in any order that was issued to General MacArthur or any instructions of approval of any policy he had promulgated, or was it perfectly clear that that was a matter that was still under study, in your opinion?

GENERAL BRADLEY — Well, Mr. Chairman, to us it was clear that it was a study; maybe it wasn't, and apparently it was not, to General MacArthur; but to us it was perfectly apparent that it was a study and was never handled as a proposed directive. It was a study which we used in the National Security Council in considering future actions if this thing developed into war against China.

Q.—How was that forwarded to General MacArthur? A.—It was forwarded in two ways. General Collins carried it to him, and discussed it with him when he arrived there on Jan. 14. It was also sent to him later by the Army for information several days later; in fact, in a rather short form by message, by radio, so it was actually sent to him in two ways, sir.

Q.—Of course, General Collins would be the proper person to inquire of as to the nature of the conversations he had with General MacArthur? A.—Yes, sir. I do not know the nature, the full nature of those discussions.

Joint Chiefs Objected At White House Parley

Q.—Did I understand you to say now that the Joint Chiefs objected at a conference that was held at the White House to include the political considerations in the directive of Jan. 12? A.—Yes, sir. We thought that the military part of the political part should be sent separately.

Q.—And that accounts for the fact that the President's letter, I believe you said, followed this directive, and these instruction, this study? A.—Yes, sir: and the one that was sent on the 12th was a military directive. The one that was sent on the 13th outlining certain political reasons specifically said, "This is not a directive."

Q.—When did you first learn or when were you first consulted with respect to the advisability of relieving General MacArthur of his several commands? When did you first learn that that was under discussion? When was your opinion first asked? A.—If you don't mind, I will refer to notes, because you, when you start referring to back to dates, unless you refer to notes are apt to get confused.

Q.—All right, sir.

A.—My first information that there was some concern being shown by the President over this was late the afternoon of Thursday, the 5th of April, when I received the information—I don't remember where from—but I think I received it from a telephone from someone; at which time I called the Joint Chiefs of Staff together for about thirty minutes, from 5 to 5:30 in the afternoon, and told them that the President was concerned about some statements that had been made by General MacArthur, and that they should begin studying the military aspects of it. There was nothing more than that said about it.

Q.—When were you next approached with respect to this?

A.—On Friday, the 6th of April, there was a meeting in the President's office, right after a Cabinet meeting, at which they asked me to join certain others, including Secretary Acheson, General Marshall, Mr. Harriman; and we were with the President, I would say, from around 11:30 to 12:30, and that is the first time I had heard first-hand the concern of the President in the matter.

Q.—Did you subsequently call another conference of the Joint Chiefs? A.—Yes, sir. There were subsequent meeting with the same four people—I believe General Marshall has explained that to you—and then on Saturday we were told that the President would like to have the view of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Q.—What day of the month would that be?

A.—That was Saturday, April 7. We were told they would like to have the views of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and we should give them to General Marshall at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. That would have been Sunday, the 8th of April.

So I called the Chiefs together at 2 P. M. Sunday, the 8th of April, in my office, at which time we discussed—I presented to them the concern of the President and what he had in mind, and two or three other subjects were discussed between the time we met at 2 o'clock and 4 o'clock, when we went up to join General Marshall, and at 4 o'clock we went up to join him in a further conference, which lasted for about an hour, I guess.

Q.—Were all of the Joint Chiefs present? A.—All the Chiefs were present

Q.—Were their opinions asked individually as to the wisdom of the course that was under consideration?

A.—Yes, sir. After we discussed it and went up to General Marshall's office, he asked each of the three Chiefs their individual views and there was some discussion in which they were all in agreement on the reasons that they advanced for why they thought from a military point of view alone he should be relieved.

Q.—Were the Joint Chiefs unanimous in their opinion that from the military standpoint General MacArthur should be relieved? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Were you present when the final decision was taken to relieve General MacArthur? A.—Yes. The final decision was made on Monday, the ninth of April, at the White House; and I was present when that decision was made.

Questioner Seeks Data On Timing of Action

Q.—Did the recommendations of the Joint Chiefs—did they approve of the immediate relief of General MacArthur? Was there any discussion as to delay in time, or did any of them express any objection to the immediate relief of General MacArthur?

A.—I don't remember that the exact time of the relief was discussed. Maybe some of the Chiefs will remember. I didn't include it in my notes I made immediately afterward, as to the timing of it. The question of whether or not he could be left in part of his position and relieved of the command in Korea was discussed and from a military point of view, the Chiefs thought that was not feasible.

Q.—They were unanimous in that opinion? A.—Yes.

Q.—You made some reference there in the opening part of your statement—I can't quote it verbatim—as to the part that political considerations play in military policy. Have the recommendations of the Joint Chiefs as to our military policy in Korea been influenced by political decisions that have been made in the Department of State?

Q.—We have not had any proposed directive disapproved because of State action, as far as Korea is concerned. I think it is known that the military did recommend different action with reference to Formosa about a year and a half ago, which was not taken because of certain political considerations, but I don't know of anything in Korea where a proposed military directive has been disapproved because of State Department objection.

Q.—Were there any disagreements or misunderstandings between the Joint Chiefs or the Defense establishment with General MacArthur prior to the outbreak in Korea that you have any knowledge of? A.—No, sir; I don't recall any.

Q.—No, in your opening statement, General, you referred to the fact that the Chiefs were in agreement as to the danger of Russian intervention if the war in Asia were extended as recommended by General MacArthur. Was that finding as to the danger of Russian intervention a unanimous decision on the part of the Joint Chiefs? A.—Yes, sir; they all feel that way.

SENATOR SALTONSTALL—Will you repeat that question, please, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN—I asked him if the decision of the Joint Chiefs as to the danger of Russian intervention in the event of the adoption of the MacArthur program was unanimous.

Is that danger regarded as being remote or very real by the Joint Chiefs?

GENERAL BRADLEY — Well, we think there is a real danger. Now the degree of that is anybody's opinion, Mr. Chairman. In our case we believe it is a risk which we should not take at this time.

Q.—What do you base your opinion on? A.—Well, the strength that they have in the Far East—I mean that the Russians have in the Far East; the fact that they have been supporting China in its operation; they were supporting North Korea previously; the question of whether or not they can afford to lose in Korea; and the fact that they have an arrangement with China whereby if China is attacked under certain conditions Russia will come to her assistance.

Q.—When did General MacArthur first recommend to the Joint Chiefs approval of his policies for extending the war into Manchuria by air bombardment and by a blockade of the China coast?

A.—Well, about as soon as the Chinese began coming in. His first message on the subject was about Nov. 6, in which he wanted to attack the bridges across the Yalu, and this was the first intimation that we had that they were coming across in great force. And we held him up on that bombing until we could check on it, and then gave him permission to go ahead and bomb the Korean end of the bridges. And then from then on there were intimations that he would like to go right on into Manchuria and bomb the bases across the Yalu, beginning, oh, around Nov. 6 or 8, from then on.

Recommendation Made About End of November

Q.—Did he bring in his views on the desirability of employing the Chinese Nationalist troops at the same time, or was that a later recommendation? A.—Well, he had discussed it before that. In other words, back in August the question had first come up. At that time he did not recommend the employment of Chinese Nationalist troops in Korea. Then when the attack came on in such strength and around the end of November, then he made a recommendation that the Chinese Nationalists on Formosa be used in Korea.

Q.—Will you state briefly the reasons why the Joint Chiefs did not approve of that recommendation? A.—In our opinion the Nationalist troops on Formosa had very limited capabilities, particularly for offensive action. As General MacArthur himself had pointed out, they would have to have almost complete logilstical support from ourselves, transportation furnished. In the opinion of the Joint Chiefs of Staff their leadership, equipment and training were all of such a state that they would be of limited use in offensive operations.

Q.—Do you favor the imposition of an economic blockade on China? A.—Yes, sir. Economic sanctions is what I think you mean.

Q.—Yes, economic blockade; that means sanctions. Do you favor a naval blockade against China under the existing circumstances? A.—No, sir. I believe that was one of the points that General MacArthur made—that he favored a blockade. It must be realized that a naval blockade is actually and can be taken certainly as an act of war and in the opinion of the Joint Chiefs the naval blockade would not be effective unless it was a United Nations blockade and not just a United States blockade.

Q.—You stated something in your opening statement about the loss of our Allies in Europe. What effect do you think it would have on our Allies if the war were extended in Manchuria or into China?

A.—Well, if it were extended by United States action alone, I think we might stand the chance of losing some of our Allies, because they are under the gun more or less in Europe and they are very reluctant to see anything done which might bring on a World War III at this time, so consequently it is our opinion that they would be very reluctant to join in extention of the war beyond Korea, and therefore that is why I say that we stand the chance, if we take that action ourselves, of having them drop out on us and discontinue their support.

Q.—Do you wish to elaborate on your statement as to the importance you attach to maintaining a free Western Europe? I believe you mention it in your statement. How is it important militarily to the United States?

A.—Well, that is where we have a lot of our trade. Furthermore, getting back specifically to my statement, Western Europe contains the manpower, the resources, the "know-how" and industrial capacity which, if added to what Russia already has, would make her a very formidable opponent.

Right now we have a great advantage on Russia in production of steel and other industrial products. If she should overrun Europe and take on the additional manpower and industrial capacity there and add it to her own, it would be about equal to our own I would guess.

Q.—What is your professional military opinion as to the potential for waging war of the Russian forces that are now stationed in Asia? A.—Well, in my opinion they have the capability of causing us a great deal of difficulty, to say the least.

Q.—How about the difficulty in supplying those forces, would they be effective in any military action extended over any period of time?

A.—That has always been one of Russia's weaknesses in the Far East, the fact that she has only one railroad line. It is true, it has been double-tracked, so that they have increase its capacity. However, for the last several years they have attempted to increase the war production in the Far East so as to make it less dependent upon the industries of Urals, and of Western Russia.

Undoubtedly she has enough supplies there, already in her supply dumps, to supply for a considerable length of time, the divisions she has in that area.

Questioned on Clashes Of Russians, Japanese

Q.—General, one thing hasn't been brought into this discussion. I recall that before World War II there were constant reports of large engagements between Russian and Japanese troops, along the Manchurian border, or somewhere in that area. It was referred to as "an undeclared war," in some newspaper articles I saw. Do you know anything about those? A.—Yes, sir. That went on for several years, and the engagements involved units up to the size of a corps, on each side.

Q.—An army corps? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Do you know whether or not Russia experienced any difficulties in supplying those troops during those engagements? A.—I know nothing about the supply problem at that time, sir.

Q.—I believe my time is about out, but I have one more question I want to ask you, General. Is it your professional military opinion, concurred in by all of the Joint Chiefs, that the present policy in Korea is the best policy for this country to pursue? A.—Yes, sir. We think that they should try this policy, and hope that we can get decisive results without extending the war outside of Korea.

Q.—Well, do you think that the adoption of the MacArthur policies would hasten an end to the struggle to Korea? A.—There is no assurance that it would. In other words, we do not believe the extension of it by extension of bombing would get decisive results. We have about 200 miles of enemy supply lines to work on now, and you would only extend that length back into Manchuria, and we do not think that it would be decisive.

THE CHAIRMAN — Well, my time has expired. Senator Connally?

SENATOR CONNALLY — Suppose we don't use all of our half-hour?

THE CHAIRMAN — Then you have another round of questions later on.

SENATOR CONNALLY — General Bradley, I want to say that I have a very high regard for your military abilities, your general abilities, and am very glad to have you here as a witness today. I don't want to be repetitious, but it is somewhat difficult to avoid it. As I understand it, you have testified that all of the Chiefs of Staff agreed to the action taken with reference to the MacArthur matter?

GENERAL BRADLEY—Yes, sir.

Q.—I want to ask you if you believe, or are of the opinion that Air and Sea, alone, without ground troops, could stop the Chinese hordes from coming over on us in Korea?

A.—No, sir; I do not. Normally, you think of strategic bombing as going after the sources of production. The sources of production in this case are very largely out of reach of any strategic bombing because they are not even in China.

We think that such action could not be decisive, by itself. That has been proven many times, that Air, by itself, is not decisive; and General Vandenberg will tell you that in just as positive terms as I am telling you, sir.

Q.—Well, as a matter of fact, in Korea, when these different waves of the enemy have poured in, the air power has not been sufficient to stop them, has it?

A.—No, sir; because they move at night, they move across country, and while the Air Force has kept a lot of the bridges knocked out, both railroad and road bridges, it has been unable to stop the advance of the Chinese, both as to manpower and supplies.

It certainly has hampered, and without this air power, we would have been in a very bad way many times, but even though it has had tremendous effect on it, it cannot, in itself, stop it.

Question of Ground Troops In China Discussed

Q.—And of course the sea power can't do anything in Korea? A.—The naval blockade of Korea, we think, has rather effectively stopped the import of supplies by water, so that it has been effective to that extent, causing the supplies to have to come by railroad and road.

Q.—Well, they would have to come in over the north part of Korea, from Manchuria, or from Red Russia? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—A good deal has been said about our allies. How important are our allies, looking at the global picture, how important are our allies to our own operations? A.—Well, I believe most everyone considers them very important. I think that was verified by the Congress when they approved the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, to which we belong, along with eleven other nations.

Q.—The reason I asked you that is—How could we "go it alone," on two fronts. One in Asia and one in Europe? A.—Well, it would be pretty tough, sir; because the more assistance you have, both militarily and industrially, the better off you are in combatting communism, or in fighting a war.

Q.—Well, isn't it also of an advantage, a great advantage, psychologically, to have these allies, and have the world know that they are our allies? A.—Very much so, and if we should ever lose them completely, and be confined to the Western Hemisphere, we would have an entirely different situation and different standards of living than we have at the present time.

Q.—Now, it has been suggested here that no American ground soldiers should setfoot on Chinese territory, with which I agree. I don't want to see any American troops go into China. But, if that is true, that we don't put any, and we have an all-out war, and the war should expand to include China, would it not almost inevitably follow that at sometime in the future development of that, we would have to put ground troops on Chinese soil?

A.—To get decisive results in my opinion you would.

Q.—That is what I am asking about. A.—In other words, if you go to an all out war with China, I think you would have to do something like the Japanese did. Go in and try to get a decision. I do not believe you could get any decision by naval and air action alone.

Q.—Well, naval and air action as against China without ground troops would mean just sort of a holding proposition, would it not, against China, to keep them from coming over?

A.—Well, I think it would be a rather long drawn out affair in which you would try to knock out their centers of communication and knock out as much of their industry as possible, possibly try to limit them on supplies and food without taking any positive action inside China itself.

Q.—Well, I just do not want to have an American army bogging down in China. Ground troops in China I feel would bog down in that tremendous area under all the difficulties which are presented to us. I think, Mr. Chairman, I will reserve the balance of my time.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Bridges.

SENATOR BRIDGES—General, you were developing the sequence of the recall of General MacArthur. You said the first you knew about it was on April 5 when you got a telephone call. Who made the telephone call to you?

GENERAL BRADLEY—I don't recall, Senator.

Q.—Did it come from the White House or the Secretary of State?

A.—I don't know, sir, where it came from. It may have been from the White House, it may have been from the Secretary of Defense's office. I don't know, sir.

I just got a warning that this thing was coming up because the President was concerned about it, and I frankly do not remember where it came from, and I am not too sure it came by telephone. My memory is that I got a call from someone.

Q.—Well, that is important to know who originated the idea. It was not you that originated the idea of firing MacArthur then? A.—No, sir.

Q.—It was not the Joint Chiefs of Staff? A.—No, sir.

Q.—But you did get it, you think, by telephone. It might have come from the White House or it might have come from the Secretary of State or from the Secretary of Defense?

A.—Yes, sir. I don't remember where it came from. I just got word that the President was concerned about it and I warned the Chiefs that they had better start thinking about it because they might be asked their opinions.

Q.—But you will admit that is a pretty important point which you can't remember, General? A.—Well, it might be important only to prove that the Chiefs didn't start it, but other than that I don't know where it came from or just what bearing it has.

Q.—Well, now at the April 9 conference at the White House when the final decision was made, who was there? A.—At the time the decision was made?

Q.—Yes, April 9. A.—Secretary Acheson, General Marshall, Mr. Harriman and myself met with the President.

Q.—There the final decision was made. And was it at that time the decision which General Marshall testified to to have Secretary Pace notify General MarArthur was made?

A.—I can't remember whether it came up at that time or whether it came up the next day when we presented to the President certain ideas and drafts of messages for his consideration which would carry into execution his decision made the day before. I don't remember whether we had any of those discussions on the ninth or whether or not they were all on the tenth.

Q.—And General Marshall testified that the reason the Pace notification method was not carried out was a leak. Do you know where the leak came from?

A.—I am not too sure it was a leak. Of course, General Marshall is entitled to his own opinion. I am not too sure there was a leak on the matter.

Speculation in Press On Ouster Is Cited

Q.—Do you mean then it was deliberately given out?

A.—No, sir. I am not sure that General MacArthur knew that this was coming. There had been so much in the papers a few days while this discussion was going on—you can't hide the fact that certain people go to the White House. There had been so much in the papers about the discussion and speculation as to whether or not the President was going to relieve him that I think everyone was jumping at conclusions, and I, in my own mind, have not said that there was a leak. It just may have been that people were jumping to conclusions as to what might happen.

Q.—Well, then you disagree with Secretary Marshall on that? A.—I don't disagree. I don't admit to myself that there was such a thing as a leak. I am not sure there was.

Q.—How did certain foreign countries get the information in advance about MacArthur's recall? A.—I don't know; I didn't know they did.

Q.—Well, for instance, certainly Madame Pandit, the Ambassadress from India, announced in the papers that she knew it between 11:30 and 12, and that was some time in advance of when the formal announcement was made publicly, in which you courteously attempted to reach members of this committee and tell them.

Now it is quite important here whether there was a leak, whether it was deliberately given out, and who informed foreign countries, which I think is a very bad thing, before officials of the United States Government knew.

A.—I wouldn't know because I didn't even know until this time that they had known in advance.

Q.—Well, that appeared in the papers. Now did the Joint Chiefs of Staff ever take a formal vote to recall MacArthur? A.—They unanimously agreed that from a purely military point of view they thought he should be relieved, and they gave those reasons to General Marshall, and I repeated them to the President.

Q.—But they did not take a formal vote? A.—We never take a formal vote of holding up hands or anything like that. We have a discussion, and if there is any disagreement it comes out. In this case all three of them stated their reasons why they thought from a purely military point of view he should be relieved.

Q.—Well, did the Joint Chiefs of Staff, if they did not take a vote, did they request the ouster of General MacArthur? A.—No, sir. They were asked for their opinion, and they expressed it; and it was asked from a military point of view, and they expressed it from a military point of view.

Q.—In other words, the origin of the firing of MacArthur occurred first on a political level. You do not know where—at the White House, Secretary of State, or just where it came from. And the only action the Joint Chiefs of Staff took was in response to that, where they agreed to the recall? A.—I think it is not quite a question of agreed. They were asked their opinion from a military point of view, whether or not he should be relieved, and they said "yes."

Q.—In other words, they did not initiate the request? A.—They did not.

Q.—They made no request? A.—They did not.

Q.—They took no formal vote? A.—Well, they never take a formal vote that you are talking about. We get around a table and express our opinions and if they all give reasons why they think this thing ought to be done, that is a vote in itself. There is no such thing as a secret ballot or holding up of hands.

Q.—But they did finally concur. Now, General Bradley, what do you consider your first loyalty? A.—To my country.

Q.—To your country. When you took your oath of office, you took it to uphold the Constitution of the United States? A.—That is right.

Q.—And you believe that General MacArthur took his oath to uphold the Constitution, do you not? A.—I am sure he did; yes, sir.

Q.—And his first loyalty is to his country? A.—Right.

Witness Asked for View On 'Right to Speak Out'

Q.—Therefore, you consider your first loyalty to your country, and you concede that General MacArthur probably considered his first loyalty to his country; and then if he felt very deeply or if you felt very deeply something was against the best interests of your country, don't you think you have a right to speak out or General MacArthur had a right to speak out?

A.—Yes, but I think I would say it to those in authority instead of carrying it to the public.

Q.—Well, now, for instance, I have here an advance copy of your book, which I have enjoyed reading, and it is very interesting. I quote from Page 543:

"With Ninth Army on the Elbe, the First on the Mulde, and the Ruhr shrinking under the pressure of three corps, I was anxious to push southeast, route the enemy out of Bavaria, and clear the U. S. zone of occupation to the Austrian frontier. From there we would push on down the Danube to head East toward Vienna and cut off the main enemy force from withdrawal into the redoubt. By now I was especially anxious to occupy all of the U. S. zone of occupation.

tor though we would be forced by agreement to quit the Russian zone, we had no such assurance that the Red Army would get out as willingly if they occupied ours. Rather than make a test of Russian compliance with the zonal agreement, we would sweep up our own U. S. sector without help from the Red Army."

Now, that is a very positive statement of your views at that time. In the light of what has happened since, and in the light of your strong feelings at that time, with your first loyalty to your country, don't you think that you should have spoken out at that time rather than see what has later developed here, which has been tragic?

A.—You must remember that I was removed by several echelons from the top of Government at that time. This was a fait accompli; it had been decided long before as to what the various occupation zones would be. That was decided by the three governments, and then later France, and, as I say, I was much removed from the top of Government at that time.

I was a field commander, and I do not believe it was up to me to try and put a letter back through channels protesting to the President of the United States the decisions which had already been made by a big three conference.

Q.—Well, with your first loyalty to your country, and you, in your heart, apparently, from your book, knowing that was wrong, don't you feel that you had an obligation to speak out? A.—Well, I did discuss this with General Eisenhower, my immediate superior. What action he took I don't know.

Q.—Were you ever told by the Secretary of State or the State Department that some of our allies wolud run out on us in case we followed the MacArthur recommendations, in spite of their solemn agreement with us through the Atlantic Pact? A.—Please read that question back.

(The pending question was read by the reporter.)

A.—No, I don't think we were ever told in any positive terms such as that. We have discussions with State Department representatives usually every week. That is, the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Deputy Chiefs of Staff meet with some of the Assistant Secretaries, no papers, we just sit down and discuss these things, and maybe at times during those discussions, we discussed the possibility of the people dropping out. I wouldn't be surprised. There was never any formal statement made to us by the State Department that this would happen that I know of.

Rashin Held 18 Miles, Not 35, From Border

Q.—What is the basis of your belief then, which you have expressed here, that we would lose our Allies or we might lose our Allies if we followed the MacArthur recommendations? A.—I believe it is well known that the British have a different policy toward China and Formosa than our Government has, and they are the principal contributors to the forces in Korea other than ourselves and South Korea.

Q.—General, you have referred to the fact that one of the reasons why the Nationalist troops were not used is the fact that they were not properly equipped at that time, so they could be of use. Isn't it a fact that we are now and have been since that time helping supply some of our Allies that are furnishing troops in Korea? A.—Yes, and we have since that time started furnishing military assistance to the Nationalists on Formosa.

Q.—So it would not be out of line with the policy of our country if we had started to furnish supplies and equipment to the Chinese Nationalists just as we did to our Allies, would it? A.—It so happened that up until last summer it was not the policy of our Government to help the Nationalists on Formosa at that time.

Q.—General, will you give me any illustration that you know—and I know you are a great student of military history—where a commander has been ordered into combat and told to advance and yet told that he couldn't destroy the supply bases and the supply lines of his enemy?

A.—No, I don't think I can recall any. As a matter of fact, such would not be applicable many years back because it only applies where you have air power, and we haven't had air power for many years; so you couldn't look very far back into history to look for one.

Q.—Even back in our Civil War days wasn't one of the primary targets in those days the supply line of the opposing army? A.—Yes, it was confined, of course, to ground action against them, and naval action, of course—blockade.

Q.—Can you name another case in history where military directives have been given not to attack military bases, not to bomb military bases, even within the area of conflict? A.—I don't recall any. I assume you are referring in this case to the bombing of Rashin?

Q.—Yes. A.—No, I don't recall any, and I don't recall any case where you would have a similar situation facing you. As far as bombing of Rashin is concerned, I would like to correct one thing.

Statements have been used here before this committee several times that it is thirty-five miles from the Russian border. It is not thirty-five miles. It is around seventeen or eighteen miles—I have a map here with me if anybody wants to look at it.

Now, permission to bomb Rashin was given twice. One of the bombings was carried out and the other one had to be diverted, because of weather, to its secondary target; and after that we did not given further permission to bomb it because, as I say, it is seventeen miles from the border, the railroad from Rashin down the coast is not completed, and it is not as good a supply point for the North Koreans as Chongjin, which is farther down the coast and has rail connections with Russia and on down into Korea through Hungnam.

Rashin, or Najin—it has two names—does not have rail communications completed on south of it.

Q.—Do you think it is fair to ask American troops to go into battle when the enemy has a complete sanctuary across the river and the only sanctuary the American troops would have would be in the ocean, the other way?

A.—Well, I don't admit that they don't have any other sanctuary, actually. Right now we are bombing their troop concentration over about a 200-mile line of communications, we are bombing their troops, we are bombing any airfields that occur in North Korea.

They are not bombing our ports and supply installations, and they are not bombing our troops. So that, in a way, we have a sanctuary, too, under the conditions under which we are fighting.

Q.—General, is there any greater danger now involved or any greaetr hazards involved now that we didn't know about in doing this, than when we went into Korea? A.—Well, to the extent that Russia has shown that she is willing to risk war more than she had ever shown before the Korean incident, I think to that extent there is a greater danger.

Q.—How has she shown she would be willing to risk war? A.—By backing the North Koreans with supplies and technical assistance, by getting China to come into the war and supplying her with war materials, including ammunition, trucks, planes, and so forth. And she must know that all of that increases the risk of world war.

Q.—Assuming that all you say, for the moment, about General MacArthur's position is a fact, do you believe the method used in removing him was correct? I mean his summary removal. A.—I think, frankly, it would have been better had it been handled in a little different way, and it was intended to be handled a different way, and then the decision was made to handle it differently.

Witness Doubts Dismissal Affected Troop Morale

Q.—Do you think it was good for the morale of our troops to do it this way? A.—I don't think it had any particular effect on the morale of our troops.

Q.—Would you be surprised that a great many people have written certain Senators—they have certainly written me—saying that it has had a real effect on the troops?

A.—No, we get a lot of letters on many subjects, and I know a lot of people think it should have been done differently and some people may think that it has had an adverse effect on the morale of our troops.

I personally doubt if it had very much, because the outstanding leadership of General Ridgway had raised the morale of the troops in Korea to such an extent that they were a very different army from what they had been a couple of months before when they were retreating.

Q.—What effect do you think it had on unity in this country, which is necessary for the successful prosecution of a war? A.—Judging from what has gone on since this thing happened, I would say for the time being certainly it has caused some disunity.

Q.—What was its effect upon Japan? A.—I understand that they were deeply concerned at the time because General MacArthur had been pushing their case, and knew their problems, and that was the reason Mr. Dulles went over to try to put over to them that this Government's policy had not been changed even though General MacArthur had been taken away.

Q.—What was its effect upon Europe? A.—I don't know of any particular effect on Europe.

Q.—What was the effect upon certain Communist publications like The Daily Worker in this country? A.—I never read it, sir; I don't know.

Q.—That is something, General. Suppose there is a basic conflict between the military authorities and the political authorities in this country on a military subject. Which, in your judgment, should prevail?

A.—It depends on the subject, sir. In some [illegible] I believe the military aspects should be guiding; in others I admit that the political and the diplomatic considerations may be overriding the military aspects.

Q.—Well, now, in the case where the military should prevail, if the military is overridden, don't you think the American public are entitled to the best military judgment of our military leaders? A.—Yes, sir. We are supposed to be your military advisers, and we give you our honest opinion. Now, if somebody overrules that we cannot help it.

Q.—But supposing General MacArthur—is not that the point at issue here? Was not his best military opinion the other way and his head suffered at the block as the result? A.—Yes, but he had a responsibility for a theatre only.

Q.—Well, I mean you put yourself in a different position from General MacArthur? A.—I have greater responsibilities and wider responsibilities, global. I must know more about the global situation than I think General MacArthur was required to know, and, furthermore, he did not have the responsibility.

Q.—If it reaches the time in this country where you think the political decision is affecting what you believe to be basically right militarily, what would you do?

A.—Well, if after several instances in which the best military advice we could give was turned down for other reasons, I would decide that my advice was no longer of any help, why, I would quit. I feel that is the way you would have to do. Let them get some other military adviser whose advice apparently would be better, or at least more acceptable.

Q.—Would you speak out, tell the American public? A.—No, sir.

Q.—Don't you think that is your duty, your loyalty to your country, to do that? A.—No, sir, I don't think so. I have been brought up a little differently.

Q.—Where does the loyalty to your country come in? A.—I am loyal to my country, but I am also loyal to the Constitution, and you have certain elected officials under the Constitution, and I wouldn't profess that my judgment was better than the President of the United States or the Administration.

Q.—Would it not be on a military subject? A.—Yes

Q.—Should not you speak out? A.—I would, yes, to the constituted authorities; yes.

Q.—But you would stop there? A.—Yes.

Q.—What about Korea—when we entered the Korea conflict a day or two after June 25, 1950, did the Joint Chiefs of Staff take into consideration all of the potential risks at that time militarily?

A.—Yes, Sir. We had always hoped we would not have to fight in Korea, and that's why we were in favor of getting out of Korea as far as our occupation was concerned. Because strategically it is a poor place to fight. And we did consider those things at the time the question of interceding in Korea was taken.

Q.—Now you are of the theory that has been expressed here that we should not get involved in a land war on the mainland of Asia? A.—Yes. I do not believe we should get involved in a land war in Asia if we can possibly avoid it.

Q.—Then you do not agree with a certain United States Senator who said the other day that in case Communist China or Russia attacked India we would be in war in an hour, or something like that? A.—I did not hear the statement. I still repeat that I would hate very much to see us involved in a land war in Asia.

Q.—Then what I am getting at, you are consistent whether it is China, Indo-China, India or Siam or whatnot, you have a basic thought for considering all factors that we should not be involved with our own troops on the mainland of Asia. A.—It, of course, depends on the circumstances at the time, but right now I feel as I said in my statement here, I think we would be fighting a wrong war at the wrong place and against a wrong enemy.

Q.—Now do you know of another case, any other case in military history where a commander commanding an area like General MacArthur has been removed summarily?

A.—Well, I think there have been instances. I haven't looked them up lately, but as I remember it General McClellan was pretty much removed summarily. I don't know the circumstances, haven't gone to look it up, but he was removed by President Lincoln. There have been commanders removed at various times during wars, but I don't know the detailed circumstances under which they were removed.

Q.—Do you know of a case where a civil administrator like the Governor of Japan, as MacArthur was, was removed summarily? A.—I don't recall any.

Q.—Do you consider, as General Marshall has testified, that General MacArthur knows more from a military viewpoint about the Far East than any other American? A.—He probably does. He has been over there for a long time.

Q.—And do you agree with General MacArthur that as far as he knew, that he agreed he knew more about the Far East than any person on our side in the free world? A.—Well, that is a rather big statement, Senator. I am only speaking from the people I know. There may be some people I don't know that know just as much about it as General MacArthur.

Q.—But as far as you know at the moment, that would be true? A.—I am taliking about the military people of my acquaintance, which I think was your question to me and to General Marshall.

SENATOR KNOWLAND—Will the Senator just yield for a correction? I think he said "as General MacArthur had stated." He meant General Marshall on the second question.

SENATOR BRIDGES — Yes, I did, General Marshall.

Now if on one hand we have to decide a program here, you have to decide a program for the termination of this war, do you have any program other than that recommended by Secretary Marshall that we continue the fight in Korea as it is within the confines of Korea?

GENERAL BRADLEY—No, sir. The Joint Chiefs feel that we should try to obtain a decision in Korea, and avoid spreading it ouside of Korea, if possible.

CHAIRMAN RUSSELL—I am notified by Dr. Wilcox that the Senator's time has expired.

SENATOR WILEY—General, is there any real program in the minds of the Chiefs of Staff to end the war?

GENERAL BRADLEY—Yes, sir. We think that if we can punish the Chinese severely enough in Korea (* * * one line deleted) then we will be in a position, and they will be in an attitude where some kind of an arrangement may be reached, and a settlement made.

SENATOR WILEY—Well, General Marshall laid great stress on the destruction we were wreaking on the Chinese forces in Korea. Of course, China has many times more men to spend than we have.

I just want to get your judgment whether it is possible that we may be hurting ourselves under this program more than we are hurting the enemy in Korea.

GENERAL BRADLEY—In my opinion, we are not.

Q.—That is your judgment? A.—Yes, sir.

Puzzle for Allies Seen In New Bombing Policy

Q.—Do you believe that our allies would risk losing our economic and military aid by refusal to accept our insistence, if it were our insistence, and our policy to bomb the bases north of the Yalu? A.—They would certainly have a decision to make; and weighing the two, what decision they would arrive at, I don't profess to know.

Q.—Can you name a single instance of Russian action at any time, at any place, against anyone, including Tito, that remotely indicates that she would risk war and our atomic bombs, regardless of any action we take to quickly end the Korean war? A.—I think that she will try to cause as much disturbance in the world as possible, and as many wars as she can without using her own troops. I think——

Q.—Well, maybe that answers the question, but I am asking for any instance that would indicate that she herself would accept this as a challenge. Have you any special inside information, you or the State Department, that would indicate that if we bomb the nests north of the Yalu from which these folks come that are killing our sons, have you any information to indicate that this would be considered by her a chance to get into the war?

A.—It is very difficult to try to fathom the intentions of the Soviet Government. They make their decisions in a very small group, either one man or at most fourteen, and there is no way of our knowing their intentions.

We do know their capabilities.

and they have capabilities of taking certain action; and I know of no incident like you speak of because if I did that would probably be World War II.

Q.—Now, how much of the oil of this world do the allies, the United States, Britain, and others control? A.—A large percentage of it. I do not have the exact figures; I can look it up if you would like to have it. There is no question but what we control much more than Russia does.

Q.—If the Russian rulers—do you think they would dare risking a greatly prolonged, highly mechanized war when the United States and Britain control over 80 per cent of the world's oil supply, whereas 20 per cent is controlled by Russia, and we could quickly destroy the Near East oil fields to keep her from using them?

A.—I don't think that would necessarily be a determining factor. While we control, according to your figures, 80 per cent now, we might not control that much after a few months of war.

Furthermore, you must remember that Russia does not have the consumption problem we have. They have very little civilian consumption, so they can devote all of their oil resources to war purposes; whereas, we have a great deal of civilian consumption, and have become dependent upon civilian consumption of oil to a much greater degree.

Q.—Well, of course, you realize that even her supply in the Baku oil region would be put out of business probably within twenty-four hours after the war. Her supply would be virtually terminated. The only other supply would be here—what she has in reserves, is that not true? A.—Certainly it would be a target for consideration for attack.

SENATOR WILEY—Well, again, let us get your judgment.

SENATOR SALTONSTALL—Would the Senator yield for a question on procedure, Mr. Chairman?

SENATOR WILEY — Without losing any of my time.

SENATOR SALTONSTALL—I have a matter on which I would like to be over on the floor at 12 o'clock, and I would not like to lose my place in asking my questions.

THE CHAIRMAN—I will have to submit that to the committee. We have a request from Senator Saltonstall that he not lose his place in the questioning. Is there any objection to the Senator from Massachusetts not losing his place? The chair hears none. All right, Senator.

SENATOR WILEY—Don't you think, General, that the Joint Chiefs of Staff presented General MacArthur with almost an impossible task in the Korean war by imposing the inhibitions upon him?

GENERAL BRADLEY—No, sir. I think the troops over there have been doing pretty well, sir.

Q.—I think you probably answered it, but it is not clear in my mind: how would you visualize decisive results will be achieved under the present program in Korea?

A.—Well, to get decisive results raises many questions. I am not too sure we will get them under our present methods; I am not too sure we would get them by expanding the war into Manchuria and China.

Circumstances, as they develop, will determine whether or not we have to take further steps, and just what steps; but I don't believe anyone is going to promise you or the country that we are going to get decisive results under what we are doing.

All I can say is that the Joint Chiefs do not feel that you would come much nearer in getting those decisive results by extending the war into China, and in taking additional risks.

Use of Air Force And Navy Defined

Q.—General MacArthur testified that he was not permitted to use his air power within five miles of the Yalu. You have testified on Nov. 6, General MacArthur wanted permission to bomb the Yalu bridges and that subsequently you gave that permission. Just when was that permission granted?

A.—The nonuse of air power within five miles of the border was something that was in effect prior to that time. Then, when General MacArthur gave us the picture of what was taking place from Hamhung to Sinuiju, across the river, we then extended that permission and gave him permission to bomb the Korean ends of the bridges.

Q.—What is the date? A.—About Nov. 6 or 7, sir. I can look it up and be specific; but the telegram in which he requested it was on the 6th, and I think we gave him the answer either that day or the next.

Q.—Can you very briefly give us the limitations or inhibitions which were imposed on General MacArthur on the use of his ground troops, on the use of the Navy, and on the use of his Air Force?

A.—Well, to take the Air Force first, as I say up until about Nov. 6 or 7, we had directed he not use it within five miles of the border, the Manchurian border, and had also restricted him later on one time, in the bombing of Najin; so that for a while there were restrictions in the vicinity of the border.

Later on those were removed and now he does not have them, and he does fly up to the Manchurian border.

So far as the Navy is concerned, we have carried on a blockade at all times for that part of Korea for which we make it effective. It extends from about Chongjin on the east coast to the south, and extends just south of the mouth of the Yalu River on the west coast, south.

On the ground forces, at one time we stated that we would hope that he would use only North Korean troops in approaching the border. That was before the Chinese entered the war.

Q.—You mean South Korean troops.

A.—South Korean troops. Only South Korean troops would go up to the border of Manchuria. Those instructions were given with the hope that we would decrease the likelihood of China's coming into the war.

After China came into the war, of course, none of those restrictions held.

At one time we suggested that as a further means of trying to keep China from trying to come into the war, that maybe when he moved up into the vicinity of the Manchurian border that he would consider holding the high ground overlooking the river instead of going right up to the river, where they would be subject to being seen from across the river and act as a greater incentive for the Chinese to come in.

Again, of course, those restrictions were removed by the actual entry of China into the war; but there were several steps taken in there for a while, with the hope that we would not have China come into the war.

SENATOR WILEY—Well, after China came in, and I might say—just scratch that.

Is it not true that the Government had intelligence that troops stationed, Chinese Red troops stationed, opposite Formosa were moving north some time before they entered the war; and that you had that intelligence, did yon not?

GENERAL BRADLEY — Yes, sir.

Q.—Did you inform MacArthur?

A.—I am told that all of that information was sent to General MacArthur. However, the agent who does that is General Collins, in the Army, who acts as executive agency for the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

He has prepared a very thorough analysis of what information was furnished to General MacArthur, and General MacArthur's headquarter's, and he will be prepared to give you that when he comes before your committee. He can give it to you in a lot more detail than I can.

Directives Furnished Regarding Red Chinese

Q.—Will he also be able to give us the general, over-all picture as to the information that was sent to MacArthur, from world sources, as to the subject—whether Red China would intervene in this battle, or not?

A.—I think he can tell you any information that we had at the time, on the subject, and just what was passed on to General MacArthur.

Q.—Well, but you, as Chief of Staff, must have been formulating your plans, and must have had some information on that subject, so I am going to ask you the question: What information did you have, and when did you get it, if you did get it, that was communicated to you people, as to the possibility of the Red Chinese intervening in this conflict?

A.—Well, for a considerable time prior to their actual contact with our troops in Korea, we had information that they were concentrating additional troops in Manchuria,—some of them moved up from the south, of course,— we from the south, of course—we had that information for some time.

Q.—And did you plan the strategy of what would happen and communicate that to MacArthur if the Reds entered? A.—Yes, we gave him certain directives, what action he would take in case the Chinese came into the war.

Q.—Are those directives contained in this exhibit that you have furnished? A.—Yes, we gave him certain directives, what action he would take in case the Chinese came into the war.

Q.—Are those directives contained in this exhibit that you have furnished? A.—I don't remember whether they are covered in here or not. I have read this through two or three times, but I have also read all the messages, so I don't remember clearly what is in one and what is in the other.

Q.—Really the question that I would like to get the information on is what intelligence did you have indicating that they were going to enter this war? A.—We had no intelligence that they were going to enter the war. We had the intelligence that they were concentrating in Manchuria. You can only then consider their capabilities. They had the capability of intervening in the war.

Q.—If the intelligence department of this Government had that information, you would have had it right off the bat, wouldn't you? A.—Yes.

Q.—So we have got that straightened around. There was no intelligence given to you people by any one of the intelligence forces in this Government that the Red Chinese were going to enter this war.

A.—No, sir. We had the information that they had that capability and we always had the thought that they might enter it, but we did not have any intelligence to the positive effect that they were going to intervene.

Q.—Now you know they were stationed up there. What additional precautions did you take or furnish MacArthur with what additional air force or groups to meet that challenge, knowing that they were north of the Yalu? Anything at all?

A.—Yes. We sent over some additional strategic bombers and we also sent over some jet fighter groups to meet this threat if it came. In fact a group of F-86's were sent over by the Air Force and some jet Navy planes were sent over without any request from General MacArthur. They were sent over because we saw this threat developing and we thought we should have them over there in case they were needed.

Q.—But when you did that, you did not take off the inhibitions or limitations, did you? A.—We took them off up to the Yalu. We did not take them off across the Yalu, and we haven't yet.

Q.—Now let us go back to this meeting. If you will refer to your memoranda, when did you write up this memoranda that you claim describes your meeting on April 5 with the President?

A.—I think it was the Monday morning as I remember it after the meeting with General Marshall on Sunday. I took the diary which is kept in my office as to where I am at various times so as to make sure of the times, and then sat down and dictated this memorandum for record.

Q.—But April 5 was Thursday, and it was not until the succeeding Monday that you attempted to recall the incidents of those dates—5, 6, 7 and 8—is that correct? A.—I think it was Monday that I dictated all of them.

Q.—You already stated in reply to Senator Bridges that you do not recall who it was that called you. But you did say that there was a telephone that came through late in the afternoon to the effect that the President was concerned about something. Now what do your records show that he was concerned about?

A.—As I remember it, he was concerned about some of the public statements made by General MacArthur.

Q.—Well, I ask you specifically, was it in relation to the letter that was written to Congressman Martin? A.—It probably was; it came out about that time, if I remember correctly.

Q.—Well, now, this was an unusual occurrence in your little life, was it not, General—that you should find out that a fellow general was about to have something happen to him? Now what was this message that came? Just what did it say?

A.—I told you that I did not remember where I first got this information. To the best of my memory it came by 'phone from someone, that the President was concerned about the statements of General MacArthur; and I warned the Chiefs that they had better be thinking about the matter because they might be called upon for a discussion of it. It is not unusual; if I know of something coming up, I warn the Chiefs that it is coming.

Q.—Then as a result you had your first meeting with the President. Was that on the 5th also? A.—No, sir, that was on the 6th.

Three Chiefs Asked To Come to Office

Q.—All right. Now the point I am getting at is that this message resulted in your warning the Chiefs. Now that is a significant statement—warning the Chiefs that they had to get about and study. Was it then that you directed them to go back and find all the messages that MacArthur had before given to the public? A.—No, sir. I didn't give them any directions except to suggest that they had better be studying the matter and thinking it over.

Q.—Studying the matter. What matter? A.—The question of the President's concern about the possible relief of General MacArthur.

Q.—Oh, then the message was definite that came over that the President was thinking about how to handle the relief of MacArthur? A.—No, sir, not the how.

Q.—What? A.—Not the how, but the question of whether—in other words, he had it under consideration, and somebody passed that on to me.

Q.—Well, was there anybody close enough to the President to have this information, or did it come right from the White House? A.—I frankly do not remember, Senator. I get calls from various people during the day, and I do not remember where this one came from.

Q.—Well, again, can you give us the content of the message that resulted in your telling the Chiefs of Staff they had better get busy, or telling the group, rather—whom did you call? A.—I called the three Chiefs and asked them if they could come by my office at 5 o'clock.

Q.—Name them, please. A.—General Vandenberg, General Collins and Admiral Sherman.

Q.—Told them to come by your office at 5 o'clock? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Have you got any other information in your memoranda there as to what you said to them? A.—No, sir.

Q.—Is that all you said to them? A.—Until they got there, yes.

Q.—What? A.—Until they got there, yes.

Q.—All right. Now when they got there what did you tell them? A.—I made no record of that. As I have expressed here several times, I told them that I understood the President was worried about something General MacArthur said and we might be called upon to express an opinion on it. I had not been told at that time that we would; I merely passed that on to them because that is my job—to pass on to them things which may come up for consideration.

Q.—They came back to you on the 5th at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. How long were they in consultation with you that time? A.—Well, according to my diary they were in there about thirty minutes. I don't know whether we were talking about anything else at that time or not.

Q.—And can you recall what you said? A.—No, sir.

Q.—Did you make any memoranda of what you said? A.—No, sir.

Q.—Did you make any memoranda of what they said? A.—No, sir.

Q.—Was this young man sitting next to you in the presence of these four? A.—No, sir, just us four.

Q.—What? A.—No, just us four.

Q.—I see him nodding his head, that is all, and wanted to know why he is so wise on the subject. A.—Beg your pardon?

Q.—Just the four of you? A.—That is right.

Q.—Now in half an hour you can say a lot, General.

A.—Yes, sir; and I say I don't know what all we talked about. I just do know that I told them about this one. The same way Sunday afternoon we spent two hours before we went up to General Marshall, but we were not talking the whole two hours about this. Whenever we get together we talk about various things. I do happen to remember we were talking at that time about N. A. T. O. command in the Mediterranean and the Atlantic.

Q.—In that half-hour? A.—No, in this two-hour conference.

Q.—Let's take the half-hour conference, get back to that, because we've got several other meetings we've got to talk about. At that time had they gathered the information that now appears in the communiqués in committee print "Compilation of Certain Published Information," starting in Dec. 6. 1950, from there on? Did they gather that for your information? A.—Not at that time, no, sir.

Q.—Not at that time. If you have that book there, General, I would like to have you refer to it. Have you got it? A.—This one, sir (indicating)?

Q.—Yes. Now please refer to Page 178, because if you go down to Paragraph 6, you will find that there the Chiefs of Staff prepared a memorandum where they say, and I quote:

"The purpose of this memorandum is not to curtail the flow of information to the American people but rather to insure that the information made public is accurate and fully in accord with the policies of the United States Government."

Do you see that paragraph?

A.—I see it, but I don't know what the implication of it is offhand. It is apparently from The New York Herald Tribune of April 12, 1951.

Q.—This is a quotation, General, from the message from the Joint Chiefs of Staff to General MacArthur under Dec. 6, 1950. We will let the language speak for itself.

yet the
You and I both understand English, so we will go right back now.

What I am getting at, and I am only seeking to develop the facts that caused this eruption—we will go back now to Page 186 and ask you whether or not in this meeting where you four got together there was any discussion about the Martin letter.

Bradley Demurs At Answering Question

A.—I do not remember.

Q.—Haven't you anything there at all, in your notes? A.—No, sir.

Q.—What did you discuss? A.—I told you that I warned them that this question might come up soon and that the President was disturbed about some statement General MacArthur had made.

Q.—Yes, but I am talking about this afternoon meeting, when they came over to see—— A.—That is what I am talking about, too.

Q.—Meanwhile, had you gotten any more telephone calls from anybody you can't recall? A.—No.

Q.—Or any communications from anybody? A.—No, not that I remember of. The first time I really came into this, and found out what it was all about, was on Friday morning, April 6, when I met with the President, and the others in his office, at which time he explained what his concern was.

Q.—All right, now; we are coming to April 6, the one you just mentioned, Friday morning. You said at that time there was the President; there was the Joint Chiefs of Staff—— A.—No, sir; I did not say the Joint Chiefs.

Q.—I beg your pardon. You said there was Marshall, Acheson—and who else? A.—Harriman and myself.

Q.—All right. Now, tell us what was said then? A.—Senator, at that time I was in a position of a confidential adviser to the President. I do not feel at liberty to publicize what any of us said at that time.

Q.—Well, that raises a question, I suppose, that the Chair will have to rule on.

I didn't raise it with Marshall, because I was in a hurry; but when you come before a committee, sir, to give information as to a very important matter that the public is entitled to know about, and unless it goes to the question of endangering the public welfare, it seems to me that you waive the right you claim now, as to the President——

A.—Senator, it seems to me that in my position as an adviser, one of the military advisers to the President, and to anybody else in a position of responsibility who wants it, that if I have to publicize my recommendations and my discussions, that my value as an adviser is ruined.

I may be wrong in this. I will abide by whatever the committee says, but it seems to me that when any of us have to tell everything that we say in our position as an adviser, that we might just as well quit.

Q.—I am not going to ask you to do that.

I am asking you, sir—there is one issue before the bar of public opinion, and only one in this matter, as I see it, others disagree with me, and that is—whether or not this action, taken in the manner it was taken, can be justified by the facts, before the bar of public opinion.

Now, the President exercised the authority that he had, constitutionally, but when he, sir, agreed to present you before this committee, and he had a right to say "no" to it, you need not come—it seems to me that he has opened up the whole case, and that evidence ought to be given to the people as to just how it happened that this very unusual and cruel action was taken by the associates of General MacArthur, and by the President of the United States.

I might say that there was a lot of testimony and evidence to the effect that some of you defended MacArthur. If you did, I would like to know it.

It would seem to me it would add something into this picture of strength and worthwhileness, but I am asking for the chairman to rule that my question is pertinent and relevant and should be answered.

A.—May I correct my statement a little bit? I am not too sure that I would have the right to say that I would be guided by this committee.

Maybe I should take this to the President and get his permission to do it because I was acting as his adviser at the time, and I am not sure but what I should get his permission to tell you rather than to take it on myself to say I would do it under any circumstances.

I would like to point out in my opinion there are two things before this committee instead of one. One is whether or not we are following the right policy in the Far East, and the other one is whether or not General MacArthur should have been relieved, so in my opinion there are two instead of one issue.

Q.—I might say on that, General——

THE CHAIRMAN—I am advised by Dr. Wilcox that your time has expired, Senator.

SENATOR WILEY—I don't think it has.

THE CHAIRMAN — According to my own time, Senator Bridges completed at 11:47. We allowed you one minute for an interruption by Senator Saltonstall that I do not think took over thirty seconds. We allowed you one minute for that and therefore your time has expired. I am so advised by Dr. Wilcox.

Procedural Question Is Raised by Morse

SENATOR McMAHON — Mr. Chairman, may I proceed with a question that I have, and a question by Senator Wiley is subject to——

THE CHAIRMAN — You will have to get unanimous consent of the committee and take it out of your time, Senator McMahon.

SENATOR McMAHON—That is quite all right with me. I would like to get that stated because I think it is an important point that we are going to have to decide.

SENATOR MORSE — May I raise a procedural question. First, am I correct in my assumption that when a procedural matter arises during the examination by any Senator of a witness, the time taken up for a discussion of procedural matter is charged against the committee as a whole and not against the questioner?

THE CHAIRMAN — Well, I should think that is true, but as to whether or not a procedural question involves the reading back of the question is another matter.

SENATOR MORSE—That is the second point I was going to raise, whether or not the question put by the Senator from Connecticut is put for the purpose of finding out what the procedural problem before the committee is.

We have to know the question before we know whether or not there is a procedural question before the committee, and I think that when a procedural matter is raised, even though the time of the Senator may have lapsed in the midst of raising the procedural question, we ought to determine the procedural point before we go on with the next question.

SENATOR WILEY—That ought to give me about three minutes more then.

THE CHAIRMAN—If the procedural question had been raised during the time that you were examining, it would have.

SENATOR MORSE—I understood the Senator from Wisconsin asked the Chair to rule.

THE CHAIRMAN—He did. The Chair was sitting here greatly disturbed as to about how he should rule. It is an entirely new matter. I do not know that it has ever been raised before, before any committee.

Of course in this country there are certain well established and clearly defined confidential relations that are respected by all of the courts of this land, of which I have any knowledge. Among them are the relations of doctor-patient. That is completely protected. All conversations and conferences that occur between a doctor and a patient are protected by law in most of the jurisdictions of which I have any knowledge.

Another is that of a lawyer and client. It is very well established that the conversations, communications that transpire between a lawyer and his client are held inviolate and upheld by the rulings of almost any court of which I have any knowledge.

Another one which is somewhat common is the source of information of newspaper correspondents, whether or not the information that they receive, the source of their information ought to be protected.

I am not thoroughly familiar with all of the decisions on that, but as I recall back in my college days—I never had a case involving that subject—why in most jurisdictions they are protected on that.

I do not know whether the Chair should even undertake to rule on this subject. Any ruling that I make, of course, is subject to an appeal by this committee, by any member of this committee. Since Senator Wiley has raised this issue, I have been running it over in my mind.

I know that in my opinion any conversation with respect to any of my actions that I might have, any conference I might have with my administrative assistant in my office I think should be protected. And it is my own view, and I so rule, that any matter that transpired in the private conversation between the President and the Chief of Staff as to detail can be protected by the witness if he so desires, and if General Bradley relies upon that relationship, so far as the Chair is concerned, though I regret very much that the issue was raised and I am compelled to pass on it, I would rule that that he be protected.

Chairman Fails to See Illustration as Parallel

SENATOR KNOWLAND — Mr. Chairman, before the Chairman rules, the General has indicated that he thinks there might be a preferable procedure for him to talk with the President of the United States.

I think it is true that there are certain relationships which exist between a doctor and patient and a lawyer and client as the able Chairman has mentioned. I also, however, call your attention to the fact that this deals with the public business of the Government of the United States. It deals with the question whereby, for instance, this country was put into a war which has resulted in 65,000 casualties without a declaration by the Congress.

If the Chairman's ruling applies to this particular meeting dealing with specific Far Eastern matter, then the same ruling would apply to the Blair House conferences of Dec. 24, 25 and 26 which led this country into a war, but without a declaration of the Congress of the United States, and foreclose perhaps for all time the Legislative Branch in executive session from receiving information which they feel might be pertinent.

I am now appealing from the ruling of the Chair because I have not made any final conclusion, but I would suggest that in view of the very grave consequences that might result, would it not be possible for General Bradley to consult with the President of the United States, lay the matter before him?

What we are seeking here is to arrive, if possible, at an area of agreement so that we may understand the various facets of a very important question to the American people, and I am fearful if at this time an Iron Curtain is lowered in this case, that it may be lowered on other matters and we may find our committee really stymied in the work which I think we have undertaken to do.

THE CHAIRMAN—As I have stated, I did not expect this issue to be raised and I was not prepared to pass on it except to give a curbstone opinion, which I have done conscientiously and to the very best of my ability.

I do not, however, see any parallel between the illustration that the Senator from California gives and the question at issue here. It does not go as to the decision, if I understood the question. It is what was said by certain individuals at a meeting in the White House.

I am just as anxious as any member of this committee to get every fact that is involved in this matter before the country, and I would that the question had not come up and that General Bradley had felt that he could state even down to the last word what was said by any individual there as to the best of his recollection what transpired at that meeting, but as I understood him, he did rely upon it and chose to claim the privileged relationship as an intimate adviser to the President as his reason for not giving the details of the conversation and how the order was finally arrived at.

I am perfectly willing for the committee to take it up. I would like for General Bradley to talk to the Preseident about it, and I would not have, if I had my choice, had to pass upon it, would not have made any statement whatever, if Senator Wiley had not insisted that I, in effect, give my views.

GENERAL BRADLEY — May I say something, Mr. Chairman?

SENATOR CONNALLY—Just a minute, General. I want you to get what I am saying.

I do not think it would be appropriate for the General to speak to the President and then come back and tell us what the President decided about a purely procedural matter before this committee.

It is not the business of the President, and I don't think that we ought to establish any such doctrine for similar cases, that we run over and talk to the White House and get the President's opinion.

The rules about these matters are well known, and we have just as much capability for passing on the propriety of them as anybody else, and it is our duty and not the President's duty. I don't think General Bradley is required, or that it would be really appropriate for him to go to the President and ask whether or not he should be released from his obligation not to reveal what was said.

As the Chairman well pointed out, it wasn't on the question of the final decision, but it was on the conversation, private conversation, between General Bradley, as a military adviser, and the President of the United States, a confidential relationship.

THE CHAIRMAN—I merely wish to observe that I have been perfectly frank and fair, and as far as I am concerned, I have no objection to General Bradley consulting with the President about this matter.

SENATOR WILEY—Now that I have raised the point, I ought to have an opportunity to say something on the subject.

THE CHAIRMAN—The Senator is recognized.

SENATOR WILEY—The President need not have permitted General Bradley to come down here.

THE CHAIRMAN—I don't agree with that.

SENATOR WILEY—I do. The thing that we are talking about here is a very simple matter, whether or not the facts and the circumstances before the bar of public opinion—and we are not to decide that—justify the dismissal of General MacArthur.

Now, how was it brought about? Why was it brought about? When was it brought about? The answer to those questions is going to be determined by the conversations that took place between those who advised the President and what the President said in return.

General Bradley is a confidential adviser. I wouldn't want him to say one thing that in the slightest degree affected the general welfare in the sense that it endangered the lives of any persons or endangered the safety of this country, but when it comes before us, who have taken jurisdiction to try out the issues, apparently, to see whether there is any justifiable ground for what took place, then we go to the only source where those facts are discoverable, and that source is the prosecutor and the defenders and the jury that decided that they would kick him out.

That was made up of three or four others. Personally I believe that the analogy that you use is not applicable because, in the first place, it is the common law and then enacted into the statutes of the states, including that of the priests at the confessional, but no other place, if they are just talking, or if a lawyer and a client don't talk with relation to his business, it is not exempt, or a doctor, it is not exempt, they are still responsible.

But here is a case where the Executive used the power—that is not an issue, he had it—but he wanted the advice of the State Department and the Chiefs of Staff. To do what? Well, I think it must be apparent. To build up the case, because of the Martin letter.

Until the Martin letter, the evidence shows that nothing was said or done that was critical of MacArthur. That is Marshall's statement in substance as I develop it.

But when that came out, these folks were called into consultation. For what purpose? The President didn't have to give any excuse, but he did give an excuse in his dismissal.

We want to know whether the facts bear that out, and it seems to me the rule that when a witness comes on the stand and exposes his hand in relation to part of the testimony, that all the testimony is subject to be examined into relating to the case, that that rule of evidence applies.

That is the position I take. If the Chair has ruled, I shall appeal from the Chair, and at an appropriate time we can thresh this matter out.

THE CHAIRMAN—I think now is about as good a time as any.

SENATOR MORSE—Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Morse.

SENATOR MORSE—The appeal has been taken. Am I privileged now to speak?

SENATOR WILEY — Will the Senator please speak louder?

SENATOR MORSE—Mr. Chairman, the appeal has been taken from the ruling of the Chair, and am I now privileged to comment on the ruling and the appeal?

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Morse.

Contempt Action Called Committee's Only Power

SENATOR MORSE—I want to go to the cases before I reach a final conclusion. If we come to a vote at the present time, I shall vote to support the decision of the Chair, for these reasons:

In the first place, I think the committee should look to its power of enforcement if it wishes to use whatever powers of compulsion it might have to elicit from the general the testimony which he declines to give as to what took place at the White House and the conversation he had on April 6, along with others that the President might state, and that would mean, Mr. Chairman, that the only power of enforcement this committee would have would be its power through contempt proceedings, which would get you into a legal courtroom situation eventually for enforcement.

It is my curbstone opinion, Mr. Chairman, that a court would necessarily rule that the military adviser to the President of the United States, having a personal conference with the President of the United States on a supposedly confidential basis—and if they say it was a confidential basis, I don't think the court would be able to deny that it was a confidential conference—such a court under such circumstances would have to necessarily rule that the executive powers of the President of the United States protect him from legislative interference, at least to the extent that he can have a confidential conference with his chief military adviser without a Senate committee being authorized to take notes of who goes in and out of the White House and then have those people subpoenaed before the committee and ask them questions as to the conversation that took place between those people and the President of the United States.

I think a court would necessarily have to find that if any committee of the Congress sought to exercise that jurisdiction over the conferences of the Executive with his officials called into the White House that it would be impossible for the Executive to function on any confidential basis without interference by a Congressional committee.

In the second place, I point out, Mr. Chairman, that if this conference with the President had been in the form of a memorandum sent by General Bradley to the President of the United States, I think you would find that at least opinions of the Attorney General of the United States, and I am not so sure but what litigated cases, would hold that you couldn't subpoena that memorandum out of the files of the President of the United States because of its confidential nature, and because it was connected with the carrying out of the executive functions of the President of the United States.

I think if that is true of a memorandum, Mr. Chairman, the courts would have to find it also true of a confidential conversation.

SENATOR LODGE — Will the Senator yield for a question?

SENATOR MORSE—Not at this point.

I think we are confronted here again with the separation-of-powers doctrine, looked at from a little different and somewhat novel angle, I am perfectly willing to admit, but I think that under the separation-of-powers doctrine the President of the United States would be protected in the courts from having to disclose a confidential conference he has with the chief military adviser of the Executive at this time.

The third and last point I want to make, Mr. Chairman, is that I think that it is one thing for the committee to ask General Bradley for conclusions that were reached at the conference as to the public policy questions involved in relation to MacArthur, and quite another thing to insist that General Bradley give us in detail the arguments pro and con, if there were any pro and con, a verbatim quotation of statements made by the President and by the other members of the conference to the President at that time.

Even as to the conclusions I would reserve judgment, but I want to say I think it would be regrettable if the men at that conference did not give us the conclusions of the conference, as did General Marshall, and I have not understood that General Bradley is not willing to tell us what the conclusions were, and to what extent the conclusions represented a consensus of opinion; but as far as our having the power to demand from the White House confidential information, I seriously question that any court in carrying out a contempt proceeding would sustain our position.

THE CHAIRMAN—I want the record to show, and I want the reporter to put down, the names of the members of the committee who are present to show that there is a quorum here, because if this develops into a contempt proceeding, I understand that is one of the things necessary to be shown.

(The following committee members were present as of this time: Chairman Russell, Chairman Connally, Senators Johnson (of Texas), Stennis, Long, Bridges, Morse, Knowland, Cain, George, Green, McMahon, Sparkman, Wiley, Smith (of New Jersey), Hickenlooper, Lodge and Brewster.)

THE CHAIRMAN—I want to also say that I had undertaken to differentiate between the conclusions and the mere course of a conversation in a meeting of that kind. I have tried to not deal with personalities in this thing.

I was taught from my youth on that there were three coordinate and equally powerful branches of the government of the United States. I know that if I were in a Senatorial committee where the hearings were in executive session, and we were discussing, with the cloak of executive session around that committee, what transpired in marking up a bill that was to go to the floor, and a detailed statement was made by this Senator or that Senator, and that matter was challenged, as it might be before a court or elsewhere, that I would stand in favor of protecting the right of Senators to discuss a matter of that kind in an executive session of a committee without a Senator being compelled to relate what another Senator had stated in that executive session of that committee.

It is an unfortunate situation that has arisen, but it is one that has been presented, and Senator Wiley is wholly within his rights in presenting here, and one that since it has arisen, that we should carry to a conclusion, and the committee can pass upon the ruling of the Chair.

I do not know whether the Chair was right in making the ruling, but I would not have ruled, had not Senator Wiley insisted that I rule upon it; but while it was distasteful it probably was within my duties, and I try never to shirk any proper duty that is imposed on me, so I think that we vote upon the appeal, and then if the actual consequence of it is sustained, and a motion is made to cite the general, we can have this matter thrashed out in a manner under our system of government.

Senators Debate Question of Ruling

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—Mr. Chairman, I earnestly hope that the Senator from Wisconsin will not press his request for a ruling, and that the Chair will withdraw his ruling and leave the matter in abeyance for these reasons:

I personally can understand General Bradley's reluctance about relating details of a personal conversation with the President of what the President said. I can also understand Senator Wiley's own justification for wanting as muc hinformation as he can get. But I suggest, Mr. Chairman, that before these hearings are over, there may be a number of questions which will arise of this nature.

I think it would be a mistake for us to precipitously rule on these thing in every instant just as they come up.

THE CHAIRMAN—What did you expect me to do when Senator Wiley demanded a ruling from the Chair?

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—I said a moment ago I hope that Senator Wiley might not press for a ruling, and that the Chair might see fit to withdraw his ruling, and leave the matter in abeyance at this moment, because I think it is very possible that as these hearings come on there may be other instances, and we could take a little more calm and detailed look at these questions, and then decide whether in the instances which caused trouble, answers are desirable to those questions, and whether we should press for them.

Now, I realize that Senator Wiley asked has question with a definite purpose in mind, and that he would like to have an answer, but I am merely suggesting that we may, by deciding these things individually, just decide ourselves clear out of court in some field that we may later want to pursue, and have to back up on.

I earnestly hope that the matter can be left in abeyance at this moment without a final decision either way.

SENATOR LONG—Mr. Chairman, I would like to support the position taken by Senator Hickenlooper.

THE CHAIRMAN—Just a moment, Senator. Senator McMahon was trying to get recognition when I recognized Senator Hickenlooper, and I, therefore, recognize him.

Hickenlooper Suggestion Is Backed by Knowland

SENATOR McMAHON — Mr. Chairman, I think this is one of these basic things we should settle right now.

Under the common law, when the common law developed and these privileges were gradually written into the common law, which the chairman has mentioned, such as the privilege that exists between lawyer and client, and doctor and his patient, and priest and confessor, and in some jurisdictions between the newspaper man and the source of his information, the basic philosophy and philosophic reason that underlies those privileges, as I see it, is this: Those relationships cannot have any vitality and function if the two parties to the relationship are not assured that what they say in the course of the carrying on that relationship will not be used in the future and publicly used against them.

Now, if we are going to have a successfully functioning Government, it is of the utmost importance, as I see it, that the President of the United States have top advisers who are going to give him, when the proper moment comes up when he is called upon to advise him, his best judgment, without regard to how this will look in public six months from now, or a year later.

To do otherwise, in the words of one of our commentators who discussed this problem the other day, would bring about a situation similar, in a lighter vein, to what would exist if a fellow writes his girl, and he thinks it is going to be opened; or a man writes his wife and thinks it is going to be opened for public inspection, he is going to write it a little different than he would have written it, if it was just a communication between him and his wife, or a man and his fiancée.

Now, it seems to me, Mr. Chairman, that is basic, that you cannot carry on the United States Government successfully if the top advisers to the President haven't got a right to speak to him in entire confidence and tell him what is in their mind at the time, without regard to the fact that it might become public property six months later.

You destroy the relationship, and you do just exactly what the courts have refused to do — they have refused to open up that relationship of these classifications, because they know that to do it is to destroy the vitality of the relationship.

(Several Senators spoke simultaneously.)

THE CHAIRMAN—I recognize Senator Knowland.

SENATOR KNOWLAND — I merely want to say that I hope the suggestion of Senator Hickenlooper will be carried out, because this is a very grave decision. It might even be questionable as to the desirability of continuing with the hearings if this committee is to be foreclosed from information which may be vital to us.

It seems to me that we should try and approach this situation on a rule of reason.

The President of the United States, himself, might decide that in view of the questions that have been raised, in view of the fact that this committee has been furnished with certain confidential and top secret information—that in order to get both a proper understanding, on the part of the committee, and ultimately the American people, that this information should be made available.

If this ruling stands, and others take the same position, it seems to me that we will be foreclosed from information which will be essential, if we are to do the job that I thought we had undertaken to do.

Now I submit that we are dealing with the public's business. This is a business of the people of the United States and the Government of the United States. The Administration is different from the Government. The Government consists of the Executive and Legislative and Judicial Branch. We have a Constitutional obligation, we have a Constitutional power to make war. We are in a war and the Congress has not exercised its Constitutional rights and obligations in that regard. That is a pertinent subject of this inquiry, among other things.

The Joint Chiefs are the creatures of the Congress of the United States. They have certain Constitutional obligations to the President, certainly obligations to the President; but they also have legal obligations to the Congress of the United States. It seems to me that this is such a far-reaching question, and one that will establish a precedent which might, as I say, raise a question as to whether it is feasible for the hearings to continue.

I hope that the Senator from Wisconsin would withdraw his appeal, and, if the Chairman would temporarily hold in abeyance his ruling, let General Bradley consult with the President; let Senator Morse and others who are legal experts look into the law to see. Maybe we will all change our minds on the situation. But to go to a vote now I think would be an unfortunate circumstance.

SENATOR WILEY—Mr. Chairman?

SENATOR LODGE—Mr. Chairman?

THE CHAIRMAN—Just a brief statement now. I want to make one. I did not precipitate this matter. I did not intend to. When he asked the question, when he asked what the President had said in these conferences, I did not precipitate any question about it. General Bradley said he did not think he ought to quote the President, what he said when he was seeking his advice. Senator Wiley stated he thought he should state it, and he pressed it to where he insisted I make a ruling. That I have done.

I want to say to the Senator from California, I can see a great deal of difference between a conclusion that was reached and a private conversation that antedated reaching that conclusion. The American people, of course, are entitled to know every conclusion that has been reached; they are entitled to get every piece of evidence out of here that is material or pertinent; but there are still relations that have been protected since the beginning of time, and in my opinion our system of government, based on the three branches, coordinate and equal, was designed as a measure to protect each of them.

It is the Chief Executive today whose statement in private conversation with his most intimate adviser is under question; it might well be a member of the Senate tomorrow, or some justice of some court of what he said to his assistant when he was preparing an opinion and discussing the record in a case.

It is not with any view of protecting any individual that I made that ruling. I made it in all honesty, as I see it, to preserve the prerogatives of each branch of this Government.

Now the committee has a very quick way of deciding—not a quick way but a very effective and thorough way. They can overrule the Chair and decide General Bradley in contempt and let the courts pass on and decide the issue once and for all.

SENATOR GEORGE — May I have the question read?

THE CHAIRMAN—I expect that particular part of the record has gone downstairs. General Mudge, will you see that as soon as that part of the record is printed we get it?

SENATOR WILEY—Mr. Chairman?

SENATOR LODGE—Mr. Chairman?

THE CHAIRMAN—I think I should recognize Senator Lodge. I have recognized you twice, Senator Wiley. I recognize Senator Lodge.

Lodge Questions Wisdom Of Contempt Citation

SENATOR LODGE—Mr. Chairman, I do not quite agree this is on a par with the relationship between lawyer and client and doctor and patient because it does involve very large measures of public policy. But I do think we might as well face the fact that what we confront is the question of citation of contempt, and from the experience which we had in the Tydings committee, where we engaged in a good many citations of contempt, I was led to the conclusion that they never result in obtaining that information.

Now, if we go ahead with this procedure today, we will change the atmosphere and we will change the whole normal development of information that has taken place up to now, and it will tend to result in the occurrence of similar situations, and we will get a great deal less information than we would get if we don't do this.

I would like to see the suggestion of the Senator from Iowa and the Senator from California carried out, that the Senator from Wisconsin does not press the question at this time. Maybe when we get through the hearings, if there have been a number of cases that we consider in our mature judgment to warrant it, then we can take up this procedure then. But I certainly think it would defeat the very purpose we have in mind for such an action to be taken at this moment.

SENATOR WILEY—Mr. Chairman?

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Wiley.

SENATOR WILEY — Now my questions were two or three: First, what did he say to the President? And what did the President say to him? And so forth. I wanted to develop the facts as they came out there.

Now, in view of the suggestions that have been made, before I ask to be permitted to withdraw the appeal, I want to say definitely that the rule in law is clear. If you want to take the analogy of lawyer and client or doctor and patient, you get into court and you expose part of the picture; that opens up the whole picture.

Now I am sure that I would not for one moment have the record think that I want to interfere with the President's prerogatives. It has been my twelve years of experience here that I have tried to restrain the President from interfering with the legislative prerogative.

I want to keep this Government in four separate compartments — legislative, executive and judicial, and residuum back in the states. But I say to you—when the President permits his greatest adviser to come to us in relation to an incident that does not relate, as I see it, to the matter of injuring the public safety, when it is a question of discharging a man as general and a governor of 80,000,000 people, that we are entitled to know the personal equations, and that only comes about in the conversations — what took place in these three or four meetings when all at once the letter to Martin precipitated this wave. That is what we want to know, to find out, and that is what the people want to find out.

I have no personal feelings in the matter. As far as I am personally concerned, I am not competent to judge who is right—MacArthur or the Chiefs of Staff—on the military policy. But I am called upon to judge what the personal animosities are, what the personal feelings, what it was that all at once created this charged atmosphere that resulted in what I think, and a lot of people think, at least, is an unfair act, and probably a very injurious act to the future safety of this country, and the only way you can develop that is when the President submits his adviser before us and gives us his story, tells us, "now this is the conclusion," why, conclusion, nothing. He wants to tell you—we want to know whether those conclusions are based on the facts.

And before any court that testimony would not stand, and you could not take any doctor into court and permit him to say, "this is the conclusion" in relation to a relationship of this kind, but what the court would open up the whole case.

You know that. Now that analogy does not apply.

Now the question of executive power. The Executive has his power, definite and certain. I would be the first one to impinge upon it. But when the Executive submits his case to the people before a committee of this kind he has got to lay all the cards down and not just a few of them.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—Will the gentleman yield?

THE CHAIRMAN—Does the Senator yield to the Senator from Iowa?

SENATOR WILEY—Yes.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER—I only wanted to point out that the Senator manifestly made a mistake in his statement when he would be the first to impinge upon the executive power.

SENATOR WILEY—The first one not to impinge upon the executive power. Now I ask, Mr. Chairman, that I may be able to recall my appeal and this matter can be briefed and the legal basis of it can be thoroughly analyzed. So I withdraw my appeal.

Action by Committee

On Ruling Called Proper

THE CHAIRMAN—Well, just a moment. The Chair feels like he has some responsibility here. I did not originate this matter. If you intend to leave it here with you withdrawing your appeal and with the Chair's ruling on the record without the committee having taken any action on it, I do not think that the Chair should be placed in that position.

I disliked very much to make the ruling. I had not anticipated any such question would arise here, and I regret therefore that I had not investigated or looked into it a little further. It is wholly proper that the committee should pass on the Chair's ruling.

Now I do not like to be left here with this record going out to the world that I have taken this position and the committee has been denied an opportunity to pass on it. The question has arisen and it has been pressed very vigorously; the Chair has made his ruling, and I think I have a right to have this committee pass on this question.

I can assure you that I am not urging any member of this committee to vote in any way. I want you to vote just exactly like you see it on the question that has been raised here. It is a matter of sustaining the Chair, and I think I am entitled to make that statement.

General Bradley has been referred to here as the President's witness. General Bradley did not volunteer this testimony. In the discharge of my duties as chairman of this committee I requested General Bradley's appearance here, and I did not assume that he was altogether the President's witness.

I think that inference is somewhat unfair to the witness, but that is a matter of opinion, that he would only seek to sustain the President without giving this committee any facts.

I assume that the War Department, the Department of Defense is an agency of the Government. True, it is in the executive branch, but certainly it has a very direct relation to the legislative branch of the Government and if we are going to assume that everyone who comes here from the defense establishment is merely, as you say, a Presidential witness well, of course, these hearings will never terminate and we would have to, if that assumption is valid, discount anything that we heard from those witnesses.

Now the fair and simple way that the Senator from Wisconsin has waived aside all legal objections, saying there is no question on earth what the courts will do, there is a very simple way to find out what the courts will do in a matter of this kind and that is just to pursue it to its logical conclusion.

The Chair recognizes the Senator from Maine.

SENATOR SMITH—I would like to be recognized.

THE CHAIRMAN—I will be glad to recognize you next, Senator Smith. I cannot recognize but one at a time.

McMahon Recalls MacArthur Reply

SENATOR BREWSTER—Mr. Chairman, I can sympathize deeply with the feeling of the Chairman as I, as well as several other members of the committee, have been chief executives of state and appreciate the problem as pointed out by the Senator from Connecticut.

I also sympathize deeply with what the Senator from Texas said, that we should not be in a position of submitting our procedures to any outside authority.

I am also equally emphatic on that as he is, so I would now welcome the suggestion to wait and consult the President. I do want to call the attention of this committee to the fact that this is not a new problem. It has occurred many times before and it will occur again not only in this committee's proceedings but in the future relations of Congress.

This came up, I had experience with it when Mr. Truman was Chairman of the Truman Committee and we called for documents from the Chief Executive, particularly, conspicuously the Stettinius report which Mr. Truman as President later submitted to the committee when I was chairman and he gave it and it was a very valuable document which would have had a very great significance. There was a conspicuous instance when this question was raised.

I was greatly troubled in the Pearl Harbor Committee when the protection of the Executive was extended to a very broad field over all documents and all individuals, and I very much regretted that they sought to extend it to such an extent. I understand this has been under discussion with the committees in the Dawson case very recently. It is a very profound question, and I certainly as one do not believe that this committee, which is very much in the public eye now, and this issue which is presented here should be concluded in any such fashion as shooting from the hip here.

I do not think there would be any warrant for trying it. I can understand how the chairman acted when the Senator from Wisconsin pressed his question, but it might relieve the situation if the Senator from Wisconsin not only withdrew his appeal but also withdrew his insisting on the chairman ruling.

I think the only question where I would raise any doubt about the chairman is if he paused a little while, as the presiding officer of the Senate customarily does to perhaps hear some opinions on a matter of this kind, it might have saved any embarrassment because there was very strong feeling, but having got to this point, I believe very profoundly that we should demonstrate the capacity to accomplish a modus vivendi at least within the committee and I hope with the President.

I have sufficient confidence in his trying to rationalize this thing that we could work out some arrangement where the limits would be placed both as to documents and conversations and so on without any derogation to our authority or responsibility and at the same time without embarrassment to the President, so that the hour of 1 o'clock having arrived, I should like, unless there is serious objection, to make a motion that we recess.

THE CHAIRMAN—I hope the Senator will not do that until Senator Smith is heard.

SENATOR BREWSTER—I will withhold that temporarily.

THE CHAIRMAN—I would like to say that I have not consulted with the President with respect to any phase of this hearing. I think I am about as jealous of the prerogatives of the legislative branch of the Government as most Senators are, but I also do not propose to invade the rights of the other coordinate branches of the Government.

SENATOR McMAHON—Mr. Chairman, does the Senator recollect that when General MacArthur was up here testifying about the Wake Island conversations, and when asked about his conversations with the President, he very properly said that was a private conversation with the President?

THE CHAIRMAN—I think the record will disclose that.

SENATOR McMAHON—I thank the committee.

THE CHAIRMAN—Senator Smith?

SENATOR SMITH—Mr. Chairman, I have a slightly different approach from those suggested here. I want to suggest to the committee that I think we are in great danger of spoiling what has heretofore been the high tone and fine relationship between the members of this committee, and I shall oppose in every way I can precipitating an issue of this kind, which might make me consider whether I have to vote for or against General Bradley, for example, and put General Bradley in the position of being in contempt of this committee. I do not want to be put in that position.

What I feel very strongly is this: that so far as I am concerned, it seems to me that General Bradley's original suggestion that he confer with the President on this matter is the sound one.

General Bradley can decide with the President whether the thing that happened there should be disclosed to the committee, and if the President decides it should not be, I think it is just the same situation that we would be in because we cannot subpoena the President and ask what he has done that is beyond our powers, and I think that the President's position if he wanted to take that position that the public knows that certain questions were asked which they wanted answers to, and General Bradley felt that way, I think that is a perfectly sound position for General Bradley to take.

If he gets consent why, of course, he will come voluntarily and maintain the pattern of this committee of not trying to put the heat on our witnesses, so to speak, to compel them to answer questions that embarrassed them.

I am sorry that General Bradley did not feel willing to answer these questions; but I am entirely in sympathy with the position he took, that he had a confidential relationship, and if I had been in his position I certainly would not have disclosed confidential matters without conferring with the gentleman concerned, the President of the United States.

I am very hopeful, therefore, that the suggestion of Senator Hickenlooper and Senator Knowland and Senator Lodge and Senator Brewster will be followed.

I hope very much that the Senator from Wisconsin will withdraw his request for a ruling, and withdraw his request for an appeal, and even withdraw his request for a ruling on this matter, because I believe this committee, by handling these issues correctly, can get the full cooperation of the witnesses and get the facts without precipitating an issue which unfortunately might have political implications which we should not get into these hearings. So I am glad to second the motion of the Senator from Maine that we recess at this time.

THE CHAIRMAN—To when?

SENATOR BREWSTER—I would like to inquire from the chairman whether or not you contemplated an afternoon session?

THE CHAIRMAN—Well, that was a matter I intended to submit to the committee in view of the legislation that was on the floor at the present time. I assume that if the members of the Foreign Relations Committee feel that they should be on the floor, we will go over until tomororw morning.

SENATOR BREWSTER—Then with respect to the Foreign Relations Committee's desire, I might inquire, inasmuch as the matter which they had reported was up, does the chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee wish to express himself as to whether he wanted to be on the floor?

SENATOR CONNALLY—Senator Gillette is handling that wheat bill, and I have not conferred with him.

SENATOR BREWSTER—He indicated to me, as my seat-mate here, that he hoped that we would not go on this afternoon because he was sorry to miss it.

Unless there is objection, I would move that we recess until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, and I would like in that connection to commend the candor of General Bradley.

As in the Pearl Harbor case, we had Admiral Leahy, who was placed in a similar situation, and he testified in great detail to the conversations of Admiral Richardson and President Roosevelt.

He told every word that Admiral Richardson said in a very parallel case, when you remember that Admiral Richardson was dismissed from Pearl Harbor.

However, Admiral Leahy could not recall one word that the President said. He did not raise the issue of confidence; he just could not remember a word that President Roosevelt said. I respected his approach. I felt he was taking what he felt was the proper approach with respect to the loyalty he felt toward his Commander in Chief in that matter. But I think General Bradley has taken a very proper position in raising this issue of confidence.

Morse Requests a Delay In Motion to Recess

SENATOR MORSE—Mr. Chairman, may I make some remarks?

THE CHAIRMAN—A motion to recess is not debatable.

SENATOR MORSE—I was going to ask the Senator to withhold his motion for a moment, because I think there are some points, important points, that I would like to comment on for the record.

THE CHAIRMAN—Does the Senator withhold his motion until the Senator from Oregon makes some remarks?

SENATOR BREWSTER—The only thing I would ask would be the amount of time.

SENATOR MORSE—That is up to the Senator from Maine. I certainly will not enter into any agreement to limit myself in my discussion. But I want to say that I think we have a very important issue before this committee, and I do not think a recess at this time is serving the public very well until we reach some conclusions about it; because I think you are not fair to the witness if you recess at this time unless you get a few things in the record, to which I think the witness is entitled.

I ask the Senator from Maine—I will not be long, but I am not going to put any time limit on myself; — I ask him to withhold his motion to recess until I comment.

SENATOR BREWSTER—Well, I am very much embarrassed, because certainly every other member of the committee should be accorded the same courtesy, and I do think that no great public damage would be done if the position of the various members, most of whom have not had a chance to state their position, comes up at a later time. This is without any disparagement to what the Senator from Oregon may contribute, and who already stated a portion of his views.

I wish that the Senator from Oregon would not press the request.

SENATOR MORSE—I am going to press the request, and the Senator from Maine can exercise his own discretion, and I shall ask for a roll call on the motion for a recess.

SENATOR BREWSTER—I will withhold.

THE CHAIRMAN—The Senator from Maine says he will withhold.

Rulings Acclaimed; Witness Commended

SENATOR MORSE—Mr. Chairman, I think you now have a humpty-dumpty issue before the committee, and there is nothing you can do to put the pieces back together again, and I certainly think the recess should be with the understanding that the Chairman's ruling stands as of now as the ruling of the committee because I think I can see the headlines in the papers, right now, as to the reflection on General Bradley if this committee does not recess with the understanding that his refusal to answer Senator Wiley's questions stands as the ruling of the Chair, subject, of course, to any later modification that this committee may wish within its prerogatives to enter into.

Now, Mr. Chairman, I think that General Bradley demonstrated his high professional ethics here this morning by refusing to disclose to this committee the verbatim conversation, personal conversation, that he entered into with the President of the United States on April 6.

I disagree with my very good and warm friend, Mr. Wiley from Wisconsin, on several particulars, but I want to mention two. First, I do not think that a chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, who has had a conversation with the President of the United States on such subject-matter as was under discussion on April 6, is under any obligation to this committee or to the public to disclose the details of that conversation.

I think it is highly privileged under the separation of powers doctrine and I think General Bradley would be guilty of misconduct if he came before this committee and disclosed to this committee the personal conversation that he had with the President of the United States.

How could the Commander in Chief of the armed services ever carry on his executive functions as Commander in Chief if he had to carry on every conversation with the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff or the Secretary of Defense or any other high military official in our Government, with the fear, or with the thought, or with the knowledge that possibly that officer was going to be called before a Senate committee to disclose, under a threat of being indicted for contempt, the personal conversation that he had with the President of the United States?

I am willing to curbstone, Mr. President, and risk my reputation as a lawyer on the fact that I do not think you can get a court in America, of last appeal, to sustain any ruling of this committee that he would have to disclose that private conversation.

In the second place—I disagree with my good friend from Wisconsin, that when you put a doctor on the stand in a courtroom, that any privilege of that doctor in relation to the patient automatically disappears, and he has to answer any and all questions in relation to that patient; and I think the cases are long——

SENATOR CONNALLY — Will the Senator yield;

SENATOR MORSE—No, I will not, Mr. Chairman, and I do not say that disrespectfully, but I do not want to be charged with taking any more time.

I want to say, my last point is, Mr. President, that the ruling of the Chair is a sound ruling in regard to protecting the executive powers of this Government, and I think that General Bradley should be commended in the exercise of discretion that he used here this morning in refusing to give verbatim the conversation that he had with the President of the United States.

General Bradley has not said that he will not testify as to the conclusions that were reached at that meeting; but I don't think that a member of this committee, in private conversation with the President of the United States—and I think we have all had private conversations with the President of the United States—would come before this committee and, under oath, proceed to disclose verbatim his conversations with the Chief Executive in regard to problems of the Executive.

I want to commend the Chairman of this committee for his curbstone opinion, because I think when you get through with all the legal research you are going to find the Chairman's ruling is sound in law, and I think we ought to look at this ruling with the understanding that although the appeal had been withdrawn, the ruling of the Chairman stands until such time, if and ever, this committee, by a majority vote, decides by motion, as it has a right to do, to adopt a procedure inconsistent with the ruling of the Chairman.

We have that power residual in us. We can exercise that power any time.

We can get rid of the chairman's ruling by adopting an affirmative procedural policy of this committee; and so no right of the committee is lost by the Senator from Wisconsin withdrawing his appeal.

We can, tomorrow, if we want to, adopt an affirmative ruling; but until we do, I think it should go out to the public that the chairman's ruling stands, and if the members of this committee don't want to abide by that ruling, as of now, then let them be free to ——

SENATOR STENNIS—I have a parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN—The Senator from Mississippi.

SENATOR STENNIS—Isn't it true that the situation is that there has been a withdrawal of the appeal, and therefore the ruling of the Chair stands as the ruling of the committee? Isn't that the present situation.

THE CHAIRMAN—I had understood the withdrawal of the appeal was conditioned upon the withdrawal of the ruling of the chairman.

SENATOR STENNIS—I didn't so understand.

SENATOR KNOWLAND—That was Senator Hickenlooper's statement ——

THE CHAIRMAN—That was the suggestion of Senators Hickenlooper and Knowland.

SENATOR STENNIS—The Senator from Wisconsin is a man that can speak on that point. Would the Chair ask him what his opinion is?

SENATOR WILEY—I am very happy to have another shot at this problem.

First, let me make it clear that I have only the highest regard for General Bradley, despite the statement of the Senator from Oregon. I am a United States Senator, secondly, trying to develop the facts.

Thirdly, I withdrew my appeal because I thought it was better to see whether there were legal precedents that involve this case.

I still stand firmly on my proposition that when a doctor comes in and testifies about a specific accident, in his communications with his client, that he opens up that accident before the court; and that is what I stood here for; and when a man comes in before this body and tells general conclusions as to what happened, what took place, I say that that rule is applicable here, not to invade the prerogative of the President, but rather, the President should have said, "Now, don't testify on this issue at all," and we would not have gone into it; and if it is not a question of public policy involved, or it is not a question of injuring the rights of the public, certainly it is simply a question of developing what went on; what was said and done in relation to getting MacArthur; who laid the plans; who made the suggestion; what did the various people say.

Even MacArthur said, on the stand, that he understood, and he named Acheson—he understood he spoke in his favor.

SENATOR KNOWLAND—Senator Fulbright spoke——

(There was a chorus of voices.)

SENATOR STENNIS — Mr. Chairman, may I renew my——

SENATOR WILEY — My idea about the appeal is: I have asked to recall my right of appeal because I felt that what should be done is at least wait until tomorrow morning and see if there are any precedents on the matter.

I am not pressing for any charge of contempt. That is an insinuation thrown into this case without my consent or suggestion. I am simply stating the fact that as one of this committee, as a United States Senator, if you please, and there are only ninety-six of us, we have a very important function here to perform.

I am not impinging upon the President's prerogatives, and do not intend to waive any of our own.

Chairman Finally Puts Motion to Adjourn

SENATOR GREEN — Will the Senator yield for a question?

THE CHAIRMAN — I want to put the motion. I want to say that General Bradley has had to pass on this matter. The Chair has passed on the matter. Of course if the committee wishes to carry it over to some future date, that is a matter for the committee to decide upon, and it is perfectly within its right. Those in favor of the motion of the Senator from Maine——

SENATOR CONNALLY—What was his motion?

THE CHAIRMAN — To recess until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. All those in favor say, "aye."

SENATOR STENNIS — Mr. Chairman, would the Chair repeat what he said about the ruling? Is the Chair asking the committee to rule on it?

THE CHAIRMAN — I am not asking the committee to do anything. The chair is trying to carry out what he conceives to be his duty here, and I expect every member of the committee to do the same.

SENATOR STENNIS — Pardon me for repeating, but as I understand the situation, there is nothing before the committee to pass on with reference to the Chair's ruling. The Chair has ruled, no one has appealed from that ruling, and therefore the ruling stands as the ruling of the committee; otherwise, I am ready to vote in favor of the chairman's ruling, but I understand that is what the effect of the situation is now; so there is no objection to recessing.

THE CHAIRMAN — The Chair will again place the motion of the Senator from Maine, who moved that the committee stand recessed until 10 o'clock tomorrow. All those in favor of that motion say, "aye." Opposed, "no." (There was a voice vote and the motion was carried.)

THE CHAIRMAN—The "Ayes" seem to have it. The "Ayes" have it. The committee will stand recessed until 10, o'clock tomorrow morning.

Be back with us, General. I don't know whether you will have an opportunity to testify or not.

(Whereupon, at 1:20 P. M. [E. D. T.] the committee recessed to reconvene at 10 o'clock A. M. Wednesday, May 16, 1951.)

A205WX BRADLEY-MACARTHUR FIRING
(450) BRADLEY-DISMISSAL

WASHINGTON,MAY 15-(AP)-GEN.OMAR N.BRADLEY SAID TODAY THAT HE CAN'T REMEMBER WHO FIRST TOLD HIM PRESIDENT TRUMAN WAS THINKING OF FIRING GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR.

"I RECEIVED THE INFORMATION--I DON'T REMEMBER WHERE FROM--BUT I THINK I RECEIVED IT FROM A TELEPHONE (CALL) FROM SOMEONE," THE CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF TOLD SENATE INVESTIGATORS.

BRADLEY SAID HE LEARNED OF THE CONTEMPLATED DISMISSAL ON THURSDAY, APRIL 5. THAT WAS IMMEDIATELY AFTER HOUSE REPUBLICAN LEADER MARTIN OF MASSACHUSETTS MADE PUBLIC A LETTER FROM MACARTHUR SUPPORTING THE IDEA OF USING CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS IN THE FAR EASTERN WAR.

"YOU WILL ADMIT THAT IS A PRETTY IMPORTANT POINT WHICH YOU CAN'T REMEMBER, GENERAL?" ASKED SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH).

"WELL, IT MIGHT BE IMPORTANT ONLY TO PROVE THAT THE CHIEFS DIDN'T START IT, BUT OTHER THAN THAT I DON'T KNOW WHERE IT (THE TELEPHONE CALL) CAME FROM OR JUST WHAT BEARING IT HAS," BRADLEY REPLIED.

HE ADDED UNDER FURTHER QUESTIONING THAT THE CALL MIGHT HAVE COME FROM THE WHITE HOUSE, THE STATE DEPARTMENT OR THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE.

"IN OTHER WORDS," BRIDGES COMMENTED, "THE ORIGIN OF THE FIRING OF MACARTHUR OCCURRED FIRST ON A POLITICAL LEVEL."

BRADLEY SAID ALSO THAT SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL MAY HAVE BEEN MISTAKEN IN HIS TESTIMONY LAST WEEK THAT THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL WAS HASTENED BECAUSE WORD OF IT HAD LEAKED OUT.

"I AM NOT TOO SURE IT WAS A LEAK," BRADLEY SAID. "OF COURSE GENERAL MARSHALL IS ENTITLED TO HIS OWN OPINION."

"DO YOU MEAN THEN IT WAS DELIBERATELY GIVEN OUT?" ASKED BRIDGES.

BRADLEY REPLIED: "NO, SIR. I AM NOT SURE THAT GENERAL MACARTHUR KNEW THAT THIS WAS COMING. X X X YOU CAN'T HIDE THE FACT THAT CERTAIN PEOPLE GO TO THE WHITE HOUSE, THERE HAD BEEN SO MUCH IN THE PAPERS ABOUT THE DISCUSSION AND SPECULATION AS TO WHETHER OR NOT THE PRESIDENT WAS GOING TO RELIEVE HIM, THAT I THINK EVERYONE WAS JUMPING AT CONCLUSIONS."

BRIDGES ASKED WHETHER BRADLEY APPROVED OF THE MANNER IN WHICH MACARTHUR WAS DISMISSED--"I MEAN HIS SUMMARY REMOVAL."

"I THINK, FRANKLY," BRADLEY REPLIED, "THAT IT WOULD HAVE BEEN BETTER HAD IT BEEN HANDLED IN A LITTLE DIFFERENT WAY, AND IT WAS INTENDED TO BE HANDLED IN A DIFFERENT WAY, AND THEN THE DECISION WAS MADE TO HANDLE IT DIFFERENTLY."

30.24- 23047

MARSHALL TESTIFIED LAST WEEK THAT THE ORIGINAL PLAN WAS TO HAVE SECRETARY OF THE ARMY PACE, WHO WAS IN THE FAR EAST, NOTIFY MACARTHUR OF THE PRESIDENT'S DECISION. MARSHALL SAID, HOWEVER, THAT PLAN MISFIRED WHEN A POWER LINE WENT OUT IN KOREA AND PACE DID NOT RECEIVE A WHITE HOUSE MESSAGE.

A206WX

IN REPLY TO ANOTHER QUESTION BY BRIDGES, BRADLEY SAID HE FELT THE OUSTER OF MACARTHUR HAD NO PARTICULAR EFFECT ON THE MORALE OF THE TROOPS IN KOREA.

BRIDGES ASKED IF HE DIDN'T THINK A GENERAL WHO FELT "VERY DEEPLY SOMETHING WAS AGAINST THE BEST INTERESTS OF YOUR COUNTRY" HAD A RIGHT TO SPEAK OUT--AS MACARTHUR OFTEN SPOKE OUT.

"YES, BUT I THINK I WOULD SAY IT TO THOSE IN AUTHORITY INSTEAD OF CARRYING IT TO THE PUBLIC," BRADLEY REPLIED.

BRADLEY CONFIRMED IN DETAIL THE STATEMENTS BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND MARSHALL THAT THE JOINT CHIEFS UNANIMOUSLY AGREED MACARTHUR HAD TO BE REMOVED.

BRADLEY-MESSAGES

WASHINGTON, MAY 15-(AP)-GEN.OMAR N.BRADLEY TESTIFIED TODAY THAT ON JAN.10 GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR SENT THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF A "GLOOMY MESSAGE" THAT "HE THOUGHT WE WERE GOING TO HAVE DIFFICULTY STAYING IN KOREA."

BRADLEY TOLD THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES THAT AS A RESULT, THE JOINT CHIEFS SENT MACARTHUR A DIRECTIVE TWO DAYS LATER SAYING IN PART:

"WE ARE FORCED TO THE CONCLUSION BASED UPON ALL THE FACTORS KNOWN TO US, INCLUDING PARTICULARLY THOSE PRESENTED IN YOUR RECENT MESSAGE, THAT IT IS INFEASIBLE UNDER EXISTING CONDITIONS, INCLUDING SUSTAINED MAJOR EFFORT BY COMMUNIST CHINA, TO HOLD THE POSITION IN KOREA FOR A PROTRACTED PERIOD."

MACARTHUR, DURING HIS THREE DAYS OF TESTIMONY TWO WEEKS AGO, DID NOT MENTION HIS JAN.10 MESSAGE TO THE JOINT CHIEFS. HE TOLD THE COMMITTEE THAT THE JOINT CHIEFS WERE WORRIED ABOUT THE POSSIBILITY OF HAVING TO EVACUATE KOREA. MACARTHUR SAID HE TOOK THE POSITION THAT THE UNITED NATIONS FORCES COULD HOLD ON.

"ON JANUARY 10," BRADLEY TESTIFIED, "GENERAL MACARTHUR CAME IN WITH A MESSAGE POINTING OUT THAT UNDER THE PRESENT CONDITIONS HE THOUGHT WE WERE GOING TO HAVE DIFFICULTY IN STAYING IN KOREA.

"HE POINTED OUT THAT THE MORALE OF THE TROOPS WAS NOT TOO GOOD AFTER A LONG FIGHT, AND SOME OF THE REMARKS THAT HAD BEEN MADE ABOUT THEM AT VARIOUS PLACES IN THE WORLD, AND IT WAS RATHER A GLOOMY MESSAGE.

"THE CHIEFS PROPOSED AN ANSWER TO THAT AND IT WAS DISCUSSED WITH THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE AND THEY WANTED TO PUT CERTAIN POLITICAL REASONS ALSO IN THIS DIRECTIVE. THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF OBJECTED TO THAT. IT ENDED UP IN A DISCUSSION AT THE WHITE HOUSE WITH THE PRESIDENT AND THE DECISION WAS MADE THAT THE MILITARY PART OF THIS DISCUSSION WOULD BE PULLED OUT AND SENT AS A DIRECTIVE TO GENERAL MACARTHUR X X X."

"THE UPSHOT WAS THAT THE PRESIDENT SENT MACARTHUR A MESSAGE JAN.13 WHICH TOLD THE GENERAL TO EXERCISE GREAT PRUDENCE LEST THE WAR BE BROADENED BEYOND KOREA. THE MESSAGE GENERALLY OUTLINED THE POLITICAL FACTORS INVOLVED IN THE KOREAN SITUATION."

BRADLEY ALSO DECLARED THAT ANOTHER JAN. 12 DOCUMENT WHICH HAS FIGURED IN THE TESTIMONY OF BOTH MACARTHUR AND SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL, WAS NOT A DIRECTIVE BUT A STUDY.

MACARTHUR HAS CONTENDED IT WAS IN THAT JAN. 12 DOCUMENT THAT THE JOINT CHIEFS WENT ALONG WITH HIS PROGRAM CALLING FOR BOMBING OF RED CHINA SUPPLY BASES, BLOCKADING THE CHINA COAST, AND USE OF THE CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS BASED ON FORMOSA.

MARSHALL TESTIFIED LAST WEEK THAT THE DOCUMENT, ALONG WITH 12 OTHER POINTS, WAS TENTATIVELY APPROVED BY THE JOINT CHIEFS WITH THE IDEA THAT IT MIGHT BE NECESSARY TO EVACUATE KOREA. HE SAID PART OF IT, INCLUDING THREE OF MACARTHUR'S FOUR POINTS, NEVER WAS PUT INTO EFFECT BECAUSE THE SITUATION IN KOREA IMPROVED.

AT TODAY'S SESSION, BRADLEY SAID THE DOCUMENT NEVER DID BECOME A DIRECTIVE BUT REMAINED IN THE STUDY STAGE.

IN REPLY TO QUESTIONS BY CHAIRMAN RUSSELL AS TO THE ORIGIN AND STATUS OF THE OTHER JAN.12 DOCUMENT--COVERING THE 16-POINT PROGRAM--BRADLEY SAID IT GOES BACK TO LATE LAST NOVEMBER WHEN ONE OF THE JOINT STAFF COMMITTEES WAS DIRECTED TO "MAKE A STUDY OF POSSIBLE LINES OF ACTION WHICH MIGHT BE TAKEN IF THE WAR IN KOREA DEVELOPED INTO AN ALL-OUT WAR AGAINST CHINA, EITHER DECLARED OR UNDECLARED."

"TO US," BRADLEY SAID, "IT WAS CLEAR THAT IT WAS A STUDY? MAYBE IT WASN'T, AND APPARENTLY IT WAS NOT, TO GENERAL MACARTHUR X X X."

BRADLEY MADE THAT REMARK IN REPLY TO A QUESTION BY RUSSELL AS TO WHETHER THE JOINT CHIEFS CHAIRMAN FELT THAT MACARTHUR HAD BEEN TOLD HIS PROGRAM HAD BEEN APPROVED.

BRADLEY SAID THE JOINT CHIEFS WERE SO CONCERNED OVER MACARTHUR'S "GLOOMY MESSAGE" OF JAN. 10 THAT TWO OF THE CHIEFS--GEN.J.LAWTON COLLINS AND GEN.HOYT VANDENBERG--LEFT TWO DAYS LATER TO KOREA TO MAKE A FIRST-HAND SURVEY OF THE SITUATION.

"FORTUNATELY," BRADLEY ADDED, "ABOUT THAT TIME THE SITUATION BEGAN TO IMPROVE AND FROM THEN ON THE POSITION WAS STABILIZED AND WE EVEN STARTED TO COME BACK."

(250) BRADLEY-RASHIN

WASHINGTON, MAY 15-(AP)-GEN.OMAR BRADLEY SAID TODAY THE JOINT CHIEFS TWICE APPROVED AIR STRIKES AT RASHIN, THE NORTHEAST KOREAN TOWN WHICH GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR SAID THEY WOULDN'T LET HIM BOMB. IT WAS ACTUALLY BOMBED ONCE, BRADLEY SAID.

WHEN MACARTHUR TESTIFIED AT SENATE HEARINGS ON HIS OUSTER AS FAR EASTERN COMMANDER, HE COMPLAINED OF A BAN AGAINST BOMBING OF RASHIN. HE CALLED IT AN IMPORTANT COMMUNIST SUPPLY CENTER.

MACARTHUR SAID THE REPRESENTATION WAS THAT THERE WAS TOO MUCH DANGER OF PROVOKING RUSSIA BY STRIKES CLOSE TO THE SIBERIAN-KOREAN BORDER, BUT THAT THE TOWN WAS 35 MILES FROM THE BORDER AND HIS AIR OFFICERS HAD ASSURED HIM THEY COULD HIT IT WITHOUT VIOLATING SOVIET TERRITORY.

SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH) BROUGHT THE QUESTION UP WITH BRADLEY WHEN THE CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF TESTIFIED TODAY.

BRADLEY SAID STATEMENTS HAD BEEN MADE THAT RASHIN IS 35 MILES INSIDE KOREA.

"IT IS NOT 35 MILES," BRADLEY SAID. "IT IS AROUND 17 OR 18 MILES. THEN HE ADDED:

"NOW, PERMISSION TO BOMB RASHIN WAS GIVEN TWICE. ONE OF THE BOMBINGS WAS CARRIED OUT AND THE OTHER ONE HAD TO BE DIVERTED BECAUSE OF WEATHER TO ITS SECONDARY TARGET; AND AFTER THAT WE DID NOT GIVE

FURTHER PERMISSION TO BOMB IT, BECAUSE, AS I SAY, IT IS SEVENTEEN MILES FROM THE BORDER, THE RAILROAD FROM RASHIN DOWN THE COAST IS NOT COMPLETED, AND IT IS NOT AS GOOD A SUPPLY POINT FOR THE NORTH KOREANS AS CHONGJIN, WHICH IS FARTHER DOWN THE COAST AND HAS RAIL CONNECTIONS WITH RUSSIA AND ON DOWN INTO KOREA THROUGH HUNGNAM.

(400) BRADLEY-FLANDERS

WASHINGTON,MAY 15-(AP)-A CHAGRINED SENATOR FLANDERS (R-VT) TOLD HIS COLLEAGUES TODAY THAT HE "LEARNED A LITTLE SOMETHING" AS A RESULT OF HIS STATEMENT THAT "THERE SEEMS TO BE SOMETHING BIG IN THE WIND" IN KOREA.

FLANDERS MADE THAT STATEMENT TO A REPORTER YESTERDAY IN SAYING HE THOUGHT GEN.GEORGE C.MARSHALL WAS JUSTIFIED IN TELLING THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE SATURDAY THE ALLIES ARE MOVING TOWARD SUCCESS IN KOREA.

A LITTLE LATER, CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA) CAUTIONED COMMITTEE MEMBERS AGAINST "LEAKING" ANY MILITARY SECRETS DELETED BY THE CENSOR FROM THE TRANSCRIPT OF THE HEARINGS.

RUSSELL SAID NOTHING ABOUT FLANDERS' REMARKS. HE SAID, IN FACT, THAT HE HAD IN MIND TWO NEWS STORIES WHICH QUOTED UNIDENTIFIED SENATORS.

AT THE OUTSET OF TODAY'S SESSION, FLANDERS SAID:

"MR.CHAIRMAN, WHEN YOU WERE MAKING YOUR OBSERVATIONS YESTERDAY MORNING WITH REGARD TO BEING SURE THAT NO SECRETS LEAKED OUT, I SAT HERE IN SMUG SELF-RIGHTEOUSNESS AND LISTENED TO YOU."

FLANDERS ADDED THAT HE DID NOT KNOW THAT ANY SECRETS GOT OUT "THROUGH MY AGENCY, BUT AS A MATTER OF FACT I DID APPARENTLY SAY THINGS THAT I DID NOT INTEND."

THE VERMONTER SAID HE WAS QUESTIONED OVER THE WEEK END BY SEVERAL REPORTERS ABOUT "GENERAL MARSHALL'S OPTIMISM." HE ADDED THAT HE TOLD THE NEWSMEN:

MAY 16 1951

"HE (MARSHALL) SEEMED TO THINK THAT WE MIGHT HAVE SOME FAVORABLE DEVELOPMENTS BEFORE LONG."

FLANDERS SAID THAT WHEN HE WAS ASKED WHAT THE DEVELOPMENTS MIGHT BE, HE REPLIED: "I CAN'T TELL; READ THE RECORD."

BUT, SAID FLANDERS, WHEN HE CONSULTED THE PUBLIC RECORD YESTERDAY, HE FOUND THAT THE MARSHALL REMARKS HE HAD IN MIND HAD BEEN DELETED BY THE CENSOR, "AND ANYONE WHO READ THE RECORD COULD NOT FIND THEM."

THEN FLANDERS SAID:

"I ASSURE YOU, MR.CHAIRMAN, THAT I FERVENTLY HOPE THAT THIS WILL NOT RUIN OUR POLITICAL AND MILITARY PROGRAM IN KOREA, AND WISH FURTHER TO ASSURE YOU THAT IT HAS BEEN AN EXPERIENCE FROM WHICH I HAVE LEARNED A LITTLE SOMETHING FROM IT, AND WILL NOT MAKE EXACTLY THE SAME MISTAKE AGAIN."

RUSSELL ASSURED FLANDERS THAT HIS REMARKS TO THE COMMITTEE YESTERDAY REGARDING "LEAKS" WERE NOT DIRECTED TO ANY PREDICTIONS.

"ANY SENATOR," SAID RUSSELL, "IS FREE TO MAKE ANY PREDICTION HE MIGHT DESIRE TO MAKE, HAVING DUE REGARD, OF COURSE, TO THE FEARS THEY MIGHT BOOMERANG ON HIM. I DID NOT HAVE PREDICTIONS IN MIND."

FLANDERS SUGGESTED THAT HIS REMARKS TO THE COMMITTEE TODAY "BE CONSIDERED AS HIGHLY RESTRICTED" AND BE KEPT OFF THE PUBLIC RECORD.

RUSSELL SAID THAT WOULD HAVE TO BE LEFT UP TO THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT CENSOR, VICE ADM.ARTHUR C.DAVIS.

"ALL RIGHT," FLANDERS SAID RESIGNEDLY. "I JUST THOUGHT THAT IF LEFT AS I WORDED IT, IT WOULD STRENGTHEN THE IMPRESSION THAT THERE WAS SOMETHING IMPORTANT XXX."

WESHINGTON,MAY 15-(AP)-SENATOR MORSE OF OREGON, A REPUBLICAN MEMBER OF THE MACARTHUR INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE, PRODUCED WHAT HE CALLED A SECRET DOCUMENT AT YESTERDAY'S HEARING AND CONTENDED IT SHOWED THAT WASHINGTON WAS "METICULOUS IN KEEPING MACARTHUR ADVISED" AS TO ITS POLICIES.

AFTER QUESTIONING DEFENSE SECRETARY MARSHALL ABOUT THE DOCUMENT, MORSE SAID:

"I CANNOT UNDERSTAND THE CHARGE THAT THE GOVERNMENT FAILED TO KEEP GENERAL MACARTHUR ADVISED AS TO BOTH ITS MILITARY AND POLITICAL POLICY FOR ASIA."

GENERAL MACARTHUR TOLD THE SENATORS HE HAD TO OPERATE IN A "VACUUM" AND THAT HE COULD NOT HAVE BEEN "IN OPPOSITION TO POLICIES WHICH I WAS NOT EVEN AWARE OF."

MORSE DESCRIBED THE DOCUMENT AS A REPORT BY THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF "WHICH PURPORTS TO SET FORTH THE ACTIONS TAKEN" BY THE JOINT CHIEFS FROM THE BEGINNING OF THE KOREAN WAR TO APRIL 11,1951.

ONE OF THE ITEMS MORSE READ FROM THE REPORT WAS A PERSONAL MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT TRUMAN TO GENERAL MACARTHUR LAST AUG.29. MORSE ASKED THE DEFENSE SECRETARY:

"DO YOU THINK, GENERAL MARSHALL, THAT THIS MESSAGE ON THE PART OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, TO GENERAL MACARTHUR, WAS A VERY CLEAR NOTICE TO GENERAL MACARTHUR AS TO HIS GOVERNMENT'S POLICY AS OF THAT TIME?

"I THINK IT WAS," MARSHALL REPLIED.

"DO YOU THINK THEN, GENERAL MARSHALL, THAT I MAKE A CORRECT CONCLUSION FROM THIS EXHIBIT, THAT IT DOES SUPPLY AN ANSWER TO THE QUESTION: DID THE GOVERNMENT KEEP GENERAL MACARTHUR ADVISED AS TO ITS POLICY IN ASIA, BOTH MILITARILY AND POLITICALLY?"

"I THINK IT DOES," MARSHALL SAID.

RUSSELL RECALLED THAT POPULAR AND SUCCESSFUL GENERALS LONG HAVE EARNED DESCRIPTIVE TITLES--"THE SWAMP FOX" FOR FRANCIS MARION, "UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER" FOR U.S.GRANT.

IN BRADLEY'S CASE, THE CHAIRMAN SAID, "HERE WAS A MAN WHO, DESPITE HIS HIGH RANK AND COMMANDING POSITION, STILL WALKED IN SUFFICIENT HUMBLENESS TO LOOK AT THE WORLD THROUGH THE STANDPOINT OF THE COMMON SOLDIER, THE MAN WHO CARRIES A RIFLE."

BRADLEY-CONFIDENTIAL

WASHINGTON, MAY 15-(AP)-SENATORS INVESTIGATING THE OUSTER OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR SPLIT TODAY ON WHETHER THEY SHOULD DEMAND THE INSIDE STORY OF WHAT WAS SAID AT A WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE ON THE MATTER.

GEN.OMAR N.BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, PROTESTED THAT HIS VALUE AS A CONFIDENTIAL ADVISER TO THE PRESIDENT WOULI BE "RUINED" IF HE TOLD.

SENATOR RUSSELL (D-GA), CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE INQUIRY, UPHELD BRADLEY'S POINT, BUT ON THE CHANCE THAT A CONTEMPT CASE MIGHT DEVELOP HE INSTRUCTED THE STENOGRAPHER TO LIST THE COMMITTEE MEMBERS PRESENT.

THE SUPREME COURT HAS HELD A QUORUM MUST BE PRESENT BEFORE PUNITIVE ACTION CAN BE TAKEN.

THE MATTER CAME UP WHILE SENATOR WILEY (R-WIS) WAS QUESTIONING BRADLEY ABOUT TOP LEVEL DISCUSSIONS WHICH LED TO THE FIRING OF GEN. MACARTHUR BY MR.TRUMAN APRIL 11.

BRADLEY TOLD THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE THAT HE MET WITH MR.TRUMAN APRIL 6 TO DISCUSS THE MACARTHUR SITUATION. ALSO PRESENT WERE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL, SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON, AND PRESIDENTIAL ADVISER W.AVERELL HARRIMAN.

"ALL RIGHT," SAID WILEY, "NOW TELL US WHAT WAS SAID."

"SENATOR," BRADLEY REPLIED, "AT THAT TIME I WAS IN A POSITION OF A CONFIDENTIAL ADVISER TO THE PRESIDENT. I DO NOT FEEL AT LIBERTY TO PUBLICIZE WHAT ANY OF US SAID AT THAT TIME."

AT THIS POINT WILEY ASKED CHAIRMAN RUSSELL FOR A RULING, AND RUSSELL SAID:

"ANY MATTER THAT TRANSPIRED IN THE PRIVATE CONVERSATION BETWEEN THE PRESIDENT AND THE CHIEF OF STAFF (BRADLEY) X X X CAN BE PROTECTED BY THE WITNESS IF HE SO DESIRES, AND IF GENERAL BRADLEY RELIES UPON THAT RELATIONSHIP, THOUGH I REGRET VERY MUCH THAT THE ISSUE WAS RAISED, X X X I WOULD RULE THAT HE CAN BE PROTECTED."

BRADLEY TOLD WILEY IT SEEMED TO HIM THAT "IN MY POSITION AS X X ONE OF THE MILITARY ADVISERS TO THE PRESIDENT X X X THAT IF I HAVE TO PUBLICIZE MY RECOMMENDATIONS AND MY DISCUSSIONS, MY VALUE AS AN ADVISER HAS BEEN RUINED."

AT FIRST BRADLEY SAID HE WOULD ABIDE BY THE COMMITTEE'S DECISION, BUT THEN HE SAID HE FELT HE SHOULD CONSULT WITH MR.TRUMAN.

SENATOR CONNALLY (D-TEX) SAID IT WOULD NOT BE APPROPRIATE FOR THE COMMITTEE TO LEAVE THE DECISION TO THE PRESIDENT.

"IT IS NOT THE BUSINESS OF THE PRESIDENT," CONNALLY DECLARED, "AND I DON'T THINK WE OUGHT TO ESTABLISH ANY SUCH DOCTRINE FOR SIMILAR CASES--THAT WE RUN OVER AND TALK TO THE WHITE HOUSE AND GET THE PRESIDENT'S OPINION."

SENATOR MORSE (R-ORE) SIDED WITH RUSSELL. HE SAID HE BELIEVED ANY COURT WOULD HAVE TO HOLD THAT UNDER ANY OTHER INTERPRETATION IT WOULD BE IMPOSSIBLE FOR THE PRESIDENT "TO FUNCTION ON ANY CONFIDENTIAL BASIS WITHOUT INTERFERENCE BY A CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE."

MORSE SAID THE ONLY POWER OF ENFORCING AN ORDER THAT BRADLEY ANSWER WOULD BE TO START CONTEMPT PROCEEDINGS AND TAKE THE ISSUE TO COURT.

MACARTHUR-BRADLEY
BY JACK BELL

WASHINGTON, MAY 15-(AP)-UNCONFIRMED TALK OF POSSIBLE ENEMY PEACE FEELERS IN KOREA SPREAD AMONG LAWMAKERS TODAY AS GEN. OMAR N. BRADLEY CARRIED ON THE ADMINISTRATION'S MILITARY REPLY TO GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR.

BEFORE BRADLEY'S SCHEDULED APPEARANCE (9 A.M., EST) IN THE SENATE INQUIRY INTO MACARTHUR'S OUSTER, SENATOR SPARKMAN (D-ALA) TOLD A REPORTER THE FEELING IS GROWING AMONG SENATORS THAT THE RED CHINESE MAY GIVE SOME EARLY SIGN OF WILLINGNESS TO NEGOTIATE.

SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL, WHO COMPLETED YESTERDAY ABOUT 28 HOURS OF TESTIMONY SPREAD OVER SEVEN DAYS, DECLINED TO DISCUSS PEACE PROBABILITIES. BUT OTHER SENATORS WHO HEARD HIS TESTTIMONY HAVE INDICATED THEY THINK MARSHALL MUST HAVE SOME REASON FOR WHAT THEY REGARDED AS RELATIVE OPTIMISM ON HIS PART.

MARSHALL'S MARATHON TESTIMONY APPARENTLY LEFT MEMBERS OF THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES LITTLE CHANGED IN THEIR ATTITUDE TOWARD THE CONFLICTING PROGRAMS OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND MACARTHUR FOR THE FAR EAST.

SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) TOLD A REPORTER HE THINKS "THE ADMINISTRATION'S CONTENTIONS STILL REMAIN TO BE PROVED."

"SO FAR AS HE WENT, MARSHALL PRESENTED SOME FACTS THAT WERE NOT CLEARLY KNOWN BEFORE BUT THERE ARE LOTS OF CONTRADICTIONS IN THE TESTIMONY," KNOWLAND SAID.

SPARKMAN SAID HE THINKS MARSHALL MADE IT CLEAR THERE ISN'T TOO WIDE AN AREA OF DIFFERENCES BETWEEN MACARTHUR AND THE ADMINISTRATION, BUT THAT THE DIFFERENCE IS VITAL.

"MACARTHUR IS PROCEEDING ON THE THEORY THAT RED CHINA IS A GOVERNMENT IN ITS OWN RIGHT AND CAN MAKE ITS OWN DECISIONS," THE ALABAMA SENATOR SAID. "GENERAL MARSHALL AND THE ADMINISTRATION LEADERS BELIEVE THAT WHAT RED CHINA DOES IS DICTATED BY THE KREMLIN."

ON THE QUESTION OF POSSIBLE PEACE FEELERS, SPARKMAN MADE IT CLEAR HE HAS NO KNOWLEDGE OF ANY SPECIFIC MOVE.

BUT HE SAID SOME MEMBERS OF THE TWO COMMITTEES ARE SO IMPRESSED WITH MARSHALL'S RECITAL OF AMERICAN SUCCESS IN DECIMATING THE COMMUNIST TROOPS THAT THEY BELIEVE THE REDS WILL BE FORCED TO SEEK AN EARLY TRUCE.

"WE JUST HAVE THE FEELING THAT THE CHINESE REDS CAN'T GO ON MUCH LONGER UNDER THE LOSSES THEY HAVE BEEN SUSTAINING," HE SAID.

BRADLEY, KNOWN AS THE "G-I'S GENERAL," TODAY BEGINS SUPPLYING TO THE TWO COMMITTEES THE MILITARY POSITION OF THE CHIEFS OF STAFF ON MACARTHUR'S PROPOSALS FOR BLOCKADING RED CHINA, BOMBING MA

ARTHUR'S PROPOSALS FOR BLOCKADING RED CHINA, BOMBING MANCHURIAN BASES AND USING CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS FROM FORMOSA.

THE 58-YEAR OLD FIVE-STAR GENERAL FACES TOUGH QUESTIONING FROM REPUBLICANS WHO CONTEND THAT HE OPENED HIMSELF TO INQUIRIES ABOUT POLITICAL -- AS WELL AS MILITARY -- MATTERS BY A RECENT CHICAGO SPEECH ENDORSING MR. TRUMAN'S LIMITED WAR PLAN FOR KOREA.

ALTHOUGH MARSHALL IS A FIVE-STAR GENERAL TOO, HE TESTIFIED AS CIVILIAN DEFENSE SECRETARY AND LEFT A LOT OF MILITARY QUESTIONS FOR BRADLEY TO ANSWER ON BEHALF OF THE JOINT CHIEFS.

THE COMMITTEES VOTE TODAY ON A PROPOSAL BY SENATOR MORSE (R-ORE) -- WHO QUESTIONED MACARTHUR FOR SOME FOUR HOURS -- TO LIMIT MEMBERS TO TWO 30-MINUTE ROUNDS OF QUESTIONING FUTURE WITNESSES.

MARSHALL WOUND UP SEVEN DAYS OF TESTIMONY YESTERDAY BY TELLING THE COMMITTEES THAT SO FAR AS HE KNOWS EVERY RESPONSIBLE U.S. MILITARY LEADER--INCLUDING GEN. DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER--FAVORS THE PRESIDENT'S PLAN TO FIGHT A LIMITED WAR IN KOREA.

THIS WAS IN LINE WITH WHAT SOME SENATORS SAID WAS THE ADMINISTRATION'S STRATEGY TO BRING THE MILITARY LEADERS BEFORE THE COMMITTEES AND HAVE THEM VOICE OPPOSITION -- ONE BY ONE -- TO THE MACARTHUR PROPOSALS.

ADMINISTRATION SENATORS SAID THEY HOPE IN THIS WAY TO OVERCOME THE TREMENDOUS IMPACT THEY CONCEDED MACARTHUR MADE ON THE AMERICAN PEOPLE BY HIS ADDRESS TO CONGRESS AND SUBSEQUENT TESTIMONY.

MACARTHUR TOLD CONGRESS IT WAS HIS UNDERSTANDING HIS PROPOSALS FOR BLOCKADING CHINA, REMOVAL OF RESTRICTIONS ON AIR OPERATIONS OVER MANCHURIA AND USE OF CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS "HAVE BEEN FULLY SHARED IN THE PAST BY PRACTICALLY EVERY MILITARY LEADER CONCERNED WITH THE KOREAN CAMPAIGN, INCLUDING OUR OWN JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF."

THE DEPOSED PACIFIC COMMANDER STUCK TO THAT STATEMENT. MARSHALL SAID THESE WERE ONLY SOME OF THE RECOMMENDATIONS THE JOINT CHIEFS MADE LAST JAN. 12, AND THAT THEY WERE TO BE CARRIED OUT ONLY IF UNITED NATIONS TROOPS WERE FORCED OUT OF KOREA OR INTO A LAST-STAND BEACHHEAD.

MARSHALL'S REFERENCE TO EISENHOWER'S VIEW ON THE ASIA SITUATION CAME IN A CAUTIOUSLY WORDED ANSWER TO A QUESTION BY SENATOR LYNDON JOHNSON (D-TEX).

JOHNSON SAID THAT BEFORE EISENHOWER WENT TO EUROPE TO TAKE OVER COMMAND OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE FORCES HE "UNDOUBTEDLY X X X WAS AWARE OF WHAT OUR POLICY WAS AND WHAT OUR PROGRAM WAS AND HOW IT MESHED IN WITH HIS PLANS AND PROGRAM X X X."

"HAS HE AT ANY TIME GIVEN YOU ANY INDICATION THAT HE THINKS THE COURSE WE ARE FOLLOWING OUT THERE (KOREA) IS NOT A WISE AND PRUDENT ONE?" THE TEXAS SENATOR ASKED.

JONSO

ONE?" THE TEXAS SENATOR ASKED.

JOHNSON ASKED IF ALL THE MILITARY LEADERS THINK "THE PROGRAMS AND POLICIES THAT WE ARE NOW CARRYING OUT IN KOREA ARE THE MOST PRUDENT AND WISE POLICY THAT THIS GOVERNMENT COULD CARRY OUT UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES?"

"THAT IS CORRECT, SIR," MARSHALL REPLIED.

HE SAID HE DOESN'T KNOW OF "ANY DIFFERENCE IN VIEWPOINT" ON THE PART OF THE CIVILIAN HEADS OF THE ARMY, NAVY AND AIR FORCE AND DOESN'T KNOW OF ANY DISAGREEMENT BY ANY INDIVIDUAL MEMBER OF THE JOINT CHIEFS.

MARSHALL NOTED THAT LT. GEN. STRATEMEYER, HEAD OF THE FAR EASTERN AIR FORCE, HAD "MADE STATEMENTS IN AN INTERVIEW X X X ADVOCATING, I BELIEVE, THE BOMBING IN MANCHURIA." BUT HE SAID HE KNEW OF NO OFFICIAL RECOMMENDATIONS FROM STRATEMEYER ON THIS POINT.

MARSHALL SEEMED TO TAKE ISSUE WITH MACARTHUR'S CONTENTION THAT THE LATTER'S PLAN TO ACCELERATE THE WAR AGAINST RED CHINA WOULD NOT AFFECT AMERICAN EFFORTS TO BUILD UP THE EUROPEAN DEFENSE FORCE EISENHOWER HEADS.

MACARTHUR SAID ONLY A FEW MORE GROUND TROOPS WOULD BE NEEDED IN KOREA TO CARRY OUT HIS PLANS AND WOULD NOT AFFECT THE ASSIGNMENT OF SIX U.S. DIVISIONS TO EISENHOWER'S COMMAND.

JOHNSON ASKED THE DEFENSE SECRETARY IF ADOPTION OF THE MACARTHUR PROPOSALS "WOULD REQUIRE ADJUSTMENTS OF GENERAL EISENHOWER'S PLANS AND WOULD SERIOUSLY AFFECT THOSE PLANS?"

"WE FEAR IT MIGHT," MARSHALL REPLIED. HE DID NOT ELABORATE.

JOHNSON SAID, AND MARSHALL AGREED, THAT GEN. MATTHEW B. RIDGWAY, MACARTHUR'S SUCCESSOR IN THE PACIFIC, SUPPORTS THE PRESIDENT'S PROGRAM IN KOREA.

MAY 16 1951

MARSHALL ALSO CAST DOUBT ON THE AVAILABILITY OF CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS FROM FORMOSA FOR ANY RAIDS ON THE COMMUNIST-HELD MAINLAND.

MACARTHUR SAID IF THESE TROOPS WERE PROPERLY TRAINED AND EQUIPPED THEY WOULD BE VALUABLE FOR SUCH DIVERSIONARY ACTION WITH A MAXIMUM DETAIL OF 500 U.S. OFFICERS AND MEN TO ACT AS TECHNICAL ADVISERS.

IN ANSWER TO QUESTIONS BY SENATOR MORSE (R-ORE), MARSHALL SAID HE DOESN'T RECALL ANY OFFER OF GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK TO FIGHT ON THE MAINLAND WITHOUT THE ASSISTANCE OF AMERICAN TROOPS. CHIANG DID OFFER 33,000 TROOPS FOR ACTION IN KOREA, BUT THE U.S. TURNED DOWN THE OFFER ON GROUNDS THEY ARE NEEDED TO DEFEND FORMOSA IN THE EVENT OF A POSSIBLE RED INVASION ATTEMPT.

MARSHALL SAID THE EQUIPMENT AND OTHER AID BEING GIVEN CHIANG NOW BY A U.S. MILITARY MISSION IS DESIGNED "TO MAKE CERTAIN OF HIS CAPABILY OF DEFENDING FORMOSA"--NOT TO MOUNT ANY INVASION OF THE MAINLAND.

B17WX (GQ)

REPUBLICANS STILL COMPLAINED ABOUT WHAT SENATOR H. ALEXANDER SMITH (R-NJ) CALLED THE "ABRUPT ACTION" BY THE PRESIDENT TO REMOVE MACARTHUR.

MARSHALL MAINTAINED THAT IT WAS NECESSARY.

WHILE SMITH CONTENDED THAT MACARTHUR WASN'T KEPT ABREAST BY WASHINGTON OF POLICY DECISIONS, SENATOR MORSE CITED VARIOUS EXCHANGES OF MESSAGES HE SAID MADE IT CLEAR THE PACIFIC COMMANDER KNEW AT ALL TIMES WHAT THE THINKING WAS HERE.

THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF HAVE TURNED OVER TO THE COMMITTEE A COMPILATION OF ALL OF THEIR ACTIONS AND EXCHANGES OF MESSAGES WITH MACARTHUR FROM THE OUTBREAK OF THE KOREAN WAR UNTIL APRIL 11, THE DAY HE WAS FIRED.

IN RESPONSE TO QUESTIONS ABOUT VARIOUS MESSAGES MORSE READ, MARSHALL SAID THEY ALL INDICATED AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE JOINT CHIEFS AND MACARTHUR ON MILITARY STRATEGY IN KOREA.

HE SAID THE EXCEPTION WAS MACARTHUR'S RECOMMENDATION LAST NOVEMBER FOR USE OF 60,000 CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS IN THE KOREAN FIGHTING. THE JOINT CHIEFS OPPOSED THIS, HE SAID, PARTLY BECAUSE OF STRONG OPPOSITION BY OTHER U.N. MEMBERS.

AT ANOTHER POINT, HOWEVER, MARSHALL SAID AN AUG. 4 MESSAGE SHOWED "A CONSIDERABLE DEGREE OF DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE GENERAL AND THE OFFICIALS OF THE GOVERNMENT IN REGARD TO THE OVER-ALL ASIATIC POLICY, BOTH MILITARY AND DIPLOMATIC."

MORSE ASKED IF THESE DIFFERENCES CREATED "A VERY SERIOUS SITUATION

30.24- 23051

IN CONNECTION WITH OUR GOVERNMENT'S RELATION TO HER ALLIES IN THE UNITED NATIONS."
"I THINK THAT IS CORRECT," MARSHALL REPLIED.

WASHINGTON, MAY 15-(AP)-THE LANKY, LANTERN-JAWED SOLDIER WHO STEPS INTO THE SENATE SPOTLIGHT TODAY LOOKS LIKE HE WOULDN'T SAY BOO TO A GOOSE.
HE WOULD, THOUGH, IF HE THOUGHT IT WAS NECESSARY.
GEN. OMAR NELSON BRADLEY IS A MILD-MANNERED MAN. AS ANY NUMBER OF PEOPLE HAVE POINTED OUT, HE LOOKS LIKE A SCHOOL TEACHER. HIS FOREHEAD IS WIDE, HIS VOICE IS UNEMPHATIC, HE EVEN WEARS TORTOISE-SHELL GLASSES. HE DOESN'T SMOKE. HE'S NEVER BEEN KNOWN (THIS IS A GENERAL WE'RE TALKING ABOUT, MIND YOU) TO CUSS OUT A SUBORDINATE.
BUT THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES WILL FIND THAT THE MILQUETOAST MANNER IS DECEPTIVE WHEN THEY QUIZ PLAIN OMAR BRADLEY ABOUT THE FIRING OF GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR. BRADLEY KNOWS WHAT HE KNOWS AND SAYS WHAT HE THINKS, IF THE OCCASION SEEMS TO CALL FOR IT. THIS ONE DOES.
TWO OTHER FIVE-STAR GENERALS HAVE TAKEN THE WITNESS STAND BEFORE BRADLEY: MACARTHUR HIMSELF, MILITARY-HERO, VIVID OF PERSONALITY, STORM CENTER OF A BOILING CONTROVERSY; AND SECRETARY OF DEFENSE GEORGE C. MARSHALL, IMPRESSIVE IN MANNER, A FIGURE OF MILITARY PRESTIGE
NOW COMES BRADLEY, THE SCHOOLMASTER'S SON, THE "G-I'S GENERAL," THE MAN WHO WENT THROUGH THE GREATEST WAR IN HISTORY WITHOUT SO MUCH AS OWNING A SAM BROWNE BELT OR A DRESS CAP.
BRADLEY HAS SMALL LIKING FOR THE SPOTLIGHT. HE HAS LITTLE STOMACH FOR APPEARANCES BEFORE SENATORS. HE SAID AS MUCH IN A RECENT SPEECH AT CHAPEL HILL, N.C.:
"THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF BY LAW ARE MILITARY ADVISERS TO THE PRESIDENT. WE RENDER OUR ADVICE TO HIM ON A MILITARY POINT OF VIEW. IF WE ARE GOING TO BE OF USE TO THE PRESIDENT, WE FEEL OUR ADVICE SHOULD BE CONFIDENTIAL. WE WOULD BE DESTROYING OUR USEFULNESS IF IT WAS PUBLIC."
BRADLEY IS CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS. THE SENATORS CAN BE EXPECTED TO PRY LOOSE A GOOD DEAL OF HIS ADVICE BEFORE THEY GET THROUGH
HERE'S A LITTLE BIOGRAPHY: BRADLEY IS 58, MARRIED, A GRANDFATHER, A CHURCH-GOER. FOR YEARS HE WAS A PROFESSOR--TEACHING WAR TO OTHER SOLDIERS. THEN CAME WORLD WAR TWO. HE GOT AN OVERSEAS ASSIGNMENT, WROTE HIS WIFE: "ONLY TEMPORARY, BUT I HOPE TO MAKE IT PERMANENT."

HE WENT ON TO HEAD THE 12TH ARMY GROUP--1,000,000 MEN, THE BIGGEST FIELD COMMAND IN AMERICAN HISTORY, PROBABLY IN ALL HISTORY -- AND TO MASTERMIND ITS DRIVE FROM NORMANDY THROUGH THE BLOODIED BUSHES OF THE ARDENNES FOREST TO THE HEART OF GERMANY.
IN THE CURRENT ROW, BRADLEY'S STAND IS KNOWN. HE DIFFERS WITH MACARTHUR, IN THAT HE'D LIKE TO KEEP THE KOREAN WAR LIMITED TO KOREA. BUT HE'S RIGHT ALONGSIDE MACARTHUR IN DREADING A THIRD WORLD WAR. HE TOLD WHY IN A SPEECH ONLY A FEW YEARS BACK, WHEN MOBERLY, MO., GAVE HIM A ROUSING WELCOME HOME FROM WORLD WAR TWO:
"LET ME ASSURE YOU THAT THE NEXT WAR WOULD BE FAR MORE HORRIBLE THAN THIS ONE. WE SAW JUST A TASTE OF THIS AT THE CONCLUSION OF THIS WAR...IN PILOTLESS PLANES, ROCKETS AND OTHER THINGS. I'M FRANK. I DON'T WANT TO GO THROUGH ANOTHER WAR."

LITTLE MAN
BY ARTHUR EDSON
WASHINGTON, MAY 15-(AP)-"THE LITTLE MAN IN THE PENTAGON" CAME OUT FIGHTING TODAY.
MAYBE YOU HADN'T HEARD ABOUT THE LITTLE MAN IN THE PENTAGON. HE'S THE GUY WHO GETS THE BLAME IN KOREA WHEN THINGS ARE FOULED UP. HE'S THE GUY WHO HAS STEPPED IN TO TAKE THE PLACE OF THE GREMLIN OF WORLD WAR II.
THE LITTLE MAN IN THE PENTAGON BOBBED UP THIS WEEK IN A STORY FROM JIM BECKER, AP WAR CORRESPONDENT WITH THE MARINES IN KOREA.
BECKER RAISED THESE QUESTIONS:
WHO PUT OUT C-RATIONS THAT HAD TO BE EATEN WITH SPOONS--AND THEN CRAFTILY LEFT OUT THE SPOONS?
WHO OMITTED THE CAN OPENERS NEEDED TO OPEN THE CANS?
WHO INVENTED THOSE METAL CUPS WITH THE ROLLED RIM THAT GETS SO HOT THERE'S NO WAY TO DRINK COFFEE WITHOUT BLISTERING YOUR LIPS?
WHO PUT OUT THE STOVES THAT ROAST YOU CLOSE UP, FREEZE YOU A FEW FEET AWAY AND BURN FUEL LIKE A P-38?
WHO DREAMED UP THE TOWEL THAT WON'T DRY?
THE MARINES HAD THE ANSWER EVERY TIME: THE LITTLE MAN IN THE PENTAGON.
CLEVERLY DISGUISING MYSELF AS A 1944 MODEL GREMLIN, I ARRANGED AN INTERVIEW WITH A LITTLE MAN IN THE PENTAGON. (LIKE GREMLINS, THE LITTLE MAN TURNS OUT TO BE INNUMERABLE. LIKE GREMLINS, TOO, HE NEVER HAS ANY SPECIFIC IDENTITY).
WELL, WHAT ABOUT IT? FOR A STARTER, WHAT ABOUT THE SPOONS? AFTER ALL, IT SAYS RIGHT ON THE BOX THAT IT CONTAINS A SPOON. WHERE IS IT?
"THAT COULD BE ACCOUNTED FOR IN SEVERAL WAYS," SAID THE LITTLE MAN. "WE DID HAVE ONE RUSH ORDER IN WHICH WE HAD TO LEAVE OUT THE SPOONS. MAYBE THAT'S WHAT HAPPENED THERE.
"FURTHERMORE, WE HAVE A LOT OF CONTRACTS WITH MANUFACTURERS. SOME OF THESE CONTRACTS DIDN'T CALL FOR SPOONS. SO EVEN AFTER WE HAD SPOONS AS STANDARDIZED EQUIPMENT, WE GOT THE RATIONS WITHOUT SPOONS UNTIL THE CONTRACT RAN OUT.
"I THINK--I HOPE--THE SPOON SITUATION WILL SOON CLEAR UP."

(DON WHITEHEAD, TWICE A WAR CORRESPONDENT, SAYS HOT LIPPED CUPS ALWAYS HAVE BEEN A PROBLEM. HE SAYS THE SOLDIERS USED TO OUTWIT THE LITTLE MAN BY CUTTING OFF THE ROLLED EDGE.)
ALL RIGHT, HOW ABOUT THE STOVE?
"WELL, IF THE BOYS ARE AFTER CENTRAL HEATING, I ADMIT WE HAVEN'T SOLVED THAT YET. ANYONE WHO HAD ANY EXPERIENCE WITH A LITTLE POT-BELLIED STOVE BACK ON THE FARM KNOWS THEY DO GIVE OUT A LOT OF HEAT NEXT TO IT AND NONE AT ALL FURTHER BACK."
HOW ABOUT THE TOWEL?
"NOW THAT I DON'T UNDERSTAND," SAID THE LITTLE MAN. "I WAS IN THE LAST WAR, AND WE GRIPED ABOUT EVERYTHING GI. I THINK MAYBE THIS WAS THROWN IN JUST FOR THE HELL OF IT. OR MAYBE YOUR MAN GOT HOLD OF A NEW TOWEL, AND A NEW TOWEL NEVER DRIES AS WELL AS IT DOES AFTER IT HAS BEEN WASHED A FEW TIMES.

BY ROGER D.GREENE

WASHINGTON,MAY 15-(AP)-MOBILIZATION DIRECTOR CHARLES E.WILSON PLEADED FOR AMERICAN UNITY TODAY WITH A JAB AT "THE FOOLISHNESS ON CAPITOL HILL WHERE SOME OF OUR LEADING GENERALS ARE ON THE PAN."

ADDRESSING 1,000 INDUSTRIALISTS AT THE 1951 INDUSTRY-ARMED FORCES CONFERENCE, WILSON DECLARED THAT AMERICAN SQUABBLING OVER MILITARY AND FOREIGN POLICY "MUST CERTAINLY BE WONDERFUL MUSIC TO THE EARS OF THE RUSSIANS."

BUT HE TOLD THE INDUSTRY GROUP:

"WHAT YOU PEOPLE ARE DOING IS NOT MUSIC TO RUSSIAN EARS."

WILSON, WHO TOOK OVER AS MOBILIZATION CHIEF FIVE MONTHS AGO, SAID HE NOW SEES PROSPECTS THAT THE TASK OF MOBILIZING THIS COUNTRY'S RESOURCES FOR DEFENSE ISN'T GOING TO BE "AS LONG A JOB AS I HAD THOUGHT--IF WE HAVE SOME UNITY."

HE SAID, HOWEVER, THAT UNITY WOULD MEAN "CUTTING OUT SOME OF THE FOOLISHNESS LIKE WHAT'S BEEN GOING ON UP ON CAPITOL HILL"--AN OBVIOUS ALLUSION TO THE SENATE HEARINGS ON THE OUSTER OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR.

WILSON PREDICTED THAT THE TEMPO OF THE MULTI-BILLION-DOLLAR REARMAMENT PROGRAM WILL MEAN INCREASING BUSINESS DISLOCATION IN THE LAST SIX MONTHS OF THIS YEAR AND EARLY NEXT YEAR.

BUT PROBLEMS SHOULD TAPER OFF ABOUT A YEAR FROM NOW, HE SAID.

THE FEDERAL OFFICIAL TOLD THE INDUSTRIALISTS IT WOULD BE "ALMOST FATAL" TO THE DEFENSE PROGRAM IF INDUSTRY GOES ONA BUYI SPREE AND BUILD FATAL" TO THE DEFENSE PROGRAM IF INDUSTRY GOES ON A BUYING SPREE AND BUILDS UP HUGE, IDLE STOCKS OF SCARCE MATERIALS.

"DON'T HOARD," HE SAID EMPHATICALLY. "DON'T PERMIT YOUR VERY SMART PURCHASING AGENTS TO OVERSTOCK ON SCARCE STEEL, COPPER AND ALUMINUM.

"DON'T ORDER BEFORE YOU NEED TO. IF YOU NEED 100 TONS OF STEEL IN AUGUST, DON'T PIN A ROSE ON YOUR PURCHASING AGENT IF HE BRINGS IT IN JUNE."

THE MEETING WAS DESIGNED TO GIVE THE INDUSTRIAL LEADERS, REPRESENTING SIX NATIONAL ASSOCIATIONS OF MILITARY CONTRACTORS, AN OPPORTUNITY TO DISCUSS PRODUCTION GOALS WITH SPOKESMEN FOR THE ARMED FORCES AND DEFENSE AGENCIES.

NIGHT LEAD KOREA-PEACE (260)

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON,MAY 15-(AP)-GOVERNMENT AUTHORITIES SAID TODAY THERE HAVE BEEN NO PEACE FEELERS FROM THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS.

THE HIGH COMMAND'S HOPE IS TO FORCE THE REDS TO SEEK PEACE EVENTUALLY BY INFLICTING HEAVY LOSSES ON THEM, BUT SO FAR THE ENEMY HAS SHOWN NO SLACKENING IN HIS DETERMINATION TO THROW U.N. FORCES OUT OF KOREA.

A FLURRY OF PEACE FEELER RUMORS HAD GONE THE ROUNDS AT THE CAPITOL, EVIDENTLY SET OFF BY MISUNDERSTANDING OF DEFENSE SECRETARY MARSHALL'S TESTIMONY AT THE MACARTHUR HEARING. THIS PROMPTED QUESTIONS TO FULLY INFORMED OFFICIALS AS TO JUST WHAT THE SITUATION IS AND HOW BRIGHT ARE THE PROSPECTS FOR AN EARLY PEACE.

THE SPECIFIC ANSWER WAS THAT ALL THE EVIDENCE THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT CAN GET INDICATES THAT THE REDS ARE STILL DETERMINED TO TRY TO EXPEL THE U. N. FORCES FROM KOREA.

AMERICAN DIPLOMATIC AND MILITARY LEADERS ARE NOW CONVINCED THAT THEY CANNOT DO THIS. ON THE CONTRARY THESE EXPERTS SAY THAT THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS, THEIR MANPOWER MASS OFFSET BY A LACK OF FIREPOWER, CAN CONFIDENTLY BE EXPECTED TO TAKE ANOTHER COSTLY DEFEAT IN THE SECOND STAGE OF THEIR SPRING OFFENSIVE NOW AT HAND IN KOREA.

BUT IT IS ONE THING TO WIN A BATTLE AND ANOTHER TO CONCLUDE A WAR, AND QUESTIONS FOR WHICH STATE DEPARTMENT AND DEFENSE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS HAVE NO ANSWER IS: "HOW LONG WILL IT TAKE TO CHANGE THE MINDS OF THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS AND COMPEL THEM TO NEGOTIATE A REASONABLE SETTLEMENT IN KOREA?"

STATE DEPARTMENT PRESS OFFICER LINCOLN WHITE DECLARED TODAY IN COMMENT ON THE RUMORS AT THE CAPITOL THAT "I KNOW OF NO PEACE FEELERS."

DULLES

WASHINGTON, MAY 15-(AP)-JOHN FOSTER DULLES, PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S SPECIAL ENVOY FOR A JAPANESE PEACE TREATY, PREDICTED TONIGHT THAT GENERAL MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL WILL HAVE AN "ADVERSE EFFECT" ON THE JAPANESE PEOPLE.

"MACARTHUR WAS A SYMBOL OF A JUST AND QUICK PEACE," DULLES SAID IN A RADIO INTERVIEW (CBS "CAPITOL CLOAKROOM"). NOW, HE ADDED, THIS SYMBOL HAS BEEN "STRUCK DOWN."

DULLES, REPUBLICAN ADVISER TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT, SAID THAT MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL WOULD HAVE NO EFFECT ON THE JAPANESE PEACE TREATY ITSELF. BUT HE SAID THE JAPANESE PEOPLE ARE NOW AFRAID AND UNLESS THEY GET A PEACE TREATY SOON "THEY WILL GET RESTLESS."

"IF THE JAPANESE DON'T GET THEIR FREEDOM PRETTY SOON," HE WARNED, "THEY WILL ACCEPT THE KEYS TO THEIR JAIL -- PERHAPS FROM RUSSIA."

DULLES SAID THAT RUSSIA'S "PRIMARY GOAL" IN THE FAR EAST IS JAPAN AND THAT THE COMMUNIST ATTACK ON SOUTH KOREA WAS PART OF A SOVIET PLAN TO DOMINATE JAPAN.

HE MADE THESE OTHER POINTS:

1. THE U.S. HAS BEEN "VERY SCRUPULOUS" TO LOOK OUT FOR CHINA'S INTERESTS IN DRAFTING A JAPANESE PEACE TREATY. IN THIS RESPECT, HE ADDED, "WE FEEL THAT THE NATIONALISTS HAVE CHINA'S INTERESTS MORE AT HEART THAN DO THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS."

2. THE U.S. HAS PROPOSED A "COLLECTIVE SECURITY PACT" WITH JAPAN AS PART OF THE PEACE TREATY. THIS WOULD INVOLVE THE MILITARY SECURITY OF JAPAN.

HE INDICATED THAT THE BRITISH WERE APPREHENSIVE OVER THE REBUILDING OF JAPAN'S ECONOMY. "IT IS QUITE NATURAL," HE SAID, "THAT THE BRITISH WOULD WANT TO PUT RESTRICTIONS ON ONE OF THEIR STRONGEST PRE-WAR COMPETITORS, ESPECIALLY IN REGARD TO SHIPPING AND TEXTILES."

"THE UNITED STATES BELIEVES THE ONLY HOPE FOR THE FUTURE IN THE PACIFIC IS TO DEVELOP A STRONG, PEACE-LOVING AND INDEPENDENT JAPAN," HE ASSERTED.

DULLES SAID THAT AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND HAD EXPRESSED SOME FEARS THAT A STRONG JAPAN MIGHT AGAIN POSE A MILITARY THREAT TO THOSE COUNTRIES. HE ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT THE U.S. HAD GIVEN BOTH NATIONS ASSURANCES THAT SHOULD SUCH AN EVENTUALITY AGAIN ARISE, THE U.S. WOULD SIDE WITH AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND.

DULLES SAID PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND GENERAL MACARTHUR ARE IN COMPLETE AGREEMENT ON THE NEED FOR A JAPANESE PEACE TREATY AND ON ITS PROVISIONS. HE SAID THIS AGREEMENT MIGHT PAVE THE WAY TO A RESUMPTION OF BI-PARTISAN COOPERATION ON U.S. FAR EAST POLICY DESPITE WHAT HE TERMED A "FAILURE IN COOPERATION OVER THE PAST FOUR OR FIVE YEARS."

ASKED IF THE REPUBLICANS HAD BEEN CONSULTED ON FAR EAST POLICY, DULLES SAID THERE HAD BEEN "VERY LITTLE BI-PARTISANSHIP AND CONSULTATION."

JAPANESE TREATY

WASHINGTON, MAY 15-(AP)-AMBASSADOR JOHN FOSTER DULLES IS LEAVING JUNE 2 FOR LONDON FOR TALKS WITH THE BRITISH ON JAPANESE PEACE TREATY TERMS.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT INDICATED, IN ANNOUNCING THIS TODAY THAT THE LONDON TALKS ARE EXPECTED TO CLEAR AWAY THE LAST OBSTACLES TO A SETTLEMENT.

THE QUESTION OF THE FUTURE OF FORMOSA AND WHETHER RED CHINA SHOULD BE CONSULTED IN THE TREATY NEGOTIATIONS WERE LEFT OPEN IN A TEN-DAY CONFERENCE OF AMERICAN AND BRITISH OFFICIALS WHICH ENDED HERE MAY 4.

DULLES PRESUMABLY WILL TAKE UP THESE ISSUES WITH THE BRITISH, ALTHOUGH AMERICAN DIPLOMATS BELIEVE THEY HAVE BEEN LARGELY DISPOSED OF IN THE MEANTIME BY BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY HERBERT MORRISON.

MORRISON TOLD THE HOUSE OF COMMONS LAST WEEK THAT IN VIEW OF CHINESE COMMUNIST AGGRESSION IN KOREA THE QUESTION THE DISPOSITION OF FORMOSA SHOULD NOT CAUSE A DELAY IN THE JAPANESE SETTLEMENT.

(150) WASHINGTON, MAY 15-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN TODAY WAS ASKED TO GRANT EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY TO SEVEN NAZIS WHO HAVE BEEN SENTENCED TO HANG IN GERMANY FOR WORLD WAR II ATROCITIES.

THIS IS THE ONLY REMAINING STEP THAT CAN SAVE THEIR LIVES, OFFICIALS SAID. THE SUPREME COURT YESTERDAY REFUSED FOR THE SECOND TIME TO REVIEW THEIR CASES.

WARREN MAGEE, ATTORNEY REPRESENTING THE NAZIS, SAID HE HAS WRITTEN PRESIDENT TRUMAN, SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON, AND SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL URGING CLEMENCY.

HE SAID THAT EITHER ACHESON OR MARSHALL COULD RECOMMEND CLEMENCY, AND THAT MR. TRUMAN COULD GRANT IT.

THE SEVEN NAZIS ORIGINALLY WERE SCHEDULED TO BE EXECUTED LAST FEB. 14 AT THE U.S. PRISON AT LANDSBERG, GERMANY. EXECUTIONS WERE POSTPONED PENDING THE OUTCOME OF THE SUPREME COURT VERDICT.

THE CONDEMNED MEN ARE: SS GENERALS OTTO OHLENDORF AND OSWALD POHL; HANS SCHMIDT, ONETIME SS ADJUTANT AT BUCHENWALD CONCENTRATION CAMP; GEORGE SCHALLERMAIR, FORMER ROLL CALL CHIEF AT MUEHLDORF CONCENTRATION CAMP; WERNER BRAUNE, FORMER GESTAPO OFFICER; ERICH NAUMANN, FORMER SS BRIGADIER GENERAL, AND PAUL BLOBEL, FORMER SS COLONEL.

NIGHT LEAD INDIA WHEAT (320)

WASHINGTON, MAY 15-(AP)-SENATOR FERGUSON (R-MICH) TODAY OFFERED AN AMENDMENT TO PUT THE FOOD-FOR-INDIA BILL ENTIRELY ON A LOAN BASIS INSTEAD OF MAKING HALF OF IT A GIFT.

SUPPORTERS OF THE AMENDMENT SAID THEY UNDERSTOOD THE SPONSORS OF THE BILL HAD AGREED TO ACCEPT THE CHANGE.

AS THE MEASURE CAME FROM THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, IT PROVIDED THAT ONE-HALF OF THE 2,000,000 TONS OF GRAIN FOR FAMINE-HARASSED INDIA SHOULD BE A GRANT AND ONE-HALF PAID FOR BY A LOAN.

AT THE SAME TIME, THE SENATE AGREED TO A TIME LIMITATION TOMORROW FOR CONSIDERATION OF AMENDMENTS TO THE BILL AND THE MEASURE ITSELF. THIS INDICATED A FINAL VOTE WOULD BE REACHED SOME TIME TOMORROW AFTERNOON.

FERGUSON TOLD THE SENATE INDIA ITSELF HAS NOT ASKED FOR A GRANT OF FOOD BUT MERELY "FOR SPECIAL AND EASY TERMS."

MAY 16 1951

"IT IS A PART OF A CAREFREE, GRANDIOSE, GLOBAL GIVEAWAY PHILOSOPHY THAT WOULD GRATUITOUSLY ALTER THAT REQUEST TO PROVIDE FOR A GIFT IN WHOLE OR IN PART," THE MICHIGAN SENATOR SAID.

HIS AMENDMENT PROVIDES THAT THE LOAN SHALL BE SIMILAR TO THOSE MADE UNDER THE MARSHALL PLAN PROGRAM. THIS MEETS THE REQUEST FOR EASY TERMS, FERGUSON SAID, SINCE SUCH LOANS HAVE BEEN FOR PERIODS OF ABOUT 35 YEARS WITH INTEREST RATES OF TWO AND ONE-HALF PERCENT AND A GRACE PERIOD OF SIX TO EIGHT YEARS BEFORE PAYMENT ON PRINCIPAL BEGIN.

THE COST OF THE 2,000,000 TONS OF GRAIN IS ESTIMATED AT $190,000,000.

FERGUSON SAID THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION WILL HAVE AT LEAST $120,000,000 AVAILABLE IN THE CURRENT FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30 OUT OF FUNDS APPROPRIATED FOR MARSHALL PLAN USE IN EUROPE BUT NOT USED. HIS AMENDMENT PROVIDES THAT THIS MONEY SHALL BE APPLIED TO THE INDIA LOAN WITH THE BALANCE COMING FROM THE TREASURY.

THE AMENDMENT ALSO STATES THAT THE ECA ADMINISTRATOR MAY NEGOTIATE WITH INDIA FOR REPAYMENT OF A PART OF THE LOAN IN STRATEGIC MATERIALS AVAILABLE IN THE ASIATIC NATION.

THIS WAS A WATERING DOWN OF A SECTION IN A SIMILAR AMENDMENT INTRODUCED 10 DAYS AGO BY FERGUSON AND SENATORS MCCARRAN (D-NEV) AND BRIDGES (R-NH). THAT AMENDMENT NAMED MATERIALS WHICH INDIA WOULD BE EXPECTED TO PROVIDE. INCLUDING RAW JUTE. MONAZITE, BERYL AND CYANITE.

SENATOR MUNDT (R-SD) OFFERED ANOTHER AMENDMENT FOR A PROGRAM OF TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE FOR INDIA AND AN EXCHANGE-OF PERSONS PROGRAM BETWEEN THAT COUNTRY AND THE UNITED STATES.

IT PROVIDES THAT ALL OF THE INTEREST PAID ON THE PROPOSED LOAN WOULD BE AVAILABLE TO AMERICAN INSTITUTIONS TO CARRY ON EDUCATIONAL, SCIENTIFIC, AGRICULTURAL, MEDICAL AND PHILANTHROPIC ACTIVITIES IN INDIA AND TO BRING INDIAN STUDENTS AND INSTRUCTORS TO THE U. S. FOR TRAINING.

SOME FARM STATES SENATORS RAISED QUESTIONS IN THE DEBATE AS TO WHETHER THE U. S. WILL HAVE ENOUGH SURPLUS GRAIN THIS YEAR TO MEET THE INDIAN AID PROGRAM.
MINORITY LEADER WHERRY (R-NEB) SUGGESTED THAT THE BILL SHOULD PROVIDE FOR ONLY 1,000,000 TONS OF GRAIN AND SAID A DECISION ON THE OTHER 1,000,000 SHOULD BE HELD UP UNTIL MORE INFORMATION IS IN ON 1951 CROPS.
WHERRY SAID THE WHEAT CROP THIS YEAR WILL BE OFF, OATS ARE IN BAD SHAPE AND THE NATION IS USING MORE CORN THAN IT IS PRODUCING.
SENATOR CARLSON (R-KANS), WHOSE STATE IS THE COUNTRY'S BIGGEST WHEAT PRODUCER, COMMENTED THAT THE AGRICULTURE DEPARTMENT FORECAST IS FOR A 1951 WINTER WHEAT CROP OF 682,000,000 BUSHELS--THE SMALLEST SINCE 1943.
"IF WE COME UP WITH A SHORT CROP IN 1952, YOU'RE GOING TO HEAR A CLAMOR FROM THE PEOPLE ABOUT A SHORTAGE OF GRAIN," THE KANSAN SAID.
ANOTHER WHEAT STATE MEMBER, SENATOR YOUNG (R-ND), TOLD THE SENATE HE BELIEVED THIS COUNTRY COULD "WELL AFFORD" THE SHIPMENTS TO INDIA.
SENATOR HUMPHREY (D-MINN), IN A FIERY SPEECH, TOLD THE SENATE ALL OF THE 2,000,000 TONS PROVIDED IN THE BILL SHOULD BE A GIFT.
THE CONGRESS HAS "DILLY-DALLIED" OVER THE MATTER FOR TOO LONG, HE SAID, SO THAT THE PRESENT ACTION MAY BE "TOO LITTLE AND TOO LATE."
"IF WE PERMIT INDIA BY ANY FAILURE ON OUR PART TO SLIP INTO A COMMUNIST DICTATORSHIP," HUMPHREY SAID, "WE MAY WELL HAVE LOST THE BATTLE FOR A FREE WORLD."
THE MINNESOTAN SAID RUSSIA IS CONDUCTING A SKILLFUL AND PERSISTENT BATTLE FOR COMMUNIST CONTROL OF INDIA. THE SOVIETS HAVE MADE THE MOST PROPAGANDA-WISE OF THEIR TOKEN SHIPMENTS OF GRAIN TO INDIA, THE SENATOR SAID.

BY JOHN A.SCALI
WASHINGTON,MAY 15-(AP)-THE BURMESE GOVERNMENT REPORTEDLY HAS APPEALED TO THE UNITED STATES FOR DIPLOMATIC HELP IN GETTING RID OF ARMED CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS WITHIN ITS BORDERS.
THE BURMESE REGIME, WHICH RECOGNIZES RED CHINA, IS REPORTED ALARMED AT WHAT IT REGARDS AS A STEADY FLOW OF ARMS BEING SMUGGLED TO NATIONALISTS IN BURMA FROM NEIGHBORING THAILAND.
UNLESS SOMETHING IS DONE TO DISARM THE NATIONALISTS, THE BURMESE HAVE INDICATED THEY MAY TAKE THE PROBLEM UP WITH THE UNITED NATIONS.
FROM 5,000 TO 10,000 CHINESE NATIONALISTS ARE REPORTED INVOLVED, NEARLY ALL OF WHOM RETREATED OR WITHDREW INTO BURMA FROM SOUTHERN CHINA.
THE EXACT NUMBER AND LOCATION IS NOT CLEAR, DIPLOMATIC OFFICIALS WHO ASKED NOT TO BE NAMED TOLD A REPORTER TODAY. THE TROOPS ARE SAID TO BE MOSTLY IN WILD BORDER TERRITORY.
THE BURMESE GOVERNMENT WAS SAID TO HAVE TURNED TO THE UNITED STATES FOLLOWING APPROACHES TO THAILAND.
THE PRECISE SOURCE OF THE REPORTED ARMS TRAFFIC IS NOT KNOWN. BUT THE BURMESE ARE REPORTED TO SUSPECT THE CHINESE NATIONALIST EMBASSY IN THAILAND IS INVOLVED.
THE THAI GOVERNMENT DOES NOT RECOGNIZE THE CHINESE COMMUNIST REGIME. A SMALL CONTINGENT OF THAILAND TROOPS IS FIGHTING WITH UNITED NATIONS FORCES AGAINST THE COMMUNISTS IN KOREA.
AMERICAN DIPLOMATS ARE UNDERSTOOD TO HAVE TAKEN UP THE PROBLEM WITH GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S GOVERNMENT OF FORMOSA.
IT APPEARS THE STATE DEPARTMENT IS MERELY PASSING ON THE BURMESE GOVERNMENT'S COMPLAINT, RATHER THAN URGING CHIANG'S GOVERNMENT TO TAKE ACTION.
THE STATE DEPARTMENT ALSO APPEARS TO BE GUIDED BY A DESIRE TO AVOID HAVING THE ISSUE BROUGHT BEFORE THE UNITED NATIONS.
THE BURMESE GOVERNMENT, OFFICIALS SAID, APPARENTLY IS CONCERNED LEST THE PRESENCE OF NATIONALIST FORCES INCITE THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS TO INVADE THE COUNTRY.

(350) SECOND NIGHT LEAD MOBILIZATION
BY WILLARD H. MOBLEY
WASHINGTON, MAY 15-(AP)-THE TOP MEN OF ECONOMIC MOBILIZATION TEAMED UP TODAY IN URGENT PLEAS FOR WIDER EMERGENCY POWERS. BUT THE ANSWER FROM A KEY SENATOR WAS THAT THEY MAY HAVE TO GIVE UP SOME AUTHORITY THEY ALREADY HAVE IF THEY ARE TO SAVE ANYTHING AT ALL.
AFTER A DAY OF HEARINGS ON THE PROPOSAL TO EXTEND AND BROADEN THE DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT, CHAIRMAN MAYBANK (D-SC) OF THE SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE TOLD PRICE STABILIZER MICHAEL V. DI SALLE:
"I WANT TO WARN THE ADMINISTRATION IT IS GOING TO BE VERY, VERY HARD TO GET ANY BILL PASSED AT ALL. I DON'T KNOW IF THERE IS GOING TO BE ANY EXTENSION."
DI SALLE CAME BACK WITH THE STATEMENT THAT HE HAS "MORE CONFIDENCE IN THE SENSE OF RESPONSIBILITY OF CONGRESS THAN TO THINK THEY WOULD NOT PASS" THE EXTENSION FOR THE EMERGENCY LAW, NOW DUE TO EXPIRE JUNE 30.
THE PRICE CHIEF, PROTESTING AGAINST ANY SUCH STEP BY CONGRESS, DID AGREE TO BRING THE COMMITTEE AN ESTIMATE OF THE POSSIBLE EFFECTS IF THE LAWMAKERS SHOULD REQUIRE RELAXATION OF SOME OF THE PRICE CONTROLS ON FARM PRODUCTS. THE PROPOSITION WAS PUT UP TO HIM AS A PRICE THE ADMINISTRATION MIGHT HAVE TO PAY TO KEEP ANY SORT OF PRICE AND WAGE POWERS AND OTHER ECONOMIC CONTROL AUTHORITY.
MAYBANK SAID HE DID NOT ADVOCATE THE FORMULA BUT ASKED FOR A STUDY OF THE EFFECTS OF AN AMENDMENT WHICH WOULD REQUIRE THAT PRICE CEILINGS ON FARM PRODUCTS NOT BE SET LOWER THAN PARITY OR THE HIGHEST PRICE LEVEL IN FEBRUARY OR MARCH, 1951. THE LIMIT NOW IS PARITY OR THE HIGHEST PRICE BETWEEN MAY 24 AND JUNE 25, 1950.
PARITY IS A PRICE LEVEL DETERMINED BY LEGAL FORMULA, DESIGNED TO BE FAIR TO FARMERS IN TERMS OF THE COST OF THINGS THEY BUY.
CHAIRMAN SPENCE (D-KY) OF THE HOUSE BANKING COMMITTEE, WHICH ALSO IS BUSY ON THE PRODUCTION LAW, CALLED ITS EXTENSION "ABSOLUTELY ESSENTIAL."
SPENCE SPOKE AT A MEETING OF THE KENTUCKY UNITED LABOR COMMITTEE HERE. THE UNION GROUP CAME HERE TO SEE CONGRESSMEN IN THE INTEREST OF THE EMERGENCY POWERS BILL AND OTHER UNION-BACKED MEASURES ON HOUSING, TAXATION AND THE LIKE.
DI SALLE CLASHED SHARPLY WITH SENATOR BRICKER (R-OHIO) WHO ACCUSED HIM OF EXCEEDING HIS AUTHORITY IN LICENSING SLAUGHTER HOUSES AND SUBJECTING THEM TO QUOTAS.
IN EARLIER TESTIMONY DI SALLE TESTIFIED THAT THE PROPOSALS TO KEEP AND BROADEN THE PRODUCTION ACT ARE ESSENTIAL "TO PROTECT THE NATION AND ITS PEOPLE AGAINST UNCONSCIONABLE EFFORTS ON THE PART OF A FEW."
THESE GENERALLY PARALLEL VIEWS, MEANWHILE, WERE EXPRESSED BY OTHER MEMBERS OF THE ECONOMIC HIGH COMMAND:

ECONOMIC STABILIZER ERIC JOHNSTON--"WE SIMPLY CANNOT MOUNT THE DEFENSE EFFORT WE NEED" WITHOUT A STABILIZED ECONOMY AND TIGHT CURBS ON INFLATION. HE SAID EXTENSION AND BROADENING OF THE DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT IS ESSENTIAL.
DEFENSE MOBILIZER CHARLES E.WILSON--HIS JOB IS PROCEEDING FASTER THAN HE EXPECTED AND THE NEED FOR CURBS MAY TAPER OFF A YEAR FROM NOW "IF WE HAVE SOME UNITY." BUT HE SAID ONE RESULT WILL BE GREATER BUSINESS DISLOCATIONS LATE THIS YEAR AND EARLY IN 1952.
SECRETARY OF COMMERCE CHARLES SAWYER--IT WILL BE "DISASTROUS" IF THE PRODUCTION ACT, DUE TO EXPIRE JUNE 30, IS NOT EXTENDED, AND WAGE-PRICE CONTROLS ARE NEEDED ALONG WITH OTHER POWERS.

JOHNSTON TESTIFIED BEFORE THE SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE, CONSIDERING A PROPOSAL TO EXTEND AND STRENGTHEN THE PRODUCTION LAW, AND DISALLE FILED A STATEMENT WITH THE SAME GROUP. SAWYER APPEARED BEFORE THE HOUSE BANKING COMMITTEE, WORKING AT THE SAME TASK. WILSON ADDRESSED ABOUT 1,000 INDUSTRIALISTS AT A MEETING OF SIX ASSOCIATIONS OF CONTRACTORS WHO BUILD AND MANUFACTURE THINGS FOR THE MILITARY.

THE MOBILIZATION CHIEF COMMENTED THAT ONE PRIME ELEMENT OF THE UNITY HE DEMANDED WOULD BE "CUTTING OUT SOME OF THE FOOLISHNESS LIKE WHAT'S BEEN GOING ON UP ON CAPITOL HILL." HE REFERRED PARTICULARLY TO THE SPLIT OVER GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR AND REVELATIONS IN HEARINGS ON THAT ISSUE, WHICH HE SAID HAVE FURNISHED COMFORT FOR THE ENEMY.

JOHNSTON ON THE SENATE SIDE OF THE CAPITOL, CARRIED THE MAIN LOAD OF ARGUMENT FOR THE CONTROL LAW.

THE ONLY PRICE CEILING HE WANTED TAKEN OFF WAS THE ONE SPELLED OUT IN THE PRODUCTION ACT--THE $10,000 LIMIT ON FINES FOR VIOLATORS. HE CALLED IT "AN INVITATION TO TRY TO GET AWAY WITH BIGGER PICKINGS."

JOHNSTON SAID THAT "IF WE ARE TO HAVE A COMPLETELY ROUNDED, INTEGRATED, SENSIBLE ECONOMIC STABILIZATION PROGRAM," FARM, INDUSTRY AND LANDLORD EARNINGS MUST ALL BE LEVELED OFF TOGETHER. HE WANTED RENT CURB AUTHORITY--NOT NOW IN THE LAW--PUT INTO IT AND EXTENDED TO COMMERCIAL RENT.

HE NAMED SIX THREATS TO A SOUND DOLLAR AND SET UP A SIX-POINT PLAN TO MEET THEM.

MAY 16 1951

A4WX

THE THREATS:

1. DEFENSE SPENDING AT AN EXPECTED RATE OF $1,000,000,000 (B) A WEEK WHEN THE PROGRAM GETS UP FULL STEAM LATE THIS YEAR.
2. PROFIT, PRICE AND WAGE DEMANDS ON A "MILK IT DRY" BASIS.
3. FOOD PRICE RISES.
4. SCARE BUYING AND HOARDING.
5. ANY BREACH OF THE "PRESENT PEACE" BETWEEN LABOR AND MANAGEMENT.
6. GENERAL RELUCTANCE TO ACCEPT THE FACT THAT THERE IS A NATIONAL EMERGENCY.

HE ASKED FOR THESE REMEDIES BACKED BY LAW:

1. "PAY-AS-WE-GO" TAXATION TO SIPHON OFF LOOSE MONEY.
2. BARS AGAINST CREDIT OF A SORT WHICH "MERELY ALLOWS MORE PEOPLE AND MORE BUSINESSES TO BID FOR A TIGHTENED SUPPLY OF GOODS."
3. INCREASED SAVINGS BECAUSE MONEY "NOT SPENT DOES NOT PUT PRESSURE ON PRICES."
4. "NON-ESSENTIAL CONSUMPTION AND WASTE BY GOVERNMENT, BUSINESS AND INDIVIDUAL MUST BE ELIMINATED."
5. ESSENTIAL DEFENSE AND CIVILIAN NEEDS MUST GET FIRST CALL ON MATERIALS, WITH LUXURY GOODS GETTING ONLY WHATEVER MAY BE LEFT OVER.
6. CONTINUATION AND STRENGTHENING OF DIRECT CONTROLS.

HE STATED THIS AIM:

"TO STOP THE INFLATIONARY SPIRAL . . . ROLL BACK COMMODITY PRICES WHERE FEASIBLE . . . AVOID INTERRUPTION OR DISLOCATION OF DEFENSE PRODUCTION . . . RELIEVE HARDSHIPS AND INEQUITIES . . . CRACK DOWN HARD ON CHISELERS."

UNDER QUESTIONING AFTER HIS PREPARED TESTIMONY, JOHNSTON SAID IT MAY BE NECESSARY TO "GET A LITTLE TOUGH" WITH SOME NATIONS WHICH HE DID NOT NAME, TO GET FAIR ALLOCATIONS OF MATERIALS THE COUNTRY NEEDS AT REASONABLE PRICES.

SENATOR MOODY (D-MICH) HAD ASKED HIM ABOUT "GOUGING" ON SUCH ITEMS.

JOHNSTON SUGGESTED THAT ONE COUNTER-MEASURE COULD BE FOR THE U.S. GOVERNMENT TO BUY UP THIS COUNTRY'S EXPORT GOODS AND SELL THEM ABROAD AT PRICES "COMMENSURATE WITH WHAT WE HAVE TO PAY."

THE STABILIZATION CHIEF RAN INTO TROUBLE WITH A STATEMENT THAT A SYSTEM OF "SUBSIDIES ON IMPORTS" MIGHT BE NEEDED FOR SPECIFIC ITEMS. HE DECLINED TO NAME THE ITEMS IN PUBLIC LEST "THE PRICES SHOOT UP."

CHAIRMAN MAYBANK (D-SC) OF THE COMMITTEE TOLD HIM" I WILL NEVER VOTE" FOR BLANKET SUBSIDY AUTHORITY BUT JOHNSTON ASKED HIM TO KEEP AN OPEN MIND UNTIL HE CAN HEAR MORE ABOUT IT IN A CLOSED SESSION.

BY FRANCIS J.KELLY

WASHINGTON,MAY 15-(AP)-PROSPECTIVE TAX INCREASES MOUNTED ABOVE $6,500,000,000 (B) TODAY AS THE HOUSE WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE VOTED TO RAISE THE FEDERAL LEVY ON GASOLINE FROM 1 1/2 TO 2 CENTS A GALLON.

THE HALF-CENT INCREASE IS EXPECTED TO BRING IN AN ADDITIONAL $210,000,000 ANNUALLY, IF APPROVED BY HOUSE AND SENATE. THE TREASURY HAS ASKED THAT THE RATE BE RAISED TO 3 CENTS. THE COMMITTEE BOGGLED AT THE INCREASE, REJECTING IT TENTATIVELY YESTERDAY ONLY TO APPROVE IT TODAY. AN ALTERNATIVE PROPOSAL, TO RE-ESTABLISH THE $5 A YEAR USE TAX ("WINDSHIELD TAX") ON CARS, WAS TURNED DOWN.

THE TAX-DRAFTING GROUP VOTED TO CUT THE TAX ON DOMESTIC TELEGRAMS FROM 25 PER CENT TO 20 PER CENT, FOR AN ESTIMATED $8,000,000 REVENUE LOSS. A MILLION DOLLARS OF THE LOSS WOULD BE OFFSET, HOWEVER, BY RAISING THE RATE ON BOWLING ALLEYS AND POOL TABLES FROM $20 TO $25 A UNIT.

THE COMMITTEE REJECTED A SERIES OF OTHER REVENUE RAISING PROPOSALS, INCLUDING:

A PENNY A BOTTLE TAX ON SOFT DRINKS, WHICH WITH A ONE-CENT PER OUNCE TAX ON FOUNTAIN SYRUPS, ALSO REJECTED, WAS ESTIMATED TO BE GOOD FOR $280,000,000 A YEAR.

TAXES ON CANDY AND CHEWING GUM AT THE RATE OF 20 PER CENT AT THE MANUFACTURERS' LEVEL; ESTIMATED REVENUE, $230,000,000.

APPLICATION OF THE CABARET TAX TO BALLROOMS.

A PROPOSED INCREASE IN THE TAX ON LOCAL TELEPHONE SERVICE, FROM 15 TO 20 PER CENT.

A 20 PER CENT JEWELRY TAX ON SILVER PLATED FLATWARE--KNIVES, FORKS AND SPOONS.

A TAX ON TOILET SOAPS AND SHAMPOOS.

TAX ON FUR-LINED AND FUR-TRIMMED COATS WHERE THE FUR IS THE COMPONENT OF CHIEF VALUE.

A TAX ON ELECTRIC SAWS AND OTHER POWER TOOLS USED IN HOBBY SHOPTS.

THE STAFF OF TAX EXPERTS WHO HAVE BEEN KEEPING BOOKS ON THE COMMITTEE'S DECISIONS FIGURED THAT $1,068,000,000 (B) IN EXCISE TAX INCREASES HAVE BEEN VOTED BY THE COMMITTEE SO FAR.

MUCH OF THE INCREASE WOULD COME FROM PUTTING A LONG NEW LIST OF HOME GAS, OIL AND ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES UNDER THE PRESENT 10 PER CENT LEVY, AND BOOSTING THE TAX ON RADIOS, TELEVISION SETS, PHONOGRAPH RECORDS AND MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS FROM THE PRESENT 10 PER CENT TO 15.

THROUGH A TRANSMISSION ERROR THE ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTED LAST NIGHT THAT THE INCREASE IN THE LATTER GROUP WAS TO 25 PERCENT.

A7WX

THE REVENUE EXPECTED FROM ALL THE INCREASES VOTED SO FAR STANDS AT $6,528,000,000. THE OBLIGATIONS OF INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAXPAYERS WOULD BE INCREASED NEARLY $3,000,000,000 AND THOSE OF CORPORATIONS ABOUT $2,000,000,000.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN ASKED CONGRESS FOR $10,000,000,000 MORE REVENUE IN THIS YEAR'S BILL.

WHEN THE COMMITTEE RECESSED UNTIL TOMORROW, MEMBERS WERE DISCUSSING A PROPOSAL TO LEVY AN EXCISE TAX ON USED AUTOMOBILES. THE MANUFACTURERS' TAX ON NEW CARS WOULD RISE FROM 7 PER CENT TO 10 PER CENT

UNDER A DECISION BY THE COMMITTEE YESTERDAY.
THERE IS A CHANCE THE COMMITTEE WILL COMPLETE ITS TENTATIVE VOTING TOMORROW. UNDER SUCH A SCHEDULE THE MEASURE MAY GET TO THE HOUSE THE FIRST WEEK IN JUNE.
REP.REED OF NEW YORK, TOP RANKING REPUBLICAN ON THE COMMITTEE, ANNOUNCED THAT BEFORE THE BILL IS FINISHED HE WILL PRESS FOR A 100 PER CENT TAX ON THE ILLICIT INCOME OF GAMBLERS AND RACKETEERS.

WASHINGTON,MAY 15-(AP)-ECONOMIC STABILIZER ERIC JOHNSTON SAID TODAY THAT COMPANY MANAGEMENTS HAVE JOINED WITH LABOR GROUPS IN 1,500 REQUESTS TO EXCEED THE 10 PERCENT LIMIT ON WAGE INCREASES.
"SOME OF THE REQUESTS GO AS HIGH AS 27 CENTS AN HOUR," JOHNSTON SAID. "IF ANY APPRECIABLE NUMBER ARE GRANTED IN ANYTHING LIKE SUCH AMOUNTS, YOU HAVE NO WAGE STABILIZATION IN AMERICA."
JOHNSTON GAVE THE FIGURES IN A SPEECH BEFORE 1,000 INDUSTRIALISTS AT THE 1951 INDUSTRY-ARMED FORCES CONFERENCE.
SPEAKING OF EFFORTS BY ARM GROUPS TO LIFT CEILINGS ON COTTON, MEAT AND OTHER PRODUCTS, JOHNSTON SAID THE 45-CENT CEILING ON RAW COTTON SHOULD PERMIT A "GOOD BUMPER PRODUCTION YEAR" DESPITE THE GROWERS' ARGUMENT THAT CEILINGS WILL HINDER PRODUCTION.
"IN FACT, THE BEET SUGAR PEOPLE SENT A DELEGATION TO ME LAST WEEK COMPLAINING THAT TOO MANY PEOPLE ARE SHIFTING FROM BEETS TO COTTON BECAUSE OF THE BETTER COTTON PRICE," JOHNSTON SAID.

ATOMIC (370)
BY ROBERT E.GEIGER
(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON,MAY 15-(AP)-THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION ANNOUNCED TODAY THE START OF A NEW PROGRAM TO DETERMINE THE FEASIBILITY OF PRIVATE FIRMS PRODUCING ATOMIC POWER FOR INDUSTRY AND CITIES.
THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID CONTRACTS ARE BEING SIGNED WITH FOUR GROUPS OF COMPANIES TO MAKE STUDIES THAT WILL HELP DECIDE COSTS AND OTHER FACTORS INVOLVED IN ATOMIC PLANT CONSTRUCTION. ALSO THEY WILL HELP DECIDE WHETHER PRIVATE FIRMS CAN CONSTRUCT SUCH PLANTS WITHIN THE NEXT FEW YEARS.
AN AEC SPOKESMAN SAID A BY-PRODUCT OF SUCH PLANTS WOULD BE THE PRODUCTION OF FISSIONABLE MATERIALS--THE STUFF OUT OF WHICH ATOMIC WEAPONS ARE MADE. BY LAW THE GOVERNMENT WOULD BE THE ONLY CUSTOMER FOR SUCH MATERIALS.
AEC OFFICIALS GAVE THIS SPECIFIC EXAMPLE OF WHAT WILL BE UNDERTAKEN IN THE NEW STUDY PROGRAM:
A CHEMICAL COMPANY WANTS TO CONVERT LARGE WESTERN PHOSPHATE DEPOSITS INTO FERTILIZER AND OTHER PRODUCTS. ELECTRIC POWER IS NOT IMMEDIATELY AVAILABLE NEAR THE SITES.
STUDIES ARE NECESSARY TO DETERMINE WHETHER AN ATOMIC POWER PLANT COULD BE CONSTRUCTED NEAR THE DEPOSITS AT A COST SUFFICIENTLY LOW TO COMPETE WITH SIMILAR PLANTS POWERED BY ELECTRICITY OR OTHER ENERGY. ALSO, HOW MUCH WORK IS NEEDED TO DESIGN AND CONSTRUCT THE PLANT? COULD IT BE BUILT IN THE NEXT FEW YEARS?
IN THE PROGRAM ANNOUNCED TODAY THE COMPANY WOULD MAKE THIS STUDY AND FILE ITS RECOMMENDATIONS WITH THE GOVERNMENT. THE GOVERNMENT WOULD DECIDE WHETHER CONSTRUCTION CONTRACTS SHOULD BE SIGNED.
AEC OFFICIALS SAID PROJECTS ARE UNDERWAY TO POWER SUBMARINES AND AIRCRAFT WITH ATOMIC ENERGY BUT THIS IS THE FIRST PROGRAM FOR INVESTIGATING IN DETAIL THE PROBLEMS INVOLVED IN USING SUCH ENERGY IN INDUSTRY.
THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID AGREEMENTS ARE BEING SIGNED WITH FOUR GROUPS OF BUSINESS FIRMS TO MAKE STUDIES AT THEIR OWN EXPENSE. IT ADDED THAT NO ADDITIONAL FIRMS CAN BE BROUGHT INTO THE STUDY PROGRAM NOW BECAUSE ATOMIC SCIENTISTS ARE TOO BUSY WITH THE DEFENSE PROGRAM TO PERMIT THEM TO CONSULT WITH ADDITIONAL INDUSTRY REPRESENTATIVES.
AGREEMENTS FOR THE STUDIES HAVE BEEN SIGNED WITH THE DOW CHEMICAL CO., OF MIDLAND,MICH., AND THE DETROIT EDISON CO. OF DETROIT; ALSO WITH THE COMMONWEALTH EDISON CO., AND THE PUBLIC SERVICE CO., OF NORTHERN ILLINOIS, OF CHICAGO.
IT SAID THE PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC CO., AND THE BECHTEL CORP. OF SAN FRANCISCO HAVE INDICATED THEY WILL SIGN AN AGREEMENT.
NEGOTIATIONS ARE UNDER WAY WITH THE MONSANTO CHEMICAL CO., OF ST. LOUIS AND THE UNION ELECTRIC CO., OF MISSOURI.

WASHINGTON, MAY 15-(AP)-A WORLD WAR II COMBAT VETERAN TOLD THE HOUSE TODAY THAT WHILE "OLD SOLDIERS MAY NEVER DIE," THE YOUNG ONES DO AND SOMETHING OUGHT TO BE DONE ABOUT IT.
IT IS TIME, SAID REP. LYLE (D-TEX), TO "QUIT TALKING SO MUCH AND START WORKING AND FIGHTING WITH AND FOR THOSE WHO FIGHT FOR US."
LYLE SAID SUFFICIENT TROOPS AND MATERIAL SHOULD BE PROVIDED FOR THE FIELD COMMANDERS IN KOREA "TO ACHIEVE THE DESTRUCTION OR SURRENDER OF THE ENEMY."
WHAT THE MEN FIGHTING IN KOREA WANT, HE SAID, IS TO COMPLETELY DEFEAT THE AGGRESSORS THERE AND GET BACK HOME AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE.
"MORAL VICTORY, OR ANY OTHER TYPE OF PLATITUDE, WOULD NOT BE APPEALING TO THEM," HE ADDED. "ONLY A SOLID AND DECISIVE DESTRUCTION OF THE ENEMY IN KOREA WILL JUSTIFY THE BLOOD PRICE WE HAVE PAID."
LYLE SAID THE UNITED STATES CANNOT AFFORD THE "LUXUARY" OF ALLIES WHO GIVE ONLY "PART-TIME ALLEGIANCE."
"THOSE WHO PLAY WITH A COMMON ENEMY COMMERCIALLY CAN NEVER BE EXPECTED TO FIGHT HIM WHOLE-HARTEDLY," HE ADDED.
WITHOUT NAMING GENERAL DOUGLAS MACARTHUR, LYLE CONCLUDED HIS SPEECH WITH THIS QUESTION:

DEFENSE HEADQUARTERS
WASHINGTON, MAY 15-(AP)-THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT HAS SELECTED LOCATIONS OUTSIDE WASHINGTON WHERE ITS MOST ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS COULD BE CARRIED ON IN THE EVENT OF AN ENEMY ATTACK ON THE CAPITAL.
REPORTING THIS LAST NIGHT, SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL SAID THE PLANNING IS SIMILAR TO THAT BEING CARRIED OUT "IN MANY OTHER PLACES IN THE UNITED STATES."
IT REPRESENTS, HE SAID, "PRECAUTIONARY MEASURES DESIRABLE IN VIEW OF THE CONTINUED TENSION IN THE WORLD SITUATION."
MARSHALL SAID ALL EMPLOYES OF THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT HAVE RECEIVED, OR WILL SHORTLY, NOTICE OF THE ROLE THEY ARE TO PERFORM IN THE EVENT OF AN ATTACK.
THERE ARE ABOUT 140,000 DEPARTMENT EMPLOYES IN THE WASHINGTON AREA -- NEARLY 30,000 OF THEM WORKING IN THE PENTAGON, HUGE NERVE CENTER OF THE DEFENSE ESTABLISHMENT JUST ACROSS THE POTOMAC RIVER IN VIRGINIA.
THE DEPARTMENT SAID LOCATIONS OF THE "ALTERNATE HEADQUARTERS" WHICH HAVE BEEN SELECTED WILL REMAIN SECRET. LAST SUMMER THE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCED THAT A COMMUNICATIONS CENTER WOULD BE SET UP AT CAMP RITCHIE, MD., NEAR THE MARYLAND-PENNSYLVANIA BOUNDARY NORTH OF WASHINGTON.
SPECULATION HAS BEEN THAT WOULD BE A "SECOND PENTAGON," BUT MARSHALL'S MEMORANDUM TO DEPARTMENT EMPLOYES INDICATED OTHER SITES HAVE BEEN PICKED TOO.
"IN THE EVENT OF AN ATTACK WHICH MIGHT DESTROY OUR FACILITIES FOR

30.24-23057

OPERATING AT OUR PRESENT HEADQUARTERS," HE SAID, "WE MUST BE PREPARED TO OPERATE AT LOCATIONS REMOVED FROM WASHINGTON.

"IN THE EVENT OF AN ATTACK WHICH MIGHT DESTROY OUR FACILITIES FOR OPERATING AT OUR PRESENT HEADQUARTERS," HE SAID, "WE MUST BE PREPARED TO OPERATE AT LOCATIONS REMOVED FROM WASHINGTON.

"SUCH ALTERNATE LOCATIONS HAVE BEEN SELECTED.

"FOR A SHORT PERIOD FOLLOWING AN ATTACK, ONLY THE MOST VITAL FUNCTIONS WOULD BE PERFORMED AT SUCH ALTERNATE LOCATIONS. IT IS, HOWEVER, ESSENTIAL THAT OUR TOTAL FUNCTIONS BE RECONSTITUTED AS SOON AS POSSIBLE."

A SET OF INSTRUCTIONS ACCOMPANYING MARSHALL'S MEMO TOLD ALL DEFENSE PERSONNEL THEY SHOULD:

1. "HELP SAVE LIVES BY RENDERING AID TO OTHERS IN EVERY WAY POSSIBLE."
2. "AS SOON AS POSSIBLE, TRY TO REPORT TO YOUR REGULAR POST OF DUTY."
3. IF THE POST OF DUTY IS DESTROYED, REPORT WITHIN 48 HOURS TO ONE OF 20 ASSEMBLY POINTS IN WASHINGTON AND NEARBY MARYLAND AND VIRGINIA AREAS.

KOREAN CASUALTIES (300)

PHILADELPHIA, MAY 15-(AP)-THE ARMY MEDICAL CORPS IN THE KOREAN CONFLICT HAS MAINTAINED THE LOWEST DEATH RATE FROM WAR CASUALTIES EVER RECORDED IN MILITARY HOSPITALS, MAJOR GEM.GEORGE E.ARMSTRONG SAID TODAY.

GEN.ARMSTRONG, DEPUTY SURGEON GENERAL OF THE U.S.ARMY, APPEARED BEFORE THE PHILADELPHIA MEDICAL SERVICE RESERVE OFFICERS MEETING.

GEN.ARMSTRONG SAID "THE EVACUATION HOSPITAL IN PUSAN HOSPITALIZED MORE CASUALTIES IN THE EARLIER PHASE OF WAR THAN ANY OTHER HOSPITAL. WHEN IT WAS CONVERTED TO A STATION HOSPITAL ON DEC. 18, 1950, THE UNIT HAD ADMITTED 31,612 PATIENTS, OF WHOM ONLY 114 OR 36/100THS OF ONE PER CENT DIED OF BATTLE INJURIES."

THE GENERAL ATTRIBUTED THIS SUCCESS TO THE ABILITY OF THE ARMY TO TAKE SURGEONS SO FAR FORWARD THAT THEY CAN OPERATE UPON WOUNDED MEN AS SOON AS POSSIBLE AFTER INJURY.

"DESPITE THE FORBIDDING MOUNTAINOUS TERRAIN OF KOREA, CUT BY SOMETIMES IMPASSABLE RIVERS AND CHECKERED WITH RICE PADDIES FILLED WITH POLLUTED WATER, WOUNDED MEN ARE TAKEN TO HOSPITALS EXTREMELY QUICKLY," HE SAID.

"THE HELICOPTER HAS BEEN A GODSEND IN ALL OF THIS. BY ITS USE," SAID GENERAL ARMSTRONG, "WOUNDED MEN HAVE BEEN BROUGHT TO A HOSPITAL IN A MATTER OF MINUTES OR HOURS INSTEAD OF HOURS AND DAYS THAT WOULD HAVE BEEN NECESSARY IN PREVIOUS WARS. X X X NOTHING ANYWHERE APPROACHING THIS HAS EVER BEEN KNOWN IN MILITARY MEDICAL HISTORY HERETOFORE."

GEN.ARMSTRONG EMPHASIZED THAT THIS EXCEPTIONAL MEDICAL WORK HAS HELPED MAINTAIN THE MORALE OF OUR FIGHTING MEN.

"IT IS COMMONLY STATED," HE SAID, "AND ANY WOUNDED MAN IN ANY OF OUR HOSPITALS WILL BEAR OUT THE STATEMENT, THAT THE MOST ENCOURAGING THING IN THIS WAR IS THE KNOWLEDGE ON THE PART OF EACH RIFLEMAN AND EVERY OTHER SOLDIER, THAT IF HE BE WOUNDED BY THE ENEMY, HE WILL AT ONCE BE RESCUED AND WILL BE QUICKLY TAKEN TO A HOSPITAL AND RECEIVE ADEQUATE CARE AND CONSIDERATION.

"THIS FACTOR IS OF REAL IMPORTANCE IN MAINTAINING THE MORALE OF FIGHTING TROOPS."

CHICAGO,MAY 15-(AP)-THE U.S. AIR FORCE'S AIR DEFENSE COMMAND DEMONSTRATED ITS WARNING AND INTERCEPTOR SYSTEM TO NEWSMEN TODAY AT THEIR BASE AT O'HARE FIELD, NORTHWEST OF CHICAGO.

THE 142ND FIGHTER-INTERCEPTOR WING TOOK OVER THE AIR DEFENSE OF SEVERAL MIDWESTERN STATES MAY 1. THE WING INCLUDES THREE FIGHTER SQUADRONS -- THE 62ND, STATIONED AT O'HARE FIELD, THE 61ST, STATIONED AT DAYTON, O., AND A THIRD TO BE SET UP LATER. THE WING IS COMMANDED BY COL.FRED T.CRIMMINS.

THE AIR FORCE DECLINED TO SAY JUST WHAT MIDWESTERN STATES ARE INCLUDED UNDER ITS WING HERE.

THIS DEFENSE IS IN ACTUAL OPERATION -- NOT MERELY IN TRAINING. THE F-86 JET INTERCEPTOR PLANES WHICH FLY OVER CITIES OF THIS REGION ARE NOT ON TRAINING FLIGHTS -- THEY ARE ON PATROL. THEIR GUNS ARE LOADED AND READY TO FIRE.

JET FIGHTER PILOTS ARE ON THE ALERT AT THE AIR FIELD AT ALL TIMES. THEY CAN BE AIRBORNE WITHIN TWO MINUTES.

AIR FORCE OFFICERS EXPLAINED TO NEWSMEN THAT DESPITE WARNING AND DEFENSE PRECAUTIONS, IT MUST BE ASSUMED THAT AT LEAST A FEW OF A LARGE FORCE OF ENEMY PLANES WOULD PENETRATE TO THE TARGET AREA.

IN THIS AREA, THE ONLY LARGE-SCALE ENEMY ATTACK PROBABLY WOULD COME FROM THE NORTH, CAPT. JAMES MOUTH, ADJUTANT TO THE 142ND FIGHTER-INTERCEPTOR WING, SAID.

AN AIR WARNING SYSTEM EXTENDS TO THE NORTHERN BORDER OF THE UNITED STATES AND THROUGH CANADA. AN ENEMY PLANE OF THE SIZE OF OUR B-29 BOMBER WOULD REQUIRE SIX HOURS TO REACH THIS AREA FROM THE POINT WHERE THE FIRST WARNING IS RECEIVED, THE AIR FORCE ASSUMES. CANADIAN INTERCEPTOR PLANES WOULD TRY FIRST TO STOP THE ENEMY FORCE, AND WOULD KEEP THE U.S. AIRCRAFT SYSTEM ADVISED OF THE PLANES' PROGRESS.

THE 142ND WING TOOK NEWSMEN ON A FLIGHT OVER LAKE MICHIGAN TO DEMONSTRATE HOW UNIDENTIFIED PLANES ARE SPOTTED, KEPT UNDER CONSTANT SURVEILLANCE, AND INTERCEPTED.

(WX) CINCINNATI,OHIO,MAY 15-(AP)-ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE C.MCGHEE SAID TODAY THE UNITED STATES MUST SHOW THE PEOPLE IN SOUTH ASIA THE NEED TO RESIST FALSE PROMISES OF THE COMMUNISTS IF THEY WOULD MAINTAIN THEIR INDEPENDENCE.

MCGHEE RUNS SOUTH ASIAN POLICY IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT. HE DESCRIBED INDIA, AMONG OTHERS, AS A NATION GOVERNED BY MEN DETERMINED TO PRESERVE THEIR COUNTRY'S INDEPENDENCE. HE ADDED THAT INDIA IS AT THE SAME TIME SEEKING TO PURSUE PEACE "THROUGH AN INDEPENDENT APPROACH TO EACH CONTROVERSIAL ISSUE."

HE CONCEDED THAT THERE ARE "APPARENT IMPORTANT DIFFERENCES OF VIEW" BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND INDIA BUT SAID THESE ARE "DIFFERENCES NOT OF MAJOR OBJECTIVES--PEACE, NATIONAL INDEPENDENCE AND THAT LIKE-- BUT OF METHOD ONLY."

MCGHEE PREDICTED THAT THE CONGRESS WILL ACT "ANY DAY" ON PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S REQUEST FOR AUTHORITY TO FURNISH TWO MILLION TONS OF GRAIN TO INDIA "TO AVERT THE WIDESPREAD FAMINE."

SPEAKING BEFORE THE CINCINNATI COUNCIL ON WORLD AFFAIRS, THE STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL ENDORSED THE PRINCIPLE OF GIVING "THE ASIAN PEOPLE A GREATER VOICE IN WORLD AFFAIRS" BUT REJECTED THE IDEA, WHICH

THE INDIANS AMONG OTHERS HAVE ADVOCATED, OF ADMITTING COMMUNIST CHINA TO THE U. N.:

"WE ARE NOT GOING TO LET ANY COUNTRY--ASIAN OR NON-ASIAN--SHOOT ITS WAY INTO INTERNATIONAL COUNCILS, NOR ARE WE WILLING TO EXTEND MEMBERSHIP THEREIN AS A REWARD FOR AGGRESSION."

PRECEDE CONCORD DAY

PORTSMOUTH, N.H., MAY 15-(AP)-NAVY INTELLIGENCE AND THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION ARE INVESTIGATING AMERICAN LEGION ASSERTIONS THAT A COMMUNIST CELL CAPABLE OF SABOTAGE IS OPERATING AT THE PORTSMOUTH NAVAL SUBMARINE SHIPYARD.

THE NAVY MADE THIS ANNOUNCEMENT AT BOSTON TODAY. AT THE SAME TIME SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH) SAID HE HAS ASKED THE HOUSE UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE TO INQUIRE INTO THE CHARGES.

THE CHARGE OF COMMUNIST ACTIVITY WAS VOICED BY FRANK SAWYER, ADJUTANT OF THE NEW HAMPSHIRE AMERICAN LEGION, WHO SAID "WE ARE CONVINCED THAT A SUFFICIENT AMOUNT OF EVIDENCE EXISTS TO WARRANT A THOROUGH INVESTIGATION." HE ADDED THAT THE LEGION HAD PASSED ON ITS FINDINGS TO SENATOR BRIDGES AFTER INVESTIGATING SINCE OCTOBER.

THE MAINE AMERICAN LEGION JOINED ITS NEW HAMPSHIRE BROTHERS IN RECOMMENDING AN INQUIRY.

BRIDGES DISCLOSED THAT HE ASKED NAVY SECRETARY JOHN L.SULLIVAN TO INVESTIGATE COMMUNIST ACTIVITY AT THE YARD IN 1947 BUT NEVER HEARD ANY MORE ABOUT IT. SULLIVAN HAS SINCE RESIGNED.

BERT TEAGUE, ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT TO THE SENATOR, SAID A HOUSE UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES SPOKESMAN TOLD BRIDGES A WEEK AGO THAT A COMMITTEE INVESTIGATOR WOULD BE SENT TO PORTSMOUTH IN "THE IMMEDIATE FUTURE." NO FURTHER WORD HAS COME FROM THE COMMITTEE, HE SAID.

TEAGUE ADDED THAT BRIDGES ALSO ASKED THE FBI FOR A THOROUGH INVESTIGATION OF THE YARD.

THE YARD IS ON THE BORDER BETWEEN NEW HAMPSHIRE AND MAINE. IT BUILDS AND RECONDITIONS SUBMARINES, AND WAS A BEEHIVE DURING THE LAST WAR.

SAWYER TOLD BRIDGES, ACCORDING TO TEAGUE, THAT HE KNOWS OF SEVERAL WORKERS AT THE YARD WHO HAVE "SUBSTANTIAL INFORMATION BUT ARE UNWILLING TO TESTIFY."

FROM THE YARD ITSELF THERE WAS ONLY A SINGLE TERSE COMMENT, FROM COMDR. JOHN B.DUDLEY, U.S.N., OPERATIONS OFFICER, WHO SAID ONLY: "THIS IS THE FIRST I'VE HEARD OF IT."

(550) NIGHT LEAD MARSHALL DAY

BY JOHN DAFFRON

LEXINGTON, VA., MAY 15-(AP)-ELDER STATESMAN BERNARD M. BARUCH HAILED DEFENSE SECRETARY MARSHALL RODAY AS THE AUTHOR OF THE GLOBAL STRATEGY WHICH SAVED THE FREE WORLD ONCE AND CAN SAVE IT AGAIN.

BARUCH WAS THE SPEAKER AT FULL-DRESS MILITARY CEREMONIES HONORING THE 70-YEAR-OLD SOLDIER STATESMAN WHOSE MILITARY CAREER OF MORE THAN HALF A CENTURY BEGAN HERE AT VIRGINIA MILITARY INSTITUTE IN 1897.

IT WAS OFFICIALLY MARSHALL DAY AT THE INSTITUTE AND THE DAY WAS MAINLY MARSHALL. FIFTEEN OF HIS CLASSMATES OF THE CLASS OF '01 WERE IN THE BRASS-SPRINKLED CROWD OF SOME 8,000 THAT TURNED OUT IN HIS HONOR.

AND THE OLD CLASSMATES OFFERED HIM "A DELIGHTFUL RESPITE" AT A REUNION DINNER LAST NIGHT FROM THE BIG DEBATE ON MILITARY POLICY NOW GOING ON IN WASHINGTON, MARSHALL SAID.

BARUCH'S TRIBUTE TO MARSHALL IN A SPEECH DEDICATING A BARRACKS ENTRANCE AS THE GEORGE C.MARSHALL ARCH WAS THE CLIMACTIC HONOR TO A SERIES GIVEN VMI'S MOST DISTINGUISHED ALUMNUS.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN MESSAGED HIS TRIBUTE TO THE DEFENSE SECRETARY.

"ONCE AGAIN OUR NATION LOOKS TO HIM FOR LEADERSHIP AND GUIDANCE IN THE STRUGGLE BETWEEN FREE MEN AND THOSE WHO WOULD SNUFF OUT FREEDOM," MR.TRUMAN SAID. "...I CONSIDER IT A HIGH PRIVILEGE TO PAY MY PERSONAL RESPECTS AND MY HUMBLE TRIBUTE TO A TRULY GREAT AMERICAN, GEORGE CATLETT MARSHALL--AN INSPIRATIONAL LEADER WHO DESERVES THE THANKS AND APPRECIATION OF ALL AMERICA AND THE NATIONS OF THE FREE WORLD FOR HIS LIFE OF UNSELFISH DEDICATION TO THE BEST INTERESTS OF HUMANITY."

VIRGINIA'S GOVERNMENT ALSO HAD AN HONOR TO BESTOW ON MARSHALL. GOVERNOR JOHN S.BATTLE PLACED THE STATE'S DISTINGUISHED SERVICE MEDAL ON A RIBBON AROUND MARSHALL'S NECK BEFORE THE 750-MEMBER CADET CORPS IN FULL DRESS PARADE FORMATION.

THE BIG DEBATE OVER THE NATION'S DEFENSE POLICY THAT FOUND ITS VIEWS IN THE FIRING OF GENERAL MACARTHUR WAS BROUGHT UP BY BARUCH DURING HIS WARM TRIBUTE TO HIS FRIEND OF 30 YEARS. AND WHILE UPHOLDING MARSHALL'S CONCEPT OF OVERALL GLOBAL STRATEGY TO CONTAIN COMMUNISM, BARUCH HAD UNDERSTANDING FOR THE MACARTHUR POINT OF VIEW.

"I WONDER HOW MUCH OF THE CONTROVERSY IN RECENT DAYS IS REALLY A REFLECTION ON THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE LEADER OF TROOPS AND THE ORGANIZER?" BARUCH SAID. "A GREAT LEADER OF TROOPS NATURALLY IS ZEALOUS...WHEN HIS MEN BECOME LOCKED IN BATTLE, THAT EVERY RESOURCE BE MARSHALLED WHICH MIGHT INCREASE THE CHANCE OF THEIR WINNING OR OF DECREASING THEIR LOSSES. THE VERY QUALITIES WHICH MADE HIM SO VALIANT A LEADER OF TROOPS WOULD MAKE HIM IMPATIENT OF ANY LIMITATIONS OF HIS ACTION.

"BUT THE ORGANIZER HAS TO THINK NOT ONLY OF THE MAN FIGHTING ON THE ONE FRONT BUT OF ALL THE FRONTS OF WAR AND DEFENSE. HE MUST WEIGH EACH THEATER AND ITS RELATIVE IMPORTANCE UPON THE SCALES OF GLOBE-FLUNG STRATEGY."

BARUCH SAID THAT REGARDLESS OF THE DEMANDS OF THE COMMANDERS ABROAD A MAN IN MARSHALL'S POSITION COULD ALLOCATE ONLY THE WEAPONS HE HAD BEEN PERMITTED TO PROCURE AND THE MEN HE HAD BEEN PERMITTED BY LAW TO DRAFT AND TRAIN.

HE WANTED TO ADVANCE ONE THOUGHT OF HIS OWN, BARUCH SAID, IN CONNECTION WITH THE CURRENT CONTROVERSY ON FAR EASTERN POLICY. THAT THOUGHT WAS THAT MUCH OF OUR TROUBLE IS THE RESULT OF MILITARY WEAKNESS. ACCORDINGLY, HE ADDED:

"IN OUR PRESENT SITUATION WHATEVER IS ATTEMPTED ON BEHALF OF PEACE MUST FALL SHORT BECAUSE OF A LACK OF SUPPORTING MILITARY STRENGTH.

"WE ARE TRYING TO ENFORCE A GLOBAL DOCTRINE OF OPPOSITION TO COMMUNISM WITH A MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT WHICH IS SORELY STRAINED BY THE DEMANDS OF ONLY ONE THEATER."

(ADVANCE FOR USE AT 12:15 P.M., EASTERN STANDARD TIME, TODAY, TUESDAY, MAY 15)
(ADVANCE)(NY) LEXINGTON, VA., MAY 15-(AP)-BERNARD M.BARUCH TODAY UPHELD THE CONCEPT OF GLOBAL DEFENSE AGAINST COMMUNISM AND HAILED SECRETARY OF DEFENSE GEORGE C. MARSHALL AS "HISTORY'S FIRST GLOBAL STRATEGIST."
IN HIS FIRST FORMAL COMMENT ON THE CONTROVERSY STIRRED UP BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S FIRING OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR, THE ELDER STATESMAN CALLED FOR A HUGE INCREASE IN THE MILITARY STRENGTH OF THE UNITED STATES AND HER ALLIES IN ORDER TO ENSURE SUCCESS IN A GLOBAL DEFENSE PROGRAM.
BARUCH DID NOT MENTION MACARTHUR BY NAME, BUT IN A SPEECH PREPARED FOR DELIVERY ON "GEORGE CATLETT MARSHALL DAY" AT VIRGINIA MILITARY INSTITUTE, HE SAID:
"I WONDER HOW MUCH OF THE CONTROVERSY IN RECENT DAYS IS REALLY A REFLECTION OF THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE LEADER OF TROOPS AND THE ORGANIZER.
"A GREAT LEADER OF TROOPS NATURALLY IS ZEALOUS IN DESIRING THAT WHEN HIS MEN BECOME LOCKED IN BATTLE THAT EVERY RESOURCE BE MARSHALLED WHICH MIGHT INCREASE THE CHANCE OF THEIR WINNING OR DECREASING THEIR LOSSES. THE VERY QUALITIES WHICH MADE HIM SO VALIANT A LEADER OF TROOPS WOULD MAKE HIM IMPATIENT OF ANY LIMITATIONS ON HIS ACTION."
AN ARCH WAS TO BE DEDICATED TO MARSHALL, A VMI GRADUATE, AT THE CEREMONY HONORING THE U.S.SECRETARY OF DEFENSE.
BARUCH, A PRESIDENTIAL ADVISER IN TWO WORLD WARS, HAS DIFFERED WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN OF LATE.
BARUCH SAID IN HIS ADDRESS THAT HE PUT THE CONCEPT OF GLOBAL DEFENSE, WHICH "SAVED THE FREE WORLD ONCE AND WHICH CAN SAVE IT AGAIN,"
-£3-$ 9! -,6 95£34

DEFENSE, WHICH "SAVED THE FREE WORLD ONCE AND WHICH CAN SAVE IT AGAIN," AHEAD OF ANY OTHER CONSIDERATION IN U.S. POLICY PLANNING.
BUT BARUCH SAID THAT GLOBAL DEFENSE COULD SUCCEED ONLY BY A TREMDNDOUS INCREASE IN THE MILITARY STRENGTH OF THE UNITED STATES AND THE REST OF THE FREE WORLD.

A73
"MANY ISSUES HAVE BECOME INVOLVED IN THE RAGING CONTROVERSY OVER FAR EASTERN POLICY," BARUCH SAID. "I WOULD NOT WANT TO SEEM TO BE ANSWERING OR DISMISSING THEM. STILL, I WOULD LIKE TO PUT FORWARD THIS ONE THOUGHT OF MY OWN MUCH OF OUR TROUBLE IS THE RESULT OF MILITARY WEAKNESS.
"IN OUR PRESENT SITUATION, WHATEVER IS ATTEMPTED ON BEHALF OF PEACE, MUST FALL SHORT, BECAUSE OF A LACK OF SUPPORTING MILITARY STRENGTH.
"WE ARE TRYING TO ENFORCE A GLOBAL DOCTRINE OF OPPOSITION TO COMMUNISM WITH A MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT WHICH IS SORELY STRAINED BY THE DEMANDS OF ONLY ONE THEATER.
"MANY OF THE ISSUES--AND CHOICES--RAISED BY THE CONTROVERSY WOULD SOLVE THEMSELVES IF MORE OF AMERICA'S STRENGTH WERE MOBILIZED. UNTIL WE HAVE MOBILIZED, FEW IF ANY OF THE ISSUES WHICH HAVE BEEN RAISED CAN REALLY BE SOLVED.
"THERE IS STRENGTH IN UNITY. BUT THERE IS ALSO UNITY IN STRENGTH. WE--OUR ALLIES AS WELL AS THIS COUNTRY--MUST FIRST GROW STRONGER MILITARILY BEFORE WE CAN HAVE A UNIFIED FOREIGN POLICY."
BARUCH SAID THAT TODAY IN KORREA YOUNG MEN ARE BUYING THE TIME FOR THE WHOLE FREE WORLD TO REARM. HE SAID THIS IS A TIME TO ASK WHETHER WE ARE DOING AS MUCH AS WE CAN AS QUICKLY AS WE CAN. THEN HE ANSWERED THE QUESTION:
"I WOULD BE LESS THAN FRANK IF I DID NOT SAY I DO NOT BELIEVE THAT WE, AS A NATION, OR OUR ALLIES, ARE DOING ENOUGH. I MIGHT ADD THAT EVEN IF THE FIGHTING IN KOREA IS BROUGHT TO AN END, AS WE ALL HOPE, THE NEED TO REARM WOULD REMAIN."
BARUCH SAID MARSHALL, AS HISTORY'S FIRST GLOBAL STRATEGIST, WAS CALLED UPON TO ORGANIZE THE MOST STUPENDOUS MILITARY EFFORT MAN HAS EVER KNOWN, AND WHICH WAS CLIMAXED IN THE AMPHIBIOUS LANDINGS IN NORMANDY AND THE PHILIPPINES IN THE PACIFIC. BARUCH ADDED:
"TODAY, AS SECRETARY OF DEFENSE, GEORGE MARSHALL, PERHAPS UNDER EVEN MORE DIFFICULT CONDITIONS, IS CALLED UPON TO DEVISE THE GLOBAL STRATEGY WHICH WILL BRING US VICTORY IN THE PEACEMAKING, AND AVOID THE NEED FOR ANY AMPHIBIOUS LANDINGS ON HOSTILE SHORES."
BARUCH SAW MARSHALL IN THE ROLE OF ORGANIZER, AS OPPOSED TO TROOP COMMANDER. HE SAID THE ORGANIZER "HAS TO THINK NOT ONLY OF THE MEN FIGHTING ON THE ONE FRONT, BUT OF ALL THE FRONTS OF WAR AND DEFENSE. HE MUST WEIGH EACH THEATER, AND ITS RELATIVE IMPORTANCE UPON THE SCALES OF GLOBE-FLUNG STRATEGY. WHERE TO CONCENTRATE OUR FORCES AND WHERE TO HOLD? WILL ACTION IN ONE PART OF THE WORLD INVITE A COUNTER-BLOW SOMEWHERE ELSE? WHAT OF OUR ALLIES? ARE THEY PREPARED, OR DO THEY NEED TIME TO READY THEIR DEFENSES? BY HOW MUCH CAN THEY BE HURRIED?
"AND WHAT OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE? HOW QUICKLY CAN THEIR STRENGTH BE MOBILIZED. BY HOW MUCH CAN THEY BE HURRIED?
"LIKE THOSE OF THE TROOP COMMANDER, THE DECISIONS OF THE ORGANIZER ARE WEIGHTED IN LIVES; LIKE THE TROOP COMMANDER, THE ORGANIZER ALSO LABORS UNDER INHIBITIONS.
"WHATEVER THE DEMANDS FROM THE COMMANDS ABROAD, THE ORGANIZER CAN ALLOCATE ONLY THE WEAPONS HE HAS BEEN PERMITTED TO PROCURE. HE CAN DRAFT AND TRAIN ONLY THE MEN PERMITTED UNDER THE LAW. WHEN THE COMMANDER IN THE FIELD ASKS HOW FAR HE IS PERMITTED TO GO, THE ORGANIZER MUST DECIDE FIRST WHETHER THE TROOPS AND EQUIPMENT WILL BE AVAILABLE TO SEE THE OFFENSIVE THROUGH, WITHOUT JEOPARDIZING OTHER AREAS. AND IF THE ORGANIZER, LOOKING INTO THE FUTURE A YEAR, OR TWO OR THREE AHEAD, ASKS FOR WHAT HE THINKS WILL BE NEEDED AND IS TURNED DOWN--WHAT DOES HE DO?"

(ADVANCE FOR USE AT 8 P.M. E.S.T. TONIGHT TUESDAY, MAY 15)

(ADVANCE) NEW YORK, MAY 15-(AP)-SIR GLADWYN JEBB DEFENDED BRITISH FAR EAST POLICY TODAY AGAINST AMERICAN CRITICISM. HE PLEDGED THAT, DESPITE DIFFERENCES, "GREAT BRITAIN IS WHOLEHEARTEDLY WITH THE UNITED STATES IN THE GENERAL STRUGGLE AGAINST COMMUNIST-INSPIRED AGGRESSION."

WITHOUT MENTIONING EITHER PRESIDENT TRUMAN OR GENERAL MACARTHUR BY NAME, HE ALSO PRAISED TRUMAN'S POLICY OF A "LIMITED WAR" IN KOREA AS TAKING "MORE GUTS" THAN THE POLICY OF EXPANDING THE CONFLICT TO CHINA.

JEBB'S SPEECH, TO THE NEW YORK CITY BAR ASSOCIATION AND BILLED AS A MAJOR POLICY ADDRESS, WAS ONE OF THE MOST FORTHRIGHT EXPOSITION OF BRITISH VIEWS SINCE THE "GREATEST DEBATE" BEGAN FOLLOWING THE OUSTER OF GENERAL MACARTHUR.

THE BRITISH DELEGATE TO THE U.N. SAID HIS GOVERNMENT WOULD NOT SUPPORT A TOTAL EMBARGO ON TRADE WITH RED CHINA BECAUSE IT WOULD BE "CUTTING OFF YOUR NOSE TO SPITE YOUR FACE" AND THAT IT WOULD KEEP THE PORT OF HONG KONG OPEN TO SUCH TRADE.

HE SAID BRITISH RECOGNITION OF THE CHINESE REDS WAS NOT A MORAL JUDGMENT BUT RECOGNITION THAT THEY CONTROL THE MAINLAND. HE SAID, HOWEVER, THAT BRITAIN WOULD NOT SUPPORT PEIPING'S BID FOR ADMISSION INTO THE U.N. UNTIL PEIPING ENDS ITS AGGRESSION IN KOREA.

HE DEPLORED DESCRIBING BRITISH TROOPS IN KOREA AS A "TOKEN FORCE," AS GEN. MACARTHUR DID. AND SAID SUCH AN ATTITUDE WAS "THE REVERSE OF GENEROUS."

HE DENOUNCED WHAT HE CALLED "GROSSLY EXAGGERATED ACCOUNTS OF OUR TRADE WITH CHINA" WHICH HE SAID WERE SPREAD IN THIS COUNTRY BY "OUR ILL WISHERS."

JEBB THEN OUTLINED A FOUR-POINT POLICY WHICH HE URGED BRITAIN AND AMERICA TO FOLLOW JOINTLY TO PROSECUTE THE KOREAN WAR AND AVOID WORLD WAR III. IT WAS:

1. "WE SHOULD NOT TAKE ANY ACTION WHICH CONCEIVABLY MIGHT RESULT IN A QUICK ENDING OF THE WAR X X X, BUT WHICH MIGHT EQUALLY WELL, IF NOT MORE PROBABLY, RESULT X X X IN A WIDE EXTENSION OF THE CONFLICT.

2. "X X X A WORLD WAR, EVEN THOUGH IT MAY BE FORCED UPON US, SHOULD NOT BE ALLOWED TO OCCUR THROUGH ANY DELIBERATE ACTION ON OUR PART."

3. "X X X THE WORD APPEASEMENT SHOULD BE AVOIDED X X X SINCE IT CAN BE INTERPRETED AS EXCLUDING ANY KIND OF NEGOTIATIONS--EVEN FOR A CEASE FIRE."

A43

4. "X X X WE SHOULD, BY RESOLUTE AND DETERMINED ACTION IN KOREA, SEEK TO BRING THE CHINESE TO A CONFERENCE TABLE AT WHICH, FIRST OF ALL, A KOREAN SETTLEMENT, IN HARMONY WITH THE DECLARED PRINCIPLES OF THE UNITED NATIONS AND INVOLVING THE WITHDRAWAL OF ALL NON-KOREAN TROOPS, WILL BE NEGOTIATED AND, THIS HAVING BEEN DONE, OTHER SUBJECTS OF OBVIOUS INTEREST TO THE CHINESE WILL AT LEAST BE DEBATED. X X X EVEN IF MY GOVERNMENT AND YOURS WERE NOT PREPARED FOR SUCH A DEBATE, WE COULD NOT PREVENT ITS TAKING PLACE IN THE UNITED NATIONS."

THE FOURTH POINT WAS AN OBVIOUS EXPRESSION OF WILLINGNESS AT LEAST TO DISCUSS THE FUTURE OF FORMOSA AT SUCH A CONFERENCE.

IF THIS POLICY DID NOT BRING THE CHINESE TO TERMS, HE SAID, "GREATER SACRIFICES ON THE PART OF ALL LOYAL MEMBERS OF THE UNITED NATIONS MIGHT BE REQUIRED."

"IT IS NOT EQUITABLE," JEBB DECLARED, "THAT THE UNITED STATES X X X SHOULD BE EXPECTED TO BEAR INDEFINITELY THE SHARE OF THE BURDEN THAT IT IS AT PRESENT BEARING IN KOREA."

EXPANDING HIS ANSWERS TO AMERICAN CRITICISMS OF BRITAIN IN THE FAR EAST, JEBB:

1. SAID BRITISH TROOPS WERE MAKING A "VERY MATERIAL CONTRIBUTION IN KOREA." MOREOVER, A MUCH LARGER FORCE WAS FIGHTING COMMUNISM IN MALAYA AND STRONG FORCES WERE ON GUARD IN THE MIDDLE EAST AND GERMANY.

2. DENOUNCED "GROSSLY EXAGGERATED ACCOUNTS OF OUR TRADE WITH CHINA DISSEMINATED BY X X X OUR ILL-WISHERS." HE SAID BRITAIN CUT OFF SHIPMENTS OF ALL STRATEGIC GOODS TO RED CHINA AFTER THE KOREAN WAR BROKE OUT EXCEPT FOR RUBBER. HE SAID WHEN IT BECAME APPARENT THAT THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS WERE BUYING MORE RUBBER THAN THE NORMAL CIVILIAN NEEDS WARRANTED, THAT TOO WAS CUT OFF.

3. DENIED BRITAIN SUBORDINATED ITS EFFORT IN KOREA TO THE COMMERCIAL INTERESTS OF HONG KONG. HE SAID "IT WOULD BE LUDICROUS TO SUGGEST THAT, WHEN THE WHOLE EXISTENCE OF THE WESTERN WORLD IS AT STAKE, WE SHOULD GIVE PRIORITY TO SUCH COMMERCIAL INTERESTS."

HE SAID CLOSING THE PORT WOULD STARVE THE 2,500,000 INHABITANTS OF HONG KONG, CUT OFF CERTAIN VALUABLE IMPORTS FROM CHINA, DESTROY A VALUABLE WESTERN OUTPOST IN THE ORIENT, AND FREE CHINESE COMMUNIST TROOPS--WHO ARE DEPLOYED WATCHING THE CITY--FOR SERVICE IN KOREA.

4. DEFENDED BRITISH RECOGNITION OF COMMUNIST CHINA. HE SAID THAT RECOGNITION INVOLVED NO MORAL JUDGEMENT BUT WAS MERELY RECOGNITION THAT THE PEIPING REGIME CONTROLS THE MAINLAND OF CHINA.

NEW YORK, MAY 15-(AP)-A NEW AMERICAN PLAN FOR SETTLING THE FIGHTING BETWEEN SYRIA AND ISRAEL WAS REVEALED AT THE UNITED NATIONS TODAY.
IT CALLS ON BOTH COUNTRIES TO WITHDRAW THEIR ARMED FORCES FROM THE DEMILITARIZED ZONE AT THE BORDER, AND TELLS BOTH SIDES TO SETTLE THEIR DIFFERENCES BEFORE THE MIXED ARMISTICE COMMISSION WHICH IS ON THE SCENE.
IN ORDER TO STRENGTHEN THE HAND OF MAJ. GEN. WILLIAM RILEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMISSION, IT SPECIFICALLY THROWS THE PRESTIGE AND AUTHORITY OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL DIRECTLY BEHIND HIM.
THE PLAN, WHICH IS EXPECTED TO BE APPROVED BY THE SECURITY COUNCIL TOMORROW, IS ANOTHER EFFORT TO HANDLE THE PALESTINE PROBLEM THROUGH ORGANS WHICH THE U.N. HAS ALREADY SET UP TO DEAL WITH IT. THE RESOLUTION WAS ORIGINALLY SCHEDULED FOR DEBATE TODAY, BUT THE COUNCIL MEETING WAS POSTPONED TO ALLOW TIME FOR TECHNICAL DRAFTING PROBLEMS TO BE SOLVED.
BRITISH AND AMERICAN SPOKESMEN HAVE REPEATEDLY EXPRESSED IRRITATION AT ISRAEL AND THE ARAB COUNTRIES FOR RUNNING TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL WITH CHARGES AND COUNTER CHARGES AGAINST EACH OTHER.

NEW YORK, MAY 15-(AP)-THE NEW YORK TIMES IN A DISPATCH FROM PARIS LAST NIGHT SAID MORE THAN 1,500 POLES REPORTEDLY HAVE BEEN QUESTIONED BY SECURITY POLICE IN STETTIN IN THE PAST MONTH AS PARTICIPANTS IN A RIOT FOLLOWING THE FATAL SHOOTING OF FIVE POLES ON APRIL 9 BY A RUSSIAN MAJOR.
THE DISPATCH SAID AN ENRAGED MOB, WHICH GATHERED AFTER THE SHOOTING, WAS REPORTED TO HAVE SLAIN FOUR POLISH POLICE BECAUSE THEY MADE NO ATTEMPT TO CAPTURE THE UNIDENTIFIED RUSSIAN OFFICER.
THE POLISH PRESS HAS OMITTED ANY MENTION OF THE INCIDENT, WHICH HAS FANNED ANTI-SOVIET SENTIMENTS IN THE BALTIC PORT TO THE HIGHEST PITCH SINCE WORLD WAR II, THE DISPATCH SAID.
THE TIMES STORY GAVE THIS ACCOUNT OF THE INCIDENT:
THE RUSSIAN MAJOR, ARGUING WITH TWO POLES ON THE STREET, SUDDENLY PULLED A PISTOL AND SHOT BOTH OF THEM. HE THEN RAN WILDLY DOWN THE STREET, KILLING A DOCTOR COMING OUT OF A BUILDING, AND A WOMAN BYSTANDER.
THE MAJOR THEN HID IN A CELLAR AND LATER SHOT A POLISH MILITIAMAN WHO APPEARED ON THE SCENE.9
A CROWD OF POLES, ATTRACTED BY THE SHOTS, DEMANDED THAT THE POLICE GO IN AND GET THE MAJOR. WHEN THE POLICE FAILED TO DO SO, A RIOT FLARED AND FOUR POLICE WERE KILLED BY THE MOB.
FINALLY, ANOTHER RUSSIAN OFFICER AND SQUAD MEN APPEARED ON THE SCENE AND ESCORTED THE MAJOR AWAY.
THE NEXT DAY ALL THE DEAD WERE BURIED WITHOUT THEIR NEXT OF KIN BEING NOTIFIED.
THE SAME DAY A SOVIET INQUIRY BOARD REPORTEDLY INVESTIGATED THE INCIDENT, AND SINCE THEN THE SECURITY POLICE HAVE BEEN MAKING THEIR ARRESTS. THE TIMES INFORMANT SAID IT WAS NOT KNOWN HOW MANY OF THOSE ARRESTED STILL WERE HELD.
STETTIN FORMS PART OF ONE OF THE SOVIET SUPPLY LINES IN GERMANY. NORMALLY, A COUPLE OF HUNDRED SOVIET TRANSPORTATION TROOPS ARE STATIONED THERE.

BY FRANCIS W.CARPENTER
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., MAY 15-(AP)-FRANCE MOVED TODAY TO BROADEN THE PROJECTED WORLD WIDE UNITED NATIONS EMBARGO AGAINST WAR MATERIALS FOR COMMUNIST CHINA TO INCLUDE TRANSPORTATION MATERIALS, SUCH AS LOCOMOTIVES AND STEEL RAILS.
FRENCH DELEGATE FRANCIS LACOSTE TOSSED IN THE PROPOSAL. ONE AIM APPARENTLY IS TO PREVENT THE SHIPMENT OF STEEL RAILS AND OTHER SUPPLIES FROM WEST GERMANY TO PEIPING.
THESE SUPPLIES WOULD BE WRAPPED UP WITHIN THE EMBARGO ON ARMS, AMMUNITION, WAR MATERIALS AND SUPPLIES FOR MAKING WAR MATERIALS WHICH WAS APPROVED YESTERDAY BY AN 11 TO 0 VOTE OF A U.N. SANCTIONS COMMITTEE.
BRITAIN, AUSTRALIA, VENEZUELA AND THE UNITED STATES AGREED TO CO-SPONSOR THE FRENCH AMENDMENT TO THE ORIGINAL EMBARGO RESOLUTION.

THE SOVIET BLOC, HEADED BY DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER JACOB A.MALIK, IS CERTAIN TO BLAST THE UNITED STATES AND UNITED NATIONS POLICIES TOWARD RED CHINA AND THE KOREAN WAR IN DEBATE IN THE POLITICAL COMMITTEE OF THE U.N. GENERAL ASSEMBLY, CALLED TO MEET AT 9:30 A.M. E.S.T. THURSDAY.

THAT IS STANDARD PROCEDURE FOR MALIK. BUT THERE ARE REPORTS FROM RELIABLE QUARTERS THAT NATIONS USUALLY CONSIDERED FRIENDLY TO THE UNITED STATES AND THE WESTERN POWERS MAY HAVE SOMETHING TO SAY ABOUT TESTIMONY WHICH HAS BEEN GIVEN ON THE U.N. BEFORE THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES IN WASHINGTON.

TESTIMONY CONCERNING THE AMOUNT OF OUTSIDE AID GOING TO COMMUNIST CHINA WAS SAID IN DIPLOMATIC CIRCLES HERE TO HAVE BEEN A MAJOR FACTOR IN OVERCOMING BRITISH AND FRENCH RESISTANCE TO AN EMBARGO AT THIS TIME. THE BRITISH AND FRENCH HELD OUT AGAINST A RESOLUTION FOR WEEKS BUT SUDDENLY CHANGED THEIR MINDS LAST WEEK AND WELCOMED THE UNITED STATES PROPOSAL FOR AN EMBARGO.

SOME DELEGATES WERE REPORTED IRKED AT BARBS TOSSED AT THE U.N. IN THE WASHINGTON TESTIMONY. INFORMED SOURCES SAID THEY WERE CONSIDERING STATING THE U.N. CASE AGAIN FROM THE U.N. ROSTRUM, BUT NO DEFINITE PLANS WERE DISCLOSED AT THIS TIME.

THE 12-NATION ARAB AND ASIAN GROUP, HEADED BY SIR BENEGAL N.RAU OF INDIA AND MAHMOUD BEY FAWZI OF EGYPT, WAS REPORTED CONSULTING ON THE SITUATION.

FAWZI ABSTAINED IN THE SANCTIONS COMMITTEE VOTE ON THE RESOLUTION. IT IS KNOWN THAT HE FAVORS ANOTHER ATTEMPT TO PERSUADE COMMUNIST CHINA TO BEGIN TALKS ON A CEASE-FIRE AND A KOREAN SETTLEMENT BEFORE DRASTIC ACTION IS TAKEN. ALL SUCH MOVES HAVE BEEN FRUITLESS--AND UNLESS PEIPING CHANGES ITS ATTITUDE SUDDENLY THE EMBARGO IS EXPECTED TO BE APPROVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY EVENTUALLY BY A VOTE OF ABOUT 42 IN FAVOR, THE SOVIET BLOC AGAINST AND THE OTHERS ABSTAINING.

WASHINGTON, MAY 15-(AP)-CONGRESS CALLED ON THE UNITED NATIONS TODAY TO BAN SHIPMENT OF WAR GOODS TO COMMUNIST CHINA.

BY UNANIMOUS VOTE, BOTH SENATE AND HOUSE ADOPTED A RESOLUTION MAKING THE REQUEST TO THE U.N. GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

THE HOUSE ADOPTED ALSO A RESOLUTION SAYING THE COMMUNIST CHINESE GOVERNMENT SHOULD NOT BE ADMITTED TO MEMBERSHIP IN THE U.N. THIS ALSO WAS APPROVED BY UNANIMOUS VOICE VOTE.

THE RESOLUTION AGAINST SENDING WAR MATERIALS TO RED CHINA IS AIMED AT STRENGTHENING THE HAND OF THE UNITED STATES DELEGATION TO THE U.N.

THE DELEGATION IS TRYING TO GET THE U.N. GENERAL ASSEMBLY TO APPROVE AN EMBARGO.

THE RESOLUTION STATES THAT THE CONGRESS "REQUESTS AND URGES THAT THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE UNITED NATIONS TAKE ACTION LEADING TO THE PLACING OF AN EMBARGO ON THE SHIPMENT TO COMMUNIST CHINA OF ARMS, AMMUNITION AND ALL OTHER MATERIALS WHICH MIGHT ADD TO THE WAR-MAKING POTENTIAL OF COMMUNIST CHINA."

IT SAID "NO UNITED NATIONS SOLDIER SHOULD BE THE TARGET OF A BULLET MANUFACTURED IN THE FREE WORLD, OR REQUIRED TO FIGHT AGAINST TROOPS SUPPLIED WITH MATERIALS COMING FROM THE FREE WORLD."

A SIMILAR RESOLUTION WAS APPROVED EARLIER IN THE DAY BY THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE.

THE UNITED NATIONS SANCTIONS COMMITTEE VOTED YESTERDAY FOR AN EMBARGO ON SHIPMENTS OF ARMS AND WAR MATERIALS TO RED CHINA. THE PROPOSAL IS TO BE TAKEN UP THURSDAY BY THE 60-NATION POLITICAL COMMITTEE OF THE U.N.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

(NY) BY UNANIMOUS VOTE, BOTH THE HOUSE AND SENATE YESTERDAY (TUES) CALLED ON THE UNITED NATIONS TO BAN SHIPMENT OF WAR GOODS TO RED CHINA.

THE BAN WAS VOTED BY THE U.N. SANCTIONS COMMITTEE MONDAY AND IS EXPECTED TO WIN APPROVAL OF THE ASSEMBLY MEMBERSHIP THURSDAY, DESPITE CERTAIN OBJECTIONS FROM THE SOVIET BLOC.

THE HOUSE ALSO CALLED ON THE U.N. TO BAR THE PEIPING GOVERNMENT FROM U.N. MEMBERSHIP--AN ISSUE NOT UNDER CONSIDERATION AT THIS TIME.

SIR GLADWYN JEBB, CHIEF BRITISH DELEGATE TO THE U.N. SAID IN A SPEECH IN NEW YORK LAST NIGHT THAT HIS GOVERNMENT WOULD NOT SUPPORT COMMUNIST CHINA'S MEMBERSHIP UNTIL IT HALTED AGGRESSION IN CHINA.

HE PLEDGED THAT, DESPITE DIFFERENCES, "GREAT BRITAIN IS WHOLEHEARTEDLY WITH THE UNITED STATES IN THE GENERAL STRUGGLE AGAINST COMMUNIST-INSPIRED AGGRESSION."

FRANCE YESTERDAY PROPOSED TO THE SANCTIONS COMMITTEE THAT THE WAR GOODS EMBARGO INCLUDE SUCH ITEMS AS STEEL RAILS AND LOCOMOTIVES.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., MAY 15-(AP)-FRANCE PROPOSED TODAY A UNITED NATIONS EMBARGO ON SHIPPING TRANSPORTATION MATERIALS, SUCH AS LOCOMOTIVES AND STEEL RAILS, TO COMMUNIST CHINA.

THIS WOULD BE ADDED TO THE WAR MATERIALS AND SUPPLIES LISTED IN A STRATEGIC EMBARGO SCHEME APPROVED YESTERDAY BY A U.N. COMMITTEE.

INFORMED SOURCES SAID THE FRENCH SOUGHT TO PLUG SUCH GAPS AS APPEARED SOME WEEKS AGO WHEN PEIPING ORDERED STEEL RAILS FROM WESTERN GERMANY. WEST GERMAN FIRMS WERE NOT PERMITTED TO FULFIL THE ORDER, BUT THE FRENCH WANT TO SPELL OUT DIRECTLY THE EMBARGO ON TRANSPORTATION ITEMS. BRITAIN WAS REPORTED BACKING THE FRENCH.

THIRD NIGHT LEAD KOREAN WAR ROUNDUP

BY TOM STONE

TOKYO, THURSDAY, MAY 17-(AP)-MASSED CHINESE REDS SMASHED INTO ALLIED LINES IN CENTRAL AND EASTERN KOREAN TODAY IN THE OPENING BATTLE OF THE COMMUNISTS' SECOND SPRING OFFENSIVE.

THE FIRST THRUSTS RIPPED DEEP HOLES IN THE ALLIED POSITIONS IN THE MOUNTAINOUS EAST.

FIRST REPORTS WERE THAT THE REDS RIPPED DEEP HOLES IN ALLIED POSITIONS IN THE MOUNTAINOUS EAST. HOWEVER, OFFICERS INDICATED LATER THE GAPS WERE CLOSED ALTHOUGH THE ALLIED LINE WAS ROLLED BACK.

IN A THURSDAY MID-MORNING DISPATCH AP CORRESPONDENT JOHN RANDOLPH SAID OTHER REDS APPEARED TO BE MASSING IN A NO-MAN'S LAND IN WESTERN KOREA HALF-WAY BETWEEN SEOUL AND THE 38TH PARALLEL.

RED FORCES WERE CLOSING IN ON UIJONGBU, 11 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL, RANDOLPH SAID.

IN CENTRAL KOREA EARLY TODAY, A UNITED STATES COMPANY ON HIGH GROUND NEAR CHUNCHON CUT TO PIECES A CHINESE RED REGIMENT.

SPEARHEADED BY AN ESTIMATED 75,000 MEN IN AN OFFENSIVE FORCE BELIEVED TO TOTAL NEARLY 500,000, THE REDS FORCED A GENERAL WITHDRAWAL SOUTHWEST OF INJE. IT IS SOME 25 AIR MILES INLAND FROM THE EAST COAST AND 75 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

ALLIED ARTILLERY MOWED DOWN WAVES OF ATTACKING REDS. FIELD DISPATCHES, DELAYED BY CENSORS, REPORTED AN ESTIMATED 2,000 REDS WERE KILLED BY ARTILLERY ALONE DURING THE OPENING STAGES OF THE OFFENSIVE WEDNESDAY.

FIRST REPORTS ON THE OFFENSIVE TOLD ONLY OF WAVES OF RED FOOT SOLDIERS BUT MADE NO MENTION OF TANKS OR HEAVY ARTILLERY.

AT U. S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, THE ASSAULTS WERE DESCRIBED AS GENERAL FROM THE VICINITY OF KAPYONG, IN THE WEST-CENTRAL SECTOR, TO THE EAST COAST. KAPYONG IS 32 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

ONE SOUTH KOREAN DIVISION ON THE EAST COAST WAS FORCED BACK AN UNREPORTED DISTANCE. IT WAS THE FIRST ALLIED UNIT STRUCK IN FORCE AFTER A SERIES OF RED PROBING ATTACKS. THE ASSAULT SPREAD QUICKLY TO AMERICAN FORCES EAST AND SOUTHEAST OF CHUNCHON, MORE THAN 45 AIR MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

A117KX

THE 20-MILE MOUNTAINOUS STRETCH BETWEEN CHUNCHON NORTHEASTWARD TO INJE APPARENTLY WAS THE MAIN BATTLEGROUND.

AP CORRESPONDENT NATE POLOWETZKY, AT EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, REPORTED THE FIRST ASSAULTS WERE LAUNCHED BY RED UNITS RANGING IN SIZE FROM COMPANIES TO REGIMENTS.

"AT THE SAME TIME, COMMUNIST FORCES STRENGTHENED THEIR RESISTANCE TO ALLIED PATROLS IN THE AREA AROUND MUNSAN, SEOUL AND UIJONGBU ON THE WESTERN FRONT," POLOWETZKY REPORTED.

(MUNSAN IS 22 MILES NORTHWEST OF SEOUL; UIJONGBU 11 MILES NORTH.)

"SOUTH KOREAN FORCES ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT IN THE INJE AREA WERE HARDEST HIT AND FELL BACK VIRTUALLY ALONG THE ENTIRE FRONT.

"AMERICAN FORCES EAST AND SOUTHEAST OF CHUNCHON ALSO WERE HIT BY STRONG CHINESE COMMUNIST ATTACKS, BUT GENERALLY THE AMERICANS WERE HOLDING THEIR POSITIONS."

THE EIGHTH ARMY REPORTED THAT THE REDS, AT HEAVY COST, HAD MADE THREE PENETRATIONS SOUTHWEST OF INJE. RED CASUALTIES WEDNESDAY WERE ESTIMATED AT 3,555. TWENTY-THREE PRISONERS WERE TAKEN.

IN TOKYO, THE GENERAL HEADQUARTERS MID-MORNING COMMUNIQUE REPORTED ALLIED FORCES "EXECUTED LIMITED WITHDRAWALS AS ENEMY PRESSURE INCREASED.'

THE ATTACKS BEGAN WITH SIX PROBING THRUSTS AT 10 A. M. WEDNESDAY (7 P.M., EST, TUESDAY) THE ACTION SLACKENED AT 1:30 P.M. BUT AT NIGHTFALL THE REDS RENEWED THE ASSAULTS WITH INCREASING INTENSITY.

DRIZZLING RAINS AND A LOW OVERCAST HAMPERED ALLIED AIR SUPPORT OF GROUND TROOPS. BUT BOMBERS AND FIGHTERS MANAGED 500 SORTIES AGAINST RED SUPPLY LINES WEDNESDAY.

A BRIEFING OFFICER AT EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS SAID TODAY THE SOUTH KOREAN FORCES ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT "ARE FALLING BACK TO PREVIOUSLY DETERMINED POSITIONS."

"WE ARE IN GOOD SHAPE," HE SAID. "THERE IS NOTHING TO WORRY ABOUT."

THE BRIEFING OFFICER SAID THE BATTLE IN THAT SECTOR STILL RAGED.

THE REDS SMASHING INTO SOUTH KOREAN POSITIONS EAST AND NORTHEAST OF INJE PENETRATED THE LINE AT A POINT BETWEEN TWO ALLIED BATTALIONS. THAT ATTACK LATER WAS REPORTED CONTAINED.

IN THREE OTHER MAJOR OFFENSIVES, THE CHINESE AND KOREAN REDS HAVE PRECEDED THEIR MASSED INFANTRY ASSAULTS WITH PATROL THRUSTS SEEKING OUT SOUTH KOREAN UNITS.

A139KX

COLLAPSE OF SOUTH KOREAN DIVISIONS IN NORTH-CENTRAL KOREA LAST NOVEMBER FORCED THE EIGHTH ARMY INTO FULL RETREAT FROM CHINESE HORDES WHOSE ENTRY CREATED A NEW WAR IN KOREA.

SOUTHWEST OF INJE AND BELOW PARALLEL 38, TWO CHINESE ARMIES WERE REPORTED PRESSING INTO AMERICAN LINES EAST OF CHUNCHON. WAVES OF REDS ATTACKED WEDNESDAY NIGHT WITH HAND GRENADES, MORTARS AND AUTOMATIC WEAPONS.

AP CORRESPONDENT WILLIAM C. BARNARD REPORTED THAT A BATTALION WAITED UNTIL THE REDS APPROACHED WITHIN 50 YARDS AND THEN OPENED UP, "KILLING HUNDREDS."

BARNARD SAID THERE WERE TWO REPORTS OF THE REDS ALSO USING SELF-PROPELLED GUNS, BUT THIS WAS NOT CONFIRMED. BARNARD REPORTED THE INFANTRY ATTACKS WERE "QUITE GENERAL" AND IN FORCE.

"THESE COULD NOT BE REGARDED AS PROBING ATTACKS," SAID HIS CENSORED DISPATCH.

A FRONTLINE OFFICER SAID "IT LOOKS PRETTY BIG." LATER FIELD DISPATCHES DID NOT PRESENT A CLEAR PICTURE OF THE BATTLE BUT IT WAS EVIDENT THIS WAS THE HEAVIEST RED ATTACK SINCE THE APRIL 22 RED OFFENSIVE ENDED IN FAILURE.

A140KX

THAT OFFENSIVE FADED AWAY AFTER A 10-DAY EFFORT TO CRACK UNITED NATIONS LINES EXTENDING FROM A POINT SOME FOUR MILES NORTH OF SEOUL TO THE EAST COAST. THE ALLIES ROLLED WITH THE PUNCH AND INFLICTED AN ESTIMATED 75,000 CASUALTIES.

MAJ. GEN. WILLIAM HOGE, U. S. NINTH CORPS COMMANDER, WHO SAID WEDNES THE REDS PROBABLY WOULD HURL THE MAIN ATTACK WITHIN TWO DAYS WHEN THE MOON IS ALMOST FULL.

THE SPRING RAINS HELPED THE REDS AND HINDERED THE ALLIES. THE HEAVY EQUIPMENT AND ARMOR OF THE UNITED NATIONS FORCES ARE SLOWED ON THE MUDDY ROADS AND AIR SUPPORT IS LIMITED. BUT THE REDS, TRAVELING LIGHT, MOVE ALONG THE RIDGELINES AND FIND COVER BENEATH THE NEW SPRING FOLIAGE.

IF THE RED BLOWS EAST OF CHUNCHON ARE A FEINT, THE MAJOR ATTACK IS EXPECTED DOWN THE PUKHAN VALLEY SOUTHWEST OF CHUNCHON. THERE THE COMMUNISTS MIGHT TRY TO STORM ACROSS THE HAN RIVER AND PINCH OFF SEOUL FROM THE EAST.

SECOND LEAD KOREAN WAR ROUNDUP (150)

BY OLEN CLEMENTS

TOKYO,THURSDAY,MAY 17-(AP)-RED TROOPS POURED OUT OF THE HILLS IN ATTACKS ALL ALONG THE EASTERN FRONT OF KOREA WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

IT WAS TOO EARLY TO TELL WHETHER IT WAS THE START OF THE EXPECTED RED OFFENSIVE, OR NEW PROBING IN FORCE.

THEY STRUCK STRONG BLWS FROM CHUNCHON

THEY STRUCK STRONG BLOWS FROM CHUNCHON, 45 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL, EASTWARD TO THE SEA OF JAPAN.

THE ATTACKS CAME NOT LONG AFTER MAJ.GEN.WILLIAM HOGE, COMMANDER OF THE U.S. NINTH CORPS, PREDICTED THE RED OFFENSIVE WOULD OPEN FRIDAY. HOGE SAID HIS TROOPS WOULD WELCOME IT.

THE GENERAL SAID IF THE CHINESE FOLLOW THEIR "PREVIOUS PATTERN OF ATTACKING ON THE FULL MOON, THE BLOW SHOULD COME SOON. THE MOON COMES FULL ON THE 18TH OF THE MONTH. THAT GIVES HIM TWO DAYS."

(THE WORLD ALMANAC AND THE U.S. COAST AND GEODETIC SURVEY SAY YHE YILL MOON COMES NEXTIMONDAY.)

ALLIED INTELLIGENCE OFFICERS SAID A STRIKING FORCE OF 390,000 REDS WAS READY FOR THE SIGNAL TO BEGIN THEIR BIGGEST OFFENSIVE OF THE WAR.

ONE UNITED NATIONS DIVISIONAL OFFICER SAID THE COMMUNISTS "WILL HAVE TO DO MORE PROBING" BEFORE THE ATTACK. "THEY ARE NOT TOO FAMILIAR WITH OUR DEFENSE LINES."

ALLIED PATROLS REACHING ACROSS THE 10 MILE WIDE NO-MAN'S-LAND ALSO PROBED CONTINUALLY INTO CHINESE BUILDUPS. DEEPER PENETRATIONS RAN INTO ARTILLERY FIRE FROM SELF-PROPELLED GUNS.

A DIVISIONAL SPOKESMAN SAID INCREASING NUMBERS OF RED PRISONERS WERE BEING BROUGHT BACK, INDICATING A WEAKENING OF COMMUNIST MORALE.

PEIPING RADIO SOUGHT TO BOLSTER CHINESE TROOPS BY ASSURING THEM THEY HAVE SHOWN THAT THE "UNITED STATES IS NOTHING BUT A PAPER TIGER." THE RED CHINA BROADCAST SAID THE WAR WILL CONTINUE UNTIL "WE DRIVE THE MAD, SHAMELESS AMERICAN IMPERIALISTS COMPLETELY OUT OF KOREA."

AMERICAN TROOPS, SOMEWHAT BORED WITH WAITING, HAVE HAD TIME IN A TWO AND A HALF WEEK LULL TO THOROUGHLY BOLSTER THEIR DEFENSES. A DIVISION SPOKESMAN SAID THE ALLIED FORCES ARE PROBABLY IN THE BEST POSITIONS THEY HAVE MANNED YET. HE SAID THEY'RE CONFIDENT AND IN GOOD SPIRITS.

AP CORRESPONDENT JOHN RANDOLPH REPORTED THAT WHILE ALLIED OFFICERS DIFFERED ON JUST WHEN THE REDS WILL STRIKE THEY AGREED:

"THE CHINESE ARE LOADED AND COCKED AND CAN EXPLODE SOUTHWARD ANY TIME THEY WANT."

THE CHINESE SHARPENED THEIR PROBING ATTACKS WEDNESDAY MORNING, CONCENTRATING ON THE CENTRAL FRONT. THEY HAVE MOVED IN CONSIDERABLE STRENGTH ACROSS THE PUKHAN AND SOYANG RIVERS ON EITHER SIDE OF CHUNCHON.

ONE BUGLE BLOWING ATTACK DROVE ALLIES FROM THEIR POSITIONS EAST OF CHUNCHON BEFORE ARTILLERY BROKE UP THE CHINESE FORCE.

KOREAN REDS HIT SOUTHWEST OF INJE, AFTER REOCCUPYING THE HIGHWAY TOWN ON THE EASTERN FRONT.

SKIRMISHING STEPPED UP ON THE WESTERN FRONT, TOO, WITH SEVERAL SHARP CLASHES ABOUT 17 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL. THE REDS TURNED ANTI-TANK GUNS ON ONE ARMORED AMERICAN RECONNAISSANCE PATROL.

"IT LOOKS AS IF THEY ARE JUST ABOUT READY AND WILL BE ON THEIR WAY DOWN TO US PRETTY SOON," ONE OFFICER SAID.

RANDOLPH REPORTED ALL SIGNS SEEMED TO POINT TO THE FINAL MOVES BEFORE A TYPICAL CHINESE OFFENSIVE.

FIGHTING EARLY WEDNESDAY WAS HEAVIER THAN THE CUSTOMARY PATROL ACTIONS. BUT NONE OF IT REACHED BATTLE SIZE.

BUGLE BLOWING, WHISTLE TOOTING CHINESE STRUCK AT 1:30 A.M. EAST OF CHUNCHON. U.N. TROOPS WITHDREW UNDER THE GRENADE-THROWING ATTACK SUPPORTED BY AUTOMATIC RIFLE FIRE.

AFTER THE U.N. WITHDRAWAL, BIG AMERICAN GUNS OPENED UP, INFLICTING HEAVY CASUALTIES ON THE REDS.

THE REDS PENETRATED CHUNCHON, 45 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL, BUT WERE DRIVEN OUT.

COMMUNISTS ALSO USED ARTILLERY HEAVILY IN THE EASTERN SECTOR, SUPPORTING AN UNSUCCESSFUL ATTACK EAST OF INJE.

HEAVY USE OF ARTILLERY IS CUSTOMARY BEFORE A COMMUNIST OFFENSIVE.

A43FX

A U.S. EIGHTH ARMY SPOKESMAN SAID THE LARGEST RED ATTACK WEDNESDAY WAS AN EARLY MORNING ASSAULT BY TWO BATTALIONS SOUTH OF YONGDAE IN THE INJE AREA. THIS ATTACK BY ABOUT 1,500 MEN FORCED SOUTH KOREANS TO WITHDRAW. REPUBLICAN TROOPS LATER COUNTERATTACKED AND REGAINED THEIR POSITIONS.

AN EIGHTH ARMY SPOKESMAN CAUTIONED WEDNESDAY NIGHT THAT HEIGHTENED RED ACTIVITY DOES NOT MEAN THE BIG RED ATTACK HAS STARTED.

"I WOULDN'T CALL IT A GENERAL OFFENSIVE," HE SAID. "NOTHING HAS HIT OUR MAIN LINES. I WOULD SAY, THOUGH, THAT THE ENEMY HAS BECOME OFFENSIVE MINDED."

THE PROBING ATTACKS SIGNALED A NEW RISE IN RED CASUALTIES. THE EIGHTH ARMY REPORTED 2,850 FOR TUESDAY.

WEDNESDAY'S ATTACKS CAME AFTER A RAINY LULL, IN WHICH REDS REGROUPED FOR A RENEWAL OF THEIR SPRING OFFENSIVE.

RANDOLPH REPORTED THAT BOTH ALLIED OFFICERS AND RECENTLY CAPTURED REDS DISAGREED AS TO WHEN THE BIG ASSAULT WOULD COME. GUESSES RANGED FROM BETWEEN NOW AND MONDAY TO EARLY JUNE.

MONDAY NIGHT WILL BRING A FULL MOON, FAVORITE TIME FOR CHINESE OFFENSIVES. THREE OF THEIR LAST FOUR OFFENSIVES WERE LAUNCHED UNDER A FULL OR NEARLY FULL MOON. THIS AFFORDS SUFFICIENT LIGHT FOR INFANTRY, WHICH THE REDS HAVE IN MASSES, BUT INSUFFICIENT LIGHTING FOR LONG RANGE ALLIED ARTILLERY AND PLANES.

RANDOLPH SAID INDICATIONS WERE THE REDS WOULD STRIKE ALL ALONG THE 100 MILE FRONT WITH THEIR HEAVIEST BLOW DOWN CENTRAL KOREA'S PUKHAN RIVER VALLEY THROUGH CHUNCHON.

MOST OF THE 390,000 COMMUNIST STRIKING FORCE WAS ARRAYED IN DEPTH NORTH OF THIS AREA. CHINESE ARE IN THE CENTER OF THE LINE WITH 100,000 NORTH KOREANS ON THEIR FLANKS.

PRISONERS SAID THE REDS HAD STORED SUFFICIENT FOOD IN NORTH KOREA TO SUPPLY THEIR ENTIRE FORCE--600,000 MEN--FOR 50 DAYS.

KOREA'S RAINY SEASON TRADITIONALLY STARTS IN LATE MAY. THE THICK MUD WILL SLOW RED INFANTRYMEN STRIKING IN A "HUMAN SEA" BUT WILL BOG DOWN ALLIED TANKS AND TRUCKS.

UNFAVORABLE WEATHER HELD U.N. PLANE ATTACKS ON RED SUPPLY LINES DOWN TO 300 SORTIES TUESDAY AND FORCED B-29S TO BOMB AGAIN WEDNESDAY BY RADAR.

THE PULLBACK WAS SOUTHWEST OF INJE, A TOWN 75 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.
THE ATTACK, SPEARHEADED BY 75,000 OF THE 390,000 CHINESE REDS IN LINE FOR THE OFFENSIVE, WAS GENERAL FROM KAPYONG EASTWARD. KAPYONG IS 32 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.
EASTWARD OF THE INJE WITHDRAWAL ACTION, MASSED REDS RIPPED BIG HOLES IN THE ALLIED LINES.

OKINAWA, MAY 15-(DELAYED)-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES IS BUILDING A HUGE AIR BASE HERE THAT WILL BRING ALL EAST ASIA WITHIN STRIKING DISTANCE OF MIGHTY B-36 BOMBERS, AMERICA'S MOST POTENT STRATEGIC AIR WEAPON.
A $65,000,000 (M) CONSTRUCTION PROGRAM IS RAPIDLY TRANSFORMING KADENA AIR FIELD INTO ONE OF THE STRONGEST OUTPOSTS OF AMERICAN POWER IN THE ORIENT. AIR FORCE OFFICERS DISCLOSED THAT WHEN COMPLETE KADENA CAN EASILY HANDLE THE B-36.

OKINAWA'S ROLE IS TO DISCOURAGE ANY AGGRESSIVE MOVE BY THE COMMUNISTS OR TO HELP CHECK SUCH A MOVE IF AND WHEN IT COMES.
AIR FORCE OFFICERS DISCLOSED THAT, IN ADDITION TO THE NEW BUILDING PROGRAM AT KADENA AIR BASE, ABOUT $42,000,000 (M) IS BEING SPENT TO EXPAND THE FIGHTER BASE AT NAGA.
THREE OTHER FIELDS ARE BEING MAINTAINED AS STANDBY STRIPS. THE FIVE AIR FIELDS ARE KNOWN AS THE KADENA COMPLEX.
OF MAJOR IMPORTANCE IS THE FACT THAT FROM OKINAWA BIG BOMBERS CAN RANGE OVER AN AREA INCLUDING EASTERN SIBERIA, MANCHURIA, ALL CHINA AND SOUTHEAST ASIA AS FAR AS INDIA.
MAJ.GEN. RALPH STEARLEY, COMMANDER OF THE U.S. 20TH AIR FORCE BASED HERE, REGARDS OKINAWA AS "THE KEY TO THE PACIFIC."
PLANES BASED ON JAPAN'S NORTHERN ISLANDS COULD COVER NORTHEAST ASIA, AND THOSE FROM THE PHILIPPINES ARE WITHIN STRIKING DISTANCE OF SOUTHEAST ASIA--BUT ONLY BOMBERS BASED ON OKINAWA COULD HIT BOTH REGIONS.

CHINESE ATTACK (500)
BY JOHN RANDOLPH
AN ALLIED HEADQUARTERS,KOREA,MAY 16-(AP)-THE CHINESE REDS MAY LAUNCH THEIR NEXT BIG OFFENSIVE UNDER MONDAY'S FULL MOON--IF THEY DON'T STRIKE EARLIER.
ONE REPORT FROM RED PRISONERS SAYS THE NEXT BIG BLOW WAS CHARTED IN MOSCOW AND PEIPING...TIMED TO STRIKE IN THREE WAVES. THE THIRD AND FINAL PHASE WOULD THROW MORE THAN 1,000,000 (M) REDS IN AN ALL-OUT SMASH TO DRIVE THE ALLIES INTO THE SEA AT THE BIG SOUTHEASTERN PORT OF PUSAN.
THE GOAL: TO CLEAR KOREA OF THE ALLIES BY THE JUNE 25 FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF THE COMMUNIST INVASION.
THREE TIMES IN THEIR LAST FOUR OFFENSIVES THE CHINESE HAVE HIT UNDER THE LIGHT OF A FULL OR NEARLY FULL MOON. THE EXCEPTION WAS FEBRUARY'S CHIPYONG-WONJU SMASH, A FAILURE.
MOST ALLIED OFFICERS PREDICT THE NEW OFFENSIVE WILL COME BETWEEN TOMORROW AND MONDAY. A FEW SAYS THE REDS WILL HOLD OFF UNTIL EARLY JUNE.
BUT ALL AGREE THE CHINESE ARE LOADED AND COCKED AND CAN EXPLODE SOUTHWARD ANY TIME THEY CHOOSE.
A RED STRIKING FORCE OF 390,000 TROOPS IS MASSED BETWEEN KAESONG IN THE WEST AND CHUNCHON ON THE CENTRAL FRONT. AT LEAST HALF ARE FRESH TROOPS.
THEY ARE SUPPORTED IN THE EAST AND WEST BY ABOUT 100,000 RED KOREANS.
THE MAIN MASS OF THE ENEMY STRIKING FORCE IS AIMED DOWN THE PUKHAN VALLEY LEADING TOWARD THE OLD CAPITAL, SEOUL.
COMMUNIST PRISONERS SAY RED CHINA'S PREMIER, MAO TZE-TUNG, WENT TO MOSCOW FOR TALKS IMMEDIATELY AFTER GENERAL MACARTHUR'S OUSTER.
THEN CHINESE GENERALS--INCLUDING LIN PIAO, THE "MANCHURIAN HAMMER" WHO HAS COMMANDED THE COMMUNIST THIRD AND FOURTH FIELD ARMIES--MET IN PEIPING WITH THE SOVIET COMMANDER OF THE DAIREN AREA.
IT WAS AGREED, THE REPORT ADDED, THAT THE CHINESE WOULD LAUNCH THEIR FIRST ATTACK TO TAKE SEOUL WITH 370,000 MEN.
IN THE SECOND PHASE, THEY WOULD RAM IN ANOTHER 350,000 TROOPS AND STRIKE FOR TAEJON, ABOUT 90 AIR MILES SOUTHEAST OF SEOUL.
AND THE THIRD WAVE WOULD THROW MORE THAN 1,000,000(M) REDS INTO THE FINAL PUSH TO DRIVE SOLDIERS OF 14 UNITED NATIONS INTO THE SEA.
IF THE FIRST FIGHTING DID NOT GO WELL, THE REPORT SAID, THEN THE SOVIETS WOULD BOLSTER THE CHINESE AIR FORCE FOR LATER PHASES.
TWO DAYS AFTER THE REPORTED PEIPING WAR TALKS, THE CHINESE LAUNCHED THEIR APRIL 22 DRIVE. AFTER FIVE DAYS OF SURGING ADVANCE, THE DRIVE DIED OUT AND THE CHINESE WITHDREW.

A67FX
BUT THE RED KOREAN MINISTER OF PROPAGANDA, IN A RECENT BROADCAST, SAID THE REDS WOULD MOUNT AN END-THE-WAR ATTACK IN JUNE.
COMMUNIST PRISONERS SAY THE FIGHT TALK IS RUNNING HIGH IN RED ARMY CAMPS.
THE ATTACK WITHOUT QUESTION WILL BE THE CLASSICAL "HUMAN SEA WAVE" ASSAULTS WHICH THE ALLIES HAVE FACED FOUR TIMES WITHOUT DISASTER.
IN THESE MASSED ASSAULTS, THE CHINESE SOLDIER IS USED AS A SORT OF KAMIKAZE INFANTRYMAN.
HE IS GIVEN UP TO 10 DAYS RICE, A FEW HAND GRENADES AND--IF LUCKY--A RIFLE, BURPGUN OR MACHINEGUN.
HIS UNIT THEN IS LAUNCHED AT THE ALLIED LINES. WHEN IT IS SHOT TO PIECES ANOTHER UNIT ATTACKS. THEN ANOTHER, AND ANOTHER, IN HUMAN SEA WAVES.

BY ARTHUR GAVSHON
LONDON, MAY 16-(AP)-INFORMED DIPLOMATS DISCLOSED TODAY BRITAIN HAS PROPOSED THAT JAPAN PAY LIMITED WAR REPARATIONS TO THE NATIONS WHICH HELPED TO BEAT HER.
THE UNITED STATES, WHICH HAS BEEN FINANCING JAPAN'S POSTWAR ECONOMIC RECOVERY ALMOST SINGLE-HANDED, IS AGAINST THE MOVE.
AMBASSADOR JOHN FOSTER DULLES IS COMING HERE EARLY NEXT MONTH TO DISCUSS THIS AND OTHER ANGLO-AMERICAN DIFFERENCES OVER A JAPANESE PEACE TREATY WITH BRITISH LEADERS.
BRITAIN HAS PROPOSED A CLAUSE BE WRITTEN INTO THE TREATY WHICH WOULD BIND JAPAN TO RENOUNCE ALL TERRITORIAL OR POLITICAL CLAIMS IN THE ANTARCTIC.
AMERICAN TREATY-MAKERS HAVE OPPOSED THIS SUGGESTION, TOO. THEY FEEL IT WOULD DETRACT FROM JAPAN'S STATUS AS AN INDEPENDENT POWER. THE WHOLE SPIRIT OF THE PEACE SETTLEMENT, AS AMERICAN DIPLOMATS HERE FRAMED IT, LOOKS TO THE RESTORATION OF JAPAN AS A FULLY EQUAL NATION.
JAPAN, AS FAR AS COULD BE ASCERTAINED HERE, HAS NO HARD CLAIMS FOR TERRITORY IN ANTARCTICA. BUT BEFORE SHE ENTERED WORLD WAR II SHE RESERVED THE RIGHT TO FILE CERTAIN CLAIMS TO ISLANDS NOW HELD BY BRITISH COMMONWEALTH COUNTRIES.
THE BRITISH PROPOSALS WERE PUT FORWARD IN WASHINGTON EARLY THIS MONTH WHEN THIS COUNTRY AND THE UNITED STATES SWAPPED TREATY DRAFTS.
TWO BIG QUESTIONS LEFT UNANSWERED AT THE END OF THE WASHINGTON TALKS INVOLVED THE FUTURE OF FORMOSA AND WHETHER RED CHINA SHOULD BE INVITED TO JOIN THE TREATY TALKS.
BROAD DETAILS OF BRITAIN'S REPARATIONS PROPOSAL:
1. BRITAIN WANTS ALL THE GOLD BULLION HELD IN TRUST FOR JAPAN BY THE SUPREME COMMAND, ALLIED POWERS, (SCAP), TO BE DIVIDED AMONG THE NATIONS WHICH SUFFERED MOST AS A RESULT OF JAPANESE AGGRESSION.
EXACT VALUE OF THE BULLION HAS NOT BEEN DISCLOSED IT RUNS INTO SEVERAL MILLIONS. SCAP HAS BEEN USING THE GOLD-- SEIZED AT THE END OF THE WAR-- AS BACKING FOR JAPAN'S CUCRENCY.
2. BRITAIN WANTS ALL JAPANESE ASSETS NOW FROZEN IN SUCH NEUTRAL COUNTRIES AS SWEDEN AND SWITZERLAND TO BE SIMILARLY HANDED AROUND. THE UNITED STATES IS AGAINST THIS, BELIEVING THE VALUE OF THE ASSETS INVOLVED DOES NOT WARRANT ITS SEIZURE AS REPARATIONS. THE PROCESS OF UNFREEZING AND DISTRIBUTING THESE ASSETS ALSO WOULD BE FAR TOO COMPLICATED, ACCORDING TO AMERICAN THINKING.

B19
3. BRITAIN WANTS THE COUNTRIES WHICH HELPED TO BEAT JAPAN TO TAKE OVER WHATEVER JAPANESE ASSETS STILL REMAIN IN THEIR INDIVIDUAL TERRITORIES-- WITH THE POSSIBLE EXCEPTION OF GOVERNMENTAL PROPERTIES LIKE EMBASSY AND CONSULAR BUILDINGS. THE UNITED STATES, IN GENERAL, IS READY TO GO ALONG WITH THIS IDEA, ALTHOUGH SHE HERSELF HAS DECIDED TO GIVE THE JAPANESE EMBASSY BUILDING IN WASHINGTON BACK TO THE TOKYO GOVERNMENT.
THE UNITED STATES IS AGAINST DOLING OUT JAPAN'S GOLD BULLION BECAUSE SHE ARGUES SHE WOULD HAVE TO BEAR THE WEIGHT OF THAT LOSS HERSELF, IN THE LONG RUN.
BRITAIN MAY STICK TO HER POSITION ON THE REPARATIONS ISSUE FOR TWO MAIN REASONS:
FIRST, AS A SORT OF CONCESSION TO AMERICAN OPINION, SHE HAS ANNOUNCED PUBLICLY HER FORMOSA POLICY NEED NOT HOLD UP THE JAPANESE PEACE TREATY. THE ISLAND'S FUTURE STATUS SHOULD BE DETERMINED ONLY AFTER A KOREAN SETTLEMENT, FOREIGN SECRETARY HERBERT MORRISON TOLD PARLIAMENT LAST WEEK. HE ADDED BRITAIN NOW THINKS THE VIEWS OF THE FORMOSAN PEOPLE SHOULD BE TAKEN INTO ACCOUNT IN ANY UNITED NATIONS CONSIDERATION OF THE ISLAND'S FUTURE. THIS COUNTRY, IN RETURN FOR CHANGING ITS STAND OVER FORMOSA, NOW MAY ASK THE UNITED STATES TO MAKE A COUNTER-CONCESSION ON THE REPARATIONS ISSUE.
SECOND, 300 LEGISLATORS OF ALL POLITICAL PARTIES JOINED RECENTLY IN ASKING THE GOVERNMENT TO SECURE SOME KIND OF COMPENSATION FOR BRITISH PRISONERS OF WAR WHO SUFFERED ILL-TREATMENT AT THE HANDS OF THE JAPANESE. THE GOVERNMENT WOULD FIND IT DIFFICULT TO DISREGARD THEIR FEELINGS IN THE COMING TREATY TALKS.
BRITAIN SUGGESTED THE PACT EXPRESSLY SHOULD FORBID THE FORMATION OF SECRET SOCIETIES, FASCIST MOVEMENTS AND THE LIKE IN JAPAN.
THE UNITED STATES ARGUED IN REPLY THAT KIND OF CLAUSE WOULD MAKE NO DIFFERENCE-- IF THE JAPANESE REALLY INTENDED SETTING UP SUCH ORGANIZATIONS.
THESE DIFFICULTIES ARE CONSIDERED TO BE CAPABLE OF FAIRLY EASY SETTLEMENT BETWEEN BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES.
THE TWO COUNTRIES ALREADY HAVE HAMMERED OUT AGREEMENT ON THE MAIN POINTS OF THE TREATY. ON MOST BASIC ISSUES BRITAIN HAS ACCEPTED THE AMERICAN POINT OF VIEW.
IN PARTICULAR THIS COUNTRY HAS GIVEN UP PAST DEMANDS THAT LIMITS BE PLACED ON JAPAN'S SHIPBUILDING INDUSTRY. THE NEW BRITISH ATTITUDE ON THE QUESTION-- THAT ALL CONTROLS BE LIFTED-- IS LIKELY TO BE ATTACKED BY THE COUNTRY'S OWN SHIPPING INTERESTS.

NIGHT LEAD COUNCIL (250)
BY JOSEPH DYNAN
STRASBOURG, FRANCE, MAY 16-(AP)-THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY HAS PLAINLY HITCHED ITS WAGON TO THE STAR OF TRANS-ATLANTIC COLLABORATION.
THE ASSEMBLY'S SPRING SESSION ENDED LAST NIGHT WITH THE ADOPTION OF A LENGTHY RESOLUTION SETTING FORTH TWO CARDINAL AIMS-- A REAL EUROPEAN UNION AND ITS "CLOSE RELATIONSHIP" WITH THE UNITED STATES.
THE ASSEMBLY EMPHASIZED THIS TREND IN A RESOLUTION INVITING THE AMERICAN CONGRESS TO SEND AN OFFICIAL DELEGATION TO THE NEXT ASSEMBLY MEETING IN SEPTEMBER FOR A PUBLIC DISCUSSION ON MATTERS OF COMMON CONCERN.
ASSEMBLY PRESIDENT PAUL-HENRI SPAAK OF BELGIUM ANNOUNCED TODAY THAT LORD LAYTON, BRITISH LIBERAL AND ASSEMBLY VICE-PRESIDENT, WILL LEAVE IN A FEW DAYS FOR WASHINGTON FOR PRELIMINARY TALKS WITH CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS.
THE ASSEMBLY IS THE LOWER HOUSE OF THE COUNCIL, AN INTERNATIONAL DISCUSSION GROUP FORMED ON PARLIAMENTARY LINES BUT LACKING REAL PARLIAMENTARY POWERS. DELEGATES FROM 15. ,-589,' 0-458:80-53.

PARLIAMENTARY POWERS. DELEGATES FROM 15 NATIONS PARTICIPATE. THE UPPER HOUSE IS A FOREIGN MINISTERS' COMMITTEE, WHICH HAS VETO POWERS.
ENCOURAGED BY A NEW AND MORE SYMPATHETIC INTEREST ON THE PART OF THE BRITISH LABOR GOVERNMENT, THE ASSEMBLY VEERED FROM THE CONCEPT OF A SEPARATE UNIFIED EUROPE AS A SORT OF "INTERNATIONAL THIRD FORCE" BETWEEN THE AMERICAN AND RUSSIAN POWER BLOCS.
INSTEAD, IT PREPARED TO DUPLICATE ON THE PARLIAMENTARY LEVEL WHAT HAS ALREADY BEEN ACCOMPLISHED BY VARIOUS GOVERNMENTS IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY ORGANIZATION.
ONE AFTER ANOTHER, SPEAKERS STRESSED THAT EUROPE CANNOT SOLVE HER PROBLEMS ALONE-- WHETHER MILITARY, POLITICAL OR ECONOMIC. BESIDES THE INVITATION TO CONGRESS, THE ASSEMBLY UNDERLINED THIS IN TWO WAYS:

(1). IT ASKED MEMBER GOVERNMENTS TO ESTABLISH CONTACT WITH THE UNITED STATES FOR THE CREATION OF A JOINT RAW MATERIALS BOARD WHICH WOULD BUY AND ALLOCATE SCARCE RAW MATERIALS ON THE BASIS OF A "COMMON STRATEGY" DESIGNED TO KEEP STRATEGIC ITEMS FROM COMMUNIST HANDS.

(2). IT RECOGNIZED THAT EUROPE'S DEFENSE IS NOW A NATO RESPONSIBILITY AND SHELVED ANY DECISION ON PROPOSALS FOR A ERUOPEAN ARMY.

STRASBOURG, FRANCE, MAY 16-(AP)-AN OFFICIAL OF THE EUROPEAN CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY IS GOING TO WASHINGTON SOON TO TRY TO ARRANGE FOR PARTICIPATION OF U.S. LAWMAKERS IN AN UNOFFICIAL EUROPEAN-AMERICAN PARLIAMENTARY MEETING HERE NTXT AUTUMN.

BELGIUM'S PAUL-HENRI SPAAK, ASSEMBLY PRESIDENT, SAID AT A NEWS CONFERENCE TODAY THAT LORD LAYTON, BRITISH LIBERAL WILL MAKE THE WASHINGTON VISIT.

AT ITS CLOSING SESSION LAST NIGHT THE ASSEMBLY VOTED TO INVITE A DELEGATION FROM THE U.S. CONGRESS TO COME TO STRASBOURG TO WORK OUT AN AGENDA FOR THENPROPOSED AUTUMN PARLIAMENTARY MEETING.

SPAAK SAID THAT SUCH A MEETING IS OF "URGENT IMPORTANCE" TO DISPEL MISUNDERSTANDINGS WHICH SOMETIMES ARISE IN EUROPEAN-AMERICAN RELATIONS.

LAYTON IS EXPECTED TO TALK WITH VICE-PRESIDENT ALBEN BARKLEY, SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE SAM RAYBURN, AND POSSIBLY MEMBERS OF THE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEES IN BOTH HOUSES.

THE ASSEMBLY LAST NIGHT, FOLLOWING 10 DAYS OF DEBATE, MADE A BID FOR MORE POWER.

BY A VOTE OF 64 TO 2 THE ASSEMBLY ASKED THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE'S UPPER HOUSE, THE COMMITTEE OF MINISTERS, FOR CHANGES IN ITS BASIC STATUTE.

ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT DEMANDS WAS FOR A MEASURE OF CONTROL OVER OTHER EUROPEAN ORGANIZATIONS -- NOTABLY THE ORGANIZATION FOR EUROPEAN ECONOMIC COOPERATION (OEEC).

THE OEEC, SOME OF WHOSE MEMBERS DO NOT BELONG TO THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE, HELPS AMERICAN AUTHORITIES ADMINISTER THE MARSHALL PLAN. IT TENDS TO THINK OF ITSELF AS AN AGENCY THAT DOES THINGS AND OF THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE AS A MERE "TALKING SHOP."

THE ASSEMBLY, ON THE OTHER HAND, ADVISED THE OEEC YESTERDAY TO WORK ON "CURRENT PROBLEMS" RATHER THAN THINK ABOUT "PAST ACHIEVEMENT." IT WAS CLEAR THE ASSEMBLY THOUGHT THE OEEC WAS NOT DOING ENOUGH.

ANOTHER ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION URGED THE COMMITTEE OF MINISTERS TO SPONSOR ESTABLISHMENT OF A JOINT RESOURCES BOARD TO ALLOCATE SCARCE RAW MATERIALS AMONG NATIONS OF THE NON-COMMUNIST WORLD. THE RESOLUTION ASKED THE COMMITTEE TO APPROACH THE UNITED STATES AND BRITISH COMMONWEALTH COUNTRIES ON CREATION OF SUCH AN AGENCY, WHICH WOULD INCLUDE ALL 15 MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL AS WELL AS THE U.S. AND THE DOMINIONS AND OVERSEAS TERRITORIES OF COUNCIL MEMBERS.

THE ASSEMBLY'S NEXT FULL MEETING WILL BE IN THE FALL.

BY JOHN RODERICK (430)

PARIS, MAY 16-(AP)-SUGAR RAY ROBINSON, THE NEGRO MIDDLEWEIGHT CHAMPION, KISSED THE WIFE OF THE PRESIDENT OF FRANCE FOUR TIMES TODAY--TWICE ON EACH CHEEK--WITH THE ENTHUSIASTIC APPROVAL OF A SALON-FULL OF FRANCE'S SOCIAL UPPERCRUST.

THE 30-YEAR-OLD AMERICAN WAS PLAYING THE ROLE OF GOODWILL AMBASSADOR FOR THE AMERICAN DAMON RUNYON CANCER FUND.

HE HANDED FRANCE'S FIRST LADY, MADAME VINCENT AURIOL, A CHECK FOR $10,000 FROM THE RUNYON FUND AFTER MAKING A LITTLE SPEECH IN FRENCH. HE HAS PICKED UP SOME OF THE LANGUAGE ON HIS TRIPS HERE.

THE PRESENTATION WAS STAGED IN A GILDED SALON NEAR THE ARCH OF TRIUMPH. AS A SOCIAL EVENT, IT PROBABLY WILL BE RECORDED AS ONE OF THE MOST SUCCESSFUL, IF UNUSUAL, OF THE SEASON.

TO BEGIN, ROBINSON KEPT HALF A HUNDRED FRENCH NOTABLES, INCLUDING THE WIVES OF THREE CABINET MINISTERS AND A DUCHESS, WAITING FOR HALF AN HOUR WHILE HE SEARCHED FOR THE PLACE.

"I GOT LOST IN TRAFFIC," HE EXPLAINED AS HE ARRIVED AT LATIN AMERICA HOUSE IN HIS LAVENDAR CADILLAC. ONCE INSIDE, HE STOLE THE SHOW.

HE WORE A PINK TIE, A NEAT GREY SUIT AND A GLEAMING WHITE HANDKERCHIEF IN HIS BREAST POCKET. WITH HIM WAS HIS MANAGER, BIG GEORGE GAINFORD, VISIBLY LESS AT EASE THAN THE FIGHTER.

WOMEN IN DIAMONDS AND GRAVE OLD MEN ALMOST GOT TRAMPLED IN THE CRUSH TO MEET ROBINSON.

RAY WAS THE LEAST RUFFLED PERSON IN THE ROOM, FLASHING HIS BIG SMILE AT EVERYONE.

WHEN HE HAD AT LAST JOCKEYED INTO POSITION BEFORE THE CAMERAS, HE FISHED IN HIS POCKET FOR THE CHECK. IT WASN'T THERE. TO STALL FOR TIME WHILE SOMEONE GOT IT FROM HIS SECRETARY, HE MADE HIS SPEECH IN FRENCH, DEPLORING HIS POOR COMMAND OF THE LANGUAGE.

HE SAID HE WAS PROUD TO BE A RUNYON FUND MEMBER TO HELP FIGHT CANCER ALL OVER THE WORLD. THE SPEECH WAS GREETED WITH BRAVOES.

THEN JUSTIN GODART, PRESIDENT OF THE FRENCH CAMPAIGN AGAINST CANCER, MADE ASSPEECH IN FRENCH FULL OF PRAISE FOR RAY. LOOKING A BIT QUIZZICAL, BUT ANXIOUS TO DO THE RIGHT THING, RAY JOINED IN THE APPLAUSE.

THEN THERE WERE MORE SPEECHES ABOUT "MONSIEUR ROBSIN."

WHEN THE ENDEDAN RAY LEANED OVER AND

WHEN THEY ENDED, RAY LEANED OVER AND CONFIDED TO THE CROWD: "HEY, NOW I GET TO KISS MISSUS PRESIDENT!"

HE DID--WHILE MADAME AURIOL LAUGHED AND BLUSHED.

WHEN THE PHOTOGRAPHERS ASKED FOR A REPEAT, MADAME AURIOL STEPPED UP--NOTHING LOATH--AND RAY OBLIGED AGAIN.

ROBINSON IS REPRESENTING THE RUNYON FUND, A GROUP OF AMERICANS WHO HAVE ORGANIZED THE FIGHT ON CANCER AS A MEMORIAL TO THE LATE DAMON RUNYON, A VICTIM OF THE DISEASE.

RAY WILL MAKE SIMILAR PRESENTATION OF DONATIONS FROM THE FUND ALL OVER EUROPE. ALSO, HE PERSONALLY WILL DONATE TO THE FRENCH CANCER CAMPAIGN HIS PART OF THE PURSE OF HIS FIGHT NEXT MONDAY NIGHT WITH KID MARCEL, FRENCH WELTERWEIGHT CHAMPION.

BY FRANK KING
TAIPEH, FORMOSA, MAY 16-(AP)-CHIANG KAI-SHEK AND THE NATIONALIST FORCES HOLDING OUT ON THIS ISLAND SGRONGHOLD ARE READY TO HIT BACK AT THE CHINA MAINLAND AS SOON AS POSSIBLE IN AN EFFORT TO DIVERT THE CHINESE REDS NOW FIGHTING THE UNITED NATIONS FORCES IN KOREA.
THIS WAS THE CONCENSUS OF FOUR SEPARATE INTERVIEWS BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS WITH TOP GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS TODAY.
THESE LEADERS WERE CHIANG KAI-SHEK; HIS PREMIER, CHEN CHENG; FOREIGN MINISTER GEORGE YEH; AND CHIANG'S CLOSE ADVISOR, THE VETERAN WANG SHIH-CHIEH.
HOW HARD A BLOW CAN BE STRUCK, AND HOW SOON, IS THE MILITARY QUESTION.
MAJ.GEN.WILLIAM C.CHASE, HEAD OF THE NEW U.S. MILITARY ASSISTANCE ADVISORY GROUP, ALSO HAD A LONG MEETING WITH CHIANG TODAY. CHASE ALREADY HAS MADE HIS PRELIMINARY REPORT TO WASHINGTON.
THE FIRST PUBLIC RECEPTION FOR CHASE TODAY BROUGHT OUT NATIONALIST BIGWIGS IN FULL FORCE. IT WAS REPORTED HIS MISSION WAS EXPECTED TO NUMBER ABOUT 600 OFFICERS AND MEN BEFORE VERY LONG.
DESPITE CURRENT OPTIMISM, MOST NEUTRAL OBSERVERS HERE DO NOT BELIEVE A FULL-SCALE INVASION IS POSSIBLE NOW, ALTHOUGH IT MAY BECOME SO WITHIN A FEW ONTHS IF PRESENT BUILD-UPS ARE MAINTAINED.
CHIANG UTTERED NO WORD OF BITTERNESS, NO WORD OF APPEASEMENT DURING NEARLY AN HOUR'S QUESTIONING ON ALL PHASES OF FAR EAST PROBLEMS.
HE CAREFULLY AVOIDED BEING DRAWN INTO THE GREAT DEBATE IN WASHINGTON OVER POLICY IN THE ORIENT.
WHEN ASKED ABOUT GENERAL MACARTHUR'S REFERENCES TO NATIONALIST FORCES, CHIANG MERELY AGREED HIS NATIONALISTS SHOULD BE USED AGAINST THE COMMUNISTS IN THE BEST MANNER THEIR COMMANDERS CAN ADVISE.
AS FOR HIS REJECTED OFFER TO SEND TROOPS TO KOREA, CHIANG SAID HE WOULD NOT SHIRK HIS RESPONSIBILITY IF NOW CALLED UPON.
WANG SHIH-CHIEH SAID A MAINLAND ATTACK SHOULD BE MADE "AS SOON AS POSSIBLE."
"BOMBING OF MANCHURIA WON'T START A THIRD WORLD WAR, BUT NEITHER WILL IT BRING EARLY, DECISIVE TERMINATION OF THE KOREA FIGHTING," HE SAID.

A131KX
PREMIER CHEN CHENG SAID THE NATIONALISTS HAVE LEARNED "BITTER LESSONS FROM MAINLAND DEFEATS. OUR EFFORTS MUST HAVE THE SINGLE PURPOSE OF LIBERATION OF CHINA AND OUR GOVERNMENT MUST BE FREE OF ALL CORRUPTION."
FOREIGN MINISTER YEH SAID THE NATIONALIST TROOPS WILL FIGHT WELL BECAUSE THEY WILL BE GOING HOME. ALSO, HE SAID, POLITICAL EDUCATION OF THE TROOOPS IN FORMOSA HAS BEEN CARRIED OUT EFFECTIVELY.
ALL THE NATIONALIST OFFICIALS SAID A COUNTER OFFENSIVE WOULD REQUIRE NAVAL AND AIR AID BY THE UNITED STATES, BUT THEY EMPHASIZED NO U.S. TROOPS WOULD BE REQUIRED.
CHIANG SAID IT WOULD TAKE SIX MONTHS FOR HIS PEOPLE TO START A LARGE-SCALE COUNTERBLOW, AFTER NECESSARY AND ADEQUATE EQUIPMENT AND SUPPLIES ARE AVAILABLE IN FORMOSA.

(IN WASHINGTON, THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE DECLINED COMMENT ON THE STATEMENT. A PENTAGON SPOKESMAN EXPLAINED THAT AS A MATTER OF POLICY THE DEPARTMENT DOES NOT COMMENT ON STATEMENTS BY THE HEAD OF A FRIENDLY STATE.)
"ONCE A COUNTEROFFENSIVE FROM FORMOSA STARTS," SAID THE PRESIDENT OF THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS, "THEN CHINESE COMMUNIST AGGRESSION IN KOREA WILL END: AT LEAST THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS WILL NOT BE ABLE TO START ANY NEW OFFENSIVE IN KOREA."
THE 64-YEAR-OLD GENERALISSIMO HAS AN ESTIMATED 500,000 MEN IN TRAINING ON THIS ISLAND BASTION. THESE SOLDIERS HAVE FIGURED IN THE GREAT DEBATE ON U.S. POLICY IN THE ORIENT NOW RAGING IN WASHINGTON.
DURING ONE OF HIS RARE, PERSONAL INTERVIEWS, LASTING NEARLY AN HOUR, CHIANG CAREFULLY GUARDED AGAINST DISCUSSION OF SPECIFIC ISSUES INVOLVED IN THAT DEBATE.
THE INTERVIEW TOOK PLACE IN CHIANG'S OFFICE IN THE HUGE ADMINISTRATION BUILDING WHOSE CAVERNOUS CORRIDORS ARE LIKE THOSE OF MANY AMERICAN STATE CAPITOLS.
IN ADJOINING CONFERENCE ROOMS MILITARY AND CIVILIAN DELEGATIONS

MAY 17 1951

WAITED TO SEE THE "GIMO." MAJ.GEN. WILLIAM C. CHASE, HEAD OF THE NEW AMERICAN MILITARY ASSISTANCE ADVISORY GROUP, HAD JUST COMPLETED A VISIT.

CHIANG WAS CALM, RELAXED AND LAUGHED QUIETLY AS HE TALKED. HE SMOOTHED THE RICH COVERING OF THE CONFERENCE TABLE WITH LONG FINGERS FROM TIME TO TIME.

FRIENDS SAID HE LOOKED HEALTHIER IN APPEARANCE THAN FOR SEVERAL YEARS.

BEHIND CHIANG'S CHAIR WERE THE CROSSED FLAGS OF NATIONALIST CHINA AND HIS KUOMINTANG PARTY. BOTH HAVE BEEN DRIVEN FROM THE MAINLAND TO THIS ISLAND 100 MILES OF THE SOUTHEAST COAST.

A LARGE PICTURE OF SUN YAT-SEN, FOUNDER OF THE CHINESE REPUBLIC, WAS ON ONE WALL.

CHIANG WAS WORKING A NORMAL DAY, AN AIDE SAID. HE WAS AT DAYBREAK, LIKE THE OLD SOLDIER HE IS. HE TOOK A FEW MINUTES OF EXERCISE. THEN HE READ THE BIBLE AND INDULGED IN THE FIRST OF TWO DAILY PERIODS OF MEDITATION AND PRAYER.

THE GENERALISSIMO WORKS A LONG DAY. IT IS INTERRUPTED IN THE AFTERNOON BY 30 MINUTES OF SLEEP.

IN THE INTERVIEW, A QUESTION BROUGHT FROM CHIANG A REMINDER THAT HE HAD BEEN FIGHTING COMMUNISTS SINCE 1927. HE ANSWERED MANY QUESTIONS RANGING FROM CHARGES OF CORRUPTION IN HIS NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT TO SOVIET RUSSIA'S LONG-TERM PROGRAM.

THE FIRST QUESTION I ASKED THE GENERALISSIMO WAS WHETHER IN HIS OPINION EUROPE OR ASIA WERE UNDER THE GREATER IMMEDIATE THHREAT FROM RUSSIA.

"AT THIS STAGE," HE REPLIED, "THE OBJECTIVE OF RUSSIA IS EXPANSION IN ASIA, NOT EUROPE."

HE NEXT WAS ASKED IF RUSSIA WAS PREPARED TO WAGE AGGRESSIVE WAR EAST OF THE LAKE BAIKAL REGION, WHICH LIES ALMOST IN THE CENTER OF SIBERIA.

A172KX

CHIANG'S ANSWER WAS NOT SO READY, BUT IT WAS MADE IN THE SAME EASY, LOW-TONED VOICE.

"I DO NOT THINK RUSSIA WILL USE HER OWN STRENGTH IN FIGHTING AN AGGRESSIVE WAR IN ASIA," HE SAID. "IT IS NOT NECESSARY FOR RUSSIA TO USE HER OWN TROOPS." SEE CRN

"IN THE PAST, THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNISTS TOOK THE PROPAGANDA LINE THAT THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS WERE AGRARIAN REFORMERS AND THAT THE CHINESE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT WAS DISHONEST, CORRUPT AND INEFFICIENT.

"NOW THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS HAVE OCCUPIED THE MAINLAND OF CHINA. WHAT THEY ARE AFRAID OF IS A NATIONALIST COUNTEROFFENSIVE.

"SO THEIR PROPAGANDA LINE NOW IS: 1. THE CHINESE ON THE MAINLAND WILL NOT WELCOME THE RETURN OF THE NATIONALISTS. 2. IF THE UNITED STATES AIDS THE NATIONALISTS, THE CHINESE PEOPLE ON THE MAINLAND WILL HATE THE AMERICANS.

"THE NEW COMMUNIST LINE IS TO PLAY ON FEAR PSYCHOLOGY. IF YOU (AMERICANS) AID THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS YOU WILL INCUR THE HATRED OF THE CHINESE PEOPLE. THIS IS THEIR PROPAGANDA."

ASKED FOR COMMENT ON UNITED STATES DESIRES TO OBTAIN A SPEEDY, DECISIVE TERMINATION OF THE KOREAN FIGHTING, THE GENERALISSIMO SAID:

"I CANNOT ENTERTAIN AN OPTIMISTIC VIEW OF THE KOREAN WAR. I CANNOT PREDICT WHEN IT WILL END IF CONTINUED ON THE PRESENT BASIS."

THE OLD WARRIER AGAINST COMMUNISM THEN MADE HIS DECLARATION THAT HIS NATIONALISTS BY A DIVERSIONARY COUNTEROFFENSIVE AGAINST THE MAINLAND WOULD HALT AGGRESSION IN KOREA.

"IT WOULD TAKE SIX MONTHS FOR US TO START THE LARGE-SCALE COUNTER-OFFENSIVE AFTER NECESSARY AND ADEQUATE EQUIPMENT AND SUPPLIES ARE AVAILABLE IN FORMOSA, HE SAID.

A173KX

I ASKED CHIANG IF THE 33,000 TROOPS HE OFFERED FOR SERVICE IN KORE LAST YEAR STILL WERE AVAILABLE.

"THERE HAS BEEN NO NEW APPROACH BY THE UNITED NATIONS," HE REPLIED. "IF THERE SHOULD BE, CONSULTATIONS WOULD BE NECESSARY TO MEET THE NEW AND CHANGED SITUATION. BUT IN CASE OF URGENT NEED I CERTAINLY WILL NOT SHIRK MY RESPONSIBILITIES."

I THEN SAID THERE WAS A WIDESPREAD BELIEF IN THE UNITED STATES THAT THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT WAS CORRUPT IN ITS ADMINISTRATION OF AFFAIRS ON THE MAINLAND AND THAT INDIVIDUAL LEADERS OF THAT REGIME TOOK OR EXPORTED TO THE UNITED STATES MUCH WEALTH. I ASKED IF ANY SUCH WEALTH HAD BEEN RECOVERED AND USED FOR THE BENEFIT OF ALL CHINA.

CHIANG'S REPLY, SOURCES HERE SAID, WAS THE FIRST COMMENT HE EVER HAS MADE ON THIS SUBJECT.

"FOR MANY YEARS," CHIANG SAID, "THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT HAS MADE INQUIRIES OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT SEEKING COOPERATION AND INFORMATION AS TO CHINESE WHO HAD TAKEN WEALTH TO THE UNITED STATES.

"WE REQUESTED THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT TO INFORM US OF THIS SO THAT WE COULD THEN TAKE ALL MEASURES TO RETURN THIS WEALTH OR TREASURE TO ITS RIGHTFUL OWNERS, THE GOVERNMENT OF CHINA.

"SO FAR, OUR TALKS HAVE PRODUCED NO RESULTS. WE ARE READY TO PROCEED TO RECLAIM ANY MONEY TAKEN FROM CHINA AND USE IT FOR THE GENERAL GOOD OF THE PEOPLE."

ASKED WHETHER THE CHINESE PEOPLE WOULD ACCEPT MILITANT COMMUNISM AND BECOME RESIGNED TO THE PRESENT RULE IN PEIPING, CHIANG DECLARED:

"ABSOLUTELY NOT. THE CULTURE TRADITION, THE PHILOSOPHY OF THE CHINESE PEOPLE, IS DIAMETRICALLY OPPOSED TO COMMUNISM."

HERE THE GENERALISSIMO VENTURED A BIT OF HUMOR.

"EVEN AFTER THE DEATH OF A CHINESE," HE SAID, "I DON'T THINK HIS GHOST WOULD BECOME COMMUNIST."

THE PRESENT RED PURGE OF THE ANTI-COMMUNIST CHINESE "PREVENTS LOCAL LEADERS FROM EMERGING ON THE CHINESE MAINLAND," CHIANG SAID.

"ONLY WHEN A COUNTEROFFENSIVE IS LAUNCHED FROM FORMOSA WILL IT BE POSSIBLE TO START THE LIBERATION OF THE CHINESE PEOPLE FROM COMMUNISTIC OPPRESSION," HE ADDED.

IN CONCLUSION I TOLD THE GENERALISSIMO THAT SOME ONE HAD SUGGESTED HE VISIT THE UNITED STATES AND SPEAK TO A JOINT SESSION OF CONGRESS.

"WHEN WE SUCCEED IN RECOVERING THE MAINLAND OF CHINA," HE SAID, "I WOULD CERTAINLY DEEM IT A PLEASURE TO VISIT AMERICA TO THANK OUR FRIENDS WHO HAVE HELPED US IN OUR STRUGGLE."

NEW YORK, MAY 16-(AP)-CHIANG KAI-SHEK IS BACKED BY GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR IN HIS VIEW THAT TAKING THE WRAPS OFF CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS ON FORMOSA COULD DIVERT COMMUNIST PRESSURE FROM KOREA.

THIS WAS ONE OF MACARTHUR'S CONTROVERSIAL PROPOSALS THAT FAILED TO WIN THE ENDORSEMENT OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN, DEFENSE SECRETARY GEORGE C. MARSHALL AND THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF.

MACARTHUR'S OTHER CHIEF PROPOSALS THAT WERE REJECTED WERE THE BOMBING OF BASES AND SUPPLY LINES IN COMMUNIST CHINA AND A NAVAL BLOCKADE OF CHINA.

HIS OPPONENTS ON STRATEGY HELD THAT THESE MEASURES WOULD ENLARGE THE WAR AND INCUR THE RISK OF SOVIET RUSSIAN INTERVENTION.

THEY HELD ALSO THAT THE CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS LACKED TRAINING, LEADERSHIP AND EQUIPMENT FOR OFFENSIVE ACTION.

MACARTHUR, TESTIFYING AT THE SENATE HEARINGS, SAID:

"WHEN FORMOSA WAS THREATENED BY THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS, THE BEST USE THAT COULD HAVE BEEN MADE OF THOSE (CHINESE NATIONALIST) TROOPS WAS TO LEAVE THEM RIGHT ON FORMOSA, BUT THE MINUTE THAT THREAT WAS RELIEVED, THOSE TROOPS SHOULD HAVE BEEN UTILIZED IN SUCH WAYS AS MIGHT HAVE SEEMED BEST....

"I THINK WE COULD USE SOME OF THEM TO GREAT ADVANTAGE IN KOREA."

AT ANOTHER POINT, MACARTHUR SAID:

"THE GENERALISSIMO HAS PROBABLY IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD OF A HALF-MILLION TROOPS. THE PERSONNEL IS EXCELLENT. THEY ARE JUST EXACTLY THE SAME AS THE RED TROOPS I AM FIGHTING. THEY HAVE A GOOD MORALE. THEIR MATERIAL EQUIPMENT IS SPOTTY. THEY LACK ARTILLERY. THEY LACK TRUCKS. THEY LACK A GREAT MANY OF THE MODERN REFINEMENTS."

MACARTHUR WAS ASKED AT THE HEARING WHETHER HE APPROVED USE OF UNITED STATES LANDING CRAFT AND PERSONNEL TO HELP PUT CHIANG'S FORCES ASHORE IF THEY MADE A SUBSTANTIAL LANDING ON THE CHINA COAST.

"I BELIEVE THAT WE SHOULD RENDER EVERY POSSIBLE ASSISTANCE TO HIM THAT IS WITHIN OUR POWER, IF HE ATTEMPTS SUCH STRATEGY," MACARTHUR REPLIED.

GEN. MARSHALL TESTIFIED THAT MACARTHUR MADE THESE RECOMMENDATIONS, AMONG OTHERS, LATE LAST YEAR:

"SECURE APPROPRIATE REINFORCEMENTS FROM THE NATIONALIST GARRISON ON FORMOSA.

"RELEASE EXISTING RESTRICTIONS UPON THE FORMOSAN GARRISON FOR DIVERSIONAL ACTION AGAINST THE VULNERABLE AREAS OF CHINA'S MAINLAND."

THE OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS CONCERNED THE BOMBING OF CHINA AND THE NAVAL BLOCKADE.

MARSHALL TOLD THE SENATORS:

"ON JAN.9 THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, WITH THE APPROVAL OF THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE AND THE PRESIDENT, INFORMED GEN. MACARTHUR THAT THE RETALIATORY MEASURES SUGGESTED BY HIM COULD NOT BE PERMITTED...."

GEN. OMAR N. BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, WAS ASKED AT THE HEARING YESTERDAY WHY THE JOINT CHIEFS DID NOT APPROVE MACARTHUR'S RECOMMENDATION FOR THE USE OF CHIANG'S TROOPS.

BRADLEY REPLIED:

"AS GEN. MACARTHUR HIMSELF HAD POINTED OUT, THEY WOULD HAVE TO HAVE ALMOST COMPLETE LOGISTICAL SUPPORT FROM OURSELVES, TRANSPORTATION FURNISHED.

"IN THE OPINION OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF THEIR LEADERSHIP, EQUIPMENT AND TRAINING WERE ALL OF SUCH A STATE THAT THEY WOULD BE OF LIMITED USE IN OFFENSIVE OPERATIONS."

THE NORBAY CLEARED SINGAPORE LAST SATURDAY, BOUND FOR THE RED CHINESE PORT OF WHAMPOA, VIA PENANG. SHE IS CARRYING 6,700 BALES OF FIRST GRADE RUBBER VALUED AT $2,000,000 (STRAITS) ($666,000).

THE HARBOR MASTER IN PENANG SAID TODAY THE NORBAY HAD BEEN GIVEN CLEARANCE, BUT THAT HER CAPTAIN HAD DECIDED TO RETURN TO SINGAPORE LATER TODAY AND DECIDE WHAT COURSE TO TAKE.

PENANG OFFICIALS BRANDED AS "UTTER NONSENSE" A REPORT IN THE NEWS-PAPER SINGAPORE STANDARD THAT THE NORBAY HAD BEEN HELD UP AT PENANG. THEY SAID THE VESSEL WAS SAILING UNDER PANAMANIAN REGISTRY AND "WE HAVE NO JURISDICTION OVER HER MOVEMENT, IRRESPECTIVE OF WHAT SHE CARRIED"--WHETHER IT BE FOR RED CHINA OR ANYWHERE ELSE.

CHIANG-SENATE (350)

WASHINGTON,MAY 16-(AP)-SENATOR HICKENLOOPER (R-IA) SAID TODAY THAT PUBLIC OPINION--SPURRED BY GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S PROPOSALS--EVENTUALLY WILL FORCE USE OF CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S NATIONALISTS FOR AN ATTACK UPON THE COMMUNIST-HELD CHINESE MAINLAND.

CHIANG TOLD FRANK KING, ASSOCIATED PRESS GENERAL EXECUTIVE, IN AN INTERVIEW AT TAIPEH, FORMOSA, TODAY THAT HIS FORCE COULD HALT RED CHINESE AGGRESSION IN KOREA BY A BODY PUNCH TO THE MAINLAND.

HICKENLOOPER, A MEMBER OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, REMARKED TO A NEWSMAN THAT HE HAD BEEN URGING THIS "FOR A LONG TIME."

SENATOR MCMAHON (D-CONN), ALSO A FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEEMAN WHO HAS STRONGLY SUPPORTED THE OUSTER OF GEN.MACARTHUR BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN, TOOK A DIFFERENT VIEW.

"CHIANG MAY HAVE A NEW LOT OF SOLDIERS WHO WON'T THROW AWAY THEIR GUNS AS THEY DID THE LAST TIME WE SUPPLIED THEM," MCMAHON SAID SARCASTICALLY. "I HAVE ALWAYS SAID THAT ANY EFFECTIVE INVASION BY CHIANG'S TROOPS FROM FORMOSA WOULD HAVE TO BE BEHIND AMERICAN FORCES."

LINCOLN WHITE, STATE DEPARTMENT PRESS RELATIONS OFFICER, SAID THE DEPARTMENT HAD NO COMMENT TO MAKE ON CHIANG'S STATEMENTS. HE NOTED THAT THEY INVOLVED MATTERS ON WHICH U. S. MILITARY LEADERS ARE NOW TESTIFYING BEFORE THE SENATE COMMITTEES INVESTIGATING THE REMOVAL OF GEN.MACARTHUR.

THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE ALSO HAD NOTHING TO SAY. A SPOKESMAN SAID THAT AS A MATTER OF POLICY THE DEPARTMENT DOES NOT COMMENT ON STATEMENTS BY THE HEAD OF A FRIENDLY STATE.

HICKENLOOPER SAID "I THINK THAT A DIVERSIONARY ACTION BY THE NATIONALIST CHINESE ON THE MAINLAND OF CHINA WOULD PULL THE PRESSURE OFF FORMOSA AND ALSO OFF THE FRENCH IN INDO-CHINA."

THE FRENCH HAVE A LARGE FORCE BATTLING COMMUNISTS IN INDO-CHINA.

"I THINK THE GREATEST OPPORTUNITY OF THE LAST SEVERAL YEARS IS NOW FOR UNITING OF ANTI-COMMUNIST GUERRILLA FORCES ON THE CHINA MAINLAND.

"THAT AND THE DESTRUCTION OF RED BASES IN MANCHURIA SHOULD GET UNDERWAY. I THINK THAT THE STATE DEPARTMENT WILL HAVE TO COME AROUND TO THIS LINE OF THINKING BECAUSE OF THE FORCE OF PUBLIC OPINION AND THE REALIZATION OF THE SITUATION."

HICKENLOOPER SAID AN EXAMPLE OF THE FORCE OF PUBLIC OPINION WAS THE RECENT STATE DEPARTMENT ACTION IN "SHUTTING OFF THE SHIPMENTS OF STRATEGIC MATERIALS TO RED CHINA."

"THE DEPARTMENT FINALLY HAS TAKEN STEPS TO CUT OFF THIS VICIOUS TRADE BECAUSE OF PUBLIC OPINION," HE SAID. "SO FAR THE MACARTHUR PROPOSALS HAVE NEITHER BEEN SHAKEN NOR DISPROVED IN ANY WAY."

NIGHT LEAD IRAN

BY ROBERT B.HEWETT

TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 16-(AP)-POLICE ARRESTED THE NO.2 MAN OF THE FANATICAL FEDEYAN ISLAM, RELIGIOUS SOCIETY IN A GUN FIGHT TODAY AND CHARGED HIM WITH PLOTTING THE ASSASSINATION OF PREMIER MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH.

THE ARREST AND A NEWSPAPER CAMPAIGN THREATENING A MOSLEM HOLY WAR AGAINST BRITAIN BUILT UP PRESSURE FOR THE SPEEDY SEIZURE OF THE RICH ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY UNDER THE NATIONALIZATION LAW.

ALL NEWSPAPERS PRINTED ALARMIST REPORTS--NOT CONFIRMED BY THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT--THAT BRITAIN IS PLANNING TO SEND PARACHUTE TROOPS TO IRAN TO HOLD HER SOUTHERN OIL FIELDS. A NATIONALIST PAPER ACCUSED BRITAIN OF AIMING AT PARTITION OF THE COUNTRY WITH RUSSIA.

A HIGH RANKING POLICE OFFICER SAID THE ARRESTED GUNMAN WAS ABOLGHASSEM RAFIEE AND QUOTED HIM AS SAYING: "MOSSADEGH IS LUCKY I AM CAUGHT. OTHERWISE HE WOULD HAVE BEEN SHOT WITHIN THE NEXT TWO OR THREE DAYS."

POLICE SURROUNDED RAFIEE'S HIDEOUT IN THE BAZAAR DISTRICT AT 4 A.M. AND EXCHANGE SEVERAL SHOTS WITH HIM WITHOUT ANYONE BEING WOUNDED. THE ARREST WAS THE RESULT OF A MANHUNT FOR NAVAB SAFAVI, UNDERGROUND CHIEF OF FEDEYAN ISLAM.

RAFIEE WAS QUOTED AS SAYING THE TERRORIST GROUP, WHICH WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE SLAYING OF GEN.ALA RAZMARA, THE ANTI-OIL NATIONALIZATION PREMIER, ALSO PLANNED THE ASSASSINATION OF AYATULLAH SEYID ABOLGHASSEM KASHANI, AN OUTSTANDING RELIGIOUS LEADER. KASHANI ONCE HAD STRONG INFLUENCE WITH FEDEYAN ISLAM, BUT CONTINUES TO SUPPORT MOSSADEGH WHILE THE SOCIETY HAS FALLEN OUT WITH THE PREMIER. IT APPARENTLY FEELS MOSSADEGH IS NOT MOVING FAST ENOUGH TOWARD NATIONALISTIC GOALS.

(U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON SAID WASHINGTON IS URGING BOTH IRAN AND BRITAIN TO AVOID EXTREME STEPS IN THE OIL CRISIS. HE SAID THE TWO COUNTRIES HAVE AMPLE OPPORTUNITY TO WORK OUT A HARMONIOUS SETTLEMENT).

MOSSADEGH, WHO HAS BARRICADED HIMSELF IN THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING SINCE SUNDAY, WAS MORE UPSET THAN EVER. HE ORDERED ALL THE WINDOWS OF HIS LOCKED ROOMS BOARDED UP. OFFICIALS SAID HE FEARED SOMONE MIGHT SHOOT HIM FROM THE SEPAH SALAR MOSQUE, 200 YARDS DISTANT.

MOSSADEGH LOCKED HIMSELF IN AFTER DECLARING HIS LIFE WAS THREATENED AT THE INSTIGATION OF THE OIL COMPANY, AND THAT HE WOULD REMAIN IN HIS SANCTUARY UNTIL SEIZURE OF THE COMPANY IS COMPLETED.

MANY DEPUTIES AND NEWSPAPERS WERE CRITICAL OF THIS SELF-IMPOSED IMPRISONMENT, BY WHICH MOSSADEGH IS ABLE TO TRANSACT LITTLE BUSINESS.

THE NEWSPAPER CAMPAIGN AGAINST BRITAIN WAS VIEWED BY WESTERN OBSERVERS OF LONG EXPERIENCE HERE AS PART OF THE PRESSURE TACTICS OF MOSSADEGH, WHO WHIPPED THE NATIONALIZATION LAW THROUGH A SCARED PARLIAMENT IN THREE DAYS BY MEANS OF VAGUE THREATS OF BLOODSHED.

THE MOST VIOLENT REACTION TO THE BRITISH PARACHUTE TROOP REPORT WAS FROM THE NEWSPAPER SHAHED. MOSAFFAR BAGHAIE, THE EDITOR, IS ONE OF MOSSADEGH'S CLOSEST SUPPORTERS.

A191

"TO REACH THIS HOLY GOAL (OIL NATIONALIZATION) IRAN WILL FIGHT A HOLY WAR IF NECESSARY," BAGHAIE SAID IN AN EDITORIAL. "IF OIL NATIONALIZATION IS OBSTRUCTED BY THE BAD POLICY OF BRITISH POLITICIANS WHO REFUSE TO FACE THE FACTS THE DAY WILL COME WHEN NOT A SINGLE BRITISHER WILL DARE STAY IN THIS COUNTRY. THE IRANIAN MOSLEM NATION WILL DEAL WITH EVERY BRITISH INDIVIDUAL AS AN INFIDEL."

THE NATIONAL FRONT NEWSPAPER ATTASH SAID BRITAIN IS INTENDING AGAIN TO DIVIDE THE NATION AS IN THE DAYS OF THE CZARS, WHEN RUSSIA HAD A NORTHERN ZONE OF INFLUENCE AND BRITAIN HAD A SOUTHERN ZONE.

"OUR COUNTRY IS NOT DIVISIBLE AS LONG AS ONE SINGLE IRANIAN LIVES," HE DECLARED. "IRAN HAS DECIDED TO PUT AN END TO THE POWER INFLUENCE OF FOREIGNERS IN THIS COUNTRY."

HIS REFERENCE OBVIOUSLY WAS TO THE POSSIBILITY THAT A BRITISH MOVE MIGHT CAUSE RUSSIA TO HEAD INTO THE COUNTRY FROM THE NORTH, WHERE SHE HAS SOUGHT OIL CONCESSIONS.

HOSSEIN MAKKI, SECRETARY OF THE PARLIAMENTARY BOARD EMPOWERED TO TAKE OVER THE ANGLO-IRANIAN COMPANY, DECLARED TO A REPORTER THAT "ANY STRONG ACTION, IF TAKEN, WOULD SHAKE WORLD PEACE."

HE SAID IRANIAN LAW WOULD ALLOW THE GOVERNMENT TO CANCEL THE RESIDENCE PERMITS OF ANY BRITISH EMPLOYES OF THE COMPANY.

THE PARLIAMENTARY BOARD OBVIOUSLY WAS IN A DILEMMA AS TO HOW TO PROCEED WITH SEIZURE OF THE COMPANY WHICH MIGHT PRECIPITATE A SHOWDOWN.

EVEN IRANIANS AGREE THT THEY DO NOT HAVE THE TECHNICIANS TO OPERATE THE WORLD'S BIGGEST REFINERY. THEY ALSO LACK A TANKER FLEET

OR OTHER MEANS OF MARKETING THEIR OWN OIL.
BUT SOME DEPUTIES PREDICTED THE BOARD WOULD RUSH THROUGH SOME PLAN THIS WEEK. ONE REASON FOR THE HURRY, SOME IRANIANS SAID, IS THE FEELING THAT THE BRITISH LABOR GOVERNMENT MAY NOT LAST LONG AND THAT A GOVERNMENT HEADED BY CONSERVATIVE WINSTON CHURCHILL MIGHT TAKE STRONGER ACTION.
THE COMPANY SUPPLIES ABOUT 30 PER CENT OF BRITAIN'S OIL NEEDS AND MOST OF THE FUEL FOR HER NAVY.
MOSSADEGH AND OTHER OFFICIALS HAVE TALKED VAGUELY OF GIVING BRITAIN THE FIRST CHANCE AT BUYING THE OIL, AND OF KEEPING BRITISH ENGINEERS TO OPERATE THE INDUSTRY. BUT SO FAR THEY HAVE SHOWN NO READINESS TO GET DOWN TO BRASS TACKS.
BRITAIN IS EXPECTED TO PRESENT ANOTHER NOTE SUGGESTING AN AMICABLE SETTLEMENT IN THE NEXT FEW DAYS.
(IN LONDON, A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID BRITAIN WAS CONSULTING WITH THE UNITED STATES. BRITISH OFFICIALS SAID THEY FELT THEY HAD STRONG BACKING FROM THE UNITED STATES, BUT DID NOT CLAIM ANY AMERICAN COMMITMENT TO SUPPORT ANY USE OF FORCE. MOST BRITISH OFFICIALS WERE SAID TO REGARD THE USE OF PARACHUTE TROOPS IN THE OIL FIELDS AS A REMOTE POSSIBILITY. BUT THEY SAID A STRIKE BY BRITISH EMPLOYES COULD CRIPPLE OPERATIONS. THERE WERE SUGGESTIONS THAT A MISSION HEADED BY SIR HARTLEY SHAWCROSS, PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD OF TRADE, OR KENNETH YOUNGER, NO. 2 MAN IN THE FOREIGN OFFICE, MIGHT BE SENT TO TEHRAN TO NEGOTIATE.)

PREMIER MOSSADEGH HAS TAKEN REFUGE BEHIND LOCKED DOORS IN PARLIAMENT, FEARING THREATS AGAINST HIS LIFE.

THIS WAS THE LATEST INCIDENT IN RESTIVE TEHRAN. THE PARLIAMENT'S ACTION IN NATIONALIZING THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY HA FOCUSED WORLD ATTENTION ONCE MORE ON THIS POTENTIAL TROUBLE SPOT IN EAST-WEST RELATIONS.
TEMPERS ARE RUNNING HIGH. AN EDITOR WHO IS A CLOSE ADVISER TO MOSSADEGH SAYS BRITONS FACE A "HOLY WAR" IF THEY TRY TO OBSTRUCT NATIONALIZATION.

THE THREAT WAS CARRIED TODAY IN AN EDITORIAL IN THE NEWSPAPER SHAHED. ITS EDITOR, MO SAFFAR BAGHAIE IS A NATIONAL FRONT MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT AND ONE OF THE CLOSEST ADVISERS OF PREMIER F. MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH.
THIS WAS THE MOST VIOLENT OF THE PRESS REACTION TO WHOLLY UNCONFIRMED REPORTS THAT BRITAIN PLANS TO SEND PARACHUTE TROOPS TO THE IRANIAN OILFIELDS. WESTERN DIPLOMATS HERE TOOK SHAHED'S THREAT WITH A GRAIN OF SALT, BUT THE CAMPAIGN IS IN LINE WITH MOSSADEGH'S TACTICS IN RUSHING THROUGH THE OIL NATIONALIZATION BILL -- WITH VAGUE WARNINGS OF UNSPECIFIED TROUBLE IF THE BILL WERE BLOCKED.
THE PREMIER HAS TAKEN UP RESIDENCE IN THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING--EATING THERE AND SLEEPING THERE--WITH THE AVOWED AIM OF STAYING UNTIL THE NATIONALIST PROGRAM IS CARRIED OUT.

ALL TEHRAN NEWSPAPERS SPLASHED THE PARACHUTE TROOPS REPORT, BUT NONE WAS AS OUTSPOKEN AS SHAHED, WHICH SAID:
"TO REACH THIS HOLY GOAL (OIL NATIONALIZATION) IRAN WILL FIGHT A HOLY WAR IF NECESSARY.
"IF OIL NATIONALIZATION IS OBSTRUCTED BY THE BAD POLICY OF BRITISH POLITICIANS WHO REFUSE TO FACE THE FACTS, THE DAY WILL COME WHEN NOT A SINGLE BRITISHER WILL DARE STAY IN THIS COUNTRY. THE IRANIAN MOSLEM NATION WILL DEAL WITH EVERY BRITISH INDIVIDUAL AS AN INFIDEL."

THE 11-MAN PARLIAMENTARY BOARD SET UP TO FIND WAYS OF CARRYING OUT THE NATIONALIZATION LAW MET FOR THE THIRD STRAIGHT DAY. NOBODY HERE DOUBTS NATIONALIZATION WILL BE CARRIED OUT, BUT THE BIG QUESTION IS: HOW?
EVEN IRANIANS SAY THEY ARE NOT SUFFICIENTLY TRAINED TECHNICALLY TO OPERATE THE WORLD'S BIGGEST REFINERY AND THE WELLS SUPPLYING IT. MOSSADEGH AND OTHER GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS HAVE TALKED VAGUELY OF KEEPING ON BRITISH ENGINEERS OR OTHER FOREIGN EXPERTS.
SO FAR, HOWEVER, THERE HAS BEEN NO DISPOSITION TO GET DOWN TO BRASS TACKS AND TALK OVER SOME PRACTICAL OPERATING METHOD WITH BRITISH REPRESENTATIVES.

LONDON, MAY 16-(AP)-BRITAIN WAS COMPLETING TODAY THE DRAFT OF NEW PROPOSALS FOR SETTLEMENT OF ITS OIL DISPUTE WITH IRAN, AFTER CONSULTATIONS WITH THE UNITED STATES.
A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID THE NOTE WILL BE SENT TO TEHRAN EITHER LATER TODAY OR TOMORROW.
INFORMED SOURCES SAID THE NOTE WILL BE FIRM IN TONE, AND PROPOSE SENDING A HIGH LEVEL MISSION TO IRAN TO TALK SETTLEMENT OF ISSUES RAISED BY IRAN'S DETERMINATION TO NATIONALIZE THE HUGE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY.
BRITISH OFFICIALS FEEL THEY HAVE STRONG BACKING OF THE UNITED STATES IN THEIR LATEST MOVE. BUT THEY SHY AWAY FROM CLAIMING ANY AMERICAN COMMITMENT OF SUPPORT IF BRITAIN DECIDES IT IS NECESSARY TO USE FORCE TO PROTECT BRITISH LIVES AND PROPERTY IN IRAN.
THE HINT OF THE USE OF FORCE HAS BEEN ACHIEVED BY BRITAIN WITHOUT ANY DIRECT OFFICIAL LINK WITH THE CRITICAL SITUATION IN IRAN.
THE WAR OFFICE -- IN WHAT IS NOW REGARDED GENERALLY AS AN "UNSVIRED LEAK" -- LET OUT THE NEWS THAT THE 16TH INDEPENDENT PARACHUTE BRIGA

"INSPIRED LEAK" -- LET OUT THE NEWS THAT THE 16TH INDEPENDENT PARACHUTE BRIGADE GROUP WAS BEING ALERTED. FOR WHAT PURPOSE, THE WAR OFFICE STILL HAS NOT SAID.
BUT PUTTING THE PARATROOPERS ON AN EMERGENCY FOOTING WAS QUICKLY LINKED BY MOST OBSERVERS WITH BRITAIN'S RESISTANCE OF IRAN'S OIL NATIONALIZATION.

IF TROOPS SHOULD BE SENT TO IRAN, MOST SOURCES HERE BELIEVE THAT FORCES NOW STATIONED IN THE SUEZ CANAL ZONE WOULD BE USED. THE PARATROOPERS MIGHT THEN GO TO THE CANAL ZONE AS REPLACEMENTS.
THE USE OF TROOPS, HOWEVER, IS REGARDED BY MOST BRITISH OFFICIALS AS A REMOTE POSSIBILITY.
THEY POINT OUT THAT IRAN LACKS THE TECHNICIANS AND KNOW-HOW TO RUN THE OIL COMPANY. IRAN ALSO NEEDS THE OIL ROYALTIES TO RUN ITS GOVERNMENT.

A STRIKE COULD BE USED BY BOTH BRITAIN AND IRAN TO CRIPPLE THE COMPANY. THE PERSIAN EMPLOYES COULD WALK OUT AND STOP THE COMPANY'S OPERATIONS IN AN ATTEMPT TO FORCE THE COMPANY TO SUBMIT TO AN IRANIAN GOVERNMENT TAKE-OVER.

THE BRITISH EMPLOYES -- HOLDING THE KEY JOBS IN THE OIL FIELDS AND REFINERIES -- COULD STRIKE AND HALT PRODUCTION IN ORDER TO STOP ANY SUCH TAKE-OVER.

ANKARA, TURKEY, MAY 16-(AP)-KING ABDULLAH OF JORDAN DECLARED TONIGHT THAT IRAN NEEDS "A MORE COURAGEOUS GOVERNMENT" TO PROTECT REAL NATIONAL INTERESTS.

IN AN INTERVIEW GRANTED DURING HIS STATE VISIT TO TURKEY, THE ARAB MONARCH DESCRIBED THE SITUATION IN IRAN AS "SERIOUS AND GRAVE" AS A RESULT OF THE DETERMINED CAMPAIGN TO NATIONALIZE OIL INTERESTS.

"THE BRITISH HAVE, IN THIS QUESTION, ACTED FOR THE INTERESTS OF THE IRANIAN PEOPLE AND HAVE SHOWN EXTREME PATIENCE."

"A MORE COURAGEOUS GOVERNMENT IS NEEDED RIGHT NOW IN IRAN," THE KING DECLARED, MAKING CLEAR HIS OPINION THAT HE FELT THE ADMINISTRATION IN THAT COUNTRY BOWED TOO EASILY TO AGITATION FOR NATIONALIZING ITS OIL.

ASKED WHAT HE THOUGHT OF REPORTS OF POSSIBLE MILITARY INTERVENTION TO PROTECT BRITISH OIL INTERESTS IN IRAN, ABDULLAH REPLIED THAT SUCH REPORTS SHOULD BE TREATED WITH CAUTION. HE EXPRESSED HIS PERSONAL OPINION THAT THE BRITISH WOULD NOT TAKE SUCH A STEP.

THE KING ALSO COMMENTED THAT HE BELIEVED THE SYRIAN-ISRAELI BORDER CONFLICT WAS A PURELY LOCAL INCIDENT WHICH HAS BEEN "GREATLY EXAGGERATED ABROAD."

NIGHT LEAD NEHRU (400)

BY SELIG HARRISON

NEW DELHI, INDIA, MAY 16-(AP)-PRIME MINISTER NEHRU DECLARED TODAY INDIA'S PRESS IS THE FREEST IN THE WORLD, BUT "THERE IS A LIMIT TO THE LICENSE ONE CAN ALLOW" FLY-BY-NIGHT NEWS SHEETS AND A CONSTITUTIONAL CURB IS NECESSARY.

AMERICAN AND OTHER FOREIGN CRITICISM OF HIS PROPOSAL TO AMEND THE FREEDOM OF SPEECH CLAUSE OF INDIA'S CONSTITUTION CAME IN FOR ATTENTION FROM THE PRIME MINISTER IN A 75-MINUTE SPEECH BEFORE PARLIAMENT.

"THERE HAS BEEN CRITICISM NOT ONLY IN INDIA, AS THERE SHOULD BE, BUT ALSO IN SOME FOREIGN COUNTRIES WHERE SOME OF OUR FRIENDS--OR THOSE WHO WERE OUR FRIENDS--HAVE GOT INTO THE HABIT OF CRITICIZING US WHATEVER WE DO," THE PRIME MINISTER SAID.

"IF WE SEEK PEACE THEY CRITICIZE US. IF WE DO SOMETHING ELSE, THEY SAY WE ARE NOT PEACEFUL. BUT WE WELCOME THIS CRITICISM BECAUSE, IN A MATTER OF THIS KIND, THE MORE SCRUTINY THE BETTER."

OFFICIAL SOURCES SAID THE CURB, FIRST PROPOSED SATURDAY, IS AIMED AT PUBLICATIONS AGITATING VIOLENCE IN BEHALF OF INDIA'S COMMUNISTS. THEY REPORTED NEHRU WAS ANNOYED BY CRITICISM FROM THE UNITED STATES, WHERE HE HAS BEEN CRITICIZED BEFORE FOR SEEKING A MIDDLE GROUND BETWEEN THE COMMUNIST AND WESTERN SPHERES.

A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN CITED AN EDITORIAL IN THE NEW YORK TIMES MONDAY. THE TIMES SAID "LIBERTY IS INDIVISIBLE AND MR.NEHRU IS NOT GOING TO KEEP HIS COVETED INDEPENDENCE IN FOREIGN POLICY LONG IF HE CURBS FREEDOM AT HOME."

NEHRU MOVED REFERENCE OF THE PROPOSED 14-POINT AMENDMENT, WHICH ALSO WOULD STRENGTHEN THE GOVERNMENT'S HAND IN DEALING WITH LAND REFORM AND NATIONALIZATION OF INDUSTRY, TO A SELECT COMMITTEE OF 21 MEMBERS--ALONG WITH INSTRUCTIONS THAT THE COMMITTEE REPORT BACK BY MONDAY.

THIS IS NORMAL INDIAN LEGISLATIVE PROCEDURE FOR IMPORTANT BILLS. NEHRU HIMSELF ASSUMED CHAIRMANSHIP OF THE COMMITTEE FOR THE FIRST TIME, INDICATING HE PLANS TO PILOT THROUGH THE BILL ACCORDING TO HIS VIEW. THE COMMITTEE INCLUDES A LIBERAL PROPORTION OF HIS BACKERS.

IT DOES NOT INCLUDE DESHBANDU GUPTA, A MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT AND PRESIDENT OF THE ALL-INDIA NEWSPAPER EDITORS' CONFERENCE WHO IS SPEARHEADING OPPOSITION TO THE BILL. GUPTA IS MANAGING EDITOR OF THE CONSERVATIVE INDIAN NEWS CHRONICLE OF NEW DELHI.

NEHRU'S VIEW IS THAT SOMETHING MUST BE DONE "ABOUT THESE LITTLE SHEETS COMING OUT DAY TO DAY WHICH POISON AND VITIATE THE ATMOSPHERE."

"FREEDOM CARRIES CERTAIN RESPONSIBILITIES, OBLIGATIONS AND DISCIPLINE," THE PRIME MINISTER TOLD PARLIAMENT. "IF THESE ARE LACKING THEN IT IS THE ABSENCE OF FREEDOM, THE NEGATION OF FREEDOM. X X X IT IS A MATTER OF DEEPEST DISTRESS TO ME TO SEE, DAY TO DAY, THE WAY THESE NEWS SHEETS ARE POISONING THE MINDS OF THE YOUNGER GENERATION. X X X NOBODY THINKS OF RESTRAINING THE FREEDOM OF RESPONSIBLE ORGANS UNLESS SOME VERY FUNDAMENTAL THING OCCURS."

NEW DELHI, INDIA, MAY 16-(AP)-PRIME MINISTER NEHRU, DEFENDING HIS PROPOSALS TO AMEND THE FREEDOM OF SPEECH CLAUSE AND OTHER SECTIONS OF INDIA'S CONSTITUTION, TOLD PARLIAMENT TODAY THE HABIT SEEMED TO BE GROWING ABROAD "TO CRITICIZE US WHATEVER WE DO."

NEHRU SAID "THERE HAS BEEN CRITICISM, NOT ONLY IN INDIA AS THERE SHOULD BE, BUT ALSO IN SOME FOREIGN COUNTRIES WHERE SOME OF OUR FRIENDS -- OR THOSE WHO WERE OUR FRIENDS--HAVE GOT INTO THE HABIT OF CRITICIZING US WHATEVER WE MIGHT DO.

"IF WE SEEK PEACE, THEY CRITICIZE US. IF WE DO SOMETHING ELSE, THEY SAY WE ARE NOT PEACEFUL. BUT WE WELCOME THIS CRITICISM, BECAUSE IN MATTERS OF THIS KIND THE MORE SCRUTINY THE BETTER."

MOVING TO REFER A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO A COMMITTEE OF 21 MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT WITH INSTRUCTIONS TO REPORT BY MAY 21, NEHRU SAID THE AMENDMENT WAS "AN ENABLING MEASURE CLARIFYING THE POWER OF PARLIAMENT" AND NOT TO EMPOWER THE GOVERNMENT AS SUCH.

TERMING THE PRESENT PERIOD "A KIND OF PREWAR STAGE OF THE GREAT CRISIS FOR WHICH WE HAVE TO SUFFER THE CONSEQUENCES," NEHRU DENOUNCED AS "IRRESPONSIBLE" ELEMENTS OF THE INDIAN PRESS.

"WHAT ARE WE TO DO ABOUT THESE LITTLE SHEETS, COMING OUT DAY TO DAY, WHICH POISON AND VITIATI

"WHAT ARE WE TO DO ABOUT THESE LITTLE SHEETS, COMING OUT DAY TO DAY, WHICH POISON AND VITIATE THE ATMOSPHERE?" HE DEMANDED. "THERE IS A LIMIT TO THE LICENSE ONE CAN ALLOW X X X X. FREEDOM CARRIES CERTAIN RESPONSIBILITIES, OBLIGATIONS AND DISCIPLINE. IF THESE ARE LACKING, THEN IT IS AN ABSENCE OF FREEDOM, A NEGATION OF FREEDOM."

NEHRU DECLARED THAT "THERE IS NO COUNTRY IN THE WORLD WHERE THERE IS SO MUCH FREEDOM WITH REGARD TO THE PRESS AS INDIA. BUT IT IS A MATTER OF THE DEEPEST DISTRESS TO ME TO SEE DAY TO DAY THESE NEWS SHEETS POISONING THE MINDS OF THE YOUNGER GENERATION."

"IMAGINE OUR SOLDIERS AND SAILORS READING THIS DAY TO DAY," HE SAID. "THE WAY UNTRUTH IS BANDIED ABOUT, IT IS BECOMING IMPOSSIBLE TO DISTINGUISH TRUTH FROM FALSEHOOD."

REFERRING TO AN AMENDMENT TO ENABLE STATE GOVERNMENTS TO ABOLISH ZAMINDARI (ABSENTEE LANDLORDSHIP WITHOUT COMPENSATION) NEHRU CONTINUED, "THE ESSENTIAL PROBLEM FOR INDIA AND ALL ASIA IS LAND REFORM."

IN THE INTERESTS OF STABILITY, NEHRU SAID, HE PREFERRED TO PAY

"ADEQUATE COMPENSATION, BUT NOT TOO MUCH OF IT" FOR THE END OF THE ZAMINDARI.

THE SOCIALISTS AND OTHER OPPOSITION PARTIES DEMANDED ABOLITION OF ZAMINDARI WITH NO COMPENSATION.

STRESSING THAT IT WAS UNLIKELY THE AMENDMENTS WOULD BE THE BASIS FOR LEGISLATION BY THE PRESENT GOVERNMENT AND PARLIAMENT, NEHRU SAID, "I REPUDIATE THE SUGGESTION THAT ANY OF THESE AMENDMENTS ARE DESIGNED FOR ANY POLITICAL OR PARTY (CONGRESS)."

KARACHI, PAKISTAN, MAY 16-(AP)-AN OFFICIAL SOURCE REPORTED TODAY THAT INDIA IS SEEKING TO PURCHASE THE PORT OF GWADAR, 400 MILES WEST OF KARACHI ON THE ARABIAN SEA COAST.

IN NEW DELHI, THE INDIAN FOREIGN OFFICE DISMISSED THE REPORT AS "PURE FABRICATION."

STRATEGICALLY LOCATED GWADAR IS RULED BY THE SULTAN OF MUSCAT AND OMAN, ALTHOUGH IT IS ENCOMPASSED BY PAKISTAN TERRITORY. IT SEEMED CERTAIN THE PAKISTAN GOVERNMENT WOULD OPPOSE ANY CHANGE IN THE OWNERSHIP OF GWADAR, WHICH POSSESSES AN AIR STRIP AND IS ON IMPORTANT INTERNATIONAL AIR ROUTES.

DAMASCUS, SYRIA, MAY 16-(AP)-ARAB LEAGUE POLITICAL COMMITTEE DELIBERATIONS WERE COMPLICATED TODAY BY THE UNEXPECTED ARRIVAL OF HAJ AMIN HUSSEINI, GRAND MUFTI OF JERUSALEM.

HE HAD NOT BEEN INVITED. HIS PRESENCE CAUSED THE REPRESENTATIVES OF JORDAN TO WITHDRAW FROM THE COMMITTEE MEETING, BUT THEY LATER WERE PERSUADED TO RETURN TOMORROW.

HUSSEINI, WHO ARRIVED WITH A DELEGATION OF PALESTINE ARABS FROM CAIRO, DEMANDED THAT THE LEAGUE UNDERTAKE MOBILIZATION OF ALL PALESTINIAN ARAB REFUGEES TO SUPPORT SYRIA IN ANY FIGHTING WITH ISRAEL.

THE COMMITTEE HAS NOT YET COMPLETED ITS STUDY OF SYRIA'S NOTE ON ITS BORDER CONFLICT WITH ISRAEL. IT IS EXPECTED THAT DEFINITE RECOMMENDATIONS FOR LEAGUE ACTION IN THE SITUATION WILL BE PRESENTED TOMORROW, THE LEAGUE SECRETARY GENERAL AZZAM PASHA ANNOUNCED.

IN BAGHDAD, PREMIER NURI PASHA AL SAID TOLD PARLIAMENT TODAY THAT THE IRAQI GUARD AND ANTI-AIRCRAFT GUNS AND PLANES HAVE BEEN SENT TO SYRIA TO ASSIST DEFENSE AGAINST ISRAELI "AGGRESSION."

BAGHDAD, IRAQ, MAY 16-(AP)-PREMIER NURI PASHA AL SAID ANNOUNCED IN PARLIAMENT TODAY THAT UNITS OF THE IRAQI GUARD WITH ANTI-AIRCRAFT GUNS AND PLANES HAVE MOVED INTO SYRIA TO AID SYRIANS AGAINST ALLEGED ISRAELI AGGRESSION. MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT APPLAUDED THE ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE PREMIER SAID THE SYRIAN GOVERNMENT HAD REQUESTED "WHATEVER AID POSSIBLE AGAINST ZIONIST RAIDS." HE ADDED:

"AS I AM SPEAKING, OUR GUARD AND ANTI-AIRCRAFT GUNS ARE ENTERING SYRIA AND ARE ABOUT TO TAKE POSITIONS AGREED UPON. OUR SYRIAN BROTHERS WILL SOON WITNESS IRAQI FIGHTERS IN THEIR DEFENSE. ALL THESE UNITS WILL REMAIN SYRIA UNTIL THE SYRIAN GOVERNMENT FINDS NO MORE NEED TO RETAIN THEM."

BORDER FIGHTING BETWEEN ISRAELI AND SYRIAN FORCES HAS FLARED UP IN THE PAST FEW WEEKS. THE TWO NATIONS ARE NOW OPERATING UNDER AN UNEASY UNITED NATIONS IMPOSED CEASE-FIRE. SYRIA HAS REPEATEDLY CHARGED INVASION OF HER TERRITORY BY ISRAELI FORCES, INCLUDING AIR UNITS.

NURI AL SAID TOLD PARLIAMENT A SYRIAN REQUEST FOR AID HAD BEEN RECEIVED BY HIS GOVERNMENT.

JAKARTA, INDONESIA, MAY 16-(AP)-APPARENTLY SHOCKED AT WORLDWIDE REPERCUSSIONS TO HIS STATEMENT THAT INDONESIA WOULD "SELL TO THE DEVIL" IF IT HELPED THIS COUNTRY, FOREIGN MINISTER ACHMAD SOEBARDJO ANNOUNCED TODAY THAT NO MORE ORAL INTERVIEWS WOULD BE GIVEN TO CORRESPONDENTS.

HIS ANNOUNCEMENT CAME AS OFFICIAL CIRCLES PARRIED QUESTIONS ABOUT WHAT INDONESIA WOULD DO UPON FINAL UNITED NATIONS ACTION ON AN EMBARGO ON SHIPMENTS OF STRATEGIC MATERIALS TO RED CHINA.

SOEBARDJO'S STATEMENT OF MAY 7 ABOUT SELLING "TO THE DEVIL" HAD BEEN QUOTED BY A REPORTER FOR THE INDONESIAN NEWS AGENCY ANTARA, AT A TIME WHEN THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS, THROUGH THEIR JAKARTA EMBASSY, WERE TRYING TO GET RUBBER AND OTHER STRATEGIC GOODS FROM THIS COUNTRY. THE FOREIGN MINISTER NOW SAYS THE MINISTRY HENCEFORTH WILL ASSUME RESPONSIBILITY ONLY FOR WRITTEN STATEMENTS.

A HIGH RANKING FOREIGN AFFAIRS DIPLOMAT HERE, TOLD A REPORTER TODAY, WITH REGARD TO INDONESIA'S POSITION ON THE EMBARGO, THAT "WE KNOW OUR RIGHTS AND DUTIES AS A U.N. MEMBER," BUT HE REFUSED TO ELABORATE.

HE STRESSED THAT INDONESIA'S ATTITUDE WOULD BE DECIDED BY THE CABINET FRIDAY. IT IS UNDERSTOOD THAT INDONESIA IS NOT ALTOGETHER OPPOSED TO THE EMBARGO, BUT THAT THIS DEPENDS UPON WHAT GOODS WOULD BE PLACED ON THE BLACKLIST.

INDONESIAN GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS SEEMED RELUCTANT TO CONSIDER NATURAL RUBBER A STRATEGIC MATERIAL BECAUSE MUCH OF THIS COUNTRY'S EXPORT ECONOMY DEPENDS UPON RUBBER.

THE INDONESIAN PRESS HAS BEEN OUTSPOKEN CONCERNING THE WEST'S ECONOMIC MOVES AGAINST COMMUNIST CHINA. MOST EDITORIALS REPROACH THE WEST FOR NOT HAVING REGARD FOR INDONESIA'S HOME PROBLEMS. IT IS ARGUED THAT THIS COUNTRY SHOULD NOT ALTER HER PRESENT NON-COMMITTAL FOREIGN POLICY.

SHARP CRITICISM OF THE UNITED STATES CAME FROM B.M. DIAH, CONSIDERED THE DEAN OF INDONESIAN JOURNALISTS, IN HIS NEWSPAPER MERDEKA (FREEDOM.) HE WROTE THAT IT IS BECOMING APPARENT THAT THE U.N. IS BECOMING A "TOOL IN WASHINGTON'S HANDS." HE PREDICTED THAT ASIAN RESPECT FOR THE U.N. WOULD DECREASE BECAUSE "AMERICA IS TRYING TO FORCE HER WILL ON OTHER NATIONS." AND THAT IN THE LONG RUN ASIANS WOULD BECOME ANTI-AMERICAN.

A DUTCH NEWSPAPER, NIEUWSGIER, SUPPORTED INDONESIAN POLICY, SAYING THE U.S. MOVES ARE LADING "TO ALMOST UNBEARABLE ECONOMIC TENSIONS" IN EAST ASIA. IT PREDICTED THE U.S. POLICY, "FORCING DOWN PRICES," WOULD MAKE WASHINGTON LOSE IN INDONESIA WHAT "IT PROBABLY WINS IN NORTH ASIA."

SAIGON, INDOCHINA, MAY 16-(AP)-FRENCH AUTHORITIES TODAY SUSPENDED 15 FRENCH AND VIET NAM POLICEMEN INVOLVED IN THE REPRISAL EXECUTION OF 20 INDOCHINESE. THE FRENCH HIGH COMMISSION ORDERED THE SUSPENSIONS PENDING INVESTIGATION OF THE POLITICALLY EXPLOSIVE CASE.
THE MASS EXECUTION AT DALAT FRIDAY HAS AROUSED A WAVE OF INDIGNATION AMONG INDOCHINESE. AMERICAN OFFICIALS HERE EXPRESSED FEAR THE PROPAGANDA OF THE COMMUNIST-LED VIET MINH WOULD MAKE CAPITAL OF THE INCIDENT, POSSIBLY THROUGH MASS DEMONSTRATIONS, TO FAN PUBLIC SENTIMENT AGAINST BOTH THE FRENCH AND THE FRENCH-SUPPORTED VIET NAM GOVERNMENT.
FRENCH OFFICIALS, TAKING A GRAVE VIEW OF THE INCIDENT, SUSPENDED HENRI JUNEAU, ASSISTANT CHIEF OF POLICE FOR DALAT, WHO IS REPRESENTED AS FEELING THAT STERN MEASURES HAD TO BE TAKEN AFTER THE SLAYING OF A FRENCH POLICE INSPECTOR FRIDAY.
THE 20 HOSTAGES -- 16 MEN AND FOUR WOMEN -- CONSIDERED MOST GUILTY IN THE SLAYING, SAID AN OFFICIAL REPORT, WERE TAKEN TO CAMLY WATERFALLS ON THE OUTSKIRTS OF DALAT, ORDERED FROM THE TRUCK AND MACHINEGUNNED BY SEVEN POLICE. LATER THE POLICE FIRED A REVOLVER SHOT INTO EACH BODY.
A MIXED COMMISSION OF FRENCH AND VIET NAMESE IS INVESTIGATING, AND IF JUNEAU SHOULD BE TRIED, IT WOULD BE BY A MIXED COURT OF FRENCH AND VIET NAMESE. AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES PREDICT A BROAD POLICE SHAKEUP.
THE FRENCH-CONTROLLED SAIGON PRESS CARRIED CENSORED VERSIONS OF THE INCIDENT TODAY FOR THE FIRST TIME. THE NEWSPAPERS DID NOT GIVE DETAILS, BUT REPORTED ONLY NUV JLINQUIR

(1,000) AMS BUDGET
NIGHT LEAD MACARTHUR-BRADLEY
BY DON WHITEHEAD
WASHINGTON,MAY 16-(AP)-THE INQUIRY INTO GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S OUSTER EXPLODED TODAY INTO A BITTER WRANGLE AMONG SENATORS OVER THEIR POWER TO FORCE GEN.OMAR N.BRADLEY TO TELL WHAT WAS SAID AT A MEETING WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN LAST APRIL 6. THE WHITE HOUSE TALK WAS ABOUT FIRING THE FAR EAST COMMANDER.
THE DISPUTE SHOVED ASIDE BRADLEY'S TESTIMONY ON THE KOREAN WAR.
IT BROUGHT ANGRY TALK THAT THE WHITE HOUSE MAY BE "PULLING AN IRON CURTAIN" DOWN ON THE TESTIMONY--AND COUNTER CHARGES THAT THE REPUBLICANS MAY BE "TRYING TO SABOTAGE" THE ASIA POLICY INQUIRY BECAUSE THEY DON'T LIKE THE WAY THE TESTIMONY IS GOING.
THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES--CONDUCTING THE HEARING--WILL VOTE AT NOON, EST, TOMORROW, ON WHETHER TO TRY TO FORCE BRADLEY TO REVEAL THE WHITE HOUSE CONVERSATION. ALL THE SIGNS ARE THAT BRADLEY WILL BE UPHELD IN HIS REFUSAL.
CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA), THE INQUIRY CHAIRMAN, SAID THE QUESTION WILL BE: "WHETHER OR NOT A CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE HAS THE POWER TO COMPEL AN ADVISER OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES TO DISCLOSE THE DETAILS OF A CONVERSATION HAD WITH THE PRESIDENT ON A CONFIDENTIAL BASIS."
THIS ISSUE AROSE YESTERDAY WHEN SENATOR WILEY (R-WIS) ASKED BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, TO TELL WHAT WAS SAID AT THE MEETING WHICH LED TO MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL SIX DAYS LATER.
BRADLEY REFUSED ON THE GROUNDS THAT SUCH A DISCLOSURE WOULD DESTROY HIM IN THE ROLE OF A CONFIDENTIAL ADVISER TO THE PRESIDENT. AND TODAY MR.TRUMAN UPHELD BRADLEY IN HIS REFUSAL--SAYING THROUGH AN AIDE THAT BRADLEY SHOULD NOT ANSWER.
BRADLEY TOLD THE SENATORS YESTERDAY THAT THE MACARTHUR PROGRAM TO EXTEND THE KOREAN WAR AGAINST CHINA WOULD INVOLVE THE UNITED STATES "IN THE WRONG WAR, AT THE WRONG PLACE, AT THE WRONG TIME AND WITH THE WRONG ENEMY."

TODAY THE FIVE-STAR GENERAL HAD NO CHANCE TO CONTINUE HIS ARGUMENTS. AS HE SAT QUIETLY LOOKING ON, THE COMMITTEE MEMBERS QUARRELED OVER HIS RIGHT TO REFUSE THE TESTIMONY, AND THEN THEY ASKED HIM TO RETURN MONDAY. THE GENERAL HAS WEST COAST APPOINTMENTS IN THE MEANTIME.

NO WITNESSES ARE EXPECTED TO BE HEARD TOMORROW BUT MAJ.GEN. HOYT VANDENBERG, AIR FORCE CHIEF OF STAFF, IS SLATED TO TESTIFY FRIDAY AT 9 A.M. E.S.T.

RUSSELL DECLARED HE IS "THOROUGHLY CONVINCED" BRADLEY IS ACTING WITHIN HIS RIGHTS IN REFUSING THE TESTIMONY BUT REPUBLICAN SENATORS TOOK SHARP ISSUE WITH HIM.

SENATOR WILEY TOLD REPORTERS: "THE REAL QUESTION IS WHETHER THE PEOPLE ARE ENTITLED TO KNOW HOW THIS DEAL (MACARTHUR'S DISMISAL) WAS ENGINEERED AND WHO PARTICIPATED IN IT. WE WANT TO KNOW WHAT WAS SAID."
AND IN THE HEARING HE ARGUED: "I SAY FOR THE SAKE OF JUSTICE, FOR THE SAKE OF TRUTH, FOR THE SAKE OF THE PEOPLE, THEY SHOULD TELL US HOW THIS THING (OUSTER) WAS ENGINEERED, WHAT THE FACTS WERE THAT THEY SAID JUSTIFIED THE ACT, WHAT WAS SAID."
BRADLEY DENIED TO THE SENATORS THAT ANY "IRON CURTAIN" HAD BEEN PULLED OVER HIS TESTIMONY.
HE SAID HE WAS WILLING TO TELL WHAT CONCLUSIONS WERE REACHED AT THE MEETING ATTENDED BY HIMSELF, THE PRESIDENT, SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON, SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL AND PRESIDENTIAL ADVISER W. AVERELL HARRIMAN.
"I AM PERFECTLY WILLING," HE SAID, "TO TELL YOU THE REASONS ADVANCED BY THE THREE CHIEFS OF STAFF WHEN THEY GAVE THEIR REASONS (FOR MACARTHUR'S OUSTER) TO GENERAL MARSHALL."
BUT WILEY, SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) AND OTHER REPUBLICANS INSISTED HE SHOULD TELL WHAT WAS SAID IN THE CONVERSATIONS LEADING TO THE DECISION.
KNOWLAND DECLARED: "NOW IF X X X ANOTHER IRON CURTAIN IS TO BE LOWERED" THEN THE QUESTION ARISES WHETHER THE COMMITTEE SHOULD REPORT TO THE SENATE "THAT UNDER THE CONDITIONS WHICH WE FACE, WE MAY NOT BE ABLE TO CARRY OUT THE OBLIGATION WHICH WE FELT WAS RESTING UPON US."

30.24- 23079

BUT CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) OF THE FOREIGN RELATIONS GROUP ARGUED IN THIS MANNER:

IF THE COMMITTEES CAN FORCE BRADLEY TO TALK ABOUT A PRIVATE CONVERSATION WITH THE PRESIDENT "THEN THERE CAN BE NO CONSULTATIONS BY ANY PRESIDENT OR ANYBODY ELSE THAT A COMMITTEE OF CONGRESS CAN NOT GO IN AND PRY OPEN AND FIND OUT WHAT TRANSPIRED."

HE ADDED: "THAT WOULD BE ABSOLUTELY DESTRUCTIVE OF THE INDEPENDENCE AND THE INTEGRITY OF THE PRESIDENT AND OF EVERY OTHER CONFIDENTIAL OFFICER IN THIS GOVERNMENT."

THEN CONNALLY NOTED THAT GENERAL MACARTHUR HAD TESTIFIED THREE WEEKS AGO THAT HIS WAKE ISLAND MEETING WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN "WAS PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL AND HE DIDN'T THINK HE COULD REVEAL IT." MACARTHUR WAS NOT CHALLENGED TO DISCLOSE DETAILS OF THIS CONVERSATION.

THERE HAD BEEN A SUGGESTION THE COMMITTEES DELAY A VOTE ON THE QUESTION UNTIL THE INQUIRY WAS ENDED--BUT CHAIRMAN RUSSELL INSISTED ON A SHOWDOWN BEFORE ANY OTHER WITNESSES WERE QUESTIONED.

HE TOLD WILEY HE REGRETTED THE WISCONSIN SENATOR HAD BEEN HAVING "HUDDLES" WITH OTHER REPUBLICANS OVER THE BRADLEY QUESTION AFTER IT AROSE YESTERDAY.

MAY 17 1951

A7WX

"I HAVE TRIED TO SIT HERE," RUSSELL SAID, "NOT AS A REPUBLICAN OR DEMOCRAT BUT AS AN AMERICAN.

"I HAVE DEVOUTLY HOPED FROM THE MOMENT THESE HEARINGS OPENED THAT THEY WOULD NOT DEGENERATE INTO A PARTISAN FIGHT WHERE THE REPUBLICANS WOULD HAVE HUDDLES HERE AND THE DEMOCRATS WOULD HAVE HUDDLES THERE."

WILEY DENIED ANY PARTISANSHIP AND INSISTED HE WAS TRYING ONLY TO GET THE FACTS IN THE CASE.

SENATOR LODGE (R-MASS) ASKED RUSSELL IF HE MEANT "THAT IF WE SETTLE THIS QUESTION TODAY WE HAVE FOREVER FORECLOSED OURSELVES FROM CITING ANY SUBSEQUENT WITNESS FOR CONTEMPT IF WE EVER FEEL WE SHOULD DO IT?"

RUSSELL SAID THAT WAS NOT THE CASE AT ALL AND THE COMMITTEE COULD ACT IN ANY WAY IT MIGHT SEE FIT IN THE FUTURE.

SHOULD THE COMMITTEE HOLD THAT BRADLEY MUST ANSWER--AND SHOULD HE REFUSE AGAIN--THEN HE WOULD BE SUBJECT TO CONTEMPT ACTION. BUT WILEY HIMSELF TOLD REPORTERS HE DID NOT THINK A MAJORITY OF THE 26 SENATORS ON THE COMMITTEES WOULD VOTE TO FORCE AN ANSWER.

LODGE ARGUED AGAINST THE VOTE BECAUSE HE FELT THAT IF THE GROUP ACTS "IN A LEGALISTIC WAY X X X THEN THE WHOLE FLOW OF INFORMATION WILL CEASE X X X AND WE MIGHT AS WELL GIVE THE WHOLE PROCEEDING UP."

THE VOTE WAS FORCED BY SENATOR MORSE (R-ORE) WHO HAS SIDED WITH RUSSELL IN HIS ARGUMENT.

SENATOR MCMAHON (D-CONN) SAID: "WE ARE GOING TO VOTE ON A GREAT CONSTITUTIONAL QUESTION THAT HAS BEEN SETTLED SINCE GEORGE WASHINGTON'S TIME." HE ALSO HAS SUPPORTED RUSSELL'S POSITION THAT BRADLEY NEED NOT ANSWER WILEY'S QUESTION.

AT ONE POINT SENATOR FULBRIGHT (D-ARK) CAME OUT OF THE COMMITTEE ROOM TO TELL REPORTERS: "APPARENTLY THINGS ARE NOT QUITE GOING THE WAY THEY (REPUBLICANS) LIKE. I THINK THE INFERENCE CAN BE DRAWN THAT BECAUSE OF THIS THEY ARE MAKING UNFAIR AND UNTRUE CHARGES ABOUT 'PULLING DOWN THE IRON CURTAIN.'"

HE SAID THE REPUBLICANS APPEARED TO BE PREPARING TO "CRY WHITEWASH AND TORPEDO THE WHOLE INVESTIGATION."

BUT SENATOR SMITH (R-NJ), WHEN TOLD OF FULBRIGHT'S REMARKS SAID: "I DISAGREE WITH THAT. THERE IS NOTHING TO IT."

IN THE HEARING, FULBRIGHT REFERRED TO KNOWLAND'S "IRON CURTAIN" REMARK AND ADDED HE HOPED KNOWLAND "HAS NOT DECIDED TO SABOTAGE AND DISCREDIT THE HEARING SIMPLY BECAUSE THE EVIDENCE NOW BEING PRESENTED DOES NOT SUPPORT GENERAL MACARTHUR."

KNOWLAND RETORTED THAT HE RESENTED THE REMARK AND HE SAID "I AM NOT TRYING TO SABOTAGE THIS HEARING."

WASHINGTON-AN ABRIDGEMENT OF GEN.BRADLEY'S TESTIMONY WILL FOLLOW IMMEDIATELY ON THIS CIRCUIT. BUREAUS NEEDING EXTRA COPIES PLEASE ARRANGE.

-0-

WASHINGTON,MAY 16-(AP)-FOLLOWING IS AN ABRIDGEMENT OF GEN.BRADLEY'S CENSORED TESTIMONY TODAY BEFORE THE COMBINED SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS AND ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEES INQUIRING INTO THE DISMISSAL OF GEN. MACARTHUR (XXX DENOTES DELETIONS FOR PURPOSES OF CONDENSATION; CENSORSHIP DELETIONS ARE INDICATED PARENTHETICALLY):

X X X

WILEY. I HAVE A SUGGESTION X X X THAT TOMORROW MORNING I RAISE THE SUBJECT ON THE APPEAL FROM A DECISION OF THE CHAIRMAN (HOLDING THAT BRADLEY DID NOT HAVE TO REVEAL DETAILS OF A WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE THAT LED TO GEN.MACARTHUR'S FIRING) AND THAT TOMORROW MORNING WE ARGUE OUT THE LEGAL PHASES OF THIS SUBJECT AND ARRIVE THEN AT A DECISION. THUS WE WILL NOT DISCOMMODE GENERAL BRADLEY BUT RATHER MAKE IT SO HE CAN GET AWAY TO MAKE HIS ENGAGEMENT.

X X X

RUSSELL. I APPRECIATE THE DESIRE OF THE SENATOR TO ACCOMMODATE GENERAL BRADLEY AND ASSIST HIM IN HIS ARRANGEMENTS. I SHARE INTEREST IN EXTENDING TO GENERAL BRADLEY EVERY COURTESY THAT THIS COMMITTEE CAN PROPERLY SHOW, BUT AFTER ALL, WE ARE A COMMITTEE WHO ARE TAKING EVIDENCE AT THE PRESENT TIME, AND IT IS MY OWN OPINION THAT WHERE A MATTER OF THIS KIND ARISES, THAT THE COMMITTEE SHOULD DETERMINE IT BEFORE PROCEEDING WITH THE TESTIMONY, IN ORDER THAT ALL THE TESTIMONY MIGHT BE RECEIVED IN AN ORDERLY MANNER. X X X

WHERE A PROCEDURAL MATTER ARISES, IT SHOULD BE DETERMINED I THINK AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE IN ORDER THAT THE COMMITTEE MIGHT HAVE THAT DECISION FOR ITS GUIDANCE IN THE FUTURE EXAMINATION OF ALL OF THE OTHER WITNESSES.

B87WX

THE MATTER HAS COME UP TWICE. A QUESTION WAS ASKED GENERAL MACARTHUR AS TO WHAT TRANSPIRED, WHAT CONVERSATIONS WERE HAD WITH THE PRESIDENT, AND HE DECLINED TO ANSWER THAT QUESTION. THE SAME QUESTION WAS ADDRESSED TO GENERAL MARSHALL AND HE DECLINED ON THE GROUNDS OF CONFIDENTIAL RELATIONS. THE SAME MATTER, OF COURSE AS WAS ASKED OF GEN BRADLEY BUT IT WAS NOT PRESSED TO THE STAGE IN WHICH WE FIND OURSELVES WITH RESPECT TO THIS ISSUE AT THE SAME TIME. X X X

I REGRET THAT THE SENATOR FROM WISCONSIN HAS BEEN HAVING HUDDLES WITH JUST MEMBERS OF HIS PARTY WITH RESPECT TO THIS ISSUE. I HAVE TRIED TO SIT HERE NOT AS A REPUBLICAN OR DEMOCRAT BUT AS AN AMERICAN. I HAVE DEVOUTLY HOPED FROM THE MOMENT THESE HEARINGS OPENED THAT THEY WOULD NOT DEGENRATE INTO A PARTISAN FIGHT WHERE THE REPUBLICANS WOULD HAVE HUDDLES HERE AND THE DEMOCRATS WOULD HAVE HUDDLES THERE.

I HAD HOPED THAT WE MIGHT SETTLE THESE MATTERS NOT AS REPUBLICANS OR DEMOCRATS, BUT AS AMERICANS AROUND THIS TABLE AS A COMMITTEE OF THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES, CHARGED WITH A VERY DEFINITE AND SPECIFIC RESPONSIBILITY.

IT SEEMS TO ME THAT IF THERE EVER WAS A TIME IN OUR COUNTRY, OR A MATTER BEFORE A COMMITTEE, THAT IS PECULIARLY UNSUITED FOR PARTISAN HANDLING, IT IS THE MATTER THAT IS UNDER INVESTIGATION.

I MERELY FEEL THAT I SHOULD HERE EXPRESS MY REGRETS THAT EVENTS HAVE TAKEN THIS TURN. X X X IT IS WHOLLY UP TO THIS COMMITTEE TO TAKE THE STEPS THAT THEY FEEL SHOULD BE TAKEN. IF THE COMMITTEE WISHES BY A MAJORITY VOTE TO POSTPONE THIS MATTER AND HAVE IT HANGING OVER THE COMMITTEE AS A MATTER OF PROCEDURE UNDETERMINED. WHERE ALL OF THE WITNESSES WILL UNDOUBTEDLY HAVE TO BE MARCHED BACK IF THE POSITION OF SENATOR WILEY AND THOSE WHOM HE SAYS ARE SUPPORTING HIM ARE SUSTAINED, THE COMMITTEE HAS A RIGHT SO TO DO. BUT I HAVE MY OWN VIEWS ABOUT ORDERLY PROCEDURE, AND I SHALL NOT, UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES, BE DRAWN INTO ANY PARTISAN FIGHT IN CONNECTION WITH THESE HEARINGS. I CARE NOT WHAT THE OTHER MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE MIGHT DO. I SAY, I WILL DO MY DUTY AS I SEE IT.

I THINK THAT WHEN THERE IS AN IMPORTANT MATTER OF PROCEDURE WHICH IS RAISED, THE COMMITTEE SHOULD SETTLE IT BEFORE PROCEEDING TO THE EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES, AND IT JUST MEANS THAT WE WILL HAVE TO REHASH ALL OF THESE HEARINGS AGAIN IN THE LIGHT OF WHAT MIGHT HAVE TRANSPIRED IN SOME PRIVATE CONVERSATIONS AT THE WHITE HOUSE IF WE DO NOT CONCLUDE THE ISSUE NOW, BUT I AM PERFECTLY WILLING TO -- X X

LODGE. DOES THE ABLE CHAIRMAN CONTEND THAT IF WE SETTLE THIS QUESTION TODAY THAT WE HAVE FOREVER FORECLOSED OURSELVES FROM CITING ANY SUBSEQUENT WITNESS FOR CONTEMPT IF WE EVER FEEL WE SHOULD DO IT?

RUSSELL. I MADE A STATEMENT THE OTHER DAY THAT I THOUGHT WAS VERY MUCH ADAPTED TO THE QUESTION WHEN I SAID THAT THE SENATOR HAD BEEN AROUND HERE TOO LONG TO THINK THAT SUCH A THING COULD BE DONE.

I HAVE FORGOTTEN TO WHAT HE WAS REFERRING, BUT A MAN DOES NOT HAVE TO BE HERE MORE THAN FOUR WEEKS TO KNOW THAT THE SENATE OR A COMMITTEE CAN REVERSE ITSELF AT ANY TIME IT SEES FIT.

IT IS NOT DONE TOO OFTEN; AS A RULE, WHEN PROCEDURE IS AGREED UPON THE COMMITTEE ALWAYS PAYS SOME ATTENTION TO PRECEDENT. APPARENTLY, THE COMMITTEE IS NOT BOUND BY PRECEDENT. THE COMMITTEE CAN ESTABLISH A RULE TODAY THEY WILL COMPEL GENERAL BRADLEY TO ANSWER THESE QUESTIONS, AND IF HE REFUSES THEY CAN PROCEED AS THE LAW INDICATES, WITH A WITNESS HERE; AND THEN ANOTHER WITNESS MIGHT COME ALONG, AND THE SAME QUESTION BE ASKED, AND THE ISSUE BE RAISED, AND THE COMMITTEE COULD REVERSE ITSELF AND SAY THAT THEY RECOGNIZE THE RULE THAT THOSE CONVERSATIONS WERE PRIVILEGED, AND THEREFORE THEY WOULD NOT PROCEED AGAINST THE WITNESS.

THE COMMITTEE IS NOT BOUND, OF COURSE. NEITHER THE COMMITTEE NOR THE SENATE HAS RULES THAT ARE AS IMMUTABLE AS THE LAWS OF THE MEDES AND THE PERSIANS. X X

LODGE. WOULD IT NOT BE PERFECTLY FEASIBLE TO HAVE A PRACTICE WHEREBY WE DID NOT DO ANY CITING FOR CONTEMPT AT THIS STAGE OF THE PROCEEDING, BUT TOWARD THE END, IF THERE WERE THREE OR FOUR QUESTIONS THAT EMERGED, AND WHICH WE THOUGHT WERE IMPORTANT, WE COULD UNDERTAKE THAT ACTION AT THAT TIME, ISN'T THAT POSSIBLE?

RUSSELL. OF COURSE.

THE CHAIR IS NOT THE MASTER OF THIS COMMITTEE. I AM NOT ENDEAVORING TO IMPOSE MY VIEWS ON THE COMMITTEE. THE COMMITTEE CAN TAKE ANY COURSE IT SEES FIT. THEY CAN OVERRULE THE CHAIR, AND NOT CITE GENERAL BRADLEY. OF COURSE THAT WOULD BE SLIGHTLY INCONSISTENT; BUT, THE COMMITTEE IS WHOLLY WITHIN ITS RIGHTS IF IT TAKES THAT POSITION.

B91WX

I WISH TO MAKE IT CLEAR, OF COURSE, THAT THIS IS NOT AN ORDINARY CITATION PROCEEDING, OR WOULDN'T BE. SOME OF THE PRESS SEEM TO THROW THIS MENTION OF A CITATION IN THE SAME CTAEGORY OF SOME WITNESSES WHO HAVE REFUSED TO STATE WHETHER OR NOT THEY HAVE BEEN A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY.

THESE QUESTIONS HAVE NO RELATION WHATEVER TO SUCH AN ISSUE AS THAT. OF COURSE THE SAME ISSUE OF LAW WOULD CONTROL IT THAT DOES CONTROL ANY OTHER WITNESS THE COMMITTEE DEEMS RECALCITRANT.

THIS IS A MATTER OF PRIVILEGE, WHEREIN GENERAL BRADLEY HAS NOT FAILED TO STATE HIS OWN VIEWS WITH RESPECT TO THE SUBJECT UNDER CONSIDERATION, BUT HAS DECLINED TO DISCLOSE A PRIVATE CONVERSATION OCCURRING BETWEEN HIMSELF AND THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, AND OTHER CONVERSATIONS, WHEN HE WAS SERVING IN THE CAPACITY OF CONFIDENTIAL ADVS OR TO THE PRESIDENT. X X X

HICKENLOOPER. I MIGHT SUGGEST THE POSSIBILITY THAT THE CONTROVERSY MIGHT BE ELIMINATED. I DON'T KNOW, BUT YESTERDAY IT SEEMED TO ME

HICKENLOOPER. I MIGHT SUGGEST THE POSSIBILITY THAT THE CONTROVERSY MIGHT BE ELIMINATED. I DON'T KNOW, BUT YESTERDAY IT SEEMED TO ME THAT GENERAL BRADLEY SAID HE THOUGHT HE SHOULD CONTACT THE PRESIDENT, AND IF IT WAS ALL RIGHT WITH THE PRESIDENT, HE MIGHT FEEL THAT IT WAS OKAY TO DISCUSS THE MATTER, AND ANSWER QUESTIONS; AND PERHAPS HE HAS THAT AUTHORITY NOW.

IF HE DOES HAVE, I WOULD ASSUME THAT WOULD AUTOMATICALLY MAKE THE QUESTION BEFORE US MOOT AT THE MOMENT, AS FAR AS THOSE QUESTIONS ARE CONCERNED.

RUSSELL. I AGREE COMPLETELY WITH THE SENATOR. OF COURSE, IT WOULD. I DON'T KNOW WHETHER GENERAL BRADLEY WISHES NOW TO ANSWER THE QUESTION.

CONNALLY. I WANT TO REGISTER MY PROTEST AGAINST ANY SUCH ACTION AS REFERRING TO THE PRESIDENT AS TO WHETHER A WITNESS BEFORE THIS COMMITTEE SHALL ANSWER OR NOT. I THINK THE QUESTION IS MUCH DEEPER THAN THAT. IT GOES TO THE VERY INTEGRITY OF CONFIDENTIAL COMMUNICATIONS BETWEEN THE PRESIDENT AND HIS TRUSTED AND CONFIDENTIAL ADVISER.

IF YOU ADOPT THIS PRACTICE, THERE CAN'T BE ANY CONFIDENTIAL CONFERENCES ANY MORE, BECAUSE THEY CEASE TO BE CONFIDENTIAL WHEN THEY ARE DIVULGED OR EVEN WHEN THEY CALL THE PRESIDENT IN.

YOU MIGHT AS WELL PUT THE PRESIDENT ON THE STAND AND LET HIM TESTIFY AS TO WHAT TOOK PLACE IF YOU ARE GOING TO SEND THE WITNESS BACK OVER TO THE PRESIDENT AND ASK HIS PERMISSION OR CONSENT TO DIVULGE A PRIVATE CONVERSATION IN A CONFIDENTIAL RELATIONSHIP.

I JUST WANTED THAT TO BE ON THE RECORD. X X X

B92WX

GEORGE. I THINK FUNDAMENTALLY AND BASICALLY IT IS A PRIVILEGE THAT GENERAL BRADLEY HAS, WHETHER HE WILL DIVULGE ANYTHING OF A CONFIDENTIAL NATURE; AND EVEN THOUGH THE PRESIDENT MIGHT EXCUSE HIM, IT WOULD STILL BE A MATTER FOR HIM TO DECIDE, WHETHER OR NOT HE WOULD DIVULGE IT, WHETHER OR NOT HE WOULD MAKE ANSWER.

IF THERE IS A CONFIDENTIAL RELATIONSHIP AND IF THE QUESTION GOES TO THINGS THAT OCCUR GROWING OUT OF THAT RELATIONSHIP, IT THEN BECOMES A PRIVILEGE FOR THE WITNESS HIMSELF AS WELL AS THE PRESIDENT.

SO I THINK THAT IF GENERAL BRADLEY HAD AN EXPRESS GREEN LIGHT, SO TO SPEAK, FROM THE PRESIDENT, IT WOULD STILL BE UP TO HIM TO DECIDE WHETHER OR NOT HE WISHED TO DISCLOSE WHAT TOOK PLACE IN A CONFERENCE OF THE NATURE AND CHARACTER WE ARE DISCUSSING.

RUSSELL. I DID NOT INTEND, OF COURSE, TO SUBMIT THE QUESTION OF WHETHER OR NOT THE PRESIDENT HAD RELEASED GENERAL BRADLEY THAT IS A MATTER, I THINK OF PROPDZ OF MONY FROM HIM IF HE DESIRES TO MAKE THAT STATEMENT.

GEORGE. THAT IS TRUE.

RUSSELL. WHEREAS, ON YESTERDAY I DELIVERED A CURBSTONE RULING ON THIS ISSUE WHEN IT WAS RAISED, AS I REGRET I HAD NOT FORESEEN IT WOULD COME UP, SO I COULD HAVE STUDIED THE PRECEDENTS, I HAVE HAD A NIGHT INTERVENING SINCE THEN, AND I HAVE GONE INTO THIS MATTER RATHER FULLY FROM A LEGAL STANDPOINT.

I HAVE QUITE A NUMBER OF PRECEDENTS. NOW, THE PRESIDENT HAS A PLACE IN THIS. UNDER THE RULING IN THE BURR TRIALS, THE IMPEACHMENT OF VICE PRESIDENT BURR, A LETTER WAS REQUESTED OF THE PRESIDENT, AND THE PRESIDENT WAS SUBPOENAED TO APPEAR AT THAT TRIAL.

HE REFUSED TO APPEAR. HE SENT THE LETTER TO THE PROSECUTING ATTORNEY, THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY WHO WAS PROSECUTING THE CASE, AND LEFT IT UP TO THE DISCRETION OF THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY AS TO WHETHER OR NOT THIS LETTER THAT WAS SUBPOENAED FROM HIM SHOULD BE RELEASED.

CHIEF JUSTICE MARSHALL SUSTAINED THE RIGHT OF THE PRESIDENT TO HANDLE THE MATTER IN THAT WAY. HE RULED THAT THE PRESIDENT, IF HE DID NOT WISH TO DISCLOSE IT, HE WAS FULLY WITHIN HIS RIGHTS IN NOT DISCLOSING IT; BUT IF IT WAS DELEGATED TO ANOTHER, THAT THEN IT CAME INTO THE CUSTODY OF THE COURT.

SO THE PRESIDENT DOES PLAY A PART IN IT. I AM NOT DEPENDING ON WHETHER OR NOT THE PRESIDENT TOLD GENERAL BRADLEY--AFTER ALL, GENERAL BRADLEY IS THE WITNESS BEFORE US--HE DID INDICAE THAT HE WOULD LIKE TO DISCUSS THE MATTER WITH THE PRESIDENT.

FROM A PURELY LEGAL STANDPOINT AS TO WHETHER THE PRESIDENT DID OR DID NOT GIVE GENERAL BRADLEY THE AUTHORITY TO DISCLOSE THIS PRIVATE CONVERSATION THAT OCCURRED BETWEEN THE PRESIDENT AND HIS INTIMATE ADVISERS, IS NOT TOO MATERIAL.

IT MIGHT HAVE SOME BEARING ON GENERAL BRADLEY'S VIEWS ON THE TESTIMONY, BUT I DON'T THINK IT WOULD DIRECTLY AFFECT THE LEGAL QUESTION INVOLVED.

X X X X

WILEY. I TRIED TO GET IN SEVERAL TIMES BEFORE YOU GOT INTO THE LEGAL ARGUMENT. FIRST I WANT TO SAY THAT I DIDN'T LIKE THE WAY THE CHAIRMAN SUGGESTED THAO BECAUSE A FEW OF US REPUBLICANS GOT TOGETHER AND TALKED THE MATTER OVER THAT IT WAS A PARTISAN MATTER.

THE CHAIRMAN WELL KNOWS THAT AFTER I TALKED WITH HIM, I WENT OVER AND TALKED WITH HIM WITH SENATOR BRIDGES.

RUSSELL. YOU DIDN'T DISCUSS THE PROCEDURE YOU WERE GOING TO TAKE WITH ME.

WILEY. THAT IS THE VERY THING WE DID DISCUSS. WE STARTED FROM THE VERY BEGINNING AND SUGGESTED THAT WHAT WE THOUGHT MIGHT BE THE WAY OUT OF THIS THING, AND YOU CAME AROUND TO THE POINT--NO, THAT YOU FELT THAT YOUR DECISION SHOULD STAND, BUT THAT IS NEITHER HERE NOR THERE.

RUSSELL. YOU WANTED ME TO WITHDRAW MY RULING. YOU DISCUSSED THAT BRANCH OF THE PROCEDURE.

WILEY. THAT IS PART OF THE PROCEDURE, TO SEE IF WE COULDN'T EVOLVE SOME OTHER METHOD.

B100WX

THE ONLY THING I SAY IS THAT IT WAS THE INFERENCE THAT SOME OF US ARE NOT JUDICIAL, ARE NOT BIPARTISANS--

RUSSELL. I CHALLENGE THE RECORD AS TO THE JUDICIAL PART. I DID QUESTION THE NON-PARTISAN ASPECTS OF YOUR MEETING.

WILEY. I KNOW IT, MR. CHAIRMAN. AND THE CHAIRMAN HAS THE RIGHT TO PRESIDE BUT NOT TO OCCUPY ALL THE TIME.

RUSSELL. I APOLOGIZE FOR THE INTERRUPTION.

WILEY. I MADE THE SUGGESTION, I MIGHT SAY TO THOSE GENTLEMEN OF THE COMMITTEE WHO WERE NOT HERE IN THE BEGINNING, THAT IN ORDER TO ACCOMMODATE GENERAL BRADLEY WE POSTPONE THE DISCUSSIONS OF THE ISSUE ITSELF UNTIL TOMORROW MORNING SO THAT GENERAL BRADLEY COULD GET AWAY; THEN TOMORROW WE COULD DISCUSS THE LEGAL ISSUE WITHOUT INTERFERING WITH GENERAL BRADLEY. THAT WAS THE POINT I MADE THIS MORNING, AND SUGGESTED THAT THEN I WOULD APPEAL TOMORROW TO THE ENTIRE COMMITTEE AND WE COULD ARGUE OUT THE LEGAL PHASES OF IT. THE CHAIRMAN DOES NOT SEEM TO APPROVE THAT PROCEDURE, SO I SUPPOSE THE ONLY QUESTION BEFORE THIS GROUP IS WHETHER WE SHOULD MOVE TO POSTPONE THE DISCUSSION OF THIS ISSUE UNTIL TOMORROW MORNING IN ORDER THAT GENERAL BRADLEY CAN CARRY ON TODAY; AND THEN TOMORROW MORNING WE CAN HAVE THE LEGAL ARGUMENTS AND VOTE. THAT IS WHAT I AM SUGGESTING AT THIS TIME.

X X X

BREWSTER. DO I UNDERSTAND THAT THE CHAIRMAN HAS RULED THAT IT WOULD NOT BE PERMISSIBLE FOR YOU TO FILE AN APPEAL TOMORROW MORNING?

WILEY. NO.

BREWSTER. IF HE HAS NOT SO RULED, THEN IS THERE ANY MOTION OR APPEAL BEFORE US; I DO NOT UNDERSTAND THE CHAIRMAN IS INTENDING TO CONTROL PROCEDUERS.

B101WX

RUSSELL. THE CHAIRMAN IS REASONABLY CAREFUL NOT TO INFRINGE ON THE PREROGATIVES OF THE COMMITTEE. I HAVE UNDERTAKEN TO BE--AND IF ANY SENATOR HERE FEELS I HAVE NOT OTHER THAN MY INADVERTENT INTERRUPTION OF SENATOR WILEY A FEW MINUTES AGO, SINCE THESE HEARINGS STARTED, I WOULD LIKE TO HAVE HIM ARISE NOW AND STATE THE INSTANCE ON WHICH HE BASES THAT CHARGE.

BREWSTER. DOES MY QUESTION IMPLY ANY ATTIRUBTION OF SUCH ACTION?

RUSSELL. I COULD NOT ESCAPE THAT INFERENCE.

BREWSTER. MR. CHAIRMAN, IF HE PROPOSES TO MAKE A MOTION--

RUSSELL. NO, I PROPOSE TO MAKE NO MOTION.

BEFORE A GREAT MANY OF YOU CAME IN SENATOR WILEY STATED, JUST AS HE HAS NOW SINCE WE HAVE A FULL ATTENDANCE HERE, THAT HE THOUGHT THAT THIS MATTER OUGHT TO GO OVER UNTIL TOMORROW MORNING AS A MATTER OF ACCOMMODATION TO GENERAL BRADLEY SO WE COULD PROCEED WITH HIS TESTIMONY TODAY. I STATED THAT IN MY OPINION AS A MEMBER OF THIS COMMITT-33 X X X THAT IN THE INTEREST OF ORDERLY PROCEDURE THIS COMMITTEE SHOULD SETTLE THIS MATTER NOW BEFORE PROCEEDING WITH ANY WITNESSES. BECAUSE IF THE COMMITTEE SHOULD DECIDE THAT IT IS ENTITLED TO ASK THESE QUESTIONS OF THESE PERSONAL AND INTIMATE CONVERSATIONS THAT OCCURRED AT THE WHITE HOUSE, WE SHOULD ESTABLISH THAT AT THE VERY EARLIEST DATE SO IT WILL NOT BE NECESSARY TO CONTINUE TO CALL WITNESSES BACK HERE AND GO OVER AND OVER AND OVER AGAIN THE GROUND.

I STATED THAT AS A MEMBER OF THE COMMITTEE; I MADE NO RULING. AND I STATED SPECIFICALLY IF THE COMMITTEE WISHES TO POSTPONE IT UNTIL TOMORROW, THAT IT WAS PERFECTLY AGREEABLE TO ME. SO IT IS MY OWN FEELING IT OUGHT TO BE SETTLED NOW.

I FURTHER STATED FROM MY READING OF THE RECORD, SENATOR WILEY AT LEAST TWICE ON YESTERDAY WITHDREW HIS APPEAL, BUT I WILL NOT RELY ON THAT TECHNICALLITY AND WOULD PERMIT IT TO BE CONSIDERED AS ENTERED BEFORE THE COMMITTEE, AND I WILL NOT SUBMIT TO THE COMMITTEE AS TO WHETHER OR NOT WE SHALL--X X X

IF THE APPEAL IS NOT PENDING, CERTAINLY HE CAN'T REVIVE IT TOMORROW IF IT IS NOT ALIVE TODAY. THE CORPSE CAN'T LIE THERE AND SUSPEND THE SITUATION LIKE MOHAMMED'S COFFIN. IT IS EITHER AN ISSUE HERE TODAY OR IT CAN'T BE ONE TOMORROW.

MAY 17 1951

X X X

BREWSTER. THERE IS NO QUESTION THAT THE SENATOR FROM WISCONSIN WITHDREW HIS APPEAL YESTERDAY, IS THERE?

RUSSELL. WELL, THERE IS A QUESTION BECAUSE HE HAS ASKED TO HAVE IT CARRIED OVER UNTIL TOMORROW AND I HAVE CONCEDED THAT THE APPEAL IS PENDING.

X X X

MORSE. MR. CHAIRMAN, I THINK IT IS VERY IMPORTANT TO CLEAR UP THIS RPCEDURAL MATTER THIS MORNING BEFORE WE HEAR ANY WITNESSES. THEN WE CAN RECESS UNTIL TOMORROW AND CONTINUE THE DEBATE ON PROCEDURE TOMORROW. THAT MIGHT BE FEASIBLE, BUT I DO NOT THINK WE SHOULD SIT HERE AND LISTEN TO OTHER WITNESSES NOT KNOWING WHAT QUESTIONS WE CAN AND CANNOT ASK THOSE WITNESSES.

B102WX

THEREFORE, MR. CHAIRMAN, IN ORDER TO MAKE THAT MATTER OF ISSUE AT THE MOMENT, I APPEAL THE DECISION OF THE CHAIR AND I WISH TO SAY I AM MAKING THE APPEAL FOR THE PURPOSE OF GETTING IT SETTLED.

HICKENLOOPER. I AGAIN RESPECTFULLY RENEW MY SUGGESTION A WHILE AGO THAT WE MIGHT ELIMINATE THE MATTER AT THE MOMENT UNDER DISCUSSION. IF GENERAL BRADLEY STILL HAS THE SAME OBJECTION THAT HE HAD YESTERDAY, THEN THIS DISCUSSION IS VERY MUCH IN ORDER. X X X

MCMAHON. MR. CHAIRMAN, THAT APPEARS TO BE A VERY NAIVE AND VERY UNSOPHISTICATED SUGGESTION BY THE SENATOR, BUT I HAVE TOO MUCH RESPECT FOR THE ACUMEN AND INTELLIGENCE FOR THE SENATOR FROM IOWA. IT WOULD BE A GREAT THING IF ALL DURING THIS INVESTIGATION EACH WITNESS, WHEN ASKED QUESTIONS THAT HE SHOULDN'T ANSWER, IF WE ARE TO MAINTAIN THE INTEGRITY OF OUR GOVERNMENT WAS TO SAY, "NO, I HAVE TALKED TO THE PRESIDENT, BUT HE HAS TOLD ME TO KEEP QUIET AND LISTEN."

I JUST MAKE THAT OBSERVATION TO PROVE TO THE SENATOR FROM IOWA THAT AT LEAST I WAS NOT DECEIVED BY HIS SUGGESTION.

X X X

LODGE. I DO NOT THINK WE CAN CLEAR UP ANY PROCEDURAL QUESTION DEFINITELY AND FINALLY BY ANY VOTE WE TAKE HERE TODAY. X X X

RUSSELL. I DID NOT KNOW THAT ANYONE HAD CONTENDED THAT YOU COULD SETTLE ONCE AND FOR ALL THE PROCEDURAL QUESTION. I UNDERTOOK TO SPECIFICALLY STATE THAT IT WAS MY OWN OPINION THAT ANY MEMBER OF THE COMMITTEE COULD RAISE THE QUESTION AGAIN AT ANY TIME HE SAW FIT.

WE HAVE TO DETERMINE EACH CASE ON ITS MERITS AS IT ARISES. BUT NOW WE ARE IN THIS POSITION--THIS IS THE POSITION WE ARE IN AT THE PRESENT TIME:

FULBRIGHT. FOR WHATEVER IT MAY BE WORTH, THIS MATTER DID ARISE A WEEK AGO--AS A MATTER OF FACT, IT WAS LAST FRIDAY, I THINK, IN THE SUBCOMMITTEE ON THE RFC, WHEN MR. DAWSON, WHO IS A CONFIDENTIAL ASSOCIATE OR--WHAT IS HE--A SECRETARY OF THE PRESIDENT PLEADED A VERY SIMILAR IMMUNITY FROM THAT, THE SAME AS THE GENERAL HAS, AND RULED AS THE CHAIRMAN RULED, AND NO ONE ON THAT COMMITTEE, THAT IS OF EITHER PARTY, RAISED ANY QUESTION ABOUT IT. X X X

GREEN. IT SEEMS TO ME THAT YESTERDAY A QUESTION WAS ASKED AND A RULING WAS MADE, AND AN APPEAL TAKEN FROM THAT RULING, AND THEN THE APPEAL WITHDRAWN, SO, IT SEEMS TO ME WE ARE JUST WHERE WE WERE BEFORE THE QUESTION WAS ASKED, AND I DO NOT SEE WHY WE SHOULD NOT PROCEED WITH THE EXAMINATION OF THE WINTESS.

RUSSELL. WELL, THE SENATOR, OF COUSE, HAS A RIGHT TO VOTE WHEN THE QUESTION IS SUBMITTED, IF HE SEES FIT.

WILEY. THAT IS WHAT I SUGGESTED.

B103WX

RUSSELL. FOR MY OWN PART, I THINK IT WOULD BE VERY UNFORTUNATE IF WE FOLLOWED THAT COURSE OF ACTION.

B103WX

WITH RESPECT TO THIS APPEAL, I SHALL NOT RULE THAT THAT APPEAL WILL BE ALIVE TOMORROW IF IT IS NOT ALIVE TODAY. IT IS INCONCEIVABLE TO ME THAT AN APPEAL THAT IS NOT HERE TODAY CAN BE PENDING BEFORE THE COMMITTEE TOMORROW, AND SO IF IT IS GOING TO BE RAISED, IT WILL HAVE TO BE RAISED, UNLESS THE CHAIR IS OVERRIDDEN, ON A NEW SET OF QUESTIONS ADDRESS TO SOME OTHER WITNESS. X X X

KNOWLAND. I WANT TO,8 !84'5, MR.CHAIRMAN, FULLY APPROVE THE STATEMENT MADE BY THE SENATOR FROM MASSACHUSETTS.

IT SEEMS TO ME THAT IF WE GET INTO A DISTINCTLY LEGALISTIC SITUATION HERE A GREAT DEAL OF THE CONFIDENCE WHICH THE CONGRESS AND THE COUNTRY HAS IN THE JOB THIS COMMITTEE IS DOING WILL BE SERIOUSLY SHAKEN.

OUR EFFORT, I TAKE IT, AS A COMBINED COMMITTEE OF TWO OF THE MOST RESPONSIBLE COMMITTEES OF THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES, HAS BEEN TO GET THE FACTS, TO GET ALL THE FACTS, SO THAT WHEN THIS COMMITTEE FINALLY MAKES ITS REPORT, THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES, I HOPE THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, IN SO FAR AS THEY MAY BE INTERESTED IN READING IT, AND THE COUNTRY, WILL HAVE CONFIDENCE IN THE DECISIONS WE FINALLY ARRIVE AT.

X X X BREWSTER. MR.CHAIRMAN, I RAISE A POINT OF ORDER.

RUSSELL. THE SENATOR WILL STATE HIS POINT.

BREWSTER. I DO NOT UNDERSTAND THAT THERE IS ANY QUESTION BEFORE THE HOUSE EXCEPT THE EXAMINATION OF THE WITNESS AND THAT THE EXAMINATION SHOULD PROCEED.

MORSE. MR.CHAIRMAN, I RAISE A POINT OF ORDER. I THINK THE RECORD WILL SHOW THAT THE JUNIOR SENATOR FROM OREGON TOOK AN APPEAL FROM THE DECISION OF THE CHAIR, AND I AM GOING TO INSIST UPON A CONSIDERATION OF MY APPEAL.

X X X KNOWLAND. I WANT TO SAY THAT I FEEL MY DISCUSSION IS PERTINENT, IS RELEVANT TO THE QUESTION, BECAUSE IT IS A VERY FUNDAMENTAL QUESTION HERE, AND IF YOU DECIDE THIS, I THINK WE ARE GOING TO BE FORECLOSED FROM OTHER INFORMATION.

NOW AS I WAS SAYING, THAT IMMEDIATELY IN MY JUDGMENT FORECLOSES, IF THIS PRECEDENT IS SUSTAINED BY THE COMMITTEE, FROM GOING INTO THE DISCUSSIONS WHICH TOOK PLACE AT THE BLAIR HOUSE AT THAT TIME. IN OTHER WORDS, WHEN WE MAKE AN INQUIRY OF THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE AND THEIR REPRESENTATIVE AS TO WHETHER OR NOT THE STATE DEPARTMENT URGED THAT THE UNITED STATES IMMEDIATELY BECOME INVOLVED IN KOREA, THE ANSWER CAN COME BACK THAT WAS A CONFIDENTIAL DISCUSSION WITH THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

B105WX (CORRECT)

NOW HERE WE WILL FIND OURSELVES COMPLETELY FORECLOSED FROM A GREAT NEW CONSTITUTIONAL QUESTION WHICH HAS ARISEN WHERE THE POWER TO MAKE WAR HAS BEEN TAKEN FROM THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES WHERE PERHAPS SIX MEN MEETING WITH THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES PUT THIS COUNTRY INTO WAR WHERE WE HAVE ALREADY SUFFERED OVER 65,000 CASUALTIES IN AN INQUIRY IN WHICH THE AMERICAN PEOPLE HAVE A VITAL INTEREST, ONE IN WHICH WE WERE ALL APPROACHING THIS SITUATION WITH AN OPEN MIND IN ORDER TO GET THE FACTS, WE FIND THAT CERTAIN DOCUMENTS ARE HARD TO GET. X X X

RUSSELL. GENTLEMEN, AT THE RISK OF BEING CRITICIZED FOR TAKING TOO MUCH TIME, I AM GOING TO MAKE A BRIEF STATEMENT IN CONNECTION WITH SENATOR KNOWLAND'S COMMENTS. I DO NOT INTEND FOR THIS RECORD TO GO OUT OF HERE WITH ANY REFLECTION UPON MY FAIRNESS, IF I CAN HELP IT, AS I AM TRYING TO BE AS FAIR AS I CAN.

NOW THE SENATOR HAS MADE A VERY POWERFUL AND MOVING ARGUMENT IN FAVOR OF THE APPEAL THAT SENATOR WILEY HAS ENTERED, BUT SAYS HE DOES NOT THINK ACTION CAN BE TAKEN ON IT.

KNOWLAND. OH, I HAVE NOT SAID THAT.

RUSSELL. YOU CERTAINLY DID. YOU SAID IF YOU DECIDE THIS THING NOW, IT WILL FORECLOSE EVERYTHING. YOU DO NOT WANT THE ISSUE DECIDED NOW, AFTER MAKING A VERY VIGOROUS ARGUMENT IN FAVOR OF YOUR POSITION, WHICH YOU ARE PERFECTLY ENTITLED TO DO. YOU ARE WHOLLY WITHIN YOUR RIGHTS. X X X

KNOWLAND. X X X A READING OF THE ENTIRE RECORD, I THINK, WILL INDICATE THAT THE SENATOR FROM IOWA WAS SUGGESTING THAT THIS WHOLE PROCESS THAT LEAD UP TO THIS THING MIGHT BE BACKTRACKED FROM FOR THE MOMENT AND NOT PRECIPITATE THE TYPE OF SITUATION WE NOW CONFRONT.

RUSSELL. OF COURSE, I DON'T THINK I NEED ANY HIGHER AND BETTER EVIDENCE OF THE FACT THAT IT APPEARS THERE ARE LEGALISTIC ASPECTS OF THIS MATTER THAT WERE NOT INTRODUCED BY THE CHAIR. THE STATEMENT THAT THE SENATOR FROM CALIFORNIA JUST MADE SHOWS THAT IN ALL OF THE VARIOUS LEGALISTIC RAMIFICATIONS OF THIS HEARING THE CHAIR PLAYED NO PART EXCEPT TO DISCHARGE HIS DUTY HERE AS THE UNFORTUNATE INDIVIDUAL WHO IS CALLED UPON TO PRESIDE OVER THESE HEARINGS. X X X

ON THE SENATOR'S STATEMENTS AND INFERENCES AS TO THE WITHHOLDING OF INFORMATION, THE CHAIR IS NOT INVOLVED. THE ONLY WAY I AM INVOLVED IS THE FACT I HAVE RULED AS I HAVE SEEN FIT ON GENERAL BRADLEY'S CLAIMING IMMUNITY TO ANSWER THIS QUESTION.

X X X KNOWLAND. CERTAINLY THERE WAS NOTHING IN WHAT I SAID THAT GAVE THE SLIGHTEST INFERENCE THE CHAIRMAN HAD NOT, BOTH ON HIS OWN VOLITION AND AT THE REQUEST OF THE COMMITTEE MEMBERS, SOUGHT TO GET EVERYTHING HE FELT AND SOME OF THE REST OF US FELT SHOULD BE PRODUCED. THERE WAS CERTAINLY NOTHING IN MY STATEMENT DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY WHICH CAST ANY REFLECTION UPON THE CHAIRMAN IN THE PERFORMANCE OF HIS DUTY, AND I DID NOT WANT THE CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT TO--

RUSSELL. I DID NOT THINK THE SENATOR INTENDED THAT. X X X

KNOWLAND. MY STATEMENT WAS DIRECTED ENTIRELY TO SOME OF THE EXEC-

30.24- 23083

UTIVE AGENCIES OF THE GOVERNMENT AND NOT TO THE MANNER IN WHICH THE CHAIRMAN IS PERFORMING HIS DUTIES. X X X

LODGE. CAN WE HAVE STATED COMPLETELY THE PRECISE ISSUES BEFORE US?

B106WX

RUSSELL. IF I UNDERSTAND THE ISSUE, SUBJECT TO CORRECTION BY THE COMMITTEE, SENATOR WILEY THIS MORNING RENEWED HIS APPEAL--THAT WAS THE EFFECT OF IT--WITH THE SUGGESTION THAT IT BE CARRIED OVER UNTIL TOMORROW.

LODGE. APPEAL FROM WHAT?

RUSSELL. FROM THE RULING OF THE CHAIR YESTERDAY ON THE QUESTION AS TO WHETHER OR NOT GENERAL BRADLEY WAS COMPELLED TO ANSWER THE QUESTION HE ASKED HIM ON YESTERDAY.

LODGE. AND THE CHAIRMAN RULED HE WAS NOT COMPELLED?

RUSSELL. THAT IS RIGHT. X X X

WILEY. I AM SURE IF YOU READ MY STATEMENT THAT YOU WILL FIND WHAT I HAVE SAID WAS--AND I THINK THE SUBSEQUENT STATEMENT OF CHAIRMAN INTIMATED IT WHEN HE STATED THAT THE POSTPONEMENT OF THE APPEAL UNTIL MORNING, HE WOULD CONSIDER THAT I HAD THE RIGHT TO DO THAT. YOU WILL FIND IN MY STATEMENT WHAT I SUGGESTED WAS THIS PLAN:

1. THAT WE, IN VIEW OF THE FACT THAT GENERAL BRADLEY NEEDS TO BE ACCOMMODATED AND HAS GOT TO LEAVE, CARRY ON WITH HIS TESTIMONY;

2. THAT I BE PRIVILEGED TOMORROW MORNING TO TAKE THE APPEAL, AND THAT THEN WE SPEND THE TIME ARGUING THE LEGAL ISSUES.

THEN IN RESPONSE TO THAT THE CHAIRMAN TOOK THE POSITION, AS I UNDERSTOOD IT, THAT HE WOULD NOT RECOGNIZE IT TOMORROW MORNING, BUT HE WOULD RECOGNIZE IT TODAY, AND READ INTO IT THAT I HAD NOTED THE APPEAL FOR TODAY. NOW I HAVE NOT NOTED THE APPEAL FOR TODAY. I MADE THIS SUGGESTION AS A WAY OUT. YESTERDAY IN OUR CONVERSATION WITH THE CHAIRMAN HE STATED THAT HE WOULD NOT RECOGNIZE THAT ANY ONE ELSE HAD ANY RIGHT TO APPEAL EXCEPT ME.

RUSSELL. WELL, THE SENATOR, OF COURSE, UNDERSTOOD THAT WAS ON THE FACT THAT THE SENATOR HAD WITHDRAWN HIS APPEAL, AND NOT THAT HE WAS GOING TO RENEW HIS APPEAL TODAY OR TOMORROW OR THE DAY FOLLOWING. X X

MORSE. X X X GENERAL BRADLEY WAS ASKED BY THE SENATOR FROM WISCONSIN YESTERDAY TO TESTIFY ABOUT A CONVERSATION THAT TOOK PLACE WITH THE PRESIDENT AT A MEETING ON APRIL 6, AND GENERAL BRADLEY SAID, IN EFFECT, HE CONSIDERED THAT A CONFIDENTIAL CONVERSATION AND THAT HE DID NOT DESIRE TO SO TESTIFY. THE SENATOR FROM WISCONSIN, THE RECORD WILL SHOW, RAISED THE QUESTIHN AS TO WHETHER OR NOT HE SHOULD BE REQUIRED BY THE COMMITTEE TO ANSWER HIS QUESTION, AND THE CHAIR RULED THAT HE SHOULD NOT BE REQUIRED TO ANSWER THE QUESTION, AND AN APPEAL WAS TAKEN. X X X

NOW, GENTLEMEN OF THE COMMITTEE, I LISTENED TO TWO RADIO PROGRAMS LAST NIGHT X X X AND BOTH OF THOSE RADIO PROGRAMS LEFT THE IMPRESSION WITH THE PEOPLE OF THIS COUNTRY THAT LISTENED TO THE PROGRAMS THAT OUR WITNESS TODAY WAS RUNNING THE RISK OF BEING CITED BY THIS COMMITTEE FOR CONTEMPT. THE WHOLE TWIST OF THE PROGRAMS, IN MY OPINION, REFLECTED ADVERSELY ON GENERAL BRADLEY. I THINK THAT IN FAIRNESS TO GENERAL BRADLEY IT IS THE CLEAR PUBLIC DUTY OF THIS COMMITTEE TO GET THIS MATTER SETTLED TODAY, AND I AM NOT IN FAVOR OF HEARING ONE MORE WORD OF TESTIMONY FROM HIM UNTIL WE GET THIS QUESTION OF PROCEDURE SETTLED. X X X

LONG. X X X I WOULD SUGGEST, MR.CHAIRMAN, THAT WE DO PROCEED TO VOTE ON THIS THING AS SOON AS SENATORS CAN FIND THEMSELVES PREPARED AND READY TO VOTE ON IT, BECAUSE IT DOES APPEAR TO ME THAT WE ARE HOLDING UP THIS MATTER OF FIGHTING A WAR. WE HAVE THE CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF HERE. WE HAVE ALL THESE MEMBERS OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF WAITING TO TESTIFY. WE ARE HAVING TO HOLD UP OTHER MATTERS UNTIL THEY CAN COME AND TESTIFY BEFORE THIS COMMITTEE, AND THEY ARE HAVING TO KEEP UP WITH THE TESTIMONY UNTIL THAT TIME.

AND, IN ANY EVENT, WE ARE NOT GOING TO GET THE INFORMATION THAT THE SENATOR FROM WISCONSIN WANTED. X X X

BRIDGES. MR.CHAIRMAN, IN THE FIRST PLACE, I DO NOT WANT TO SEE THIS RULING AS A PRECEDENT FOR ANY FUTURE WITNESS; AND I UNDERSTAND THE CHAIRMAN SAID THAT EACH ISSUE, AS IT ARISES, WILL BE DECIDED ON ITS OWN MERITS, AND THEREFORE, IF WE PASS ON THIS, THEN IT IS NO PRECEDENT FOR ANY FUTURE THING.

DID I UNDERSTAND YOU CORRECTLY, SIR?

RUSSELL. I THINK IT WOULD BE A PRECEDENT, BUT NO SENATOR IS BOUND BY THE PRECEDENT. THE COMMITTEE CAN VOTE TO CHANGE ITS POSITION ON AN IDENTICAL QUESTION.

OF COURSE IF SOME SLIGHTLY DIFFERENT QUESTION ARISES, IT WILL STAND ON ITS OWN MERITS.

THAT IS WHAT I SAID.

BRIDGES. ON THIS PARTICULAR QUESTION, IT SO HAPPENS THAT WHEN THE TRUMAN COMMITTEE WAS IN EXISTENCE, OF WHICH SENATORS BREWSTER AND CONNALLY AND I WERE MEMBERS, FOR A PART OF ITS EXISTENCE, THE PRESENT PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, WHO WAS THEN ITS CHAIRMAN, TOOK A VERY DEFINITE POSITION ON APRIL 3,1943, IN A HEARING TO WHICH SECRETARY OF WAR PATTERSON TESTIFIED.

B116WX. Q

THE SECRETARY HAD BEEN ASKED TO FURNISH CERTAIN INFORMATION REGARDING A CONFIDENTIAL REPORT WHICH WAS BEING PREPARED FOR THE INSPECTOR GENER). THE REPORT WAS BEING PREPARED BY A LIEUTENANT COLONEL AMEN.

ON APRIL 3RD, SECRETARY PATTERSON APPEARED TO EXPLAIN HIS PREVIOUS ACTION, AND FURNISH THE INFORMATION WHICH WAS REQUESTED; AND IN RESPONSE TO THE OPENING STATEMENT, THE THEN SENATOR TRUMAN SAID:

"YOU KNOW, MR.SECRETARY, MY ATTITUDE, AND I AM NOT GOING TO QUARREL WITH YOU ON THAT; BUT WHILE THE INSPECTOR GENERAL HAS CONFIDENTIAL DUTIES TO PERFORM FOR THE SECRETARY OF WAR, HE GETS THE WHEREWITHAL TO PERFORM THESE DUTIES FROM THE CONGRESS, AND I DON'T THINK THE CONGRESS SHOULD BE SHUT OFF FROM ANY INFORMATION WHICH IT MAY DEEM NECESSARY FOR LEGISLATIVE PURPOSES, NO MATTER WHAT IT IS."

THEY GO ON, AND LATER, MR.TRUMAN, THEN SENATOR, SAID, AS CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE:

"I DON'T WANT TO CARRY THIS CONTENTION TO ITS CONCLUSION, BUT I MAINTAIN THAT I DON'T THINK HE HAS GOT ANY RIGHT TO SHUT OFF THE INFORMATION FROM THOSE IN CONGRESS WHO WANT IT."

NOW, THAT WAS THE POSITION OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES WHEN HE WAS CHAIRMAN OF A COMMITTEE INVESTIGATING THINGS SIMILAR TO THIS.

I DON'T KNOW WHAT HIS POSITION IS TODAY, BUT I GATHER IT IS THE SAME AS GENERAL BRADLEY'S. X X X

CAIN. SENATOR BRIDGES JUST ABOUT SAID WHAT I HAVE IN MIND, ALONG WITH A LOT OF OTHER SENATORS AT THIS TABLE.

I AM TREMENDOUSLY IMPATIENT TO OFFER SOME CONSIDERED QUESTIONS TO GENERAL BRADLEY. IT APPEARS OBVIOUS, HOWEVER, THAT THERE IS A VAST DIFFERENCE OF OPINION ON A QUESTION BEFORE THIS COMMITTEE. X X X

MCMAHON. MR.CHAIRMAN, THERE NEVER HAS BEEN A HEARING AS LONG AS I HAVE BEEN IN THE SENATE WHICH IS, OF COURSE, GOING ON SEVEN YEARS, AND NONE THAT I HAVE EVER HEARD OF WHERE MORE INFORMATION HAS BEEN GIVEN TO A COMMITTEE AND THENCE TO THE PUBLIC THAN THERE HAS BEEN IN THIS ONE.

B117WX Q

IT RUNS SOME 750,000 WORDS AT THE PRESENT TIME. IN FACT, I HAVE TREMBLED MORE THAN ONCE AT THE AMOUNT OF INFORMATION AND THE KIND OF INFORMATION WHICH WE HAVE GIVEN IN THIS UNPRECEDENTED HEARING.

I SAY THAT BECAUSE THERE ARE THOSE NOW WHO I FEEL WOULD LIKE TO INTRODUCE THE IMPRESSION INTO THIS HEARING, FOR PURPOSES THAT DO NOT

BEAR THE LIGHT OF DAY, THAT THINGS ARE NOW GOING TO BE CLOSED UP AND HIDDEN. X X X

LODGE. MR.CHAIRMAN, LET ME SAY THAT I INTEND TO VOTE AGAINST THE MOTION OF MY GOOD FRIEND FROM OREGON AT THIS TIME BECAUSE OF MY BELIEF THAT IT WILL SERIOUSLY HAMPER IF NOT ACTUALLY PREVENT THE OBTAINING OF FURTHER INFORMATION. X X X

CONNALLY. X X X I AM IN FAVOR OF DETERMINING THIS SITUATION NOW. X X X

NOW THIS IS A FUNDAMENTAL QUESTION TO MY MIND. IF THIS COMMITTEE CAN BRING GENERAL BRADLEY UP HERE AND FORCE HIM TO TESTIFY REGARDING WHAT HE SAYS WAS A PRIVATE CONFIDENTIAL CONVERSATION BETWEEN HIM AND THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, AND THAT HE WAS ACTING AS THE PRESIDENT'S CONFIDENTIAL ADVISOR, IF WE CAN DO THAT, THEN THERE CAN BE NO CONSULTATIONS BY ANY PRESIDENT OR ANYBODY ELSE THAT A COMMITTEE OF CONGRESS CAN NOT GO IN AND PRY OPEN AND FIND OUT WHAT TRANSPIRED. X X

WILEY. IF WE COULD ARRIVE AT THE PROCEDURE WE ARE TO FOLLOW THIS MORNING, I WOULD LIKE TO BE HEARD ON THIS LEGAL PHASE OF THIS MATTER. I, TOO, HAVE GIVEN SOME STUDY TO IT. X X X

THAT IS WHAT THE PEOPLE ARE ENTITLED TO. X X X

ALL WE ARE ASKING, MR.CHAIRMAN, IS TELL US WHAT WENT ON IN THESE GROUP HEARINGS. I CALL YOUR ATTENTION THAT THE PRESIDENT WASN'T ALWAYS PRESENT. THE FIRST HEARING THE PRESIDENT WASN'T THERE. ARE YOU GOING TO APPLY THE RULE TO THAT? X X X

WE ARE INVESTIGATING THE JUSTICE AND THE MERIT AND THE EQUITY OF THIS FIRING, GENTLEMEN. THAT IS THE BASIS, THAT IS THE ISSUE. X X X

MORSE. MR.CHAIRMAN, IS IT THE CHAIRMAN'S UNDERSTANDING, WHICH IT CERTAINLY IS MINE, THAT GENERAL BRADLEY STANDS READY TO TESTIFY AS TO WHY THEY REACHED THE DECISION THEY REACHED IN REGARD TO THE DISMISSAL OF GENERAL MACARTHUR?

HE IS WILLING TO SET FORTH THE CONCLUSIONS OF THE PRESIDENT AND THE OTHERS AT THAT CONFERENCE, BUT THAT HE DOES STAND ON HIS CONFIDENTIAL RELATIONSHIP WITH THE PRESIDENT IN NOT DISCLOSING CONVERSATIONS THAT TOOK PLACE?

NOW I THINK IF WE PROCEEDED TO EXAMINE IT ON THE REASONS FOR THE DECISION, ON THE CONCLUSIONS THAT HAVE BEEN REACHED, YOU WOULD GET THE EVIDENCE THAT YOU NEED, BUT I THINK THE MOMENT YOU GET, AS THE SENATOR FROM WISCONSIN DID, INTO A REQUEST THAT HE DISCLOSE A CONVERSATION WITH THE PRESIDENT, THAT HE STANDS ON SOUND GROUNDS AND IMPORTANT GROUNDS IN REFUSING TO GIVE THAT INFORMATION. X X X

RUSSELL. GENERAL, YOU HAVE BEEN HERE THROUGH THE ENTIRE DISCUSSION THAT HAS TAKEN PLACE. YOU HAVE NOT BEEN PERMITTED TO PUT IN YOUR OAR BECAUSE MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE HAVE BEEN SPEAKING EITHER AS TO THEIR OWN VIEWS OR AS TO WHAT THEY THINK YOURS ARE OR SHOULD BE.

I SHALL ASK YOU NOW AS TO WHETHER YOU REFUSE TO GIVE THIS COMMITTEE, DECLINE TO GIVE THIS COMMITTEE IN ANSWER TO ANY QUESTION ASKED, ANY OF THE CONCLUSIONS THAT WERE ARRIVED AT IN ANY CONFERENCES YOU MIGHT HAVE HELD WITH THE OTHER JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF OR WITH THE PRESIDENT AND OTHER CONFIDENTIAL ADVISORS? X X X

BRADLEY. I DO NOT BELIEVE I HAVE REFUSED TO ANSWER ANY QUESTION

B120WX.
AS TO CONCLUSIONS REACHED. I HAVE NOT BEEN ASKED YET TO GIVE THE MILITARY OPINION OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, WHICH I AM PREPARED TO GIVE, AND I THINK THAT IS THE IMPORTANT ISSUE THAT I CAN TESTIFY TO, AND I CAN TESTIFY TO IT, BECAUSE THE REASONS, THE MILITARY REASONS, THAT THEY GAVE GENERAL MARSHALL FOR THINKING THAT GENERAL MACARTHUR SHOULD BE RELIEVED, WERE DISCUSSED BEFORE THIS COMMITTEE WHEN GENERAL MARSHALL WAS BEFORE IT, AND HE SAID THAT I WOULD GIVE THEM.

SINCE HE SAID THAT I COULD GIVE THEM, AND WOULD GIVE THEM, AND THEY WERE MADE TO HIM, I FEEL PERFECTLY FREE TO GIVE THOSE REASONS WHICH I THINK ARE THE PRINCIPAL ONES UPON WHICH I AM QUALIFIED TO TESTIFY.

HOWEVER, I WILL NOT REFUSE OR DECLINE TO ANSWER ANY QUESTIONS AS TO THE OUTCOME OF THE VARIOUS CONFERENCES HELD AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

I STILL THINK THAT IF I COULD TRY TO REMEMBER CONVERSATIONS AND REPEAT THEM HERE, IN THE FIRST PLACE, IT WOULD BE DIFFICULT; IN THE SECOND PLACE, AS I STATED YESTERDAY, I DO NOT THINK IT PROPER FOR ME TO TRY TO REPEAT CONVERSATIONS WITH THE PRESIDENT.

GENERAL MACARTHUR BEGGED OFF FROM ANSWERING THAT QUESTION, AS WAS STATED ON PAGE 104 OF THE TESTIMONY; GENERAL MARSHALL DECLINED TO ANSWER A SIMILAR QUESTION ON PAGE 1081 OF THE TESTIMONY, AND THERE WAS NOTHING SAID ABOUT HIS DECLINING TO ANSWER A SIMILAR QUESTION.

I AM PERFECTLY WILLING TO ANSWER QUESTIONS AS TO THE RESULT OF THESE CONFERENCES; I AM PERFECTLY WILLING TO GIVE YOU THE REASONS ADVANCED BY THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF FOR THEIR STATEMENT TO GENERAL MARSHALL, BECAUSE GENERAL MARSHALL HAS STATED I CAN GIVE THEM.

X X X I WOULD LIKE TO BRING OUT THAT MY ASKING TO GET AWAY TODAY IS NOT FOR MY PERSONAL CONVENIENCE. IT IS IN CONNECTION WITH ARMED FORCES DAY, WHICH IS HELD ONCE A YEAR, IN WHICH WE TRY TO PRESENT TO THE PEOPLE IN THE VARIOUS PARTS OF THE COUNTRY WHAT WE ARE TRYING TO DO AND ESTABLISH A CLOSER RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THEM AND THEIR ARMED FORCES.

MY STATEMENT YESTERDAY, I WANT TO EMPHASIZE, WAS IN CONNECTION WITH THAT ARMED FORCES DAY. SO FAR AS I AM CONCERNED, I WOULD BE VERY PLEASED IF I NEVER HAD TO MAKE A SPEECH. IT IS WORK AND I DON'T LIKE TO MAKE THEM. I FEEL IT IS MY DUTY TO MAKE THEM ONCE IN A WHILE, AND THAT IS WHY I MAKE THEM.

WHEN I RETIRE, I DON'T EXPECT TO EVEJ MAKE ANY. (LAUGHTER)

ONE OTHER THING I WOULD LIKE TO CLEAR UP. I WAS REFERRED TO HERE YESTERDAY AS THE PRESIDENT'S WITNESS. I THOUGHT I WAS THE COMMITTEE'S WITNESS.

I WOULD LIKE TO POINT OUT THAT I AM NEITHER A DEMOCRAT NOR A REPUBLICAN. I THINK IT WOULD BE IMPROPER IF I WERE, IN MY POSITION. I HAVE NEVER VOTED, AND IF I EVER DO, WHICH I EXPECT TO AFTER I RETIRE AND SETTLE IN A COMMUNITY, I EXPECT TO VOTE ON THE ISSUES. IT IS A LITTLE BIT LATE IN LIFE TO BECOME EITHER A DEMOCRAT OR REPUBLICAN, I EXPECT, SO I WANT TO POINT OUT THAT I AM HERE, IN MY OPINION, AS A COMMITTEE WITNESS.

NOW, THE STATEMENT HAS BEEN MADE HERE TO THE EFFECT THAT AN "IRON CURTAIN" HAS BEEN PULLED DOWN OVER MY TESTIMONY. I DO NOT THINK IT HA MR.CHAIRMAN.

I HAVE ONLY DECLINED TO ANSWER ONE QUESTION ON A CONFIDENTIAL BASIS. I AM PERFECTLY WILLING, AS I SAY, TO GIVE WHAT I THINK IS PERT AND THAT IS THE CONCLUSIONS REACHED AT THOSE CONFERENCES; AND I AM PERFECTLY WILLING TO TELL YOU THE REASONS ADVANCED BY THE THREE CHIEFS OF STAFF WHEN THEY GAVE THEIR REASONS TO GENERAL MARSHALL.

I HOPE I HAVE ANSWERED YOUR QUESTION, BUT I HOPE THAT IT WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED AS HAVING BEEN GIVEN IN TOO FULL A FORM.

RUSSELL. WELL, I THINK YOU DID ANSWER IT, GENERAL TO MY COMPLETE SATSIFACTION. X X X

B123WX
GENERAL, AS I UNDERSTAND IT, YOUR CLAIM OF IMMUNITY AS A CONFIDENTIAL ADVISER TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, BEING COMPELLED TO DISCLOSE WHAT TOOK PLACE IN A CONFIDENTIAL CONFERENCE OR IN CONFIDENTIAL CONFERENCES, BETWEEN YOU AND THE PRESIDENT AND OTHER ADVISERS, IS UP TO THIS TIME LIMITED MERELY AS TO WHAT WAS ACTUALLY SAID BY INDIVIDUALS AT THAT CONFERENCE?

BRADLEY. YES, SIR; AND I THINK IF YOU WILL LOOK UP THE RECORD YOU WILL FIND THAT GENERAL MARSHALL TESTIFIED AS TO THE GENERAL RESULTS OF ALL OF THESE CONFERENCES HELD.

X X X

FULBRIGHT. X X X I WISH TO SPEAK ABOUT ONE MINUTE WITH REGARD TO THE STATEMENT MADE BY THE SENATOR FROM CALIFORNIA X X X I HOPE THE SENATOR HAS NOT DECIDED TO SABOTAGE AND DISCREDIT THE HEARING SIMPLY BECAUSE THE EVIDENCE NOW BEING PRESENTED DOES NOT SUPPORT GENERAL MACARTHUR.

AS A MEMBER OF THIS COMMITTEE, I WILL, OF COURSE, SHARE WHATEVER DISCREDIT MAY ACCRUE TO THIS COMMITTEE.

THE SENATOR FROM CALIFORNIA, AMONG OTHERS, WAS EXTREMELY ANXIOUS TO GET THESE HEARINGS, AND NOW, HE SEEMS TO BE THREATENING TO CONDEMN THE WHOLE HEARING AS A WHITEWASH.

HE STATED, IF I UNDERSTOOD HIM CORRECTLY, THAT AN IRON CURTAIN IS BEING DRAWN OVER THE EVIDENCE, BY GENERAL BRADLEY AND THE OTHERS, WHICH WOULD BE INTERPRETED AS A PRELIMINARY TO AN EFFORT TO SAY THAT THIS WHOLE PROCEEDING IS A WHITEWASH, AND THAT THE DEMOCRATIC ADMINISTRATION IS DRAWING AN IRON CURTAIN DOWN UPON THE WHOLE INVESTIGATION.

X X X

KNOWLAND. X X X I RESENT VERY MUCH THE SUGGESTION THAT I AM TRYING TO SABOTAGE THIS HEARING. I HAVE ENTERED INTO IT IN GOOD FAITH. I FEEL THAT I HAVE AN OBLIGATION, AS A SENATOR OF THE UNITED STATES, TO GET THE FACTS AND ALL THE FACTS, AND THE TRUTH AND ALL THE TRUTH. X X X

WILEY. GENERAL BRADLEY, IS THERE ANY OBJECTION ON THE PART OF THE PRESIDENT TO YOUR GIVING THE CONVERSATION THAT TOOK PLACE ON APRIL 5TH, IN YOUR OFFICE AT 5 O'CLOCK IN THE AFTERNOON, WHEN THE PRESIDENT WAS NOT THERE; AND

IS THERE ANY OBJECTION, BY THE PRESIDENT, TO YOUR GIVING THE CONVERSATION THAT TOOK PLACE IN HIS OFFICE ON THE 6TH, AND ANY SUBSEQUENT DATE WHEN YOU WERE CONSIDERING WAYS AND MEANS OF RECALLING GENERAL MACARTHUR. X X X

B124WX

BRADLEY. X X X AS FAR AS THE MEETING ON APRIL 5TH WAS CONCERNED, BETWEEN THE THREE CHIEFS OF STAFF AND MYSELF, I DO NOT BELIEVE THAT THE PRESIDENT WOULD BE CONCERNED, BECAUSE, AS YOU SAY, HE WAS NOT THER AND HAS NO IDEA OF WHAT WAS SAID.

HOWEVER, NORMALLY, MINUTES KEPT OF SUCH A MEETING, IF MINUTES HAD BEEN KEPT, THE RELEASE OF THEM MIGHT BE QUESTIONABLE.

IN THIS CASE THERE WERE NO MINUTES KEPT.

WILEY. I DON'T HEAR YOU, SIR.

BRADLEY. IN THIS CASE, THERE WERE NO MINUTES KEPT OF THE MEETING ON APRIL 5TH. IT WAS MERELY, AS I TOLD YOU YESTERDAY, TO WARN THEM THAT THIS THING MIGHT COME UP, AND TO START STUDYING ABOUT IT.

AS FAR AS THE PRESIDENT'S OBJECTION TO MY REPEATING CONVERSATIONS HELD IN HIS OFFICE ON APRIL 6TH --

WILEY. AND SUBSEQUENT DATES.

BRADLEY. -- AND SUBSEQUENT DATES, IN CONNECTION WITH THIS --

WILEY. MACARTHUR --

BRADLEY. --THIS MATTER, I DO NOT KNOW.

AS A RESULT OF THE RULING OF YOUR COMMITTEE YESTERDAY, AND OF THE DISCUSSION BEFORE THIS COMMITTEE, BEFORE I LEFT HERE, I ASSUMED THAT I WAS NOT SUPPOSED TO ASK THAT QUESTION, SO I DID NOT ASK THE PRESIDENT THAT QUESTION.

WILEY. WELL, QUESTION NUMBER TWO:

WILL YOU FIND OUT, SO THAT YOU CAN REPORT AT A SUBSEQUENT HEARING, WHETHER THE PRESIDENT WILL CLAIM THAT THE CONVERSATIONS AT THOSE MEETINGS ARE CONFIDENTIAL, THAT HE MAKES THAT CLAIM, AND WILL YOU MAKE THAT CLAIM?

X X X

BRADLEY. MR.CHAIRMAN, IN MY OPINION I SHOULD NOT BE PLACED IN THE POSITION OF GOING TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES ASKING FOR A BREAKDOWN IN THIS CONFIDENTIAL RELATIONSHIP.

AFTER LISTENING TO THE VARIOUS ARGUMENTS BY THE MEMBERS OF THIS COMMITTEE WHO APPARENTLY KNOW CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND OTHER LAW, IT SEEMS TO ME THAT I WOULD BE PLACED IN A VERY BAD POSITION IF I SHOULD GO TO THE PRESIDENT AND ASK HIM FOR PERMISSION TO DISCUSS IN PUBLIC AND TO RELEASE THE CONVERSATIONS WHICH I HAVE HELD WITH HIM.

X X X

WILEY. I UNDERSTOOD FROM YOUR STATEMENT YESTERDAY -- AND THAT IS WHY I ASKED THE SECOND QUESTION -- THAT THERE WAS SOMETHING IN YOUR MIND TO THE EFFECT THAT YOUR WERE GOING TO FIND OUT WHETHER IT WAS CONSIDERED CONFIDENTIAL.

B125WX

NOW IF I WAS MISTAKEN, WHY THAT IS ALL RIGHT. NOW THIS IS MY THIRD QUESTION. ON YOUR OWN AUTHORITY WITHOUT CONSULTING ANYBODY ELSE, ARE YOU TAKING THE POSITION THAT THE CONVERSATION ON THE 5TH AND THE 6TH AND THE SUBSEQUENT MATTERS ARE NOT SUBJECT, ON THE SAME GROUND OF THE SAME BEING CONFIDENTIAL, SUBJECT FOR THE PEOPLE OF THIS COUNTRY TO HAVE?

X X X

BRADLEY. X X X I TOOK THAT POSITION ENTIRELY ON MY OWN INITIATIVE. AS A MATTER OF FACT I DID NOT EXPECT IT TO COME UP. IF I HAD, I MIGHT HAVE CONSULTED SOME LAWYER ON IT, BUT I DID NOT EXPECT IT TO COME UP BECAUSE YOU HAD ACCORDED GENERAL MACARTHUR THAT PRIVILEGE, YOU HAD ACCORDED GENERAL MARSHALL THAT PRIVILEGE, AND CONSEQUENTLY I DID NOT EXPECT TO GET INTO THE QUESTION AT ALL. I THOUGHT YOU WOULD EXTEND TO ME THE SAME PRIVILEGE YOU HAD TO THEM.

RUSSELL. DO YOU CARE TO ANSWER THAT PART OF THE QUESTION WHICH REFERRED TO YOUR CONFERENCE WITH THE JOINT CHIEFS ON THE 5TH, GENERAL BRADLEY? X X X

BRADLEY. WELL, ACTUALLY I DO NOT REMEMBER THE ACTUAL SUBSTANCE OF THE CONVERSATION WITH THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF ON THE 5TH.

I PROBABLY WOULD HAVE FORGOTTEN THAT I HAD CALLED THEM EXCEPT THAT IN LOOKING BACK ON MY DIARY I FOUND THE FOLLOWING WEEK WHEN I STARTED LOOKING IT UP, THAT I HAD CALLED THEM AT THAT TIME AND THEN THA REMINDED ME THAT I HAD CALLED THEM TO WARN THEM THAT THIS THING MIGHT COME UP, AND I STILL DO NOT REMEMBER WHERE I GOT ANY INFORMATION WHICH LED ME TO CALL THEM.

IT HAS BEEN SUGGESTED BY SOMEONE IN MY OFFICE SINCE YESTERDAY THAT MAYBE THAT WAS THE RESULT OF THE TICKERTAPE THING THAT WAS BROUGHT IN, SAYING THAT THIS WAS NOW UP. I DON'T KNOW. I HONESTLY CANNOT REMEMBER JUST WHAT BROUGHT IT UP.

I DON'T KNOW QUITE WHAT BEARING IT HAS ON IT. I JUST KNOW FROM LOOKING UP THE NOTES, THE DIARY, THAT I DID HAVE THAT MEETING AND THEN TALKED TO ONE OF THE CHIEFS THIS MORNING. HE COULDN'T REMEMBER MY STATING WHERE I GOT THE INFORMATION, BUT THAT WE HAD BEEN CALLED TOGETHE TO DISCUSS THIS BRIEFLY AND BE READY TO GIVE AN ANSWER LATER ON IF CALLED UPON.

X X X

RUSSELL. NO OBJECTION HAS BEEN HEARD BY THE CHAIR TO THE UNANIMOUS CONSENT PROPOSED BY THE SENIOR SENATOR FROM GEORGIA. THEREFORE, GENERAL BRADLEY, WE EXCUSE YOU FROM FURTHER ATTENDANCE UPON THIS COMMITTEE UNTIL MONDAY MORNING. I HOPE WE MAY BE ABLE TO RESUME YOUR TESTIMONY BY THAT TIME, X X X

B126WX

RUSSELL. WELL, GENTLEMEN, THE QUESTION RECURS HERE UPON THE APPEAL FROM THE DECISION OF THE CHAIR THAT GENERAL BRADLEY WAS ENTITLED TO CLAIM IMMUNITY FROM TESTIFYING WITH RESPECT TO PRIVATE CONVERSATIONS TRANSPIRING BETWEEN THE GENERAL, THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES AND TWO OTHER ADVISORS, WHICH WERE HELD CONFIDENTIALLY AT THE WHITE HOUSE ON APRIL 6.

THE GENERAL CLAIMS IMMUNITY FROM BEING COMPELLED TO GO INTO DETAILS. THE GENERAL HAS CONTENDED THAT HE WAS ENTITLED TO IMMUNITY.

AND THE CHAIR DELIVERED A CURBSTONE OPINION AT THE TIME, UPHELD THE CONTENTIONS OF THE GENERAL, AND RULED THAT UNDER THE DIVISION OF POWERS BETWEEN THE THREE COORDINATE BUT EQUAL BRANCHES OF THE GOVERNMENT THAT NEITHER HAD THE RIGHT TO INFLICT UPON THE PREROGATIVES OF THE OTHER AS TO PRIVATE MATTERS WHOLLY WITHIN THE SPHERE OF THE OPERATION OF ANY ONE BRANCH OF THE GOVERNMENT. X X X

KNOWLAND. X X X COULD WE NOT MAKE A UNANIMOUS CONSENT AGREEMENT THAT WHEN THE COMMITTEE MEETS TOMORROW MORNING AT TEN O'CLOCK, ASSUMING WE DO MEET TOMORROW MORNING AT TEN O'CLOCK, THAT THE TIME BE EQUALLY DIVIDED BETWEEN THE TIME WHEN WE MEET AND WHEN WE RECESS AT ONE O'CLOCK, TIME BE EQUALLY DIVIDED ONE-HALF TO BE UNDER THE CONTROL OF THE CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE, ONE-HALF TO BE UNDER THE CONTROL OF THE SENATOR FROM WISCONSIN, TO ALLOCATE FOR THE PROPER PRESENTATION OF THE VIEWS OF THE TWO CONTENDING POINTS OF VIEW. THAT GIVES THIS COMMITTEE, AS WE DO IN THE SENATE, THE RIGHT TO PASS ON IT X X X

IT DOES GIVE US A REASONABLE LIMITATION OF TIME WHERE WE CAN ALL SEE THIS THING BEING BROUGHT TO A HEAD AND WHERE WE CAN PROCEED WITH OUR BUSINESS. MIGHT I MAKE THAT UNANIMOUS CONSENT MOTION?

CONNALLY. WHEN WILL YOU VOTE?

KNOWLAND. ONE O'CLOCK.

RUSSELL. X X X

IS THERE OBJECTION TO THE UNANIMOUS CONSENT REQUEST PROPOUNDED BY THE SENATOR FROM CALIFORNIA? THE CHAIR HEARS NONE, AND THE ORDER IS ADOPTED.

THE COMMITTEE STANDS IN RECESS UNTIL TEN O'CLOCK TOMORROW.

(160) WASHINGTON, MAY 16-(AP)-SENATOR KERR (D-OKLA) SAID TODAY GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR IS LOSING GROUND IN THE CONGRESSIONAL BATTLE OF WORDS "ABOUT AS FAST AS HE DID IN THE ILL-FATED YALU OFFENSIVE" IN KOREA.

THE OKLAHOMA SENATOR, A LEADING SUPPORTER OF THE ADMINISTRATION IN THE MACARTHUR CONTROVERSY, ISSUED A STATEMENT JABBING AT BOTH MACARTHUR AND SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO).

KERR CLASSED TAFT AS A "RANK ISOLATIONIST" WITH IDEAS WHICH HE SAID MACARTHUR "CALLS SILLY".

LATER, TAFT TOLD NEWSMEN THAT KERR WAS INDULGING IN "JUST NAME-CALLING".

REFERRING TO ONE OF KERR'S CRITICISMS, TAFT SAID HE HAD TALKED ABOUT HOLDING DOWN DEFENSE COSTS AS MUCH AS POSSIBLE, AND DECLARED:

"THE FIGHTING IN KOREA WILL BE CHEAPER IF WE CAN DO THE FIGHTING WITH CHINESE SOLDIERS. IT'S ALWAYS CHEAPER TO DO THE FIGHTING WITH OTHER SOLDIERS."

TAFT HAS SUPPORTED GEN.MACARTHUR'S CONTENTION THAT GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S CHINESE NATIONAL TROOPS, NOW VIRTUALLY QUARANTINED ON FORMOSA ISLAND, SHOULD BE GIVEN A FREE HAND TO OPERATE AGAINST COMMUNIST CHINA.

IN HIS COMMENT ON GEN.MACARTHUR, KERR SAID THE TESTIMONY BY SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL BEFORE SENATE INVESTIGATORS HAD MADE IT CLEAR THAT MACARTHUR WAS "ACTING ON HIS OWN, PUSHING THE U.S.---ALONE, IF NECESSARY---TOWARD AN ALL-OUT WAR IN RED CHINA X X X IN THE VERY JAWS OF TREMENDOUS RUSSIAN FORCES."

KERR WENT ON TO SAY:

"GENERAL MACARTHUR HAS TRIED TO GIVE THE IMPRESSION THAT THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, AND THE REST OF OUR MILITARY LEADERSHIP, ARE ON HIS SIDE. THE TESTIMONY OF GENERAL MARSHALL COMPLETELY REFUTED THIS, BOTH AS TO MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL AND HIS POLICIES.

"NO CONTRARY INFORMATION HAS COME FROM GENERAL MACARTHUR'S LOQUACIOUS PRESS SECRETARY, MAJ.GEN.COURTNEY WHITNEY, WHO KEEPS THE WORLD INFORMED DAILY FROM HIS PLUSH PRECINCTS IN NEW YORK'S WALDORF-ASTORIA HOTEL."

A79WX

AS TO TAFT, KERR'S STATEMENT SAID:

"I ALWAYS KNEW THAT A RANK ISOLATIONIST WAS PRETTY MIXED UP, BUT CONSIDER THE COMPLETE CONFUSION WHEN HE BEGINS TO GET BIG IDEAS IN HIS HEAD.

"TAKE SENATOR TAFT, FOR EXAMPLE. HE WANTS TO FIGHT MORE AND MORE WITH LESS AND LESS. EVEN GENERAL MACARTHUR CALLS THAT 'SILLY'. 'SILLY' IS THE VERY WORD HE HUNG ON TAFT X X X."

WHEN MACARTHUR TESTIFIED BEFORE THE SENATE COMMITTEE LOOKING INTO HIS DISMISSAL BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN, THE GENERAL DECLINED ANY DIRECT COMMENT ON TAFT'S VIEWS.

KERR NOTED THAT TAFT LATER DISCUSSED THE MATTER IN THE SENATE. TAFT EXPLAINED AT GREAT LENGTH, KERR SAID, "THAT THERE REALLY IS NO 'DIFFERENCE' BETWEEN HIM AND THE GENERAL."

KERR SAID THAT "IN THIS CASE, I'D BE INCLINED TO ACCEPT THE STATEMENTS OF BOTH THE GENERAL AND THE SENATOR."

BUTLER-WEDEMEYER (170)

WASHINGTON,MAY 16-(AP)-SENATOR HUGH BUTLER (R-NEB) TOLD THE SENATE TODAY THAT LIEUT.GEN.ALBERT WEDEMEYER HAS WRITTEN NO LETTERS TO HIM CRITICIZING HIS SUPERIORS OR THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION.

BUTLER SAID HE WAS MAKING THE STATEMENT BECAUSE RADIO COMMENTATOR DREW PEARSON REPORTED ON MAY 6 THAT WEDEMEYER HAD WRITTEN BUTLER CRITICIZING THE ADMINISTRATION'S FAR EASTERN POLICY.

"THE STATEMENT IS AS FAR FROM THE TRUTH AS IT WOULD BE POSSIBLE TO MAKE IT," BUTLER SAID.

HE ADDED THAT WEDEMEYER, A NATIVE OF NEBRASKA, HAS WRITTEN TO HIM TWO OR THREE TIMES DURING THE LAST YEAR, BUT THAT HE DEALT WITH PURELY PERSONAL MATTERS.

WEDEMEYER IS COMMANDER OF THE SIXTH ARMY WITH HEADQUARTERS IN SAN FRANCISCO. HE RECENTLY APPLIED FOR RETIREMENT.

IN 1947 WEDEMEYER WENT TO CHINA AND KOREA FOR THE ADMINISTRATION AND LATER WROTE THE "WEDEMEYER REPORT" WHICH THE ADMINISTRATION KEPT SECRET FOR YEARS. THE KOREAN SECTION WAS MADE PUBLIC ONLY SINCE THE START OF THE PRESENT SENATE HEARINGS ON THE DISMISSAL OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR. WEDEMEYER FORECAST IN IT A POSSIBLE "SOVIET-CONTROLLED" INVASION OF SOUTH KOREA.

(280) TRUMAN-INFORMATION

WASHINGTON,MAY 16-(AP)-SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH) SAID TODAY THAT WHEN PRESIDENT TRUMAN WAS A SENATOR IN 1943 HE TOOK THE POSITION AN ARMY OFFICER HAD NO RIGHT "TO SHUT OFF INFORMATION FROM THOSE IN CONGRESS WHO WANT IT" FOR LAWMAKING PURPOSES.

BRIDGES REFERRED TO THE EIGHT-YEAR-OLD INCIDENT DURING DEBATE AT THE SENATE'S MACARTHUR HEARINGS OVER WHETHER GEN.OMAR N.BRADLEY SHOULD BE REQUIRED TO RELATE A PRIVATE DISCUSSION HE HAD WITH MR. TRUMAN APRIL 6.

BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, HAS DECLINED TO DO SO AND THE WHITE HOUSE SAID THE PRESIDENT DOES NOT WANT HIM TO TESTIFY ABOUT THE TALKS.

BRIDGES SAID MR.TRUMAN "TOOK A VERY DIFFERENT POSITION" WHEN HE WAS CHAIRMAN OF THE TRUMAN WAR INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE AND AN ISSUE ABOUT A CONFIDENTIAL MATTER CAME UP AT A SESSION ON APRIL 3, 1943. THE THEN UNDERSECRETARY OF WAR ROBERT PATTERSON WAS THE WITNESS.

"THE SECRETARY," SAID BRIDGES, "HAD BEEN ASKED TO FURNISH CERTAIN INFORMATION REGARDING A CONFIDENTIAL REPORT WHICH WAS BEING PREPARED FOR THE (ARMY) INSPECTOR GENERAL. THE REPORT WAS BEING PREPARED BY A LIEUTENANT COLONEL AMEN."

30.24- 23087

BRIDGES SAID PATTERSON CAME BEFORE THE COMMITTEE "TO EXPLAIN HIS PREVIOUS ACTION"--PRESUMABLY AN ALLUSION TO AN EARLIER REFUSAL TO PROVIDE THE INFORMATION.

BRIDGES SAID PATTERSON SUPPLIED THE DATA, AND THAT THE THEN SENATOR TRUMAN REMARKED:

"YOU KNOW, MR.SECRETARY, MY ATTITUDE, AND I AM NOT GOING TO QUARREL WITH YOU ON THAT; BUT WHILE THE INSPECTOR GENERAL HAS CONFIDENTIAL DUTIES TO PERFORM FOR THE SECRETARY OF WAR, HE GETS THE WHEREWITHAL TO PERFORM THESE DUTIES FROM THE CONGRESS, AND I DON'T THINK THE CONGRESS SHOULD BE SHUT OFF FROM ANY INFORMATION WHICH IT MAY DEEM NECESSARY FOR LEGISLATIVE PURPOSES, NO MATTER WHAT IT IS."

BRIDGES, READING FROM THE RECORD OF THE 1943 HEARING, QUOTED MR. TRUMAN AS SAYING FURTHER:

"I DON'T WANT TO CARRY THIS CONTENTION TO ITS CONCLUSION, BUT I MAINTAIN THAT I DON'T THINK HE HAS GOT ANY RIGHT TO SHUT OFF THE INFORMATION FROM THOSE IN CONGRESS WHO WANT IT."

NIGHT LEAD ACHESON

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON,MAY 16-(AP)-DEAN ACHESON, TARGET OF HOT FIRE FROM CRITICS OF THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION, DECLARED TODAY THAT HE "ENLISTED FOR THE DURATION" AND INTENDS TO REMAIN AS SECRETARY OF STATE AS LONG AS THE PRESIDENT WANTS HIM.

(ADVANCE) THE STATEMENT COULD BE TAKEN AS AN ANSWER TO REP.BURLESON (D-TEX), WHO DISCLOSED TONIGHT THAT HE HAD MADE A PERSONAL APPEAL TO ACHESON TO RESIGN IN VIEW OF "THE GREAT SENTIMENT OPPOSING YOU."

BURLESON SAID HE WROTE A LETTER TO THE SECRETARY MAY 7, URGING HIM TO TAKE THE INITIATIVE IN A RESIGNATION BECAUSE PRESIDENT TRUMAN, NOT BEING DISPOSED "TO CONCEDE IN VERY MANY THINGS", PROBABLY WILL NEVER ASK FOR IT.

EVERYTHING POSSIBLE MUST BE DONE TO UNIFY THE NATION FOR THE TREMENDOUS TASKS AHEAD, BURLESON SAID.

AFTER STATING HIS POSITION AT A NEWS CONFERENCE, ACHESON THEN PROCEEDED TO REPROVE REPORTERS WHO, IN HIS WORDS, FIDDLE AROUND WITH THE TECHNICAL AND SECONDARY QUESTIONS OF WHETHER THE UNITED STATES SHOULD VETO RED MEMBERSHIP IN THE UNITED NATIONS.

IN APPARENT ANNOYANCE, ACHESON NOT ONLY TOLD THE REPORTERS TO GET THIS STRAIGHT BUT ALSO ADVISED THEM NOT TO LOUSE UP, AS HE PUT IT, THE QUESTION OF AMERICAN POLICY BY GETTING IT CONFUSED WITH THE VETO ISSUE.

WHILE HE JUMPED THE REPORTERS HE SEEMED ACTUALLY TO BE TALKING OVER THEIR HEADS TO MEMBERS OF CONGRESS AND PARTICULARLY SOME REPUBLICAN SENATORS WHO HAVE EXPLORED THE VETO MATTER RECENTLY IN THE MACARTHUR HEARINGS.

IN ESSENCE WHAT ACHESON ARGUED TODAY IS THAT THE IMPORTANT THING IS TO PERSUADE A MAJORITY OF THE UNITED NATIONS MEMBERS THAT RED CHINA, DEFYING THE U.N. IN KOREA, MUST NOT BE PERMITTED TO SHOOT ITS WAY INTO THE PEACE LEAGUE. HE POINTED OUT THAT ONLY IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL CAN MEMBERSHIP BE CONTROLLED BY VETO, THE OTHER U.N. AGENCIES OPERATING ON MAJORITY RULE.

THE UNITED STATES HAS TAKEN THE POSITION THAT MEMBERSHIP IS NOT INVOLVED IN THE CHINESE QUESTION. UNDER THIS VIEW CHINA ALREADY IS A U.N. MEMBER AND THE QUESTION IS WHETHER THE COMMUNISTS OR THE NATIONALISTS OF CHIANG KAI SHEK SHALL BE PERMITTED TO HOLD THIS MEMBERSHIP. THIS REASONING HOLDS THE QUESTION OF RED CHINESE REPRESENTATION IS NOT A SUBJECT FOR THE SECURITY COUNCIL AND IS NOT SUBJECT TO VETO. THE SECURITY COUNCIL WOULD DEAL ONLY WITH MEMBERSHIP--NOT WITH CREDENTIALS.

WHEN DEFENSE SECRETARY MARSHALL TESTIFIED IN THE MACARTHUR HEARING HE SAID UNDER QUESTIONING THAT THE UNITED STATES MUST OPPOSE A SEAT FOR RED CHINA IN THE U.N. AND INTIMATED THAT HE THOUGHT THE VETO IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL COULD BE USED FOR THIS PURPOSE.

ACHESON WAS ASKED TODAY IF IT WAS NOT TRUE THAT HE HAD SAID IN THE PAST THAT THE VETO COULD NOT BE USED TO KEEP THE CHINESE OUT. HE SAID YES HE HAD SAID THAT.

BUT, HE WENT ON, IN ALL EXCEPT ONE ORGAN OF THE U.N. DECISIONS ARE MADE BY A MAJORITY VOTE. HE SAID THAT ORGAN--THE SECURITY COUNCIL--HAS LONG SINCE CEASED TO HAVE ANY EFFECTIVE PART IN THE UN'S WORK DUE TO RUSSIAN OBSTRUCTION. WHAT IS IMPORTANT TO UNDERSTAND IS THE HEART OF AMERICAN POLICY, ACHESON CONTINUED, IS THAT YOU CAN'T SHOOT YOUR WAY INTO THE WORLD ORGANIZATION. SO FAR THE UNITED STATES HAS SUCCEEDED IN CONVINCING A VAST MAJORITY OF THE COUNTRIES THAT IS THE RIGHT ATTITUDE, HE STATED.

A206WX

ACHESON WAS ASKED TO CLARIFY AMERICA'S ATTITUDE TOWARD THE BRITISH-IRANIAN DISPUTE OVER IRAN'S MOVE TO NATIONALIZE THE BRITISH OWNED OIL INDUSTRY. ACHESON SAID THE UNITED STATES WAS URGING BRITISH AND IRANIANS TO WORK THE PROBLEM OUT TOGETHER, USING MODERATION AND AVOIDING EXTREME MEASURES. THIS GOVERNMENT IS CONTINUALLY CONSULTING WITH AND GIVING ADVICE TO BOTH SIDES, HE ADDED.

REGARDING HIS OWN JOB, ACHESON SAID:

"I HAVE NO INTENTION OF RESIGNING. X X X I ENLISTED FOR THE DURATION AND AM PREPARED TO STAY AS LONG AS THE PRESIDENT WANTS ME TO STAY."

IN RESPONSE TO OTHER QUESTIONS, ACHESON SAID THAT UNITED STATES HAD RECEIVED REPORTS FROM SEVERAL RELIABLE SOURCES THAT THERE HAS RECENTLY BEEN SEVERE RIOTING IN STETTIN, A BALTIC PORT IN COMMUNIST POLAND'S FORMER GERMAN TERRITORY. HE GAVE NO DETAILS.

HE ALSO REPORTED THAT HE HAD NOT HEARD OF ANY CHINESE COMMUNIST PEACE FEELERS IN CONNECTION WITH THE KOREAN WAR.

BURLESON SAID HE HAD SUGGESTED ACHESON'S RESIGNATION AFTER CONSIDERING THE QUESTION "LONG AND CAREFULLY."

"MR.SECRETARY, IN ALL CANDOR, I SINCERELY BELIEVE THAT YOUR RESIGNATION WOULD BE IN THE BEST INTEREST OF OUR NATION BECAUSE THERE IS A GREAT SENTIMENT OPPOSING YOU," THE TEXAN WROTE.

"IRRESPECTIVE OF CAUSES AND CIRCUMSTANCES, A DETERIORATION OF CONFIDENCE HAS BEEN TAKING PLACE OVER A CONSIDERABLE PERIOD OF TIME, WHICH IN MY JUDGMENT IS IRREPARABLE.

"ANY MAN OF COURAGE ABHORS WITHDRAWING FROM HIS POSITION WHEN UNDER SEVERE CRITICISM. I CAN APPRECIATE WHAT SURELY MUST BE YOUR FEELINGS IN THIS RESPECT. HOWEVER, I BELIEVE YOU ARE A MAN WHO WOULD SUBVERT PERSONAL FEELINGS IN THE HOPE THAT YOUR ACTION WOULD BE A GREATER CONTRIBUTION TO THE TASKS AHEAD THAN TO REMAIN UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES."

THE CONGRESSMAN SAID "SEEMINGLY, IT IS THE DISPOSITION" OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN NOT TO CONCEDE IN VERY MANY THINKS AND "IT IS DOUBTFUL HE WILL EVER REQUEST YOUR RESIGNATION."

BURLESON CONCLUDED WITH THE COMMENT THAT WHAT HE HAD SAID WAS "FROM THE HEART AND WITHOUT ANY OTHER THOUGHT THAN TO DO THAT WHICH I FEEL IS RIGHT." HE ASKED ACHESON TO GIVE EARNEST AND PRAYERFUL CONSIDERATION TO THE SUGGESTION.

ACHESON-CHINESE

WASHINGTON, MAY 16-(AP)-SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON SAID HOTLY TODAY THE UNITED STATES IS ABSOLUTELY OPPOSED TO RED CHINA'S MEMBERSHIP IN THE UNITED NATIONS AND SO FAR HAS SUCCEEDED IN CONVINCING A MAJORITY OF U.N. MEMBERS TO TAKE THE SAME VIEW.

THAT IS THE IMPORTANT PART OF THE QUESTION, ACHESON TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE. WITH UNUSUAL SHARPNESS, HE ADVISED REPORTERS NOT TO FIDDLE AROUND WITH A SECONDARY QUESTION, AS HE CALLED IT, SUCH AS WHETHER RED CHINA'S ADMISSION SHOULD BE VETOED BY THE UNITED STATES, IF IT EVER CAME TO THAT.

SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL RECENTLY TESTIFIED IN THE SENATE'S MACARTHUR HEARINGS THAT THE UNITED STATES WAS OPPOSED TO SEATING RED CHINA AND INTIMATED AT ONE POINT THAT IF NECESSARY THIS COUNTRY SHOULD I HIS OPINION USE THE VETO. AT ANOTHER POINT, HE SAID THAT REGARDLESS OF TECHNICALITIES THE UNITED STATES SHOULD OPPOSE CHINESE COMMUNIST MEMBERSHIP.

ACHESON WAS ASKED ABOUT THIS TODAY AND FLARED BACK TO THIS EFFECT:

HE WISHED THAT THE REPORTERS WOULD GET THIS THING STRAIGHT AND NOT FIDDLE AROUND WITH TECHNICAL, SUBSIDIARY QUESTIONS. THE ATTITUDE OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT IS THAT IT IS OPPOSED TO SEATING IN THE U.N. ANY NATION WHICH DEFIES THE UNITED NATIONS-- THE UNITED STATES IS JUST OPPOSED TO IT AND THAT'S THAT.

ASKED ABOUT THE POSSIBILITY OF PEACE FEELERS FROM THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS AND WHETHER HE KNEW OF ANY, ACHESON SAID HE HAD HEARD OF NONE. IN VIEW OF TESTIMONY BEFORE THE SENATE MACARTHUR HEARINGS, HE ALSO DECLINED TO SAY WHAT HE THOUGHT ABOUT THE PROSPECTS FOR PEACE IF U.N. FORCES DEFEAT THE PRESENT CHINESE OFFENSIVE IN KOREA.

WASHINGTON, MAY 16-(AP)-SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON SAID TODAY BRITAIN AND IRAN HAVE PLENTY OF OPPORTUNITIES TO WORK OUT HARMONIOUSLY A SETTLEMENT OF THEIR DISPUTE OVER NATIONALIZING IRANIAN OIL.

AMERICAN OFFICIALS ARE URGING BOTH SIDES TO AVOID TAKING EXTREME STEPS AND TO CONDUCT THEMSELVES WITH MODERATION, HE TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE.

ALTHOUGH THE BRITISH HAVE BEEN KEEPING THE U.S. INFORMED OF THEIR PLANS AND ACTIONS IN THE CRISIS, ACHESON SAID BRITAIN HAS NOT STATED WHAT USE MAY BE PLANNED FOR THE PARACHUTE UNIT WHICH WAS ALERTED RECENTLY. HE ADDED, IN RESPONSE TO QUESTIONS THAT THE U.S. HAS NOT ASKED BRITAIN ABOUT IT.

LONDON NEWSPAPERS HAVE SPECULATED THE UNIT MIGHT BE SENT TO IRAN TO PROTECT THE PROPERTY OF THE $500,000,000(M) ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL CO. IN CASE BRITISH LIVES OR PROPERTY WERE THREATENED BY VIOLENCE.

ACHESON SAID ALSO IN RESPONSE TO A QUESTION THAT AS FAR AS HE KNEW NO CONSIDERATION HAS BEEN GIVEN TO A REPORTED PROPOSAL TO OFFER AMERICAN TECHNICIANS TO OPERATE THE OIL REFINERY AND FACILITIES. HE ALSO SAID HE KNEW OF NO APPROACH BY ANY AMERICAN OIL CO. TO TAKE OVER OPERATIONS IN CASE THE BRITISH WERE FORCED OUT.

ACHESON EMPHASIZED THE UNITED STATES IS NEITHER APPROVING NOR DISAPPROVING ACTIONS OR DECISIONS BY EITHER IRAN OR BRITAIN. HE SAID THE U.S. IS MERELY CONSULTING AND GIVING ADVICE TO BOTH SIDES.

ATLANTIC ALLIANCE
BY JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, MAY 16-(AP)-THE U.S. HAS OPENED TALKS WITH OTHER MEMBERS OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE TO FIND OUT WHETHER THEY WILL AGREE TO EXTEND THE SECURITY SYSTEM TO GREECE AND TURKEY.

SEVERAL OF THE OTHER 11 MEMBERS IN THE PAST HAVE BEEN STRONGLY OPPOSED TO EXTENDING THE TREATY SYSTEM INTO THE MIDDLE EAST AND SOME OF THE BEST INFORMED OFFICIALS HERE DOUBT THEY WILL CHANGE THEIR POSITIONS READILY.

HOWEVER, FOREIGN DIPLOMATS INDICATED THAT UPON U.S. SUGGESTION THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT WAS WILLING TO REVIEW ITS OPPOSITION AND CONSIDER A CHANGE. THIS MAY ALSO BE TRUE OF OTHER MEMBER GOVERNMENTS.

THE FACT THE U.S. IS UNDERTAKING THESE TALKS AT ALL MEANS THIS GOVERNMENT FAVORS MEMBERSHIP FOR THE TWO NEAR EASTERN COUNTRIES -- AND PERHAPS OTHER MEDITERRANEAN LANDS -- AS THE BEST WAY IN ITS VIEW OF MEETING THEIR CONTINUED DEMANDS FOR AMERICAN BACKED PROTECTION AGAINST THE THREAT OF COMMUNIST ATTACK.

A LONDON STORY YESTERDAY SAID THE U.S. AMBASSADOR THERE, WALTER GIFFORD, HAD ASKED THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT FOR SUPPORT IN AN EFFORT TO INCLUDE GREECE AND TURKEY AS FULL MEMBERS IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY ORGANIZATION (NATO). AFTER FIRST DECLINING COMMENT, THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID LAST NIGHT THERE ARE "VALID REASONS" FOR CONSIDERING SECURITY ARRANGEMENTS FOR GREECE AND TURKEY, BUT DID NOT SAY WHAT THOSE REASONS ARE. THE DEPARTMENT ADDED THAT THIS GOVERNMENT HAS OPENED TALKS WITH THE BRITISH AND FRENCH ON THE SUBJECT SINCE THEY ALREADY HAVE TREATIES WITH TURKEY.

GRITAIN AND FRANCE ARE TWO OF THE CHIEF MEMBERS OF THE ATLANTIC ALLIANCE. THE STATE DEPARTMENT REPORTED THAT "BECAUSE MEMBERSHIP IN NATO WOULD BE ONE METHOD FOR PROVIDING FOR THE SECURITY ARRANGEMENTS, WE EXPECT ALSO TO DISCUSS THE SUBJECT IN THE NEAR FUTURE WITH THE GOVERNMENTS OF ALL COUNTRIES IN NATO."

IF THE WASHINGTON IDEA OF BROADENING THE TREATY -- WHICH REQUIRES UNANIMOUS AGREEMENT OF PRESENT MEMBERS -- DOES NOT TO THROUGH THEN THE GOVERNMENT HERE PROBABLY WILL FALL BACK UPON SOME ALTERNATIVE PLAN SUCH AS A MEDITERRANEAN OR NEAR EASTERN ALLIANCE SUPPLEMENTING THE EUROPEAN ONE.

A39WX

GREECE AND TURKEY BEGAN PRESSING FOR MEMBERSHIP IN THE ATLANTIC TREATY SYSTEM MORE THAN A YEAR AGO. THE SUBJECT WAS DISCUSSED WHEN THE NATO FOREIGN MINISTERS MET IN NEW YORK LAST FALL. IT WAS DECIDED AT THAT TIME TO SET UP A COMPROMISE ARRANGEMENT WHEREBY THE TWO COUNTRIES PARTICIPATE IN MILITARY STAFF PLANNING FOR THE DEFENSE OF THE MEDITERRANEAN. BUT THE TURKS PARTICULARLY HAVE DISLIKED WHAT THEY CONSIDER A SUGGESTION OF SECOND CLASS MEMBERSHIP.

WHILE GREECE AND TURKEY HAVE TAKEN THE INITIATIVE, THERE IS A STRONG BODY OF MILITARY OPINION WHICH HOLD THAT THE U.S. NEEDS SOME BASIC TREATY ARRANGEMENT WITH THOSE COUNTRIES IN ORDER TO OBTAIN ARRANGEMENTS FOR AIR BASES.

AT THE LAST ROUND OF DISCUSSIONS UPON THE ATLANTIC POWERS THE U.S. DID NOT PRESS ITS CASE AND IN FACT AT AN EARLY STAGE OPPOSED EXTENDING THE TREATY TO AN AREA CLEARLY OUTSIDE THE NORTH ATLANTIC AREA.

THE REASONF FOR OPPOSITION BY OTHER COUNTRIES HAVE NOT BEEN TOO CLEAR BUT APPARENTLY COVER SOME APPREHENSION ON THEIR PART OF REDUCED AMERICAN AID IF GREECE ANDTURKEY SEEK HELP AS A TRREATY MEMBERS. ALSO, THE NORTHERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES APPARENTLY DISLIKE TO SEE THE TREATY OBLIGATIONS EXPANDED TO COVER THE SOUTHERN FLANK OF EUROPE FAR FROM THEIR PRIMARY SPHERES OF INTEREST.

(240) COMMUNIST TRADE

WASHINGTON, MAY 16-(AP)-A SPECIAL INVESTIGATOR TESTIFIED TODAY THAT WEST GERMANY, CONTROLLED BY THE U.S. AND HER ALLIES, ALLOWED STRATEGIC GOODS WORTH MILLIONS TO POUR INTO COMMUNIST CHINA FROM GER-MAN INDUSTRIAL PLANTS SINCE THE START OF THE KOREAN WAR.

THE WITNESS WAS KENNETH R.HANSEN, JUST BACK FROM THREE WEEKS OF INVESTIGATION IN WESTERN GERMANY FOR A SENATE EXPORT CONTROLS SUBCOMMITTEE BEFORE WHICH HE TESTIFIED.
HANSEN SAID "AN ENTIRE POWER PLANT" WAS AMONG ITEMS SHIPPED TO MANCHURIA.
HE SAID THE RECORDED LEGAL TRADE BETWEEN WEST GERMANY AND CHINA SPURTED TO $7,000,000 (M) IN THE LAST THREE MONTHS OF 1950, COMPARED WITH $413,000 IN ALL OF 1949 AND A LITTLE OVER $4,000,000 (M) IN THE FIRST NINE MONTHS OF 1950.
ROBERT N.GOLDING, ASSISTANT ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATOR FOR GERMAN TRADE AFFAIRS, TOLD THE SUBCOMMITTEE "NOBODY COULD DISPUTE" THE ACCURACY OF HANSEN'S REPORT.
HANSEN ESTIMATED THAT "ILLEGAL TRADE" ACROSS THE GERMAN BORDER INTO COMMUNIST AREAS MAY TOTAL $50,000,000 (M) A YEAR. HE SAID HE HAD HEARI ESTIMATES AS HIGH AS $350,000,000 (M).
"THIS IS A VERY SHOCKING---A VERY ASTOUNDING SITUATION," THE SUBCOMMITTEE CHAIRMAN, CHAIRMAN O'CONOR, (D-MD) SAID AS THE HEARING RECESSED TO AN INDEFINITE DATE.
O'CONOR SAID JOHN J.MCCLOY, U.S. HIGHER COMMISSIONER TO GERMANY, HAS AGREED TO COME BEFORE THE GROUP AS A WITNESS, BUT THAT THE DATE HAS NOT BEEN FIXED.
"THERE CAN BE BUT ONE CONCLUSION DRAWN," O'CONOR SAID IN A STATEMENT REVIEWING THE TESTIMONY," NAMELY, THAT THERE WAS UNBELIEVABLE STUPIDITY AND/OR A DESIRE TO ADVANCE THE COMMUNIST INTERESTS AT THE EXPENSE OF THE FREE NATIONS OF THE WORLD X X X."

KOREA-MOSCOW
BY EDWARD E.BOMAR
WASHINGTON, MAY 16-(AP)-MOSCOW'S STORY IS THAT THE LATEST COMMUNIST OFFENSIVE IN KOREA WAS REALLY A COUNTER-ATTACK WHICH RESULTED IN A CLEAR-CUT VICTORY FOR THE CHINESE "VOLUNTEERS" AND NORTH KOREANS.
STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS SAID TODAY THAT IS THE PROPAGANDA LINE BEING FOLLOWED ALSO BY RED CHINA TO EXPLAIN AWAY THE FAILURE OF THE OFFENSIVE TO MAKE MUCH HEADWAY AGAINST UNITED NATIONS' FORCES.
THE OUTCOME APPEARS ALSO TO HAVE MADE THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS MORE CAUTIOUS. OFFICIALS HERE TOLD A REPORTER THE COMMUNISTS NOW ARE CHARY OF PREDICTIONS THAT THE ATTACK NOW BUILDING UP WILL DRIVE THE EIGHTH ARMY INTO THE SEA. OFFICIALS SAID MOSCOW AVOIDED SUCH A PREDICTION ALL ALONG.
A MOSCOW MILITARY COMMENTATOR NAMED AS COLONEL TOLCHENOV GAVE THE OFFICIAL MOSCOW VERSION OF KOREAN DEVELOPMENTS IN A RECENT BROADCAST RECORDED BY UU.S. GOVERNMENT MONITORS.
"THE TROOPS OF THE INTERVENTIONISTS WHO OVER A PERIOD OF SEVERAL WEEKS, AND AT THE EXPENSE OF GREAT LOSSES, HAD MANAGED TO ADVANCE NORTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL, WERE REPULSED SOUTHWARDS," SAID TOLCHENOV.
"BUT THE U.S. COMMAND SHOWS NO MERCY TO ITS MEN. EARLY IN MAY THE INTERVENTIONISTS EMBARKED ONCE MORE ON SEVERAL FRONTAL SECTORS ON COSTLY COUNTERATTACKS IN THEIR ATTEMPT TO ADVANCE NORTHWARD.
"HAVING BEGUN THEIR INTERVENTION AGAINST THE KOREAN PEOPLE, THE U.S. IMPERIALISTS COUNTED ON A BRILLIANT VICTORY. ONE HAS HAD SUFFICIENT TIME SINCE THEN TO WITNESS THE UTTER FAILURE OF U.S. AGGRESSIVE PLANS."
TOLCHENOV CLAIMED SERIOUS LOSSES WERE INFLICTED ON U.N. FORCES.
HE ADDED:
"KEEP IN MIND THE FACT THAT INTERVENTIONIST TROOPS ARE RECEIVING EVERY SUPPORT ON THE PART OF THEIR AIR FORCE AND HAVE, BY COMPARISON WITH THE PEOPLE'S ARMY, IMMEASURABLY LARGER AMOUNTS OF LAND TRANSPORT."

WASHINGTON, MAY 16-(AP)-JOHN FOSTER DULLES REPUBLIC AN ADVISER TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT, SAYS THE DISMISSAL OF GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR FROM HIS PACIFIC COMMANDS "STRUCK DOWN" WHAT THE JAPANESE PEOPLE REGARDED AS "A SYMBOL OF A JUST AND QUICK PEACE."
DULLES IS CONDUCTING SPECIAL NEGOTIATIONS TO ARRANGE A JAPANESE PEACE TREATY. HE SPOKE LAST NIGHT IN A RADIO INTERVIEW (CBS "CAPITOL CLOAKROOM").
HE SAID MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL WOULD NOT DIRECTLY AFFECT HIS PEACE TREATY NEGOTIATIONS. BUT, HE ADDED IN RESPONSE TO A QUESTION, THE JAPANESE PEOPLE ARE NOW AFRAID AND UNLESS THEY GET A PEACE TREATY SOON "THEY WILL ACCEPT THE KEYS TO THEIR JAIL -- PERHAPS FROM RUSSIA."
DULLES SAID JAPAN IS RUSSIA'S "PRIMARY GOAL" IN THE FAR EAST. HE CALLED THE INVASION OF SOUTH KOREA PART OF A RUSSIAN PLAN TO DOMINATE JAPAN.

:-))3$ THE INVASION OF SOUTH KOREA PART OF A RUSSIAN PLAN TO DOMINATE JAPAN.
THE SPECIAL ENVOY INDICATED STRONG U.S.-BRITISH DIFFERENCES OVER HOW JAPAN SHOULD BE TREATED. REFERRING TO JAPAN, HE SAID:
"IT IS QUITE NATURAL THAT THE BRITISH WOULD WANT TO PUT RESTRICTIONS ON ONE OF THEIR STRONGEST PRE-WAR COMPETITORS, ESPECIALLY IN REGARD TO SHIPPING AND TEXTILES."
DULLES WILL LEAVE EARLY NEXT MONTH FOR BRITAIN TO DISCUSS THE JAPANESE TREATY.
"THE UNITED STATES," HE SAID, "BELIEVES THE ONLY HOPE FOR THE FUTURE IN THE PACIFIC IS TO DEVELOP A STRONG, PEACE-LOVING AND INDEPENDENT JAPAN."
HE DECLARED THE UNITED STATES OPPOSES LETTING COMMUNIST CHINA -- DIPLOMATICALLY RECOGNIZED BY BRITAIN -- HAVE A HAND IN MAKING THE PEACE TREATY FOR JAPAN. AND THE U.S. "BELIEVES THE TREATY SHOULD BE CONCLUDED WITHOUT THE NEED FOR PRIOR AGREEMENT ON FORMOSA."
REPUBLICAN CRITICS OF U.S. FAR EAST POLICY HAVE SAID THE ADMINISTRATION MIGHT HAND OVER FORMOSA TO RED CHINA.
DULLES SAID THE U.S. HAS TOLD AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND THAT IF JAPAN SHOULD EVER AGAIN BE

DULLES SAID THE U.S. HAS TOLD AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND THAT IF JAPAN SHOULD EVER AGAIN BECOME A MILITARY THREAT TO THEM THE U.S. WOULD BE THEIR ALLY. THIS WOULD BE DONE UNDER WHAT DULLES CALLED A "TRIANGULAR ARRANGEMENT" FOR MUTUAL DEFENSE IN THE PACIFIC.
FURTHER, HE SAID, THE U.S. HAS PROPOSED A "COLLECTIVE SECURITY PACT" WITH JAPAN, AS PART OF THE PEACE TREATY.
DULLES DECLARED THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND MACARTHUR ARE AGREED ON THE NEED AND CONTENT OF A JAPANESE PEACE TREATY. THIS AGREEMENT, HE SAID, MIGHT LEAD TO RESUMPTION OF BI-PARTISAN COOPERATION ON FAR EAST POLICY. HE ADDED THAT THERE HAD BEEN "VERY LITTLE BI-PARTISANSHIP AND CONSULTATION" ON PACIFIC AFFAIRS IN THE PAST FOUR OR FIVE YEARS.

NIGHT LEAD UN-AMERICAN
WASHINGTON, MAY 16-(AP)-THREE HOLLYWOOD WITNESSES REFUSED TO TALK TODAY ABOUT ANY PAST LINKS WITH COMMUNISM, ALTHOUGH ONE SAID HE WOULD FIGHT "TO DEFEND MY COUNTRY" AGAINST ATTACK.

TESTIFYING BEFORE THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE, THE TRIO INCLUDED:

LEONARDO BERCOVICI, 43, SCREEN WRITER; ALVIN HAMMER, 36, FREE LANCE ACTOR, AND BEA WINTERS, FORMER STUDIO SECRETARY.

ALL THREE INVOKED THEIR CONSTITUTIONAL PRIVILEGE AGAINST SELF-INCRIMINATION IN BALKING AT THE COMMITTEE'S QUESTIONS ABOUT THEIR PAST ASSOCIATIONS.

HOWEVER, BERCOVICI TOLD THE LAWMAKERS:

"I WOULD LIKE TO MAKE THIS CLEAR -- I AM NOT A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY OR IN SYMPATHY WITH THE BELIEFS OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY AS I UNDERSTAND THEM.

"IN THE EVENT MY COUNRTY IS ATTACKED BY ANY COUNTRY, I WOULD FEEL IT MY DUTY AND MY PRIVILEGE TO DEFEND MY COUNTRY IN ANY CAPACITY I WOULD BE CALLED."

MOVIE DIRECTOR EDWARD DMYTRYK AND SCENARIO WRITER RICHARD COLLINS, BOTH ADMITTED FORMER COMMUNISTS, HAVE TESTIFIED AT PREVIOUS HEARINGS THAT BERCOVICI WAS KNOWN AS A RED PARTY MEMBER IN 1945.

MISS WINTERS AND HAMMER, WHO PLAYED ROLES IN "MIRACLE ON 34TH STREET" AND "DOLL FACE," BOTH REFUSED TO SAY IF THEY ARE NOW OR EVER HAVE BEEN COMMUNISTS.

HAMMER REMAINED SILENT AS COMMITTEE COUNSEL FRANK TAVENNER SAID THE COMMITTEE HAD INFORMATION THAT HAMMER HELD COMMUNIST BOOK NO. 11810 IN NEW YORK CITY IN 1943 AND A COMMUNIST POLITICAL ASSOCIATION CARD NO. 47354 IN HOLLYWOOD IN 1945.

THE COMMITTEE TENTATIVELY PLANS TO MOVE ITS HEARINGS TO HOLLYWOOD LATE THIS MONTH TO CONCLUDE ITS INVESTIGATION OF RED INFLUENCES IN THE WEST COAST MOVIE COLONY.

CLAYTON EXPRESSED BELIEF THAT SUCH A CRISIS WOULD EXPOSE DANGEROUS DISUNITY AMONG THE WESTERN NATIONS AS WELL AS MILITARY WEAKNESS.

A CHAMPION OF THE ATLANTIC UNION PROPOSAL FOR A FEDERATION OF DEMOCRATIC NATIONS, HE SAID THIS MEANS OF UNIFYING THE WESTERN OPPOSITION TO SOVIET IMPERIALISM CARRIED THE BEST PROMISE OF A SUCCESSFUL DEFENSE.

CLAYTON TALKED WITH REPORTERS ON THE EVE OF TWO-DAY SESSION OF THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF THE ATLANTIC UNION COMMITTEE. HE SAID THE GROUP WOULD DO EVERYTHING IT COULD TO WORK UP RENEWED INTEREST IN A LONG-PENDING RESOLUTION SUPPORTED BY 27 SENATORS AND 100 REPRESENTATIVES CALLING ON THE U. S. YANG, WITH HIS WIFE AND TWO CHILDREN, ARRIVED FROM HONOLULU WHERE HE LIVED FOR MANY YEARS AS A PRACTISING PHYSICIAN. HE SUCCEEDS DR. JOHN MYUN CHANG WHO WAS MADE SOUTH KOREAN PRIME MINISTER.

THE NEW AMBASSADOR, WHO PLANS TO PRESENT HIS CREDENTIALS TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN NEXT WEEK, LAUDED THE RELIEF EFFORTS BEING MADE IN SOUTH KOREA, BUT SAID "THEY ARE ONLY A TRICKLE COMPARED WITH THE NEED."

YANG SAID "THE UNITED STATES OR UNITED NATIONS SHOULD MAKE SHIPS AVAILABLE TO KOREA FOR CARRYING RELIEF SUPPLIES THERE." HE SAID KOREA WOULD SUPPLY SEAMEN TO OPERATE THE SHIPS IF THEY WERE MADE AVAILABLE.

"RELIEF AID IS NOW SUBJECT TO SPACE AVAILABLE ON SHIPS CARRYING MILITARY GOODS," HE SAID. "THE RESULT IS VERY LITTLE CIVILIAN RELIEF GOODS ARE BEING CARRIED."

NIGHT LEAD INDIA GRAIN

WASHINGTON, MAY 16-(AP)-THE SENATE TODAY APPROVED A BILL AUTHORIZING THE SHIPMENT OF 2,000,000 TONS OF GRAIN TO FAMINE-THREATENED INDIA ON A 100 PER CENT LOAN BASIS.

THE $190,000,000 LOAN IS REPAYABLE AT LOW INTEREST RATES OVER A PERIOD OF MORE THAN 30 YEARS.

A SIMILAR MEASURE IS SCHEDULED TO COME BEFORE THE HOUSE TOMORROW. ITS FATE THERE IS UNCERTAIN IN THE FACT OF STRONG OPPOSITION.

IN PASSING THE LEGISLATION, THE SENATE REJECTED A PLEA BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN WHO HAD ASKED CONGRESS LAST FEBRUARY TO SEND $190,000,000 WORTH OF FOOD TO INDIA AS AN OUTRIGHT GIFT.

SEVERAL SENATORS NOTED THAT INDIA HERSELF NEVER ASKED FOR FREE AID. INDIA ALSO REFUSED TO BARTER MATERIALS WHICH MIGHT BE USED IN ATOMIC WEAPONS IN RETURN FOR THE GRAIN.

PASSAGE CAME BY VOICE VOTE AFTER THE SENATE VOTED, 52 TO 32, TO APPROVE THE CONSIGNMENT AS A STRAIGHT LOAN, INSTEAD OF A HALF-LOAN, HALF-GIFT AS RECOMMENDED BY THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE.

WITHOUT OBJECTION, THE CHAMBER APPROVED AN AMENDMENT BY SENATOR SALTONSTALL (R-MASS) REQUIRING THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE TO CERTIFY THAT GRAIN SHIPMENTS TO INDIA "WILL NOT IMPAIR THE FULFILLMENT OF THE VITAL NEEDS OF THE UNITED STATES."

THE AMENDMENT ALSO PROVIDES THAT THE UNITED STATES MAY NEGOTIATE WITH INDIA FOR REPAYMENT OF AT LEAST PART OF THE LOAN IN STRATEGIC MATERIALS.

SENATOR DIRKSEN (R-ILL) LOST IN A MOVE TO HAVE THE BILL SPELL OUT EXACTLY WHAT INDIA SHOULD SEND THIS COUNTRY IN EXCHANGE FOR THE GRAIN.

CITING THIS COUNTRY'S VAST FOREIGN AID PROGRAMS, DIRKSEN DECLARED:

"IT'S HIGH TIME WE GET A LITTLE SOMETHING OUT OF THIS. ARE WE GOING TO BE SUCKERS?"

HE SAID THE UNITED STATES, FOR EXAMPLE, NEEDS 1,500,000 TONS OF MANGANESE A YEAR AND PRODUCES ONLY ABOUT 200,000 TONS. INDIA HAS PLENTY OF MANGANESE, HE SAID, AND COULD USE IT TO REPAY THE FOOD LOAN.

THE INDIAN EMBASSY HERE, IN A RECENT "NEWS BULLETIN", QUOTED INDIAN PRIME MINISTER NEHRU AS SAYING IN CONNECTION WITH THE U.S. LOAN:

MAY 17 1951

"WE SHALL GLADLY SUPPLY SUCH MATERIALS AS ARE AVAILABLE IN INDIA AND CAN BE SPARED BY US.

"BUT I SHOULD LIKE TO MAKE IT CLEAR THAT IT IS A FUNDAMENTAL PART OF OUR FOREIGN POLICY THAT SUCH MATERIAL AS IS PARTICULARLY RELATED TO THE PRODUCTION OF ATOMIC OR LIKE WEAPONS SHALL NOT BE SUPPLIED BY US TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES."

SENATOR MUNDT (R-SD) ESTIMATED THE INTEREST WOULD AMOUNT TO $5,000,000 A YEAR FOR THE FIRST FIVE YEARS.

SENATORS SPONSORING THE LEGISLATION SAID THAT EVEN IF THE HOUSE ACTS FAVORABLY, IT WILL TAKE SOME TIME BEFORE ANY OF THE GRAIN CAN REACH INDIA.

BUT THEY SAID AT LEAST IT WOULD ENABLE INDIA TO USE ITS OWN GRAIN STOCKS MORE FREELY IN THE KNOWLEDGE THAT HELP IS ON THE WAY FROM THE UNITED STATES.

THIS COUNTRY HAS ALREADY BEEN SENDING SHIPMENTS OF GRAIN TO INDIA, FOR CASH.

THE AGRICULTURE DEPARTMENT SAID TODAY INDIA HAD BEEN ALLOTTED ABOUT 9,730,000 BUSHELS FOR JULY, MAKING TOTAL EXPORTS OF ABOUT 79,300,000 BUSHELS TO INDIA FOR THE 13-MONTH PERIOD ENDING JULY 31.

MUCH OF THE SENATE DEBATE, PRIOR TO PASSAGE OF THE BILL TODAY, HAS CENTERED ON THE NEED TO PREVENT INDIA FROM FALLING INTO THE SOVIET ORBIT.

NIGHT LEAD CIVILIAN GOODS

WASHINGTON, MAY 16-(AP)-THE GOVERNMENT IS PLANNING FURTHER CUTS IN PRODUCTION OF 57 CIVILIAN GOODS, INCLUDING PASSENGER CARS, STARTING JULY 1.

SUMMONS TO MEET WITH NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY OFFICIALS HERE ON FRIDAY WERE WIRED TODAY TO MORE THAN 600 COMPANY OFFICIALS. UP FOR DISCUSSION WERE PROPOSED CUTS IN USAGE OF STEEL, COPPER AND ALUMINUM FOR JULY, AUGUST AND SEPTEMBER.

A TOTAL REDUCTION OF 30 PER CENT OR MORE FROM THE 1950 BASE PERIOD USAGE OF STEEL WAS EXPECTED, AS AGAINST THE PRESENT 20 PER CENT LIMITATION.

THE INDUSTRIES INVITED COVER THE CONSUMER "HARD GOODS" FIELD FROM REFRIGERATORS AND WASHING MACHINES TO VENETIAN BLINDS.

AUTOMOBILE MANUFACTURERS, WHO ALREADY HAVE HAD INFORMAL NOTICE OF THE 30 PER CENT CUT, ARE UNCERTAIN WHETHER A DEEPER SLASH---SAY, TO 65 PER CENT OF YEAR-AGO STEEL CONSUMPTION---IS IN PROSPECT.

THE PASSENGER CAR PRODUCERS EXPECT ANOTHER NPA PROPOSAL AS WELL---A REWRITING OF THE LIMITATION ORDER WHICH WOULD TEND TO ENCOURAGE GREATER OUTPUT OF SMALL, LIGHT MODELS AS AGAINST HEAVIER AND COSTLIER CARS.

THIS, IT WAS INDICATED, MIGHT BE DONE BY AN ORDER WHICH WOULD PERMIT A MANUFACTURER TO SATISFY THE FEDERAL REQUIREMENTS EITHER BY (1) LIMITING HIS STEEL USAGE TO A SPECIFIED PER CENT OF NORMAL CONSUMPTION, AS IS NOW DONE, OR (2) LIMITING THE ACTUAL NUMBER OF CARS PRODUCED BY SOME PERCENTAGE CUT FROM PAST OUTPUT.

DETAILS ON HOW SUCH AN ORDER WOULD OPERATE WERE LACKING, BUT TRADE SOURCES SAID THE AIM WAS APPARENT: TO ENCOURAGE THE MANUFACTURE OF THE MAXIMUM NUMBER OF VEHICLES WITH A REDUCED SUPPLY OF METAL.

DATE OF THE PENDING CURTAILMENT CORRESPONDS TO THE START OF NPA'S CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN, OR "CMP". UNDER THIS MACHINERY, DEFENSE AND "DEFENSE-SUPPORTING" INDUSTRIES WILL GET DIRECT ALLOCATIONS OF STEEL, COPPER AND ALUMINUM.

THE TONNAGE REMAINING FOR THE "FREE" MARKET--THAT IS, FOR PURCHASE ORDERS BEARING NO PRIORITY---IS UNCERTAIN. THE CONFERENCES ON FRIDAY WILL DISCLOSE NPA'S ESTIMATE OF THE CIVILIAN GOODS CURTAILMENT WHICH WILL BE NEEDED TO BRING PRODUCTION WITHIN LIMITS OF AVAILABLE METAL SUPPLY.

NIGHT LEAD MEAT (400)

WASHINGTON,MAY 16-(AP)-SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE BRANNAN STAMPED HIS OKAY ON THE LIVE BEEF PRICE ROLLBACK TODAY AND DENIED IT WOULD "JEOPARDIZE PRODUCTION."

HE CONCEDED THAT SOME LIVESTOCK FEEDERS "ARE GOING TO GET HURT" BUT SAID THEY ARE THE ONES WHO HAVE BOUGHT CATTLE AT HIGH PRICES SINCE THE FIRST OF THE YEAR AND THEY "ACTED WITH THEIR EYES WIDE OPEN." THEY HAD PLENTY OF NOTICE OF WHAT MIGHT COME IN THE WAY OF PRICE ORDERS, THE SECRETARY SAID. HE ADDED THAT FEEDERS WHO BOUGHT AT EARLIER PRICES WILL BE ABLE TO GET OUT WITH SOME PROFIT.

BRANNAN TESTIFIED BEFORE THE SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE IN HEARINGS ON THE PROPOSAL TO EXTEND THE DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT AND EXPAND THE EMERGENCY POWERS IT SETS UP.

HE WAS QUESTIONED AGAINST A BACKGROUND OF PROTESTS FROM LIVESTOCK INTERESTS AND A NUMBER OF WESTERN CONGRESSMEN AGAINST THE BEEF ORDER ISSUED BY THE OFFICE OF PRICE STABILIZATION.

UNDER THE ORDER FROM PRICE STABILIZER MICHAEL V. DI SALLE LIVE BEEF PRICES ARE TO COME DOWN 10 PER CENT MAY 20, WITH ADDITIONAL ROLLBACKS OF 4 1/2 PERCENT EACH ON AUGUST 1 AND OCT. 1.

WHILE BRANNAN WAS BEFORE THE SENATE COMMITTEE SPOKESMEN FOR THE LIVESTOCK INDUSTRY CARRIED THEIR COMPLAINT TO THE HOUSE AGRICULTURE COMMITTEE WHERE SEVERAL MEMBERS HAVE TALKED OF PROPOSING AMENDMENTS TO HEAD OFF THE ROLLBACK.

LOREN C.BAMERT OF IONE, CALIF., PRESIDENT OF THE AMERICAN NATIONAL CATTLEMEN'S ASSOCIATION, TOLD THE AGRICULTURE COMMITTEE THAT WITH THE ROLLBACK IN EFFECT MEAT RATIONING "IS ALMOST CERTAIN TO COME WITHIN THE NEXT FEW MONTHS."

HE ASSERTED THAT THE LONG-RANGE MEAT SUPPLY IS BEING REDUCED AS CATTLEMEN LIQUIDATE THEIR HERDS AHEAD OF THE PRICE CUTS.

THE IMMEDIATE EFFECT MAY BE MORE BEEF ON THE BUTCHER COUNTER, BAMERT TESTIFIED, BUT IT IS "BORROWING MEAT FROM WHAT SHOULD HAVE BEEN THE FUTURE SUPPLY."

THE CATTLEMAN SAID ALSO THAT THE ROLLBACK ORDER THREATENS A "SQUEEZE" ON PRODUCERS. THE EFFECT ALREADY, HE SAID, IS TO "REMOVE THE PACKERS FROM A SQUEEZE AND PUT THE CATTLE FEEDERS INTO ONE."

BAMERT EXPLAINED THAT THE JANUARY PRICE FREEZE SQUEEZED PACKERS BECAUSE THE COST OF CATTLE KEPT GOING UP WHILE THE PRICE OF MEAT WAS HELD, AND THE ROLLBACK MERELY SHIFTS THE PRESSURE TO FEEDERS WHO BOUGHT HIGH PRICED CATTLE. THEY GROWERS ARE AFRAID THEY ARE NEXT, HE SAID.

BAMERT TOLD THE COMMITTEE THERE ALREADY HAS BEEN "SUBSTANTIAL LOSS IN TONNAGE" OF MEAT AS CATTLE WERE RUSHED TO MARKET BEFORE THEY WERE FULLY READY, TO BEAT THE PRICE ORDER.

THE AGRICULTURE COMMITTEE HEARD ALSO FROM A NUMBER OF OTHER STOCKMEN, SEEKING A STOP ORDER AGAINST THE ROLLBACK AND ALSO OPPOSING ANY CONTINUED CONTROLS ON THEIR OPERATIONS UNDER THE PRODUCTION LAW.

AFTER THE HEARING BAMERT ANNOUNCED WITH REGRET THE CANCELLATION OF A DEMONSTRATION OF "WHERE THE LOSS OF MEAT TO CONSUMERS OCCURS UNDER PRICE CEILINGS."

THE PLAN HAD BEEN TO SHOW LIVE ANIMALS IN VARIOUS STAGES OF GROWTH AND FINISH, IN COMPARISON WITH CARCASSES OF COMPARABLE ANIMALS, AS PART OF THE TESTIMONY.

BAMERT SAID IT WAS FOUND THAT FACILITIES FOR SUCH A SHOW COULD NOT BE PROVIDED AT THE CAPITOL.

H. E. PICKETT OF TOPEKA, SECRETARY OF THE KANSAS STATE LIVESTOCK ASSN., GAVE THE COMMITTEE BREAKDOWNS OF COSTS REPORTED TO HIM BY VARIOUS CATTLEMEN. IN EACH CASE, HIS FIGURES INDICATED THE CATTLEMAN WOULD OPERATE AT A LOSS UNDER THE ROLLBACK.

HE SAID HE DISAGREED WITH DISALLE'S ESTIMATE THAT MEAT PRICES ARE AT 152 PER CENT OF PARITY. PARITY IS A PRICE LEVEL SAID BY LAW TO BE FAIR TO FARM PRODUCERS IN RELATION TO THE COST OF THINGS THEY BUY.

PICKETT SAID THAT ON MAY 5 THE PARITY PRICE OF CHOICE GRADE BEEF WAS 126 PER CENT OF PARITY. HE SAID THAT IF THERE IS A ROLLBACK AND NO INCREASE IN OTHER COSTS TO AFFECT PARITY BETWEEN NOW AND OCTOBER 1, THE PARITY PRICE ON CHOICE SLAUGHTER CATTLE WILL BE ABOUT 32.24 CENTS A POUND AS AGAINST A PROJECTED CEILING OF 30.70 CENTS.

PICKETT SAID THAT LAST TUESDAY AT THE KANSAS CITY STOCK YARDS HE WAS TOLD THAT IN ONE CATTLE ALLEY 60 TO 80 PER CENT OF THE ANIMALS SHOULD HAVE BEEN FATTENED ANOTHER 90 DAYS BEFORE BEING BROUGHT TO MARKET.

CHAIRMAN COOLEY (D-NC) OF THE AGRICULTURE COMMITTEE SAID THAT THAT MEANT SOME 180 POUNDS OF BEEF LOST PER ANIMAL.

F. E. MOLLIN OF DENVER, EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF THE AMERICAN NATIONAL CATTLEMEN'S ASSOCIATION, SAID HE DOUBTED IF THE OPS GOT ANY EXPERT ADVICE FROM ANY EXPERIENCED CATTLEMEN BEFORE THE ROLLBACK ORDER WAS ISSUED.

CUSHMAN RADEBAUGH OF ORLANDO, PRESIDENT OF THE FLORIDA STATE CATTLEMEN'S ASSOCIATION, SAID FLORIDA CATTLE ARE GOING TO MARKET AT LIGHT WEIGHT BECAUSE FEEDERS ARE AFRAID TO BUY CATTLE FOR FATTENING.
"YOU FOLKS ARE HOLDING SOME CATTLE TO SEE WHAT CONGRESS IS GOING TO DO ABOUT HALTING OR EXTENDING CONTROLS," COOLEY SAID, "BUT IF THE CONTROLS ARE EXTENDED, YOU'RE GOING TO GET OUT OF THE BUSINESS?"
"THAT'S RIGHT," RADEBAUGH REPLIED.
H. E. SLUSHER OF LEXINGTON, MO., PRESIDENT OF THE MISSOURI FARM BUREAU, SAID NO ONE HAD TESTIFIED THAT WITH THE PRICE ROLLBACK THERE WILL BE MORE MEAT PER CAPITA IN 1952 THAN IS EXPECTED IN 1951.
"IF THIS IS A FACT AND LABOR STILL HAS THE HIGH LEVEL INCOME IN 1952 THAT IT HAS IN 1951, WILL YOU GET RID OF PRICE CONTROLS?" HE ASKED. "YOU WILL NOT. YOU WOULDN'T CARE. INSTEAD YOU WILL HAVE COUPONS AND RATIONING."

BY WILLARD H.MOBLEY
WASHINGTON,MAY 16-(AP)-THE WAGE LINE SIMPLY CANNOT BE HELD IF LIVING COSTS KEEP SOARING, SECRETARY OF LABOR TOBIN TOLD CONGRESS TODAY.
SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE BRANNAN CONCEDED THAT SOME LIVESTOCK FEEDERS "ARE GOING TO GET HURT" BY THE BEEF PRICE ROLLBACK BUT HE BACKED UP THE ORDER AND DISPUTED CLAIMS THAT IT WILL "JEOPARDIZE PRODUCTION." HE GAVE HIS VIEWS WHILE CATTLEMEN WERE FILING NEW COMPLAINTS OF A "SQUEEZE" AND AN INVESTIGATION OF REPORTS OF ILLEGAL SLAUGHTERING WAS GETTING UNDER WAY.
SECRETARY OF COMMERCE SAWYER PUT IN A WARNING THAT THE UNITED STATES IS SCRAPING THE BOTTOM ON SOME IMPORTANT DEFENSE MATERIALS, INCLUDING COPPER AND ZINC.
ON THOSE CENTRAL THEMES THE THREE CABINET MEMBERS CARRIED ON THE ADMINISTRATION'S CAMPAIGN AT THE CAPITOL FOR EXTENSION AND BROADENING OF THE DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT. THE LAW, EXPIRING JUNE 30, PROVIDES THE AUTHORITY FOR PRICE AND WAGE CONTROLS AND MANY OF THE OTHER EMERGENCY MEASURES OF THE MOBILIZATION PROGRAM.
TOBIN AND SAWYER WERE WITNESSES ON THE BILL BEFORE THE HOUSE BANKING COMMITTEE. BRANNAN WAS EXAMINED BY THE SENATE BANKING GROUP.
THE SENATE HEARING PRODUCED A SUGGESTION FROM CHAIRMAN MAYBANK (D-SC) THAT THE ADMINISTRATION MIGHT DO BETTER BY WORKING RIGHT NOW FOR A SIMPLE EXTENSION OF THE EXISTING LAW RATHER THAN DEPEND ON THE BROADER PROPOSAL.
HE EXPRESSED DOUBT THAT THE LAWMAKERS CAN DEAL WITH THE EXPANDED MEASURE BY THE JUNE 30 DEADLINE AND SAID IF IT FAILS TO DO SO THE ADMINISTRATION MAY FIND ITSELF "UP AGAINST A GUN BARREL."
MAYBANK SAID THE COUNTRY CANNOT AFFORD TO LET THE LAW EXPIRE ENTIRELY, BUT POINTED TO THE CALL FOR NEW POWERS AS TIME CONSUMERS. THE ADMINISTRATION WANTS SUCH THINGS AS AUTHORITY TO BUILD AND OPERATE DEFENSE PLANTS, USE SUBSIDIES TO KEEP DOWN PRICES OF SCARCE MATERIALS, FREEZE FARM PARITY FOR A YEAR AT A TIME, CONTROL CREDIT ON EXISTING HOUSING, AND CONTROL COMMERCIAL RENTS.
SENATOR CAPEHART (R-IND) SECONDED MAYBANK'S SUGGESTION. NEITHER OF THEM SAID HOW LONG AN EXTENSION SHOULD BE SOUGHT.

THE DAY ALSO PRODUCED THESE RELATED MOBILIZATION DEVELOPMENTS:
1. EDWARD P.MORGAN, ENFORCEMENT DIRECTOR OF THE OFFICE OF PRICE STABILIZATION, ORDERED A NATIONWIDE INQUIRY INTO REPORTS OF ILLEGAL LIVESTOCK SLAUGHTERING. A PARTICULAR STUDY WILL BE MADE OF CLASS 2 SLAUGHTERERS, WHOSE PRODUCT IS NOT FEDERALLY INSPECTED. MORGAN SAID THERE WERE AN ESTIMATED 12,000 TO 15,000 SUCH OPERATORS LAST YEAR BUT ONLY ABOUT 11,000 HAVE REGISTERED WITH OPS THIS YEAR FOR QUOTAS OF ANIMALS TO BE SLAUGHTERED. HETOOK THAT AS A SUGGESTION SOME OF THE REMAINDER ARE WORKING OUTSIDE THE LAW.
2. THERE WERE REPORTS OF A PLAN FOR A DEEPER CUT INTO THE USE OF STEEL FOR AUTOMOBILES IN JULY, PLUS AN ORDER DESIGNED TO ENCOURAGE MANUFACTURERS TO SHIFT EMPHASIS TO SMALLER, LIGHTER CARS.
THE NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY, IN ITS CALL FOR A MEETING FRIDAY WITH THE BIG TEN AUTO MAKERS, MENTIONED PROPOSALS FOR ADDITIONAL COPPER AND ALUMINUM RESTRICTIONS AS WELL AS CURBS ON STEEL, BUT GAVE NO DETAILS.
OFFICIALS, HOWEVER, INDICATED AN EXTRA 5 PER CENT CUT IN STEEL ALLOCATIONS FOR JULY IS IN THE OFFING. THE LIMIT, NOW DOWN TO 80 PER CENT OF USAGE A YEAR AGO, GOES DOWN TO 75 PER CENT IN JUNE AND PRESENT REGULATIONS CALL FOR A CUT TO 70 IN JULY. THE PROPOSED ADDITIONAL SLASH WOULD BRING USAGE DOWN 35 PER CENT BELOW THAT OF LAST YEAR. MOST MAJOR HOUSEHOLD APPLIANCES HAVE BEEN TAKING THE SAME CUTS AS AUTOS.

A211WX
THE PROPOSALS UNDER STUDY WOULD LIMIT NOT ONLY OVER-ALL METAL USAGE BUT THE NUMBER OF CARS TO BE BUILT. OFFICIALS WOULD NOT GIVE DETAILS OF THE FORMULA BUT INDICATED IT WOULD GIVE THE INDUSTRY A PUSH TOWARD MODELS REQUIRING LESS METAL.
3. OPS ORDERED THE COTTON TEXTILE INDUSTRY TO FIGURE NEW CEILING PRICES BUT OFFICIALS INDICATED LITTLE GENERAL CHANGE MAY BE EXPECTED IN THE COST OF YARD GOODS AND GARMENTS. THERE WILL BE SOME ROLLBACKS, THEY SAID, FOR OPERATORS WHO BOOSTED PRICES OUT OF PROPORTION TO RISES IN COSTS AFTER THE OUTBREAK OF THE KOREAN WAR.

(400) NIGHT LEAD TAXES
BY FRANCIS J.KELLY
WASHINGTON, MAY 16-(AP)-HOUSE TAX WRITERS VOTED TODAY TO LEVY A 10 PER CENT TAX ON GROSS RECEIPTS OF PROFESSIONAL GAMBLERS AND REQUIRE THEM TO PAY A $50 A YEAR OCCUPATION TAX.
THE WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE ALSO DECIDED TO RECOMMEND RAISING THE FEDERAL TAX ON SLOT MACHINES FROM $150 A YEAR TO $250.
THE GAMING TAX WOULD HIT BOOKMAKERS, POLICY "NUMBERS" WRITERS AND LOTTERY OPERATORS, WHETHER OR NOT THEIR OPERATIONS WERE CONTRARY TO STATE LAWS. COMMITTEE AIDES WHO TOLD REPORTERS OF THE COMMITTEE'S DECISION WERE VAGUE ABOUT HOW THE GOVERNMENT WOULD GO ABOUT ENFORCING SUCH A TAX, EVEN IN NEVADA, THE ONLY STATE WHERE GAMBLING OF ALL TYPES IS LEGAL.
RACE TRACK PARI-MUTUEL MACHINES WOULD BE SPECIFICALLY EXEMPTED FROM THE LEVY. BUT EVEN THE TAX EXPERTS WHO DREW UP THE PROVISION WERE NOT CLEAR WHETHER THE COMMITTEE INTENDED IT TO APPLY TO CHURCH BINGO GAMES.
ACCORDING TO THOSE EXPERTS, THE TAX WOULD BE BASED ON "THAT PART OF THE GROSS RECEIPTS OF PERSONS IN THE BUSINESS OF TAKING WAGERS ON WHICH THEY ASSUME THE RISK OF PROFIT OR LOSS, AND ON THE GROSS RECEIPTS OF PERSONS OPERATING WAGERING POOLS."
THERE WAS NO FIRM ESTIMATE OF THE AMOUNT OF ADDITIONAL REVENUE TO BE EXPECTED FROM THE TAX, ALTHOUGH THE INCREASE IN THE SLOT MACHINE LEVY WAS ESTIMATED TO BRING IN $7,000,000 A YEAR.
COMMITTEE MEMBERS APPEARED RELUCTANT TO DISCUSS THE GAMBLING TAX. ONE MEMBER SHOOK HIS HEAD AND SAID "WE'VE DONE A BAD DAY'S WORK." ANOTHER REMARKED THAT THE LEVY MIGHT ACT AS A DETERRENT TO GAMBLERS WHO WOULD FEAR RUNNING AFOUL OF A FEDERAL LAW.
THE GOVERNMENT, OF COURSE, ALREADY ATTEMPTS TO COLLECT INCOME TAX ON GAMBLERS' RECEIPTS. THIS LEVY WOULD BE AN ADDITIONAL ONE. ALSO, ANYBODY WHO TRIED TO OPERATE WITHOUT A FEDERAL LICENSE WOULD BE SUBJECT TO ARREST. THE PENALTY FOR GIVING AN INCORRECT NAME OR ADDRESS ON THE OCCUPATION TAX APPLICATION WOULD BE TWO YEARS IMPRISONMENT OR $10,000

FINE.
IN THE DAY'S ONLY REVENUE INCREASING DECISION APART FROM THE GAMBLING AND SLOT MACHINE LEVIES, THE COMMITTEE VOTED TO CLASSIFY TOBACCO PIPES, CIGAR HOLDERS AND CIGARETTE HOLDERS AS JEWELRY SUBJECT TO A 20 PER CENT RETAIL TAX. THE ESTIMATED REVENUE GAIN IS $8,000,000.

A26WX
THE COMMITTEE REJECTED PROPOSALS TO TAX THE SALE OF USED CARS; ALSO PLEASURE BOATS, MOTOR OR SAIL; GOLF GREENS FEES AND CHARGES MADE TENNIS PLAYERS FOR USE OF COURTS; AND GLASSWARE AND CHINAWARE, WHERE A 20 PER CENT TAX HAD BEEN CONSIDERED.
WITH ESTIMATES ON RECEIPTS FROM THE GAMING TAX STILL TO COME, TAX INCREASES TENTATIVELY APPROVED BY THE COMMITTEE STAND AT A LITTLE MORE THAN $6,300,000,000. THE COMMITTEE MAY COMPLETE ITS TENTATIVE VOTING TOMORROW.

THE HOUSE COMMITTEE VOTED 13 TO 12 TO KILL A PROPOSAL TO CLAMP A TAX ON PARI-MUTUEL BETTING AT RACE TRACKS.
COMMENTING ON THAT PHASE OF THE COMMITTEE'S ACTION, SENATOR UNDERWOOD (D-KY) AND FELLOW CONGRESS MEMBERS FROM THE FAMOUS HORSE-RACING STATE EXPRESSED DELIGHT THAT THE PROPOSAL WENT DOWN TO DEFEAT.
"WE WERE ALL AGAINST IT BECAUSE IT WAS A FALSE PROPOSAL -- THE MOST RIDICULOUS IDEA I'VE EVER HEARD OF," UNDERWOOD TOLA REPORTER.
"I SAY THAT WITH THE HIGHEST RESPECT IN THE WORLD FOR THE HOUSE WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE. I THINK THE ONLY REASON THEY CONSIDERED IT WAS TO REDUCE TO AN ABSURDITY THE MANY FANTASTIC TAX PROPOSALS MADE TO THEM.
"OBVIOUSLY THE UNITED STATES CAN'T GAMBLE ITSELF INTO FINANCING AND WINNING A WAR."
COMMITTEE MEMBERS SAID THE PROPOSED TAX WAS VOTED DOWN BECAUSE IT WOULD APPLY ONLY IN A LIMITED NUMBER OF STATES (THOSE WHICH PERMIT HORSE RACE TRACKS) AND IT WAS FELT IT WOULD BE AN INTERFERENCE IN STATE MATTERS.

FIRST LEAD MOBILIZATION
WASHINGTON, MAY 16-(AP)-SECRETARY OF LABOR TOBIN TOLD CONGRESS TODAY IT IS "UNREALISTIC TO THINK" THAT ANY WAGE CONTROL LINE CAN BE HELD AS LONG AS THE GOVERNMENT'S COST OF LIVING INDEX CONTINUES TO CLIMB.
POINTING OUT THAT WAGES OF AT LEAST 3,000,000 WORKERS ARE TIED TO THE RISE AND FALL OF THE CONSUMERS' INDEX, TOBIN SAID.
"IF PRICES AND PROFITS CONTINUE TO RISE, THE PRESSURE ON EXISTING WAGE LEVELS WOULD BE IRRESISTIBLE."
THE INDEX, THE GOVERNMENT'S MEASURE OF LIVING COSTS, IS NOW AT AN ALL TIME HIGH.
TOBIN APPEARED BEFORE THE HOUSE BANKING COMMITTEE TO URGE EXTENDING AND STRENGTHENING OF THE DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT. THE LAW, NOW DUE TO EXPIRE JUNE 30, PROVIDES THE AUTHORITY FOR WAGE AND PRICE CONTROLS.
TOBIN TOLD THE COMMITTEE THAT WHILE INFLATION HAS SLACKENED, THE CHECK IS ONLY TEMPORARY. CONTROLS ARE NEEDED, HE SAID, TO COMBAT INFLATIONARY TRENDS THAT THREATEN TO BUILD UP THIS SUMMER.
CHIEF AMONG THESE, HE SAID, IS THE FACT THAT GOVERNMENT PURCHASES FOR THE ARMED FORCES WILL BEGIN TO BE FELT TOWARDS THE END OF THE SUMMER. THAT WOULD MEAN HIGHER PRICES, HE SAID.
IN TURN, HE ADDED, THIS WILL LEAD TO DEMANDS FOR HIGHER WAGES.
"THE EFFECTS OF THIS INFLATION WOULD BE DISASTROUS," TOBIN DECLARED.
DESPITE ADMINISTRATION PLEAS, SENATOR MAYBANK (D-NC) HAS WARNED THAT THERE MIGHT BE NO EXTENSION OF THE CONTROL POWERS. MAYBANK IS CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE WHICH ALSO IS HOLDING HEARINGS ON THE LAW.
AT THE CONCLUSION OF YESTERDAY'S SESSION, MAYBANK TOLD PRICE DIRECTOR MICHAEL V. DISALLE:
"I WANT TO WARN THE ADMINISTRATION THAT I DO NOT KNOW IF THERE IS GOING TO BE ANY EXTENSION."

MAY 17 1951

MAYBANK ORDERED A CLOSED SESSION (9:30 A.M., EST) TODAY TO EXPLORE WITH SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE BRANNAN HOW FAR HE PLANS TO GO IF CONGRESS DOES EXTEND THE ACT AND GRANTS POWERS TO PAY SUBSIDIES ON FAI PRODUCTS TO KEEP CONSUMER PRICES DOWN.
MAYBANK SAID DEFENSE OFFICIALS FEARED PREMATURE DISCLOSURE OF WHAT CROPS BRANNAN HAD IN MIND MIGHT SEND THEIR PRICES SOARING. HE SAID BRANNAN ALSO WOULD TESTIFY AT A PUBLIC HEARING IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE CLOSED ONE.
THE COMMITTEE GAVE DI SALLE A ROUGH GOING OVER AT A HEARING YESTERDAY.
MAYBANK SAID, "IT IS GOING TO BE VERY, VERY HARD TO GET ANY BILL PASSED AT ALL."
DI SALLE SAID HE HAD "MORE CONFIDENCE IN THE SENSE OF RESPONSIBILITY OF CONGRESS" THAN TO BELIEVE IT WOULD ALLOW THE ACT TO EXPIRE AND KILL OFF THE SYSTEM OF WAGE AND PRICE CONTROLS.
MAYBANK TOLD REPORTERS LATER HE HAS FOUND "A LOT OF OPPOSITION" TO RENEWAL OF THE ACT, AND "A SURPRISING LACK OF PUBLIC INTEREST" IN KEEPING IT ALIVE.
THE HOUSE BANKING COMMITTEE IS ALSO CONDUCTING HEARINGS ON EXTENSION OF DPA. ITS CHAIRMAN, REP. SPENCE (D-KY) TOLD A MEETING YESTERDAY OF THE KENTUCKY UNITED LABOR COMMITTEE IT IS "ABSOLUTELY ESSENTIAL" THAT THE LAW BE EXTENDED.
MAYBANK, EMPHASIZING THAT "I DO NOT ADVOCATE IT," ASKED DISALLE TO ESTIMATE POSSIBLE RESULTS OF RELAXING THE RULES FOR FIXING PRICE CEILINGS ON FARM PRODUCTS.
THE LAW NOW PROVIDES THAT AGRICULTURAL PRICE CEILINGS CAN NOT BE LOWER THAN PARITY OR THE HIGHEST PRICE BETWEEN MAY 24 AND JUNE 25, 1950, WHICHEVER IS THE HIGHER. MAYBANK REFERRED TO A SUGGESTION THAT THE DATES IN THE FORMULA SHOULD BE CHANGED TO THE HIGHEST PRICE IN FEBRUARY OR MARCH, 1951. PARITY IS A PRICE SAID BY LAW TO BE FAIR TO BOTH THE FARMER AND THE CONSUMER.
DISALLE SAID THE RESULT OF SUCH A STEP OBVIOUSLY WOULD BE HIGHER PRICES, AND ADVISED AGAINST IT, BUT PROMISED TO MAKE THE ESTIMATE.

A28WX
UNDER A VIGOROUS CROSS FIRE OF QUESTIONING, DI SALLE DEFENDED HIS RECENT ORDER ROLLING BACK BEEF PRICES, AND HIS ORDERS LICENSING SLAUGHTER HOUSES AND PLACING THEM UNDER PRODUCTION QUOTAS.
SENATOR BRICKER (R-OHIO), A COMMITTEE MEMBER, TOLD DI SALLE HE BELIEVED THE PRICE STABILIZER HAD EXCEEDED HIS AUTHORITY IN IMPOSING THE SLAUGHTER HOUSE CONTROLS.
"I, FOR ONE, REBEL AGAINST ANY BUREAUCRAT HAVING THE POWER TO TELL A MAN HE CAN'T GO INTO A BUSINESS," BRICKER SAID.
DI SALLE SAID HE BASED THE ORDERS ON POWER DELEGATED TO HIM BY BRANNAN, AND THAT THE ORDERS WERE ESSENTIAL TO AVERT A BLACK MARKET IN BEEF.
AT THE CLOSE OF THE HEARING HE SHOOK HANDS WITH BRCKER

AT THE CLOSE OF THE HEARING HE SHOOK HANDS WITH BRICKER , AND DECLARE

AT THE CLOSE OF THE HEARING HE SHOOK HANDS WITH BRICHER, AND DECLARED LOUDLY:
"I THOUGHT FOR A WHILE YOU WERE THINKING OF 1952. I HAVEN'T EVEN MADE UP MIND YET."

THERE HAS BEEN SPECULATION THAT DI SALLE, AN OHIOAN, MAY RUN FOR THE SENATE ON THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET NEXT YEAR, WHEN BRICKER IS EXPECTED TO SEEK RE-ELECTION.

COTTON CEILINGS

BY WILLIAM O.VARN
(ADVANCE)-WASHINGTON,MAY 16-(AP)-MANUFACTURERS OF COTTON YARNS AND TEXTILES WERE ORDERED BY THE GOVERNMENT TODAY TO COMPUTE NEW CEILING PRICES.

THE OFFICE OF PRICE STABILIZATION (OPS) SAID THE ORDER IS DESIGNED TO RESTORE PRE-KOREAN MARGINS TO THE TEXTILE INDUSTRY, AND THAT IT IS NOT EXPECTED TO AFFECT MATERIALLY THE RETAIL PRICES OF COTTON YARD GOODS AND SUCH THINGS AS SHIRTS, PAJAMAS AND DRESSES.

THE ACTION AFFECTS AN INDUSTRY AVERAGING ABOUT $6,500,000,000 (B) IN GROSS SALES YEARLY. THE INDUSTRY EMPLOYS ABOUT 500,000 PERSONS IN 1,200 MILLS.

THE REGULATION APPLIES TO MILLS TURNING OUT ALL KINDS OF UNFINISHED COTTON YARNS AND TEXTILES. IT COVERS THE MAKERS OF CLOTHING MATERIALS SUCH AS SEERSUCKER, VOILE, GINGHAM, DENIM, BROADCLOTH, JEAN, CHAMBRAY, AND ORGANDY. IT ALSO APPLIES TO MANUFACTURERS OF COTTON DRAPERY CLOTH, TERRY CLOTH FOR ROBES AND TOWELING AND SHEETS AND PILLOW CASES. OTHER REGULATIONS ARE BEING WRITTEN TO COVER MILLS WHICH DYE AND FINISH SOME TEXTILE GOODS.

OPS SAID THE ORDER IS EXPECTED TO BRING ROLLBACKS FOR MANUFACTURERS WHO INCREASED THEIR PRICES AFTER THE KOREAN OUTBREAK AT A RATE FASTER THAN THE RISING PRICE OF RAW MATERIALS.

MAY 17 1951

FOR THOSE MANUFACTURERS WHOSE PRICES DID NOT MOVE UP IN KEEPING WITH INCREASED COSTS OF PRODUCTION, OPS SAID THE NEW ORDER WILL BRING PRICE RELIEF.

THE COTTON TEXTILE ORDER IS EFFECTIVE MAY 28. IT IS THE SECOND REGULATION TO BE PATTERNED AFTER THE GENERAL MANUFACTURERS' PRICE ORDER ISSUED APRIL 25. THE FIRST COMPANION REGULATION COVERED MACHINERY. STILL TO BE ISSUED IS A THIRD ORDER AFFECTING CEILING PRICES OF APPAREL AND SHOES.

THE NEW INDIVIDUALLY-COMPUTED CEILINGS FOR COTTON TEXTILES WILL REPLACE PRICES WHICH HELD MILLS TO THE HIGHEST PRICE THEY RECEIVED DURING THE GENERAL FREEZE PERIOD OF DEC. 19-JAN. 25.

IN FIGURING NEW CEILINGS, TEXTILE PRODUCERS WILL SELECT A PRE-KOREAN PERIOD TO DETERMINE THEIR BASE SELLING PRICES.

A3WX
TO THESE SELLING PRICES THEY WILL BE PERMITTED TO ADD INCREASES THEY HAD IN THE COST OF RAW COTTON, PURCHASED COTTON YARNS AND FACTORY LABOR BETWEEN THE BASE PERIOD AND MARCH 15, 1951.

RAW COTTON WAS PLACED UNDER A DOLLARS-AND-CENTS PRICE CEILING LAST MARCH 5.

INCREASED COST OF OTHER MANUFACTURING MATERIALS--SUCH AS STARCH, SOAP, AND MACHINERY BELTS, MAY BE ADDED ONLY UP TO LAST DECEMBER 31.

THE REGULATION ALSO PROVIDES:

MILLS MAY USE FOR THEIR BASE PERIOD EITHER APRIL 1-JUNE 24, 1950, OR ANY OF THE THREE PRECEDING CALENDAR QUARTERS. THIS WILL ALLOW MAKERS OF SEASONAL TEXTILE PRODUCTS TO SELECT THEIR MOST REPRESENTATIVE QUARTER FOR BASE PRICING.

THE BASE PERIOD PRICE WILL BE THE MANUFACTURER'S PRICE STATED IN A WRITTEN CONTRACT OR WRITTEN OFFER TO SELL DURING THE BASE PERIOD, RATHER THAN PRICE OF GOODS DELIVERED AT THAT TIME.

MILLS THAT CAN SHOW THE REGULATION WILL FORCE THEM TO SELL AT OVER-ALL LOSSES MAY APPLY FOR HIGHER CEILINGS AS HARDSHIP CASES.

NON-SHOOTING SOLDIERS
BY ELTON C. FAY
ASSOCIATED PRESS MILITARY AFFAIRS REPORTER

WASHINGTON, MAY 16-(AP)-THE ARMY WONDERS WHY ALL ITS SOLDIERS DON'T SHOOT THEIR WEAPONS IN BATTLE.

ALTHOUGH IN KOREA AMERICAN FORCES HAVE A POTENTIAL "FIRE POWER" FAR BEYOND THAT OF ANY PREVIOUS CONFLICT, THE MYSTERY OF THE NON-SHOOTING SOLDIER STILL PERSISTS -- AS IT HAS IN TWO WORLD WARS.

SOME EXPERTS, AMONG THEM COL. S.L.A. MARSHALL, RETIRED ARMY OFFICER AND MILITARY WRITER, CLAIM THAT IN A FIRE-FIGHT NO MORE THAN ONE OUT OF FOUR MEN USES THE RIFLE, AUTOMATIC WEAPON OR GRENADES HE MAY BE CARRYING.

THE ARMY, IN ANSWER TO A REPORTER'S QUESTIONS TODAY, SAID IT DOESN'S KNOW THE EXACT PERCENTAGE OR THE EXACT REASONS, BUT THAT:

MAY 17 1951

"IT IS KNOWN THAT A SIGNIFICANT NUMBER OF INFANTRYMEN WHEN ACTUALLY ENGAGED IN COMBAT FAIL TO EMPLOY THEIR INDIVIDUAL WEAPONS WHEN OBSERVED AND VULNERABLE TARGETS (THAT IS, SOMETHING YOU COULD HIT) ARE WITHIN EFFECTIVE RANGE. THE PRECISE NUMBER...AND THE REASON FOR THE BEHAVIOR PHENOMENA, REMAIN ALIKE UNKNOWN..."

THE ARMY'S "OPERATIONS RESEARCH OFFICE" WHICH DELVES INTO A MULTITUDE OF CURIOUS LITTLE AND BIG FACTORS RELATED DIRECTLY AND INDIRECTLY TO FIGHTING A WAR IS ANALYZING THE PROBLEM NOW ON THE BASIS OF THE KOREAN WAR, AS WELL AS ON WORLD WAR II RECORDS.

WHILE THESE OFFICIAL EXPERTS ARE NOT READY YET EITHER TO ENDORSE OR REJECT EXPLANATIONS WHICH HAVE BEEN ADVANCED, THEY DID LIST SOME OF THEM, INCLUDING:

1. PARALYSIS OF FEAR.
2. LACK OF CONFIDENCE IN THE WEAPON.
3. HOARDING OF AMMUNITION.
4. LACK OF CONFIDENCE IN ONE'S OWN SKILL IN USING THE WEAPON.
5. LACK OF MOTIVATION OR THE WILL TO FIGHT AND KILL A SPECIFIC ENEMY SOLDIER, RATHER THAN THE ANONYMOUS "ENEMY" -- A FAILURE TO REALIZE IT IS A MATTER OF KILL OR BE KILLED.
6. FEAR OF PROVOKING THE ENEMY TO DIRECT, IMMEDIATE RETALIATION -- A DESIRE TO KEEP THE FRONT "ALL QUIET."
7. APPREHENSION ABOUT DISCLOSING ONE'S PRESENCE OR THE LOCATION OF A FRIENDLY POSITION BY OPENING FIRE.
8. A DISTORTED NOTION OF SPORTSMANSHIP.
9. JUST ORDINARY INDOLENCE.

THE ARMY SAYS THERE ARE OTHER, MORE OBVIOUS FACTORS THAT ACCOUNT FOR SOME OF THE MEN WHO DON'T SHOOT THEIR GUNS.

IT OFTEN HAPPENS THAT THE TERRAIN OF A BATTLEFIELD OR THE POSITION OF A RIFLEMAN PREVENT HIM FROM SEEING A TARGET OR FROM SHOOTING AT IT IF HE DOES SEE IT -- FOR INSTANCE, IF FRIENDLY TROOPS ARE IN THE LINE OF FIRE.

MOREOVER, WHILE MEN IN AN INFANTRY OUTFIT MAY BE ISSUED RIFLES OR GRENADES, THEIR REAL JOBS MAY BE NON-SHOOTING -- TO OPERATE FIELD TELEPHONES OR RADIO SETS OR COOK FOR THE COMPANY.

WASHINGTON,MAY 16-(AP)-DRAFTING OF COLLEGE STUDENTS WAS ORDERED POSTPONED TODAY UNTIL THEY HAVE A CHANCE TO PROVIDE THEIR DRAFT BOARDS WITH APTITUDE-TEST SCORES OR EVIDENCE OF SCHOLASTIC STANDING.

30.24- 23095

SELECTIVE SERVICE HEADQUARTERS TOLD STATE DIRECTORS, HOWEVER, THAT NO INDICATIONS WILL BE POSTPONED BEYOND AUG.20.

THE STATE OFFICIALS ALSO WERE REMINDED OF EARLIER INSTRUCTIONS TO POSTPONE INDUCTIONS OF COLLEGE AND HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS FOR 30 DAYS BEYOND THE END OF THE ACADEMIC YEAR TO ENABLE THEM TO FIND ESSENTIAL JOBS OR ENLIST FOR SERVICE.

THE APTITUDE TESTS WILL BE GIVEN AT COLLEGE TESTING CENTERS THROUGHOUT THE NATION DURING THE NEXT TWO MONTHS. DRAFT BOARDS MAY USE EITHER THE SCORES MADE IN THE TEST, OR THE REGULAR SCHOLASTIC RECORD, IN DECIDING WHETHER TO GRANT STUDENT DEFERMENTS.

SELECTIVE SERVICE DIRECTOR LEWIS B.HERSHEY LAST JANUARY GRANTED A ONE-MONTH POSTPONEMENT FROM INDUCTION FOR THE 25,000 STUDENTS THEN GRADUATING FROM COLLEGE, IN ORDER TO GIVE THEM A CHANCE TO FIND JOBS IN A "CRITICAL OCCUPATION IN ESSENTIAL INDUSTRY."

HE DISCLOSED TODAY THAT AT THE END OF THAT POSTPONEMENT PERIOD, ABOUT 2,500 WERE ABLE TO PROVE TO LOCAL BOARDS THEIR ESSENTIALITY IN CIVILIAN JOBS.

"THE REST WERE DRAFTED," HERSHEY SAID.

UNDER THE PRESENT LAW, DRAFT DEFERMENT FOR STUDENTS ENDS WITH THE END OF THE CURRENT ACADEMIC YEAR.

(300) ATOMIC ENERGY

WASHINGTON, MAY 16-(AP)-THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION SAYS FOUR GROUPS OF PRIVATE COMPANIES WILL TRY TO CHART THE WAY TO THE SUPER-MODERN DREAMLAND -- INDUSTRIAL USE OF ATOMIC ENERGY.

IF THE PLANS WORK OUT, AN AEC ANNOUNCEMENT LAST NIGHT INDICATED, ONE OF THE FIRST INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTS OF NUCLEAR FISSION MIGHT BE FERTILIZERS.

AN AEC SPOKESMAN SAID USE OF THE BURSTING ATOM TO MAKE INDUSTRY'S WHEELS GO ROUND WOULD ADD TO THE NATION'S ATOMIC WAR POTENTIAL, FOR A BY-PRODUCT WOULD BE EXPLOSIVE ATOMIC MATERIALS FOR WEAPONS.

BUT THE ANNOUNCEMENT INDICATED THE MILLENIUM OF CHEAP INDUSTRIAL POWER FROM THE CHARGED HEART OF THE ATOM IS STILL A GOOD WAY DOWN THE STREET, NOT JUST AROUND THE CORNER. THE AEC SAID CONTRACTS ARE BEING SIGNED WITH FOUR INDUSTRIAL GROUPS TO MAKE STUDIES WHICH WILL HELP DECIDE IF IT IS POSSIBLE TO PUT THE ATOM TO WORK ON A PAYING, ECONOMIC BASIS. OTHER QUESTIONS TO BE ANSWERED ARE: HOW MUCH WORK WOULD BE REQUIRED TO DESIGN AND CONSTRUCT THE NECESSARY PLANT, AND COULD THE WORK BE CARRIED OUT IN THE NEXT FEW YEARS?

THE AEC SPOKESMAN GAVE ONE EXAMPLE OF A POSSIBLE INDUSTRIAL USE FOR THE ATOM:

A CHEMICAL COMPANY WANTS TO CONVERT LARGE WESTERN DEPOSITS OF PHOSPHATES INTO FERTILIZER AND OTHER PRODUCTS. ELECTRIC POWER IS NOT IMMEDIATELY AVAILABLE NEARBY.

SCIENTISTS HAVE INDICATED ATOMIC ENERGY MIGHT BE FIRST USED INDUSTRIALLY TO GENERATE BIG AMOUNTS OF ELECTRICITY WHERE WATER OR OTHER GENERATING ENERGY, SUCH AS COAL, IS NOT CLOSE AT HAND. CITIES WITH POWER SHORTAGES MIGHT ALSO BENEFIT.

IN THE PROGRAM ANNOUNCED BY THE AEC THE COMPANIES WILL MAKE THE STUDIES AT THEIR OWN EXPENSE AND FILE RECOMMENDATIONS WITH THE GOVERNMENT. THE GOVERNMENT WILL DECIDE WHETHER CONSTRUCTION SHOULD BEGIN.

THE FOUR PAIRS OF COMPANIES NAMED BY THE AEC ARE: THE DOW CHEMICAL CO., OF MIDLAND, MICH. AND THE DETROIT EDISON CO., OF DETROIT; COMMONWEALT EDISON CO. AND THE PUBLIC SERVICE CO. OF NORTHERN ILLINOIS, OF CHICAGO; THE PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC CO. AND THE BECHTEL CORP., OF SAN FRANCISCO; AND MONSANTO CHEMICAL CO. OF ST. LOUIS AND THE UNION ELECTRIC CO., OF MISSOURI. THE AEC SAID AGREEMENTS HAVE BEEN SIGNED WITH THE FIRST TWO PAIRS, THE THIRD PAIR HAS INDICATED AGREEMENT AND NEGOTIATIONS ARE UNDERWAY WITH THE LAST GROOUP.

BY FRANK TAYLOR

AP SPECIAL WASHINGTON SERVICE

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, MAY 16-(AP)-A GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL DENIED TODAY THAT THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION IS DISCOURAGING THE USE OF ECA FUNDS TO BUY U.S. TOBACCO.

ECA DEPUTY ADMINISTRATOR RICHARD M. BISSELL, JR., WROTE REP. ABBITT (D-VA) THAT ECA "IS FULLY PREPARED TO CONSIDER MOST SYMPATHETICALLY ANY REQUEST FOR SUCH USE OF ITS FUNDS."

ABBITT RECENTLY WROTE THE ECA CONCERNING A REPORT THAT OFFICIALS OF THAT AGENCY HAD AIDED IN A MOVE TO HAVE WESTERN GERMANY SUPPLIED WITH TOBACCO FROM GREECE.

"I AM MOST RELUCTANT TO BELIEVE," ABBITT WROTE, "THAT MY GOVERNMENT IS A PARTY TO EXCLUDING U.S. LEAF TOBACCO FROM WESTERN GERMANY."

ABBITT REFERRED TO A REPORT THAT VICE PREMIER GEORGE PAPANDREOU HAD ARRANGED WITH THE HELP OF ECA OFFICIALS AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GERMAN AND GREEK GOVERNMENTS FOR THE USE IN WESTERN GERMANY OF TOBACCO FROM GREECE RATHER THAN FROM AMERICA.

BISSELL WROTE THAT ECA IS CONVINCED THAT THE VICE PREMIER'S STATEMENT "WAS BASED UPON A MAJOR MISUNDERSTANDING."

"WE CAN FIND NO EVIDENCE," HE ADDED, "THAT EITHER THE OFFICE OF THE HIGH COMMISSIONER OR THE ECA MISSION IN FRANKFORT EVER GAVE EVEN TACIT SUPPORT TO ANY ARRANGEMENT WHICH WOULD HAVE THE EFFECT OF EXCLUDING AMERICAN TOBACCO FROM GERMANY."

IF ANY MISUNDERSTANDING DID EXIST IT HAS NOW BEEN CLARIFIED, BISSELL SAID.

"WE WOULD LIKE TO REASSURE YOU THAT ECA HAS NOT AND DOES NOT PROPOSE TO DISCOURAGE THE USE OF ECA FUNDS FOR THE PURCHASE OF U.S. TOBACCO AND IS FULLY PREPARED TO CONSIDER MOST SYMPATHETICALLY ANY REQUEST FOR SUCH USE OF ITS FUNDS," BISSELL WROTE.

ABBITT TOLD A REPORTER HE UNDERSTANDS ECA ADMINISTRATOR WILLIAM C. FOSTER HAS "MADE A STRONG REPRESENTATION" TO THE GERMAN GOVERNMENT IN A MOVE TO ENCOURAGE USE OF AMERICAN TOBACCO.

A MISSION SENT BY AN UNOFFICIAL CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE TO EUROPE TO LOOK INTO THE MATTER OF GERMAN IMPORTS OF AMERICAN TOBACCO IS DUE BACK THIS WEEKEND.

THE COMMITTEEWAS NAMED AND THE MISSION SENT TO EUROPE AFTER ABBITT STARTED HIS INQUIRY INTO THE USE OF ECA FUNDS FOR TOBACCO IMPORTS AND INTO DWINDLING AMERICAN TOBACCO EXPORTS.

WASHINGTON, MAY 16-(AP)-A LEADING RUMANIAN AIRCRAFT DESIGNER, WHO FLED HIS HOMELAND WHEN THE COMMUNISTS BEGAN TO TAKE OVER, WOULD BE ALLOWED TO REMAIN IN THE UNITED STATES PERMANENTLY UNDER A BILL PASSED BY THE HOUSE.

THE BILL, WHICH NOW GOES TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN, WOULD BENEFIT MIRCEA GROSSU, 47, HIS WIFE, LUCIA, 43, AND THEIR EIGHT YEAR OLD SON, MICREA JOHN.

THE GROSSUS NOW LIVE IN YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO, WHERE GROSSU IS A DESIGNING ENGINEER FOR THE LOMBARD CORP.

GROSSU. ACCORDING TO A COMMITTEE REPORT, ETC., PICKING UP 3RD GRAF PREV.

GROSSU, ACCORDING TO A COMMITTEE REPORT, WAS "WIDELY RECOGNIZED AS THE LEADING AIRCRAFT DESIGNER AND ENGINEER" IN RUMANIA BEFORE HE ESCAPED TO TURKEY IN 1944.

A LETTER FROM G.J.MEYER, PRESIDENT OF LOMBARD, THE SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO), SPONSOR OF THE BILL, SAID GROSSU "CANNOT RETURN TO RUMANIA WITHOUT FEAR OF PERSECUTION, OR WHAT MIGHT BE GREAT DAMAGE TO OUR COUNTRY, BE FORCED TO USE HIS SKILL AND KNOWLEDGE IN THE INTERESTS OF OUR ENEMIES."

COL. F.A.PILLET, WHO WAS U.S. AIR ATTACHE IN TURKEY LATE IN WORLD WAR II, WROTE THAT HE FIRST MET GROSSU A DAY AFTER THE ENGINEER LANDED IN ANKARA "IN A RUMANIAN BOMBER WHICH HE HAD APPROPRIATED TO FLEE THE COUNTRY AS THE RUSSIANS ADVANCED TOWARD HIS HOME."

PILLET SAID GROSSU WAS DIRECTOR OF THE RUMANIAN AIRCRAFT INDUSTRY DURING MOST OF THE WAR AND THAT "HE WAS ABLE AND DID GIVE US VALUABLE INFORMATION REGARDING THE EFFECT OF AMERICAN BOMBING ON THE INDUSTRY."

GRIGORE NICULESCU-BUZESTI, FORMER MINISTER OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS OF RUMANIA, WROTE:

"I HAVE NOT THE SLIGHTEST DOUBT THAT IN THE EVENT OF HIS RETURN TO RUMANIA, X X X HE WOULD SUFFER THE DIREST PERSECUTIONS, PROBABLY IN THE FORM OF DEPORTATION TO SOVIET RUSSIA."

THE REPORT ALSO CONTAINED A LETTER FROM LT. COL. DAVID S.CRIST, WHO WAS CHIEF OF THE ECONOMIC AND MILITARY SECTIONS OF THE UNITED STATES MILITARY REPRESENTATION, ALLIED CONTROL COMMISSION FOR RUMANIA AFTER WORLD WAR II.

CRIST, WHO INVESTIGATED BOH THE AIRCRAFT INDUSTRY AND MILITARY AIRCRAFT OF RUMANIA, WROTE THAT GROSSU DESIGNED A SINGLE-SEATER FIGHTER, A FIGHTER-BOMBER AND A RECONNAISSANCE PLANE BUILT AT INDUSTRIA AERONAUTICA ROMANA (CAPS I A R), DESCRIBED BY CRIST AS THE "MOST IMPORTANT AIRCRAFT FACTORY IN RUMANIA." GROSSU WAS MANAGER OF THAT FIRM DURING THE LAST WAR.

FROM TURKEY, THE GROSSUS WENT TO BRAZIL IN 1946 AND TO THIS COUNTRY A YEAR LATER ON VISITORS' PERMITS.

SALT LAKE CITY, MAY 16-(AP)-A WITNESS, WHO IDENTIFIED HIMSELF AS A FORMER COMMUNIST, YESTERDAY TOLD A FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT JURY THAT FORMER PARTY MEMBERS WERE ACTIVE IN NATIONAL FARMERS UNION PUBLICATIONS.

MANNING JOHNSON OF NEW YORK CITY TESTIFIED IN THE $250,000 LIBEL ACTION BROUGHT BY THE FARMERS UNION AGAINST THE UTAH FARM BUREAU FEDERATION. HE WAS CALLED AS A WITNESS FOR THE FARM BUREAU.

JOHNSON SAID HE WAS A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY FROM 1930 UNTIL 1940. HE DESCRIBED WHAT HE SAID WAS HIS UNION ORGANIZATION WORK AMONG POOR AND MIDDLE CLASS FARMERS.

THE WITNESS CLAIMED THAT ARCHIE WRIGHT, LISTED IN A NATIONAL FARMERS UNION PUBLICATION AS NORTHEASTERN DIVISION PRESIDENT, WAS A COMMUNIST PARTY WORKER. JOHNSON ALSO SAID THAT AUTHORS HOWARD FAST AND ABRAHAM POMERANTZ, WHO WROTE IN A FARMERS UNION PUBLICATION, WERE IN THE COMMUNIST PARTY.

JOHNSON SAID HE HAS WORKED FOR A NUMBER OF GOVERNMENT AGENCIES SINCE LEAVING THE PARTY. HE INFORMED THE JURY THAT HE SERVED AS AN UNDERCOVER AGENT FOR THE FBI, IN A CIVILIAN CAPACITY FOR THE U.S. NAVY AND CURRENTLY IS EMPLOYED BY THE U.S. IMMIGRATION AND NATURALIZATION SERVICE.

HE WAS ON THE WITNESS STAND WHEN COURT ADJOURNED LAST NIGHT.

THE NATIONAL FARMERS UNION ALLEGES THAT IN A PUBLICATION THE FEDERATION SAID THE FARMERS UNION WAS "COMMUNIST DOMINATED" AND "A COMMUNIST ORGANIZATION."

(WX) CHARLOTTESVILLE,VA.,MAY 16-(AP)-SENATOR MCCARTHY (R-WIS) CHARGED TONIGHT THE ARMY IS "RUN BY POLITICS" AND "POLITICAL GENERALS."

IN A SPEECH PREPARED FOR DELIVERY TO THE STUDENT LEGAL FORUM AT UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA LAW SCHOOL, MCCARTHY ASSAILED TESTIMONY OF SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL IN A SENATE INVESTIGATION OF THE FIRING OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR.

delivered

"MARSHALL TESTIFIED," THE SENATOR CHARGED, "THAT NO OFFICER HAD THE RIGHT, EVEN UNDER OATH, TO TELL THE TRUTH AS HE SAW IT IF THAT TRUTH DID NOT FULLY BACK UP THE IDEAS OF THE POLITICAL PARTY IN POWER AT THE TIME.

"HE THEREBY SERVED NOTICE ON EVERY OFFICER WHO MIGHT BE CALLED BY THE COMMITTEE THAT IF THEY DIFFERED WITH THE ADMINISTRATION THEY HAD A CHOICE TO MAKE:

"EITHER TELL THE TRUTH AND SUFFER THE CONSEQUENCES OR, IF THEY WANTED TO CONTINUE THEIR MILITARY CAREERS, COMMIT PERJURY WITH OFFICIAL SANCTION."

WHILE HE WAS BEFORE THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES-FOREIGN RELATIONS INQUIRY COMMITTEE LAST WEEK, MARSHALL WAS QUESTIONED AT LENGTH ON WHETHER SERVICE OFFICERS ARE REQUIRED TO GIVE ONLY THE ADMINISTRATION'S VIEWPOINT WHEN THEY TESTIFY BEFORE CONGRESSIONAL GROUPS.
MARSHALL REPLIED THAT OFFICERS MAY, IN REPLY TO QUESTIONS, EXPRESS PERSONAL VIEWS WHICH DISAGREE WITH ESTABLISHED POLICY, BUT THAT IN DOING SO THEY MUST CLEARLY STATE THAT THEY SPEAK ONLY FOR THEMSELVES.
MCCARTHY AIMED SOME THRUSTS ALSO AT GEN.OMAR N.BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, ANOTHER WITNESS IN THE MACARTHUR HEARINGS.
"YESTERDAY," HE SAID, "WE HAD AN EXAMPLE OF HOW FAR A GENERAL MUST GO TO PROTECT HIS CAREER UNDER THIS NEW RULE. WHEN GEN.BRADLEY TESTIFIED HE SAID HE COULD NOT AGREE WITH GEN.MACARTHUR'S FOUR POINTS FOR ENDING THE WAR BECAUSE THE WAR IS AGAINST 'THE WRONG ENEMY, AT THE WRONG TIME, AND AT THE WRONG PLACE.'"
"BRADLEY," THE SENATOR CONTINUED, "TESTIFIED TO THIS UNDER OATH DESPITE THE FACT THAT THE JOINT CHIEFS, INCLUDING BRADLEY, UNANIMOUSLY AGREED IN WRITING WITH MACARTHUR'S FOUR POINTS ON JANUARY 12 OF THIS YEAR."
MACARTHUR'S FOUR POINT PROGRAM CALLED FOR USE OF CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS AGAINST THE CHINESE REDS, BOMBING COMMUNIST BASES IN MANCHURIA, A BLOCKADE OF THE CHINA MAINLAND AND TIGHTER ECONOMIC WARFARE AGAINST THE PEIPING GOVERNMENT.

A115WX
MACARTHUR TESTIFIED THAT THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF AGREED WITH HIM ON THOSE POINTS. MARSHALL AND BRADLEY TESTIFIED THAT THE FOUR POINTS WERE AGREED TO ALONG WITH 12 OTHERS, FOR USE IN EVENT IT BECAME NECESSARY TO PULL UNITED NATIONS FORCES OUT OF KOREA. BRADLEY WENT FURTHER AND SAID THE 16 POINTS NEVER GOT OUT OF THE STUDY STAGE.
MCCARTHY TOLD THE STUDENTS THAT "BY HIS STATEMENT, BRADLEY TRIED TO IMPLY THAT MACARTHUR HAD PICKED THE TIME. THE PLACE AND THE ENEMY."

"THE AMERICAN PEOPLE ARE TOO SMART TO SWALLOW WHAT SOME OF OUR POLITICAL GENERALS SAY," HE CONTINUED. "WE SHOULD BE DONE WITH THE SENSELESS DRIVEL THAT WE CANNOT FIGHT BACK BECAUSE IT IS AGAINST THE WRONG ENEMY. THE ENEMY HIMSELF PICKED THE TIME AND THE PLACE."

MINNEAPOLIS,MAY 16-(AP)-PRESIDENT JAMES L.MORRILL TODAY SUSPENDED DR.JOSEPH W.WEINBERG FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA FACULTY.
DR.WEINBERG, IDENTIFIED BY HOUSE UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES INVESTIGATORS INTO ATOMIC ESPIONAGE AS THE MYSETERIOUS "SCIENTIST X," WAS CITED FOR CONTEMPT FRIDAY BY JUDGE ALEXANDER HOLTZOFF IN FEDERAL COURT IN WASHINGTON. THE CHARGE WAS LODGED AFTER WEINBERG REFUSED TO ANSWER GRAND JURY QUESTIONS ON GROUNDS OF POSSIBLE SELF-INCRIMINATION.
"DR.WEINBERG'S REFUSAL TO ANSWER THESE QUESTIONS IS COMPLETELY ASTONISHING AND DISAPPOINTING TO THE UNIVERSITY," DR.MORRILL SAID IN A WRITTEN STATEMENT.
"IT IS ONCOMPREHENSIBLE TO THE UNIVERSITY, WHICH HAS HAD NO REASOON TO EXPECT FROM HIM ANYTHING BUT COMPLETE AND STRAIGHTFORWARD ASSISTANCE TO AUTHORITIES CONCERNED WITH HIS CASE."
DR.MORRILL SAID HE WOULD RECOMMEND TO THE BOARD OF REGENTS, MEETING NEXT MONTH, THAT DR.WEINBERG'S SUSPENSION BE CONTINUED OR THAT HE BE DISMISSED PERMANENTLY FROM THE STAFF, DEPENDING UPON DEVELOPMENTS IN THE CASE.
"THE UNIVERSITY HAS NO MEANS OF INVESTIGATING OR APPRAISING THE TRUTH OR FALSITY OF CHARGES AGAINST DR.WEINBERG," MORRILL'S STATEMENT WENT ON. "THEY RELATE TO ACTIVITIES AND ASSOCIATIONS YEARS BEFORE HE JOINED OUR STAFF. XXX HIS LEGAL RIGHT TO CLAIM CONSTITUTIONAL IMMUNITY XXX IS A MATTER FOR HIS OWN DECISION, THE ADVISE OF ATTORNEYS OR FOR JUDICIAL DETERMINATION.
"WHATEVER HIS LEGAL RIGHTS OR THE OUTCOME OF THE PENDING CONTEMPT CITATION, IT IS MY BELIEF THAT HIS JUDGMENT IN THIS REFUSAL TO COOPERATE WITH FEDERAL AUTHORITIES IS INCOMPATIBLE WITH COMMON SENSE AND WITH A PROPER APPRECIATION OF HIS DUTY AND OBLIGATION AS A MEMBER OF THE UNIVERSITY STAFF."

NEW YORK, MAY 16-(AP)-DR.ABBA HILLEL SILVER OF CLEVELAND TOLD AN OVERFLOW CROWD AT A ZIONIST MEETING TONIGHT THAT ISRAEL NEEDS A UNIFIED EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM TO UNIFY A POPULATION DRAWN FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD.
DR.SILVER RETURNED EARLIER TODAY FROM A THREE-WEEK VISIT TO ISRAEL.
THE MEETING WAS SPONSORED BY THE ZIONIST ORGANIZATION OF AMERICA IN THE BALLROOM OF THE HOTEL NEW YORKER. AND MORE THAN 2,000 PERSONS

CROWDED INTO THE ROOM.
THEY OVERFLOWED ONTO THE SPEAKERS' PLATFORM AND HUNG OVER THE BALCONY, AND SOME LISTENERS EVEN SAT ON THE FLOOR. IT WAS REPORTED THAT 1,500 OTHERS TRIED TO GET INTO THE MEETING BUT HAD TO BE TURNED AWAY.

DR.SILVER SAID THE ISRAELI PEOPLE ARE "LOOKING WITH CONFIDENCE TO THE FUTURE" AND HAVE MADE REMARKABLE PROGRESS IN TERMS OF BUILDING AND EXPANSION.

HE CALLED FOR A SPIRITUAL REVIVAL AMONG ISRAELI YOUTH, SAYING THAT RELIGION HAD HELD THE JEWISH PEOPLE TOGETHER THROUGH THE CENTURIES AND SHOULD NOT BE LOST NOW IN ISRAEL.

ONE OF ISRAEL'S PROBLEMS, DR.SILVER SAID, IS THAT IMMIGRANTS, THOUGH JEWIS, ARE COMING FROM MANY NATIONS WITH DIFFERENT LANGUAGES, CULTURES AND TRADITIONS.

THE PROBLEM IS SIMILAR TO ATH OF THE UNITED STATES IN ABSORBING ITS IMMIGRANTS, HE SAID, AND IN THE UNITED STATES A UNIFIED EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM HELPED TREMENDOUSLY IN SOLVING THE PROBLEM.

EARLIER IN THE DAY DR.SILVER DENIED REPORTS THAT HE WAS SNUBBED BY THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT BECAUSE OF DIFFERENCES OF OPINION BETWEEN HIMSELF AND PRIME MINISTER DAVID BEN-GURION.

HE ADMITTED HE HAD HAD "DIFFICULTIES" WITH BEN-GURION, BUT ADDED: "I CERTAINLY WASN'T AWARE OF ANY SNUBBING."

IN HIS SPEECH TONIGHT, DR.SILVER DID NOT REFER TO THE "SNUBBING" REPORTS, BUT SAID HE WAS OVERWHELMED BY THE WELCOME HE RECEIVED IN ISRAEL.

HE SAID HE TOOK IT AS A TRIBUTE NOT TO HIMSELF BUT TO WHAT AMERICAN JEWRY HAS DONE TO AID THE NEW STATE.

HE SAID HE HAD BEEN SCHEDULED TO MAKE ONLY THREE LECTURES DURING HIS THREE-WEEK TRIP TO ISRAEL, BUT ACTUALLY MADE 40 SPEECHES.

DR.SILVER WILL LEAVE FRIDAY FOR CLEVELAND.

JEBB DEFENDED BRITAIN'S RECORD IN THE KOREAN WAR AND HER TRADE POLICY TOWARD RED CHINA IN A SPEECH BEFORE THE NEW YORK CITY BAR ASSOCIATION.

GREAT BRITAIN, HE DECLARED, "IS WHOLEHEARTEDLY WITH THE UNITED STATES IN THE GENERAL STRUGGLE AGAINST COMMUNIST-INSPIRED AGGRESSION. JEBB TOLD THE BAR ASSOCIATION HE HAD "OFTEN HEARD IT ALLEGED THAT WE HAD SUBORDINATED OUR SUPPORT FOR THE UNITED NATIONS TO OUR OWN COMMERCIAL INTERESTS IN HONG KONG."

"NOTHING COULD BE FURTHER FROM THE TRUTH," HE DECLARED.

"IN THESE DAYS, WE ARE DERIVING VERY LITTLE DIRECT BENEFIT FROM TRADE WITH CHINA AND IT WOULD BE LUDICROUS TO SUGGEST THAT, WHEN THE WHOLE EXISTENCE OF THE WESTERN WORLD IS AT STAKE, WE SHOULD GIVE PRIORITY TO SWCH COMMERCIAL INTERESTS."

HE SAID THAT HONG KONG DEPENDED ON TRANSIT TRADE AND THAT IF ALL TRADE--OUTSIDE OF WAR MATERIALS--WERE CUT OFF WITH RED CHINA, "WE SHOULD LOSE A CERTAIN AMOUNT OF USEFUL IMPORTS FROM CHINA, A VAST UNEMPLOOYMENT PROBLEM WOULD BE CREATED, AND CIVIL UNREST WOULD ARISE OVER A LARGE AREA IN THE FAR EAST.

"A VALUABLE OUTPOST WOULD DISAPPEAR, ONE WHICH HAS THE ADVANTAGE OF DEMONSTRATING TO THE (COMMUNIST) CHINESE THE BENEFITS OF FREEDOM OF LIFE UNDER FREE INSTITUTIONS. AND FINALLY, A LARGE NUMBER OF CHINESE COMMUNIST TROOPS WHO ARE CONTAINED BY OUR OWN GARRISON IN THE COLONY WOULD BE FREE TO TAKE PART IN THE KOREAN WAR."

HE SAID THAT EVEN JAPAN, WHOSE TRADE IS CONTROLLED BY THE U.S., HAS CONTINUED TRADING WITH COMMUNIST CHINA TO GET CHINESE COAL.

JEBB ALSO POINTED OUT THAT BRITAIN NOT ONLY HAS THOUSANDS OF TROOPS, FLIERS AND SAILORS IN KOREA, BUT IS ALSO FIGHTING COMMUNISM IN MALAYA AND IN THE MIDDLE EAST, AS WELL AS GARRISONING PART OF GERMANY.

JEBB DISMISSED AS MINOR THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE U.S. AND BRITAIN OVER BRITAIN'S RECOGNITION OF COMMUNIST CHINA. [redacted].

"WE ALL KNOW THERE JUST IS NOT GOING TO BE ANY CHANGE (IN CHINESE REPRESENTATION IN THE U.N.) UNTIL AND UNLESS THERE IS A CEASE-FIRE IN KOREA AND SOME AGREED SETTLEMENT IS NEGOTIATED," HE SAID.

MAY 17 1951

NEW YORK, MAY 16-(AP)-LONGSHORE LEADER JOSEPH RYAN SAID TODAY A WOMAN WITH STATE AND LABOR DEPARTMENT CREDENTIALS VISITED HIS OFFICE LAST YEAR AND URGED HIM TO ORDER LONGSHOREMEN NOT TO LOAD MUNITIONS FOR WESTERN EUROPE.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT IN WASHINGTON SAID THERE "NEVER WAS ANY BASIS FOR THE ALLEGATIONS" THAT THE WOMAN HAD TRIED TO EXERT PRO-COMMUNIST INFLUENCE.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT IDENTIFIED THE WOMAN AS MISS EDITH WALL, 39, NOW AN ASSISTANT LABOR ATTACHE TO THE AMERICAN EMBASSY AT NEW DELHI.

RYAN, PRESIDENT OF THE AFL INTERNATIONAL LONGSHOREMEN'S ASSOCIATION, SPOKE OF THE INCIDENT AFTER A REPORT OF IT APPEARED IN A NEWSPAPER COLUMN. HE SAID THE VISIT OCCURRED IN MARCH, 1950.

HE SAID THE WOMAN CARRIED A LETTER OF INTRODUCTION PURPORTEDLY FROM SECRETARY OF LABOR MAURICE TOBIN, BUT RYAN DID NOT DESCRIBE HER CREDENTIALS FURTHER.

HE SAID THAT AFTER SHE URGED HIM TO TELL UNION MEMBERS TO REFUSE TO HANDLE MUNITIONS GOING TO FRIENDLY NATIONS, HE ASKED HER:

"DID THE STATE DEPARTMENT SEND YOU IN TO TELL ME TO TELL OUR MEN NOT TO HANDLE THOSE CARGOES?"

HE SAID THE WOMAN REPLIED THAT "THESE ARE MY PERSONAL VIEWS."

THEN, RYAN SAID, HE REMINDED HER THAT HER GOVERNMENT CREDENTIALS GOT HER INTO HIS OFFICE.

"I THEN CALLED TO MY SECRETARY AND SAID 'GET THIS WOMAN OUT OF HERE BEFORE I LOSE CONTROL OF MYSELF,'" RYAN ADDED.

AS SOON AS SHE LEFT, THE UNION LEADER SAID, HE REPORTED THE INCIDENT TO GEORGE MEANEY, SECRETARY-TREASURER OF THE AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR.

LATER HE TOLD RALPH WRIGHT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR ABOUT IT AND SUBSEQUENTLY RECEIVED A LETTER FROM THE STATE DEPARTMENT EXPRESSING REGRET "THAT THE WOMAN GOT IN TO ANNOY ME."

A LABOR DEPARTMENT SPOKESMAN IDENTIFIED WRIGHT AS ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF LABOR.

IN WASHINGTON, STATE DEPARTMENT PRESS OFFICER MICHAEL MCDERMOTT SAID IN A STATEMENT:

"MISS WALL'S PART IN THE MATTER WAS THOROUGHLY INVESTIGATED AND THE DEPARTMENT WAS COMPLETELY SATISFIED THAT MISS WALL WAS IN THE CLEAR AND THAT THERE WERE NO SECURITY IMPLICATIONS.

"AS FAR AS THE DEPARTMENT IS CONCERNED, THE CASE IS CLOSED AND THERE IS NO BASIS AND NEVER WAS ANY BASIS FOR THE ALLEGATIONS THAT MISS WALL MISBEHAVED OR ATTEMPTED TO EXERT PRO-COMMUNIST INFLUENCE."

MISS WALL JOINED THE FOREIGN SERVICE DURING WORLD WAR II AND WAS AN ASSISTANT ECONOMIST WITH THE EMBASSY IN COPENHAGEN UNTIL THE END OF 1949.

BECAUSE SHE WAS INTERESTED IN LABOR, THE DEPARTMENT SAID, AN ASSIGNMENT TO PARIS WAS CANCELLED SO SHE COULD RETURN TO WASHINGTON AND PREPARE FOR A POST AS A LABOR ATTACHE. SHE HAD BEEN TOLD TO GO TO NEW YORK AND TALK TO UNION LEADERS AS PART OF THIS PREPARATION.

NEW YORK, MAY 16-(AP)-A PANEL OF EMINENT NEWSPAPER AND RADIO PERSONALITIES AGREED TONIGHT THE MACARTHUR INCIDENT HAS STIRRED AMERICAN DETERMINATION NOT TO WRITE OFF ASIA TO THE COMMUNISTS.

THEY AGREED, ALSO, THAT THE AMERICAN PEOPLE, THEIR CONCERN HEIGHTENED BY THE GREAT DEBATE, WANT FROM THEIR LEADERS A VIGOROUS STATEMENT OF NATIONAL POLICY TOWARD THE FAR EAST.

THIS WAS THE CONCENSUS OF A PANEL DISCUSSION, "THE PRESS LOOKS AT U.S. FOREIGN POLICY," AT THE TWELFTH ANNUAL DINNER OF THE OVERSEAS PRESS CLUB OF AMERICA AT THE WALDORF ASTORIA HOTEL.

PANEL MEMBERS WERE BARRY BINGHAM, EDITOR, THE LOUISVILLE COURIER-JOURNAL & TIMES; HAL BOYLE, THE ASSOCIATED PRESS; ERWIN D. CANHAM, EDITOR, THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR; ROBERT CONSIDINE, INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE; H.V.KALTENBORN, NATIONAL BROADCASTING COMPANY; MRS.HELEN ROGERS REID, PRESIDENT, THE NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE; QUENTIN REYNOLDS, EDITOR, UNITED NATIONS WORLD; AND GIDEON D.SEYMOUR, EXECUTIVE EDITOR, THE MINNEAPOLIS STAR AND TRIBUNE.

THE DINNER HONORED SEVEN JOURNALISTS WHO WERE PRESENTED THE CLUB'S 1950 AWARDS FOR OUTSTANDING FOREIGN COVERAGE BY PRESS, PHOTOGRAPH AND RADIO.

THE AWARDS WERE TO: x-33

MARGUERITE HIGGINS, NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE, THE GEORGE POLK MEMORIAL AWARD TO FOREIGN CORRESPONDENT FOR COURAGE, INTEGRITY AND ENTERPRISE ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY;

HOMER BIGARTO.32 694(£34-)$ 54877

ENTERPRISE ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY;

HOMER BIGART, NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE, FOR BEST CONSISTENT PRESS REPORTING FROM ABROAD;

HOWARD K.SMITH, COLUMBIA BROADCASTING SYSTEM, FOR BEST CONSISTENT RADIO AND TELEVISION REPORTING FROM ABROAD;

HAL BOYLE, ASSOCIATED PRESS, FOR BEST WAR REPORTING (PRESS, RADIO AND TELEVISION);

JAMES RESTON, NEW YORK TIMES, FOR BEST PRESS INTERPRETATION OF FOREIGN NEWS;

EDWARD R.MURROW, COLUMBIA BROADCASTING SYSTEM, FOR BEST RADIO AND TELEVISION INTERPRETATION OF FOREIGN NEWS; AND

DAVID DUNCAN, LIFE, FOR BEST PICTURE REPORTING FROM ABROAD, JUDGED FROM ITS INTERPRETATIVE QUALITY.

THE GEORGE POLK AWARD RECEIVED BY MISS HIGGINS IS NAMED IN HONOR OF GEORGE POLK, CBS CORRESPONDENT MURDERED IN GREECE IN 1948.

THE FOREIGN POLICY DISCUSSION DEALT MOST SPECIFICALLY WITH THE DISMISSAL OF GEN.MACARTHUR.

ONE OF THE PRINCIPAL RESULTS OF THE DEBATE ON THIS ISSUE, SAID KALTENBORN, HAS BEEN THAT THE "ADMINISTRATION ALREADY HAS ACCEPTED SOME OF MACARTHUR'S POLICIES."

THERE IS NO MORE DEBATE, SAID CONSIDINE, DECLARING THE ADMINISTRATION HAS "COME AROUND TO MACARTHUR'S THINKING VERY VIVIDLY."

"THREE OR FOUR HUNDRED THOUSAND WORDS HAVE BEEN SAID," HE DECLARED, "AND THE BOYS HAVE TALKED THEMSELVES INTO THE SAME POINT OF VIEW."

CANHAM'S VIEW WAS THAT THE ADMINISTRATION HAD NOT TAKEN ANY OF THE STEPS PROPOSED BY MACARTHUR THAT IT FELT WOULD RISK THE DANGER OF SPREADING THE KOREAN WAR.

BOYLE SAID HE REGARDED THE GREAT DEBATE AS "A GOOD THING" BECAUSE "IT'S BETTER TO HAVE WAR AMONG THE GENERALS THAN TO HAVE A GENERAL WAR."

(430)

NEW YORK, MAY 16-(AP)-TIME MAGAZINE SAID TODAY THAT ATOM-ARMED MISSILES NOW BEING DEVELOPED "MAY WELL SPELL THE DOOM OF CONVENTIONAL BOMBING TACTICS."

THE MAGAZINE'S SCIENCE EDITOR, JONATHAN NORTON LEONARD, DESCRIBED FOUR TYPES OF EXPERIMENTAL WEAPONS, INTENDED FOR LAUNCHING FROM GROUND OR AIR AGAINST TARGETS IN FLIGHT OR ON THE SURFACE.

LEONARD PAINTED A BREATHTAKING WORD PICTURE OF SUCH GREAT MISSILES, SOARING AT INCREDIBLE SPEED AND HEIGHT AND PICKING OUT TARGETS WITH AN EERIE ACCURACY THAT SURPASSES THE HUMAN MIND.

HOWEVER, LEONARD CAUTIONED IN HIS ARTICLE:

"THERE WILL NEVER BE A GOLD AGE OF PUSH-BUTTON WAR, WITH THE U.S. GETTING ALL THE VICTORIES AND THE ENEMY GETTING ALL THE GRIEF.

"THE OLDER WEAPONS, INCLUDING THE SMALL-ARMS OF THE INFANTRY, WILL STILL BE NEEDED AND MUST NOT BE NEGLECTED."

THE SCIENCE WRITER SAID FAILURES AND ENEMY COUNTER-MEASURES MAY NULLIFY THE MISSILES TO SOME EXTENT.

LEONARD QUOTES MISSILEMEN WHO WORK WITH THE TERRIFYING OBJECTS AS SAYING A WAR OF ATOM-ARMED MISSILES WOULD BE FOLLOWED BY A WAR FOUGHT WITH CLUBS--AS SHATTERED MANKIND REVERTS TO SAVAGERY.

HE CALLS THE MISSILES "BIRDS" AND SAYS SOME OF THEM FLY IN TESTS FROM NEW MEXICO, POINT MUGU IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, PATRICK AIR FORCE BASE IN FLORIDA AND THE NAVY'S CONVERTED SEAPLANE TENDER "NORTON SOUND."

AS LEONARD DRAWS THE PICTURE, THESE ARE THE BASIC TYPES OF GUIDED MISSILES:

SURFACE-TO-AIR--THESE ARE FINNED OBJECTS AIMED FROM THE GROUND AT AIRPLANES IN FLIGHT.

AIR-TO-AIR--THESE CAN BE SMALLER, CARRY LESS FUEL AND CAN BE FIRED FROM ONE PLANE AT ANOTHER.

AIR-TO-GROUND--THESE COULD BE LAUNCHED FROM A BOMBER AT A SURFACE TARGET. LEONARD CALLS THEM "THE BOMBERS' BEST CHANCE OF PASSIVE DEFENSE" AND SAYS THEY MIGHT KEEP THE BOMBER OUT OF RANGE OF AIR-TO-AIR AND SURFACE-TO-AIR MISSILES. THEY CAN BE MADE BIG ENOUGH TO STRIKE WITH ATOM BOMBS, HE ADDED.

MAY 17 1951

SURFACE-TO-SURFACE--THESE LEONARD CALLS THE BIGGEST BIRDS OF THE FAMILY, VAST INTERCONTINENTAL MONSTERS--STILL IN DEVELOPMENT--FAR DEADLIER THAN THE GERMAN V-2 OF WORLD WAR II.

LEONARD WROTE THAT ROCKET MOTORS OR JET ENGINES CAN POWER SUCH MISSILES.

FROM THE AIR, SUCH SEEKING OR HOMING MISSILES COULD BE LAUNCHED BY A BOMBER FAR ENOUGH FROM THE TARGET SO THE BOMBER, ITSELF, COULD ESCAPE INTERCEPTION, HE SAID.

LEONARD CONTINUED:

"MISSILEMEN FEEL THAT THE PROPULSION QUESTION IS NOW NEAR ITS SOLUTION. X X X GUIDANCE IS A DEEPER PROBLEM.

"THE ENEMY CAN CONFUSE THE POOR BIRD BY JAMMING ITS RADIO FREQUENCIES. HE CAN MAKE IT SEEK ELECTRONIC MIRAGES TO LURE IT TO DESTRUCTION. HE MAY EVEN SEDUCE IT BY FALSE INSTRUCTIONS AND MAKE IT DESTROY ITS FRIENDS."

THE WRITER SAID THE GUIDED MISSILE PROGRAM ALREADY HAS DRAINED THE COUNTRY DRY OF SPECIALLY QUALIFIED SCIENTISTS.

IN AN ARTICLE ON THE POSSIBILITY OF GUIDED MISSILE WARFARE, THE MAGAZINE ADDS:

AND TIME QUOTES ONE SUCH REMOTE-CONTROL PILOT AS ADDING:

"WE PICKED OUT THE CITY HALL. WE COULD HAVE FLOWN THAT PLANE RIGHT INTO THE MAYOR'S OFFICE."

THE NAMES OF THE CITIES WERE NOT REVEALED IN THE ARTICLE.

FOURTH NIGHT LEAD KOREAN WAR ROUNDUP (NO PICKUP)
BY DON HUTH
TOKYO,FRIDAY, MAY 18-(AP)-RED HORDES FROM A WAR POTENTIAL OF 1,141,000 MEN IN MANCHURIA AND KOREA TODAY POURED THROUGH A GAP IN ALLIED LINES 75 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.
BUT THEY RAMMED INTO A STONEWALL DEFENSE NORTH OF SEOUL ITSELF, WERE HURLED BACK IN CENTRAL KOREA, AND WERE BEING CUT DOWN BY THE THOUSANDS ALL ACROSS THE PENINSULA.
A NEW AND HIGHER ESTIMATE OF THE MASSES AVAILABLE AGAINST THE OUTNUMBERED UNITED NATIONS DIVISIONS WAS REPORTED BY ALLIED INTELLIGENCE ON THE THIRD DAY OF THE REDS' NEW SPRING DRIVE.
THE ESTIMATE:
557,000 CHINESE REDS AND 211,000 NORTH KOREANS IN KOREA, MOST OF THEM IN IMMEDIATE FORWARD AREAS.
ANOTHER 373,000 TRAINED CHINESE IN MANCHURIA, GROUPED NORTHWARD FROM THE YALU RIVER BOUNDARY OF KOREA AND READY TO BE COMMITTED AT ANY TIME.
ALLIED COMMANDERS ACKNOWLEDGED THE REDS STILL WERE POUNDING THROUGH A HOLE IN SOUTH KOREAN LINES SOUTH AND SOUTHEAST OF INJE, 75 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL. AND SOUTH KOREANS FOR 25 MILES ON EASTWARD TO THE SEA OF JAPAN WERE FALLING BACK UNDER ATTACK.
BUT AMERICAN AND OTHER ALLIED FORCES HURLED BACK THE REDS AROUND CHUNCHON IN CENTRAL KOREA, 45 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.
THREE FRONTAL ASSAULTS IN THE UIJONGBU SECTOR 11 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL WERE BLED TO A HALT BY ALLIED TROOPS, ARTILLERY AND PLANES.
RED LOSSES WERE DESCRIBED BY ONE ALLIED OFFICER AS "TREMENDOUS." ANOTHER OFFICER ESTIMATED ENEMY DEAD IN THE THURSDAY BATTLES AT 10,000.
U.S. FIFTH AIR FORCE PILOTS CLAIMED THEY ALONE KILLED OR WOUNDED 5,750 REDS THURSDAY. WHETHER THESE ESTIMATES WERE INCLUDED IN THE 10,000 FIGURE WAS NOT CLEAR.
RETREATING SOUTH KOREANS ON THE EAST COAST WERE COVERED BY GUNS OF THE BIG BATTLESHIP NEW JERSEY, JUST ARRIVED TO JOIN TAKS FORCE 77.
IN ONE EAST COAST ACTION, THE U.S. DESTROYER ISBELL POURED ROUND AFTER ROUND OF FIVE-INCH SHELLS INTO ADVANCING NORTH KOREANS.

MEDIUM AND LIGHT BOMBERS RANGED ALL OVER THE BATTLE FRONT, USING A NEW RADAR TECHNIQUE IN DROPPING HUNDREDS OF 500-POUND BOMBS. FRAGMENTATION BOMBS WERE FUSED TO EXPLODE JUST ABOVE THE GROUND--LIKE THE DAISY-CUTTERS OF WORLD WAR II.
THE FULL POWER OF THE ALLIES' MASSED ARTILLERY WAS BROUGHT TO BEAR IN DAY AND NIGHT BOMBARDMENTS.
AP CORRESPONDENT JOHN RANDOLPH SAID PRE-DAWN ARTILLERY SHELLING NORTH OF SEOUL ILLUMINATED THE SKY LIKE MATCHES TOUCHED TO DRUMS OF GASOLINE. THE THUNDERING ARTILLERY AND FLARE-DROPPING PLANES HELPED BREAK UP ASSAULTS BY THREE RED BATTALIONS.
HUNDREDS OF RED BODIES WERE PILED UP IN FRONT OF ALLIED POSITIONS.
AVAILABLE REPORTS UP TO MIDDAY FROM COMMUNIQUES AND FIELD DISPATCHES GAVE THIS OVERALL SITUATION ACROSS KOREA:
WEST--REDS MASSING AND STEPPING UP THE PRESSURE NORTH OF SEOUL BUT HELD IN CHECK.
CENTRAL--REDS HURLED BACK AROUND CHUNCHON, 45 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.
EAST-CENTRAL--REDS EXPLOITING A GAP SOUTH AND SOUTHEAST OF INJE; A NEW SLIGHT PENETRATION ELSEWHERE IN THE INJE AREA. RED MASSES IN CONSTANT SOUTHWARD MOVEMENT BELOW INJE.
EAST--SOUTH KOREANS FALLING BACK TO PREPARED DEFENSES ALL THE WAY TO YANGYANG ON THE EAST COAST; REDS PENETRATED TO REAR OF SOUTH KOREANS NORTHWEST OF YANGYANG AND OPENED UP WITH SMALL ARMS.
AT U.S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS IN KOREA, AN ALLIED OFFICER TOLD AP CORRESPONDENT NATE POLOWETZKY THAT THE REDS "DEFINITELY HAVE ACHIEVED A MAJOR PENETRATION" OF REPUBLIC OF KOREA (ROK) LINES SOUTH AND SOUTHEAST OF INJE.
"DEPLOYMENT OF ENEMY FORCES (THERE) IS OBSCURED BY THE FLUID SITUATION," THE OFFICER ADDED.
THE REDS, AT THE OUTSET OF THEIR SECOND SPRING OFFENSIVE WEDNESDAY NIGHT, HAD HURLED THE MAIN WEIGHT IN A 20-MILE AREA BETWEEN CHUNCHON AND INJE. BUT WHEN THEY TRIED TO SPREAD THE BLOWS WEST AGAINST AMERICAN POSITIONS, THEY BEGAN RUNNING INTO TROUBLE.
POLOWETZKY'S DISPATCH TODAY SAID "THE COMMUNISTS CONTINUED TO EXERT GREATEST PRESSURE AGAINST SOUTH KOREAN FORCES IN THE EAST."
THE EASTERN SECTOR IS A RUGGED ONE OF MANY MOUNTAINS AND POOR ROADS, NOT PERMITTING FAST MILITARY MANEUVERS.
THE CENTER, AROUND CHUNCHON, OFFERING THE THREAT OF A FLANKING MOVE AGAINST SEOUL, AND THE SEOUL AREA ITSELF GENERALLY HAVE BEEN LOOKED UPON AS THE CRITICAL FRONTS.
THE REDS HURLED 96,000 MEN AGAINST THE U.N. DEFENSES IN THE OPENING PHASE OF THE NEW DRIVE.
UNTIL TODAY, THE RED POTENTIAL HAD BEEN ESTIMATED AT 500,000. THE NEW INTELLIGENCE ESTIMATE PLACED 79 TO 83 RED DIVISIONS ALREADY IN KOREA.
THE 373,000 CHINESE REPORTED IN MANCHURIA WERE DESCRIBED BY AN INTELLIGENCE OFFICER AS "REGULAR CCF (CHINESE COMMUNIST FORCES) ARMY PERSONNEL. . . CAPABLE OF IMMEDIATE PROJECTION INTO THE THEATER OF OPERATION."
FOR THE MOMENT THE NEW OFFENSIVE WAS LIKE THE EARLIER ONE WHICH BEGAN APRIL 22 AND WAS HALTED 10 DAYS LATER BY RED LOSSES OF MORE THAN 75,000. BOTH RELIED LARGELY ON THE FOOT SOLDIER.
THERE WERE NO REPORTS OF RED AIR FORCE SUPPORT AND ONLY SCANTY REPORTS OF ENEMY ARTILLERY. TODAY, HOWEVER, ALLIED FLIERS SAID THEY SAW THE REDS STRIVING TO LUG 68 BIG GUNS UP TO THE FRONT NORTH OF SEOUL. THE PLANES ATTACKED THEM, KNOCKING OUT AT LEAST SIX.
ALLIED ARTILLERY HAD A FIELD DAY. BODIES OF 400 CHINESE WERE COUNTED LAST NIGHT IN ONE MOONLIT AREA NORTH OF SEOUL.
ON THE WESTERN FRONT, AN AMERICAN CAPTAIN SAID:
"THE BODIES PILED UP, BUT THE REDS KEPT ON COMING. I NEVER HEARD ANYTHING THE EQUAL OF IT."
THE REDS BEGAN THEIR OFFENSIVE UNDER COVER OF RAIN BUT CLEARING WEATHER BROUGHT OUT ALLIED PLANES IN FORCE THURSDAY. FAR EAST AIR FORCE WARPLANES, WHICH INCLUDE ALL BUT CARRIER-BASED PLANES, FLEW MORE THAN 1,000 SORTIES.
LT.GEN.EDWARD M.ALMOND'S 10TH CORPS--ONE OF THREE ALLIED CORPS IN THE LINE--CREDITED THE CONTROLLED AIR ATTACKS OF THE U.S. FIFTH AIR FORCE WITH INFLICTING 5,000 RED CASUALTIES CLOSE TO FRONTLINE POSITIONS.
LT.GEN.MATTHEW B.RIDGWAY, THE ALLIED SUPREME COMMANDER, ECHOED THE SENTIMENTS OF HIS FIELD COMMANDERS THAT U.N. FORCES CAN HANDLE WHATEVER THE REDS CHOOSE TO COMMIT.
IN A STATEMENT FOR ARMED FORCES DAY SATURDAY, HE SAID:

"WITH COURAGE AND SPIRITUAL STAMINA, WITH SKILL IN OUR ARMS AND WITH THE UNDENIABLE KNOWLEDGE THAT OUR CAUSE IS JUST, WE WILL SUCCEED."

THIRD LEAD KOREAN WAR ROUNDUP (140)

BY OLEN CLEMENTS

TOKYO, FRIDAY, MAY 18-(AP)- CHINESE REDS SMASHED AGAINST STRONG ALLIED DEFENSES RINGING SEOUL LATE LAST NIGHT IN A NEW BLOW OF THEIR SECOND SPRING OFFENSIVE, WHICH EXPLODED ALL ALONG THE KOREAN FRONT.

BUT, SO SEARING WAS UNITED NATIONS FIRE ON THE SEOUL PERIMETER, THAT THE CHINESE FLED AFTER A FOUR AND A HALF-HOUR BATTLE.

AP CORRESPONDENT JOHN RANDOLPH, ON THE WESTERN FRONT, SAID AN ESTIMATED 400 RED CASUALTIES WERE COUNTED ON THE MOONLIT BATTLEFIELD.

THE ALLIED COMMANDER OF SEOUL'S DEFENSES EXPRESSED BELIEF THAT HIS POSITIONS WERE IMPREGNABLE.

ELSEWHERE ALONG THE RUGGED MOUNTAINOUS FRONT, RED CASUALTIES WERE ESTIMATED IN THE THOUSANDS. THE REDS FAILED THURSDAY TO CRACK THE MAIN ALLIED LINES.

ON THE EAST-CENTRAL SECTOR, THE CHINESE SMASHED A HOLE IN SOUTH KOREAN RANKS AND POURED THROUGH. OTHER ALLIED FORCES RUSHED UP AND PLUGGED THE GAP BY NIGHTFALL.

[illegible] RUSHED UP [illegible]

WAVES OF CHINESE STORMED U.S. POSITIONS. BUT EVERY TIME THE AMERICANS WERE PUSHED OFF A HILL THEY COUNTERATTACKED TO RECAPTURE THE HIGH GROUND.

THE ACTIONS WERE ALONG THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT, HOTTEST SECTOR OF THE 75 MILE WIDE BATTLEGROUND.

FIELD DISPATCHES SAID 96,000 CHINESE WERE ATTACKING IN THE 25 MILE LENGTH OF THE EAST CENTRAL SECTOR IN THE OPENING STAGES OF AN ALL-OUT COMMUNIST OFFENSIVE.

MAY 18 1951

ANOTHER 25,000 REDS WERE REPORTED GATHERING STRENGTH ON THE PUKHAN VALLEY INVASION ROUTE OF THE WEST CENTRAL SECTOR. SLITHERING CHINESE HAD CREPT CLOSE TO AMERICAN LINES AT THE JUNCTION OF THE HAN AND PUKHAN RIVERS DESPITE CEASELESS AERIAL AND ARTILLERY PUNISHMENT.

FAR TO THE WEST ERUPTING ATTACKS AND MOUNTING PRESSURE THREATENED A MAJOR ADVANCE TOWARD SEOUL MIGHT BE TRIED LATER.

ALL ALONG THE LINE RED RESERVES WERE PACKED DEEP BEHIND THE BUGLE BLOWING ASSAULT UNITS.

FRONT LINE OFFICERS SAID RED STRATEGY APPEARED TO BE TO HIT THE CENTER OF THE LINE REGARDLESS OF LOSSES.

COMMUNISTS ATTACKED RELENTLESSLY. U.N. PLANES, ARTILLERY AND MINE FIELDS TOOK A HEAVY TOLL.

"WE ARE KILLING THEM BY THE THOUSANDS," A U.N. AIR OFFICER SAID.

ARTILLERY BATTERIES FIRED AT A RECORD PACE. "WE ARE NOT FIRING EXCEPT AT GROUPS OF 100 OR MORE," AN ARTILLERYMAN SAID.

THE U.S. EIGHTH ARMY ESTIMATED COMMUNIST CASUALTIES WEDNESDAY AT 3,582. THE FIFTH AIR FORCE SAID IT ADDED 850 THURSDAY IN 617 COMBAT STRIKES BEFORE 6 P.M.

HEAVIEST FIGHTING WAS ON A 25-MILE SECTOR OF THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT FROM CHUNCHON TO INJE.

THE CHINESE BREAKTHROUGH WAS SOUTH OF INJE, NORTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL. TWO SOUTH KOREAN DIVISIONS WERE REPORTED RETREATING BEFORE THE RED ONSLAUGHT. ELEMENTS OF TWO CHINESE REGIMENTS HAD SLIPPED THROUGH THE GAP IN THE REPUBLICAN RANKS.

EVERY FIELD DISPATCH REFERRING TO THE BREAKTHROUGH WAS HEAVILY CENSORED. AP CORRESPONDENT WILLIAM C.BARNARD ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT REPORTED THE BREAK EXPOSED THE FLANKS OF OTHER REPUBLICAN UNITS. HE SAID THESE TROOPS WERE GRAVELY THREATENED.

SOUTH KOREANS TO THE WEST GAVE GROUND UNDER HEAVY PRESSURE.

STILL FARTHER SOUTHWEST, IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD OF CHUNCHON, AMERICANS GENERALLY HELD THEIR POSITIONS. IN ONE INSTANCE U.S. TROOPS COUNTER-ATTACKED.

AMERICAN LINES WERE DENTED IN SPOTS.

THE COMMUNIST VERSION OF THE BATTLE WAS BROADCAST BY PYONGYANG RADIO IN NORTH KOREA. IT SAID REDS "ARE SUCCESSFULLY PUNISHING SAVAGE AMERICAN AND BRITISH AGGRESSORS ALL ALONG THE FRONT."

THE ATTACK BEGAN ON THE EAST COAST WEDNESDAY AND EXPLODED WESTWARD. AP CORRESPONDENT NATE POLOWETZKY COMPARED IT TO A STRING OF FIRECRACKERS EXPLODING AS THE FLAME CREPT ALONG THE CORD--FOR 65 MILES.

FROM EAST TO WEST FRONT LINE DISPATCHES GAVE THIS PICTURE THURSDAY NIGHT:

SOUTH KOREANS ON THE EAST COAST FELL BACK BEFORE THE ATTACK OF COMMUNISTS STREAMING OFF MOUNTAIN RIDGES.

SIX HUNDRED COMMUNISTS PENETRATED SOUTH KOREAN LINES NORTH OF HANGYE. ALLIED TROOPS RUSHED UP TO PLUG THE HOLE. HANGYE IS 20 MILES INLAND AND SEVEN MILES NORTHEAST OF INJE.

COMMUNISTS STRUCK HARD ALL ALONG THE INJE SECTOR, BREAKING THROUGH SOUTH KOREAN LINES AND FORCING TWO REPUBLICAN DIVISIONS TO RETREAT.

REDS STREAMED SOUTHWEST DOWN THE INJE-HONGCHON HIGHWAY. ALLIED ARTILLERY POUNDED THE ROAD HEAVILY.

BETWEEN THIS ROAD AND CHUNCHON, HIGHWAY HUB OF THE NO-MAN'S-LAND ON THE CENTRAL FRONT, CHINESE PLUNGED INTO AMERICAN UNITS BEFORE DAWN AND FORCED A SLIGHT PENETRATION.

EARLY THURSDAY AFTERNOON 1,000 CHINESE HIT A SINGLE SECTOR OF AN AMERICAN UNIT. AMERICANS WITHDREW FROM A HILL AND ANOTHER ALLIED GROUP PROMPTLY ATTACKED TO REGAIN THE HILL.

THE MAIN U.S. LINE HELD.

THE REDS USED SOME 150 MM. ARTILLERY, ANTITANK GUNS AND RECOILLESS RIFLES. BUT MOSTLY THEY USED AUTOMATIC WEAPONS AND MORTARS.

SOUTH OF CHUNCHON AMERICANS, ASTRIDE THE CHUNCHON-HONGCHON HIGHWAY, REPULSED TWO REGIMENTAL ATTACKS. THEY REPORTED KILLING 400 REDS AND TAKING 60 PRISONERS.

SLIGHTLY TO THE WEST "VERY LARGE NUMBERS" OF CHINESE WERE REPORTED MOVING SOUTH. U.S. FIGHTER PLANES SWOOPED IN FOR THE KILL.

THROUGH THIS SECTOR BARNARD REPORTED PROBABLY 90,000 SOUTHBOUND REDS HAVE CROSSED THE PUKHAN AND CHOYANG RIVERS.

SMALL CHINESE GROUPS ATTACKED SOUTH OF KAPYONG, 32 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

TEN MILES SOUTHWEST OF CHANGGONG, THE REDS THREW A ROUNDHOUSE BLOW AT ALLIED TROOPS SOUTHWEST OF CHANGDONG. THEY STRUCK FRONTALLY AND ON THE LEFT FLANK OF AMERICAN UNITS. THE ATTACK BEGAN WITH ABOUT 500 MEN IN THE EARLY MORNING AND GREW TO ABOUT 4,000.

CHINESE EMERGED FROM ABANDONED GOLD AND SILVER MINES AND STREAMED SOUTH ALONG MOUNTAIN TRAILS. THEIR COLUMNS WERE WELL SPACED, MAKING POOR TARGETS FOR CONSTANT HAMMERING BY U.N. ARTILLERY AND PLANES.

THESE REDS OPENED UP AT DUSK WITH LONG RANGE GUNS ON U.N. TROOPS ON THE NORTH BANK OF THE HAN RIVER. THEY USED SOME MORTARS AND HOWITZERS AND MORE WERE COMING SOUTH ON PACK MULES.

A93FX

CHINESE MADE STRONG PROBING ATTACKS AROUND UIJONGBU, 11 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL AND 20 MILES WEST OF CHANGGONG

TO THE NORTHWEST OF SEOUL, ON THE EXTREME WESTERN END OF THE LINE, NORTH KOREANS IN BATTALION STRENGTH HIT SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS.

THE REDS PUSHED FORWARD BUT FELL BACK BEFORE DARK WHEN ALLIES COUNTERATTACKED.

THE COMMUNIST MOVEMENTS ALONG THIS WESTERN SECTOR OCCUPIED ABOUT A 10 MILE STRETCH OF THE NO-MAN'S-LAND WHICH HAS SEPARATED THE TWO FORCES FOR TWO AND A HALF WEEKS.

AP PHOTOGRAPHER ED JOHNSON ON THE EAST CENTRAL FRONT REPORTED A REINFORCED CHINESE REGIMENT---ABOUT 2,000 MEN---WAS CUT TO PIECES IN THE HIGH MOUNTAINS BY ALLIED TROOPS DEFENDING TRAILS CRISS-CROSSING THE COUNTRY.

JOHNSON SAID ONE AMERICAN COMPANY--ABOUT 200 MEN--TORE UP THE REGIMENT FROM HILLTOP POSITIONS.

TWO CHINESE REGIMENTS RAN INTO A MINE FIELD WEDNESDAY NIGHT TRYING TO SLIP THROUGH ALLIED LINES EAST OF CHUNCHON. THEY SET OFF THE MINES SO FAST IT SOUNDED LIKE THE ROAR OF ARTILLERY.

AN AMERICAN COLONEL REPORTED ONLY 40 CHINESE GOT THROUGH THE MINEFIELD AND BARBED WIRE ENTANGLEMENTS AT THE FOOT OF A HILL HELD BY U.S. FORCES.

ONE U.N. OFFICER SAID ALLIED FORCES WERE MAKING AN ORDERLY WITHDRAWAL BEFORE THE RED ONSLAUGHT. HE DESCRIBED THE SITUATION AS FLUID.

A41FX

CHINESE ATTACKED EARLY THURSDAY DOWN A VALLEY WEST OF THE PUKHAN RIVER. MASSED ALLIED ARTILLERY CURTAINED THE VALLEY WITH EXPLOSIVE FIRE.

AIR SCOUTS REPORTED HEAVY TROOP MOVEMENTS SOUTH AND SOUTHWEST OF THE HWACHON RESERVOIR. THIS IS DIRECTLY NORTH OF THE CENTRAL FRONT FIGHTING. BOMBERS AND FIGHTERS HAMMERED HALF A DOZEN TOWNS IN THE RED BUILDUP AREA WHERE U.N. OFFICERS ESTIMATE THE COMMUNISTS HAVE MASSED 390,000 TROOPS.

FROM THE HWACHON AREA RED FORCES COULD JOIN THE ATTACKS ON THE INJE-CHUNCHON SECTOR OR POUR SOUTHWESTWARD TO STRIKE ON THE WESTERN FRONT.

AP CORRESPONDENT JOHN RANDOLPH REPORTED STRONG RED PATROLS WERE PROBING 12 TO 15 MILES FROM SEOUL. HE SAID THERE WERE INDICATIONS THE MAIN RED ATTACK WOULD COME ROLLING DOWN TOWARDS SEOUL FROM RED BASES NORTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL AT CHORWON AND HUMHWA. THEY ARE NORTHWEST OF HWACHON.

POLOWETZKY REPORTED OFFICERS AT EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS ADVANCED THREE POSSIBLE REASONS FOR THE REDS STRIKING FIRST IN THE MOUNTAINOUS EAST. THEY COULD BE (1) LARGE SCALE FEINTS TO DISTRACT ATTENTION FROM THE MAIN BLOW TOWARD SEOUL, (2) THE BEGINNING OF A ROLLING OFFENSIVE TO EXPLODE ALL THE WAY ACROSS THE PENINSULA, OR (3) INTENDED SOLELY TO DRIVE U.N. FORCES COMPLETELY OUT OF NORTH KOREA.

RED ATTACK (280)

BY NATE POLOWETZKY

U.S. 8TH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, KOREA, MAY 17-(AP)-THE COMMUNIST PUSH IN KOREA RESEMBLES CHAIN REACTION.

IT STARTED TUESDAY NIGHT WITH SIX ATTACKS ON SOUTH KOREAN FORCES IN THE EAST.

THE ATTACK THEN ROLLED WESTWARD.

IT WAS AS IF SOMEONE HAD SET FIRE TO THE END OF A STRING OF FIRECRACKERS.

THE PUZZLING THING TO MANY OBSERVERS HERE IS WHY THE COMMUNIST HIGH COMMAND DECIDED TO APPLY THE TORCH IN THE EAST.

THE RUGGED, TREACHEROUS TERRAIN IN THE AREA IS TOTALLY UNSUITED FOR EXTENSIVE OFFENSIVE ACTION.

WHY THEN, THE ATTACK FIRST IN THE EAST? HERE ARE SOME OF THE THEORIES:

MAY 18 1951

1--THE EASTERN AND EAST CENTRAL DRIVES ARE MERELY LARGE SCALE FEINTS DESIGNED TO DRAW THE UNITED NATIONS TROOPS OFF THE WEST WHERE THE REAL COMMUNIST DRIVE WILL BE LAUNCHED IN THE MUNSAN-SEOUL-UIJONGBU TRIANGLE.

2--THEY STARTED ATTACKING IN THE EAST IN THE HOPE THAT THE ASSAULT WOULD ENGENDER ENOUGH POWER TO ALLOW THE COMMUNISTS TO EXPLODE ALL ALONG THE ENTIRE PENINSULA.

3--THE REDS IMMEDIATE GOAL IS TO DRIVE THE REMAINING U.N. TROOPS OUT OF NORTH KOREA.

THOSE WHO STRESS THE LAST POINT SAY THE ONLY FORCES HOLDING TERRITORY IN NORTH KOREA ARE SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS. THE AMERICANS WITHDREW SOME TIME AGO. IT IS THE TERRITORY IN NORTH KOREA ARE SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS. THE AMERICANS WITHDREW SOME TIME AGO. IT IS THE SOUTH KOREANS WHO HAVE BEEN HIT HARDEST THUS FAR.

THE REPUBLICAN FORCES HAVE BEEN FORCED INTO GENERAL WITHDRAWALS SOUTHWEST OF INJE, FOUR MILES NORTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL.

IF THE ASSAULTS ARE CONTINUED AS SUCCESSFULLY AS THEY HAVE STARTED THE REPUBLICAN TROOPS PROBABLY WILL BE FORCED TO GO SOUTH OF 38, THE PREWAR BOUNDARY.

PROPONENTS OF THIS LAST POINT ARGUE THAT WHILE THE 38TH PARALLE MEANS LITTLE OR NOTHING MILITARILY TO ALLIED LEADERS IT IS OF GREAT IMPORTANCE, PROPAGANDA-WISE AT LEAST, TO THE COMMUNISTS.

CENTRAL FRONT, KOREA, MAY 17-(AP)-A REINFORCED CHINESE COMMUNIST REGIMENT WAS CUT TO PIECES EARLY TODAY WHEN IT ATTACKED U.S. FORCES HIGH IN THE MOUNTAINS SOUTH OF CHUNCHON.

THE BATTLE 45 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL LASTED THREE AND A HALF HOURS. THE REDS WITHDREW AT DAYBREAK, LEAVING MORE THAN 100 DEAD

PILED IN FRONT OF THE AMERICANS' FOXHOLES.

OFFICERS SAID SCORES OF OTHER CHINESE WERE KILLED BY ARTILLERY AND OTHER HEAVY WEAPONS. NEARLY 100 PRISONERS WERE TAKEN.

MOST OF THE JOB WAS DONE BY ONE COMPANY WHICH WAS GUARDING HIGH GROUND ATOP A MOUNTAIN PASS ON THE ROAD LEADING INTO CHUNCHON.

OFFICERS SAID THE COMMUNIST ACTION WAS "A STRONG PROBING ATTACK."

PERHAPS PRELIMINARY TO AN EXPECTED MAJOR RED DRIVE ON THE CENTRAL FRONT. (OTHER DISPATCHES TOLD OF THE REDS SUSTAINING A BIG GENERAL ATTACK EAST OF CHUNCHON)

THE CHINESE APPARENTLY GOT THE SURPRISE OF THEIR LIVES WHEN THEY ATTACKED EARLY TODAY AND RAN INTO THE AMERICANS GUARDING THE PATH.

OFFICERS PIECED IT TOGETHER LIKE THIS:

THE CHINESE MOVED DOWN A VALLEY SOUTH OF THE PUKHAN RIVER AND WEST OF CHUNCHON TOWARD THE AMERICANS LAST NIGHT.

THEY APPARENTLY TOOK TO THE MAIN HIGHWAY JUST BEFORE REACHING THE TOP OF THE PASS. THEY SPREAD OUT ON THE LEFT SIDE OF THE ROAD AND STARTED POURING RIFLE FIRE AND GRENADES INTO THE AMERICAN DEFENSE POSITION.

AMERICAN HEAVY ARTILLERY AND MORTARS POUNDED THE ENEMY'S AVENUES OF APPROACH THROUGHOUT THE BATTLE.

FIGHTER PLANES JOINED IN, HITTING THE ENEMY WITH NAPALM (JELLIED GASOLINE) AND HEAVY AERIAL FIRE.

SGT.CHARLIE H.ALBRIGHT OF SPARTANBURG,S.C., SAID: "WE COULD HEAR THEM COMING UP THE ROAD LIKE THEY WERE IN A FORCED MARCH. THEN ALL OF A SUDDEN THE SHOOTING STARTED."

ALBRIGHT SAID THE CHINESE CLIMBED UPON ONE TANK.

"ONE CHINK CLIMBED ON TOP AND HAMMERED AT THE HATCH HOLLERING IN ENGLISH 'LET ME IN, LET ME IN'", ALBRIGHT SAID.

EAST-CENTRAL FRONT,KOREA,MAY 17 (AP)-AN ESTIMATED DIVISION OF CHINESE REDS ASSAULTED AMERICAN POSITIONS SOUTHEAST OF CHUNCHON TONIGHT AND WERE MOWED DOWN BY ARTILLERY.

"THE BODIES PILED UP BUT THE REDS KEPT ON COMING," SAID ARTILLERY CAPT.GERALD W.THOMPSON OF FORT SCOTT, KANS. "I NEVER HEARD OF ANYTHING TO EQUAL IT."

PLANES DROPPING FLARES SPECTACULARLY ILLUMINATED THE FRONT WHILE B-29S AND B-26S, IN CLOSE SUPPORT OF U.N.GROUND FORCES BOMBED TONIGHT WITHIN 1,000 YARDS OF THE SHIFTING AMERICAN FRONT LINE.

PLANES HIT THE CHINESE ALONG THE ENTIRE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT. COL. CHARLES CALLAHAN OF MONTICELLO, MISS., AN AIR LIAISON OFFICER, SAID, "AS FAR AS RESULTS WERE CONCERNED IT WAS A TREMENDOUS."

"THE WHOLE FRONT WAS CRAWLING WITH ENEMY TROOPS AND EVEN WHEN PLANES CAME OVER AND LAID NAPALM (FIRE BOMBS) ON THEM THEY MADE NO EFFORT TO DISPERSE," HE SAID. "THEY DIED BY THE THOUSANDS."

MAJOR JOSEPH GURFEIN, 325 OCEAN AVE., BROOKLYN, N.Y., SAID:

"WE ESTIMATED OUR PLANES KILLED 5,000 ENEMY TROOPS ON THE FRONT TODAY, AND ARTILLERY MORE THAN THAT."

MAJOR RALPH M. LUNAN, JUNCTION CITY, KANS., SAID ENEMY TROOPS SIGHTED WERE MOVING "EITHER IN A SOUTHEASTERLY OR SOUTHWESTERLY DIRECTION."

"HUNDREDS AND HUNDREDS WERE KILLED BY ARTILLERY WHILE CROSSING THE CHOYANG RIVER HEADED SOUTH," SAID AN ARTILLERY MAJOR WHO FLEW IN A SPOTTER PLANE.

"FOR MORE THAN THREE HOURS AT A SPOT EAST OF CHUNCHON THREE PLANES DIRECTED ARTILLERY ON THE RIVER CROSSERS AND A BATTALION OF ARTILLERY DOING THE FIRING WERE WORKING OVERTIME. FINALLY THE PLANES RAN OUT OF FUEL."

"I SIGHTED 1,500 CHINESE TROOPS ON THE INJE-HONGCHON ROAD AND CALLED ARTILLERY STRIKE. THE ARTILLERY KILLED MORE THAN 200. TEN OR ELEVEN CHINESE WOULD FALL AT A BURST AND OTHERS WOULD WALK RIGHT OVER THE BODIES. A WHITE PHOSPHORUS BURST LIT IN THE CENTER OF THE BUNCH OF ABOUT 50 AND THE OTHERS WALKED RIGHT ON THROUGH THE SMOKE. THERE NEVER WAS A DAY LIKE THIS."

THE MAJOR SAID SOUTH KOREANS RETREATING SOUTH OF INJE "ARE STREAMING DOWN THE ROAD ON FOOT AND ARE PILED ON TRUCKS AND HITCHHIKING TO GET OUT OF THERE."

IN THE AREA OF RETREAT THE REDS MADE A SMALL BREAKTHROUGH TODAY. THE SOUTH KOREANS WITHDRAWAL HAD BEEN DESCRIBED AS ORDERLY BY ARMY OFFICERS.

TOKYO, FRIDAY, MAY 18-(AP)-GEN. MATTHEW B. RIDGWAY DECLARED THURSDAY THAT "LIKE BLACKMAIL, SUCCESSFUL AGGRESSION ONLY OPENS THE WAY FOR GREATER AND GREATER TRIBUTE UNTIL THE BURDEN BECOMES UNBEARABLE."

"THE SOLDIERS OF THE UNITED NATIONS, ASSAULTED BY SUPERIOR NUMBERS IN KOREA, CAN TELL YOU THAT SECURITY IS NOT EASILY WON," HE SAID IN A MESSAGE TO THE FOURTH ANNUAL ASSEMBLY OF THE UNITED NATIONS ASSOCIATION OF JAPAN.

MAY 19 1951

"MANY HAVE GIVEN THEIR LIVES IN SUPPORT OF THE PRINCIPLE THAT AGGRESSION MUST NOT BE REWARDED."

THE SUPREME ALLIED COMMANDER PREDICTED JAPAN WOULD ALLY HERSELF WITH THE FREE WORLD AFTER THE PEACE TREATY. HE ALSO PREDICTED COMMUNIST NATIONS WOULD TRY TO BLOCK JAPANESE ENTRY INTO THE U. N., BUT ASSURED JAPANESE THEY WOULD HAVE THE SUPPORT OF FREE PEOPLES.

IN A STATEMENT ISSUED FOR ARMED FORCES DAY SATURDAY, GENERAL RIDGWAY ALSO SAID U. N. FORCES IN KOREA HAD MET THE FIRST TEST, BUT ADDED, "THERE WILL BE OTHERS."

"IT IS THE SOLEMN, INDIVIDUAL OBLICATION OF EACH OF US TO BE READY," THE MESSAGE SAID. "WITH COURAGE AND SPIRITUAL STAMINA, WITH SKILL IN OUR ARMS, AND WITH THE UNDENIABLE KNOWLEDGE THAT OUR CAUSE IS JUST, WE WILL SUCCEED.

"THE HOPES AND ASPIRATIONS OF FREE PEOPLES EVERYWHERE ARE DEPENDENT TO A LARGE DEGREE ON OUR EFFORTS. THE SECURITY OF OUR NATION RESTS IN OUR HANDS."

TOKYO,MAY 17-(AP)-THE ARMY SAID TODAY IT IS GOING TO GIVE THE VIP (VERY IMPORTANT PERSON) TREATMENT TO ANY SOLDIER WHO WINS THE MEDAL OF HONOR.

ANY SOLDIER AWARDED THE HIGHEST HONOR THE UNITED STATES CAN GIVE ONE OF ITS FIGHTING MEN WAS PROMISED:

HE WILL BE FLOWN HERE FROM KOREA AND HOUSED IN SPECIAL QUARTERS. HE WILL RECEIVE A NEW UNIFORM AND MEET GENERAL MATTHEW B.RIDGWAY, THE SUPREME COMMANDER.

HE WILL GET A SPECIAL PASS TO ALL CLUBS IN THE TOKYO AREA, PLUS THE USE OF AN ARMY SEDAN.

WITHIN 48 HOURS HE--AND HIS FAMILY OF THEY ARE IN JAPAN--WILL BE READY TO FLY TO THE UNITED STATES.

ONLY ONE LIVING SOLDIER HAS RECEIVED THE MEDAL FOR BRAVERY IN KOREA. HE IS M/SGT ERNEST R.KOUMA OF DWIGHT,NEB., WHO RETURNED TO THE STATES LAST WEEK.

KOUMA IS SCHEDULED FOR SOME VERY VIP TREATMENT IN WASHINGTON. HE WILL GET HIS MEDAL OF HONOR SATURDAY FROM THE HANDS OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN. HIS PARENTS AND A BROTHER WILL BE PRESENT.

KOUMA WAS AWARDED THE MEDAL FOR STICKING TO HIS TANK AFTER THE ONLY TWO SUPPORTING TANKS IN HIS AREA WERE KNOCKED OUT WHEN 500 KOREAN REDS OVERRAN AN ADVANCE SECTION OF THE SECOND DIVISION FRONT. KOUMA'S TANK WAS THE SOLE BARRIER PROTECTING RETREATING INFANTRYMAN. HE WAS TWICE WOUNDED IN A NINE-HOUR FIGHT AND AFTERWARDS FOUGHT THROUGH EIGHT MILES OF ENEMY TERRITORY TO HIS OWN LINES. KOUMA ESTIMATED THAT HE AND HIS CREW KILLED 250 REDS IN THE RETREAT.

MANCHURIAN BASES
BY WILLIAM JORDEN
OKINAWA,MAY 17-(AP)-SHOULD THE UNITED NATIONS STRIKE AT COMMUNIST BASES IN MANCHURIA?
MANY AIR FORCE MEN AT THE BIG BOMBER BASE HERE--THE MEN WHO WOULD DO THE JOB--ARE NOT CONVINCED IT'S A GOOD IDEA.
THEY ARE NOT SURE THE BENEFITS OF ANY SUCH MOVE WOULD OUTWEIGH THE DRAWBACKS.
HERE IS THE WAY MANY SAID THEY SEE THE PROBLEM:
IF U.S. BOMBERS WERE ASSIGNED TO HIT RED TARGETS NORTH OF THE YALU RIVER BORDER OF KOREA, THEY COULD DO SERIOUS DAMAGE TO THE COMMUNISTS' WAR EFFORT.
MANY ENEMY AIR BASES COULD BE PUT OUT OF OPERATION. MUCH OF THE COMMUNIST SUPPLY NETWORK FEEDING RED FIELD ARMIES COULD BE DISRUPTED. COMMUNIST SUPPLY POINTS AND PRODUCTION CENTERS IN MANCHURIA COULD BE DESTROYED. TROOP MOVEMENTS FAR BEHIND THE FRONT COULD BE HARASSED AND SLOWED.
AIR FORCE MEN AGREE SUCH ATTACKS WOULD BE OF TREMENDOUS HELP TO THE U.N. ARMIES FIGHTING ON THE GROUND IN KOREA. IT WOULD CERTAINLY MAKE THE EIGHTH ARMY'S JOB OF KILLING COMMUNIST SOLDIERS A GOOD DEAL EASIER.
IF THAT WERE THE WHOLE STORY, AIR FORCE MEN SAY, THERE WOULD BE NO DOUBT ABOUT THE MILITARY ADVANTAGES OF BOMBING MANCHURIAN BASES.
BUT THERE IS ANOTHER SIDE TO THE PURELY MILITARY PROBLEM OF ANY VENTURE NORTH OF THE YALU BY ALLIED AIR POWER.
THE AIR EXPERTS SAY THAT IF B-29S FLEW TO RED TARGET AREAS VERY MUCH NORTH OF ANTUNG, MANCHURIA, AT THE MOUTH OF THE YALU, THEY WOULD HAVE TO TRAVEL WITHOUT FIGHTER ESCORT. WITHOUT JETS FLYING COVER, THE AIR FORCE WOULD EXPECT HEAVY LOSSES OF SUPERFORTS. COMMUNIST PILOTS HAVE SHOWN CONCLUSIVELY THAT RUSSIAN-TYPE MIG-15 JETS CAN KNOCK DOWN THE BIG BOMBERS EVEN WITH FRIENDLY AIR COVER IN THE SKY.
SUCH LOSSES OF BIG BOMBERS COULD NOT QUICKLY NOR EASILY BE REPLACED THEY SAY. THE RESULT WOULD BE A SHARP DROP IN ALLIED AIR POWER.
IN THEIR INITIAL STRIKES, U.S. PLANES COULD DO SERIOUS DAMAGE TO THE ENEMY'S WAR EFFORT. IT IS AT LEAST DOUBTFUL WHETHER THE AIR FORCE COULD LONG MAINTAIN THAT LEVEL OF EFFECTIVENESS--NOT IF THEY SUFFERED THE LOSSES THEY SAY COULD BE EXPECTED.

MAY 18 1951

AT PRESENT, THE COMMUNISTS ARE USING THEIR AIR EFFORT OVER NORTH KOREA IN WHAT LOOKS LIKE AN EFFECTIVE TRAINING PROGRAM FOR THEIR PILOTS. U.S. AIRMEN WHO HAVE MET ENEMY JETS SAY THEY HAVE NOTICED A BIG DIFFERENCE FROM DAY TO DAY, FROM PLANE TO PLANE, IN THE SKILL OF COMMUNIST FIGHTERS.
THIS, THEY EXPLAIN, LOOKS AS THOUGH THE REDS HAVE A BIG TURNOVER OF PILOTS. WHEN A MAN BECOMES REALLY CAPABLE, HE MAY BE PULLED OUT TO INSTRUCT OTHERS AND GIVE LESS EXPERIENCED PILOTS A CHANCE AT THE MOST REALISTIC "TRAINING" SCHEDULE POSSIBLE--ACTUAL COMBAT IN THE SKY AGAINST AN ARMED ENEMY.
ALLIED AIRMEN SAY THE COMMUNISTS ARE STEADILY IMPROVING. BUT U.N. PILOTS ARE GETTING THE SAME KIND OF INVALUABLE TRAINING. IT WORKS BOTH WAYS.
A SERIES OF HEAVY BLOWS AT ENEMY AIR BASES IN THE MANCHURIAN "SANCTUARY" WOULD PLAY HAVOC WITH THE RED AIR FORCE. IT WOULD ALSO MEAN THE LOSS OF MANY OF OUR TOP AIRMEN.
THE AIR FORCE IS QUICK TO AGREE THAT BOMBING MANCHURIA WOULD HAVE SERIOUS IMPLICATIONS. THE BIG QUESTION IS: WOULD THE COMMUNISTS RETALIATE WITH THEIR OWN BOMBERS ON U.S. INSTALLATIONS IN JAPAN AND OKINAWA? WOULD BOMBING MANCHURIA MEAN THE BEGINNING OF WORLD WAR III?
THE AIRMEN SAY THAT IS A QUESTION FOR HIGHER AUTHORITY.
BUT JUST ON THE MILITARY MERITS, MANY THINK THE PRESENT "GROUND RULES" THAT MAKE MANCHURIA IMMUNE FROM ALLIED AIR STRIKES MAY ACTUALLY OPERATE IN THE ALLIES' FAVOR.

AMS BUDGET
NIGHT LEAD IRAN

BY EDWARD CURTIS

LONDON, MAY 17-(AP)-BRITAIN MADE A NEW BID THROUGH DIPLOMATIC CHANNELS TODAY TO SAVE HER RICH OIL CONCESSION IN IRAN--A COVETED PRIZE IN THE EAST-WEST COLD WAR.

THE LABOR GOVERNMENT, AFTER A WEEK'S CONSULTATION WITH THE UNITED STATES, DISPATCHED TO TEHRAN A FIRM NOTE WHICH INFORMED SOURCES SAID OFFERED TO SEND A HIGH LEVAL MISSION TO TALK OVER POSSIBLE COMPROMISES THAT WOULD AVERT NATIONALIZATION OF THE HUGE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY.

THE NOTE WAS REPORTED TO:

1--BRAND AS ILLEGAL IRAN'S NATIONALIZATION OF THE COMPANY, WHOSE CONCESSION WAS DUE TO RUN UNTIL 1993.

2--ASSERT SUCH A MOVE IS IMPRACTICAL BECAUSE IRAN LACKS THE KNOW-HOW TO PRODUCE, REFINE AND MARKET THE OIL.

THE INFORMED SOURCES SAID THE NOTE CONTAINED NO HINT THAT BRITAIN WOULD USE FORCE, IF NECESSARY, TO PROTECT THE 8,000 BRITONS AND THE MULTI-MILLION DOLLAR PROPERTIES OF THE COMPANY IN SOUTHERN IRAN.

BUT THAT POSSIBILITY ALREADY HAS BEEN MADE CLEAR. BRITAIN'S WAR OFFICE, NORMALLY RELUCTANT TO DISCLOSE EVEN MINOR TROOP MOVEMENTS, LET SLIP LAST WEEKEND THAT THE 4,000 PARATROOPERS WERE BEING READIED FOR AN EMERGENCY.

THE WAR OFFICE STILL HASN'T SAID IF, WHEN OR WHERE THEY WILL BE USED. OBSERVERS, HOWEVER, IMMEDIATELY LINKED THE ALERT WITH THE TROUBLED IRANIAN SITUATION AND IRANIAN NEWSPAPERS PLAYED IT UP AS A THREAT OF ARMED ACTION AGAINST THAT NATION.

A NATIONAL FRONT DEPUTY, ABOLHASSAN HAERIZADEH, TOLD IRAN'S PARLIAMENT IN TEHRAN TODAY THAT BRITISH PRESSURE ON IRAN WOULD TOUCH OFF WORLD WAR III. HE IS A MEMBER OF THE LITTLE PARTY WHICH ENGINEERED PASSAGE OF THE NATIONALIZATION LAW AND SEATED THE PARTY LEADER, MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH, IN THE PREMIERSHIP.

"THESE THREATS DO NOT FRIGHTEN US AT ALL," HAERIZADEH SAID. "WE ARE NOT GOING TO YIELD TO THE COMPANY'S PRESSURE. ANY PRESSURE ON THIS COUNTRY WILL CAUSE A THIRD WORLD WAR. IRAN SHOULD BE FREE, INDEPENDENT AND PROSPEROUS X X X OR IT WILL BE A PATHWAY FOR RED FORCES TO ALL OTHER PARTS OF THE WORLD."

PREMIER MOSSADEGH, IN FEAR OF TERRORIST ATTACKS, HAS LOCKED HIMSELF UP IN THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING. BUT HE STRENGTHENED HIS HOLD ON IRANIAN SECURITY FORCES BY DEMANDING AND GETTING THE RESIGNATION OF GEN. MOHAMMED HEJAZI, WHO WAS APPOINTED TEHRAN'S POLICE CHIEF AND MILITARY GOVERNOR FOR THE BRIEF PERIOD OF MARTIAL LAW DECREED AFTER THE ASSASSINATION OF PREMIER ALI RAZMARA IN MARCH. NO NEW CHIEF WAS NAMED IMMEDIATELY.

OBSERVERS SPECULATED WHETHER RUSSIA, IRAN'S NORTHERN NEIGHBOR, WOULD STAND BY QUIETLY IF BRITAIN DID PUT TROOPS IN THE CONCESSION AREA. UNDER A 1921 TREATY WITH IRAN, RUSSIA MIGHT CLAIM THE RIGHT TO INTERVENE IF ANY OTHER NATION SENDS TROOPS INTO IRAN.

THE BRITISH NOTE WAS DISPATCHED TO BRITISH AMBASSADOR SIR FRANCIS SHEPHERD, IN TEHRAN. BECAUSE TOMORROW IS FRIDAY, THE MOSLEM SABBATH, IT MAY NOT BE DELIVERED TO THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT UNTIL SATURDAY.

A7

THE NEXT MOVE RESTS WITH MOSSADEGH. HE IS ANTI-RUSSIAN AS WELL AS ANTI-BRITISH AND ANTI-AMERICAN. HIS CAMPAIGN TO TAKE OVER THE BRITISH OIL COMPANY HAS BEEN SUPPORTED VIGOROUSLY, HOWEVER, BY THE OUTLAWED COMMUNIST-SPONSORED TUDEH PARTY.

BRITISH OFFICIALS SAY THE UNITED STATES HAS GIVEN SOLID SUPPORT TO BRITAIN. BUT THEY WERE SOMEHAT TAKEN ABACK BY SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON'S NEWS CONFERENCE COMMENT ON THE PROBLEM YESTERDAY.

SOME BRITISH OFFICIALS FELT THAT ACHESON'S ADVICE TO BRITAIN AND IRAN TO FOLLOW A POLICY OF MODERATION IN THE DISPUTE FAILED TO GIVE BRITAIN THE PUBLIC SUPPORT THEY HOPED TO HAVE. THEY MADE IT CLEAR THAT, PUBLICLY, THE UNITED STATES IS REMAINING TOO ALOOF TO SUIT THEM.

THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT OWNS MORE THAN HALF OF THE COMMON STOCK IN THE OIL COMPANY, WHICH IS ESTIMATED WORTH FROM $500,000,000 TO $1,000,000,000. ABOUT 30 PER CENT OF THIS ISLANDS OIL SUPPLY COMES FROM IRAN, AND IT IS A PRIME SOURCE OF FUEL FOR THE BRITISH FLEET.

THE REST OF ITS OUTPUT ALSO GOES TO THE WEST, MUCH OF IT TO WESTERN EUROPE. A CHANGE OF THIS FLOW FROM THE WEST TO THE EAST--VIA RUSSIA--WOULD UPSET WESTERN DEFENSE PLANNING.

BULLETIN

LONDON, MAY 17-(AP)-BRITAIN SENT IRAN A STERN NOTE TODAY REPORTEDLY CALLING FOR HIGH LEVEL TALKS TO SETTLE THEIR OIL DISPUTE

THE NOTE WAS DISPATCHED TO BRITISH AMBASSADOR SIR FRANCIS SHEPHERD IN TEHRAN. THE FOREIGN OFFICE SAID SIR FRANCIS WOULD DELIVER IT TO THE PERSIAN GOVERNMENT AT THE FIRST OPPORTUNITY.

THIS, HOWEVER, MAY NOT BE UNTIL SATURDAY, AS FRIDAY IS THE MOSTLEM EQUIVALENT OF WESTERN WORLD'S SUNDAY.

INFORMED SOURCES SAID THE NOTE WILL REJECT AS ILLEGAL IRAN'S NATIONALIZATION OF THE BIG ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY. THESE SOURCES SAID BRITAIN WILL OFFER SENDING A HIGH LEVEL MISSION, PROBABLY LED BY A JUNIOR MINISTER, TO TEHRAN TO REACH A COMPROMISE SOLUTION.

THE NOTE WENT OFF SOON AFTER FOREIGN MINISTER HERBERT MORRISON CONFERRED WITH PRIME MINISTER CLEMENT ATTLEE. PRESUMABLY, THE NOTE WAS SUBMITTED TO ATTLEE FOR FINAL APPROVAL.

BRITAIN ALSO CONSULTED THE UNITED STATES DURING THE DRAFTING OF THE NOTE. A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID BRITAIN HAS THE FULL SUPPORT OF THE UNITED STATES IN ITS MOVE TO SETTLE THE DISPUTE.

NEVERTHELESS, THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE RECEIVED WITH CHILLY POLITENESS SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON'S COUNSEL OF MODERATION IN THE IRANIAN OIL DISPUTE.

A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN WAS AS CORRECT AND POLITE AS ONLY A BRITISH DIPLOMAT CAN BE, BUT IT WAS OBVIOUS THAT BRITAIN HAD EXPECTED MORE PUBLIC SUPPORT FROM ACHESON. OTHER BRITISH OFFICIALS SAID ACHESON'S STATEMENT WAS A NEGATIVE ONE AND WISHY-WASHY STUFF.

THE SPOKESMAN WAS ASKED WHAT ELSE BRITAIN HAD PROPOSED TO THE UNITED STATES THAT BROUGHT FROM ACHESON A PLEA FOR BOTH IRAN AND BRITAIN TO CONDUCT THEMSELVES WITH MODERATION.

THE OFFICIAL REPLIED CALMLY THAT HE SUPPOSED ACHESON WAS THINKING OF THE CRITICAL POSSIBILITIES OF THE SITUATION.

OTHER OFFICIALS WERE NOT AS RESTRAINED AS THE FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN. SAID ONE:

"NEITHER YOU AMERICANS NOR WE CAN AFFORD TO LOSE THAT OIL. YOU AMERICANS MUST REALIZE THAT AS THE MIGHTIEST POWER ON EARTH, YOU HAVE TAKEN LEADERSHIP. AND ONE OF THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF LEADERSHIP IS TO GIVE A FIRM LEAD."

ANGLO-IRANIAN ITSELF ISSUED A STATEMENT DENYING THAT ANY OF ITS EMPLOYES HAD BEEN INTRIGUING AGAINST PREMIER MOSSADEGH OF IRAN. SUCH A CHARGE HAD BEEN MADE IN A STATEMENT ISSUED BY THE IRANIAN EMBASSY IN PARIS.

london, may 17--(AP)--the british foreign offi e received wit chilly politeness today secretary of state dean acheson's counsel of moderation in the wak iranian oil dispute.

a foreign office spokesman was as correct and polite as only a british diplomat can be, but it was obvious that britain had expected more public support from acheson. Other british officials s acheson's statement was a negative one and wishy-washy stuff.

the spokesman said the united states had been consulted constantly on a note britain is sending to iran. the note is expected to offer sending a british mission to tehran to talk over nationalisation of the anglo-iranian oil company.

the spokesman was asked what else britain had proposed to the united states that brought from acheson a plea for bo h iran and britain to conduct themselves with moderation.

the official replied calmly that he supposed acheson was thinking of criticial possibilities of the situation.

other officials wh were not as restrained as the foreign ffice spokesman. said one:

NIGHT LEAD GERMAN (300)

BONN, GERMANY, MAY 17-(AP)-A GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN SAID TODAY WEST GERMANY WILL IMPOSE STRICT LICENSING THIS WEEKEND ON HER TRADE WITH RED CHINA, WHICH HAS BOOMED SINCE THE OUTBREAK OF TH KOREAN WAR.

MAY 18 1951.

OFFICIAL REPORTS SHOW WEST GERMANY SHIPPED THE EQUIVALENT OF $2,356,000 WORTH OF GOODS TO CHINA IN THE FIRST THREE MONTHS OF 1951, MORE THAN 10 TIMES THAT SHIPPED IN THE FIRST QUARTER OF 1950. THESE REPORTS, OF COURSE, DO NOT COVER ANY GOODS SMUGGLED THROUGH THE IRON CURTAIN.

WITNESSES HAVE TESTIFIED BEFORE A U.S. SENATE SUBCOMMITTEE IN WASHINGTON THAT MILLIONS OF DOLLARS WORTH OF STRATEGIC MATERIALS HAVE POURED INTO RED CHINA FROM THIS NATION.

THE WEST GERMAN SPOKESMAN, SAID HOWEVER, THAT WHATEVER STRATEGIC MATERIALS HAD REACHED CHINA FROM WEST GERMANY WOULD ONLY HAVE REACHED THERE ILLEGALLY. IN THE FUTURE, HE SAID, NO GOODS OF ANY KIND CAN BE SHIPPED LEGALLY TO CHINA WITHOUT A LICENSE.

AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES IN WEST BERLIN SAID RED CHINA IS RECEIVING $60,000 WORTH OF MATERIAL MON FROM INDUSTRIES IN THE WESTERN SECTORS OF THE DIVIDED CITY ALONE. MUCH OF THE MATERIAL IS CONSIDERED USEFUL FOR WAR PURPOSES. SOME OF THE FACTORIES INVOLVED OWE THEIR EXISTENCE TO AID RECEIVED UNDER THE AMERICAN-FINANCED EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM.

SINCE THE ALLIES REWROTE THE GERMAN OCCUPATION STATUTE, THE AMERICANS IN BERLIN HAVE BEEN WITHOUT POWER TO CONTROL WEST BERLIN'S INTERNATIONAL DEALS.

A U.S. HIGH COMMISSION SPOKESMAN SAID "SOME PROGRESS" HAS BEEN MADE TOWARD HALTING THE LEAKAGE OF GERMAN GOODS EASTWARD AND THE PROBLEM IS UNDER CONTINUOUS STUDY. HE SAID ONE DIFFICULTY IS THAT THE WEST GERMANS REGARD THEIR BORDER WITH THE SOVIET OCCUPATION ZONE AS A GERMAN BORDER INSTEAD OF AN INTERNATIONAL FRONTIER.

THE WEST GERMAN GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN SAID THAT, UNDER THE NEW SYSTEM, TRADERS WILL HAVE TO AP N ADVANCE TO A CENTRAL AGENCY IN BONN FOR LICENSES BEFORE SHIPPING ANY KIND OF GOODS TO CHINA.

PREVIOUSLY LICENSES WERE REQUIRED ONLY FOR CERTAIN KINDS OF STRATEGIC MATERIALS AND THE LICENSES WERE ISSUED BY A NUMBER OF PROVINCIAL AGENCIES, WHOSE INTERPRETATION OF THE CONTROLS WAS NOT ALWAYS CONSISTENT.

BONN,GERMANY,MAY 17-(AP)-WESTERN GERMANY WILL IMPOSE STRICT CONTROLS OVER TRADE WITH RED CHINA WITHIN THE NEXT 48 HOURS, A GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN SAID TODAY.
HIS ANNOUNCEMENT FOLLOWED TESTIMONY BEFORE A SENATE SUBCOMMITTEE IN WASHINGTON THAT STRATEGIC MATERIALS WORTH MILLIONS OF DOLLARS HAVE POURED FROM WESTERN GERMANY INTO RED CHINA SINCE THE START OF THE KOREAN WAR.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID A SYSTEM OF SPECIAL LICENSES FOR TRADE DEALS WITH CHINA WILL BE SET UP. IN THE FUTURE, HE ADDED, NO GOODS OF ANY KIND CAN BE SHIPPED LEGALLY TO CHINA WITHOUT A LICENSE. HE DECLARED THAT WHATEVER STRATEGIC MATERIALS HAVE REACHED CHINA FROM WEST GERMANY SINCE THE START OF THE KOREAN WAR COULD ONLY HAVE REACHED THERE ILLEGALLY.

IN WEST BERLIN, AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES SAID RED CHINA IS RECEIVING $60,000 WORTH OF MATERIAL MONTHLY FROM INDUSTRY IN THE WESTERN SECTOR OF THE CITY. MUCH COULD BE CONSIDERED USEFUL FOR WAR PURPOSES.

SOME OF THE FACTORIES SHIPPING THE GOODS ARE IN OPERATION ONLY BECAUSE THEY RECEIVED AID UNDER THE AMERICAN-FINANCED EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM.

SOME OFFICIALS ON THE U.S. HIGH COMMISSION HAVE THREATENED TO QUIT UNLESS THEY ARE GIVEN AUTHORITY TO EXERCISE TIGHTER CONTROLS ON WHAT THE GERMANS SHIP OUT OF WEST BERLIN. SINCE THE ALLIES REWROTE THE GERMAN OCCUPATION STATUTE, AMERICANS IN BERLIN ARE WITHOUT POWER TO EXERCISE ANY CONTROLS OVER INTERNATIONAL DEALS BY WEST BERLIN INDUSTRIES. EAST-WEST BARTER IS THE ONLY TRADE THAT COMES UNDER SCRUTINY.

SOMETIMES THE GOODS ARE SHIPPED TO WESTERN COUNTRIES SUCH AS BELGIUM OR HOLLAND, AND THEN TO HONG KONG BEFORE REACHING ANY DESTINATION IN CHINA. IN OTHER CASES SHIPS GO DIRECT FROM WESTERN EUROPEAN PORTS TO THE CHINESE MAINLAND. PAYMENT IS MADE IN BRITISH POUND STERLING OR SOMETIMES IN SWISS FRANCS, DEPOSITED IN EITHER LONDON OR ZURICH AS CREDIT FOR THE FIRM TO PURCHASE VITAL RAW MATERIALS.

BERLIN, MAY 17-(AP)-U.S. CLUBWOMEN TOURING EUROPE SAID TODAY GERMAN WOMEN ARE AGAINST REARMAMENT.

ELEVEN LEADERS OF VARIOUS ORGANIZATIONS TOLD CORRESPONDENTS THE GERMAN WOMEN WOULD BACK THE WEST "IN A REAL SHOWDOWN" BUT ARE OPPOSED TO THE IDEA OF A GERMAN ARMY.

THEY SAID IT WAS CLEAR TO THEM AFTER TWO WEEKS CONVERSATIONS THAT THE AVERAGE GERMAN MOTHER WOULD EVENTUALLY AGREE TO HER SON SERVING IN A "EUROPEAN ARMY" AS A BASTION AGAINST COMMUNISM BUT ONLY IN A CLEAR EMER

THE AVERAGE GERMAN MOTHER WOULD EVENTUALLY AGREE TO HER SON SERVING IN A "EUROPEAN ARMY" AS A BASTION AGAINST COMMUNISM BUT ONLY IN A CLEAR EMERGENCY.

THE GROUP, BROUGHT TO EUROPE UNDER U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT SPONSORSHIP TO STUDY WOMEN'S PROBLEMS, TOLD A PRESS CONFERENCE:

1--GERMAN WOMEN ARE "TOO WHIMPERY," MORE SO IN THE WEST THAN IN BERLIN.

2--THEY "LOOK BACKWARD" RATHER THAN FORWARD.

3--THERE ARE MORE THAN ORDINARY TRACES OF ANTI-SEMITISM.

NEVERTHELESS, GERMAN CLUB WOMEN HAVE "GROWN DEMOCRATICALLY" IN THE POSTWAR YEARS, THE AMERICANS COMMENTED.

MAY 18 1951

MANY DO NOT REALIZE THE CONTRIBUTION THE ERP PROGRAM AND OTHER FORMS OF AMERICAN OUTLAY HAS MADE TOWARD GERMAN RECOVERY.

"THAT'S PROBABLY OUR OWN FAULT," SAID MRS. WALTER ROSE, OF CONGERS N.Y., OF THE AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR. "WE DON'T SEEM TO BE ADVERTISING HERE WHAT WE ARE REALLY DOING."

MRS. JOSEPH WILLEN, OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTING THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF JEWISH WOMEN, OBSERVED:

"THEY STILL HAVE NO CONCEPT WHAT WAS DONE TO THE JEWISH PEOPLE AND EXCEPT FOR A FEW NOBLE EXAMPLES DO NOT CARE WHAT HAPPENS TO THOSE WHO SURVIVED IT AND ARE LIVING HERE STILL."

DR. DOROTHY B. FEREBEE, WASHINGTON D.C., PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF NEGRO WOMEN, SAID MANY GERMANS COMPLAINED TO THEM ABOUT THE CHILD ILLEGITIMACY PROBLEM ARISING FROM THE OCCUPATION, ESPECIALLY CONCERNING NEGRO TROOPS.

OTHER MEMBERS SUGGESTED AMERICANS SERVING WITH THE OCCUPATION FORCES ARE ALLOWED SOMETIMES TO REMAIN IN EUROPE "TOO LONG."

THEY SHOULD BE ROTATED AT LEAST EVERY TWO YEARS, THEY ADDED.

BELGRADE, YUGOSLAVIA, MAY 17-(AP)-YUGOSLAVIA, AT BITTER ODDS WITH THE RUSSIAN-LED COMINFORM, HINTED STRONGLY TODAY THAT SHE "MAY UNDERTAKE MEASURES TO PROTECT HER INTERESTS" AGAINST SOVIET DOMINATION OF THE DANUBE. THE RIVER IS EUROPE'S MOST IMPORTANT INLAND WATERWAY.

THE NEWSPAPER BORBA, VOICE OF PREMIER MARSHAL TITO'S GOVERNMENT, ISSUED THE WARNING IN AN ARTICLE FIVE DAYS IN ADVANCE OF A SESSION AT GALATZ, RUMANIA, OF THE DANUBE COMMISSION. THAT BODY CONTROLS TRAFFIC ON THE DANUBE UNDER THE DIRECTION OF RUSSIA AND HER PUPPET STATES.

AS A MEMBER OF THE COMMISSION, BUT HELPLESS TO INFLUENCE ITS DECISIONS AGAINST THE OTHERWISE UNANIMOUS VOTES OF THE COMINFORM MEMBERS, YUGOSLAVIA FINDS HERSELF IN AN AWKWARD POSITION NOW, IN COMPARISON WITH THE STAND SHE TOOK AT THE 1948 DANUBE CONFERENCE.

THEN, ALTHOUGH THE COMINFORM ALREADY HAD DENOUNCED TITO'S GOVERNMENT ON CHARGES OF PURSUING "NATIONALISTIC" POLICIES, YUGOSLAVIA SUPPORTED A SOVIET DEMAND THAT CONTROL OF THE DANUBE BE PLACED IN CONTROL OF EASTERN EUROPE'S COMMUNIST STATES.

IN AN OUTNUMBERED PROTEST, THE WESTERN POWERS--BRITAIN, FRANCE AND THE UNITED STATES--REFUSED TO SIGN THE NEW CONVENTION FOR NAVIGATION OF THE RIVER. SINCE THEN YUGOSLAVIA HAS HAD CAUSE TO REGRET TERMS OF THE PACT.

IN HINTING SHE MIGHT TAKE RETALIATORY ACTION, YUGOSLAVIA HAS A POWERFUL WEAPON. THE GREATEST EXTENT OF THE DANUBE FLOWS THROUGH HER TERRITORY. IF SHE DECIDES TO CLOSE HER PART OF THE RIVER, IT WOULD DISRUPT DANUBE NAVIGATION ALMOST COMPLETELY.

DAMASCUS, SYRIA, MAY 17-(AP)-IRAQI TROOPS, FIGHTER PLANES, ANTI-AIRCRAFT GUNS AND OTHER WEAPONS MOVED INTO SYRIA TODAY TO HELP THIS COUNTRY IN CASE OF FURTHER MILITARY TROUBLE WITH ISRAEL.
A COMMUNIQUE SAID SYRIA HAD ASKED ON MAY 6 THAT BOTH IRAQ AND EGYPT WORK OUT AN EXCHANGE OF AIR FORCE PERSONNEL WITH THIS COUNTRY IN A PLAN FOR DEFENDING ARAB CITIES AGAINST ENEMY AIR RAIDS. A FRONTIER BATTLE WAS RAGING AT THAT TIME IN THE DEMILITARIZED ZONE OF PALESTINE NORTH OF THE SEA OF GALILEE. IT HAS SINCE BEEN HALTED BY A CEASE-FIRE ORDER.
OFFICIAL CIRCLES SAY THEY EXPECT EGYPT AND POSSIBLY OTHER ARAB COUNTRIES WILL FOLLOW IRAQ'S EXAMPLE BY SUPPORTING SYRIA WITH ARMS AND PLANES.
(REPORTS IN TEL AVIV SAID THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT WAS CONSIDERING "PARTIAL MOBILIZATION" OF ITS ARMED FORCES AS A RESULT OF THE MOVEMENT OF IRAQI UNITS INTO SYRIA. A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID "IF IRAQI PLANES OR ANY OTHER IRAQI WEAPONS OR UNITS SHOULD ATTACK ISRAEL SOIL, ISRAEL WILL REGARD THIS AS AN IRAQI ATTACK AND FEEL ENTITLED TO TAKE APPROPRIATE ACTION.")
THE UNITED NATIONS ORDERED THE CEASE FIRE IN THE LATEST CLASH BETWEEN SYRIA AND ISRAEL, WHICH AROSE OVER ISRAEL'S EXECUTION OF LAND RECLAMATION PROJECTS IN THE DEMILITARIZED ZONE. THE DISPUTE IS NOW UNDER DISCUSSION IN THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL.
SYRIA HAS CHARGED THAT ISRAELI TROOPS HAVE FIRED INTO HER TERRITORY AND THAT ISRAELI PLANES HAVE ATTACKED HSR.

tel aviv, israel, may 17-(ap)-israel's government is contemplating the "patrial mobilization" of the country's armed forces, it was [illegible] learned today.

this development is the result of the moving of iraq airforce and artillery units into syria and the possibility that egypt and other arab league nations will send military forces to syria.

a foreign office spokesman said, "if iraqi planes or any other iraqi weapons or units should attack israel soil, israel will regard this as an iraqi attack and feel entitled to take appropriate action."

foreign minister moshe sharett said in a statement to the press that recent development "compel a state of high alertness for israel."

he criticized not only iraq's "threatening" but added also that syria was guilty of "another flagrant violation of the armistice agreement" in permitting iraqi forces to enter its territory he recalled that iraq never had made an armistice agreemen with israel and said her "refusal to enter armistice negotiations a establish prima facie case of evil intent on the part of iraq.

"the new alignment of the arab league forms a sinister background for the security council's draft resolution," he declared.

"the appeasement of aggression never has been a shortcut to peace."

(the draft resolution presented yesterday by the united states, britain, france and turkey, calls upon israel to halt her drainage projects in the border area [illegible] where the conflict with syria arose. it [illegible] rebukes israel for aerial and other attacks on syrians. the resolution is to be voted on friday.)

HAIFA, ISRAEL, MAY 17-(AP)-ISRAELIS CONTINUED TODAY TO WORK ON THEIR HULEH SWAMP DRAINAGE PROJECT NEAR THE SYRIAN BORDER, DESPITE A FOUR-NATION DEMAND IN THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL THAT THE WORK BE HALTED AS A THREAT TO MIDDLE EAST PEACE.

BULLDOZERS AND TRACTORS WERE ON THE JOB NEAR THE RIVER JORDAN BOUNDARY AREA WHERE SHARP BATTLES HAVE FLARED BETWEEN THE ISRAELIS AND SYRIANS RECENTLY. ISRAEL IS ATTEMPTING TO RECLAIM THE HULEH SWAMP AREA FOR AGRICULTURAL DEVELOPMENT.

IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL YESTERDAY, THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, FRANCE AND TURKEY PRESENTED A RESOLUTION DEMANDING AN END TO THE PROJECT AND STRESSING ISRAELI BLAME IN THE RECENT FIGHTING IN THE DEMILITARIZED ZONE IN THE LAKE HULEH AREA.

IT WAS LEARNED HERE THAT ISRAEL HAS INVITED AN AMERICAN SOIL CONSERVATION EXPERT, PROF.W.C.LOWDERMILK, AND TWO ASSISTANTS TO ADVISE THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT ON DEVELOPMENT PLANS FOR NORTHERN ISRAEL, WHERE THE HULEH DRAINAGE IS THE MAIN PROJECT.

SOIL CONSERVATION IN THE GALILEAN HILLS AND OTHER AGRICULTURAL PROBLEMS ARE TO BE DEALT WITH ENERGETICALLY SO THAT THE AREA WILL BECOME A BREADBASKET FOR ISRAEL, WHICH NOW LIVES LARGELY ON IMPORTS, AUTHORITIES SAID.

HAIFA, MAY 17-(AP)-THIS CITY MAY BECOME AGAIN THE FOREMOST OIL CENTER IN THE MIDDLE EAST FOLLOWING THE LATEST DEVELOPMENTS IN IRAN AND OTHER MIDDLE EAST OIL-PRODUCING COUNTRIES, ACCORDING TO OIL SOURCES HERE.
M.D.STEEL, A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL CO. HAS JUST ARRIVED HERE AND PRESENTLY IS DISCUSSING OIL MATTERS WITH THE ISRAEL MINISTRY'S FUEL ADVISER, I. KOSLOFF IN JERUSALEM.
THE FOREMOST POINT IN THE DISCUSSION IS OPERATION OF THE HAIFA REFINERIES IN WHICH ANGLO-IRANIAN IS AN IMPORTANT SHAREHOLDER. THESE REFINERIES, ONCE THE ONE MAIN IMPORTANT OIL PRODUCER IN THE MIDDLE EAST, NOW ARE NEARLY IDLE. THEY ARE WORKING AT LESS THAN ONE THIRD OF CAPACITY TO MEET LOCAL DEMANDS ALONE.
CRUDE OIL PRESENTLY IS SUPPLIED TO THE REFINERIES BY DISTRIBUTING FIRMS HERE OF THE SHELL AND SOCONY-VACUUM COMPANIES MAINLY. DEVELOPMENTS, HOWEVER, LEAD TO THE CONCLUSION THAT THE REFINERIES MAY EXPAND THEIR PRESENT OUTPUT TO EXPORT AGAIN TO EUROPEAN MARKETS. EMPLOYES ARE BEING ADDED STEADILY.
THE MAIN PROBLEM REMAINS THE SHIPPING OF CRUDE OIL TO THE REFINERIES AS THE IRAQ PETROLEUM LINE TO HAIFA NOW IS CLOSED AND TANKERS CARRYING CRUDE OIL THROUGH THE SUEZ CANAL TO HAIFA HAVE RUN INTO EGYPTIAN DIFFICULTIES. OIL CIRCLES THINK THAT DRASTIC MEASURES WILL HAVE TO BE USED BY THE BRITISH TO OVERCOME THESE DIFFICULTIES IN VIEW OF THE SERIOUS SITUATION IN IRAN.
ANOTHER ASPECT OF THE PRESENT TALKS IN JERUSALEM IS CONCESSIONS OF ANGLO-IRANIAN IN ISRAEL, ANGLO-IRANIAN IS KEEN ON OBTAINING EXPLORATION RIGHTS HERE.

TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 17-(AP)-IRAN'S OUTLAWED COMMUNIST TUDEH PARTY CAME OUT TODAY WITH A NEW DEMAND FOR "RETURN" OF THE BAHREIN ISLANDS, ACROSS THE PERSIAN GULF, TO IRAN AND NATIONALIZATION OF AMERICAN OIL INTERESTS ON THOSE ISLANDS.
THE DEMAND WAS MADE BY THE NEWLY FORMED "NATIONAL ORGANIZATION TO FIGHT IMPERIALISTIC OIL COMPANIES IN IRAN"--A FRONT FOR THE UNDERGROUND TUDEH.
(THE BAHREIN ISLANDS, CHIEF OF WHICH IS BAHREIN, LIE 20 MILES OFF SAUDI ARABIA, ALL THE WAY ACROSS THE PERSIAN GULF FROM IRAN. THEIR CONNECTION WITH IRAN IS ANCIENT AND SOMEWHAT INDIRECT. THEY WERE TAKEN OVER BY ARAB SUBJECTS OF PERSIA (IRAN OF TODAY) IN 1602. THESE ARAB-PERSIANS WERE DRIVEN OUT IN 1783 BY OTHER ARABS FROM THE MAINLAND, WHO STILL HOLD POSSESSION.
BAHREIN OIL IS EXPORTED BY THE BAHREIN PETROLEUM CO., A BRITISH CORPORATION REGISTERED IN CANADA AND OWNED JOINTLY BY THE STANDARD OIL CO. OF CALIFORNIA AND THE TEXAS CO. ROYALTIES ARE PAID TO THE RULING NATIVE SHEIKH.)
CHEERING DELEGATES TO THE "NATIONAL ORGANIZATION" ATTENDED A FIVE-HOUR RALLY TODAY AT WHICH THE DEMAND FOR CONTROL OF THE BAHREINS WAS MADE.
NOW THAT THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL CO. HAS BEEN NATIONALIZED, IT IS APPARENT THE COMMUNISTS ARE PLANNING A DRIVE FOR THE BAHREIN ISLANDS.
AT THE SAME TIME, PRESSURE HERE FOR A QUICK FOLLOW THROUGH OF THE NATIONALIZATION OF ANGLO-IRANIAN AS AUTHORIZED BY PARLIAMENT WAS STEPPED UP. THIS ATTITUDE INCREASED AS THE PRESS SPREAD REPORTS THAT BRITAIN IS PLANNING TO PARACHUTE TROOPS INTO IRAN TO HOLD THE ANGLO-IRANIAN FIELDS. THESE REPORTS HAVE NOT BEEN CONFIRMED BY BRITAIN. INSTEAD, LONDON HAS MADE A NEW DIPLOMATIC BID TO SAVE THE OIL CONCESSION.

TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 17-(AP)-A NATIONAL FRONT DEPUTY TOLD THE MAJLIS (PARLIAMENT) TODAY THAT BRITISH PRESSURE ON IRAN WILL CAUSE WORLD WAR III.
THE DEPUTY, ABOLHASSAN HAERIZADEH, A MEMBER OF PREMIER F.MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH'S NATIONALIST PARTY, REFERRED TO REPORTS PRINTED IN TEHRAN'S NEWSPAPERS OF THE POSSIBILITY OF BRITISH PARACHUTE TROOPS BEING SENT TO IRAN TO BLOCK THE NATIONALIZATION OF THE BRITISH-CONTROLLED ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY.

(THE BRITISH HAVE NOT SAID WHERE PARACHUTE TROOPS, PLACED ON ALERT EARLY THIS WEEK, MIGHT BE SENT.)

"THESE THREATS DO NOT FRIGHTEN US AT ALL," THE DEPUTY SAID. "WE ARE NOT GOING TO YIELD TO THE COMPANY'S PRESSURE. ANY PRESSURE ON THIS COUNTRY WILL CAUSE A THIRD WORLD WAR. IRAN SHOULD BE FREE, INDEPENDENT AND PROSPEROUS X X X OR IT WILL BE A PATHWAY FOR RED FORCES TO ALL OTHER PARTS OF THE WORLD."

PREMIER MOSSADEGH STRENGTHENED HIS HOLD ON IRAN'S SECURITY FORCES BY DEMANDING AND GETTING THE RESIGNATION OF GEN.MOHAMMED HEJAZI, APPOINTED TEHRAN POLICE CHIEF AND MILITARY GOVERNOR FOR THE BRIEF RECENT PERIOD OF MARTIAL LAW AFTER THE ASSASSINATION OF PREMIER ALI RAZMARA. A NEW CHIEF HAS NOT YET BEEN APPOINTED. HEJAZI CONTINUES AS HEAD OF THE ARMY'S MILITARY SCHOOL, A POST HE HAS HELD SEVERAL YEARS.

PRESSURE FOR NATIONALIZATION OF THE GIANT ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY WAS STEPPED UP WITH SCAREHEAD TREATMENT IN THE PRESS OF THE BRITISH PARACHUTE TROOPS REPORTS.

MAY 18 1951

PUBLIC FEELING ALSO WAS AROUSED BY YESTERDAY'S ARREST OF ABOLGHASSEM RAFIEE, NO. 2 MAN IN THE FANATICAL FEDAYAN ISLAM RELIGIOUS SOCIETY ON CHARGES OF PLOTTING THE ASSASSINATION OF PREMIER MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH.

FEDAYAN ISLAM RECENTLY FELL OUT WITH MOSSADEGH, APPARENTLY FEELING HE WAS NOT MOVING FAST ENOUGH TOWARD NATIONALISTIC GOALS.

POLICE QUOTED RAFIEE AS SAYING "MOSSADEGH IS LUCKY I AM CAUGHT. OTHERWISE HE WOULD HAVE BEEN SHOT WITHIN THE NEXT TWO OR THREE DAYS."

(U.S. SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON SAID WASHINGTON IS URGING BOTH IRAN AND BRITAIN TO AVOID EXTREME STEPS IN THE OIL CRISIS. HE SAID THE TWO NATIONS HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO WORK OUT A HARMONIOUS SETTLEMENT.)

MEANWHILE, MOSSADEGH, WHO HAS REMAINED BARRICADED IN THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING SINCE SUNDAY, ORDERED ALL THE WINDOWS OF HIS LOCKED ROOMS BOARDED UP ON THE OFF CHANCE THAT A SNIPER MIGHT PICK HIM OFF FROM THE SEPH SALAR MOSQUE, 200 YARDS DISTANT.

MANY DEPUTIES AND NEWSPAPERS ARE GROWING A LITTLE WEARY OF MOSSADEGH'S JITTERS, SINCE HIS SELF-IMPOSED IMPRISONMENT PERMITS HIM TO DO LITTLE WORK.

WESTERN OBSERVERS BELIEVE MOSSADEGH HAS INSPIRED LATEST ANTI-BRITISH OUTBURSTS IN THE PRESS TO FORCE THROUGH HIS NATIONALIZATION PROGRAM BY PUBLIC PRESSURE.

ONE OF THE PREMIER'S CLOSEST SUPPORTERS, MOSAFFAR BAGHAIE, EDITOR OF THE NEWSPAPER SHAHED, WROTE YESTERDAY:

"TO REACH THIS HOLY GOAL (OIL NATIONALIZATION) IRAN WILL FIGHT A HOLY WAR IF NECESSARY. IF OIL NATIONALIZATION IS OBSTRUCTED BY THE BAD POLICY OF BRITISH POLITICIANS WHO REFUSE TO FACE THE FACTS, THE DAY WILL COME WHEN NOT A SINGLE BRITISHER WILL DARE STAY IN THIS COUNTRY. THE IRANIAN MOSLEM NATION WILL DEAL WITH EVERY BRITISH INDIVIDUAL AS AN INFIDEL."

(KING ABDULLAH OF JORDAN, ON A STATE VISIT TO ANKARA, TOLD NEWSMEN THERE IRAN NEEDS "A MORE COURAGEOUS GOVERNMENT" TO PROTECT HER NATIONAL INTERESTS IN THE FACE OF POPULAR SENTIMENT.

("THIS SITUATION, HE SAID, "MIGHT ENDANGER THE SECURITY OF THE WHOLE MIDDLE EAST. IRAN, IN PUTTING FORTH HER CLAIMS AGAINST THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY, SHOULD KEEP IN MIND THE ACTUAL WORLD SITUATION AND NOT GO TOO FAR. THE BRITISH HAVE, IN THIS QUESTION, ACTED FOR THE INTERESTS OF THE IRANIAN PEOPLE AND HAVE SHOWN EXTREME PATIENCE.").

SOEBARDJO'S ORAL STATEMENT TO AN INDONESIAN CORRESPONDENT MAY 7 THAT INDONESIA WOULD "SELL TO THE DEVIL" IF IT HELPED HIS COUNTRY PROVOKED WIDESPREAD PROTESTS IN THE WESTERN WORLD.

IT WAS RELIABLY LEARNED TODAY THAT THE FOREIGN MINISTER TOLD U.S. AMBASSADOR H. MERLE COCHRAN YESTERDAY THAT INDONESIA WOULD SUBMIT TO THE EMBARGO ON SHIPMENTS OF ARMS AND STRATEGIC MATERIALS FOR THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS WHICH THE U.N. GENERAL ASSEMBLY IS EXPECTED TO VOTE AT LEAST BY NEXT WEEK.

SOEBARDJO REPORTEDLY TOLD COCHRAN, HOWEVER, THAT IN CASE OF SUCH ACTION INDONESIA WOULD DEMAND THAT THE WEST GIVE PROMPT ATTENTION TO HER WORSENED ECONOMIC SITUATION WHICH HE SAID WOULD RESULT FROM STOPPAGE OF RUBBER SHIPMENTS TO RED CHINA.

THE INDONESIAN MINISTER REITERATED BOTH THESE VIEWPOINTS IN HIS INTERVIEW TODAY.

THE PEIPING GOVERNMENT AND INDONESIA HAVE BEEN NEGOTIATING FOR A TRADE AGREEMENT BUT SO FAR NONE HAS BEEN CONCLUDED. MUCH OF INDONESIA'S RUBBER, HOWEVER, GOES TO SINGAPORE AND MALAYA, WHICH HAVE BEEN THE CHIEF SOURCES OF RUBBER SUPPLY FOR THE CHINESE REDS. BRITAIN HAS ORDERED THIS TRADE FROM HER MALAYAN COLONY STOPPED AND THE MALAYAN GOVERNMENT IS EXPECTED TO RATIFY THE BAN SHORTLY.

URGING THAT THE WEST PAY MORE ATTENTION TO THE NEEDS OF HIS COUNTRY, SOEBARDJO SAID TODAY THAT THE WELFARE OF THE INDONESIAN PEOPLE COULD NOT BE SACRIFICED TO THE WESTERN WORLD'S POLICY. WESTERN EUROPE, HE POINTED OUT, IS RECEIVING SUBSTANTIALLY MORE AID FROM THE UNITED STATES THAN ASIAN COUNTRIES, THOUGH NEEDS OF THE LATTER ARE FAR GREATER.

RANGOON, BURMA, MAY 17-(AP)-THE BURMESE GOVERNMENT TODAY ANNOUNCED THAT ARMED CHINESE NATIONALIST SOLDIERS HAD REGROUPED IN THE EASTERN SHAN MOUNTAINS READY TO JOIN OTHER NATIONALIST TROOPS WHO ENTERED BURMESE TERRITORY FURTHER NORTH.

THE GOVERNMENT CONFIRMED WASHINGTON REPORTS THAT IT HAD APPEALED TO THE U.S. GOVERNMENT FOR DIPLOMATIC HELP IN REMOVING ARMED CHINESE NATIONALISTS FROM WITHIN BURMA.

KUOMINTANG (NATIONALIST) DESERTERS FROM YUNNAN ORIGINALLY ENTERED BURMA LAST YEAR AND ENCAMPED IN THE EASTERN SHAN STATE OF KENGTUNG.

BURMESE TROOPS MET THE CHINESE IN A SERIES OF ENGAGEMENTS, CLAIMING THEY HAD CAPTURED A LARGE NUMBER AND PUT THE REST TO FLIGHT.

THE GOVERNMENT NOW SAYS THOSE CHINESE WHO ESCAPED TOOK REFUGE IN THE MOUNTAINS FORMING THAILAND-BURMA BORDER.

THE GOVERNMENT SAID IT HAD "RELIABLE INFORMATION" THESE CHINESE TROOPS WERE IN ADJACENT THAI TERRITORY TO COLLECT ARMS AND EQUIPMENT PREPARATORY TO JOINING OTHER NATIONALIST SOLDIERS WHO HAVE ENTERED BURMA

IT SAID THE CHINESE ARE POISED TO STRIKE NORTHWARD TOWARDS THE YUNAN BORDER, WHERE OTHER DESERTERS WERE REPORTED PENETRATING BURMESE TERRITORY.

THIS IS THE FIRST OFFICIAL WORD FROM THE IMPORTANT TALKS WHICH CENTE AROUND JOINT PLANS FOR THE MILITARY DEFENSE OF SOUTHEAST ASIA IN THE EVENT OF A COMMUNIST CHINESE ATTACK.

DE LATTRE, COMMANDER IN CHIEF AND HIGH COMMISSIONER IN INDOCHINA, ASSERTED "THE CONFERENCE IS MAKING EXCELLENT PROGRESS IN A SPIRIT OF CORDIAL AGREEMENT." HE ASSERTED THE REPORT THAT HE HAD CANCELLED A PLANNED TRIP TO KUALA LUMPUR, MALAYA, BECAUSE OF DIFFERENCES AMONG THE CONFEREES "WAS UNAUTHORIZED AND COMPLETELY WITHOUT FOUNDATION."

HIS STATEMENT SAID HIS TRIP WAS CANCELLED BECAUSE "HE FELT IT HIS DUTY TO BE AVAILABLE TO HIS STAFF WITH WHOM HE ALWAYS WORKS CLOSELY FOR THE IMPORTANT TASK OF PREPARING THE CONFERENCE REPORT."

THE TRI-POWER TOP SECRET TALKS ORIGINALLY WERE SCHEDULED TO LAST ONLY TWO DAYS. HOWEVER, THEY HAVE BEEN PROLONGED THROUGH TODAY AND PROBABLY WILL WIND UP TOMORROW.

THE REPORT OF DE LATTRE'S DIFFERENCES APPEARED IN THE INFLUENTIAL, BRITISH-OWNED NEWSPAPER STRAITS TIMES WHICH SAID THE FRENCH GENERAL FEL THE BRITISH AND AMERICANS DO NOT APPRECIATE THE IMPORTANCE OF A FRONT AGAINST COMMUNIST IN INDOCHINA.

THE PAPER SAID DE LATTRE ALSO FELT AUSTRALIAN AND NEW ZEALAND OBSERVERS SHOULD NOT BE PERMITTED TO ATTEND IN THE ABSENCE OF VIET NAM OBSERVERS. IT ADDED THAT THE GENERAL CONSIDERS VIET NAM AS IMPORTANT TO THE FRENCH UNION AS AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND ARE TO THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH.

THERE WAS NO SOURCE GIVEN FOR THESE STATEMENTS. IT WAS APPARENT, HOWEVER, THAT THE TALKS REQUIRED LONGER THAN ANTICIPATED, AND IT WAS CONSIDERED HARDLY LIKELY THAT DISCUSSIONS OVER MILITARY PLANS FOR DEFENSE OF THE VITAL SOUTHEAST ASIAN AREA COULD CONTINUE WITHOUT THE THREE DIFFERENT NATIONS HAVING SOME DIFFERENCES.

BY DON WHITEHEAD

WASHINGTON, MAY 17-(AP)-SENATE INVESTIGATORS DECIDED 18 TO 8 TODAY THAT THEY CANNOT COMPEL GEN. OMAR N. BRADLEY TO REVEAL WHAT WAS SAID BETWEEN PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND HIS ADVISERS AT A MEETING WHICH LED TO THE OUSTER OF GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR.

BY THIS ACTION, THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES UPHELD THEIR PRESIDING OFFICER, SENATOR RUSSELL (D-GA), WHO RULED THAT BRADLEY WAS WITHIN HIS RIGHTS IN REFUSING TO DISCLOSE THE CONVERSATION. BRADLEY HAD DECLARED THAT HIS VALUE AS A CONFIDENTIAL ADVISER TO THE PRESIDENT WOULD BE RUINED IF HE TALKED.

THE VOTE KICKED UP A NEW CONTROVERSY IN THE TRUMAN-MACARTHUR DISPUTE WITH SOME CHARGES--AND DENIALS--THAT THE INQUIRY INTO MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL HAS TAKEN ON "POLITICAL OVERTONES."

IN THE MIDST OF THESE ARGUMENTS, PRESIDENT TRUMAN HIMSELF SPOKE OUT AT A NEWS CONFERENCE AND GAVE A GLIMPSE INTO WHAT WENT ON AT THE WHITE HOUSE MEETING ON APRIL 6--FIVE DAYS BEFORE MACARTHUR WAS FIRED.

HE SAID HE HAD BEEN THINKING OF FIRING MACARTHUR OFF AND ON FOR THE PAST YEAR--BUT HADN'T MADE A DECISION UNTIL THE GENEAL OFFERED ON MARCH 24 TO TALK PEACE TERMS WITH THE RED COMMANDER IN KOREA. THE PRESIDENT REFERRED TO THIS OFFER AS AN ULTIMATUM. ADMINISTRATION MEN HAVE TAKEN THE VIEW IT THREW A MONKEY WRENCH INTO A SETTLEMENT ATTEMPT MR.TRUMAN HIMSELF WAS PLANNING AT THE TIME.

IN THE NOW-FAMOUS MEETING, MR.TRUMAN SAID SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON URGED CAUTION ON THE GROUNDS THE OUSTER WOULD KICK UP A POLITICAL FUSS. BUT HE ADDED THAT AFTER HEARING ALL THE ARGUMENTS, ACHESON AGREED WITH THE OTHERS THAT MACARTHUR HAD TO GO.

SOME REPUBLICANS HAVE SAID THAT ACHESON URGED THE DISMISSAL OF MACARTHUR.

MR.TRUMAN SAID THE SENATE INQUIRY GROUP DID EXACTLY RIGHT IN UPHOLDING BRADLEY'S REFUSAL TO TALK ABOUT THE MEETING. HE ADDED THE DECISIONS AND ACTIONS TAKEN WERE HIS OWN AND HIS CONVERSATIONS WITH HIS ADVISERS AND STAFF WERE HIS OWN BUSINESS.

MAY 18 1951

EARLIER, THE PRESIDENT STRUCK OUT AT THOSE HE SAID WOULD HAVE THIS COUNTRY "GO FOR AN ALL-OUT WAR IN CHINA ALL BY OURSELVES."

THE PRESIDENT SAID IN A SPEECH BEFORE THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON CITIZENSHIP: "SOME SENATORS AND SOME OTHER PEOPLE WOULD HAVE US GO IT ALONE."

WITH THIS AND OTHER REMARKS THERE WAS NO DOUBT HE WAS REFERRING TO SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO) AND GENERAL MACARTHUR.

IN NEW YORK GEN. MACARTHUR DECLINED TO COMMENT ON MR. TRUMAN'S SPEECH.

~~THE DISPUTE X X X 12TH GRAF.~~

K~~OR~~

THE DISPUTE OVER THE BRADLEY TESTIMONY BEGAN TWO DAYS AGO WHEN THE FIVE-STARRED CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF REFUSED TO TELL WHAT WAS SAID AT A WHITE HOUSE MEETING APRIL 6. THE MEETING WAS ATTENDED BY THE PRESIDENT, BRADLEY, SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON, SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL AND PRESIDENTIAL ADVISER W.AVERELL HARRIMAN.

SINCE BRADLEY'S REFUSAL, THE INQUIRY INTO U.S. FAR EAST POLICY AND THE MACARTHUR DISMISSAL HAS BEEN STALLED WHILE SENATORS ARGUED THE PROS AND CONS OF BRADLEY'S POSITION.

THOSE SUPPORTING BRADLEY, FOR THE MOST PART, CONTENDED THAT THE CONSTITUTIONAL DIVISION OF POWERS BETWEEN THE EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT AND CONGRESS DENIED TO CONGRESS THE RIGHT TO SEEK "CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION" FROM THE PRESIDENT.

SENATOR WILEY (R-WIS) INSISTED THE PUBLIC HAS A RIGHT TO KNOW WHAT WAS SAID AT THE WHITE HOUSE MEETING WHICH HE SAID WAS "TO GET MACARTHUR" AND TO "LAY A BASIS FOR HIS REMOVAL."

SENATOR RUSSELL (D-GA), CHAIRMAN OF THE INQUIRY GROUP, TOLD REPORTERS HE HOPES THE HEATED ARGUMENTS WILL NOT AFFECT THE COURSE OF THE HEARING.

"THE DEBATE BORDERED ON THE ACRIMONIOUS AT TIMES," HE SAID, "BUT I HOPE WE'VE GOT IT OUT OF OUR SYSTEMS."

AFTER THE VOTE, RUSSELL TOLD HIS COLLEAGUES THE PENTAGON HAS SUPPLIED ALL BUT A FEW OF THE DOCUMENTS REQUESTED IN THE INQUIRY BUT HE ADDED:

"SOME HAVE NOT, AND IN ONE OR TWO IMPORTANT INSTANCES NO REASON HAS YET BEEN ASSIGNED AS TO WHY THE MATTER REQUESTED HAS NOT BEEN SUBMITTED."

RUSSELL SAID HE HAD TOLD MILITARY AUTHORITIES THAT THE COMMITTEES MUST HAVE ALL THE DOCUMENTS RELATING TO MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL."

A26WX

HE DECLARED IF THE DOCUMENTS WERE SO HIGHLY SECRET THEY WERE "FOR EYES ONLY" THEN THEY SHOULD BE SENT TO THE CAPITOL UNDER GUARD TO BE EXAMINED ONLY BY A SUBCOMMITTEE COMPOSED OF SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) AND SENATOR MCMAHON (D-CONN). THEN THE TWO SENATORS WOULD READ THE SECRET MATERIAL AND REPORT TO THE COMMITTEES.

RUSSELL HAD PLANNED TO CALL ADMIRAL FORREST SHERMAN, NAVY CHIEF OF STAFF, AS A WITNESS TOMORROW. BUT HE DECIDED TO CALL OFF ALL FURTHER HEARINGS UNTIL MONDAY WHEN BRADLEY IS DUE TO RESUME HIS TESTIMONY.

IN THE 18 TO 8 VOTE, BRADLEY GOT THE SUPPORT OF SIX REPUBLICANS WHO VOTED WITH 12 DEMOCRATS. THE POLL WAS TAKEN ON THE ISSUE OF WHETHER THE COMMITTEES WOULD UPHOLD OR REJECT THE RULING BY CHAIRMAN RUSSELL.

RUSSELL SAID THE VOTING WENT THIS WAY:

TO UPHOLD--RUSSELL, CONNALLY (D-TEX), GEORGE (D-GA), GREEN (D-RI), MCMAHON (D-CONN), SPARKMAN (D-ALA), BYRD (D-VA), JOHNSON (D-TEX), KEFAUVER (D-TENN), HUNT (D-WYO), STENNIS (D-MISS), LONG (D-LA).

SMITH (R-NJ), LODGE (R-MASS), TOBEY (R-NH), SALTONSTALL (R-MASS), MORSE (R-ORE), AND FLANDERS (R-VT).

TO REJECT--WILEY (R-WIS), HICKENLOOPER (R-IA), BREWSTER (R-ME), BRIDGES (R-NH), KNOWLAND (R-CALIF), CAIN (R-WASH), FULBRIGHT (D-ARK), AND GILLETTE (D-IA).

FIVE SENATORS WERE NOT PRESENT BUT VOTED BY PROXY. THEY WERE GREEN, SPARKMAN, KEFAUVER, TOBEY AND CAIN.

FULBRIGHT VOTED WITH THE REPUBLICANS BUT HE EXPLAINED HE DID THIS ONLY IN AN EFFORT TO PUSH THE QUESTION INTO THE COURTS SO THE REPUBLICANS COULD NOT CLAIM A "WHITEWASH."

WILEY HAD DENIED THERE WAS ANY POLITICAL OVERTONES TO THE ARGUMENT OVER THE BRADLEY REFUSAL. BUT FULBRIDGE SAID: "IN FACT, I THINK IT HAS STRONG POLITICAL OVERTONES. I THINK ONE OF THE PR

WILEY HAD DENIED THERE WAS ANY POLITICAL OVERTONES TO THE ARGUMENT OVER THE BRADLEY REFUSAL. BUT FULBRIDGE SAID: "IN FACT, I THINK IT HAS STRONG POLITICAL OVERTONES. I THINK ONE OF THE PRINCIPAL RESULTS TO BE EXPECTED IS POLITICAL IN NATURE.

"IF WE REFUSE AT THIS TIME THE REPUBLICANS' DEMAND FOR INFORMATION--THIS INFORMATION OR ANY OTHER INFORMATION--I AM QUITE SURE THEY WILL RAISE THE ISSUE OF A WHITEWASH."

A27WX

MAY 18 1951

SENATOR SMITH EXPLAINED THAT HE VOTED WITH RUSSELL BECAUSE HE FELT THE CHAIRMAN "IS ENDEAVORING TO CONDUCT THESE HEARINGS ON THE HIGHEST POSSIBLE PLANE OF FAIRNESS, WITHOUT PARTISANSHIP, AND WITH AN EARNEST DESIRE TO GET ALL THE FACTS."

WILEY TOLD REPORTERS HE WILL NOT APPEAL THE COMMITTEE VOTE TO THE SENATE BUT HE SAID THE AMERICAN PEOPLE "WILL BE DEEPLY DISAPPOINTED THAT HIGH INDIVIDUALS DO NOT FEEL THAT THE AMERICAN PEOPLE ARE ENTITLED TO THE FACTS ON HOW THE REMOVAL OF MACARTHUR WAS BROUGHT ABOUT."

AND WILEY PREDICTED THERE WILL BE "PLENTY OF ARGUMENT IN THE SENATE ABOUT THIS."

SMITH SAID HE DID NOT FEEL THAT BRADLEY WAS INVOLVED IN ANY ATTEMPT TO CONCEAL FACTS TO WHICH CONGRESS IS ENTITLED.

"I BELIEVE," HE SAID, "WE CAN GET THE ESSENTIAL FACTS FROM OTHER WITNESSES AND MANY ESSENTIAL FACTS FROM BRADLEY HIMSELF."

BRADLEY HAS OFFERED TO TELL SENATORS WHAT WENT ON IN DISCUSSIONS BETWEEN THE JOINT CHIEFS AND THE CONCLUSIONS WHICH WERE REACHED AT THE WHITE HOUSE MEETING FIVE DAYS BEFORE MACARTHUR'S OUSTER.

BUT HE SAID HE DID NOT FEEL HE SHOULD DISCLOSE THE ACTUAL CONVERSATIONS HELD WITH MR.TRUMAN.

A REPORTER ASKED RUSSELL IF THE VOTE WOULD SET A PRECEDENT FOR FUTURE WITNESSES. THE SENATOR REPLIED HE DIDN'T KNOW, ADDING THAT SOME RULINGS IN THE PAST, REGARDED AS PRECEDENTS, HAD LATER BEEN OVERTURNED.

SMITH SAID HE DID NOT REGARD HIS VOTE AS SETTING ANY PRECEDENT BUT WILEY'S POSITION WAS THAT THE DECISION WOULD ENCOURAGE OTHER WITNESSES TO REFUSE TESTIMONY ABOUT CONVERSATIONS WITH THE PRESIDENT.

IN THE DEBATE PRECEDING THE VOTE, SENATOR GEORGE (D-GA) DECLARED THAT "IT IS NOT IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST AND CANNOT BE IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST" TO REVEAL "ANY COMMUNICATIONS, ORAL OR WRITTEN, RELATING TO HIGH MATTERS OF STATE."

TO DO SO, GEORGE SAID, WOULD BE "DESTRUCTIVE OF THE INTEGRITY OF GOVERNMENT ITSELF."

BUT SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) DECLARED THAT IF "VITAL INFORMATION" IS TO BE WITHHELD, "A TREMENDOUS HANDICAP WILL BE PLACED UPON THIS COMMITTEE'S BEING ABLE TO ACCOMPLISH ITS MISSION."

KNOWLAND ASSERTED THE PEOPLE ARE ENTITLED TO KNOW JUST WHAT LED TO MACARTHUR'S OUSTER AS WELL AS THE FULL FACTS SURROUNDING THE DECISION TO SEND GROUND TROOPS INTO KOREA LAST JUNE.

"IF FIVE OR SEVEN MEN CAN MEET IN A CLOSED SESSION IN THE BLAIR HOUSE OR THE WHITE HOUSE AND PUT THIS NATIONAL INTO THE FOURTH LARGEST WAR, FROM A CASUALTY STANDPOINT, IN OUR HISTORY, WITHOUT THEIR STATEMENTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS BEING RECORDED OR AVAILABLE, AND WITHOUT THEIR POSITIONS BEING KNOWN, WE HAVE THE WAR-MAKING POWER TRANSFERRED FROM CONGRESS, OPERATING IN THE OPEN, TO THE EXECUTIVE, OPERATING IN CAMERA," KNOWLAND SAID.

Excerpts of Proceedings in Joint Senate Hearing on the Dismissal of General MacArthur

WASHINGTON, May 17 (AP)—Following is an abridgement of today's proceedings by the combined Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services Committees looking into the dismissal of General MacArthur (* * denotes deletions for purposes of condensation; censorship deletions are noted parenthetically):*

CHAIRMAN RUSSELL. — The question that is now before this committee may be stated in very simple terms: it is, does this committee, or any other agency of the legislative branch of the Government, have the power to compel a witness who is a confidential adviser to the President of the United States to relate the details of private conferences occurring with the President and other confidential advisers in cases where the witness claims immunity?

The relation between General Bradley, who is the witness whose testimony is under consideration, and the President of the United States, is one that is established by statute.

Section 211 (A) of the National Security Act of 1947 reads as follows:

"There is hereby established within the Department of Defense the Joint Chiefs of Staff, which shall consist of the chairman, who shall be the presiding officer thereof but who shall have no vote, the Chief of Staff, United States Army; the Chief of Naval Operations, the Chief of Staff, United States Air Force. The Joint Chiefs of Staff shall be the principal military advisers to the President, the National Security Council, and the Secretary of Defense."

I shall not read all of this section, but I do wish to read a few of the duties as outlined.

"Subject to the authority and direction of the President and the Secretary of Defense, the Joint Chiefs of Staff shall perform the following duties, in addition to such duties as the President or the Secretary of Defense may direct:

"(1) Preparation of strategic plans and provision for the strategic direction of the military forces;

"(2) Preparation of joint logistic plans and assignment to the military services of logistic responsibilities in accordance with such plans;

"(3)—and I ask the committee to make special note of subparagraph 3, 'establishment of unified commands in strategic areas.'"

It seems to me that this statutory relation created by the act which I have just read creates a confidential relationship of the highest order between the witness, General Bradley as chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and the President of the United States.

There can be no higher confidential relationship, none upon which the safety and security of our nation must depend, than that existing by law between the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the President of the United States.

This is particularly true on occasions when the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff is called upon to advise the President on matters of this nature where the President requests such advice, and to perform his other duties pursuant to the National Security Act.

Checks and Balances Called Vital to Nation

The future freedom and security of our country depend as much upon the maintenance of the delicate system of checks and balances designed by the founding fathers as upon our armies, our navies and our fleets of airplanes. Among the most valuable of the checks and balances devised are those which prevent one of the branches of the Government from imposing its will upon the other.

As I see it, that is one of the fundamental issues that is here before us at this moment. I have made some study of the precedents involved in this matter. So far as I have been able to ascertain, there is no single exception of a judicial determination that protects the confidential communications between the President and the advisers which assist him in the discharge of his duties.

They are held to be of the highest privilege.

While the power of the President to withhold information or documents, within the jurisdiction of the judicial branch, has been frequently challenged, I do not know of any occasion where any legislative or judicial agency has insisted upon the right to have extended to it the words spoken in a highly confidential conference between the President and his advisers.

It is, of course, a matter of common knowledge that the legislative branch of the Government, within itself, has no powers of enforcement against any witness, it matters not what his position may be, or the contempt with which he might treat any committee of the Congress.

We are compelled to rely upon the courts of this land for the enforcement of any proceedings which might be had, growing out of the refusal of a witness to answer, in any specific case.

Therefore, as I see it, the rulings of the courts, the only enforcement agency that is available to the legislative branch of the Government, are controlling in this question.

Now, before proceeding to deal with these questions, and to cite some of the precedents, I think it is only fair that the record should show that when General MacArthur was a witness before this committee, he was asked, in effect, to relate here, from that stand, what transpired in the private conference with the President of the United States, at a conference held on Wake Island.

General MacArthur declined to answer that question, on the grounds that such disclosure would be improper. The general's refusal to answer the questions was not challenged.

Refusal to Answer Previously Unchallenged

I think the record should further show, at this point, that the same, or similar, question was asked of Secretary Marshall when he was before us as a witness, and that he declined to answer, on the ground that private conversations that he held with the President of the United States were privileged and that his disclosure would be improper.

No challenge was entered at the time that the failure of the chair to compel either of these witnesses to answer this question was improper or was keeping from the American people information that they were entitled to have.

The question arose after General Bradley had completed his statement and after he had claimed the immunity which had twice been used as a cloak by other witnesses.

Now, from the Administration of President George Washington down to this good hour, there is no decision in any court of competent jurisdiction of which I have any knowledge which has held in any single instance that a witness who was an agent of the President or a witness who occupied a confidential relationship with the President or a witness who was the head of an executive department could or would be compelled by the courts to produce any documentary material relating to the exercise of the executive functions without the consent of the President.

A private conversation of the nature involved in this case, relating to matters of the highest import, would seem to me to be entitled to even a higher degree of immunity than the documents that are involved in other cases that have arisen.

Those cases begin within the request of the Congress for certain papers and reports relating to the ill-starred campaign of General St. Clair against the Northwestern Indians.

Over a period of more than a century and a half, when a very natural conflict has raged between the legislative branch and the executive branch of the Government * * * the unbroken line of decisions, so far as I have been able to determine, sustain the ruling made by the chair on day before yesterday.

I wish to make it clear that this issue does not involve any individual in the office of the President of the United States: it involves the rights and powers which inhere to the office of the Chief Executive or the Chief Magistrate of this nation.

Equality of Treatment Assured All Branches

When I was compelled to rule upon this matter on day before yesterday, I stated that my ruling was dictated altogether by my conception of the rights of each of the coordinate branches of the Government. I stated then, and I reiterate today, that I would defend jealously the prerogatives of the Senate of the United States, of any committe of the Senate of the United States, were those prerogatives threatened from encroachment from the Chief Executive or from the judiciary. I shall insist upon extending to the Executive branch of the Government, without regard to personalities, without regard to feelings that may be involved in this particular issue, all of the rights that I would defend as being inherent in the legislative branch. * * *

Here is a case where there is a statutory relation between the parties of confidential advisers. The general has offered to relate all facts, all conclusions, all reasons, but he stood upon his immunity in declining to go into the details of conversations that he had with the President and other confidential advisers on the subject which is under inquiry.

I think he is fully within his rights. I ruled as I saw the facts to protect our form of Government and to keep from involving one of the branches with the other.

If we ever arrive at the time in this country when, whatever be the heat of passion, whatever the political consequences, whatever issues of the moment might be involved, that we permit or contribute to, or ourselves motivate the invasion of the prerogatives of one of the branches of the Government, why, we would in my opinion have taken a long step toward the ultimate destruction of our institutions.

I regret very much that this matter has developed here. I regret even more deeply that, from the indications of the discussion around this table, it has developed alon gparty lines, and that it has a political overtone.

I have endeavored to be as objective as I could in this matter, and I wish to conclude my remarks by appealing to the members of this committee, to each and every member of this committee, whether he has a label of Republican or Democrat, to vote his consience, vote as his intelligence dictates on this issue, which is far more important than the mere matter of General Bradley's being compelled by action at law—even if he could be compelled, which I am confident he could not—to testify as to the details of a personal conference of a highly confidential nature. * * *

SENATOR WILEY—* * * May I open my arguments by saying there is no partisanship in what I have to say, unless it is to maintain the dignity and the power of the Senate. In this aspect, I am partisan.

I would likewise be partisan in maintaining the dignity and the power of the other branches of the Republic. I resent the statement that there is any political overtone in this matter.

Now, let us get that washed out once and for all.

Before I am through with my argument I expect each one of you, as I know you will, to decide the case according to your conscience, according to the justice of the situation, and according to the law. * * *

In the words of Harry Truman, when he was a Senator, "I maintain that we don't think he has got the right to shut off the information from those in Congress who want it." Those words are applicable.

I ask you Senators, do you want the information of what went on beginning with April 5 or don't you? Apparently, some of you have the information, according to Senator Fulbright, when he asked the question of MacArthur, he had some information to the effect that Acheson did not support the President.

Principles of Law Held Inapplicable

Now, why are we not entitled to that; all right.

Now, the authorities support generally the above propositions. I do not disagree with the law as quoted by my distinguished colleague from Georgia, the princples he quoted, but I shall show you they do not apply.

I agree that the authorities generally follow this line: one, that the scope of a Congressional investigation is as broad as the legislative purpose requires * * *

Two ,that the subpoenaing by a duly authorized investigating committee of the Congress is no more restricted than that of the grand jury. * * *

Three, the right of a legislative body to demand and receive from the Executive branch information, papers which it deems pertinent to the legislative process, is established.

Four, that this established right has been vigorously asserted at times by the Congress of the United States against the President and the executive officers.

Now, are we mice or men? This is our nest. I have been in it twelve years, and I am not going to befoul it by laying down a precedent that is going to deprive it of its power that has been asserted by men in Congress for 150-odd years.

Five, that the President and the executive officers have vigorously defended it against such asserted right on the basis of the fundamental doctrine of separation of powers of the executive, legislative and judicial branches of the Federal Government.

Six, that the Congress has merely asserted its right to obtain information without attempting to enforce it.

Now, these are definitely laid down conclusions established by law.

Seven, that the Congress has never attempted to invoke against executive officers the law which provides that every person who, having been summonde by either House to give testimony or to produce papers upon a matter under inquiry, wilfully makes default is criminally liable. There is a statute to that effect.

* * * These are the facts. A joint investigating committee is investigating the recall by the President of General MacArthur and the facts generally relating to Korea.

Now, there is no question about that. The right of the President as Commander in Chief to recall MacArthur is conceded. The basis and the justification therefor is not conceded. We are seeking the facts. * * *

There is another fact we can't ignore in this case. The President has not stated one way or the other whether the public is entitled to have the facts resulting from these conversations by those who were present during the time when the MacArthur recall was planned and executed.

Why? Why hasn't he told the public? Isn't he a servant of the public, the same as you and I? Neither has the President expressly determined—get this now—that the information that we ask would be contrary to public interest. * * *

Let us bear in mind that what the purpose of these meetings was—and we are inquiring into that purpose—in plain vernacular the purpose was to get MacArthur, to lay a basis for his removal.

I am not just drawing inferences. When a member of this committee ask him "don't you know that Acheson defended you," or words to that effect, "don't you know" implying he knows, who has he been talking with? But we can't talk with him or hear him. * * *

Question of Power Noted If President Refused

It is my opinion that the Congress has the legal right to have that information even if the President refused to give it, but he did not refuse. If the President refused, it would raise simply a question of power, first, the power of Congress to force the answer over the objections of the Executive, and secondly the power of the Executive to withstand successfully Congressional demands, but that is not the issue here. * * *

However, if it is, in fact, the question of the President ordering the witness to decline the information, then the witness becomes, as I said, the hand-tool of the President.

Under Article I, of the Constitution, the legislative authority is granted to Congress. Implied with this authority to legislate is the implied authority to do those things that are ordinarily necessary to carry out the express power. * * *

Now, briefly, I contend, * * * that General Bradley should be required to answer my question. If he refuses to answer, then it would be up to the committee to determine whether any further action in relation to contempt should be used. If the President directs him not to answer, if the President says that it is against the public interest, that raises a different question from what we have here. * * *

In the event this joint committee upholds the decision of the chair, what sort of a precedent will we be setting?

My answer to that—we will in effect be giving carte blanche to any individual who has ever discussed any matter however inconsequential with the President of the United States. How ridiculous. Only the President has this power. * * *

Now, I address a thought before the bar of public opinion. I say that the American people will be deeply disappointed that high individuals do not feel that the American people are entitled to the facts on so crucial a matter, affecting the lives of a quarter of a million American boys now in Korea and the millions of American boys who might be engaged if a third world war is not averted, and how the removal of MacArthur was brought about. * * *

SENATOR GEORGE—* * * I indicated yesterday that in my opinion the question of immunity is not involved here; it is purely a question of privilege of the witness who is called to testify. If the witness is called to give testimony with respect to matter confidential in character and in nature, it is a privilege which he may claim. * * *

I do not see how a higher relationship, confidential relationship could be brought into existence, and this high confidential relationship is the act of the Congress itself which act had in fact the approval of the President of the United States, so I think that General Bradley as the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff could undoubtedly claim the privilege to withhold any statement made by him or any member of the council or of the President.

There is not here any suggestion of bad faith. There is no here any suggestion of the arbitrary withholding.

Witness Called Willing To Tell Conclusions

There is here, on the contrary, the express statement, by the witness, of his willingness to disclose all of the conclusions reached, and all of the things finally done, as the result of any conference had by him as a member of this council on the 6th of April. * * *

Now, Mr. Chairman, I do not, myself, believe that any exceptions to the general rule can be admitted, because to admit exceptions would destroy the rule itself; but I have recited the fact that there is nothing in this record to disclose any arbitrary conduct on the part of General Bradley in declining to make answer to the question relating to the conversations on April the 6th, at which the President, of course, was present. * * *

Indeed, the reasons would seem to me more impelling upon the Congress, particularly in this matter where the general himself is the creature and is acting under, in his official capacity, the mandate of a law passed and approved by the Congress.

Now, the basis of this privilege to the witness undoubtedly is that it is not in the public interest and cannot be in the public interest, that it is destructive of the integrity of Government itself, that any communications, oral or written, relating to high matters of state should be revealed.

That is the basis on which General Bradley in his official capacity here has declined to make answer to these questions * * *.

SENATOR KNOWLAND—Mr. Chairman, the importance of the issue before us rests in the precedent that has been set. * * *

For this committee to do the job assigned to it by the Senate, and in order to satisfy the nation and the Congress, that doors to pertinent information, the subject of this inquiry, should not, as as matter of public policy, be closed to us. * * *

In the great discussion that now divides our country, this Administration would do well not to stand on local technicalities.

If the discussions between the heads of agencies created by the Congress are privileged and confidential when they relate to the summary removal of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, will the same rule e used to block information relative to Yalta, Potsdam and the Blair House meetings in June of last year?

If so, a tremendous handicap will be placed upon this committee's being able to accomplish its mission.

In a responsible Government, operating under our Constitution, it requires that our public officials be both responsible and accountable. * * *

President Is Quoted On Wake Island Talks

Are we to be faced with the defense that these men, whoever they may have been, were merely confidential advisers to the President, and such discussions were privileged under the same precedent?

Much has been made of the fact that this committee did not press General MacArthur for further information relative to his private discussions with the President at Wake Island—at the Wake Island conference.

There is no parallel between that case and this. In the Wake Island notes, the President is quoted as saying, and I quote from Page 8 of the committee release of the Wake Island conference, quoting the President:

"General MacArthur and I have talked fully about Formosa. There is no need to cover that subject again. The General and I are in complete agreement." That is the end of the quotation.

The inference is clear that there had been a complete meeting of minds on the strategic importance of Formosa and the steps which should be taken to help defend it or abandon it. MacArthur's reply made unnecessary any further questioning on the subject. The strategic importance of Formosa had not even been discussed.

The pertinent fact was that the misleading paragraph in the Wake Island release had been cleared up. Now what kind of a rule does the Administration operate under?

At the Wake Island conference with high advisers to the President and classified top-secret information, an eavesdropping stenographer was placed behind a panel to record all conversations, including the President's. Did the President know it? Did he approve this action? I do not know.

These notes were released to THE NEW YORK TIMES which are still classified as top secret. Had this the approval of the President? I do not know.

Is the rule to be that there is one-way privilege, that which support the President's actions and policies can be made available, and that which might be critical must be forever suppressed? That it seems to me approaches a doctrine that the king can do no wrong, or if he does, it should not be discussed. * * *

I submit to you, Mr. Chairman, that we are departing from our constitutional basis in this country: we are in this twilight period where we move the war-making power and the war-declaring power from the Congress of the United States into the hands of the Executive, where instead of being done in public, it can be done in camera.

SENATOR CONNALLY. * * *

I want to say, I want to repeat what I said yesterday, briefly, about the impossibility of the President transacting business if every caller on the President, who sees him and talks to him about a matter, can be called before a committee and questioned.

I fall that were allowed, all they would have to do would be to station a man outside the White House and watch everybody that goes in and sees the President, and when he comes out, summon him up here before a committee and say: "What did you talk to the President about? What did he say to you? What did you say to him?" About any matter.

This is so ridiculous and so unfounded that it is readily apparent that the President could have no business whatever transacted.

And, General Bradley says that he was the confidential adviser to the President. The law made him that. We passed the law making him the confidential adviser to the President of the

BRADLEY-VOTE
WASHINGTON, MAY 17-(AP)-SENATOR FULBRIGHT (D-ARK) SAID TODAY HE EXPECTS THE REPUBLICANS TO "RAISE THE ISSUE OF A WHITEWASH" AS A RESULT OF THE MACARTHUR INQUIRY PANEL'S VOTE AGAINST DEMANDING THAT WITNESSES TESTIFY ABOUT PRIVATE WHITE HOUSE TALKS.
FULBRIGHT SAID HE VOTED WITH THE REPUBLICANS BECAUSE HE HOPED FOR A COURT TEST OF THEIR CONTENTION THE SENATE INQUIRY HAD A RIGHT TO DEMAND SUCH TESTIMONY.
THE VOTE UPHELD A RULING BY CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA) OF THE SENATE
ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES THAT GEN.OMAR BRADLEY
COULD REFUSE TO TELL ABOUT PRIVATE CONVERSATIONS WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN
ON THE DISMISSAL OF GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR.
THE TRANSCRIPT OF THE CLOSED DOOR DEBATE SHOWED FULBRIGHT TOLD DEMO-CRATIC COLLEAGUES ON THE COMMITTEE:
"IF WE REFUSE AT THIS TIME THE REPUBLICANS' DEMAND FOR INFORMATION--THIS INFORMATION OR ANY OTHER INFORMATION--I AM QUITE SURE THEY WILL RAISE THE ISSUE OF A WHITEWASH."
FULBRIGHT SAID THAT WAS THE INTERPRETATION HE PUT ON THE STATE-MENTS OF SENATOR KNOWLAND (R-CALIF) YESTERDAY IN CONTENDING THAT IF RUSSELL'S RULING WERE UPHELD IT WOULD LOWER AN "IRON CURTAIN" OVER THE INQUIRY.
"I DO NOT FEEL LIKE TAKING THE RESPONSIBILITY FOR SUCH A CHARGE, PARTICULARLY IN VIEW OF THE EXPERIENCES WITH THE TYDINGS COMMITTEE OF LAST YEAR," FULBRIGHT SAID.
A FOREIGN RELATIONS SUBCOMMITTEE HEADED BY FORMER SENATOR TYDINGS
(D-MD) INVESTIGATED COMMUNIST-IN-GOVERNMENT CHARGES LAST YEAR AND REPUBLICANS ASSAILED THE DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY'S REPORT AS A "WHITE WASH."
SENATOR MORSE (R-ORE), WHO VOTED WITH RUSSELL, TOOK ISSUE WITH FULBRIGHT'S STAND.
MORSE SAID IT WAS FULBRIGHT'S DUTY TO "SUSTAIN THE DOCTRINE OF THE SEPARATION OF POWERS UNDER OUR CONSTITUTION, AND NOT PASS THE BUCK
TO THE COURTS FOR FINAL DETERMINATION."
SENATOR H.ALEXANDER SMITH (R-NJ) SAID HE WAS SUPPORTING RUSSELL
BECAUSE "I FEEL HE IS ENDEAVORING TO CONDUCT THESE HEARINGS ON THE HIGHEST POSSIBLE PLANE OF FAIRNESS," WITHOUT PARTISANSHIP, AND WITH AN EARNEST DESIRE TO GET ALL THE FACTS."

United States.

If the chair is not sustained, then you have got no confidential adviser—you have got no confidences whatever.

No Legislative Matters Before the Committee

How can it be confidential when you can drag a man up here and make him tell everything that transpired? Where does the "confidence" come in? It goes out the window, absolutely.

Senator Wiley, I believe it was, referred to the information for legislative purposes. We have no legislative matters before us calling for information that will influence us as to the passing of a law—none whatever. * * *

It seems to me that this question is so fundamental, and that any other course than to sustain the chairman would be so ridiculour, and so out of harmony, not only with the decisions of the courts that have been cited here by the chairman, but as contrary to the Anglo-Saxon concept of free government and free institutions and our own theories of free government, our own theories of the responsibilities of the advisers of the President to advise him confidentially.

SENATOR HICKENLOOPER. * * *

It seems to me that Senator Wiley has put his finger on exactly the situation we are in.

Privilege is a rare exception in the jurisprudence of this country, or Anglo-Saxon jurisprudence or, so far is I know, any other nation.

The privilege which is accorded and which has been recognized in some courts in this land to the President has not been raised in this case. This goes merely to the desire of a witness to avoid answering questions, and he says he thinks it was confidential. * * *

Mr. Chairman, the argument that is used that the Joint Chiefs of Staff are created by statute has no validity, in my opinion, either. Congress created the Joint Chiefs of Staff. Congress can abolish the Joint Chiefs of Staff. Congress can direct their activities. Congress can prescribe by statute.

That power comes from Congress, not from the Constitution, and so the idea that we have created the Joint Chiefs of Staff—— * * *

SENATOR FULBRIGHT—* * * I do not agree that this inquiry has no political overtones. In fact, I think it has strong political overtones. After all, there is no resolution, no bill, pending before the committee. It is an inquiry arising out of an action which certainly has political implications.

I think one of the principal results to be expected is political in nature.

If we refuse at this time the Republicans' demand for information, this information or any other information, I am quite sure they will raise the issue of a whitewash. * * *

So I believe that the only way to minimize the political overtones of this inquiry is for the courts to decide the matter. I dislike very, very much not supporting the chairman, in whom I have the greatest confidence, not only in his wisdom but certainly in his fairness and integrity, but under these peculiar circumstances I would not like to be charged later on that I participated in any effort to cover up anything as a political matter in this inquiry * * *.

Conduct of Hearing By Chair Acclaimed

SENATOR SMITH. * * * First I desire to support the chair in this issue, because I feel he is endeavoring to conduct these hearings on the highest possible plane of fairness, without partisanship, and with an earnest desire to get all the facts. * * *

Second, I desire scrupulously to avoid partisanship or any suspicion of politics in these proceedings. The very fact that that reason has been raised is another reason for my feeling that we be very careful in this matter.

Three, the exact question at issue in this ruling is on the border-line zone, so far as the law is concerned, in my judgment. The law is not entirely clear to me either way, in my opinion. * * *

My fourth reason is that General Bradley's declination to answer was not, in my judgment, an attempt on his part to conceal the facts to which the Congress is entitled. I accept the sincerity of this position. * * *

Five, my vote to support the chair on this issue is not a precedent for any future action of mine, nor do I consider it a precedent for the committee. * * *

Sixth and finally, my primary concern in these hearings is to discover the facts for the American people of this tragic case. A discovery of those facts may lead to a sound American foreign policy. * * *

SENATOR MORSE—I think we are dealing here with a fundamental question of the meaning of the separation of powers doctrine under our constitutional system. * * * There have been many instances in the history of our country when various Congresses have attempted to seek comparable information to that that is being sought in this case, but in those instances in which Presidents of the United States have claimed under their executive power the right to withhold that information from the Congress, I know of no decision of the courts in which the power of the President has been overruled. * * *

There is no question about the fact that an Executive in the White House can abuse his executive power, but there is nothing in the Constitution that says that when the President of the United States may abuse his executive power that the Congress can come in and demand that he disclose information that he does not want to disclose. * * *

We have got soem checks. The American people have got the check at the baloit box. We have got some checks by way of legislation. * * *

SENATOR BREWSTER—Mr. Chairman, I want to commend the very admirable tone in which the chairman presented this matter this morning and to express my regret that the discussions of the last two days could not be wiped out of the record. * * *

Decision by Courts Called Best Solution

I feel very strongly that we must be very careful that this does not become a committee upon the conduct of the war. That is the thing which I think is very fundamental and very dangerous. I think the discussions here going to the matters of policies that are involved is far more within the realm that apparently everyone concurs that this could be confined to Presidential discussions and not extended to other employes of the Government. I think that is highly important and I understand that that is very generally recognized by all who are discussing it here.

Now, the only contribution I think I can make from my experience is that in my service here I have seen this issue come up, first, with the Truman committee, when the President was chairman of it.

I saw him militantly defend the power of the legislative branch. I sal him threaten to cite for contempt the Secretary of War, Mr. Patterson, who is a very great lawyer himself and a circuit judge. Mr. Patterson bent the knee and decided he would disclose, though they considered and had insisted, on the advice of his Under Secretary, Mr. Royall, that it was a confidential matter and they wouldn't disclose it.

I saw Senator Truman demand from President Roosevelt the so-called Stettinius report, which was concerned with determining the industrial mobilization. * * *

SENATOR WILEY—In fact, we want the Executive to state something, and so far he has not, and even Bradley will not inquire of the Executive. He acts on his own initiative; and a witness appears before this committee, and if he was not such a wonderful man and such a wonderful character, under ordinary conditions, you would say that he was flouting the committee, claiming that it was confidential.

Now, let us be realistic. If the President wants to say to this group that the testimony of General Bradley in these conferences with him is not confidential, but that that testimony relating to the forming of the plans to discharge General MacArthur, that the giving of that testimony to the public would be against the public interest, that is final.

He has not said so. * * *

We are saying that that is one of the issues we are investigating, one of the fundamental issues that is before this committee, and you cannot pass the buck by saying it is privileged or that there is a conflict of sovereignty here. * * *

Ruling of the Chair Upheld by Committee

THE CHAIRMAN * * * The question before the committee, is shall the ruling of the chair stand as the sense of the committee.

Those who favor the sustaining of the ruling of the chair will vote "aye." Those who favor overruling the decision of the chair will vote, "no," and the roll will now be called. * * *

THE CLERK—Voting in the affirmative are Senators George, Green, McMahon, Sparkman, Smith, Lodge, Tobey, Connally, Byrd, Johnson, Kefauver, Hunt, Stennis, Long, Saltonstall, Morse, Flanders and the chairman.

Senators reported in the negative are Messrs. Fulbright, Gillette, Wiley, Hickenlooper, Brewster, Bridges, Knowland, and Cain. * * *

THE CHAIRMAN—* * * As you all know, the Armed Services Committee has been in conference wit hthe House with respect to the military manpower bill. * * * No progress whatever is being made. * * * It seems to me that in vie wof the importance of that bill, that I would be justified in carrying this committee over until Monday. * * *

SENATOR WILEY—* * * Will the chairman ascertain from the Chief Executive whether he would be willing that the participants in those conversations, or gatherings, give us what was said; and if not, is it based upon the general thesis that it would be damaging to the public, if it were given? * * *

THE CHAIRMAN—Let me state * * * that we adopted at the outset of this hearing, a rule, which I have announced, and repeated on several occasions, whereby, if any Senator desired any information relating to these hearings, and he would address a letter, outlining that informatioon to the chair, the chair would transmit it to the proper authority.

If the Senator from Wisconsin will follow that course, the chair will follow the same policy I have in connection with every other request for information that has been submitted.

SENATOR WILEY—You shall receive the letter, sir. * * *

THE CHAIRMAN—The committee will now stand in recess until 10 o'clock Monday morning.

TICS IN THESE PROCEEDINGS."
SMITH ALSO CONTENDED THE ISSUE INVOLVED WAS IN "THE BORDERLINE ZONE" ARGUING THAT "THE LAW IS NOT ENTIRELY CLEAR TO ME EITHER WAY."
HE SAID HE DOESN'T THINK BRADLEY'S FAILURE TO ANSWER INVOLVED "AN ATTEMPT ON HIS PART TO CONCEAL FACTS TO WHICH THE CONGRESS IS ENTITLED."
"I BELIEVE THAT WE CAN GET THE ESSENTIAL FACTS FROM OTHER WITNESSES, AND MANY ESSENTIAL FACTS FROM GENERAL BRADLEY HIMSELF," SMITH SAID. "I DO NOT PROPOSE TO LET UP ON THE ATTEMPT TO GET THOSE FACTS."

NIGHT LEAD TRUMAN
BY WILMOT HERCHER
WASHINGTON,MAY 17-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN CHALLENGED GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR AND REPUBLICAN SENATOR TAFT TODAY FOR ADVOCATING POLICIES HE SAID WOULD PUT THE UNITED STATES IN "AN ALL-OUT WAR IN CHINA ALL BY OURSELVES."
"ONE WEEK OF ALL-OUT WAR," THE PRESIDENT ASSERTED, "WOULD COST US 10 TO 20 TIMES" MORE PER WEEK THAN THE ADMINISTRATION PROPOSES TO SPEND UNDER ITS NEW $60,000,000,000 (B) DEFENSE BUDGET.
LATER MR.TRUMAN REMARKED TO REPORTERS THAT WORLD WAR II COST $450,000,000,000 AND ANOTHER WORLD WAR MIGHT EASILY COST $600,000,000,000.
IN A FIGHTING MOOD, MR.TRUMAN PRACTICALLY THREW AWAY A PREPARED SPEECH TO DEFEND HIS FAR EASTERN POLICIES BEFORE THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON CITIZENSHIP.
"WE MUST HAVE SOME FRIENDS IN THIS WORLD," HE SAID IN A REFERENCE TO THE RELUCTANCE OF ALLIED COUNTRIES TO JOIN THE UNITED STATES IN AN EXTENDED WAR AGAINST RED CHINA. "SOME SENATORS AND SOME OTHER PEOPLE WOULD HAVE US GO IT ALONE.
"IN THIS WORLD OF OURS IN THIS DAY, WE CAN'T GO IT ALONE.
"THERE IS A FREE WORLD, AND THERE IS A SLAVE WORLD, AND WE ARE THE HEAD OF THE FREE WORLD. WE HAVE GOT TO ACCEPT THAT RESPONSIBILITY AND CARRY OUT THAT RESPONSIBILITY."
WHAT AMERICA SPENDS FOR DEFENSE IN THE NEXT YEAR AND A HALF, THE PRESIDENT SAID, "MAY WARD OFF WORLD WAR THREE." HE REPORTED THAT NEARLY $19,000,000,000 (B) HAS BEEN SPENT ON DEFENSE SINCE THE ATTACK IN KOREA A YEAR AGO.
"NEVER WAS THERE A TIME WHEN THE RIGHT DECISIONS WERE MORE NECESSARY THAN AT THIS TIME," HE WENT ON IN HIS EXTEMPORANEOUS ADDRESS.
"THE HARDEST THING IN THE WORLD ARE THE REAL FACTS," MR.TRUMAN SAID, WHILE THE "EASIEST THING IN THE WORLD TO DO IS TO GARBLE AND CONFUSE THE FACTS.
"THERE'S A GREAT DEAL OF THAT GOING ON IN THE COUNTRY RIGHT NOW," THE PRESIDENT SAID SHARPLY. AT ANOTHER POINT HE ADVISED HIS LISTENERS:
"YOU BETTER LET YOUR CONGRESSMAN KNOW WHERE HE STANDS."
TODAY THE PRESIDENT REMINDED REPORTERS OF THE FIRE-EATING HARRY TRUMAN WHO TOURED THE COUNTRY IN 1948 IN HIS "GIVE-'EM-HELL" REELECTION CAMPAIGN.
AT NO TIME DID THE PRESIDENT MENTION MACARTHUR OR TAFT BY NAME. BUT THERE WAS NO DOUBT HE WAS TALKING ABOUT THE GENERAL HE RELIEVED IN THE FAR EASTERN POLICY DISPUTE AND THE OHIO SENATOR WHO HAS SUPPORTED MANY OF MACARTHUR'S IDEAS SINCE.
IN HIS PREPARED SPEECH, MR.TRUMAN SAID TAFT'S PROPOSAL TO REDUCE THE ARMED FORCES MANPOWER GOAL BY 500,000 MEN IS "AN INVITATION TO WAR". HE DESCRIBED THE SUGGESTION AS "VERY FOOLISH" AND LATER ADDED EXTEMPORANEOUSLY: "THIS SAME SENATOR WANTS TO GO FOR AN ALL-OUT WAR IN CHINA ALL BY OURSELVES."

MEMBERS OF THE CONFERENCE GAVE THE PRESIDENT A RISING OVATION WHEN HE ARRIVED AT THE STATLER HOTEL WITH MRS.TRUMAN.
IT WOULD BE COURTING DISASTER, THE PRESIDENT SAID IN HIS PREPARED REMARKS, IF CONGRESS SHOULD PERMIT THE DEFENSE PROGRAM TO "GET SNARLED UP, OR DELAYED, OR SLASHED".
HE CRITICIZED "PENNY-PINCHING" ON FOREIGN AID AND ACCUSED SOME OF HIS OPPONENTS OF "PLAYING POLITICS" IN THE FACT OF A "VERY REAL" DANGER OF WAR WITH RUSSIA. ON HOME-FRONT CONTROLS, HE SAID:
"THE SPECIAL INTERESTS AND THE LOBBIES WILL WRECK THIS STABILIZATION PROGRAM, AS SURE AS YOU'RE BORN, UNLESS THE MAIN BODY OF THE CITIZENS OF THIS COUNTRY GET BUSY AND DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT."
UNLESS EXISTING CONTROLS ARE EXTENDED BY LAW BEYOND JUNE 30 AND STRENGTHENED IN THE PROCESS, MR.TRUMAN WARNED, "THE COST OF LIVING WILL GO THROUGH THE ROOF".
"WE MUST ALL GET TOGETHER BEHIND A PROGRAM ADEQUATE TO MEET THE PERILS WE FACE. WE MUST GET TOGETHER NOW--WITHOUT WAITING, WITHOUT PLAYING POLITICS."
THE PRESIDENT DEPARTED FROM HIS PREPARED ADDRESS TO PRAISE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL AND GEN.OMAR N.BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, WHO HAVE BEEN STAR WITNESSES IN THE SENATE'S MACARTHUR INVESTIGATION.
"I WANT TO SAY TO YOU THAT OUR DEFENSE DEPARTMENT IS HEADED BY THE ABLEST GROUP OF MEN THAT THIS OR ANY OTHER COUNTRY EVER HAD FOR PLANNING AND CARRYING OUT ITS DEFENSE POLICY," HE SAID.
ONE OF THE REASONS THE COUNTRY FACES A DEFENSE CRISIS TODAY, THE PRESIDENT ADDED, IS BECAUSE CONGRESS TURNED DOWN THE UNIVERSAL MILITARY SERVICE LAW HE PROPOSED IN 1945.
"THAT UNIVERSAL SERVICE LAW PASSED IN 1945 OR EARLY IN 1946 WOULD HAVE SAVED BILLIONS OF DOLLARS NOW," HE SAID. "THE PEOPLE WHO PREVENTED THE ENACTMENT OF A UNIVERSAL SERVICE LAW IN 1945 ARE TRYING BY EVERY MEANS AT THEIR COMMAND TO PREVENT IT NOW. WE MUST NOT LET THEM PREVENT IT, BECAUSE IT IS ESSENTIAL TO THE SAFETY OF THE WORLD--TO OUR OWN SAFETY."
BILLS PROVIDING INITIAL STEPS TOWARD UNIVERSAL SERVICE, BUT DISTINCT MODIFICATIONS OF WHAT THE ADMINISTRATION WANTS, ARE NOW IN THE HANDS

OF A SENATE-HOUSE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE.
"IN THE YEAR BEGINNING JULY 1," THE PRESIDENT SAID, "OUR DEFENSE SPENDING PROBABLY WILL INCREASE TO ABOUT 40 BILLION DOLLARS. IF WE DO NOT CONTROL INFLATION, THAT 40 BILLION DOLLARS WILL ONLY BUY HALF AS MUCH AS IT WOULD EVEN NOW."
REPLYING TO MR.TRUMAN'S CHARGES, TAFT TOLD REPORTERS LATER HE STILL THINKS IT IS "REASONABLE" TO PROPOSE "THE ELIMINATION OF WASTE IN THE ARMED FORCES."
"I BELIEVE WE CAN GET JUST AS MANY DIVISIONS OUT OF 3,000,000 MEN, WITH PROPER USE OF MANPOWER, AS WE CAN OUT OF 3,500,000 MEN, WITH THE PRESENT WASTEFUL METHODS," HE SAID.
HE SAID HE IS ADVOCATING THAT THE WAR BE CARRIED TO RED CHINA BUT CERTAINLY ISN'T PROPOSING THAT AMERICAN SOLDIERS BE INVOLVED IN ANY INVASION OF THE MAINLAND.
"IT ISN'T PRACTICAL AND I NEVER WOULD URGE IT," HE SAID.

MR. TRUMAN, IN SPEAKING TODAY OF HIS DISMISSAL OF MACARTHUR, SAID HE FINALLY HAD MADE UP HIS MIND TO RELIEVE MACARTHUR FROM HIS FAR EASTERN COMMANDS BECAUSE THE GENERAL SENT WHAT THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE DESCRIBED AS AN ULTIMATUM TO THE RED CHINESE LEADERS.
REPLYING TO THIS IN A STATEMENT ISSUED FROM HIS SUITE AT THE WALDORF-ASTORIA HOTEL BY AN AIDE, MAJ. GEN. COURTNEY WHITNEY, MACARTHUR SAID HE TWICE BEFORE HAD SOUGHT TO SECURE A CEASE-FIRE AGREEMENT FROM THE ENEMY COMMANDER IN THE FIELD.

IN HIS REFERENCE TONIGHT TO HIS EFFORTS TO OBTAIN A CEASE-FIRE IN KOREA, MACARTHUR SAID:

Proposal to Cut Troop Goal

WASHINGTON, May 17 (AP)—Following is the stenographic transcript as released by the White House of President Truman's address today on The National Conference of Citizenship:

Madam Chairman, Mr. Attorney General, distinguished guests, and ladies and gentlemen:

It is a very great pleasure for me to be here this morning, and I am glad to join in welcoming this conference to Washington. I am strongly in favor of what you are doing here to help the people of this country to become better citizens. The citizen's job is an important one. It is the most important job in this great Republic.

The job of being an American citizen keeps growing more difficult and more important, every day. In some countries, the important decisions are made by the rulers, and the citizens do what they are told. In our country, the citizens make the basic decisions, and the officials of the Government have to do what the people tell them—sometimes.

We must make the right decisions. You, as citizens, must make the right decisions. Never was there a time when the right decisions are so necessary as they are at this time.

Stresses Responsibility

As the problems before our country become more complicated and more dangerous, our citizens must give greater attention to their job of making the basic decisions. It is your country, as well as mine. It is your responsibility, as well as mine.

If you do not assume that responsibility—and you are part of that responsibility—there is nobody to blame but yourselves when things go entirely wrong. There is less margin for error than there used to be making these decisions. Wrong decisions in this day and age may wreck the country—wreck it for all time.

There is a great deal of serious business before the Government of this country now. This business concerns our national defense and our national survival. The important decisions have to be made by the Congress, by the President, and the country, and they must be made soon. These decisions ought to be above petty politics, because the welfare of the country depends upon them.

Citizens should understand the facts. You know, the hardest thing in the world to find is a real fact. And the easiest thing to do is to garble and confuse the facts. I repeat, that the easiest thing to do in the world today is to garble and confuse the facts. We have a great deal of that going on right now.

I hope, when you leave this conference, you will take home with you an understanding of the major problems we face, and a sense of urgency about the decisions your Government has to make. If this understanding can be spread among all the citizens groups you represent, I believe these decisions will be made promptly, and I believe they will be made right.

If citizens know the facts, and let their elected representatives know that they want the national interest put above every political interest and every special interest, then there won't be any question about keeping our nation strong and secure. This is one of the most important things that this conference can do.

Outlines Major Problems

We must face up to the major problems, face up to them and solve them—solve them in the interest of all the people and not in the interest of just a favored few.

I would like to outline for you a few of the major problems we have to face.

There is a lot of discussion nowadays about military strategy. That's all right. Military strategy is important, and everybody ought to be concerned about it. And I want to say to you that our Defense Department is headed by the ablest group of men that this or any other country ever had for planning and carrying out its defense policy.

But, there are a lot of other problems that are equally important. We have the hard problems of defense production, the problem of taxes, the problem of stabilization—these are just examples of a few of the problems that we have. Unless we face these problems, we won't be able to have any military strategy at all. No matter how able our Defense Department men may be, there won't be anything to plan for.

The dangers we face are very serious, the most dangerous we have ever faced in all our time. Our country faces the danger of war from an aggressive and imperialist foreign power. Meeting this danger is all-important. And to meet that danger, we should all stand together.

I think that some people fail to realize that this threat is very real. They think there is still time to play petty politics.

That is a terribly dangerous attitude. We must all get together behind the program adequate to meet the perils we face. We must get together now—without waiting—and without playing petty politics.

The defense program comes first, that is our first and greatest problem. Our defense program and defense production must come ahead of everything else. If we let our defense program get snarled up, or delayed, or slashed, we would be courting disaster.

Cites Proposal to Cut

The suggestion was made by one Senator the other day, that we ought to cut down the goal for our armed forces by half a million men. And this same Senator wants to go for an all-out war in China all by ourselves. At a time like this, such a cut would be foolish—not only foolish it would be most dangerous.

Slashing the size of our armed forces would not be economy, it would be an invitation to war.

Let me drive that home. What we are attempting to do now, in the next year and a half, we anticipate may cost about sixty billions of dollars. This expenditure over a year and a half may ward off world war three. One week of all-out war would cost from ten to twenty times that.

Which is the safest expenditure?

Do I have to drive that home to you, to say which you think is the safest expenditure?

Now, in addition to that defense program of ours, we must work with our allies. We must have friends in this troubled world. Yet some Senators, and some other people, would have us go it alone. In this world of ours in this day, we can't go it alone.

There is a free world, and there is a slave world. We belong to the free world, and we are the head of the free world. We have got to accept that responsibility and carry out that responsibility.

Our defense program has two parts. One part is building up our own armed forces and our national strength. The other is helping our allies build up their strength so they can do their share in preventing war and stopping aggression. Both these parts of our defense program are essential to our security.

Unless we help our allies, we might have to face the real danger alone. Unless our allies are strong, the Kremlin might take them over, and the danger of war would increase. Without allies, our defense would be more difficult, and more costly—more costly in dollars, and what is much more important, most costly in lives. There is no economy in slashing our foreign aid program. Penny-pinching now may mean throwing away the lives of our soldiers later on.

One of the reasons we are in this conditon is because we did not accept our responsibility immediately after the war was over. In 1945, a universal service law was asked for by the President of the United States. That universal service law passed in 1945 or early in 1946 would have saved millions of dollars now.

The people who prevented the enactment of a universal service law in 1945 are trying by every means at their command to prevent it now. We must not let them prevent it, because it is essential to the safety of the world—to our own safety.

"Must Build Our Economy"

We must build our economy for defense. We have the most amazingly prosperous economy in the history of the world, and we have got to keep it that way.

Our defense program includes not only increasing our armed forces, making planes, tanks and guns for them and for our allies. It also includes having and keeping a strong economy here at home. We must be able to turn out greater and greater quantities of goods for our armed services, in case we have to meet an all-out attack.

We have to have the economic strength to carry our defense program for a long time to come. If we are to be in this position, we need more factories, more electric power, and a higher production of basic materials. We need a sound and efficient civil economy to support our defense production. This means housing for defense workers, and adequate public services to keep the defense production functioning efficiently.

When we talk about cutting non-defense expenditures, we must be sure we won't cut the strength and the support of our defense effort. People who are trying to do this are not helping our country. On the contrary, they are injuring it. If these "pull-backs" have their way, they will ruin our economy, and our country at the same time.

We must have a stabilized economy. Next to our defense program, the most important thing is economic stabilization. Economic stabilization means preventing inflation. This includes price controls, wage controls, and rent controls.

Urges Extension of Controls

All these controls expire on June 30th, just six weeks from now. The Congress is now considering whether these controls should be extended for another two years. Of course, they have to be extended. If they are not, our whole economy will be in great danger, and every family in the country will suffer—the inflationary pressures will increase.

Pressures on prices have eased off a little lately, but these pressures will come back stronger than ever in the next few months.

The more defense money we spend, the higher prices will tend to go. It is a dangerous situation we are faced with. Already the defense expenditures for the Army have increased the price of those things which the Army has to buy by more than 530 million dollars. The increased cost of the Navy expenditures for the same purpose would have bought four of the largest air carriers — the most expensive battleships in the world.

By June 30, we will have spent about nineteen billion dollars on defense since the attack in Korea a year ago. In the year beginning July first, our defense spending will probably increase to about forty billion dollars. If we do not control inflation, that forty billion dollars will only buy half as much as it would even now. After we have built our defenses up enough to meet the present danger, we hope we won't have to spend at such a high rate, and prices will be easier to hold.

Now, everybody says prices must be held down. Everybody says prices must be held down, but you must hold down everybody's prices but mine—everybody else must take a cut, but be careful don't touch mine.

But right now it will take everything we can do to hold these prices down, and if we can hold them down until we get over the hump of our defense program, we will be past the danger point. If we can't, the cost of living will go through the roof. And that will mean ruin for our defense program, and ruin for our strength as a nation.

Notes Busy Lobbyists

Now, if we are going to control prices, the Congress has got to say, and say it in no uncertain terms, that it wants prices controlled. Every special interest in the country is in Washington, or on its way, to lobby for a little exception for itself. And most of them can make out a pretty good case for themselves. There are enough special interest fellows appearing before the Senate Finance Committee to run the hearings well into June.

The public interest fellows are not being heard because they don't know what's happening. Now, you public interest people better get here and look after your interests!

It will be nice to give these private interest fellows some exceptions, but we can't have such a lot of exceptions and still have effective price control. If we handed out all the exceptions that are asked for, price control would be just like a sieve, and the tide of inflation would pour through it.

I don't think some of these special interest fellows understand what might happen if we had all-out inflation, but when they come down here and ask for special interest, that is what they are asking for: all-out inflation.

Now, you consumers can make a strong demand for price control.

We are not going to be able to hold the cost of living against the tremendous inflationary pressures ahead, unless we have a good, strong price control law, and a good strong rent control law. If you want that kind of law—if you, the consumers of this country, want Congress to provide a strong price control system, you had beter see, and you had better write to your Congressman.

Now, these things in the paper, write to your President—I get forty thousand letters a day, as a result of this or that, or a special occasion, but I am saying to you—I am saying to you right now, you had better let your Congressman know where you stand. You had better see him and tell him about it while you are here.

Tell him you want a price control law that will work which doesn't injure anybody. Price control, or any other control, we want an equitable control that will be fair to everybody, the producer, the middle-man and the consumer. That is what we are working for.

Urges Citizens "Get Busy"

The special interests and the lobbies will wreck this stabilization program, as sure as you're born, unless the main body of our citizens of this country get busy and do something about it. And that is what I am urging you to do.

We must pay-as-we-go, with a fair tax program. Now this is something that touches the most touchy nerve in the country: the pocketbook nerve.

Another thing that ought to be of special concern to every citizen in this country is our tax program. We have to have more taxes, if we are to pay for our defense program and hold down inflation. Nobody likes to pay more taxes, but we have got to do it because more taxes are essential to the safety and welfare of this country.

So far, we have been doing fairly well in paying for our defense program as we go along. But our defense expenditures are going to increase rapidly. We can't keep on paying as we go unless we get the tax money wherewith to do it.

Taxes are not so hard to take if everybody pay his fair share, in accordance with his ability to pay. But, if we let the special groups come in and riddle the tax program with special exemptions, we won't have a good tax program, or a fair tax program. We won't be able to balance the budget, and we won't be able to stop inflation.

I hope you will all realize, and will take home as one of the messages of this conference, that higher taxes are necessary to our defense program and to our survival as a nation.

Now, I don't think people ought to have any trouble agreeing on the national interest. I think everybody—every citizen—is a patriot, and that he believes that the national interest comes first, and that at a time like this, when some of our young men are fighting and dying to stop Communist aggression, and when so many of our boys face a period of military service to prepare for whatever may lie ahead, it ought to be easy for this country to get together in unity of spirit and action.

It ought to be the easiest thing in the world to agree upon a good defense program to hold down the cost of living. But it is not easy. It is one of the most difficult things which any President has ever faced. I am going to face it, and with your help I am going to put it over. Now, we must get the facts to the people, and that is hard to do.

One of the main reasons, I think, is that most of our citizens—those who do the fighting, and pay the bills, and keep the country going—are just too occupied to make their voices heard. If they had all the facts, and their representatives in Washington knew how they felt, I don't think we would have so much trouble with these great problems.

That is why the work of this conference means so much in the present crisis of the world. The future depends on the opinions and the decisions of the American people.

If you can develop ways of keeping our citizens better informed, or helping them to understand the increasing duties of their citizenship, I have no doubt that this country will make the right decisions, and that those decisions will lead the world to a just and lasting peace. And that is what we all want.

A214WX (BJT) ANNOUNCED
(790) AMS BUDGET
NIGHT LEAD CONTROLS-ROUNDUP

BY ROGER D.GREENE
WASHINGTON,MAY 17-(AP)-THE GOVERNMENT TODAY ORDERED A CUT IN SUPPLIES AND OTHER CIVILIAN "HARD GOODS" TO ABOUT 65 PER CENT OF PRE-KOREAN WAR LEVELS AND WARNED OF DEEPER CUTS AHEAD.

INDUSTRY TO INDUSTRY, WILL BE ISSUED SHORTLY TO TAKE EFFECT JULY 1. THEY WERE ANNOUNCED AS PRESIDENT TRUMAN, [redacted] AND

KEY OFFICIALS FOUGHT TO AROUSE PUBLIC SUPPORT FOR THE ADMINISTRATION'S PROGRAM OF CONTROLS, WHICH IS UNDER SHARP FIRE ON CAPITOL HILL.
SOME CONGRESS MEMBERS WERE OPENLY BALKING AT THE ADMINISTRATION'S CALL FOR EVEN GREATER CONTROL POWERS.
ASSERTING THAT GOVERNMENT CONTROLS ARE NEEDED TO COMBAT "TREMENDOUS INFLATIONARY PRESSURES," MR.TRUMAN TOLD THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON CITIZENSHIP:
"THE SPECIAL INTERESTS AND THE LOBBIES WILL WRECK THIS STABILIZATION (CONTROL) PROGRAM, AS SURE AS YOU'RE BORN, UNLESS THE MAIN BODY OF THE CITIZENS OF THIS COUNTRY GET BUSY AND DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT."
THE PRESIDENT'S ADVICE: WRITE YOUR CONGRESSMAN.
ONE OF MR.TRUMAN'S OWN CABINET OFFICERS, SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE BRANNAN, SAID UNHAPPILY THAT HE DIDN'T WANT CONTROLS OF ANY KIND, BUT HE HASTENED TO ADD:
"THESE ARE ABNORMAL TIMES AND WE MAY HAVE TO TAKE ABNORMAL MEA-SURES."

BRANNAN'S COMMENT CAME AS HE UNDERWENT A STIFF GRILLING BY MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE AGRICULTURE COMMITTEE ON THE GOVERNMENT'S RECENT ORDER FOR A ROLLBACK ON CATTLE PRICES.
WESTERN CATTLE RAISERS HAVE BESIEGED WASHINGTON EVER SINCE THE ORDER WAS ISSUED, COMPLAINING ANGRILY THAT IT MEANS RUIN FOR THEM AND THE RETURN OF MEAT BLACK MARKETS FOR THE PUBLIC.
BRANNAN TOLD THE HOUSE COMMITTEE TODAY THAT THE PRICE ORDER MAY PUT MORE BEEF ON DINNER TABLES OVER THE NEXT YEAR OR TWO, BUT LESS IN THREE TO FIVE YEARS HENCE. PREVIOUSLY, HE HAD TESTIFIED THAT THE ROLLBACK WOULD "NOT JEOPARDIZE CATTLE PRODUCTION."
BRANNAN EXPLAINED THAT WHEN LONG-RANGE PRICE PROSPECTS FOR CATTLE ARE UNFAVORABLE, CATTLEMEN TEND TO SELL OFF THEIR BEEF INSTEAD OF HOLDING BACK CATTLE FOR EXPANSION OF HERDS.
CHAIRMAN COOLEY (D-NC) TOLD BRANNAN THAT HIS TESTIMONY "FAILS TO JUSTIFY" THE ROLLBACK ORDER BECAUSE HE HAD NOT SHOWN IT WOULD LEAD TO AN INCREASED PRODUCTION OF BEEF.
"THAT'S WHAT WE'RE INTERESTED IN," COOLEY SAID. "EVERYTHING TENDS TO SHOW JUST THE CONTRARY--THAT INCENTIVE (TO PRODUCE MORE BEEF) HAS BEEN DULLED AND THAT WE WILL HAVE A DECREASE."

COOLEY THEN DEMANDED: MAY 18 1951
"DID YOU IN THE FIRST PLACE LOOK WITH FAVOR ON THE ROLLBACK?"
BRANNAN REPLIED UNEASILY THAT APPROVAL OR DISAPPROVAL OF THE ORDER WAS NOT HIS JOB. HE SAID HIS DEPARTMENT JUST SUPPLIED INFORMATION TO PRICE STABILIZER MICHAEL V.DISALLE, WHO ISSUED THE ORDER. MR. TRUMAN LATER BACKED DISALLE TO THE HILT.
ACROSS THE CAPITOL, GENERAL COUNSEL WILBUR LA ROE,JR., OF THE NATIONAL INDEPENDENT MEAT PACKERS ASSOCIATION, TOLD THE SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE:
"MEAT PRICES, BELIEVE IT OR NOT, ARE NOT UNDULY HIGH AND SHOULD NOT BE CONTROLLED. THE PRICE OF MEAT IS SUBNORMAL COMPARED WITH THE PRICE OF LABOR."
LA ROE WAS QUICKLY CHALLENGED BY SENATOR MOODY (D-MICH), WHO WANTED TO KNOW WHAT THE WORKING MAN SHOULD ANSWER WHEN HIS WIFE COMPLAINED OF PAYING $1.25 A POUND FOR GROUND ROUND STEAK "WHEN WAGES ARE FROZEN."
LA ROE REPLIED THAT AN HOUR'S LABOR NOW WILL BUY MORE MEAT THAN AT ANY TIME SINCE 1929.
WHILE THE ROW OVER MEAT EXPLODED ON BOTH SIDES OF CAPITOL HILL, THERE WERE THESE OTHER DEVELOPMENTS:
1. THE NEW 18-MAN WAGE STABILIZATION BOARD WAS REPORTED ON THE VERGE OF APPROVING TWO BIG THAWS IN THE PAY FREEZE, AFFECTING NEARLY 500,000 AUTO WORKERS AND 220,000 MEAT PACKINGHOUSE WORKERS.
THE BOARD WILL VOTE TOMORROW ON AN 11-CENT HOURLY WAGE BOOST AGREED ON BY THE BIG FOUR PACKERS AND THE UNIONS.
ALSO PENDING BEFORE THE BOARD IS THE QUESTION OF COST-OF-LIVING PAY RAISES AS PROVIDED IN AUTO WORKERS' CONTRACTS SIGNED BEFORE THE GENERAL "FREEZE" ORDER OF LAST JAN. 25.
2. AN INVESTIGATION OF THE FEDERAL WAGE BOARD'S "FAR-REACHING CONTROLS" OVER WAGES AND LABOR DISPUTES WAS ORDERED BY CHAIRMAN BARDEN (D-NC) OF THE HOUSE LABOR COMMITTEE.
BARDEN'S ORDER CAME AS OTHER HOUSE AND SENATE COMMITTEES WORKED ON PROPOSALS TO EXTEND THE 1950 DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT--THE BACKBONE OF THE CONTROLS PROGRAM--FOR TWO YEARS BEYOND JUNE 30.
UNLESS CONGRESS ACTS, THE LAW EXPIRES THEN.
3. MOBILIZATION DIRECTOR CHARLES E.WILSON TESTIFIED THAT "SOMEWHAT LONGER HOURS" FOR MORE WORKERS AND FURTHER CUTS IN CONSUMER GOODS PRODUCTION WILL BE NECESSARY TO CARRY OUT THE EXPANDING DEFENSE PROGRAM.
WILSON MADE HIS FORECAST TO A HOUSE APPROPRIATIONS SUBCOMMITTEE WHICH IS CONSIDERING THE $60-BILLION DEFENSE BUDGET FOR NEXT YEAR.

BUT HE SAID THERE SHOULD BE "NO MARKED DECLINE IN LIVING STANDARDS."
OFFICIALS SAID THE GOVERNMENT STEEL CUTBACK ORDER WILL MEAN THAT ABOUT 2,000,000 TONS OF STEEL WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR AUTOS, REFRIGERATORS, WASHING MACHINES AND OTHER APPLIANCES IN THE JULY-AUGUST-SEPTEMBER QUARTER--COMPARED WITH 3,000,000 TONS AVERAGE BEFORE THE OUTBREAK OF THE KOREAN WAR LAST JUNE 25.
EARLIER, THE GOVERNMENT HAD ORDERED STEEL MILLS TO SET ASIDE SHARPLY INCREASED PERCENTAGES OF THEIR OUTPUT FOR JULY DELIVERY ON MILITARY DEFENSE ORDERS.
THE NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY NOTIFIED THE MILLS THAT AN "EVEN LARGER SHARE" OF THEIR STEEL MAY BE TAKEN IN

IN DETROIT, AUTO MEN SAID THE STEEL CUTBACK WILL STILL PERMIT THE PRODUCTION OF MORE THAN 5,000,000 PASSENGER CARS AND 1,200,000 TRUCKS THIS YEAR--JUST BELOW 1950'S ALL-TIME RECORD OUTPUT.

HENRY J.KRUSE OF SEATTLE, A DIRECTOR OF THE WESTERN STATES MEAT PACKERS ASSOCIATION, TOLD THE SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE "THE AUTHORITY FOR PRICE, WAGE AND RATIONING CONTROLS" SHOULD BE STRICKEN FROM THE LAW.
"MEAT WILL BE AVAILABLE IN ALL THE STORES WITH GRADES AND CUTS FOR EVERY POCKET BOOK IF THE BEEF PRICE ROLL BACK IS CANCELLED," HE SAID.
CONTROLS, KRUSE ARGUED, WOULD "CREATE MEAT SHORTAGE," LEAD TO RATIONING AND "INEVITABLY TO BLACK MARKETS."

OTHER DEVELOPMENTS AT TODAY'S NEWS CONFERENCE:
THE PRESIDENT SAID HIS FRIEND, FORMER GOVERNOR MON C.WALLGREN (D-WASH), TOLD HIM HE MAY WANT TO RE-ENTER POLITICS IN HIS HOME STATE NEXT YEAR AND WANTS TO GO HOME AND GET READY.
HE WOULDN'T SAY WHETHER WALLGREN WOULD RUN FOR THE GOVERNORSHIP OR FOR THE U.S. SENATE. WALLGREN HAS SERVED IN BOTH POSTS AND IS ABOU TO RESIGN FROM THE FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION. THE PRESIDENT SAID A REPLACEMENT IS UNDER CONSIDERATION.
MR.TRUMAN SAID HE HOPED TO ATTEND THE REUNION OF HIS WORLD WAR ONE 35TH DIVISION IN TOPEKA, KAS., IN JUNE, BUT CAN'T SAY DEFINITELY NOW.
HE SAID THE PROSPECTS FOR THE PROPOSED CHANNELIZATION OF THE RIO GRANDE IN THE SAN MARCIAL AREA DO NOT LOOK VERY GOOD NOW, BUT THE MATTER IS UNDER CONSIDERATION BY THE BUDGET BUREAU AND THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR.

WASHINGTON,MAY 17-(AP)-REP.EDITH ROGERS (R-MASS) SAYS SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON BELIEVED FIVE YEARS AGO THERE WAS NO NEED TO WORRY ABOUT AN ATTACK FROM THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS.
AND SHE THINKS IT IS TIME THAT ACHESON "EXPLAIN WHAT INSPIRED HIS BELIEFS THEN AND WHAT HIS VIEWS ARE TODAY." SHE WANTS SENATORS INVESTIGATING THE OUSTER OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR TO GO INTO THE MATTER.
MRS.ROGERS TOLD THE HOUSE TUESDAY THAT ACHESON'S OPINIONS WERE GIVEN TO THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE IN JUNE, 1946, WHILE HE WAS UNDER SECRETARY OF STATE.
SHE SAID THE RECORD OF THE TESTIMONY HAS NOT BEEN PUBLISHED AND THAT SHE HAS THE ONLY COPY AVAILABLE. ACHESON AND OTHERS TESTIFIED REGARDING A BILL REQUESTED BY SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE MARSHALL.
THE BILL WOULD HAVE AUTHORIZED THE STATE DEPARTMENT TO HELP REORGANIZE THE CHINESE NATIONAL ARMY AND COMBINE IT WITH THE COMMUNIST ARMY. THE MEASURE WAS NOT PASSED BY THE HOUSE.
MRS.ROGERS QUOTED TESTIMONY BY ACHESON, IN RESPONSE TO HER QUESTIONS, TO THE EFFECT THAT MARSHALL RECOMMENDED THE MERGING OF THE NATIONALIST AND COMMUNIST ARMIES.
ACHESON WAS QUOTED AS SAYING MARSHALL CONTEMPLATED THE "EQUIVALENT OF 10 DIVISIONS FROM THE COMMUNIST ARMY" WOULD BE BROUGHT INTO A COMBINED ARMY.
AND FURTHER TESTIMONY AT THE TIME SHOWED THAT MARSHALL PROPOSED THAT THE COMMUNIST ARMY BE GIVEN TRAINING AND EQUIPMENT BY THE U.S. ARMY.
MRS.ROGERS WENT ON TO SAY THAT SHE ASKED ACHESON IF CHINA WOULD TURN TO RUSSIA IF THE ASSISTANCE WERE NOT GIVEN AND HE REPLIED:
"I HAVE NO VIEWS ON THAT SUBJECT. I AM SURE THAT WE WILL ASSIST CHINA. I DO NOT THINK I WANT TO SPECULATE ON WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF WE DID NOT."

WASHINGTON,MAY 17-(AP)-SENATOR EDWIN C.JOHNSON (D-COLO), PROPOSED TODAY THAT THE UNITED NATIONS SEEK TO HALT THE KOREAN WAR ON JUNE 25, THE FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF THE CONFLICT.
JOHNSON OFFERED A RESOLUTION TO PUT THE SENATE ON RECORD IN FAVOR OF ASKING THE UNITED NATIONS TO CALL UPON ALL NATIONS AND ALL GROUPS NOW ENGAGED IN THE WAR IN KOREA TO CEASE FIRE AND DECLARE AN ARMISTICE EFFECTIVE AT 4:00 A.M. (KOREAN TIME) JUNE 25.
IN ADDITION HE PROPOSED:
1. THAT PRIOR TO JUNE 25 THE UNITED NATIONS FORCES RETIRE SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL.
2. THAT BEFORE DECEMBER 31, 1951, ALL PRISONERS OF WAR BE EXCHANGED AND ALL NON-KOREANS, EXCEPT ORDINARY DIPLOMATIC REPRESENTATIVES, GET OUT OF BOTH NORTH AND SOUTH KOREA.
JOHNSON'S RESOLUTION DECLARES THAT "THE KOREAN WAR HAS EVERY APPEARANCE OF BEING A HOPELESS CONFLICT OF ATTRITION AND INDECISIVE-

NIGHT LEAD UN-AMERICAN (280)

BY BARNEY LIVINGSTONE

WASHINGTON, MAY 17-(AP)-AN AFL OFFICIAL TOLD THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE TODAY THAT THE HOLLYWOOD UNION STRIFE OF THE MID-1940S WAS PART OF AN ALMOST SUCCESSFUL COMMUNIST PLAN TO WIN CONTROL OF THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY.

BUT THE "BACK OF COMMUNIST POWER" HAS SINCE BEEN BROKEN IN THE MOVIES, DECLARED ROY M. BREWER, ~~INTERNATIONAL REPRESENTATIVE~~ OF THE INTERNATIONAL ALLIANCE OF THEATRICAL AND STAGE EMPLOYES (IATSE), AFL.

REVIEWING THE LONG STRUGGLE BETWEEN IATSE AND THE RIVAL CONFERENCE OF STUDIO UNIONS FROM 1941 THROUGH 1947--WHICH IATSE WON--BREWER TOLD THE COMMITTEE:

"IF THEY (THE COMMUNISTS) HAD BEEN SUCCESSFUL IN ELIMINATING THE AFL IN THE STUDIOS, I AM CONVINCED THEY WOULD HAVE MERGED ALL TALENT GUILDS AND BACK-SHOP UNIONS INTO ONE BIG UNION.

"THEY WOULD THEN HAVE BEEN ABLE TO EFFECTIVELY DOMINATE THE CONTENT OF FILMS. THE LABOR UNIONS WOULD HAVE BEEN A WHIP TO FORCE PRODUCERS INTO LINE.

"MR. JOHN HOWARD LAWSON AND HIS ASSOCIATES WOULD HAVE BEEN DICTATING TO THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY."

LAWSON, SCRIPT WRITER AND ONE OF THE "HOLLYWOOD TEN" JAILED FOR CONTEMPT OF THE COMMITTEE, HAS BEEN IDENTIFIED BY A NUMBER OF WITNESSES AS COMMUNIST PARTY LEADER IN HOLLYWOOD.

EARLIER, THE COMMITTEE RECALLED SCREEN WRITER LEONARDO BERCOVICI, WHO TESTIFIED WEDNESDAY HE WORKED FOR THE OFFICE OF WAR INFORMATION IN 1943--BUT REFUSED TO SAY IF HE WAS A COMMUNIST PARTY MEMBER AT THE TIME.

BERCOVICI IDENTIFIED HIS SIGNATURE ON THE ORIGINAL OF AN OWI JOB APPLICATION, WHICH WAS PRODUCED FOR THE COMMITTEE BY THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES.

IN THE APPLICATION, BERCOVICI HAD WRITTEN "NO" TO THE QUESTION WHETHER HE WAS A MEMBER OF ANY ORGANIZATION ADVOCATING OVERTHROW OF THE GOVERNMENT.

"WAS THAT ANSWER TRUTHFUL?" INQUIRED COMMITTEE COUNSEL FRANK TAVENNER, JR.

BERCOVICI REFUSED TO ANSWER ON GROUNDS IT MIGHT TEND TO INCRIMINATE HIM.

ONE OTHER WITNESS TODAY WAS ACTOR LLOYD GOUGH, WHO ALSO REFUSED TO ANSWER QUESTIONS ABOUT COMMUNISM ON GROUNDS THAT TO DO SO MIGHT INCRIMINATE HIM.

IN HIS TESTIMONY, BREWER SAID THE COMMUNIST PARTY APPARENTLY FOLLOWED A PROGRAM IN HOLLYWOOD "LAID OUT AND PLANNED BY AGENTS OF THE SOVIET UNION."

"THE MOTIVE WAS TO USE THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY FOR PROPAGANDA PURPOSES ALL OVER THE WORLD," HE SAID.

THE PLAN, BREWER ASSERTED, CAME DANGEROUSLY CLOSE TO SUCCESS.

"UNDERGROUND ACTIVITY IS STILL STRONG TODAY, BUT THE POWER OF THEIR FRONT ACTIVITIES BY WHICH THEY DOMINATED THE COMMUNITY IS NO LONGER STRONG."

BREWER SAID BY SUCCESSFULLY INFILTRATING THE WRITERS, DIRECTORS AND "INTELLECTUAL" GUILDS THE COMMUNISTS WERE ABLE TO ACHIEVE WHOLESALE "CHARACTER ASSASSINATIONS" OF THOSE WHO TRIED TO FIGHT THEM.

"IT WAS VERY SUCCESSFUL IN THE MINDS OF THE PEOPLE OF HOLLYWOOD," HE SAID, ADDING THAT THE COMMUNITY DID NOT BECOME AWARE OF WHAT WAS HAPPENING UNTIL THE 1947 COMMITTEE HEARINGS.

"SOME IN HOLLYWOOD, MALIGNED FOR FIGHTING COMMUNISM THEN ARE STILL SUFFERING PROFESSIONALLY BECAUSE OF THOSE DENUNCIATIONS," HE TESTIFIED.

IN THE FOREFRONT OF THE ANTI-RED OPPOSITION, BREWER INCLUDED ACTORS JOHN PAYNE, CLARK GABLE, PRODUCER CLARENCE BROWN, MAURICE RISKIN, ROBERT TAYLOR, THE IATSE, RALPH CLARE OF THE AFL TEAMSTERS, AND BEN MARTINEZ OF THE AFL PLASTERERS. IN ALL, HE SAID, THERE WERE AROUND 200.

WASHINGTON, MAY 17-(AP)-THE GOVERNMENT LOYALTY REVIEW BOARD MET TODAY TO DECIDE WHETHER TO REOPEN SOME LOYALTY CASES INVOLVING FEDERAL EMPLOYES, BUT WITHHELD ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE DECISION.

FORMER SENATOR HIRAM BINGHAM (R-CONN), THE BOARD'S CHAIRMAN DECLINED TO DISCUSS WHAT ACTION HAD BEEN TAKEN. HE SAID A FORMAL STATEMENT WILL BE RELEASED AS SOON AS IT CAN BE DRAFTED, PROBABLY TOMORROW.

THE QUESTION OF WHETHER TO REOPEN SOME CASES IN WHICH GOVERNMENT WORKERS HAVE BEEN CLEARED AROSE FROM A TIGHTENING BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN OF LOYALTY STANDARDS.

UNDER THE NEW YARDSTICK, AN EMPLOYE MAY BE FIRED IN CASE OF "REASONABLE DOUBT" OF LOYALTY. AND "REASONABLE DOUBT" IS TO BE RESOLVED IN FAVOR OF THE GOVERNMENT. UNDER THE OLD STANDARD, AS INTERPRETED BY THE BOARD, A STRONGER CASE HAD TO BE MADE OUT AGAINST THE EMPLOYEE.

THERE HAS BEEN NO OFFICIAL ESTIMATE OF HOW MANY CASES MIGHT BE REVIEWED IN THE LIGHT OF NEW RULES.

(250) INDIA GRAIN

BY JOE HALL

WASHINGTON, MAY 17-(AP)-SHIPMENT OF 2,000,000 TONS OF U.S. GRAIN TO INDIA ON A LONG-TIME LOAN BASIS WAS APPROVED YESTERDAY BY THE SENATE.

THE HOUSE WILL TAKE UP A SIMILAR BILL NEXT TUESDAY. THE MEASURE HAS BEEN ON AND OFF THE HOUSE SCHEDULE FOR ALMOST A MONTH. ADMINISTRATION LEADERS EXPECT A HARD FIGHT BUT HOPE TO GET IT THROUGH BY A NARROW SQUEAK. IT IS OPPOSED BY A COALITION OF SOME REPUBLICANS AND SOUTHERN DEMOCRATS.

THE SENATE BILL PROVIDES THAT THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION (ECA) CHIEF SHOULD TRY TO GET SOME VITAL DEFENSE MATERIALS--INCLUDING MANGANESE--IN REPAYMENT FOR THE FOOD. MANGANESE, USED IN HARDENING STEEL, IS IN SHORT SUPPLY HERE.

THE MEASURE ALSO CALLS FOR THE TRANSFER OF MONAZITE SANDS, A MATERIAL WHICH HAS POTENTIAL USE IN PRODUCING ATOMIC ENERGY. THAT PROVISION TOUCHED OFF ONE OF THE LIVELIEST CONTROVERSIES DURING DEBATE ON THE BILL.

INDIA HAS EMBARGOED SHIPMENT OF MONAZITE SANDS SINCE 1946.

SENATOR MCMAHON (D-CONN), CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE-HOUSE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMITTEE, EXPRESSED FEAR THE PROVISION "MIGHT RESULT IN KILLING OFF THE WHOLE TRANSACTION."

HE SAID IT CREATES A "DELICATE SITUATION" WHICH COULD BE BETTER HANDLED BY NEGOTIATION WITH THE INDIAN GOVERNMENT. "GREAT PROGRESS."

HE ADDED, ALREADY HAS BEEN MADE IN THAT DIRECTION.
SENATOR SMITH (R-NJ) ALSO CONTENDED THAT PUTTING THE MONAZITE PROPOSAL IN THE BILL WAS THE WRONG WAY TO HANDLE THE PROBLEM. HE QUOTED PRIME MINISTER NEHRU OF INDIA AS SAYING THAT WHILE INDIA WOULD GLADLY SUPPLY CERTAIN MATERIALS IN EXCHANGE FOR THE GRAIN IT WOULD NOT PROVIDE ATOMIC ENERGY MATERIALS.
BUT SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH), SPONSOR OF THE AMENDMENT, WON BACKING FOR IT WITH THE ARGUMENT THAT THE MATERIAL IS NEEDED FOR THE SECURITY OF THIS COUNTRY. WHILE EMPHASIZING THAT HE FAVORS THE GRAIN SHIPMENT, HE SAID IT IS "HIGH TIME WE BECAME JUST A LITTLE SELFISH."

REPAYMENT OF THE $190,000,000 FOOD LOAN WOULD BE OVER A PERIOD OF 33 TO 35 YEARS WITH INTEREST OF TWO AND ONE-HALF PERCENT. THERE WOULD NO PAYMENTS ON THE PRINCIPAL FOR THE FIRST SIX OR EIGHT YEARS.
THE BILL ALSO PROVIDES THAT THE INTEREST PAID BY INDIA ON THE LOAN IN THE FIRST FIVE YEARS WOULD BE USED TO FINANCE A PROGRAM OF TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE FOR INDIA AND AN EXCHANGE OF STUDENTS, TEACHERS AND EXPERTS BETWEEN THAT COUNTRY AND THE U.S.
ALTHOUGH THE GRAIN TOTALS ONLY ABOUT A TWO-WEEKS' SUPPLY FOR INDIA SPONSORS OF THE BILL ESTIMATED THAT IT WOULD FILL THE GAP WHICH INDIA HAS NO OTHER WAY OF MEETING THIS YEAR BECAUSE OF SHORT 1950 CROPS.
SPONSORS SAID THE U.S. GRAIN COULD NOT REACH INDIA IMMEDIATELY. BUT THEY EMPHASIZED THAT CONGRESSIONAL PASSAGE OF THE BILL WOULD ENABLE THAT COUNTRY TO USE UP ITS STOCKS AT A FASTER RATE WITH THE KNOWLEDGE AMERICAN HELP WAS ON THE WAY.
THE U.S. HAS BEEN SELLING GRAIN TO INDIA ON A CASH BASIS.
IN ASKING CONGRESS LAST FEBRUARY TO ANSWER INDIA'S PLEA FOR HELP TO AVERT A FAMINE IN SOME AREAS, PRESIDENT TRUMAN PROPOSED THAT THE GRAIN--MOSTLY WHEAT--SHOULD BE AN OUTRIGHT GIFT.

WASHINGTON, MAY 17-(AP)-THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID TODAY THAT CZECHOSLOVAKIA APPEARED DETERMINED TO TRY WILLIAM N.OATIS, ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT WHO WAS JAILED BY THE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT APRIL 23 ON CHARGES OF HOSTILE ACTIVITIES.
AMBASSADOR ELLIS O.BRIGGS DISCUSSED OATIS' DETENTION FOR NEARLY TWO HOURS YESTERDAY WITH CZECH FOREIGN MINISTER SIROKY IN PRAGUE. BRIGGS REPORTED THAT SIROKY SAID OATIS' IS "WELL."
IN ANNOUNCING THIS LATEST EFFORT TO OBTAIN THE RELEASE OF OATIS, THE DEPARTMENT SAID THE CZECHS APPEARED TO TAKE THE POSITION THERE WOULD BE NO POSSIBILITY OF OBTAINING HIS RELEASE BEFORE TRIAL.
OATIS WAS CHIEF OF THE AP BUREAU IN PRAGUE. HE WAS SEIZED BY THREE AGENTS FOR THE COMMUNIST REGIME THE NIGHT OF APRIL 23 WHILE PUTTING HIS AUTOMOBILE IN A GARAGE. HIS ARREST BECAME KNOWN ABOUT 72 HOURS AFTER HIS DISAPPEARANCE.
THE CZECH GOVERNMENT HAS REFUSED REPEATEDLY TO PERMIT OFFICIALS OF THE U.S. EMBASSY TO VISIT OATIS IN PRISON. IN ITS ORIGINAL ANNOUNCEMENT OF HIS ARREST, THE SOVIET SATELLITE SAID IT HAD WITNESSES TO SUPPORT THE CHARGES AGAINST OATIS. PREVIOUSLY THREE CZECH EMPLOYES OF THE AP BUREAU HAD DISAPPEARED.
OATIS IS 37 AND A WORLD WAR TWO ARMY VETERAN. A NATIVE OF INDIANA, HE WENT TO PRAGUE LAST JUNE TO REPLACE ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT NATHAN POLOWETZKY, WHO HAD BEEN EXPELLED ON UNSPECIFIED CHARGES OF UNOBJECTIVE REPORTING.
THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID IN ITS ANNOUNCEMENT TODAY:
"THE DEPARTMENT IS TAKING EVERY FEASIBLE STEP WHICH MAY SERVE THE WELFARE OF MR. OATIS AND OFFER HOPE OF OBTAINING HIS EARLY RELEASE.
"AMBASSADOR ELLIS O.BRIGGS DISCUSSED THE CASE WITH FOREIGN MINISTER (VILIAM) SIROKY FOR NEARLY TWO HOURS YESTERDAY. THE FOREIGN MINISTER SAID MR. OATIS IS WELL.
"THE CZECHS APPEARED TO TAKE THE POSITION THAT THERE WOULD BE NO POSSIBILITY OF OBTAINING HIS RELEASE BEFORE TRIAL."
DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS SAID LAST WEEK THAT DESPITE REPEATED ORAL AND WRITTEN REQUESTS TO THE CZECH GOVERNMENT, IT HAD BEEN IMPOSSIBLE FOR AN EMBASSY REPRESENTATIVE EITHER TO VISIT OATIS OR TO MAKE ARRANGEMENTS FOR AN AMERICAN LAWYER TO DEFEND HIM.

WASHINGTON,MAY 17-(AP)-"SOMEWHAT LONGER HOURS" FOR MORE WORKERS AND FURTHER CUTS IN CONSUMER GOODS OUTPUT WERE FORESEEN TODAY BY CHARLES E. WILSON AS NECESSARY TO CARRY OUT THE EXPANDING DEFENSE PROGRAM.
WILSON, DIRECTOR OF DEFENSE MOBILIZATION, TESTIFIED BEFORE A HOUSE APPROPRIATIONS SUBCOMMITTEE CONSIDERING THE $60,000,000,000 DEFENSE BUDGET FOR THE FISCAL YEAR STARTING JULY 1. HE APPEARED BEHIND CLOSED DOORS BUT A COPY OF HIS REMARKS WAS GIVEN TO NEWSMEN.

HERE IS THE WAY WILSON SIZED UP THE SITUATION:
"THIS PROGRAM CAN BE CARRIED OUT WITH A MINIMUM OF DISLOCATIONS AND WITHOUT WIDESPREAD HARDSHIP. THERE WILL BE NO MARKED DECLINE IN LIVING STANDARDS. DEFENSE DEMANDS WILL REQUIRE SOME FURTHER CUTS IN CONSUMER GOODS OUTPUT, PARTICULARLY DURABLE GOODS, AND WILL REQUIRE MORE WORKERS TO PUT IN SOMEWHAT LONGER HOURS. CERTAINLY THERE IS NO DOUBT AS TO THE WILLINGNESS OF OUR PEOPLE TO ACCEPT SUCH BURDENS AS ARE LIKELY TO BE PLACED UPON THEM."
A TAX BILL INCREASING REVENUES BY $10,000,000,000 ANNUALLY, HE SAID, IS NECESSARY TO CHECK INFLATION AND PAY THE COST OF THE MILITARY PROGRAM.
WILSON SAID THE MILITARY PROGRAM CONTEMPLATED FOR THE NEXT FISCAL YEAR "WILL AT ITS PEAK CONSUME LESS THAN 20 PER CENT OF OUR NATIONAL PRODUCTION."
IN 1944, HE RECALLED, DEFENSE EXPENDITURES ACCOUNTED FOR 45 PER CENT OF NATIONAL PRODUCTION.

(300) COMMUNIST TRADE
BY G. MILTON KELLY
WASHINGTON, MAY 17-(AP)-SENATOR O'CONOR (D-MD) SAID TODAY THE FULL "SHOCKING AND SICKENING STORY" OF WAR-USEFUL MATERIALS FLOWING FROM WEST GERMANY TO COMMUNIST CHINA HAS YET TO BE TOLD.
O'CONOR SAID A NEW WITNESS, WHOSE NAME HE WITHHELD, IS ON THE WAY FROM GERMANY TO BACK UP TESTIMONY RECEIVED BY A SENATE EXPORT CONTROLS SUBCOMMITTEE WHICH O'CONOR HEADS.
KEMNETH R. HANSEN, STAFF CONSULTANT TO THE SUBCOMMITTEE, TESTIFIED YESTERDAY THAT STRATEGIC MATERIALS WORTH MILLIONS OF DOLLARS HAVE PURED FROM WEST GERMANY TO RED CHINA SINCE THE START OF THE KOREAN WAR. HE SAID MUCH OF THE GOODS WAS "CONTRABAND" FORBIDDEN TO BE SOLD TO THE COMMUNISTS.
HANSEN IS JUST BACK FROM A MISSION TO GERMANY WHERE HE MADE UNDER-COVER INQUIRIES FOR THE SUBCOMMITTEE.
HANSEN SAID HE FOUND THAT "BRIBERY AND FORGERY" WERE USED TO CLEAR THE WAY FOR BIG SHIPMENTS TO THE CHINESE AND EUROPEAN REDS. HE SAID AN ENTIRE POWER PLANT WAS SHIPPED FROM WEST GERMANY TO MANCHURIA, SUPPLY AREA FOR CHINESE FIGHTING UNITED NATIONS FORCES IN KOREA.
ROBERT N. GOLDING, ASSISTANT ECA ADMINISTRATOR FOR EAST-WEST GERMAN TRADE AFFAIRS, TESTIFIED THAT "NOBODY COULD DISPUTE" THE ACCURACY OF HANSEN'S REPORT. IN FACT, HE SAID, HE HAD MADE A REPORT OF SOMEWHAT SIMILAR CONDITIONS ABOUT TWO YEARS AGO TO A CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE.
HANSEN SAID THE VOLUME OF WEST GERMAN GOODS SHIPPED TO RED CHINA SOARED FROM ABOUT $4,000,000 IN THE FIRST NINE MONTHS OF 1950 TO $7,-000,000 IN THE LAST THREE MONTHS OF THE YEAR, COMPARED WITH A TOTAL OF ONLY $413,000 IN ALL OF 1949.
O'CONOR SAID JOHN J. MCCLOY, U.S. HIGH COMMISSIOMER TO GERMANY, HAS AGREED TO TESTIFY BEFORE THE SUBCOMMITTEE, PRESUMABLY AFTER THE GROUP HAS HEARD FURTHER FROM GOLDING AND THE MAN WHOSE NAME O'CONOR WITHHELD.
THE LATTER WITNESS, O'CONOR SAID, CAN GIVE AN "UP TO THE MINUTE" REPORT OF EAST-WEST TRADE, AND CORROBORATE HANSEN'S TESTIMONY THAT U.S. ARMY CUSTOMS OFFICIALS HAVE BEEN MORE ALERT TO DETECT THE SMUGGLING OF LUXURY GOODS INTO WESTERN GERMANY, THAN IN WATCHING FOR STRATEGIC GOODS MOVING OUT OF THE AREA.

FIRST LEAD ATLANTIC UNION
BY EDWARD E.BOMAR
(NY) WASHINGTON, MAY 17-(AP)-JOSEPH C.GREW, FORMER UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE AND EX-AMBASSADOR TO JAPAN, SAID TODAY AN AMERICAN BLOCKADE OF THE RED CHINA MAINLAND COULD LEAD TO A SHOOTING WAR AGAINST BRITISH SHIPPING AND IMPERIL THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT.
IN A SPEECH PREPARED FOR THE NATIONAL COUNCIL MEETING OF THE ATLANTIC UNION COMMITTEE, GREW SAID:
"AN AMERICAN BLOCKADE OF THE CHINA COASTLINE COULD RESULT IN AMERICAN SHIPS FIRING ON THE UNION JACK AND THUS RUNNING THE SERIOUS RISK OF DESTROYING THE NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE.
"SUPPOSE SOME FREE-WHEELING CAPTAIN OF A BRITISH MERCHANT VESSEL DECIDED TO RUN THE BLOCKADE. OUR NAVY WOULD BE UNDER ORDERS TO STOP SUCH VESSELS."
SUCH AN INCIDENT, HE SAID, COULD LEAD TO DESTRUCTION OF ANGLO-AMERICAN RELATIONS, ARDENTLY DESIRED BY THE SOVIET UNION.
GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR, OUSTED FAR EAST COMMANDER, HAS ADVICATED BLOCKADE OF THE CHINA MAINLAND. THE ADMINISTRATION HAS NOT FAVORED SUCH A MOVE.
GREW SAID THE BRITISH CONTROL "THE MAJORITY OF AIR BASES NEEDED NOT ONLY FOR THE DEFENSE OF WESTERN EUROPE BUT FOR THE DEFENSE OF THE UNITED STATES."

THE QUESTION OF WHETHER THESE BASES SHOULD BE "SACRIFICED" TO BLOCKADE RED CHINA, THE FORMER AMBASSADOR SAID, IS "TYPICAL OF THE KIND OF DECISION WHICH ARCHITECTS OF THE AMERICAN FOREIGN POLIVY MUST DAILY FACE."
THE ATLANTIC UNION COMMITTEE COUNCIL HAS URGED CONGRESS TO TAKE A FIRST STEP TOWARD FORMING A FEDERAL UNION OF THE WESTERN DEMOCRACIES AND THUS IMPLEMENT THE 12-NATION NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE.
COUNCIL MEMBERS SAID THEY WILL TRY TO GET BACKING BEHIND A LONG-PENDING RESOLUTION TO CALL AN INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION FOR THE PURPOSE.
THE RESOLUTION BEARS THE NAME OF SENATOR KEFAUVER (D-TENN) AND IS SUPPORTED BY 26 OTHER SENATORS AND SOME 100 MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE. OPPOSED BY THE ADMINISTRATION AS UNTIMELY, IT FAILED LAST YEAR TO GET OUT OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE.
SUPPORTERS CONTEND THE KOREAN FIGHTING, THE IRANIAN OIL CRISIS AND OTHER COLD WAR DEVELOPMENTS HAVE DRAMATIZED A NEED FOR WHAT THEY CALL A TIGHTER ORGANIZATION TO WIN THE GLOBAL STRUGGLE WITH COMMUNISM.
FOGMER SUPREME COURT JUSTICE OWEN J. ROBERTS IS PRESIDENT OF THE ATLANTIC UNION COMMITTEE. VICE-PRESIDENTS ARE ROBERT P. PATTERSON, FORMER SECRETARY OF WAR, AND WILL L. CLAYTON, FORMER UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE.
CLAYTON TOLD REPORTERS YESTERDAY THE IRANIAN DISPUTE MIGHT EXPLODE "TOMORROW" INTO WORLD WAR III. HE PREDICTED THE RESULT WOULD BE TO DEMONSTRATE MILITARY WEAKNESS AMONG THE WESTERN NATIONS.
THE ATLANTIC UNION RESOLUTION CALLS ON THE PRESIDENT TO INVITE THE NATIONS WHICH SPONSORED THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY TO NAME REPRESENTATIVES OF THEIR PRINCIPAL POLITICAL PARTIES AS DELEGATES TO A FEDERAL CONVENTION.
THEY WOULD BE DIRECTED TO "EXPLORE HOW FAR THEIR PEOPLES" AND THE PEOPLES OF OTHER DEMOCRACIES COULD PUT INTO EFFECT THE PRINCIPLES OF "FREE FEDERAL UNION." THE STATED INTENTION IS TO EEP WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF THE UNITED NATIONS.
CLAYTON DECLARED WESTERN EUROPE IS BECOMING INCREASINGLY INTERESTED IN THE IDEA OF A UNION OF THE DEMOCRACIES, BUT SAID SUCH A UNION WOULD NEVER COME ABOUT EXCEPT THROUGH THE INITIATIVE AND DRIVE OF THE UNITED STATES.

SAN FRANCISCO,MAY 17 (AP)-DICK CONTINO, NIGHT CLUB ACCORDION PLAYER, SURRENDERED TO THE U.S.MARSHAL TODAY ON A WARRANT CHARGING FAILURE TO ACCEPT ARMY INDUCTION.
HE GOT HIMSELF FREE ALMOST IMMEDIATELY WHEN A FRIENDS LAWYER FURNISHED $5,000 CASH BAIL, PENDING FEDERAL COURT ARRAIGNMENT ON MAY 25. THE ARRAIGNMENT DATE WAS SET AT TODAY'S BRIEF SESSION BY U.S.COMMISSIONER FRANCIS ST.J.FOX.
CONTINO GAVE THE IMPRESSION OF BEING VERY "NERVOUS," SOMETHING HE HAD COMPLAINED ABOUT PREVIOUSLY. HE HAD PROFESSED TO BE TROUBLED WITH CLAUSTROPHOBIA, FEELING HEMMED IN WHEN IN A CROWDED ROOM. HE HAS BEEN MAKING HIS LIVING FOR YEARS PLAYING FOR BIG PAY IN NIGHT CLUBS.
THE ENTERTAINER HANDED NEWSMEN A TYPEWRITTEN STATEMENT SAYING:
"I AM SURRENDERING ON AN INDICTMENT CHARGING ME WITH REFUSING TO BE INDUCTED INTO THE ARMED FORCES OF THE UNITED STATES.
"IT IS MOST REGRETFUL THAT I FIND MYSELF IN THIS PREDICAMENT, FOR AS GOD IS MY JUDGE I WANT MOST SINCERELY TO SERVE IN THE ARMED FORCES OF MY COUNTRY.
"I AM NOT TRYING TO ESCAPE A RIGHTFUL DUTY AND HOPE AT THE PROPER TIME TO PROVE THAT I HAD NO WILFUL INTENT OR DELIBERATE DESIGN TO EVADE SERVING MY COUNTRY."
J.E.PRISIN-ZANO, A LAWYER FRIEND OF CONTINO'S PUT UP THE BAIL. HE SAID HE WAS NOT REPRESENTING CONTINO BUT CLAIMED CONTINO WAS SUFFERING FROM CLAUSTROPHOBIA, AND THE YOUNG ACCORDIONIST VOLUNTEERED." I FINALLY FOUND OUT WHAT THE WORD MEANT, BUT IT'S NOT JUST CLAUSTROPHOBIA. IT'S A LOT OF OTHER PHOBIAS, TOO."
CONTINO SAID HE HAD "DITCHED" HIS ACCORDION SINCE HIS DISAPPEARANCE FROM FORT ORD, CALIF., APRIL 13 AFTER HE HAD REPORTED FOR HIS ARMY PHYSICAL EXAMINATION.
"I HAVEN'T PLAYED," HE SAID, "BECAUSE MUSIC ONLY COMES FROM INSIDE--UNLESS YOU FEEL IT, YOU DON'T DO IT."
THE FEDERAL GRAND JURY INDICTED CONTINO AFTER HEARING TESTIMONY OF THE SECRETARY OF CONTINO'S BURBANK DRAFT BOARD AND FOUR FORT ORD ARMY OFFICERS.
IF CONVICTED, CONTINO WOULD BE LIABLE TO A MAXIMUM SENTENCE OF FIVE YEARS IN FEDERAL PRISON AND $10,000 FINE.

(350) NIGHT LEAD SCIENTIST X
BY KARL R.BAUMAN
WASHINGTON,MAY 17-(AP)-CONTEMPT OF COURT CHARGES AGAINST DR. JOSEPH W.WEINBERG, THE "SCIENTIST X" OF AN INVESTIGATION INTO ALLEGED ATOMIC SPYING, WERE DISMISSED TODAY.
U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE ALEXANDER HOLTZOFF RULED DR.WEINBERG WAS WITHIN HIS CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS WHEN HE REFUSED TO ANSWER QUESTIONS PUT TO HIM BY A FEDERAL GRAND JURY HERE.
THE CONTEMPT CHARGES WERE DISMISSED WITHIN HOURS AFTER ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA THAT WEINBERG HAD BEEN SUSPENDED AS A PROFESSOR THERE.
THE CONTEMPT CHARGES WERE LODGED AGAINST WEINBERG LAST FRIDAY WHEN HE REPEATED BEFORE JUDGE HOLTZOFF HIS REFUSAL TO ANSWER FOUR QUESTIONS PUT TO HIM BY THE GRAND JURY. HE HAD BEEN AT LIBERTY UNDER $1,000 BAIL SINCE THEN.
THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE HAS ACCUSED WEINBERG OF SLIPPING ATOMIC SECRETS TO COMMUNISTS WHILE HE WORKED ON ATOMIC RESEARCH AT THE WARTIME RADIATION LABORATORY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA.
BUT WHEN WEINBERG APPEARED BEFORE THE COMMITTEE MAY 25, 1949 HE DENIED HE KNEW STEVE NELSON, COMMUNIST PARTY FUNCTIONARY, THE MAN WHO ALLEGEDLY RECEIVED THE SECRETS.
FOR THIS STATEMENT AND OTHERS THE COMMITTEE RECOMMENDED THAT WEINBERG BE PROSECUTED FOR PERJURY.
MYRON EHRLICH, WEINBERG'S ATTORNEY, TOLD JUDGE HOLTZOFF THE GRAND JURY WAS "ATTEMPTING TO INDICT HIM (WEINBERG) FOR PERJURY OR ESPIONAGE OR ANYTHING ELSE THEY COULD INDICT HIM FOR."
THE QUESTIONS WEINBERG REFUSED TO ANSWER BEFORE THE GRAND JURY, AS WELL AS BEFORE JUDGE HOLTZOFF, INCLUDED ONE QUERY AS TO WHETHER HE LIVED IN CALIFORNIA IN 1943. J.FRANK CUNNINGHAM, A JUSTICE DEPARTMENT ATTORNEY, ARGUED THAT WEINBERG SHOULD BE REQUIRED TO ANSWER THAT QUESTION.
JUDGE HOLTZOFF RULED THAT WEINBERG WAS WITHIN HIS CONSTITUTIONAL GUARANTEE AGAINST BEING REQUIRED TO GIVE TESTIMONY THAT MIGHT INCRIMINATE HIM. THE FACT HE LIVED IN CALIFORNIA IN 1943, THE JUDGE SAID, MIGHT PROVE A "LINK" FOR SOME CRIMINAL PROCEEDING.
CUNNINGHAM CONCEDED, IN REPLY TO A QUESTION BY THE JUDGE, THAT HE WANTED TO INQUIRE INTO THE SCIENTIST'S ACTIVITIES AT THE RADIATION LABORATORY AS WELL AS HIS ASSOCIATIONS THERE WHEN WEINBERG APPEARED BEFORE THE GRAND JURY.
EARLIER, JUDGE HOLTZOFF HAD ASKED CUNNINGHAM:
"IS THIS DEFENDANT A POSSIBLE DEFENDANT IN SOME FUTURE CRIMINAL CASE?"
"YES," YOUR HONOR," CUNNINGHAM REPLIED.

MINNEAPOLIS,MAY 17-(AP)-THE UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA'S SUSPENSION OF DR.JOSEPH WEINBERG STILL HELD TODAY, ALTHOUGH THE PHYSICS INSTRUCTOR WAS CLEARED OF CONTEMPT OF COURT CHARGES IN FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT, WASHINGTON.
DR.WEINBERG WAS IDENTIFIED BY UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE INVESTIGATORS, PROBING ATOMIC ESPIONAGE, AS THE MYSTERIOUS "SCIENTIST X."
THERE WAS NOT THE SLIGHTEST INDICATION THAT DR.J.L.MORRILL, UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT, MIGHT LIFT THE SUSPENSION. MORRILL REAFFIRMED HIS ACTION OF LAST NIGHT, SAYING HE WOULD ASK THE BOARD OF REGENTS NEXT MONTH TO EITHER CONTINUE THE SUSPENSION OR DISMISS WEINBERG PERMANENTLY.
IN DISMISSING WEINBERG, DR.MORRILL SAID OUTCOME OF THE CONTEMPT CASE WOULD HAVE NO BEARING ON THE MATTER.
"IT IS MY BELIEF THAT HIS JUDGMENT IN THIS REFUSAL TO CO-OPERATE WITH FEDERAL AUTHORITIES IS INCOMPATIBLE WITH COMMON SENSE AND HIS DUTY AND OBLIGATION AS A MEMBER OF OUR UNIVERSITY STAFF," DR. MORRILL SAID.

HOUSTON, TEX., MAY 17-(AP)-THE KOREAN FOREIGN MINISTER SAID TODAY HIS PEOPLE FEAR THAT GENERAL DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S PROPOSALS MIGHT BRING RUSSIA INTO THE WAR.
"THEY ALL AGREE AS TO THE EFFICACY OF THESE," MINISTER YUNG TAI PYUN SAID, "BUT WHAT THE PEOPLE FEAR IS THAT THESE TACTICS MIGHT PROVOKE THE SOVIET UNION INTO WAR."
PYUN CAME TO HOUSTON TO ADDRESS THE NATIONAL CONVENTION OF THE GENERAL FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS IN BEHALF OF KOREAN RELIEF.
HE MADE AN APPEAL FOR THE WOMEN TO JOIN IN THE CARE (ALL CAPS) PROGRAM OF RELIEF PACKAGES FOR KOREA THIS AFTERNOON.
HIS REMARKS ON THE WAR WERE MADE TO REPORTERS EARLIER.
HE SAID IN AN INTERVIEW THAT WHAT THE KOREAN PEOPLE DON'T WANT IS A STALEMATE---"A STANDING SOURCE OF LOSS," HE TERMED IT.
"IF THIS UNDECISIVE (CQ) WAR DRAGS ON FOR YEARS IN A STALEMATE, WELL, YOU WILL FIND THAT WE ARE A VANISHING PEOPLE," HE SAID.
"THE PEOPLE OF KOREA ARE NOT BITTER ABOUT THIS DEVASTATION THAT HAS COME TO THEIR COUNTRY. THEY ARE DAZED.
"KOREANS KNOW THAT THEY ARE NOT FORTUNATE ENOUGH TO CHOOSE BETWEEN LIFE AND DEATH. THEY KNOW THEY MUST CHOOSE BETWEEN TWO DIFFERENT FORMS OF DEATH---THE DEATH OF A FREE MAN OR THE DEATH OF A SLAVE.
"AND IT IS WORTH IT TO DIE A FREE MAN."
PYUN, WHO WAS MADE FOREIGN MINISTER OF THE REPUBLIC OF KOREA LESS THAN A MONTH AGO, SAID HE WANTED TO EMPHASIZE THAT HE DID NOT TAKE SIDES IN THE CONTROVERSY IN THE UNITED STATES AS TO WAR POLICY. HE SAID HE GAVE JUST THE GENERAL VIEWS OF HIS PEOPLE.
"MACARTHUR WAS OUR FRIEND," HE SAID, "AND OF COURSE WE REGRET LOSING FRIENDS AMONG US. HE WAS A MAN OF CONVICTION AND RARE PATRIOTISM. WE ARE VERY FORTUNATE TO FIND HIS SUCCESSOR A MAN OF GREAT COMBAT EXPERIENCE AND UNUSUAL PROWESS. WE HAVE CONFIDENCE IN HIM.
"WE ARE TALIING VERY MUCH ABOUT EXPANDING THE KOREAN ARMY, AND THAT MAKES US VERY HAPPY."
PYUN SAID HE CAME TO AMERICA TO HELP CARE (ALL CAPS) LAUNCH A STEPPED-UP RELIEF PROGRAM FOR KOREA.
"OUR GOVERNMENT REGARDS RELIEF PROBLEMS AS URGENT," HE SAID. "THERE ARE DIFFICULTIES IN THE WAY OF RELIEF. ALL RELIEF ACTIVITIES HAVE BEEN POOLED UNDER THE U. N. COMMAND. THE COMMAND, OF COURSE, IS BOUND TO GIVE PRIORITY TO MILITARY MATTERS AND DEMANDS."
THE FEDERATION PLANS TO LAUNCH SOON A NATIONAL CAMPAIGN FOR RELIEF TO KOREA.
THE 2,000 DELEGATES TO THE CONVENTION HONORED THEIR 23 INTERNATIONAL DELEGATES FROM 11 FOREIGN COUNTRIES TODAY.

HOUSTON, TEX., MAY 17-(AP)-THE 2,000 DELEGATES TO THE NATIONAL CONVENTION OF THE FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS BEGIN TODAY A DRIVE TO COMBAT WORLD COMMUNISM.

THEIR PROGRAM IS A NATIONAL CAMPAIGN FOR CARE (ALL CAPS) PACKAGES TO KOREA.

"THE WHOLE PURPOSE OF EXTENDING WOMEN'S CLUB WORK TO FOREIGN NATIONS IS TO CREATE A BETTER UNDERSTANDING IN ORDER TO COMBAT COMMUNISM," SAID MRS. JOHN L.WHITEHURST OF BALTIMORE, MD.

"IT'S THE RUSSIAN POLICY TO BELITTLE AMERICA AND HELP THE PEOPLE IN NEED," SAID MRS.WHITEHURST, WHO IS CHAIRMAN FOR THE COUNCIL OF INTERNATIONAL CLUBS OF THE FEDERATION.

"WELL, WE ARE GOING TO DO WHAT WE CAN TO ANSWER THAT IN OUR OWN WAY," SHE SAID.

SPARKING THE CAMPAIGN ARE 23 WOMEN FROM 11 FOREIGN NATIONS WHO ARE INTERNATIONAL DELEGATES TO THE SIX-DAY CONVENTION THAT OPENED HERE MONDAY.

MAY 18 1951

COMING IN TODAY IS THE FOREIGN MINISTER OF KOREA, Y.T.PYUN, WHO WILL TELL THE WOMEN WHAT THEY CAN DO TO HELP HIS COUNTRY.

REP. WALTER H.JUDD OF MINNESOTA, A FORMER MEDICAL MISSIONARY IN CHINA, WILL TALK TO THE CONVENTION TONIGHT ON THE FAR EAST SITUATION.

DON J.RAFAEL OREAMUNO, AMBASSADOR FROM COSTA RICA, WILL SPEAK ON THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE AND INTER-AMERICAN COOPERATION.

THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS FROM TOPEKA, KAS., TOLD THE WOMEN LAST NIGHT THAT THEY MUST KEEP THE SPIRIT OF COMPETITION IN THE SCHOOLS.

"LIFE IS NOT JUST ONE BIG CONTINUOUS FESTIVAL WHERE NO ONE EXCELS AND NO ONE LOSES," SUPERINTENDENT KENNETH MCFARLAND SAID. "THEREFORE THE SCHOOLS WHICH PREPARE FOR LIFE SHOULD NOT OPERATE UNDER THE DELUSION THAT NO ONE CAN ACHIEVE MORE THAN ANYONE ELSE.

"AT THE ADULT LEVEL THIS THEORY IS COMMUNISM, BUT SOMEHOW WE ARE MAKING OURSELVES BELIEVE AT THE CHILDHOOD LEVEL IT IS DEMOCRACY."

LAST NIGHT WAS PRESIDENT'S NIGHT AT THE CONVENTION, WITH THE PRESIDENT OF EACH STATE FEDERATION INTRODUCED TO THE CONVENTION.

THE GENERAL FEDERATION'S EXTENSION AWARDS WERE GIVEN TO CALIFORNIA FOR THE LARGEST NUMBER OF NEW CLUBS, TO MAINE FOR THE GREATEST INCREASE IN MEMBERSHIP AND TO THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA FOR THE GREATEST PROPORTIONAL INCREASE.

THE PRESS BOOK CONTEST AWARD WAS DIVIDED BETWEEN THE JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB OF JACKSONVILLE BEACH, FLA., AND THE MONDAY STUDY CLUB OF NEW LONDON. MO.

"THE PLAINEST FACT WE FACE TODAY IS THAT THE WORLD IS DIVIDED," JUDD SAID IN HIS PREPARED SPEECH. "OUR GREATEST TASK, OF WHICH ALL OTHER PROBLEMS ARE MERELY PARTS, IS TO ACHIEVE THE GREATEST UNITY POSSIBLE IN THIS DIVIDED WORLD."

OREAMUNO OUTLINED THE WORK OF THE CONSULTATIONS OF THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF THE AMERICAN REPUBLICS IN HIS PREPARED ADDRESS. HE SAID THAT THE REPUBLICS HAVE BEEN ASKED TO EXAMINE THEIR LAWS AND ADOPT CHANGES NECESSARY TO ENSURE THAT SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES BY INTERNATIONAL COMMUNISTS ARE ADEQUATELY FORESTALLED AND PENALIZED.

THE NAME OF MRS. OSCAR A. AHLGREN, WHITING, IND., WILL BE PRESENTED TOMORROW AS CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT OF THE GENERAL FEDERATION.

THE ELECTION WILL BE HELD AT THE FEDERATION'S CONVENTION IN MINNEAPOLIS AIN MAY, 1952, BUT CANDIDATES WILL BE PRESENTED HERE. MRS. HIRAM COLE HOUGHTON OF RED OAK, IOWA, HAS SERVED HALF OF HER TWO-YEAR TERM AS PRESIDENT.

DENVER, MAY 17-(AP)-THE B-36 CREWS--OUR ACE ATOM BOMB PLANE--RECEIVE THE MOST INTENSIVE TRAINING IN THE HISTORY OF AVIATION.

THIS TRAINING WAS DESCRIBED AT THE AERO MEDICAL ASSOCIATION BY COL. DON FLICKINGER, AIR SURGEON, EIGHTH AIR FORCE, FORT WORTH,TEXAS. EACH PLANE CARRIES A CREW OF TWELVE OR MORE. THEY GO ON TRAINING FLIGHTS LASTING 24 TO 34 HOURS, NONSTOP. THEY FREQUENTLY SPEND SOME TI... FLYING AT 40,000 FEET AND HIGHER.

THESE MEN ARE THE HIGHEST AGE GROUP OF MILITARY FLYERS. THEY ARE MATURE. MANY HAD YEARS OF PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE, INCLUDING COMB... YET EVEN THE MOST EXPERIENCED HAS TO SPEND A YEAR OR MORE TO LEARN THE DIFFERENT AND ADDED DUTIES.

FATIGUE PROVED TO BE ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT HAZARDS. ACCURACY OF BOMBING AND OF RADAR WORK DEPENDED ON REDUCING FATIGUE. FATIGUE WAS CUT ONE-THIRD--ENOUGH TO SHOW IN BOMBING ACHIEVEMENT--BY REGULAR HOURS OF WORK, EATING AND SLEEPING DURING MISSIONS.

IT WASN'T EASY, COL.FLICKINGER SAID. RIGID TRAINING WAS REQUIRED. ONE HANDICAP WAS THE SENIOR MEN, WHO WHEN DUE TO REST, HAD TO TURN THI... DUTIES OVER TO SUBSTITUTES. LIKE MANY EXECUTIVES IN BUSINESS, THESE SENIORS COULDN'T DELEGATE WORK TO SOMEONE ELSE. THEY HAD TO BE TRAINED TO DO THIS.

MEN WERE STARTING OUT ALREADY TIRED BY ALL THE PREPARATIONS THEY HAD MADE. TO REMEDY THIS THEY WERE PLACED IN CENTERS WHERE THEY WERE NOT ALLOWED TO DO MORE THAN FOUR TO SIX HOURS PREPARATION WORK, WHERE THERE WAS PLENTY OF RECREATION AND SUPERVISION TO SEE THAT THEY ATE AND SLEPT WELL.

ANOTHER CHANGE IS A SYSTEM OF PROMOTION. FORMERLY MEN WHO WANTED HIG... RANK HAD TO LEAVE FOR SOME SORT OF STAFF WORK. NOW A MAN RECEIVES HIS PROMOTIONS BY STAYING IN THE BIG BOMBER SERVICE.

A LOT OF RED TAPE HAS BEEN CUT. IF A MAN FINDS THAT SOME PIECE OF EQUIPMENT IS HANDICAPPING HIM, HIS PROBLEM IS TAKEN DIRECT TO A A SCIENTIFIC OR TECHNICAL LABORATORY FOR SOLUTION.

CINCINNATI, MAY 17-(AP)-JOHN W.GIBSON, CHAIRMAN OF THE U.S. DISPLACED PERSONS COMMISSION, SAID TODAY HOMELESS AND HOPELESS REFUGEES ARE A CONSTANT THREAT TO PEACE.

ADDRESSING A MEETING OF NATIONAL VOLUNTARY AGENCIES, GERMAN-AMERICAN ORGANIZATIONS AND REPRESENTATIVES OF PRIVATE BUSINESS WHO ARE INTERESTED IN THE PROBLEM, GIBSON SAID:

"THERE ARE TODAY 10 MILLION REFUGEES IN THE WESTERN ZONES OF GERMANY AND AUSTRIA--AN AREA LESS THAN THAT OF OHIO, INDIANA AND IOWA.

"THE THREAT TO WORLD PEACE IS EVEN MORE ALARMING WHEN THE WESTERN ZONES OF GERMANY AND AUSTRIA ARE VIEWED IN THE LIGHT OF POPULATION FIGURES.

"OF THE TOTAL 50 MILLION POPULATION IN THE TWO ZONES, TEN MILLION, OR ONE IN EVERY FIVE PERSONS, EITHER IS A DISPLACED PERSON OR AN EXPELLEE."

EDWARD M.M.O'CONNOR AND HARRY N.ROSENFIELD, ALSO MEMBERS OF THE DISPLACED PERSONS COMMISSION, AND ELLIOTT M.SHIRK, RESETTLEMENT OFFICER, ALSO ATTENDED THE MEETING.

THE COMMISSION'S IMMEDIATE CONCERN IS THE RESETTLEMENT OF GERMAN EXPELLEES--REFUGEES WHO WERE FORCED BY THE COMMUNISTS TO FLEE THEIR FARMS, FACTORIES AND SHOPS IN EASTERN EUROPE, O'CONNOR SAID.

GIBSON HAS JUST RETURNED FROM A FIVE WEEKS' INSPECTION TOUR OVERSEAS.

HE STRESSED THE IMPORTANCE OF KEEPING UP THE HOPES OF "THESE MILLION OF DISTRESSED AND OPPRESSED HUMAN BEINGS."

APPROXIMATELY 200 REPRESENTATIVES ARE ATTENDING THE CONFERENCE TO DISCUSS METHODS OF FITTING EXPELLEES INTO EMPLOYMENT TO FURTHER THE NATIONAL DEFENSE PROGRAM, AND OF MEETING FARM AND LABOR SHORTAGES IN CERTAIN SPECIFIED SKILLS.

CHICAGO,MAY 17-(AP)-THE PRESIDENT OF HARVARD UNIVERSITY SAID TODAY A BUILD-UP OF GROUND FORCES FOR DEFENSE OF EUROPE IS A MOVE "AWAY FROM A GLOBAL WAR AND TOWARDS THE GOAL OF PEACE."

JAMES BRYANT CONANT TOLD A JOINT MEETING OF THE CHICAGO ASSOCIATION OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY AND THE CHICAGO COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS THAT DEFENSE OF EUROPE ON THE GROUND "IS BY NO MEANS THE HOPELESS UNDERTAKING THAT SOME HAVE CLAIMED."

"IF GLOBAL WAR CAN BE AVOIDED AND WESTERN EUROPE MADE SECURE AGAINST INVASION FROM THE EAST, THEN IN THE COURSE OF YEARS NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE SOVIET UNION COULD BEGIN TO TAKE A REALISTIC TURN," HE DECLARED.

DR. CONANT ADDED THAT UNITED ACTION BY THE UNITED STATES, GREAT BRITAIN AND FRANCE IS ESSENTIAL TO THE DEFENSE OF EUROPE, AND THAT A UNITED POLICY IN THE FAR EAST AMONG THOSE NATIONS IS "LIKEWISE ESSENTIAL."

"MANY OF US WHO DISAGREE STRONGLY WITH THE POLICY ADVOCATED BY GENERAL MACARTHUR DO SO X X X BECAUSE IT WOULD APPEAR THAT GENERAL MAC ARTHUR IS PREPARED TO HAVE THE UNITED STATES GO IT ALONE IN THE FAR EAST," HE SAID.

"TO FOLLOW SUCH A COURSE X X X WOULD MAKE IMPOSSIBLE THE UNITY REQUIRED IN THE EXTREMELY DIFFICULT MATTER OF REARMING EUROPE, AN OPERATION WHICH BY ITS VERY NATURE TOUCHES SENSTITIVE NERVES IN EVERY COUNTRY. IF THE FREE WORLD IS TO REMAIN FREE AND SECURE. IT MUST BE UNITED; THIS SEEMS BUT COMMON SENSE."

DR. CONANT SAID THAT IN THE CURRENT "GREAT DEBATE" OVER FOREIGN POLICY NOW GOING ON IN WASHINGTON, "NO MORE DISSERVICE TO THE CAUSE OF PEACE CAN BE DONE THAN BY SOWING SEEDS OF DISUNITY BETWEEN THE ATLANTIC TREATNY NATIONS."

"THE COMMON DANGER WHICH NOW CONFRONTS US ALL," HE SAID, "THE EXISTENCE OF AN AGGRESSIVE COMMUNIST RUSSIA AND ITS SATELLITES IN AN ATOMIC AGE--THIS COMMON DANGER I SUGGEST IS SO GREAT AS TO WARRANT OUR MINIMIZING OUR PAST DIFFERENCES AND UNITING ON AN ENLIGHTENED WORLD POLICY."

(WX) CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., MAY 17-(AP)-SENATOR MCCARTHY (R-WISC) SAID LAST NIGHT TESTIMONY IN THE WASHINGTON INQUIRY INTO GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S OUSTER SHOWS THE ARMY IS RUN BY "POLITICAL GENERALS."

HE DECLARED SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL HAD TOLD SENATE COMMITTEES INVESTIGATING THE MACARTHUR FIRING THAT "NO OFFICER HAD THE RIGHT, EVEN UNDER OATH, TO TELL THE TRUTH AS HE SAW IT IF THAT TRUTH DID NOT FULLY BACK UP THE IDEAS OF THE POLITICAL PARTY IN POWER AT THE TIME."

IN HIS TESTIMONY LAST WEEK, MARSHALL HAD SAID THAT OFFICERS UNDER QUESTIONING MAY EXPRESS VIEWS AT VARIANCE WITH ESTABLISHED POLICY IF THEY CLEARLY STATE THAT THEY SPEAK ONLY FOR THEMSELVES.

MCCARTHY, IN A SPEECH TO THE STUDENT LEGAL FORUM AT THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA LAW SCHOOL, INTERPRETED MARSHALL'S TESTIMONY AS TELLING OFFICERS THEY MUST "TELL THE TRUTH AND SUFFER THE CONSEQUENCES OR, IF THEY WANTED TO CONTINUE THEIR MILITARY CAREERS, COMMIT PERJURY WITH OFFICIAL SANCTION."

THE SENATOR, A PERSISTENT CRITIC OF ADMINISTRATION FOREIGN POLICY, ALSO CRITICIZED GEN. OMAR BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, FOR TESTIFYING TUESDAY THAT MACARTHUR'S KOR

STAFF, FOR TESTIFYING TUESDAY THAT MACARTHUR'S KOREAN WAR STRATEGY PROBABLY WOULD TOUCH OFF ALL-OUT WAR WITH CHINA.

BRADLEY SAID THE JOINT CHIEFS FEEL THAT WOULD BE "THE WRONG WAR, AT THE WRONG PLACE, AT THE WRONG TIME AND WITH THE WRONG ENEMY."

MCCARTHY COMMENTED:

"BRADLEY TESTIFIED TO THIS UNDER OATH DESPITE THE FACT THAT THE JOINT CHIEFS, INCLUDING BRADLEY, UNANIMOUSLY AGREED IN WRITING WITH MACARTHUR'S FOUR POINTS OF JAN. 12 OF THIS YEAR."

MACARTHUR HAD TESTIFIED THE JOINT CHIEFS SUPPORTED HIM ON THE WISDOM OF (1) USING CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS, (2) BOMBING CHINESE BASES IN MANCHURIA, (3) BLOCKADING THE CHINA MAINLAND, AND (4) TIGHTER ECONOMIC WARFARE AGAINST THE PEIPING REGIME.

BOTH BRADLEY AND MARSHALL TESTIFIED THOSE POINTS WERE AMONG 16 THE JOINT CHIEFS STUDIED IN THE EVENT IT BECAME NECESSARY FOR UNITED NATIONS FORCES TO PULL OUT OF KOREA. BRADLEY SAID THE 16 POINTS NEVER GOT BEYOND THE STUDY STAGE.

(ADVANCE) SPRINGFIELD, MASS., MAY 17-(AP)-METHODIST CHURCHMEN TODAY CONSIDERED A REPORT WHICH DECLARED "AMERICA CANNOT AND SHOULD NOT BE EXPECTED TO POLICE THE WORLD ALONE."

DR.DAVID H.HICKEY, A MEMBER OF THE CONFERENCE COMMISSION ON SOCIAL ETHICS AND WORLD PEACE AT THE 155TH ANNUAL NEW ENGLAND CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH, SUBMITTED A STATEMENT WHICH DECLARED:

"WE CONDEMN THOSE COUNTRIES, WHICH, AS MEMBERS OF THE UNITED NATIONS, HAVE FAILED TO FULFILL THEIR OBLIGATIONS FOR COMMON DEFENSE AGAINST THE AGGRESSORS IN KOREA AND HAVE SENT LITTLE MORE THAN A TOKEN FORCE TO THE FRONT."

HICKEY CALLED FOR "A MUTUAL DEFENSE PACT UPON THE PART OF ALL LIBERTY LOVING NATIONS" AND CONTINUED:

"IT IS IRONICAL AND TRAGIC THAT WE SHOULD BRING YOUNG MEN OF MILITARY AGE TO THIS COUNTRY AS DISPLACED PERSONS TO FILL POSITIONS MADE VACANT BY OUR MEN WHO HAVE BEEN CALLED TO SERVICE WITH THE ARMED FORCES.

"WE BELIEVE THAT ALL DISPLACED PERSONS OF MILITARY AGE SHOULD BE GIVEN THE OPPORTUNITY OF SERVICE IN SOME PHASE OF THE DEFENSE EFFORT."

THE REPORT OF THE FULL COMMISSION CONDEMNED "ATOMIC VIOLENCE AND WARFARE" AND CHARGED CONGRESS WITH "CALLOUS DISREGARD OF HUNGER AND SUFFERING" BECAUSE OF "INDIFFERENCE" TO APPEALS FROM INDIA FOR GRAIN.

THE REPORT SAID ALSO: "THE CURRENT EXPOSE OF GAMBLING AND UNDERWORLD CORRUPTION AND CRIME BY SENATE INVESTIGATORS, AS WELL AS MALFEASANCE IN HIGH OFFICE BY GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS, IS A STARTLING REVELATION OF A DECLINE IN MORAL STANDARDS AMONG THE AMERICAN PEOPLE."

THE "CURE," THE REPORT ADDED, IS "A RECOVERY OF INTEGRITY AND MORAL STANDARDS."

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J., MAY 17-(AP)-AN OFFICIAL OF THE FEDERAL CIVIL DEFENSE ADMINISTRATION CLAIMS THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT HAS SPENT NOTHING ON "VITAL CIVIL DEFENSE EQUIPMENT" AS YET.

IN A SPEECH YESTERDAY, DEPUTY ADMINISTRATOR JAMES J.WADSWORTH CITED THE NEED FOR MANPOWER AND MONEY FOR "THE GREATEST HUMAN SALVAGE JOB OF WHICH WE CAN CONCEIVE."

HE TOLD THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF SOCIAL WORK CIVIL DEFENSE WILL REQUIRE "A GREAT DEAL OF MONEY" AND 15,000,000 (M) WORKERS.

THESE WERE ONLY THE MINIMUM NEEDS, WADSWORTH SAID IN URGING THAT CIVIL DEFENSE SPENDING BE PUT ON AN EQUAL FOOTING WITH THE MILITARY.

HE SAID HIS AGENCY WAS PREPARING TO ASK CONGRESS FOR MORE MONEY SO AS TO MAKE CIVIL DEFENSE A "CO-EQUAL" WITH THE ARMED FORCES.

ALREADY, WADSWORTH SAID, $26,000,000,000 (B) HAVE BEEN SPENT ON MILITARY EQUIPMENT AND ANOTHER $58,000,000,000 (B) ARE PLANNED FOR THE NEXT 14 MONTHS.

ON THE CIVIL DEFENSE SIDE OF THE LEDGER, WADSWORTH SAID THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT CAN'T PROVIDE EVEN ONE FIRST AID STATION.

HE SAID 97 STATIONS, AT $3,000 APIECE, ARE NEEDED TO HANDLE CASUALTIES FROM ONE BOMB SUCH AS WAS DROPPED ON HIROSHIMA.

"WE HAVE THE (ATOMIC) BOMB IN NUMBERS AND VARIETIES THAT THE RUSSIANS CANNOT HOPE TO MEET IN ANY BRIEF PERIOD OF YEARS," HE SAID.

HE ADDRESSED THE SEVENTH ANNUAL DINNER OF THE TAX EXECUTIVES INSTITUTE AT THE WALDORF ASTORIA.

THE UNITED STATES, HE SAID, IS VASTLY SUPERIOR TO RUSSIA IN MECHANICAL CAPACITY, THE EFFICIENCY OF POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC LEADERS, THE EFFICIENCY OF ITS CITIZENS, AND IN TEACHING ABILITY.

O'MAHONEY SAID AMERICANS OF ALL CLASSES HAVE RISEN TO THE PLEA OF PUTTING THE NATION'S DEFENSE PROGRAM ON A PAY-AS-YOU-GO BASIS.

TO PILE A NEW NATIONAL DEBT ON TOP OF THE PRESENT DEBT OF $257,000,000,000 (B), HE SAID, WOULD "MEAN THE ECONOMIC COLLAPSE ON WHICH THE RUSSIANS ARE COUNTING."

NEW YORK, MAY 17-(AP)-MAJ. GEN. LEWIS B. HERSHEY SAID TODAY THAT SELECTIVE SERVICE WOULD HAVE "A VERY TOUGH JOB" FILLING THE 3,500,000 (M) MILITARY MANPOWER GOAL BY THE FALL OF 1952.

THE NATIONAL SELECTIVE SERVICE DIRECTOR TOLD THE AMERICAN MANAGEMENT ASSOCIATION THAT THE CURTAILED SELECTIVE SERVICE PROGRAM IS REFLECTED IN FALLING RECRUITMENT AS THE GOAL APPROACHES.

"THERE IS NO QUESTION ABOUT THE FACT THAT WE'RE SHORT OF MEN," HERSHEY SAID. HE ADDED THAT AS THE AUTHORIZED NUMBER OF MEN IS REACHED THERE WILL BE "INSISTENT DEMANDS TO GET A LOT OF PEOPLE OUT." HE SAID THIS WOULD MEAN THE U.S. WOULD HAVE TO INCREASE THE "NUMBER WE HAVE PUT IN."

HE SAID THAT BY CHRISTMAS 1952 "WHEN WE ARE TRYING TO FIND 80,000 OUT OF 87,000 (ELIGIBLES) WE WILL MISS IT BY 30,000 TO 35,000.

PLEADING FOR A PERMANENT SELECTIVE SERVICE PROGRAM, HE SAID:

"I'D LIKE TO SEE SOME PERMANENCY. I'D SETTLE FOR A BILL THAT WAS PERMANENT IN THE MORNING EVEN IF THEY REPEALED IT IN THE AFTERNOON. I COULD AT LEAST EAT LUNCH KNOWING WHERE I WAS AT-- KNOWING I WAS LIVING UNDER A PERMANENT LAW."

NEW YORK, MAY 17-(AP)-SEVERAL TOP NEWSPAPER AND RADIO PERSONALITIES LARGELY AGREE THAT THE GREAT DEBATE STIRRED UP BY THE OUSTING OF GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR HAS LED THE AMERICAN PEOPLE TO DEMAND A MORE VIGOROU: FAR EAST POLICY.

A FOREIGN POLICY DISCUSSION WAS HELD LAST NIGHT AT THE TWELFTH ANNUAL DINNER OF THE OVERSEAS PRESS CLUB OF AMERICA AT THE WALDORF-ASTORIA HOTEL.

TAKING PART IN "THE PRESS LOOKS AT U.S. FOREIGN POLICY" WERE:

BARRY BINGHAM, EDITOR, THE LOUISVILLE COURIER-JOURNAL AND TIMES; HAL BOYLE, ASSOCIATED PRESS COLUMNIST AND FORMER WAR CORRESPONDENT; ERWIN D. CANHAM, EDITOR, THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR; ROBERT CONSIDINE, INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE; H. V. KALTENBORN, NATIONAL BROADCASTING COMPANY; MRS.HELEN ROGERS REID. PRESIDENT. THE NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE; QUENTIN REYNOLDS, EDITOR, UNITED NATIONS WORLD; AND GIDEON D. SEYMOUR, EXECUTIVE EDITOR, THE MINNEAPOLIS STAR AND TRIBUNE.

COMMENTING ON THE MACARTHUR DISMISSAL, KALTENBORN SAID THE PRINCIPAL OUTCOME OF THE DEBATE ON THIS ISSUE HAS BEEN THAT THE "ADMINISTRATION ALREADY HAS ACCEPTED SOME OF MACARTHUR'S POLICIES."

CONSIDINE SAID THE ADMINISTRATION HAS "COME AROUND TO MACARTHUR'S THINKING VERY VIVIDLY," AND ADDED:

"THREE OR FOUR HUNDRED THOUSAND WORDS HAVE BEEN SAID, AND THE BOYS HAVE TALKED THEMSELVES INTO THE SAME POINT OF VIEW."

BOYLE SAID HE REGARDED THE GREAT DEBATE AS "A GOOD THING" BECAUSE "IT'S BETTER TO HAVE WAR AMONG THE GENERALS THAN TO HAVE A GENERAL WAR

CANHAM DECLARED THE ADMINISTRATION HAD NOT TAKEN ANY OF THE STEPS PROPOSED BY MACARTHUR WHICH IT FELT WOULD RISK THE DANGER OF SPREADING THE KOREAN CONFLICT.

THE DINNER ALSO SERVED TO HONOR SEVEN PERSONS WHO WERE PRESENTED WITH THE CLUB'S 1950 AWARDS FOR OUTSTANDING FOREIGN COVERAGE IN THE FIELDS OF PRESS, RADIO AND PHOTOGRAPHY.

THE AWARDS WENT TO:

HOMER BIGART, NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE, FOR BEST CONSISTENT PRESS REPORTING FROM ABROAD.

BOYLE, FOR BEST WAR REPORTING (PRESS, RADIO AND TELEVISION).

DAVID DUNCAN, LIFE MAGAZINE, FOR BEST PICTURE REPORTING JUDGED FROM ITS INTERPRETIVE QUALITY.

MARGUERITE HIGGINS, NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE, THE GEORGE POLK MEMORIAL AWARD TO FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS FOR COURAGE, INTEGRITY AND ENTERPRISE ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY. THE POLK AWARD WAS ESTABLISHED IN HONOR OF GEORGE POLK, CBS CORRESPONDENT MURDERED IN GREECE IN 1948.

NEW YORK, MAY 17-(AP)-BISHOP MICHAEL J.READY OF COLUMBUS, O., CHARGED TODAY THAT THE AMERICAN PRESS HAS FAILED TO PRESENT A TRUE PICTURE OF EVENTS IN YUGOSLAVIA.

HE ALSO TOLD A MEETING OF CATHOLIC EDITORS THAT IN AMERICAN NEWS ACCOUNTS "THERE HAVE BEEN MISREPRESENTATIONS IN RECENT WEEKS OF VATICAN POLICY AND ATTITUDES."

THE BISHOP DID NOT NAME SPECIFIC INSTANCES. HE SAID REPORTERS SOMETIMES MAGNIFY THE VIEWS OF ANONYMOUS PERSONS INTO AUTHORITATIVE VATICAN ATTITUDES BECAUSE OFFICIAL COMMENTS ARE NOT IMMEDIATELY AVAILABLE.

BISHOP READY IS CHAIRMAN OF THE PRESS DEPARTMENT OF THE NATIONAL CATHOLIC WELFARE CONFERENCE, WHICH DISTRIBUTES THE NCWC NEWS SERVICE TO CATHOLIC PAPERS. HE SPOKE TO 400 EDITORS AND EXECUTIVES OF ROMAN CATHOLIC NEWSPAPERS AND MAGAZINES AT THE 41ST CONVENTION OF THE CATHOLIC PRESS ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA.

THE BISHOP SAID THAT THE TITO REGIME IN YUGOSLAVIA, BY "PERMITTING A FEW WESTERN CORRESPONDENTS TO COME IN AND LOOK AROUND," HAS MISLED AMERICAN PUBLIC OPINION INTO BELIEVING THAT YUGOSLAVIA HAS "COME OVER TO OUR SIDE."

"IT IS NOT MY INTENTION TO CHARGE THESE CORRESPONDENTS WITH ANY DELIBERATE EFFORT TO MISLEAD THEIR READERS," BISHOP READY SAID. "I CANNOT REFRAIN, HOWEVER, FROM POINTING OUT AT LEAST ONE PUZZLING FACT. TWO AMERICAN CORRESPONDENTS LATELY WERE PERMITTED TO SEE AND TALK WITH ARCHBISHOP STEPINAC, THE UNJUSTLY IMPRISONED ARCHBISHOP OF ZAGREB. IN THEIR REPORTS THE TWO CAPABLE NEWSMEN DEALT WITH THE ARCHBISHOP MERELY AS IF HE WERE A CRIMINAL WHO IN THE CIRCUMSTANCES RECEIVED DECENT ENOUGH TREATMENT AT THE HANDS OF HIS JAILERS.

"I AM NOT AWARE OF A SINGLE REFERENCE IN THESE REPORTS TO THE FACT THAT ARCHBISHOP STEPINAC IS CONSIDERED BY MILLIONS OF PEOPLE IN HIS OWN COUNTRY AND OTHER MILLIONS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD AS THE INNOCENT VICTIM OF A REGIME DETERMINED TO STAMP OUT RELIGION BY ELIMINATING ITS LEADERS."

THIS WAS AN EVIDENT REFERENCE TO STORIES BY C.L.SULZBERGER OF THE NEW YORK TIMES, AND ALEX SINGLETON OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. SULZBERGER RECENTLY RECEIVED A SPECIAL PULITZER PRIZE CITATION FOR HIS INTERVIEW AND STORY.

(COMMENTING ON BISHOP READY'S REMARKS, THE ASSOCIATED PRESS SAID THAT "ALEX SINGLETON'S ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH OF APRIL 6 REPORTING HIS INTERVIEW WITH ARCHBISHOP STEPINAC SPEAKS FOR ITSELF. A READING OF THE DISPATCH WILL SHOW THAT BISHOP READY'S APPARENT REFERENCES THERETO ARE WHOLLY MISLEADING AND NOT WELL FOUNDED.")

DETROIT,MAY 17-(AP)-CUTBACKS IN THE AUTO INDUSTRY'S STEEL CONSUMPTION, ORDERED BY THE NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY WILL MEAN LAYOFFS FOR SOME 10,000 (T) FORD MOTOR CO. WORKERS WITHIN THE NEXT 60 DAYS.

HENRY FORD II REFERRED TO THE MATERIALS CUTBACKS AS "PRODUCTION CUTS" FOR THE CAR INDUSTRY, AND SAID THAT WITHOUT THE LAY-OFFS "OUR PRODUCTION COSTS WOULD BE PROHIBITIVE."

HE ALSO CALLED FOR MORE "REALISM" IN IMPLEMENTING THE COMBINED CIVILIAN-MILITARY PRODUCTION PROGRAM.

BECAUSE OF NECESSARY TOOLING TO GET DEFE E JOBS UNDER WAY, "WE CAN'T REHIRE THESE PEOPLE FOR MANY MONTHS," ORD TOLD THE NATIONAL INDUSTRIAL ASSOCIATION HERE TODAY.

CONTINUING, THE FORD PRESIDENT SAID:

"AT FORD, WE'RE EAGER TO TAKE ON ALL OF THIS TWO-FOLD CIVILIAN - DEFENSE PROGRAM WE CAN CARRY. AND ALL OF US ARE IN COMPLETE AGREEMENT WITH THE NECESSITY FOR THE TREMENDOUS GOALS THAT HAVE BEEN SET UP BY DEFENSE MOBILIZER CHARLES E.WILSON.

"BUT I BELIEVE THAT BEFORE WE CAN EVEN MAKE A FAIR START ON THE JOB, THERE MUST BE A LOT MORE REALISM IN THE APPROACH TO THE PROBLEM ON THE PART OF SOME OF THOSE IN WASHINGTON.

"IF THIS ASSIGNMENT IS TO BE CARRIED OUT SUCCESSFULLY, WE MUST BE FREED AS SOON AS POSSIBLE OF UNCERTAINTY AND CONFUSION AND TRIAL BALLOONS -- SUCH TRIAL BALLOONS AS THE RECENT WASHINGTON-BORN RUMOR THAT TOLD US THAT STEEL FOR AUTOMOTIVE PRODUCTION IN THE SECOND QUARTER WAS TO BE CUT 40 PER CENT. FORTY PER CENT WAS THE RUMOR; 20 PER CENT WAS THE FACT AND WE CAN'T PLAN OUR BUSINESS ON RUMORS."

FORD ASSERTED THAT NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY OFFICIALS RECENTLY SAID THIRD-QUARTER REQUIREMENTS FOR DEFENSE AND DEFENSE-RELATED PRODUCTION ADDED UP TO 26,000,000 (M) TONS OF FINISHED STEEL PRODUCTION.

"THE FACT IS," HE ADDED, "THAT THE STEEL INDUSTRY CAN ONLY SUPPLY SOME 20,000,000 (M) TONS FOR THE THIRD QUARTER. AND THIS 26,000,000 (M) TON REQUIREMENT, MIND YOU, DID NOT INCLUDE ANY STEEL FOR CONSUMER DURABLE GOOD SUCH AS PASSENGER CARS, HOUSEHOLD APPLIANCES AND OTHERS."

THE SCOPE OF CONTROLLED MATERIALS PROGRAM ACTIVITIES, FORD SAID, "SHOULD BE DETERMINED VERY CAREFULLY. "LET'S NOT, FOR INSTANCE HAVE 85 PER CENT CONTROL OF STEEL IN A DEFENSE EFFORT THAT DEMANDS ONLY 15 TO 20 PER CENT OF OUR TOTAL PRODUCTION," HE SAID.

"OBVIOUSLY, WE MUST HAVE CERTAIN CONTROLS TO DO THE TWIN JOBS OF MEETING MILITARY AND CIVILIAN NEEDS AT ONE AND THE SAME TIME. BUT THESE CONTROLS SHOULD BE APPLIED AS, IF AND WHEN THEY ARE NEEDED--AND NOT BEFORE."

FORD NOTED THAT DURING WORLD WAR II, 16 PER CENT OF THE "SO-CALLED SMALL BUSINESS MEN OF THE COUNTRY WERE FORCED TO SHUT UP SHOP UNDER A SYSTEM OF ALL-OUT CONTROLS."

"I AM TOLD," HE CONTINUED, "THAT THERE IS SOME SUSPICION EVEN NOW THAT WHEN THE FATALITY COUNT IS KNOWN THIS TIME, THE SMALL BUSINESS LIQUIDATION RATE MAY BE EVEN HIGHER THAN IT WAS IN 1942 AND 1943.

"THAT'S NOT BECAUSE THERE'S NOTHING FOR SMALL BUSINESS TO DO BUT BECAUSE MANY SMALL BUSINESSES ARE LESSTLAITPSTA

SECOND NIGHT LEAD U.N.
BY FRANCIS W. CARPENTER
NEW YORK, MAY 17-(AP)-THE U.N. POLITICAL COMMITTEE, DISREGARDING SOVIET OBJECTIONS, RECOMMENDED TODAY A WORLD-WIDE STRATEGIC EMBARGO AGAINST ARMS AND WAR SUPPLIES FOR RED CHINA. THE 60-NATION GENERAL ASSEMBLY IS EXPECTED TO GIVE IT FINAL APPROVAL TOMORROW.

THE POLITICAL COMMITTEE VOTE WAS 45 TO 0, WITH NINE ABSTENTIONS.
THE SOVIET BLOC OF FIVE COUNTRIES DID NOT GO ON RECORD AT ALL IN THE VOTE. LUXEMBOURG'S REPRESENTATIVE WAS ABSENT.
THE COUNTRIES ABSTAINING WERE AFGHANISTAN, BURMA, ECUADOR, EGYPT, INDIA, INDONESIA, VAKISTAN, SWEDEN AND SYRIA.
SOVIET G FOREIG

INDIA, INDONESIA, VAKISTAN, SWEDEN AND SYRIA.
SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER JACOB A. MALIK CHARGED THE UNITED STATES WAS TRYING TO PUT OVER A "SHAMEFULLY ILLEGAL" RESOLUTION IN THE EMBARGO MOVE. HE AND THE OTHER FOUR IN THE SOVIET BLOC INSISTED THE SECURITY COUNCIL ALONE HAS THE AUTHORITY TO DEAL WITH EMBARGOS. HE COULD VETO IT IN THE COUNCIL, BUT NOT IN THE ASSEMBLY.
THE COMMITTEE, BY SILENCE, SHOWED IT WOULD NOT GO ALONG WITH MALIK AND HE THEN SERVED NOTICE HE WOULD NOT TAKE PART IN THE DEBATE. AS DELEGATE AFTER DELEGATE LINED UP BEHIND THE EMBARGO PROPOSAL MALIK CALMLY READ A NEWSPAPER.
IT WAS THE FIRST TIME IN HISTORY THAT SO MANY COUNTRIES HAVE BACKED COLLECTIVE ACTION IN SUCH A FAR-REACHING EMBARGO. IT IS DESIGNED TO HALT THE SHIPMENT TO COMMUNIST CHINA OF EVERY SCRAP OF STRATEGIC MATERIALS HHAT CAN BE USED TO MAKE WAR.
THE HEART OF THE RESOLUTION IS THIS PARAGRAPH, RECOMMENDING THAT ALL STATES, BOTH U.N. MEMBERS AND NON-MEMBERS:
"APPLY AN EMBARGO ON THE SHIPMENT TO AREAS UNDER THE CONTROL OF THE CENTRAL PEOPLE'S GOVERNMENT OF THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA AND OF THE NORTH KOREAN AUTHORITIES OF ARMS, AMMUNITION, AND IMPLEMENTS OF WAR, ATOMIC ENERGY MATERIALS, PETROLEUM, TRANSPORTATION MATERIALS OF STRATEGIC VALUE, AND ITEMS USEFUL IN THE PRODUCTION OF ARMS, AMMUNITION AND IMPLEMENTS OF WAR."
IN BRIEF, THE RESOLUTION ALSO RECOMMENDS THAT EACH STATE:
1. DETERMINE WHICH COMMODITIES IT EXPORTS COME WITHIN THE EMBARGO AND APPLY THE NECESSARY CONTROLS.
2. PREVENT THE CIRCUMVENTION OF CONTROLS ON SHIPMENTS APPLIED BY OTHER STATES. THIS MEANS THERE SHOULD BE NO TRANS-SHIPMENT BY ANY COUNTRY.
3. COOPERATE WITH OTHER STATES IN CARRYING OUT THE PURPOSES OF THE EMBARGO.
4. REPORT ON MEASURES TAKEN TO THE ADDITIONAL MEASURES COMMITTEE, THE TECHNICAL NAME OF THE SANCTIONS COMMITTEE WHICH FIRST PASSED THE EMBARGO RESOLUTION.

IT ALSO CALLS ON THE ADDITIONAL MEASURES COMMITTEE TO STUDY THE EFFECTIVENES OF THE EMBARGO AND WHETHER IT SHOULD BE BROADENED.
FINALLY, THE RESOLUTION URGES THE GOOD OFFICES COMMITTEE, SET UP BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY FEB. 1 TO SEEK A SETTLEMENT WITH RED CHINA, TO CONTINUE ITS EFFORT. THE GOOD OFFICES COMMITTEE HAS NOT HEARD FROM RED CHINA SO FAR.
THE QUICK ACTION OF THE COMMITTEE SURPRISED SEVERAL DELEGATES. THIS WAS MADE POSSIBLE BY THE SOVIET BLOC DECISION TO CONTEST THE LEGALITY OF THE MOVE AND THEN REMAIN SILENT INSTEAD OF CONDUCTING WHAT WAS EXPECTED TO BE A LONG FILIBUSTER.
ERNEST A. GROSS, UNITED STATES DELEGATE WHO PRESSED THE RESOLUTION IN THE SANCTIONS COMMITTEE, OPENED THE DEBATE AFTER MALIK GAVE UP. GROSS SAID THE RESOLUTION MEANT THAT ALL MEMBERS OF THE U.N. AND ALL COUNTRIES EVERYWHERE ARE ASKED TO SLAP ON THE EMBARGO. HE SAID IT MEANT THE U.N. IS "EXPRESSING ITS DETERMINATION THAT UNITED NATIONS SOLDIERS--SOLDIERS ON A MISSION UNPRECEDENTED IN HISTORY--MUST NOT BE OPPOSED BY MATERIALS OF WAR PRODUCED BY MEMBER NATIONS, OR INDEED BY ANY OTHER STATE."
HITTING AT POSSIBLE MOVES TO GET AROUND THE EMBARGO BY HAVING ONE COUNTRY BUY BLOCKED MATERIALS FOR RED CHINA, GROSS SAID "THE FORCES OF AGGRESSION ARE NOT ENTITLED TO BUY WAR MATERIALS IN A BLACK MARKET."
FRANCIS LACOSTE OF FRANCE AND SIR GLADWYN JEBB OF BRITAIN EXPLAINED THEIR COUNTRIES HAD BEEN RELUCTANT AT FIRST TO BACK SUCH A PROPOSAL AS THE EMBARGO, FEELING THAT EVERY OPPORTUNITY SHOULD BE GIVEN TO RED CHINA TO MAKE A MOVE TOWARD PEACE. BUT, THEY SAID, NO SUCH MOVE HAD BEEN MADE AND THEY FELT THE TIME HAD COME FOR STRONGER ACTION.
T.F. TSIANG OF NATIONALIST CHINA SAID HE WOULD VOTE FOR THE PROPOSAL, BUT WAS DISAPPOINTED THAT IT DID NOT MENTION DIPLOMATIC SANCTIONS.
SIR BENEGAL N. RAU OF INDIA, A LEADER OF THE 12-NATION ARAB-ASIAN GROUP WHICH WAS ACTIVE FOR FURTHER TALKS WITH RED CHINA LAST WINTER, SAID HE VOTED FEB. 1 AGAINST THE ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION CALLING RED CHINA AN AGGRESSOR AND HE COULD NOT VOTE FOR ANY RESOLUTION GROWING OUT OF THAT ACTION. HE SAID ALSO THAT INDIA DOES NOT EXPORT WAR MATERIALS AND WAS NOT AFFECTED BY THE RECOMMENDATIONS.

NEW YORK--FIRST ADD LEAD DAY U.N. EMBARGO XXX POLITICAL COMMITTEE.
THE VOTE IN THE 60-NATION BODY WAS 45 TO 0, WITH NINE ABSENTIONS. MOST OF THE ABSTAINERS WERE FROM THE ASIAN-ARAB COUNTRIES.

THE FIVE SOVIET BLOC COUNTRIES DID NOT PARTICIPATE EITHER IN THE DISCUSSION OR IN THE VOTING.

THE MEASURE NOW GOES TO A FULL MEETING OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, WHICH IS EXPECTED TO RATIFY IT SPEEDILY TOMORROW.

THE DECISION CAME AFTER RUSSIA'S JACOB A. MALIK LED AN UNSUCCESSFUL SOVIET BLOC MOVE TO HAVE THE PROPOSAL TRANSFERRED TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL, WHERE A SOVIET VETO MIGHT KILL IT. THE VETO DOES NOT APPLY IN THE ASSEMBLY.

A4

MAY 18 1951

THE SOVIET GOUP DELAYED THE VOTE FOR AN HOUR BY THEIR PROCEDURAL MOVE. HOWEVER, THEIR FAILURE TO TAKE PART IN THE POLITICAL COMMITTEE'S DEBATE BROUGHT THE FINAL DECISION MORE QUICKLY THAN HAD BEEN EXPECTED. THE SOVIET ACTION ALSO INDICATED THAT THE COMINFORM COUNTRIES, PRINCIPAL SOURCE OF SUPPLIES FOR THE CHINESE REDS, WOULD IGNORE THE EMBARGO.

MALIK SEIZED THE FLOOR ON A POINT OF ORDER AT THE OPENING OF THE POLITICAL COMMITTEE, MEETING AT FLUSHING MEADOW. THE ASSEMBLY AND THE COMMITTEE TOOK OVER ALL PHASES OF THE KOREAN PROBLEM LAST FALL AFTER SOVIET VETOES PARALYZED THE SECURITY COUNCIL.

THE MEASURE CALLS GENERALLY FOR "AN EMBARGO ON THE SHIPMENT TO AREAS UNDER THE CONTROL OF THE CENTRAL PEOPLE'S GOVERNMENT OF THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA AND OF THE NORTH KOREAN AUTHORITIES, OF ARMS, AMMUNITION AND IMPLEMENTS OF WAR, ATOMIC ENERGY MATERIALS, PETROLEUM, TRANSPORTATION MATERIALS OF STRATEGIC VALUE, AND ITEMS USEFUL IN THE PRODUCTION OF ARMS, AMMUNITION AND IMPLEMENTS OF WAR."

A LAST-MINUTE AMENDMENT ADDED TRANSPORTATION MATERIALS OF STRATEGIC VALUE, SUCH AS LOCOMOTIVES AND STEEL RAILS.

GROSS POINTED OUT IN HIS OPENING SPEECH THAT THE UNITED STATES AND MANY OTHER U.N. MEMBERS ALREADY HAVE BANNED SUCH MATERIALS FOR RED CHINA. THE RESOLUTION LEAVES TO EACH COUNTRY TO DECIDE HOW TO CONTROL ITS EXPORT.

BUT GROSS ALSO SAID THAT IF A REVIEW LATER SHOWS THE EMBARGO IS NOT WORKING, THE U.N. CHINA SANCTIONS COMMITTEE CAN RECOMMEND BROADER ECONOMIC MEASURES.

"THE PASSAGE OF THIS RESOLUTION WILL BE A FURTHER STEP IN THE UNITED NATIONS EFFORT FOR PEACE," GROSS CONCLUDED. "THE AGGRESSORS WILL BE BROUGHT CLOSER TO THE REALIZATION THAT IN THEIR OWN SELF-INTEREST THEY MUST END THEIR AGGRESSION. IT IS ONLY IN THIS WAY THAT A PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT IN KOREA CAN BE ACHIEVED."

AFTER MAKING HIS OBJECTIONS, MALIK SAID:

"IN VIEW OF THE LACK OF COMPETENCE OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN THIS, THE SOVIET UNION WILL NOT PARTICIPATE IN CONSIDERATION OF THIS QUESTION."

IT WAS NOT IMMEDIATELY CLEAR AT THE TIME WHETHER RUSSIA WOULD WALK OUT OR WOULD REMAIN IN THE ROOM AND LISTEN IN SILENCE.

POLAND'S JULIUSZ KATZ-SUCHY QUICKLY SUPPORTED MALIK'S STAND AS THE COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN, ROBERT ARBELEZ-URDANETA, ANNOUNCED HE WOULD PUT THE QUESTION TO A VOTE.

A142

BEFORE THE MEETING BEGAN MALIK LAUGHINGLY DECLINED COMMENT ON A MAGAZINE (NEWSWEEK) STORY THAT HE HAD APPROACHED U.S. DELEGATES PROPOSING A RUSSIA-U.S. CONFERENCE TO ARRANGE A KOREAN PEACE.

U.S. DELEGATES WARREN R. AUSTIN AND ERNEST A. GROSS, NAMED IN THE STORY AS THE AMERICANS APPROACHED, DENIED THE STORY WITHOUT RESERVATION.

MALIK, IN HIS ATTACK ON THE ASSEMBLY'S HANDLING THE EMBARGO PROPOSAL, REITERATED PAST STATEMENTS THAT THE U.S. WAS ENGAGED IN AGGRESSION AGAINST KOREA AND RED CHINA, AND DECLARED THE EMBARGO WOULD NOT HALT THE CONFLICT.

THE ONLY OUTSPOKEN OPPOSITION TO THE ARMS EMBARGO WAS EXPECTED TO COME FROM THE SOVIET BLOC COUNTRIES. SINCE RUSSIA IS THE PRIMARY SOURCE OF MILITARY SUPPLIES FOR RED CHINA, THE SPONSORS OF THE ARMS BAN NOT ONLY COUNTED ON SOVIET OPPOSITION BUT THEY CONCEDED THE RUSSIANS WOULD IGNORE ANY U.N. DECISION.

THE ASIAN-ARAB COUNTRIES WERE REPORTED TO HAVE DECIDED GENERALLY TO TAKE A NEUTRAL STAND. MOST OF THEM, INCLUDING INDIA, WERE EXPECTED TO ABSTAIN.

THE POLITICAL COMMITTEE MEETING WAS SET FOR A HASTILY PREPARED ROOM AT FLUSHING MEADOWS, WHERE ALL MAJOR U.N. MEETINGS WILL BE HELD UNTIL THE NEW CONFERENCE BUILDING AT U.N. HEADQUARTERS IN MANHATTAN IS READY AUG.1. THE REGULAR MEETING ROOMS AT LAKE SUCCESS HAVE BEEN DISMANTLED.

THE ISSUE GOES TO THE FULL ASSEMBLY FOR FINAL RATIFICATION AFTER APPROVAL BY THE POLITICAL COMMITTEE. DELEGATES DISAGREED AS TO WHETHER THE MATTER WOULD BE DISPOSED OF BY THE END OF THE WEEK OR WOULD GO OVER INTO NEXT WEEK.

THE PROPOSAL UNDER DISCUSSION IS AN AMERICAN-SPONSORED RESOLUTION APPROVED MONDAY BY THE 12-MEMBER SANCTIONS COMMITTEE, FORMALLY KNOWN AS THE ADDITIONAL MEASURES COMMITTEE. THE COMMITTEE VOTE WAS 11 TO 0, WITH EGYPT ABSTAINING.

THE RESOLUTION CALLS FOR AN EMBARGO ON THE SHIPMENT OF "ARMS, AMMUNITIONS, AND IMPLEMENTS OF WAR, ATOMIC ENERGY MATERIALS, PETROLEUM, AND ITEMS USEFUL IN THE PRODUCTION OF ARMS, AMMUNITION AND IMPLEMENTS OF WAR." IT LEAVES TO EACH COUNTRY TO DECIDE WHICH COMMODITIES EXPORTED FROM ITS TERRITORY FALL WITHIN THE EMBARGO.

NEW YORK, MAY 17-(AP)-AN APPEAL FOR THE UNITED STATES TO RETURN TO BI-PARTISAN FOREIGN POLICIES WAS MADE LAST NIGHT BY WARREN R. AUSTIN, FORMER REPUBLICAN SENATOR AND CHIEF U.S. DELEGATE TO THE UNITED NATIONS.

"THE NON-PARTISAN APPROACH TO INTERNATIONAL PROBLEMS IS AN ESSENTIAL SOURCE OF NATIONAL STRENGTH," AUSTIN SAID AT THE WATSON TROPHY DINNER OF THE INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS MACHINES CLUB.

"ON THE QUESTION OF OUR NATIONAL SECURITY, THERE CAN BE NO DIVISION OF PURPOSE AMONG OUR PEOPLE," HE DECLARED IN REMARKS INFORMED SOURCES SAID WERE INSPIRED BY THE TRUMAN-MACARTHUR CONTROVERSY.

TOKYO, SATURDAY, MAY 19-(AP)1CHINESE REDS TODAY SWARMED OVER THOUSANDS OF THEIR DEAD IN A TWO-PRONGED DRIVE WHICH WAS REPORTED FORCING AN ALLIED WITHDRAWAL ALL ALONG THE FLAMING, 125-MILE FRONT.

THE TWIN DRIVE WAS SLOWLY OUTFLANKING SEOUL, WHOSE BRISTLING DEFENSES SHATTERED THE WESTERN WING OF THE FIRST CHINESE SPRING OFFENSIVE IN APRIL.

THE VETERAN U. S. SECOND DIVISION ALONE ESTIMATED IT KILLED 10,000 REDS FRIDAY WHILE FIGHTING FREE OF A TRAP POSED BY THE EASTERN RED PRONG NEAR HANGYE, 55 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

TODAY, FROM A NEW DEFENSE LINE, MEN OF THE SECOND DIVISION THREW BACK THREE 1,000-MAN RED ATTACKS.

TOGETHER WITH FRENCH AND NETHERLAND UNITS, THE SECOND HAS BORNE THE BRUNT OF THE NEW COMMUNIST OFFENSIVE.

BUT THE MENACE OF THE REDS' EASTERN PRONG PERSISTED. DISPATCHES TODAY SAID THE REDS STILL WERE MAKING THE MOST OF A MAJOR BREAKTHROUGH OF SOUTH KOREAN DEFENSES JUST EAST OF THE SECOND'S FRONT.

THE SECOND PRONG BEGAN DEVELOPING FRIDAY 25 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL BETWEEN CHONGPYONG AND KAPYONG. THERE THE REDS STARTED CROSSING THE PUKHAN RIVER DAM UNDER ATTACK BY AMERICAN PLANES AND ARTILLERY.

A86KX

THIS DRIVE'S OBJECTIVE WAS BELIEVED TO BE YANGPYONG, A HAN RIVER CITY 27 MILES EAST OF SEOUL. YANGPYONG IS ABOUT 35 MILES SOUTHWEST OF THE RED COLUMNS AT HANGYE.

THE MORE POWERFUL RED PUSH, FOR THE MOMENT, WAS AROUND HANGYE. RED FORCES ROLLING DOWN THE INJE-HANGYE ROAD SOUTHWEST TOWARD HONGCHON BLASTED A BIG HOLE THROUGH SOUTH KOREANS AND BARED THE RIGHT FLANK OF THE U. S. SECOND DIVISION.

A DISPATCH FROM U. S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS SAID THE REDS STILL WERE ON THE RAMPAGE THROUGH THE BREAKTHROUGH. IT REPORTED THE POSITION OF TWO ALLIED DIVISIONS IN THE AREA WAS "OBSCURE."

A86KX

BUT THE SECOND DIVISION AT LEAST WAS OUT OF DANGER FOR THE MOMENT DESPITE THIS PRESSURE ON ITS EASTERN FLANK.

MAJ. GEN. CLARK L. RUFFNER SAID HIS SECOND DIVISION KILLED AT LEAST 10,000 REDS FRIDAY BEFORE PULLING BACK THROUGH CHINESE ATTACKING THE AMERICANS ON THREE SIDES.

"WE ARE SWINGING INTO A NEW LINE AND RIGHT NOW WE ARE IN PRETTY GOOD SHAPE," HE SAID.

THE 36 HOURS OF HEAVY ACTION OF THE SECOND WON HIGH PRAISE FROM LT. GEN. EDWARD M. ALMOND, U. S. 10TH CORPS COMMANDER.

RED DEAD LITTERED THE VALLEYS AND WERE DRAPED GROTESQUELY ON BARBED WIRE AS THE FOUR-DAY-OLD RED OFFENSIVE SPREAD FROM THE EAST COAST FOR 80 MILES TO THE PUKHAN DAM SECTOR.

IT HAD YET TO GET GOING IN THE WEST NORTH OF SEOUL. BUT THE PRESSURE GREW EVEN THERE.

THREE UNITS OF THE U. S. SECOND HAD TO FIGHT OUT OF THREATENED ENCIRCLEMENT BY REDS WHO KEPT ON MOVING UP UNTIL THEY REACHED THE VERY MOUTHS OF THE DIVISION'S GUNS.

SMOKE SCREENS WERE USED BY THE ALLIES TO HELP COVER THE WITHDRAWAL IN THE RED BREAKTHROUGH AREA OF EAST-CENTRAL KOREA.

ONE ALLIED COMPANY TODAY WAS REPORTED CUT OFF NORTHWEST OF HANGYE.

SOUTHEAST OF HANGYE, A RED DIVISION PENETRATED ALLIED DEFENSE AND CUR COMMUNICATIONS.

AT EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS IN KOREA, AP CORRESPONDENT TOM BRADSHAW REPORTED TODAY:

"THE ENEMY'S HEAVIEST EFFORT APPEARS TO BE IN THE SECTOR STRETCHING EAST FROM CHANGGONG BUT THE PRESSURE THERE WAS FORCING ALLIED TROOPS TO WITHDRAW ALL ALONG THE 125-MILE FRONT."

CHANGGONG IS ABOUT 25 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL AND SEVEN MILES SOUTHWEST OF KAPYONG. IT IS IN THE PUKHAN DAM AREA.

BLOWING WHISTLES AND BUGLES, TWO RED BATTALIONS BEGAN CROSSING THE PUKHAN SOUTH OF CHANGGONG IN THE FACE OF HEAVY ALLIED FIRE.

HAND TO HAND FIGHTING BROKE OUT. AT ONE TIME, ALLIED TROOPS COUNTED 684 RED DEAD. BUT THE ALLIES EVENTUALLY HAD TO WITHDRAW.

TWO CHINESE COMPANIES CUT OFF AN ALLIED COMPANY ON THE NORTH BANK OF THE PUKHAN SOUTHEAST OF CHANGGONG.

ALLIED ARTILLERY BEAT BACK A RED ATTACK SOUTHEAST OC CHUNCHON.

A106KX

IT IS ON THE CENTRAL FRONT 45 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

IN CONFUSED FIGHTING IN THE SECTOR, AN ENCIRCLED ALLIED REGIMENT FOUGHT ITS WAY CLEAR WITH THE HELP OF ANOTHER REGIMENT.

OVER ON THE EAST COAST, WHERE SOUTH KOREANS GAVE UP THEIR LAST HOLDINGS NORTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL, THE GUNS OF THE 45,000-TON BATTLESHIP NEW JERSEY ROARED INTO ACTION FRIDAY. THEY SHELLED THE ADVANCING REDS.

GENERAL ALMOND CALLED THE STAND OF THE U. S. SECOND DIVISION NEAR HANGYE "MAGNIFICENT."

THE SAME DIVISION, SUPPORTED BY FRENCH AND DUTCH, BROKE OUT OF ENCIRCLEMENT LAST FEBRUARY NEAR WONJU. ITS STAND THEN HELPED SHATTER A RED OFFENSIVE AIMED DOWN THE MOUNTAINOUS CENTER.

GENERAL ALMOND, PRAISING THE SECOND DIVISION, NOTED THAT IN TWO DAYS THE DIVISION KILLED OR WOUNDED 12,000 REDS WITH "COMPARATIVELY LITTLE LOSS."

AP CORRESPONDENT WILLIAM C. BARNARD, ON THE CENTRAL FRONT, REPORTED "PART OF THE AMERICAN DIVISION'S LINE EAST OF CHUNCHON STILL HELD LIKE A ROCK."

ELSEWHERE ALONG THE CURVING, MOUNTAINOUS BATTLEFRONT, ALLIED FORCES HELD FIRM AGAINST THE COMMUNISTS' SECOND SPRING OFFENSIVE OR TRADED GROUND SLOWLY FOR UNCOUNTED THOUSANDS OF CHINESE LIVES.

LT.GEN.JAMES A. VAN FLEET, EIGHTH ARMY COMMANDER, EXPRESSED CONFIDENCE THAT THE RED OFFENSIVE WILL FAIL.

UNITED NATIONS POSITIONS IN THE PUKHAN RIVER VALLEY, ON THE WEST-CENTRAL FRONT, REMAINED UNDENTED. ON THE WESTERN FRONT, ALLIED FORCES WITHDREW SLOWLY SOUTH OF UIJONGBU, WHICH IS 11 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL. CENSORSHIP SHROUDED THEIR EXACT POSITIONS.

CHINESE TROOPS WERE REPORTED JUST NORTH OF TOKSO, SOME 10 MILES EAST OF SEOUL AND 25 AIR MILES SOUTH OF PARALLEL 38. THE ALLIES HAD ABANDONED OR BEEN ROLLED BACK FROM ALL THEIR POSITIONS NORTH OF 38 IN RED KORE.

THE AMERICANS AND SOUTH KOREANS ON THE CENTRAL FRONT EAST OF CHUNCHON STILL WERE BEARING THE BRUNT OF THE OFFENSIVE LAUNCHED WEDNESDAY NIGHT BY AN ESTIMATED 768,000 CHINESE AND KOREAN REDS.

HEADQUARTERS OF GEN.MATTHEW B.RIDGWAY, SUPREME ALLIED COMMANDER.

REPORTED THE REDS HAD AN ADDITIONAL 373,000 TROOPS IN MANCHURIA. THE REDS APPARENTLY HOPED TO DRIVE U.N. FORCES INTO THE SEA BEFORE JUNE 25--FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF THE NORTH KOREAN INVASION OF SOUTH KOREA.

FIELD DISPATCHES SAID ALLIED ARTILLERY, AIR STRIKES AND INFANTRY FIRE CONTINUED TO EXACT A STAGGERING TOLL OF THE REDS--CASUALTIES RECKONED IN THE TENS OF THOUSANDS.

"INFANTRYMEN, ARTILLERYMEN AND AIRMEN WERE KILL-GROGGY AND WEARY," CORRESPONDENT BARNARD REPORTED. "DAZEDLY THEY TOLD STORIES OF TOO MANY TARGETS AND SPECTACULAR SHOOTS AND SLAUGHTERS AS THE HUMAN SEA OF CHINESE CAME ON AND ON.

"THOUSANDS OF CHINESE CRASHED AGAINST THE POSITIONS OF THE AMERICAN DIVISION (EAST OF CHUNCHON) AND ONLY 150 (REDS) SURVIVED THE ARTILLERY, THE MINES, THE BOMBING AND MACHINE GUNNING THAT LEFT THE BATTLEFIELD STREWN WITH CHINESE DEAD.

"IT WAS AN ASTOUNDING DEMONSTRATION."

ONE OFFICER SAID THE CHINESE ATTACKED "AS THOUGH THEY WERE IN A DREAM," GIVING NEW SUBSTANCE TO PREVIOUS REPORTS THAT RED TROOPS ARE DRUGGED BEFORE BATTLE.

"THEY WADE RIGHT THROUGH MACHINEGUN OR ARTILLERY FIRE," THE OFFICER SAID. "THE BODIES PILE UP AND THEY WALK RIGHT OVER THE BODIES, AND THE PILE OF BODIES GETS HIGHER.

"ONE MACHINE GUNNER KEPT ON SHOOTING AND THE CHINESE KEPT ON COMING. FINALLY THEY WERE WALKING RIGHT PAST HIM ON BOTH SIDES, CLOSE TO HIM, WITH HIM STILL SHOOTING AND THE BODIES PILED UP IN FRONT OF HIS GUN."

ONE OF THE THREE AMERICAN UNITS THAT ESCAPED A TRAP IN THAT SECTOR WAS "WALKED OUT" BY ALLIED ARTILLERY. THE GUNNERS THREW A COMPLETE CIRCLE OF FIRE AROUND THE UNIT AND MOVED THE RANGE BACK AS THE TROOPS MARCHED SAFELY INSIDE THE EXPLOSIVE CURTAIN.

ON THE RIGHT FLANK OF THAT REMARKABLE ACTION, TWO UNITS OF SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS WERE BADLY MAULED. THE FOLDUP OF THE SOUTH KOREANS SOUTH OF INJE EXPOSED THE AMERICAN RIGHT FLANK. INJE IS FIVE MILES NORTH OF PARALLEL 38 AND ABOUT 25 MILES INLAND FROM THE EAST COAST.

A237KX

ROADS IN THE EAST-CENTRAL SECTOR WERE DESCRIBED AS CLOGGED FRIDAY WITH SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS WALKING AND RIDING. THE TRUCKS WERE PACKED WITH SOLDIERS. MANY CONTAINED WOMEN WHO SERVED THE KOREANS AS NURSES.

WITH THAT WITHDRAWAL, THE ALLIED LINE HAD ROLLED BACK AS MUCH AS 20 MILES.

OTHER ALLIED FORCES WERE INFLICTING SUCH BLISTERING LOSSES ON THE REDS THAT THE U.S. EIGHTH ARMY DISCONTINUED ITS USUAL DAILY ESTIMATE OF CASUALTIES.

ARTILLERYMEN FIRED THEIR BIG GUNS UNTIL THE BARRELS SWELLED FROM THE HEAT. DESPITE INTERMITTENT LIGHT RAIN AND LOW-HANGING CLOUDS, U.S. FIFTH AIR FORCE FIGHTERS AND BOMBERS DUMPED TONS OF FIRE BOMBS ON THE ONCOMING REDS.

AP CORRESPONDENT GEORGE MCARTHUR REPORTED THE CHINESE WERE BEING ENTANGLED IN BARBED WIRE STRUNG ALONG THE WEST CENTRAL FRONT. REFUSING SURRENDER, THE REDS WERE SHOT.

MCARTHUR SAID SOME 2,000 MILES OF WIRE WAS COILED IN FRONT OF ALLIED POSITIONS--THE MOST EXTENSIVE USE OF THIS DEFENSE IN THE KOREAN WAR.

THE CHINESE WERE USING EVERY CAMOUFLAGE DEVICE AT THEIR COMMAND TO ESCAPE AIR ATTACK AND ARTILLERY OBSERVATION. TREE BRANCHES AND SHRUBS DECKED THEIR UNITS. SOME PAUSED IN THEIR ATTACKS TO HIDE IN WOODS WHILE ALLIED PLANES SWEPT OVER.

MCARTHUR REPORTED THE CHINESE HIT ONLY A FEW POINTS ON THE WEST-CENTRAL SECTOR NORTH OF THE PUKHAN-HAN RIVER JUNCTION. HE SAID THE RED ASSAULT PUSHED THE ALLIES BACK ON ONLY ONE HILLTOP AND THAT "THIS WAS RETAKEN SHORTLY AFTER DAYLIGHT" FRIDAY.

ON THE WESTERN FRONT BEFORE SEOUL, AP CORRESPONDENT JOHN RANDOLPH REPORTED NO SIGNIFICANT ACTION" EXCEPT THE SLOW AMERICAN PULLBACK FROM UIJONGBU.

HIS FIELD DISPATCH WAS STRIPPED BY CENSORS, BUT HE WAS ABLE TO GIVE THIS GENERAL PICTURE OF THE SECTOR:

"THE REDS NOW HAVE PUSHED THEIR SCREENING FORCE WITHIN ABOUT 10 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL AT SOME POINTS, ALTHOUGH THE COMMUNISTS' MAIN LINE IS BELIEVED CONSIDERABLY FARTHER NORTH THAN THAT."

WHILE FIGHTERS AND LIGHT BOMBERS POUNDED THE RED ASSAULT WAVES, LONG-RANGE B-29 BOMBERS HAMMERED ANEW AT COMMUNIST SUPPLY CENTERS IN NORTH KOREA. NINETY TONS OF BOMBS WERE DROPPED AT SARIWON, SINMAK AND HWANGJU.

GENERAL VAN FLEET ISSUED A STATEMENT PRAISING HIS FIGHTING MEN OF MANY LANDS. HE SAID THE RED OFFENSIVE WAS DOOMED TO FAILURE. THEN, IN PRECISE MILITARY TERMS HE DESCRIBED THE CONFLICT:

"THE STRUGGLE IS ONE OF THE ANCIENT CONCEPTION OF MASS IN DEPTH (THE REDS) DRIVEN FORWARD BY CRUEL AND RUTHLESS DISCIPLINE AS OPPOSED BY THE SMALLER U.N. ARMY OF IMMENSE FIREPOWER DIRECTED BY AN ENLIGHTENED LEADERSHIP AT ALL LEVELS OF COMMAND..."

"THE ENTIRE FREE WORLD IS IN THE GRANDSTAND, FOLLOWING YOUR EVERY MOVE ON THE GRIDIRON OF HARD BATTLE," HE TOLD HIS TROOPS.

IN WASHINGTON, THE ARMY ESTIMATED COMMUNIST LOSSES IN KOREA THROUGH MAY 7 AT 904,788--NOT INCLUDING THE CURRENT RED OFFENSIVE. OF THAT NUMBER, CHINESE LOSSES WERE PLACED AT 365,086, KOREAN RED CASUALTIES AT 539,702. NORTH KOREAN NON-BATTLE CASUALTIES WERE ESTIMATED AT 76,066.

FOURTH LEAD KOREAN WAR ROUNDUP (200)

BY OLEN CLEMENTS

TOKYO, SATURDAY, MAY 19-(AP)- TRAPPED ELEMENTS OF AN AMERICAN DIVISION FOUGHT SOUTH THROUGH MASSED CHINESE IN EAST-CENTRAL KOREA FRIDAY AS THE REDS PRESSED A GIGANTIC OFFENSIVE ON THE ENTIRE FRONT WITH CALLOUS DISREGARD FOR THE SLAUGHTER OF THEIR OWN MEN.

THE THOUSANDS OF COMMUNIST LOSSES WERE STAGGERING, BUT BY SHEER WEIGHT OF NUMBERS THE REDS WERE PUSHING BACK THE U.N. LINE ACROSS KOREA AND HAD GAINED AS MUCH AS 20 MILES IN THREE DAYS OF BLOODY ATTACK.

IN THE WEST, RED COLUMNS REACHED WITHIN 10 MILES OF SEOUL. FIGHTING RAGED ON BOTH THE EASTERN AND NORTHERN APPROACHES TO THE OLD SOUTH KOREAN CAPITAL.

CORRESPONDENT WILLIAM C. BARNARD ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT REPORTED THAT THE AMERICAN ELEMENTS WHICH HAD BEEN "IN GREAT TROUBLE" HAD CRASHED THROUGH INFILTRATING CHINESE TO THEIR REAR.

TWO SOUTH KOREAN UNITS WERE BADLY MAULED. IT WAS THE FOLDUP OF THE SOUTH KOREANS THAT EXPOSED THE RIGHT FLANK OF THE AMERICANS. THE THREATENED U.S. INFANTRYMEN PILED UP THE REDS WITH MACHINEGUN FIRE. ONE OFFICER SAID: "I THINK MOST OF THESE CHINESE ARE DOPED. THEY WADE RIGHT THROUGH MACHINEGUN FIRE OR ARTILLERY FIRE."

A SPECTACULAR ARTILLERY BARRAGE HELPED ONE UNIT ESCAPE THROUGH THE CHINESE BLOCK. THE BIG GUNS RINGED THE AMERICANS AS THEY MOVED SOUTH AND HELD THE CHINESE AT BAY.

OTHER ELEMENTS OF THE AMERICAN DIVISION WERE HOLDING FIRM. IT WAS NOT CLEAR FROM CLOSELY CENSORED FIELD REPORTS WHETHER THE HOLE THROUGH WHICH THE CHINESE WERE POURING HAD BEEN PLUGGED.

30.24- 23141

ACROSS THE FLAMING WARFRONT THE COMMUNISTS PRESSED FORWARD IN HUMAN SEA WAVES DESPITE MASSED ALLIED ARTILLERY FIRE AND SEARING AIR ATTACKS.

FIELD DISPATCHES SAID THE TOLL OF RED DEAD WAS TERRIFIC. BUT STILL THE COMMUNISTS POURED SOUTHWARD OUT OF THE NORTH KOREAN MASSING AREAS.

THIS WAS THE CHINESE REDS' FIFTH OFFENSIVE SINCE THEY ENTERED THE WAR IN LATE NOVEMBER. AND IT APPEARED TO BE SHAPING UP AS THEIR MIGHTIEST DRIVE--ONE AIMED, RED PRISONERS SAID, TO THROW THE ALLIES OUT OF KOREA BY THE JUNE 25 FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF THE COMMUNIST INVASION.

RED COMMANDERS HAD A POOL OF 1,141,000 AVAILABLE TROOPS IN KOREA AND MANCHURIA, THE U.N. COMMAND SAID. AND THEY WERE RECKLESS IN THE WAY THEY SPENT THEM.

THE GREAT RED ASSAULT IS DOOMED TO FAILURE, LT.GEN.JAMES A.VAN FLEET CONFIDENTLY TOLD HIS ALLIED GROUND FORCES.

U.N. MASSED ARTILLERY FIRED AT RECORD SPEED TO CUT ATTACKING WAVES TO PIECES. ALLIED AIRMEN COMPLAINED FRIDAY AFTERNOON THAT THEY COULDN'T FIND MANY RED TARGETS.

FIELD DISPATCHES SAID THE BUGLE BLOWING, HORN TOOTING CHINESE FELL BY THE THOUSANDS UNDER GEYSERING ARTILLERY EXPLOSIONS. ONE U.S. BATTALION ON THE CENTRAL FRONT CLAIMED AN ALL TIME RECORD FOR SPEED OF SUSTAINED FIRE.

BARBED WIRE, STRUNG EXTENSIVELY BEFORE U.N. POSITIONS IN KOREA FOR THE FIRST TIME, WAS HUNG WITH GRUESOME GARLANDS OF CHINESE. TWO THOUSAND MILES OF WIRE WERE STRETCHED IN FRONT OF ONE UNIT.

FRONT LINE DISPATCHES GAVE THIS PICTURE FRIDAY NIGHT, LOOKING ACROSS THE FRONT FROM WEST TO EAST:

A143FX

AMERICAN FORCES PULLED BACK FROM UIJONGBU, 11 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL. RED SCREENING FORCES PUSHED TO WITHIN 10 MILES OF THE OLD SOUTH KOREAN CAPITAL.

AN ARMORED U.N. PATROL WAS STOPPED 10 MILES EAST OF SEOUL BY A RED MINE FIELD COVERED BY AUTOMATIC WEAPONS FIRE. A SERIES OF RED ATTACKS FAILED TO BREAK U.N. LINES IN THE WEST-CENTRAL FRONT FRIDAY. SOUTH KOREANS PATCHED UP THE ONLY DENT. BUT MASSING CHINESE, CAMOUFLAGED BY TREE BRANCHES, HID IN THE WOODS READY TO RENEW THEIR ASSAULTS.

HEAVY FIGHTING RAGED ACROSS THE CENTRAL FRONT. THE ALLIED LINE PULLED BACK BEFORE WAVES OF ATTACKING CHINESE.

CHINESE POURED THROUGH A BREAK IN SOUTH KOREAN LINES. THEY STREAMED DOWN THE INJE-HONGCHON ROAD ON THE CENTRAL FRONT.

A VETERAN AMERICAN DIVISION ASTRIDE THIS ROAD WAS FIGHTING ATTACKS ON THREE SIDES. AP CORRESPONDENT NATE POLOWETZKY SAID IT WAS IN "GREAT TROUBLE."

AMERICANS WERE RUSHED UP TO PLUG THE GAP CUT IN TWO SOUTH KOREAN DIVISIONS. SOUTH KOREAN UNITS WERE BADLY HURT. TWO RETREATING UNITS WERE CAUGHT IN A CHINESE AMBUSH. AT LEAST ONE OF THEM FOUGHT ITS WAY OUT. A STRONG ALLIED TANK COLUMN HIT THE SAME TRAP. IT ESCAPED DOWN A DRY RIVER BED.

AP CORRESPONDENT GEORGE MCARTHUR REPORTED ALL U.N. TROOPS HAD PULLED BACK OUT OF RED KOREA. SOUTH KOREANS HAD HELD A 25 MILE LINE FROM THE INJE AREA TO THE SEA OF JAPAN.

CORRESPONDENT MCARTHUR SAID THE WITHDRAWAL THROUGH THE MOUNTAINS FROM THIS LINE WAS ORDERLY.

RAIN DRENCHED THE BATTLEFIELDS FRIDAY NIGHT. RED COMMANDERS COUNTED ON SPRING RAINS TO BOG DOWN ALLIED ARMOR AND PROVIDE PROTECTION FROM THE SKIES FOR THEIR MASSES OF INFANTRYMEN.

THEIR HEAVIEST WEIGHT WAS THROWN AGAINST THE EAST-CENTRAL SECTOR. UP TO MIDNIGHT THURSDAY THEY HAD LOST 9,000 MEN THERE, AP CORRESPONDENT WILLIAM C.BARNARD REPORTED.

"THEIR LOSSES AFTER MIDNIGHT WERE ASTOUNDING," HE SAID.

"THEY HURLED AN AMAZING STORM OF MEN AGAINST A HEAVILY DEFENDED POSITION SOUTHEAST OF CHUNCHON. THEY RAN INTO ALLIED MINEFIELDS AND THROUGH GEYSERING EXPLOSIONS. THEY KEPT COMING OVER THE BODIES OF THEIR OWN DEAD. ALLIED ARTILLERY RAINED DEATH IN THEIR MIDST.

"THEY KEPT COMING AND THEN THEY HIT THE BARBED WIRE ENTANGLEMENTS AND FIXED AMERICAN MACHINEGUNS OPENED UP WITH DEADLY FIRE. IT CUT THEM DOWN BY THE HUNDREDS, STOPPING THE ATTACK COLD AT THE VERY MOUTH OF THE ALLIED GUNS."

A84FX

THROUGH THE NIGHT ALLIED BOMBERS AND FIGHTERS BOMBED AND STRAFED BY THE LIGHT OF FLARES. MASSED ARTILLERY FIRED STEADILY INTO SWARMING REDS.

IN ONE SPOT EAST OF CHUNCHON SHELLS BURST IN A MASS OF 8,000 CHINESE. THIS WAS ON THE EDGE OF THE BIG RED BREAKTHROUGH.

AN ESTIMATED TWO CHINESE DIVISIONS POURED THROUGH THE GAP IN SOUTH KOREAN LINES AND FANNED OUT SOUTH, SOUTHWEST AND SOUTHEAST OF INJE.

THEY WERE REPORTED APPLYING HEAVY PRESSURE ON AMERICAN FLANKS.

COMMUNISTS STREAMED DOWN THE ROAD TOWARD HONGCHON, HIGHWAY HUB AND AMERICAN BASE ON THE CENTRAL FRONT.

AMERICANS WERE ENGAGED IN HEAVY FIGHTING AROUND HANGYE. THE TOWN IS 13 MILES SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL, 20 AIR MILES SOUTH OF INJE AND 10 MILES NORTHEAST OF HONGCHON.

THIS APPEARED TO BE THE GREATEST DEPTH OF RED PENETRATION.

WHILE AMERICANS FOUGHT TO STEM THE RED TIDE, SOUTH KOREANS WERE REPORTED REACHING THEIR NEW DEFENSE LINES.

THE COMMUNISTS WERE COMING THROUGH ON THE HEELS OF THE SOUTH KOREANS.

"THE SITUATION WAS HAZY," POLOWETZKY REPORTED FROM EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS.

BATTLES FLARED WESTWARD ACROSS THE CENTRAL FRONT. SOUTH OF CHUNCHON AMERICAN LINES HELD.

BUT THE REDS DROVE TWO HOLES IN U.N. LINES IN HAND TO HAND FIGHTING THURSDAY MORNING ON THE WEST CENTRAL FRONT. THIS ACTION WAS ROUGHLY 25 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

ALL FIELD DISPATCHES WERE HEAVILY CENSORED. THE EXACT LOCATION OF ANY FIGHT WAS DELETED.

CENSORSHIP PARTICULARLY OBSCURED WHAT WAS HAPPENING IN THE BIG RED BREAKTHROUGH AND ITS POTENTIAL SIGNIFICANCE.

ONLY ONE THING WAS COMPLETELY CLEAR. COMMUNIST TROOPS WERE SUFFERING TERRIFIC LOSSES.

BARNARD'S REPORT ON CENTRAL FRONT ACTION WAS SO HEAVILY CENSORED IT WAS IMPOSSIBLE TO TELL PRECISELY WHERE THE "HUMAN SEA" TACTICS OVERRAN THE AMERICAN UNIT.

THE WAVES OF REDS, SAID LT.GEN.JAMES A.VAN FLEET OF THE OVERALL OFFENSIVE, ARE MAKING "ANOTHER FUTILE ATTEMPT TO DESTROY THE UNITED NATIONS FORCES IN KOREA."

U.N. WARPLANES, CREDITED WITH KILLING 5,570 REDS THURSDAY, WERE OUT IN FORCE AGAIN FRIDAY, RAKING RED WAVES WITH ROCKETS, MACHINEGUNS, FRAGMENTATION AND FIRE BOMBS.

BUT THE TOLL SCARCELY MADE A DENT IN THE 1,141,000 TROOPS THE U.N. COMMAND SAID WERE AVAILABLE TO THE REDS. AN ARMY RELEASE SAID THE REDS' OVERWHELMING NUMBERS WERE "A CRITICALLY DANGEROUS THREAT" TO U.N. FORCES. IT SAID COMMUNISTS HAD AN ESTIMATED 768,000 MEN IN KOREA, MOST OF THEM ON OR IMMEDIATELY BACK OF THE FRONT, AND 373,000 MORE AVAILABLE IN MANCHURIA.

THE REDS SMASHED THROUGH SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS OR PUSHED THEM BACK.

OTHER ALLIED UNITS HELD THEIR LINES. COMMUNIST SMASHES NORTH OF SEOUL WERE CRUSHED.

TWENTY-FIVE MILES NORTHEAST OF THE OLD SOUTH KOREAN CAPITAL, THE REDS CHASED SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS ACROSS THE PUKHAN RIVER. U.N. ARTILLERY TOOK A HEAVY TOLL OF THE PURSUING COMMUNISTS.

IN THE EASTERN SECTOR, HEAVY COMMUNIST WAVES ROLLED BACK THE SOUTH KOREAN LINES FROM THE INJE AREA TO THE SEA OF JAPAN. THIS 25 MILE LINE THROUGH THE EASTERN MOUNTAINS WAS THE LAST U.N. HOLD IN RED KOREA.

AP CORRESPONDENT NATE POLOWETZKY REPORTED FROM EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS THAT COMMUNISTS HAVE CHASED ALMOST ALL UNITED NATIONS TROOPS SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL. IF THE REDS KEEP ATTACKING WITH THE SAME FORCE, HE SAID IT WAS PROBABLE THE REST OF THE REPUBLICANS WOULD BE HURLED BACK ACROSS THE PRE-WAR BOUNDARY.

A U.S. EIGHTH ARMY OFFICER SAID THE REDS HAD PENETRATED THIS LINE IN A NUMBER OF PLACES. ONE WAS A MAJOR BREAK SOUTH OF INJE. A FRONT LINE DISPATCH SAID SOUTH KOREANS FLEEING THE INJE AREA WERE "STREAMING DOWN THE ROAD ON FOOT AND PILED ON TRUCKS."

THE EIGHTH ARMY SPOKESMAN SAID THE SITUATION WAS SO FLUID IT WAS DIFFICULT TO TELL HOW MUCH A SETBACK THE REPUBLICAN TROOPS HAD SUFFERED.

A44FX

ON THE EAST COAST THE SOUTH KOREANS PULLED BACK TO YANGYANG, FIVE MILES NORTH OF 38. THERE THEY WERE SUPPORTED BY THE BIG GUNS OF THE RECENTLY ARRIVED U.S. BATTLESHIP NEW JERSEY.

THE GREATEST RED MASSES WERE HURLED AT THE EAST CENTRAL FRONT FROM INJE 25 MILES SOUTHWESTWARD TO CHUNCHON.

AT TERRIFIC COST THE REDS FORGED SOME GAINS EAST AND SOUTH OF CHUNCHON, HIGHWAY HUB 45 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

IN THIS AREA U.N. WARPLANES TOOK THEIR HEAVIEST TOLL THURSDAY. LT.GEN. EARLE E.PARTRIDGE, COMMANDER OF THE U.S. FIFTH AIR FORCE, SAID THE HEAVY RED TROOP LOSSES TO AERIAL ATTACKS CAME IN ONE OF THE BIGGEST U.N. AIRMEN HAVE HAD IN KOREA. THEY FLEW 1,100 SORTIES, INCLUDING THE HEAVIEST NIGHT ATTACKS OF THE WAR.

A NEW RADAR TECHNIQUE WAS USED IN CUTTING REDS DOWN WITH FRAGMENTATION BOMBS BURSTING OVER THEIR HEADS.

GOOD WEATHER SENT THE WARPLANES BACK IN FORCE FRIDAY.

MIDWAY BETWEEN CHUNCHON AND SEOUL THE REDS HIT IN STRENGTH AROUND CHANGGONG. THEY GOT NOWHERE IN ATTACKING AMERICAN FORCES. BUT POLOWETZKY REPORTED SOUTH KOREANS IN THIS AREA WERE DRIVEN ACROSS THE PUKHAN RIVER. AN ESTIMATED 300 REDS FOLLOWED THEM ACROSS, AFTER HEAVY LOSSES TO ALLIED ARTILLERY FIRE.

"THEY TOOK NO ACTION TO KEEP AWAY FROM OUR BIG GUNS," AN ARTILLERY OFFICER SAID.

IN THE WEST, THE COMMUNISTS ON THURSDAY AND THURSDAY NIGHT MADE THEIR FIRST BIDS OF THE CURRENT OFFENSIVE TO CRACK THE U.N. LINE GUARDING SEOUL. EVERY ASSAULT WAS HURLED BACK. THE REDS SHIFTED TO TRY TO FIND A SOFTER SPOT.

GEN.MATTHEW B.RIDGWAY, SUPREME U.N. COMMANDER, SAID IN TOKYO OF DEFENDING U.N. FORCES:

"THE FIGHTING TEAM THEY HAVE FASHIONED WITH THEIR SACRIFICE AND BLOOD HAS MET THE FIRST TEST. THERE WILL BE OTHERS."

AND GENERAL VAN FLEET TOLD HIS MEN:

"THE STRUGGLE IS ONE OF THE ANCIENT CONCEPTION OF MASS IN DEPTH DRIVEN FORWARD BY CRUEL AND RUTHLESS COMMUNIST DISCIPLINE AS OPPOSED BY THE SMALLER U.N. ARMY OF IMMENSE FIREPOWER DIRECTED BY AN ENLIGHTENED LEADERSHIP AT ALL LEVELS OF COMMAND, WITH PARTICULAR EMPHASIS ON THE ACTIONS OF PLATOONS AND BATTALIONS."

A45FX

THE 1,141,000-MAN RED POTENTIAL WAS REPORTED BY RIDGWAY'S PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICE.

"THE PRESENT ENEMY STRENGTH IN KOREA FAR EXCEEDS THAT OF THE UNITED NATIONS FORCES," THE ARMY SAID. BUT IT DID NOT DISCLOSE THE NUMBER THE U.N. HAS IN THE FIELD.

THE CHINESE ALONE HAVE 20 ARMIES IN KOREA, RIDGWAY'S HEADQUARTERS SAID. ALL OF THE U.N. FORCES ON THE FRONT ARE INCLUDED IN THE U.S. EIGHTH ARMY.

THE EIGHTH ARMY ANNOUNCED FRIDAY IT WOULD DISCONTINUE ESTIMATING RED CASUALTIES DAILY. A SPOKESMAN SAID NO FIGURES WOULD BE RELEASED UNTIL ALLIED TROOPS "HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY OF GOING INTO AN AREA" AND ACTUALLY COUNTING THE ENEMY DEAD.

KOREAN FRONT MAPPER (WITH ROUNDUP)

TOKYO, MAY 18-(AP)-THE ENTIRE FRONT LINE IN KOREA WAS REPORTED SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL TODAY. IT WAS 25 MILES SOUTH OF THE PARALLEL ON THE EASTERN APPROACHES TO SEOUL.

AS FAR AS COULD BE TOLD FROM HEAVILY CENSORED FIELD DISPATCHES, THE BATTLELINE FRIDAY NIGHT RAN LIKE THIS, FROM WEST TO EAST:

SOUTH OF UIJONGBU, WHICH IS 18 MILES SOUTH OF THE PARALLEL AND 11 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL.

NORTH OF TOKSO AT A POINT ABOUT 25 MILES SOUTH OF THE PARALLEL AND TEN MILES EAST OF SEOUL.

SOUTH OF MASOGU, AROUND CHANGGONG, SOUTH OF KAPYONG, SOUTH OF CHUNCHON, NORTH OF HANGYE.

HANGYE, THE MOST EASTERLY KNOWN POINT OF ACTION, IS 14 MILES SOUTH OF THE PARALLEL.

BY WILLIAM C. BARNARD

EAST-CENTRAL FRONT, KOREA, MAY 18-(AP)- CHINESE HORDES SMASHED SOUTHWARD ALONG THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT TODAY, POURING THROUGH A BREAK IN THE LINE OF AN AMERICAN DIVISION. THEY STRUCK BOLDLY THROUGH SHATTERED REMNANTS OF SOUTH KOREAN UNITS TO THE IMMEDIATE EAST OF THE U.S. DIVISION.

THE SMASHING OF SOUTH KOREAN UNITS ENABLED THE REDS TO OUTFLANK THE AMERICAN DIVISION AND TO RACE SOUTHWARD TO CUT THE HANGYE-YONGGAE LATERAL ROAD.

PART OF THE AMERICAN DIVISION'S LINE EAST OF CHUNCHON STILL HELD LIKE A ROCK, AND ELEMENTS OF THE DIVISION THAT HAD BEEN OUTFLANKED AND ENVELOPED CRASHED SOUTHWARD DOWN THE INJE-HONGCHON ROAD, RIGHT THROUGH A HEAVY LINE OF CHINESE THAT HAD CUT THE ROAD.

ON THIS THIRD DAY OF THE RED OFFENSIVE, AMERICAN ARTILLERY, AIR AND INFANTRY FIRE AGAIN WERE EXACTING AN AMAZING TOLL OF ENEMY.

INFANTRYMEN, ARTILLERYMEN AND AIRMEN WERE KILL-GROGGY AND WEARY. DAZEDLY THEY TOLD STORIES OF TOO MANY TARGETS AND SPECTACULAR

"SHOOTS" AND SLAUGHTERS AS THE "HUMAN SEA" OF CHINESE CAME ON AND ON.
THOUSANDS OF CHINESE CRASHED AGAINST THE POSITIONS OF THE AMERICAN DIVISION EARLY TODAY AND ONLY 150 SURVIVED THE ARTILLERY, THE MINES, THE BOMBING AND THE MACHINE GUNNING THAT LEFT THE BATTLEFIELD STRWN WITH CHINESE DEAD.

IT WAS AN ASTOUNDING DEMONSTRATION. ONE OFFICER SAID:

"I THINK MOST OF THESE CHINESE ARE DOPED. THEY WADE RIGHT THROUGH MACHINE GUN FIRE OR ARTILLERY FIRE. THE BODIES PILE UP AND THEY WALK RIGHT OVER THE BODIES AND THE PILE OF BODIES GETS HIGHER.

"ONE MACHINE GUNNER KEPT ON SHOOTING AND THE CHINESE KEPT ON COMING. FINALLY THEY WERE WALKING RIGHT PAST HIM ON BOTH SIDES, CLOSE TO HIM, WITH HIM STILL SHOOTING AND THE BODIES PILED UP IN FRONT OF HIS GUN.

"THE CHINESE ACTED AS THOUGH THEY WERE IN A DREAM--PAID NO ATTENTION TO HIM--AND NEVER DID SHOOT HIM. ONE TRIPPED AND KICKED OVER HIS MACHINEGUN AND NOT UNTIL THEN DID THE GUNNER QUIT SHOOTING."

THE U.N. UNITS THAT FOUGHT OUT SOUTHWARD WERE AIDED BY A COLUMN WHICH WENT DESPERATELY NORTHWARD TO HELP BREAK THE LINE OF CHINESE THAT CUT THE ROAD.

ONE OF THE THREE ESCAPING UNITS WAS AIDED BY A SPECTACULAR ARTILLERY DEMONSTRATION.

ARTILLERY FIRED A RING-CURTAIN ENTIRELY AROUND THE UNIT AND KEPT IT THERE, MOVING WITH THE SOLDIERS AS THEY MARCHED SOUTHWARD THROUGH THE ENEMY LINES.

ROADS IN THE EAST CENTRAL SECTION WERE CLOGGED TODAY WITH SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS WALKING AND RIDING. THE TRUCKS WERE PACKED WITH SOLDIERS AND WITH MANY WOMEN WHO SERVE AS NURSES.

RED MANPOWER (280)
BY TOM STONE

TOKYO, MAY 18-(AP)-GENERAL RIDGWAY'S HEADQUARTERS SAID TODAY THE COMMUNISTS ARE CAPABLE OF HURLING 1,141,000 TROOPS AGAINST UNITED NATIONS FORCES IN KOREA.

THESE RED TROOPS ARE IN BATTLE, IN RESERVE IMMEDIATELY BEHIND THE FRONT, OR IN MANCHURIA.

A REPORT FROM RIDGWAY'S PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICE SAID THE FUND OF ENEMY MANPOWER PRESENTS "A CRITICALLY DANGEROUS THREAT" TO ALLIED FORCES.

ALLIED TROOP STRENGTH WAS NOT GIVEN FOR SECURITY REASONS, BUT THE REPORT SAID THE "PRESENT ENEMY STRENGTH IN KOREA FAR EXCEEDS THAT OF UNITED NATIONS FORCES."

THE REPORT SAID 768,000 REDS--BETWEEN 79 AND 83 COMMUNIST INFANTRY DIVISIONS--ARE IN KOREA. IT ADDED THAT 373,000 ADDITIONAL COMMUNIST TROOPS ARE IN MANCHURIA, "A DEFINITE RESERVE POTENTIAL CAPABLE OF IMMEDIATE PROJECTION INTO THE THEATER OF OPERATION."

THE REDS IN MANCHURIA ARE PRESUMED TO BE WELL TRAINED BUT LACKING IN COMBAT EXPERIENCE.

IN ADDITION TO THE 1,141,000 MEN IN KOREA OR AVAILABLE FOR USE THERE, THE REDS HAVE 370,000 TRAINED SECURITY TROOPS IN MILITARY DISTRICTS THROUGHOUT MANCHURIA, THE REPORT SAID.

IT ESTIMATED THAT 557,000 OF THE 768,000 RED TROOPS IN KOREA ARE CHINESE COMMUNISTS. THE REST ARE KOREANS.

THE CHINESE ARE ORGANIZED INTO 20 ARMIES, CONTAINING 55 TO 58 REGULAR INFANTRY DIVISIONS.

SUPPORTING THESE INFANTRY DIVISIONS ARE TWO CAVALRY AND FOUR ARTILLERY DIVISIONS.

THE REPORT SAID THE 211,000 NORTH KOREAN TROOPS ARE ORGANIZED IN EIGHT ARMY CORPS, TOTALING 24 OR 25 DIVISIONS.

UNITED NATIONS TROOPS FIGHTING UNDER THE CAME OF THE U.S. EIGHTH ARMY ARE ORGANIZED ON THE BASIS OF THREE U.S. CORPS--THE FIRST, NINTH AND 10TH--AND TWO SOUTH KOREAN CORPS.

ALLIED TROOPS IN KOREA REPRESENT THE UNITED STATES, GREAT BRITAIN, AUSTRALIA, CANADA, FRANCE, KOREA, THAILAND, THE PHILIPPINES, TURKEY AND GREECE.

TOKYO, MAY 18-(AP)-THE FIGHTING TEAM FASHIONED WITH "SACRIFICE AND BLOOD" BY UNITED NATIONS FORCES IN KOREA HAS MET THE FIRST TEST -- BUT "THERE WILL BE OTHERS," GEN. MATTHEW B. RIDGWAY SAID TODAY.

"IT IS THE SOLEMN, INDIVIDUAL OBLIGATION OF EACH OF US TO BE READY," THE SUPREME ALLIED COMMANDER DECLARED IN A STATEMENT ISSUED FOR ARMED FORCES DAY TOMORROW. "WITH COURAGE AND SPIRITUAL STAMINA, WITH SKILL IN OUR ARMS, AND WITH THE UNDENIABLE KNOWLEDGE THAT OUR CAUSE IS JUST, WE WILL SUCCEED.

"THE HOPES AND ASPIRATIONS OF FREE PEOPLE EVERYWHERE ARE DEPENDENT TO A LARGE DEGREE ON OUR EFFORTS. THE SECURITY OF OUR NATION RESTS IN OUR HANDS."

IN A MESSAGE YESTERDAY TO THE UNITED NATIONS ASSOCIATION OF JAPAN, THE GENERAL SAID THAT MANY U.N. SOLDIERS IN KOREA HAD "GIVEN THEIR LIVES IN SUPPORT OF THE PRINCIPLE THAT AGGRESSION MUST NOT BE REWARDED."

"LIKE BLACKMAIL," HE SAID, "SUCCESSFUL AGGRESSION ONLY OPENS THE WAY FOR GREATER AND GREATER TRIBUTE UNTIL THE BURDEN BECOMES UNBEARABLE."

SOMEWHERE IN KOREA, SATURDAY, MAY 19-(AP)-LT. GEN. EDWARD M. ALMOND, U. S. TENTH CORPS COMMANDER, TODAY COMMENDED THE U. S. SECOND DIVISION FOR A "MAGNIFICENT" STAND AGAINST OVERWHELMING ODDS IN THE RENEWAL OF THE COMMUNISTS' SPRING DRIVE.

ALMOND'S MESSAGE WAS DIRECTED TO MAJ. GEN. CLARK L. RUFFNER, COMMANDER OF THE SECOND DIVISION, WHICH TODAY WAS REPORTED TO HAVE FOUGHT FREE OF RED TROOPS WHICH ALMOST HAD THE DIVISION SURROUNDED FRIDAY.

ALMOND'S STATEMENT SAID:

"THE BATTLE ACTION OF THE SECOND INFANTRY DIVISION DURING THE PAST 36 HOURS HAS BEEN MAGNIFICENT. PLEASE TELL THE OFFICERS AND MEN OF YOUR COMMAND OF MY PROFOUND ADMIRATION AND THANKS FOR THE HEROIC STAND BEING MADE AGAINST VERY HEAVY ODDS AND FOR THE TREMENDOUS DESTRUCTION OF ENEMY TROOPS AND EQUIPMENT BEING WROUGHT IN THE PRESENT ACTION.

"SINCE THE INITIATION OF THE CHINESE COMMUNIST ATTACK TWO DAYS AGO IT IS ESTIMATED THAT HE HAS SUFFERED OVER 12,000 CASUALTIES WITH COMPARATIVELY LITTLE LOSS TO YOUR OWN PERSONNEL AND EQUIPMENT.

"THE PERFORMANCE OF INFANTRY, ARTILLERY AND AIR AS WELL AS SUPPORTING UNITS HAS BEEN SUPERB. THE STEADFASTNESS AND RESOLUTION OF YOUR INFANTRY IS EXEMPLIFIED BY THE MACHINE GUNNER WHO MANNED HIS GUN, SHOOTING DOWN WAVE AFTER WAVE OF THE CHINESE HORDES, UNTIL IT WAS TIPPED OVER BY ONE OF THE ENEMY FROM THE REAR AS THE GUNNER CONTINUED TO FIRE TO THE FRONT.

YOU HAVE FULFILLED MY HIGHEST EXPECTATIONS AND I HAVE FULL CONFIDENCE THAT YOU WILL CONTINUE TO COUNTER HIS STRONGEST THRUSTS AND INFLICT UPON HIM OVERWHELMING LOSSES.

"IN THIS ACTION YOUR DIVISION AND SUPPORTING FORCES ARE PERFORMING IN THE HIGHEST TRADITIONS OF AMERICAN ARMS AND IN KEEPING WITH THE OBJECTIVES OF THE U.N.COMMAND. SIGNED ALMOND."

U.S. 8TH ARMY HEADQUARTERS,KOREA,MAY 18-(AP)-THE U.S. EIGHTH ARMY FIELD COMMANDER ASSERTED TODAY THE NEW RED OFFENSIVE WILL FAIL.
LT.GEN.JAMES A.VAN FLEET SAID IN A STATEMENT TO HIS UNITED NATIONS ARMY THAT THE FRESHHCOMMUNIST ATTEMPT TO DESTROY U.N. FORCES IN KOREA IS "FUTILE."
HE PRAISED THE VALOR OF ALLIED FIGHTING MEN IN WITHSTANDING RED "HUMAN WAVE" TACTICS. VAN FLEET SAID:
"THE STRUGGLE IS ONE OF THE ANCIENT CONCEPTION OF MASS IN DEPTH DRIVEN FORWARD BY CRUEL AND RUTHLESS DISCIPLINE AS OPPOSED BY THE SMALLER U.N. THE OFFICER SAID FIGURES WOULD BE RELEASED ONLY WHEN ALLIED TROOPS COULD GO INTO AN AREA AND ACTUALLY COUNT THE ENEMY DEAD, OR WHEN IT WAS POSSIBLE OTHERWISE TO MAKE A MORE ACCURATE ESTIMATE. HE ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT OVERALL ENEMY CASUALTY FIGURES WOULD BE ISSUED WHEN BATTLE CAMPAIGNS ARE CONCLUDED.

LAB SHIP (640)
BY TOM BRADSHAW
KOJE ISLAND,KOREA.MAY 18 (AP)-THE LITTLE U.S.NAVY SHIP NOSING AGAINST THE LUSH SHORE OF KOJE ISLAND DOESN'T LOOK MUCH LIKE A WAR CRIMINAL.
YET THAT IS THE ACCUSATION MADE BY THE CHINESE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT IN THE PAST MONTH, THE PEIPING RADIO REPEATEDLY HAS CHARGED THAT LSI (L) 1091 HAS BEEN USED TO CARRY OUT BACTERIOLOGICAL WARFARE BEHIND ENEMY LINES IN NORTH KOREA--"KILLING INNOCENT PEOPLE."
THE CHARGE WAS AIRED AGAIN RECENTLY AFTER ANNOUNCEMENT IN TOKYO THAT BRIG.GEN.GRAWFORD F.SAMS. CHIEF OF THE UNITED NATION COMMAND'S PUBLIC HEALTH AND WELFARE SECTION, HAD BEEN AWARDED THE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE CROSS.
SAMS, A ST.LOUIS, MO., PHYSICIAN, WAS CITED FOR MAKING AN AMPHIBIOUS LANDING IN NORTH KOREA WITH THREE COMPANIONS ON THE NIGHT OF MARCH 13 TO CHECK REPORTS OF DISEASE AMONG ENEMY TROOPS.
USING A RUBBER RAFT, THE FOUR WENT ASHORE AND REMAINED FOR THREE AND ONE-HALF HOURS. THEIR WORK WAS OFFICIALLY DESCRIBED AS IMPORTANT ENOUGH "TO AFFECT THE IMMEDIATE CONDUCT OF THE U.N. ARMED EFFORT IN KOREA."
GENERAL SAMS' PARTY DISCOVERED THAT A VIRULENT TYPE OF SMALLPOX WAS KILLING ENEMY TROOPS LIKE FLIES.
THIS FINDING WAS CREDITED WITH AFFECTING "THE IMMEDIATE CONDUCT OF THE U.N. ARMED EFFORT IN KOREA."
THIS FINDING WAS REPORTED ANONYMOUSLY BY AN INFORMED MILITARY SOURCE IN TOKYO SHORTLY AFTER SAMS' SECRET MISSION. THIS SOURCE SAID BOTH SOLDIERS AND CIVILIANS IN RED KOREA WERE "DYING BY THE THOUSANDS," AND THAT DISEASE WAS PUTTING FAR MORE RED TROOPS OUT OF ACTION THAN ALLIED WEAPONS.
THE U.S.NAVY COMMAND HAS NOT YET RELEASED THE FULL DETAILSS OF THAT OPERATION, BUT OFFICERS WERE PERFECTLY WILLING FOR A CORRESPONDENT TO VISIT LSI (L) 1091 AT HER PRESENT DUTY STATION.
NO.1091 WAS BUILT AT BAY CITY, MICH., MIDWAY THROUGH WORLD WAR II, AS A LANDING SHIP FOR AMPHIBIOUS OPERATIONS. SHE SAW ACTION AT OKINAWA.
AFTER THE WAR, NO.1091 WAS RELEGATED TO TROOP TRANSPORT DUTY.
LAST WINTER HER SKIPPER--LT.(JG) GEORGE P.MILLER OF THE DALLES, OREGON--WAS ORDERED TO TAKE HER FROM GUAM TO TOKYO.
IN JAPAN THE 160-FOOT SHIP WAS CONVERTED INTO A FLOATING TEST TUBE. ON HER LOWER DECK WAS BUILT A LABORATORY 20 FEET SQUARE--WITH ALL THE GEAR HER SCIENTISTS WOULD NEED.
A MEDICAL UNIT--35 ENLISTED MEN AND FIVE OFFICERS--WAS SENT ABOARD AUNDER COMDR.JOSEPH M.COPPOLETTA, 84 RUTGERS PLACE, RIVER EDGE, N.J.
IN FEBRUARY, NO.1091 ARRIVED IN KOREA. HER FIRST OPERATION WAS THE WONSAN RUN.

A212KX
THEN SHE WAS SENT TO KOJBE ISLAND--A ROUGHCUT T-SHAPED PIECE OF LAND AT THE EDGE OF THE CHINA SEA, 40 MILES SOUTHWEST OF KOREA'S PORT CITY OF PUSAN.
ON THIS ISLAND ARE A HALF DOZEN STOCKADES CONTAINING MORE THAN 125,000 NORTH KOREAN PRISONERS OF WAR. FOURTEEN HUNDRED OF THEM ARE IN A HOSPITAL UNDER CANVAS. OF THE REMAINDER, AN ESTIMATED 80 PER CENT ARE SUFFERING FROM SOME FORM OF DISEASE.
THE SHIP'S DOCTORS AND SCIENTISTS HELP TREAT THESE SICK PRISONERS AND GATHER MEDICAL DATA THAT WOULD TAKE YEARS TO COLLECT UNDER NORMAL CONDITIONS.
THE MEDICAL TEAM HANDLES EVERYTHING FROM VENEREAL DISEASE TO TYPHUS, BUT AT PRESENT IS CONCERNED CHIEFLY WITH A STUDY OF DYSENTERY, UNDER DIRECTION OF DR.ALBERT V.HARDY, ARLINGTON, FLA., ON LEAVE FROM THE FLORIDA HEALTH DEPARTMENT.
"WE RECEIVED 50 CULTURES FROM BACILLERY DYSENTERY CASES THIS MORNING ALONE," SAID ENS.DAVID O.HAMRICK, BACTERIOLOGIST, FROM GAINESVILLE, FLA.
"YOU WOULDN'T ENCOUNTER THAT MANY IN A STATESIDE HOSPITAL IN TWO YEARS."
THOSE CULTURES ARE SUBJECTED TO A SERIES OF PAINSTAKING TESTS IN THE SHIP'S LAB. THROUGH THOSE TESTS IT IS DETERMINED WHETHER THE PATIENT

MAY 19 1951
MAY 19 1951

HAS DYSENTERY AND, IF SO, WHAT TYPE.
ONE FORM OF DYSENTERY HAS PROVED PARTICULARLY VIRULENT. IT USUALLY RESULTS IN A LARGE HOLE BEING "BLOWN" IN THE PATIENT'S INTESTINES. DOCTORS ARE ABLE TO TREAT SUCH CASES SUCCESSFULLY BY OPERATING BUT ARE SEEKING A PRVENTIVE TO THE RUPTURE.
ANOTHER SCIENTIST, CMDR.H.S.HURLBUT, SILVER SPRING, MD., IS COLLECTING DATA ON KOREAN MOSQUITOES. HE LETS HIS COLONY OF INSECTS FEED ON HIS OWN ARM WHEN OTHER BLOOD SOURCES ARE NOT OBTAINABLE.
CHIEF WARRANT OFFICER ROBERT S.MACDONOUGH, SAN DIEGO, CALIF., CONCERNED PRIMARILY WITH A STUDY OF VENEREAL DISEASE, BELIEVES HE MAY BE ON THE TRAIL OF AN ENTIRELY NEW INFECTION.
PRISONERS ARE NOT FORCED TO SUBMIT TO TREATMENT. IN FACT, THEY WELCOME THE ATTENTION.
REFERRING TO COMMUNIST CHARGES THAT THE MEDICS WERE WAR CRIMINALS, ENS.EUGENE W.LARY, NAVIGATOR, DALLAS, TEX., SAID:
"I GUESS EVEN A PERSONAL INSPECTION TRIP WOULDN'T SATISFY THEM. THE REDS PROBABLY HAVE TRIED AND CONVICTED US ALREADY AS WAR CRIMINALS."

COMMUNIST LOSSES
WASHINGTON,MAY 18-(AP)-THE ARMY TODAY ESTIMATED COMMUNIST LOSSES IN KOREA AT 904,788 THROUGH MAY 7.
THIS IS 11,126 MORE THAN WAS REPORTED THROUGH APRIL 30.
CHINESE AND NORTH KOREAN BATTLE CASUALTIES WERE PLACED AT 631,607. NON-COMBAT CASUALTIES WERE ESTIMATED AT 125,880. IN ADDITION, 147,301 RED PRISONERS OF WAR HAVE BEEN CAPTURED BY ACTUAL COUNT.
NORTH KOREAN CASUALTIES MADE UP 539,702 OF THE TOTAL. SINCE THE BEGINNING OF HOSTILITIES LAST JUNE, KOREAN RED BATTLE CASUALTIES ARE ESTIMATED AT 319,818, NON-BATTLE LOSSES AT 76,066, AND 143,818 HAVE BEEN TAKEN PRISONER.
TOTAL CHINESE RED CASUALTIES ARE ESTIMATED AT 365,086.
OF THIS TOTAL, 311,789 ARE LISTED AS BATTLE CASUALTIES, 49,814 AS NON-BATTLE LOSSES AND 3,483 AS PRISONERS.
THE REPORT COVERS THE PERIOD UP TO THE TIME THE COMMUNISTS' FIRST BIG SPRING OFFENSIVE HAD BEEN HALTED AND UNITED NATIONS FORCES HAD STARTED PROBING BACK TO THE NORTH. SINCE THEN, THE REDS HAVE LAUNCHED A NEW BIG DRIVE IN WHICH THOUSANDS HAVE BEEN REPORTED KILLED.
NO CURRENT OVERALL TOTAL OF UNITED NATIONS CASUALTIES IN KOREA HAS BEEN ANNOUNCED, BUT RELIABLE REPORTS PLACE THEM AT ABOUT 300,000.
ANNOUNCED U.S. COMBAT CASUALTIES THROUGH MAY 11 WERE 65,523. NON-BATTLE CASUALTIES ARE NOT ANNOUNCED BY THE U.S.
ESTIMATES OF SOUTH KOREAN LOSSES NOW RUN BETWEEN 225,000 AND 250,000. SOME REPORTS HAVE PLACED SOUTH KOREAN CASUALTIES CONSIDERABLY HIGHER.
THE LATEST RELIABLE ESTIMATES OF CASUALTIES AMONG OTHER UNITED NATIONS FORCES RUN TO ABOUT 4,500.
THE U.S. IS THE ONLY MEMBER OF THE U.N. MILITARY TEAM IN KOREA THAT REPORTS WEEKLY CASUALTY SUMMARIES.

LONDON, MAY 18-(AP)-INFORMED DIPLOMATS IN LONDON SAID TODAY RUSSIA HAS INFORMALLY SUGGESTED TO THE UNITED STATES THAT THERE BE NEW TALKS AIMED AT ENDING THE KOREAN WAR AND RE AW

D A FAR EASTERN SETTLEMENT.

THE INFORMANTS--WHO CAN BE DESCRIBED ONLY AS REPRESENTATIVES OF BOTH EAST AND WEST--SAID THE INITIAL AMERICAN REACTION WAS COOL.

(IN WASHINGTON THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID IT KNEW OF NO NEW PEACE FEELERS IN CONNECTION WITH THE KOREAN WAR AND OF NO PROPOSAL FROM THE RUSSIANS FOR TALKS AIMED AT ENDING THAT CONFLICT.)

THE SOURCES SAID AS FAR AS THEY ARE AWARE THE RUSSIANS HAVE INTR

AIMED AT ENDING THE KOREAN WAR AND REACHING A FAR EASTERN SETTLEMENT.

THE INFORMANTS--WHO CAN BE DESCRIBED ONLY AS REPRESENTATIVES OF BOTH EAST AND WEST--SAID THE INITIAL AMERICAN REACTION WAS COOL.

THE SOURCES SAID AS FAR AS THEY ARE AWARE THE RUSSIANS HAVE INTRODUCED NO NEW PROPOSALS FOR A SETTLEMENT.

BUT THE FACT OF A RUSSIAN APPROACH, THEY SPECULATED, COULD MEAN:

COMMUNIST RESOURCES ARE BEING STRAINED BY THE INCONCLUSIVE KOREAN WAR.

ALTERNATIVELY THE REDS MIGHT HAVE BEEN TRYING TO BLUNT AMERICAN DETERMINATION TO CALL FOR ADDITIONAL MEASURES AGAINST RED CHINA BY THE UNITED NATIONS.

AMERICAN OFFICIALS APPARENTLY WERE INCLINED TO DISTRUST THE SOVIET MOVE AS JUST THIS SORT OF MANEUVER.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE EXACT NATURE OF THE RUSSIAN-AMERICAN EXCHANGES IS VAGUE. BUT THIS MUCH SEEMS CERTAIN:

RUSSIAN REPRESENTATIVES INDICATED THEY WOULD JOIN PEACE TALKS IF THE STARTING POINT WERE TO BE THE PLAN FOR A FAR EASTERN SETTLEMENT SUBMITTED TO U.N. BY 12 ARAB AND ASIAN NATIONS LAST JANUARY.

THE ARAB-ASIAN BLOC PROPOSED THAT FRANCE, BRITAIN, THE U.S., RUSSIA, EGYPT AND INDIA MEET WITH THE CHINESE REDS TO TALK OVER FAR EASTERN PROBLEMS, BUT THE PLAN FELL THROUGH. INDIA'S SIR BENEGAL RAU, WHO SUPPORTED THE PROPOSAL, SAID THE FIRST ORDER OF BUSINESS WOULD BE A CEASE-FIRE IN KOREA.

SIR BENEGAL MADE THE STATEMENT IN OPPOSING THE U.N. ACTION WHICH BRANDED RED CHINA AN AGGRESSOR IN KOREA. THE UNITED STATES WAS BEHIND THE MOVE TO GET THE U.N. ON RECORD AS LABELLING PEIPING THE AGGRESSOR IN THE KOREAN FIGHTING.

THE CHINESE REDS HAVE NEVER YIELDED IN THEIR TERMS FOR ENDING THE KOREAN WAR WHICH INCLUDE WITHDRAWAL OF ALL FOREIGN TROOPS IN KOREA AND RECOGNITION OF THE RED REGIME BY THE UNITED NATIONS.

THE INFORMAL RUSSIAN SUGGESTIONS WERE PUT FORWARD MORE THAN ONCE BOTH IN NEW YORK AND WASHINGTON--SINCE THE DISMISSAL OF GENERAL DOUGLAS MACARTHUR, THE SOURCES SAID.

IN NEW YORK, PROBABLY AT LAKE SUCCESS, THEY WOULD HAVE BEEN ADVANCED BY JACOB MALIK, SOVIET DELEGATE ON THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL.

IN WASHINGTON, SOVIET AMBASSADOR ALEXANDER S.PANYUSHKIN WOULD HAVE BEEN THE OBVIOUS MAN TO HANDLE THE MATTER.

EARLIER THIS WEEK, THE U.S. MAGAZINE NEWSWEEK SAID MALIK HAD TOLD AMERICAN DELEGATE WARREN AUSTIN AT LAKE SUCCESS THE KOREAN CONFLICT COULD BE SETTLED BY DIRECT TALKS BETWEEN THE U.S. AND RUSSIA.

AUSTIN DENIED HE HAD ANY SUCH TALK WITH MALIK. WHEN MALIK WAS ASKED ABOUT THE STORY, HE INQUIRED WHAT AUSTIN HAD SAID. TOLD OF AUSTIN'S DENIAL, MALIK SAID, IN A JOVIAL MANNER, THAT HE DENIED IT, TOO.

LONDON, MAY 18-(AP)-BRITAIN CUT HER COMMERCIAL AIR LINK WITH PRAGUE WHILE A BRITISH AIRLINER WAS EN ROUTE TO THE CZECHOSLOVAK CAPITAL TODAY AND BANNED CZECHOSLOVAK COMMERCIAL FLIGHTS TO THIS COUNTRY, EFFECTIVE JUNE 17.

THE LONDON-PRAGUE SERVICE WAS BRITAIN'S LAST AIR TIE WITH A RUSSIAN SATELLITE. THE BRITISH EUROPEAN AIRWAYS CORP., A NATIONALIZED AIRLINE, HAS HANDLED THE SERVICE, MAKING SIX FLIGHTS A WEEK AT A LOSS OF NEARLY £50,000 ($140,000) A YEAR.

IT WAS ANNOUNCED THIS MORNING THAT THE SERVICE WOULD BE ENDED MAY 31. THE BEA DISCLOSED LATER, HOWEVER, THERE HAD BEEN A "CHANGE OF POLICY." THE CHANGE CAME SO SWIFTLY THAT A PRAGUE-BOUND AIRLINER HAD TO BE STOPPED AT FRANKFURT.

"WE HAVE HAD TO RUN THE SERVICE, BUT NOW THAT THE FOREIGN OFFICE HAS RELIEVED US OF THE NECESSITY WE ARE CUTTING OUR LOSSES," A BEA SPOKESMAN SAID. "TO HAVE CONTINUED UP TO MAY 31, AS ORIGINALLY DECIDED, WOULD HAVE MEANT ONLY A FURTHER LOSS."

GLASGOW, SCOTLAND, MAY 18-(AP)-WINSTON CHURCHILL TONIGHT URGED BRITAIN AND THE COMMONWEALTH TO THROW IN THEIR LOT WITH THE UNITED STATES TO OVERCOME THE PERILS CONFRONTING THE FREE WORLD.
"DARK AND TRAGIC INDEED IS THE PICTURE WHICH STARES US IN THE FACE WHENEVER WE LOOK UP FROM OUR DAILY TOIL," HE TOLD A MEETING OF THE SCOTTISH UNIONIST ASSOCIATION, THE SCOTTISH DIVISION OF THEBRITISH CONSERVATIVE PARTY.
WITH BITING SARCASM HE ACCUSED BRITAIN'S SOCIALIST GOVERNMENT OF MISSING OPPORTUNITIES TO MAKE BRITAIN STRONG INTERNATIONALLY. HE CHIDED PRIME MINISTER CLEMENT ATTLEE FOR FAILING TO MAINTAIN INTIMATE RELATIONS WITH THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES TO AVOID WHAT SEEMED TO BE POLICY DIFFERENCES. HE SPOKE SCORNFULLY OF SOME SOCIALIST MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT WHO, HE SAID, ARE "PRO-CHINESE, ALTHOUGH IT IS THE CHINESE WHO ARE KILLING OUR MEN AND THE AMERICANS WHO ARE HELPING US."
BUT, CHURCHILL WENT ON:
"WE HAVE NOT LOST FAITH IN OUR DESTINY, WE ARE THE SAME PEOPLE, IN THE SAME ISLAND AS WE WERE IN THE GREAT DAYS WE CAN ALL REMEMBER. X X X WE HAVE BUT TO CAST AWAY BY AN EFFORT OF THE WILL THE ENFEEBLING TENDENCIES AND FETTERS OF SOCIALIST RULE, AND THEN WE CAN STAND ERECT ONCE MORE AND TAKE OUR PLACE AMONG THE GREAT POWERS OF THE WORLD."
HE SAID THE EFFORT MUST BE MADE IN CLOSE ASSOCIATION WITH THE UNITED STATES AND REGRETTED THAT INCIDENTS HAD DISTURBED RELATIONSHIPS WITH AMERICA.
"IN KOREA THE UNITED STATES HAVE BORNE NINETEEN-TWENTIETHS OF THE BURDEN AND HAVE SUFFERED NEARLY 70,000 CASUALTIES," HE SAID. "WHEN WE FEEL GRIEF AT OUR OWN LOSSES WE OUGHT TO UNDERSTAND THE KEEN FEELINGS OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE IF THEY FELT THEY WERE BEING REPROACHED OR HAMPERED BY WEAKER OR LESS ENGAGED ALLIES.
"THE AMERICANS ARE NOT ONLY BEARING THE BURDEN IN THE FAR EAST, BUT ARE ALSO MAKING HEAVY CONTRIBUTIONS IN MEN, ARMS AND MONEY TO THE DEFENCE OF WESTERN EUROPE. WITHOUT THEIR HELP THERE WOULD BE NO HOPE OF PREVENTING THE CONQUEST AND SUBJUGATION OF ALL THE FREE PEOPLES OF EUROPE BY THE IMMENSE RUSSIAN ARMIES AND THOSE OF THEIR SATELLITE STATES, WHICH STAND READY FOR ACTION AT ANY MOMENT THE ORDER IS GIVEN FROM MOSCOW.
"THE PRESENCE OF GENERAL EISENHOWER IN EUROPE IS A LIVING PLEDGE AND SYMBOL OF THE RESOLVE OF THE AMERICAN NATION TO USE ITS MEASURELESS RESOURCES AND ITS RAPIDLY GROWING FLEETS AND ARMIES FOR THE DEFENSE OF CIVILIZATION.
"BEHIND ALL THIS LIES THE DREAD AND INCALCULABLE POWER WHICH THE UNITED STATES POSSESSES IN THE ATOMIC BOMB, WHICH ALONE GIVES US THE HOPE OF BEING ABLE TO FORM A FRONT IN EUROPE CAPABLE OF DETERRING THE KREMLIN TYRANTS OF FURTHER AGGRESSION THERE."

NIGHT LEAD IRANIAN

By Robert B. Hewett

TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 18--(AP)--BRITISH AMBASSADOR SIR FRANCIS M. SHEPHERD HAS ASKED TO SEE PREMIER MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH IN HIS PARLIAMENT SANCTUARY TO PRESENT BRITAIN'S NEW PROTEST AGAINST NATIONALIZATION OF ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY, AN INFORMED SOURCE SAID TODAY.

BUT IT WAS NOT CERTAIN THAT THE PREMIER WOULD RECEIVE HIM. MOSSADEGH BARRICADED HIMSELF IN THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING LAST SUNDAY AFTER EMOTIONALLY DECLARING HIS LIFE HAD BEEN THREATENED AND ANNOUNCING HE WOULD STAY THERE UNTIL HIS DREAM OF NATIONALIZATION OF OIL WAS REALIZED.

DURING HIS SECLUSION, MOSSADEGH HAS DIRECTED THAT MOST OFFICIAL BUSINESS BE TAKEN UP THROUGH HIS SECRETARIAT.

INFORMED SOURCES IN LONDON SAID THE NEW BRITISH NOTE, X SENT TO TEHRAN YESTERDAY, OFFERED TO DISPATCH A HIGH LEVEL MISSION TO DISCUSS POSSIBLE COMPROMISES WITH IRAN TO AVERT GOVERNMENT SEIZURE OF THE HUGE OIL COMPANY.

MAY 19 1951

THE LABOR GOVERNMENT DECIDED TO SEND A FIRM NOTE AFTER HUDDLES WITH THE UNITED STATES ON THE OIL CRISIS IN THIS KNNX MIDDLE EAST COUNTRY. LONDON NEWSPAPERS SAID RECENTLY THAT THE BRITISH CABINET HAD MAPPED OUT STRONG MEASURES TO BE TAKEN IF IRAN INSISTS ON NATIONALIZING THE OIL INDUSTRY WITHOUT FIRST NEGOTIATING WITH BRITAIN.

THE ALERTING OF A TROUBLE-SHOOTING PARATROOP BRIGADE GROUP FOR EMERGENCY DUTY WAS SEEN AS A POSSIBLE THREAT THAT BRITAIN WOULD USE FORCE TO PROTECT HER OIL PROPERTIES IN IRAN. THE LABOR GOVERNMENT, HOWEVER, DID NOT CONFIRM THIS.

THE PRESS IN TEHRAN TODAY REPORTED WITHOUT OFFICIAL CONFIRMATION

30.24- 23149

THAT THE GOVERNMENT IS PLANNING TO INVITE CHARLES GIDEL, A FRENCH OIL ENGINEER, TO COME TO ~~XXXXXX~~ THIS COUNTRY AS AN ADVISOR ON NATIONALIZATION PROBLEMS.

GIDEL SPENT SEVERAL MONTHS HERE LAST YEAR AT THE EXPENSE~~XX~~ OF THE GOVERNMENT TO SURVEY THE OIL SITUATION. HIS FINDINGS WERE NEVER MADE PUBLIC. BUT GIDEL REPORTEDLY OPPOSED ACCEPTANCE ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ OF A NEW OIL AGREEMENT WITH BRITAIN.

MAY 19 1951

BRITAIN HAD OFFERED TO NEGOTIATE A NEW AGREEMENT GIVING IRAN INCREASED ROYALTIES UNDER THE ANGLO-IRANIAN TREATY. BUT IRAN REJECTED THE OFFER.

SPARKED BY THE WAVE OF NATIONALISM, THE OUTLAWED COMMUNIST TUDEH PARTY YESTERDAY SET OFF ON A NEW TACK OF AGITATION, DEMANDING AT A STORMY RALLY ~~XXXX~~ THE RETURN TO ~~XXXXX~~ IRAN OF THE BAHREIN ISLANDS ACROSS THE PERSIAN GULF AND SEIZURE OF U.S. OIL INTERESTS THERE. THE ISLANDS WERE WRESTED FROM THE PERSIANS IN 1783, AND FOR HALF A CENTURY HAVE BEEN GOVERNED BY AN INDEPENDENT SHEIKDOM UNDER BRITISH PROTECTION.

OIL IS EXPORTED FROM ~~XXXXXX~~ BAHREIN ISLAND -- THE LARGEST OF THE GROUP -- BY THE BAHREIN PETROLEUM CO., A BRITISH CORPORATION REGISTERED IN CANADA AND OWNED JOINTLY BY THE STANDARD OIL CO. OF CALIFORNIA AND [redacted] TEXAS CO.

TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 18-(AP)-IRAN'S NATIONALIST WAVE--SPARKED THIS TIME BY THE OUTLAWED COMMUNIST TUDEH PARTY--HIT OUT YESTERDAY FOR "RETURN" OF THE BAHREIN ISLANDS OFF THE PERSIAN GULF AND SEIZURE OF U.S. OIL INTERESTS THERE.

MAY 19 1951

THE DEMAND--BEFORE CHEERING CROWDS AT A FIVE-HOUR RALLY IN A TEHRAN THEATER--WAS MADE BY THE "NATIONAL ORGANIZATION TO FIGHT IMPERIALISTIC OIL COMPANIES IN IRAN." THE NEW OUTFIT IS A THINLY DISGUISED FRONT FOR THE TUDEH GROUP.

RAHIM NAMVAR, SECRETARY OF THE ORGANIZATION, DECLARED AMERICAN OIL COMPANIES ARE TRYING TO GET A FOOTHOLD IN IRAN'S WELLS AS WELLS AS IN BAHREIN'S PETROLEUM RESOURCES.

"WE DEMAND BAHREIN'S OIL," NAMVAR SHOUTED. "THE PARLIAMENTARY COMMISSION (FOR TAKING OVER THE BRITISH-CONTROLLED ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY) SHOULD INSIST ON NATIONALIZING AMERICAN OIL COMPANIES THERE."

THE BAHREIN ISLANDS, LIE ACROSS THE PERSIAN GULF FROM IRAN, ABOUT 20 MILES OFF THE COAST, OCCUPIED BY THE PORTUGUESE IN 1507, THEY WERE TAKEN OVER BY THE SUBJECTS OF PERSIA (IRAN OF TODAY) IN 1602. THE ARAB-PERSIANS WERE DRIVEN OUT IN 1783 BY OTHER ARABS FROM THE MAINLAND, WHO STILL HOLD POSSESSION. THE ISLANDS HAVE A PROTECTORATE RELATIONSHIP WITH BRITAIN UNDER WHICH BRITAIN HAS AGREED TO SHIELD THEM FROM ANY FOREIGN DOMINATION.

OIL WAS DISCOVERED ON THE CHIEF ISLAND--BAHREIN--IN 1932. IT IS EXPORTED BY THE BAHREIN PETROLEUM CO., A BRITISH CORPORATION REGISTERED IN CANADA AND OWNED JOINTLY BY THE STANDARD OIL CO. OF CALIFORNIA AND THE TEXAS CO. ROYALTIES FOR THIS OIL ARE PAID BY THE BAHREIN COMPANY TO THE RULING NATIVE SHEIKH.)

THE ORGANIZATION ADOPTED BY ACCLAMATION A RESOLUTION WHICH SAID:

"AMERICAN IMPERIALISM, WHICH IS USING THE IRANIAN OIL OF BAHREIN, SHOULD BE THROWN OUT IMMEDIATELY. THE GOVERNMENT AS SOON AS POSSIBLE SHOULD USE ALL POSSIBLE MEANS TO ENFORCE ACCESS TO THE OIL FIELDS. THROW THE AMERICANS OUT OF THE OIL FIELDS." AUTHORITY OVER BAHREIN AND TO MEANWHILE, BRITAIN MADE A NEW DIPLOMATIC BID TO HOLD ON TO THE GIANT ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY, NATIONALIZATION OF WHICH HAS BEEN AUTHORIZED BY IRAN'S PARLIAMENT.

THE LABOR GOVERNMENT IN LONDON, AFTER A HUDDLE WITH THE UNITED STATES, SENT TEHRAN A NOTE YESTERDAY WHICH INFORMED SOURCES IN LONDON SAID OFFERED TO DISPATCH A HIGH LEVEL MISSION TO TALK OVER POSSIBLE COMPROMISES TO AVERT NATIONALIZATION OF THE COMPANY.

PRECEDE LONDON DAY

HONG KONG, SATURDAY, MAY 19-(AP)-A BRITISH NAVY SPOKESMAN SAID TODAY THAT THE DESTROYER COSSACK HAD SEIZED THE BRITISH FREIGHTER NANCY MOLLER, LADEN WITH RUBBER INTENDED FOR RED CHINA, AND WAS ESCORTING HER BACK TO SINGAPORE.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID THE SEIZURE WAS MADE LAST NIGHT SOUTH OF HAINAN ISLAND, WHICH IS OFF THE SOUTH CHINA COAST BETWEEN 300 AND 400 MILES SOUTHWEST OF HONG KONG.

THE ACTION BY THE BRITISH DESTROYER WAS TAKEN AT THE DIRECTION OF THE BRITISH MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT, WHICH YESTERDAY ORDERED THE FREIGHTER AND HER 3,500-TON RUBBER CARGO "REQUISITIONED." THIS WAS IN ACCORDANCE WITH A RECENT GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCEMENT IN PARLIAMENT THAT BRITAIN'S FAR EASTERN COLONIES WOULD BE ASKED TO BAR RUBBER EXPORTS TO RED CHINA.

LONDON, MAY 18-(AP)-THE BRITISH MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT ORDERED THE BRITISH FREIGHTER NANCY MOLLER "REQUISITIONED" TODAY AS SHE SAILED ON THE HIGH SEAS WITH A CARGO OF RUBBER FOR RED CHINA.

A MINISTRY SPOKESMAN SAID THE ROYAL NAVY HAS BEEN ASKED TO INTERCEPT THE VESSEL, CARRYING 3,500 TONS OF RUBBER, BEFORE SHE REACHES CHINA.

THE OWNERS IN HONG KONG HAVE BEEN ORDERED TO "BREAK OFF THE VOYAGE." THE REQUISITION ORDER WAS MADE UNDER BRITAIN'S DEFENSE REGULATIONS.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID HE DID NOT KNOW WHAT ACTION THE NAVY HAD TAKEN.

ACCORDING TO REGULATIONS MADE IN WORLD WAR TWO, AND NEVER CANCELLED, THE BRITISH MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT HAS POWER TO REQUISITION ANY VESSEL UNDER UNITED KINGDOM OR COLONIAL REGISTRY WHEREVER IT MAY BE. THE USE OF THESE POWERS IN PEACETIME IS RARE, HOWEVER.

THE TRANSPORT SPOKESMAN SAID THE EXCEPTIONAL ACTION WAS TAKEN IN ACCORDANCE WITH A RECENT GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCEMENT IN PARLIAMENT THAT BRITAIN'S FAR EASTERN COLONIES WOULD BE ASKED TO BAR RUBBER EXPORTS TO RED CHINA.

THERE WERE UNOFFICIAL REPORTS IN LONDON THIS AFTERNOON THAT THE BRITISH DESTROYER COSSACK LEFT HONG KONG TO INTERCEPT THE FREIGHTER, WHICH IS OF ABOUT 3,000 TONS. THESE REPORTS COULD NOT BE CONFIRMED OFFICIALLY.

AN ADMIRALTY SPOKESMAN DECLINED TO COMMENT ON THEM. "WE ARE POLICEMEN IN MATTERS OF THIS KIND, AND DON'T TALK ABOUT OUR WORK," HE SAID.

THE NANCY MOLLER, OWNED BY THE MOLLER LINE OF HONG KONG, SAILED FROM SINGAPORE ON MAY 12.

AMS BUDGET (900)

NIGHT LEAD TRUMAN-MACARTHUR

BY DON WHITEHEAD

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON,MAY 18-(AP)-THE WHITE HOUSE REPORTED TODAY THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAD BEEN THINKING ABOUT FIRING GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR ONLY SINCE LAST AUGUST--NOT FOR THE PAST YEAR AS HE SAID YESTERDAY. BUT THE WHITE HOUSE STATEMENT FAILED TO CHECK A NEW REPUBLICAN OUTBURST OF CRITICISM OVER THE OUSTER.

GOP LAWMAKERS WHO ARE STUDYING THE MACARTHUR DISMISSAL SAID BOTH PUBLICLY AND PRIVATELY THE PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT HAS OPENED UP A NEW FIELD OF INQUIRY.

THEY SAID SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL AND GEN.OMAR N.BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, HAD TESTIFIED THAT ONLY RECENT MOVES LED TO MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL--BUT THAT THE PRESIDENT SAID HE HAD BEEN CONSIDERING IT FOR MONTHS.

"I WANT TO KNOW MORE ABOUT THIS," SAID SENATOR SMITH (R-NJ) IN VOICING THE VIEWS OF OTHER REPUBLICANS.

A DEMOCRATIC MEMBER OF THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES--WHICH ARE CONDUCTING THE INQUIRY--TOLD A NEWSMAN THE PRESIDENTIAL STATEMENT UNDOUBTEDLY WILL PROLONG THE ASIA POLICY HEARINGS.

MAY 19 1951

"IT'S GOING TO STIR UP A LOT OF TROUBLE," HE SAID. "RIGHT NOW THERE IS NO FORESEEABLE END TO THE HEARINGS." HE DECLINED USE OF HIS NAME.

ON TOP OF THIS DEVELOPMENT, SENATOR WILEY (R-WIS) RELEASED A LETTER IN WHICH HE ACCUSED A MAJORITY OF THE INQUIRY GROUP OF CONDONING "COVER UP" TACTICS IN THE HEARINGS.

"IT IS THE COMMITTEE MAJORITY WHICH HAS BEEN PARTISAN IN ITS FRANTIC DESIRE TO COVER-UP AND WHITE-WASH," HE SAID, ADDING THAT THE WAY THE INQUIRY IS GOING IT MAY WIND UP BEING CONSIDERED "NOT ONLY A WHITE-WASH BUT A WASH-OUT."

WILEY WROTE THE LETTER TO CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA) OF THE JOINT COMMITTEE TO BE TRANSMITTED TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN WITH A REQUEST THAT MR. TRUMAN PERMIT WITNESSES TO DISCLOSE CONFIDENTIAL CONVERSATIONS HELD ON THE MACARTHUR OUSTER.

GEN.BRADLEY HAS REFUSED TO TELL WHAT WAS SAID AT A WHITE HOUSE MEETING WHICH LED TO MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL--AND THE JOINT COMMITTEE VOTED 18 TO 8 TO UPHOLD HIS RIGHT TO REFUSE.

ASKED TO COMMENT ON WILEY'S LETTER, RUSSELL TOLD NEWSMEN:

"A SENATOR OF THE UNITED STATES HAS RESPONSIBILITY ONLY TO HIS CONSTITUENTS AND HIS OWN CONSCIENCE AND JUDGMENT. I HAVE NO COMMENT ON SENATOR WILEY'S MISSIVE."

RUSSELL ALSO DECLINED TO SAY WHETHER HE WOULD FORWARD WILEY'S LETTER TO MR.TRUMAN.

SENATOR MCMAHON (D-CONN), A MEMBER OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, MADE THIS COMMENT:

"SENATOR WILEY'S UNFORTUNATE LETTER TO SENATOR RUSSELL HAS UNDOUBTEDLY BEEN PROVOKED BY HIS DISAPPOINTMENT THAT 50 PER CENT OF THE MEMBERS OF HIS OWN PARTY DO NOT AGREE WITH HIM."

WILEY DIDN'T DISTINGUISH BETWEEN REPUBLICANS AND DEMOCRATS IN HIS CRITICISM OF A MAJORITY OF THE COMMITTEE ALTHOUGH HIS OFFICE LATER SAID HE WAS REFERRING ONLY TO THE DEMOCRATS.

A20WX

SIX REPUBLICANS JOINED WITH 12 DEMOCRATS IN THE VOTE TO UPHOLD A RUSSELL RULING THAT BRADLEY SHOULD NOT BE FORCED TO REVEAL A PRIVATE CONVERSATION WITH THE PRESIDENT.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN STARTED THE NEW ROW YESTERDAY WHEN HE TOLD HIS WEEKLY NEWS CONFERENCE HE HAD BEEN THINKING ABOUT FIRING MACARTHUR FROM TIME TO TIME FOR THE PAST YEAR.

THIS COULD HAVE MEANT THAT HE HAD THE MATTER IN MIND EVEN BEFORE HE NAMED MACARTHUR TO COMMAND THE UNITED NATIONS FORCES AT THE OUTBREAK OF THE KOREAN WAR JUNE 25. IT WAS INTERPRETED THAT WAY BY MACARTHUR AND MANY OTHERS.

BUT PRESIDENTIAL SECRETARY JOSEPH SHORT TOLD NEWSMEN TODAY:

"WHEN THE PRESIDENT SAID YESTERDAY THAT THIS HAD BEEN GOING ON FOR ABOUT A YEAR, HE WAS THINKING OF THE FIRST TIME HE READ THE MACARTHUR LETTER TO THE VFW WHICH WAS IN THE MONTH OF AUGUST.

"HE HAD NOT CONSIDERED HIS DISMISSAL PRIOR TO THE OUTBREAK OF THE KOREAN WAR."

SHORT WENT ON TO SAY THE PRESIDENT WAS SPEAKING ONLY "IN A GENERAL WAY" AND HAD NOT INTENDED "TO BE PRECISE AS TO TIME."

IN HIS LETTER TO THE VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS, MACARTHUR DEALT WITH THE SECURITY OF FORMOSA--THE ISLAND STRONGHOLD OF THE CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS.

MAY 19 1951

MR.TRUMAN SAID HE DID NOT REACH A DECISION ON FIRING MACARTHUR, HOWEVER, UNTIL THE GENERAL ISSUED A CEASE-FIRE APPEAL LAST MARCH TO THE RED COMMANDER IN KOREA. THIS STATEMENT BY MACARTHUR, ADMINISTRATION LEADERS SAY, SCUTTLED A PLAN BY MR.TRUMAN TO ISSUE A PEACE STATEMENT HIMSELF ON BEHALF OF THE UNITED NATIONS.

IN NEW YORK, GENERAL MACARTHUR ISSUED A STATEMENT LAST NIGHT EXPRESSING "ASTONISHMENT BORDERING ON INCREDULITY" OVER THE PRESIDENTIAL STATEMENT.

HE DECLARED HE HAD "NO SLIGHTEST INKLING" OF PRESIDENTIAL DISSATISFACTION UNTIL HE WAS RELIEVED OF HIS COMMAND APRIL 11.

AND THEN HE WENT ON TO SAY: "IT IS OF INTEREST TO NOTE THAT THE PRESIDENT NOW APPEARS TO JUSTIFY MY RELIEF PRIMARILY UPON MY EFFORTS TO SECURE A CEASE-FIRE AGREEMENT FROM THE ENEMY COMMANDER IN THE FIELD, JUST AS I HAD DONE TWICE BEFORE WITHOUT CONFERRING WITH HIGHER AUTHORITY AND WITHOUT THE SLIGHTEST EXCEPTION TAKEN THERETO."

A21WX

IN THIS STATEMENT, MACARTHUR WAS REFERRING TO THE FACT THAT HE BROADCAST AN ULTIMATUM TO THE NORTH KOREAN REDS TO SURRENDER LAST SEPT. 30.

ALSO, HE MADE A SIMILAR SURRENDER APPEAL TO RED PREMIER KIM IL SUNG ON OCT. 8--AN APPEAL WHICH WAS IGNORED BY THE NORTH KOREAN COMMUNIST LEADER.

BOTH THESE CEASE-FIRE APPEALS CAME AT A TIME WHEN MACARTHUR'S ARMY WAS IN A VICTORIOUS DRIVE AGAINST THE NORTH KOREAN FORCES PRIOR TO THE ENTRY OF THE CHINESE INTO THE WAR.

SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH), REGARDED AS A MACARTHUR SUPPORTER, SAID THE PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT DISCLOSES "FOR THE FIRST TIME" LONG-STANDING DIFFERENCES BETWEEN MR.TRUMAN AND MACARTHUR.

BRIDGES, TOP-RANKING REPUBLICAN ON THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE, SAID AMONG THE QUESTIONS THAT MUST BE ANSWERED ARE:

"WHY DID PRESIDENT TRUMAN FLY SOME 14,000 MILES TO WAKE ISLAND LAST OCTOBER, JUST BEFORE ELECTIONS, TO CONFER WITH MACARTHUR AND PIN A MEDAL ON HIM WITH PUBLIC PRAISE?

"WHY HAVE GENERAL MARSHALL (SECRETARY OF DEFENSE) AND GENERAL

BRADLEY (CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF) INDICATED IN THEIR TESTIMONY THAT ONLY RECENT MOVES LED TO THE OUSTER?"

NEITHER BRADLEY NOR MARSHALL IN THEIR TESTIMONY BEFORE THE SENATE INVESTIGATORS HAVE MENTIONED ANY LONG-STANDING DISAGREEMENTS BETWEEN MR.TRUMAN AND MACARTHUR.

CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE TOOK THE VIEW THAT THE PRESIDENTIAL STATEMENT WOULD NOT CREATE ANY GREAT NEW DIFFICULTIES FOR THE INQUIRY GROUP.

THE TEXAN TOLD REPORTERS THAT IN HIS VIEW THE PRESIDENT ONLY EMPHASIZED THAT THE MACARTHUR DISMISSAL RESULTED FROM AN ACCUMULATION OF DIFFERENCES--AND NOT FROM ANY ONE SINGLE THING.

BUT SENATOR SMITH, A MEMBER OF THE FOREIGN RELATIONS GROUP, SAID HE NOW IS "MORE PUZZLED THAN EVER ABOUT THE RELATIONSHIP THAT EXISTED BETWEEN THE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MACARTHUR."

"I CERTAINLY WANT TO PURSUE THAT MATTER," HE TOLD A REPORTER. "I'D LIKE TO KNOW IF HE DISCUSSED A POSSIBLE MACARTHUR OUSTER WITH SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON OR ANYONE ELSE SEVERAL MONTHS AGO."

THE COMMITTEE STUDYING THE GENERAL'S OUSTER WILL HAVE THEIR FIRST CHANCE MONDAY TO GO INTO THESE MATTERS WHEN GEN.OMAR N.BRADLEY RETURNS FOR FURTHER TESTIMONY.

"THERE IS ALWAYS AN EMPHASIS ON THE CASUALTIES IN KOREA," THE PRESIDENT SAID IN AN APPARENT REFERENCE TO THOSE WHO WANT TO SPREAD THE KOREAN FIGHTING TO RED CHINESE BASES. "OF COURSE," WHEN THERE IS FIGHTING, THERE ARE CASUALTIES, HE SAID.

MAKING AN INFORMAL TALK AT AN ARMED FORCES DAY BANQUET, MR.TRUMAN ADDED:

"BUT, DID IT EVER OCCUR TO YOU THAT IF THIS NECESSITY WITH WHICH WE ARE FACED IS NOT MET, THAT THE CASUALTIES IN KOREA WILL BE ONE SMALL DROP IN THE BUCKET FROM ONE OF THOSE HORRIBLE BOMBS OF WHICH WE TALK SO MUCH.

"IT IS UP TO YOU."

THE PRESIDENT SPOKE AFTER SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL ASSERTED THAT OUR FIGHTING MEN IN KOREA AND THEIR GALLANT ALLIES "HAVE DISSIPATED THE DEFEATISM OF A YEAR AGO" AND HAVE GIVEN NEW LIFE TO THE U.N., THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY ORGANIZATION AND THE ENTIRE FREE WORLD.

BOTH THE PRESIDENT'S AND GENERAL MARSHALL'S TALKS WERE BROADCAST BY THE VOICE OF AMERICA DIRECT TO THE ARMED FORCES IN KOREA AND JAPAN.

TRUMAN SAID HE WANTED TO IMPRESS UPON THE FIGHTING MEN ON THIS SECOND ANNIVERSARY OF ARMED FORCES DAY THAT "WE ARE IN THE MIDST OF ONE OF THE GREATEST CRISIS THIS COUNTRY HAS EVER FACED."

NEITHER HE NOR MARSHALL MENTIONED THE CONTROVERSY OVER GEN. MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL, BUT THE PRESIDENT ALLUDED TO IT INDIRECTLY WHEN HE SAID THERE NEVER HAS BEEN A BODY AS UNITED AS THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH AND IT IS UP TO THE OTHER BRANCHES TO DO LIKEWISE.

HE PRAISED THE MILITARY ORGANIZATION, SAYING IT IS HEADED BY MEN OF GREAT EXPERIENCE AND DISTINCTION WHO KNOW WHAT THEY ARE DOING.

THE PRESIDENT TOLD THE FIGHTING MEN IN KOREA AND THE OCCUPATION TROOPS IN JAPAN THAT THEY ARE "HOLDING THE LINE WHILE WE AT THIS END ARE TRYING TO ACHIEVE A PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT."

HE SAID HIS WHOLE AIM IN THE LAST FIVE AND ONE-HALF YEARS HAS BEEN TO GET A LASTING PEACE AND ADDED THIS COUNTRY DID NOT INSTITUTE AGGRESSION IN KOREA, GREECE OR BERLIN.

"WE DO NOT WANT WAR," HE SAID, "WE WANT PEACE."

HE SAID IT IS NECESSARY FOR THE U. S., AS LEADER OF THE FREE PEOPLES OF THE WORLD, TO DISPLAY THAT LEADERSHIP HERE AT HOME IN UNITY SO OUR YOUNG MEN IN KOREA SHALL NOT DIE IN VAIN.

HE ADDED IT IS UP TO THE PEOPLE AT HOME TO SEE THAT IT IS ACCOMPLISHED.

IN CALLING FOR UNITY, MR.TRUMAN REMINDED THE PEOPLE THAT THE MEN IN KOREA ARE BARING THEIR BREASTS FOR LIBERTY AND UNITY IN THE WORLD.

HE CONTRASTED THE GLITTERING BANQUET HALL WITH DINERS IN EVENING CLOTHES EATING FOOD SERVED ON WHITE TABLE CLOTHS WITH THE MEN WHO ARE FIGHTING AND DYING FOR PEACE IN THE FAR EAST.

WASHINGTON,MAY 18-(AP)-THE TEXT OF AN INFORMAL TALK TONIGHT BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN TO AN ARMED FORCES DAY BANQUET: (ABOUT 600)

MR.CHAIRMAN, GENERAL MARSHALL, DISTINGUISHED GUESTS--THE ARMED FORCES OF JAPAN AND KOREA, AND OUR GALLANT ALLIES WHO ARE ALONGSIDE OUR ARMED FORCES IN KOREA:

I WANT TO IMPRESS UPON YOU, ON THIS SECOND ANNIVERSARY OF ARMED FORCES DAY, THAT WE ARE IN THE MIDST OF ONE OF THE GREATEST CRISES THIS COUNTRY HAS EVER FACED.

YOU FIGHTING MEN, AND YOU FIGHTING ALLIES IN KOREA AND JAPAN, ARE HOLDING THE LINE, WHILE WE ENDEAVOR AT THIS END TO ATTAIN A PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT OF THE SITUATION IN THE WORLD.

FOR FIVE AND A HALF LONG YEARS, WE HAVE BEEN STRIVING TO ATTAIN A PEACE IN THE WORLD THAT WOULD BE LASTING.

WE DID NOT INSTITUTE AGGRESSION IN KOREA. WE DID NOT INSTITUTE AGGRESSION IN GREECE. WE DID NOT INSTITUTE AGGRESSION IN BERLIN.

WE DO NOT WANT WAR. WE WANT PEACE.

THE UNITED NATIONS WAS ORGANIZED FOR THE PURPOSE OF ENFORCING THE PEACE IN THE WORLD.

WHEN THE NORTH KOREANS AND CHINESE BEGAN THEIR AGGRESSIVE ATTACKS AND MARCHED INTO SOUTH KOREA, A REPUBLIC WHICH HAD BEEN SET UP BY THE UNITED NATIONS AND UNDER THEIR AEGIS, IT WAS NECESSARY THAT THE PEACE-LOVING NATIONS OF THE WORLD ENFORCE THAT PEACE, AND STOP THE AGGRESSION AND THAT IS EXACTLY WHAT WE ARE TRYING TO DO.

WHEN WE SIT HERE TONIGHT, IN OUR EVENING CLOTHES, PARTAKING OF FOOD ON WHITE TABLECLOTHS, AND ENJOYING OURSELVES IN OTHER WAYS, BEAR IN MIND THAT THERE ARE MEN FIGHTING AND DYING IN AN ENDEAVOR TO REACH THAT PEACE FOR WHICH WE HAVE BEEN STRIVING SINCE WORLD WAR TWO CEASED.

REMEMBER THAT THESE MEN ARE BARING THEIR BREASTS FOR LIBERTY AND UNITY IN THE WORLD.

IT IS NECESSARY THAT THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES, THE GREATEST AND MOST POWERFUL FREE NATION IN THE WORLD--AND I SAY THAT NOT IN A BRAGGING WAY, BUT BECAUSE IT HAPPENS TO BE THE TRUTH--THE PEOPLE OF THE

30.24- 23153

UNITED STATES HAVE ASSUMED THE RESPONSIBILITY WHICH NO OTHER NATION IN THE HISTORY OF THE WORLD HAS ASSUMED.

WE ARE THE LEADERS OF THE FREE PEOPLES OF THE WORLD. IT IS NECESSARY THAT WE DISPLAY THAT LEADERSHIP, AND WE MUST DISPLAY IT HERE AT HOME BY UNITY SO THAT THOSE YOUNG MEN ON THE BATTLEFIELDS OF KOREA SHALL NOT DIE IN VAIN, SO THAT THOSE YOUNG MEN IN KOREA MAY ACCOMPLISH THE PURPOSE FOR WHICH THEY ARE FIGHTING.

B86WX

IT IS NECESSARY THAT YOU HERE AT HOME REMEMBER THAT THIS IS A WORLD CRISIS, THAT THIS CRISIS MUST BE MET THROUGH THE LEADERSHIP OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, AND IT IS UP TO YOU, PEOPLE HERE AT HOME TO SEE THAT THAT IS ACCOMPLISHED.

IN ORDER TO ACCOMPLISH THAT PURPOSE, YOU MUST QUIT YOUR BICKERING HERE AT HOME, YOU MUST QUIT PLAYING PETTY POLITICS, YOU MUST REMEMBER THAT THERE ARE CERTAIN THINGS THAT HAVE TO BE DONE HERE AT HOME, IF WE ARE GOING TO ACCOMPLISH THE PURPOSE.

WE ARE FIGHTING FOR TIME. THE YOUNG MEN IN KOREA AND JAPAN ARE FIGHTING FOR TIME--FOR US.

THERE IS ALWAYS AN EMPHASIS ON THE CASUALTIES IN KOREA. OF COURSE, WHEN THERE IS FIGHTING, THERE ARE CASUALTIES.

BUT, DID IT EVER OCCUR TO YOU THAT IF THIS NECESSITY WITH WHICH WE ARE FACED IS NOT MET, THAT THE CASUALTIES IN KOREA WILL BE ONE SMALL DROP IN THE BUCKET FROM ONE OF THOSE HORRIBLE BOMBS OF WHICH WE TALK SO MUCH.

THINK--THINK--THINK WHAT A RESPONSIBILITY YOUR PRESIDENT FACES IN A SITUATION OF THIS KIND. IF YOU WOULD THINK, AND THINK CLEARLY ON THIS SUBJECT, YOU WOULD GET BEHIND ME AND HELP ME TO WIN THIS PEACE.

AND THAT IS WHAT I AM ASKING YOU TO DO.

AND THAT IS WHAT OUR ARMED FORCES ARE IN THE FIELD TO DO.

MAY 19 1951

IT IS UP TO YOU.

WE HAVE THE GREATEST DEFENSE ORGANIZATION IN THE HISTORY OF THE WORLD. THERE HAS NEVER BEEN A DEFENSE ORGANIZATION HEADED BY SO MANY DISTINGUISHED MEN, WHO KNOW WHAT THEY ARE DOING, FROM EXPERIENCE. THERE HAS NEVER BEEN A GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES AS UNITED AS THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH OF THIS GOVERNMENT OF OURS IS NOW.

IT IS UP TO THE OTHER BRANCHES OF THE GOVERNMENT TO SEE THAT WE WILL ACCOMPLISH THE PURPOSE WHICH GOD INTENDED US TO ACCOMPLISH, AND THAT IS TO LEAD THE WORLD TO PEACE.

I HOPE EVERY ONE OF YOU WILL GO HOME AND GET DOWN ON YOUR KNEES AND PRAY FOR GUIDANCE TO DO THE RIGHT THING, THAT THESE YOUNG MEN WHO ARE NOW FIGHTING ON THE BATTLEFIELDS OF KOREA SHALL NOT DIE IN VAIN.

IT IS UP TO YOU.

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, MAY 18-(AP)-SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL TONIGHT TOLD AMERICAN FORCES IN KOREA THAT THEIR COURAGEOUS FIGHT HAS DISPELLED "DEFEATISM" IN THE FREE WORLD AND CONTRIBUTED MIGHTILY TO THE GLOBAL STRUGGLE AGAINST COMMUNISM.

"THE LIGHTS ARE GOING UP AGAIN ALL OVER THE FREE WORLD AND THEY ARE GROWING BRIGHTER DAY BY DAY," HE DECLARED IN A MESSAGE TO GEN.MATTHEW B.RIDGWAY, FAR EAST COMMANDER.

MARSHALL HAD THE MESSAGE BEAMED TO KOREA AND JAPAN AND ALSO READ IT AT A BANQUET IN THE STATLER HOTEL CELEBRATING NATIONAL ARMED FORCES DAY. PRESIDENT TRUMAN ALSO WAS SCHEDULED TO MAKE A BRIEF, EXTEMPORANEOUS TALK AT THE BANQUET.

MARSHALL MADE NO MENTION IN HIS PREPARED TEXT OF THE ROW OVER THE REMOVAL OF GENERAL DOUGLAS MACARTHUR, WHO HAS PROTESTED STRONGLY THAT THE PRESENT STRATEGY OF CONFINING THE WAR TO KOREA IS HEADING THE U.N. FORCES INTO A BLOODY STALEMATE.

BUT MARSHALL MADE WHAT WAS PERHAPS INTENDED AS A REPLY TO MACARTHUR BY STRESSING THE ARGUMENT THAT THE STRUGGLE AGAINST THE REDS HAS ALREADY ACCOMPLISHED GREAT THINGS.

HE SAID IT HAS GIVEN REAL MEANING AND NEW LIFE TO THE U.N., THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY AND THE ENTIRE FREE WORLD.

HE SAID THE FIGHT HAS "SERIOUSLY DAMAGED X X X THE PRESTIGE AND ARMIES OF RED CHINA," IMPROVED THE SITUATIONS IN INDO-CHINA AND MALAYA AND "INVIGORATED" THE DEFENSE SYSTEM OF THE ENTIRE PACIFIC.

AT HOME, MARSHALL SAID, THE STAND OF THE TROOPS IN KOREA HAS PROVIDED BOTH TIME AND INSPIRATION FOR MOBILIZATION "ON AN IMPRESSIVE SCALE."

THIS MOBILIZATION HAS RESULTED IN THE DOUBLING OF U.S. ARMED FORCES, MARSHALL ADDED, SPURRED "A TREMENDOUS EFFORT" IN MUNITIONS PRODUCTION AND STARTED THE NATION "WELL ON THE WAY TOWARD BUILDING THE KIND OF DEFENSE REQUIRED FOR OUR OWN SECURITY AND THE PEACE OF THE WORLD."

IN CONCLUSION, HE TOLD THE TROOPS IN THE FAR EAST THAT "YOU ARE FIGHTING TO GREAT PURPOSE BECAUSE YOU HAVE A GREAT PURPOSE TO FIGHT FOR."

(350) FIRST LEAD UN-AMERICAN

WASHINGTON, MAY 18-(AP)-THE HOUSE UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE HAS SENT A COPY OF THE TESTIMONY OF MOVIE ACTOR JOHN GARFIELD, WHO SAID HE WAS NEVER A COMMUNIST, TO THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT.

THIS WAS DISCLOSED TODAY AT THE COMMITTEE'S HEARINGS ON COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF HOLLYWOOD. REP. VELDE (R-ILL) TOLD NEWSMEN THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT WAS ASKED TO STUDY GARFIELD'S STATEMENTS FOR POSSIBLE PERJURY---FALSE TESTIMONY.

GARFIELD, A WITNESS APRIL 23, TOLD THE COMMITTEE HE WAS NOT A COMMUNIST--AND FOR THAT MATTER, DID NOT EVEN KNOW ONE.

HE SAID HE "HAD A LOT MORE THINGS TO DO THAN GETTING INVOLVED WITH A LOT OF CRACKPOTS."

AT THE TIME, REP.JACKSON (R-CALIF) TOLD GARFIELD HE WAS "NOT SATISFIED" WITH HIS TESTIMONY, NOR "CONVINCED OF THE ENTIRE ACCURACY" OF IT.

GARFIELD ACKNOWLEDGED CONTRIBUTIONS TO ORGANIZATIONS THE COMMITTEE HAS CALLED COMMUNIST FRONTS, BUT EMPHATICALLY INSISTED HE WAS "NO RED--NO PINK--NO FELLOW TRAVELER."

TODAY, ROY M.BREWER, REPRESENTATIVE OF THE AFL INTERNATIONAL ALLIANCE OF THEATRICAL AND STAGE EMPLOYEES (IATSE), TOLD THE COMMITTEE HE ALWAYS "CONSIDERED" GARFIELD AMONG THOSE OPPOSED TO IATSE IN THE UNION STRIKE WHICH SPLIT STUDIO LABOR IN THE 1940'S.

BREWER SAID THE CONFERENCE OF STUDIO UNIONS (CSU), WHICH UNSUCCESSFULLY TRIED TO BREAK UP THE AFL POSITION IN THE INDUSTRY, WAS COMMUNIST LED AND THAT HERBERT K.SORRELL, CSU LEADER, WAS "A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY." SORRELL HAS DENIED COMMUNIST CONNECTIONS.

QUESTIONED ABOUT GARFIELD, BREWER SAID HE HAD NO KNOWLEDGE OF THE ACTOR'S ACTIVE PARTICIPATION IN THE UNION STRUGGLE.

B112WX

BUT HE SAID GARFIELD WAS ONE OF THE SIGNERS TO A TELEGRAM PROTESTING INVASION OF THE CIVIL RIGHTS OF ANTI-IATSE STRIKERS DURING A PERIOD OF VIOLENCE IN THE LONG UNION BATTLE.

BREWER SAID GARFIELD WAS "ALWAYS CONSIDERED AMONG THOSE WHOSE POSI-TION DID NOT COINCIDE WITH OURS."

BREWER ALSO TESTIFIED THAT MANY OF THE LEADERS OF THE CSU WERE PERSONS WITH "COMMUNIST RECORDS FIRMLY ESTABLISHED," AND PERSONS "WHOSE PROGRAMS ALWAYS COINCIDED WITH THE COMMUNIST PROGRAM."
BREWER TESTIFIED IN DETAIL YESTERDAY OF THE SOMETIMES BLOODY STUDIO LABOR STRIFE WHICH HE CHARGED WAS FOMENTED BY COMMUNISTS WITH THE AIM OF CAPTURING THE MOVIE INDUSTRY FOR WORLD-WIDE PROPAGANDA PURPOSES.
SINCE THEN, HE SAID, THE "BACK OF COMMUNIST POWER" IN HOLLYWOOD HAS BEEN BROKEN.

BY ITS "FRONT" ACTIVITIES, BREWER SAID, THE PARTY ONCE WAS SUCCESSFUL "BEYOND THE WIDEST SCOPE OF IMAGINATION" IN CREATING A FAVORABLE ATMOSPHERE IN HOLLYWOOD FOR ITS PURPOSES.
BREWER TOLD THE COMMITTEE YESTERDAY THE SUCCESSFUL UNION FIGHT LED BY HIS UNION (IATSE) AGAINST THE RIVAL CONFERENCE OF STUDIO UNIONS IN 1945-46 SHATTERED A TWO-PART PLAN "BY AGENTS OF THE SOVIET UNION" TO BRING BOTH WORKERS AND THE "TALENT GUILDS" UNDER COMMUNIST CONTROL.
HE CREDITED THE HOUSE COMMITTEE'S 1947 HEARINGS ON COMMUNISM IN HOLLYWOOD WITH PUTTING THE CAPSTONE ON THAT DEFEAT.
SINCE 1947, HE DECLARED, "THE COMMUNIST PARTY MOVEMENT IN HOLLYWOOD HAS BEEN ON THE DEFENSIVE." AND HE ASSERTED THE PRESENT COMMITTEE HEARINGS "ARE COMPLETING THE JOB STARTED IN 1947."
"WE FEEL THIS COMMITTEE IS DOING A GREAT SERVICE IN FERRETING THEM OUT," HE DECLARED.
"UNDERGROUND ACTIVITY STILL IS STRONG TODAY, BUT THE POWER OF THE FRONT ACTIVITIES BY WHICH THEY CONTROLLED THE COMMUNITY NO LONGER IS STRONG."
BREWER ASSERTED THAT EFFORTS OF THE CONFERENCE OF STUDIO UNIONS (CSU) TO BREAK UP IATSE WAS PART OF A PROGRAM TO LUMP ALL STUDIO UNIONS INTO A SINGLE INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATION.
THE OTHER PART OF THE PLAN, HE SAID, WAS TO INFILTRATE AND CONTROL THE TALENT GUILDS--THE DIRECTORS, WRITERS AND ACTORS. IN ITS ATTEMPT TO WIN OVER THE "INTELLECTUALS," HE SAID, THE PARTY ENJOYED A HIGH MEASURE OF SUCCESS.

B8WX (SEGC)
"THE COMMUNIST PARTY IN HOLLYWOOD DEVELOPED A TREMENDOUS AND POWERFUL CONTROL OVER THE HOLLYWOOD COMMUNITY--NOT ONLY IN LABOR, BUT IN THE COMMUNITY AS A WHOLE," HE SAID. "BUT SINCE 1947, THEIR POWER HAS DECLINED. THE AVERAGE PERSON IN HOLLYWOOD DID NOT BELIEVE THE STORY OF INFILTRATION BEFORE 1947. SINCE THEN THEY ARE TRYING TO HELP."
IF THE COMMUNISTS HAD BEEN SUCCESSFUL BACK IN 1945, BREWER DECLARED, "I AM CONVINCED THEY WOULD HAVE MERGED ALL TALENT GUILDS AND BACKSHOP UNIONS INTO ONE BIG UNION."
"THEY WOULD THEN HAVE BEEN ABLE TO EFFECTIVELY DOMINATE THE CONTENT OF FILMS. THE LABOR UNIONS WOULD HAVE BEEN A WHIP TO FORCE PRODUCERS INTO LINE.
"MR.JOHN HOWARD LAWSON AND HIS ASSOCIATES WOULD HAVE BEEN DICTATING TO THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY TODAY."
LAWSON, A SCREEN WRITER JAILED FOR CONTEMPT OF THE COMMITTEE AT ITS 1947 HEARINGS, HAS BEEN NAMED BY SEVERAL WITNESSES AS LEADER OF THE PARTY IN HOLLYWOOD.

WASHINGTON,MAY 18-(AP)-THE CASES OF AS MANY AS 9,300 FEDERAL WORKERS MAY BE REOPENED FOR RESTUDY UNDER TIGHTENED UP LOYALTY STANDARDS.
THIS WAS ANNOUNCED TODAY BY THE GOVERNMENT'S LOYALTY REVIEW BOARD. THE BOARD SPECIFICALLY DIRECTED THE REOPENING OF ABOUT 850 CASES AND TOLD AGENCY HEADS THEY COULD REOPEN THOUSANDS OF OTHERS TO MAKE SURE NO PERSON OF DOUBTFUL LOYALTY HOLDS A GOVERNMENT JOB.
THE BOARD ACTED AS A RESULT OF A CHANGE BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN IN STANDARDS FOR DETERMINING ELIGIBILITY FOR FEDERAL EMPLOYMENT.
UNDER THE NEW YARDSTICK, A WORKER MAY BE FIRED--AND A JOB APPLICANT NOT HIRED--IF THERE IS A REASONABLE DOUBT AS TO HIS LOYALTY.
BEFORE THERE HAD TO BE A FINDING THAT "REASONABLE GROUNDS EXIST FOR BELIEF THAT THE PERSON INVOLVED IS DISLOYAL." THIS GAVE THE EMPLOYE THE BENEFIT OF ANY DOUBT. NOW DOUBT IS TO BE RESOLVED IN FAVOR OF THE GOVERNMENT.

FRANKS (400)
WASHINGTON, MAY 18-(AP)-BRITISH AMBASSADOR SIR OLIVER FRANKS SAID TONIGHT THERE IS "NOT ONE WORD OF TRUTH" IN REPORTS THAT BRITAIN REQUESTED THAT GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR BE RECALLED.
"THE DECISION REGARDING GENERAL MACARTHUR WAS PURELY A DOMESTIC ONE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND ONE THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT SOUGHT IN NO WAY TO INFLUENCE," HE SAID IN A RADIO INTERVIEW PREPARED FOR BROADCASTING WITH FRANK BOURGHOLTZER, NATIONAL BROADCASTING COMPANY CORRESPONDENT.
REVIEWING BRITAIN'S FOREIGN POLICY, HE MADE THESE OTHER POINTS:
1. IF RUSSIA EVER SUCCEEDS IN GRABBING WESTERN EUROPE'S GREAT INDUSTRIES, IT WILL "CREATE A MONSTER WHICH COULD BE THE DESTRUCTION OF US ALL."
2. BRITISH HONG KONG "HAS TO TRADE" WITH COMMUNIST CHINA IF IT IS TO SURVIVE; "OTHERWISE HONG KONG WILL FALL INTO THE HANDS OF THE COMMUNISTS AS A RESULT OF INTERNAL DECAY OR DISASTER."
3. BRITAIN RECOGNIZED RED CHINA AS PART OF A MOVE TO WIN IT OVER INTO "THE SOCIETY OF FREE NATIONS."
4. THE BRITISH PEOPLE GET "ANNOYED" WHEN AMERICANS DISMISSED THE 23,000 MEN BRITAIN HAS IN KOREA AS A "TOKEN FORCE." BRITAIN HAS A TOTAL OF 220,000 MEN STATIONED OVERSEAS "ON GUARD AGAINST COMMUNIST AGGRESSION" EVEN THOUGH BRITAIN'S POPULATION IS ONLY ONE THIRD THAT OF THE UNITED STATES."
5. BRITAIN DOES NOT THINK IT "APPROPRIATE" TO DECIDE THE FUTURE OF FORMOSA WHILE THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS CONTINUE THEIR AGGRESSION IN KOREA. SIR OLIVER EMPHASIZED THIS IN DENYING REPORTS BRITAIN WANTS TO HAND OVER THE CHINESE NATIONALIST STRONGHOLD TO RED CHINA AS SOON AS A JAPANESE TREATY IS SIGNED.
ANSWERING QUESTIONS, THE AMBASSADOR MADE IT PLAIN HIS COUNTRY OPPOSES GENERAL MACARTHUR'S PROPOSALS FOR BOMBING MANCHURIA. HE SAID:
"THE PEOPLE OF BRITAIN ARE GREATLY CONCERNED BY ANY POSSIBILITY OF AN EXTENSION OF THE CONFLICT IN ASIA AND IT IS THE POLICY OF THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT TO SEE THIS DOES NOT HAPPEN, AND LOCALIZE THE FIGHTING IN KOREA."
HE ACKNOWLEDGED THAT BRITAIN'S DESIRE TO SAVE HONG KONG WAS "A FACTOR" IN BRITAIN'S DECISION TO RECOGNIZE RED CHINA. BUT, HE ADDED, HONG KONG IS "THE SHOWCASE, THE SHOPWINDOW OF OUR DEMOCRATIC LIFE" IN THE FAR EAST.
BECAUSE OF NEW GOVERNMENT RESTRICTIONS, HE SAID, NO MORE RUBBER-

FROM MALAYA, BORNEO "OR ANY OTHER BRITISH TERRITORIES" IS BEING SHIPPED TO COMMUNIST CHINA.

SIR SOLIVER IN TALKING OF COMMUNIST CHINA HELD OUT THE HOPE THAT SOME DAY MIGHT FREE ITSELF FROM RUSSIAN DOMINATION. HE DECLARED:

"IN THE LONG RUN IT IS FAR FROM CERTAIN THAT THE NATIONALISM OF CHINA CAN BE MADE TO SERVE THE INTERESTS OF AGGRESSIVE RUSSIAN IMPERIALISM.

(500) NIGHT LEAD DRAFT

BY EDWIN B.HAAKINSON

WASHINGTON,MAY 18-(AP)-A SENATE-HOUSE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE TODAY AGREED TO LOWER THE DRAFT AGE TO 18 1/2 YEARS AND EXTEND THE DRAFT LAW UNTIL JULY 1, 1955.

THE PRESENT MINIMUM DRAFT AGE IS 19.

TODAY'S AGREEMENT PARTIALLY RESOLVED A MONTH-LONG DEADLOCK OVER CONFLICTING SENATE AND HOUSE VERSIONS OF LEGISLATION FOR A NEW DRAFT LAW AND FOR SETTING UP A UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING PROGRAM SOME TIME IN THE FUTURE.

SEVERAL KEY POINTS STILL REMAINED IN DISPUTE, HOWEVER, AND THE JOINT COMMITTEE WILL MEET AGAIN TO IRON OUT THE REMAINING DIFFERENCES. THE PRESENT DRAFT ACT EXPIRES JULY 9.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL HAVE URGED PROMPT ACTION ON THE LEGISLATION, WITH MARSHALL DECLARING THAT "EACH DAY OF DELAY IS UNFORTUNATE--TO PUT IT MILDLY."

ORIGINALLY, THE SENATE VOTED TO LOWER THE DRAFT AGE TO 18 AND ALSO APPROVED UMT. THE HOUSE SET 18 1/2 FOR BOTH ACTIVE DUTY AND UMT.

UNDER THE COMPROMISE, 18-YEAR-OLDS COULD BE INDUCTED FOR TRAINING UNDER UMT, IF AND WHEN SUCH A TRAINING SYSTEM IS SET UP.

CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA) OF THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE AND CHAIRMAN VINSON (D-GA) OF THE HOUSE GROUP SAID THAT DESPITE THE LOWER DRAFT AGE THEY EXPECT FEW IF ANY YOUTHS UNDER 19 WILL BE CALLED IN THE NEXT TWO OR THREE YEARS.

THEY EXPLAINED THAT BEFORE ANY LOCAL DRAFT BOARD CAN TAKE A MAN UNDER 19, IT MUST FIRST EXHAUST ALL AVAILABLE MEN IN THE PRESENT 19-TO-26 AGE POOL.

THE COMPROMISE REQUIRES ALL YOUNG MEN TO REGISTER WHEN THEY REACH 18 AND REQUIRES LOCAL DRAFT BOARDS TO CLASSIFY THEM BEFORE THEY REACHED 18 1/2.

CLASSIFICATION INCLUDES PHYSICAL AND MENTAL TESTS. IT USUALLY TAKES ABOUT THREE MONTHS.

TWO POINTS REMAINED IN DISPUTE WHEN THE CONFEREES ENDED A THREE-HOUR CLOSED-DOOR SESSION.

THESE CENTERED ON GENERAL UMT PROVISIONS AND ON A HOUSE PROVISION THAT WOULD LIMIT TO 12 MONTHS THE SERVICE OF ANY RESERVE CALLED TO DUTY WHO QUALIFIES AS A VETERAN OF THE LAST WAR. THE SENATE VERSION CALLS FOR 24 MONTHS.

A37WX

THE CONFEREES REPORTED AGREEMENT ON:

A 5,000,000-PERSON CEILING FOR THE COMBINED ARMY, NAVY, AIR FORCE AND MARINES. THE SENATE HAD VOTED FOR A 4,000,000 CEILING, THE HOUSE HAD SET NO LIMIT THE ADMINISTRATION HAS SET A GOAL OF 3,500,000 OR WELL BELOW THE CEILING.

A LOWERING OF PHYSICAL AND MENTAL STANDARDS FOR ACCEPTANCE OF DRAFTEES, SUCH AS PREVAILED DURING WORLD WAR II. VINSON SAID THIS WOULD MAKE ABOUT 150,000 MEN PREVIOUSLY REJECTED AS 4-FS ELIGIBLE FOR INDUCTION.

REMOVAL UNTIL JULY 1, 1954 OF THE PRESENT LIMITS ON THE NUMBER OF WOMEN IN THE ARMED FORCES. THE ARMY WACS, NAVY WAVES AND SIMILAR GROUPS ARE NOW LIMITED TO TWO PER CENT OF THE STRENGTH OF THEIR RESPECTIVE UNITS. THE AIR FORCE HAS ESTIMATED IT MIGHT USE 10 PER CENT WOMEN, ALTHOUGH NONE OF THE SERVICES HAS YET FILLED THE TWO PER CENT LIMIT.

ALLOWING LOCAL DRAFT BOARDS TO REQUIRE CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS, DEFERRED BECAUSE OF RELIGIOUS BELIEF, TO ENGAGE IN APPROVED DEFENSE WORK, SUCH AS IN FACTORIES OR ON FARMS. IF THEY FAIL TO DO THIS, THEY WOULD BE SUBJECT TO THE PENALTY FOR DRAFT VIOLATORS - MAXIMUM FINE OF $10,000 AND FIVE YEARS IN PRISON.

PREVIOUSLY, THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE HAD AGREED TO EXTEND THE PRESENT 21 MONTHS SERVICE BY DRAFTEES TO 24 MONTHS, AS VOTED BY THE SENATE.

THE GROUP ALSO AGREED THAT ALL PERSONS ENTERING THE ARMED SERVICES FOR LAND DUTY MUST HAVE AT LEAST FOUR MONTHS BASIC TRAINING BEFORE THEY CAN BE ASSIGNED OUTSIDE THE CONTINENTAL UNITED STATES.

THIS WOULD APPLY TO VOLUNTEERS, RESERVES AND DRAFTEES BUT WOULD NOT PREVENT A NAVY MAN BEING ASSIGNED TO A SHIP.

THE SENATE HAD PUT NO TERMINATION DATE ON ITS EXTENSION OF THE PRESENT DRAFT ACT; THE HOUSE SET A JULY 1, 1954 DEADLINE. THE COMPROMISE IS ONE YEAR BEYOND THAT.

ALSO STRICKEN FROM THE BILL WAS A PROVISION ALLOWING CONGRESS TO TERMINATE THE DRAFT ACT SOONER BY A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION. THIS DOES NOT REQUIRE PRESIDENTIAL SIGNATURE TO BECOME EFFECTIVE.

NIGHT LEAD RED TAPE

WASHINGTON,MAY 18-(AP)-ANY NATION THAT WANTS ECONOMIC HELP FROM THE UNITED STATES WOULD HAVE TO CERTIFY THAT IT IS NOT SENDING WAR GOODS TO COMMUNIST AREAS UNDER A PROPOSAL AGREED ON TODAY BY A SENATE-HOUSE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE.

THE PROVISION WAS WRITTEN INTO A BILL MAKING SUPPLEMENTAL APPROPRIATIONS FOR VARIOUS GOVERNMENT AGENCIES IN THE PRESENT FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30.

THE BILL, AS WORKED OUT BY THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE, NOW WILL GO TO THE HOUSE AND THEN TO THE SENATE FOR FINAL ACTION.

THE SENATE, WHEN IT ORIGINALLY PASSED THE MEASURE, TACKED ON A RIDER BANNING FURTHER ECONOMIC OR FINANCIAL AID TO NATIONS EXPORTING WAR MATERIALS TO COMMUNIST COUNTRIES, INCLUDING RED CHINA. THE HOUSE-PASSED BILL HAD NO SUCH PROVISION.

THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO ADJUST THE DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE HOUSE AND SENATE BILLS TIGHTENED UP THE SENATE AMENDMENT BY WRITING IN THE REQUIREMENT THAT NATIONS, TO QUALIFY FOR AID, MUST CERTIFY THEY ARE NOT PERMITTING SUCH TRADE.

THE PROVISION, TO TAKE EFFECT 15 DAYS AFTER THE BILL BECOMES LAW AND TO CONTINUE AS LONG AS THE KOREAN WAR LASTS, WOULD NOT APPLY TO THIS COUNTRY'S MILITARY AID PROGRAM.

THE ONLY EXCEPTIONS PERMITTED WOULD BE IN CASES WHERE THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL MADE AN OFFICIAL FINDING THAT SHIPMENTS OF WAR GOODS WOULD BE IN THE INTEREST OF THE SECURITY OF THE UNITED STATES.

WASHINGTON, MAY 18-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES SENT $96,700,000 IN MILITARY AID GOODS DURING MARCH TO COUNTRIES TAKING PART IN THE MUTUAL DEFENSE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM, THE CENSUS BUREAU REPORTED TODAY.

MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES GOT $78,200,000 OF THAT, PLUS $298,100,000 IN NON-MILITARY ITEMS.

IN CONTRAST, TOTAL U.S. SHIPMENTS TO THE SOVIET BLOC IN EUROPE WERE A NEGLIGIBLE $300,000, STRICTLY LIMITED TO GOODS CONSIDERED WITHOUT MILITARY VALUE.

THE SOVIET BLOC SHIPPED $5,800,000 IN GOODS HERE IN MARCH, BUT WITHHELD DEFENSE-VITAL MANGANESE AND CHROME ORE FOR THE THIRD CONSECUTIVE MONTH. RUSSIAN FURS ACCOUNTED FOR $1,200,000 OF THE SHIPMENTS HERE.

U.S. RECEIPTS FROM THE MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES TOTALLED $188,000,000 IN MARCH, OR $110,100,000 LESS THAN NON-MILITARY U.S. SHIPMENTS TO THOSE COUNTRIES.

CHIEF U.S. EXPORTS TO THE MARSHALL PLAN AREA IN MARCH WERE $63,500,000 TO BRITAIN, $44,300,000 TO ITALY, $40,600,000 TO GERMANY, $30,400,000 TO BELGIUM-LUXEMBOURG AND $27,300,000 TO FRANCE.

CHIEF RECEIPTS WERE $37,700,000 FROM BRITAIN, $31,500,000 FROM FRANCE, $26,300,000 FROM BELGIUM-LUXEMBOURG, $18,900,000 FROM GERMANY AND $16,300,000 FROM TURKEY.

WASHINGTON, MAY 18-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES URGED IRAN TONIGHT TO NEGOTIATE WITH BRITAIN FOR A FRIENDLY SETTLEMENT OF THEIR DISPUTE OVER THE PROPOSED NATIONALIZATION OF IRANIAN OIL RESOURCES.

A FORMAL STATEMENT BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT GAVE NOTICE THAT SHOULD IRAN BY ONE-SIDED ACTION EXPEL THE BRITISH OPERATORS OF THE $500,000,000 ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY, AMERICAN TECHNICIANS WILL NOT BE AVAILABLE TO REPLACE THEM.

IN PRESSING FOR NEGOTIATIONS, THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID THAT THE U.S. IN CONSULTATION WITH BOTH GOVERNMENTS HAS NEITHER APPROVED NOR DISAPPROVED THE TERMS OF ANY PARTICULAR BRITISH PROPOSAL FOR A SETTLEMENT OF THE DISPUTE.

THE STATEMENT WAS ISSUED TO OUTLINE THE POSITION TAKEN BY THE U.S. BECAUSE THE AMERICAN ATTITUDE "HAS BEEN THE SUBJECT OF SOME SPECULATION, IT WAS SAID.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S COMMENT WAS DIRECTED LARGELY AT IRAN, WHOSE PARLIAMENTARY VOTE TO NATIONALIZE THE HOLDING OF THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY PRECIPITATED THE DISPUTE.

THE AMERICAN NOTE WAS ISSUED ON THE HEELS OF A BRITISH ONE, YESTERDAY WHICH REPORTEDLY OFFERED TO SEND OVER A HIGH LEVEL MISSION TO TALK OVER A POSSIBLE COMPROMISE.

AMS BUDGET (250)
SECOND NIGHT LEAD CONTROLS (ROUNDUP)
BY ROGER D.GREENE

WASHINGTON,MAY 18-(AP)-THE WAGE STABILIZATION BOARD TODAY APPROVED NINE CENTS OF A PROPOSED 11-CENT HOURLY WAGE BOOST FOR 220,000 MEAT PACKING WORKERS.

THE ISSUE OF THE EXTRA TWO CENTS WAS REFERRED TO A SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON INEQUITIES.

THE BOARD'S ACTION, OPENING A NEW RIFT IN THE GOVERNMENT'S WAGE "FREEZE" CEILING, CAME BY AN 8 TO 4 VOTE. THE FOUR INDUSTRY MEMBERS VOTED AGAINST THE INCREASE.

LEADERS OF THE AFL MEAT CUTTERS UNION STOOD BY ALL DAY WHILE THE BOARD DELIBERATED THE CASE. IN CHICAGO, THE CIO PACKINGHOUSE WORKERS UNION WAS ALSO IN SESSION TO AWAIT THE OUTCOME.

PRESIDENT RALPH HELSTEIN OF THE CIO PACKINGHOUSE WORKERS AND 300 DELEGATES ATTENDING A CIO WAGE CONFERENCE IN CHICAGO EXPRESSED DISAPPOINTMENT.

"WE MADE A DEAL AND IT SHOULD HAVE BEEN APPROVED," HELSTEIN SAID." THE WAGE STABILIZATION BOARD SHOULD HAVE APPROVED THE ENTIRE CASE AND NOT PARTS OF IT. THE BOARD ALSO SHOULD HAVE APPROVED THE 2 1/3 CENTS AVERAGE BRACKETS ADJUSTMENT."

BOTH UNIONS HAD THREATENED TO STRIKE SUNDAY NIGHT IF THE BOARD TURNED DOWN THEIR DEMANDS.

HOWEVER, THE NINE-CENT INCREASE, WITH THE EXTRA TWO CENTS STILL UNDER CONSIDERATION, WAS EXPECTED TO PREVENT ANY WALKOUT.

ORIGINALLY, ECONOMIC STABILIZER ERIC JOHNSTON HAD REFUSED TO APPROVE MORE THAN THREE CENTS OF THE PROPOSED 11-CENT RAISE, BUT HAD LEFT IT TO THE BOARD TO DECIDE.

JOHNSTON EXPLAINED THAT ONLY THREE CENTS COULD BE ALLOWED WITHOUT BREAKING THROUGH THE 10 PERCENT CEILING ON WAGE INCREASES ABOVE JANUARY, 1950, LEVELS.

THE WAGE BOARD IS EXPECTED TO ACT SOON ON ANOTHER MAJOR CASE--A PROPOSED FOUR-CENT HOURLY "PRODUCTIVITY" PAY BOOST FOR MORE THAN 500,000 CIO AUTO WORKERS. IF GRANTED, IT WOULD MARK AN ADDITIONAL DEPARTURE FROM THE 10 PERCENT LIMIT.

MEANWHILE, DIRECTOR MANLY FLEISCHMANN OF THE NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY TOLD THE HOUSE BANKING COMMITTEE THAT NPA "FLYING SQUADRONS" ARE NOW BEING ORGANIZED TO CRACK DOWN ON INDUSTRIAL HOARDERS AND BLACK MARKETEERS.

THESE DEVELOPMENTS CAME AS THE BATTLE OVER FEDERAL ANTI-INFLATION CONTROLS GREW HOTTER, WITH A BIG INDUSTRY GROUP ACCUSING PRESIDENT TRUMAN OF SEEKING "DICTATORIAL" POWERS.

PRESIDENT WILLIAM H.RUFFIN OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MANUFACTURERS, LEVELLING THE CHARGE AGAINST MR.TRUMAN, DEMANDED THE SCRAPPING OF ALL WAGE AND PRICE CONTROLS.

BUT A TOP LABOR LEADER, SECRETARY JAMES B.CAREY OF THE CIO, WAS EQUALLY EMPHATIC IN CALLING FOR STRICTER PRICE CONTROLS.

CAREY CHARGED THAT "RACKETEERS OF INFLATION" HAVE MILKED THE AMERICAN PUBLIC OF $15,000,000,000 IN THE LAST YEAR.

ON ALL SIDES, SPOKESMEN FOR INDUSTRY, LABOR, FARMERS, CATTLE RAISERS AND OTHER SEGMENTS OF THE NATION'S ECONOMY HOTLY DEBATED THE QUESTION WHICH CONGRESS MUST DECIDE BY JUNE 30:

SHOULD GOVERNMENT CONTROLS BE STRENGTHENED AND EXTENDED FOR TWO YEARS?

UNLESS CONGRESS ACTS BY THE END OF NEXT MONTH, THE 1950 DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT--WHICH GOVERNS WAGE-PRICE CONTROLS--WILL AUTOMATICALLY EXPIRE.

IN THE MIDST OF CLASHING VIEWS, SENATOR BRICKER (R-OHIO) TOSSED OUT A HINT THAT SOMEONE IN THE GOVERNMENT MAY BE "TRYING DELIBERATELY TO UNDERMINE AMERICAN INDUSTRY" VIA THE CONTROLS PROGRAM.

"THERE IS SOME MOTIVE BEHIND SOME OF THOSE WHO ARE WRITING THE RULES FOR ECONOMIC CONTROLS," BRICKER TOLD THE SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE. "THEY ARE SO COMPLICATED AND CONFLICTING THEY AMOUNT TO CONFUSION COMPOUNDED."

THE NATIONAL GRANGE, REPRESENTING 825,000 FARMERS, BALKED AT CONTROLS AND DECLARED CONGRESS SHOULD REQUIRE THE RATIONING OF ANY PRICE-CONTROLLED GOODS.

HERSCHEL NEWSOM, MASTER OF THE GRANGE, TOLD THE SENATE COMMITTEE:

"PRICE CONTROLS, DESIGNED TO CUT PRICES SO CONSUMERS MAY BUY MORE GOODS FOR LESS MONEY AT A TIME WHEN GOODS ARE IN SHORT SUPPLY, WILL ONLY SERVE TO AGGRAVATE INFLATION."

AT THE SAME HEARING, PRESIDENT RUFFIN OF THE NAM CONTENDED THAT WAGE-PRICE CONTROLS "DO MORE HARM THAN GOOD." INSTEAD, HE SAID, THE NAM THINKS THE ADMINISTRATION SHOULD RELY ON CREDIT CONTROLS AND HIGHER TAXES AS THE MAIN WEAPONS AGAINST INFLATION.

A&WX

RUFFIN SAID IF CONGRESS GRANTS MR.TRUMAN'S REQUEST FOR GREATER HOME-FRONT AUTHORITY IN THE REALM OF CONTROLS, IT WOULD CONSTITUTE "PERHAPS THE LONGEST SINGLE STEP TOWARD COMPLETE GOVERNMENT CONTROL VER PROPOSED TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE."

SENATOR SPARKMAN (D-ALA) BROKE IN TO COMMENT THAT THE SITUATION TODAY "LOOKS LIKE COLLUSION BETWEEN INDUSTRY AND LABOR TO JACK UP WAGES WHICH THEY KNOW WILL CARRY WITH IT A JACKING UP OF PRICES AND ALSO JACK UP PROFITS."

ACROSS THE CAPITOL, CATTLEMEN CONTINUED TO PROTEST AGAINST PRICE DIRECTOR MICHAEL V.DISALLE'S RECENT ORDER FOR LOWER CEILINGS ON CATTLE PRICES.

RAY W.WILLOUGHBY OF SAN ANGELO,TEX., PRESIDENT OF THE TEXAS AND SOUTHWESTERN CATTLE RAISERS ASSOCIATIONS, TOLD THE HOUSE AGRICULTURE COMMITTEE:

"THE WHOLE PRICE CONTROL ORDER SHOULD BE THROWN OUT SO THAT MORE BEEF CAN BE PRODUCED WITHOUT OUR WORKING UNDER SHACKLES."

WILLOUGHBY CONTENDED THAT CATTLEMEN CAN'T OPERATE WITH A PROFIT UNDER THE FEDERAL ROLLBACK ORDER AND ARE ACTUALLY FACED WITH LOSSES.

REP.THOMPSON (D-TEX) ASKED HOW PRICES AT THE BUTCHER SHOP COULD BEST BE REDUCED TO MEET THE COMPLAINTS OF ANGRY HOUSEWIVES.

"COMPETITION," WILLOUGHBY REPLIED. "THE OLD LAW OF SUPPLY AND DEMAND. LET US PRODUCE MORE AND MAKE MORE AVAILABLE."

AT STILL ANOTHER FORUM, CHAIRMAN LEON KEYSERLING OF THE PRESIDENT'S COUNCIL OF ECONOMIC ADVISERS URGED THE NECESSITY OF CONTROLS "AT LEAST FOR THE NEXT YEAR OR TWO" TO BOLSTER THE DEFENSE PROGRAM.

ADDRESSING AN "ANTI-INFLATION CONFERENCE" SPONSORED BY AMERICANS FOR DEMOCRATIC ACTION (ADA), KEYSERLING ALSO COMMENTED:

"I BELIEVE THAT IN THE CURRENT ECONOMIC SITUATION, THE VERY HIGH RATE OF PROFITS SHOULD BE SUBJECTED TO MORE COST ABSORPTION BEFORE THE WAGE EARNER OR THE FARMER IS ASKED TO SWALLOW MORE DOSES OF STABILIZATION MEDICINE."

PRICE DIRECTOR DISALLE TOLD THE ADA CONFERENCE THAT PRICES WOULD HAVE GONE MUCH HIGHER BUT FOR DIRECT ACTION BY HIS FEDERAL AGENCY.

ROBERT R.NATHAN, PRESIDING, SAID CONGRESS SHOULD "NOT BE MISLED BY PROFITEERS AND CHISELERS WHO CLAIM THE PUBLIC IS NOT INTERESTED IN AN IMPROVED ANTI-INFLATION PROGRAM."

STILL ANOTHER SPEAKER, PRESIDENT H.L.MITCHELL OF THE AFL NATIONAL FARM LABOR UNION, TOLD THE CONFERENCE:

"IF STRONG LEGISLATION IS NOT ADOPTED TO CONTROL THE RISING COST OF LIVING, TO RECAPTURE THE HUGE PROFITS MADE OUT OF THE DEFENSE MOBILIZATION PROGRAM, THEN JOE STALIN MAY WELL WIN THE WAR WITHOUT FIRING A SHOT."

MAY 19 1951

($00) FIRST LEAD METAL CONTROLS

WASHINGTON,MAY 18-(AP)-THE GOVERNMENT TOLD CIVILIAN INDUSTRY LEADERS TODAY THEIR SUPPLY OF THREE STRATEGIC METALS WILL BE CUT AN AVERAGE OF 30 TO 50 PER CENT BELOW PRE-KOREAN WAR LEVELS.

BUT AT THE SAME TIME, NATIONAL PRODUCTION ADMINISTRATOR MANLY FLEISCHMAN ASSURED REPRESENTATIVES OF 37 MAJOR CIVILIAN GOODS INDUSTRIES THEIR PRODUCTION WOULD NOT BE ALLOWED TO BECOME A "CASUALTY" OF THE MOBILIZATION PROGRAM.

HE SAID MOBILIZATION CHIEF CHARLES E.WILSON IS FIRMLY DETERMINED THAT THE CIVILIAN ECONOMY WILL GO ALONG AT A "REDUCED BUT AMPLE AND SUBSTANTIAL RATE."

FLEISCHMANN(CORRECT) DISCLOSED THAT CONSUMERS GOODS MANUFACTURERS COULD EXPECT AN AVERAGE 30 PER CENT CUT IN STEEL SUPPLIES, A 40 PER CENT CUT IN COPPER AND A 50 PER CENT CUT IN ALUMINUM.

THESE NEW CURTAILMENTS FOR MAKERS OF SUCH ITEMS AS REFRIGERATORS, AUTOMOBILES, RADIOS AND WASHING MACHINES WOULD APPLY DURING THE JULY-SEPTEMBER QUARTERLY PERIOD.

ACTUAL ORDERS MAKING THE CUTS ARE EXPECTED SOON, TO TAKE EFFECT JULY 1. THE REDUCTIONS WILL APPLY TO DIFFERENT INDUSTRIES IN VARYING PERCENTAGES.

AT PRESENT, CERTAIN GOODS MAKERS ARE CUT 20 PER CENT FOR STEEL, 30 PER CENT FOR COPPER AND 35 PER CENT FOR ALUMINUM.

PLANS FOR THE NEW CURBS WERE UNFOLDED TO MORE THAN 300 BUSINESS EXECUTIVES CALLED TOGETHER ON 48 HOURS NOTICE BY THE NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY (NPA).

FLEISCHMANN TOLD THE GROUP THAT CONSUMERS GOODS MAKERS WOULD NOT RECEIVE METAL ALLOCATIONS UNDER THE NEW CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN TO BECOME EFFECTIVE JULY 1. THIS WILL GUARANTEE METAL ALLOCATIONS TO MUNITIONS PRODUCERS AND DEFENSE-ESSENTIAL INDUSTRY.

CIVILIAN GOODS MANUFACTURERS WILL HAVE TO COMPETE FOR THE UNALLOCATED STEEL SUPPLY--SUBJECT TO THE USE LIMITATIONS. IN OTHER WORDS, THEY WILL HAVE TO FIND THE LIMITED METAL SUPPLIES THEY ARE ALLOWED TO USE IF THEY CAN FIND IT.

ON THIS POINT, FLEISCHMANN SAID THAT IF ANY SEGMENT OF THE CIVILIAN GOODS INDUSTRY HAS REAL TROUBLE LOCATING SUFFICIENT STEEL, COPPER AND ALUMINUM TO MEET THE LIMITED ALLOWABLE PRODUCTION, THE NPA WILL STEP IN WITH SPECIAL ALLOCATIONS TO TAKE CARE OF THEM.

THE BUSINESS MEN DIVIDED INTO GROUPS WITH NPA OFFICIALS TO LEARN MORE SPECIFIC METAL FIGURES FOR THEIR LINES OF PRODUCTION. THE GROUPS WERE TO REASSEMBLE LATER IN THE DAY FOR FINAL BRIEFING ON THE PROPOSED NEW METAL CURBS.

THE WHOLE PROGRAM IS AIMED AT SQUEEZING CIVILIAN CONSUMPTION SO THAT NPA CAN GO AHEAD ON JULY 1 WITH ITS CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLANS, OR "CMP," FOR MAKING DIRECT, GUARANTEED ALLOCATIONS OF METAL TO MUNITIONS PRODUCERS AND DEFENSE-ESSENTIAL INDUSTRY.

OFFICIALS SAID THE CUTS WOULD BE HEAVIER EXCEPT FOR RECORD-BREAKING EXPANSION OF THE STEEL INDUSTRY. THE IRON AND STEEL INSTITUTE ANNOUNCED TODAY THAT APRIL PRODUCTION HIT A NEW HIGH MARK OF 8,832,000 TONS.

THE MEETING WAS UNPRECEDENTED IN THAT NPA, WHEN IT HAS BAD NEWS TO TALK OVER, NORMALLY CALLS IN THE SINGLE INDUSTRY ADVISORY COMMITTEE AFFECTED AND HAS A CLOSED-DOOR SESSION.

TODAY ONLY THE AUTO INDUSTRY GOT A CLOSED HEARING. THE OTHER 56 WERE TO ASSEMBLE IN THE COMMERCE DEPARTMENT AUDITORIUM. FOR THE FIRST TIME, REPORTERS WERE INVITED.

THE STORY WOULD BE ESSENTIALLY THE SAME FOR ALL: PRODUCTION OFFICIALS HAVE DECIDED CIVILIAN GOODS PRODUCERS MUST BE CUT ABOUT ONE-THIRD FROM THEIR PRE-KOREA USAGE OF STEEL.

THE CURTAILMENTS MAY VARY SOMEWHAT FROM INDUSTRY TO INDUSTRY. PASSENGER CARS MAY GET SLIGHTLY MORE OR LESS, PERCENTAGEWISE, THAN VENETIAN BLINDS OR SEWING MACHINES.

MAY 19 1951

BUT THE ENTIRE CONSUMER "HARD GOODS" FIELD WILL GET ONLY 2,000,000 TONS IN THE JULY-THROUGH-SEPTEMBER QUARTER INSTEAD OF THE 3,000,000 THEY USED IN A TYPICAL QUARTER BEFORE THE FIGHTING BROKE OUT.

THIS REPRESENT NPA'S ESTIMATE OF WHAT WILL BE AVAILABLE AFTER MILITARY AND DEFENSE-SUPPORTING INDUSTRIES, FOREIGN AID, AND DEFENSE PLANT CONSTRUCTION ARE TAKEN CARE OF.

IT ALSO LEAVES AN EMERGENCY POOL OF MATERIALS TO TAKE CARE OF ANY HARDSHIP SITUATIONS. IT FURTHER PROVIDES STEEL FOR AN "INTERMEDIATE" GROUP OF PRODUCERS WHO SUPPLY NEITHER CONSUMERS NOR MILITARY BUYERS. THESE INCLUDE THE MAKERS OF INDUSTRIAL MACHINERY, BUILDING SUPPLIES, COMMUNICATIONS EQUIPMENT AND THE LIKE.

FIRST LEAD BEEF PRICES

BY DILLON GRAHAM

WASHINGTON,MAY 18-(AP)-A SOUTHWESTERN CATTLEMAN URGED TODAY THAT THE "WHOLE PRICE CONTROL ORDER BE THROWN OUT" SO THAT MORE BEEF CAN BE PRODUCED "WITHOUT OUR WORKING UNDER SHACKLES."

RAY W.WILLOUGHBY, OF SAN ANGELO, PRESIDENT OF THE TEXAS AND SOUTHWESTERN CATTLE RAISERS' ASSOCIATION, WAS ONE OF A GROUP OF TEXANS APPEARING AS WITNESSES BEFORE THE HOUSE AGRICULTURE COMMITTEE. THIS KEY GROUP IS HEARING TESTIMONY ON THE OFFICE OF PRICE STZBILIZATION ROLLBACK OF CEILING PRICES ON CATTLE.

WILLOUGHBY SAID CATTLEMEN CAN'T OPERATE PROFITABLY UNDER THE ROLL-BACK ORDER, AND ACTUALLY AERE FZCED WITH LOSSES.

ASKED BY REP.THOMPSON (D-TEX) HOW PRICES AT THE BUTCHER SHOP COULD BEST BE REDUCED FOR THE PROTESTING HOUSEWIVES, WILLOUGHBY SAID:

"COMPETITION. THE OLD LAW OF SUPPLY AND DEMAND. LET US PRODUCE MORE AND MAKE MORE AVAILABLE."

THOMPSON ALSO ASKED HOW, IF THE CONTROLS OVER PRICES ARE CONTINUED, THEY COULD BE ENFORCED "WITHOUT A POLICE FORCE TO WATCH EVERY RANCH AND FARM?"

THE TEXANS' COMMENTS CAME SOON AFTER CHAIRMAN COOLEY (D-NC) OF THE AGRICULTURE COMMITTEE TOLD A REPORTER HE FORESAW A POSSIBILITY THAT THE ROLLBACK ORDER MIGHT BE MODIFIED. HE SAW LITTLE CHANCE OF REPEAL, BUT SAID A MODIFICATION MIGHT EXEMPT THOSE WHO BOUGHT CATTLE AFTER THE JANUARY FREEZE ORDER.

REP.HOPE (R-KANS) PREDICTED THE COMMITTEE WILL DISAPPROVE THE ROLLBACK ORDER.

WILLOUGHBYHSAID HE OPERATED A 40,000 ACRE RANCH WITH 1450 HEAD AND IT COST HIM ABOUT 35 CENTS A POUND TO PRODUCE CATTLE. HE SAID HE BELIEVED HIS COST WAS BELOW AVERAGE AND QUOTED ONE OPERATOR WITH ONLY 170 HEAD AS FIGURING HIS COST WAS 48 CENTS A POUND. HE SAID NEITHER COULD OPERATE PROFITABLY.

HE INSISTED THAT "EVERYONE WILL SUFFER" BECAUSE OF THE ROLLBACK AND THAT THE RANGE OPERATOR AS WELL AS THE CATTLE FEEDER WOULD BE HURT.

"THE FEEDING OF CATTLE IN TEXAS WOULD STOP," HE SAID.

REP.JONESS(D-MO) READ FROM A LETTER WHICH SAID THAT ONE CATTLEMAN RECENTLY BOUGHT 1,000 HEAD AT $300 EACH AND THE NEXT DAY REFUSED $400 EACH. HE SAID HE UNDERSTOOD THE CATTLEMAN WAS SPECULATING ON THE CHANCE THAT CONTROLS WOULD NOT BE EXTENDED PAST JUNE 30 AND THAT HE COULD MAKE AN EVEN BIGGER PROFIT.

MAY 19 1951

REP.POAGUE (D-TEX) SAID HE THOUGHT IT "UNBELIEVABLE THAT ANYONE WOULD GET AN OFFER LIKE THAT AND IF HE DID THAT HE WOULD TURN IT DOWN.

OTHERS WHO TESTIFIED INCLUDED C.K.MCCAN OF VICTORIA, JACK ROACH OF AMARILLO AND NORMAN MOSER OF DEKALB.

MOSER TOLD THE COMMITTEE HE WAS ONE OF 16 STOCKMEM CALLED TO WASHINGTON ON AN OFFICIAL ADVISORY PANEL BEFORE THE ORDER WAS ISSUED, BUT THAT PRICE ADMINISTRATOR MICHAEL V.DISALLE DIDN'T ASK HIM FOR ANY ADVICE. HE SAID THE PRICE OFFICIALS MADE NO MENTION OF A POSSIBLE ROLL BACK DURING THE ONE DAY SESSION OF THE ADVISORY PANEL.

ANOTHER MEMBER OF THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE SAID THE GROUP'S COUNSEL WAS DISREGARDED BY DISALLE. IT WAS NOT CONSULTED ABOUT THE ORDER, AND KNEW NOTHING OF IT UNTIL IT WAS ANNOUNCED.

FRED SHERER OF COLERIDGE, NEB., PRESIDENT OF THE NEBRASKA LIVESTOCK ASSOCIATION, SAID THAT IN HIS OPINION DISALLE ACTUALLY TURNED TRAITOR TO HIS STATEMENTS TO US."

HE SAID DISALLE HAD TOLD THE GROUP HE HAD NO INTENTION OF DOING ANYTHING TO DISTURB MEAT PRODUCTION, AND THEN CAME FORTH WITH THE ROLL-BACK ORDER.

THE NEBRASKAN SAID THERE WERE RUMORS OF A ROLLBACK AND THE CATTLEMEN LEARNED THAT ERIC JOHNSTON, ECONOMIC STABILIZER, WOULD HAVE THE LAST WORD. SHERER SAID THEY VISITED JOHNSTON, WHO TOLD THEM THERE WOULD BE A $3 (CQ) ROLLBACK IMMEDIATELY AND OTHERS LATER.

THE NEXT DAY, HE SAID, THE OPS ORDER CAME OUT CALLING FOR A FIRST ROLLBACK OF TEN PER CENT MAY 20, WITH 4 1/2 PER CENT ROLL BACKS ON AUGUST 1 AND OCTOBER 1.

SHERER SAID HE ALWAYS FELT THAT JOHNSTON "WOULDN'T SIGN ANY ORDER AS DRASTIC" AS THE ONE WHICH FINALLY CAME OUT. THE NEBRASKAN SAID HE THOUGHT THAT DISALLE PROBABLY WENT DIRECT TO THE PRESIDENT FOR APPROVAL OF HIS ROLLBACK ORDER.

SHERER SAID THAT DISALLE SPENT ONLY 15 MINUTES AT THE ONE MEETING TO WHICH THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE WAS CALLED AND NEVER ASKED A SINGLE QUESTION ABOUT PRODUCTION COSTS.

REP.HILL (R-COLO) TOLD THE COMMITTEE HE WAS AFRAID THAT THIS "SILLY THING" (THE ROLLBACK ORDER) MIGHT SET OFF A DEFLATIONARY TREND. HE POINTED OUT LATER TO A REPORTER THAT LIVESTOCK PRICES IN CERTAIN AREAS AFFECTED BUSINESS, FARMS AND BANKS AND A DISTURBING INFLUENCE COULD TOUCH OFF A WHOLE DEFLATIONARY PROGRAM.

HOPE, SENIOR REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE MEMBER, EMPHASIZED HE WAS SPEAKING ONLY FOR HIMSELF. BUT HE SAID HIS OPINION WAS BASED ON REMARKS HEARD FROM OTHER MEMBERS.

"THERE IS ALMOST UNANIMOUS AGREEMENT AMONG MEMBERS THAT THE ROLLBACK WILL BE DETRIMENTAL TO THE LIVESTOCK INDUSTRY," HE SAID.

HOPE SAID THE COMMITTEE MIGHT (1) ADOPT A RESOLUTION, SUCH AS PASSED BY THE SENATE AGRICULTURE COMMITTEE, URGING THE ORDER BE REPEALED; (2) AUTHORIZE COOLEY TO TESTIFY BEFORE THE BANKING AND CURRENCY COMMITTEE ON A BILL FOR THE EXTENSION OF CONTROL POWERS; OR (3) MIGHT HAVE COOLEY OFFER AN AMENDMENT TO ANY DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT BILL WHICH REACHES THE FLOOR, CALLING FOR THE RESCINDING OR PROHIBITION OF ANY ROLLBACK ORDER AFFECTING THE CATTLE INDUSTRY.

ANOTHER REPUBLICAN MEMBER, LOVRE OF SOUTH DAKOTA, TOLD A REPORTER HE FEELS CONFIDENT THE COMMITTEE WILL ADOPT A RESOLUTION RECOMMENDING THAT THE ORDER BE RESCINDED.

COOLEY SAID HE THOUGHT THE CATTLEMEN HAD "MADE A GOOD CASE" FOR THEMSELVES AND HAD FURNISHED "FIGURES WHICH THEY CONTEND PROVE THEIR POINT." HE SAID THE CATTLEMEN SAYS OPS NEVER ASKED NOR PERMITTED THEM TO SHOW FIGURES TO BACKUP THEIR POSITION.

COOLEY SAID THE HEARINGS ON THE EFFECT OF THE OPS ORDER ON THE CATTLE INDUSTRY MIGHT GO INTO NEXT WEEK.

THE ORDER CALLS FOR A 10 PER CENT ROLLBACK IN PRICES PAID BY BACKERS FOR CATTLE MAY 20, WITH ADDITIONAL ROLLBACKS OF 4 1/2 PER CENT EACH NEXT AUG 1 AND OCT 1.

(240) FIRST LEAD MOBILIZATION

WASHINGTON, MAY 18-(AP)-SENATOR BRICKER (R-OHIO) ASKED TODAY WHETHER SOMEONE IN THE GOVERNMENT IS "TRYING DELIBERATELY TO UNDERMINE AMERICAN INDUSTRY" IN THE DEFENSE EFFORT.

BRICKER TOLD THE SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE, OF WHICH HE IS A MEMBER, "THERE IS SOME MOTIVE BEHIND SOME OF THOSE WRITING THE RULES" FOR INDUSTRIAL ECONOMIC CONTROLS. THEY ARE SO COMPLICATED AND CONFLICTING, HE SAID, THEY AMOUNT TO "CONFUSION COMPOUNDED".

HE SPOKE AT A PUBLIC HEARING OF THE COMMITTEE AT WHICH THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MANUFACTURERS (NAM) DEMANDED THE REMOVAL OF ALL WAGE-PRICE CONTROLS AND ACCUSED PRESIDENT TRUMAN OF SEEKING DICTATORIAL HOME-FRONT MOBILIZATION POWERS.

ANOTHER GROUP WAS TOLD BY THE PRESIDENT'S CHIEF ECONOMIC ADVISER THAT WAGE AND PRICE PROGRAMS CAN BECOME "HARMFUL OR INCONSEQUENTIAL TINKERING WITH THE ECONOMY" UNLESS THEY ARE GEARED DIRECTLY TO A PROGRAM OF ALL-OUT PRODUCTION TO MAKE THE COUNTRY STRONG.

LEON H.KEYSERLING, CHAIRMAN OF THE PRESIDENT'S COUNCIL OF ECONOMIC ADVISERS, SPOKE AT AN "ANTI-INFLATION CONFERENCE." OF AMERICANS FOR DEMOCRATIC ACTION (CAPS ADA).

KEYSERLING SAID THE FIVE GREAT PURPOSES OF THE PROGRAM ARE TO: (1) BUILD UP OUR ARMED STRENGTH, AS RAPIDLY AS POSSIBLE; (2) BUILD UP OUR STOCK PILE OF BOTH WEAPONS AND RAW MATERIALS; (3) USE SOME OF OUR RESOURCES TO HELP BUILD THE COMBINED STRENGTH OF THE FREE NATIONS; (4) MAKE CERTAIN THAT WHILE CARRYING OUT THESE DEFENSE PROGRAMS A STRONG CIVILIAN ECONOMY IS PRESERVED; AND (5) DEVOTE ENOUGH OF THE NATION'S MANPOWER, MATERIALS AND RESOURCES TO BUILD UP PRODUCTIVE FACILITIES.

ANOTHER ADA SPEAKER, CIO SECRETARY TREASURER JAMES B.CAREY SAID A STRICTER PRICE CONTROL LAW IS NEEDED TO STOP "RACKETEERS IN INFLATION".

ON OTHER MOBILIZATION FRONTS:

A FORMER "FAIR DEAL" SENATOR, NOW REPRESENTING A GROUP OF AUTOMOBILE SALES FINANCE COMPANIES, CHARGED THAT THE ADMINISTRATION OF CONSUMER CREDIT CONTROLS IS "UNFAIR AND UNSOUND."

MEAT INDUSTRY SPOKESMAN CONTINUED TO HAMMER AWAY AT THEIR CONTENTION THAT THE GOVERNMENT BEEF PRICE ROLLBACK PLAN WILL RESULT IN DIMINISHING SUPPLIES AND RATIONING.

THE NEW WAGE STABILIZATION BOARD WAS REPORTED READY TO PUNCH SOME HOLES IN THE PAY-CONTROLS DIKE.

AND THE LEADERS OF 57 MAJOR CIVILIAN INDUSTRIES WERE CALLED TO MEET TODAY TO DISCUSS WITH THE NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY (NPA) GOVERNMENT PLANS TO CUT THEIR METAL SUPPLIES BY 30 TO 35 PER CENT BELOW PRE-KOREA LEVELS. THE PROPOSED CUTS WERE ANNOUNCED ONLY YESTERDAY.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT WAS MADE ONLY A FEW HOURS AFTER PRESIDENT TRUMAN APPEALED ANEW FOR STRONGER CONTROLS AND DEFENSE PRODUCTION PROGRAMS, AND SAID:

"THE SPECIAL INTERESTS AND THE LOBBIES WILL WRECK THIS STABILIZATION PROGRAM, AS SURE AS YOU'RE BORN, UNLESS THE MAIN BODY OF THE CITIZENS OF THIS COUNTRY GET BUSY AND DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT."

HE DID NOT NAME ANY "SPECIAL INTERESTS."

NAM PRESIDENT WILLIAM H.RUFFIN SAID IN A STATEMENT PREPARED FOR THE SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE THAT THE BROADER ECONOMIC POWERS MR.TRUMAN WANTS COULD LEAD TO DESTRUCTION OF THE NATION'S ECONOMIC SYSTEM AND WOULD AMOUNT TO "PERHAPS THE LONGEST SINGLE STEP TOWARD COMPLETE GOVERNMENT CONTROL EVER PROPOSED TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE."

CONGRESS, THE ASSOCIATION DECLARED, SHOULD LET AUTHORITY TO CURB PRICES AND WAGES LAPSE JUNE 30, WHEN THE PRESENT LAW EXPIRES.

JAMES B.CAREY, SECRETARY-TREASURER OF THE CIO, PROPOSED A STIFFER PRICE CONTROL LAW THAT "PERMITS DOLLARS-AND-CENTS CEILINGS, XXX GRADE LABELLING AND REQUIRES MAINTENANCE OF NOT ONLY QUALITY GOODS, BUT ALSO OF LOW-PRICED LINES."

IN A SPEECH PREPARED FOR A CONFERENCE HERE TODAY OF THE AMERICANS FOR DEMOCRATIC ACTION (ADA), CAREY SAID:

MAY 19 1951

A15WX

"IN THE LAST YEAR, AS THE RESULT OF A PISTOL OF NECESSITY BEING PLACED AT OUR HEADS BY XXX SMALL GROUPS OF POWERFUL MEN AND ORGANIZATIONS THAT I CALL THE RACKETEERS OF INFLATION, THE AMERICAN PEOPLE HAVE PAID OVER AN ESTIMATED $15,000,000,000 IN TRIBUTE."

THIS AMOUNT, CAREY SAID, HAD BEEN GARNERED BY (1) MEN WHO "PERSUADED CONGRESS TO LEAVE OUT OF THE DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT ANY CONTROL OVER THE COMMODITY EXCHANGES," (2) THE "PRICE RACKETEER" WHO "RAISES THE PRICE OF THE THINGS HE MAKES AND SELLS" TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF SHORTAGES, (3) CORPORATIONS WHICH "DEMANDED THAT WE MEET THEIR TERMS" FOR BUILDING DEFENSE PLANTS BY GRANTING "THE PRIVILEGE OF WRITING OFF THE VALUE OF THESE PLANTS IN FIVE YEARS," AND (4) THE "TAX RACKETEER" WHO "SPENDS LARGE SUMS OF MONEY TRYING TO SHIFT THE TAX BURDEN FROM THE WEALTHY AND THE CORPORATIONS XXX TO THE PEOPLE."

SCOTT W.LUCAS, FORMER ILLINOIS SENATOR AND SENATE DEMOCRATIC LEADER, TOLD THE SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE IN A PREPARED STATEMENT THAT:

"THERE IS NO JUSTIFICATION UNDER PRESENT CONDITIONS FOR CONTROLS ON INSTALLMENT SALES OF AUTOMOBILES."

LUCAS, WHO WAS DEFEATED LAST YEAR FOR REELECTION, TOLD THE COMMITTEE HE WAS TESTIFYING "ON BEHALF OF THE AMERICAN FINANCE CORPORATION, A GROUP COMPRISING SOME 366 INDEPENDENT AUTOMOBILE SALES FINANCE COMPANIES."

HENRY J.KRUSE OF SEATTLE, WASH., A DIRECTOR OF THE WESTERN STATES

MEAT PACKERS ASSOCIATION, TOLD THE SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE YESTERDAY THAT "AUTHORITY FOR PRICE, WAGE AND RATIONING CONTROLS SHOULD BE DELETED" FROM EXISTING LAWS.

THE WAGE STABILIZATION BOARD WAS EXPECTED TO VOTE TODAY TO APPROVE MOST OR ALL OF AN 11-CENT AVERAGE HOURLY WAGE INCREASE FOR 220,000 MEAT PACKINGHOUSE WORKERS. PACKERS AND UNIONS HAVE AGREED ON THE INCREASE WHICH WOULD PUSH THROUGH THE WAGE-CONTROL CEILING.

THE BOARD ALSO MAY ACT SOON TO APPROVE A FOUR-CENT HOURLY "PRODUCTIVITY" PAY BOOST FOR MORE THAN 500,000 CIO AUTO WORKERS UNION MEMBERS. THIS ALSO WOULD BE AN EXCEPTION TO THE 10 PER CENT PAY RAISE CEILING.

NAM TOLD THE SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE IT OPPOSED WAGE AND PRICE CONTROLS "BECAUSE THEY HINDER PRODUCTION." THE SENATE GROUP AND THE HOUSE BANKING COMMITTEE ARE HOLDING SEPARATE HEARINGS ON PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S REQUEST FOR REVISION AND A TWO-YEAR EXTENSION OF THE DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT. IT INCLUDES WAGE-PRICE CONTROL AUTHORITY.

ROBERT R.NATHAN, CHAIRMAN OF THE ADA "ANTI-INFLATION" CONFERENCE, CAUTIONED CONGRESS NOT TO BE "MISLED BY PROFITEERS AND CHISELERS WHO CLAIM THE PUBLIC IS NOT INTERESTED IN AN IMPROVED ANTI-INFLATION PROGRAM."

COUNTERING ARGUMENTS BY SOME LAWMAKERS THAT IT IS DIFFICULT TO ENACT AND ENFORCE CONTROLS BECAUSE THE PEOPLE GENERALLY LACK INTEREST, NATHAN SAID IN A PREPARED STATEMENT:

MAY 19 1951

"THIS CONFERENCE WILL CLEARLY DEMONSTRATE THAT THERE IS DEEP PUBLIC CONCERN."

ADA DESCRIBES ITSELF AS A LIBERAL ORGANIZATION WHICH BARS COMMUNISTS. ITS MEMBERSHIP INCLUDES MANY FORMER "NEW DEALERS."

IN PLACE OF WAGE-PRICE CONTROLS, NAM PROPOSED AN ANTI-INFLATION PROGRAM CALLING FOR:

(1) "EFFECTIVE USE" OF FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM POWERS TO RESTRICT PRIVATE CREDIT; (2) HOLDING FEDERAL SPENDING TO THE MINIMUM NECESSARY TO MEET THE CURRENT EMERGENCY; (3) FINANCING OUT OF TAXES THE TOTAL COST OF THE MILITARY PROGRAM AS WELL AS ALL OTHER GOVERNMENT EXPENDITURES; (4) LEVYING OF TAXES ON A BASIS AIMED AT CURTAILING PRIVATE SPENDING, BUT NOT INVESTMENT IN EXPANSION OF PRODUCTION FACILITIES.

WHAT IS NEEDED, NAM SAID, IS A "GUNS AND BUTTER" PROGRAM GEARED TO MEET MILITARY NEEDS AND ALSO KEEP THE CIVILIAN ECONOMY HEALTHY. THE ASSOCIATION ADDED THAT THE GOVERNMENT IS PLANNING A LONG-TERM PREPAREDNESS PROGRAM, AND THAT IT SHOULD BE BASED ON A RECOGNITION THAT AT PRESENT ONLY A COMPARATIVELY SMALL PART OF THE NATION'S PRODUCTIVE CAPACITY IS NEEDED FOR THAT PURPOSE.

FORMER NAM PRESIDENT IRA MOSHER URGED CONGRESS IN A SECOND STATEMENT TO JUNK A PROVISION OF THE PRESENT LAW WHICH AUTHORIZED CREATION OF THE WAGE STABILIZATION BOARD. MOSHER ALSO SAID MR.TRUMAN WENT OUTSIDE THE AUTHORITY OF THAT LAW WHEN HE RECENTLY RECONSTITUTED THE BOARD AND ASSIGNED IT DISPUTE-HANDLING AUTHORITY.

MOSHER SAID THAT UNDER THE WAGE BOARD'S NEW SET-UP, STRIKES WILL BE ENCOURAGED AND THE MOBILIZATION EFFORT HAMPERED.

B22WX (GQ)

AT THE CAPITOL, MR.TRUMAN'S NEW PLEA FOR ENACTMENT OF A MORE FAR-REACHING CONTROLS PROGRAM MET A GENERALLY COOL RECEPTION.

REPUBLICAN SENATORS TAFT AND BRICKER OF OHIO SAID THEY FEEL THE ADMINISTRATION ALREADY HAS ALL THE CONTROLS AUTHORITY IT NEEDS.

"I DON'T BELIEVE THE AUTHORITY WILL BE EXTENDED TO MANY NEW FIELDS," SAID TAFT, WHO IS CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE GOP POLICY COMMITTEE.

SENATOR MAYBANK (D-SC), CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE, SAID SENTIMENT IS INCREASING FOR A SIMPLE EXTENSION OF THE PRESENT LAW, ON PERHAPS A STOPGAP BASIS. HE ADDED THAT IN ANY EVENT, THE ADMINISTRATION BILL WOULD BE PRETTY WELL REWRITTEN.

SENATOR SCHOEPPEL (R-KAN), A MEMBER OF THE BANKING COMMITTEE, DECLARED THE ADMINISTRATION "HAS NOT MADE A GOOD CASE FOR MANY OF THE BROAD POWERS IT IS ASKING."

HOWEVER, ANOTHER MEMBER OF THE COMMITTEE, SENATOR MOODY (D-MICH), SAID HE AGREES 100 PER CENT WITH MR.TRUMAN.

"IF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE FULLY REALIZED WHAT WOULD HAPPEN TO THEM IF PRICES WERE PERMITTED TO RUN AWAY," SAID MOODY, "THEY WOULD RAISE A CRY THAT WOULD LEAVE NO DOUBT ABOUT WHAT CONGRESS WOULD DO."

AP SPECIAL WASHINGTON SERVICE

WASHINGTON, MAY 18-(AP)-GEN. J.LAWTON COLLINS, ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF, WAS TOLD TODAY THAT HIS APPEAL FOR GREATER EFFORTS TO SPEED DEFENSE CONTRACTS COULD BE MET IF THE GOVERNMENT UTILIZED THOUSANDS OF SMALL PLANTS.

REP. AUGUST H.ANDRESEN (R-MINN) WROTE COLLINS THAT HE WAS SURPRISED TO NOTE COLLINS' APPEAL "SINCE CONGRESS HAS PROVIDED BILLIONS OF DOLLARS FOR WAR CONTRACTS--AND THERE ARE THOUSANDS OF SMALL MANUFACTURING PLANTS IN THIS COUNTRY BEGGING FOR WAR CONTRACTS."

COLLINS EARLIER THIS WEEK CALLED FOR GREATER EFFORTS TO EXPEDITE DEFENSE CONTRACTS. HE SAID THAT IF THE SERVICES ARE TO GET NECESSARY MATERIEL THERE MUST BE MORE SUBCONTRACTING BY LARGE CONTRACTORS, AND INDUSTRIES HOLDING PROPRIETARY RIGHTS IN CERTAIN ITEMS MUST PERMIT OTHER FIRMS TO ASSUME PART OF THE PRODUCTION LOAD.

ANDRESEN TOLD COLLINS SMALLER PLANTS "ARE UNABLE TO SECURE ANY CONSIDERATION WHATSOEVER AT THE HANDS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY IN CHARGE OF WAR MATERIAL." HE ADDED:

"AFTER READING THE TESTIMONY OF THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE (MARSHALL) AND CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF (BRADLEY), I AM WONDERING IF THE PLACING OF WAR CONTRACTS IS GOVERNED BY POLITICAL EXPEDIENCY AND DETERMINED BY THE PRESIDENT AND THE SECRETARY OF STATE. IT BEGINS TO LOOK THAT WAY."

ANDRESEN ~~SAID THAT IN MINNESOTA ALONE THERE~~ ARE ~~HUNDREDS OF SMALL~~ MANUFACTURING PLANTS FULLY EQUIPPED WITH SKILLED MANPOWER AS WELL AS MACHINERY TO IMMEDIATELY TAKE ON WAR CONTRACTS.

"THESE CONCERNS," ANDRESEN WROTE COLLINS, "HAVE BEEN ENDEAVORING FOR THE PAST 10 MONTHS TO SECURE EITHER PRIME OR SUBCONTRACTS WITHOUT MUCH OF ANY SUCCESS.

"IN VIEW OF YOUR STATEMENT ABOUT 'EXPEDITING' THE PRODUCTION OF WAR MATERIAL, I WOULD LIKE TO HEAR FROM YOU AS TO THE REASON WHY YOUR DEPARTMENT HAS NOT TAKEN ADVANTAGE OF THE POTENTIAL WAR PRODUCTION FACILITIES OFFERED FROM THE STATE OF MINNESOTA AND OTHER NORTHWEST STATES.

"IN THE INTERESTS OF THE SECURITY OF OUR COUNTRY, I WISH TO URGE YOU TO USE THE FACILITIES IN THE UPPER MID-WEST STATES WHICH HAVE BEEN OFFERED TO THE DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY AND OTHER DEFENSE PRODUCTION AGENCIES."

ANDRESEN SAID SUCH ACTION WOULD EXPEDITE PRODUCTION OF WAR GOODS AND, HE HOPED, SHORTEN THE WAR.

BY EDWARD E.BOMAR

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON,MAY 18-(AP)-SENATOR GILLETTE (D-IOWA) SAID TODAY THE HEADS OF ALL POLITICAL PARTIES--EXCEPT THE COMMUNISTS--IN THE 12 NORTH ATLANTIC PACT NATIONS FAVOR STRENGTHENING THE NORTH ATLANTIC COMMUNITY.

GILLETTE, A MEMBER OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, SAID HE HAS CORRESPONDED WITH INTERNATIONAL POLITICAL LEADERS THIS YEAR AND FOUND THEM ALMOST UNANIMOUS IN FAVOR OF WORKING OUT SOME MEANS TO ACCOMPLISH THAT OBJECTIVE.

HE QUOTED CANADIAN PRIME MINISTER LOUIS ST.LAURENT AS SAYING "THE SUCCESS OF THE PROPOSAL WOULD DEPEND ON THE INITIATIVE BEING TAKEN BY THE U.S. GOVERNMENT."

THE OTHER WESTERN NATIONS "ARE ONLY WAITING FOR AMERICA TO MAKE THE FIRST CONCRETE MOVE," GILLETTE SAID IN AN ADDRESS PREPARED FOR THE ATLANTIC UNION COMMITTEE.

THE GROUP IS URGING CONGRESS TO APPROVE A PENDING RESOLUTION CALLING FOR A FEDERAL CONVENTION OF DELEGATES OF THE PRINCIPAL NORTH ATLANTIC DOMESTIC POLITICAL PARTIES TO EXPLORE POSSIBLE CREATION OF A FEDERAL UNION OF THE FREE NATIONS. THIS WOULD BE WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF THE UNITED NATIONS.

IN THE PAST YEAR, GILLETTE SAID, "THE WORLD CRISIS HAS DEEPENED AND BROADENED SO SWIFTLY THAT TRADITIONAL DIPLOMACY, TRADITIONAL GOVERNMENT-TO-GOVERNMENT METHODS CAN NO LONGER COPE WITH IT." HE CONTENDED A "POLITICAL AUTHORITY" IS NEEDED FOR ATLANTIC DEFENSE AND PROSPERITY, FOR DEMOCRACY, AND "AS A MODEL FOR THE FUTURE WORLD GOVERNMENT."

MRS.STELLANOVA OSBORN, OF (POSSUM POKE, POSSUM LANE) POULAN, GA., A MEMBER OF THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF THE ATLANTIC UNION COMMITTEE, WAS GIVEN A CITATION FOR "OUTSTANDING DEVOTION" TO THE FEDERAL UNION IDEA.

SERVICES BY MRS.OSBORN ENUMERATED IN THE CITATION INCLUDED "STIMULATION OF 365 LETTERS TO CONGRESS URGING SUPPORT OF THE ATLANTIC UNION RESOLUTION--ONE FOR EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR."

POSTERS DISPLAYED IN PHILADELPHIA RECRUITING CENTERS SAID: "REAL AMERICANS SHOULD GO TO EUROPE--THERE IS MONEY IN IT."

THE MOSCOW RADIO COMMENTED: "TO DISSUADE AMERICAN SAILORS FROM LEAVING THE NAVY, THEY ARE BEING TOLD THAT AFTER THREE YEARS OF EXTRA SERVICE AND THE EXTENSIVE TRAVEL WHICH THE SERVICE INCURS, THEY WILL BECOME RICH MEN."

AMS BUDGET

NIGHT LEAD U.N.

BY FRANCIS W.CARPENTER

NEW YORK, MAY 18-(AP)-THE UNITED NATIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY APPROVED FINALLY TODAY A HISTORY-MAKING GLOBAL EMBARGO AGAINST SHIPMENTS OF ARMS, AMMUNITION AND WAR MATERIALS TO RED CHINA.

DESPITE CRIES OF THE RUSSIAN BLOC THAT THE EMBARGO RESOLUTION WAS SHAMEFUL, THE ASSEMBLY VOTED 47 TO 0 TO ASK ALL COUNTRIES IN THE WORLD NOT TO SHIP SINEWS OF WAR TO RED CHINA AND THE COMMUNIST NORTH KOREAN AGGRESSORS.

THE RUSSIANS DID NOT SAY SO IN WORDS BUT IT WAS OBVIOUS FROM THEIR ATTACKS ON THE RESOLUTION AND THE UNITED STATES THAT THEY WILL IGNORE IT. THEY REFUSED TO PARTICIPATE IN THE VOTE.

EIGHT COUNTRIES ABSTAINED. THEY WERE AFGHANISTAN, BURMA, EGYPT, INDIA, INDONESIA, PAKISTAN, SWEDEN, SYRIA.

EMBARGO ACTION DEVELOPED ALSO IN WASHINGTON. U.S. SENATE AND HOUSE CONFEREES VOTED TO STRENGTHEN LEGISLATION BANNING AMERICAN ECONOMIC AID TO NATIONS WHICH SHIP WAR GOODS TO CHINA, RUSSIA OR OTHER MEMBERS OF THE MOSCOW BLOC.

UNDER THE NEW, TOUGHER PROVISIONS, OTHER NATIONS WOULD HAVE TO CERTIFY THAT THEY HAVE NOT SENT ARMS OR OTHER WAR MATERIALS TO THE COMMUNIST AREAS BEFORE THEY COULD RECEIVE FURTHER AID.

THIS "WILL PUT TEETH INTO THE EMBARGO THE UNITED NATIONS NOW IS TRYING TO WORK OUT," EXPLAINED SENATE REPUBLICAN LEADER WHERRY (NEB).

BEFORE THE VOTE IN THE U.N. GENERAL ASSEMBLY, SIR BENEGAL N.RAU OF INDIA APPEALED BRIEFLY FOR THE U.N. TO DECLARE THAT ITS VICTORY WOULD BE ACHIEVED BY CLEARING SOUTH KOREA AND HALTING AT THE 38TH PARALLEL. HE SAID AFTER THE MEETING HE HAD NO CONCRETE PLAN, THAT HE WAS JUST THROWING OUT A SUGGESTION.

NO ONE TOOK HIM UP. ERNEST A.GROSS, UNITED STATES DELEGATE, ANSWERED BRIEFLY IN THE ASSEMBLY. HE AGREED WITH RAU THAT THERE IS NO VICTORY IN WAR, BUT THEN SAID THAT, SINCE MODERN WAR IS WHAT IT IS, NO ONE CAN STAND ASIDE EITHER.

RAU SAID ONE OF THE REASONS FOR HIS SUGGESTION WAS A REPORT FROM WASHINGTON THAT SENATOR EDWARD C.JOHNSON (D-COLO) HAD PROPOSED YESTERDAY THAT THE U.N. SEEK TO HALT THE KOREA CONFLICT JUNE 25, THE FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF THE WAR.

THE REACTION OF OTHER DELEGATES TO THAT WAS THAT IF THE WAR COULD BE HALTED BY U.N. ACTION, WHAT WAS WRONG WITH HALTING IT ON MAY 18--TODAY.

THE EMBARGO CALLS ON MEMBERS AND NON-MEMBERS OF THE U.N. ALIKE NOT TO SHIP TO COMMUNIST CHINA OR NORTH KOREA OR AREAS UNDER THEIR CONTROL ANY "ARMS, AMMUNITION AND IMPLEMENTS OF WAR, ATOMIC ENERGY MATERIALS, PETROLEUM, TRANSPORTATION MATERIALS OF STRATEGIC VALUE, AND ITEMS USEFUL IN THE PRODUCTION OF ARMS, AMMUNITION AND IMPLEMENTS OF WAR."

THE EMBARGO ORIGINALLY WAS INTRODUCED BY THE UNITED STATES IN THE ADDITIONAL MEASURES COMMITTEE OF THE U.N., COMMONLY CALLED THE SANCTIONS COMMITTEE. ITS PASSAGE WAS ONE OF THE QUICKEST DECISIONS EVER MADE BY THE U.N.

THE BRITISH AND FRENCH FIRST OBJECTED THAT THE TIME WAS NOT RIPE FOR SUCH ACTION. BUT COMMUNIST CHINA REMAINED SILENT TO ALL U.N. MOVES TO START TALKING PEACE AND THE BRITISH AND FRENCH INDICATED THEY WERE READY TO GO AHEAD.

LAST MONDAY THE RESOLUTION WAS APPROVED BY THE SANCTIONS COMMITTEE, 11 TO 0. IT WHIPPED THROUGH THE POLITICAL COMMITTEE YESTERDAY BY A VOTE OF 45 TO 0, WITH NINE ABSTENTIONS AND THE FIVE SOVIET BLOC COUNT-RIES NOT PARTICIPATING.

IN LESS THAN TWO HOURS TODAY, THE FINAL PASSAGE CAME.
ECUADOR ABSTAINED YESTERDAY BECAUSE OF THE LACK OF INSTRUCTIONS AND LUXEMBOURG WAS ABSENT. ECUADOR VOTED FOR THE RESOLUTION TODAY AND LUXEMBOURG WAS PRESENT TO VOTE ALSO, RAISING THE MARGIN TO 47 IN FAVOR.
RAU SAID THAT, EVEN THOUGH HE WAS ABSTAINING, THE EMBARGO WOULD NOT AFFECT INDIA BECAUSE SHE DOES NOT SHIP WAR MATERIALS TO PEIPING. HE SAID ALSO NONE WOULD BE SHIPPED.
FARIS EL KHOURY OF SYRIA MADE A SIMILAR DECLARATION.
JAMES BARRINGTON OF BURMA TOLD THE ASSEMBLY HIS COUNTRY HAS NO TRADE OF WAR ITEMS WITH PEIPING AND THE RESOLUTION WOULD HAVE NO PRACTICAL EFFECT FOR BURMA. HE SAID THE PRESENT MOVE, HOWEVER, SEEMED TO MAKE MORE DIFFICULT AN ALREADY DIFFICULT SITUATION.
SOVIET BLOC SPOKESMEN CONTENDED THAT THE ASSEMBLY HAD NO AUTHORITY UNDER THE U.N. CHARTER TO ACT ON AN EMBARGO PROPOSAL AND IT SHOULD GO TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL.
GROSS REPLIED THAT THE RUSSIANS AND THEIR FOLLOWERS WERE NOT CONSISTENT. HE READ FROM ASSEMBLY RECORDS PASSAGES SAYING THAT POLAND IN 1946 SOUGHT TO GET A DIPLOMATIC EMBARGO IN THE ASSEMBLY AGAINST FRANCO SPAIN AND WHITE RUSSIA HAD SOUGHT TO BREAK OFF COMMUNICATIONS WITH SPAIN. HE READ FROM A SPEECH BY SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI Y. VISHINSKY ALSO THAT EACH BODY IN THE U.N. COULD DECIDE WHAT IT COULD DO.
THE NEXT STEP IS FOR THE SANCTIONS COMMITTEE TO MEET SOON AND DECIDE HOW IT WILL SUPERVISE THE EMBARGO. ALL U.N. MEMBERS ARE URGED TO INFORM THE COMMITTEE QUICKLY WHAT THEY ARE DOING TO ENFORCE IT. THE COMMITTEE WAS INSTRUCTED TO REPORT TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY WITHIN 30 DAYS ON WHAT STEPS HAVE BEEN TAKEN.

U.N.-PALESTINE

NEW YORK,MAY 18-(AP)-THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL VOTED 10 TO 0 TONIGHT TO ORDER ISRAEL TO HALT ITS LAKE HULEH SWAMP DRAINAGE PROJECT AS A FIRST STEP TO PEACE BETWEEN ISRAEL AND SYRIA.
RUSSIA ABSTAINED.
WHEN THE VOTE WAS TAKEN ISRAEL'S AMBASSADOR ABBA EBAN WAS LYING PROSTRATE IN A ROOM OUTSIDE THE SECURITY COUNCIL CHAMBER AT FLUSHING MEADOWS.
EBAN BITTERLY OPPOSED THE TERMS OF THE RESOLUTION, ESPECIALLY ITS REITERATION OF CRITICISM ABOUT ISRAEL'S BOMBING OF AN ARAB AREA EARLY IN APRIL. A SHORT TIME LATER HE COLLAPSED AND A PHYSICIAN WAS CALLED TO TREAT HIM.
THE DOCTOR SAID THE AMBASSADOR WAS SUFFERING FROM NERVOUS EXHAUSTION AND HIS CONDITION WAS NOT SERIOUS.
EBAN EMPHASIZED TO THE COUNCIL THAT ISRAEL HAD PREVIOUSLY EXPRESSED REGRETS OVER THE BOMBING AND INSISTED THAT THE RESOLUTION SHOULD NOT FIND HIS GOVERNMENT GUILTY OF VIOLATING THE ISRAEL-SYRIAN ARMISTICE AGREEMENT.
SPONSORS OF THE RESOLUTION, BRITAIN, FRANCE, TURKEY AND THE UNITED STATES, BROUGHT IN A REVISED VERSION WHICH WOULD HAVE NOTED ISRAEL'S REGRETS AND APOLOGY, BUT STILL HOLD THAT NATION AT FAULT.
EBAN SAID THE NEW VERSION WAS NO BETTER AND ISRAEL HAD TO "EXPRESS ITS PROFOUND RESENTMENT TO THIS INSULT TO OUR GALLANT DEAD

AND WOULD ATTACH NO MORAL VALUE OR CREDENCE TO THE RESOLUTION."
EARLIER IN THE MEETING EBAN CHARGED THAT THE RESOLUTION HARMED CHANCES FOR AN ISRAELI-SYRIAN SETTLEMENT AND ENCOURAGED ARAB COUNTRIES TO PLOT NEW MOVES AGAINST HIS NATION.
FARIS EL KHOURY, SYRIAN DELEGATE, DENIED THAT ARAB GOVERNMENTS WERE MOVING AGAINST ISRAEL. HE IN TURN ACCUSED ISRAEL OF NUMEROUS AGGRESSIONS AGAINST SYRIA.
THE U. S., BRITAIN, FRANCE AND TURKEY ASKED THE SECURITY COUNCIL WEDNESDAY TO ORDER A HALT TO THE SWAMP DRAINAGE PROJECT AND TO REQUIRE RETURN OF ARAB CIVILIANS REMOVED FROM THE DEMILITARIZED ZONE IN NORTHERN PALESTINE IN WHICH THE PROJECT IS LOCATED. SYRIA CONTENDS THAT DRAINAGE OF THE SWAMP REMOVES A NATURAL BUFFER BETWEEN THE TWO STATES.
AMERICAN DIPLOMATS IN IRAQ, SYRIA, JORDAN, EGYPT, LEBANON AND SAUDI ARABIA HAVE BEEN INSTRUCTED BY WASHINGTON TO URGE THOSE MIDDLE EAST NATIONS TO AVOID "PRECIPITATE ACTION" WHICH MIGHT PREJUDICE CONSIDERATION OF THE SYRIAN-ISRAELI DISPUTE IN THE COUNCIL.
STATE DEPARTMENT PRESS OFFICER MICHAEL J. MCDERMOTT, IN ANNOUNCING IN WASHINGTON THE DISPATCH OF THE INSTRUCTIONS, SAID THE NEW PLEA FOR MODERATION WAS SPURRED BY THE NEWS THAT IRAQ HAS SENT PLANES AND TROOPS TO REINFORCE SYRIA.
IN TEL AVIV, U.S. MAJ. GEN. WILLIAM E. RILEY, CHIEF OF STAFF OF THE U.N. PALESTINE TRUCE OBSERVERS, TALKED WITH ISRAELI FOREIGN MINISTER MOSHE SHARETT AND TOP ISRAELI MILITARY OFFICIALS. RILEY RETURNED THIS MORNING AFTER AN ABSENCE OF SEVERAL WEEKS WHILE CONVALESCING FROM AN ILLNESS IN THE UNITED STATES.

NEW YORK, MAY 18-(AP)-AN END TO RADIO FREE EUROPE'S BROADCASTS TO COMMUNIST CZECHOSLOVAKIA REPORTEDLY IS THE PRICE FOR ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT WILLIAM N. OATIS' FREEDOM.
THE REPORT CAME FROM ALEXANDER KENDRICK, COLUMBIA BROADCASTING SYSTEM CORRESPONDENT IN VIENNA.
KENDRICK DID NOT IDENTIFY THE SOURCE OF HIS REPORT BUT TERMED IT RELIABLE.
OATIS WAS ARRESTED APRIL 23 BY CZECH SECRET POLICE. THE CZECH FOREIGN MINISTRY SAID HE WAS CHARGED WITH ACTIVITIES HOSTILE TO THE STATE, GATHERING AND DISSEMINATING INFORMATION CONSIDERED SECRET BY CZECHOSLOVAKIA, AND SPREADING MALICIOUS INFORMATION REGARDING THE CZECH STATE THROUGH ILLEGAL NEWS ORGANS, FOR WHICH PURPOSE HE MISUSED CZECH CITIZENS.

GENERAL MANAGER FRANK J.STARZEL OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS SAID OATIS REPORTED ONLY LEGITIMATE NEWS, ADDING THE AP "HAS FULL CONFIDENCE IN HIS INTEGRITY AS A NEWSMAN AND KNOWS NO BASIS FOR THE ACTION AGAINST HIM."

THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID YESTERDAY THE CZECH GOVERNMENT SEEMED DETERMINED TO TRY OATIS. THE DEPARTMENT SAID THE CZECHS APPEARED TO TAKE THE POSITION THERE WOULD BE NO POSSIBILITY OF OBTAINING HIS RELEASE BEFORE TRIAL.

THE DEPARTMENT SAID IT HAD NO COMMENT TO MAKE TONIGHT ON KENDRICK'S REPORT.

MAY 19 1954

AMBASSADOR ELLIS E.BRIGGS DISCUSSED OATIS' DETENTION FOR NEARLY TWO HOURS YESTERDAY WITH CZECH FOREIGN MINISTER SIROKY IN PRAGUE. BRIGGS REPORTED SIROKY SAID OATIS IS "WELL."

THE CZECH GOVERNMENT HAS REFUSED REPEATEDLY TO LET OFFICIALS OF THE U. S. EMBASSY VISIT OATIS IN PRISON.

RADIO FREE EUROPE IS OPERATED BY A GROUP OF PRIVATE AMERICAN CITIZENS AND BEAMS ANTI-COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA IN THE CZECH LANGUAGE.

EDWARD R. MURROW, CBS NEWS COMMENTATOR, SAID OF OATIS' CASE ON HIS REGULAR PROGRAM TONIGHT:

"X X X ALEXANDER KENDRICK CABLES ME X X X THAT RELIABLE SOURCES IN VIENNA HAVE TOLD HIM THE PRICE THE CZECHOSLOVAKIAN GOVERNMENT IS DEMANDING FOR BILL OATIS, HEAD OF THE AP BUREAU IN PRAGUE, WHO HAS BEEN HELD IN JAIL FOR WEEKS, CHARGED WITH 'PROVIDING NEWS HARMFUL TO CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

(275) (WX) NEW YORK, MAY 18-(AP)-DEAN RUSK, ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE, SAID TONIGHT THAT NEW CHINESE COMMUNIST MAPS SHOW THAT A "GREEDY" SOVIET RUSSIA IS TAKING OVER MANCHURIA AND OTHER GREAT NORTHERN AREAS OF CHINA.

RUSK SAID THAT THE MAPS NOW BEING PUBLISHED ON THE CHINESE MAINLAND SHOW SINKIANG, INNER MONGOLIA, MANCHURIA AND AREA IN THE WEST AND SOUTHWEST AS DISTINCT FROM CHINA.

"THE TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY OF CHINA IS NOW AN IRONIC PHRASE," RUSK SAID IN A SPEECH [redacted] FOR THE CHINA INSTITUTE.

"THE MOVEMENT OF SOVIET FORCES INTO SINKIANG, THE REALITIES OF 'JOINT EXPLOITATION' OF THAT GREAT PROVINCE BY MOSCOW AND PEIPING, THE SEPARATION OF INNER MONGOLIA FROM THE BODY POLITIC OF CHINA, AND THE CONTINUED INROADS OF SOVIET POWER INTO MANCHURIA UNDER THE CLOAK OF THE KOREAN AGGRESSION MEAN IN FACT THAT CHINA IS LOSING ITS GREAT NORTHERN AREAS TO THE EUROPEAN EMPIRE WHICH HAS STRETCHED OUT ITS GREEDY HANDS FOR THEM FOR AT LEAST A CENTURY X X X.

"THE PEACE AND SECURITY OF CHINA ARE BEING SACRIFICED TO THE AMBITIONS OF THE COMMUNIST CONSPIRACY," HE ADDED.

RUSK'S CHARGES BROUGHT UP TO DATE A SIMILAR REPORT WHICH SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON MADE 16 MONTHS AGO. HE SAID THEN THAT THE PROCESS OF SOVIET PENETRATION WAS COMPLETE IN OUTER MONGOLIA, WAS NEARLY COMPLETE IN MANCHURIA, AND EXPRESSED BELIEF THAT "SOVIET AGENTS" WERE MAKING FAST PROGRESS IN INNER MONGOLIA AND SINKIANG.

RUSK DECLARED THAT "AS THE CHINESE PEOPLE MOVE TO ASSERT THEIR FREEDOM AND TO WORK OUT THEIR DESTINY IN ACCORDANCE WITH THEIR OWN HISTORICAL PURPOSES, THEY CAN COUNT UPON TREMENDOUS SUPPORT FROM FREE PEOPLES IN OTHER PARTS OF THE WORLD."

AMBASSADOR JOHN FOSTER DULLES, IN ANOTHER SPEECH, JOINED WITH RUSK IN PLEDGING THAT THE UNITED STATES IS FIRMLY DETERMINED NOT TO ACCEPT THE CHINESE COMMUNIST REGIME AS THE VOICE OF CHINA.

HE IS GOING ON TO WASHINGTON TO CONVEY THE THANKS OF THE KOREAN PEOPLE TO THOSE OF THE U.S. AND THE U.N. FOR THE HELP GIVEN THEM.

KIM SAID THAT RED CHINESE OFFENSIVES ALWAYS HIT THE REPUBLIC OF KOREA (ROK) TROOPS FIRST, NOT BECAUSE THE 250,000 ROK SOLDIERS DON'T FIGHT HARD BUT BECAUSE THE ENEMY KNOWS THEY ARE NOT AS WELL-EQUIPPED AS SOLDIERS IN THE U.N. (WX) NEW YORK,MAY 18-(AP)-SENATOR DOUGLAS (D-ILL), IN A BID TO UNITE THOSE FOR AND AGAINST GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S POLICIES, LAID DOWN TONIGHT A COMPROMISE PLAN TO FIGHT COMMUNISM IN ASIA.

IN A SPEECH PREPARED FOR THE 25TH ANNIVERSARY DINNER OF THE CHINA INSTITUTE IN AMERICA, HE PROPOSED:

1. "A JOINT BLOCKADE" OF COMMUNIST CHINA "BY AS MANY NATIONS AS POSSIBLE".
2. ALL POSSIBLE AID TO ANTI-COMMUNIST GUERRILLA FORCES INSIDE CHINA.
3. PERMISSION FOR CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S CHINESE NATIONALISTS TO MAKE COMMANDO-TYPE RAIDS "AT THEIR OWN RISK" AND "ENGAGE IN UNORTHODOX WARFARE UPON THE CHINESE MAINLAND".
4. COUNTER-PROPAGANDA EFFORTS TO ENCOURAGE DEMOCRACY AND RESISTANCE TO COMMUNISM INSIDE CHINA AND OTHER ASIATIC COUNTRIES.

MACARTHUR ADVOCATES A BLOCKADE AND FAVORS TAKING THE WRAPS OFF THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS FORCES ON FORMOSA. HE PROPOSES THE USE OF THE AMERICAN NAVY AND ARMY NON-COMBAT TECHNICIANS TO HELP CHIANG KAI-SHEK DOUGLAS SUGGESTED THAT AFTER CHANG'S FORCES ARE EQUIPPED BY THE UNITED STATES THEY OPERATE "WITHOUT A DIRECT USE OF AMERICAN TROOPS OR CONVOYS."

ANOTHER PROPOSAL BY GEN.MACARTHUR IS THAT U.N. FORCES BE ALLOWED TO CONDUCT AERIAL OPERATIONS AGAINST RED CHINESE BASES OUTSIDE KOREA.

"SOME FAIRLY DRASTIC STEPS ARE CURRENTLY BEING ADVOCATED BY GEN. MACARTHUR AND HIS SUPPORTERS," DOUGLAS TOLD THE INSTITUTE, AN ORGANIZATION DEVOTED TO PROMOTING FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND CHINA. DOUGLAS SAID HE DID NOT WANT TO DISCUSS THESE STEPS BECAUSE:

"X X X MY PURPOSE TONIGHT IS ONE OF ATTEMPTING TO INCREASE RATHER THAN TO DIMINISH UNITY.

"BUT I DO WISH TO SUGGEST CERTAIN MINIMUM STEPS UPON WHICH I WOULD EXPECT THOSE WHO SUPPORTED GENERAL MACARTHUR'S POLICIES WOULD MOST CERTAINLY FAVOR, BUT WHICH I HOPE WILL ALSO BE ENDORSED BY THE GROUPS WHICH NOW ARE EITHER OPPOSED TO OR INDIFFERENT ABOUT THEM.

"I BELIEVE X X X THAT IT IS PROPER TO DRAW THE CORDON AROUND CHINA SOMEWHAT TIGHTER AND TO TAKE THE COUNTER-OFFENSIVE IN SUCH A MANNER AS TO WEAKEN THE MILITARY POWER OF THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS WITHOUT LAUNCHING AN ALL-OUT WAR WITH CHINA ON THE MAINLAND OR PROVOKING RUSSIA TO ENTER THE WAR UNDER CONDITIONS WHICH WOULD BE DISADVANTAGEOUS TO US."

THE UNITED STATES SHOULD NOT, BE ASSERTED, STAND FOR ADMITTING RED CHINA TO THE UNITED NATIONS "UNLESS AND UNTIL THAT GOVERNMENT HAS GIVEN CLEAR AND PROLONGED EVIDENCE OF REPENTANCE FROM THEIR PRESENT POLICIES OF AGGRESSION AND SUPRESSION."

"IF NECESSARY, WE SHOULD BE PREPARED TO EXERCISE THE VETO," TO KEEP CHINA OUT OF THE U.N. DOUGLAS SAID. "FOR IT IS SURELY IMPROPER TO PLACE A GOVERNMENT WHOSE HANDS ARE BLOODY WITH AGGRESSION UPON A TRIBUNAL TO KEEP THE PEACE."

THE ILLINOISAN ALSO SAID WE SHOULD NOT ALLOW FORMOSA TO BE TAKEN OVER BY THE CHINESE REDS OR PERMIT COMMUNIST CHINA TO HAVE ANY PART IN DISCUSSION OF A JAPANESE PEACE TREATY.

PRESIDENT C.C.PEARSON SAID AT THE ANNUAL MEETING THAT NEW FIGURE IS AWAY UP FROM THE $1,915,000 BACKLOG AT THE START OF 1951 AND $287,000,000 REPORTED AT THE END OF FEBRUARY.
THE LATEST TOTAL INCLUDES ORDERS FOR THE U.S.AIRFORCE B57A, WHICH IS A NIGHT INTRUDER VERSION OF THE FAMED TWIN JET ENGLISH-ELECTRIC CANBERRA BOMBER. IT ALSO INCLUDES ORDERS FOR ADDITIONAL NAVY, AIRFORCE AND OTHER MILITARY PLANES.
GLENN L.MARTIN, CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD, ANNOUNCED THAT ALL OFFICERS WERE REELECTED AT THE MEETING. THE STOCKHOLDERS APPROVED A CHANGE IN THE BY-LAWS, WHICH FIXES THE ANNUAL MEETING AT THE THIRD FRIDAY IN MAY INSTEAD OF THE SECOND TUESDAY IN JUNE.
PEARSON TOLD STOCKHOLDERS THAT NET SALES IN THE FIRST QUARTER OF 1951 AMOUNTED TO $5,693,507, AGAINST $10,577,404 IN THE SAME PERIOD OF 1950.
IN THE FIRST QUARTER LAST YEAR, OPERATING NET INCOME WAS $642,682. THIS YEAR IT WAS $34,652, RESULTING IN A NET LOSS OF $5,832.
PEARSON POINTED OUT THE LOWER LEVELS OF RECORDED SALES AND INCOME REFLECTED THE FACT THAT CONTRACTS MOSTLY ARE FOR DELIVERIES LATER THIS YEAR AND IN 1952. SALES AND INCOME UNDER THIS CONTRACTS ARE NOT LISTED UNTIL AFTER DELIVERY.
THE IMPORTANCE OF THE PRESENT MARTIN BUILDUP WAS EMPHASIZED BY PEARSON IN POINTING OUT THAT INVENTORIES FOR SUBSEQUENT DELIVERY ROSE TO $51,000,000 ON MARCH 31. THIS COMPARED WITH $35,000,000 AT THE START OF THE YEAR AND LESS THAN $25,000,000 IN MARCH, 1950.
THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCED THAT EMPLOYMENT HAD GONE UP TO 15,800,000 WITH ABOUT 400 WORKERS BEING ADDED EACH WEEK. HE NOTED A SERIOUS SHORTAGE OF SKILLED WORKERS AND SAID THIS IS HAVING A DEFINITE EFFECT ON THE DEFENSE PROGRAM.

WHAT THESE TECHNICIANS OF THE NATIONAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE FOR AERONAUTICS (NACA) LEARN FROM THESE STUDIES IN THE REALM OF THE SCIENCE OF ULTRA HIGH SPEED FLIGHT CAN DETERMINE WHETHER THE UNITED STATES OR RUSSIA HOLDS MASTERY OF THE AIR IN THE YEARS AHEAD. AND IT CAN DECIDE THE WINNER IN THE CRUCIAL RACE FOR TRUE LONG-RANGE GUIDED MISSILES.
FROM THESE MODELS AND OTHERS PROBABLY WILL COME IN THE NEXT HALF-DECADE A WHOLE NEW FAMILY OF WARPLANES WHICH WILL MAKE TODAY'S FLEET JET FIGHTERS AND BOMBERS SEEM OLD AND CUMBERSOME.
THE ACTUAL, PILOTED, TACTICAL PLANES TO COME FIVE YEARS HENCE MAY NOT FLY AT 3,000 MILES AN HOUR ALTHOUGH THEY MAY ROAM THE HIGH ALTITUDES OF 30 MILES UP. THESE ARE SCALE MODELS--ONLY FIVE OR SIX FEET LONG--FROM WHICH THE NACA EXPERTS CREATE A RESERVOIR OF FUNDAMENTAL, BASIC INFORMATION NEEDED BY THE MEN WHO ACTUALLY DESIGN AND BUILD AIRPLANES.
BUT OUT OF THE FIRST DEMONSTRATION TO NEWSMEN OF THE RESEARCH WORK GOING ON AT THIS CAREFULLY GUARDED SPOT COMES A HINT OF WHAT TO-

MORROW'S AIR CRAFT MAY LOOK LIKE:
1. WINGS THAT ARE RAZOR-THIN FOR KNIFING INTO THE AIR AT SPEEDS AT OR ABOVE THAT OF SOUND (760 MILES AN HOUR AT SEA LEVEL).
2. FIGHTER AIRCRAFT WITH TRIANGULAR-FORMED WINGS INSTEAD OF THE SWEPT-BACK WINGS OF TODAY'S FIGHTERS. BOMBERS WITH SWEPT-BACK BUT FAR THINNER WINGS.
3. NEEDLE-LIKE FUSELAGE TO MATCH THE THIN WING.
4. GUIDED MISSILES DRIVEN BY AMAZINGLY EFFICIENT RAM-JET ENGINES WHICH OPERATE BEST AT SPEEDS WELL ABOVE 1,000 MILES AN HOUR--THE SPEEDS NEEDED FOR MISSILES.

HOW FAST CAN MAN FLY?

WELL, SAID ROBERT R.GILRUTH, CHIEF OF THE WALLOPS ISLAND PROJECT, HE CAN FLY AS FAST AS AN AIRCRAFT CAN GO--SUBJECT TO TWO FACTORS:

1. THE RATE AT WHICH HE ATTAINS THAT SPEED OR DROPS DOWN FROM IT --ACCELERATION AND DECELERATION. THE HUMAN BODY CAN'T STAND TOO RAPID CHANGES.
2. HEAT GENERATED FROM THE PASSAGE THROUGH THE AIR OF THE PLANE IN WHICH THE MAN IS RIDING.

A39WX

FROM EXPERIMENTS WITH MODELS THE SCIENTISTS FIND THAT A PLANE TRAVELING AT 3,000 MILES AN HOUR DEVELOPS A TEMPERATURE ON ITS SKIN OF 600 DEGREES FAHRENHEIT WHEN THAT SPEED IS REACHED FOR ONLY A SECOND OR TWO. IF SUSTAINED FOR MORE THAN THAT TIME THE TEMPERATURE WOULD SOAR TO OVER 1,000 DEGREES.

THIS HAS LED SCIENTISTS INTO A SEARCH FOR MEANS OF PREVENTING SUCH TEMPERATURES THROUGH BETTER, STILL MORE SLEEK SKIN FINISHES.

THE 30-MILE ALTITUDE, 3,000-MILE AN HOUR SPEED OF SOME MODELS USED IN TESTS HERE IS EXCEPTIONAL. MOST OF THEM FLY AT SPEEDS OF AROUND 1,200 MILES AN HOUR AND AT ALTITUDES OF FIVE OR SIX MILES.

THE TIME OF FLIGHT USUALLY IS LESS THAN TWO MINUTES--SOMETIMES ONLY HALF A MINUTE--BEFORE THE MODEL PLUNGES INTO THE ATLANTIC.

BUT IN THIS BRIEF INTERVAL THE SCIENTISTS GLEAN LITERALLY PAGES OF STATISTICS AND GRAPHS ON WHAT HAPPENS TO THE MODEL IN ITS BRIEF SPAN OF FLIGHT. THIS IS DONE BY "TELEMETERING," THE METHOD BY WHICH THE MODEL OR MISSILE AUTOMATICALLY RADIOS BACK INFORMATION ON WHAT IS OCCURRING IN FLIGHT.

TAMPA, FLA., MAY 18-(AP)-VICTORY IN KOREA WILL INSURE PEACE FOR THE ENTIRE WORLD, DR. YOU CHANG YANG, KOREAN AMBASSADOR TO THE UNITED STATES, DECLARED TONIGHT.

SPEAKING AT ARMED FORCES DAY CEREMONIES, DR. YANG TRACED COMMUNIST AGGRESSION IN HIS COUNTRY. HE SAID THE ENEMY FIRST TRIED EVERYTHING SHORT OF WAR TO CONFUSE AND DIVIDE KOREA BEFORE RESORTING TO ARMED FORCE.

"BUT THEN," HE SAID, "THE FREE WORLD STRUCK BACK, AND THIS NEW THREAT HAS BEEN MET. WE HAVE THWARTED THE COMMUNIST TIME TABLE. LET US STOP IT ALTOGETHER SO PEACE AND JUSTICE WILL REIGN IN THE WORLD."

DR. YANG TOLD OF INDESCRIBABLE DEVASTATION IN HIS COUNTRY, AND ASKED THE RHETORICAL QUESTION, "IS IT WORTH THE PRICE?"

"IT IS," HE SAID. "BETTER DEATH THAN THE SLOW DEATH OF SERFDOM AND DEGRADIATION. IT IS WORTH THE PRICE, AND ALL OUR DEAD AND YOUR DEAD WILL NOT HAVE DIED IN VAIN IF BY OUR UNITED EFFORTS WE BRING ABOUT A UNITED KOREA, AND LIFT THE THREAT OF AGGRESSION FROM THE FREE WORLD."

DR. YANG SAID HE WOULD RATHER DESCRIBE CONDITIONS IN THE WORDS OF LIEUT.GEN.MATTHEW B.RIDGWAY, SUPREME ALLIED FAR EAST COMMANDER, CONTAINED IN A LETTER WRITTEN IN KOREA TO HIS CHURCH.

THE LETTER SAID:

"WOULD GOD THE AMERICAN PEOPLE MIGHT SEE A FULL LENGTH MOVIE OF CURRENT EVENTS HERE IN THEIR TRUE SETTING. IT WOULD, I THINK, MAKE CRYSTAL CLEAR THE ISSUES FOR WHICH THEIR SONS FIGHT AND ARE CONTENT TO FIGHT. YET AMERICAN SEEMS NOT TO KNOW.

"HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF POOR PEOPLE, THE OLD, INFIRM, INFANTS, THE SICK, FLEEING NIGHT AND DAY ACROSS COUNTRY, OVER THE ICE OF FROZEN STREAMS, INTEMPERATURE AT ZERO, NO SHELTER AT NIGHT BUT THAT OBTAINED FROM HUDDLING TOGETHER AND FROM SUCH OF THEIR BELONGINGS AS ARE ON THEIR BACKS OR SMALL TWO-WHEELED CARTS, DRIVEN TO ALL THIS BY ONE SEEMINGLY OVERPOWERING FEAR, THE FEAR OF GOVERNMENT BY COMMUNISTS.

"IS NOT THE ISSUE TRULY WHETHER SOME DAY OUR WOMEN, OUR BABIES, OUR SICK AND OUR AGED ARE TO BE DRIVEN FORTH BY ASIATIC MASTERS, OR NOW WHILE YET THERE'S TIME, THIS AMERICA AND OUR ALLIES MAY EXTINGUISH ALL PETTY ISSUES AND UNITE WITH ALL THEY HAVE TO DESTROY THE GREATEST PERIL WE HAVE EVER KNOWN."

ANOTHER SPEAKER, SEN.LONG (D-LA), TOLD THE KOREAN AMBASSADOR, "WE ARE ESPECIALLY HONORED TO HAVE YOU WITH US.

"WE KNOW THAT ALREADY YOUR SMALL NATION HAS LOST THREE TIMES AS MANY SOLDIERS KILLED AS OUR FORCES, AND WE ARE AWARE OF THE AWFUL LOSS OF LIFE AND PROPERTY X X X

"YOUR NATION HAS EARNED THE RIGHT TO FREEDOM. I SAY THAT WE WILL STAY BY YOUR SIDE AS COMRADES IN ARMS UNTIL KOREA IS FREE AGAIN."

V260) NIGHT LEAD BEN-GURION

CHICAGO, MAY 18-(AP)-DAVID GEN-GURION, ISRAEL'S FIRST PRIME MINISTER, SAID TODAY HIS NATION CAN NOW DEFEND ITSELF SUCCESSFULLY AGAINST THE ENTIRE COALITION OF ARAB COUNTRIES "WITHOUT OUTSIDE HELP."

BEN-GURION MADE THE STATEMENT AT A NEWS CONFERENCE IN ANSWER TO QUESTIONS ABOUT THE CURRENT HULEH SWAMP DRAINAGE PROJECT WHICH IS ALLEGEDLY CONFLICTING WITH PROPERTY RIGHTS OF ARABS.

THE DISPUTE INVOLVES SEVEN ACRES OF LAND OWNED BY ARABS IN THE DEMILITARIZED ZONE BETWEEN SYRIA AND ISRAEL.

"WE WON'T NEED OUTSIDE HELP IF THEY START ANYTHING THIS TIME," BEN-GURION SAID. "AND THAT INCLUDES THE COUNTRIES OF EGYPT AND IRAQ."

HE SAID THAT ISRAEL IS MUCH BETTER EQUIPPED TO FIGHT A WAR NOW THAT IT WAS IN THE PREVIOUS ARAB-ISRAELI CONFLICT.

THE MEETING WITH REPORTERS TOOK PLACE AFTER AN "ISRAEL INDEPENDENCE DAY" PARADE WELCOMING THE JEWISH STATESMAN TO CHICAGO. HE WILL REMAIN IN THE CITY FOR THREE DAYS DURING WHICH TIME HE WILL CONFER WITH CHICAGOANS CONCERNING ISRAEL'S $500,000,000 BOND SELLING CAMPAIGN.

BEN-GURION SAID THE MONEY WOULD BE USED TO FINANCE A FOUR YEAR PLAN FOR ISRAEL. THE PLAN HAS HAD TWO MAIN POINTS -- AN INCREASE TO 4,000,-000 (M) POPULATION AND ECONOMIC SECURITY.

THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT IN 1950 ESTIMATED ITS POPULATION AT 1,250,000.

BY ECONOMIC SECURITY, BEN GURION SAID, HE MEANS "WE WOULD PRODUCE ALL OUR OWN FOOD AND INCREASE OUR INDUSTRY TO THE EXTENT THAT WE WOULD BE SELF-SUPPORTING."

HE ESTIMATED HIS COUNTRY WOULD HAVE TO BUILD 250,000 HOME UNITS FOR THE EXPECTED IMMIGRATION.

BEN-GURION TOLD REPORTERS THAT ISRAELI HOLDS TO THE PRINCIPLE OF FREEDOM OF WORSHIP FOR ITS CITIZENS.

"WE CELEBRATE OUR SABATH ON SATURDAY, THE MOSLEMS ON FRIDAY AND THE CHRISTIANS ON SUNDAY," HE SAID.

CHICAGO, MAY 18-(AP)-THE AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR STEPPED INTO THE DEBATE ON FOREIGN POLICY TODAY.

THE AFL'S EXECUTIVE COUNCIL ISSUED A STATEMENT THAT BORE SOME RESEMBLANCE TO GENERAL MACARTHUR'S VIEWS ON ONE POINT AND PARALLELED THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION'S ATTITUDE ON ANOTHER.

THE GENERAL HAS ADVOCATED USE OF CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS. THE AFL FAVORED "MAKING THEM AVAILABLE," AND PUT IT THIS WAY:

"THE RECENTLY APPOINTED U.S. MILITARY MISSION SHOULD GIVE PRIORITY TO RETRAINING AND RE-EQUIPPING THESE TROOPS WITH THE OBJECT OF MAKING THEM AVAILABLE TO THE SUPREME COMMANDER OF THE U.N. AS MILITARY REQUIREMENT NECESSITATE."

THE STATEMENT SAID THE U.S. "SHOULD NOT COMMIT ITSELF TO A WAR ON THE CONTINENT OF ASIA." THIS SEEMED TO JIBE WITH THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION'S POLICY AGAINST ENLARGING THE FIGHTING AREA IN ASIA.

THE DECLARATION ALSO SUGGESTED THAT:

OTHER MEMBERS OF THE UNITED NATIONS PROVIDE "GREATER CONTRIBUTIONS AND MORE ACTIVE PARTICIPATION" IN THE KOREAN WAR.

AN ARMS EMBARGO AND RIGID ECONOMIC SANCTIONS BE APPLIED AGAINST COMMUNIST CHINA. (THE U.N. GENERAL ASSEMBLY TODAY APPROVED A GLOBAL EMBARGO AGAINST SHIPMENTS OF ARMS AND WAR MATERIALS TO RED CHINA)

"THE PRESENT OBJECTIVE OF THE UNITED NATIONS IN THE KOREAN CONFLICT SHOULD BE TO HALT AND DEFEAT THIS SOVIET AGGRESSION AND TO RESTORE THE TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY AND SOVEREIGNTY OF THE REPUBLIC OF KOREA."

THE U.S. SHOULD CONTINUE TO GIVE MILITARY AID TO THE CHINESE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT ON FORMOSA, AND ECONOMIC HELP TO FORMOSA, TO KEEP THE COMMUNISTS FROM SEIZING THE ISLAND.

COMMUNIST CHINA SHOULD BE KEPT OUT OF THE U.N.

OMAHA, MAY 17-(AP)-M/SGT ERNEST KOUMA OF DWIGHT, NEB., LEFT OMAHA BY PLANE TONIGHT FOR WASHINGTON WHERE HE WILL BE AWARDED THE CONGRESSIONAL MEDAL OF HONOR BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN SATURDAY.

KOUMA IS THE ONLY LIVING WINNER OF THE CONGRESSIONAL MEDAL AS THE RESULT OF FIGHTING IN KOREA.

HE WAS CITED FOR A 9-HOUR FIGHT IN WHICH THE TANK HE COMMANDED WAS THE SOLE BARRIER PROTECTING RETREATING INFANTRYMEN, WHEN 500 KOREAN REDS OVERRAN AN ADVANCE SECTION OF THE SECOND DIVISION FRONT. HE WAS TWICE WOUNDED IN THE FIGHT AND AFTERWARD FOUGHT THROUGH EIGHT MILES OF ENEMY TERRITORY TO HIS OWN LINES. KOUMA ESTIMATED THAT HE AND HIS CREW KILLED 250 REDS IN THE RETREAT.

MEDAL OF HONOR

MAY 19 1951

WASHINGTON,MAY 18-(AP)-THE MEDAL OF HONOR WILL BE GIVEN TOMORROW TO FIRST LT.CARL H.DODD FOR "SUPURB LEADERSHIP AND EXTRAORDINARY HEROISM" IN KOREA.

DODD, PLATOON LEADER OF COMPANY E, 5TH INFANTRY REGIMENT, IS FROM KENVIR, KY. HE ALREADY HAD WON A BATTLEFIELD COMMISSION FOR HIS EXPLOITS.

DODD WILL RECEIVE THE NATION'S HIGHEST MILITARY AWARD FROM PRESIDENT TRUMAN AT A WHITE HOUSE CEREMONY DURING WHICH TWO OTHER ARMY MEN WILL BE GIVEN THE MEDAL OF HONOR. THEY ARE SGT.JOHN A.PITTMAN OF TALLULA, MISS., AND MASTER SGT. ERNEST R.KOUMA OF DWIGHT, NEB. THEY WILL GET THE 11TH, 12TH AND 13TH MEDALS OF HONOR OF THE KOREAN WAR.

DODD WAS CITED FOR "CONSPICIOUS GALLANTRY AND INTREPIDITY" IN ACTION ON JAN. 30 AND 31. WHEN HIS MEN FALTERED UNDER INTENSE ENEMY FIRE HE CHARGED ALONE UP A STEEP HILL AND WIPED OUT A MACHINE GUN NEST. INSPIRED BY THEIR LEADER'S COURAGE, HIS MEN FIXED BAYONETS AND WIPED OUT ONE RED POSITION AFTER ANOTHER.

THIS CHARGE ADVANCED DODD'S PLATOON PART WAY UP AN ENEMY HELD HILL. HE KEPT HIS MEN ON THE STEEP SLOPE ALL NIGHT AND AT DAWN RESUMED THE ADVANCE, AGAIN MOVING WELL AHEAD OF HIS UNIT.

THE OFFICIAL CITATION SAID THAT "WITH BAYONETS AND GRENADES, HE CONTINUED TO SET THE PACE WITHOUT REGARD FOR THE DANGER TO HIS OWN LIFE, UNTIL HE AND HIS TROOPS HAD ELIMINATED THE LAST OF THE DEFENDERS AND HAD SECURED THE FINAL OBJECTIVE."

ONE OF DODD'S MEN, SGT. STANLEY JAMES, 2828 NIHI STREET, HONOLULU, SAID THE LIEUTENANT "ALWAYS TOLD US TO HAVE OUR BAYONETS FIXED BECAUSE THE BASTARDS WERE STUBBORN AND WE WOULD PROBABLY HAVE TO DRIVE THEM FROM THE POSITION."

DODD LEFT HAWAII WITH THE 5TH REGIMENT LAST SUMMER AS AN ENLISTED MAN. HE WON A BATTLEFIELD COMMISSION AS A SECOND LIEUTENANT ON OCT. 24 AND A SILVER STAR FOR GALLANTRY IN ACTION. EARLY THIS YEAR HE WAS PROMOTED TO FIRS LIEUTENANT.

AND A SILVER STAR FOR GALLANTRY IN ACTION.EARLY THIS YEAR HE WAS PROMOTED TO FIRS LIEUTENANT.

PITTMAN GETS THE NATION'S HIGHEST AWARD FOR BRAVERY FOR THROWING HIMSELF ON AN ENEMY GRENADE ABOUT TO BURST AMONG HIS MEN WHILE HE WAS LEADING AN ATTACK NEAR KUJANG-DONG IN KOREA NOV. 26. HE HAD ALREADY BEEN WOUNDED BY MORTAR FIRE BUT PRESSED THE ATTACK UNDER BITTER ENEMY FIRE. HE WAS RECENTLY RELEASED FROM HOSPITAL.

KOUMA'S MEDAL OF HONOR IS THE RESULT OF A NINE-HOUR BATTLE IN WHICH A TANK HE COMMANDED WAS THE SOLE SCREEN FOR RETREATING INFANTRY. HE REPEATEDLY EXPOSED HIMSELF TO FIRE TO MAN THE TANK'S GUNS. AFTER STANDING OFF THE ENEMY FOR NINE HOURS HE FOUGHT HIS TANK THROUGH EIGHT MILES OF RED-OVERRUN TERRITORY TO HIS OWN LINES. HE WAS TWICE WOUNDED.

DODD WAS BORN AT EVARTS, KY., APRIL 21, 1925. HE ENTERED THE ARMY IN 1943. HIS PARENTS, MR. AND MRS. EDD (CQ) DODD, LIVE AT KENVIR, KY.

SEATTLE, MAY 18-(AP)-THE ARMY'S CHIEF OF STAFF, GEN.J.LAWTON COLLINS, SAID TODAY IT IS "JUST A QUESTION OF TIME UNTIL WE HAVE SHELLS WITH AROM WARHEADS."

BUT THE 55-YEAR-OLD FOUR-STAR GENERAL TOLD A PRESS CONFERENCE, ATOMIC WEAPONS FOR GROUND FORCE USE HAVE NOT YET DEVELOPED TO THE POINT WHERE "WE WOULD WANT TO USE THEM CLOSE TO OUR TROOPS."

KOREA HAS NO SUITABLE TARGETS FOR ATOMIC BOMBING, COLLINS SAID.

THE CHIEF OF STAFF EXPRESSED CONFIDENCE UNITED NATIONS FORCES WILL BE ABLE TO HALT THE LATEST CHINESE COMMUNIST OFFENSIVE.

"CHINESE HOSPITALS ARE FILLED ALL THE WAY BACK TO PEIPING," SAID THE 55-YEAR-OLD, FOUR-STAR GENERAL. "AND EVEN THE CHINESE ARE GOING TO GET TIRED OF THAT."

BUT UNTIL THE REDS BECOME DISCOURAGED BY HEAVY LOSSES, THE KOREAN WAR WILL CONTINUE "TO BE A MATTER OF U.N. TROOPS WEARING DOWN THE ENEMY," COLLINS SAID.

NIGHT LEAD BRADLEY

LOS ANGELES, MAY 18-(AP)-THE SECURITY OF THE UNITED STATES FOR THE NEXT 10 YEARS, GEN. OMAR N. BRADLEY SAID TODAY, DEPENDS ON CONTINUED INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION AND A BALANCED BUILDUP OF AIR, SEA AND GROUND FORCES.

"WE MUST NOT LOOK FOR A QUICK SOLUTION WHICH MIGHT PROVIDE SECURITY FOR THE UNITED STATES RIGHT NOW, BUT WHICH WOULD NOT PROVIDE SECURITY FOR US IN THE NEXT 10 YEARS, OR THE NEXT 50 YEARS," SAID THE CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF.

"THE UNITED STATES MUST INVEST IN LONG RANGE SECURITY AT THE SAME TIME IT PROVIDES IMMEDIATE PREPAREDNESS."

GEN. BRADLEY ADDRESSED AN OVERFLOW CROWD OF 1,200 CIVIC, MILITARY AND BUSINESS LEADERS AT A LUNCHEON CELEBRATING THE SECOND ANNIVERSARY OF ARMED FORCES WEEK AND THE 25TH ANNUAL WORLD TRADE WEEK.

"LET US NEVER UNDERESTIMATE THE IMPORTANCE OF OUR FRIENDS IN THE STRUGGLE AGAINST AGGRESSION," THE MISSOURI GENERAL WARNED. "FOR DESPITE THE MISUNDERSTANDINGS AND MINOR CONFLICTS WHICH MAY ARISE, FREE NATIONS OF THE WORLD ARE UNITED IN A SINGLE AND MOST IMPORTANT PURPOSE---THE PRESERVATION OF FREEDOM IN A THREATENED WORLD."

HE URGED THAT AMERICANS "NOT BECOME FRUSTRATED AND DISCOURAGED AND WITHDRAW FROM INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION" BECAUSE OUR ALLIES SOMETIMES ARE HESITANT.

HE ALSO HIT AT BACKERS OF TOTAL RELIANCE ON SEA AND AIR POWER.

"THE FALLACY OF SUCH A CONCEPT IS THAT IT ABANDONS OUR FRIENDS TO BEING OVERRUN ON THE GROUND," HE SAID. "AS GOOD AS THE EASY PRINCIPLE MAY SOUND OT US, IT RINGS TERRIBLY COUNTERFEIT TO ANY FREE MAN IN EUROPE."

THE GENERAL SAID THAT INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION TOWARD MUTUAL SECURITY THROUGH A COLLECTIVE DEFENSE, AND A STRATEGY THAT INCLUDES WELL-BALANCED FORCES OF OUR OWN, IS THE ONLY REALISTIC AND ADEQUATE COURSE FOR OUR MOBILIZATION TO TAKE.

A44KX

HE SAID A PROGRAM OF UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING AND SERVICE AIMED AT AN ALL-OVER FORCE OF 3,500,000 (M) MEN IS ADEQUATE. HE SAID THIS WILL COST $60,000,000,000 (B) TO BUILD AND MAINTAIN THE FIRST YEAR, AND $35,000,000,000 (B) ANNUALLY AFTER THAT.

"THIS DECADE IS A DANGEROUS ONE," THE GENERAL DECLARED. "IT CAN BE MADE LESS RISKY ONLY IF WE PROPERLY TRAIN OUR MEN."

THE GENERAL ALSO ASSERTED:

"FINALLY IN MOBILIZATION OF A NATION FOR SECURITY, THERE IS THE ULTIMATE FACTOR OF THE MORAL DETERMINATION OF THE PEOPLE. THERE WILL ALWAYS BE SOME WHO DOUBT THAT IT'S REALLY THE TIME TO ACT. ON THIS MATTER OF AN ADEQUATE PROGRAM FOR TRAINING AMERICANS FOR DEFENSE, AND THE STEP BY STEP MOBILIZATION OF OUR INDUSTRY TO PROVIDE THE WEAPONS THEY WILL NEED, THE TIME TO ACT IS NOW."

BRADLEY PAID TRIBUTE TO THE UNITED NATIONS FORCES IN KOREA. "THEY HAVE DONE A MAGNIFICENT JOB AND HAVE EXHIBITED A COOPERATIVE SPIRIT THAT IS MORE EFFECTIVE THAN ANYONE COULD HAVE PREVIOUSLY IMAGINED," HE SAID.

HE MADE NO REFERENCE TO THE LATEST COMMUNIST ATTACK. YESTERDAY HE TOLD REPORTERS THAT HE WAS CONFIDENT ALLIED FORCES COULD HOLD IN KOREA, BUT "MIGHT HAVE TO ROLL WITH THE PUNCH."

GEN.BRADLEY DEPARTED FROM HIS PREPARED TEXT TO PAY SPECIAL TRIBUTE TO FIVE LOCAL MEN, ALL WINNERS OF THE CONGRESSIONAL MEDAL OF HONOR WHO WERE SPECIAL GUESTS AT THE LUNCHEON.

SECOND NIGHT LEAD KOREAN WAR ROUNDUP
BY DON HUTH

TOKYO,SUNDAY,MAY 20-(AP)-ALLIED TROOPS HURLED BACK CHINESE RED ATTACKS TODAY 18 TO 25 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL IN A BATTLE OF HAND GRENADES AND BAYONETS.

IN EAST CENTRAL KOREA, OTHER ALLIED FORCES APPEARED TO HAVE PLUGGED A BIG HOLE RIPPED IN THE LINE AT THE OUTSET OF THE FIVE-DAY-OLD COMMUNIST OFFENSIVE.

TO THE WEST, NORTH KOREAN TROOPS SATURDAY WERE CUT DOWN ON THE OUTSKIRTS OF SEOUL IN A SUICIDAL CHARGE.

THE COMMUNIST DRIVE BY SPEARHEADS OF 768,000 MEN APPEARED TO BE SPUTTERING, AT LEAST FOR THE MOMENT. THE ENEMY COST IN BLOOD, PAID FOR MINOR GAINS, HAS BEEN TREMENDOUS.

THE REDS LAST NIGHT AND EARLY TODAY TRIED TO STRIKE SOUTH DOWN THE PUKHAN RIVER VALLEY IN A FLANKING MOVE AGAINST SEOUL. BUT THE BULK OF SIX ENEMY ATTACKS WERE BEATEN BACK, SOME IN HAND TO HAND FIGHTING.

U.S.TROOPS COUNTERATTACKED ONE CHINESE BATTALION OF FROM 800 TO 1,000 MEN AND CUT IT TO PIECES WITH BAYONETS.

IN ONE AREA, SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS WERE FORCED TO MAKE A LIMITED WITHDRAWAL UNDER ATTACK OF THREE RED REGIMENTS.

OVER IN THE RUGGED EAST-CENTRAL SECTOR, WHERE THE U.S.SECOND DIVISION HAD STOOD OFF 96,000 REDS, THE REDS NO LONGER WERE EXPLOITING A BREAKTHROUGH ON THE DIVISION'S RIGHT FLANK.

"THE SITUATION ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT IS IMPROVING," AN EIGHTH ARMY SPOKESMAN TOLD AP CORRESPONDENT NATE POLOWETZKY.

BUT HE ADDED: "THAT IS THE DAMNDEST COUNTRY IN KOREA AND YOU CAN'T TELL WHAT MIGHT HAPPEN."

FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE THE RED OFFENSIVE BEGAN WEDNESDAY NIGHT, ALLIED REPORTS FROM THE EAST-CENTRAL AREA NO LONGER TOLD OF COMMUNIST MASSES MOVING FREELY THROUGH A GAP IN SOUTH KOREAN LINES.

AT U.S.EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, AP CORRESPONDENT STAN CARTER SAID:

"THE COMMUNISTS ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT LAUNCHED SOME ATTACKS FROM PLATOON TO BATTALION SIZE ON THE SECOND DIVISION'S RIGHT FLANK BUT HAD LITTLE SUCCESS.

"IT APPEARED THAT AMERICAN AND SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS HAD RETAKEN THE TOWN OF PUNGAM."

THIS WAS THE FIRST WORD THAT THE RED PENETRATION HAD EXTENDED TO PUNGAM, 20 MILES SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL AND ABOUT 70 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

IN THIS EAST-CENTRAL AREA, 16 B-29S TEAMED UP LAST NIGHT WITH 20 LIGHT BOMBERS IN THE HEAVIEST NIGHT ATTACK OF THE WAR ON COMMUNIST TROOP CONCENTRATIONS--200 TONS OF FRAGMENTATION BOMBS.

NEW RADAR TECHNIQUES ENABLED THE B-29S, ORDINARILY USED ON MISSIONS FAR BEYOND THE FRONT LINES, TO AFFORD COMBAT SUPPORT.

OTHER PLANES STRUCK HARD AT COMMUNIST SUPPLY TRAINS. U.S. FIFTH AIR FORCE PILOTS LAST NIGHT SPOTTED 14 TRAINS AND DAMAGED 11. IN ONE STRIKE, MARINE FLIERS ATTACHED TO THE FIFTH AIR FORCE, DESTROYED 33 RAIL CARS.

ON THE EAST COAST, NAVY CARRIER-BASED PLANES BLEW UP TWO TRAINS, ONE CARRYING GASOLINE, THE OTHER AMMUNITION. PILOTS SAID THE AMMUNITION TRAIN BLAST WAS SO TERRIFIC THAT HUNKS THE SIZE OF AUTOMOBILES WERE TOSSED SKYWARD.

NORTH OF SEOUL, THE REDS APPARENTLY PULLED BACK AFTER THE SUICIDAL ASSAULTS WERE SHATTERED AT THE OUTSKIRTS.

IN AT LEAST TWO PLACES, AMERICAN TANK TEAMS STABBED OUT NORTHWARD TO DETERMINE THE ENEMY INTENTIONS. ONE FOUND THE ROAD EMPTY AS FAR AS 11 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL; THE OTHER BUMPED INTO A FANATIC CHINESE INFANTRY ATTACK NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

OFFICERS OF THE U.S. SECOND DIVISION, WHICH WEATHERED THE FURIOUS STORM ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT, ESTIMATED CHINESE CASUALTIES TOTALLING 35,000 OR MORE IN THAT NARROW SECTOR ALONE SINCE THE GREAT RED PUSH BEGAN WEDNESDAY. IT WAS THE MOST CONCENTRATED SINGLE ASSAULT OF THE ENTIRE KOREAN WAR, WITH 96,000 CHINESE ALMOST BUT NOT QUITE SUCCEEDING IN OVERRUNNING A SINGLE U.S. DIVISION.

FOUR BATTALIONS OF NORTH KOREANS (POSSIBLY 2,400 TO 4,000 MEN) SLAMMED AGAINST SEOUL'S OUTER DEFENSES IN BROAD DAYLIGHT SATURDAY. THEY WERE REPULSED WITH TREMENDOUS SLAUGHTER AFTER CHARGING INTO ALLIED MINE FIELDS AND BARBED WIRE.

ALLIED DEFENSES STOOD FAST IN THE CENTRAL FRONT "ANCHOR" AGAINST STEADY RED PRESSURE. THUNDERING AIR AND ARTILLERY ATTACKS HELD THE REDS AT BAY.

FIELD DISPATCHES SAID THE WHOLE 100-MILE WIDE KOREAN FRONT QUIETED SOMEWHAT SATURDAY AFTERNOON WHILE THE COMMUNISTS REGROUPED THEIR SHATTERED LEGIONS.

ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT AP CORRESPONDENT WILLIAM C. BARNARD SAID THE U.S. SECOND DIVISION AND TWO SOUTH KOREAN DIVISIONS HAD BEEN HIT BY 125,000 CHINESE SHOCK TROOPS BEGINNING WEDNESDAY.

AS THE OFFENSIVE GATHERED MOMENTUM, THE TWO SOUTH KOREAN DIVISIONS WERE QUICKLY ROUTED. WITH ITS EAST FLANK THUS EXPOSED, THE SECOND DIVISION WAS HIT BY AN ESTIMATED 96,000 REDS.

THREE BATTALIONS AND TWO COMPANIES OF THE SECOND DIVISION, 3,200 OR MORE MEN, INCLUDING FRENCH AND DUTCH UNITS, WERE ENGULFED WHEN THE SOUTH KOREANS GAVE WAY. BUT THE TRAPPED FORCE BROKE OUT AND REJOINED THE DIVISION.

MAY 20 1951

A199KX

THE SECOND, COMMANDED BY MAJ. GEN. CLARK J. RUFFNER, HELD NEW DEFENSES NORTH OF HONGCHON SATURDAY.

OFFICIAL FRONTLINE REPORTS SAID 12,000 CHINESE WERE KILLED TRYING TO WEDGE THROUGH THE ALLIED EAST-CENTRAL LINES.

VARIOUS OFFICER ESTIMATES INDICATED THE REDS MAY HAVE SUFFERED AT LEAST 35,000 CASUALTIES--KILLED AND WOUNDED--FROM GROUND AND AIR ACTION ON THIS FRONT.

COL. JOHN G. COUGHLIN OF SANTA FE. N.MEX, THE REGIMENTAL COMMANDER WHO LED HIS MEN OUT OF THE ENEMY TRAP SAID, "THEY WANTED REVENGE FOR THE DEFEAT WE HANDED THEM AT CHIPYONG AND WONJU WHEN WE SMASHED THEIR OFFENSIVE LAST WINTER."

HE DISCLOSED THAT A CAPTURED CHINESE HAD COMPLETE MAPS OF THE SECOND DIVISION POSITIONS AT THE TIME THE DRIVE STARTED.

COUGHLIN LED HIS MEN TO A LINKUP WITH THE REST OF THE DIVISION AFTER THREE DAYS AND NIGHTS OF FIGHTING AT CLOSE QUARTERS.

"IF THE UNIT ON OUR EAST FLANK (THE SOUTH KOREANS) HAD NOT COLLAPSED WE WOULD HAVE PILED SO MANY CHINKS ON THE MINEFIELDS TO OUR FRONT THAT OUR OWN TROOPS WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN ABLE TO CLIMB OVER THE HILLS OF BODIES," HE DECLARED.

CENSORSHIP DID NOT DISCLOSE HOW FAR NORTH OF HONGCHON THE NEW DEFENSES WERE. HONGCHON, 55 MILES EAST-NORTHEAST OF SEOUL, IS THE GATEWAY TO ROAD NETWORKS LEADING INTO THE HEART OF SOUTH KOREA.

IN THE SEOUL SECTOR, THE NORTHKOREANS WERE MASSACRED IN AN ATTEMPT TO CRACK PERIMETER DEFENSES FROM THE NORTHWEST. THEY TRIED VAINLY TO SEIZE A JAGGED RIDGE RUNNING DUE SOUTH ALMOST TO THE KOREAN CAPITOL BUILDING.

AP CORRESPONDENT JOHN RANDOLPH REPORTED 80 DAZED PRISONERS SAID THEY HAD BEEN TOLD BY THEIR COMMANDERS THAT U.N. TROOPS HAD ABANDONED

SEOUL. THE REDS THOUGHT ALL THEY HAD TO DO WAS PUSH THROUGH SCREENING FORCES INTO A DESERTED CITY.

WITHERING FIRE FROM MACHINEGUNS, MORTARS, ARTILLERY AND THE AIR CHEWED THEM TO BITS AS THEY TRIED TO SCRAMBLE THROUGH BARBED WIRE DEFENSES. EARLIER A SMALL BLACK-UNIFORMED NORTH KOREAN FORCE TRIED A PRE-DAWN FEELER SNEAK BUT WAS WIPED OUT WHEN CAUGHT IN THE WIRE.

AN ARMORED U.S. PATROL STABBED NORTHWARD ALONG THE MAIN NORTH ROAD FROM SEOUL TO ABANDONED UIJONGBU, 11 MILES ABOVE THE CAPITAL, AND RETURNED WITHOUT DRAWING FIRE. CHINESE FORCES OCCUPIED THE BATTERED TOWN FRIDAY BUT APPARENTLY HAD PULLED BACK INTO THE HILLS.

ANOTHER U.N. ARMORED PATROL MET A HOT RECEPTION NORTHEAST OF SEOUL AS IT STABBED EIGHT MILES NORTHWARD ON THE WEST-CENTRAL FRONT ABOVE KUMGONG.

KUMGONG IS 12 MILES EAST OF SEOUL.

A200KX

SWARMS OF CHINESE JUMPED ON THE TANKS IN A DEFILE. TANKERS FIRED DELIBERATELY AT ONE ANOTHER'S TANKS TO BRUSH OFF THE REDS LIKE ANTS.

A TANK LEADER ON THAT FORAY TOLD AP CORRESPONDENT GEORGE A. MCARTHUR "SOME OF THE CHINESE BLEW THEMSELVES TO BITS WITH SATCHEL CHARGES AND POLE CHARGES WHILE TRYING TO GET THE TANKS. THEY THREW EVERYTHING THEY HAD AT US."

ANOTHER TANK DRIVER WHO WENT ON THE FORAY SAID THAT HIS TANK WAS "PLASTERED" WITH THE FLESH OF ENEMY DEAD.

AT LEAST ONE U.S. TANK WAS KNOCKED OUT BY BANGALORE TORPEDOES WHICH BLASTED ITS TREAD. THE CREW WAS RESCUED BY ANOTHER TANK.

AN AMERICAN OFFICER TOLD CORRESPONDENT MACARTHUR THE FIRM CENTRAL FRONT HAD BEEN A "SHEET ANCHOR" FOR THE DEFENDERS WITHDRAWING IN THE EAST UNDER COMMUNIST BLOWS.

COMMUNIST PRESSURE LESSENED SOUTH AND SOUTHEAST OF CHUNCHON, 45 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

BATTLEFRONT SOURCES SAID, "IF ALL REPORTS ARE CORRECT THE REDS MAY TAKE A BREATHER TONIGHT (SATURDAY."

ALTHOUGH THEIR CASUALTIES HAVE BEEN EXTREMELY HEAVY, THE CHINESE WERE BELIEVED TO HAVE PUSHED 50,000 TROOPS SOUTHWARD ON THE EAST CENTRAL FRONT.

A SOUTH KOREAN UNIT WAS SURROUNDED ON A RIDGE NEAR THE HONGCHON RESERVOIR BUT FOUGHT OUT. NAVY CORSAIRS AND SKYRAIDERS BLASTED OPEN A PATH FOR THE SOUTH KOREANS.

PACK ANIMALS LOADED WITH SUPPLIES AND WHITE CLOTHED COMMUNISTS FLOODED SOUTHWARD ACROSS THE HONGCHON. THEY TOOK UP POSITIONS IN FRONT OF AMERICAN AND SOUTH KOREAN LINES.

THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT BEGAN TO QUIET AFTER 3,000 CHINESE HURLED A HEAVY ATTACK IN THE PUNGAM AREA ALONG THE INJE-HONCHON ROAD. EAST AND WEST OF HANGYE.

DOUGHBOYS ALLOWED THE REDS TO COME WITHIN MACHINEGUN RANGE, THEN MOWED THEM DOWN WITH MASSED FIRE. TANKS CRASHED OUT OF THE ALLIED DEFENSES TO COMPLETE THE DEFEAT.

U.S. FIFTH AIRFORCE PLANES FEW 600 SORTIES BY 6 P.M. SATURDAY AND CLAIMED 550 CASUALTIES INFLICTED ON THE REDS. DURING THE PAST WEEK LT. GEN. EARLE E. PARTRIDGE ESTIMATED HIS FIFTH AIRFORCE FIGHTERS AND BOMBERS KILLED OR WOUNDED 7,900 REDS, THE LARGEST TOLL OF THE WAR FOR A ONE WEEK PERIOD.

BY OLEN CLEMENTS

TOKYO, SUNDAY, MAY 20-(AP)-THE U.S. SECOND DIVISION BEAT OFF VICIOUS ATTACKS BY THOUSANDS OF CHINESE REDS ON THE KOREAN EAST-CENTRAL FRONT SATURDAY WHILE OTHER AMERICANS SLAUGHTERED HUNDREDS OF NORTH KOREANS WHO TRIED TO ASSAULT THE OUTSKIRTS OF SEOUL.

ON THE CENTRAL FRONT CHINESE SECURED FIRM FOOTHOLDS SOUTH OF THE PUKHAN RIVER, BUT ALLIED FORCES HAD NOT MOVED SUBSTANTIALLY. AN AMERICAN OFFICER SAID SATURDAY NIGHT THE CENTRAL FRONT WAS AN ANCHOR FOR THE EASTERN FRONT DEFENDERS STAGGERING UNDER FURIOUS COMMUNIST BLOWS.

THE DRIVE ON SEOUL WAS MADE AT 6 A.M., IN FULL SUNLIGHT BY FOUR BATTALIONS OF NORTH KOREAN REDS. IT IMMEDIATELY HUNG UP IN THE MINE-FIELDS AND BARBED WIRE OF THE BEST-LAID ALLIED POSITIONS OF THE ENTIRE WAR. THERE THE AMERICAN INFANTRY, AIDED BY AIR AND ARTILLERY, QUICKLY CUT THE ENEMY TO PIECES. EIGHTY PRISONERS WERE TAKEN--ONE OF THE BIG-GEST SINGLE BAGS OF THE WAR. THEY SAID THEIR COMMANDERS HAD TOLD THEM SEOUL WAS DESERTED AND THEY COULD WALK IN AFTER BRUSHING ASIDE A LIGHT SCREENING FORCE.

AFTER THIS SUICIDAL FAILURE OF THE REDS, AMERICAN ARMORED PATROLS RANGED NORTH TO UIJONGBU, 11 MILES FROM SEOUL, AND RETURNED WITHOUT DRAWING ANY FIRE.

THE WHOLE FRONT QUIETED SATURDAY AFTERNOON, BUT AMERICAN OFFICERS BELIEVED THE REDS WERE MERELY REGROUPING FOR A NEW EFFORT.

MAY 20 1951

SOME OFFICERS SAID THEY BELIEVED FOUR DAYS OF SLAUGHTER BY THE U.N. ALLIES FINALLY HAD SAPPED THE STRENGTH OF COMMUNISTS TRYING TO CRACK THE CENTRAL FRONT.

A BRIEFING OFFICER AT U.S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS SOUNDED THE FIRST OPTIMISTIC NOTE SINCE THE REDS LAUNCHED THEIR SECOND SPRING OFFENSIVE.

"THE SITUATION IS SHAPING UP," HE SAID.

THE SECOND DIVISION AND ITS FRENCH AND DUTCH COMPONENTS FOUGHT OUT OF A RED TRAP FRIDAY. FIELD DISPATCHES SAID THEY KILLED 10,000 OR MORE REDS.

COL. JOHN C. COUGHLIN OF SANTA FE, N.MEX., WHO LED ONE REGIMENT BACK TO ALLIED LINES AFTER 36 HOURS OF ENTRAPMENT, SAID:

"WE SLAUGHTERED SO MANY THEIR BLOOD COVERS OUR BOOTS BECAUSE WE HAD TO WALK OVER THEM TO GET INTO THE NEW PERIMETER."

THE SECOND WAS FLANKED AND SURROUNDED FOR A TIME BECAUSE SOUTH KOREAN FORCES ON ITS RIGHT COLLAPSED UNDER THE FIRST IMPACT OF THE NEW RED SMASH.

IF THE SOUTH KOREANS HADN'T BEEN FORCED BACK, COUGHLIN SAID, "WE WOULD HAVE PILED SO MANY CHINKS ON THE MINEFIELDS TO OUR FRONT THAT OUR OWN TROOPS WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN ABLE TO CLIMB OVER THE HILLS OF BODIES."

COUGHLIN ADDED THAT A CAPTURED RED SAID THE COMMUNISTS HAD SPECIAL ORDERS TO DESTROY THE SECOND DIVISION.

"THEY WANTED REVENGE FOR THE DEFEAT WE HANDED THEM AT CHIPYONG AND WONJU WHEN WE SMASHED THEIR OFFENSIVE LAST WINTER."

IN MEETING ONE OF THE RENEWED RED ATTACKS SATURDAY, THE SECOND DIVISION TROOPS LET RED ADVANCE WITHIN CLOSE MACHINEGUN RANGE. THEN, WHILE THE RAPID FIRING GUNS POURED OUT A WITHERING FIRE, TANKS ROARED OUT AND PICKED OFF SURVIVING REDS.

THE MAIN RED BLOWS WERE STRUCK EAST AND WEST OF HANGYE, 55 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

TO THE WEST, CHINESE TROOPS CROSSED THE HONGCHON RIVER IN FORCE IN FRONT OF AMERICAN AND SOUTH KOREAN LINES, POSING A THREAT OF NEW ATTACK. SOME WORE THE TRADITIONAL WHITE CLOTHES OF KOREAN CIVILIANS.

30.24- 23173

MANY LED PACK ANIMALS BURDENED WITH SUPPLIES.

THE REDS SURROUNDED A SOUTH KOREAN FORCE WHICH HELD HIGH GROUND IN THE HONGCHON RESERVOIR AREA, BUT THE SOUTH KOREANS FOUGHT CLEAR WITH THE SUPPORT OF NAVY PLANES.

AMERICAN PATROLS RAN INTO HEAVY ENEMY AUTOMATIC WEAPONS AND MORTAR FIRE IN THE AREA BUT PULLED BACK WITHOUT LOSSES.

ALLIED OFFICERS SAID THE REDS STILL HAD A "CONSIDERABLE" BUILDUP ON THE CENTRAL FRONT AND COULD BE EXPECTED TO RENEW THEIR ATTACKS AT ANY TIME.

THERE WAS LITTLE FRESH WORD FROM THE CRITICAL EASTERN FRONT WHERE THE REDS HAD SURGED SOUTHWARD THROUGH A GAP IN THE LINE LEFT BY THE WITHDRAWAL OF TWO SOUTH KOREAN DIVISIONS.

THE TWO DIVISIONS, HOWEVER, WERE REPORTED STILL FIGHTING AS A UNIT.

THE RED CHAIN-REACTION OFFENSIVE SPREAD SATURDAY TO THE WESTERN FRONT. A BATTALION OF COMMUNISTS ATTACKED SOUTH KOREANS NORTHWEST OF SEOUL. IT WAS THE STRONGEST COMMUNIST ATTACK IN WEEKS IN THAT SECTOR.

RED TROOPS FRIDAY NIGHT ENTERED THE ABANDONED ROAD HUB OF UIJONGBU, 11 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL, THE KOREAN CAPITAL.

A CHINESE PATROL OF 10 OR 15 MEN RAN INTO BARBED WIRE SATURDAY MORNING ON SEOUL'S OUTER DEFENSE PERIMETER. THE PATROL WAS FIRED ON IMMEDIATELY.

AN EIGHTH ARMY BRIEFER SAID THE SECOND DIVISION REGIMENT FELL BACK BEFORE "HEAVY PRESSURE" FROM CHINESE WHO SLIPPED THROUGH A GAP LEFT BY A SOUTH KOREAN WITHDRAWAL ON THE SECOND'S RIGHT.

NOTHING WAS HEARD FROM THE SOUTH KOREAN DIVISION, CRUMPLED BY THE REDS ON THE FIRST DAY OF THEIR DRIVE.

AN OFFICER SAID THIS COULD BE EXPLAINED BY THE FACT THAT MOST COMMUNICATIONS HAVE BEEN DISRUPTED IN THE ALLIED WITHDRAWAL AND BY THE FIERCE BATTLES ALONG THE FRONT.

THE RED PENETRATION WAS AIMED DOWN THE EAST-CENTRAL ROAD FROM INJE SOUTHWESTWARD TOWARD HANGYE AND YONGCHON.

THE SECOND DIVISION WAS BEARING THE BRUNT OF A COMMUNIST DRIVE FOR THE FIFTH TIME IN THE WAR.

ONCE MORE IT ESCAPED A DEATH TRAP SET BY THE REDS, AS IT DID AT KUNU, WONJU, CHIPYONG AND IN MASSACRE VALLEY.

CHINESE TROOPS MADE THREE ATTACKS SATURDAY AGAINST SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS SOUTHWEST OF CHANGGONG, 25 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

A U.S. ARMY TASK FORCE OPERATING IN THE SAME AREA BROKE THROUGH A COMMUNIST MINEFIELD AND POURED TANK AND ARTILLERY FIRE AT MASSED COMMUNISTS. THERE WERE NO FURTHER DETAILS.

SOUTH KOREAN FORCES COUNTERATTACKED SATURDAY AGAINST REDS WHO HAD CROSSED THE PUKHAN RIVER IN THE CHANGGONG AREA AND MADE A SLIGHT ADVANCE.

U.S. FIFTH AIR FORCE PLANES INFLICTED ALMOST 550 CASUALTIES ON THE REDS SATURDAY DESPITE LOW HANGING CLOUDS OVER THE FRONT.

THE AIR FORCE REPORTED IT KILLED OR WOUNDED 7,900 REDS IN THE WEEK ENDED FRIDAY--LARGEST TOLL FOR ANY ONE WEEK SINCE THE OUTBREAK OF THE WAR.

ABOUT 5,750 OF THE CASUALTIES WERE INFLICTED THURSDAY AS THE REDS PRESSED THEIR SECOND SPRING OFFENSIVE.

THE NEW DRIVE HAD COST THE REDS ROUGHLY 20,000 CASUALTIES.

ALLIED FORCES STILL WERE HOLDING OFF REDS MASSING MORE THAN 10 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL. BUT THE STEPPED-UP PRESSURE NEAR CHANGGONG BY SPEARHEADS OF A 768,000-MAN OFFENSIVE FORCE CAUSED GENERAL ALLIED WITHDRAWALS ALONG 125 MILES OF FRONT FRIDAY.

THE ALLIED PULLBACK, YIELDING THE LAST HOLDINGS NORTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL, EXCEEDED 20 MILES AT SOME POINTS SINCE THE REDS FIRST STRUCK WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

BUT COMMUNISTS WERE DYING BY THE TENS OF THOUSANDS--ON BARBED WIRE ENTANGLEMENTS; UNDER A RAIN OF SHELLS FROM ARTILLERY FIRING UNTIL BARRELS SWELLED FROM THE HEAT; IN A HAIL OF BOMBS FROM HUNDREDS OF PLANES; UNDER BOMBARDMENT OF THE 45,000-TON BATTLESHIP NEW JERSEY AND OTHER WARSHIPS OFF THE EAST COAST.

FOR A 36-HOUR PERIOD, ENDED FRIDAY, MAJ.GEN.CLARK L.RUFFNER'S SECOND DIVISION DUPLICATED THE HEROIC STANDS IT MADE AT KUNU LAST NOVEMBER AND AT CHIPYONG IN FEBRUARY.

SUPPORTED BY FRENCH AND DUTCH UNITS, THE SECOND FOUGHT OFF ENTRAPMENT FRIDAY NEAR HANGYE, 55 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL. LT.GEN. EDWARD M.ALMOND, COMMANDER OF THE U.S. 10TH CORPS, TODAY HAILED THE SECOND'S LATEST STAND AS "MAGNIFICENT."

A5FX

AT KUNU, IN NORTH KOREA, THE SECOND WAS "THE CORK IN THE BOTTLE" DURING THE EARLY STAGES OF A CHINESE RED DRIVE WHICH LATER ROLLED SOUTHWARD AND ENGULFED SEOUL. BUT THE STAND OF THE SECOND ALLOWED THE U.S. EIGHTH ARMY TO PULL BACK AND AVERT DISASTER.

AT CHIPYONG, NEAR WONJU IN CENTRAL KOREA LAST FEBRUARY, THE SECOND DIVISION, SUPPORTED BY FRENCH, HELD FAST DURING AN ENCIRCLEMENT SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL. THEY UNYIELDING STAND WAS FOLLOWED BY THE FAMED "WONJU SHOOT" WHICH SLAUGHTERED REDS, BROKE AN OFFENSIVE, AND SENT THE ENEMY SCURRYING NORTHWARD.

TODAY FROM NEW DUG-IN POSITIONS A UNIT OF THE SECOND DIVISION THREW BACK THREE RED ASSAULT WAVES, EACH EXCEEDING 1,000 MEN.

A FIELD DISPATCH FROM U.S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS SAID, HOWEVER, THE RED BREAKTHROUGH ON THE DIVISION'S RIGHT FLANK STILL WAS NOT CONTAINED. REDS WERE POURING THROUGH THAT HOLE.

THE SITUATION OF TWO ALLIED DIVISIONS IN THAT SECTOR WAS DESCRIBED AS OBSCURE.

AN ALLIED OFFICER ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT TOLD AP CORRESPONDENT WILLIAM C.BARNARD: "WE ARE SURE OF NOTHING ON OUR RIGHT FLANK."

AT LEAST SIX CHINESE REGIMENTS WERE WITHIN STRIKING DISTANCE OF THE ALLIED LINE THERE.

THE GREATEST RED PRESSURE WAS BEING EXERTED 20 MILES EAST OF CHUNCHON. THAT HIGHWAY HUB IS 45 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

FIRST REPORTS ON THE NEW RED DRIVE ACROSS THE PUKHAN AT CHANGGONG INDICATED IT LACKED THE INITIAL STRENGTH OF THE ONE NEAR HANGYE. BUT IT WAS BEING MADE IN THE VITAL PUKHAN VALLEY SECTOR WHERE A FLANKING DRIVE ON SEOUL LONG HAS BEEN EXPECTED.

ASSESSING THIS NEW THREAT, AP CORRESPONDENT TOM BRADSHAW REPORTED FROM U.S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS THAT "THE PRESSURE THERE WAS FORCING ALLIED TROOPS TO WITHDRAW ALONG THE 125-MILE FRONT."

TWO RED BATTALIONS BEGAN CROSSING THE PUKHAN DAM AMID A BLARE OF BUGLES AND A SHRIEK OF WHISTLES. AFTER HAND TO HAND FIGHTING, ALLIED FORCES HAD TO PULL BACK. THEY COUNTED 684 RED DEAD BEFORE THEY WITHDREW.

EIGHTH ARMY CEASED ASSESSING RED GROUND CASUALTIES AT A TIME WHEN ALLIED WITHDRAWALS MADE SUCH ESTIMATES DIFFICULT. BUT A SPOKESMAN REFERRED TO RED LOSSES AS VERY HEAVY.

A DEFENSE DEPARTMENT SPOKESMAN IN WASHINGTON SAID THAT UP TO MAY 7, MORE THAN A WEEK PRIOR TO THE NEW RED OFFENSIVE, COMMUNIST LOSSES TOTALLED 904,788 FOR THE KOREAN WAR.

WITH AMS BUDGET (750)
NIGHT LEAD SECOND DIVISION.
BY WILLIAM C. BARNARD.
WITH U.S. SECOND DIVISION, KOREA, SUNDAY, MAY 20-(AP)-THIS SINGLE DIVISION HAS JUST WITHSTOOD THE MOST CONCENTRATED SINGLE ATTACK OF THE KOREAN WAR---A FOUR-DAY ASSAULT BY 96,000 CHINESE.

ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY FIVE THOUSAND CHINESE RAMMED INTO THE EAST CENTRAL FRONT, STARTING WEDNESDAY.

NINETY SIX THOUSAND OF THESE STORMED THE SECOND DIVISIONS DEFENSES EAST OF CHUNCHON. A MAJORITY OF THE REST ROUTED TWO SOUTH KOREAN DIVISIONS SOUTHWEST AND SOUTH OF INJE, EXPOSING THE SECOND'S RIGHT (EAST) FLANK.

THE SECOND KNOWS ABOUT TROUBLE. IT HAD FACED OVERWHELMING ODDS AT KUNU IN NOVEMBER; AT WONJU IN JANUARY; AT CHIPYONG AND HEONGSONG IN FEBRUARY.

THIS TIME THE CHINESE MADE THE ODDS GREATER THAN EVER.

"THEY WANTED REVENGE FOR THE DEFEAT WE HANDED THEM AT CHIPYONG AND WONJU WHEN WE SMASHED THEIR OFFENSIVE LAST WINTER," SAID COL. JOHN C. COUGHLIN OF SANTA FE, N.MEX.

COLONEL COUGHLIN'S OUTFIT, THREE BATTALIONS AND TWO COMPANIES--MORE THAN 3,200 MEN--WAS CUT OFF BY THE CHINESE.

LEADING THE WAY IN A FIGHTING WITHDRAWAL AFTER MORE THAN 36 HOURS OF ENTRAPMENT, HE REPORTED, "WE SLAUGHTERED SO MANY THEIR BLOOD COVERS OUR BOOTS BECAUSE WE HAD TO WALK OVER THEM TO GET INTO THE NEW PERIMETER."

THURSDAY NIGHT, THE ENEMY HURLED 10,000 MEN AT A SINGLE, 1,000-MAN BATTALION WHICH HELD HIGH GROUND ON THE SECOND DIVISION'S WESTERN FLANK.

IN THE MOONLIGHT, THE CHINESE STALKED FORWARD. THEY WORE TREE BRANCHES ON THEIR HELMETS AS CAMOUFLAGE.

AS THE MEN OF THE AMERICAN BATTALION WATCHED, ARTILLERY OPENED UP ON THE CHINESE. ALLIED BOMBERS FLEW LOW, DROPPING 500 POUND FRAGMENTATION BOMBS.

"THE REDS KEPT RIGHT ON COMING," AN OFFICER SAID. "THEY WALKED RIGHT OVER THEIR OWN DEAD AND RIGHT INTO OUR MINE FIELDS."

"EXPLOSIONS KILLED AND MAIMED ADDITIONAL HUNDREDS, BUT, GOOD LORD, THE MINES DIDN'T STOP 'EM--THEY JUST KEPT COMING LIKE MEN IN A TRANCE."

MAY 20 1951

A191KX
THE CHINESE APPROACHED THE BARBED WIRE ENTANGLEMENTS CLOSER AND CLOSER, WHILE THE ARTILLERY STILL TOOK A TERRIFIC TOLL.

SUDDENLY THE BATTALION CUT LOOSE WITH ITS MACHINE GUNS--GUNS IN FIXED POSITIONS, SITED TO COVER THE WHOLE SWEEP OF GROUND IN FRONT OF THE ALLIED LINE.

IT WAS A TREMENDOUS, AMAZING SLAUGHTER.

"THERE WAS NO YELLING AMONG THE CHINESE," SAID THE OFFICER, "ONLY THE GROANS OF THE WOUNDED."

OF THE 10,000, MOST WERE KILLED.

NEXT NIGHT THE CHINESE SENT THREE SUCCESSIVE WAVES OF 1,000 MEN EACH AGAINST THE BATTALION. AGAIN IT WAS A WHOLESALE SLAUGHTER.

ARTILLERY CHEWED UP ONE OF THE WAVES, FIRING 2,000 ROUNDS IN EIGHT MINUTES.

THE BATTALION DIDN'T GIVE AN INCH OF GROUND. THAT WAS THE SORT OF DETERMINATION THE DIVISION SHOWED ALL ALONG ITS LINE--AND IT GOT RESULTS.

FRIDAY, FRIDAY NIGHT AND SATURDAY, THE THREE TRAPPED BATTALIONS AND TWO COMPANIES ON THE DIVISION'S EXTREME EAST FLANK FOUGHT THEIR WAY SOUTHWARD THROUGH MASSES OF CHINESE AND OUT OF THE COMMUNIST TRAP.

PFC THOMAS W. MOORE OF AMESBURY, MASS., SAID:

"MY BUDDY AND I FIRED OUR MACHINEGUN AT THOSE CHINKS UNTIL WE WERE SURROUNDED ON THREE SIDES. WE PICKED UP THE GUN AND RAN IT TO THE TOP OF A HILL AND FIRED SOME MORE. EIGHT OF US HELD THAT HILL--I DON'T KNOW HOW LONG. THE WHOLE REGION WAS CRAWLING WITH CHINESE."

ARTILLERY SGT. WILLIAM E. ECKENROD OF SHERIDAN, WYO., SAID:

"WE FIRED THOSE GUNS DAY AND NIGHT--AND SOME OF THE TIME CHINESE ARTILLERY WAS COMING IN ON US."

PFC ROBERT FLANAGAN A TALL-BLUE-EYED RIFLEMAN, FROM CAIRO, W.VA., HIT A LINE OF CHINESE WITH HIS COMPANY TO BREAK THROUGH TO ONE TRAPPED BATTALION.

"EVERY PLACE YOU LOOKED, WAS FULL OF CHINESE," SAID FLANAGAN. "THEY WERE ON RIDGES AND HILLS, IN TRENCHES AND PILLBOXES, AND SOME WERE JUST RUNNING AROUND LIKE CRAZY. WE HAD A HELL OF A TIME BREAKING THROUGH."

"THE CHINESE HAD ALL THE HIGH GROUND," SAID PFC DAVID L. BROWN OF 308 VESOA HEIGHTS, HOT SPRINGS, ARK., "BUT THEY'D RACE DOWN A HILL, CHARGING US. WE'D HOLD OUR FIRE TILL THEY'D GET WITHIN 50 YARDS AND LET'M HAVE IT."

SGT. 1/C ROBERT E. HOLMES OF VIENNA, GA., SHOOK HIS HEAD DAZEDLY, EXCLAIMING, "KILL ONE AND FOUR WOULD TAKE HIS PLACE."

THURSDAY NIGHT A SECOND DIVISION ARTILLERY BATTALION BELIEVES IT SET A WORLD'S RECORD BY FIRING 11,600 ROUNDS IN 12 HOURS.

ONE CUT-OFF SECOND DIVISION BATTALION WAS THE FRENCH. WHEN IT FOUGHT ITS WAY OUT IT WAS PROTECTED BY A CONTINUOUS RING OF ALLIED ARTILLERY FIRE AROUND IT---ALL THE WAY.

SECOND DIVISION ARTILLERY PILOTS AND OBSERVERS--MEN LIKE LT. SOLOMON JAMERSON OF 2343 EAST 112TH STREET, LOS ANGELES; CAPT. WILBERT L. ARMSTRONG OF ST. PETER, MINN., AND LT. P.C. RODGERS OF 1180 COLUMBIA AVE., SALEM, ORE.--TOLD OF TREMENDOUS ARTILLERY "SHOOTS," IN EACH OF WHICH HUNDREDS OF CHINESE WERE SLAUGHTERED.

A192KX
SAID RODGERS: "THEY'D BE COMING IN A LINE. YOU'D BRING FIRE ON THE LINE AND KNOCK OUT A DOZEN OF THEM. THE OTHERS WOULD JUST WALK PAST THE SAME SPOT, AND YOU COULD KEEP ON FIRING RIGHT THERE."

ANOTHER ARTILLERY SPOTTER, LT. LESSE WRIGHT OF 409 COLLINS PARK AVENUE, WILMINGTON, DEL., SAID: "YOU COULD SPEND AN AFTERNOON FIRING AT A SINGLE PATCH OF ROAD. THE CHINESE WOULDN'T BOTHER TO GET OUT OF THE WAY."

THOUSANDS OF CHINESE AGAIN CHARGED THE SECOND DIVISION LINE SATURDAY AND WERE HURLED BACK.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON THINGS QUIETED DOWN.

LT. GEN. JAMES A. VAN FLEET, EIGHTH ARMY COMMANDER, AND LT. GEN. EDWARD M. ALMOND, TENTH CORPS COMMANDER, LAUDED THE SECOND DIVISION FOR A "SUPERB PERFORMANCE" AND A "MAGNIFICENT" STAND AGAINST TREMENDOUS ODDS.

SECOND DIVISION (370)
BY TOM BRADSHAW
U.S. 8TH ARMY HEADQUARTERS,KOREA,MAY 19-(AP)-THE U.S. SECOND (INDIANHEAD) DIVISION, WHICH CAUGHT THE BRUNT OF THE CURRENT COMMUNIST OFFENSIVE, IS USED TO FIGHTING WHERE THE KOREAN WAR IS HOTTEST.

THE SECOND TODAY WON THE PRAISE OF LT.GEN.JAMES A.VAN FLEET, EIGHTH ARMY COMMANDER, AND LT.GEN.EDWARD M.ALMOND, 10TH CORPS COMMANDER, FOR ITS "SUPERB PERFORMANCE" AND "MAGNIFICENT" STAND AGAINST OVERWHELMING ODDS.

THE FULL STORY OF MAJ.GEN.CLARK RUFFNER'S SECOND DIVISION'S PERFORMANCE IN THE LAST 24 HOURS HAS NOT YET BEEN DISCLOSED. BUT IT LOOKS NOW AS THOUGH "RUFFNER'S ROUGHNECKS" HAVE SCORED ANOTHER "UP" IN THEIR SUCCESSION OF UPS AND DOWNS IN KOREA.

WHEN THE CHINESE ENTERED THE WAR LAST NOVEMBER, THE SECOND WAS FORCED BACK UNDER TERRIFIC PRESSURE. SOME ELEMENTS OF ITS SUPPORTING TROOPS--ARTILLERY AND SUPPLY--WERE OVERRUN. THEY HAD TO FIGHT THEIR WAY THROUGH ROAD BLOCKS AND AMBUSHES TO KUNU. THE DIVISION'S LOSSES WERE HEAVY ENOUGH TO CUT ITS FIGHTING EFFECTIVENESS TEMPORARILY.

THE OFFICIAL ARMY REPORT SAID THE SECOND FOUGHT ITS DELAYING ACTION BRAVELY, IN WEATHER SO COLD IT FROZE GUNS AND VEHICLES.

THE SECOND WAS IN THE LINE NEAR WONJU WHEN MAJ.GEN.ROBERT B. MC CLURE TOOK COMMAND IN JANUARY. THE BIGGEST BATTLE OF THE MOMENT WAS KEEPING ALIVE IN 20-BELOW ZERO TEMPERATURES.

MC CLURE, IN AN EFFORT TO RAISE MORALE, TOLD HIS MEN TO LET THEIR BEARDS GR[illegible] THAT HELPED. BUT THE SITUATION CALLED FOR MORE THAN A VAN DYKE, [illegible] A SET OF SIDEBURNS.

THE SECOND DIVISION WAS OCCUPYING A BULGING SECTOR OF THE UNITED NATIONS LINE. IT WAS A DANGEROUS, EXPOSED POSITION. THERE, IN JANUARY, THE SECOND BLUNTED HEAVY COMMUNIST ATTACKS AIMED AT SOUTH KOREA'S VULNERABLE CENTRAL ROAD NETWORK.

ONE OF THE SECOND'S BAD TIMES WAS ITS BITTER LOSS OF MEN AND EQUIPMENT AT "MASSACRE VALLEY" IN CENTRAL KOREA, WHEN THE ROUT OF SOME SOUTH KOREAN UNITS PUSHED ELEMENTS OF THE SECOND INTO A SITUATION LIKE THAT AT KUNU.

OUTSTANDING AMONG THE DIVISION'S "UPS" WAS THE VALIANT STAND BY ITS 23RD REGIMENT AND THE FRENCH BATTALION, ONE OF THE SECOND'S UNITS, AT CHIPYONG.

THREE THOUSAND AMERICANS AND FRENCH FOUGHT BACK REPEATED CHINESE ATTACKS AFTER THEY HAD BEEN CUT OFF. IN THE HEAT OF BATTLE, THEY RADIOED THAT THEIR ONLY NEED WAS FOR MORE AMMUNITION. WHEN OTHER ALLIED UNITS REACHED THEM, THE BESIEGED MEN STILL WERE ITCHING FOR MORE ENEMY TO SHOOT.

ON THE CENTRAL KOREAN FRONT, SUNDAY, MAY 20-(AP)-CHINESE REDS LAUNCHED SIX ATTACKS ON THE WEST CENTRAL FRONT LAST NIGHT AND EARLY TODAY, FORCING ALLIED TROOPS TO MAKE LIMITED WITHDRAWALS.

THE ATTACKING FORCES, RANGING FROM SMALL PATROLS TO BATTALIONS, CENTERED THEIR ASSAULTS IN THE CHANGGONG SECTOR 25 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL. THE REDS HAVE A BRIDGEHEAD ON THE PUKHAM RIVER IN THAT AREA.

ONE CHINESE BATTALION WAS REPORTED CUT TO PIECES BY COUNTERATTACKING U.S. TROOPS, WHO CHARGED WITH BAYONETS. THIS FIGHT OCCURRED SOUTHEAST OF CHANGGONG.

THE AMERICANS LEAPED FROM FOXHOLES AND CHARGED DOWN A HILL JUST AS THE REDS WERE ADVANCING. THE REDS THREW HAND GRENADES BUT WERE NOT FIRING THEIR WEAPONS.

TO THE SOUTHWEST OF THIS SECTOR, INTENSE U.N.ARTILLERY FIRE BROKE UP AN ATTACK BY 200 CHINESE COMMUNISTS SOUTHWEST OF MASOGU, WHICH IS 18 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

FARTHER TO THE EAST, A CHINESE BATTALION FORCED SLIGHT ALLIED WITHDRAWALS AFTER A FIVE-HOUR BATTLE.

CHINESE CONCENTRATIONS SOUTH OF CHANGGONG WERE RAKED WITH DEADLY TIMED FIRE. (IN SUCH FIRE, ARTILLERY PIECES FROM DIFFERENT POSITIONS TIME THEIR FIRE TO STRIKE THE TARGET AT THE SAME TIME.)

WEST-CENTRAL FRONT,KOREA,MAY 19 (AP)-A FIGHTING COLUMN OF AMERICAN TANKS WROUGHT HAVOC IN THE CHINESE REAR TODAY, RUSHING EIGHT MILES THROUGH SWARMS OF CHINESE WHO CLAMBERED OVER THE TANKS IN A NARROW DEFILE.

AT TIMES THE TANKS FIRED ON ONE ANOTHER TO KNOCK OFF THE CHINESE. ALMOST FROM THE BEGINNING AMERICAN ARTILLERY BURST SHRAPNEL DIRECTLY ON THE COLUMN TO HIT THE RED ATTACKERS.

THE COLUMN, COMMANDED BY LT.COL.HENRY BYORUM OF MINOT, N.D., PUSHED OUT FROM U.N. LINES JUST AFTER DARK ACCOMPANIED BY INFANTRY AND HALF TRACKS. THE INFANTRY WAS LEFT BEHIND AFTER A FEW MILES. THE CHINESE BEGAN THROWING MORTAR SHELLS, GRENADES AND SMALL ARMS FIRE AT THE TANKS. SEVERAL MINEFIELDS WERE BLASTED FROM THE ROAD BY THE TANKS' 90 MM. GUNS.

EIGHT MILES WITHIN RED TERRITORY ABOVE KUMGONG, THE CHINESE WAITED FOR THE PATROL TO REACH A NARROW ROAD CUT FROM THE SIDE OF A MOUNTAIN.

THERE, THE REDS LEAPED IN SWARMS DOWN ONTO THE TANKS.

THEY EXPLODED TWO BANGALORE TORPEDOES (A TYPE OF POLE CHARGE) AGAINST THE TANK OF SGT. ARTHUR KNUTTILA OF HANCOCK, MICH., TEMPORARILY STALLING IT.

CPL.DOYLE BOONE OF PURCELL, OKLAHOMA, THE TANK DRIVER, SAID, "WE GOT OUT OF THERE BECAUSE OF THE COLONEL. HIS TANK OPENED UP ON US AND BLASTED THE CHINESE OFF, WE STILL HAD PARTS OF CHINAMEN PLASTERED ON THE TANK WHEN WE GOT OUT."

COL.BYORUM'S TANK WAS UNDER SIMILAR ATTACK. SO WERE OTHER TANKS AHEAD AND BEHIND.

JAMES R.BROUSSARD OF ABBEVILLE, LA., THE GUNNER, OPENED UP WITH HIS MACHINEGUN ON THE COLONEL'S TANK. HE SWUNG THE TURRET AROUND TO FIRE ON THE TANK BEHIND HIM WHEN IT WAS HIT.

"WHEN I RAN OUT OF MACHINE GUN AMMUNITION I USED HIGH EXPLOSIVES ON THE 90S," HE SAID. "I MUST HAVE KILLED 30 OR 40 WITH IT DURING THE DAY," HE ADDED.

CAPT.WOODROW BROWN OF MIAMI, FLA., AN ARTILLERY SPOTTER PILOT WHO FLEW OVER THE FIGHT, SAID:

"THE CHINESE WERE ALL OVER THE TANKS LIKE ANTS TRYING TO MOVE BREAD CRUMBS. YOU COULD SEE THEIR GRENADES GOING OFF AND AMERICAN ARTILLERY BURSTS CHOPPING THEM DOWN."

LT. PAUL B. MCDANIEL OF LAFAYETTE, KY., AND HIS CREW HAD TO ABANDON THEIR TANK AND FLEE UNDER A PROTECTIVE CURTAIN OF FIRE FROM AMERICAN FORCES.

MCDANIEL'S TANK HAD A TRACK BLOWN OFF. THE CREW ESCAPED THROUGH A HAIL OF SMALL ARMS FIRE TO SAFETY IN OTHER TANKS. WHEN THE FIRE SLACKENED, THEY RETURNED TO TOW THEIR TANK BACK.

WESTERN FRONT,KOREA,MAY 19 (AP)-FOUR NORTH KOREAN INFANTRY BATTALIONS ATTACKED SEOUL'S OUTER DEFENSES AT 6 A.M., TODAY AND WERE BEATEN BACK WITH HUNDREDS OF CASUALTIES.

ONE SINGLE AMERICAN COMPANY COUNTED 135 BODIES IN FRONT OF ITS BARBED WIRE. ANOTHER COMPANY COUNTED 35 DEAD AND ESTIMATED MORE THAN 200 MORE WERE OUT OF REACH.

EIGHTY PRISONERS WERE TAKEN.

THE ATTACK WAS NORTH OF THE SEOUL CITY LIMITS AGAINST ALLIED HILL POSITIONS. THE FIGHTING WAS ON BOTH SIDES OF A JAGGED RIDGE THAT RUNS SOUTH INTO SEOUL ALMOST TO THE KOREAN CAPITOL BUILDING.

THE DAZED PRISONERS SAID THEIR COMMANDERS HAD TOLD THEM THE ALLIES HAD FLED SEOUL AND ALL THEY HAD TO DO WAS BRUSH ASIDE A LIGHT SCREENING FORCE AND ENTER THE DESERTED CITY. THEY LEARNED THE FALSITY OF THIS ALMOST IMMEDIATELY.

THEY CHARGED IN BRIGHT SUNLIGHT INTO ALLIED MINE FIELDS AND BARBED WIRE.

AMERICAN INFANTRY OPENED FIRE FROM SOME OF THE MOST THOROUGHLY LAID-

OUT DEFENSE POSITIONS IN THE KOREAN WAR. THEY CUT DOWN THE NORTH KOREANS WITH EVERY WEAPON AVAILABLE--RIFLES, MACHINE GUNS, MORTARS AND RECOILLESS CANNON.

ARTILLERY AND AIR STRIKES QUICKLY ADDED TO THE SLAUGHTER. DESPITE THIS HURRICANE OF FIRE, THE REDS PULLED THEMSELVES TOGETHER AND CHARGED FANATICALLY. THEY HIT THE WIRE AND MELTED AWAY THERE UNDER THE AMERICAN MACHINE GUNS.

ON THE WESTERN FLANK, MORE THAN A DOZEN NORTH KOREANS, IN BLACK UNIFORMS FOR CONCEALMENT, HAD TRIED BEFORE DAWN TO SNEAK THROUGH THE WIRE AND SCOUT THE ALLIED POSITIONS. THEY WERE WIPED OUT.

ONE AMERICAN COMPANY COMMANDER, DISAPPOINTED AT TAKING NO PRISONERS, SENT HIS KOREAN INTERPRETER DOWN THE VALLEY TO OFFER AID TO ANY WOUNDED.

THE KOREAN'S SHOUTED OFFER WAS ANSWERED BY A WAVING WHITE CLOTH. A NORTH KOREAN CRAWLED OUT OF THE UNDERGROWTH WITH HANDS OVER HIS HEAD. WITHIN A MINUTE TEN MORE HAD COME IN, AND THE FINAL BAG FROM THIS EFFORT WAS 59, MOST OF THEM WOUNDED.

ALL THE PRISONERS APPEARED WELL FED AND WERE WELL-UNIFORMED AND ARMED WITH RUSSIAN-MADE AND CAPTURED AMERICAN EQUIPMENT.

MEANWHILE, THE AMERICANS SENT AN ARMORED PATROL UP THE ROAD NORTH TO UIJONGBU (11 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL'S OUTSKIRTS.) IT RETURNED WITHOUT HAVING DRAWN FIRE. CHINESE HAD OCCUPIED UIJONGBU YESTERDAY, BUT APPARENTLY HAD PULLED BACK INTO THE HILLS DURING THE NIGHT.

TOKYO,SUNDAY,MAY 20-(AP)-SIXTEEN B-29'S TEAMED WITH 20 LIGHT BOMBERS SATURDAY IN THE HEAVIEST NIGHT BOMBING ATTACK OF THE WAR ON COMMUNIST TROOP CONCENTRATIONS ALONG KOREA'S EAST-CENTRAL FRONT.

FAR EAST AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS ANNOUNCED THE RAIDERS HURLED ABOUT 200 TONS OF FRAGMENTATION BOMBS AT THE ENEMY. THE BOMBERS SIGHTED BY RADAR.

THE NIGHT RAIDERS ROUNDED OUT 24 HOURS OF ATTACKS IN WHICH FOR THE THIRD SUCCESSIVE DAY ALLIED PLANES FLEW MORE THAN 1,000 SORTIES.

THE BIG SUPERFORTS USUALLY ARE SENT ON STRATEGIC MISSIONS WELL BACK OF THE FRONT LINES AND BOMB BY DAYLIGHT. ONLY RECENTLY HAVE THE B-29S BEEN CALLED UPON TO STRIKE AT NIGHT.

AIR FORCE AND NAVY PLANES DEALT PUNISHING BLOWS TO THE ENEMY'S RAIL LINES FEEDING THE FRONT. THE FIFTH AIR FORCE ESTIMATED 11 OF 14 RED SUPPLY TRAINS SPOTTED LAST NIGHT WERE DAMAGED.

PILOTS ENCOUNTERED TWO UNIDENTIFIED PLANES SATURDAY NIGHT, BUT NEITHER OFFERED TO ATTACK.

TWENTY CARS OF TWO COMMUNIST TRAINS, LOADED WITH GASOLINE AND AMMUNITION, WERE DESTROYED BY CARRIER-BASED PLANES ON THE EAST COAST NEAR HUNGNAM, NAVY HEADQUARTERS REPORTED.

ONE RETURNING PILOT, LT.D.B.SHELTON, MAQUOKETA,IA., SAID "THE EXPLODING AMMUNITION TRAIN HURLED CHUNKS OF DEBRIS AS LARGE AS AN AUTOMOBILE SKYWARD AS THE FIRE SHOT 2,000 FEET UPWARD."

PILOTS FROM THE U.S. CARRIERS BOXER, PRINCETON AND PHILIPPINE SEA ESTIMATED THEY KILLED 755 REDS SATURDAY WHILE FLYING COMBAT SUPPORT MISSIONS.

FEAF (CAPS) ANNOUNCED ITS PLANES FLEW 5,700 SORTIES IN THE WEEK ENDED SATURDAY. IT REPORTED LOSS OF SIX FIGHTER PLANES.

THE ONLY AERIAL ENGAGEMENTS DURING THE WEEK, FEAF SAID, WERE TWO INCONCLUSIVE NIGHT ATTACKS BY ENEMY PLANES ON B-26 NIGHT INTRUDER BOMBERS. THE STATEMENT SAID THE ALLIED PLANES SUFFERED NO DAMAGE AND REPORTED NONEINFLICTED ON THE ENEMY PLANES.

NIGHT LEAD KOREAN

BY THOMAS P.WHITNEY

MOSCOW, MAY 19-(AP)-THE MOSCOW PRESS GAVE A BIG PLAY TODAY TO A PROPOSAL BY SENATOR EDWIN C.JOHNSON (D-COLO) THAT AN EFFORT BE MADE TO HALT THE KOREAN WAR JUNE 25, ITS FIRST ANNIVERSARY.

WESTERN DIPLOMATS CONSIDERED THE PROMINENT DISPLAY SIGNIFICANT. AMONG THE NEWSPAPERS CARRYING THE STORY WAS PRAVDA, THE COMMUNIST PARTY ORGAN WHICH DECLARED ONLY A FEW DAYS AGO THAT THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT'S OBJECTIVE IS "EXPANSION OF AGGRESSION" IN ASIA.

JOHNSON OFFERED A RESOLUTION THURSDAY TO PUT THE U.S. SENATE ON RECORD IN FAVOR OF ASKING THE UNITED NATIONS TO CALL UPON ALL GROUPS NOW ENGAGED IN THE WAR IN KOREA TO CEASE FIRE AND DECLARE AN EFFECTIVE ARMISTICE AT 4 A.M. KOREAN TIME JUNE 25.

IN ADDITION, HE PROPOSED THAT ALL U.N. FORCES RETIRE BEFOREHAND SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL (WHICH THE COMMUNISTS HOLD AT THE MOMENT) AND THAT ALL NON-KOREANS GET OUT OF KOREA BEFORE DEC. 31, 1951.

HIS RESOLUTION DECLARES "THE KOREAN WAR HAS EVERY APPEARANCE OF BEING A HOPELESS CONFLICT OF ATTRITION AND INDECISIVENESS AND A BREEDER OF BITTER RACIAL HATREDS" WHICH MAY BURST INTO A WORLD WIDE CONFLAGRATION.

THE MOSCOW NEWSPAPERS APPARENTLY CARRIED THE FULL TEXT. THEY GAVE NO COMMENT, BUT LINKED THE PROPOSAL WITH "REPORTS FROM KOREA OF A NEW ATTACK OF THE NORTH KOREAN ARMIES AND CHINESE VOLUNTEERS." AMERICAN TROOPS IN KOREA WERE DECLARED SUFFERING FROM POOR MORALE.

A QUESTION BEING ASKED BY DIPLOMATS HERE IS: DOES THE TREATMENT GIVEN THE PROPOSAL HERE MEAN THE RUSSIANS MIGHT SUPPORT SUCH A SETTLEMENT IN KOREA AS THE COLORADO SENATOR SUGGEST

MOSCOW, MAY 19-(AP)-PRAVDA AND OTHER SOVIET NEWSPAPERS CARRIED EXTENSIVE REPORTS TODAY OF SEN. EDWIN JOHNSON'S (D-COLO.) PROPOSAL FOR AN ARMISTICE IN THE KOREAN WAR ON THE FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF ITS OUT-BREAK. THE DATE WOULD BE JUNE 25.

PRAVDA, ORGAN OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY, QUOTED WHAT APPARENTLY WAS THE WHOLE RESOLUTION AND SOME OBSERVERS CONSIDERED IT SIGNIFICANT THAT THE PAPER DID SO.

IT WAS THE FIRST PEACE PROPOSAL FOR KOREA COMING FROM THE UNITED STATES TO BE PUBLISHED IN THE SOVIET PRESS FOR SOME TIME.

THE NEWSPAPER MADE IT CLEAR THAT JOHNSON WAS SUGGESTING THAT TROOPS OF BOTH SIDES SHOULD RETIRE BEHIND THEIR RESPECTIVE SIDES OF THE 38TH PARALLEL.

IT CONNECTED HIS PROPOSAL WITH "REPORTS FROM KOREA OF A NEW ATTACK BY THE NORTH KOREAN ARMIES AND CHINESE VOLUNTEERS."

HONG KONG,MAY 19-(AP)-THE CHIEF OF STAFF OF THE NORTH KOREAN ARMY LAST NIGHT CHARGED THAT GEN.MATTHEW B.RIDGWAY SENT FORGED DOCUMENTS TO THE UNITED NATIONS IN HIS FIRST REPORT AS U.N. SUPREME COMMANDER.

GEN.NAM IL, IN A STATEMENT BROADCAST BY RADIO PEIPING, SAID RIDGWAY SENT TO THE U.N. TWO "ALLEGEDLY CAPTURED" RED KOREAN ARMY ORDERS.

THE BROADCAST SAID THE DOCUMENTS WERE FORGED BECAUSE THEY USED JAPANESE PLACE NAMES INSTEAD OF KOREAN AND REFERRED TO THE NORTH KOREAN ARMY INSTEAD OF THE KOREAN PEOPLE'S ARMY. IT ADDED THERE WERE SEVERAL OTHER TECHNICAL ERRORS.

NEW DELHI, MAY 19-(AP)-AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES SAID TODAY INDIA IS "UNLIKELY" TO SEND TROOPS TO KOREA.

THEY GAVE THIS REPLY IN RESPONSE TO REPORTS PUBLISHED HERE THAT THE UNITED STATES HAS AGAIN REQUESTED INDIA TO DO SO.

(OFFICIAL QUARTERS IN KARACHI ALSO SAID THEY DO NOT SEE ANY POSSIBILITY OF PAKISTAN SENDING TROOPS. THEY SAID PAKISTAN FORCES ARE NEEDED FOR INTERNAL DEFENSE, TO GUARD PAKISTAN INTERESTS IN KASHMIR AND TO GUARD THE AFGHANISTAN FRONTIER.)

THE INDIAN SOURCES SAID PRIME MINISTER NEHRU WILL PROBABLY BE QUERIED ON THE SUBJECT IN PARLIAMENT MONDAY.

WASHINGTON REPORTED THAT, SO FAR AS IS KNOWN, THE U.S. HAS MADE NO FRESH APPEAL FOR TROOPS FROM INDIA AND PAKISTAN. SUCH APPEALS HAVE BEEN MADE IN THE PAST, BOTH FORMALLY AND INFORMALLY.

(ADVANCE)--UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., MAY 19-(AP)-GEN. MATTHEW B. RIDGWAY TOLD THE UNITED NATIONS TODAY THAT U.N. AIR FORCES HAVE COMPLETE DOMINANCE OF THE KOREAN SKIES, DESPITE THE INCREASING NUMBER OF RUSSIAN-BUILT MIG JET PLANES.

RIDGWAY'S STATEMENT WAS IN HIS FIRST REGULAR REPORT ON THE KOREAN MILITARY SITUATION SINCE HE SUCCEEDED GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR AS U.N. COMMANDER. COVERING THE PERIOD APRIL 1 TO APRIL 15, RIDGWAY CONCLUDED HIS REPORT WITH THESE WORDS:

"ON 11 APRIL 1951, EIGHT MONTHS AND 18 DAYS AFTER THE ACTIVATION OF THE UNITED NATIONS COMMAND FOR THE PROSECUTION OF THE KOREAN EFFORT, GENERAL OF THE ARMY DOUGLAS MACARTHUR RELINQUISHED COMMAND TO THE UNDERSIGNED."

RIDGWAY MADE NO DIRECT REFERENCE TO MACARTHUR'S CONTROVERSIAL DEMAND FOR AUTHORIZATION TO BOMB MANCHURIAN BASES, BUT HE DID STRESS THE COMMUNIST USE OF MANCHURIAN TERRITORY AS A PROTECTED BASE FOR OPERATIONS AGAINST THE U.N.

THE U.N. COMMANDER REPORTED MOST OF THE AIR BATTLES DURING THE FIRST HALF OF APRIL TOOK PLACE IN THE GENERAL SINUIJU-SINAJU AREA "TO WHICH THE ENEMY HAS RESTRICTED HIS OPERATIONS BY BASING HIS SHORT RANGE JETS IN MANCHURIA."

"DESPITE THE ADVANTAGE OF THE HAVEN NORTH OF THE YALU," HE SAID, "THE COMMUNIST LOSSES HAVE BEEN EXTREMELY HEAVY COMPARED TO THOSE OF THE UNITED NATIONS FORCES."

AT ANOTHER POINT RIDGWAY SAID:

"INTELLIGENCE REPORTS INDICATE THERE IS MUCH AIR TRAINING ACTIVITY IN VARIOUS AREAS OF CHINA AND MANCHURIA."

HE REPORTED THE COMMUNIST ALSO WERE MAKING EXTREME EFFORTS TO MAINTAIN THEIR AIRFIELDS IN NORTH KOREA DESPITE CONTINUED U.N. ATTACKS. HE INTERPRETED THESE EFFORTS AN THAT THE COMMUNISTS INTEND, OR AT LEAST DESIRE, TO EXTEND THEIR AIR ACTIVITIES TO AREAS THEY CANNOT REACH FROM THE MANCHURIAN BASES.

BY ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON, MAY 19-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN HAVE DECIDED TO RECONSIDER THEIR PLANS FOR SETTING UP NAVAL COMMANDS IN THE ATLANTIC AND THE MEDITERRANEAN, OFFICIAL SOURCES REPORTED TONIGHT.

THEY MAY YET ACCEPT WINSTON CHURCHILL'S VIEW THAT AN AMERICAN SHOULD HAVE NAVAL COMMAND OF THE MEDITERRANEAN AND THAT A BRITON SHOULD CONTROL ATLANTIC DEFENSES, THESE INFORMANTS SAID.

THE LEADER OF THE CONSERVATIVE OPPOSITION MADE HIS SUGGESTION IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS A MONTH AGO WHEN PARLIAMENT DEBATED THE THEN IMMINENT APPOINTMENT OF U.S. ADMIRAL WILLIAM B.FECHTELER AS SUPREME COMMANDER OF THE ATLANTIC OCEAN AREA. FECHTELER'S APPOINTMENT HAD NEVER BEEN FORMALLY ANNOUNCED.

A FEW WEEKS BEFORE IT WAS DUE, THE UNITED STATES SUGGESTED IT BE HELD UP PENDING BRITISH-AMERICAN AGREEMENT ON THE FORMATION AND STRUCTURE OF AN ATLANTIC PACT COMMAND IN THE MEDITERRANEAN.

AS A RESULT THE WHOLE QUESTION HAS BEEN THROWN WIDE OPEN..

SOME REASONS:

1. BRITAIN HAS BEEN PRESSING HARD FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF A BRITON AS SUPREME COMMANDER IN THE MEDITERRANEAN. THE UNITED STATES FOUND IT DIFFICULT TO AGREE, AS THE JOB HAD BEEN PROMISED TO ADMIRAL RICHARD CARNEY, PRESENT COMMANDER OF THE AMERICAN FLEET IN THE EASTERN ATLANTIC AND MEDITERRANEAN.

2. THE UNITED STATES HAS SINCE DECIDED TO SUPPORT THE ADMISSION OF GREECE AND TURKEY INTO THE ATLANTIC PACT AS FULL MEMBERS. THEIR ENTRY WOULD UNDOUBTEDLY STRENGTHEN AMERICAN CLAIMS THAT THE SUPREME COMMAND SHOULD BE VESTED IN AN AMERICAN.

3. THE ARGUMENTS OF BRITISH GOVERNMENT SPOKESMEN THAT THE JOB OF THE ATLANTIC SUPREME COMMANDER WOULD BE MAINLY ADMINISTRATIVE AND THAT EFFECTIVE OPERATIONAL CONTROL WOULD REMAIN IN BRITISH HANDS, UNDOUBTEDLY CAUSED THE AMERICANS TO HAVE SECOND THOUGHTS.

OFFICIALS HERE ARE FRANK ENOUGH TO ADMIT THAT THE ATLANTIC PACT PLANNERS RATHER RUSHED INTO THE WHOLE SITUATION WITHOUT GIVING SUFFICIENT THOUGHT TO ALL ITS ASPECTS. THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN ARE AGREED ABOUT THESE BASIC CONSIDERATIONS:

AN ATLANTIC HIGH COMMAND MUST BE SET UP--EVEN IF IT IS TO BE IN TWO PARTS.

A MEDITERRANEAN COMMAND MUST BE ORGANIZED TO PIN DOWN GEN. DWIGHT D.EISENHOWER'S SOUTHERN FLANK.

IT WOULD BE POLITICALLY UNWISE IF EACH OF THE [illegible] JOBS ARE GIVEN TO AMERICANS.

A27

THE DIFFICULTY ABOUT SWITCHING SIGNALS OVER THE ATLANTIC APPOINTMENTS--TAKING IT AWAY FROM FECHTELER AND GIVING IT TO SOME BRITON--HAS TO DO WITH PRESTIGE.

POSSIBLE SOLUTIONS NOW BEING DISCUSSED:

SPLITTING THE ATLANTIC INTO TWO PARTS AND MAKING A BRITON COMMANDER OF THE EASTERN AREA AND AN AMERICAN COMMANDER OF THE WESTERN AREA DIRECTLY AND INDEPENDENTLY RESPONSIBLE TO THE BRITISH-AMERICAN-FRENCH STANDING GROUP IN WASHINGTON.

SPLITTING THE MEDITERRANEAN COMMAND INTO TWO AND MAKING A BRITON SUPREME COMMANDER OF AIR AND LAND FORCES RESPONSIBLE TO THE STANDING GROUP AND AN AMERICAN NAVAL COMMANDER RESPONSIBLE TO THE SAME GROUP.

(ADVANCE)..KEIGHLEY, ENG., MAY 19-(AP)-WAR MINISTER JOHN STRACHEY SAID TODAY IT WOULD BE "CRAZY" AND "CATASTROPHIC" TO TURN THE UNITED NATIONS' LIMITED WAR IN KOREA INTO AN UNLIMITED WAR AGAINST RED CHINA.

HE SAID IN A ~~PREPARED~~ STATEMENT WHICH HE READ AT A LABOR PARTY RALLY HERE THAT THE BOMBING OF CHINESE CITIES "WOULD SEAL THE FATE OF THE WEST" IN ALL ASIA. STRACHEY SAID "THE PLACE TO HIT BACK AT THE CHINESE IS WHERE THEY HIT US--IN KOREA."

A POLICY OF RESTRAINT BY THE UNITED NATIONS WAS NEITHER "APPEASEMENT NOR WEAKNESS," HE ASSERTED, AND ADDED:

"EVEN IF THEY (THE CHINESE) X X X REFUSE TO NEGOTIATE THEY MAY WELL TIRE OF BEATING THEIR HEADS AGAINST THE BRICK WALL OF OUR DEFENSE AND THE FIGHTING MAY X X X DIE AWAY TACITLY."

STRZCHEY WENT ON TO SAY THAT IN THE CONSIDERED OPINION OF BRITAIN'S MILITARY ADVISERS "OUR LAND FORCES" COULD NOT SUCCEED IN CONQUERING CHINA--AND EVEN IF THEY COULD SUCCEED IT "MUST LOCK UP ALL OR MORE THAN ALL THE FORCES AT PRESENT AVAILABLE TO THE WEST."

AS WAR MINISTER STRACHEY IS RESPONSIBLE FOR RUNNING BRITAIN'S ARMY. HE HAS SOME SAY IN THE LABOR GOVERNMENT'S POLITICAL POLICIES--BUT NOT TOO MUCH, BECAUSE HIS JOB DOES NOT RATE HIM A FULL MEMBER OF THE CABINET.

STRACHEY HAS OFTEN BEEN ATTACKED BY POLITICIANS AND PRESS ALIKE IN THIS COUNTRY BECAUSE OF HIS EXPRESSED SYMPATHY WITH COMMUNISM DURING THE 1930S.

LIVERPOOL, ENG., MAY 19-(AP)-THREE YOUNG AMERICAN NAVY OFFICERS HAVE WIVES IN EVERY PORT -- THEIR OWN LEGAL ONES.

THE THREE WIVES--A REDHEAD, A BLONDE AND A BRUNETTE--WERE WAITING AT THE DOCK TODAY WHEN THE DESTROYERS DENNIS J. BUCKLEY AND SAMUEL B. ROBERTS ARRIVED.

THEY WAVED AND SHOUTED GREETINGS -- JUST AS THEY HAD AT LEGHORN, NAPLES, CANNES, PLYMOUTH AND CARDIFF.

THE THREE ARE MRS. MEETA KING, 22, OF (1608 RALSTON AVENUE) SAN FRANCISCO; MRS. PHYLLIS RUDD, 22, OF (6525 DARLINGTON ROAD) PITTSBURGH, AND MRS. MARION BUTLER, 23, OF (87 BERRIAN ROAD) NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y.

THEY LOOKED TIRED -- BUT TRIM -- AFTER AN ALL-NIGHT TRAIN RIDE FROM CARDIFF.

THE IDEA FOR THEIR SENTIMENTAL JOURNEY CAME TWO MONTHS AGO, WHEN THEIR HUSBANDS -- LT.ALEX B. RUDD OF THE BUCKLEY AND ENSIGNS DANIEL W. KING AND HERBERT BUTLER OF THE ROBERTS -- GOT THEIR SAILING ORDERS FROM NEWPORT, R.I.

"WE DIDN'T MUCH LIKE THE IDEA OF PINING AT HOME, SO AS WE WANTED A TRIP TO EUROPE WE PUT OUR HEADS TOGETHER AND MADE PLANS FOR THE JOURNEY ON THE SPOT," SAID MRS. BUTLER.

THE GIRLS ARE TRAVELLING THE HARD WAY -- WAITING ON DINGY STATIONS TO CATCH NIGHT TRAINS, SLEEPING ON TRAIN SEATS TO SAVE HOTEL BILLS, AND SNATCHING HASTY MEALS IN RAILROAD CAFES.

"I ESTIMATE 90 034 :3,5 9! 974 ')3308,&

"I ESTIMATE 90 PER CENT OF OUR SLEEPING IS DONE ON RAILROAD SEATS," MRS. KING SAID.

THEY ARE ALL MANAGING ON THEIR HUSBANDS' PAY, AND HAVE BUDGETED TO SPEND $200 A MONTH.

"SO FAR," SAID MRS. KING, DAUGHTER OF SAN FRANCISCO'S CIVIL DEFENSE DIRECTOR," WE HAVE BEEN ABLE TO SAVE A LITTLE OUT OF THAT FOR OUR FARE HOME. WE ARE HAVING A WONDERFUL TIME AND ARE ENJOYING THE TRIP IMMENSELY. TELL THE FOLKS BACK HOME THAT PEOPLE EVERYWHERE HAVE BEEN MOST HELPFUL."
"W CAN'T HAVE ANY LUXURIES," CHIPPED IN MRS. RUDD, "BUT WE DON'T SPEND ANY MORE THAN WE DO AT HOME."
THE GIRLS, WHO LEFT THE UNITED STATES IN THE ILE DE FRANCE ON MARCH 30, SPENT 10 DAYS SIGHTSEEING IN PARIS BEFORE JOINING THEIR HUSBANDS AT LEGHORN. THEY HOPE TO BE HOME AGAIN BY THE FALL.
SO FAR, THEY HAVE ONLY ONE WORRY -- THEY ARE RUNNING OUT OF NYLONS, BUT MRS.BUTLER HAS CABLED HOME FOR A FRESH SUPPLY.
THEY ARE KEEPING THEIR FINGERS CROSSED -- UP TO NOW THE TWO DESTROYERS HAVE KEPT TOGETHER, BUT IF THEY DO SEPARATE MRS.RUDD WILL HAVE TO TRAVEL ON HER OWN WHILE THE OTHER TWO ARE CHASING THE ROBERTS FROM PORT TO PORT IN EACH OTHER'S COMPANY.
WHAT DO THE HUSBANDS THINK OF IT ALL?
"THEY THINK IT'S A SWELL IDEA," ACCORDING TO MRS.BUTLER. THE BUTLERS HAVE ONLY BEEN MARRIED SEVEN MONTHS, THE KINGS FOUR MONTHS, AND THE RUDDS THREE.

PARIS, MAY 19-(AP)-A DISAGREEMENT OVER THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY AND U.S. BASES OVERSEAS IS NOW THE ONLY MAJOR POINT PREVENTING COMPLETION OF AN AGENDA FOR A BIG FOUR FOREIGN MINISTERS MEETING, USUALLY RELIABLE SOURCES SAID TODAY.
THE DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTERS OF THE UNITED STATES, RUSSIA, BRITAIN AND FRANCE COMPLETED THEIR ELEVENTH WEEK OF HAGGLING ABOUT THE TOPICS TO BE LISTED.
RUSSIA'S ANDREI GROMYKO PAVED THE WAY FOR AGREEMENT ON THE QUESTION

30.24- 23179

OF JUST WHERE GERMAN DEMILITARIZATION SHOULD APPEAR ON THE LIST.
RUSSIA WANTS IT FIRST. THE WESTERN POWERS WANT IT FARTHER DOWN, WITH A FOOTNOTE EXPLAINING THAT ITS POSITION COULD NOT BE AGREED.
GROMYKO'S SUGGESTION TODAY WAS TO PUT THE GERMAN DEMILITARIZATION ITEM IN BOTH PLACES, WITH ASTERISKS AFTER IT EACH ITEM DIRECTING THE MINISTERS TO A FOOTNOTE EXPLAINING THE DISAGREEMENT.
OFFICIALLY, WESTERN DELEGATES SAID THEY WOULD WAIT UNTIL MONDAY TO COMMENT ON THE SUGGESTION, BUT IT WAS APPARENT THE SENTIMENT WAS TO ACCEPT IT.
THE DEPUTIES STILL HVE THE PROBLEM OF WHETHER THE MINISTERS SHOULD DISCUSS THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY AND THE ESTABLISHMENT OF UNITED STATES BASES ABROAD.
RUSSIA INSISTS THIS SHOULD BE AN ITEM BECAUSE IT IS "ONE OF THE CAUSES AND EFFECTS OF PRESENT INTERNATIONAL TENSIONS IN EUROPE" WHICH THE MINISTERS ARE TO DISCUSS.
THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE INSIST IT HAS NO PLACE ON THE AGENDA, SINCE RUSSIA IS NOT A MEMBER OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE. BESIDES, SAY THE WESTERN DELEGATES, RUSSIA'S FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI VISHINSKY CAN BRING THE MATTER UP IF HE WANTS TO UNDER OTHER HEADINGS, SUCH AS DECLARING IT IS A CAUSE OF INTERNATIONAL TENSION.
THE MATTER PROBABLY WILL END BY GOING TO THE FOREIGN MINISTERS AS A "DISAGREED ITEM." THE DEPUTIES ALREADY HAVE AGREED TO DISAGREE ON THE WORDING OF AN ARMS REDUCTION ITEM, LEAVING IT FOR THE MINISTERS TO DECIDE.

PARIS, MAY 19-(AP)-THE BIG FOUR DEPUTIES TODAY ENDED THEIR 11TH WEEK OF HAGGLING OVER AN AGENDA FOR A MEETING OF FOREIGN MINISTERS OF RUSSIA, THE U.S., BRITAIN AND FRANCE.
NOT MUCH WAS ACHIEVED IN TODAY'S 57TH SESSION, BUT DELEGATES EXPRESSED THEIR REGULAR SATURDAY OPTIMISM THAT "THE MEETING WILL END NEXT WEEK."
RUSSIA'S ANDREI GROMYKO CAME UP WITH A NEW SUGGESTION TODAY TO TRY TO SOLVE THE RIDDLE OF JUST WHERE THE SUBJECT OF GERMAN DEMILITARIZATION SHOULD APPEAR ON THE COMPLETED AGENDA. RUSSIA WANTS IT FIRST. THE WESTERN POWERS WANT IT FURTHER DOWN, BUT ARE WILLING TO LET THE MINISTERS THEMSELVES DECIDE WHERE IT SHOULD APPEAR.
GROMYKO SUGGESTED TODAY THAT THE ITEM APPEAR TWICE ON THE AGENDA, ONCE WHERE SHE WANTS IT AND ONCE WHERE THE WEST WANTS IT, EACH TIME WITH AN ASTERISK DIRECTING THE MINISTERIAL ATTENTION TO A FOOTNOTE EXPLAINING THE DISAGREEMENT.
WESTERN DELEGATES RESERVED THEIR COMMENT ON THIS SUGGESTION UNTIL MONDAY'S MEETING.
THE SENTIMENT AFTER TODAY'S SESSION, HOWEVER, SEEMED TO BE FOR WESTERN ACCEPTANCE OF THE IDEA. THAT WOULD LEAVE THE QUESTION OF WHETHER THE NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE TREATY OUGHT TO BE ON THE AGENDA AS THE SOLE REMAINING POINT OF DISAGREEMENT.

PARIS, MAY 19-(AP)-THE FRENCH NATIONAL ASSEMBLY TODAY VOTED A RECORD BUDGET OF 2,648,000,000,000 FRANCS ($7,560,000,000) FOR 1951, OF WHICH SOMEWHAT MORE THAN A FOURTH IS EARMARKED FOR THE ARMED FORCES.
THE VOTE WAS 301 TO 177, WITH ONLY THE COMMUNISTS OPPOSED.
EXPENDITURES WILL EXCEED RECEIPTS BY 544,000,000,000 FRANCS UNDER THE GOVERNMENT ESTIMATES. (THE DOLLAR IS WORTH ABOUT 350 FRANCS). THE FRENCH EXPECT PART OF THE DEFICIT TO BE COVERED BY 255,000,000,000 FRANCS WORTH OF AMERICAN AID UNDER THE MARSHALL PLAN AND THE MILITARY AID PROGRAM. SOME OF THIS, HOWEVER, HAS NOT YET BEEN VOTED BY CONGRESS.
BY AMERICAN CALCULATIONS, THE FRENCH ACCOUNTS ARE THROWN OUT OF BALANCE STILL FURTHER BY SOME 321,000,000,000 FRANCS WORTH OF LOANS WHICH IN FRANCE ARE LISTED ON THE CREDIT SIDE OF THE LEDGER.
THE FRENCH ARMED FORCES ARE TO GET 743,000,000,000 FRANCS, OR THE EQUIVALENT OF ABOUT $2,610,000,000.
BOTH THE PERCENTAGE AND THE AMOUNTS OF THE MILITARY BUDGETS OF FRANCE'S TWO BIG PARTNERS IN WESTERN DEFENSE, THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN, ARE LARGER.
OF THE $71,000,000,000 BUDGET PRESIDENT TRUMAN LAID BEFORE CONGRESS IN JANUARY, THE UNITED STATES MILITARY SERVICES WERE DOWN FOR $41,421,000,000.
BRITAIN'S RECORD PEACETIME BUDGET OF 1951 EQUALLS $11,751,000,000, OF WHICH $4,172,000,000 IS EARMARKED FOR REARMAMENT AGAINST COMMUNIST AGGRESSION.
THE FRENCH BUDGET, HOWEVER, PROVIDES FOR EXPENDITURES TOTALLING 2,238,000,000 FRANCS MORE THAN LAST YEAR.
WITH A NATIONAL ELECTION COMING UP, THE DEPUTIES HAVE VOTED DOWN OVER THE LAST FIVE MONTHS PROPOSALS BY THE CABINET FOR ABOUT 52,000,000,000 FRANCS WORTH OF NEW TAXES. IN SOME CASES, TAXES WERE REDUCED.
FRENCH VOTERS ARE TO CHOOSE A NEW ASSEMBLY SUNDAY, JUNE 17.--

ISTANBUL, TURKEY, MAY 19-(AP)-AN IRRITABLE KING ABDULLAH OF JORDAN SAID TODAY HE WOULD NOT STAND WITH FOLDED ARMS IF ANY AGGRESSION TOOK AN INCH OF LAND FROM ANY OF HIS ARAB NEIGHBORS.

THE MONARCH IS IN TURKEY ON A STATE VISIT. HE TALKED TO NEWSMEN IN ISTANBUL'S FAMED DOLMABACHE PALACE ABOUT WARLIKE PREPARATIONS BEING MADE BY BOTH SIDES IN THE BORDER FEUD BETWEEN SYRIA AND ISRAEL.

REPORTERS NOTED THAT IRAQ HAD SENT FORCES TO HELP SYRIA, THAT EGYPT HAD OFFERED TO HELP AND THAT ISRAEL WAS REPORTED TO BE PARTIALLY MOBILIZING.

"I DO NOT THINK THERE WILL BE A WAR," ABDULLAH DECLARED, "BUT I DO NOT REALLY KNOW THE FUTURE. ONLY ALLAH KNOWS ALL."

A REPORTER REMARKED THAT THE KING'S BRITISH-TRAINED ARAB LEGION HAD PLAYED A BIG ROLE IN ISRAEL-ARAB FIGHTING AND ASKED ABDULLAH, "WHAT ABOUT NOW?"

"WE ARE NOT NOW OFFICIALLY IN THE ARAB LEAGUE," THE KING REPLIED, "BUT IF ANY AGGRESSION TAKES A SINGLE INCH OF LAND FROM ANY OF MY NEIGHBORS I AM NOT GOING TO STAND WITH FOLDED ARMS."

ABDULLAH SUDDENLY LEAPED OUT OF HIS CHAIR AND GLARED AT THE NEWSMEN.

"WHY ASK ME A QUESTION LIKE THAT?" HE DEMANDED. "I AM A GUEST OF THIS COUNTRY. SUCH A QUESTION REFLECTS IMMATURITY. WHAT WOULD YOU EXPECT ME TO SAY?"

THE REPORTERS INSISTED THE QUESTION DID NOT REFLECT IMMATURITY, SINCE THE WHOLE WORLD HAS ITS EYES ON THE SYRIAN-ISRAELI DISPUTE.

"I DO NOT CARE WHAT ANYONE THINKS ABOUT THIS," ABDULLAH SNAPPED BACK.

AMS BUDGET

NIGHT LEAD IRAN

BY ROBERT B. HEWETT

TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 19-(AP)-IRAINIAN OFFICIALS GAVE AN ICY RECEPTION TODAY TO A BRITISH NOTE WARNING THAT REFUSAL TO NEGOTIATE OIL DIFFERENCES WOULD BRING "THE MOST SERIOUS CONSEQUENCES."

PREMIER MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH REFUSED TO RECEIVE BRITISH AMBASSADOR SIR FRANCIS SHEPHERD BEHIND THE LOCKED DOORS AND BOARDED UP WINDOWS OF HIS OFFICE IN THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING. SO SHEPHERD DELIVERED THE NOTE INSTEAD TO FOREIGN MINISTER BAGHER KAZEMI.

THE NERVOUS PREMIER HAS BARRICADED HIMSELF TO THWART PURPORTED ASSASSINATION PLOTS. HE HAS VOWED TO STAY IN SECLUSION UNTIL THE GIANT ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY HAS BEEN TAKEN OVER UNDER THE NATIONALIZATION LAW HE PUSHED THROUGH PARLIAMENT.

IRANIAN OFFICIALS SAID PRIVATELY THE NOTE--ON WHICH THE UNITED STATES HAD BEEN CONSULTED BY BRITAIN--WAS "JUST THE SAME OLD NONSENSE."

THE BRITISH PROPOSED SENDING A HIGH LEVEL MISSION--POSSIBLY HEADED BY EARL MOUNTBATTEN, A COUSIN OF KING GEORGE VI--IMMEDIATELY TO REACH A SOLUTION ON THE FUTURE OF THE BRITISH-OWNED COMPANY.

SHEPHERD DELIVERED THE COMMUNICATION TO KAZEMI AT A 35-MINUTE CONFERENCE. SHEPHERD SAID THEIR TALKS WAS FRIENDLY. THE AMBASSADOR THEN DROVE TO THE ROYAL PALACE AND HAD AN HOUR'S TALK WITH SHAH MOHAMMED REZA PAHLEVI, AN ACT WHICH UNDERLINED THE INACCESSIBILITY OF THE PREMIER.

INFORMED SOURCES SAID THERE APPREARED LITTLE CHANCE THAT MOSSADEGH WILL AGREE TO NEGOTIATE. HE HAS REBUFFED ONE SUCH OFFER.

THE NEXT MOVE SEEMED TO BE UP TO THE PREMIER. SOONER OR LATER, IF HE PERSISTS IN HIS PRESENT COURSE, THE PARLIAMENTARY BOARD EMPOWERED BY IRAN'S OIL NATIONALIZATION LAW TO TAKE OVER PHYSICAL POSSESSION OF THE WORLD'S LARGEST REFINERY AND RICH OIL FIELDS WILL HAVE TO ACT.

THE BOARD HAS BEEN MARKING TIME FOR A WEEK, AND SO FAR HAS COME UP WITH NO CONCRETE PLAN FOR GETTING POSSESSION OF THE COMPANY'S BOOKS OR OTHERWISE IMPLEMENTING THE LAW.

BRITAIN GAVE NO CLUE TO WHAT THE "SERIOUS CONSEQUENCES" OF SUCH ACTION WOULD BE. TEHRAN PAPERS HAVE GIVEN PROMINENCE, HOWEVER, TO THE ALERTING OF PARACHUTE TROOPS IN BRITAIN AND THE UNCONFIRMED REPORTS THAT THEY MIGHT INTERVENE TO PROTECT BRITISH PROPERTY AND LIVES.

A172

THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT, IN A STATEMENT ISSUED IN WASHINGTON, HAS URGED IRAN TO NEGOTIATE, AND HAS INDICATED THAT AMERICAN EXPERTS WILL NOT BE AVAILABLE TO REPLACE BRITISH TECHNICIANS IF THIS COUNTRY GOES AHEAD BY ONE-SIDED ACTION TO EXPEL THE BRITISH. THE UNITED STATES, HOWEVER, EMPHASIZED THAT IT HAD NOT SPECIFICALLY APPROVED OR DISAPPROVED THE BRITISH NOTE.

BRITAIN SAID SHE DID NOT CHALLENGE THE RIGHT OF IRAN TO NATIONALIZE A COMMERCIAL ENTERPRISE--WHICH THE BRITISH LABOR GOVERNMENT ITSELF HAS DONE REPETEADLY.

THE REAL ISSUE, SHE DECLARED, IS "THE WRONG DONE IF A SOVEREIGN STATE BREAKS A CONTRACT WHICH IT HAS DELIVERATELY MADE."

THE CONTRACT OF 1933 BETWEEN THE OIL COMPANY AND IRAN, THE NOTE SAID, PROVIDED THAT THE TERMS COULD NOT BE CHANGED EXCEPT BY AGREEMENT, AND THAT DISPUTES WOULD BE SETTLED BY ARBITRATION OR THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE. THE CONTRACT HAS UNTIL 1993 TO RUN.

BRITAIN CHALLENGED IRAN'S CONTENTION THAT THE DISPUTE IS BETWEEN IRAN AND THE COMPANY. THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT, THE NOTE SAID, OWNS A MAJORITY OF THE COMPANY SHARES AND HAS "THE FULLEST RIGHT TO PROTECT ITS INTERESTS."

THE NOTE, WRITTEN BY FOREIGN SECRETARY HERBERT MORRISON, RECALLED THAT OFFICIALS OF BOTH IRAN AND BRITAIN HAVE EXPRESSED DESIRES FOR "MAINTAINING GOOD RELATIONS AND STRENGTHENING THE FOUNDATION OF FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN IRAN AND THE UNITED KINGDOM."

"I SHOULD, HOWEVER, BE LESS THAN FRANK," MORRISON CONCLUDED, "IF I DID NOT SAY THAT A REFUSAL ON THE PART OF THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT TO NEGOTIATE, OR ANY ATTEMPT ON THEIR PART TO PROCEED IN A UNILATERAL ACTION TO THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE RECENT LEGISLATION, COULD NOT FAIL GRAVELY TO IMPAIR THOSE FRIENDLY RELATIONS WHICH BOTH WISH TO EXIST AND TO HAVE THE MOST SERIOUS CONSEQUENCES."

BRITISH OFFICIALS IN LONDON PRIVATELY EXPRESSED SOME HOPE LAST (SATURDAY) NIGHT, FOR THE FIRST TIME, THAT IRAN WILL CONSENT TO DICKER.

A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN HAILED AS HELPFUL THE UNITED STATES DECLARATION FRIDAY THAT AMERICAN EXPERTS WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO REPLACE BRITONS IF THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT INSISTS ON COMPLETING THE SEIZURE AS PROPOSED AND EXPELS THE BRITISH.

THE BRITISH BELIEVE THE SHAH WOULD LIKE TO SEE SOME SORT OF COMPROMISE. SPECULATION HAS BEEN AROUSED BY A VISIT OF EX-PREMIER AHMED QAVAM TO SWITZERLAND, A CENTER OF INTERNATIONAL ACTIVITY IN BOTH DIPLOMACY AND FINANCE.

QAVAM IS A MAN OF TESTED PRO-WESTERN SYMPATHIES. HE HAD A LONG TALK WITH THE SHAH SHORTLY BEFORE LEAVING TEHRAN.

THE OPINION OF LONDON OBSERVERS IS THAT BRITAIN IS LIKELY TO ACCEPT THE PRINCIPLE OF NATIONALIZATION AS A FACE-SAVER FOR THE IRANIANS IF THE DISCUSSIONS CAN BE ARRANGED, BUT WOULD INSIST THAT EFFECTIVE CONTROL OF IRAN'S OIL INDUSTRY REMAIN IN THE HANDS OF THE ANGLO-IRANIAN COMPANY.

SECOND LEAD IRANIAN (ROUNDUP) (520)

BY ROBERT B.HEWETT

TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 19-(AP)-BRITAIN OFFERED TODAY TO SEND A HIGH-RANKING DIPLOMATIC MISSION TO IRAN TO TRY TO SETTLE THE BITTER DISPUTE OVER NATIONALIZATION OF THE HUGE BRITISH-OWNED ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY. BUT THE OFFER GOT A COOL RECEPTION BY THE IRANIANS.

THE PROPOSAL WAS CONTAINED IN A STIFF NOTE OF PROTEST HANDED BY BRITISH AMBASSADOR SIR FRANCIS M.SHEPHERD TO THE IRANIAN FOREIGN OFFICE.

SHEPHERD EARLIER HAD TRIED TO PRESENT THE NOTE TO NATIONALIST PREMIER F.MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH. THE PREMIER, BARRICADED IN THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING SINCE LAST SUNDAY BECAUSE HE SAID MOSLEM FANATICS HAD THREATENED HIS LIFE, REFUSED TO SEE THE BRITISH AMBASSADOR.

AIDES SAID MOSSADEGH, REMAINING BEHIND LOCKED DOORS AND BOARDED WINDOWS, IS SUFFERING FROM FEVER. BUT MOST IRANIAN POLITICIANS INTERPRETED THE ACTION AS A DELIBERATE REBUFF TO THE BRITISH.

SHEPHERD SAID THE NOTE OFFERED NEW NEGOTIATIONS TO AMEND THE 1933 TREATY WHICH GIVES THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY PRODUCTION RIGHTS IN IRAN UNTIL 1993. HE SAID THE NOTE ALSO REITERATED BRITAIN'S STAND THAT GOVERNMENT SEIZURE OF THE VAST BRITISH HOLDINGS WAS A VIOLATION OF THAT TREATY.

FULL CONTENTS OF THE NOTE WERE NOT IMMEDIATELY DISCLOSED HERE.

(THE TEXT OF THE NOTE, AS RELEASED BY THE FOREIGN OFFICE IN LONDON, CALLED THE NATIONALIZATION OF THE COMPANY A UNILATERAL ACTION WITHOUT THE COMPANY'S CONSENT, AND SAID BRITAIN MAY TAKE THE CASE BEFORE THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE AT THE HAGUE IF IRAN PERSISTS IN THE NATIONALIZATION MOVE.)

BRITAIN SENT THE NOTE AFTER CONFERRING AT LENGTH WITH WASHINGTON. THE U.S., REPORTEDLY FEARING THE COMMUNISTS MAY TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE BRITISH-IRANIAN FEUD TO STAGE A COUP IN THIS OIL-RICH COUNTRY ON RUSSIA'S SOUTHERN BORDERS, HAS URGED IRAN TO WORK OUT A SETTLEMENT WITH BRITAIN ON A FRIENDLY BASIS.

AFTER BEING SNUBBED BY MOSSADEGH, SHEPHERD TOOK THE NOTE TO FOREIGN MINISTER BAGHER KAZEMI. AFTER A 35-MINUTE CONFERENCE WITH KAZEMI, WHICH HE DESCRIBED AS FRIENDLY, SHEPHERD THEN DROVE TO THE PALACE OF SHAH MOHAMMED REZA PAHLEVI. HE DECLINED TO COMMENT ON HIS TALK WITH THE SHAH.

THE NEXT STEP IN THE DISPUTE DEPENDS ON IRAN'S ANSWER TO THE OFFER OF NEGOTIATION.

ONE HIGH OFFICIAL CLOSE TO MOSSADEGH SAID OF THE OFFER: IT'S NOTHING NEW -- JUST THE SAME OLD NONSENSE."

HE REPEATED THE GOVERNMENT'S STAN THAT IRAN HAS THE RIGHT TO NATIONALIZE THE BRITISH CONCERN AND THERE IS NOTHING LEFT TO TALK ABOUT IN THE WAY OF COMPROMISE.

MAY 20 1951

A106

SIMILAR BRITISH REQUESTS FOR NEGOTIATION HAVE BEEN REJECTED BY THE IRANIANS DURING THE LAST FEW WEEKS. INFORMED SOURCES SAID THERE IS LITTLE LIKELIHOOD OF A CHANGE IN IRAN'S VIEW NOW.

MOSSADEGH SAID THE DISPUTE IS ONE BETWEEN THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT AND THE OIL COMPANY -- WHICH IS REFERRED TO IN ALL GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS NOW AS THE "FORMER OIL COMPANY." THE PREMIER MAINTAINS THE DISPUTE IS AN INTERNAL MATTER AND NONE OF BRITAIN'S BUSINESS. THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT CONTROLS MORE THAN HALF OF THE ANGLO-IRANIAN STOCK AND SAYS IT IS BRITISH BUSINESS.

(THE NOTE INSISTED BRITAIN HAS "THE FULLEST RIGHT TO PROTECT ITS INTERESTS" IN EVERY WAY SHE PROPERLY CAN.)

UNCONFIRMED REPORTS APPEARED IN THE TEHRAN PRESS THAT BRITAIN HAS OFFERED TO SEND EARL MOUNTBATTEN, LAST VICEROY OF INDIA AND COUSIN OF KING GEORGE VI, TO NEGOTITATE THE SETTLEMENT.

SOONER OR LATER, EVEN IF IRAN GOES AHEAD WITH THE NATIONALIZATION, THERE WILL HAVE TO BE SOME SORT OF CONFERENCE BETWEEN THE BRITISH AND THE IRANIANS ON HE LEGAL TECHNICALITIES OF TURNING OVER THE OIL COMPANY. A JOINT PARLIAMENTARY OIL BOARD ALREADY HAS BEEN APPOINTED TO IMPLEMENT THE NATIONALIZATION LAW, BUT SO FAR THERE HAVE BEEN NO SIGNS OF ACTION.

WITH IRAN (500)
LONDON, MAY 19-(AP)-BRITAIN WARNED IRAN TODAY THAT FAILURE TO NEGOTIATE A NEW OIL AGREEMENT WOULD HAV[illegible]E MOST SERIOUS CONSEQUENCES."
IN A FIRM NOTE DELIVERED TO THE IRANIAN FOREIGN MINISTER IN TEHRAN TODAY, SHE SAID THAT ONE-SIDED ACTION BY IRAN TO TAKE OVER BRITAIN'S GIANT OIL CONCESSIONS "COULD NOT FAIL TO GRAVELY IMPAIR "FRIENDLY RELATIONS BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES.
SHE OFFERED TO SEND A MISSION IMMEDIATELY TO TEHRAN TO NEGOTIATE A NEW AGREEMENT.
THE FOREIGN OFFICE RELEASED THE TEXT OF THE NOTE SOON AFTER SIR FRANCIS SHEPHERD DELIVERED IT.
THE NOTE SAID THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT STILL HOPES THE OIL PROBLEM CAN BE SETTLED BY NEGOTIATION AND IT ADDED "THE INTERESTS OF HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT AND THE ANGLO-IRANIAN COMPANY (WHICH HOLDS THE IRANIAN CONCESSIONS) IN THIS MATTER ARE IDENTICAL."
IRAN HAS PASSED LEGISLATION THROUGH PARLIAMENT WHICH IN EFFECT ALREADY HAS NATIONALIZED ALL FOREIGN-OWNED OIL DEVELOPMENT PROJECTS IN THE COUNTRY.
BRITAIN ALREADY HAS STRONGLY PROTESTED AGAINST IRAN'S PARLIAMENTARY ACTION.
THE BRITISH NOTE ARGUED THAT, BECAUSE THE GOVERNMENT OWNS A MAJORITY OF THE SHARES IN THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY, BRITAIN HAS "THE FULLEST RIGHT TO PROTECT ITS INTERESTS" IN EVERY WAY SHE PROPERLY CAN.
THEN IT ADDED "HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT WOULD HAVE AN UNANSWERABLE RIGHT UNDER INTERNATIONAL LAW TO TAKE UP THE CASE AND, IF THEY DEEM IT EXPEDIENT, TO BRING THEIR COMPLAINT AGAINST THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT BEFORE THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE AT THE HAGUE. IN THAT CONTINGENCY THEY WOULD HOPE THAT THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT WOULD COLLABORATE IN ENABLING THE COURT TO GIVE A DECISION AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE."

A76
BUT, THE NOTE WENT ON, BRITAIN WOULD PREFER TO TALK THE WHOLE THING OVER.
ITAN ALREADY HAS MADE CLEAR TO BRITAIN THAT SHE REJECTS THE IDEA OF NEGOTIATIONS ON THE PRINCIPLE OF OIL NATIONALIZATION.
TEHRAN HAS TOLD LONDON IT HAS THE RIGHT, AS A SOVEREIGN GOVERNMENT, TO TAKE OVER ANY FOREIGN-OWNED PROPERTIES AND PROJECTS. IT ALSO HAS OFFERED TO PAY COMPENSATION FOR COMPANY ASSETS AND HAS MADE CLEAR THAT IRANIAN OIL WOULD STILL BE SOLD TO BRITAIN.
THE BRITISH NOTE--DRAFTED AFTER TALKS WITH THE UNITED STATES--ASSERTED THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAS NEVER DISPUTED IRAN'S RIGHTS TO NATIONALIZE COMMERCIAL ENTERPRISES. IT ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT "THE ESSENTIAL POINT IS THAT THE PERSIAN (IRANIAN) GOVERNMENT, IN EFFECT, UNDERTOOK TO EXERCISE THIS RIGHT AND THE REAL ISSUE IS THEREFORE THE WRONG DONE IF A SOVEREIGN STATE BREAKS A CONTRACT WHICH IT DELIBERATELY MADE."
THE NOTE RECALLED THAT IRAN AGREED IN 1933 NEVER TO CHANGE THE POSITION OF THE OIL COMPANY WITHOUT THE COMPANY'S CONSENT.
THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY IS BRITAIN'S BIGGEST SINGLE FOREIGN ASSET. IT HAS BEEN EXTRACTING OIL FROM THE RICH FIELDS OF SOUTHERN IRAN UNDER A 60-YEAR AGREEMENT SIGNED IN 1933. IT SUPPLIES MOST OF THE FUEL FOR THE BRITISH NAVY. IF THIS SOURCE DRIED UP, BRITAIN WOULD HAVE TO GET MOST OF HER MILITARY AND CIVILIAN FUEL REQUIREMENTS FROM AMERICAN SOURCES.
BRITAIN, WHICH HAS NATIONALIZED MANY OF HER OWN INDUSTRIES, SAID SHE WAS NOT REALLY AGAINST THE IDEA OF THE STATE TAKING OVER A MAJOR PUBLIC ENTERPRISE IN THE NATIONAL INTEREST.
THE NOTE SAID SHE WAS REALLY RESISTING A ONE-SIDED IRANIAN VIOLATION OF AN INTERNATIONAL COMMITMENT SOLEMNLY ENTERED UPON.
SHE OFFERED TO REVISE THE TERMS OF AGREEMENT TO THE ADVANTAGE OF THE IRANIAN PEOPLE.

B61 (Q)
LONDON, MAY 19-(AP)-THE TEXT OF THE BRITISH NOTE DELIVERED TO IRAN'S FOREIGN MINISTER TODAY BY AMBASSADOR SIR FRANCIS SHEPHERD: (ABOUT 850)
I HAVE RECEIVED THROUGH HIS IMPERIAL MAJESTY'S AMBASSADOR IN LONDON YOUR REPLY TO THE MESSAGE WHICH I SENT TO YOU THROUGH HIM ON MAY 2ND. I REGRET TO FIND THAT IT CONTAINS NO RESPONSE TO THE SUGGESTION WHICH I MADE, AND WHICH I HAVE SINCE REAFFIRMED PUBLICLY, THAT HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT IN THE UNITED KINGDOM WISH TO SEE THE QUESTION OF THE FUTURE OPERATIONS OF THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY IN IRAN SETTLED BY NEGOTIATION, BUT INSTEAD APPEARS TO ASSERT A RIGHT BY THE IMPERIAL GOVERNMENT OF IRAN TO PROCEED BY UNILATERAL ACTION TO DISPOSSESS THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY.
HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT FULLY UNDERSTAND AND SYMPATHIZE WITH THE DESIRE OF THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT TO STRENGTHEN THE ECONOMIC STRUCTURE OF THEIR COUNTRY AND TO PROVIDE FOR THE GENERAL WELFARE OF ITS PEOPLE. THEY THEMSELVES HAVE CONSTANTLY SHOWN IN PRACTICAL WAYS THAT THESE OBJECTS ARE OF DEEP CONCERN TO THEM. THEY FIND IT DIFFICULT TO BELIEVE, HOWEVER, THAT THE UNILATERAL ACTION WHICH THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT ARE PROPOSING TO TAKE WILL CONTRIBUTE TOWARDS THEIR FULFILMENT.
HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT, MOREOVER, NEITHER DESIRE OR INTEND TO QUESTION THE EXERCISE BY IRAN OF ANY SOVEREIGN RIGHTS WHICH SHE MAY LEGITIMATELY EXERCISE. THEY MAINTAIN, HOWEVER, THAT THE ACTION NOW PROPOSED AGAINST THE COMPANY IS NOT A LEGITIMATE EXERCISE OF THOSE RIGHTS. THE 1933 AGREEMENT IS A CONTRACT BETWEEN THE PERSIAN (CQ--BRITISH USE OLD NAME OF IRAN AS SYNONYM FOR NEW) GOVERNMENT AND A FOREIGN COMPANY CONCLUDED UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS AFTER AN ATTEMPT BY THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT TO DEPRIVE THE COMPANY OF THESE RIGHTS UNDER ITS PREVIOUS CONCESSION HAD BEEN BROUGHT BY HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT BEFORE THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS. IT WAS, MOREOVER, RATIFIED BY THE MAJLIS (PARLIAMENT) AND BECAME PERSIAN LAW. FURTHER, THE AGREEMENT CONTAINS TWO VERY IMPORTANT PROVISIONS:
(A) THAT THE POSITION OF THE COMPANY UNDER ITS AGREEMENT SHALL NEVER BE ALTERED BY ACTION OF THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT OR EVEN BY IRANIAN LEGISLATION (ARTICLE 21) ET

NEVER BE ALTERED BY ACTION OF THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT OR EVEN BY IRANIAN LEGISLATION (ARTICLE 21) EXCEPT AS THE RESULT OF AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE COMPANY AND THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT.
(B) THAT IF THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT HAD ANY COMPLAINT AGAINST THE COMPANY OR VICE VERSA AND THE DISPUTE COULD NOT BE SETTLED OTHERWISE, IT WAS TO BE REFERRED TO ARBITRATION (ARTICLE 22), THE ARBITRAL TRIBUNAL BEING PRESIDED OVER BY AN UMPIRE APPOINTED BY THE ARBITRATORS THEMSELVES OR, IN DEFAULT OF THEIR AGREEMENT, BY THE PRESIDE OF THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE AT THE HAGUE.

B62

THE ESSENTIAL POINT IS NOT THE RIGHT OF A SOVEREIGN POWER BY ITS LEGISLATION TO NATIONALIZE COMMERCIAL ENTEPRISES CARRIED ON WITHIN ITS BORDERS NOR WHAT IS THE MEASURE OF COMPENSATION IT SHOULD PAY FOR DOING SO; THE ESSENTIAL POINT IS THAT THE PERSIAN GOVERNMENT IN EFFECT UNDERTOOK NOT TO EXERCISE THIS RIGHT AND THE REAL ISSUE IS THEREFORE THE WRONG DONE IF A SOVEREIGN STATE BREAKS A CONTRACT WHICH IT HAS DELIBERATELY MADE.

IF, AS YOUR EXCELLENCY CLAIMS, THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT HAS GRIEVANCES AGAINST THE COMPANY, THEIR REMEDY, AS I HAVE SHOWN ABOVE, WAS TO SEEK ARBITRATION. THAT COURSE HAS NOT BEEN ADOPTED. INSTEAD, THE IRANIAN PARLIAMENT HAVE ENACTED A LAW WHICH ENVISAGES A FUNDAMENTAL CHANGE IN THE STATUS OF THE COMPANY. THE COMPANY THEREFORE HAD NO ALTERNATIVE BUT TO MAKE KNOWN TO THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT ITS WISH TO TAKE THE WHOLE MATTER TO ARBITRATION.

THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY IS A BRITISH COMPANY REGISTERED IN THE UNITED KINGDOM; MOREOVER, HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT OWN S A MAJORITY OF THE SHARES IN THE COMPANY. IT IS CLEAR, THEREFORE, THAT HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT HAVE THE FULLEST RIGHT TO PROTECT ITS INTERESTS IN EVERY WAY THEY PROPERLY CAN. THE COMPANY HAS HAD ITS VALUABLE RIGHTS ESTABLISHED UNDER THE AGREEMENT INJURIOUSLY AFFECTED BY AN IRANIAN ENACTMENT WHICH ARTICLE 21 PROVIDED THAT THIS SHOULD NOT BE SO. THE COMPANY HAS APPEALED TO THE ONLY REMEDY WHICH IS OPEN TO IT, NAMELY, ARBITRATION UNDER ARTICLE 22. IF THAT REMEDY SHOULD BE RENDERED ILLUSORY BY THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT, THEN THE QUESTION MUST BECOME AN ISSUE BETWEEN THE TWO GOVERNMENTS. HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT WOULD HAVE AN UNANSWERABLE RIGHT UNDER INTERNATIONA LAW TO TAKE UP THE CASE, AND, IF THEY DEEMED IT EXPEDIENT, TO BRING THEIR COMPLAINT AGAINST THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT BEFORE THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE AT THE HAGUE. IN THAT CONTINGENCY THEY WOULD HOPE THAT THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT WOULD COLLABORATE IN ENABLING THE COURT TO GIVE A DECISION AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE.

ON THE OTHER HAND, HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT STILL HOPE THAT THE PROBLEM CAN BE SOLVED BY NEGOTIATION TO THE SATISFACTION OF ALL CONCERNED. THE INTERESTS OF HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT AND THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY IN HIS MATTER ARE IDENTICAL, AND I TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO REAFFIRM THAT HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT ARE PREPARED TO SEND A MISSION FORTHWITH TO TEHRAN TO DISCUSS THE TERMS OF A NEW AGREEMENT. I EARNESTLY TRUST THAT YOUR EXCELLENCY WILL BE PREPARED TO AGREE TO THIS PROCEDURE AND TO CONDUCT NEGOTIATIONS WITH A MISSION ON A FAIR AND EQUITABLE BASIS.

IN CONCLUSION, I NOTE THAT YOUR EXCELLENCY HAS RECIPROCATED THE DESIRE WHICH I HAVE ALREADY EXPRESSED TO YOU OF MAINTAINING GOOD RELATIONS AND STRENGTHENING THE FOUNDATION OF FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN IRAN AND THE UNITED KINGDOM. I SHOULD, HOWEVER, BE LESS THAN FRANK IF I DID NOT SAY THAT A REFUSAL ON THE PART OF THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT TO NEGOTIATE, OR ANY ATTEMPT ON THEIR PART TO PROCEED VXIIM MOT

LEDLACTIM

I DID NOT SMOLOGNOLNOHE IB

I DID NOT SAY THAT A REFUSAL ON THE PART OF THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT TO NEGOTIATE, OR ANY ATTEMPT ON THEIR PART TO PROCEED BY UNILATERAL ACTION TO THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE RECENT LEGISLATION, COULD NOT FAIL GRAVELY TO IMPAIR THOSE FRIENDLY RELATIONS WHICH WE BOTH WISH TO EXIST, AND TO HAVE THE MOST SERIOUS CONSEQUENCES.

DAMASCUS, SYRIA, MAY 19-(AP)-THE SEVEN-NATION ARAB LEAGUE COUNCIL DECIDED TODAY TO ESTABLISH A SPECIAL BUREAU IN DAMASCUS FOR CONSOLIDATING AND STRENGTHENING THE LONG-STANDING ECONOMIC BOYCOTT OF ISRAEL BY HER MIDDLE EAST NEIGHBORS.

THE ACTION WAS ANOTHER STEP IN CREATING A SOLID ARAB FRONT BEHIND SYRIA IN HER CURRENT BORDER FEUD WITH ISRAEL. THE TWO NATIONS ARE OBSERVING A NERVOUS U.N.-SPONSORED CEASE-FIRE WHICH LAST WEEK ENDED NEARLY A MONTH OF BLOODY FRONTIER FIGHTING.

THE COUNCIL ENDED ITS MEETINGS HERE, BUT DECLARED THAT ITS 14TH SESSION IS STILL OPEN. SYRIA CALLED THE MEETING TO DISCUSS ARAB SOLIDARITY AGAINST WHAT SHE HAS CHARGED REPEATEDLY IS ISRAELI AGGRESSION.

SYRIA'S PREMIER KHALED BEY AZEM TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE AT THE END OF THE MEETING THAT "NO ONE IN SYRIA ACCEPTS THE IDEA OF MAKING PEACE WITH ISRAEL OR THINKS OF SUCH A THING."

KHALED BEY SAID SYRIA WELCOMES THE ACTION YESTERDAY BY THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL IN ORDERING ISRAEL TO HALT THE HUGE DRAINAGE PROJECT IN THE HULEH SWAMPS. IT IS THIS LAND RECLAMATION PROJECT -- MOST OF WHICH IS IN THE DEMILITARIZED ZONE OF PALESTINE BETWEEN ISRAEL AND SYRIA -- THAT HAS DRAWN SYRIAN WRATH AND TOUCHED OFF THE FIGHTING.

(AN ISRAELI FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN IN TEL AVIV SCORED THE SECURITY COUNCIL ACTION AS A "PREMIUM TO AGGRESSION" AND TERMED IT A "SURRENDER TO THREATS X X X AND LIABLE TO SERVE AS ENCOURAGEMENT TO FURTHER ADVENTURES OF A KIND WHICH PAID SUCH HANDSOME DIVIDENDS."

("RECLAMATION OF THE HULEH SWAMPS IS RAEL'S ABSOLUTE AND VITAL TASK," THE SPOKESMAN ADDED. "THE ISRAEL GOVERNMENT IS DETERMINED TO BRING THIS PROJECT TO A SUCCESSFUL CONCLUSION DESPITE ALL OBSTACLES AND WITH ALL MEANS AT ITS DISPOSAL.")

THE PREMIER SAID THE SECURITY COUNCIL ORDER, HOWEVER, IS ONLY THE FIRST STEP IN RE-ESTABLISHING RIGHT AND CONDEMNING AGGRESSION IN THE DISPUTE. HE DECLARED THE HULEH SWAMP PROJECT CANNOT BE CARRIED OUT WITHOUT SYRIA'S CONSENT. SYRIA HOLDS THAT THE PROJECT VIOLATES THE ARMISTICE WHICH ENDED THE PALESTINE WAR IN 1948.

THE ARAB LEAGUE DELEGATES WILL LEAVE TOMORROW FOR BEIRUT, LEBANON, TO ATTEND A PARTY IN THEIR HONOR BY LEBANESE PREMIER HUSSEIN UWEINI, WHO PRESIDED OVER THE COUNCIL MEETING. THE DELEGATES REPRESENT SYRIA, LEBANON, JORDAN, IRAQ, SAUDI ARABIA, YEMEN AND EGYPT.

PX (YORK ASKED)

NEW DELHI, INDIA, MAY 19-(AP)-AN AMERGENCY SESSION OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE OF THE ALL-INDIA NEWSPAPER EDITORS CONFERENCE TODAY NAMED A 12-MAN GROUP TO CONFER WITH PRIME MINISTER JAWAHARLAL NEHRU TOMORROW. THEY HOPE TO DISSUADE HIM FROM PROCEEDING WITH HIS PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT RELATING TO FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND EXPRESSION.

THE FOUR-HOUR COMMITTEE SESSION WAS CLOSED. SOME OF THE 34 PARTICIPANTS SAID LEADING EDITORS OF INDIA HAD EXPRESSED THEMSELVES AS STRONGLY AGAINST SUCH AN AMENDMENT, FEARING IT MIGHT PLACE CURBS ON THE PRESS NOT FORESEEN BY NEHRU.

MEANWHILE, NEHRU WAS REPORTED TO BE RECEIVING SUPPORT FOR HIS MOVE FROM A SELECT COMMITTEE OF PARLIAMENT STUDYING THE PROPOSAL AND FROM HIS GOVERNING PARLIAMENTARY CONGRESS PARTY. THE 21-MEMBER SELECT COMMITTEE MET FOR TWO HOURS TODAY WITH NEHRU PRESIDING. ONE MEMBER SAID THAT ALTHOUGH A HANDFUL FELT THERE IS NO IMMINENT NECESSITY FOR RUSHING THROUGH THE SUGGESTED AMENDMENT, THE VAST MAJORITY FEEL THERE IS A NEED FOR THE CHANGES.

EARLIER THE CONGRESS PARTY HAD VETOED THE SUGGESTION OF SOME MEMBERS THAT THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT BE DROPPED IN DEFERENCE TO OPPOSITION IN SOME SECTIONS OF INDIA. A PARTY SPOKESMAN SAID:

"IF THIS AMENDMENT IS NOT PASSED, IN GOD'S GOOD TIME THE COMMUNISTS AND THE COMMUNALISTS (MEMBERS OF CONFLICTING RELIGIOUS COMMUNITIES) WILL OPENLY PREACH MURDER AND OTHER VIOLENCE DURING THE ELECTIONS SCHEDULED FOR NOVEMBER AND DECEMBER; START RIOTS AND EVEN CIVIL WAR, CLAIMING IMMUNITY FROM THE HIGHEST JUDICIAL COURTS UNDER THE FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS CLAUSE (OF THE CONSTITUTION). THIS IS NOT FICTION BUT WHAT ACTUALLY HAPPENED DURING THE PAST 15 MONTHS."

30.24- 23185

ARTICLE 19, CLAUSE I, SUBCLAUSE A OF THE INDIAN CONSTITUTION GUARANTEES "FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND EXPRESSION" FOR ALL CITIZENS. HOWEVER, UNLIKE THE BILL OF RIGHTS IN THE U.S. CONSTITUTION, THE SAME ARTICLE FIXES LIMITS TO THIS RIGHT, SAYING:

B27 1

"NOTHING IN SUBCLAUSE A OF CLAUSE I SHALL AFFECT THE OPERATION OF ANY EXISTING LAW INSOFAR AS IT RELATES TO OR PREVENTS THE STATE FROM MAKING ANY LAW RELATING TO LIBEL, SLANDER, DEFAMATION, CONTEMPT OF COURT, OR ANY MATTER WHICH OFFENDS AGAINST THE DECENCY OR MORALITY OR WHICH UNDERMINES THE SECURITY OF OR TENDS TO OVERTHROW THE STATE."

THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT INTRODUCED BY NEHRU IN PARLIAMENT MAY 12 AND WHICH IS NOW UNDER CONSIDERATION BY THE SELECT COMMITTEE REMOVES SPECIAL MENTION OF LIBEL AND SLANDER FROM THE WORDING BUT INCLUDES SUCH ACTS AS ENDANGER "PUBLIC ORDER" OR "FRIENDLY RELATIONS WITH FOREIGN STATES." IT READS:

"NOTHING IN SUBCLAUSE A OF CLAUSE I SHALL AFFECT THE OPERATION OF ANY EXISTING LAW INSOFAR AS IT IMPOSES OR PREVENTS THE STATE FROM MAKING ANY LAW IMPOSING ON THE INTERESTS OF THE SECURITY OF THE STATE, FRIENDLY RELATIONS WITH FOREIGN STATES, PUBLIC ORDER, DECENCY OR MORALITY, RESTRICTIONS ON THE EXERCISE OF THE RIGHT CONFERRED BY THE SAID SUBCLAUSE, AND IN PARTICULAR NOTHING IN THE SAID SUBCLAUSE SHALL AFFECT THE OPERATION OF ANY EXISTING LAW INSOFAR AS IT RELATES TO OR PREVENTS THE STATE FROM MAKING ANY LAW RELATING TO CONTEMPT OF COURT, DEFAMATION, OR INCITEMENT TO AN OFFENSE."

AN EXPLANATORY STATEMENT ATTACHED TO THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT AND SIGNED BY NEHRU SAYS THAT JUDICIAL DECISIONS AND PRONOUNCEMENTS HAVE BROUGHT TO LIGHT "SOME DIFFICULTIES" IN THE EXISTING FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS CLAUSES, SINCE THE CONSTITUTION WENT INTO EFFECT JAN. 26, 1950. IT CONTINUES:

"A CITIZEN'S RIGHT TO FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND EXPRESSION GUARANTEED BY ARTICLE 19, CLAUSE I, SUBCLAUSE A, HAS BEEN HELD BY SOME COURTS TO BE SO COMPREHENSIVE AS NOT TO RENDER A PERSON CULPABLE EVEN IF HE ADVOCATES MURDER OR OTHER CRIMES OF VIOLENCE. IN OTHER COUNTRIES WITH WRITTEN CONSTITUTIONS, FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND OF THE PRESS IS NOT REGARDED AS DEBARRING THE STATE FROM PUNISHING OR PREVENTING THE BAUSE OF THIS FREEDOM."

NIGHT LEAD AFGHANISTAN (190)

KARACHI, PAKISTAN, MAY 19-(AP)-THE FOREIGN MINISTRY TODAY DENIED AFGHANISTAN'S CHARGES THAT PAKISTANI TROOPS HAD ATTACKED AN AFGHAN BORDER POST AND COUNTERCHARGED THAT AFGHAN FORCES HAD ENTERED PAKISTAN.

THE AFGHAN EMBASSY IN LONDON SAID YESTERDAY THAT PAKISTANI TROOPS HAD ATTACKED AN AFGHAN BORDER POST THURSDAY AND THAT 28 PAKISTANI OFFICERS HAD BEEN CAPTURED.--THE FOREIGN-MINISTRY STATEMENT DENIED THIS AND ADDED:

"THE FACTS ARE THAT ON MAY 6, AFGHAN TROOPS 300 STRONG ATTACKED KILLI WALHAM VILLAGE, ABOUT 25 MILES SOUTHWEST OF CHAMAN AND FOUR MILES WITHIN THE PAKISTANI BORDER, AND SURROUNDED A PARTY OF 28 PAKISTANI NATIONALS, WHO WERE CARRIED AWAY ACROSS THE BORDER WITH THE LORRY IN WHICH THEY WERE TRAVELING.

"THE GOVERNMENT OF PAKISTAN STRONGLY PROTESTED TO AFGHANISTAN AGAINST THIS FURTHER VIOLATION OF PAKISTANI TERRITORY AND DEMANDED THE RELEASE OF THESE MEN. THIS WAS PAKISTAN'S THIRD PROTEST SINCE MAY 1 LAST. SINCE THEN AFGHAN SOLDIERS AND TRIBESMEN HAVE LAUNCHED TWO FURTHER ATTACKS ON PAKISTANI POSTS."

THE FOREIGN MINISTRY SAID THE FIRST OF THESE ALLEGED ATTACKS WAS ON GOGHRA TOP MAY 9-10 AND THE SECOND ON SKAMKAR MAY 10.

THE STATEMENT CONCLUDED THAT IT HAD REPEATEDLY ASKED AFGHANISTAN TO "PUT A STOP TO SUCH INCIDENTS." IT DECLARED THAT COUNTER STEPS BY PAKISTAN WERE "PURELY DEFENSIVE" AND THAT "IN NO INSTANCE HAVE PAKISTANI FORCES CROSSED AFGHAN TERRITORY."

KARACHI, PAKISTAN, MAY 19-(AP)-DEFENSE SECRETARY ISKANDAR MIRZA TODAY BRANDED AS "ABSOLUTELY FALSE" A REPORT ISSUED BY THE AFGHAN EMBASSY IN LONDON YESTERDAY THAT PAKISTANI TROOPS HAD ATTACKED AN AFGHAN BORDER POST ON THURSDAY AND THAT 28 PAKISTANI OFFICERS WERE CAPTURED.

"NO SUCH ATTACK WAS MADE BY PAKISTANI TROOPS IN THE NEAR AND FAR PAST," MIRZA SAID.

HE SAID IT WAS RIDICULOUS TO SPREAD SUCH REPORTS BECAUSE "ONE PAKISTANI BRIGADE HAS 30 OFFICERS. IF, ACCORDING TO THE AFGHAN EMBASSY, 28 OFFICERS WERE CAPTURED, THAT WILL MEAN AN ENTIRE BRIGADE OF 30,000 MEN AND OFFICERS SHOULD SURRENDER X X X. IT LOOKS FANTASTIC, RIDICULOUS."

A SPOKESMAN FOR THE AFGHAN EMBASSY IN KARACHI ENDORSED THE REPORTS ISSUED BY THE LONDON OFFICE OF THE AFGHAN EMBASSY. A SPOKESMAN SAID PAKISTANI TROOPS HAD ATTACKED THE VILLAGE OF THANA BAQI ON THE KA QUETTA BORDER AN

A SPOKESMAN FOR THE AFGHAN EMBASSY IN KARACHI ENDORSED THE REPORTS ISSUED BY THE LONDON OFFICE OF THE AFGHAN EMBASSY. A SPOKESMAN SAID PAKISTANI TROOPS HAD ATTACKED THE VILLAGE OF THANA BAQI ON THE KANDHAR QUETTA BORDER AND THAT LARGE SCALE SKIRMISHES WERE GOING ON BETWEEN PAKISTANI AND AFGHAN FORCES.

(THE OFFICIAL KABUL RADIO AS MONITORED IN NEW DELHI SAID THE AFGHAN FOREIGN AFFAIRS MINISTRY HAS PROTESTED TO PAKISTAN AGAINST A HEAVY CONCENTRATION OF PAKISTANI TROOPS AROUND CHAMAN ON THE AFGHAN BORDER.)

KARACHI, PAKISTAN, SUNDAY, MAY 20-(AP)-MAJ.GEN.NAZIR AHMAD, A SENIOR OFFICER IN THE PAKISTANI ARMY, WAS ARRESTED LAST NIGHT IN CONNECTION WITH THE ARMY CONSPIRACY CASE.

PRIME MINISTER LIAQUAT ALI KHAN ANNOUNCED LAST MARCH 9 THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAD NIPPED A PLOT TO ESTABLISH A DICTATORSHIP IN THIS COUNTRY ON THE COMMUNIST PATTERN. AMONG MORE THAN A DOZEN PERSONS ALREADY ARRESTED IN THE CASE IS MAJ.GEN.AKBAR KHAN, WHO WAS ARMY CHIEF-OF-STAFF WHEN THE CHARGES WERE MADE.

NAZIR AHMAD RECENTLY RETURNED FROM LONDON AFTER COMPLETING A TRAINING COURSE AT THE IMPERIAL DEFENSE COLLEGE THERE. HE AND HIS WIFE WERE PRESENTED TO KING GEORGE VI AT A RECEPTION. FOR A TIME THE GENERAL WAS IN CHARGE OF OPERATIONS IN KASHMIR AND TOOK AN IMPORTANT PART DURING CEASE-FIRE NEGOTIATIONS THERE. HE BELONGS TO THE AHMADIYA SECT OF MOSLEMS.

RANGOON, BURMA, MAY 19-(AP)-THE NEWSPAPER NATION SAID TODAY THAT THE COMMUNIST CHINESE EMBASSY HERE HAS ADMITTED RED CHINESE TROOP MOVEMENTS ALONG BURMA'S BORDER.

THE PAPER PUBLISHED AN INTERVIEW WITH KUNG TAFEI, FIRST SECRETARY OF THE CHINESE EMBASSY, QUOTING HIM AS SAYING THERE HAVE BEEN SUCH TROOP MOVEMENTS BUT THAT HE HAD NO OFFICIAL INSTRUCTIONS FROM PEIPING AS TO THEIR DISPOSITION.

A BURMESE GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN YESTERDAY DENIED ALL KNOWLEDGE OF CHINESE REDS MASSING ON THE BURMESE BORDER.

MEANWHILE, POLICE FEARING CLASHES BETWEEN PRO-KUOMINTANG (NATIONALIST) AND PRO-COMMUNIST GROUPS ARE KEEPING CLOSE WATCH ON RANGOON'S CHINESE SECTOR.

SINGAPORE, MAY 19-(AP)-AN ARMED POLICE GUARD BOARDED THE PANAMANIAN FREIGHTER NORBAY LATE TODAY WITH ORDERS TO SEE THAT THE RUBBER-LADEN SHIP DOES NOT CLEAR FOR COMMUNIST CHINA.

MARINE POLICE LAUNCHES PATROLLED THE HARBOR TO ENFORCE THE BRITISH BAN AGAINST SHIPPING RUBBER TO RED CHINA. THE NORBAY HAS 750 TONS OF RUBBER IN HER HOLDS.

DEPUTY POLICE COMMISSIONER NIGEL MORRIS SAID THE GUARD WOULD REMAIN ABOARD THE NORBAY AS LONG AS SHE REMAINED IN PORT. THE GUARD IS ALSO WATCHING TO SEE THAT NONE OF THE RUBBER CARGO IS REMOVED.

C.Y. YANG, SINGAPORE AGENT FOR THE SHIP'S HONG KONG OWNERS, SAID HE HAD BEEN INSTRUCTED TO AWAIT DEVELOPMENTS AND NOT TO RISK SEIZURE ON THE HIGH SEAS.

OFFICIALS HAVE SO FAR REFUSED TO COMMENT, BUT IT WAS NOTED THAT THE CHINA-BOUND NANCY MOLLER WHICH LEFT HERE MAY 12 WITH 3,500 TONS OF RUBBER FOR THE CHINESE REDS WAS SEIZED YESTERDAY BY A BRITISH DESTROYER AND ESCORTED BACK TOWARDS SINGAPORE.

SPOKESMAN FOR THE AGENTS AND SHIPPERS SAID THE RUBBER SHIPMENT WAS PERFECTLY LEGAL SINCE IT WAS CONTRACTED FOR BEFORE THE CONTROLS OVER DESTINATIONS WERE ORDERED ON APRIL 9.

THE 2,200-TON NORBAY IS OWNED BY THE SOUTH SEAS TRADING SHIPPING COMPANY OF HONG KONG AND IS COMMANDED BY CAPT.R.C.THOMAS, AN AUSTRALIAN, WHO PILOTED THE AMERICAN ISBRANDTSEN LINE'S FLYING CLIPPER WHEN IT RAN THE NATIONALIST BLOCKADE TO SHANGHAI.

ANCHORAGE, ALASKA, MAY 19-(AP)-RUSSIAN SOLDIERS ARE REPORTED MORE ACTIVE ON THE VISIBLE CORNER OF BIG DIOMEDE ISLAND THAN AT ANY TIME IN SEVERAL YEARS.

THE LATEST REPORT FROM LITTLE DIOMEDE ISLAND ESKIMOS CAME TO MR. AND MRS. FRANK MORGAN OF ANCHORAGE, WHO FORMERLY TAUGHT ON THE AMERICAN ISLAND. A SIMILAR EARLIER REPORT WAS BROUGHT HERE BY JAMES IYAPANA, A RESIDENT OF THE ISLAND.

RUSSIAN-OWNED BIG DIOMEDE IS LESS THAN THREE MILES FROM ITS ALASKAN LITTLE BROTHER IN THE MIDDLE OF BERING STRAIT.

THE MORGANS' ESKIMO FRIENDS ADVISED THEM THIS WEEK THAT SOVIET TROOPS, STARTING IN APRIL, HAD BEEN SEEN ALMOST DAILY AT AN OBSERVATION POST ATOP A HIGH HILL ON BIG DIOMEDE'S NORTHEAST CORNER. THERE WAS NO INDICATION OF HOW MANY.

UNTIL THIS SPRING, THERE HAD BEEN NO SIGHTING OF RUSSIANS ON BIG DOMEDE'S HILLTOP FOR MANY MONTHS, THE WEEKLY PUBLICATION FORTY-NINTH STAR REPORTED.

(700) AMS BUDGET
NIGHT LEAD RUSSIAN-JAPANESE
BY JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON, MAY 19-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES FLATLY REJECTED TODAY A RUSSIAN PLAN FOR A JAPANESE PEACE TREATY WHICH, AMONG OTHER THINGS, WOULD STRIP JAPAN OF ALL AMERICAN DEFENSE FORCES.

THE RUSSIANS HAD PROPOSED THAT THE UNITED STATES AND ITS ALLIES SCRAP THEIR OWN LARGELY-COMPLETED PROGRAM FOR A JAPANESE PEACE SETTLEMENT AND START ANEW, WITH RED CHINA CUT IN ON THE TREATY-MAKING.

AN AMERICAN TRANSLATION OF THE RUSSIA PROPOSAL, WHICH BECAME AVAILABLE HERE TODAY, SHOWED WHAT THE SOVIETS WANT IN THE WAY OF A TREATY.

FOR ONE THING, IT WOULD CALL FOR THE DEPARTURE OF ALL FOREIGN TROOPS FROM JAPAN ONE YEAR AFTER THE TREATY WAS SIGNED. THIS WOULD MEAN STRIPPING JAPAN OF AMERICAN DEFENSES.

FOR ANOTHER, THE SOVIETS WOULD SHARPLY LIMIT JAPANESE ARMED FORCES, WHEREAS THE TREATY DRAFT PROPOSED BY THE UNITED STATES WOULD PERMIT JAPAN TO REARM IN ACCORDANCE WITH ITS OWN ESTIMATE OF ITS DEFENSE NEEDS.

THE RUSSIAN NOTE WAS DELIVERED TO AMERICAN AMBASSADOR ALAN KIRK IN MOSCOW ON MAY 7. IT SUGGESTED THE CALLING OF A BIG FOUR FOREIGN MINISTERS CONFERENCE IN JUNE OR JULY TO UNDERTAKE "PREPARATORY WORK" ON THE PEACE TREATY. THE FOUR FOREIGN MINISTERS TO BE REPRESENTED WOULD BE THOSE OF THE UNITED STATES, CHINA, BRITAIN, AND RUSSIA. CHINA, IN RUSSIAN USAGE, MEANS COMMUNIST CHINA.

THE DAY AFTER MOSCOW'S DISCLOSURE THAT IT HAD SENT A NOTE PROPOSING A PACIFIC BIG FOUR CONFERENCE ON THE TREATY, STATE DEPARTMENT PRESS OFFICER MICHAEL MCDERMOTT DENOUNCED THE MOVE. HE CALLED IT AN EFFORT TO "STALL" WORK ACTUALLY GOING FORWARD ON THE TREATY AND TO GAIN A DOUBLE VETO FOR RUSSIA -- HER OWN VOTE AND THAT OF RED CHINA.

THE TEXT OF THE FORMAL AMERICAN REPLY WAS HANDED TO SOVIET AMBASSADOR ALEXANDER S. PANYUSHKIN TODAY BY ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE PERKINS. THE TEXT WILL NOT BE PUBLISHED UNTIL TOMORROW NIGHT (6 P.M. EASTERN STANDARD TIME), BUT IT WAS LEARNED THAT THE EFFECT OF THE REPLY TO PANYUSHKIN IS THE SAME AS THE REMARKS MADE BY MCDERMOTT--A REJECTION.

THE ROW BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA OVER A JAPANESE PEACE TREATY HAS BEEN GOING ON FOR SEVERAL YEARS. THE RUSSIANS HAVE ALWAYS WANTED THE TREATY WRITTEN BY A TIGHT GROUP OF BIG POWERS SO THEY WOULD HAVE A VETO. THEY PROPOSE "CONSULTATION" WITH THE SMALLER NATIONS. MANY OF WHICH DID MORE THAN RUSSIA TO DEFEAT JAPAN.

THE UNITED STATES HAS ALWAYS REFUSED THE BIG TREATY-MAKING SYSTEM WHICH PRODUCED SO MANY YEARS OF FRUSTRATION AND FAILURE IN EUROPEAN PEACE NEGOTIATIONS. IT HAS INSISTED ON A SYSTEM OF NEGOTIATION, WITH OR WITHOUT RUSSIAN PARTICIPATION, WHICH OFFICIALS HOW HOPE WILL SOON PRODUCE A TREATY SIGNED BY ALL THE WORLD WAR TWO BELLIGERENTS OF THE PACIFIC EXCEPT RUSSIA.

MAY 20 1952

A11WX
THE LONG RUSSIAN NOTE ACCUSED THE UNITED STATES OF BREAKING ITS INTERNATIONAL OBLIGATIONS BY THE WAY IN WHICH IT HAS GONE ABOUT THE TREATY DRAFTING. IT ALSO SHARPLY CRITICIZED THE SUBSTANCE OF THE UNITED STATES DRAFT WHICH IS THE BASIS OF NEGOTIATION BETWEEN THIS COUNTRY AND NON-COMMUNIST NATIONS.

THE RUSSIANS SAID THE TREATY, IN VIEW OF PREVIOUS INTERNATIONAL UNDERSTANDINGS, SHOULD PROVIDE FOR THE TRANSFER OF FORMOSA AND THE NEARBY PESCADORES ISLANDS "TO CHINA". IT ALSO ASSAILED AS WITHOUT JUSTIFICATION THOSE PROVISIONS OF THE AMERICAN DRAFT WHICH WOULD ESTABLISH AMERICAN-ADMINISTERED U.N. TRUSTEESHIP OVER SUCH FORMER JAPANESE ISLANDS AS THE RYUKYUS AND THE BONINS.

W THE RUSSIANS THEN, AFTER CALLING FOR A PACIFIC FOREIGN MINISTERS MEETING, PROPOSED THE KIND OF PRINCIPLES WHICH THEY SAID SHOULD GOVERN THE TREATY DRAFTING. AFTER THE USUAL PROVISIONS FOR MAKING IT A "PEACE LOVING, DEMOCRATIC, INDEPENDENT STATE", THE SOVIET NOTE SUGGESTED;

THE JAPANESE ARMED FORCES SHOULD BE RESTRICTED TO THE "REQUIREMENTS OF SELF DEFENSE, AS WAS ESTABLISHED IN THE PEACE TREATY WITH ITALY." (THE ITALIAN PEACE TREATY SHARPLY RESTRICTED THAT NATION'S FORCES. FOR MONTHS NOW ITALY HAS BEEN URGING THE WESTERN POWERS TO RENOUNCE THE TREATY LIMITATION SO THAT ITALY CAN PARTICIPATE IN THE DEFENSE OF WESTERN EUROPE AGAINST THE COMMUNIST THREAT.)

JAPAN SHOULD BE BARRED FROM ENTERING "ANY COALITION DIRECTED AGAINST ANY OF THE STATES TAKING PART WITH ITS ARMED FORCES IN WAR AGAINST MILITARISTIC JAPAN." (THIS PRESUMABLY IS A DEVICE FOR TRYING TO BLOCK A DEFENSE TREATY BETWEEN JAPAN AND THE UNITED STATES, SUCH AS THEY EXPECT TO CONCLUDE AT THE TIME A PEACE TREATY BECOMES EFFECTIVE.)

ALL OCCUPATION TROOPS (WHICH ARE AMERICAN) SHOULD BE WITHDRAWN FROM JAPAN WITHIN A YEAR AFTER THE TREATY IS CONCLUDED AND "NO FOREIGN STATE WILL HAVE TROOPS OR MILITARY BASES IN JAPAN." (UNDER THE AMERICAN PLAN THE OCCUPATION WILL END IMMEDIATELY WHEN THE PEACE TREATY BECOMES EFFECTIVE BUT THE DEFENSE TREATY WILL PROVIDE FOR AMERICAN FORCES TO REMAIN IN OR AROUND JAPAN AS LONG AS NECESSARY TO PROTECT THAT COUNTRY AGAINST COMMUNIST ATTACK FROM ASIA.)

(ADVANCE FOR USE AT 6 P.M.EASTERN STANDARD TIME TODAY SAT.MAY 19)
(700) SECOND NIGHT LEAD MACARTHUR
BY EDWIN B.HAAKINSON
WASHINGTON, MAY 19-(AP)-A SUGGESTION THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN VOLUNTEER TO TESTIFY IN THE SENATE INVESTIGATION OF THE FIRING OF GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR WAS TOSSED INTO THE BIG FOREIGN POLICY ROW TODAY BY SENATOR WILEY (R-WIS).

"IF THE PRESIDENT REFUSED, THE JOINT COMMITTEE MIGHT VERY WELL CONSIDER SUBPOENING HIM," WILEY, A MEMBER OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, SAID IN A STATEMENT.

ALTHOUGH THE PROPOSAL MIGHT APPEAR "UNTHINKABLE" AT FIRST BLUSH,

WILEY STATED, THERE ARE "MORE THAN AMPLE PRECEDENTS FOR SUCH TESTIMONY" IN THE HISTORY OF THIS AND OTHER GOVERNMENTS.

"APPARENTLY PRESIDENT TRUMAN IS GIVING INFORMATION AT HIS PRESS CONFERENCES THAT WE IN THE SENATE HAVE NOT BEEN ABLE TO GET AT THE JOINT CLOSED HEARINGS," HE CONTINUED.

"HE, HIMSELF, HAS TAKEN ON THE ENTIRE BURDEN OF EXPLAINING JUST HOW AND WHY THE MACARTHUR DISMISSAL CAME ABOUT. HE SAID THE DECISION WAS HIS, AND THAT HIS AIDES WENT ALONG WITH HIM."

WHILE WILEY WAS CAMPAIGNING TO GET MR.TRUMAN AS A WITNESS, MACARTHUR WAS ASSURED AN OPPORTUNITY TO REPLY IN DETAIL TO RECENT COMMENTS BY THE PRESIDENT AND TOP MILITARY LEADERS ABOUT HIS OUSTER.

"IT IS VERY LIKELY THAT GEN.MACARTHUR WILL TESTIFY AGAIN," SENATOR RUSSELL (D-GA), CHAIRMAN OF THE INVESTIGATION, TOLD REPORTERS. "IF HE DESIRES TO TESTIFY OR CLARIFY ANYTHING. WE WILL HEAR HIM."

IN NEW YORK CITY, COL.LAWRENCE BUNKER, AN AIDE TO MACARTHUR, SAID THERE WOULD BE NO COMMENT AT LEAST UNTIL MONDAY ON SEN. RUSSELL'S STATEMENT.

ACCEPTANCE OF WILEY'S SUGGESTIONS EITHER BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN OR THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES APPEARED EXTREMELY REMOTE.

ASKED BY A REPORTER IF HE WOULD ACTUALLY OFFER THESE PROPOSALS WHEN THE COMMITTEES MET AGAIN MONDAY, WILEY REPLIED:

"I HAVE NOT DECIDED AS YET. IT WILL DEPEND UPON THE REACTION."

ANOTHER REPUBLICAN, SENATOR TAFT OF OHIO, JUMPED INTO THE MACARTHUR CONTROVERSY TONIGHT WITH A BLAST AT PRESIDENT TRUMAN ABOUT "CONSISTENCY".

A17WX

TAFT REFERRED TO THE PRESIDENT'S REMARKS AT A NEWS CONFERENCE THURSDAY THAT HE HAD CONSIDERED REMOVAL OF GENERAL MACARTHUR FOR NEARLY A YEAR. LATER THE PRESIDENT'S PRESS SECRETARY SHORTENED THE PERIOD, ANNOUNCING THAT IT BEGAN LAST AUGUST.

TAFT, IN A SPEECH PREPARED FOR THE PANAMA CANAL SOCIETY OF WASHINGTON, ASKED:

"AND TALKING OF CONSISTENCY, WHAT ABOUT THE PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT THAT HE HAS HAD UNDER CONSIDERATION MACARTHUR'S REMOVAL FOR 12 MONTHS, WHICH INCLUDED THE TIME THAT HE APPOINTED MACARTHUR TO BE COMMANDING GENERAL IN KOREA AND THE FAR EAST, CONFERRED ON HIM A DISTINGUISHED SERVICE DECORATION, AND SENT HIM A PRIVATE MESSAGE SAYING 'THE ENTIRE NATION IS GRATEFUL FOR YOUR LEADERSHIP'?"

MACARTHUR WAS NAMED COMMANDING GENERAL IN KOREA LAST JUNE, AFTER THE NORTH KOREAN INVASION.

THE PRESIDENTIAL DECORATION WAS AT WAKE ISLAND LAST OCTOBER, WHEN MR.TRUMAN FLEW OUT THERE TO CONFER WITH MACARTHUR.

THE THIRD TAFT REFERENCE WAS TO A FINAL PARAGRAPH OF A PRIVATE PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE TO THE GENERAL ON JANUARY 13 OF THIS YEAR, OUTLINING THE POLITICAL POLICIES OF THE ADMINISTRATION. IT WAS DISCLOSED FOR THE FIRST TIME AFTER THE SENATE HEARINGS GOT UNDERWAY. THE COMPLETE PARAGRAPH READ:

"THE ENTIRE NATION IS GRATEFUL FOR YOUR SPLENDID LEADERSHIP IN THE DIFFICULT STRUGGLE IN KOREA AND FOR THE SUPERB PERFORMANCE OF YOUR FORCES UNDER THE MOST DIFFICULT CIRCUMSTANCES."

"TALKING OF CONSISTENCY AGAIN," TAFT SAID, "WHAT ABOUT THE PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT ON JUNE 11, 1948--- 'AT POTSDAM I GOT WELL ACQUAINTED WITH JOE STALIN, AND I LIKE OLD JOE. HE IS A DECENT FELLOW.' DOES HE STILL THINK SO?"

WILEY COMPLAINED THAT WHILE MR.TRUMAN TALKED TO THE PRESS, "WHEN WE ASKED HIS AIDES TO GIVE US THE FACTS AND NOT MERELY THE CONCLUSIONS OF THE WHITE HOUSE CONVERSATIONS, THEY REFUSED TO DO SO, AND AS A RESULT OUR COMMITTEE IS STYMIED."

THIS WAS A REFERENCE TO REFUSAL OF GENERAL OMAR N.BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, TO DISCUSS WHITE HOUSE CONVERSATIONS ABOUT THE MACARTHUR OUSTER ON THE GROUND THEY WERE CONFIDENTIAL BETWEEN THE PRESIDENT AND HIS ADVISORS.

A18WX

WILEY SAID THE PRESIDENT SHOULD NOT BE "EXAMINED ON THE BASIS OF TRIVIAL, NON-MATERIAL, FRIVOLOUS OR PURELY PARTISAN QUESTIONS" AND ADDED THAT THE TESTIMONY WOULD ENCOURAGE "AS MUCH UNITY AS POSSIBLE AMONG PARTIES AND WITH THE AMERICAN PEOPLE."

THE SENATOR CONTENDED THAT BACK IN 1808 "PRESIDENT JEFFERSON WAS SUBPOENAED IN CONNECTION WITH THE AARON BURR TRIAL" BY CHIEF JUSTICE MARSHALL OF THE U.S. SUPREME COURT. ALTHOUGH JEFFERSON DID NOT APPEAR OR SUPPLY THE DOCUMENTS REQUESTED, WILEY SAID "THE ACTUAL POWER TO SUBPOENA THE PRESIDENT WAS CONCEDED BY THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH."

WILEY SAID HE HAD "NO INTENTION OF TRYING TO EMBARRASS THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OR OUR COUNTRY OR TO IMPAIR AMERICA'S FOREIGN POLICY." "X X X I AM MERELY SEEKING TO GET THE FACTS BEFORE THE AMERICAN PEOPLE. IT WOULD SEEM ODD THAT THE ALERT, VIGILANT AMERICAN PRESS AT ITS REGULAR CONFERENCES WITH THE PRESIDENT SHOULD BE ABLE TO GET MORE FACTS THAN THE AMERICAN CONGRESS THROUGH ITS DULY CONSTITUTED COMMITTEES."

NOTING THAT REPUBLICANS AS WELL AS DEMOCRATS ON THE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE DIFFERED WITH HIM, WILEY SAID IT WAS UP TO REPUBLICANS "TO FURNISH CONSTRUCTIVE CRITICISM."

AT THE SAME TIME RUSSELL SAID THE CLOSED-DOOR TESTIMONY BEFORE THE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE WILL RESUME AT 9 A.M. EST,MONDAY WITH GENERAL OMAR BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, RETURNING TO THE WITNESS CHAIR.

RUSSELL REFUSED TO BE DRAWN ANEW INTO THE ANGRY CONTROVERSY ABOUT WHETHER BRADLEY AND OTHER PRESIDENTIAL ADVISORS COULD OR SHOULD BE FORCED TO TESTIFY ABOUT THEIR DISCUSSIONS WITH MR.TRUMAN ON THE MACARTHUR OUSTER AND RELATED ISSUES.

THE COMMITTEES BY AN 18 TO 8 VOTE--WITH REPUBLICANS SPLIT EVENLY 6 TO 6--DECIDED THURSDAY AGAINST TRYING TO COMPEL BRADLEY TO TALK ABOUT A CONVERSATION HE HAD WITH THE PRESIDENT APRIL 6. BRADLEY SAID THAT TO DO SO WOULD DESTROY HIS VALUE AS A CONFIDENTIAL ADVISER.

SENATOR WILEY (R-WIS), WHO LED THE FUTILE EFFORT TO FORCE SUCH TESTIMONY, CONTINUED THE FIGHT BOTH OUTSIDE AND INSIDE THE COMMITTEES.

WILEY, TOP-RANKING REPUBLICAN ON FOREIGN RELATIONS, IN A LETTER TO CHAIRMAN RUSSELL YESTERDAY URGED THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN BE FORMALLY REQUESTED TO FREE HIS ADVISORS TO TESTIFY ON ANY PERTINENT FACTS.

HE ALSO CONTENDED THAT DEMOCRATS, WHO HAVE A MAJORITY OF 14 OF THE 26 COMMITTEEMEN, WERE ENGAGING IN A "COVERUP AND WHITEWASH."

RUSSELL CAREFULLY AVOIDED COMMENT ON THE WILEY LETTER AND ALSO DECLINED TO SAY WHETHER WILEY'S REQUEST TO THE PRESIDENT HAD BEEN SENT ON TO THE WHITE HOUSE.

SENATOR FULBRIGHT (D-ARK) TOLD REPORTERS THE WILEY CHARGES WERE "PERFECTLY RIDICULOUS" AND SENATOR FLANDERS (R-VT) SAID HE COULD SEE NO BASIS FOR THEM.

WILEY AND OTHER REPUBLICANS HINTED THEY WOULD HAVE MORE TO SAY ABOUT THIS ANGLE AND PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S NEWS CONFERENCE REMARKS THAT THE MACARTHUR OUSTER HAD BEEN UNDER CONSIDERATION LONG BEFORE IT WAS ANNOUNCED ON APRIL 11.

AT FIRST THE PRESIDENT SAID THE OUSTER WAS CONSIDERED FOR ABOUT A YEAR BUT WHITE HOUSE PRESS SECRETARY JOSEPH SHORT LATER SHORTENED THE TIME, SAYING IT HAD BEEN CONSIDERED SINCE LAST AUGUST.

RUSSELL SAID HE HOPED TO CONCLUDE BRADLEY'S TESTIMONY IN A DAY OR TWO AND THEN TURN TO OTHER MEMBERS OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF.

A177WX

SO FAR BRADLEY HAS COMPLETELY SUPPORTED THE TESTIMONY OF SECRETARY

OF DEFENSE MARSHALL THAT PRESIDEN[T] TRUMAN'[S] [DE]CISION TO REMOVE GENERAL MACARTHUR HAD THE UNANIMOUS SUPPO[RT] OF THE [NA]TION'S TOP MILITARY LEADERS.

THOSE WHO WILL FOLLOW BRADLEY ARE GENERAL J.LAWTON COLLINS, ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF; ADMIRAL FORREST P.SHERMAN, CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS, AND GENERAL HOYT S.VANDENBERG, AIR FORCE LEADER.

RUSSELL SAID SECRETARY OF ARMY PACE, WHO WAS IN THE MACARTHUR COMMAND AREA AT THE TIME OF THE OUSTER, ALSO WILL BE CALLED. PACE WAS SUPPOSED TO HAVE DELIVERED THE ORDER TO MACARTHUR, BUT IT WAS HURRIEDLY ANNOUNCED HERE SHORTLY AFTER MIDNIGHT WHEN PACE COULD NOT BE FOUND AND THE PRESIDENT FEARED A LEAK.

ONCE THE CHIEF MILITARY WITNESSES HAVE BEEN HEARD, RUSSELL SAID THAT SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON PROBABLY WOULD BE CALLED.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN TOLD HIS NEWS CONFERENCE THAT ACHESON AT FIRST URGED CAUTION ON THE MACARTHUR OUSTER BUT LATER JOINED IN THE UNANIMOUS DECISION OF ADMINISTRATION ADVISERS.

DEAN RUSK, ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE FOR FAR EASTERN AFFAIRS, ALSO PROBABLY WILL BE A WITNESS, RUSSELL SAID.

"I HAVE NUMEROUS REQUESTS FOR OTHER WITNESSES AND I PROBABLY WILL SUBMIT THEM TO THE COMMITTEES FOR A DECISION LATER," THE CHAIRMAN SAID.

(550) (ADVANCE FOR AMS OF SUNDAY, MAY 20)

(EDITOR'S NOTE: HOW IS IT THAT TWO GREAT MILITARY LEADERS LIKE MACARTHUR AND BRADLEY CAN BE SO FAR APART IN THEIR STRATEGIC THINKING? THIS QUESTION IS DISCUSSED IN THE FOLLOWING ARTICLE BASED ON TESTIMONY BY THE TWO BEFORE THE SENATE INQUIRY INTO FIRING OF GENERAL MACARTHUR)

BY DON WHITEHEAD

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON,MAY 19-(AP)-THE NATION TODAY IS SEEING THE STRANGE AND CONFUSING DRAMA OF TWO GREAT WAR HEROES AT ODDS OVER THE BEST PLACE AND THE BEST WAY TO FIGHT A WAR AGAINST THE COMMUNISTS.

ON THE ONE SIDE IS THE HANDSOME, ELOQUENT, AND RESPECTED FIVE-STARRED GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR WHO WON HIS FAME IN THE PACIFIC FIGHTING.

ON THE OTHER IS THE HOMELY, PLAIN-SPOKEN, AND EQUALLY RESPECTED FIVE-STARRED GEN. OMAR N.BRADLEY WHO EARNED HIS PLACE IN HISTORY ON THE EUROPEAN SIDE OF THE GLOBE.

HOW IS IT THAT TWO OF THE NATION'S TOP MILITARY STRATEGISTS CAN HAVE VIEWS WHICH ARE SO FAR APART?

PERHAPS THE ONLY ANSWER TO THAT QUESTION FOR THE TIME BEING LIES IN THEIR WAR-TIME BACKGROUNDS WHICH FOUND THEM ON OPPOSITE SIDES OF THE WORLD.

GENERAL MACARTHUR HAS SPENT MOST OF HIS MILITARY LIFE IN THE FAR EAST. FOR MANY YEARS HE HAS LOOKED AT THE WORLD FROM THAT POINT OF THE WORLD'S GEOGRAPHY.

HE BELIEVES THAT EUROPE'S WAR IS NOW BEING FOUGHT IN ASIA. HE THINKS WE MIGHT AS WELL GO AHEAD AND CARRY THE KOREAN WAR AGAINST RED CHINA AND RISK A WAR WITH RUSSIA.

HE FEELS THAT THE RUSSIANS PROBABLY ALREADY HAVE MADE UP THEIR MINDS ABOUT WAR ONE WAY OR THE OTHER--AND NOTHING WE DO IN CHINA OR IN ASIA WILL CHANGE THEIR MINDS. AND IF NECESSARY, HE SAYS, WE MUST "GO IT ALONE" WITHOUT OUR UNITED NATIONS ALLIES.

ASIA, HE SAYS, IS THE PLACE TO MEET THE REDS--AND THE OUTCOME OF THAT FIGHT MAY SAVE THE WORLD FROM A THIRD WORLD WAR. HE DOESN'T THINK THE RUSSIANS HAVE VERY MUCH OF A WAR MACHINE IN ASIA BECAUSE OF THE DIFFICULTY OF SUPPLY OVER THE TRANS-SIBERIAN RAILROAD.

THE 71-YEAR-OLD SOLDIER HAS LIVED WITH THE ORIENT AND LOOKED AT THE ORIENT FOR SO MANY YEARS THAT HIS OPINIONS ON THAT PART OF THE WORLD COMMAND VAST RESPECT.

HE DOES NOT SEE RUSSIA AS THE MAIN THREAT TO THE FREE WORLD--HE SEES THIS THREAT IN COMMUNISM WHEREVER IT IS.

THROUGHOUT WORLD WAR TWO, MACARTHUR'S EYES WERE TURNED WESTWARD. HIS FORCES DEFEATED JAPAN. AND THEN HE WATCHED THE STRUGGLE IN ASIA AFTER THE WAR--A STRUGGLE WHICH HE BELIEVES MAY DECIDE THE FATE OF THE FREE WORLD.

A119WX

ON THE OTHER HAND, BRADLEY'S GREAT SUCCESSES WERE WON ON THE BATTLEFIELDS OF AFRICA AND EUROPE.

HE BELIEVES THAT MACARTHUR'S PROGRAM TO EXTEND THE WAR AGAINST CHINA WOULD INVOLVE THE UNITED STATES IN "THE WRONG WAR, AT THE WRONG TIME, AT THE WRONG PLACE, AND WITH THE WRONG ENEMY."

IN OTHER WORDS, RUSSIA--AND NOT CHINA--IS THE MAIN ENEMY AND IF A THIRD WORLD WAR IS TO BE FOUGHT IT PROBABLY WILL BE FOUGHT IN EUROPE.

BRADLEY SEES WESTERN EUROPE, WITH ITS HUGE INDUSTRIAL CAPACITY, AS THE PRIME TARGET OF SOVIET RUSSIA. AND HE ARGUES WE CAN NOT "GO IT ALONE"--BUT MUST KEEP OUR ALLIES WITH US.

AND SO, HE SAYS THIS COUNTRY CANNOT RISK PROVOKING A WAR WITH RUSSIA AT A TIME WHEN THE UNITED STATES IS NOT PREPARED FOR WAR.

BRADLEY HAS MUCH MORE RESPECT THAN MACARTHUR FOR THE WAR-MAKING ABILITY OF THE RUSSIANS IN ASIA. HE AGREES THEIR SUPPLY SITUATION IS A PROBLEM, BUT HIS ARGUMENT IS THAT SINCE THE WAR THE RUSSIANS HAVE BUILT UP BIG SUPPLY DUMPS IN SIBERIA AND ALSO BUILT UP THEIR WAR INDUSTRIES IN THAT AREA.

BRADLEY LOOKS ON RUSSIA AS THE MAIN THREAT TO THE FREE WORLD--AND HE SEES THE GREATEST DANGER IN EUROPE--WHERE HE WON SO MANY OF HIS VICTORIES IN THE LAST WAR.

AS CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, BRADLEY THINKS THIS COUNTRY MUST RELY ON THEIR JUDGMENT IN MILITARY MATTERS--NOT ON THE JUDGMENT OF A SINGLE THEATER COMMANDER.

THERE ARE MANY OTHER DIFFERENCES, OF COURSE, BUT THOSE ABOVE GIVE A GLIMPSE INTO THE CHASM THAT SEPARATES THE THINKING OF TWO GREAT SOLDIERS.

MAY 20 1951

WHICH ONE IS RIGHT?

THERE'S A PRIZE FOR THE CORRECT ANSWER--AND IT MAY BE SURVIVAL OF THE FREE WORLD.

(ADVANCE) (EDITOR'S NOTE: MORE THAN A QUARTER MILLION WORDS OF TESTIMONY HAVE BEEN TAKEN ALREADY BY THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES IN THE GENERAL MACARTHUR DISMISSAL CASE. THE LINES, REPRESENTED BY GEN. MACARTHUR AS AGAINST THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF ARE SHARPLY DRAWN. FOLLOWING IS A DIGEST OF TESTIMONY ON SALIENT ISSUES--BRINGING OUT THE VIEWPOINT OF GENERAL BRADLEY, THIS WEEK'S FIVE-STAR WITNESS, AND THE CONTRASTING TESTIMONY OF GENERAL MACARTHUR. IT IS THE THIRD OF A SERIES OF DIGESTS BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS ON THE RUNNING GREAT DEBATE.)

(ADVANCE) (NY) WASHINGTON, MAY 19-(AP)-AMERICA'S HIGHEST RANKING MILITARY OFFICER -- GEN. OMAR N. BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF -- TOLD THIS WEEK WHY HE BACKED THE FIRING OF GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR.

BRADLEY, KNOWN IN WORLD WAR 11 AS THE "GI'S GENERAL", IS DUE TO UNDERGO FURTHER EXAMINATION TOMORROW BEFORE A SENATE HEARING THAT EXPLODED WEDNESDAY OVER HIS OBJECTION TO DISCLOSING A CONFIDENTIAL CONVERSATION WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN.
A DIGEST OF BRADLEY'S TESTIMONY SHOWS THAT HIS VIEWS CLOSELY PARALLELED THOSE OF DEFENSE SECRETARY GEORGE C. MARSHALL, THE PREVIOUS WITNESS. BOTH HELD THAT MACARTHUR'S PROPOSALS WOULD INCREASE THE RISK OF WAR WITH RUSSIA.
BUT BRADLEY WAS QUESTIONED ON NUMEROUS OTHER TOPICS -- SUCH AS THE PROPRIETY OF A MILITARY OFFICER "SPEAKING OUT" -- AND WAS PRESSED ON THE ORIGIN OF A MESSAGE THAT GAVE HIM HIS FIRST INTIMATION THAT MACARTHUR'S REMOVAL WAS BEING CONSIDERED.
HERE IS A DIGEST OF BRADLEY'S TESTIMONY, WITH EXAMPLES OF HOW HIS VIEWS COMPARED WITH MACARTHUR'S:

PATIENCE VS. SHOWDOWN

BRADLEY: OUR OVER-ALL POLICY HAS BEEN ONE OF STEADFAST PATIENCE AND DETERMINATION IN OPPOSING COMMUNIST AGGRESSION WITHOUT PROVOKING UNNECESSARILY A TOTAL WAR.
THERE ARE MANY CRITICS WHO HAVE BEEN IMPATIENT WITH THIS STRATEGY AND WHO WOULD LIKE TO CALL FOR A "SHOWDOWN." FROM A PURELY MILITARY VIEWPOINT, THIS IS NOT DESIRABLE.
WE ARE NOT IN THE BEST MILITARY POSITION TO SEEK A SHOWDOWN, EVEN IF IT WERE THE NATION'S DESIRE TO FORFEIT THE CHANCES FOR PEACE BY PRECIPITATING A TOTAL WAR.
UNDOUBTEDLY, THIS STATEMENT WILL BE MISCONSTRUED BY SOME CRITICS WHO WILL SAY, "WHY ARE THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF ADVERTISING THE FACT THAT WE ARE NOT MILITARILY IN A POSITION TO HAVE A SHOWDOWN?"

MAY 20 1951

A140
I CAN ASSURE THOSE CRITICS THAT WITH THE METHODS WE MUST PURSUE IN A DEMOCRACY IN ORDER TO SUPPORT A MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT -- INCLUDING THIS PRESENT INVESTIGATION OF OUR STRATEGY IN THE FAR EAST -- OUR CAPABILITIES ARE NOT UNKNOWN TO THE COMMUNISTS.
THEY ARE APT STUDENTS OF MILITARY POWER, AND FULLY REALIZE THAT ALTHOUGH WE ARE NOT PREPARED TO DELIVER ANY ULTIMATUM, WE COULD HURT THEM BADLY IF THEY ATTACKED US OR OUR FRIENDS.
THEY ALSO KNOW THAT WITH OUR POTENTIAL, AND THE STRENGTH OF OUR ALLIES, IN THE LONG RUN THEY COULD NOT WIN A WAR WITH A UNITED STATES THAT IS ALERT, AND CONTINUOUSLY PREPARED.
I WOULD NOT BE A PROPONENT OF ANY POLICY WHICH WOULD IGNORE THE MILITARY FACTS AND RUSH US HEADLONG INTO A SHOWDOWN BEFORE WE ARE READY.
IT IS TRUE THAT THIS POLICY OF ARMED RESISTANCE TO AGGRESSION, WHICH WE PURSUE WHILE WE ARE GETTING STRONGER, OFTEN RISKS A WORLD WAR. BUT SO FAR WE HAVE TAKEN THESE RISKS WITHOUT DISASTROUS RESULTS.
I THINK OUR GLOBAL STRATEGY IS PAYING OFF AND I SEE NO REASON TO LET IMPATIENCE ALTER IT IN THE FAR EAST.....
TAKING ON RED CHINA IS NOT A DECISIVE MOVE, DOES NOT GUARANTEE THE END OF THE WAR IN KOREA. AND MAY NOT BRING CHINA TO HER KNEES.
..... WE BELIEVE THAT EVERY EFFORT SHOULD BE MADE TO SETTLE THE PRESENT CONFLICT WITHOUT EXTENDING IT OUTSIDE KOREA. IF THIS PROVES TO BE IMPOSSIBLE, THEN OTHER MEASURES MAY HAVE TO BE TAKEN.
(MACARTHUR: .... I WOULD HAVE SUPPLIED (RED CHINA) WITH AN ULTIMATUM THAT SHE WOULD EITHER COME AND TALK TERMS OF A CEASE-FIRE WITHIN A REASONABLE PERIOD OF TIME OR HER ACTIONS IN KOREA WOULD BE REGARDED AS A DECLARATION OF WAR AGAINST THE NATIONS ENGAGED THERE AND THAT THOSE NATIONS WOULD TAKE SUCH STEPS AS THEY FELT NECESSARY TO BRING THE THING TO A CONCLUSION.)

--DASH--

RISK OF GLOBAL WAR

BRADLEY: WHAT IS THE GREAT ISSUE AT STAKE IN THIS HEARING? PRINCIPALLY I WOULD SAY THAT YOU ARE TRYING TO DETERMINE THE COURSE WE SHOULD FOLLOW AS THE BEST ROAD TO PEACE.....
THE FUNDAMENTAL MILITARY ISSUE THAT HAS ARISEN IS WHETHER TO INCREASE THE RISK OF A GLOBAL WAR BY TAKING ADDITIONAL MEASURES THAT ARE OPEN TO THE UNITED STATES AND ITS ALLIES.....
GEN. MACARTHUR HAS STATED THAT THERE ARE CERTAIN ADDITIONAL MEASURES WHICH CAN AND SHOULD BE TAKEN, AND THAT BY SO DOING NO UNACCEPTABLE INCREASED RISK OF GLOBAL WAR WILL RESULT.
(MACARTHUR HAS PROPOSED BOMBING BASES AND SUPPLY LINES IN RED CHINA, UTILIZING NATIONALIST CHINESE TROOPS NOW ON FORMOSA AND THE CLAMPING OF A NAVAL BLOCKADE ON RED CHINA).
THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF BELIEVE THAT THESE SAME MEASURES DO INCREASE THE RISK OF A GLOBAL WAR AND THAT SUCH A RISK SHOULD NOT BE TAKEN UNNECESSARILY.....
THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, IN VIEW OF THEIR GLOBAL RESPONSIBILITIES AND THEIR PERSPECTIVE WITH RESPECT TO THE WORLD-WIDE STRATEGIC SITUATION, ARE IN A BETTER POSITION THAN IS ANY SINGLE THEATER COMMANDER TO ASSESS THE RISK OF GENERAL WAR. MOREOVER, THE JOINT CHIEFS ARE BEST ABLE TO JUDGE OUR OWN MILITARY RESOURCES WITH WHICH TO MEET THAT RISK.

A141
(MACARTHUR: I HAVE NEVER ACCEPTED THE THEORY....THAT THE BRINGING OF THE KOREAN PROBLEM TO A CLOSE WOULD NECESSITATE BRINGING THE SOVIET INTO WAR AGAINST US. I BELIEVE THAT THERE IS AN EXCELLENT CHANCE THAT IF YOU APPLY THE POWER AGAINST THE CHINESE, THAT WOULD NOT NECESSARILY INVOLVE THE SOVIET INTO TAKING ACTION AGAINST US.... YOU HAVE TO TAKE A CERTAIN DEGREE OF RISK ON THESE THINGS..... THOSE RISKS (OF SOVIET ATTACK) SHOULD HAVE BEEN DISCOUNTED WHEN WE ENTERED THE WAR IN KOREA.... THE RISKS WERE JUST AS GREAT THEN AS THEY ARE NOW.)

--DASH--

PAST EXPERIENCES

BRADLEY: THREE TIMES IN THE PAST FIVE YEARS THE KREMLIN-INSPIRED IMPERIALISM HAS BEEN THWARTED BY DIRECT ACTION.
IN BERLIN, GREECE AND KOREA THE FREE NATIONS HAVE OPPOSED COMMUNIST AGGRESSION WITH A DIFFERENT TYPE OF ACTION. BUT EACH TIME THE POWER OF THE UNITED STATES HAS BEEN CALLED UPON AND WE HAVE BECOME INVOLVED. EACH INCIDENT HAS COST US MONEY, RESOURCES AND SOME LIVES.
BUT IN EACH INSTANCE WE HAVE PREVENTED THE DOMINATION OF ONE MORE AREA AND THE ABSORPTION OF ANOTHER SOURCE OF MANPOWER, RAW MATERIALS AND RESOURCES.
KOREA, IN SPITE OF THE IMPORTANCE OF THE ENGAGEMENT, MUST BE LOOKED UPON WITH PROPER PERSPECTIVE. IT IS JUST ONE ENGAGEMENT, JUST ONE PHASE OF THIS BATTLE THAT WE ARE HAVING WITH THE OTHER POWER CENTER IN THE WORLD WHICH OPPOSES US AND ALL WE STAND FOR.
FOR FIVE YEARS, THIS "GUERRILLA DIPLOMACY" HAS BEEN GOING ON. IN EACH OF THE ACTIONS IN WHICH WE HAVE PARTICIPATED TO OPPOSE THIS GANGSTER CONDUCT WE HAVE RISKED WORLD WAR III. BUT EACH TIME WE HAVE USED METHODS SHORT OF TOTAL WAR. AS COSTLY AS BERLIN AND GREECE AND KOREA MAY BE, THEY ARE LESS EXPENSIVE THAN THE VAST DESTRUCTION WHICH WOULD BE INFLICTED ON ALL SIDES IF A TOTAL WAR WERE TO BE PRECIPITATED.

--DASH--

WAR STRATEGY

BRADLEY: I AM UNDER NO ILLUSION THAT OUR PRESENT TRATEGY OF USING MEANS SHORT OF TOTAL WAR TO AHIEVE OUR ENDS AND OPPOSE COMMUNISM IS A GUARANTEE THAT A WORLD WAR WILL NOT BE THRUST UPON US.

BUT A POLICY OF PATIENCE AND DETERMINATION WITHOUT PROVOKING WORLD WAR, WHILE WE IMPROVE OUR MILITARY POWER, IS ONE WHICH WE BELIEVE WE MUST CONTINUE TO FOLLOW.

AS LONG AS WE KEEP THE CONFLICT WITHIN ITS PRESENT SCOPE, WE ARE HOLDING TO A MINIMUM THE FORCES WE MUST COMMIT AND TIE DOWN.

(MACARTHUR: .....WHEN WE HAVE GOT A WAR ON OUR HANDS, AND WHEN WE ARE SUFFERING THE WAY WE DO, WE SHOULD TRY TO BRING IT TO AN END..... THE WORST OF ALL CHOICES (IS) TO GO ON INDEFINITELY AND INDEFINITELY, NEITHER TO WIN OR LOSE, IN THAT STALEMATE; BECAUSE WHAT WE ARE DOING IS SACRIFICING THOUSANDS OF MEN WHILE WE ARE DOING IT. IF YOU COULD JUST SAY THAT THIS LINE STOPS AGGRESSION, AND WE DIDN'T LOSE THE MEN, THAT WOULD BE A DIFFERENT THING.....IF YOU LET IT GO ON INDEFINITELY IN KOREA YOU INVITE A THIRD WORLD WAR.)

--DASH--

MAY 20 1951

RIGHT OR WRONG WAR

BRADLEY: THE STRATEGIC ALTERNATIVE, ENLARGEMENT OF THE WAR IN KOREA TO INCLUDE RED CHINA, WOULD PROBABLY DELIGHT THE KREMLIN MORE THAN ANYTHING ELSE WE COULD DO.

IT WOULD NECESSARILY TIE DOWN ADDITIONAL FORCES, ESPECIALLY OUR SEA POWER AND OUR AIR POWER, WHILE THE SOVIET UNION WOULD NOT BE OBLIGED TO PUT A SINGLE MAN INTO THE CONFLICT.....

RED CHINA IS NOT THE POWERFUL NATION SEEKING TO DOMINATE THE WORLD. FRANKLY, IN THE OPINION OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, THIS STRATEGY WOULD INVOLVE US IN THE WRONG WAR, AT THE WRONG PLACE, AT THE WRONG TIME AND WITH THE WRONG ENEMY.

(MACARTHUR: I BELIEVE THAT THE APPLICATION OF THE, IF YOU WANT TO CALL IT, LIMITED PRESSURES WOULD BE QUITE SUFFICIENT TO BRING RED CHINA TO A REASONABLE ATTITUDE TO GATHER AROUND A PEACE CONFERENCE TABLE TO END THIS SAVAGE SLAUGHTER. ..... IT DOES NOT NECESSARILY MEAN THE OVERWHELMING OF CHINA; IT SIMPLY MEANS THAT SUFFICIENT PRESSURE ARE BROUGHT UPON HER TO MAKE HER STOP KILLING OUR BOYS BY THE THOUSANDS IN KOREA.)

--DASH--

APPEASEMENT

BRADLEY: SOME CRITICS OF OUR STRATEGY SAY IF WE DO NOT IMMEDIATELY BOMB TROOP CONCENTRATION POINTS AND AIRFIELDS IN MANCHURIA..... SET UP A BLOCKADE OF CHINESE PORTS.....LAUNCH CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS INTO CHINA, IT IS "APPEASEMENT".....

FORSAKING KOREA -- WITHDRAWING FROM THE FIGHT UNLESS WE ARE FORCED OUT -- WOULD BE AN APPEASEMENT TO AGGRESSION.

REFUSING TO ENLARGE THE QUARREL TO THE POINT WHERE OUR GLOBAL CAPABILITIES ARE DIMINISHED, IS CERTAINLY NOT APPEASEMENT BUT IS A MILITARILY SOUND COURSE OF ACTION UNDER THE PRESENT CIRCUMSTANCES.

(MACARTHUR: .....I HAVE MY OWN DEFINITION OF APPEASEMENT.... I BELIEVE WHEN YOU ENTER INTO WAR, YOU SHOULD USE SUFFICIENT FORCE TO IMPOSE YOUR WILL ON THE ENEMY. HE (THE ENEMY) IS THE AGGRESSOR. HE IS THE ONE THAT SPRUNG THAT FOUL BLOW..... AND I SAY THAT ANYTHING THAT DOES NOT TEND TO STOP THAT IS IN MY LEXICON APPEASEMENT.)

RUSSIAN POTENTIAL

SENATOR RUSSELL (D-GA): ..... YOU REFERRED TO THE FACT THAT THE CHIEFS WERE IN AGREEMENT AS TO THE DANGER OF RUSSIAN INTERVENTION IF THE WAR IN ASIA WERE EXTENDED AS RECOMMENDED BY GEN. MACARTHUR..... IS THAT DANGER REGARDED AS BEING REMOTE OR VERY REAL BY THE JOINT CHIEFS?

BRADLEY: WELL, WE THINK THERE IS REAL DANGER. NOW THE DEGREE OF THAT IS ANYBODY'S OPINION, MR. CHAIRMAN. IN OUR CASE WE BELIEVE IT IS A RISK WHICH WE SHOULD NOT TAKE AT THIS TIME.

RUSSELL: WHAT DO YOU BASE YOUR OPINION ON?

BRADLEY: WELL, THE STRENGTH THAT ..... THE RUSSIANS HAVE IN THE FAR EAST; THE FACT THAT THEY HAVE BEEN SUPPORTING CHINA IN ITS OPERATION; THAT THEY WERE SUPPORTING NORTH KOREA PREVIOUSLY; THE QUESTION OF WHETHER OR NOT THEY CAN AFFORD TO LOSE IN KOREA, AND THE FACT THAT THEY HAVE AN ARRANGEMENT WITH CHINA WHEREBY IF CHINA IS ATTACKED UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS RUSSIA WILL COME TO HER ASSISTANCE.

RUSSELL: WHAT IS .....THE POTENTIAL FOR WAGING WAR OF THE RUSSIAN FORCES THAT ARE NOW STATIONED IN ASIA?

BRADLEY: WELL, IN MY OPINION, THEY HAVE THE CAPABILITY OF CAUSING US A GREAT DEAL OF DIFFICULTY, TO SAY THE LEAST.

(MACARTHUR: I BELIEVE THAT HE (THE SOVIET) WILL MAKE HIS DECISION ON A HIGHER BASIS THAN THE INCIDENTS (THAT) ARE OCCURRING IN ASIA AT THE PRESENT TIME..... I BELIEVE THAT THE DISPOSITIONS OF THE SOVIET FORCES ARE LARGELY DEFENSIVE.

(THE SOVIET IN THE FAR EAST DEPLOYS POSSIBLY BETWEEN (CENSORED) OF ARMED MEN IN THE VARIOUS THREE SERVICES. HE IS DEPENDENT FOR THEIR SUPPORT ALMOST ENTIRELY FROM EUROPEAN RUSSIA.

(THIS SIDE OF THE BAIKAL (SIBERIAN MOUNTAIN) REGION THERE IS NO INDUSTRIAL SET-UP OF MAJOR PROPORTION, SO THAT ALL MUNITION EQUIPMENT, ALL THE STRATEGIC WAR WEAPONS, ALL OF THE SUSTENANCE THAT GOES IN SUCH MAJOR QUANTITY TO SUPPORT ARMED FORCES, MUST PASS OVER THAT RAILWAY LINE WHICH RUNS FROM EUROPEAN RUSSIA ACROSS SIBERIA.

(THAT LINE IS STRAINED TO THE VERY UTMOST NOW TO MAINTAIN ON A NORMAL PEACE BASIS THE FORCES WHICH THE SOVIET MAINTAINS IN SIBERIA. I DO NOT BELIEVE THAT IT WOULD BE WITHIN THE CAPACITY OF THE SOVIET TO MASS ANY GREAT ADDITIONAL INCREMENT TO FORCE TO LAUNCH ANY PREDATORY ATTACK FROM THE ASIATIC CONTINENT.)

ON LOYALTY AND SPEAKING OUT

SENATOR BRIDGES (R-N.H.): NOW GEN. BRADLEY, WHAT DO YOU CONSIDER YOUR FIRST LOYALTY?

BRADLEY: TO MY COUNTRY.

BRIDGES: .....IF IT REACHES THE TIME IN THIS COUNTRY WHERE YOU THINK THE POLITICAL DECISION IS AFFECTING WHAT YOU BELIEVE TO BE BASICALLY RIGHT MILITARILY, WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

BRADLEY: WELL, IF AFTER SEVERAL INSTANCES IN WHICH THE BEST MILITARY ADVICE WE COULD GIVE WAS TURNED DOWN FOR OTHER REASONS, I WOULD DECIDE THAT MY ADVICE WAS NO LONGER OF ANY HELP, WHY, I WOULD QUIT..... LET THEM GET SOME OTHER MILITARY ADVISER WHOSE ADVICE APPARENTLY WOULD BE BETTER, MORE ACCEPTABLE.

BRIDGES: WOULD YOU SPEAK OUT, TELL THE AMERICAN PUBLIC?

BRADLEY: NO, SIR.

BRIDGES: DON'T YOU THINK THAT IS YOUR DUTY, YOUR LOYALTY TO YOUR COUNTRY, TO DO THAT?

BRADLEY: NO, SIR, I DON'T T THINK SO. I HAVE BEEN BROUGHT UP A LITTLE DIFFERENTLY.

BRIDGES: WHERE DOES YOUR LOYALTY TO YOUR COUNTRY COME IN?

BRADLEY: I AM LOYAL TO MY COUNTRY, BUT I AM ALSO LOYAL TO THE CONSTITUTION, AND YOU HAVE CERTAIN ELECTED OFFICIALS UNDER THE CONSTITUTION, AND I WOULDN'T PROFESS THAT MY JUDGMENT WAS BETTER THAN THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OR THE ADMINISTRATION.

BRIDGES: WOULD IT NOT BE ON A MILITARY SUBJECT?
BRADLEY: YES.
BRIDGES: SHOULD NOT YOU SPEAK OUT?
BRADLEY: I WOULD, YES, TO THE CONSTITUTED AUTHORITIES; YES.
BRIDGES: BUT YOU WOULD STOP THERE.
BRADLEY: YES.
(SEN. BRIEN MCMAHON (D-CONN) HAD ASKED MACARTHUR HIS VIEWS ON "THE ADVISABILITY IF NOT THE PROPRIETY OF ANY SUBORDINATE MILITARY OFFICER TO TAKE HIS DIFFERENCES OF OPINION, ON A GOVERNMENT POLICY ..... TO PEOPLE IN POLITICAL LIFE."
(MACARTHUR: IT SEEMS TO ME THAT THE AMERICAN PEOPLE ARE ENTITLED TO CERTAIN BASIC FACTS, WHEN IT INVOLVES THE LIVES OF THEIR SONS, AND, PERHAPS, THE FUTURE OF OUR COUNTRY. I DO NOT BELIEVE IN THE GAG RULE, IF THAT IS WHAT YOU ARE TALKING ABOUT.)
--DASH--
NATIONALISTS ON FORMOSA
(THE CHIEF OF STAFF WAS ASKED WHY CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S NATIONALIST TROOPS ON FORMOSA WERE NOT UTILIZED, AS RECOMMENDED BY MACARTHUR.)
BRADLEY: IN OUR OPINION THE NATIONALIST TROOPS ON FORMOSA HAD VERY LIMITED CAPABILITIES, PARTICULARLY FOR OFFENSIVE ACTION. AS GEN. MACARTHUR HIMSELF HAD POINTED OUT, THEY WOULD HAVE TO HAVE ALMOST COMPLETE LOGISTICAL SUPPORT FROM OURSELVES, TRANSPORTATION FURNISHED. IN THE OPINION OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF THEIR LEADERSHIP, EQUIPMENT AND TRAINING WERE ALL OF SUCH A STATE THAT THEY WOULD BE OF LIMITED USE IN OFFENSIVE OPERATIONS.
(MACARTHUR: THE GENERALISSIMO HAS PROBABLY IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD OF HALF A MILLION TROOPS. THE PERSONNEL IS EXCELLENT... THEY HAVE A GOOD MORALE. THEIR MATERIAL EQUIPMENT IS SPOTTY. THEY LACK EQUIPMENT. THEY LACK TRUCKS..... WHEN FORMOSA WAS THREATENED BY THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS, THE BEST USE THAT COULD HAVE BEEN MADE OF THOSE TROOPS WAS TO LEAVE THEM RIGHT ON FORMOSA, BUT THE MINUTE THAT THREAT WAS RELIEVED, THOSE TROOPS SHOULD HAVE BEEN UTILIZED... I THINK WE COULD USE SOME OF THEM TO GREAT ADVANTAGE IN KOREA.)

CONCERNING ALLIES
RUSSELL: WHAT EFFECT DO YOU THINK IT WOULD HAVE ON OUR ALLIES IF THE WAR WERE EXTENDED IN MANCHURIA OR INTO CHINA?
BRADLEY: WELL, IF IT WERE EXTENDED BY UNITED STATES ACTION ALONE, I THINK WE MIGHT STAND THE CHANCE OF LOSING SOME OF OUR ALLIES, BECAUSE THEY ARE UNDER THE GUN MORE OR LESS IN EUROPE AND THEY ARE VERY RELUCTANT TO SEE ANYTHING DONE WHICH MIGHT BRING ON A WORLD WAR III AT THIS TIME....AND THEREFORE THAT IS WHY I SAY THAT WE STAND THE CHANCE, IF WE TAKE THAT ACTION OURSELVES, OF HAVING THEM DROP OUT ON US AND DISCONTINUE THEIR SUPPORT.....
RUSSELL: HOW IS (EUROPE) IMPORTANT MILITARILY TO THE UNITED STATES?
BRADLEY: RIGHT NOW WE HAVE A GREAT ADVANTAGE ON RUSSIA IN PRODUCTION OF STEEL AND OTHER INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTS. IF SHE SHOULD OVERRUN EUROPE AND TAKE ON THE ADDITIONAL MANPOWER AND INDUSTRIAL CAPACITY THERE AND ADD IT TO HER OWN, IT WOULD BE ABOUT EQUAL TO OUR OWN, I WOULD GUESS.
(MACARTHUR: .....IT IS ADVANTAGEOUS FOR US TO HAVE ALL OF THE ALLIES THAT WE CAN GET AND PROCURE..... IF THE OTHER NATIONS OF THE WORLD HAVEN'T GOT SENSE ENOUGH TO SEE WHERE APPEASEMENT LEADS AFTER THE APPEASEMENT WHICH LED TO THE SECOND WORLD WAR IN EUROPE, IF THEY CAN'T SEE EXACTLY THE ROAD THEY ARE FOLLOWING IN ASIA, WHY THEN WE HAD BETTER PROTECT OURSELVES AND GO IT ALONE.)
--DASH--

THREE DOCUMENTS
RUSSELL: THE MEMORANDUM OF JAN. 12 HAS PLAYED QUITE A LARGE PART IN THESE HEARINGS, GEN. BRADLEY. I WISH YOU WOULD OUTLINE FOR THE COMMITTEE YOUR UNDERSTANDING OF THE FOUR ITEMS IN THE JAN. 12 MEMORANDUM TO WHICH GEN. MACARTHUR REFERRED.....
BRADLEY: THERE WAS A DIRECTIVE DATED JAN. 12. THERE WAS A STUDY WHICH YOU SPEAK OF DATED JAN. 12 AND THERE WAS A LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT TO GEN. MACARTHUR DATED JAN. 13.
IN OTHER WORDS, THERE ARE THREE THINGS IN THIS PERIOD.
(THE STUDY, DRAWN UP BY THE CHIEFS OF STAFF, ENUMERATED POSSIBLE LINES OF ACTION, INCLUDING AN ECONOMIC BLOCKADE OF CHINA, A NAVAL BLOCKADE, REMOVAL OF RESTRICTIONS ON AIR RECONNAISANCE OF CHINA AND MANCHURIA, AND REMOVAL OF RESTRICTIONS OF CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS. A COPY OF THE STUDY WAS SENT TO MACARTHUR FOR HIS INFORMATION.)
BRADLEY: I WANT TO EMPHASIZE AGAIN THAT IT WAS NOT A DIRECTIVE..... IT WAS A STUDY WHICH WE USED IN THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL IN CONSIDERING FUTURE ACTIONS IF THIS THING DEVELOPED INTO A WAR AGAINST CHINA.
RUSSELL: WELL, WHAT WAS THE DIRECTIVE (FROM THE JOINT CHIEFS) NOW, AS CONTRASTED WITH THIS STUDY OR MEMORANDUM?
BRADLEY: IT DIRECTED HIM (MACARTHUR) TO DEFEND IN SUCCESSIVE POSITIONS IF NECESSARY, AND ALWAYS WITH THE UNDERSTANDING THAT THE SECURITY OF HIS TROOPS WAS PARAMOUNT. THAT IS IN BRIEF FORM WHAT IT WAS. IT TOLD HIM, AS I SAY, TO DEFEND IN SUCCESSIVE POSITIONS; IN OTHER WORDS, TO STAY IN KOREA.
(PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S JAN. 13 LETTER, OUTLINING POLITICAL POLICY, CALLED UPON MACARTHUR TO USE GREAT PRUDENCE AGAINST EXTENDING THE AREA OF HOSTILITIES PENDING THE BUILD-UP OF UNITED STATES NATIONAL STRENGTH. IT SAID STEPS THAT MIGHT BE JUSTIFIED TO AID THE KOREAN CAMPAIGN WOULD NOT BE BENEFICIAL IF THEY INVOLVED JAPAN OR WESTERN EUROPE IN LARGE-SCALE HOSTILITIES.)
--DASH--
CHIEFS OVER-RIDDEN?

MAY 20 1951

BRADLEY: STATEMENTS HAVE BEEN MADE THAT THE PRESIDENT, AS COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF, AND THE SECRETARY OF STATE AND THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE HAVE A POLICY ALL THEIR OWN, AND THAT THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF HAVE BEEN OVER-RIDDEN.
THIS IS JUST NOT SO.
(MACARTHUR HAD TESTIFIED THAT

BEEN OVER-RIDDEN.
THAT ISJUST NOT SO.
(MACARTHUR HAD TESTIFIED THAT HE RECEIVED A STUDY FROM THE JOINT CHIEFS, ENDORSING VARIOUS COURSES OF ACTION, BUT THAT THEY NEVER WERE PUT INTO EFFECT AS A DIRECTIVE AND THAT HE ASSUMED THEY HAD BEEN TURNED DOWN BY HIGHER AUTHORITY. DEFENSE SECRETARY MARSHALL SAID NONE WAS VETOED BY HIM OR HIGHER AUTHORITY BUT THAT IT "BECAME UNNECESSARY TO PUT THEM INTO EFFECT" BECAUSE OF IMPROVEMENT IN THE MILITARY SITUATION.)

ADVANCE NEWS ON RECALL
SEN. BRIDGES: HOW DID CERTAIN FOREIGN COUNTRIES GET THE INFORMATION IN ADVANCE ABOUT MACARTHUR'S RECALL?
BRADLEY: I DON'T KNOW; I DIDN'T KNOW THEY DID.
BRIDGES: WELL, FOR INSTANCE, CERTAINLY MADAME PANDIT, THE AMBASSADRESS FROM INDIA, ANNOUNCED IN THE PAPERS THAT SHE KNEW IT BETWEEN 11:30 AND 12, AND THAT WAS SOMETIME IN ADVANCE OF WHEN THE FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENT WAS MADE PUBLICLY..... NOW IT IS QUITE IMPORTANT HERE

WHETHER THERE WAS A LEAK, WHETHER IT WAS DELIBERATELY GIVEN OUT, AND WHO INFORMED FOREIGN COUNTRIES, WHICH I THINK IS A VERY BAD THING, BEFORE OFFICIALS OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT KNEW.

BRADLEY: I WOULDN'T KNOW BECAUSE I DIDN'T EVEN KNOW UNTIL THIS TIME THAT THEY HAD KNOWN IN ADVANCE.

(MACARTHUR: I RECEIVED IT (NEWS OF HIS RECALL) FROM MY WIFE. ONE OF MY AIDES HAD HEARD THE BROADCAST AND INSTANTLY TOLD HER.....

(Q -- HOW MUCH LATER DID YOU RECEIVE OFFICIAL NOTICE?

(MACARTHUR: ...WITHIN 30 MINUTES, PERHAPS, OR AN HOUR.....)

--DASH--

EFFECTS OF REMOVAL

SEN. BRIDGES QUESTIONED BRADLEY ON THE EFFECT OF MACARTHUR'S SUMMARY REMOVAL FROM HIS FAR EAST COMMANDS.

BRIDGES: DO YOU THINK IT WAS GOOD FOR THE MORALE OF OUR TROOPS TO DO IT THIS WAY?

BRADLEY: I DON'T THINK IT HAD ANY PARTICULAR EFFECT ON THE MORALE OF OUR TROOPS..... THE OUTSTANDING LEADERSHIP OF GEN. (MATTHEW) RIDGWAY (WHO SUCCEEDED MACARTHUR) HAD RAISED THE MORALE OF THE TROOPS IN KOREA TO SUCH AN EXTENT THAT THEY WERE A VERY DIFFERENT ARMY FROM WHAT THEY HAD BEEN A COUPLE OF MONTHS BEFORE WHEN THEY WERE RETREATING.

BRIDGES: WHAT EFFECT DO YOU THINK IT HAD ON UNITY IN THIS COUNTRY, WHICH IS NECESSARY FOR THE SUCCESSFUL PROSECUTION OF A WAR?

BRADLEY: JUDGING FROM WHAT HAS GONE ON SINCE THIS THING HAPPENED, I WOULD SAY FOR THE TIME BEING CERTAINLY IT HAS CAUSED SOME DISUNITY.

BRIDGES: WHAT WAS ITS EFFECT ON JAPAN?

BRADLEY: I UNDERSTAND THAT THEY WERE DEEPLY CONCERNED AT THE TIME.....AND THAT WAS THE REASON MR. (JOHN FOSTER) DULLES WENT OVER TO TRY TO PUT OVER TO THEM THAT THIS GOVERNMENT'S POLICY HAD NOT BEEN CHANGED EVEN THOUGH GEN. MACARTHUR HAD BEEN TAKEN AWAY.

BRIDGES: WHAT WAS ITS EFFECT UPON EUROPE?

BRADLEY: I DON'T KNOW OF ANY PARTICULAR EFFECT IN EUROPE.

BRIDGES: WHAT WAS THE EFFECT ON CERTAIN COMMUNIST PUBLICATIONS LIKE THE DAILY WORKER IN THIS COUNTRY.

MAY 20 1951

BRADLEY: I NEVER READ IT, SIR; I DON'T KNOW.

(MACARTHUR: BEING SUMMARILY RELIEVED IN THAT WAY MADE IT IMPOSSIBLE TO CARRY OUR DIRECTIVES THAT I WAS WORKING ON AT THAT MOMENT..... I DON'T THINK THERE IS ANY QUESTION THAT THE INTERESTS OF THE UNITED STATES WAS JEOPARDIZED IN SUCH A SUMMARY MODE OF TURNING OVER GREAT RESPONSIBILITIES WHICH INVOLVE THE SECURITY OF THE COUNTRY.....

(SEN. CAIN (R-WASH): GEN. MACARTHUR, IT IS MY IMPRESSION, SIR, THAT YOU DID NOT ADDRESS OR BID FAREWELL TO YOUR TROOPS OR THE JAPANESE PEOPLE.....WOULD YOU GIVE ME YOUR REASONS AS TO WHY.....?

(MACARTHUR: IT WAS A MATTER OF GREAT GRIEF AND REGRET TO ME THAT I DID NOT REGARD IT AS APPROPRIATE TO ADDRESS THE COMMAND WHICH I NO LONGER POSSESSED. THE ORDER OF MY RELIEF WAS A SUMMARY ONE....I WAS NO LONGER IN COMMAND AND ID DI NOT THINK IT WAS APPROPRIATE FOR ME TO ENCROACH IN ANY WAY UPON THE PREROGATIVES OF THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF AT THAT TIME, WHO WAS GEN. RIDGWAY. IT IS A MATTER OF THE GREATEST REGRET THAT I COULDN'T EXPRESS THE THANKS AND THE GRATITUDE FOR THE LOYALTY AND BRAVERY AND DETERMINATION WITH WHICH THE COMMAND SUPPORTED ME....I CAN SAY ALMOST THE SAME OF THE JAPANESE PEOPLE..... IT WAS NOT....A VOLUNTARY FAILURE ON MY PART.....

TELEPHONE CALL

RUSSELL: WHEN DID YOU FIRST LEARN OR WHEN WERE YOU FIRST CONSULTED WITH RESPECT TO THE ADVISABILITY OF REMOVING GEN. MACARTHUR OF HIS SEVERAL COMMANDS? WHEN DID YOU FIRST LEARN THAT THAT WAS UNDER DISCUSSION? WHEN WAS YOUR OPINION FIRST ASKED?

BRADLEY: MY FIRST INFORMATION THAT THERE WAS SOME CONCERN BEING SHOWN BY THE PRESIDENT OVER THIS WAS LATE THE AFTERNOON OF THURSDAY, THE 5TH OF APRIL, WHEN I RECEIVED THE INFORMATION -- I DON'T REMEMBER WHERE FROM -- BUT I THINK I RECEIVED IT FROM A TELEPHONE FROM SOMEONE; AT WHICH TIME I CALLED THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF TOGETHER.... AND TOLD THEM THE PRESIDENT WAS CONCERNED ABOUT SOME STATEMENTS THAT HAD BEEN MADE BY GEN. MACARTHUR, AND THAT THEY SHOULD BEGIN STUDYING THE MILITARY ASPECTS OF IT.....

SEN. BRIDGES: DID IT COME FROM THE WHITE HOUSE OR THE SECRETARY OF STATE?

BRADLEY: I DON'T KNOW, SIR, WHERE IT CAME FROM. IT MAY HAVE BEEN FROM THE WHITE HOUSE; IT MAY HAVE BEEN FROM THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE'S OFFICE. I DON'T KNOW, SIR..... I AM NOT TOO SURE IT CAME BY TELEPHONE. MY MEMORY IS THAT I GOT A CALL FROM SOMEONE.

BRIDGES: WELL, THAT IS IMPORTANT TO KNOW WHO ORIGINATED THE IDEA. IT WAS NOT YOU WHO ORIGINATED THE IDEA OF FIRING MACARTHUR THEN?

BRADLEY: NO, SIR.

BRIDGES: IT WAS NOT THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF?

BRADLEY: NO, SIR.

BRIDGES:.....IN OTHER WORDS, THE ORIGIN OF THE FIRING OF MACARTHUR OCCURRED FIRST ON A POLITICAL LEVEL. YOU DO NOT KNOW WHERE-- AT THE WHITE HOUSE, SECRETARY OF STATE, OR JUST WHERE IT CAME FROM. AND THE ONLY ACTION THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF TOOK WAS TO IN RESPONSE TO THAT, WHERE THEY AGREED TO THE RECALL?

BRADLEY: I THINK IT IS NOT QUITE A QUESTION OF AGREED. THEY WERE ASKED THEIR OPINION FROM A MILITARY POINT OF VIEW, WHETHER OR NOT HE SHOULD BE RELIEVED, AND THEY SAID "YES."

BRIDGES: IN OTHER WORDS, THEY DID NOT ORIGINATE THE REQUEST?

BRADLEY: THEY DID NOT.

MAY 20 1951

BRIDGES: THEY MADE NO REQUEST?

BRADLEY: THEY DID NOT.....

SEN. WILEY: (R-WIS): WELL, NOW, THIS (TELEPHONE CALL) WAS AN UNUSUAL OCCURRENCE IN YOUR LITTLE LIFE, WAS IT NOT, GENERAL--. THAT YOU SHOULD FIND OUT THAT A FELLOW GENERAL WAS ABOUT TO HAVE SOMETHING HAPPEN TO HIM? NOW WHAT WAS THIS MESSAGE THAT CAME? WHAT DID IT SAY?

BRADLEY: I TOLD YOU THAT I DID NOT REMEMBER WHERE I FIRST GOT THIS INFORMATION. TO THE BEST OF MY MEMORY IT CAME BY 'PHONE FROM SOMEONE.....

TRUMAN CONFERENCE

BRADLEY: THE FIRST TIME I REALLY CAME INTO THIS (THE QUESTION OF RELIEVING MACARTHUR) WAS ON FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 6, WHEN I MET WITH THE PRESIDENT, AND THE OTHERS IN HIS OFFICE, AT WHICH TIME HE EXPLAINED WHAT HIS CONCERN WAS.

(BRADLEY SAID THOSE PRESENT WERE THE PRESIDENT, SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON, SECRETARY OF DEFENSE GEORGE C.MARSHALL, AMBASSADOR AVERELL HARRIMAN AND HIMSELF)

WILEY: ALL RIGHT. NOW, TELL US WHAT WAS SAID THEN?

BRADLEY: SENATOR, AT THAT TIME I WAS IN A POSITION OF A CONFIDENTIAL ADVISER TO THE PRESIDENT. I DO NOT FEEL AT LIBERTY TO PUBLICIZE WHAT ANY OF US SAID AT THAT TIME.

WILEY: WELL, THAT RAISES A QUESTION, I SUPPOSE, THAT THE CHAIR WILL HAVE TO RULE ON.....

BRADLEY: SENATOR, IT SEEMS TO ME THAT IN MY POSITION AS AN ADVISOR. ONE OF THE MILITARY ADVISERS TO THE PRESIDENT, AND TO ANYBODY ELSE IN A POSITION OF RESPONSIBILITY WHO WANTS IT, THAT IF I HAVE TO PUBLICIZE MY RECOMMENDATIONS AND MY DISCUSSIONS, THAT MY VALUE AS AN ADVISER IS RUINED.

I MAY BE WRONG IN THIS. I WILL ABIDE BY WHATEVER THE COMMITTEE SAYS, BUT IT SEEMS TO ME THAT WHEN ANY OF US HAVE TO TELL EVERYTHING THAT WE SAY IN OUR POSITION AS AN ADVISER, THAT WE MIGHT JUST AS WELL QUIT.

WILEY: I AM NOT GOING TO ASK YOU TO DO THAT..... BUT I AM ASKING THE CHAIRMAN TO RULE THAT MY QUESTION IS PERTINENT AND RELEVANT AND SHOULD BE ANSWERED.

BRADLEY: MAY I CORRECT MY STATEMENT A LITTLE BIT? I AM NOT TOO SURE THAT I WOULD HAVE THE RIGHT TO SAY THAT I WOULD BE GUIDED BY THIS COMMITTEE.

MAYBE I SHOULD TAKE THIS TO THE PRESIDENT AND GET HIS PERMISSION TO DO IT BECAUSE I WAS ACTING AS HIS ADVISER AT THE TIME, AND I AM NOT SURE BUT WHAT I SHOULD GET HIS PERMISSION TO TELL YOU RATHER THAN TO TAKE IT ON MYSELF TO SAY I WOULD DO IT UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES.

(THERE FOLLOWED A LENGTHY DEBATE BY THE SENATORS ON WHETHER THE QUESTION SHOULD BE ANSWERED. BRADLEY AMPLIFIED HIS POSITION THE NEXT DAY, WEDNESDAY.)

BRADLEY: IN MY OPINION, I SHOULD NOT BE PLACED IN THE POSITION OF GOING TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES AND ASKING FOR A BREAKDOWN IN THIS CONFIDENTIAL RELATIONSHIP.

(THE COMMITTEE EXCUSED BRADLEY UNTIL MONDAY AND MEANWHILE VOTED 18 TO 8 ON THURSDAY TO UPHOLD HIS REFUSAL TO ANSWER THE QUESTION.

(ADVANCE FOR AMS OF SUNDAY MAY 20)
(800) TRUMAN-ACHESON

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, MAY 19-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN IS RUNNING HEADLONG INTO A VIOLENT FIGHT IN CONGRESS OVER HIS INSISTENCE ON KEEPING DEAN ACHESON AS SECRETARY OF STATE.

THE FIGHT IS DEVELOPING AROUND TWO VITAL ADMINISTRATION MONEY BILLS. BY SLASHING EITHER ONE, OR BY DENYING FUNDS FOR ACHESON'S SALARY, CONGRESS PROBABLY COULD, AND MANY OBSERVERS BELIEVE WILL, FORCE HIS DISMISSAL.

THE BILLS ARE THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S APPROPRIATION OF $283,500,000 AND A $9,000,000,000 ONE-PACKAGE FOREIGN AID PROPOSAL WHICH MR.TRUMAN PLANS TO SEND TO CONGRESS LATE NEXT WEEK.

POWERFUL WEAPONS THEREFORE ARE IN THE HANDS OF ACHESON'S ENEMIES AND SOME MEMBERS OF CONGRESS WHO HAVE BEEN HIS FRIENDS IN THE PAST ARE FALLING AWAY.

YET WHILE THE STORM RAGES AROUND HIM, ACHESON, WITH THE SUPPORT OF THE PRESIDENT, HAS BEEN PUBLICLY STRENGTHENING HIS DETERMINATION TO REMAIN IN OFFICE. HE HAS GONE SO FAR AS TO SAY IN EFFECT THAT THE ONLY WAY HE WILL LEAVE IS UPON DISMISSAL BY MR.TRUMAN.

SUCH A PUBLIC POSITION IS CUSTOMARY FOR A TOP-LEVEL OFFICIAL UNDER FIRE. IT IS LARGELY A DEFENSIVE POSITION. MANY A MAN HAS TAKEN IT IN THE PAST HOPING TO CALM THE CONTROVERSY AND CREATE A SITUATION IN WHICH HE MAY RESIGN AS GRACEFULLY AS POSSIBLE, WITHOUT APPEARING TO BE FORCED OUT BY HIS ENEMIES.

HIGHLY PLACED PERSONS IN CONGRESS AND THE ADMINISTRATION INDICATE THAT ACHESON WOULD IN FACT LIKE TO FOLLOW THAT COURSE: GIVEN A LULL OF, SAY A MONTH, IN THE STORM HE WOULD RESIGN.

BUT A LULL DOES NOT SEEM TO BE IN THE CARDS. THE ACTUAL PROSPECT IS FOR A SHOWDOWN STRUGGLE BETWEEN THE ADMINISTRATION AND ITS ANTI-ACHESON ANTAGONISTS IN CONGRESS, INCLUDING SOME DEMOCRATS AS WELL AS REPUBLICANS.

MR.TRUMAN SAID RECENTLY IN RESPONSE TO A QUESTION ABOUT A POSSIBLE ACHESON SUCCESSOR THAT HE HAD A SECRETARY OF STATE WITH WHOM HE WAS VERY WELL SATISFIED. THAT THIS IS INDEED MR.TRUMAN'S VIEW, THAT HE FEELS ACHESON HAS SERVED HIM BRILLIANTLY AND LOYALLY IS BORNE OUT BY ALL THE PRESIDENT HAS SAID PUBLICLY AND ALL HIS CLOSEST ADVISERS SAY PRIVATELY.

NEVERTHELESS THE FEELING IS STRONG IN WASHINGTON THAT ACHESON, WHO CELEBRATED HIS 58TH BIRTHDAY APRIL 11, WILL CEASE TO BE SECRETARY OF STATE LONG BEFORE HIS 59TH ROLLS AROUND. IT SEEMS POSSIBLE ALSO THAT THIS WILL COME ABOUT BECAUSE THE OPPOSITION IN CONGRESS IS IN POSITION TO THREATEN, IF NOT TO WRECK, THE INSTITUTION AND THE KEY FOREIGN POLICY PROGRAM WHICH ACHESON HAS MAINLY DEVOTED HIMSELF TO BUILDING UP.

MAY 20 1951

A129WX

FOR SEVERAL WEEKS THE STATE DEPARTMENT SUBCOMMITTEE OF THE HOUSE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE HAS BEEN SITTING ON THE DEPARTMENT'S APPROPRIATION BILL, HOPING SOMETHING WILL TURN UP TO GIVE A FAIR PROSPECT OF PASSAGE FOR THE BILL IN WORKABLE FORM. BUT THE TIME IS APPROACHING WHEN IT WILL HAVE TO GO TO THE FLOOR; AND WHEN IT DOES A GROUP OF ACHESON'S CRITICS ARE PREPARED TO INSIST THAT IT BE AMENDED IN SUCH A WAY THAT HIS SALARY COULD NOT BE PAID. HE COULD CONTINUE TO WORK WITHOUT SALARY, BUT THE ACTION WOULD BE A TERRIFICALLY DAMAGING VOTE OF "NO CONFIDENCE."

ANOTHER MOVE, WHICH STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS THEMSELVES FEAR, IS THAT THE HOUSE AND SENATE IN A DIRECT STRIKE AT ACHESON MIGHT CUT THE TOTAL APPROPRIATION BY A SLASHING 50 PER CENT. THAT WOULD MEAN FIRING 3,000 OF THE DEPARTMENT'S 6,000 WORKERS IF IT WENT THROUGH OR GETTING INTO A LONG WRANGLE FOR FUNDS ONCE CONGRESS HAS BEEN APPEASED BY ACHESON'S DISMISSAL.

AS FOR THE $9,000,000,000 FOREIGN AID BILL, THAT IS NOT YET BEFORE CONGRESS BUT WILL BE IN A FEW DAYS. MOST OF IT, AROUND $7,000,000,000, IS FOR MILITARY AID TO WESTERN EUROPE. THAT IS THE HEART OF THE ADMINISTRATION'S POLICY FOR DEFENSE AGAINST RUSSIAN COMMUNISM; IT SEEMS HIGHLY UNLIKELY THAT IF IT WAS THREATENED WITH SERIOUS CUTBACKS ACHESON'S POSITION IN THE ADMINISTRATION WOULD BE PERMITTED TO STAND IN THE WAY.

ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS ARE PLANNING T

BACKS ACHESON'S POSITION IN THE ADMINISTRATION WOULD BE PERMITTED TO STAND IN THE WAY.

ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS ARE PLANNING TO FIGHT BACK ON THE CONGRESSIONAL FRONT. ONE ARGUMENT THEY WILL MAKE IS THAT CONGRESS HAS NO RIGHT TO JEOPARDIZE A PROGRAM OR THE GOVERNMENT'S OPERATION IN ORDER TO BRING PRESSURE ON ONE OFFICIAL. BUT THE ANTI-ACHESON FORCES ARE STRONG.

MANY DEMOCRATIC SENATORS HAVE LONG SOUGHT BEHIND THE SCENES TO GET ACHESON OUT. SOME SAY PRIVATELY THEY REGARD HIM AS A POLITICAL MILESTONE AROUND THE NECK OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY AND ITS STALWARTS WHO HAVE TO RUN FOR REELECTION NEXT YEAR. THEY CONTEND THE COUNTRY HAS LOST CONFIDENCE IN ACHESON, THOUGH THEY BLAME THIS NOT ON ACHESON'S POLICIES BUT ON THE BITTER REPUBLICAN ATTACKS ON HIM.

THAT IS A POINT AT WHICH ACHESON'S ADHERENTS AND HIS CRITICS IN HIS OWN PARTY COME TO A PARTING OF THE WAYS. ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS BELIEVE THAT FOR THE REPUBLICANS ACHESON IS JUST THE MOST VULNERABLE

30.24- 23195

POINT OF ATTACK ON THE PRESIDENT; IF HE WENT, THE REPUBLICANS, CLAIMING A GREAT VICTORY, WOULD SHIFT THEIR FIRE TO SOME OTHER POINT.

A130WX
THE ARGUMENT OF ACHESON'S FRIENDS THEREFORE IS THAT FIRING HIM WOULD NOT SOLVE THE POLITICAL PROBLEMS WHICH HAVE COME INTO FOREIGN POLICY LEADERSHIP AND MIGHT WEAKEN OR FATALLY UPSET THE POLICIES THEMSELVES.

IF ACHESON HIMSELF IS UNDER GREAT PERSONAL STRAING AS A RESULT OF THE UNCEASING ATTACKS ON HIM, HE SHOWS LITTLE SIGN OF IT. HE HAS BEEN A CONTROVERSIAL FIGURE FOR MANY YEARS AND HIS HIDE HAS UNDOUBTEDLY BEEN TOUGHENED BY THE HARSH WINDS OF THE PAST AND THE STRONG CONVICTION THAT HIS DECISIONS, ON THE WHOLE, ARE RIGHT, AND HIS CONSCIENCE IS CLEAR.

NORFOLK, VA., MAY 19-(AP)-SENATOR BYRD (D-VA) SAID TODAY GENERAL MACARTHUR WOULD HAVE BEEN WILLING TO STAY ON AS GOVERNOR OF JAPAN EVEN AFTER HE WAS OUSTED AS FAR EASTERN COMMANDER.

BYRD SAID AS A MEMBER OF THE SENATE ARMED FORCES COMMITTEE HE HAD GONE UP TO THE GENERAL AS MACARTHUR WAITED FOR ABOUT HALF AN HOUR BEFORE THE START OF THE CURRENT INVESTIGATION INTO MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL.

"I APPROACHED HIM AS TO WHETHER HE WOULD HAVE BEEN WILLING TO CONTINUE IN JAPAN AS MILITARY GOVERNOR UNTIL COMPLETION OF A PEACE TREATY. HE INDICATED HE WOULD."

VIRGINIA'S SENIOR SENATOR MADE THIS REVELATION DURING A TWO-FISTED, OFF-THE-CUFF SPEECH AT AN ARMED FORCES DAY LUNCHEON HERE IN WHICH HE LASHED OUT AT THE UNITED NATIONS AND THE AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY.

HE ADDED THAT REGARDLESS OF WHAT ANYONE THOUGHT OF MACARTHUR'S PLANS TO CARRY THE WAR TO THE CHINESE MAINLAND, HIS ACHIEVEMENTS IN JAPAN MUST BE ADMIRED.

"HE BALANCED THE BUDGET IN JAPAN, A WAR-TORN NATION, AND PUT NEW HOPE AND SPIRIT IN THE PEOPLE THERE," BYRD SAID. "HE STANDS FOR THE UNITED STATES IN THE FAR EAST AND HE COULD HAVE BEEN KEPT IN JAPAN AS GOVERNOR, AT LEAST UNTIL THE PEACE IS WRITTEN."

(DEFENSE SECRETARY GEORGE C.MARSHALL TOLD THE HEARINGS LAST WEEK THAT THE QUESTION OF MACARTHUR'S BEING RETAINED IN RELATION TO JAPAN ONLY WAS CONSIDERED BUT WAS "SET ASIDE ON THE GROUND THAT IT WOULD PUT" GENERAL MATTHEW RIDGWAY "IN AN ALMOST IMPOSSIBLE POSITION . . .").

B21WX (Q) (PARADE)
(400) NIGHT LEAD PARADE
WASHINGTON, MAY 19-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN TOOK A LONG LOOK TODAY AT SOME OF THE TROOPS, TANKS, GUNS AND GADGETS THAT MAKE UP AMERICA'S MILITARY FORCE.

THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF, LIKE OTHER CITIZENS IN OTHER CITIES, WATCHED AN ARMED FORCES DAY PARADE.

TEN THOUSAND MEN -- AND WOMEN -- IN UNIFORM TROOPED PAST HIS REVIEW STAND ON CONSTITUTION AVENUE FOR AN HOUR AND FIFTEEN MINUTES.

IT WAS AN AVERAGE SAMPLING OF THE MEN AND WEAPONS IN THE STILL-GROWING ARMED SERVICE OF THE UNITED STATES. THE ORDNANCE THAT RUMBLED PAST ON GREAT WHEELS OR TRACK-LAYING TREADS WAS THE SAME EQUIPMENT BEING USED IN BATTLE IN KOREA.

THERE WERE SHERMAN TANKS, WITH THE LONG BARRELS OF THEIR 90 MILLIMETER GUNS DRIPPING IN THE DRIZZLING RAIN THAT FELL DURING MUCH OF THE PARADE. THERE WERE SIMPLE-LOOKING BUT DEADLY RECOILLESS GUNS, USEFUL TOOLS FOR STOPPING ENEMY TANKS. THERE WERE MOBILE ANTIAIRCRAFT GUNS (MOBILE ONLY BECAUSE THEY HAVE HUGE TRACTORS TO HAUL THEIR TREMENDOUS WEIGHT AND MOUNTINGS TO POSITION.)

BECAUSE IT WAS INTENDED AS JUST A FAIR CROSS-SECTION OF THE ARMY, NAVY, MARINES AND AIR FORCE STRENGTH, IT IS POSSIBLE THREE SPECTATORS WHO SAT NOT FAR FROM MR. TRUMAN WENT AWAY WITH SOME WRONG IMPRESSIONS.

IN MOSCOW, WHERE THESE THREE MILITARY ATTACHES OF THE SOVIET EMBASSY COME FROM, THEY ALSO HAVE AN ANNUAL MILITARY OCCASION. BUT THE RUSSIAN MAY DAY IS A DAY FOR MARCHING MILLIONS AND QUICK GLIMPSES OF AIRPLANES -- AN OCCASION WITH STRONG PROPAGANDA OVERTONES.

THERE WERE THREE OTHERS WHO SAT NEAR THE PRESIDENT WHO KNEW WELL THE AMERICAN ARMED FORCES. THEY WERE THE ONLY THREE KNOWN LIVING MEN TO WIN MEDALS OF HONOR IN THE KOREAN WAR-- LT CARL DODD OF KENVIR, KY.; MASTER SERGEANT ERNEST R. KOUMA OF DWIGHT, NEB.; SGT. JOHN A. PITTMAN OF TALLULA, MISS. THERE HAVE BEEN OTHER WINNERS OF THIS HIGHEST MILITARY DECORATION IN THIS WAR, BUT THEY ARE DEAD OR MISSING.

AND IN THE PARADE, ALONG WITH THE MARCHING TROOPS AND GUNS, WERE THE GOLD STAR MOTHERS OF MEN WHO DIED IN OTHER WARS FOUGHT BY THIS COUNTRY. FOR THEM, THE PRESIDENT HAD A GRAVE WAVE OF HIS HAND AS THEY PASSED HIS STAND.

B22WX
DEFENSE SECRETARY MARSHALL AND OTHER OFFICIALS AND OFFICERS OF THE

MIL} ESTABLISHMENT JOINED THE PRESIDENT IN THE REVIEWING STAND.
NEXT TO THE OFFICIAL BOX OF THE PRESIDENT WAS THE STAND SET ASIDE FOR THE MILITARY ATTACHES OF FOREIGN POWERS WITH EMBASSIES HERE. THE THREE RUSSIANS -- A NAVY COMMODORE AND AN ARMY AND AIR GENERAL -- SAT TOGETHER WITH THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE MANY FRIENDS THE U.S. HAS ABROAD -- BRITAIN, FRANCE, THE SOUTH AMERICAN NEIGHBORS, TURKEY, AUSTRALIA AND THE MANY OTHERS OF THE FREE NATIONS OF THE WORLD.

NEW YORK, MAY 19-(AP)-AIR FORCE SECRETARY THOMAS (. FINLETTER SAID TONIGHT THAT AMERICA'S MILITARY BUILD-UP--BIG AS IT IS--IS NOT NEARLY AS BIG AS RUSSIA'S.
NOTING THAT THE UNITED STATES MILITARY BUDGET HAS SOARED FROM $14,500,000,000(B) BEFORE THE KOREAN WAR TO $109,000,000,000(B) COMBINED IN 1951 MILITARY APPROPRIATIONS AND THOSE RECOMMENDED FOR 1952, FINLETTER SAID:
"COMPARED WITH THE SOVIET UNION'S ORDER OF BATTLE, WITH ITS HUGE GROUND ARMY IN BEING AND A LARGE-SCALE TACTICAL AND LONG-RANGE AIR FORCE, THIS AMERICAN BUILD-UP IS SMALL."
FINLETTER, IN A SPEECH PREPARED FOR AN ARMED FORCES DAY DINNER AT THE WALDORF-ASTORIA HOTEL, SAID THAT AMERICA'S EXPANDED MILITARY MIGHT IS MEANT ONLY TO HELP "KEEP THE PEACE."
THE WESTERN ALLIES, HE SAID, SEEK ONLY TO ESTABLISH FORCES FORMIDABLE ENOUGH TO DETER AGGRESSION.
THE AIR SECRETARY SAID THAT AMERICANS MUST BE STEADFAST IN MEETING THE STRESSES OF A LIMITED WAR IN KOREA AND AN INDEFINITE PERIOD OF REARMAMENT.
HE RECALLED THE FAILURES OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS TO HALT SMALL BREACHES OF PEACE, THAT LED TO BIG ONES, AND SAID THE FREE WORLD TODAY HAS MOVED, AS IN GREECE AND IN THE BERLIN BLOCKADE TO STOP SMALL ACTS OF AGGRESSION BEFORE THEY GOT WORSE.
"IF WE THINK OF THE STRUGGLE THERE (IN KOREA) IN THIS LIGHT," HE SAID, "AND KEEP THE FIRMNESS OF PURPOSE TO SEE THE KOREAN STRUGGLE THROUGH TO A SUCCESSFUL CONCLUSION, THEN WE MAY WITNESS, ALL IN PROPER TIME, A UNIVERSAL DISCREDITING OF AGGRESSION AND THE EMERGENCE OF A COLLECTIVE SECURITY SYSTEM THAT WORKS."

MCGRATH
(ADVANCE FOR USE AT 12:30 P.M. EASTERN STANDARD TIME, TODAY, SATURDAY, MAY 19)
(ADVANCE) (WX) PHILADELPHIA, MAY 19-(AP)-ATTORNEY GENERAL MCGRATH TODAY DECLARED "THE STAKES ARE HIGH IN THE WORLD STRUGGLE WITH COMMUNISM AND HASTY OR ILL-ADVISED ACTION COULD VERY WELL SPELL DISASTER."
"TO THOSE WHO WOULD LABEL PRUDENCE AND CAREFULNESS AS 'APPEASEMENT' I SAY THERE IS GREAT DANGER SHOULD WE OVERESTIMATE OUR DEFENSES," HE SAID. "SURELY IT IS NOT APPEASEMENT TO HOLD A FOE AT BAY WHILE OUR OWN STRENGTH TO REPEL AGGRESSION IS STILL POTENTIAL."
MCGRATH SAID ADMINISTRATION POLICIES ARE DIRECTED TOWARD "CAREFUL, PRUDENT USE OF OUR RESOURCES" WHILE THIS COUNTRY POTENTIAL ADVANTAGE OVER POSSIBLE ENEMIES IS BEING CONVERTED TO "AN ACTUAL ADVANTAGE" SUFFICIENT TO DETER AGGRESSORS "OR REPEL THEM IF THEY AGGRESS."
THE ATTORNEY GENERAL OUTLINED HIS VIEWS IN AN ADDRESS PREPARED FOR AN ARMED FORCES DAY LUNCHEON.
CAREFULLY AVOIDING ANY DIRECT MENTION OF GENERAL DOUGLAS MACARTHUR IN HIS PREPARED TEXT, MCGRATH GAVE ENDORSEMENT TO WHITE HOUSE POLICY STATEMENTS WHICH FOLLOWED MACARTHUR'S OUSTER OVER FAR EASTERN MILITARY STRATEGY.
IN THE COLLECTIVE EFFORT TO REBUILD THE DEFENSE OF THE FREE WORLD, HE SAID, EMPHASISIS "HAS BEEN WIDELY PLACED UPON THOSE AREAS THAT ARE MOST CRITICAL." HE NAMED THE NORTH ATLANTIC COUNTRIES "SECOND ONLY TO THE UNITED STATES ITSELF IN INDUSTRIAL CAPACITY" AS ONE SUCH AREA.
THAT AREA, MCGRATH SAID, "HAS LONG BEEN A PRIMARY OBJECTIVE OF THE SOVIET UNION AND OF WORLD COMMUNISM.
"FOR WITHOUT IT THE COMMUNISTS COULD NOT HOPE TO AGGREGATE THE INDUSTRIAL ADVANTAGE THAT IS ESSENTIAL TO SUCCESS IN MODERN WAR. WITH IT, THEY WOULD BE WELL ON THE WAY TOWARD OVERCOMING OUR PRESENT POTENTIAL ADVANTAGE." HE ADDED:
"NOW WE MUST CONVERT THIS POTENTIAL ADVANTAGE TO AN ACTUAL ADVANTAGE, AND IF WE DO SO WIDELY--WHICH TO ME MEANS CAREFULLY AND EFFICIENTLY--IT IS MY EARNEST BELIEF THAT WE CAN MAINTAIN FREEDOM IN THE WORLD, AND THAT WE CAN DO SO WITHOUT UNDULY DECREASING THE ABUNDANCE OF OUR WAY OF LIFE, AND WITHOUT INORDINATE DISLOCATION OF OUR INDIVIDUAL LIVES.
"UNTIL WE HAVE ACTUALLY CONVERTED OUR POTENTIAL ADVANTAGE TO AN ACTUAL ADVANTAGE, CAREFUL, PRUDENT USE OF OUR RESOURCES IS JUST AS IMPORTANT AS EFFICIENT USE OF THEM."

B12WX (HKUP)
"CERTAINLY," MCGRATH CONCLUDED "TO SAY THAT KOREA IS A LOCAL WAR DOES NOT DENY THAT THE STRUGGLE WITH COMMUNISM IS WORLD-WIDE. NOR DOES IT INDICATE LACK OF RESOLVE TO MAINTAIN OUR LIMITED OBJECTIVES. OUR INTENSIVE EFFORT TO REBUILD OUR STRENGTH AND THAT OF OUR FRIENDS IS CLEAR EVIDENCE OF OUR DETERMINATION TO FACE THE OVER-ALL ISSUE, WHILE OUR PATIENCE AND STEADFAST FORBEARANCE IN KOREA IS TESTIMONY OF THE EARNEST QUALITY OF OUR DESIRE FOR PEACE."

MICHAELIS (220)
LANCASTER, PA., MAY 19-(AP)-LANCASTER OPENED ITS DOORS AND ITS HEART TODAY TO BRIG.GEN.JOHN H.MICHAELIS IN AN ARMED FORCES DAY HOMECOMING FOR THE FAMED COMMANDER OF THE WOLFHOUND REGIMENT IN THE KOREAN WAR.
MICHAELIS, A LIEUTENANT COLONEL ON HIS LAST VISIT HOME, WAS WELCOMED WITH OPEN ARMS AS HE RETURNED AGAIN LAST NIGHT, THE SILVER STAR OF HIS NEWLY-WON RANK GLEAMING ON THE SHOULDERS OF HIS UNIFORM. HE HAD LED HIS REGIMENT THROUGH MONTHS OF HEROIC FIGHTING IN KOREA, RISKING HIS OWN SAFETY SO OFTEN THAT A SAYING GREW UP AMONG HIS TROOPS: "MIKE WILL GO HOME EITHER A LIVE GENERAL OR A DEAD COLONEL."
FIVE THOUSAND FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS, HEADED BY MAYOR HOWARD C. BARE AND AN OFFICIAL RECEPTION COMMITTEE, GREETED GEN.MICHAELIS WITH HIS WIFE AND DAUGHTER WHEN THEY ARRIVED LAST NIGHT AT INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT. MICHAELIS RETURNED TO THE U.S.EARLIER THIS MONTH, HAS BEEN IN WASHINGTON PREPARATORY TO ASSIGNMENT WITH GEN.DWIGHT D.EISENHOWER'S STAFF IN EUROPE.
TODAY'S PROGRAM CALLED FOR A COLORFUL CIVIC RECEPTION, WINDING UP WITH THE PARADE THAT WILL MARK LANCASTER'S OBSERVANCE OF ARMED FORCES DAY.
FOUR WOUNDED VETERANS OF MICHAELIS OLD OUTFIT--THE 27TH REGIMENT OF THE 25TH DIVISION--WERE ASSIGNED FROM VALLEY FORGE MILITARY HOSPITAL TO SERVE AS HIS GUARD OF HONOR THROUGHOUT THE DAY. THEY WERE: SGT.ROBERT W.SIEGARS, 23, (15 WESTFORD AVE.) LOWELL, MASS.; SGT.STANLEY MUNAT, 20, (1713 S.ELIZABETH ST.) CHICAGO; PFC.MARVIN CAUDILL, 22, (919 RAILROAD AVE.) TAMPA, MAY 19-(AP)-AMERICAN AIR POWER TORE THROUGH THE SKIES OVER TAMPA TODAY AS THOUSANDS OF SPECTATORS LOOKED ON.

ONE OF THE MOST APPRECIATIVE WAS A VISITOR TO THIS COUNTRY, THE KOREAN AMBASSADOR TO THE UNITED STATES, DR. YOU CHAN YANG.

HIS ADDRESS WAS A PORTION OF TAMPA'S OBSERVANCES OF ARMED FORCES DAY. HE TOLD OF THE APPEARANCE OF THE AMERICAN AIR FORCE OVER KOREA AFTER THE COMMUNIST ATTACK HAD FORCED BACK ITS SMALL, ILL-EQUIPPED FORCES.

"IT IS HARDLY POSSIBLE FOR ME TO TELL YOU HOW YOUR COMING ERASED OUR DESPAIR," THE AMBASSADOR SAID. "YOU WERE TRULY HARBINGERS OF HOPE FOR THE KOREAN PEOPLE. HOPE WHICH CONTINUED TO GROW WHEN YOUR GROUND FORCES AND THOSE OF OTHER UNITED NATIONS FOLLOWED SHORTLY THEREAFTER."

HE ACKNOWLEDGED THE KOREAN DEBT OF GRATITUDE AND PRAISED THE COMMANDANT AND THE DEVELOPMENT OF BOMBING CREWS AT MACDILL AIR FORCE BASE HERE.

HE ALSO MENTIONED THE ENVIABLE RECORD OF THE MACDILL-TRAINED 307TH BOMB WING, AND PAID TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF MAJOR LESLIE MACDILL IN WHOSE HONOR THE BASE IS NAMED.

"THE COURAGE AND SKILL OF AMERICAN AIRMEN HAVE EXCITED THE ADMIRATION OF THE WORLD," SAID DR. YANG. "IN KOREA, THEIR PART IN THE STRUGGLE OF THE UNITED NATIONS HAS INDEBTED OUR PEOPLE TO THEM FOREVER.

"I SAULTE YOU FOR YOUR VALOROUS CONTRIBUTION TO THE STRUGGLE IN WHICH WE ARE MUTUALLY ENGAGED, AND WHICH WE ARE CONFIDENT WILL, WITH THE HELP OF ALMIGHTY GOD, BRING THE WORLD PERMANENT PEACE."

SHERMAN (350)

(ADVANCE) (WX) LOUISVILLE, MAY 19-(AP)-ADMIRAL FORREST P. SHERMAN SAID TONIGHT THE UNITED STATES MAY HAVE TO FIGHT A WHOLE SERIES OF "RELATIVELY SMALL WARS" IF IT INTENDS TO MAINTAIN ITS DEFENSE OF THE FREE WORLD.

THE CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS DID NOT SAY WHETHER HE MEANT WARS LIKE THE KOREAN CONFLICT, OR SOMETHING BIGGER OR SMALLER.

BUT IN AN ARMED FORCES DAY SPEECH PREPARED FOR DELIVERY BEFORE THE PENDENNIS CLUB, HE STATED:

"UNLESS WE ARE WILLING TO SEE THE FREE WORLD GRADUALLY GROW SMALLER AND LESS ABLE TO DEFEND ITSELF, WE MUST FACE THE POSSIBILITY, THOUGH NOT THE CERTAINTY, OF WAR -- POSSIBLY A SERIES OF RELATIVELY SMALL WARS -- POSSIBLY A GENERAL WAR. IF WE FACE IT WITH FORTITUDE AND CONVICTION, THE POSSIBILITY WILL BECOME LESS."

SHERMAN SAID THE FIGHTING IN KOREA MAY DECIDE THE FATE OF THE UNITED NATIONS AS "AN ORGANIZATION TO MAINTAIN INTERNATIONAL PEACE AND SECURITY".

"THE WEEKS AHEAD WILL TEST THE READINESS OF THE MEMBER NATIONS TO STRENGTHEN THE ORGANIZATION AND MAKE IT SURVIVE," HE ADDED.

"WE ACCEPTED CONFLICT IN KOREA WITH THE HOPE OF MAINTAINING THE UNITED NATIONS AS AN INSTRUMENT OF WORLD PEACE. ON THE SUCCESS OF THE UNITED NATIONS IN KOREA MAY DEPEND ITS SURVIVAL AS AN ORGANIZATION TO MAINTAIN INTERNATIONAL PEACE AND SECURITY.

"WE HAVE ACTED PROMPTLY AND CONTRIBUTED HEAVILY TO MAKE IT SUCCESSFUL."

THE NAVAL CHIEF WARNED THAT THE UNITED STATES CANNOT DEPEND COMPLETELY UPON ANYTHING BUT ITS "OWN MILITARY STRENGTH" TO PRESERVE THE NATION'S SECURITY.

"WE MUST BE READY TO FIGHT AT ONCE," HE SAID.

READINESS TO FIGHT, HE ADDED, IS NECESSARY BECAUSE "WE CANNOT DEPEND UPON ALLIES TO HOLD THE LINE UNTIL WE ARE READY. WE CANNOT TRAIN OUR INITIAL FORCES AFTER WAR HAS COME."

THE UNITED STATES IS VULNERABLE, SHERMAN DECLARED, BECAUSE IT POSSESSES SO MUCH THAT PREDATORY NATIONS WANT AND BECAUSE IT DOES NOT START WARS, THUS GIVING AN ENEMY THE CHOICE OF THE TIME AND PLACE OF THE FIRST ATTACK. "WE MUST ACCEPT THE RISK THAT HIS FIRST BLOW MAY BE ONE FROM WHICH IT IS DIFFICULT TO RECOVER QUICKLY," HE WARNED.

THE ADMIRAL OUTLINED THE U.S. PROGRAM FOR THE PRESENT PERIOD WHICH HE DESCRIBED AS "THE GREY AREA" BETWEEN ALL-OUT WAR AND PEACE.

1. INCREASE U.S. MILITARY STRENGTH TO A LEVEL THAT "WILL CERTAINLY PREVENT DISASTER," AND DETER AGGRESSION.
2. DEPLOY MILITARY FORCES IN EUROPE AND THE MEDITERRANEAN TO DETER AGGRESSION.
3. GIVE ALL POSSIBLE SUPPORT TO THE FIGHT AGAINST COMMUNISM IN THE FAR EAST.
4. ASSIST U.S. ALLIES TO BUILD THEIR ECONOMIC AND MILITARY STRENGTH.
5. MAKE SACRIFICES AT HOME AND PRODUCE THE GOODS AND SERVICES NEEDED TO SUPPORT THE AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE.

PACE
(ADVANCE) (WX) CHICAGO, MAY 19-(AP)-SECRETARY OF THE ARMY FRANK PACE, JR., SAID TODAY THAT AMERICAN MILITARY EFFORTS IN KOREA ARE GIVIN "OUR ALLIES X X X RENEWED CONFIDENCE AND HOPE FOR PEACE AND FREEDOM."

"TO OUR ENEMIES," HE ADDED, "THESE EFFORTS PROVIDE CLEAR PROOF THAT, IF NECESSARY, WE WILL FIGHT ANY AGGRESSOR WHO DARES TO THREATEN OUR LIBERTIES AND OUR SECURITY."

"FROM THE OUTSET OF THIS WAR," PACE SAID IN A PREPARED ARMED FORCES DAY SPEECH, "WE HAVE USED EVERY MEANS IN OUR POWER TO END IT WITH AN HONORABLE PEACE."

PACE PAID HIGH TRIBUTE TO THE EFFECTIVENESS AND MORALE OF AMERICAN AND ALLIED TROOPS HE SAW ON A RECENT VISIT TO KOREA. HE HAD ESPECIAL PRAISE FOR THE MEDICAL SERVICES. TEAMED WITH AIR EVACUATION UNITS, HE SAID, THE MILITARY MEDICS ARE SAVING 95 PER CENT OR BETTER OF ALL THE WOUNDED.

COOPERATION BETWEEN THE NAVY, AIR FORCE AND ARMY IN WORLD WAR TWO, PACE SAID, LED TO UNIFICATION OF THE ARMED SERVICES AFTER THE WAR.

HE DECLARED THAT UNIFICATION HAS PAID OFF WITH SOME "MIRACLES" IN KOREA. ONE INSTANCE WAS THE QUICK AIRBORNE ARRIVAL OF THE FIRST AMERICAN GROUND UNITS IN KOREA. ANOTHER HE CITED WAS GETTING 3.5 TANK-KILLER BAZOOKA ROCKET GUNS TO THE MEN 14 DAYS AFTER THEY BEGAN TO FIGHT IN KOREA.

THE ARMY, NAVY, MARINES AND AIRFORCE, HE SAID, TEAMED AT THE INCHON LANDING LAST FALL TO CARRY OUT SUCCESSFULLY "ONE OF THE MOST EFFECTIVE AND DIFFICULT AMPHIBIOUS OPERATIONS IN HISTORY.

"FROM INCHON TO THE PRESENT," THE ARMY SECRETARY SAID, "OUR BATTLE-SEASONED EIGHTH ARMY HAS CONSISTENTLY OUT-PUNCHED ITS HEAVIER OPPONENT."

"EVEN WHEN THE CHINESE REDS UNEXPECTEDLY ENTERED THE FIGHT," HE ADDED, "OUR SOLDIERS RETAINED COMMAND...AGAINST THE 'HUMAN-WAVE' TACTICS OF A BARBARIOUS FOE, THE ARMY'S INFANTRY-TANK-ARTILLERY TEAM HAS STOOD FIRM, DEALING TERRIBLE PUNISHMENT TO THE ENEMY..."

PACE BROUGHT OUT A NEW WORD TO DESCRIBE THE NEWLY MESHED OPERATIONS OF THE ARMED FORCES. REFERRING TO COORDINATION OF GROUND, AIR AND SEA EFFORTS, HE CALLED IT "TRIPHIBIOUS."

THE BATTALION HAD CALLED ITSELF AN "ORPHAN" BECAUSE IT WAS MOVED SO OFTEN FROM POST TO POST AND FELT IT HAD NO HOME. WEYAND'S WIFE GOT VARIOUS CIVIC ORGANIZATIONS TO ARRANGE FOR THE "ADOPTION", AND THE BATTALION WAS SENT MANY GIFTS AND OTHER EVIDENCES OF ATTENTION.

"THE FRONT-LINE INFANTRY SOLDIERS ARE GRATEFUL FOR THE GIFTS," SAID PACE. "BUT MORE THAN THAT, THEY APPRECIATE THIS TANGIBLE EVIDENCE THAT THE PEOPLE OF ONE TOWN AT HOME HAVE NOT FORGOTTEN THEM AND THE TOUGH, DIRTY, IMPORTANT JOB THEY ARE DOING."

REEVES, 19, IS HOME ON A FIVE-DAY PASS FROM THE ARMY'S VALLEY FORGE GENERAL HOSPITAL, PHOENIXVILLE, PA. HE SEEMED AS HAPPY AS A QUADRUPLE AMPUTEE CAN BE.

HE WORE A NEW GABARDINE UNIFORM, WITH HIS PURPLE HEART AND PRESIDENTIAL UNIT CITATION MEDALS PINNED PROUDLY UNDER THE COMBAT INFANTRYMAN'S BADGE ON HIS CHEST, AS HE RODE IN AN OPEN TOPPED CAR. HE SAT BETWEEN HIS MOTHER, MRS. WANETTA REEVES, AND HIS FATHER, HUBERT, SR., A MACHINE TRIMMER FOR A ROOFING MILL.

IN THE CAR ALSO WERE HIS YOUNG BROTHER, JIMMY, NINE, AND HIS NEIGHBOR, SERGEANT JOHN STANKO, WHO RECRUITED HIM FOR THE ARMY TWO YEARS AGO.

FOR A FEW BLOCKS, THE LITTLE PARTY RODE AT THE HEAD OF THE PARADE, MRS. REEVES DABBING PERSPIRATION FROM HER SOLDIER SON'S FACE FROM TIME TO TIME. THE TEMPERATURE WAS 90 DEGREES.

AFTER THE PARADE WAS OVER, MAJOR EDWARD F. GIBB, ROTC INSTRUCTOR AT THE HIGH SCHOOL, INTRODUCED REEVES TO THE CROWD. HE SAID "YOU ARE A GREAT INSPIRATION TO THE COMMUNITY. YOU WILL CAUSE ALL OF US TO GIVE INCREASED DEVOTION TO OUR DUTIES."

REEVES RESPONDED IN A VOICE LOW AND JUST AUDIBLE, "I AM GLAD TO BE HOME. THANK YOU FOR EVERYTHING YOU HAVE DONE FOR ME."

MAYOR ARTHUR O. JANKE TOLD REEVES "JOLIET IS PROUD OF YOU."

THEN, T.F. WILHELMI, A BANK CASHIER, SHOWED REEVES A BANKBOOK RECORDING $9,241.40--THE "GIVE A FUTURE TO HUBERT REEVES" FUND COLLECTED BY HIS NEIGHBORS.

THERE WAS MORE--LIFE MEMBERSHIP IN THE VFW AND THE DAV, AND AN AUTOGRAPHED BASEBALL AND AN INVITATION TO A BIG LEAGUE BASEBALL GAME.

UNTIL NEXT TUESDAY, REEVES SAID HE'LL LUXURIATE IN BEING HOME, LISTEN TO JIVE RECORDINGS, AND CHIN WITH FRIENDS.

ON TUESDAY, HE'LL BE FLOWN BACK TO VALLEY FORGE GENERAL HOSPITAL FOR FURTHER TREATMENT.

NIGHT LEAD UNDATED ARMED FORCES DAY By The Associated Press
(WX) THE UNITED STATES SALUTED ITS FIGHTING MEN IN CEREMONIES FROM COAST TO COAST YESTERDAY (SATURDAY). IT WAS THE NATION'S SECOND ANNUAL ARMED FORCES DAY.

MANY AMERICAN COMMUNITIES PAID HOMAGE TO THEIR SOLDIERS, SAILORS AND AIRMEN AS THE ARMED SERVICES MARCHED BY IN A GIANT DISPLAY OF THEIR STRENGTH IN MEN AND MACHINES.

IN KOREA THERE WAS A GRIMMER DEMONSTRATION OF AMERICA'S FIGHTING QUALITIES. COMBAT TROOPS STOOD STUBBORNLY IN THE FACE OF THE NEW RED CHINESE OFFENSIVE, AND ON THE BLOODY CENTRAL FRONT THE ATTACKS SLACKENED.

THE SLOGAN FOR ARMED FORCES DAY, 1951, WAS "DEFENDERS OF FREEDOM".

TEN THOUSAND MARCHED DOWN CONSTITUTION AVENUE IN WASHINGTON, PACED BY 16 BANDS AND REVIEWED BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN. AMONG THE INTERESTED SPECTATORS WERE THREE MILITARY ATTACHES FROM THE SOVIET

SPECTATORS WERE THREE MILITARY ATTACHES FROM THE SOVIET EMBASSY. IN THE AFTERNOON THE AIR FORCE STAGED A FOUR AND ONE-HALF HOUR AERIAL DISPLAY AT THE BOLLING AIR FORCE BASE. TWO HUNDRED AIRCRAFT WERE ON SHOW.

THERE WERE DEMONSTRATIONS ABROAD AS WELL AS AT HOME. IN GERMANY AMERICAN FORCES PUT ON THE GREATEST MILITARY DISPLAY SINCE WORLD WAR II.

AN ESTIMATED 500,000 GERMANS IN A DOZEN CITIES TURNED OUT TO WATCH THE PARADES AND INSPECT DISPLAYS OF TANKS, ARTILLERY AND AIRCRAFT.

IN ANOTHER WASHINGTON CEREMONY, MR.TRUMAN PRESENTED MEDALS OF HONOR, THE NATION'S HIGHEST MILITARY AWARD, TO THREE VETERANS OF THE KOREAN FIGHTING---FIRST LT.CARL H.DODD OF KENVIR, KY.; SGT.JOHN A.PITTMAN OF TALLULA, MISS., AND MASTER SGT.ERNEST R.KOUMA OF DWIGHT, NEB.

THEIR EXPLOITS, THE PRESIDENT COMMENTED, SHOW WHY THERE ARE 909,000 ENEMY CASUALTIES IN KOREA.

BRIG.GEN.JOHN H.MICHAELIS, ANOTHER HERO OF THE KOREAN STRUGGLE, RECEIVED A SPECIAL OVATION IN HIS HOME TOWN, LANCASTER, PA. THE FAMOUS LEADER OF WOLFHOUND REGIMENT WAS HONORED AT A BIG CIVIC RECEPTION AND PARADE.

MAY 20 1951

IN THE DAY'S SPEECHES:

GEN. CLIFTON B. CATES, COMMANDANT OF THE MARINE CORPS, DECLARED, "OUR CHANCES FOR A PERMANENT AND LASTING PEACE ARE FAR BETTER THAN THEY WERE A YEAR AGO. IN AN ADDRESS PREPARED FOR DELIVERY IN NASHVILLE, TENN., HE SAID THE NATION'S DEFENSES ARE STRONGER AND MUST BE MADE STRONGER STILL.

LT. GEN. CURTIS E. LEMAY (CAPS L AND M) TOOK A GLOOMIER VIEW. THE COMMANDER OF THE STRATEGIC AIR COMMAND, TOLD A COLUMBUS, OHIO, AUDIENCE "OUR INSURANCE AGAINST AGGRESSION HAS EXPIRED. WE HAVE LOST OUR SUPERIORITY WHICH WAS OVERWHELMING WHEN WE ALONE HAD THE ATOMIC BOMB."

SECRETARY OF THE ARMY FRANK PACE SAID AMERICAN FIGHTING IN KOREA "PROVIDES CLEAR PROOF THAT, IF NECESSARY, WE WILL FIGHT ANY AGGRESSOR WHO DARES TO THREATEN OUR LIBERTIES AND OUR SECURITY". HE SPOKE IN CHICAGO.

THE CHIEF OF THE AIR FORCE, GEN. HOYT VANDENBERG, TOLD A SAVANNAH, GA., AUDIENCE THAT THE UNITED STATES HAS BETTER WAR PLANES THAN RUSSIA, BUT THAT RUSSIA HAS MORE PLANES. IN A PREPARED ADDRESS HE CONTENDED THAT THE BEST DEFENSE AGAINST ATTACK IS TO BOMBARD THE SOURCES OF ENEMY AIR POWER WITH LONG-RANGE STRATEGIC BOMBERS.

IN ADDITION TO THE BIG OBSERVANCE IN GERMANY, AMERICAN ARMED FORCES DEMONSTRATED THEIR GROWING STRENGTH IN AUSTRIA AND TRIESTE.

ABOUT 6,000 U.S. TROOPS PARADED IN SALZBURG, AUSTRIA, THEN TOOK UP POSITIONS FOR A WEEK OF MANEUVERS STARTING TONIGHT. IN TRIESTE 2,500 AMERICAN TROOPS MARCHED PAST WHILE THUNDERJETS ROARED OVER THE MAIN SQUARE OF THE TERRITORY.

IN NEW YORK, POLICE ESTIMATED THAT 400,000 PERSONS LINED UPPER FIFTH AVENUE TO WATCH A PARADE OF 35,000 MARCHERS, INCLUDING ALL BRANCHES OF THE ARMED SERVICES.

OVERCAST SKIES CAUSED CANCELLATION OF AN UMBRELLA OF 175 ARMED SERVICES AIRCRAFT THAT HAD BEEN SCHEDULED TO FLY OVER THE ROUTE.

BUT THE SPECTATORS SAW OTHER EQUIPMENT, INCLUDING WHAT WAS DESCRIBED AS A NEW-TYPE TROOP CARRIER, ABOUT TWO AND A HALF TIMES AS BROAD AS AN ARMY TRUCK, EACH TOWING A 120-MM ANTI-AIRCRAFT "STRATOSPHERE" GUN.

REVIEWING OFFICIALS INCLUDED AIR SECRETARY THOMAS K.FINLETTER AND LIEUT.GEN.WILLIS D.CRITTENBERGER, COMMANDING GENERAL, FIRST ARMY.

ALL ACROSS THE CONTINENT, RESPONDING TO AN INVITATION BY SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL TO VISIT THEIR NEAREST MILITARY POST, PEOPLE WALKED THROUGH OPEN DOORS TO INSPECT BARRACKS AND NEW WEAPONS. THE NAVY PUT DOWN GANGPLANKS TO GIVE THE PUBLIC ACCESS TO 117 WAR SHIPS IN AMERICAN PORTS. SOME OF THEM RETURNED ONLY RECENTLY FROM THE KOREAN FIGHTING.

IN THE AIR, EIGHT MONSTER B36'S, THE WORLD'S MIGHTIEST AIRCRAFT, TOURED THE NATION FROM DAWN TO DUSK, PASSING OVER MORE THAN 250 CITIES AND MILITARY INSTALLATIONS, INCLUDING THE CAPITALS OF ALL 48 STATES. (ADVANCE FOR USE AT 8:30 P.M.EASTERN STANDARD TIME SATURDAY MAY 19)

ADMIRAL FORREST P.SHERMAN, CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS, SAID IN AN ADDRESS AT LOUISVILLE THAT THE SURVIVAL OF THE UNITED NATIONS AS AN ORGANIZATION TO MAINTAIN PEACE AND SECURITY MAY DEPEND UPON THE SUCCESS OF ALLIED FIGHTING IN KOREA.

IN A PREPARED ADDRESS, HE ALSO WARNED THAT THE UNITED STATES CAN NOT DEPEND COMPLETELY UPON ANYTHING BUT ITS "OWN MILITARY STRENGTH" TO PRESERVE THE NATION'S SECURITY.

WASHINGTON, MAY 19-(AP)-THREE HEROES OF THE KOREAN WAR WERE DECORATED TODAY WITH THE MEDAL OF HONOR. PRESIDENT TRUMAN MADE THE PRESENTATIONS AND COMMENTED THAT THEIR EXPLOITS SHOW WHY THERE ARE 909,000 CASUALTIES AMONG THE ENEMY.

MR. TRUMAN AWARDED THE NATION'S HIGHEST MILITARY HONORS TO:

LT. CARL H. DODD, OF KENVIR, KY.; M/SGT ERNEST R. KOUMA, OF DWIGHT, NEB., AND SGT. JOHN A. PITTMAN, OF TALLULA, MISS., ALL OF THE ARMY.

THE PRESENTATIONS WERE IN THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICES AT THE WHITE HOUSE. THE THREE HEROES LATER SAT WITH MR. TRUMAN AS HE REVIEWED AN ARMED FORCES DAY PARADE.

KOUMA, 31, KILLED 250 OF THE ENEMY DURING A NIGHT BATTLE NEAR AGOK, KOREA AUG. 31, AND SEPT. 1, 1950. THE TANK HE COMMANDED SLOWED AN ENEMY SURGE FOR NINE HOURS TO ALLOW ALLIED INFANTRY UNITS TO ESCAPE A THREATENING ENCIRCLEMENT. KOUMA WAS WOUNDED TWICE.

LT. DODD, 26, LED AN ATTACK AGAINST HEAVILY FORTIFIED HILL 256 LAST JAN. 30 AND 31. WHEN HIS MEN FALTERED UNDER INTENSE ENEMY FIRE, HE SINGLE HANDEDLY CHARGED THE FIRST MACHINE GUN NEST, KILLING OR WOUNDING ALL ITS OCCUPANTS. INSPIRED BY HIS COURAGE, HIS MEN FIXED BAYONETS AND CHARGED, WIPING OUT ENEMY POSITIONS AND TAKING THEIR OBJECTIVE.

SGT. PITTMAN, 22, THREW HIMSELF UPON AN ENEMY GRENADE LAST NOV. 26 TO SAVE THE LIVES OF HIS MEN. THIS ACTION TOOK PLACE DURING A COUNTER-ATTACK NEAR KUJANG-DONG. ALTHOUGH WOUNDED BY MORTAR FIRE, PITTMAN WAS LEADING HIS SQUAD AHEAD IN A BITTER FIGHT WHEN THE GRENADE FELL AMONG THEM. HE HAS BEEN A PATIENT AT THE ARMY HOSPITAL AT FORT CAMPBELL, KY.

IRAN

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, MAY 19-(AP)-A CLEARLY IMPLIED WARNING TO RUSSIA TO STEER CLEAR OF THE BRITISH-IRANIAN OIL DISPUTE AS AN EXCUSE FOR MOVING INTO IRAN WAS SEEN BY DIPLOMATIC AUTHORITIES TODAY IN AN AMERICAN STATEMENT URGING A FRIENDLY SETTLEMENT OF THE CONTROVERSY.

THE STATEMENT WAS ISSUED BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT LAST NIGHT AND SUPPORTED "A SINCERE DESIRE ON THE PART OF THE BRITISH TO NEGOTIATE WITH THE IRANIANS ON ALL OUTSTANDING ISSUES."

AT THE SAME TIME IT CALLED ON BOTH NATIONS TO "AVOID INTIMIDATION AND THREATS OF UNILATERAL ACTION" AS MEANS OF TRYING TO FORCE THE SETTLEMENT.

FURTHER, THE UNITED STATES TOLD IRAN THAT AMERICAN OIL COMPANIES HAVE TOLD THIS GOVERNMENT THEY WOULD NOT BE WILLING TO OPERATE THE IRANIAN FIELDS IN THE EVENT THE IRANIANS FORCED THE BRITISH OPERATING COMPANY OUT.

THE STATEMENT CONCLUDED:

"THE UNITED STATES HAS REPEATEDLY EXPRESSED ITS GREAT INTEREST IN THE CONTINUED INDEPENDENCE AND TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY OF IRAN AND HAS GIVEN AND WILL CONTINUE TO GIVE CONCRETE EVIDENCE OF THIS INTEREST."

DIPLOMATIC AUTHORITIES SAID IRAN'S INDEPENDENCE AND TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY ARE NOT INVOLVED IN THE DISPUTE BETWEEN IRAN AND BRITAIN BUT CONCEIVABLY COULD BE THREATENED BY RUSSIA IF THE SITUATION DEVELOPED TO AN EXTREME POINT.

THE SOVIETS HAVE A TREATY WITH IRAN UNDER WHICH THEY ARE SUPPOSED TO HAVE THE RIGHT TO SEND TROOPS INTO THE COUNTRY IN THE EVENT A THIRD COUNTRY SHOULD SEND TROOPS TO USE IRAN AS A BASE AGAINST RUSSIA.

THE EXTREME SITUATION WHICH WASHINGTON NOW HOPES WILL NOT ARISE MIGHT DEVELOP IF IRANIAN POPULAR EXCITEMENT OVER THE OIL NATIONALIZATION ISSUE LED TO RIOTING IN WHICH BRITISH LIVES WERE LOST. IN THAT EVENT THE BRITISH CONCEIVABLY WOULD USE FORCE TO PROTECT THEIR NATIONALS. THE RUSSIANS THEN MIGHT PUT THEIR OWN FORCES INTO IRAN, CLAIMING THAT SUCH ACTION WAS WARRANTED BY THEIR TREATY ARRANGEMENTS.

THE POSSIBILITY THAT IRAN COULD THUS BECOME A NEW CENTER OF SERIOUS CONFLICT WITH THE SOVIET UNION APPARENTLY IS AMONG THE REASONS WHY THE U.S. HOPES TO BRING ABOUT PEACEFUL AND FRIENDLY SETTLEMENT BETWEEN IRAN AND BRITAIN.

"IN OUR TALKS WITH THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT," THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID, "WE HAVE EXPRESSED THE OPINION THAT ARRANGEMENTS SHOULD BE WORKED OUT WITH THE IRANIANS WHICH GIVE RECOGNITION TO IRAN'S EXPRESSED DESIRE FOR GREATER CONTROL OVER AND BENEFITS FROM THE DEVELOPMENT OF ITS PETROLEUM RESOURCES."

MAY 20 1951

A44WX

THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID IT SYMPATHIZES WITH IRAN'S DESIRE FOR INCREASED BENEFITS FROM THE DEVELOPMENT OF ITS PETROLEUM. IT ADDED:

"WE HAVE STRESSED THE IMPORTANCE OF THE IRANIANS ACHIEVING THEIR LEGITIMATE OBJECTIVES THROUGH FRIENDLY NEGOTIATION WITH THE OTHER PARTY, CONSISTENT WITH THEIR INTERNATIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES."

THE U.S. HAS ALSO ARGUED THAT IRAN SHOULD CONSIDER WHETHER THE ELIMINATION OF THE ESTABLISHED BRITISH OIL COMPANY "WOULD IN FACT SECURE FOR IRAN THE GREATEST POSSIBLE BENEFITS." THE RESULT OF SUCH ACTION, THE U.S. HAS TOLD IRAN, MIGHT WELL BE A DECREASE IN THE SALE OF IRANIAN OIL WITH A LOSS OF REVENUE TO IRAN.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID ALSO THAT PETROLEUM TECHNICIANS ARE SCARCE AND THE NUMBER REQUIRED TO REPLACE THOSE NOW IN IRAN "ARE NOT AVAILABLE IN THIS COUNTRY OR IN OTHER COUNTRIES."

(120) WASHINGTON,MAY 19-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES, CANADA AND GREAT BRITAIN HAVE REACHED SOME DEGREE OF STANDARDIZATION ON SOME 400 ITEMS OF MILITARY EQUIPMENT, IT WAS REPORTED TONIGHT.

THE PROGRAM OF STANDARDIZATION IS BEING DEVELOPED UNDER A TRIPARTITE AGREEMENT. THE THREE COUNTRIES HAVE AGREED ON STANDARDS FOR SPARKPLUGS, FUEL AND LUBRICANTS, VOLTAGE SYSTEMS AND MANY OTHER ITEMS THE DEPARTMENT SAID.

IT IS NOT THE PURPOSE OF THE PROGRAM TO HAVE IDENTICAL WEAPONS, A SPOKESMAN SAID, EXPLAINING THAT THIS IS FREQUENTLY NOT FEASIBLE DUE TO DIFFERENCES IN AVAILABILITY OF MATERIALS, MANUFACTURING CONDITIONS AND OTHER FACTORS.

THE STANDARDIZATION PROGRAM IS ESSENTIALLY A LONG RANGE AFFAIR, THE SPOKESMAN SAID, BUT HAS BEEN SPEEDED UP A BIT IN THE PAST YEAR.

WASHINGTON, MAY 19-(AP)-THE HOUSE UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE INDICATED TODAY IT IS LOOKING INTO THE PROJECTED "BILL OF RIGHTS CONFERENCE" SCHEDULED TO BE HELD IN NEW YORK CITY JUNE 16.

AMONG THE REPORTED 400 SPONSORS ARE MANY OF THOSE WHO WERE ON A SPONSOR LIST PUBLISHED BY THE 1949 SCIENTIFIC AND CULTURAL CONFERENCE FOR WORLD PEACE. THE COMMITTEE HAS CITED THIS ORGANIZATION AS A FRONT FOR THE COMMUNIST WORLD "PEACE" OFFENSIVE.

LISTED AMONG THE SPONSORS FOR THE JUNE MEETING ARE PROF. LINUS CARL PAULING OF THE CALIFORNIA INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY, AND PROF. PHILIP D. MORRISON OF CORNELL UNIVERSITY. THE COMMITTEE HAS DESCRIBED THE TWO EDUCATORS AS "PILLARS" OF THE PEACE OFFENSIVE WHICH IT TERMED "THE MOST DANGEROUS HOAX EVER DEVISED BY THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNIST CONSPIRACY."

REP. WALTER (D-PA) TODAY TOLD NEWSMEN THE COMMITTEE "WANTS TO KNOW WHAT THESE PEOPLE ARE UP TO." THOSE CALLING THE CONFERENCE INCLUDE MANY "WELL-KNOWN COMMUNIST FRONT FIGURES," WALTER SAID.

IN ITS 166-PAGE ANALYSIS OF THE "PEACE OFFENSIVE," THE COMMITTEE SAID PAULING WAS "PRIMARILY ENGROSSED IN PLACING HIS SCIENTIFIC ATTAINMENTS AT THE SERVICE OF A HOST OF ORGANIZATIONS WHICH HAVE IN COMMON THEIR COMPLETE SUBSERVIENCE TO THE COMMUNIST PARTY, U.S.A."

MORRISON, IT SAID, WAS AN "IMPORTANT PILLAR OF THE COMMUNIST PEACE CAMPAIGN" WHO "TRAVELS UP AND DOWN THE COUNTRY ON HIS RED MISSION.

ROY BREWER, INTERNATIONAL REPRESENTATIVE OF THE INTERNATIONAL ALLIANCE OF THEATRICAL AND STAGE EMPLOYES (IATSE), AFL, WAS QUESTIONED YESTERDAY ABOUT PAULING'S ACTIVITIES IN HOLLYWOOD.

BREWER TOLD THE COMMITTEE HE DID NOT KNOW PAULING PERSONALLY, "BUT HE APPEARED IN A GREAT NUMBER OF THOSE COMMUNIST FRONTS EMANATING OUT OF HOLLYWOOD."

IN CONCLUDING TWO DAYS OF TESTIMONY BEFORE THE COMMITTEE IN ITS INQUIRY INTO COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE MOVIE INDUSTRY VIA THE LABOR UNIONS, BREWER PROPOSED THAT THE COMMUNIST PARTY BE OUTLAWED.

THE COMMITTEE SCHEDULED TESTIMONY NEXT WEEK BY HOLLYWOOD AUTHOR BUDD SCHULBERG, AND ACADEMY AWARD WINNER JOSE FERRER.

FERRER, WHO WON AN OSCAR THIS YEAR FOR HIS ROLE IN "CYRANO DE BERGERAC," IS LISTED BY THE COMMITTEE HAS HAVING FIVE TO 10 COMMUNIST-FRONT AFFILIATIONS.

SCHULBERG, AUTHOR OF "WHAT MAKES SAMMY RUN" AND "THE DISENCHANTED," WAS NAMED BY SCREEN WRITER RICHARD COLLINS AS HAVING BEEN A ONE-TIME COMMUNIST WHO QUIT THE PARTY.

(120) WASHINGTON,MAY 19-(AP)-ABOUT 500,000 STUDENTS ARE EXPECTED TO BE DEFERRED FROM THE DRAFT UNDER THE NEW POLICY OF DEFERRING ONLY THE BRIGHTER BOYS, A SELECTIVE SERVICE SPOKESMAN SAID TONIGHT.
THIS COMPARES WITH A TOTAL OF ABOUT 700,000 STUDENTS WHOSE INDUCTIONS HAVE BEEN POSTPONED UNDER PRESENT RULES.
THE REDUCTION IN THE NUMBER OF DEFERMENTS WAS EXPLAINED THIS WAY:
AT PRESENT STUDENTS ARE AUTOMATICALLY DEFERRED UNTIL THEY FINISH A SCHOOL YEAR.
UNDER THE NEW SYSTEM, TO OBTAIN A DEFERMENT A COLLEGE BOY MUST STAND RELATIVELY HIGH IN HIS CLASS, OR OBTAIN A MARK OF 70 IN AN APTITUDE TEST WHICH WILL BE GIVEN STARTING MAY 26.
THE SPOKESMAN DECLARED THAT THIS MARK IS EQUIVALENT TO A MARK OF 120 IN THE ARMY GENERAL CLASSIFICATION TEST, AND THAT OF ALL THE MILLIONS WHO TOOK THE TEST IN WORLD WAR II ONLY 30 PERCENT SCORED 120 OR BETTER.

WASHINGTON,MAY 19-(AP)-THE GOVERNMENT CARVED A BIG CHUNK OF COPPER AND BRASS AWAY FROM THE CIVILIAN ECONOMY TODAY AND PLEDGED IT TO MILITARY AND DEFENSE-SUPPORTING INDUSTRIES.
IT EARMARKED A LARGE PERCENTAGE OF THOSE ITEMS FOR MILITARY NEEDS AS WELL AS INDUSTRIES PRODUCING SUCH ITEMS AS MOTORS, FREIGHT CARS, LOCOMOTIVES AND SIMILAR ESSENTIAL PRODUCTS.
THE NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY (NPA) INSTRUCTED PRODUCERS OF COPPER, BRASS AND COPPER BASE ALLOY PRODUCTS TO START JULY 1 ACCEPTING DEFENSE ORDERS UP TO 75 PER CENT OF THE AMOUNT OF THEIR JANUARY-MARCH PRODUCTION.
THIS WILL LEAVE CIVILIAN GOODS MANUFACTURERS OF SUCH ITEMS AS REFRIGERATORS AND AUTOMOBILES ONLY 25 PER CENT OF COPPER AND BRASS PRODUCT PRODUCTION--PROVIDED DEFENSE ORDERS TAKE UP THE FULL 75 PER CENT LIMIT.
BUT OFFICIALS SAID THE REMAINING COPPER AND BRASS FOR CIVILIAN GOODS MANUFACTURERS PROBABLY WILL BE SUFFICIENT TO MEET THE PROMISE OF MANLY FLEISCHMANN, NPA'S ADMINISTRATOR.
FLEISCHMANN PROMISED MAJOR CIVILIAN GOODS PRODUCERS YESTERDAY THEY WOULD GET 60 PER CENT OF THE COPPER THEY USED DURING THE FIRST HALF OF LAST YEAR. THIS COMPARES WITH 70 PER CENT THEY HAVE BEEN RECEIVING.
UP TO NOW ONLY 15 OR 20 PER CENT OF COPPER AND BRASS PRODUCTS HAVE BEEN PLEDGED TO DEFENSE ORDERS. BUT OFFICIALS EXPLAINED THAT A GREAT MANY MORE DEFENSE ORDERS NOW ARE BEING ISSUED THAN WHEN THE ORIGINAL LIMITS WERE SET.
FOR NEARLY EVERY ESSENTIAL CIVILIAN PURPOSE DEFENSE ORDERS MAY BE OBTAINED TO SECURE MATERIALS. FOR INSTANCE, A DEFENSE ORDER CAN BE USED TO OBTAIN ESSENTIAL REPAIR AND MAINTENANCE MATERIALS FOR ANY BUSINESS.
TODAY'S COPPER-BRASS ACTION FOLLOWS THE PATTERN OF CHANNELLING MORE AND MORE SCARCE METALS TO DEFENSE PURPOSES AND LESS FOR CIVILIAN PRODUCERS.
FLEISCHMANN TOLD CIVILIAN PRODUCERS YESTERDAY THEIR STEEL SUPPLIES FOR THE JUNE-SEPTEMBER QUARTERLY PERIOD WILL BE CUT 30 PER CENT FROM WHAT THEY HAD IN THE FIRST HALF OF 1950. THEY HAVE BEEN OPERATING UNDER A 20 PER CENT CUT.
ALUMINUM WILL BE CUT TO 50 PER CENT OF THE FIRST HALF OF LAST YEAR. IT HAD BEEN CUT 35 PER CENT.

(ADVANCE)--WASHINGTON, MAY 19-(AP)-SENATOR O'CONOR (D-MD) SAID TODAY A RED CHINESE PURCHASING MISSION NOW IS IN EAST BERLIN TRYING TO BUY STRATEGIC SUPPLIES FROM WEST GERMANY.
MANY WEST GERMAN INDUSTRIALISTS ARE ATTENDING CONFERENCES WITH THE MISSION IN THE RUSSIAN SECTOR OF BERLIN, O'CONOR SAID IN A STATEMENT.
O'CONOR HEADS AN EXPORT CONTROLS SUBCOMMITTEE WHICH HAS BEEN GATHERING DATA ON SHIPMENTS OF VITAL MATERIALS TO COMMUNIST CHINA AND ALSO TO RUSSIA AND EUROPEAN SOVIET SATELLITES.
THE SUBCOMMITTEE HEARD TESTIMONY EARLIER IN THE WEEK THAT $1,000,000,000 WORTH OF ILLEGAL SHIPMENTS OF STRATEGIC MATERIALS HAD BEEN MADE FROM WEST GERMANY TO IRON CURTAIN DESTINATIONS SINCE THE END OF WORLD WAR TWO.
O'CONOR NOTED THAT THE WEST GERMAN GOVERNMENT HAD ANNOUNCED IT WAS GOING TO TRY TO STOP THIS TRADE AND THAT UNITED NATIONS COMMITTEES HAVE JUST VOTED AN EMBARGO ON SHIPMENTS OF WAR GOODS TO COMMUNIST CHINA.
BUT HE SAID "RUSSIA AND HER SATELLITE COUNTRIES HAVE BEEN VERY MUCH ON THE ALERT TO USE EVERY POSSIBLE STRATAGEM" TO GET NEEDED GOODS.
"WE MAY BE SURE," THE SENATOR SAID, "THAT WITH THE RESTRICTIONS VOTED BY THE UNITED NATIONS AND ANNOUNCED BY WEST GERMANY, THEY WILL REDOUBLE THEIR EFFORTS TO FIND WAYS TO BY-PASS THESE RESTRICTIONS."
O'CONOR SAID HIS SUBCOMMITTEE WOULD HOLD FURTHER HEARINGS ON SHIPMENTS FROM WESTERN EUROPE BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN.
HE SAID THE GROUP WOULD SEEK TO GET FRANCE, BELGIUM, HOLLAND AND OTHER COUNTRIES TO FOLLOW THE BONN GOVERNMENT IN TIGHTENING UP ON SUCH TRADE.
ONE AIM, HE SAID, WOULD BE TO PERSUADE WESTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES TO ADOPT STRICTER TRANSIT REGULATIONS "SO THAT THE COMMUNISTS CANNOT CONTINUE TO SECURE THE THINGS THEY NEED MERELY BY SHIPPING THEM FIRST TO ANOTHER COUNTRY AND THEN RE-SHIPPING THEM DIRECTLY BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN."

(250) FIRST LEAD TAFT
WASHINGTON,MAY 19-(AP)-SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO) TONIGHT CALLED UNITED STATES' PARTICIPATION IN THE KOREAN WAR "A FAILURE."
IN A PUBLIC ADDRESS, TAFT SAID THAT ALTHOUGH HE WAS NOT VERY CRITICAL OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S ACTION IN SENDING TROOPS TO KOREA AT THE TIME THE CONFLICT STARTED, THE MOVE SINCE HAS TURNED OUT TO BE A MISTAKE.
"THE COST OF THIS WAR WILL EXCEED BY FAR WHAT WE CAN POSSIBLY GAIN NOW THAT THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS HAVE INTERVENED," TAFT TOLD THE PANAMA CANAL ASSOCIATION OF WASHINGTON, AN ORGANIZATION OF THOSE WHO HELPED BUILD THE PANAMA CANAL.
"IT IS ABSOLUTELY IMPOSSIBLE FOR USE TO INVADE CHINA ANDIPUNISH HER FOR HER AGGRESSION--AND THE GENERAL PURPOSE OF THIS WAR WAS TO PUNISH COMMUNIST AGGRESSION."

TAFT, WHILE CRITICAL OF THE KOREAN WAR CAMPAIGN, PREDICTED AN EARLY RETURN TO A "REASONABLY UNITED FOREIGN POLICY."
"WE ARE GETTING VERY RAPIDLY INTO GENERAL AGREEMENT ON WHAT OUGHT TO BE DONE. I AM REASONABLY HOPEFUL THAT OUR DISPUTES ARE RESULTING IN A UNITED THEORY ON WHAT OUR POLICIES SHOULD BE."
THE OHIOAN, CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE REPUBLICAN POLICY COMMITTEE, INDICATED HE THOUGHT THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION IS GRADUALLY SWINGING TOWARD THE VIEWS OF GENERAL MACARTHUR FOR PROSECUTING THE KOREAN WAR.
BUT DESPITE HIS TALK OF A FUTURE GENERAL AGREEMENT ON FOREIGN POLICY TAFT SAID PAST ACTIONS LEADING UP TO THE PRESENT WORLD SITUATION WILL BE AN ISSUE IN THE NEXT PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN.
HE FIRED BACK SHARPLY AT PRESIDENT TRUMAN FOR SAYING THAT TAFT'S PROPOSAL TO HOLD THE AMERICAN ARMED FORCES TO 3,000,000 MEN--500,000 LESS THAN THE ADMINISTRATION'S GOAL--WAS "AN INVITATION TO WAR."
TAFT SAID:
"EVERYONE WHO KNOWS ANYTHING ABOUT IT KNOWS THERE IS A TREMENDOUS WASTE OF PERSONNEL IN THE ARMED FORCES AS WELL AS IN THE SPENDING ON MONEYFOR SUPPLIES.
"WHEN THE ARMED FORCES ARE GOING TO CALL ON US FOR THREE-FOURTHS OF OUR ENTIRE BUDGET FOR A PERIOD OF 10 YEARS, CERTAINLY THEY OUGHT TO BE FORCED TO FIND THE MEANS OF ACCOMPLISHING THE SAME RESULTS WITH LESS MONEY."
TAFT DID NOT MENTION MR. TRUMAN OR ANYONE ELSE BY NAME IN ALLUDING TO THE ADMINISTRATION'S POLICY OF KEEPING CHIANG-KAI-SHEK'S FORMOSA-BASED TROOPS OUT OF THE WAR IN THE FAR EAST. BUT HE OBVIOUSLY WAS LEVELLING CRITICISM AT THE PRESIDENT AND HIS ADVISERS IN DECLARING:
"THOSE WHO REFUSE TO USE CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS ARE SACRIFICING THE LIVES OF AMERICAN BOYS."
MR. TRUMAN HAS TAKEN THE POSITION THAT USE OF THOSE FORCES--AS ADVOCATED BY GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR--MIGHT CONTRIBUTE TO BRING RUSSIA INTO THE CONFLICT AND EXPLODE THE KOREAN WAR INTO WORLD WAR III.

MAY 20 1951

AT THE SENATE INQUIRY INTO MR.TRUMAN'S DISMISSAL OF MACARTHUR, SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL AND GEN.OMAR N.BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, HAVE SUPPORTED THE ADMINISTRATION'S POLICY REGARDING CHIANG'S FORCES.
MR.TRUMAN'S CRITICISM OF TAFT FOR SUGGESTING A SMALLER U.S. ARMED FORCES GOAL CAME IN A SPEECH HERE LAST THURSDAY.
IN HIS SPEECH TONIGHT, TAFT SAID:
"THE PRESIDENT SUGGESTS THAT A PROPOSAL FOR MORE EFFICIENT SPENDING OF TAXPAYERS' MONEY IS IN SOME WAY INCONSISTENT WITH A MORE AGGRESSIVE WAR IN KOREA ALONG THE MACARTHUR PROGRAM.
"OF COURSE THIS IS NONSENSE. IT IS CHEAPER TO FIGHT A WAR WITH THE SOLDIERS OF FOREIGN NATIONS, EVEN IF WE HAVE TO EQUIP THEM, THAN WITH AMERICAN BOYS, AND THERE IS MUCH LESS LOSS OF AMERICAN LIFE.
"THE SOONER WE CAN END THE KOREAN WAR BY AGGRESSIVE MEASURES, THE FEWER LIVES WE WILL LOSE AND THE LESS MONEY WE WILL SPEND."
TAFT SAID NATIONALIST RAIDS ON SOUTH CHINA AND ORGANIZATION OF GUERRILLA FORCES THERE "SHOULD AT LEAST DIVERT CHINESE COMMUNIST ARMIES FROM THEIR VIOLENT ATTACKS TODAY IN KOREA."
MACARTHUR, TOO, HAS CONTENDED THAT USE OF NATIONALIST TROOPS IN ANY WAY CHIANG SEES FIT WOULD EASE THE PRESSURE ON THE ALLIES ON KOREA.
IN PROPOSING THAT THE ARMED FORCES GOAL BE REDUCED BY 500,000 MEN, TAFT SAID THAT AS RECENTLY AS LAST DECEMBER---WELL AFTER THE START OF THE KOREAN WAR---THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF HAD RECOMMENDED A GOAL OF 2,780,000 MEN.
"UNTIL 1951," TAFT SAID, "THE PRESIDENT HIMSELF NEVER SUGGESTED EVEN 3,000,000 MEN X X X."

WASHINGTON, MAY 19-(AP)-AFEDERAL JUDGE YESTERDAY CRITICIZED THE GOVERNMENT FOR SPENDING $500,000 TRYING TO FIRE A PRINTER ON CHARGES THE JUDGE CALLED VAGUE.
WHEN ORTON T.CAMPBELL CAME BACK FROM THE WAR TO HIS WORK IN THE GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE, HE FELT HE WAS NOT GIVEN THE KIND OF JOB TO WHICH HE WAS ENTITLED UNDER VETERANS' LEGISLATION.
HE FINALLY BROUGHT SUIT, AND THEN WAS FIRED. THE GOVERNMENT ATTORNEYS CONTENDED HE HAD OBSTRUCTED PRODUCTION BY DISCUSSING HIS CASE AT LENGTH WITH FELLOW WORKERS.

THE LONG LITIGATION COST THE GOVERNMENT AN AMOUNT ESTIMATED BY DEPUTY PUBLIC PRINTER PHILIP E.COLE AT $500,000. MOST OF IT WAS FOR TIME OF JUSTICE DEPARTMENT, GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE AND CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION OFFICIALS AND EMPLOYES WORKING ON THE CASE.
E.LEO BACKUS, JUSTICE DEPARTMENT ATTORNEY, EXPLAINED TO THE COURT THAT IT WAS A TEST CASE, AND ADDED THAT "THOUSANDS" MORE PROBABLY WOULD BE SPENT ON AN APPEAL TO THE SUPREME COURT. SAID FEDERAL JUDGE T.ALAN GOLDSBOROUGH:
"I HOPE IT WILL NEVER AGAIN HAPPEN THAT AN ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCY WILL SPEND $500,000 TO GET RID OF AN EMPLOYE. IF THAT IS THE CASE, WE OUGHT TO GET RID OF GOVERNMENT AGENCIES."
THE DISPUTE OPENED IN 1946 WHEN CAMPBELL RETURNED FROM SERVICE AS A FIGHTER PLANE PILOT. HE SAID HE LEARNED THAT HIS OLD JOB, RATED BY THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION AT CAF (CLERICAL,ADMINISTRATIVE AND FILING) 7, HAD BEEN RECLASSIFIED TO CAF 11. THAT MEANT A PAY BOOST FROM A RANGE OF $3,825 TO $4,450 DEPENDING ON LENGTH OF SERVICE AND EFFICIENCY RATING, TO A RANGE OF $5,400 TO $6,400.
BUT CAMPBELL SAYS HE WAS PUT BACK TO WORK IN THE CAF 7 GRADE.
THE PRINTER FILED SUIT IN FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT HERE, ASKING THAT THE GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE BE REQUIRED TO GIVE HIM THE HIGHER RATING.
HE LOST THAT CASE IN THE TRIAL COURT ON A JURISDICTIONAL PLEA, BUT APPEALED TO THE COURT OF APPEALS WHERE THE ACTION IS NOW PENDING.
THEN HE WAS FIRED, JUNE 3,1949, THREE DAYS BEFORE THE APPELATE COURT HEARING OON THE DEMAND FOR HIGHER RATING.
HE SUED ANEW TO GET HIS JOB BACK. THE NEW ACTION IS THE ONE ON WHICH JUDGE GOLDSBOROUGH IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA DISTRICT COURT RULED YESTERDAY. THE ORDER REQUIRED THE PRINTING OFFICE TO GIVE HIM THE JOB BACK AND CAMPBELL SAID HE WOULD TAKE IT. HE IS NOW EMPLOYED IN THE WASHINGTON POST COMPOSING ROOM.

THE PRICE OF OATIS' RELEASE WAS DISCUSSED LAST NIGHT BY EDWARD R.MURROW, COLUMBIA BROADCASTING SYSTEM NEWS COMMENTATOR, WHO QUOTED FROM A CABLE SENT TO HIM BY ALEXANDER KENDRICK, CBS NEWSMAN IN VIENNA.
"XXX THE PRICE THE CZECHOSLOVAKIAN GOVERNMENT IS DEMANDING FOR BILL OATIS, HEAD OF THE AP BUREAU IN PRAGUE. XXX IS THE STOPPING OF CZECH LANGUAGE BROADCASTS DONE BY RADIO FREE EUROPE FROM MUNICH, BROADCASTS WHICH HAVE EVIDENTLY BEEN CREATING A CONSIDEABLE IMPRESSION INSIDE CZECHOSLOVAKIA." MURROW SAID.

NEW YORK, MAY 19-(AP)-ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN RUSK HINTED LAST NIGHT THAT AMERICA WOULD AID THE CHINESE PEOPLE IN ANY REVOLT AGAINST THEIR "COLONIAL RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT."
THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S FAR EASTERN CHIEF ALSO PLEDGED CONTINUED AID TO THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS, BUT HE WARNED THAT SUCH U.S. ASSISTANCE IN ITSELF WOULD NOT DECIDE THE FUTURE OF CHINA.
"THE DECISION AND THE EFFORT ARE FOR THE CHINESE PEOPLE," RUSK SAID, "POOLING THEIR EFFORTS, WHEREVER THEY ARE, IN BEHALF OF CHINA."
RUSK SPOKE AT THE 25TH ANNUAL DINNER OF THE CHINA INSTITUTE. AMBASSADOR JOHN FOSTER DULLES AND SEN. PAUL DOUGLAS (D-ILL.) ALSO ADDRESSED THE MEETING.
DULLES STRONGLY BACKED RUSK'S STAND AND ADDED THAT THE KREMLIN WAS USING CHINA AS A PUPPET TO WIN SOUTH KOREA AS A STRATEGIC BASE AGAINST JAPAN. HE VOWED THAT COMMUNIST MAO TSE-TUNG WOULD HAVE NO VOICE IN FRAMING THE JAPANESE TREATY, WHICH DULLES IS NEGOTIATING.
DOUGLAS ALSO PICTURED THE PEIPING REGIME AS A RUSSIAN "PUPPET" AND CALLED FOR AMERICAN AID TO BOTH THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS ON FORMOSA AND THE GUERRILLAS ON THE MAINLAND.
RUSK SAID THE U.S. RECOGNIZES THE NATIONALIST REGIME, ALTHOUGH ITS TERRITORY IS RESTRICTED, BECAUSE "IT MORE AUTHENTICALLY REPRESENTS THE VIEWS" OF A CHINA DEMANDING "INDEPENDENCE FROM FOREIGN CONTROL."
THE COMMUNIST RULE, RUSK SAID, "IS NOT THE GOVERNMENT OF CHINA. X X X IT IS NOT CHINESE.
"IT IS NOT ENTITLED TO SPEAK FOR CHINA IN THE COMMUNITY OF NATIONS. IT IS ENTITLED ONLY TO THE FRUITS X X X OF AGGRESSION UPON WHICH IT IS NOW WILLFULLY, OPENLY AND SENSELESSLY EMBARKED."

"IF THE CHINESE PEOPLE DECIDE FOR FREEDOM, THEY SHALL FIND FRIENDS AMONG ALL THE PEOPLES OF THE EARTH WHO HAVE KNOWN AND LOVE FREEDOM. THEY SHALL FIND ADDED STRENGTH FROM THOSE WHO REFUSE TO BELIEVE THAT CHINA IS FATED TO BECOME A LAND OF TYRANNY AND AGGRESSION X X X."
CHINA IS LOSING HER NORTHERN PROVINCES TO RUSSIA, RUSK SAID. MAPS NOW BEING PUBLISHED IN CHINA, RUSK SAID, SHOW SINKIANG, INNER MONGOLIA, MANCHURIA AND SOME OTHER AREAS AS DISTINCT FROM CHINA.
DULLES SAID THAT STALIN'S BASIC STRATEGY IS THAT THE ROAD TO VICTORY OVER THE WEST LIES THROUGH ASIA. THE AMBASSADOR SAID THE CHINESE "DESPERATELY NEED INTERNAL RECUPERATION" AFTER 14 YEARS OF WAR, AND ADDED:
"NO ONE IN HIS SENSES COULD ASSERT THAT IT IS IN CHINA'S INTEREST TO SHOVEL ITS YOUTH AND MATERIAL RESOURCES INTO THE FIERY FURNACE OF THE KOREAN WAR TO GAIN SOUTH KOREA, AN AREA WHICH MEANS LITTLE TO CHINA, BUT WHICH, SINCE THE CZARS, HAS BEEN COVETED BY RUSSIA BECAUSE OF ITS STRATEGIC VALUE AGAINST JAPAN."

DULLES ASSERTED THAT THE KREMLIN HAS WORKED FOR 30 YEARS TO MOLD THE CHINESE COMMUNIST REGIME AND DESTROY CHINESE FRIENDSHIP TOWARD THE U.S.
IN HIS REMARKS, DOUGLAS MADE SEVERAL SUGGESTIONS THAT, HE SAID, MIGHT RECONCILE SUPPORTERS AND OPPONENTS OF GENERAL DOUGLAS MACARTHUR.
THE SENATOR PROPOSED, IN ADDITION TO U.S. AID, THAT THE NATIONALISTS BE ALLOWED TO MAKE COMMANDO RAIDS ON THE MAINLAND "AT THEIR OWN RISK"; THAT THE U.S. KEEP RED CHINA OUT OF THE UNITED NATIONS; THAT "AS MANY NATIONS AS POSSIBLE" BLOCKADE THE RED MAINLAND; AND THAT THE U.S. CARRY ON COUNTER-PROPAGANDA EFFORTS INSIDE CHINA AND OTHER ASIATIC COUNTRIES.

NEW YORK, MAY 19-(AP)-THE 7,800 TON ESCORT CARRIER CORREGIDOR GOES BACK TO SEA TODAY AFTER NEARLY FIVE YEARS IN "MOTHBALLS."
AFTER RECOMMISSIONING CEREMONIES AT THE STATEN ISLAND YARD OF THE BETHLEHEM STEEL COMPANY THE FIGHTING SHIP WILL HAVE A SHAKEDOWN CRUISE.
THE NAVY ANNOUNCED THAT UNDER HER NEW COMMANDER, CAPT.GEORGE L.HEAP OF WILLIAMSPORT, PA. THE CORREGIDOR'S "PRINCIPAL MISSION WILL PROBABLY INVOLVE FERRYING PERSONNEL, AIRCRAFT AND OTHER CARGOES TO EUROPE."
DURING WORLD WAR II, THE CORREGIDOR SUPPORTED SIX AMPHIBIOUS OPERATIONS IN THE PACIFIC. HER CREWMEN SHOT DOWN 16 JAPANESE PLANES IN A TWO DAY ATTACK DURING THE SAIPAN-GUAM INVASION.

NEW YORK, MAY 19-(AP)-NEARLY 4,000 STEEL-HELMETED INFANTRYMEN FILED SILENTLY ABOARD TWO TRANSPORT SHIPS TODAY, ON THEIR WAY TO EUROPE.
SOME OF THEM WERE GOING THERE FOR THE SECOND TIME IN A DECADE. FOR OTHERS, IT WAS A NEW EXPERIENCE.
BUT WHATEVER THEIR BACKGROUNDS, THEY WERE THE VANGUARD OF MANY THOUSANDS OF AMERICAN FIGHTING MEN DESTINED TO TAKE THEIR PLACES IN THE EXPANDING ALLIED DEFENSE FORCES ABROAD.
THOSE WHO SAILED TODAY WERE ADVANCE ELEMENTS OF THE U.S. 4TH INFANTRY DIVISION.
"I NEVER SAW A FINER BUNCH OF TROOPS THAN THESE," SAID THE DIVISION COMMANDER, MAJ.GEN.HARLAN N.HARTNESS. "IF WE HAVE TO, WE CAN FIGHT AND DO A GOOD JOB OF IT."
THE REMAINDER OF THE 18,000-MAN DIVISION IS TO SAIL WITHIN A MONTH, AN ADDITIONAL SHIPLOAD OF THEM TOMORROW.
THE DEPARTURE TODAY WAS REMINISCENT OF WORLD WAR II SCENES HERE, AS THE BARRACKS-BAG-LADEN COLUMN STREAMED UP THE GANGWAYS.
AN ARMY BAND PLAYED "SO LONG" AND "AULD LANG SYNE."
THE DOUGHBOYS WERE SILENT DURING THE LOADING PROCESS. AS THE SHIPS PULLED OUT, SOME OF THEM LINED THE DECKS, LAUGHING AND WAVING. OTHERS JUST STARED AT THE RECEDING SHORELINE.
ON THE PIER, A HANDFUL OF 30 OR 40 RELATIVES AND FRIENDS WATCHED MUTELY.
SOME WEPT.
ABOUT 10 PER CENT OF THE DIVISION ARE COMBAT VETERANS OF WORLD WAR II.
SOME OF THEM ARE OLD-TIMERS IN THE DIVISION, WHICH FOUGHT SOME OF THE BLOODIEST CAMPAIGNS IN THE EUROPEAN THEATER.
OTHERS, LIKE LT.JOHN C.TURNER, 24, OF (2711 FOURTH AVENUE) COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA, HAVE ONLY RECENTLY RETURNED FROM THE BATTLEGROUND IN KOREA. TURNER CAME HOME LAST JANUARY AFTER HIS FEET BECAME FROST BITTEN.
"THIS IS A GOOD DEAL," HE SAID, OF HIS NEW ASSIGNMENT TO EUROPEAN SERVICE. "I LIKE THE ARMY, AND THIS IS GOING TO BE MUCH BETTER THAN KOREA."
THREE WORLD WAR II VETERANS, M/SGT.GEORGE REED, OF (97 UNION ST.) BANGOR, ME.; SGT.JAMES MC CARTY, OF POLKVILLE, MISS., AND LT. WILLIAM NEELY, OF BEAVER CREEK, ORE., SAID THEY WERE GLAD TO BE ON THE WAY.

A34

"I'D SOONER GO IN THIS DIRECTION," SAID NEELY, WHO FOUGHT IN THE PACIFIC DURING WORLD WAR II. "IT'S A LOT BETTER."

REED, WHO WAS IN EUROPE IN THE LAST WAR, SAID: "I'M READY TO GO BACK."

THE DIVISION HAS BEEN IN TRAINING AT FORT BENNING, GA. THE ADVANCE ELEMENTS WERE ROUTED TO CAMP KILMER, N.J., BEFORE BOARDING THE NAVY TRANSPORTS GEN.ALEXANDER M.PATCH AND GEN.H.F.HODGES AT STATEN ISLAND PIERS. OTHER ELEMENTS WILL ARRIVE AT CAMP KILMER LATER TO BE SHIPPED OUT.

HARTNESS, OF RICHMOND, VA., WHO SAILED WITH THE FIRST GROUP, SAID "THESE MEN KNOW WHAT THEY'RE DOING AND THEY WANT TO GO."

AS THE SHIPS EASED OUT INTO THE HARBOR, OND SOLDIER YELLED AT THE ARMY BAND:

"WHY DON'T YOU PLAY 'OLD SOLDIERS NEVER DIE'?"

(ADVANCE FOR AMS OF SUNDAY, MAY 20)

(ADVANCE) NEW YORK, MAY 19-(AP)-DO THE MEN AND WOMEN IN THE NATION'S TRAINING CAMPS KNOW WHY THEY ARE IN UNIFORM?

TO FIND OUT, THE NEW YORK TIMES SENT ITS EDUCATION EDITOR, BENJAMIN FINE, TO MAKE A THREE MONTHS' SURVEY OF THE ARMED FORCES EDUCATION PROGRAM. FINE REPORTED THIS WEEK THAT FEW KNOW WHY THEY ARE IN UNIFORM-- AND THE RESULT IS LOW MORALE.

FINE VISITED SIX STATES AND TALKED TO 5,000 MEN AND WOMEN. HE ASKED: WHY ARE YOU IN UNIFORM? WHAT IS HAPPENING IN THE UNITED STATES AND THE WORLD?

IN A SERIES OF SIX ARTICLES, FINE SAID THAT THE ANSWERS CONVINCED HIM THAT THE ARMED FORCES INFORMATION PROGRAM HAS BOGGED DOWN AND ONLY PUTS THE MEN TO SLEEP.

"ONE HOUR A WEEK DURING BASIC TRAINING, THE SOLDIERS -- AND THE SAILORS-- LISTEN TO A LECTURE ON THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING A GOOD CITIZEN," FINE RELATED. "THEY ARE TOLD WHAT IT MEANS TO BE A MEMBER OF A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY, AND WHY IT IS IMPORTANT THAT THEY BECOME GOOD CITIZENS.

"IT DOESN'T MEAN A THING. IT GOES RIGHT OVER THEIR HEADS. AS NOW SET UP THE INFORMATION HOUR IS OFTEN LITTLE MORE THAN A WASTE OF TIME."

FINE SAID WITH ONLY FEW EXCEPTIONS THE SUBJECTS ARE POORLY CHOSEN, INSTRUCTORS INCOMPETENT, COMMANDING OFFICERS INDIFFERENT AND LECTURE ROOMS CROWDED AND STUFFY.

DRASTIC REORGANIZATION IS NEEDED, HE SAID, IF SERVICE MEN ARE TO UNDERSTAND WHAT THEY ARE TRAINING AND FIGHTING FOR.

"THE TROOP INFORMATION PROGRAM WHICH WAS SET UP IN WORLD WAR II AND HAS BEEN IN OPERATION EVER SINCE, DOES NOT COMMAND THE SUPPORT OF EITHER THE ENLISTED MEN OR THE OFFICERS," FINE SAID.

"IT IS LOOKED UPON AS A SERVICE THAT HAMPERS RATHER THAN HELPS IN THE TRAINING OF MEN TO BE GOOD SOLDIERS. SOME OFFICERS ARE OPENLY HOSTILE, OTHERS ACCEPT THE HOUR-A-WEEK DIVERSION WITH AMUSED TOLERANCE.

"AS A RESULT THE MORALE OF THE TROOPS IN SOME CAMPS IS EXTREMELY LOW. THE MEN BLAME THEIR OFFICERS -- THEY FIND FAULT WITH THEIR CLOTHING, WITH CONDITIONS IN EUROPE AND ASIA. THEY FEEL THE CIVILIANS HAVE 'LET THEM DOWN.' THEY COMPLAIN OF BEING GOUGED BY NEARBY CIVILIAN COMMUNITIES. THEY FEEL THEY ARE 'NEGLECTED' BY EVERYONE WHO IS NOT IN UNIFORM.

"BECAUSE THEY DON'T UNDERSTAND THE BASIC ISSUES INVOLVED IN THE INTERNATIONAL CRISIS, THEY ARE RESENTFUL. THEY CONTINUALLY ASK, 'WHAT IS THIS ALL ABOUT?'"

MAJ. GEN. FLOYD L. PARKS, ARMY DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INFORMATION AS WELL AS OF THE TROOP INFORMATION AND EDUCATION PROGRAM, TOLD FINE THAT THE PROGRAM HAD BEEN HANDICAPPED BY BEING CLASSED AS ONE OF WELFARE OR RECREATION, BOTH IN THE MINDS OF MANY OFFICERS AND IN THE BUDGET.

A126

"GENERAL PARKS, IN SEVERAL INTER[illegible]WS [illegible] THIS WRITER, EXPRESSED HIS CONVICTIONS AS TO THE IMPORTANCE [illegible] A WELL-EDUCATED ARMY," FINE SAID.

"THE INFORMATION AND EDUCATION PROG[illegible] HE INSISTED, SHOULD BE CLASSIFIED AS A TRAINING ACTIVITY," FI[illegible]TINUED AND THEN QUOTED GEN. PARKS:

"'ONE OF THE DIFFICULTIES ENCOUNTERED [illegible] THAT EXPERIENCED FIELD OFFICERS ARE LACKING. FUNDS HAVE BEEN SCARCE,'"

ONE WAY BEING TRIED TO IMPROVE THINGS IS THE NEW "HOURS ON FREEDOM" PROJECT, SPONSORED BY TEACHERS COLLEGE, COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY.

BRIEFLY, THIS DOES AWAY WITH THE LECTURE AND STARTS WITH A QUESTION, LIKE THIS:

WHAT WOULD YOU DO IF YOUR BRAKES FAILED D[illegible]NG A TRUCK DOWN HILL AND A SMALL CHILD WAS PLAYING SQUARELY IN YO[illegible]ATH? IF THE TRUCK WAS FULL OF SOLDIERS WOULD YOU TURN OFF THE [illegible]D AND CHANCE KILLING THEM TO SAVE THE LIFE OF THE CHILD?

THE IDEA IS TO GET THE MENT HINKING ABO[illegible]E WORTH OF AN INDIVIDUAL IN A DEMOCRACY.

BUT THIS NEW METHOD IS BEING TRIED ONLY ON A VERY SMALL SCALE AND IS NOT A LONG RANGE SOLUTION, FINE SAID.

HE SAID THAT ALTHOUGH HIGH-RANKING GENERALS RECOGNIZED THE NEED OF IMPROVING THE TROOP INFORMATION PROGRAM, TOO MANY COMPANY COMMANDERS REGARD IT AS JUST ANOTHER "EXTRA", INTERFERING WITH THEIR MAIN JOB OF TRAINING MEN TO FIGHT.

THE PLACES VISITED BY FINE DURING HIS SURVEY WERE FORT MEADE, MD.; CAMP PICKETT AND FORT MONROE, VA; CAMP ATTERBURY, IND.; GREAT LAKES NAVAL STATION, ILL., FORT SLOCUM, N.Y.; AND FORT DIX, N.J.

(ADVANCE) CORNING, N.Y., MAY 19-(AP)-GOVERNOR DEWEY TODAY TERMED THE KOREAN WAR AN "ACID TEST" FOR THE UNITED NATIONS, AND WARNED THAT "NOTHING MUST EVER BE ALLOWED TO SERVE THE RUSSIAN OBJECTIVE OF DIVIDING US FROM OUR ALLIES."

DEWEY SPOKE AT THE DEDICATION OF THE CORNING GLASS CENTER. THE CEREMONIES (11:30 A.M., EST) ENDED A THREE-DAY CONFERENCE ON "LIVING IN INDUSTRIAL CIVILICATION," SPONSORED JOINTLY BY THE CORNING GLASS COMPANY AND THE AMERICAN COUNCIL OF LEARNED SOCIETIES.

NOTING RECENT DISAGREEMENT AMONG MEMBERS OF THE UNITED NATIONS, DEWEY SAID IN A PREPARED SPEECH THAT "OF COURSE WE WILL HAVE BETWEEN US AND OUR ALLIES THE SAME GRAVE DIFFICULTIES WE HAVE AMONG OURSELVES--EVEN AS WE HAVE BETWEEN POLITICAL PARTIES AND SCHOOLS OF THOUGHT ON IMPORTANT ISSUES."

MAY 20 1951

HE ADDED:

"BY THE SAME TOKEN WE HAVE THE RIGHT TO CRITICIZE THE BRITISH FOR PERMITTING TRADE WITH RED CHINA, WHICH, HAPPILY, THE BRITISH PEOPLE ARE FORCING THEIR GOVERNMENT TO BRING TO AN END.

"IN THE SAME WAY A RESIGNING CABINET OFFICER IN GREAT BRITAIN HAS A RIGHT TO CRITICIZE OUR POLICY WITH REGARD TO RAW MATERIALS IN THE WORLD AND WE HAVE AN EQUAL RIGHT TO ANSWER HIM. XXX

"WE MAY DISAGREE WITH OUR FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS AT HOME OR ABROAD--WE MAY FIGHT OUT OUR GRAVE ISSUES BOTH PUBLICLY AND PRIVATELY.

"BUT NOTHING MUST EVER BE ALLOWED TO SERVE THE RUSSIAN OBJECTIVE OF DIVIDING US FROM OUR ALLIES."

THE GOVERNOR CONTINUED HIS ALL-OUT ATTACK AGAINST COMMUNISM, AND SAID OUR FIGHT AGAINST IT WAS THE "BITTEREST, MOST DREADFUL WAR IN THE HISTORY OF MANKIND."

DEWEY SAID "WE ARE BEING WARRED AGAINST BY A SINISTER AND POWERFUL ALLIANCE OF SLAVE-MASTERS" AND "THE BLACKEST AND MOST RUTHLESS TYRANNY THE WORLD HAS EVER KNOWN."

"AT LAST," HE ASSERTED, "OUR COUNTRY IS BEGINNING TO MOBILIZE ITS SPIRITUAL AND MATERIAL STRENGTH TO BEAT OFF THIS AGGRESSION AND TO BUILD A GREAT ALLIANCE THROUGH WHICH TO WIN A PEACE."

"BUT IF WE ARE TO WIN THE PEACE WE NEED, AMONG OTHER THINS, A BETTER UNDERSTANDING OF WHAT WE ARE FIGHTING FOR," HE ADDED.

THE GOVERNOR, NOTING THAT 15 NATIONS HAD COMBINED FORCES TO "RESIST AGGRESSION UNDER AN AGENCY REPRESENTING THE WHOLE WORLD," SAID THAT "THIS GREATEST ALLIANCE IN HISTORY IS NOW BEING PUT TO THE ACID TEST.

"NEVER BEFORE WAS A CAUSE SO THREATENED BY THE STRESSES RESULTING FROM THE VERY FREEDOM WE ARE FIGHTING TO PRESERVE."

DEWEY SAID THAT OUR DIFFERENCES WITH OUR ALLIES "WILL BE WORKED OUT IN THE LIBERAL TRADITION."

"THROUGH CONTROVERSY WE COME TO AGREEMENT," HE DECLARED.

THE NEW CORNING GLASS CENTER INCLUDES A LIBRARY OF THE HISTORY AND SCIENCE OF GLASS MAKING, A COLLECTION OF GLASS PRODUCTS ABOUT 4,000 YEARS OLD, AND AN AUDITORIUM, WHICH WILL BE USED AS A COMMUNITY CENTER.

THE CONFERENCE AT THIS SOUTH-CENTRAL NEW YORK STATE CITY BROUGHT TOGETHER ABOUT 100 LEADERS FROM THE FIELDS OF INDUSTRY, FINANCE, EDUCATION, PHILOSOPHY AND SOICOLOGY. IT STARTED THURSDAY.

"NE OUT"

V BOSTON,MAY 19-(AP)-SECRETARY OF LABOR MAURICE J.TOBIN TONIGHT VIGOROUSLY DEFENDED THE ADMINISTRATION'S FOREIGN POLICY AND DECLARED THE DEMOCRATS INTEND TO MAKE IT "THE MAIN ELECTION ISSUE IN 1952."

TOBIN BLUNTLY WARNED THE REPUBLICANS "I KNOW FOREIGN POLICY IS GOING TO BE THE ISSUE, BECAUSE THE PARTY I BELONG TO IS GOING TO MAKE IT THE ISSUE."

HE SPOKE AT THE SECOND ANNUAL SAMUEL GOMPERS DINNER OF THE MASSACHUSETTS FEDERATION OF LABOR.

THE FORMER MASSACHUSETTS GOVERNOR DECLARED THE ADMINISTRATION'S FOREIGN POLICY "IS ONE OF OUR GREATEST ACHIEVEMENTS. IF THE REPUBLICANS WANT TO ATTACK US WHERE WE'RE STRONGEST, THEY'RE GOING TO HAVE TO ACCEPT THE CONSEQUENCES."

"THERE ARE SOME REPUBLICANS WHO INSIST ON MAKING FOREIGN POLICY A POLITICAL ISSUE," TOBIN DECLARED. "THEY'VE ASKED FOR A FIGHT ON THAT ISSUE AND WE'RE GOING TO GIVE THEM ONE.

"WE'RE NOT GOING TO BE DISTURBED BY TICKER TAPE OR NEWSPAPER HYSTERIA OR THE NATURAL AFFECTION OF OUR PEOPLE FOR A MILITARY HERO. GREAT GENERALS SOMETIMES FADE AWAY; BUT THE PROBLEMS THAT CONFRONT A GREAT NATION LIVE ON. THEY MUST BE MET WITH COOLNESS AND DELIBERATION."

TOBIN SAID THE FOREIGN POLICY HAS TWO MAJOR AIMS X X X "TO HALT THE EXPANSION OF WORLD COMMUNISM X X AND PRESERVE THE PEACE OF THE WORLD."

"IT'S NOT ENOUGH JUST TO H..T COMMUNISM," TOBIN DECLARED. "THERE WOULD BE LITTLE PROFIT IN THAT IF WE HAD TO TURN OUR OWN COUNTRY AND HALF THE CIVILIZED WORLD INTO A MASS OF ATOMIC RUINS IN ORDER TO DO IT.

"AND IT IS NOT ENOUGH JUST TO KEEP THE PEACE EITHER. FOR PEACE IS HARDLY WORTH HAVING IF THE PRICE WE HAVE TO PAY FOR IT IS OUR FREEDOM. WE MUST DO BOTH."

HE EXPLAINED THAT THE TRUMAN POLICY IS GLOBAL IN ASPECT, EMPLOYING "DIFFERENT THINGS IN DIFFERENT PLACES AT DIFFERENT TIMES."

"SOME REPUBLICANS HAVE CHOSEN TO CALL THIS POLICY OF OURS APPEASEMENT. THAT WORD IS A PRODUCT OF POLITICAL DESPERATION AND NOTHING ELSE," TOBIN SAID.

"WHEN WE SENT OUR PLANES AND OUR TANKS AND OUR VALIENT FIGHTING MEN INTO KOREA, WE DID NOT DO IT TO APPEASE AN AGGRESSOR. WE SENT THEM THERE TO SHOW THE WORLD THAT WHEN WE TALKED ABOUT RESISTING AGGRESSION, WE MEANT WHAT WE SAID."

THE LABOR SECRETARY EXPRESSED THE HOPE THE REPUBLICANS "WILL NOT PERSIST IN THEIR DETERMINATION TO GET US INTO A WAR AGAINST THE WRONG ENEMY.

"THEY PROMISE US A QUICK AND EASY VICTORY IN KOREA IF WE TAKE THEIR ADVICE. THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE AND THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF SIMPLY DO NOT BELIEVE THAT IS TRUE. THE ROAD TO VICTORY AND PEACE IS LONG AND HARD. THERE ARE NO SHORT CUTS."

TOBIN SAID HE WAS CONFIDENT THE GOVERNMENT'S POLICY "WOULD BE VINDICATED BY THE EVENTS." HE SAID THE PROGRAM WILL REQUIRE PATIENCE AND UNDERSTANDING BY AMERICANS SOME OF WHOM "WILL HAVE TO RISE ABOVE THEIR PREOCCUPATION WITH A SINGLE THEATER OF CONFLICT AND SEE THIS STRUGGLE IN ITS GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE."

(480) SUPERSONIC PLANES

BY ELTON C.FAY

ASSOCIATED PRESS MILITARY AFFAIRS REPORTER

LANGLEY AIR BASE, VA., MAY 19-(AP)-IN A HUGE WIND TUNNEL HERE AERONAUTICAL SCIENTISTS ARE FINDING HOW BIG WARPLANES CAN BE PUSHED UP TO FASTER-THAN-SOUND SPEED WITHOUT TEARING THEMSELVES APART.

JET OR ROCKET POWER PLANTS ABLE TO DRIVE COMBAT AIRCRAFT AT SUPERSONIC SPEEDS EXIST NOW. BUT THE STRUCTURE OF THE PLANES CAN'T STAND FOR LONG THE TERRIBLE POUNDING THEY TAKE WHILE CROSSING AND THEN COMING BACK THROUGH THE "TRANSONIC" SPEED RANGE, BETWEEN 700 AND 800 MILES PER HOUR.

LITTLE, TOUGH, SPECIALLY-MADE RESEARCH PLANES LIKE THE X-1 AND ITS DESCENDENTS CAN DO IT. BUT THEY AREN'T WARPLANES.

TODAY THE NATIONAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE FOR AERONAUTICS (NACA) SHOWED AT ITS LABORATORIES HERE HOW IT IS LOOKING INTO THE "BLIND SPOT" THAT EXISTED UP UNTIL A FEW MONTHS AGO.

UNTIL THEY CONVERTED A WIND TUNNEL TO PRODUCE THE INTERMEDIATE SPEEDS--AND AT THE SAME TIME HANDLE FULL-SIZED SECTIONS OF WINGS AND OTHER PARTS OF AIRCRAFT--THEY COULDN'T SEE WHAT WAS HAPPENING IN THAT ZONE TO WREST A PLANE FROM THE PILOT'S CONTROL AND SMASH IT B
SHOCK AND BUFFETING.

NOW THEY ARE LEARNING EXACT ANSWERS TO RIDDLES LIKE THESE: WHY DO PRESSURES ON A WING VARY SEVERAL HUNDRED POUNDS AT SPOTS ONLY A FEW FEET APART AND AT SPLIT-SECOND INTERVALS? WHY DO THE CONTROLS LOSE THEIR HOLD ON THE AIR AT TRANSONIC SPEEDS AND LET THE PLANE START UNCONTROLLABLE AND DISASTROUS PITCHING?

UNTIL LANGLEY NACA SCIENTISTS, LED BY FLOYD L.THOMPSON AND JOHN STACK, CHIEF AND ASSISTANCE CHIEF OF RESEARCH, FOUND HOW TO SEND A
THROUGH THE BIG TUNNEL AT SPEEDS IN THE 700-800 MILE RANGE, THEY COULDN'T GIVE PLANE BUILDERS THE INFORMATION NEEDED TO BEAT THE TRANSONIC PROBLEM.

AIR, THEY HAVE FOUND, IS NOT FRICTIONLESS. AND BECAUSE IT ISN'T, IT CREATES A DRAG TO REDUCE THE POTENTIAL SPEED AND CAUSES A HEATING OF THE OUTSIDE SURFACES OF THE MISSILE OR PLANE. AT SPEEDS OF 1,500 MILES AN HOUR (FLYING AT COMPARATIVELY LOW ALTITUDE) TEMPERATURE RUNS UP SO HIGH THAT IT CAN REDUCE OR DESTROY THE STRENGTH OF THE METALS IN THE PLANE OR MISSILE.

NACA EXPERTS BELIEVE THERE ARE TWO POSSIBLE METHIDS OF BEATING THIS HEAT PROBLEM: FLY HIGH WHERE THE DENSITY (AND THUS THE FRICTION) OF THE AIR IS LESS; DESIGN MISSILES AND PLANES SO THAT THE HEAT IS DRAWN AWAY FROM THE OUTSIDE SURFACE AND DISPERSED UNIFORMLY THROUGHOUT THE AIRCRAFT.

B5WX (HKUP)

IN THE SMALLER BUT MORE POWERFUL WIND TUNNELS OF THE NACA LABORATORIES HERE THE SCIENTISTS ARE BEGINNING TO EXPLORE A RANGE OF FLIGHT EVEN BEYOND THE CURRENTLY RECOGNIZED SUPERSONIC. THEY DESIGNATE IT AS "HYPERSONIC" AND SAY IT RANGES FROM 3,500 MILES AN HOUR UP.

THEY ARE VENTURING INTO THIS REALM AT PRESENT ONLY WITH VERY SMALL SCALE MODELS OPERATING UNDER ARTIFICIAL CONDITIONS. GASES--LIKE XENON AND KRYPTON--ARE FED INTO WIND TUNNELS INSTEAD OF AIR, BECAUSE THEY ARE LOW DENSITY. THEY SIMULATE CONDITIONS THAT A MISSLE WOULD ENCOUNTER AT SPEEDS WELL ABOVE THAT POSSIBLE BY USING ONLY NATURAL AIR.

THUS, WITH THE USE OF SUCH GASES, THE NACA IS STUDYING EFFECTS ON MISSILES TRAVELING AT SPEEDS OF MORE THAN 8,000 MILES AN HOUR.

THOSE SPEEDS SOME DAY MAY HAVE TO BE RECKONED WITH IN BUILDING TRANSOCEANIC GUIDED MISSILES, BUT NO RESPONSIBLE SCIENTIST EXPECTS MAN TO FLY IN A VEHICLE AT THAT SPEED IN THE FORESEEABLE FUTURE.

JET PILOTS

BY HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE

ASSOCIATED PRESS SCIENCE EDITOR

DENVER, MAY 20-(AP)-WHETHER IT IS BETTER FOR A JET PILOT TO FIGHT LYING DOWN ON HIS STOMACH OR ON HIS BACK HAS BEEN PUT UP TO MILITARY DOCTORS OF THE AERO MEDICAL ASSOCIATION.

THE AIR FORCE IS TRYING THE STOMACH POSITION, THE NAVY THE BACK. BOTH ARE STILL EXPERIMENTS. EITHER ONE WILL ENABLE THE FIGHTER TO TURN HIS PLANE FASTER, WITHOUT BLACKING OUT. WHEN SITTING, TOO FAST TURNS DRAW THE BLOOD FROM HIS BRAIN.

FOR FLAT ON YOUR STOMACH THERE IS A P-80 WITH A NYLON NETTING BED AT THE AERO MEDICAL LABORATORY AT WRIGHT-PATTERSON AIR FORCE BASE, AYTON, OHIO. THE NET HANGS FROM TWO SIDE RAILS. THE FIRST DISOVERY WAS THAT A MAN IN THAT POSITION HAS TO BE COMFORTABLE. HE AN ADJUST THE NETTING TO FIT HIS LENGTH AND BULGES. A JAW REST MAKES IS HEAD COMFORTABLE. HE WORKS THREE CONTROLS WITH HIS HANDS AND TWO ITH FOOT PEDALS.

IN THIS PLANE THERE IS A REGULATION UPRIGHT SEAT FOR A SECOND ILOT TO TAKE OVER IN EMERGENCY. STOMACH FIGHTING IS NOT PROVING OO EASY TO LEARN. SURPRISINGLY, HARDENED JET PILOTS GOT AIR SICK LYING DOWN. AFTER A FEW FLIGHTS THEIR STOMACHS GOT USED TO THE POSITION.

THE NAVY USES A CHAIR, WHICH SWINGS BACK FROM UPRIGHT AS THE PLANE GOES INTO A TURN. THE CONTROLS SWING WITH THE PILOT'S HANDS. THE CHAIR WORKS AUTOMATICALLY. IT FEELS THE INCREASE IN GRAVITATIONAL PULL THAT WOULD CAUSE BLACKOUT AND TIMES ITS SWING TO SAVE THE PILOT.

OKLAHOMA CITY, MAY 19-(AP)-AN OKLAHOMA CITY DISTRICT JUDGE UPHELD THE STATE'S NEW ~~ANTI~~ NON-COMMUNIST OATH TODAY AND ORDERED A GROUP OF OKLAHOMA A & M PROFESSORS FIRED FOR REFUSING TO SIGN.

DISTRICT JUDGE W.A.CARLILE GRANTED A PERMANENT INJUNCTION AGAINST THE A & M BOARD OF REGENTS, STATE TREASURER A.S.J.SHAW, AND STATE AUDITOR WILBURN C.CARTWRIGHT.

HE ORDERED THE OFFICIALS TO DROP FROM THEIR JOBS AND THE STATE'S PAYROLLS ALL COLLEGE EMPLOYES WHO REFUSED TO SIGN THE NEW OATH.

ATTORNEYS FOR THE PROTESTING PROFESSORS PROMISED AN IMMEDIATE APPEAL TO THE STATE SUPREME COURT.

PAUL W.UPDEGRAFF, NORMAN ATTORNEY, FILED THE INJUNCTION SUIT TO FORCE A QUICK TEST OF THE LOYALTY OATH BILL. SEVEN AGGIE PROFESSORS AND EMPLOYES ENTERED THE SUIT AS INTERVENORS AND WERE PARTIES TO THE ACTION.

ALL PUBLIC EMPLOYES ARE REQUIRED TO SIGN THE OATH SWEARING THEY WILL UPHOLD THE STATE AND FEDERAL CONSTITUTIONS. THEY ALSO MUST VOW TO BEAR ARMS IF NECESSARY, AND DECLARE THEY HAVE NOT BEEN MEMBERS OF AN ORGANIZATION WHICH AIMS TO OVERTHROW THE U.S.GOVERNMENT OR WHICH HAS BEEN DECLARED SUBVERSIVE BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

THE NON-COMMUNIST OATH LAW WAS PASSED BY THE 23RD OKLAHOMA LEGISLATURE WHICH ADJOURNED TODAY, AND WAS SUPPORTED BY THE OKLAHOMA AMERICAN LEGION.

MAY 20 1951

IT BECAME LAW MAY 9 AND PROVIDES THAT EVERY STATE INSTITUTIONAL HEAD OR DEPARTMENTAL CHIEF MUST CERTIFY AN EMPLOYE HAS SIGNED BEFORE THE WORKER WILL BE PAID.

JUDGE CARLILE SPECIFICALLY RULED THAT THE SEVEN INTERVENORS "WILFULLY REFUSED TO TAKE THE OATH AND SAID:

"THE BOARD OF REGENTS, STATE AUDITOR AND STATE TREASURER ARE ENJOINED FROM PAYING THEIR SALARIES AFTER MAY 9 AND THEIR EMPLOYMENT IS TERMINATED."

HE SAID THEY COULD RECEIVE PAY FOR THE FIRST NINE DAYS OF MAY ONLY.

THE JUDGE IN HIS FINDINGS OF FACTS AND CONCLUSIONS RULED ALL STATE EMPLOYES WHO FAILED TO SIGN COULD BE PAID ONLY FOR NINE DAYS WORK IN MAY.

INTEVENORS ORDERED FIRED WERE ROBERT M. WIEMAN, ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF PHILOSOPHY; NANCY KENT ZIEBUR, RESEARCH ASSISTANT IN THE RESEARCH FOUNDATION; WERNER C. BAUM, ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF BOTANY; SAMUEL N

HUNT LEE JR., ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF CHEMISTRY; MALCOLM CORRELL, PROFESSOR OF PHYSICS; LILLIAN A. SCHMOE, SECRETARY; AND LUELL NIETZ, ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF MUSIC.

DON EMERY, ATTORNEY FOR THE INTERVENORS, CLAIMED HIS CLIENTS HAD SIGNED THE NON-COMMUNIST SECTION OF OF THE OATH BUT WERE CHALLENGING THE ANTI-AMERICAN ASPECTS OF THE OATH.

MAIN OPPOSITION BOTH AT OKLAHOMA A&M AND THE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA AGAINST THE OATH HAS BEEN IT VIOLATES RELIGIOUS SCRUPLES AGAINST BEARING ARMS, WOULD PREVENT FOREIGN EXCHANGE PROFESSORS FROM SERVING ON THE FACULTIES AND VIOLATES THE TEACHERS' PERSONAL FREEDOM.

JUDGE CARLILE SAID FROM THE BENCH "THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES ARE FACING A TERRIBLE DANGEER. WE'VE REACHED THE POINT WHERE WE MUST SEPARATE THE WHEAT FROM THE CHAFF."

"THESE PEOPLE WANT ALL THE OTHER PROTECTIONS OF THE GOVERNMENT BUT THEY SAY THEY WOULDN'T FIGHT TO DEFEND THIS COUNTRY, IF NECESSARY.

"I SAY IT'S A TRAVESTY ON JUSTICE. IT'S AN OUTRAGE FOR PEOPLE LIKE THAT TO DRAW PUBLIC FUNDS."

STATE ATTORNEY GENERAL MAC Q. WILLIAMSON, WHO APPEARED TO REPRESENT THE STATE OFFICIALS, ADMITTED IN COURT PARTS OF THE BILL MAY BE UNCONSTITUTIONAL BUT ASKED THAT IT NOT "FALL IN ITS ENTIRETY."

"WE MUST GUARD AGAINST THOSE WHO SAY THAT OUR SITUATION IS HOPELESS AND THAT THERE IS NO GOOD IN MAKING THE EFFORT," HE SAID.

FRANCIS H.RUSSELL, DIRECTOR OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S OFFICE OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS, MADE THE REMARKS IN A SPEECH BEFORE THE BROTHERHOOD OF RAILWAY CLERKS CONVENTION.

HITTING AT CRITICS WHO SEE NO POSSIBILITY OF VICTORY IN KOREA, RUSSELL DECLARED IN A PREPARED ADDRESS:

"DEFEATISM MAY SHOW ITSELF IN TWO WAYS. THERE IS THE DEFEATISM OF DESPAIR AND THE DEFEATISM OF DESPERATION.

"WE MUST GUARD EQUALLY AGAONST THOSE WHO SAY THAT BECAUSE WE ARE FACED WITH DIFFICULTIES WE SHOULD RESORT TO DESPERATE MEASURES."

RUSSELL CONTENDED THERE WAS NO CAUSE FOR DESPAIR OR DESPERATION BECAUSE, HE SAID, THE U.S. IS NOW BUILDING MILITARY POWER CAPABLE OF OVERPOWERING ANY FURTHER COMMUNIST AGGRESSION.

SPEAKING OF KOREA, HE SAID THE U.S. DECIDED TO FIGHT THERE BECAUSE OTHER NATIONS STRUGGLING TO MAINTAIN FREEDOM "WOULD HAVE FELT THEIR CASE WAS HOPELESS."

"WE WOULD HAVE FACED THE POSSIBILITY OF FREE GOVERNMENTS STARTING TO FALL LIKE DOMINOES," RUSSELL SAID.

MADISON, WIS., MAY 19-(AP)-THE PRIME MINISTER OF NORWAY CAUTIONED THE UNITED STATES TONIGHT NOT TO BE IMPATIENT WITH SMALL COUNTRIES WHICH FIND THE TASK OF REARMEMENT A HARD ONE TO SHOULDER.
EINER H. GERHARDSEN, SPEAKING IN NORWEGIAN BEFORE 600 PERSONS AT AN OBSERVANCE OF THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE SIGNING OF THE NORWEGIAN CONSTITUTION, SAID "TO SOME SMALL COUNTRIES THE BURDEN OF ARMEMENT AND RECONSTRUCTION MAY BE SO DIFFICULT AND SEVERE SO AS TO CAUSE DISCONTENT WHICH WORKS TO THE ADVANTAGE OF THE COMMUNISTS."
HE ADDED THAT THE ATLANTIC PACT PRESENTED AN "OBLIGATION WHICH IS A TERRIFIC STRAIN ON MEMBER STATES BUT IS A CASE OF SHEER 'MUST.'"

FIRST LEAD KOREAN WAR ROUNDUP (600)

BY DON HUTH

TOKYO,MONDAY,MAY 21-(AP)-ALLIED FORCES EARLY TODAY SMASHED VICIOUS NEW CHINESE ATTACKS IN CENTRAL KOREA AND RAMMED STRONG ARMORED PATROLS AGAINST RED POSITIONS IN THE WEST.

THE REDS MASSED MORE MEN FOR 20 MILES IN FRONT OF THE U.S. SECOND DIVISION--ALREADY VICTOR OVER 96,000 COMMUNISTS WHO HAD TRIED TO ENGULF IT.

AN ALLIED OFFICER SAID "THE SITUATION IS STILL DANGEROUS" THERE.

THE U.S. EIGHTH ARMY COMMUNIQUE REPORTED TODAY THAT BITTER FIGHTING RAGED IN MOST SECTORS ACROSS THE MOUNTAINOUS PENINSULA AS THE RED OFFENSIVE ENTERED ITS SIXTH DAY. HEADQUARTERS EMPHASIZED THAT RED CASUALTIES CONTINUED TO BE HEAVY--BUT MADE NO ESTIMATES.

IN THE AIR SUNDAY, 26 U.S. SABRE JETS BESTED 50 RUSSIAN-TYPE MIG-15 JETS IN A NEW BATTLE OVER NORTHWESTERN KOREA. PILOTS SAID THEY DEFINITELY DESTROYED THREE MIGS, PROBABLY A FOURTH AND DAMAGED FIVE WITHOUT LOSS TO THEMSELVES.

ON THE BLOODY CENTRAL FRONT, THE U.S. SECOND DIVISION HURLED BACK WAVES OF CHINESE STRIKING AT ITS LEFT, OR WESTERN, FLANK SOUTH OF CHUNCHON, BETWEEN 45 AND 50 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL. PREVIOUS RED ASSAULTS HAD HIT THE RIGHT FLANK IN EAST-CENTRAL KOREA.

AN EIGHTH ARMY BRIEFING OFFICER SAID THE GALLANT DIVISION HAD PRETTY WELL SEALED A GAPING HOLE ON THE RIGHT FLANK, TO THE EAST BETWEEN HANGYE AND PUNGNAM.

IT WAS IN THE HANGYE AREA, SOME 15 MILES SOUTHEAST OF CHUNCHON, THAT CHINESE ASSAULT WAVES PUNCTURED REPUBLIC OF KOREA (ROK) POSITIONS AND THREATENED TO OUTFLANK THE SECOND DIVISION LATE LAST WEEK.

"THE SITUATION IS STILL DANGEROUS," A BRIEFING OFFICER COMMENTED. "THE CHINESE HAVE YET ANOTHER PENETRATION IN THE ALLIED LINE AND ARE CONTINUING TO COME THROUGH THE HOLE."

MAY 21 1951

LOCATION OF THAT GAP WAS NOT SPECIFIED. HOWEVER, AFTER THE CHINESE BREAKTHROUGH IN THE HANGYE AREA ON THE DIVISION'S RIGHT FLANK, DISPATCHES REPORTED THE CHINESE ALSO HAD CUT A LATERAL ROAD FARTHER EAST, SOME 25 MILES INLAND FROM THE EAST COAST.

BUT THE "INDIANHEAD" DIVISION'S BRILLIANT STAND APPEARED TO HAVE PLUGGED THE MOST MENACING GAP. PRESSURE ON THE RIGHT FLANK SUNDAY SLACKENED UNDER HEAVY ALLIED ARTILLERY FIRE.

AP CORRESPONDENT WILLIAM C.BARNARD REPORTED ARTILLERY AND AERIAL FIRE IN THAT SECTOR REDUCED THE RED FORCE OF 1,000 TO 300 SUNDAY EVENING. THE 300 SURVIVORS FLED.

ON THE WEST-CENTRAL FRONT, ALLIED FORCES ADVANCED MORE THAN TWO MILES SUNDAY UP THE PUKHAN RIVER VALLEY NORTHEAST OF SEOUL. THIS RECONNAISSANCE IN FORCE WAS AIMED AT CHANGGONG, SOME 25 MILES NORTHEAST OF THE OLD REPUBLICAN CAPITAL.

SURPRISED COMMUNISTS TROOPS, HIT WHILE THEY WERE TRYING TO MOUNT PROBING ATTACKS, WERE REPULSED "WITH MODERATE TO HEAVY LOSSES." ONE ADVANCING ALLIED COLUMN REACHED A POINT NORTHEAST OF MASOGU, 18 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

ON THE WESTERN FRONT, ROK TROOPS SMASHED MORE THAN SIX MILES NORTHWEST OF SEOUL AGAINST COMMUNISTS IN ESTIMATED BATTALION-SIZE STRENGTH. OTHER ALLIED FORCES FANNED OUT FROM THE BRISTLING SEOUL DEFENSE PERIMETER TO THE NORTH AND NORTHEAST.

ONE COLUMN RUMBLED BACK INTO UIJONGBU AGAINST LIGHT RESISTANCE SUNDAY, BUT RETURNED TO ALLIED LINES. A NEW SCRAP IN THE UIJONGBU AREA, 11 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL, WAS REPORTED MONDAY.

RED SUPPLY LINES ON THE EAST COAST WERE POUNDED BY THE U.S. BATTLESHIP NEW JERSEY, SISTER SHIP OF THE MISSOURI WHICH LEFT KOREAN WATERS AFTER MORE THAN SIX MONTHS OF ACTION.

ALLIED WAR PLANES EASED OFF THEIR ATTACKS ON SUPPLY TARGETS TO LEND MAXIMUM CLOSE SUPPORT TO GROUND FORCES. THE U.S. FAR EAST AIR FORCES ANNOUNCED MORE THAN 1,100 SORTIES WERE FLOWN BY FIGHTERS AND BOMBERS SUNDAY.

EVEN B-29 SUPERFORTS JOINED IN ASSAULTS ON RED FRONTLINE POSITIONS. IN THE HEAVIEST NIGHT FRONTLINE ATTACK THUS FAR IN THE KOREAN WAR, 40 B-29S AND B-26S DROPPED 250 TONS OF 500-POUND FRAGMENTATION BOMBS ON THE REDS.

THE BOMBS WERE DROPPED WITH NEW RADAR TECHNIQUES WHICH COMPARE IN ACCURACY WITH DAYLIGHT VISUAL BOMBING. FEAF REPORTED.

FAR BEHIND THE ENEMY LINES 28 U.S. SABRE JETS RIPPED INTO A FORMATION OF 50 RUSSIAN BUILT MIG JET PLANES SOME 25 MILES SOUTH OF THE YALU RIVER. IN A SWIRLING 20-MINUTE DOGFIGHT THE SABRES DESTROYED OR DAMAGED NINE MIGS.

PILOTS REPORTED THREE MIGS DESTROYED, ONE PROBABLY DESTROYED AND FIVE DAMAGED.

AP CORRESPONDENT WILLIAM C. BARNARD SAID THAT RED PRESSURE ON THE U.S. SECOND DIVISION SLACKENED SUNDAY NIGHT, BUT THE SITUATION WAS STILL TENSE.

THE CHINESE HAD ABOUT 10,000 MEN FACING EACH OF THE THREE REGIMENTS OF THE BATTERED DIVISION WHICH THEY APPARENTLY WERE UNDER ORDERS TO DESTROY.

MAY 21 1951

ALLIED ARTILLERY POUNDED THE FOE DAY AND NIGHT.

THE KOREAN HILLS SHOOK WITH MASSED SALVOES. BURSTING SHELLS COVERED ENEMY-HELD RIDGES.

U.S. CARRIER-BASED NAVY FIGHTERS, AIR FORCE BOMBERS AND B-29 SUPERFORTS WERE HARD AT WORK AROUND THE CLOCK, POUNDING AT THE DETERMINED FOE.

A NAVY SUMMARY TODAY SAID CARRIER-BASED FLIERS KILLED OR WOUNDED 700 REDS SUNDAY AND HAD INFLICTED 1,750 CONFIRMED RED CASUALTIES WITHIN THE PAST FOUR DAYS.

GEN. MATTHEW B. RIDGWAY, ALLIED SUPREME COMMANDER, MADE HIS FOURTH TRIP TO THE BATTLELINES SINCE SUCCEEDING GENERAL MACARTHUR. HE VISITED THE UNDAUNTED SECOND DIVISION AND TOURED THE REST OF THE FRONT. HE MADE NO PREDICTIONS ON THE OUTCOME OF THE MASSIVE CHINESE OFFENSIVE.

HE SAID, HOWEVER, THAT U.N. TROOPS WERE "CONFIDENT" AND THAT THEY HAVE TAKEN A HEAVY TOLL OF CHINESE LIVES.

SIPPING BLACK COFFEE AT A SECOND DIVISION COMMAND POST, RIDGWAY

SIPPING BLACK COFFEE AT A SECOND DIVISION COMMAND POST, RIDGWAY RECEIVED FIRST-HAND DETAILS OF THE CHINESE FIVE-DAY "REVENGE" ATTACK AGAINST THE DIVISION WHICH THWARTED THE REDS AT CHIPYONG AND WONJU LAST FEBRUARY.

"THEY PLACE NO VALUE ON HUMAN LIFE," RIDGWAY REMARKED. "THEIR DISREGARD FOR THE INDIVIDUAL MAN IS PATHETIC.

"IT LOOKS LIKE WE'LL TAKE A FOUR TO FIVE TOLL, AND FOR EVERY ON

"THEY PLACE NO VALUE ON HUMAN LIFE," RIDGWAY REMARKED. "THEIR DISREGARD FOR THE INDIVIDUAL MAN IS PATHETIC.

"IT LOOKS LIKE WE'LL TAKE A FOUR TO FIVE TOLL, AND FOR EVERY ONE WE KILL, WE'LL WOUND ANOTHER SIX."

IN VERIFYING THIS QUOTATION, CORRESPONDENTS SAID PRESUMABLY HE MEANT A TOLL OF FOUR OR FIVE RED DEAD TO EACH ALLIED CASUALTY

RIDGWAY ASKED THAT NO ENEMY CASUALTIES BE ESTIMATED EXCEPT BODIES COUNTED AND PRISONERS TAKEN.

THE U.S. EIGHTH ARMY QUIT ISSUING ENEMY CASUALTY ESTIMATES SATURDAY, BUT FIELD OFFICERS ON VARIOUS FRONTS HAVE TALKED OF TENS OF THOUSANDS OF RED LOSSES SINCE THE BIG CHINESE PUSH BEGAN MAY 16.

AFTER CONFERRING WITH LT. GEN. JAMES A. VAN FLEET, EIGHTH ARMY COMMANDER, AND CORPS AND DIVISION GENERALS ALONG THE FRONT, RIDGWAY FLEW BACK TO HIS TOKYO HEADQUARTERS SUNDAY NIGHT. HE WORE HIS USUAL FRONTLINE BATTLE DRESS---INCLUDING GRENADES AND PARACHUTE HARNESS, BATTERED FATIGUE CAP AND .45 AUTOMATIC.

THE CHINESE HURLED ELEMENTS OF AT LEAST THREE DIVISIONS SOUTHWARD AGAINST THE EXPOSED RIGHT FLANK OF MAJ. GEN. CLARK L. RUFFNER'S GALLANT SECOND DIVISION EARLIER SUNDAY. IT WAS A GRAVE NEW THREAT.

THE REDS POURED THROUGH A GAP BETWEEN HANGYE, EIGHT MILES NORTHEAST OF HONGCHON AND PUNGAM, 18 MILES DUE EAST OF HONGCHON.

HONGCHON, 55 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL, CONTROLS ACCESS TO ROAD NETWORKS LEADING DEEP INTO SOUTH-CENTRAL KOREA.

THE GAP IN THE LINES WAS OPENED WHEN THE MASSIVE CHINESE DRIVE ROUTED TWO SOUTH KOREAN DIVISIONS FOUR DAYS AGO.

THE CHINESE TOOK A SHORT BREATHER SATURDAY TO REMOVE THEIR DEAD AND WOUNDED FROM THE BATTLEFIELD, THEN STREAMED SOUTHWARD AGAIN TO THE ATTACK.

MAY 21 1951

FARTHER EAST, ONE RED PATROL--PROBABLY NORTH KOREAN--ATTACKED 25 MILES SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL TO SOKSA, WHERE A BATTLE WAS FOUGHT WITH SOUTH KOREANS. SOKSA IS 26 MILES INLAND FROM THE EAST COAST ON A LATERAL HIGHWAY LEADING FROM KANGNUNG TO WONJU. THE EIGHTH ARMY DID NOT REPORT OUTCOME OF THE BATTLE.

TWO SOUTH KOREAN DIVISIONS ON THE EXTREME EAST COAST, WHO HAVE HAD GUN SUPPORT FROM ALLIED WARSHIPS, PULLED BACK SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL TO NEW, UNDISCLOSED POSITIONS.

SOUTHEAST OF HANGYE A 1,000-MAN RED FORCE ATTACKED WITH MORTARS AND AUTOMATIC WEAPONS BUT 400 WERE KILLED BY ALLIED ARTILLERY AND PLANES, CORRESPONDENT BARNARD REPORTED. SIX THOUSAND CHINESE ATTACKED SOUTH KOREAN POSITIONS SOUTH OF PUNGAM.

THE SOUTH KOREANS COUNTERATTACKED, HOWEVER, AND REGAINED THEIR POSITIONS.

PUNGAM IS ON A POOR ROAD WINDING WEST TO HONGCHON. ON ANOTHER ROAD LEADING SOUTH FROM INJE TO PYONGCHANG, AN ALLIED BATTALION TRAPPED 400 REDS AND INFLICTED HEAVY CASUALTIES.

SOUTHEAST OF CHUNCHON 2,000 MORE CHINESE MADE A PREDAWN ATTACK BUT WERE REPULSED AFTER FIVE HOURS OF FIGHTING. AT LEAST 150 RED DEAD WERE COUNTED IN FRONT OF ALLIED POSITIONS.

A24FX

CHUNCHON, 45 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL, HAS BEEN AN ANCHOR OF THE U.N. CENTRAL FRONT.

SOUTHWEST OF CHUNCHON, STRONG U.N. RECONNAISSANCE PATROLS PUSHED OUT IN A SURPRISE DRIVE TO STEM CHINESE ATTEMPTING TO CROSS THE CHONGPYONG RESERVOIR AND THE HONGCHON RIVER.

ALLIED TANKS NOSED OUT THROUGH DAWN MISTS AND MADE CONTACT A FEW HOURS LATER. A COMPANY COMMANDED BY CAPT. ALBERT D. WEDEMEYER WAS CUT OFF BUT FOUGHT FREE, AS DID A SOUTH KOREAN RECONNAISSANCE UNIT.

CAPTAIN WEDEMEYER IS THE SON OF LT. GEN. ALBERT C. WEDEMEYER, U.S. SIXTH ARMY COMMANDER.

FARTHER SOUTH ALONG THE PUKHAN RIVER FRONT, IN POSITIONS ROUGHLY 18 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL, OTHER STRONG U.N. PATROLS MADE MORE SURPRISE ATTACKS.

THE SURPRISE WAS SO COMPLETE THAT AT LEAST TWO U.S. ARMY UNITS HAD TO FIGHT THROUGH ATTACKING CHINESE TO BEGIN THEIR OWN PUSH, REPORTED AP CORRESPONDENT GEORGE MCARTHUR FROM THAT WEST-CENTRAL SECT

THE PATROLS CAPTURED 25 PRISONERS.

THERE ARE 30 ABANDONED GOLD AND SILVER MINES IN THIS AREA WHERE THE CHINESE PREVIOUSLY HAVE HIDDEN A LARGE NUMBER OF TROOPS. THREE CHINESE BATTALIONS WERE DIGGING IN ON BOTH SIDES OF THE PUKHAN WHEN THE ALLIES ATTACKED.

AP CORRESPONDENT JOHN RANDOLPH ON THE WESTERN FRONT SAID U.N. RECONNAISSANCE PATROLS RAMMED NORTH OF THE BRISTLING SEOUL PERIMETER.

FRONTLINE OFFICERS SAID ONLY THE LIGHTEST ENEMY FORCES WERE ON THE IMMEDIATE SEOUL FRONT. THERE WERE HEAVIER RED CONCENTRATIONS FARTHER NORTH.

BRITISH TROOPS ADVANCED AGAINST LIGHT PRESSURE TO A POINT NINE MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

AN ALLIED ARMORED FORCE SMASHED BACK INTO UIJONGBU, 11 MILES NORTH OF THE OLD KOREAN CAPITAL. ROK (REPUBLIC OF KOREA) PATROLS SALLIED NORTHWEST OF THEIR CAPITAL. ALL PATROLS RETURNED TO THEIR LINES AFTER FEELING OUT RED STRENGTH. AGAIN RESISTANCE RANGED FROM LIGHT TO MODERATE.

MAY 21 1951

FRONT DISPATCHES SAID 17 B-29 SUPERFORTS FLEW OVER THE EAST CENTRAL FRONT SUNDAY, FOLLOWING UP A SATURDAY NIGHT FORAY BY 16 OTHER SUPER-FORTS. NAVY PLANES TURNED IN 100 TACTICAL SORTIES ON THE EAST CENTRAL FRONT WHILE U.S. FIFTH AIRFORCE MASSED 200 MORE SORTIES IN DIRECT SUPPORT OF GROUND FORCES OUT OF 650 FLOWN DURING THE DAY. SHOOTING STAR JETS CAUGHT ONE CONCENTRATION OF 300 REDS AND SPRAYED FLAMING JELLIED GASOLINE ON THEIR POSITIONS.

BULLETIN

U.S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, KOREA, MAY 20-(AP)-ELEMENTS OF AT LEAST THREE COMMUNIST DIVISIONS RUSHED SOUTHWARD TONIGHT ON THE RIGHT FLANK OF THE U.S. SECOND DIVISION, POSING A GRAVE NEW THREAT TO THAT BATTERED BUT UNDEFEATED OUTFIT.

THE REDS WERE REPORTED POURING THROUGH A GAP IN THE ALLIED LINES BETWEEN HANGYE AND PUNGAM ON THE EAST CENTRAL FRONT.

THE REPORT OF THE NEW THREAT TO THE SECOND DIVISION CAME ONLY A FEW HOURS AFTER A HIGH RANKING EIGHTH ARMY OFFICER SAID THE SITUATION ON THE EAST CENTRAL FRONT "IS IMPROVING," AND ANOTHER OFFICER SAID THE DIVISION WAS "NO LONGER IN TROUBLE."

THE REPORTS CAME FROM OFFICERS AT EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS.

THE REDS POURED SOUTHWARD THROUGH A BREAK IN ALLIED LINES CAUSED BY THE COLLAPSE OF TWO SOUTH KOREAN DIVISIONS AT THE START OF THE CHINESE OFFENSIVE FIVE DAYS AGO.

THE ALLIES MEANWHILE SENT OUT STRONG RECONNAISSANCE PATROLS ALL ALONG THE 50-MILE WIDE WEST AND WESTN CENTRAL FRONT. THEY MET ONLY MODERATE RESISTANCE.

ONE PATROL ADVANCED ABOUT NINE MILES.

CHINESE FORCES ATTACKED A REGIMENT OF THE U.S. SECOND DIVISION AT 3 A.M. SUNDAY. BITTER FIGHTING STILL RAGED 12 HOURS LATER.

BRITISH TROOPS ON THE WESTERN FRONT ADVANCED MORE THAN TWO MILES AGAINST LIGHT RESISTANCE TO A POINT NINE MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

THIS WAS THE FIRST MENTION OF BRITISH TROOPS IN THAT AREA PERMITTED BY CENSOR SINCE THE CHINESE ATTACK BEGAN.

AIR SEPARATE (650)

BY STAN CARTER.

U.S. FIFTH AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS, KOREA, MAY 20-(AP)-TWENTY-EIGHT AMERICAN F-86 SABRE JETS CAUGHT 50 COMMUNIST MIG JETS SOUTH OF THE YALU RIVER OVER KOREA TODAY AND SHOT DOWN THREE IN A FURIOUS DOGFIGHT.

ANOTHER MIG PROBABLY WAS DESTROYED AND FIVE WERE DAMAGED.

ALL AMERICANS RETURNED SAFELY.

OTHER FIFTH AIR FORCE PLANES FLEW 650 SORTIES SUNDAY, ATTACKING ENEMY TROOPS AND FRONT SUPPLY LINES.

CAPT. JAMES JABARA OF 101 N. BROADWAY, WICHITA, KANS., SHOT DOWN TWO OF THE MIGS R SINUIJU, MAKING HIS TOTAL SIX. AN "ACE" RATING GOES WITH FIVE EN PLANES DOWNED, SO JABARA THUS BECAME HISTORY'S FIRST JET ACE.

FLYING P-51S OVER EUROPE IN WORLD WAR 2, JABARA WAS CREDITED WITH SIX AND ONE-HALF ENEMY PLANES DESTROYED IN THE AIR AND THREE ON THE GROUND.

CAPT. MILTON NELSON OF 917 OVERTON AVE., TARRANT, ALA., DOWNED THE THIRD MIG TODAY. LT. RALPH D. GIBSON OF 1122 NORTH CHESTNUT ST., MOUNT CARMEL, ILL., WAS CREDITED WITH THE PROBABLE.

THE FIGHT BEGAN WHEN 14 SABRE JETS LED BY LT. COL. BRUCE HINTON OF STOCKTON, CALIF., CHALLENGED THE ESTIMATED 50 MIGS OVER SINUIJU, NORTH KOREAN TOWN JUST ACROSS THE YALU FROM MANCHURIA.

AS THE OVERWHELMING NUMBER OF RUSSIAN-BUILT JETS ACCEPTED THE CHALLENGE, 14 ADDITIONAL SABRES ARRIVED AND DIVED INTO THE FIGHT. THIS SECOND GROUP WAS LED BY MAJ. BENJAMIN H. EMMERT, JR., OF PHOENIX, ARIZ.

AFTER A WILD 20-MINUTE BATTLE THAT RANGED 25 MILES SOUTHEAST, THE MIGS FLED BACK TO HAVEN IN MANCHURIA, WHERE AMERICAN PILOTS ARE FORBIDDEN TO PURSUE.

IN ANNOUNCING THE SCORE, THE FIFTH AIR FORCE REPORTED THIS BROUGHT RED JET LOSSES IN AIR-TO-AIR ENCOUNTERS TO 49 DESTROYED, 12 PROBABLY DESTROYED AND 124 DAMAGED.

MAY 21 1951

JABARA RELATED:

"I WAS IN THE SECOND FLIGHT. I TACKED ONTO THREE MIGS AT 35,000 FEET AND PICKED OUT THE LAST MAN. I FIRED TWO BURSTS WHICH RIPPED UP THE FUSELAGE AND THE LEFT WING. THE MIG BURST INTO FLAMES AND SNAP-ROLLED TWICE. AT ABOUT 10,000 FEET THE PILOT BAILED OUT. JUST AS HE JUMPED, THE MIG DISINTEGRATED INTO A THOUSAND PIECES OF FLAMING DEBRIS.

"I CLIMBED BACK TO 20,000 FEET AND IMMEDIATELY BOUNCED SIX MORE MIGS. I FIRED TWO BURSTS INTO ONE OF THEM, SCORING HEAVILY BOTH TIMES. HE BEGAN TO SMOKE, THEN BELCHED FLAMES AS MY SECOND BURST CAUGHT HIM SQUARE IN THE MIDDLE.

"HE FELL INTO AN UNCONTROLLED SPIN AND ALL I COULD SEE OF HIM WAS A WHIRL OF FIRE. I HAD TO BREAK OFF THEN BECAUSE THERE WAS ANOTHER MIG ON MY TAIL."

CAPTAIN NELSON, REPORTING ON THE THIRD DESTROYED MIG, SAID:

"I CAUGHT HIM AT 35,000 FEET AND FIRED SEVERAL LONG BURSTS THAT HIT THE CANOPY AND WINGS. I FIRED AGAIN AND THE MIG STARTED TO SMOKE AND BURN. THE LAST I SAW OF HIM, HE WAS GOING STRAIGHT DOWN, BURNING LIKE A TORCH AND COMPLETELY OUT OF CONTROL.

LIEUTENANT GIBSON, WHO GOT THE PROBABLE, SAID:

"I HIT HIM WITH TWO GOOD BURSTS DEAD CENTER. HE SNAPPED OVER ON HIS BACK A I HIT HIM AGAIN, RIGHT DOWN HIS TAIL PIPE. I HAD TO BREAK OFF BECAUS THER MIGS WERE TOO CLOSE FOR COMFORT. I DON'T THINK HE MADE IT BAC O HIS BASE, BUT NO ONE SAW HIM GO DOWN, SO HE IS LISTED AS PROBAB

CONSIN AVE., NW., WASHINGTON, D.C.; CAPT. MAX S. WEILL OF 501 TAMI-SOLA AVE., SARASOTA, FLA.; CAPT. RAYMOND JENECZEK OF 63 PARKER AVE., PASAIC, N.J.; CAPT. MMRRIS B. PITTS OF 7326 S. THIRD, BIRMINGHAM, ALA.; AND LT. RUDOLPH E. HOLLEY OF 1457 HEARD AVE., AUGUSTA, GA.

THE FIFTH AIRFORCE MASSED ITS HEAVIEST ATTACKS SUNDAY ON THE BATTLE-FRONT OR NEAR IT. MORE THAN 200 OF THE 650 SORTIES WERE IN CLOSE SUPPORT OF ALLIED GROUND TROOPS. THEY HIT 450 BUILDINGS, 13 ENEMY HELD TOWNS, BRIDGES, TUNNELS, SUPPLY DUMPS AND 8 GUN POSITIONS.

SHOOTING STAR F-51 FIGHTERS CAUGHT A CONCENTRATION OF RED TROOPS AND POURED JELLIED GASOLINE (NAPALM) ON AN ESTIMATED 300.

SECOND LT. ROBERT E. DIXON OF NEWTON, IA., FLYING HIS 13TH MISSION, DECIDED IT WAS A LUCKY ONE--ON HIS BIRTHDAY.

"ON ONE PASS," HE SAID, "I DECIDED TO ROLL TO THE LEFT, AND JUST AS I DID TWO BULLET HOLES APPEARED IN THE CANOPY. IF I HADN'T ROLLED AS I DID THE BULLETS WOULD HAVE HIT ME."

A HELICOPTER OF THE THIRD AIR RESCUE SQUADRON RESCUED AN F-51 MUSTANG PILOT, CAPT. WILLIAM H. STRAND OF 314 MARTELLO ST., PASADENA, CALIF., AFTER THE FLYER SPENT A TENSE HOUR SURROUNDED BY THE ENEMY.

STRAND WAS LEADING AN ATTACK IN THE KAESONG AREA OF WESTERN KOREA WHEN HIS PLANE WAS HIT BY ENEMY FIRE. HE CRASH-LANDED AND HID IN A DITCH.

"APPARENTLY THEY DIDN'T SEE ME GET OUT OF THE PLANE BECAUSE THEY KEPT SHOOTING AT IT ALL THE TIME I WAS ON THE GROUND," STRAND SAID.

HE WAS PICKED UP BY LT. M.P. FROMME, OF CANTON, MO., AND MEDICAL PFC. RALPH L. DAVIS, OF GIRARD, PA.

STRAND HAS FLOWN 115 MISSIONS IN THE KOREAN WAR AND IN WORLD WAR II FLEW 250 FIGHTER MISSIONS IN THE SOUTH P/ IFIC.

A SPOKESMAN FOR THE OUSTED GROUP SAID HE HOPED FOR AN EARLY DECI-ION BEFORE THE SUMMER RECESS OF THE SUPREME COURT.
DISTRICT JUDGE W.A. CARLILE ISSUED AN INJUNCTION TO RESTRAIN A.
AND M. COLLEGE REGENTS, STATE TREASURER A.S. J. SHAW AND STATE AUDITOR
WILBURN C. CARTWRIGHT FROM PAYING THE PROFESSORS FOR THE PERIOD AFTER MA
9 WHEN THE LOYALTY OATH BECAME LAW.
THE LAW PROVIDES THAT STATE EMPLOYES MUST HAVE SIGNED THE OATH BY THAT DATE OR BE DISMISSED.
PAUL W. UPDEGRAFF, A NORMAN ATTORNEY, FILED SUIT REQUESTING THE INJUNCTION IN ORDER TO OBTAIN A COURT TEST. SEVEN AGGIE PROFESSORS AND EMPLOYES INTERVENED AS PARTIES TO THE SUIT. IT WAS AGAINST THEM THE JUDG ISSUED HIS RULING.
THEY ARE : ROBERT M. WIEMAN, ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF PHILOSOPHY;
NANCY KENT ZIEBUR, RESEARCH ASSISTANT; WERNER C. BAUM, ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF BOTANY; SAMUEL HUNT LEE JR., ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF CHEMIS-TRY; MALCOLM CORRELL, PROFESSOR OF PHYSICS: LILLIAN A. SCHMOE, SECRE-TARY, AND LUELL NIETZ, ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF MUSIC.
ATTORNEY DON EMERY CLAIMED HIS CLIENTS SIGNED THE NON-COMMUNIST PART OF THE OATH BUT WERE CHALLENGING THE ANTI-AMERICAN ASPECTS.
THE MAIN OBJECTION TO THE LAW CENTERS ON A CLAUSE CONCERNING THE BEARING OF ARMS IN DEFENSE OF THE COUNTRY. THEY CONTEND IT VIOLATES RELIGIOUS FREEDOM IN THAT CERTAIN RELIGIOUS GROUPS HOLD BELIEFS THAT FORBID BEARING ARMS.
THEY FURTHER CONTEND THAT PAY OF STATE EMPLOYES UNDER ANNUAL CONTRACT
CANNOT BE DISCONTINUED UNTIL THE CONTRACT IS TERMINATED.
ATTORNEY GENERAL MAC Q. WILLIAMSON REPRESENTED STATE OFFICIALS.
HE EARLIER RULED SOME PROVISIONS OF THE OATH UNCONSTITUTIONAL UNDER BOTH STATE AND FEDERAL CONSTITUTIONS.

TAIPEH, FORMOSA, MAY 20-(AP)-THE CHINA UNION PRESS SAID TODAY THAT 5,000 JAPANESE PRISONERS OF WAR HELD OVER (FROM WORLD WAR II) HAVE BEEN SMUGGLED INTO JAPAN BY SOVIET SUBMARINES TO ESTABLISH COMMUNIST CELLS.

THERE WAS NO WAY OF CHECKING THE REPORT.

THE CHINA UNION PRESS IS A SMALL NATIONALIST NEWS AGENCY WHICH SAYS IT GETS MOST OF ITS INFORMATION FROM UNDERGROUND SOURCES ON THE RED CHINA MAINLAND. ITS REPORTS ARE REVIEWED BY THE NATIONALIST DEFENSE MINISTRY BEFORE THEY ARE ISSUED.

THE AGENCY SAID THAT JAPANESE BOARDED THE SUBMARINES AT VLADIVOSTOK AND WERE LANDED ON THE NORTHERN JAPANESE ISLAND OF HOKKAIDO. THE JOB REQUIRED ABOUT A MONTH, THE AGENCY ADDED.

THE PRISONERS, THE AGENCY SAID, WERE UNDER ORDERS TO INFILTRATE THE MAIN JAPANESE ISLAND OF HONSHU.

THE CHINA UNION PRESS ALSO REPORTED THAT A CHINESE COMMUNIST NAVAL ACADEMY HAD BEEN ESTABLISHED UNDER SOVIET DIRECTION AT THE YELLOW SEA PORT OF LAOYAO (LIENYUN), ABOUT 350 MILES WEST OF KOREA.

KOREAN BUDGET (550)

LONDON, MAY 20-(AP)-PRAVDA, RUSSIA'S OFFICIAL COMMUNIST NEWSPAPER, MADE ITS FIRST COMMENT TODAY ON SENATOR EDWIN JOHNSON'S PROPOSAL FOR A KOREAN CEASE-FIRE, AND OTHER COMMUNIST NEWSPAPERS IN EUROPE GAVE EXTENSIVE PUBLICITY TO THE IDEA.

PRAVDA INTERPRETED THE PROPOSAL AS AN INDICATION THAT SOME ELEMENTS IN THE UNITED STATES ARE GETTING TIRED OF THE WAR.

SENATOR JOHNSON (D-COLO) OFFERED A RESOLUTION LAST THURSDAY IN THE U.S. SENATE ASKING THE UNITED NATIONS TO CALL UPON BOTH SIDES TO DECLARE AN EFFECTIVE ARMISTICE ALONG THE 38TH PARALLEL, THE OLD DIVIDING LINE, ON JUNE 25, ANNIVERSARY OF THE OUTBREAK OF FIGHTING. HE PROPOSED THAT ALL FOREIGN TROOPS BE WITHDRAWN FROM KOREA BEFORE THE END OF 1951.

PRAVDA AND OTHER SOVIET NEWSPAPERS GAVE GREAT PROMINENCE TO THE PROPOSAL YESTERDAY. MOSCOW DISPATCHES NOTED THAT THIS WAS THE FIRST PEACE PROPOSAL COMING FROM THE UNITED STATES TO RECEIVE MUCH ATTENTION IN THE SOVIET UNION IN RECENT MONTHS. SOME WESTERN DIPLOMATS IN MOSCOW WERE QUOTED AS SAYING THE ATTENTION GIVEN TO THE JOHNSON IDEA MIGHT BE SIGNIFICANT. THEY WONDERED IF THE SOVIET UNION MIGHT SUPPORT SUCH A PROPOSAL.

THE MOSCOW RADIO TODAY QUOTED PRAVDA AS OFFERING THE FIRST COMMUNIST COMMENT ON THE PLAN.

JOHNSON'S RESOLUTION, SAID PRAVDA, SHOWED THAT "EVEN CERTAIN REPRESENTATIVES OF U.S. RULING CIRCLES ARE BEGINNING TO REALIZE THAT WALL STREET'S GAMBLE IN KOREA IS HOELESS."

AT THE SAME TIME THE TWO COMMUNIST NEWSPAPERS IN VIENNA, AUSTRIA, PRINTED THE FULL TEXT OF THE JOHNSON RESOLUTION, AS TRANSMITTED BY TASS, OFFICIAL SOVIET NEWS AGENCY. ONE OF THE PAPERS, OESTERREICHISCHE VOLKSSTIMME, HEADLINED THE STORY, "CEASE-FIRE IN KOREA JUNE 25."

PRAVDA'S COMMENT SAID THE U.N. ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION EMBARGOING WAR MATERIALS FOR RED CHINA WAS "DISGRACEFUL" AND "CONFIRMED THE INDISPUTABLE FACT THAT THE UNITED STATES IS HAMPERING PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT OF THE KOREAN CONFLICT."

IT ALSO ATTACKED THE CONFERENCE OF AMERICAN, BRITISH AND FRENCH ARMY, AIR AND NAVY CHIEFS AT SINGAPORE LAST WEEK AND SAID THIS PARLEY WAS "ONE MORE LINK IN THE ATTEMPTS OF THE AMERICAN BLOC TO EXTEND THE SCOPE OF ITS CRIMINAL POLICY."
"EVIDENTLY, THE OBJECT LESSONS THE AGGRESSORS ARE RECEIVING IN KOREA ARE NOT DOING ANY GOOD," SAID PRAVDA. "ONLY THE BLIND CAN FAIL TO SEE THAT THE AGGRESSIVE PLANS OF AMERICAN IMPERIALISM AGAINST THE PEOPLES OF KOREA AND OTHER ASIAN COUNTRIES ARE DOOMED TO FAILURE. EVEN CERTAIN REPRESENTATIVES OF UNITED STATES RULING CIRCLES ARE BEGINNING TO REALIZE THAT WALL STREET'S GAMBLE IN KOREA IS HOPELESS. INDICATIVE IN THIS RESPECT IS SENATOR JOHNSON'S RESOLUTION URGING A CEASE-FIRE AND ARMISTICE IN KOREA AS FROM JUNE 25."
PRAVDA SAID CHARLES E. WILSON, U.S. DEFENSE MOBILIZER, HAD BROUGHT PRESSURE ON ENGLAND TO ASSENT TO THE RED CHINA EMBARGO AND THE PRESSURE WAS IMMEDIATELY EFFECTIVE. THE EMBARGO WAS INTENDED TO MAKE WALL STREET MASTER OF SOUTHEAST ASIA, IT ADDED, BUT THE MILITARY CONFERENCE IN SINGAPORE WAS A "CONFESSION OF FAILURE TO CRUSH THE LIBERATION MOVEMENT OF SOUTHEAST ASIA."
COINCIDENT WITH COMMUNIST ATTENTION TO THE JOHNSON RESOLUTION, DISPATCHES FROM UNITED NATIONS HEADQUARTERS IN NEW YORK SAID THE INDIAN DELEGATION WAS SOUNDING OUT OTHER MISSIONS ON THE POSSIBILITY OF GETTING BOTH SIDES TO AGREE NOT TO CROSS THE 38TH PARALLEL AGAIN.
THE INDIANS WERE SAID TO BE CITING IN THEIR CONTACTS WITH OTHER DELEGATIONS THE MARCH 12 STATEMENT OF GEN. MATTHEW RIDGWAY, U.N. COMMANDER IN KOREA, THAT THE ENDING OF THE WAR AT THE 38TH PARALLEL WOULD BE "TREMENDOUS VICTORY" FOR UNITED NATIONS FORCES.

MOSCOW, MAY 20-(AP)-IZVESTIA TODAY SHARPLY ATTACKED THE MCMAHON RESOLUTION OF THE UNITED STATES SENATE DECLARING THE FRIENDSHIP OF AMERICA FOR THE RUSSIAN PEOPLE. THE GOVERNMENT NEWSPAPER SAID THE RESOLUTION WAS A "SMOKE SCREEN" FOR "AGGRESSIVE INTENTIONS" TOWARD THE U.S.S.R.
THE RESOLUTION, SPONSORED BY SENATOR BRIEN MCMAHON (D-CONN) AND 22 OTHER SENATORS OF BOTH PARTIES AND ADOPTED BY THE SENATE ON MAY 4, SAID THE UNITED STATES DESIRES TO LIVE IN FRIENDSHIP WITH ALL PEOPLE, INCLUDING THE PEOPLE OF THE SOVIET UNION.
IZVESTIA ASKED, IF AMERICAN SENATORS ARE SO FRIENDLY, WHY THEY ARE AGAINST A PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT OF THE KOREAN QUESTION, AND WHY THEY DON'T TAKE STEPS TO "STOP THE CHATTER" AT PARIS OVER AN AGENDA FOR A FOREIGN MINISTERS MEETING.
THE NEWSPAPER SAID MCMAHON ONLY RECENTLY HAD "SLANDEROUSLY" ACCUSED THE SOVIET UNION OF AGGRESSIVE INTENTIONS AND THAT SENATOR ALEXANDER WILEY (R-WIS) ON DEC. 29 HAD OPENLY CALLED ON THE U.S. TO CONDUCT SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITY AGAINST THE SOVIET UNION.
NEARLY EVERY ONE OF SENATORS SPONSORING THE MCMAHON RESOLUTION, IZVESTIA DECLARED, AT SOME TIME OR OTHER HAD EXPRESSED SIMILAR "FRIENDSHIP" FOR THE SOVIET UNION.

GENOA, ITALY, MAY 20-(AP)-FOREIGN MINISTER CARLO SFORZA CALLED UPON FRANCE, BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES TODAY TO END "MORAL SANCTIONS" AGAINST ITALY AS CONTAINED IN THE WORLD WAR TWO PEACE TREATY.
THE FOREIGN MINISTER, IN A MUNICIPAL ELECTION CAMPAIGN SPEECH HERE, SAID:
"THE X X X EVOLUTION OF PUBLIC OPINION IN THE VARIOUS COUNTRIES, THE VERY FAVORABLE ATTITUDE OF LATIN AMERICA, AND THE RECENT OFFICIAL FRENCH AND BRITISH DECLARATIONS MAKES US BELIEVE THAT A SOLEMN TRIPARTITE DECLARATION CAN BE AGREED UPON AFFIRMING THAT THE PEACE TREATY IS EXTINCT AS FAR AS IT IS A MORAL SANCTION UPON A COUNTRY WHICH HAS TAKEN ITS PLACE IN THE CONCERT OF FREE, DEMOCRATIC NATIONS."
SFORZA ADDED THAT ITALIAN FRONTIERS WOULD REMAIN GUARANTEED BY THE ATLANTIC PACT, THAT THE TRIPARTITE DECLARATION OF 1948 CALLING FOR TRIESTE'S RETURN TO ITALY SHOULD BE REAFFIRMED IF NECESSARY, WITH THE REITERATION OF THE DESIRE FOR A DIRECT ACCORD BETWEEN ITALY AND YUGOSLAVIA.
FURTHER, HE SAID, THE MILITARY CLAUSES OF THE TREATY SHOULD BE ANNULLED AND ECONOMIC CONDITIONS OF THE "VICTOR ON THE VANGUISHED" DONE AWAY WITH. FINALLY, HE SAID, FRIENDLY NATIONS SHOULD ACT TO FULFILL THE PROMISE IN THE PEACE TREATY THAT ITALY BECOME A MEMBER OF THE UNITED NATIONS. (ADVANCE FOR USE AT 5 P.M., EASTERN STANDARD TIME SUNDAY, MAY 20--NOTE DATE)
BY MICHAEL GOLDSMITH
(ADVANCE)...GENEVA, MAY 20-(AP)-THE UNITED NATIONS ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR EUROPE WARNED TODAY AGAINST A "MENACING PROBLEM" OF CONTINUING SPIRALS OF WORLDWIDE INFLATION.
THE COMMISSION'S ANNUAL SURVEY SAID:
"THE INFLATIONARY SITUATION HAS ALREADY DEVELOPED TO SUCH AN EXTENT, THAT COUNTER-MEASURES TAKEN NOW ARE LIKELY TO PROVE TOO LATE. GOVERNMENTS ARE RESTRICTING CIVILIAN CONSUMPTION OF SCARCE MATERIALS, BUT IT IS UNLIKELY THAT THESE RESTRICTIONS WILL YIELD ANY SUBSTANTIAL DECLINE IN THE GENERAL LEVEL OF PRIMARY PRICES.
"FURTHER INFLATION SEEMS INEVITABLE, EVEN IF RAW MATERIAL PRICES DO NOT RISE ABOVE THEIR CURRENT LEVELS."
THE COMMISSION'S EXPERTS DECLARED THAT RENEWED ECONOMIC EXPANSION IN THE UNITED STATES AND ACCELERATION OF AMERICAN STOCKPILING WERE THE MAIN CAUSE OF A "SPECTACULAR RISE IN WORLD PRODUCTION AND TRADE IN 1950" AND OF THE VIRTUAL DISAPPEARANCE OF THE WORLD DOLLAR SHORTAGE.
BUT THE CHANGE IN THE AMERICAN ECONOMIC CLIMATE, THE SURVEY ADDED, HAD NOW REACHED A POINT WHERE IT GAVE RISE TO "NEW ECONOMIC MALADJUSTMENTS AND TENSIONS NO LESS SERIOUS THAN THOSE WHICH WERE BEING OVERCOME."
PRICE INCREASES IN THE UNITED STATES DURING THE FIRST NINE MONTHS OF 1950 WERE MAINLY THE RESULT OF "THE PRESSURE OF HIGH EMPLOYMENT AND OF SPECULATIVE BUYING AND INVENTORY ACCUMULATION BY TRADERS AND BUSINESS, FOLLOWING EVENTS IN KOREA, RATHER THAN OF INCREASED MILITARY EXPENDITURE ITSELF, WHICH DID NOT BECOME A SIGNIFICANT FACTOR UNTIL THE LAST QUARTER OF THE YEAR," THE COMMISSION ASSERTED.
MEANWHILE, HOWEVER, THE SLIGHT 1949 RECESSION IN THE UNITED STATES HAD DISCOURAGED RAW MATERIAL PRODUCING COUNTRIES FROM DEVELOPING THEIR PRODUCTION TO A POINT WHICH WOULD HAVE BEEN NECESSARY TO

30.24- 23217

SUSTAIN THE "INFLATIONARY BOOM" OF 1950.

BY THE END OF 1950, "THE RATE OF WHICH (RAW) MATERIALS WERE BEING SUPPLIED TO THE PRODUCTION PROCESS LAGGED FAR BEHIND THE RATE AT WHICH FINISHED PRODUCTS WERE LEAVING IT." MOST OF THE MAJOR RAW MATERIALS THUS DEVELOPED CRITICAL SHORTAGES WHICH WERE ENHANCED BY STRATEGIC AND SPECULATIVE STOCKPILING AND LED TO "SPECTACULAR PRICE INCREASES" THROUGH THE WORLD.

THE SURVEY SHOWED THAT THE BALANCE OF PAYMENTS OF THE FOOD AND RAW MATERIAL PRODUCING COUNTRIES OF THE EASTERN HEMISPHERE AND LATIN AMERICA CHANGED DRAMATICALLY FROM A $1,400,000,000 DEFICIT IN 1949 TO A $1,800,000,000 SURPLUS IN 1950, AND THE COMMISSION'S EXPERTS FORESAW AN EVEN GREATER SURPLUS YET TO COME.

"IT SEEMS SAFE TO ASSUME," THE SURVEY DECLARED, "THAT, ON THE BASIS OF PRESENT PROSPECTS, THERE WILL BE AN INCREASE OF SEVERAL BILLION DOLLARS IN THE FOREIGN EXCHANGE RECEIPTS EFFECTIVELY AT THE DISPOSAL OF THE PRIMARY PRODUCING COUNTRIES. SUCH AN INCREASE IN RECEIPTS WOULD REPRESENT A SIGNIFICANT SHIFT IN THE DISTRIBUTION OF WORLD INCOME."

THE SURVEY PREDICTED THAT RENEWED AND CONTINUING "OPEN INFLATION" WOULD THUS DEVELOP IN ASIA, AFRICA AND LATIN AMERICA. A RESULTING HIGHER DEMAND FOR FOOD IN THESE AREAS WOULD START A UNIVERSAL VICIOUS CIRCLE OF INFLATION WITH EVEN SCARCER EXPORT SUPPLIES DEMANDING STILL HIGHER PRICES FROM IMPORTING COUNTRIES.

"HOWEVER MUCH WORLD PRODUCTION OF RAW MATERIALS IS INCREASED," THE SURVEY SAID, "THE INCREASES ARE LIKELY TO COME TOO LATE TO AFFECT APPRECIABLY THE SUPPLIES AVAILABLE FOR EUROPEAN INDUSTRY IN 1951, UNLESS INDIRECTLY THROUGH CHANGING SPECULATIVE ATTITUDES."

AT THE SAME TIME, THE REARMAMENT REQUIREMENTS OF THE IMPORTING COUNTRIES WOULD HINDER EXPORTS OF INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTS TO THE UNDER-DEVELOPED COUNTRIES.

"THE DANGER IN THE PRESENT SITUATION," THE SURVEY DECLARED, "IS THAT THE SUDDEN RAISE IN THE INCOMES OF PRIMARY PRODUCERS BROUGHT ABOUT BY THE INCREASE IN RAW MATERIAL PRICES WILL BE DISSIPATED IN LOCAL PROFIT INFLATION, WHILE PRODUCTIVITY REMAINS STAGNANT."

THE SURVEY ESTIMATED THAT, EVEN IF THE UNITED STATES ADMINISTRATION'S PROPOSED $10,000,000,000 TAX INCREASES WERE "FULLY AND SPEEDILY ADOPTED," THERE WOULD STILL REMAIN A "POTENTIAL INFLATIONARY EXCESS OF MONEY DEMAND IN 1951 AMOUNTING X X X TO ABOUT $13,000,000,000, WHICH WOULD TEND TO BE EXPRESSED IN FURTHER PRICE INCREASES OR TO BE TRANSMITTED TO OTHER COUNTRIES THROUGH CHANGES IN THE BALANCE OF PAYMENTS."

THE EXPERTS PREDICTED THAT UNITED STATES IMPORTS WOULD CONTINUE TO INCREASE, WHILE EXPORTS, RESPONDING TO DOMESTIC DEMAND, WOULD SHARPLY DECLINE, LEADING TO A "SIZEABLE DEFICIT" IN THE AMERICAN BALANCE OF PAYMENTS FOR THE FIRST TIME IN 15 YEARS. THE SURVEY SHOWED THAT THE U.S. TRADING SURPLUS, ADJUSTED TO EXCLUDE SHIPMENTS UNDER THE MILITARY DEFENSE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM, DROPPED BY MORE THAN 99 PER CENT FROM $3,532,000,000 IN THE FIRST HALF OF 1949 TO $31,000,000 IN THE SECOND HALF OF 1950.

IN THEIR FIRST COMMENT ON THE EFFECTS OF THE DEVALUATION OF STERLING IN SEPTEMBER 1949, THE COMMISSION'S EXPERTS DECLARED THAT A "SIGNIFICANTLY SMALLER DEGREE OF DEVALUATION" MIGHT HAVE MADE A SUBSTANTIALLY GREATER CONTRIBUTION TO THE IMPROVEMENT OF THE BRITISH BALANCE OF PAYMENTS.

THE 16 PER CENT EXPANSION IN BRITISH EXPORTS IN 1950 WAS "NOT MUCH MORE THAN THAT WHICH CAN BE ATTRIBUTED TO THE GENERAL RISE IN INTERNATIONAL TRADE," THE SURVEY DECLARED.

"ALTHOUGH DEVALUATION APPARENTLY SERVED TO INCREASE THE PERCENTAGE SHARE OF THE UNITED KINGDOM IN WORLD MARKETS, THE AVERAGE GAIN WAS SMALL COMPARED WITH THE INCREASE ACHIEVED BY OTHER SMALLER EXPORTERS.

"XXX THE RETURNS ATTRIBUTABLE TO DEVALUATION ARE THUS NOT VERY GREAT IN THE CASE OF THE UNITED KINGDOM XXX (WHERE) THE PULL OF THE HOME MARKET SEEMS TO HAVE BEEN TOO STRONG TO PERMIT BRITISH EXPORTS TO RESPOND FULLY TO THE INCREASED DEMAND FOR EXPORTS.

"XXX IT IS DOUBTFUL WHETHER THE CURRENT ACCOUNT POSITION OF THE UNITED KINGDOM ITSELF WAS SUBSTANTIALLY IMPROVED BY DEVALUATION."

BERLIN, MAY 20-(AP)-U.S.OCCUPATION OFFICIALS SAID TODAY SEVERAL MEASURES HAVE BEEN TAKEN TO PREVENT A COMMUNIST CHINESE PURCHASING COMMISSION NOW IN EAST BERLIN FROM BUYING STRATEGIC GOODS PRODUCED IN WEST GERMANY.

HOWARD P. JONES, DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF THE U.S. HIGH COMMISSION OFFICE FOR BERLIN, SAID THE MISSION HAS BEEN IN THE FOUR-POWER CITY'S RUSSIAN SECTOR FOR SOME TIME.

JONES SAID HE UNDERSTOOD THE CHINESE WERE NEGOTIATING FOR VITAL MATERIALS WITH EAST BERLIN AND SOVIET ZONE FIRMS. HE ADDED THAT HE HAD NO INFORMATION ON THE VOLUME OF BUSINESS SO FAR.

SEN. O'CONOR (D-MD) SAID IN A STATEMENT YESTERDAY THE MISSION WAS IN THE SOVIET SECTOR TO BUY STRATEGIC SUPPLIES FROM WEST GERMANY. O'CONOR IS CHAIRMAN OF A SUBCOMMITTEE ON EXPORT CONTROLS WHICH GATHERS DATA ON THE SHIPMENT OF STRATEGIC SUPPLIES TO RED CHINA, RUSSIA, AND THE EUROPEAN COMMUNIST NATIONS. HE DECLARED MANY WEST GERMAN INDUSTRIALISTS ARE ATTENDING BUSINESS CONFERENCES WITH THE CHINESE MISSION IN EAST BERLIN.

JONES SAID HE HAD NO KNOWLEDGE OF THIS. IT IS NO SECRET, OWEVER, THAT WEST BERLIN HAS LONG SERVED AS A SMUGGLING HUB IN ILLEGAL EAST-WEST TRADE, AND APPARENTLY THE CHINESE ARE TRYING TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS.

JONES SAID U.S. COUNTER-MEASURES ARE AIMED AT PREVENTING THE PURCHASING MISSION FROM MAKING SECRET DEALS FOR WEST GERMAN GOODS THROUGH WEST BERLIN MIDDLEMEN.

"WE THINK THOSE MEASURES WILL BE FAIRLY EFFECTIVE," HE ADDED.

THESE, HE SAID, INCLUDE:

1. ROVING MILITARY POLICE PATROLS ALONG THE SECTOR BORDER.
2. STRICTER REQUIREMENTS FOR DOCUMENTATION OF ALL GOODS MOVING EAST.

3. RECENT TRANSFER OF AN M.P. CUSTOMS UNIT TO BOLSTER THE ANTI-SMUGGLING FORCES IN WEST BERLIN.
4. CLOSER INSPECTION OF TRUCKS AND GOODS ALONG THE ALLIED CHECKPOINTS.

JONES DECLARED FRENCH, BRITISH, AND WEST BERLIN CITY AUTHORITIES ARE COOPERATING FULLY IN THE EFFORT TO PLUG THE ILLEGAL PIPELINES.

COBURG, GERMANY, MAY 20-(AP)-FOUR THOUSAND GERMANS FROM THE RUSSIAN OCCUPATION ZONE BROKE THROUGH COMMUNIST POLICE LINES AND FRONTIER BARRICADES TODAY TO "INVADE" ALLIED-OCCUPIED WEST GERMANY AND ENJOY A SPREE IN BAVARIAN RESTAURANTS AND BEER HALLS.

FOR MANY, ACCUSTOMED TO THE WATERED BEER OF EAST GERMANY, THE BAVARIAN BREW APPEARED TOO POTENT AND THEY HAD TROUBLE STAGGERING HOME.

THE BREAKTHROUGH OCCURRED AT HOENBACH NEAR SONNEBERG, IN THE SOVIET ZONE STATE OF THURINGIA. BIG CROWDS HAD GATHERED THERE FOR A MUSIC FESTIVAL AND RUMORS SPREAD THAT THE RUSSIANS WOULD OPEN THE FRONTIERS TO THE WEST FOR THE HOLIDAY--AS THEY ONCE DID IN 1949.

WHEN THESE REPORTS PROVED FALSE, THE FAST GERMANS TOOK MATTERS IN THEIR OWN HANDS AND BROKE THROUGH CORDONS OF COMMUNIST "PEOPLE'S POLICE" AT THE FRONTIER AND STREAMED INTO AMERICAN-OCCUPIED BAVARIA AT WILDENHEID AND NEUSTADT, NEAR HERE.

THE FOOD-RATIONED EAST GERMANS RUSHED FOR THE RESTAURANTS AND PUBS AND LOADED UP--EVEN THOUGH THEY HAD TO TRADE FIVE OF THEIR EAST MARKS AGAINST ONE WEST MARK. (NOMINALLY THE TWO CURRENCIES ARE AT PARITY).

TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 20-(AP)-IRAN DEMANDED TODAY THAT THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY NAME REPRESENTATIVES TO ASSIST THE GOVERNMENT IN TAKING OVER THE BRITISH-OWNED ENTERPRISE.

AT THE SAME TIME THE GOVERNMENT FORMALLY REJECTED THE COMPANY'S BID FOR ARBITRATION OF THE OIL NATIONALIZATION DISPUTE.

THESE LATEST MOVES WERE MADE IN A LETTER BY FINANCE MINISTER MOHAMMED ALI VARASTEH ADDRESSED TO N.R.SEDDON, TEHRAN REPRESENTATIVE OF THE "FORMER ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY."

THE LETTER GAVE NO HINT OF ANY INTENTION TO COMPROMISE. BUT AT THE SAME TIME IT WAS THE FIRST OUTRIGHT PROPOSAL FROM IRAN TO SIT DOWN WITH THE BRITISH AND DISCUSS BRASS TACKS DETAILS OF HOW THE GOVERNMENT PROPOSES TO PROCEED UNDER ITS NATIONALIZATION LAW.

SO FAR THERE HAS BEEN NO INKLING AS TO WHETHER IRAN INTENDS TO PROCEED WITH HER OWN TECHNICAL RESOURCES TO OPERATE THE VAST $500,000,000 TO $1,000,000,000 ENTERPRISE, OR WILL CONCEDE SOME MEASURE OF BRITISH PARTNERSHIP IN THE UNDERTAKING.

ON MAY 8 THE COMPANY FORMALLY PROPOSED THAT IRAN NAME A REPRESENTATIVE TO ARBITRATE THE DISPUTE, A PROCEDURE OUTLINED IN THE 60-YEAR CONTRACT OF 1933 BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT AND THE COMPANY.

ONLY YESTERDAY THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT, WHICH OWNS MORE THAN HALF THE SHARES, WARNED IRAN THAT FAILURE TO NEGOTIATE THE DISPUTE WOULD BRING THE "MOST SERIOUS CONSEQUENCES" AND CALLED ATTENTION TO A PROVISION IN THE CONTRACT FOR DISPUTES TO BE SETTLED BY THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE.

"THE OIL INDUSTRY HAS BEEN NATIONALIZED THROUGHOUT IRAN AND THE IRAN GOVERNMENT IS BOUND TO UNDERTAKE TO EXPLORE, EXPLOIT, REFINE AND PROFIT FROM ITS OIL RESOURCES," SAID THE FINANCE MINISTER'S LETTER.

"THE NATIONALIZATION OF INDUSTRIES IS BASED ON THE RIGHT OF THE SOVEREIGNTY OF NATIONS, SUCH AS EXERCISED BY OTHER GOVERNMENTS INCLUDING THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT ITSELF AND THE MEXICAN GOVERNMENT IN DIFFERENT INSTANCES," HE ADDED. "PRIVATE AGREEMENTS CANNOT OBSTRUCT THE ENFORCEMENT OF THIS RIGHT."

"ENFORCEMENT OF THE RIGHT OF SOVEREIGNTY OF THE IRANIAN PEOPLE," HE CONTINUED, "IS NOT SUBJECT TO ARBITRATION AND NO INTERNATIONAL AUTHORITY IS QUALIFIED TO INVESTIGATE THIS MATTER."

IRAN, HE CONCLUDED, WAS READY TO "INVESTIGATE THE LEGAL RIGHTS" OF THE COMPANY AND THEREFORE INVITED ANGLO-IRANIAN TO NAME REPRESENTATIVES TO CARRY OUT THE LAW.

THE TIME AND PLACE OF THE MEETING, HE SAID, WOULD BE ANNOUNCED LATER. IRAN HAS NAMED AN 11-MAN COMMITTEE, FIVE FROM EACH HOUSE OF PARLIAMENT AND THE FINANCE MINISTER, TO WORK OUT DETAILS OF NATIONALIZATION.

"HE WANTED GENERAL EISENHOWER TO KNOW THAT HIS--GENERAL MACARTHUR'S-- PROGRAM OF STRATEGY IN THE FAR EAST MUST NOT BE CONFUSED AS MEANING THE NEGLECT OF SUPPORT FOR IKE IN EUROPE."

FATHER WALSH SAID THIS COUNTRY'S STAND IN KOREA WAS "A TURNING POINT IN THE GROWTH TO FULL STATURE OF AMERICAN LEADERSHIP."

COMMUNIST LEADERS, HE SAID, "HAD THOUGHT THAT THE UNITED STATES HAD GONE SOFT AND SO THEY TOOK THE GAMBLE, BUT THEY FOUND THAT AMERICA HAD NOT LOST ITS SOUL."

THE PRIEST AND THE MINISTER TOOK PART IN A BROADCAST (MBS, 8:30 P.M., EST) FOR THE COMMITTEE ON THE PRESENT DANGER (CAPS). THE COMMITTEE IS HEADED BY JAMES B.CONANT, PRESIDENT OF HARVARD UNIVERSITY. IT'S AIM IS ROUSING PUBLIC SENTIMENT IN THE INTEREST OF NATIONAL DEFENSE.

MAY 21 1951

DR.POLING SAID AMERICA HAS BECOME "THE SPIRITUAL GIBRALTAR OF MANKIND," AND HE ADDED: "NEVER AGAIN CAN THERE BE A PHYSICAL GIBRALTAR ON THIS EARTH. NEVER AGAIN CAN EVEN 'FORTRESS AMERICA' BE SUFFICIENT UNTO HERSELF ALONE."

FATHER WALSH AGREED, AND SAID THE CHALLENGE OF COMMUNISN IS "A CHALLENGE TO OUR BASIC AND FUNDAMENTAL FAITH, THE FAITH OF ALL MEN WHO BELIEVE IN THE SONSHIP OF ALL OF US UNDER THE FATHERHOOD OF GOD."

HE ADDED:

"IT IS NOT MERELY A MILITARY THREAT THAT HANGS OVER OUR CULTURE AND OUR CIVILIZATION, NOT A PURELY POLITICAL THREAT, NOR JUST AN ECONOMIC CONCENTRATION AGAINST US, BUT IT IS A DEEPLY HUMAN MENACE THAT AFFECTS ALL MEN.

"THIS IS NOT ONE OF THE OLD, CONVENTIONAL CONFLICTS X X X IT IS A MENACE WHICH CANNOT BE MET BY ARMAMENT ALONE--ALTHOUGH ARMAMENT IS NECESSARY-- BUT WHICH ALSO MUST BE MET BY THE SWORD OF THE SPIRIT."

DR.POLING REPORTED THAT DURING HIS TRIP IN EUROPE HE FOUND A CRAVING FOR SOLIDARITY AND UNITY.

HE CITED EUROPE'S SUFFERING AND DEVASTATION FROM TWO WORLD WARS AND SAID "WE HAVE NO CONCEPTION HERE AT ALL, FATHER WALSH, OF THE HEART OF EUROPE AT THIS TIME." HE ADDED THAT GENERAL EISENHOWER'S ARRIVAL LIFTED EUROPEAN MORALE.

DR.POLING SAID THE UNITED STATES' PROMPT REACTION TO DEFEND SOUTH KOREA AGAINST COMMUNIST AGGRESSION "SAVED THE VERY LIFE AND SOUL OF THE UNITED NATIONS."

DR.POLING'S SON, A CHAPLAIN, WAS KILLED IN THE SINKING OF THE TRANSPORT DORCHESTER DURING WORLD WAR II. SPEAKING OF THAT INCIDENT, FATHER WALSH SAID:

"HE WENT DOWN ARM IN ARM WITH ANOTHER PROTESTANT CHAPLAIN, WITH A JEWISH CHAPLAIN AND WITH A CATHOLIC CHAPLAIN. THESE MEN WENT DOWN IN TESTIMONY TO A COMMON FAITH--A FAITH THAT WILL PREVAIL EVEN THOUGH THE POWERS OF DARKNESS AND SUPERIOR ARMAMENT BE LEVELED AGAINST US."

DR.POLING: "YES X X X THIS IS THE FAITH WE NEED."

(ADVANCE)...WASHINGTON, MAY 20-(AP)-THE VETERANS ADMINISTRATION (VA) SPELLED OUT TODAY THE NEWLY-ENACTED BENEFITS AVAILABLE TO VETERANS WHO ENTERED SERVICE AFTER THE OUTBREAK OF THE KOREAN WAR.

CONGRESS SWIFTLY PASSED A LAW EXTENDING CERTAIN BENEFITS AFTER THE TUCSON, ARIZ., VETERANS HOSPITAL TURNED AWAY A VETERAN OF THE KOREAN FIGHTING BECAUSE HE WAS NOT LEGALLY A "WAR VETERAN." PRESIDENT TRUMAN SIGNED THE MEASURE MAY 11.

UNDER THE NEW LAW, PERSONS WHO SERVED ON OR AFTER JUNE 27, 1950, MAY RECEIVE MEDICAL, HOSPITAL AND DOMICILIARY CARE AND BURIAL BENEFITS ON THE SAME BASIS AS VETERANS OF WORLD WAR II.

SUCH PERSONS AND THEIR DEPENDENTS ALSO ARE MADE ELIGIBLE FOR COMPENSATION AND PENSION UNDER THE SAME CONDITIONS AS THOSE WHO SERVED IN WORLD WAR II.

VA-ADMINISTERED BENEFITS NOW AVAILABLE TO VETERANS WHO ENTERED SERVICE ON OR AFTER LAST JUNE 27:

1. HOSPITAL CARE FOR A NONSERVICE-CONNECTED DISABILITY, IF THE VETERAN SWEARS HE IS UNABLE TO GET IT AT HIS OWN EXPENSE AND IF A VA BED IS AVAILABLE. IN THE PAST, KOREAN VETERANS WHO LACKED WORLD WAR SERVICE WERE ELIGIBLE FOR HOSPITALIZATION FOR NONSERVICE-CONNECTED DISABILITY ONLY IF THEY WERE RECEIVING COMPENSATION FOR A SERVICE-CONNECTED DISABILITY OR IF THEY HAD BEEN DISCHARGED FROM SERVICE BECAUSE OF A SERVICE-INCURRED DISABILITY.

2. CARE IN VA DOMICILIARY HOMES FOR VETERANS WITH PERMANENT DISABILITIES WHO ARE UNABLE TO EARN A LIVING OR TO PAY FOR THEIR OWN CARE. PREVIOUSLY THIS WAS AVAILABLE TO A VETERAN WITH NO WARTIME SERVICE ONLY IF HE WAS DISCHARGED FOR DUTY INCURRED DISABILITY OR RECEIVED COMPENSATION FOR A SERVICE-CONNECTED DISABILITY.

3. PROSTHETIC APPLIANCES, SUCH AS ARTIFICIAL LIMBS AND EYES, BRACES, WHEELCHAIRS AND HEARING AIDS, FOR A SERVICE-CONNECTED CONDITION.

4. DISABILITY COMPENSATION AT FULL WARTIME RATES FOR ALL VETERANS WITH SERVICE-CONNECTED DISABILITIES, PEACETIME RATES ARE 80 PER CENT OF THE WARTIME RATES.

5. PENSIONS FOR VETE

80 PER CENT OF THE WARTIME RATES.

6. PENSIONS FOR VETERANS PERMANENTLY AND TOTALLY DISABLED FOR REASONS NOT TRACEABLE TO MILITARY SERVICE. PREVIOUSLY, PENSIONS WERE LIMITED TO VETERANS WITH WAR SERVICE.

6. DEATH COMPENSATION, AT WARTIME RATES, TO UNREMARRIED WIDOWS, UNMARRIED CHILDREN AND DEPENDENT PARENTS OF VETERANS WHO DIED OF DISEASE OR INJURY INCURRED IN LINE OF DUTY ON OR AFTER JUNE 27, 1950.

7. DEATH PENSIONS FOR ELIGIBLE DEPENDENTS OF VETERANS WHO DIED OF NONSERVICE-CONNECTED AILMENTS BUT HAD SERVICE-CONNECTED DISABILITIES.

8. REIMBURSEMENT UP TO $150 FOR BURIAL EXPENSES.

EARLIER CHANGES IN LAWS EXTENDED TO KOREAN WAR VETERANS SUCH WORLD WAR II VETERANS BENEFITS AS VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION TRAINING FOR THE DISABLED, FREE $10,000 INDEMNITY AND INSURANCE, NATIONAL SERVICE LIFE INSURANCE, WHEELCHAIR HOUSING AND AID FOR THE BLINDED.

RUSSIAN (1,070)

(ADVANCE)-WASHINGTON,MAY 20-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES TONIGHT ACCUSED RUSSIA OF "CONNIVING AT AGGRESSION" BY SEEKING A JAPANESE PEACE TREATY WHICH WOULD DENY JAPAN THE RIGHT OF COLLECTIVE SELF-DEFENSE.

A RUSSIAN TREATY-MAKING PLAN, WHICH THIS COUNTRY REJECTED IN A NOTE PUBLISHED TONIGHT, WOULD BAR FOREIGN FORCES FROM JAPAN AFTER THE OCCUPATION ENDS AND THEREBY BLOCK AN ARRANGEMENT FOR AMERICAN TROOPS TO HELP PROVIDE JAPANESE SECURITY.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT MADE PUBLIC THE 3500-WORD NOTE, WHICH WAS DELIVERED TO SOVIET AMBASSADOR ALEXANDER S.PANYUSHKIN YESTERDAY.

WHILE REJECTING THE RUSSIAN PROGRAM THAT CALLED FOR A PACIFIC BIG-FOUR MEETING, INCLUDING RED CHINA, TO DRAFT A TREATY, THE NOTE URGED THE RUSSIANS TO JOIN IN COMPLETING AN AMERICAN-SPONSORED TREATY NOW NEARING CONCLUSION.

THE RUSSIANS HAD PROPOSED IN THEIR PLAN THAT JAPAN SHOULD BE PERMITTED LIMITED MILITARY FORCES FOR ITS OWN SELF-DEFENSE. IN ATTACKING THIS POINT THE UNITED STATES COUPLED IT WITH THE NO-FOREIGN-TROOPS PROVISION AND BORROWED A PHRASE FROM A 12-YEAR-OLD SPEECH OF GENERALISSIMO STALIN TO MAKE THE CHARGE OF "CONNIVING AT AGGRESSION."

WHAT THE SOVIET UNION WANTS, THE UNITED STATES SAID, IS THAT JAPAN BE MADE DEPENDENT UPON ITS OWN ARMED FORCES FOR DEFENSE. STALIN, THE NOTE CONTINUED, ARGUED IN MARCH, 1939, THAT "ADEQUATE DEFENSE AGAINST AGGRESSION REQUIRES COLLECTIVE SECURITY" WHILE THE POLICY OF LETTING "EACH COUNTRY DEFEND ITSELF FROM AGGRESSORS" MEANS "CONNIVING AT AGGRESSION."

"THE PRESENT SUGGESTIONS OF THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT THAT JAPAN SHALL HAVE ARMED FORCES AS REQUIRED FOR ITS SELF-DEFENSE COUPLED WITH THE FURTHER SOVIET PROPOSAL THAT THERE CAN BE NO OTHER TROOPS IN JAPAN," THE UNITED STATES SAID, "SEEMS A REVERSION TO THE PRINCIPLE OF LET JAPAN DEFENSE ITSELF AND CONSEQUENTLY, AS GENERALISSIMO STALIN SAID, A 'CONNIVING AT AGGRESSION.'"

THE RUSSIAN NOTE, DELIVERED TO AMERICAN AMBASSADOR ALAN KIRK IN MOSCOW ON MAY 7, ASKED FOR A MEETING OF THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, RUSSIA AND CHINA (MEANING COMMUNIST CHINA) IN JUNE OR JULY TO BRING ABOUT THE "SPEEDY CONCLUSION OF A PEACE TREATY WITH JAPAN."

SUCH A PROCEDURE WOULD GIVE RUSSIA AND RED CHINA EACH A VETO OVER THE KIND OF TREATY THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND OTHER COUNTRIES WANT AND HAVE BEEN WORKING UP FOR SEVERAL MONTHS AGAINST RUSSIA'S OBJECTIONS IN TURNING IT DOWN THE UNITED STATES SAID IT WOULD NOT IN FACT RESULT IN THE "SPEEDY CONCLUSION" OF A TREATY.

A80WX

MAY 21 1951

THE AMERICAN NOTE WAS A MIXTURE OF BARBED THRUSTS AND VELVET-GLOVE POLITENESS.

ON THE ONE HAND IT SAID THE DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA OVER THE MAIN POINTS OF A JAPANESE PACT ARE NEITHER NUMEROU NOR INSOLUBLES AND IT URGED MOSCOW TO RESUME "INTENSIVE DIPLOMATIC DISCUSSIONS" OF A TREATY ON THE AMERICAN PLAN.

ON THE OTHER HAND IT ACCUSED THE RUSSIANS OF SETTING UP "ZONES OF INTEREST" IN MANCHURIA AND OF MISQUOTING THE CAIRO DECLARATION REGARDING JAPAN AND CHINA; IT REJECTED A SOVIET PROPOSAL FOR HAVING THE PEACE TREATY TURN FORMOSA OVER TO CHINA; AND IT SAID SHARPLY THAT IN NEGOTIATING THE TREATY "THE UNITED STATES DOES NOT SEEK GUIDANCE FROM A CONVICTED AGGRESSOR," MEANING COMMUNIST CHINA.

"WITH RESPECT TO THE AVOIDANCE OF ANY FUTURE OFFENSIVE MILITARY THREAT FROM JAPAN," THE UNITED STATES SAID, "THIS IS A MATTER OF PROFOUND CONCERN TO THE UNITED STATES, WHICH BORE THE BURDEN OF JAPAN'S WAR OF AGGRESSION FOR NEARLY FOUR YEARS, AS AGAINST SIX DAYS OF SOVIET UNION BELLIGERENCY."

RUSSIA HAD PROPOSED THAT JAPAN UNDER THE TREATY SHOULD BECOME A "PEACE-LOVING, INDEPENDENT, STATE," AND SHOULD HAVE GUARANTEES OF "DEMOCRATIC RIGHTS," LIMITED MILITARY FORCES, UNLIMITED DEVELOPMENT OF A PEACEFUL ECONOMY, AND NO LIMITATIONS ON TRADE.

IN ADDITION RUSSIA SUGGESTED THAT JAPAN SHOULD BE BARRED FROM ANY COALITION DIRECTED AGAINST THE WORLD WAR II VICTOR NATIONS, THAT THE OCCUPATION SHOULD END WITHIN A YEAR, THAT NO FOREIGN TROOPS BE PERMITTED IN JAPAN THEREAFTER AND THAT JAPAN BE ADMITTED TO THE UNITED NATIONS.

THE UNITED STATES REPLIED THAT MOST OF THESE PRINCIPALS WERE THE SAME AS THOSE INCORPORATED IN THE AMERICAN TREATY DRAFT AND CONCLUDED: "THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT'S ANALYSIS WOULD SEEM TO CONSTITUTE A GENUINE, IF UNINTENDED, TRIBUTE TO THE REGARD FOR BALANCED JUSTICE WITH WHICH THE DRAFT TREATY WAS PREPARED."

AS TO THE QUESTION OF FORMOSA, RUSSIA HAD SAID THAT THE WARTIME CAIRO DECLARATION PROVIDES THAT "THE ISLAND OF TAIWAN (FORMOSA) AND THE (NEARBY) PESCADORES ISLANDS SHOULD BE RETURNED TO CHINA."

THE UNITED STATES SAID THIS WAS MISQUOTED: THAT THE DECLARATION PROVIDED THAT "MANCHURIA, FORMOSA AND THE PESCADORES SHALL BE RESTORED TO THE REPUBLIC OF CHINA."

"IN VIEW OF THE KNOWN ACQUISITION BY THE U.S.S.R. OF ZONES OF INTEREST IN MANCHURIA," THE NOTE CONTINUED, "THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT IS PROMPTED TO INQUIRE AS TO THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE PRESENT AVOIDANCE BY THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT OF REFERENCE TO THE RESTORATION OF MANCHURIA.

"FURTHERMORE, IN VIEW OF THE FACT THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION HAS ITSELF POINTED OUT ON NUMEROUS OCCASIONS THAT THE 'REPUBLIC OF CHINA' (THE NATIONALIST REGIME ON FORMOSA) IS NOT IDENTICAL WITH WHAT THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT NOW REFERS TO AS THE 'CHINESE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC', THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES INQUIRES OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION WHETHER IT IN FACT NOW DESIRES THAT MANCHURIA, FORMOSA AND THE PESCADORES SHOULD BE RESTORED TO THE 'REPUBLIC OF CHINA.'"

MAY 21 1951

THE AMERICAN NOTE ALSO UPHELD THE RIGHT OF THE ALLIED POWERS, THROUGH THE PEACE TREATY, TO STRIP JAPAN OF SUCH ISLANDS AS THE RYUKYUS AND THE BONINS AND PLACE THEM IN A UNITED NATIONS TRUSTEESHIP UNDER AMERICAN ADMINISTRATION. IT SAID THIS IS IN ACCORD WITH THE WAR-END SURRENDER TERMS WHICH RUSSIA HELPED WRITE.

RUSSIA ALSO RAISED A QUESTION OF JAPAN'S DEMILITARIZATION. THE UNITED STATES SAID THIS HAD BEEN ACCOMPLISHED UNDER THE OCCUPATION IN JAPAN.

"OF THE BELLIGERENTS," THE NOTE CONTINUED, "ONLY THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT HAS FAILED TO COMPLY WITH THIS PROVISION (DEMILITARIZATION) AND, IN VIOLATION OF THE SURRENDER TERMS, WITHHOLDS FROM RETURN TO THEIR HOMES AND PEACEFUL LIVES APPROXIMATELY 200,000 JAPANESE SOLDIERS."

AS TO ENDING THE OCCUPATION, THE UNITED STATES SAID THE DRAFT TREATY IT HAS WORKED OUT IN CONSULTATION WITH OTHER PACIFIC POWERS WOULD END THE OCCUPATION AS SOON AS THE TREATY BECAME EFFECTIVE.

IF ANY ALLIED TROOPS ARE IN JAPAN AFTER THAT TIME, THE NOTE ADDED, "THEY WILL NOT BE THERE AS OCCUPATION TROOPS BUT PURSUANT TO SUCH COLLECTIVE SECURITY ARRANGEMENT AS JAPAN MAY MAKE VOLUNTARILY. SUCH ARRANGEMENT WOULD CARRY NO OFFENSIVE THREAT."

RUSSIA HAD CHARGED FURTHER THAT JAPAN IS NOW BEING [illegible] IN CONNECTION WITH THE "ARMED INTERVENTION IN KOREA," MEANING THE FE[illegible] OF THE

WITH THE ARMED INTERVENTION IN KOREA [illegible] THE UPON UNITED NATIONS TO DEFEAT THE COMMUNIST AGGRESSION.
THE UNITED STATES REPLIED TO THIS THAT "THE ASSISTANCE WHICH THE JAPANESE ARE IN FACT RENDERING X X X IS WITHIN THE DEMILITARIZATION LIMITS ESTABLISHED BY FAR EASTERN COMMISSION DECISIONS, IS NON-BELLIGERENT IN CHARACTER, AND IS IN ACCORD WITH THE CHARTER AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE UNITED NATIONS."
RUSSIA HAD ACCUSED THE UNITED STATES OF WANTING TO MAKE A SEPARATE PEACE TREATY; THAT IS, ONE WITHOUT RUSSIA, AND HAD ALSO ASSERTED THAT THERE HAD BEEN NO EXCHANGE OF VIEWS BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA ON THE AMERICAN DRAFT. THE UNITED STATES DENIED BOTH THESE ASSERTIONS.

(3,500) U.S.-RUSSIA TEXT
(ADVANCE)-WASHINGTON, MAY 20-(AP)-FOLLOWING IS THE TEXT OF THE REPLY OF THE UNITED STATES TO THE COMMENTS OF THE UNION OF SOVIET SOCIALIST REPUBLICS DATED MAY 7, 1951 ON THE DRAFT JAPANESE PEACE TREATY.
THE REPLY OF THE UNITED STATES WAS HANDED TO THE SOVIET AMBASSADOR IN WASHINGTON ON MAY 19, 1951.
THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES HAS CAREFULLY CONSIDERED THE REMARKS OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION OF MAY 7, 1951 RELATIVE TO THE DRAFT OF A JAPANESE PEACE TREATY WHICH THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES SUBMITTED ON MARCH 29, 1951. THESE REMARKS SHOW THE PERSISTENCE OF A MAJOR DIFFERENCE OF OPINION AS RE
GARDS PROCEDURE.
MAY 21 1951
HOWEVER, AS REGARDS SUBST

PERSISTENCE OF A MAJOR DIFFERENCE OF OPINION AS REGARDS PROCEDURE. HOWEVER, AS REGARDS SUBSTANCE, THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION RAISES OBJECTION ONLY TO THE PROPOSED TREATMENT OF (A) FORMOSA AND THE PESCADORES; (B) THE RYUKYU AND BONIN ISLANDS; (C) JAPAN'S FUTURE SECURITY; AND EVEN HERE THE DIFFERENCES ARE ONLY PARTIAL, NOT TOTAL. THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT'S ANALYSIS WOULD SEEM TO CONSTITUTE A GENUINE, IF UNINTENDED, TRIBUTE TO THE REGARD FOR BALANCED JUSTICE WITH WHICH THE DRAFT TREATY WAS PREPARED.
THE PARAGRAPHS OF THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT'S REMARKS NUMBERED I, DEAL WITH PROCEDURE.
THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT ASSERTS THAT UNDER THE POTSDAM AGREEMENT OF AUGUST 2, 1945, "THE DRAWING UP OF A PEACE TREATY WITH JAPAN HAS BEEN LAID UPON THE UNITED STATES, THE SOVIET UNION, CHINA AND GREAT BRITAIN," CONSTITUTING FOR THIS PURPOSE THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS.
THIS VIEW OF THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN PUT FORWARD ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS AND HAS AS OFTEN BEEN REJECTED BY THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES.
THE POTSDAM AGREEMENT OF AUGUST 2, 1945 CONTEMPLATES THAT THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS THEREBY ESTABLISHED WOULD, "AS ITS IMMEDIATE IMPORTANT TASK," DRAW UP "TREATIES OF PEACE WITH ITALY, RUMANIA, BULGARIA, HUNGARY AND FINLAND" AND PROPOSE "SETTLEMENTS OF TERRITORIAL QUESTIONS OUTSTANDING ON THE TERMINATION OF THE WAR IN EUROPE." IT IS THEN PROVIDED THAT THE COUNCIL "SHALL BE UTILIZED FOR THE PREPARATION OF A PEACE SETTLEMENT FOR GERMANY." IT IS FINALLY PROVIDED THAT "OTHER MATTERS MAY FROM TIME TO TIME BE REFERRED TO THE COUNCIL BY AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE MEMBER GOVERNMENTS."
THUS, THE POTSDAM AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION, THE UNITED KINGDOM AND THE UNITED STATES DID NOT MENTION THE JAPANESE PEACE TREATY. THIS WAS NATURAL, FOR THE WAR WITH JAPAN WAS THEN IN FULL VIGOR AND THE SOVIET UNION WAS THEN NEUTRAL IN THAT WAR.

B49WX
THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS CAN, OF COURSE, DEAL WITH "OTHER MATTERS" THAN THE EUROPEAN MATTERS SPECIFIED, BUT ONLY "BY AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE MEMBER GOVERNMENTS."
THE UNITED STATES HAS NOT AGREED AND DOES NOT AGREE TO THE REFERENCE TO THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS OF THE MATTER OF MAKING A JAPANESE PEACE TREATY. THE REASON, AMONG OTHERS, IS THAT THE SYSTEMATIC MIS-USE IN THE COUNCIL OF VETO POWER MILITATES AGAINST THE SPEEDY ACHIEVEMENT, THROUGH THE COUNCIL, OF AN EARLY PEACE TREATY. FURTHERMORE, THE PROCEDURES OF THE COUNCIL WOULD GIVE A SECONDARY ROLE TO ALLIED POWERS WHICH BORE A GREATER BURDEN OF THE PACIFIC WAR THAN DID THE SOVIET UNION.
THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION URGES THAT THE PEACE MAKING PROCEDURE SHOULD FULLY TAKE ACCOUNT OF THE INTERESTS OF CHINA IN A JAPANESE PEACE TREATY. THE PROCEDURE BEING PRESENTLY FOLLOWED DOES THAT. IT IS TRUE THAT THE UNITED STATES DOES NOT SEEK GUIDANCE FROM A CONVICTED AGGRESSOR, BUT THE REAL INTERESTS OF CHINA ARE FULLY REFLECTED IN THE PRESE

IS TRUE THAT THE UNITED STATES DOES NOT SEEK GUIDANCE FROM A CONVICTED AGGRESSOR, BUT THE REAL INTERESTS OF CHINA ARE FULLY REFLECTED IN THE PRESENT DRAFT TREATY. FOR EXAMPLE, BY ARTICLE II, "JAPAN RENOUNCES ALL SPECIAL RIGHTS AND INTERESTS IN CHINA" AND ARTICLE 19 MAKES THIS RENUNCIATION AUTOMATICALLY EFFECTIVE. IT IS NOTEWORTHY THAT THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT, WHICH IN PARTS II AND III OF ITS REMARKS, DEALS FULLY WITH SUBSTANTICE ISSUES, SUGGESTS NO MODIFICATION OR ADDITION IN FAVOR OF CHINA EXCEPT IN RELATION TO FORMOSA AND THE PESCADORES, AS TO WHICH IT IS SUGGESTED THAT JAPAN SHOULD DO MORE THAN LIQUIDATE ITS OWN TITLE. THIS LARGE MEASURE OF ACCEPTANCE BY THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION OF THE SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS DEALING WITH CHINA TESTIFIES TO THE SCRUPULOUS REGARD FOR CHINA'S INTERESTS WITH WHICH THE DRAFT TREATY WAS PREPARED.

II

THE PARAGRAPHS OF THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT'S REMARKS NUMBERED II DEAL WITH THE SUBSTANCE OF THE DRAFT TREATY.
(A) AS TO TERRITORIAL MATTERS, THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION SUGGESTS THAT THE DRAFT TREATY DOES NOT FAITHFULLY REFLECT THE SURRENDER TERMS BECAUSE IT DOES NOT PROVIDE THAT "THE ISLAND OF TAIWAN AND THE PESCADORES ISLANDS SHOULD BE RETURNED TO CHINA."
THE TERRITORIAL CLAUSE OF THE SURRENDER TERMS STIPULATED "THE TERMS OF THE CAIRO DECLARATION SHALL BE CARRIED OUT AND JAPANESE SOVEREIGNTY SHALL BE LIMITED TO THE ISLANDS OF HONSHU, HOKKAIDO, HYUSHU, SHIKOKU AND SUCH MINOR ISLANDS AS WE DETERMINE." THE DRAFT TREATY WOULD, IN FACT, LIMIT JAPANESE SOVEREIGNTY ACCORDINGLY.

B50WX
THE CAIRO DECLARATION PROVIDED THAT "MANCHURIA, FORMOSA, AND THE PESCADORES, SHALL BE RESTORED TO THE REPUBLIC OF CHINA."
THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES NOTES THAT THE REMARKS OF THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT FAIL TO QUOTE ACCURATELY THE CAIRO DECLARATION. THE WORD "MANCHURIA" IS DELETED AND "CHINA" IS SUBSTITUTED FOR "THE REPUBLIC OF CHINA."
IN VIEW OF THE KNOWN ACQUISITION BY THE U.S.S.R. OF ZONES OF INTEREST IN MANCHURIA, THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT IS PROMPTED TO INQUIRE AS TO THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE PRESENT AVOIDANCE BY THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT OF REFERENCE TO THE RESTORATION OF MANCHURIA.
FURTHERMORE, IN VIEW OF THE FACT THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION HAS ITSELF POINTED OUT ON NUMEROUS OCCASIONS THAT THE "REPUBLIC OF CHINA" IS NOT IDENTICAL WITH WHAT THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT NOW REFERS

30.24- 23223

OF CHINA IS NOT IDENTICAL WITH THAT THE
TO AS THE "CHINESE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC," THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES INQUIRES OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION WHETHER IT IN FACT NOW DESIRES THAT MANCHURIA, FORMOSA AND THE PESCADORES SHOULD BE RESTORED TO "THE REPUBLIC OF CHINA."

THE DRAFT TREATY PROCEEDS ON THE ASSUMPTION THAT JAPANESE SOVERENGNTY "SHALL BE LIMITED" TO EXCLUDE SOVEREIGNTY OVER FORMOSA AND THE PESCADORES, ACCORDING TO THE SURRENDER TERMS AND THAT IF THIS IS DONE BY JAPAN, JAPAN WILL HAVE DONE ALL THAT CAN BE REQUIRED OF HER AND THE JAPANESE PEOPLE OUGHT NOT TO BE DENIED A STATE OF PEACE BECAUSE OF A DIFFERENCE OF OPINION AMONG THE ALLIED POWERS AS TO THE SUBSEQUENT DISPOSITION OF FORMOSA AND THE PESCADORES.

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION CRITICIZES THE PROVISION THAT THE RYUKYU, BONIN AND CERTAIN OTHER ISLANDS MAY BE PLACED UNDER UNITED NATIONS TRUSTEESHIP WITH THE UNITED STATES AS ADMINISTERING AUTHORITY.

IT IS TRUE THAT THE SURRENDER TERMS, NEITHER BY THEMSELVES, NOR BY TH INCORPORATED REFERENCE TO THE CAIRO DECLARATION, MENTION BY NAME SOUTH SAKHALIN OR THE KURILE ISLANDS, NOW OCCUPIED BY THE SOVIET UNION, OR THE RYUKYU, BONIN ISLANDS OR OTHER ISLANDS MENTIONED IN THE REMARKS OF THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT. SINCE, HOWEVER, THE SURRENDER TERMS PROVIDED, AS INDICATED, THAT JAPANESE SOVEREIGNTY SHOULD BE LIMITED TO THE FOUR MAIN ISLANDS AND SUCH MINOR ISLANDS AS MAY BE DETERMINED, IT IS CONSONANT WITH THE SURRENDER TERMS FOR THE ALLIED POWERS BY TREATY OF PEACE WITH JAPAN TO DEAL WITH JAPANESE ISLANDS OTHER THAN THE FOUR MAIN ISLANDS MENTIONED.

B51WX

(B) AS TO DEMILITARIZATION, THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT COMPLAINS THAT THE PRESENT DRAFT DOES NOT GUARANTEE AGAINST THE RESTORATION OF JAPANESE MILITARISM AND DOES NOT LIMIT THE SIZE OF ARMED FORCES IN JAPAN. IT IS SAID THAT THIS CANNOT BE RECONCILED WITH "KNOWN AGREEMENTS OF THE POWERS CONCERNING DEMILITARIZATION OF JAPAN."

THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT DOES NOT ATTEMPT TO IDENTIFY THE SO-CALLED "KNOWN AGREEMENTS." IN FACT THERE ARE NONE, OUTSIDE OF UNDERSTANDINGS DEALING WITH THE OCCUPATION PERIOD.

OF THE AGREEMENTS MENTIONED BY THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT'S REMARKS, NEITHER CAIRO NOR YALTA TOUCH ON THE SUBJECT. THE POTSDAM SURRENDER TERMS PROVIDE THAT "UNTIL THERE IS CONVINCING PROOF THAT JAPAN'S WAR-MAKING POWER IS DESTROYED, POINTS IN JAPANESE TERRITORY TO BE DESIGNATED BY THE ALLIES SHALL BE OCCUPIED", AND THAT "THE JAPANESE MILITARY FORCES, AFTER BEING COMPLETELY DISARMED, SHALL BE PERMITTED TO RETURN TO THEIR HOMES WITH THE OPPORTUNITY TO LEAD PEACEFUL AND PRODUCTIVE LIVES."

THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT IS SATISFIED THAT "JAPAN'S WAR-MAKING POWER IS DESTROYED." APPARENTLY THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT SHARES THAT CONVICTION, SINCE IT SAYS THAT THE OCCUPATION OF JAPAN HAS "IMPERMISSIBLY DRAGGED ON." FURTHERMORE, THE UNITED STATES, SO FAR AS IT IS CONCERNED, HAS IN FACT COMPLETELY DISARMED THE JAPANESE MILITARY FORCES UNDER ITS CONTROL AND HAS ASSURED THAT THEY NOW LEAD PEACEFUL AND PRODUCTIVE LIVES. OF THE BELLIGERENTS, ONLY THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT HAS FAILED TO COMPLY WITH THIS PROVISION AND, IN VIOLATION OF THE SURRENDER TERMS, WITHHOLDS FROM RETURN TO THEIR HOMES AND PEACEFUL LIVES APPROXIMATELY 200,000 JAPANESE SOLDIERS. THE PEOPLE OF JAPAN, EAGERLY AWAIT THE RETURN TO PEACEFUL PURSUITS OF THESE THOUSANDS OF JAPANESE SOLDIERS, AS PROMISED BY THE SURRENDER TERMS.

WITH RESPECT TO THE AVOIDANCE OF ANY FUTURE OFFENSIVEMIXX

B52WX.

WITH RESPECT TO THE AVOIDANCE OF ANY FUTURE OFFENSIVE MILITARY THREAT FROM JAPAN, THIS IS A MATTER OF PROFOUND CONCERN TO THE UNITED STATES, WHICH BORE THE BURDEN OF JAPAN'S WAR OF AGGRESSION FOR NEARLY FOUR YEARS, AS AGAINST SIX DAYSOF SOVIET UNION BELLIGERENCY. IT IS THE BELIEF OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT THAT THE MOST EFFECTIVE MEANS TO THE DESIRED END IS TO MAKE THE FUTURE SECURITY OF THE JAPANESE AREA A MATTER OF COLLECTIVE INTERNATIONAL CONCERN, WHICH WOULD AS A PRACTICAL MATTER ASSURE THAT THE MEASURES WHICH THE JAPANESE MIGHT TAKE FOR THEIR OWN SECURITY, WOULD DEVELOP AS A COOPERATIVE RATHER THAN AS A PURELY NATIONAL PROJECT.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES INDICATED IN HIS STATEMENT OF APRIL 18, 1951, THAT THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT IS PREPARED NOW TO TAKE WHAT THE PRESIDENT REFERRED TO AS "NATURAL INITIAL STEPS IN THE CONSOLIDATION OF PEACE" IN THE PACIFIC OCEAN AREA AND, AS ONE OF SUCH STEPS, TO ENTER INTO A POST-TREATY SECURITY ARRANGEMENT WITH JAPAN. THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT CONTEMPLATES THAT THIS ARRANGEMENT WOULD ACCEPT THE PRINCIPLE THAT JAPAN SHOULD NOT POSSESS MILITARY FORCES WHICH COULD BECOME AN OFFENSIVE THREAT.

THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT IS NOT DISPOSED TO RELY UPON THE DEPENDABILITY OF TREATY LIMITATIONS ON ARMAMENT SUCH AS WERE IMPOSED UPON RUMANIA, BULGARIA AND HUNGARY BY THE TREATIES OF PEACE AND WHICH LIMITATIONS ALREADY ARE BEING GROSSLY EXCEEDED.

(C) AS TO ENDING THE OCCUPATION, THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT ALLEGES THAT THE PRESENT DRAFT DOES NOT ESTABLISH ANY PERIOD FOR THE WITHDRAWAL OF OCCUPATION TROOPS FROM JAPAN. ON THE CONTRARY, UNDER THE DRAFT TREATY, THE OCCUPATION WOULD CEASE UPON THE COMING INTO FORCE OF THE TREATY. IF, AFTER THE TREATY COMES INTO FORCE, ANY ALLIED TROOPS ARE IN JAPAN THEY WILL NOT BE THERE AS OCCUPATION TROOPS BUT PURSUANT TO SUCH COLLECTIVE SECURITY ARRANGEMENT AS JAPAN MAY MAKE VOLUNTARILY. SUCH ARRANGEMENT WOULD CARRY NO OFFENSIVE THREAT.

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION REFERS TO THE FACT THAT THE TERRITORY OF JAPAN AND ITS NATURAL AND HUMAN RESOURCES ARE EVEN NOW BEING UTILIZED IN CONNECTION WITH WHAT IS REFERRED TO AS "ARMED INTERVENTION IN KOREA" BY WHICH IS PRESUMABLY MEANT THE EFFORTS OF THE UNITED NATIONS TO REPEL ARMED AGGRESSION IN KOREA.

THE ASSISTANCE WHICH THE JAPANESE IN FACT ARE RENDERING TO THE UNITED NATIONS ACTION IN KOREA IS WITHIN THE DEMILITARIZATION LIMITS ESTABLISHED BY FAR EASTERN COMMISSION DECISIONS, IS NON-BELLIGERENT IN CHARACTER, AND IS IN ACCORD WITH THE CHARTER AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE UNITED NATIONS.

ACCORDING TO ARTICLE 2, PARAGRAPHS 5 AND 6, OF THE CHARTER EVEN "STATES WHICH ARE NOT MEMBERS OF THE UNITED NATIONS" ARE REQUIRED TO "GIVE THE UNITED NATIONS EVERY ASSISTANCE" SO FAR AS MAY BE NECESSARY FOR THE MAINTENANCE OF INTERNATIONAL PEACE AND SECURITY, AND GENERAL ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION NO. A/1771 ADOPTED FEBRUARY 1, 1951, CALLS UPON "ALL STATES AND AUTHORITIES TO CONTINUE TO LEND EVERY ASSISTANCE TO UNITED NATIONS ACTION IN KOREA.

(D) AS TO JAPAN'S PEACETIME ECONOMY, THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT ALLEGES THAT THE DRAFT TREATY "IGNORES THE NECESSITY OF REMOVING LIMITATIONS WITH RESPECT TO THE FREE DEVELOPMENT OF THE PEACEFUL ECONOMY OF JAPAN". IN REALITY, THE DRAFT TREATY, BY RESTORING TO JAPAN COMPLETE SOVEREIGNTY WITHOUT ANY LIMITATION UPON THE DEVELOPMENT OF ITS PEACEFUL ECONOMY

(1) THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION SUGGESTS, AS TO PROCEDURE, THE CALLING OF A SESSION OF THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS IN JUNE OR JULY OF 1951 TO BE COMPOSED OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES, CHINA, GREAT BRITAIN AND THE SOVIET UNION TO EMBARK UPON THE PREPARATION OF A PEACE TREATY WITH JAPAN. FOR THE REASONS EARLIER STATED, AND BECAUSE ALL EXPERIENCE SHOWS THAT THIS PROCEDURE WOULD NOT IN FACT ACHIEVE A "SPEEDY CONCLUSION OF A PEACE TREATY WITH JAPAN", THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT CAN NOT AGREE TO THIS PROCEDURAL PROPOSAL.

(2) THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT PROPOSES THAT IN DRAWING UP A JAPANESE PEACE TREATY THE POWERS CONCERNED SHOULD BE GOVERNED BY CERTAIN BASIC AIMS. WITH ONE QUALIFICATION, THESE BASIC AIMS ARE, IN FACT, REFLECTED IN THE PRESENT DRAFT TREATY, NAMELY:

A. "JAPAN SHOULD BECOME A PEACE-LOVING, DEMOCRATIC, INDEPENDENT STATE."

JAPAN ALREADY IS A PEACE-LOVING AND DEMOCRATIC STATE AND THE TREATY WOULD GIVE IT INDEPENDENCE.

B. "DEMOCRATIC RIGHTS SHOULD BE GUARANTEED" AND ORGANIZATIONS "TO DEPRIVE PEOPLE OF THEIR DEMOCRATIC RIGHTS ... SHOULD NOT BE ALLOWED."

THESE MATTERS ARE TAKEN CARE OF BY THE JAPANESE CONSTITUTION AND BY THE DECLARATION, CONTEMPLATED BY THE PRESENT DRAFT TREATY, THAT JAPAN WILL STRIVE TO REALIZE THE OBJECTIVES OF THE UNITED NATIONS UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND TO CREATE INTERNALLY CONDITIONS OF STABILITY AND WELL-BEING AS ENVISIONED BY ARTICLES 55 AND 56 OF THE CHARTER OF THE UNITED NATIONS AND ALREADY INITIATED BY POST-WAR JAPANESE LEGISLATION.

MAY 21 1951

... BURDENSOME CURRENT REPARATION LIABILITIES, WOULD ACCOMPLISH COMPLETELY THE RESULT WHICH THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION PROFESSES TO DESIRE.

THE PARAGRAPHS OF THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT'S REMARKS NUMBERED III CONTAIN CERTAIN PROPOSALS DESIGNED, IN THE WORDS OF THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT, TO BRING ABOUT THE "SPEEDY CONCLUSION OF A PEACE TREATY WITH JAPAN".

B55WX
C. "AS GUARANTEE AGAINST A REVIVAL OF JAPANESE MILITARISM, LIMITATION SHOULD BE ESTABLISHED IN THE TREATY ON THE SIZE OF JAPANESE ARMED FORCES IN ORDER THAT THEY MAY NOT EXCEED THE REQUIREMENT OF SELF-DEFENSE."

THE PROPOSAL OF THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT SEEMS TO ASSUME THAT JAPAN WILL HAVE TO DEPEND, FOR DEFENSE, SOLELY ON ITS OWN ARMED FORCES; AND THAT ITS REQUIREMENT, IN THIS RESPECT, CAN NOW BE MEASURED DEFINITELY, FOR ALL TIME. BUT THE CHARTER OF THE UNITED NATIONS RECOGNIZES THE INHERENT RIGHT OF COLLECTIVE, AS WELL AS INDIVIDUAL SELF-DEFENSE. GENERALISSIMO STALIN, IN HIS MEMORABLE ADDRESS OF MARCH 10, 1939, POINTED OUT "ADEQUATE DEFENSE AGAINST AGGRESSION REQUIRES COLLECTIVE SECURITY, THE POLICY OF COLLECTIVE RESISTANCE TO THE AGGRESSORS" AND, HE SAYS, THE POLICY OF "LET EACH COUNTRY DEFEND ITSELF FROM AGGRESSORS" MEANS "CONNIVING AT AGGRESSION".

THE PRESENT SUGGESTIONS OF THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT THAT JAPAN SHALL HAVE ARMED FORCES AS REQUIRED FOR ITS SELF-DEFENSE, COUPLED WITH THE FURTHER SOVIET PROPOSAL (4) THAT THERE CAN BE NO OTHER TROOPS IN JAPAN SEEMS A REVERSION TO THE PRINCIPLE OF "LET JAPAN DEFEND ITSELF" AND CONSEQUENTLY, AS GENERALISSIMO STALIN SAID, A "CONNIVING AT AGGRESSION".

FURTHERMORE, TO DEFINE "THE SIZE OF JAPANESE ARMED FORCES" NEEDED FOR "REQUIREMENTS OF SELF-DEFENSE" AS THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION NOW PROPOSES, WOULD NOT ONLY BE DIFFICULT, BUT MIGHT BE DANGEROUS. JAPANESE LAND, SEA AND AIR FORCES ADEQUATE FOR SELF-DEFENSE UNDER PRESENT TROUBLED CIRCUMSTANCES MIGHT ALSO, UNDER OTHER CIRCUMSTANCES, BE ADEQUATE FOR OFFENSE.

B56WX
IT IS THE HOPE AND EXPECTATION OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT THAT APPLICATION OF THE POLICY OF COLLECTIVE SECURITY ENVISAGED BY ARTICLE 7 OF THE DRAFT TREATY WILL PROVIDE JAPAN WITH EFFECTIVE SECURITY WITH MUCH LESS JAPANESE ARMAMENT THAN WOULD BE REQUIRED IF THE TREATY REFLECTED THE POLICY OF "LET EACH COUNTRY DEFEND ITSELF".

D. "NO LIMITATION IN THE MATTER OF DEVELOPMENT OF A PEACEFUL ECONOMY SHOULD BE LAID ON JAPAN."

THE PRESENT DRAFT CONTAINS NO SUCH LIMITATION.

E. "ALL LIMITATIONS WITH RESPECT TO TRADE OF JAPAN WITH OTHER STATES BE REMOVED."

THE PRESENT DRAFT IMPOSES NO LIMITATIONS ON THE RIGHT OF JAPAN TO TRADE WITH OTHERS.

(3) THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION SUGGESTS PROVIDING IN THE TREATY THAT "JAPAN WILL NOT ENTER ANY COALITION DIRECTED AGAINST ANY OF THE STATES TAKING PART WITH ITS ARMED FORCES IN WAR AGAINST MILITARISTIC JAPAN".

IT IS THE VIEW OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES THAT JAPAN SHOULD NOT ENTER INTO ANY COALITION DIRECTED AGAINST ANY STATE, WHETHER OR NOT IT WAS A BELLIGERENT IN THE WAR AGAINST JAPAN. THIS IS PROVIDED FOR BY ARTICLE 6 OF THE DRAFT TREATY WHEREBY JAPAN WOULD AGREE, IN ACCORDANCE WITH ARTICLE 2 OF THE CHARTER OF THE UNITED NATIONS, TO REFRAIN FROM THE THREAT OR USE OF FORCE AGAINST THE TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY OR POLITICAL INDEPENDENCE OF ANY STATE.

(4) THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION SUGGESTS THAT THE PEACE TREATY SHOULD PROVIDE THAT "ALL OCCUPATION FORCES WILL BE WITHDRAWN FROM JAPANESE TERRITORY IN THE COURSE OF NOT MORE THAN ONE YEAR AND NO FOREIGN STATE WILL HAVE TROOPS OR MILITARY BASES IN JAPAN."

IT IS CONTEMPLATED BY THE DRAFT TREATY THAT THE OCCUPATION WILL END IMMEDIATELY UPON THE COMING INTO FORCE OF THE TREATY OF PEACE. IT WILL NOT BE PROLONGED EVEN FOR ONE YEAR THEREAFTER.

MAY 21 1951

B57WX
WITH RESPECT TO THE PRESENCE IN JAPAN OF THE TROOPS OF ANY OTHER STATE THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT WOULD NOT BE WILLING TO DENY TO JAPAN WHAT THE CHARTER OF THE UNITED NATIONS REFERS TO AS THE "INHERENT RIGHT OF ... COLLECTIVE SELF-DEFENSE".

(5) THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION SUGGESTS THAT "THE STATES SIGNING THE PEACE TREATY WITH JAPAN WILL SUPPORT THE ENTRY OF JAPAN INTO THE UNITED NATIONS."

THE PRESENT DRAFT CONTEMPLATES THAT JAPAN WILL PROMPTLY APPLY FOR ADMISSION TO THE UNITED NATIONS AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES WELCOMES THE RECOGNITION BY THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION THAT JAPAN IS QUALIFIED FOR MEMBERSHIP.

IV

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES EARNESTLY URGES THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION SHOULD CONTINUE TO COOPERATE IN THE JAPANESE PEACE-MAKING ALREADY IN PROCESS AND NOW FAR ADVANCED THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT DOES NOT SEEK, AS IS ALLEGED, TO MAKE A "SEPARATE" PEACE TREATY WITH JAPAN. ON THE CONTRARY, IT SEEKS THE PARTICIPATION OF ALL CONCERNED.

THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT COMPLAINS BECAUSE THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT HAS TAKEN THE LEAD IN THE INITIAL STAGES OF FORMULATING PEACE TREATY TERMS. THAT COMPLAINT SEEMS NOT WELL TAKEN BY A STATE WHICH, IN THE HOUR OF VICTORY, JOINED IN RECOGNIZING THE UNIQUE POSITION OF THE UNITED STATES IN RELATION TO JAPAN AND IN PLACING UPON THE UNITED STATES THE SOLE RESPONSIBILITY FOR NAMING AND ISSUING DIRECTIVES TO THE SUPREME COMMANDER FOR THE ALLIED POWERS IN AN OCCUPATION WHICH WAS DESIGNED TO PREPARE JAPAN FOR A "NEW ORDER OF PEACE, SECURITY AND JUSTICE". THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT ACCEPTED THAT RESPONSIBILITY AND

HAS INVESTED IN THE OCCUPATION NOT ONLY LARGE RESOURCES AND MUCH EFFORT, BUT HOPES AND ASPIRATIONS FOR A JAPAN WHICH WOULD HENCEFORTH LIVE WITH OTHERS AS A GOOD NEIGHBOR. THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT WOULD FAIL UTTERLY IN THE DISCHARGE OF THE OCCUPATION RESPONSIBILITY

358WX.
WHICH THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION, AMONG OTHERS, PLACED UPON IT IF IT DID NOT TAKE A TIMELY INITIATIVE IN TRANSFORMING THAT OCCUPATION INTO A PEACE WHICH WILL BE JUST AND DURABLE.

ALREADY THE VIEWS OF THE GOVERNMENTS PRINCIPALLY CONCERNED HAVE BEEN THOROUGHLY CANVASSED THROUGH DISCUSSIONS INITIATED LAST SEPTEMBER AND CONTINUOUSLY PURSUED EVER SINCE. THE DRAFT SUBMITTED ON MARCH 29TH TO THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION, AS POINTED OUT IN THE COVERING MEMORANDUM, TO A CONSIDERABLE EXTENT REFLECTS VIEWS WHICH THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES HAD OBTAINED AS A RESULT OF COOPERATION MANIFESTED BY OTHER GOVERNMENTS. AMONG THE VIEWS TAKEN INTO ACCOUNT WERE THE VIEWS OF THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT.

THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT NOW STATES THAT IT "IS NOT TRUE" THAT THERE HAVE BEEN "AN EXCHANGE OF OPINIONS BETWEEN REPRESENTATIVES OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND REPRESENTATIVES OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION."

THE UNDENIABLE FACTS ARE THAT ON OCTOBER 6, 1950, NOVEMBER 20, 1950, AND ON JANUARY 13, 1951, THERE WERE PERSONAL DISCUSSIONS OF THE PROPOSED JAPANESE PEACE TREATY BETWEEN THE SOVIET DEPUTY MINISTER OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS, MR.J.MALIK, AND MR.JOHN FOSTER DULLES. FURTHERMORE, ON NOVEMBER 20, 1950, MR.MALIK SUBMITTED TO MR.DULLES ON BEHALF OF THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT AN AIDE MEMOIRE DEALING WITH THE PRINCIPLES UNDERLYING THE PROPOSED TREATY AND ON NOVEMBER 26, 1950, MR.DULLES TRANSMITTED TO MR.MALIK A REPLY MEMORANDUM.

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES IS THUS AT A LOSS TO UNDERSTAND WHAT THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT NOW MEANS WHEN IT SAYS THAT IT IS "UNTRUE" THAT THERE HAS BEEN "AN EXCHANGE OF OPINIONS" BETWEEN REPRESENTATIVES OF THE GOVERNMENTS OF THE UNITED STATES AND OF THE SOVIET UNION.

B59WX.
MAY 21 1951
THE PRESENT REMARKS ON BEHALF OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION IN RESPONSE TO THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT'S MEMORANDUM OF MARCH 29, 1951, AND IN FURTHER DEVELOPMENT OF ITS VIEWS HERETOFORE SUBMITTED, ORALLY AND IN WRITING, SHOWS THAT THE DIFFERENCES WHICH STAND BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION AND THE PEACE TERMS EMBODIED IN THE MARCH DRAFT ARE NOT ENOUGH TO PREVENT AN AGREED PEACE, ASSUMING THAT THERE IS GENUINE DESIRE ON THE PART OF THE SOVIET UNION PROMPTLY TO GIVE PEACE TO JAPAN. THEREFORE, THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES TRUSTS THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION WILL CONTINUE TO PURSUE TO A FAVORABLE CONCLUSION THE PROCEDURES NOW UNDER WAY, RATHER THAN TO SEEK NOW TO SHIFT TO PROCEDURES WHICH, IN ALL CANDOR, IT MUST RECOGNIZE WOULD NOT IN FACT BE PRODUCTIVE OF THE "SPEEDY CONCLUSION" WHICH THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT STATES THAT IT SEEKS.

THE UNITED STATES STANDS READY TO RESUME PROMPT AND INTENSIVE DIPLOMATIC DISCUSSIONS WITH THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOVIET UNION UNDER CIRCUMSTANCES THAT WILL BE CALCULATED TO ADVANCE A JUST TREATY TO A SPEEDY CONCLUSION.

FIRST LEAD MACARTHUR (500)
BY EDWIN B.HAAKINSON AND ED CREAGH

WASHINGTON, MAY 20-(AP)-SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO) DECLARED TODAY THAT THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION HAS ADOPTED "PRACTICALLY ALL THE FEATURES" OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S FAR EASTERN WAR PROGRAM THAT THE REPUBBLICANS HAVE BEEN URGING.

HE SAID THE STATE DEPARTMENT NOW SEEMS WILLING TO PROMOTE REVOLUTION AGAINST THE CHINESE COMMUNIST REGIME.

TAFT'S STATEMENTS ABOUT REVERSAL OF POLICY BROUGHT A HEATED DENIAL FROM SENATOR MCMAHON (D-CONN). HE CONTENDED THAT THE ADMINISTRATION HAS FOLLOWED A CONSISTENT COURSE IN THE KOREAN WAR, CHANGING IT ONLY TO MEET ALTERED CIRCUMSTANCES.

TAFT, CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE'S REPUBLICAN POLICY COMMITTEE, ENGAGED IN A TABLE-POUNDING TELEVISION DEBATE (NBC'S "AMERICAN FORUM OF THE AIR") WITH MCMAHON ON THE EVEN OF GEN. OMAR N.BRADLEY'S RETURN TO THE WITNESS STAND IN THE SENATE HEARINGS ON MACARTHUR'S OUSTER AS FAR EASTERN COMMANDER.

SINCE MACARTHUR'S DISMISSAL LAST MONTH, TAFT SAID, "THE ADMINISTRATION HAS COME AROUND TO PRACTICALLY ALL THE FEATURES OF HIS POLICY THAT THE REPUBLICANS HAVE BEEN URGING."

THE OHIO SENATOR SAID FRIDAY NIGHT'S SPEECH BY DEAN RUSK, ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE FOR FAR EASTERN AFFAIRS, "PRACTICALLY SAID, "NOW, WE ARE AGAINST CHINESE COMMUNISM AND WE'RE GOING TO PROMOTE REVOLUTION AGAINST CHINSE COMMUNISM.'"

"THAT'S AN ABSOLUTE REVERSAL OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S POSITION," TAFT DECLARED.

MAY 21 1951

RUSK, SPEAKING IN NEW YORK FRIDAY NIGHT, SAID THE U.S. "WILL NOT ACQUIESCE IN THE DEGRADATION THAT IS BEING FORCED" ON CHINA BY THE COMMUNISTS. HE PLEDGED "IMPORTANT AID" TO OPPONENTS OF THE RED REGIME AND SAID THE CHINESE WILL FIND FRIENDS EVERYWHERE "IF THEY DECLARE FOR FREEDOM."

MCMAHON SAID HE HAD TALKED WITH RUSK ABOUT THE SPEECH AND WAS CONVINCED IT DID NOT REPRESENT ANY SWITCH TOWARD THE VIEWS OF MACARTHUR, WHO HAS URGED THE USE OF CHINSE NATIONALIST TROOPS AGAINST THE REDS, ALONG WITH AIR ACTION AGAINST MANCHURIAN BASES AND A NAVAL BLOCKADE OF CHINA'S COAST.

MCMAHON, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT COMMITTEE ON ATOMIC ENERGY, ASSERTED THAT THE UNITED NATIONS FORCES WILL WIN THE KOREAN WAR "PERHAPS SOONER THAN SOME OF US THINK" BY DESTROYING THE COMMUNIST ARMIES AND FORCING THEM TO HALT THEIR AGGRESSION.

HE DECLINED TO COMMENT ON THE POSSIBILITY THAT ATOMIC WEAPONS MAY BE USED AGAINST THE REDS IN KOREA.

TAFT SAID RUSK'S STATEMENT "MEANS SUPPORT OF THE GUERRILLAS" OPPOSING THE COMMUNISTS IN SOUTH CHINA, AND MEANS A STRENGTHENING OF MILITARY AID TO CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S FORCES IN FORMOSA.

A48WX
BY CONTRAST, TAFT SAID, ONLY A YEAR AGO PRESIDENT TRUMAN WOULDN'T EVEN PROVIDE ADVICE, MUCH LESS ASSISTANCE, TO CHIANG'S FORCES.

LAUGHINGLY, TAFT INDICATED HE DIDN'T EXPECT ANYTHING TO COME OF YESTERDAY'S SUGGESTION BY SENATOR WILEY (R-WIS) THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN HIMSELF APPEAR BEFORE THE SENATORS INVESTIGATING THE MACARTHUR

DISMISSAL.

TAFT SAID MR.TRUMAN MIGHT BE ABLE TO CLEAR THE AIR, BUT HE ADDED:

"HE APPEARS WILLING TO TESTIFY EVERY OTHER DAY DIRECTLY TO THE PRESS, SO THAT I DON'T SEE THERE'S MUCH NEED TO CALL HIM BEFORE CONGRESS."

HE AND MCMAHON AGREED THAT THERE IS NO CONSTITUTIONAL WAY THAT THE PRESIDENT COULD BE REQUIRED TO TESTIFY.

MCMAHON STRONGLY DISPUTED TAFT'S STATEMENT THAT THERE HAS BEEN NO BI-PARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY IN RECENT YEARS AS FAR AS CHINA IS CONCERNED.

THE CONNECTICUT SENATOR SAID RECORDS OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE WOULD DISCLOSE THAT THE SENATE HAS BEEN CONSULTED REGULARLY ON FAR EASTERN POLICY, AND HE DECLARED:

"I WILL DO MY BEST TO OPEN UP THE EXECUTIVE HEARINGS X X X SO THAT THE AMERICAN PEOPLE CAN FIND OUT JUST HOW MUCH OR HOW LITTLE CONGRESS WAS CONSULTED."

MAY 21 1951

A VIEWPOINT SIMILAR TO TAFT'S WAS EXPRESSED BY SENATOR BREWSTER (R-ME), WHO SAID THE ADMINISTRATION "WHILE PUTTING UP QUITE A DIN OF OPPOSITION, HAS BEEN RETREATING UNDER THAT SMOKESCREEN VERY CLOSE TO THE MACARTHUR LINE."

BREWSTER AGREED WITH TAFT THAT THERE WOULDN'T BE MUCH POINT IN TRYING TO GET THE PRESIDENT TO TESTIFY IN PERSON BEFORE THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES.

HE SAID MR.TRUMAN HAS BEEN SPEAKING FREELY TO THE PRESS, AND ADDED:

"I HAVE VERY GREAT CONFIDENCE IN THE ULTIMATE OBJECTIVE OF GETTING THE INFORMATION TO THE PEOPLE THROUGH THE INQUISITIVE POWERS OF THE PRESS, WITHOUT THE INQUISITORIAL POWERS OF THE CONGRESS."

BREWSTER WAS INTERVIEWED ON THE LIBERTY BROADCASTING SYSTEM'S "PUBLIC HEARING" PROGRAM.

TWO OTHER SENATORS URGED, MEANWHILE, THAT EMPHASIS IN THE MACARTHUR HEARINGS SHOULD SHIFT FROM WHY THE GENERAL WAS FIRED TO WHAT THIS COUNTRY SHOULD DO NEXT.

DEMOCRATIC SENATOR SPARKMAN OF ALABAMA TOLD A REPORTER:

"SO FAR AS I'M CONCERNED, THE MACARTHUR INCIDENT IS WATER OVER THE DAM NOW. I'M CERTAIN THAT THE BOYS FIGHTING IN KOREA AND THE AMERICAN PUBLIC ARE MORE INTERESTED IN WHAT IS OUR PROGRAM FROM HERE ON OUT."

REPUBLICAN SENATOR FLANDERS OF CERMONT PUT IT THIS WAY IN A SEPARATE INTERVIEW:

"AS LONG AS THE PRESIDENT HAD ADMITTED HE WAS THE FOLLOW TRYING TO GET RID OF MACARTHUR, I'M MORE INTERESTED NOW IN WHAT IS PROPOSED TO GET US OUT OF THIS MESS."

FLANDERS IS A MEMBER OF THE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE AND SPARKMAN IS ON THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE. THOSE GROUPS, JOINTLY STUDYING THE OUSTER OF GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR FROM FAR EAST COMMAND, RESUME CLOSED-DOOR HEARINGS TOMORROW. IT WILL BE THE 14TH DAY OF THE INQUIRY.

GEN. OMAR BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, WILL RETURN FOR HIS THIRD DAY OF TESTIMONY. JUST BEFORE HE WAS EXCUSED TEMPORARILY FROM THE STAND LAST WEEK HE KICKED UP A LONG ARGUMENT BY REFUSING TO TELL WHO SAID WHAT IN THE WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCES THAT PRECEDED THE MACARTHUR OUSTER.

BY A 16 TO 8 VOTE THE COMMITTEES HAVE UPHELD BRADLEY'S REFUSAL AND CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA) SAID HE IS ANXIOUS TO PUSH AHEAD TO GET "ALL THE FACTS BEFORE THE AMERICAN PEOPLE AS RAPIDLY AS POSSIBLE."

SENATOR DOUGLAS (D-ILL) SAID, MEANWHILE, THAT THE CONTROVERSY OVER FAR EASTERN POLICY MAY FORCE PRESIDENT TRUMAN TO RUN AGAIN.

IN A PREPARED RADIO INTERVIEW BY GANNETT NEWS SERVICE, DOUGLAS SAID THAT HE BELIEVED THAT MR. TRUMAN DIDN'T INTEND, UP UNTIL THE LAST MONTH TO RUN AGAIN.

"BUT IT IS POSSIBLE," DOUGLAS SAID, "THAT THE CONTROVERSY OVER FAR EASTERN POLICY HAS BECOME SO ACUTE THAT HE MAY FEEL IT NECESSARY TO RUN IN ORDER TO VINDICATE HIS POSITION."

DOUGLAS SAID HIS FAVORITE FOR THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION--IF MR. TRUMAN DOESN'T RUN--IS GEN. DWIGHT EISENHOWER.

OTHER SENATORS THIS WEEKEND GAVE LITTLE INDICATION OF ADOPTING THE PROPOSALS OF SPARKMAN AND FLANDERS TO LOOK AHEAD INSTEAD OF BEHIND.

SENATOR WILEY (R-WIS) WHOSE QUESTIONS BROUGHT ON THE ROW OVER BRADLEY'S TESTIMONY, CARRIED THAT ISSUE STILL FURTHER BY SUGGESTING THE PRESIDENT TRUMAN VOLUNTEER TO TESTIFY IN THE SENATE INQUIRY. HE EVEN TALKED OF A POSSIBLE EFFORT TO FORCE TESTIMONY FROM THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE BY A SUBPOENA.

THE WISCONSIN SENATOR HIMSELF, HOWEVER, CONCEDED IN HIS STATEMENT THAT THE PROPOSALS MIGHT APPEAR "COMPLETELY UNTHINKABLE."

AND LATER HE TOLD A REPORTER THAT THE PRESIDENT COULD PROPERLY REFUSE TO DO SO BY MERELY STATING SUCH TESTIMONY OR DISCLOSURE "WOULD NOT BE IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST."

WILEY, A LAWYER AND FORMER CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE, NOTED THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS NOT DONE THIS SO FAR.

SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO), CHAIRMAN OF THE REPUBLICAN POLICY COMMITTEE, OFFERED SOME SHARP COMMENTS ABOUT "CONSISTENCY" AND PRESIDENT TRUMAN IN THE MACARTHUR CONTROVERSY.

MAY 21 1951

A1OWX

THE PRESIDENT RECENTLY SINGLED OUT TAFT FOR SOME ACID REMARKS.

CRITICIZING THE OHIOAN'S PROPOSAL FOR A HALF-MILLION MAN CUT IN THE PRESENT MILITARY MANPOWER GOAL OF 3,500,000 (M), THE PRESIDENT CALLED IT "AN INVITATION TO WAR."

IN A SPEECH LAST HIGHT TAFT MADE MUCH OF THE TRUMAN DISCLOSURE THAT HE HAD BEEN CONSIDERING OUSTING MACARTHUR FOR A LONG TIME BEFORE APRIL 11. HE WANTED TO KNOW HOW THAT SQUARES WITH PRESIDENTIAL PRAISE IN A LETTER TO MACARTHUR IN JANUARY THIS YEAR.

CHAIRMAN RUSSELL SAID THE OTHER TOP MILITARY LEADERS WILL FOLLOW GENERAL BRADLEY, INCLUDING GEN. J.LAWTON COLLINS OF THE ARMY, ADMIRAL FORREST P. SHERMAN OF THE NAVY, AND GEN. HOYT S.VANDENBERG OF THE AIR FORCE.

FOLLOWING THEM AND POSSIBLY SOME OTHER ARMED FORCES LEADERS WILL BE SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON AND POSSIBLY OTHER STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS WHO HAVE SHAPED POLICIES IN KOREA, CHINA AND THE FAR EAST.

THEN, RUSSELL SAID, HE PROBABLY WILL ASK THE COMMITTEES TO GO OVER A LONG LIST OF PROPOSED WITNESSES, INCLUDING:

JOHN FOSTER DULLES, FORMER REPUBLICAN SENATOR WHO NOW IS BUSY TRYING TO ARRANGE A JAPANESE PEACE TREATY WHICH GENERAL MACARTHUR TESTIFIED MIGHT BE DELAYED BECAUSE OF HIS REMOVAL.

LOUIS JOHSNON, FORMER

LOUIS JOHNSON, FORMER SECRETARY OF DEFENSE WHO WAS ASKED TO RESIGN WHEN PRESIDENT TRUMAN PICKED GENERAL GEORGE MARSHALL TO SUCCEED HIM.

ADMIRAL LOUIS DENFELD, FORMER TOP NAVY COMMANDER WHO ALSO WAS OUSTED BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND SECRETARY OF THE NAVY MATTHEWS.

GEN. ALBERT C.WEDEMEYER. AUTHOR OF THE CONTROVERSIAL WEDEMEYER

REPORT ON CHINA AND KOREA WHO RECENTLY HAS ASKED RETIREMENT, A STATUS THAT WOULD PERMIT FREE TESTIMONY.

THE COMMITTEE HAS GIVEN ASSURANCES THAT MACARTHUR, WHO OPENED THE HEARINGS WITH LONG TESTIMONY, CAN HAVE A CHANCE FOR REBUTTAL IF HE WANTS IT, BUT THERE HAS BEEN NO INDICATION WHEN HE MIGHT APPEAR IF AT ALL.

SPARKMAN, USUALLY A STRONG ADMINISTRATION SUPPORTER, SAID THAT "GENERAL MACARTHUR WAS OUT OF STEP WITH THE PRESIDENT AND OUR OTHER MILITARY LEADERS. THE PRESIDENT HAD THE RIGHT TO REMOVE HIM AND PROBABLY SHOULD HAVE DONE IT."

"THERE MAY BE SOME ROOM FOR CRITICISM IN THE SUMMARY WAY IN WHICH IT WAS DONE BUT REAL PUBLIC CONCERN NOW IS WHAT IS AHEAD."

SPARKMAN SAID HE COULD NOT AGREE WITH GENERAL MACARTHUR THAT A "VACUUM" EXISTS AS TO POLICIES FOR KOREA, CHINA AND THE FAR EAST "BUT I DO SAY WE HAVE NOT DONE A VERY GOOD JOB OF SELLING OUT PROGRAM TO OUR BOYS IN KOREA AND THE PUBLIC."

FLANDERS, WHO SOMETIMES DIFFERS WITH OTHER REPUBLICANS, SAID HE COULD "SEE LITTLE REAL BENEFIT IN TRYING TO COMB OVER THE PAST FOR ADMINISTRATION MISTAKES WHEN THERE HAVE BEEN SO MANY OF THEM."

"IF THERE IS ANY OTHER PLAN FOR SUCCESSFULLY ENDING THE KOREAN WAR THAN MACARTHUR'S THEN IT'S PAST TIME THAT THIS COMMITTEE, THE CONGRESS AND THE PUBLIC KNOW ABOUT IT."

THE GENERAL WAS FIRED AFTER HE HAD PUBLICLY ADVOCATED STRONGER MEASURES IN ASIA, INCLUDING AIR OPERATIONS ACROSS THE MANCHURIAN BORDER AND USE OF CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS FOR A SECOND FRONT.

FLANDERS SAID HE COULD NOT AGREE WITH WILEY AND OTHER REPUBLICANS WHO ARE FEARFUL OF "A WHITEWASH."

"FAILURE TO FACE A VERY IMMEDIATE AND DANGEROUS FUTURE WITH SOME DEFINITE AND LOGICAL POLICIES AND PLANS IS MUCH MORE DANGEROUS THAN A WHITEWASH OF THE PAST," HE SAID.

MILWAUKEE, MAY 20-(AP)-THE MILWAUKEE SENTINEL SAYS SENATOR WILEY (R-WIS) DECLARED TODAY THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION HAS NOT DISCLOSED THE "REAL REASON" FOR DISMISSAL OF GENERAL MACARTHUR.

THAT, THE NEWSPAPER QUOTED WILEY AS SAYING IN AN INTERVIEW, IS WHY HE DEMANDED SATURDAY THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN TESTIFY, UNDER SUBPENA IF NECESSARY, BEFORE THE CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE INVESTIGATING THE MACARTHUR AFFAIR. WILEY IS A MEMBER OF THE COMMITTEE.

ACCORDING TO THE SENTINEL STORY, "THERE ARE GOING TO BE MORE FACTS COMING OUT" OF THE INVESTIGATION, SAID WILEY, ADDING THAT THE PROBE WOULD NOT NECESSARILY BE A WASHOUT IF THE PRESIDENT DOES NOT TESTIFY.

THE SENATOR WAS QUOTED AS SAYING MR. TRUMAN ONLY HAS MADE "CERTAIN ALLEGATIONS" IN EXPLAINING THE MACARTHUR RECALL. "DO YOU THINK THE ADMINISTRATION IS GIVING THE REAL REASON" FOR THE DISMISSAL, THE SENTINEL SAID HE ASKED THE REPORTER?

THE STORY ALSO SAID WILEY DECLARED HIS DEMAND THAT THE PRESIDENT BE SUBPENAED WAS A "SUGGESTION" TO THE COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN RUSSELL (D-GA). HE SAID HE WOULD NOT APPEAL TO THE FULL COMMITTEE OR TO THE SENATE IF RUSSELL REFUSES TO GO ALONG WITH THE SUGGESTION.

NLRB-COMMIES (340)

MAY 21 1951

(ADVANCE)...WASHINGTON, MAY 20-(AP)-THE BELIEF THAT A UNION HAS PRO-COMMUNIST LEADERSHIP DOESN'T JUSTIFY AN EMPLOYER IN HELPING A RIVAL UNION ORGANIZE HIS WORKERS, THE NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD HELD TODAY.
THE RULING, VOTED BY THE NLRB 4 TO 1, INVOLVES THE STEWART-WARNER CORPORATION, THE UNITED ELECTRICAL WORKERS (UE) WHICH HAD BEEN EXPELL FROM THE CIO ON CHARGES OF FOLLOWING COMMUNIST PARTY PROGRAMS RATHER THAN CIO POLICY, AND THE AFL INTERNATIONAL BROTHERHOOD OF ELECTRICAL WORKERS (IBEW). IT WAS CHARGED THAT THE EMPLOYER AIDED TH IBEW IN UNSEATING THE UE AS BARGAINING AGENT FOR ITS CHICAGO PLANTS.
ALTHOUGH THE CHARGES FIRST WERE FILED BY THREE UE MEMBERS, INCLUDI JOHN KELLIHER, PRESIDENT OF THE UE LOCAL, THE BOARD CHOSE TO ACT UPON SIMILAR CHARGES OF EMPLOYER INTERFERENCE FILED LATER BY THE CIO INTERNATIONAL UNION OF ELECTRICAL WORKERS (IUE). THIS UNION WAS CHARTERED BY THE CIO TO TAKE OVER THE UE'S JURISDICTION AFTER THE UE WAS THROWN OUT OF THE CIO. THE IUE HAS TAKEN AWAY MANY MAJOR CONTRACTS ONCE HELD BY THE UE.
JAMES J.REYNOLDS, LONE MEMBER OF THE BOARD TO DISSENT, SAID HE WOULD HAVE DISMISSED THE CHARGES AGAINST THE EMPLOYER FOR LACK OF EVIDENCE THAT THE IBEW ACTUALLY HAD BEEN AIDED BY THE EMPLOYER. I HIS DISSENT HE DID NOT DISCUSS THE COMMUNIST ISSUE.
THE BOARD DISMISSED TWO CHARGES THAT THE COMPANY HAD ILLEGALLY FIR KELLIHER, THE UE LEADER, AND ANOTHER WORKER BECAUSE OF THEIR UNION ACTIVITIES, BUT BOARD MEMBER JOHN M.HOUSTON DIFFERED WITH HIS COLLEAGUES ON THAT POINT.
ON THE MAIN ISSUE THE BOARD SAID CONGRESS, THROUGH THE TAFT-HARTLE ACT, HAD NOT AUTHORIZED THE BOARD TO CONDONE EMPLOYER VIOLATIONS EVEN THOUGH THEY "MAY BE MOTIVATED IN PART BY PATRIOTIC OBJECTIVES." THE LAW PROHIBITS THE BOSS FROM INTERFERING WITH THE ORGANIZING ACTIVITIES OF HIS EMPLOYES.
STEWART-WARNER CORPORATION WAS DIRECTED BY THE BOARD TO POST NOTICES PROMISING NOT TO INTERFERE, AND WITHDRAWING RECOGNITION OF THE IBEW, WITH WHICH IT MADE A CONTRACT MARCH 16, 1950, UNTIL THE AFL UNION HAS BEEN CERTIFIED AS THE PROPER BARGAINING AGENT. THAT IS BEING CONSIDERED NOW BY THE BOARD.
THE MAJORITY SAID:
"THE RESPONDENT (STEWART-WARNER) ARGUES, IN EFFECT, THAT ITS DESIRE TO RID THE PLANT OF 'COMMUNISM,' ASSERTEDLY EXEMPLIFIED BY THE UE LOCAL THERE, EXCULPATES IT FROM ANY VILATIONS OF THE ACT. ON THESE FACTS, WE CAN FIND NO MERIT IN THIS CONTENTION. THE VIOLATIONS OF ACT HEREIN FOUND STEM FROM THE RESPONDENT'S UNLAWFUL SUPPORT OF THE IBEW, AND ITS UNLAWFUL INTERFERENCE WITH THE RIGHTS GUARANTEED TO ITS EMPLOYES BY THE ACT."

WAGES

BY HAROLD W.WARD

MAY 21 1951

WASHINGTON, MAY 20-(AP)-THE GOVERNMENT'S PAY STABILIZATION PROGRAM IS DUE FOR A DRASTIC OVERHAUL THIS WEEK AND NEXT, WITH NEGOTIATED PAY BOOSTS FOR HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF WORKERS ALMOST CERTAIN TO BE OKAYED BY THE WAGE BOARD.
THE BIGGEST DECISION TO BE REACHED IN THE NEAR FUTURE WILL BE WHETHER TO LIFT THE 10 PER CENT CEILING ON WAGE INCREASES ABOVE JAN. 15, 1950 LEVELS ANOTHER TWO OR THREE PER CENT--OR EVEN MORE IF LABOR UNIONS HAVE THEIR WAY--TO MAKE UP FOR LIVING COST RISES SINCE THE WAGE-PRICE FREEZE OF JAN. 25.
A NEW CONSUMERS PRICE INDEX WILL BE ANNOUNCED BY THE BUREAU OF LABOR STATISTICS THIS WEEK. THE BOARD IS COMMITTED TO "TAKE ANOTHER LOOK" AT THE 10 PER CENT FORMULA ON THE BASIS OF THAT INDEX, WHICH WILL COVER PRICES AS OF APRIL 15. SINCE THAT IS EXPECTED TO SHOW A BOOST OVER PRICES PREVAILING WHEN THE FREEZE WENT INTO EFFECT, THE BOARD IS LIKE TO REVISE ITS FORMULA UPWARD, IF AT ALL.
THE BOARD MUST PROCEED WARILY ABOUT RELAXING CONTROLS, HOWEVER, BECAUSE STRONG SENTIMENT HAS BEEN DEVELOPING IN INDUSTRY AND FARM GROUPS--ABETTED BY THAT LONE WOLF LABOR LEADER JOHN L.LEWIS--FOR SCRAPP-ING ALL WAGE AND PRICE CONTROLS WHEN THEY EXPIRE JUNE 30. PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS ASKED FOR A TWO-YEAR EXTENSION, AND TIGHTENING, OF THOSE POWERS.
BESIDES THE GENERAL WAGE FORMULA PROBLEM, THE BOARD HAS THESE NEGO-TIATED WAGE INCREASES TO DISPOSE OF IN THE NEXT FORTNIGHT:
1. MORE THAN A HALF-MILLION MEMBERS OF WALTER REUTHER'S CIO-AUTO WORKERS, 35,000 MEMBERS OF THE CIO-INTERNATIONAL UNION OF ELEC-TRICAL WORKERS, AND 10,000 CIO-RUBBER WORKERS IN THE AUTO INDUSTRY ARE DUE TO GET ANOTHER PAY INCREASE OF AT LEAST TWO CENTS AND MAYBE THREE CENTS AN HOUR ON THE BASIS OF THE APRIL 15 INDEX. THEIR CONTRACTS ARE HITCHED TO THE COST OF LIVING MEASURE COMPILED BY THE BUREAU OF LABOR STATISTICS. THE INCREASE HAS THE AUTOMATIC APPROVAL OF THE BOARD AND ECONOMIC STABILIZER ERIC JOHNSTON UNDER PREVIOUS RULINGS.
2. THE SAME GROUP OF AUTO INDUSTRY WORKERS HAVE A FOUR-CENT HOURLY INCREASE COMING DUE MAY 29, AS A BONUS FOR ANNUAL IMPROVEMENT IN PRO-DUCTIVITY. THAT ALREADY HAS BEEN APPROVED BY JOHNSTON IN PRINCIPLE, BUT THE BOARD WILL HOLD HEARINGS HERE THURSDAY ON THE WHOLE ISSUE. REUTHER IS EXPECTED TO ARGUE PERSONALLY FOR ITS QUICK APPROVAL.
3. A 15 PER CENT WAGE INCREASE FOR 50,000 SHIPYARD WORKERS AND A 10-CENT HIKE FOR MORE THAN 100,000 NORTHERN TEXTILE WORKERS ARE UP FOR APPROVAL OF THE BOARD. IF THE PANEL USES THE SAME REASONING AS IT DID IN THE CASE OF 220,000 MEAT PACKINGHOUSE WORKERS, THE SHIPBUILDING AND TEXTILE RAISES WILL BE AUTHORIZED UP TO AT LEAST THE LIMIT OF WHAT WOULD BE DUE THEM IF THEY HAD A COST OF LIVING ESCALATOR CONTRACT. SPECIAL INEQUITIES MIGHT BE ARGUED WHICH WOULD JUSTIFY ALLOWING THE FULL INCREASES NEGOTIATED BY THE CIO-SHIPBUILDING WORKERS AND THE CIO-TEXTILE WORKERS.
THE 10 PER CENT TOP WAS FIXED BY THE FIRST WAGE STABILIZATION BOARD, ON THE BASIS OF THE GENERAL PATTERN OF INCREASES LAST YEAR, AND THE RISE IN THE COST OF LIVING INDEX IN THE 12MONTH PERIOD JUST BEFORE THE FREEZE.

A42WX

LABOR MEMBERS OF THE BOARD SQUAWKED AT THAT CEILING AND WALKED OFF. THAT BROKE UP THE FIRST PANEL, HEADED BY CONCILIATION DIRECTOR CYRUS S. CHING, AND A NEW ONE FINALLY WAS ASSEMBLED THIS MONTH.

SINCE BEING SWORN INTO OFFICE, THE 18 MEMBERS OF THE NEW BOARD, REPRESENTING INDUSTRY, LABOR, AND THE PUBLIC UNDER THE CHAIRMANSHIP OF DR. GEORGE W. TAYLOR OF THE UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA, HAVE TAKEN TWO SIGNIFICANT STEPS TO EASE THE 10 PER CENT FORMULA.

FIRST, THEY APPROVED "TANDEM" INCREASES FOR GROUPS OF WORKERS WHOSE PAY TRADITIONALLY IS LIFTED WHEN OTHER ALLIED GROUPS HAVE QUALIFIED FOR A BOOST--EVEN THOUGH IT WAS MORE THAN THE 10 PER CENT.

SECOND, THE BOARD LATE FRIDAY APPROVED A NINE-CENT HOURLY INCREASE FOR 220,000 MEMBERS OF THE AFL MEAT CUTTERS AND CIO PACKINGHOUSE WORKERS WHO WOULD HAVE BEEN ENTITLED TO ONLY THREE CENTS UNDER THE FORMULA. SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES PREVAILED, TAYLOR SAID, AND HAD THE MEAT WORKERS MADE THE KIND OF COST-OF-LIVING CONTRACT REUTHER AND OTHERS HAVE NEGOTIATED, THEY WOULD HAVE BEEN ABLE TO GET THE FULL NINE-CENT HIKE WITHOUT ASKING THE BOARD'S OKAY. INDUSTRY MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OBJECTED TO MAKING THE EXCEPTION.

MOBILIZATION-CONTROLS

WASHINGTON, MAY 20-(AP)-LEADERS OF THE SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE PREDICTED TODAY PRESIDENT TRUMAN WILL GET SOME--BUT FAR FROM ALL--OF THE BROAD NEW POWERS HE SEEKS UNDER AN EXTENSION OF THE DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT.

PRICE, WAGE AND RENT CONTROL FEATURES OF THE MEASURE HAVE COME UNDER HOTTEST FIRE IN TWO WEEKS OF HEARINGS ON THE CONTROVERSIAL BILL. THE MEASURE PROPOSES TO EXTEND AND WIDEN THE SCOPE OF THE ACT NOW DUE TO EXPIRE JUNE 30.

SENATOR MAYBANK (D-SC), THE COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN, TOLD A REPORTER HE EXPECTS THE BILL "WILL HAVE TO BE PRETTY WELL REWRITTEN," BUT THAT HE IS CONFIDENT NOW IT WILL NOT BE KILLED.

HE HAD SAID EARLIER THAT OPPOSITION SEEMED TO STRONG THAT "I DON'T KNOW IF THERE IS GOING TO BE ANY EXTENSION."

MAYBANK SAID THERE IS A STRONG MOVE TO WRITE A TEMPORARY EXTENSION OF THE ACT, WITH ONLY MINOR CHANGES IN ITS PRESENT FORM, TO PERMIT LONGER STUDY OF SOME OF THE MORE CONTROVERSIAL NEW FEATURES MR. TRUMAN HAS PROPOSED.

SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO), TOLD A REPORTER HE EXPECTS THE MEASURE WILL BE EXTENDED WITHOUT MUCH CHANGE. HE SAID HE DOES NOT BELIEVE CONGRESS WILL APPROVE ANY MOVE TO REMOVE LOCAL OPTION FEATURES FROM RENT CONTROLS. TAFT, NOT A MEMBER OF THE BANKING COMMITTEE, DOES HEAD THE SENATE REPUBLICAN POLICY COMMITTEE.

REPUBLICAN BANKING COMMITTEE MEMBERS VOICED VERY SIMILAR VIEWS TO A REPORTER.

SENATOR BRICKER (R-OHIO) SAID HE THINKS THE COUNTRY HAS "ALL THE CONTROLS WE NEED." HE SAID SOME OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PROPOSALS WOULD MEAN UNWARRANTED "TOTAL CONTROL OF THE ECONOMY AND ALL BUSINESS IN THE COUNTRY," BY BEREAUCRATS.

SENATOR SCHOEPPEL (R-KANS) SAID "I THINK THE BILL SHOULD BE RESTRICTED CONSIDERABLY. THE ADMINISTRATION HAS NOT MADE A GOOD CASE FOR MANY OF THE BROAD POWERS FOR WHICH IT ASKS. SOME OF ITS OWN WITNESSES HAVE BEEN ONLY LUKEWARM IN ENDORSING PROPOSALS--FOR INSTANCE THE PRESIDENT'S REQUEST FOR SPECIAL POWER TO CONDEMN PROPERTY INSTEAD OF TO ACQUIRE IT BY REQUISITION AS NOW PERMITTED."

SENATOR DIRKSEN (R-ILL) SAID "THERE SHOULD BE MANY MODIFICATIONS, NOT ONLY OF PROPOSED AMENDMENTS BUT OF THE ACT ITSELF." HE DECLINED TO DETAIL HIS VIEWS.

TWO DEMOCRATIC SENATORS, DECLINING TO PERMIT THE USE OF THEIR NAMES, SAID THEY EXPECT THERE WILL HAVE TO BE SOME COMPROMISES TO SAVE THE BILL FROM TOTAL DEFEAT. ONE OF THEM, SYMPATHETIC TO THE ADMINISTRATION, PUT IT THIS WAY:

"THE PRESIDENT ISN'T GOING TO GET EVERYTHING HE HAS ASKED FOR, BY A LONG SHOT, BUT YOU CAN BE VERY SURE HE'S GOING TO GET SOME OF IT. CONGRESS IS NOT GOING TO WRECK THE CONTROL PROGRAM. THE PEOPLE WOULD NOT PUT UP WITH THAT FOR A MINUTE."

THE COMMITTEE, STRIVING TO HEAD OFF ANY EXCUSE FOR A TEMPORARY, SHORT TERM EXTENSION, HAS ADOPTED A PROGRAM CALLING FOR CONTINUED MORNING AND AFTERNOON HEARINGS, FIVE DAYS A WEEK, FROM NOW THROUGH JUNE 6. THERE WILL BE NO PAUSE FOR THE MEMORIAL DAY HOLIDAY MAY 30, IT ANNOUNCED.

A45WX (BEEF)

(ADVANCE FOR USE AT 5:30 P.M., EASTERN STANDARD TIME, TODAY, SUNDAY, MAY 20.)

BEEF (360)

(ADVANCE)...WASHINGTON, MAY 20-(AP)-A GOVERNMENT PROGRAM DESIGNED TO CUT RETAIL BEEF PRICES BY 10 CENTS A POUND BY OCT. 1 WENT INTO EFFECT TODAY AMID CONGRESSIONAL CRITICISM.

SENATOR BUTLER (R-NEB) CALLED THE ROLLBACK ORDER "CONFISCATION."

DECLARING THAT PRICE STABILIZER MICHAEL V. DISALLE "BOASTS" THAT THE ORDER WILL SAVE CONSUMERS $700,000,000(M), BUTLER SAID:

"CATTLE FEEDERS WILL LOSE THAT SAME $700,000,000. THAT'S NOT SAVING, THAT'S CONFISCATION."

DISALLE HIMSELF SAID FLATLY THAT IN SPITE OF WIDESPREAD PROTESTS "WE WILL NOT REPEAL THE MEAT ORDER."

NOR SHOULD THE ROLLBACK LEAD TO RATIONING, DISALLE SAID.

INTERVIEWED ON NBC'S "MEET THE PRESS," THE PRICE CHIEF SAID THAT UNDER THE REGULATION PRICES STILL WILL BE HIGH ENOUGH TO BRING MEAT TO MARKET.

HE DENIED CATEGORICALLY THAT RATION BOOKS ARE BEING PREPARED OR THAT THERE IS ANY PRESENT INTENTION OF RATIONING MEAT. BUT HE SAID THAT NO ONE COULD MAKE A LONG TERM PREDICTION ON THAT SUBJECT IN THE LIGHT OF THE UNCERTAIN WORLD SITUATION.

DISALLE SAID HE WAS SURE THAT "A VERY DEEP SENSE OF RESPONSIBILITY" ON THE PART OF CONGRESS WOULD ENSURE THAT PRICE AND WAGE CONTROL LAWS, WHICH EXPIRE JUNE 30, WILL BE EXTENDED.

BUTLER, ALONG WITH SENATOR THYE (R-MINN), MADE HIS ATTACK ON THE ROLLBACK ORDER IN A RADIO DEBATE (BLAIR MOODY'S MEET YOUR CONGRESS).

PACKERS ARE REQUIRED UNDER THE NEW PRICE CEILING TO BUY CATTLE AT PRICES AVERAGING 10 PER CENT BELOW JANUARY LEVELS. BUT HOUSEWIVES PROBABLY WON'T NOTICE AN IMMEDIATE CHANGE IN THEIR MEAT COSTS.

THE LIVE CATTLE ROLLBACK IS DESIGNED TO ELIMINATE THE SQUEEZE ON WHOLESALE AND RETAIL BEEF PRICE CEILINGS NOW IN EFFECT. CATTLE PRICE ROLLBACKS OF 4 1/2 PER CENT EACH HAVE BEEN SET FOR AUG. 1 AND OCT. 1.

BUT CATTLE RAISERS ARGUE THAT THE CEILING ON CATTLE MERELY TRANSFERS THE SQUEEZE FROM THE PACKERS TO THE CATTLE FEEDERS AND WILL CAUSE A BIG DROP IN BEEF PRODUCTION.

IN TODAY'S DEBATE, REPS. JAVITS (R-NY) AND BOLLING (D-MO) SUPPORTED THE GOVERNMENT MOVE TO TRIM BACK MEAT PRICES.

JAVITS CONTENDED THAT RISING FOOD COSTS ARE FORCING CITY DWELLERS TO LOWER THEIR LIVING STANDARDS WHILE FARMERS ARE GETTING WHAT HE CALLED "A PREFERENTIAL DEAL" THROUGH PARITY REGULATIONS WHICH ASSURE THEM OF A FAIR RETURN ON THINGS THEY SELL IN RELATION TO THINGS THEY BUY.

ON THE OTHER HAND, HE ARGUED, PRICE RISES "HAVE FAR OUTSTRIPPED" CITY DWELLERS' WAGE INCREASES.

THYE SAID HE "STRONGLY OBJECTED" TO THE BEEF ORDER BECAUSE HE BELIEVED "IT WILL BRING A LOSS TO CATTLE FEEDERS AND AN EVENTUAL SHORTAGE OF MEAT" WHICH MAY RESULT IN ""BLACKMARKETING AND RATIONING."

BUTLER SAID HE, AS A CATTLE FEEDER ON HIS FARM IN NEBRASKA, HAD "NO SYMPATHY FOR THE FEEDER WHO BOUGHT CATTLE AFTER THE ORDER WENT OUT." THE SELLING PRICE OF BEEF, HE SAID, "MUST COVER ALL COSTS OF PRODUCING IT." UNDER THE ROLLBACK ORDER, HE ADDED THAT COSTS WOULD NOT BE COVERED.

BOLLING AGREED WITH JAVITS THAT "CITY DWELLERS DON'T WANT TO BE CAUGHT IN SKYROCKETING PRICE CLIMBS." AND HE SAID HE AGREED WITH BUTLER THAT "SOME FEEDERS WILL LOSE. BUT HE ADDED THAT HE BELIEVES THE "PRICE PLAN WILL WORK."

BOLLING CRITICIZED WHAT HE CALLED THE CATTLE INDUSTRY'S "INVASION OF WASHINGTON" LAST WEEK TO CONDEMN THE PRICE ORDER BEFORE CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES.

UNDER SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE CLARENCE J. MCCORMICK AND CONGRESSMA CLIFFORD R. HOPE (R-KAS) CLASHED OVER THE BEEF ORDER BUT AGREED ON ONE THING--THE BEEF SITUATION WILL DEPEND UPON THE PUBLIC.

THEY APPEARED ON THE CBS "PEOPLES' TV PLATFORM."

HOPE CALLED THE BEEF ORDER A MISTAKE, SAYING IT WOULD REDUCE THE SUPPLY OF BEEF AND THAT PRICE CONTROL ALWAYS LEADS TO BLACK MARKETS.

"BY ONE STROKE OF THE PEN," HE SAID, "$700,000,000 (M) HAS BEEN TAKEN FROM THE CATTLE PRODUCERS AND GIVEN TO THE PACKERS AND DISTRIBUTORS. IT AMOUNTS TO A CAPITAL LEVY. YET THE PUBLIC ISN'T GETTING ANY BENEFIT OUT OF IT."

MCCORMICK SAID THAT AS THE NATION'S POPULATION INCREASED, THE PRICE OF BEEF HAS RISEN WITH IT, AND THAT THE HIGHER BEEF PRICES ALWAYS BROUGHT GREATER BEEF PRODUCTION.

"WE HAVE A HIGHER PRICE IN 1951 STILL THAN WE EVER HAD BEFORE," HE SAID, "SO BEEF PRODUCTION SHOULD INCREASE."

"WE DEFINITELY THINK IT (THE ORDER) CAN BE MADE TO WORK," MCCORMICK SAID. "BUT IT'S UP TO THE PUBLIC--THE PRODUCER, THE PACKER, AND THE CONSUMER. I'M SURE THEY CAN MAKE IT WORK, BUT IF THEY CAN'T, LET'S HAVE A BETTER PLAN."

HOPE SAID, "IF THE PUBLIC WILL COOPERATE NOW AND BUY OTHER, CHEAPER MEATS THAN BEEF, THE PRICE OF BEEF WILL COME DOWN EVEN WITHOUT THE ORDER."

HE ADDED:

"THE BEEF ORDER IS DEFINITELY A MISTAKE AND WILL DESTROY A CONSIDERABLE VALUE OF THE FARMER'S HERDS.

"SUPPLY AND DEMAND WILL DECIDE THIS THING IN THE LONG RUN."

DECORAH, IOWA, MAY 20-(AP)-PRIME MINISTER EINAR GERHARDSEN OF NORWAY, TONIGHT PLEDGED HIS COUNTRY "TO FIGHT TO THE LAST MAN" IN THE EVENT OF AN INVASION.

GERHARDSEN, WHO STOPPED OFF AT LUTHER COLLEGE HERE ON HIS TOUR OF THE MIDWEST, EXPLAINED HIS PROGRAM OF "PEACE WITH FREEDOM" HE DEVELOPED IN NORWAY.

HE SAID THERE ARE MANY KINDS OF PEACE BUT TO HAVE PEACE WITH FREEDOM A COUNTRY MUST BE STRONG MILITARILY AND STRONG INTERNALLY THROUGH ITS HIGH STANDARD OF LIVING SO IT CANNOT BE UNDERMINED BY COMMUNISM.

THE PRIME MINISTER SAID THERE IS NO IMMINENT DANGER OF WAR AS LONG AS THE DEMOCRACIES BUILD UP THEIR DEFENSES.

GERHARDSEN SAID NORWAY NOW HAS A "SENSE OF SECURITY" BECAUSE OF MARSHALL PLAN AID AND THE ATLANTIC PACT. HE SAID THAT 11 PERCENT OF THE MONEY USED IN RECONSTRUCTION WAS FROM MARSHALL PLAN FUNDS.

NORWAY IS SPENDING TEN TIMES AS MUCH MONEY NOW FOR DEFENSE AS SHE DID BEFORE THE WAR, THE PRIME MINISTER SAID, ADDING THAT EVERY PENNY OF DIRECT INCOME TAX GOES TO ARMAMENT.

SHORTLY AFTER HE WAS WOUNDED IN KOREA SEPT. 4, THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT NOTIFIED HIS MOTHER, MRS.ROY M.NICHOLS.

SINCE THEN THERE HAD BEEN NO WORD UNTIL A TELEGRAM WAS PUT IN THE MAILBOX LAST WEEK SAYING YOUNG NICHOLS WAS DEAD. THE NEXT DAY A LETTER FROM U.S. SENATOR EDWIN C.JOHNSON FOLLOWED. IT SAID NICHOLS DIED ON A HOSPITAL SHIP THREE DAYS AFTER BEING WOUNDED.

THE WORD WHICH THE FAMILY HAD BEEN EXPECTING AND FEARING CAME TOO LATE FOR THE CORPORAL'S MOTHER. SHE WAS DYING OF CANCER AT THE FARM HOME NEAR THIS NORTHERN COLORADO TOWN.

"THERE'S NOTHING WE CAN DO ABOUT IT," SHE SAID WHEN THE TELEGRAM WAS READ TO HER. HER NURSE SAID SHE WAS SURE MRS.NICHOLS DIDN'T UNDERSTAND FULLY THE MEANING OF THE TELEGRAM.

LATE LAST NIGHT, MRS.NICHOLS DIED.

NICHOLS SAID TODAY THAT HE INTENDS TO TRY TO FIND OUT WHY THE ARMY WAITED EIGHT MONTHS TO NOTIFY HIM OF HIS SON'S DEATH.

CALLING THE UNITED STATES "THE GREAT HOPE OF THE SMALL NATIONS OF THE WORLD" IN THEIR SEARCH FOR PEACE, THE MAN WHO DIRECTED THE SUCCESSFUL AIR WAR AGAINST JAPAN SAID ADEQUATE MILITARY PREPAREDNESS "WAS OUR BEST INSURANCE AGAINST ATTACK."
KENNEY SAID THE "RED DICTATOR IN THE KREMLIN DID NOT DISARM WITH THE REST OF THE WORLD (AFTER WORLD WAR 11) BUT EMBARKED ON A PROGRAM OF CONSTANTLY INCREASING HIS ARMED FORCES AS HE ABSORBED HIS NEIGHBORS."
"ONLY IF HE SEES THAT WE ARE TOO STRONG FOR HIM, WILL HE HESITATE TO ATTACK," KENNEY DECLARED.

ATLANTIC CITY,N.J.,MAY 20-(AP)-RUSSIA INTENDS TO WIPE OUT THE CULTURAL AND NATIONAL IDENTITY OF THE JEWS AS A GROUP, A NEW YORK TIMES WRITER SAID TONIGHT.
DR.HARRY SCHWARZ SPOKE TO 1,000 PERSONS AT THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF JEWISH SOCIAL WELFARE.
HE SAID THAT NOT ONLY HAS THE SOVIET UNION SHUT DOWN THE JEWISH LANGUAGE NEWSPAPERS, BUT "TODAY THE SOVIET PRESS CARRIES NO REFERENCES TO JEWS IN THE USSR, AND WHEN INDIVIDUAL JEWS ARE MENTIONED, THEY ARE MERELY REFERRED TO AS 'SOVIET' FIGURES."
HAL LEHRMANN, A FORMER FOREIGN CORRESPONDENT, TOLD THE MEETING THAT PROOF OF JEWISH REVULSION AGAINST COMMUNISM IN EASTERN EUROPE IS CONTAINED IN THE STATISTICS OF IMMIGRATION.
"WHENEVER A COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT HAS MADE ESCAPE POSSIBLE," HE SAID, "THE JEWS HAVE POURED OUT TOWARDS ISRAEL AND OTHER HAVENS OF FREEDOM."
IN BULGARIA AND YUGOSLAVIA, HE SAID, WHERE NO BARS WERE PLACED ON IMMIGRATION, THE JEWISH COMMUNITY HAS REDUCED ITSELF TO A MERE HANDFUL.
AS MANY AS 10,000 A MONTH, SAID LEHMANN, ARE RUSHING TO GET OUT OF RUMANIA BEFORE THE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT THERE REVOKES THE FREEDOM OF IMMIGRATION.
DR.SIMON SEGAL, DIRECTOR OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS FOR THE AMERICAN JEWISH COMMITTEE, REPORTED, "THE JEWISH COMMUNITY, WEAKENED BY THE DESTRUCTION BROUGHT ABOUT BY NAZISM AND DEPRIVED OF A LARGE SECTION OF ITS LEADERSHIP, IS GREATLY BEWILDERED AND CONFUSED."
"A WAY MUST BE FOUND," HE SAID, "FOR THE WESTERN EUROPEAN JEWS, WHO ARE GOING TO REMAIN THERE, TO LIVE BOTH AS PART OF THEIR COUNTRIES AND AS JEWS."

"THE JEWS ARE THE NATURAL ALLIES OF THE LIBERAL FORCES IN THE GENERAL STRUGGLE AGAINST TOTALITARIANISM," DOCTOR SEGAL CONCLUDED.

EMANUEL BERLATSKY, PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF JEWISH CENTER WORKERS, OPENED THE CONFERENCE WITH A DESXRIPTION OF THE GROWTH OF CENTER ACTIVITIES.

HE TOLD HOW THE ORGANIZATION'S EFFORTS ARE BEING GEARED TO MEET THE NEEDS OF THE NATION'S DEFENSE MOBILIZATION.

NEW YORK, MAY 20-(AP)-MYRON M.COWEN, UNITED STATES AMBASSADOR TO THE PHILIPPINES, SAID TODAY FILIPINOS "HAVE COMPLETE CONFIDENCE THAT THEIR POSITION IN THE FAR EAST WILL BE PROTECTED BY THE UNITED STATES."

COWEN SAID IN AN INTERVIEW THAT THE FIRST REACTION OF FILIPINOS TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S REMOVAL OF GENERAL DOUGLAS MACARTHUR FROM HIS FAR EASTERN COMMANDS WAS INITIALLY "ONE OF SHOCK."

THIS SUBSIDED, HE SAID, AFTER PRESIDENT TRUMAN STATED THAT UNITED STATES POLICY IN THE PACIFIC WOULD BE UNCHANGED.

COWEN ARRIVED BY PLANE FROM MANILA, VIA LONDON.

HE SAID HE WOULD RETURN TO HIS POST IN MANILA AFTER ROUTINE CONSULTATIONS AT THE STATE DEPARTMENT IN WASHINGTON.

COWEN SAID ECONOMIC CONDITIONS IN THE PHILIPPINES HAVE IMPROVED RECENTLY, DUE IN PART TO THE PASSAGE OF A MINIMUM WAGE BILL AND TAX MEASURES WHICH "JUST ABOUT BALANCE THE BUDGET."

"NOTHING GIVES THE PHILIPPINE PEOPLE MORE CONFIDENCE," HE SAID, "THAN THE PRESENCE OF OUR SEVENTH FLEET IN WATERS NEAR THE PHILIPPINES."

COWEN HAD HIGH PRAISE FOR RECENT MEASURES AGAINST THE COMMUNIST-LED HUKBALAHAPS, MANY OF THEM INSTITUTED BY RAMON MAGSAY, PHILIPPINE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE.

MAGSAY IS MAKING HEADWAY AGAINST THE HUKBALAHAPS, HE SAID, AND SOMETIMES "PERSONALLY GOES INTO THE HILLS AGAINST THEM."

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., MAY 20-(AP)-THE 12 NATIONS OF THE SPECIAL U.N. COMMITTEE STUDYING SANCTIONS AGAINST COMMUNIST CHINA PLAN TO MEET THIS WEEK TO SET UP A REVIEW BOARD FOR THE NEW EMBARGO ON STRATEGIC MATERIALS.

THE U.N. ASSEMBLY CALLED ON THE WORLD LAST FRIDAY TO HALT ANY SHIPMENT OF WAR SUPPLIES TO THE COMMUNISTS, AS A STEP TOWARD HALTING THE WAR IN KOREA.

THE SANCTIONS COMMITTEE IS EMPOWERED TO RECEIVE REPORTS WITHIN 30 DAYS ON HOW WELL THE EMBARGO IS BEING FOLLOWED, AND TO INFORM THE ASSEMBLY WHETHER IT SHOULD BE EXTENDED OR RELAXED.

THE COMMITTEE WAS REQUESTED BY THE ASSEMBLY TO KEEP ON STUDYING WHAT OTHER MEASURES SHOULD BE USED IF THE EMBARGO APPEARS TO BE FAILING.

A U.S. SPOKESMAN SAID THAT THE U.S. HAS CONSISTENTLY FAVORED A GENERAL EMBARGO ON ALL TRADE WITH RED CHINA BUT WAS NOT PLANNING TO PRESS FOR IT AT THIS WEEK'S MEETING. BRITAIN AND OTHERS HAVE SAID THAT AN EMBARGO ONALL TRADE WOULD HARM THE LIFE LINE OF HONG KONG AND OTHER PACIFIC AREAS, WHICH MUST DEPEND ON IMPORTS TO SURVIVE.

ADDITIONAL MEASURES THE ASSEMBLY COULD BE ASKED TO TAKE INCLUDE AUTHORIZING A NAVAL BLOCKADE OF THE RED CHINA COAST; BREAKING DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS OR EXTENDING THE EMBARGO TO SERVICES LIKE COMMUNICATIONS AND MAILS.

THIRD NIGHT LEAD KOREAN WAR ROUNDUP (600)
BY DON HUTH
TOKYO, TUESDAY, MAY 22-(AP)-ALLIED TROOPS CHASED RETREATING REDS AS FAR AS 26 MILES IN WEST AND CENTRAL KOREA TODAY BUT A NEW TANK-LED COMMUNIST OFFENSIVE THREAT AROSE IN THE EAST.
ALLIED FORCES SWUNG TO THE ATTACK AND RAMMED UP TWO MAIN HIGHWAYS NORTH AND NORTHWEST OF SEOUL. ONE FORCE REACHED WITHIN 10 MILES OR LESS OF THE 38TH PARALLEL.
TWO DAYS AGO ALLIED FORCES WERE FIGHTING OFF REDS IN SEOUL'S OUTSKIRTS.
U.N. FORCES HELD THE INITIATIVE ON A 30-MILE ARC ABOVE SEOUL. BUT THE SITUATION WAS REVERSED IN THE MOUNTAINOUS EAST-CENTRAL AREA.
AN ALLIED OFFICER SAID HUGE ARMORED RED FORCES WERE MASSING 50 TO 75 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.
HE TOLD AP CORRESPONDENT WILLIAM C. BARNARD THE REDS MAY STRIKE IN HILLY EAST-CENTRAL KOREA WITH EVEN GREATER FORCE THAN THE 125,000-MAN DRIVE THAT OPENED THERE LAST WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

MAY 22 1951

A123KX
THE GALLANT U. S. SECOND DIVISION STOPPED THAT DRIVE IN FIVE DAYS BY KILLING OR WOUNDING AN ESTIMATED 37,750 OF THE 96,000 REDS WHO TRIED TO DESTROY THE VETERAN AMERICAN OUTFIT.
MONDAY THE DIVISION CUT DOWN MORE REDS ATTACKING NEAR PUNGAM, ABOUT 70 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.
OTHER HEAVY RED LOSSES WERE INFLICTED ON THREE BATAALIONS BY A 200-TON B-29 BOMBING ATTACK LAST NIGHT. THE BATTALIONS WERE HIT AND ROUTED IN FRONT OF THE SECOND DIVISION JUST AS THE REDS WERE PREPARING TO ATTACK.
RED LOSSES WERE STAGGERING. ALLIED SOURCES ESTIMATED THE COMMUNISTS LOST NEARLY 60,000 MEN IN FIVE DAYS ON THE EAST AND WEST-CENTRAL FRONTS BY GROUND ACTION ALONE. GROUND ACTION RED CASUALTIES IN THE WEST AND THOSE INFLICTED BY AIR ATTACKS ALL ACROSS KOREA REMAINED TO BE ADDED.

A124KX
IN THE WEST, NORTH OF SEOUL, THE REDS WERE ON THE RUN.
SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS ADVANCED INTO MUNSAN, 22 MILES NORTHWEST OF SEOUL, AND WENT ON FOUR MILES MORE TO THE SOUTH BANK OF THE IMJIN RIVER. THERE THEY WERE WITHIN 10 MILES OF THE 38TH PARALLEL.
DUE NORTH OF SEOUL, ALLIED FORCES ADVANCED 11 MILES AND REOCCUPIED UIJONGBU.
SOME 25 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL, ADVANCING ALLIED TROOPS FORCED THE REDS TO ABANDON THEIR BRIDGEHEAD ON THE SOUTH BANK OF THE HONGCHON RIVER WHERE THE HONGCHON JOINS THE PUKHAM RIVER.
BUT THE MILITARY PICTURE WAS DIFFERENT IN THE MOUNTAINOUS AREA EASTWARD FROM CHUNCHON, 45 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.
CORRESPONDENT BARNARD SAID THOUSANDS OF REDS STREAMED DOWN THE CENTRAL KOREAN ROAD FROM HWACHON, SEVEN MILES NORTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL THROUGH CHUNCHON, EIGHT MILES SOUTH OF 38.

A125KX
TANKS WERE SIGHTED MONDAY IN CHUNCHON, CLANKING EASTWARD.
OTHER REDS WERE SWARMING DOWN THE INJE-HANGYE ROAD. INJE IS FOUR MILES NORTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL AND 27 MILES NORTHEAST OF CHUNCHON.
HANGYE, A POINT IN THE U. S. SECOND DIVISION LINE, IS 15 MILES SOUTHEAST OF CHUNCHON.
LAST NIGHT AND EARLY TODAY, ALLIED TROOPS BEAT OFF RED ATTACKS SOUTHEAST OF CHUNCHON, SOUTH AND EAST OF HANGYE AND EAST OF PUNGAM.
A THOUSAND REDS ATTACKED NEAR PUNGAM, ANOTHER POINT ON THE SECOND DIVISION FRONT, 15 MILES SOUTHEAST OF HANGYE.
OTHER RED CONCENTRATIONS WERE SEEN MOVING SOUTH AROUND ALLIED-HELD SOKSA, A TOWN 17 MILES SOUTHEAST OF PUNGAM AND WITHIN 25 MILES OF THE EAST COAST.
A RED ATTACK AGAINST SOUTH KOREANS AND AMERICANS PENETRATED THE ALLIED LINE AT ONE POINT, POSING A SLANKING THREAT. WEST OF SOKSA, U. N. TROOPS ATTACKED 6,000 REDS MONDAY AND GAINED NEARLY THREE MILES.
WONSAN, EAST COAST PORT CITY FROM WHICH RED SUPPLY ROADS FEED DOWN TO THE EAST AND EAST-CENTRAL FRONTS, WAS BOMBARDED MONDAY BY THE 16-INCH GUNS OF THE 45,000-TON BATTLESHIP NEW JERSEY.

A126KX
THE U. S. SECOND DIVISION MADE A BOLD EASTWARD SWITCH OF ITS POSITION SUNDAY--COVERED BY ARTILLERY AND PLANE ATTACKS---IN ORDER TO CLOSE A GAP IN ALLIED DEFENSES.
IT WAS A FIGHTING SHIFT. WHILE IT WAS IN PROGRESS, THE SECOND AND OTHER COMPONENTS OF THE U. S. 10TH CORPS KILLED OR WOUNDED AN ESTIMATED 24,700 REDS.
IN ALL, ALLIED SOURCES ESTIMATE THAT 58,561 REDS WERE KILLED OR WOUNDED ON TWO OF THE THREE FRONTS BY GROUND ACTION ALONE IN FIVE DAYS, BEGINNING APRIL 16. MAY
IN WASHINGTON, THE U. S. DEFENSE DEPARTMENT SAID THAT ALLIED LOSSES FOR THE SAME PERIOD WERE 1,618 OF WHICH 960 WERE AMERICANS.
U.S.FIFTH AIR FORCE PILOTS ESTIMATED THEY KILLED OR WOUNDED 750 REDS MONDAY.
HEAVY RED LOSSES WERE CAUSED MONDAY BY ALLIED ARTILLERY WHICH POUNDED RED ASSEMBLY AREAS NEAR CHUNCHON AND HONGCHON.
MORE REDS DIED UNDER ATTACK OF THE SOUTH KOREANS IN THE PUSH TO THE IMJIN RIVER NORTHWEST OF SEOUL. THE SOUTH KOREANS OVERCAME A RED BATTALION FIVE MILES SOUTH OF MUNSAN.
NORTHEAST OF SEOUL, BRITISH AND SOUTH KOREANS JOINED AMERICANS IN ERASING THE REDS' HONGCHON RIVER BRIDGEHEAD. IN ONE ACTION, 67 REDS WERE KILLED AND 118 WOUNDED OUT OF A FORCE OF 300 NEAR CHANGGONG, 25 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

BY TOM STONE
TOKYO,TUESDAY,MAY 22-(AP)-ALLIED FORCES HAVE SWUNG OVER TO THE ATTACK NORTH OF SEOUL AND ADVANCED UP TO 26 MILES BEYOND THE CAPITAL, THE U.S.EIGHTH ARMY REPORTED TODAY.
THE ALLIES WERE COUNTERING QUICKLY AFTER BLEEDING A RED OFFENSIVE TO A HALT IN SIX DAYS BY INFLICTING LOSSES OF 60,000 OR MORE.
EIGHTH ARMY SAID ATTACKING UNITED NATIONS TROOPS SCORED ADVANCES ON AN ARC OF MORE THAN 30 MILES--FROM THE MUNSAN AREA, 22 MILES NORTHWEST OF SEOUL, TO THE VICINITY OF CHANGGONG, 18 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.
SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS ADVANCED FOUR MILES BEYOND MUNSAN TO THE SOUTH BANK OF THE IMJIN RIVER FOR THE DEEPEST WESTWARD THRUST.

THE TUESDAY MID-MORNING COMMUNIQUE OF EIGHTH ARMY REFERRED TO ACTION IN THE WEST AS ADVANCES AND ATTACKS. THE PREVIOUS DAY, THEY HAD BEEN CALLED ONLY RECONNAISSANCE IN FORCE.

ONLY TWO DAYS AGO, ALLIED TROOPS BROKE UP A SUICIDAL NORTH KOREAN ATTACK IN THE OUTSKIRTS OF SEOUL. TODAY'S COMMUNIQUE REPORTED ALLIED ADVANCES ALL AROUND THE SEOUL PERIMETER.

THE ONLY RED AGGRESSIVENESS REPORTED TODAY WAS IN THE EAST-CENTRAL SECTOR BUT EVEN THERE IT WAS TAPERING OFF.

THE REDS BEGAN PULLING BACK IN KOREA MONDAY. THEIR LOSSES NEARED 60,000 ON THE EAST AND WEST-CENTRAL FRONT ALONE FOR FIVE DAYS OF THE OFFENSIVE THEY OPENED LAST WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

THE U.S.DEFENSE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCED UNITED NATIONS DEAD AND WOUNDED IN THE SAME FIVE-DAY PERIOD WERE 1,618. U.S.CASUALTIES WERE 960. THERE WERE NO FIGURES FOR ALLIED MISSING, BUT FRONT OFFICERS SAID RED LOSSES WERE 30 TIMES GREATER THAN THOSE OF THE ALLIES.

FIELD DISPATCHES INDICATED THE FOURTH MAJOR CHINESE AND NORTH KOREAN ATTEMPT TO ENGULF THE UNITED NATIONS ARMY HAD FOUNDERED IN ITS SIXTH DAY.

SECTOR BY SECTOR, THE SORELY-PUNISHED REDS RETIRED IN THE FACE OF TREMENDOUS ARTILLERY, AIRPOWER AND GROUND FIRE.

DESPITE A HEAVY RAIN, ALLIED TROOPS ON THE WEST-CENTRAL FRONT JUMPED OFF WITH SHARP COUNTER-ATTACKS TO PROD THE RETREATING ENEMY.

NORTH OF SEOUL, U.S., BRITISH AND SOUTH KOREAN UNITS RAMMED BACK INTO UIJONGBU AND MUNSAN, 11 AND 22 MILES ABOVE THE OLD KOREAN CAPITAL. MUNSAN IS ONLY 10 MILES SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL.

THE COMMUNISTS, HOWEVER, STILL WERE CAPABLE OF HITTING BACK WITH HEAVY NEW ATTACKS IN THE EAST, SOME 65 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL, IF THEY CAN REGAIN BALANCE.

AP CORRESPONDENT WILLIAM C. BARNARD, ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT, SAID "THE COMMUNIST TIME-TABLE WAS THROWN OUT OF WHACK" BY THE STALWART DEFENSES OF THE U.S. SECOND DIVISION.

THIS "INDIANHEAD" DIVISION HANDED THE REDS, "ONE OF THE MOST STUNNING DEFEATS OF THE WAR," IN REPULSING A SAVAGE FIVE-DAY ONSLAUGHT, HE REPORTED.

MAY 22 1951

TWICE THE DIVISION CLOSED DANGEROUS FLANKING GAPS THE REDS HAD POKED IN SOUTH KOREAN-MANNED SECTIONS OF THE LINE, AND ONE REGIMENT HAD TO FIGHT SOUTH OUT OF A 36-HOUR ENCIRCLEMENT.

FIELD DISPATCHES MONDAY NIGHT REPORTED CLOSURE OF THE FINAL GAP BY A BRILLIANT SIDE-SLIPPING MANEUVER.

THIS SINGLE AMERICAN DIVISION KILLED OR WOUNDED 37,750 CHINESE REDS IN FIVE DAYS BY CONSERVATIVE ESTIMATE, THE U.S. EIGHTH ARMY ANNOUNCED.

THE WHOLE TENTH CORPS, OF WHICH THE SECOND DIVISION IS A PART, COST THE CHINESE 48,341 CASUALTIES, ACCORDING TO AN ESTIMATE BY LT.GEN.EDWARD M.ALMOND, THE CORPS COMMANDER.

OF THESE, ALMOND SAID ALMOST HALF, 24,700, WERE INFLICTED ON SUNDAY ALONE ON THE BIGGEST ONE-DAY TOLL OF THE WAR.

OFFICERS ON THE WEST CENTRAL FRONT (ANOTHER CORPS AREA), ESTIMATED THE CHINESE SUFFERED 10,220 CASUALTIES FROM WEDNESDAY THROUGH SUNDAY.

A220KX

THIS MADE A TOTAL OF 58,561 COMMUNISTS ESTIMATED KNOCKED OUT IN FIVE DAYS OF GROUND ACTION, WITH THE TALLIES FROM THE WESTERN FRONT AND THE HIGH SCORE OF AIR FORCE AND NAVY PLANES STILL TO BE ADDED.

GEN.MATTHEW B. RIDGWAY, U.N. COMMANDER, PARTICULARLY COMMENDED THE U.S. DECOND DIVISION IN A MESSAGE TO DEFENSE SECRETARY MARSHALL AND THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF.

HE SAID, "THE PROFESSIONAL COMPETENCE, THE GALLANTRY AND THE FIGHTING SPIRIT OF (LT.) GEN. (JAMES A.) VAN FLEET'S EIGHTH U.S. ARMY AND ITS SUPPORTING AIR FORCE AND NAVAL FORCES" WERE AN INSPIRATION TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.

RIDGWAY DECLARED THAT THE U.S. SECOND DIVISION HAD INFLICTED LOSSES WHICH CONSERVATIVELY ESTIMATED EXCEED X X X 20 TIMES ITS OWN."

HIS MESSAGE ALSO LAUDED THE SOUTH KOREAN FIRST DIVISION. IT WAS THE COLLAPSE OF TWO UNIDENTIFIED SOUTH KOREAN DIVISIONS WHICH OPENED A BROAD HOLE ON THE RIGHT FLANK.

THUS MAKING AN EARLY GAIN OF UP TO 25 MILES, AND WITH A LARGE PORTION OF THE SECOND DIVISION ISOLATED, THE REDS THEN FAILED BOTH TO HOLD THE TRAP INTACT AND TO EXPLOIT THEIR ADVANTAGE. SO MANY WERE SLAUGHTERED THAT THEY HAD TO EASE OFF SATURDAY.

THE CHINESE TRIED TO SET THEIR OFFENSIVE IN MOTION AGAIN SUNDAY NIGHT. IT WAS FOILED WHEN THEIR ASSEMBLY POINTS WERE HAMMERED BY NIGHT-RAIDING B-29 SUPERFORTS.

DURING THE DAY SUNDAY, THE SECOND DIVISION COMPLETED A SPECTACULAR MANEUVER THAT SLAMMED SHUT THE LAST BREACH THROUGH WHICH THE REDS HAD POURED.

MOVING UNDER CONSTANT CHINESE ATTACKS, MAJ.GEN.CLARK L.RUFFNER'S ENTIRE DIVISION PULLED OUT OF POSITIONS ASTRIDE THE INJE-HONGCHON HIGHWAY AND SLIPPED SOUTHEAST TO PLUG THE HOLE FROM THE HIGHWAY TO A POINT EAST OF PUNGAM, 18 MILES EAST OF HONGCHON.

A221KX

THE TOWN OF HONGCHON, 55 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL, IS THE KEY TO MAJOR ALLIED SUPPLY HIGHWAYS WINDING DOWN TO SOUTHEAST KOREA'S PORT OF PUSAN.

AS THE SECOND DIVISION SHIFTED, A CURTAIN OF AIR, ARTILLERY AND GROUND FIRE COVERED THE TROOPS AND TOOK A BLOODY TOLL OF COMMUNISTS.

GENERAL ALMOND TOLD CORRESPONDENT BARNARD THAT THE CHINESE WERE BURYING THEIR DEAD ALL ALONG A TWO AND A HALF-MILE VALLEY.

ARTILLERY THAT CAUGHT THE CHINESE AT THIS TASK ACCOUNTED FOR MUCH OF SUNDAY'S GREAT ENEMY LOSS, HE SAID, ADDING:

"WE HAVE TAKEN THE STARCH OUT OF WHAT IS IN FRONT OF US."

ALMOND WARNED THAT THE CHINESE "MAY BE GETTING READY TO STRIKE AGAIN," BUT DECLARED, "IF HE DOES, WE ARE PREPARED TO MEET HIM.

"WE HAVE A LINE ACROSS THE (KOREAN) PENINSULA AND WE ARE HOLDING IT.

MAY 22 1951

ALMOND WARNED THAT THE CHINESE "MAY BE GETTING READY TO

"WE HAVE A LINE ACROSS THE (KOREAN) PENINSULA AND WE ARE HOLDING IT.

"WE HAVE A LINE OF FIRE THAT OPERATES DAY AND NIGHT, RAIN OR SHINE. OUR CAPABILITY OF BRINGING DOWN INSTANT FIRE WHENEVER WE SIGHT THESE PEOPLE IS TREMENDOUS."

REPORTS FROM THE WEST-CENTRAL FRONT SAID THE NEW ALLIED COUNTER-THRUSTS FORCED THE CHINESE TO BEGIN WITHDRAWING NORTH OF THE HONGCHON RIVER. U.S.AND REPUBLIC OF KOREA TROPS ADVANCED THROUGH THE RAIN, HARD ON THE HEELS OF RED REAR-GUARDS.

EAST OF THE PUKHAN RIVER, U.N. UNITS ADVANCED WITHIN SIGHT OF THE CHONGPYONG RESERVOIR AND THE POWER DAMS FROM WHICH THE REDS HAD THREATENED THE EASTERN FLANK OF SEOUL.

BRITISH TROOPS STRUCK NORTH FROM POINTS WEST OF THE PUKHAN AND CROSSED THE MAIN SEOUL-CHUNCHON HIGHWAY UNDER LONG-RANGE SMALL-ARMS FIRE.

THE HONGCHON AND PUKHAN RIVERS CONVERGE ABOUT 29 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

ONE AMERICAN UNIT WAS STALLED BY BITTER OPPOSITION FROM THE CHINESE ENTRENCHED SOUTHWEST OF CHANGGONG, WHICH IS 18 MILES EAST OF UIJONGBU, AND 25 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL. AIR STRIKES AND ARTILLERY APPARENTLY FAILED TO DISLODGE THE REDS FROM THEIR HILLSIDE ENTRENCHMENTS.
U.S.COMMANDERS SAID OVER-EXTENDED SUPPLY LINES AND POOR COMMUNICATIONS HAD CAUSED THE REDS FAILURE IN THE WEST.
U.N.RECONNAISSANCE FORCES THEN KNIFED THROUGH THE LINES AND CAUSED THE RED RETREAT WITH HEAVY CASUALTIES.

A222KX
MAY 22 1951
SOME MILITARY OBSERVERS BELIEVED THE COMMUNISTS WERE MOVING UP FRESH TROOPS TO REPLACE XSEVERAL SHATERED REGIMENTS LOST ON THE WESTERN FRONT. OTHER OFFICERS EXPECTED THE REDS TO FIGHT A SLOW WITHDRAWING FIGHT BACK TOWARD THE 38TH PARALLEL.
THE ALLIED PENETRATIONS OF UIJONGBU AND MUNSAN WERE MADE AGAINST LIGHT RESISTANCE. MUNSAN WAS THE OBJECTIVE OF A LARGE-SCALE U.S. PARATROOP OPERATION MARCH 23.
THE AIR FORCES MOUNTED 1,100 SORTIES SUNDAY AGAINST THE ENEMY BUT WERE HINDERED BY HEAVY WEATHER MONDAY. IT MAY MARK THE START OF THE SPRING MONSOON AND ITS DRENCHING RAINS.
WARSHIPS POUNDED THE EAST KOREN COAST AND BLOCKADED THE WESTERN SHORELINE.

THE CHINESE COMMUNIST RADIO AT PEIPING MADE AN UNSUBSTANTIATED CLAIM THAT 16 U. S. WARPLANES WERE SHOT DOWN AND 17 MORE DAMAGED IN TH FIRST 10 DAYS OF MAY. IT SAID THREE AMERICAN PILOTS WERE CAPTURED ALIVE FROM CRASHED PLANES. ONE B-26 PILOT WAS TAKEN IN SPITE OF ATTEPTS OF TWO HELICOPTERS TO RESCUE HIM, THE REDS SAID.

TOKYO, MAY 21-(AP)-REDS BEGAN WITHDRAWING FROM HALF OF THE KOREAN CENTRAL FRONT TODAY AFTER LOSING NEARLY 80,000 MEN, BY ALLIED ESTIMATES IN THEIR FIVE-DAY-OLD OFFENSIVE.
LT. GEN. EDWARD M. ALMOND ANNOUNCED HIS TENTH CORPS KILLED OR WOUNDED 48,341 REDS ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT. SUNDAY'S TOOL ALONE WAS 24,700, HE SAID, THE BIGGEST ONE-DAY TOTAL OF THE WAR.
ALLIED OFFICERS ESTIMATED 10,220 OTHER CASUALTIES WERE INFLICTED ON THE WEST-CENTRAL FRONT, AP CORRESPONDENT GEORGE A. MCARTHUR REPORTED.
IN THIS SECTOR, REDS RETREATED THROUGH A DRIVING RAIN. FRONT LINE DISPATCHES MONDAY NIGHT TOLD OF COMMUNIST WITHDRAWALS BEFORE ADVANCING ALLIES ACROSS MORE THAN 20 MILES OF THE FRONT.
REDS WERE REPORTED ABANDONING THEIR BRIDGEHEADS BELOW THE PUKHAN AND HONGCHON RIVERS, AND PULLING BACK TOWARD CHUNCHON IN THE CENTER.

THE CRITICAL GAP IN UNITED NATIONS LINES ON THE EAST CENTRAL FLANK WAS PLUGGED BY A BRILLIANT TACTICAL MANEUVER OF THE U.S. SECOND DIVISION.
AP CORRESPONDENT WILLIAM C. BARNARD, IN A DISPATCH DELAYED SEVERAL HOURS BY CENSORS, SAID THE SECOND "INDIANHEAD" DIVISION SIDESLIPPED TO THE EAST TO CLOSE THE HOLE LEFT BY THE COLLAPSE OF TWO SOUTH KOREAN DIVISIONS.
THE COORDINATED MOVE STARTED QUIETLY SATURDAY MORNING AND WAS COMPLETED EARLY SUNDAY. MAJ.GEN.

TO THE EAST TO CLOSE THE HOLE LEFT BY THE COLLAPSE OF TWO SOUTH KOREAN DIVISIONS.
THE COORDINATED MOVE STARTED QUIETLY SATURDAY MORNING AND WAS COMPLETED EARLY SUNDAY. MAJ.GEN.CLARK L.RUFFNER'S FIGHTING SECOND MOVED OUT OF ITS SECTOR ASTRIDE THE HONGCHON-INJE ROAD. IT SHIFTED SOUTHEAST TO FILL THE BREACH FROM THE HONGCHON HIGHWAY TO A POINT EAST OF PUNGAM--18 MILES EAST OF HONGCHON.
THE SPECTACULAR MOVE WAS MADE WHILE THE DIVISION BEAT OFF HEAVY CHINESE ATTACKS.
A CURTAIN OF AIR, ARTILLERY AND GROUND FIRE COVERED THE SHIFTING DIVISION AND TOOK A BLOODY TOLL OF COMMUNISTS.

MOST OF THE RED CASUALTIES WERE INFLICTED BY THE U.S.SECOND DIVISION, WHICH THE COMMUNISTS SET OUT TO DESTROY. THE EIGHTH ARMY SAID THE SECOND DIVISION KILLED OR WOUNDED 37,750 REDS IN FIVE DAYS.
"WE'VE TAKEN THE STARCH OUT OF" THE OFFENSIVE, ALMOND SAID. "AND I FEEL CERTAIN THAT IF THEY COME AT US IN EVEN GREATER NUMBERS WE CAN HANDLE THEM AGAIN."
THE REDS THREW 125,000 MEN AT HIS SECTOR IN THEIR SECOND SPRING OFFENSIVE, ALMOND SAID. THE FIRST RED ALL-OUT SMASH BEGAN APRIL 22 AND BOGGED DOWN AT THE END OF 10 DAYS.
IN THEIR NEW DRIVE, THE REDS FELL BEFORE THE TREMENDOUS FIRE POWER OF U.N.ARTILLERY, PLANES AND AUTOMATIC WEAPONS...WERE TRAPPED ON BARBED WIRE ENTANGLEMENTS...BLOWN UP BY MINES.
THE ENEMY "MAY BE GETTING READY TO STRIKE AGAIN," ALMOND SAID, "AND IF HE DOES WE ARE PREPARED TO MEET HIM.
"WE HAVE A LINE ACROSS THE PENINSULA AND WE ARE HOLDING IT. WE HAVE A LINE OF FIRE THAT OPERATES DAY AND NIGHT, RAIN OR SHINE. OUR CAPABILITY OF BRINGING DOWN INSTANT FIRE WHENEVER WE SIGHT THESE PEOPLE IS TREMENDOUS."
MUCH OF SUNDAY'S RECORD CASUALTY TOLL, HE SAID, WAS COMPILED WHEN ARTILLERY CAUGHT THE CHINESE TRYING TO CARRY OFF THEIR DEAD ALL ALONG A TWO AND A HALF MILE VALLEY.

A96FX
EIGHTH ARMY REPORTS AND FIELD DISPATCHES HAD GIVEN NO HINT OF HEAVY RED ASSAULTS SUNDAY.
U.N.FORCES SUFFERED "COMPARATIVELY FEW CASUALTIES" FROM THE REDS' HUMAN SEA WAVE ATTACKS, ALMOND REPORTED. "AND THE SECOND DIVISION IS STILL IN GOOD SHAPE."
A SPOKESMAN AT TOKYO HEADQUARTERS SAID THE INDIAN HEAD DIVISION APPARENTLY INFLICTED MORE THAN 30 CASUALTIES FOR EVERY ONE IT SUFFERED.
BRIEFING OFFICERS SAID THE DIVISION'S POSITION WAS "STILL DANGEROUS. BUT CHINESE ASSAULTS DWINDLED DURING THE NIGHT TO SIX PROBING ATTACKS ON THE LENGTHY EAST-CENTRAL FRONT HELD BY THE SECOND DIVISION. ALL WERE BEATEN BACK.
PRESSURE DIMINISHED ALL ALONG THE FRONT MONDAY MORNING, THE EIGHTH ARMY SAID.
UNITED NATIONS PATROLS STABBED FAR OUT FROM THE SEOUL PERIMETER IN THE FAR WEST. A SOUTH KOREAN PATROL RE-ENTERED MUNSAN, ONLY TEN MILES SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL WITH LITTLE OPPOSITION. AN AMERICAN TASK FORCE PROBED INTO UIJONGBU, 11 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL, UNOPPOSED.
BUT BRITISH UNITS SHOVING NORTHEAST OF THE OLD SOUTH KOREAN CAPITAL RAN INTO STRONG NESTS OF REDS.
THE MAIN KOREAN BATTLEFRONT, MANNED BY THE SECOND DIVISION, "WAS RELATIVELY QUIET DURING THE MORNING," AN EIGHTH ARMY SPOKESMAN SAID.

BUT COMMUNISTS CONTINUED TO MASS BY THE THOUSANDS FOR A NEW ASSAULT AT THE HEROIC SECOND DIVISION. THE DIVISION WAS STRUNG OUT ACROSS MORE THAN 20 MILES AFTER A BRILLIANT TACTICAL MANEUVER THAT CLOSED A HUGE GAP ON ITS FLANK.

A U.S. 8TH ARMY BRIEFING OFFICER SAID THAT HOLE WAS "PRETTY WELL" PLUGGED. BUT THE REDS POURED THROUGH ANOTHER GAP.

"THE SITUATION IS STILL DANGEROUS," THE BRIEFING OFFICER SAID.

U.N. BOMBERS CONCENTRATED ON THE SECOND DIVISION'S SECTOR IN THE WAR'S BIGGEST NIGHT ATTACK ON THE FRONT LINES. B-29 SUPERFORTS AND B-26 INVADERS CUT UP THE REDS WITH 1,000 FRAGMENTATION BOMBS SUNDAY NIGHT. THE AIR FORCE SAID 250 TONS OF BOMBS WERE PINPOINTED IN THE ATTACK BY A NEW RADAR TECHNIQUE.

A BIG JET BATTLE FLARED OVER NORTHWESTERN KOREA AND PRODUCED THE WORLD'S FIRST JET ACE. THREE RUSSIAN-TYPE MIG-15 JETS WERE REPORTED SHOT DOWN IN FLAMES, ONE PROBABLY SHOT DOWN AND FIVE DAMAGED. NONE OF 28 AMERICAN F-86 SABRE JETS WHICH ENGAGED 50 MIGS WAS REPORTED HIT.

THE JET ACE IS CAPT. JAMES JABARA OF WICHITA, KAS. THE 26-YEAR-OLD AIRMAN SENT TWO MIGS DOWN IN FLAMES TO RUN HIS TOTAL TO SIX. FIVE KILLS MAKE AN ACE. ONE MIG "DISINTEGRATED INTO A THOUSAND PIECES OF FLAMING DEBRIS," HE SAID, AND THE OTHER SPUN DOWN IN A "WHIRL OF FIRE."

ON THE GROUND RED PRESSURE EASED SOMEWHAT AFTER STAGGERING LOSSES IN THEIR HUMAN SEA WAVE ATTACKS.

MAY 22 1951

A43FX

AN EIGHTH ARMY SPOKESMAN DESCRIBED RED LOSSES AS "EXTREMELY HEAVY."

AP CORRESPONDENT WILLIAM C. BARNARD REPORTED THAT FIVE DAYS OF FIGHTING ON THE EAST CENTRAL FRONT COST THE REDS CLOSE TO 35,000 CASUALTIES.

U.N. LINES WERE REPORTED STABLE EXCEPT ON ONE FLANK OF THE SECOND DIVISION. THERE' BRIEFING OFFICERS SAID, THE ATTENTION WAS OBSCURE.

FRONT LINE REPORTS SAID THE REDS WERE BUILDING UP HEAVILY IN FRONT OF THE DIVISION. A NEW ATTEMPT TO EXPLOIT ANOTHER BREAKTHROUGH IN SOUTH KOREAN LINES WAS EXPECTED. EXACT LOCATION OF THE OTHER HOLE WAS NOT DISCLOSED.

THE ORIGINAL GAP, CREATED BY THE RETREAT OF TWO SOUTH KOREAN DIVISIONS, WAS CLOSED BY THE ENTIRE SECOND DIVISION SIDESLIPPING TO THE EAST, BARNARD REPORTED IN A DELAYED DISPATCH.

"THE BEAUTIFULLY COORDINATED MOVE STARTED QUIETLY SATURDAY MORNING AND WAS COMPLETED SUNDAY," HE REPORTED.

"MAJ. GEN. CLARK L. RUFFNER'S FIGHTING DIVISION MOVED OUT OF ITS SECTOR ASTRIDE THE HONGCHON-INJE ROAD. IT SHIFTED SOUTHEAST TO FILL THE BREACH FROM THE HONGCHON HIGHWAY TO A POINT EAST OF PUNGNAM.

"IT WAS A SPECTACULAR MOVE ACCOMPLISHED WHILE THE DIVISION BEAT OFF HEAVY CHINESE THRUSTS.

"A CURTAIN OF AIR, ARTILLERY AND GROUND FIRE COVERED THE SHIFTING TROOPS AND TOOK A BLOODY TOLL OF COMMUNISTS.

"THE BRILLIANCE OF THE MOVE ADDED ANOTHER LAUREL TO THE RECORD OF THE HEROIC DIVISION. AT ONE TIME IT FOUGHT THE CHINESE FROM THREE SIDES WHEN THE SOUTH KOREAN WITHDRAWAL LEFT ITS EAST FLANK COMPLETELY EXPOSED."

THE REDS WERE MASSED MONDAY IN TWO LARGE AREAS ABOVE PUNGAM ON THE EASTERN FLANK OF THE SECOND DIVISION. THAT SECTOR WAS COMPARATIVELY QUIET SUNDAY.

A DIVISION SPOKESMAN ESTIMATED 900 REDS WERE KILLED AND 600 WOUNDED IN FIGHTING ON THE WESTERN FLANK WHERE REDS WERE TEMPORARILY DRIVEN BACK.

BITTEREST FIGHTING SUNDAY WAS REPORTED IN THE WEST CENTRAL SECTOR WHERE REDS WERE TRYING TO ENLARGE A BRIDGEHEAD ACROSS THE JUNCTION OF THE PUKHAN AND HONGCHON RIVERS. THE FIGHTING WAS SLIGHTLY MORE THAN 20 MILES SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL AND NEARLY 30 MILES EAST OF SEOUL.

A44FX

FARTHER WEST ALLIED PATROLS STABBING OUT FROM SEOUL MET STIFF RESISTANCE. BUT AP CORRESPONDENT JOHN RANDOLPH REPORTED THERE WAS SOME INDICATION THE REDS WERE WITHDRAWING BEFORE THE U.N. TROOPS. IT WAS NOT A GENERAL RETREAT. IT COULD BE JUST AN ADJUSTMENT OF LINES IN FACE OF STRONG AMERICAN ACTION.

U.N. TROOPS MADE ONE NINE-MILE ADVANCE IN THE EXTREME WEST. IN ANOTHER ADVANCE THEY PUSHED TWO MILES DUE NORTH OF SEOUL.

THESE ACTIONS, LIKE THE ENTIRE FRONT, WERE DESCRIBED BY ONE HIGH RANKING OFFICER AS A "DEADLY GAME OF HIDE AND SEEK."

"IT'S PRETTY CONFUSING," SAID ANOTHER 8TH ARMY OFFICER. ONE TIME AN AREA IS DESERTED AND "A COUPLE OF HOURS LATER," HE SAID, "THOSE SAME HILLS AND WOODS ARE CRAWLING WITH CHINAMEN."

RED COMMANDERS "PLACE NO VALUE ON HUMAN LIFE," GEN. MATTHEW B. RIDGWAY SAID ON HIS FOURTH TRIP TO THE FRONT SINCE BECOMING SUPREME COMMANDER. HE ESTIMATED THAT FOUR OR FIVE REDS WOULD BE KILLED TO EVERY U.N. SOLDIER LOSS.

LT. GEN. EDWARD M. ALMOND, TENTH CORPS COMMANDER, HAD A CLOSE CALL HIMSELF ON A VISIT TO THE FRONT. HE SOUGHT PROTECTION BEHIND A LEAD TANK WHEN A RED MACHINE GUN OPENED UP ON THE POSITION HE WAS VISITING.

FIRST LEAD CASUALTIES (460)

BY WILLIAM C. BARNARD

EAST CENTRAL FRONT, KOREA, MAY 21-(AP)-NEARLY 50,000 REDS HAVE BEEN KILLED OR WOUNDED ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT IN THE FIVE-DAY-OLD COMMUNIST OFFENSIVE, LT. GEN. EDWARD M. ALMOND ANNOUNCED TONIGHT.

"WE HAVE TAKEN THE STARCH OUT OF WHAT IS IN FRONT OF US," THE TENTH CORPS COMMANDER TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE, "AND I FEEL CERTAIN THAT IF THEY COME AT US IN EVEN GREATER NUMBERS WE CAN HANDLE THEM AGAIN."

THE FIVE-DAY TOLL WAS 48,341. ALMOND SAID IT INCLUDES 24,700 CASUALTIES INFLICTED SUNDAY IN THE BIGGEST ONE DAY TOLL OF THE WAR.

ALMOND'S FIGURES INCLUDE THE TOLL TAKEN BY EVERY DIVISION UNDER HIS COMMAND. AMONG THEM IS THE U.S. SECOND DIVISION, WHICH HAS BORN THE BRUNT OF THE RED OFFENSIVE. (THE U.S. EIGHTH ARMY SAID THE SECOND DIVISION HAD INFLICTED 37,750 CASUALTIES IN THE FIVE DAYS.)

"WE HAVE ABSORBED THE SHOCK AND WROUGHT A TREMENDOUS EXECUTION OF THOSE ELEMENTS THAT HAVE STRUCK US," THE 58-YEAR-OLD COMMANDER SAID. "HE (THE ENEMY) MAY BE GETTING READY TO STRIKE AGAIN AND IF HE DOES WE ARE PREPARED TO MEET HIM.

"WE HAVE A LINE ACROSS THE PENINSULA AND WE ARE HOLDING IT. OUR MEN HAVE A BETTER SPIRIT NOW THAN FOUR DAYS AGO. I HAVE NEVER SEEN TROOPS WHO HAVE BEEN IN A HARD FIVE-DAY BATTLE SO FULL OF FIGHT. THEY ARE CONFIDENT NOW THAT THEY CAN HANDLE ANYTHING.

"FROM 10 A.M. YESTERDAY UNTIL LAST NIGHT WAS THE BIGGEST EXECUTION OF ENEMY YET," ALMOND WENT ON. HE EMPHASIZED THAT ENEMY CASUALTIES ON SUNDAY WERE GREATER THAN THE TOTAL OF FOUR PREVIOUS DAYS OF THE OFFENSIVE.

"ARTILLERY CAUGHT THEM CARRYING OFF THEIR DEAD," ALMOND SAID. "AND THEY GOT THOSE TOO."

ALMOND SAID THAT CHINESE WERE BURYING THEIR DEAD ALL ALONG A TWO AND A HALF MILE VALLEY YESTERDAY.

AN ARMY OF 125,000 CHINESE STRUCK THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT WEDNESDAY IN THE BIGGEST OFFENSIVE OF THE KOREAN WAR. THE BATTLE CONTINUES.

"WE HAVE A LINE OF FIRE THAT OPERATES DAY AND NIGHT, RAIN OR SHINE," SAID THE GENERAL. "OUR CAPABILITY OF BRINGING DOWN INSTANT FIRE WHEN-EVER WE SIGHT THESE PEOPLE IS TREMENDOUS.

"THE CHINESE MADE A GREAT BID ON THIS OFFENSIVE THEY SAID THEY WERE GOING TO DESTROY THE SECOND DIVISION. WELL, WE HAVE HAD COMPARATIVELY FEW CASUALTIES AND THE SECOND DIVISION IS STILL IN GOOD SHAPE."

A94FX

SPEAKING OF CHINESE HUMAN SEA TACTICS, THE GENERAL SAID:

"THE CHINESE RELY ON QUANTITY AND NOT QUALITY. THEY PUT OVER-WHELMING NUMBERS IN THE FIELD ON THE THEORY THAT SOME WILL GET THROUGH."

OF ENEMY INFILTRATION DURING THE FIRST DAYS OF THE OFFENSIVE, ALMOND SAID SOME CHINESE DID BREAK THROUGH AND THAT SOME ALLIED COMMAND POSTS WERE OVERRUN AND OFFICERS AND MEN OF COMMAND POSTS WERE KILLED OR WOUNDED.

ON THE FRONT MONDAY ALLIED FORCES PATROLLED NORTHWARD WITHOUT MEETING ANY ENEMY. SOUTHEAST OF CHUNCHON THE COMMUNISTS LAUNCHED AN ATTACK WHICH WAS REPULSED.

ROKS (400)

BY TOM BRADSHAW

EAST CENTRAL FRONT, KOREA, MAY 21-(AP)-A U.S.10TH CORPS OFFICER SAID TODAY SOUTH KOREAN SOLDIERS SHOULDN'T BE EXPECTED TO PERFORM FLAWLESSLY UNDER FIRE BECAUSE THEY JUST AREN'T FIRST CLASS TROOPS.

COL.LAURENCE K.LADUE OF CHARLESTON, S.C., DEPUTY CORPS COMMANDER, SAID THE ROK (REPUBLIC OF KOREA) TROOPS WHO COLLAPSED ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT AT THE START OF THE NEW RED DRIVE TRIED TO STAND THEIR GROUND BUT THERE WERE TOO MANY CHINESE FOR THEM TO HANDLE.

UNITS IN THE TENTH CORPS SECTOR HAVE BORNE THE BRUNT OF THE LATEST CHINESE OFFENSIVE. IT HAS BEEN ONE OF LADUE'S JOBS TO SERVE AS LIAISON BETWEEN THE CORPS COMMANDER, LT.GEN.EDWARD M.ALMOND, AND ROK DIVISIONS.

TWO OF THE SOUTH KOREAN REGIMENTS MANAGED TO HOLD GROUND AND, SAID LADUE, "DID A JOB." BUT OTHER REGIMENTS BROKE UNDER HEAVY RED PRESSURE AND DISINTEGRATED. THEIR ROUTE LEFT THE U.S.SECOND DIVISION IN A BAD SPOT, OPEN TO ENCIRCLEMENT FROM THE EAST.

ONE THING CAN BE SAID FOR THE SOLDIERS OF THE ROK DIVISIONS--THEY LOST NONE OF THEIR ARTILLERY PIECES IN THEIR FLIGHT.

THE RETREATING TROOPS DID LOSE SOME EQUIPMENT TO THE REDS AND IT

HAD TO BE DESTROYED BY ALLIED AIR EFFORT.

"THE ROKS FOUGHT WELL AT FIRST," SAID LADUE. "BUT THE CHINESE JUST KEPT COMING IN WAVES AND IT WAS A CASE OF TOO MANY FOR THE ROKS TO HANDLE."

AS THEY HAVE DONE BEFORE, THE SOUTH KOREAN SOLDIERS PASSED FROM MAN TO MAN THE NAME OF AN ASSEMBLY POINT FARTHER SOUTH. THEN THEY ABANDONED THEIR POSITIONS AND FLED.

SOME MOVED BY ROAD. SOME HEADED FOR THE HILLS. OTHERS MARCHED TO THE SOUTH WITH SOME SEMBLANCE OF MILITARY ORDER. STILL OTHERS STRAGGLED BACK INDIVIDUALLY.

FROM AN AMERICAN MILITARY STANDPOINT IT WAS A SORRY SIGHT--A SIGHT THAT U.S.TROOPS HAVE BECOME ACCUSTOMED TO IN KOREA.

"BUT YOU MUST REMEMBER," SAID LADUE, "THAT THE ROK ARMY IS A VERY YOUNG ARMY. IT IS COMING OF AGE SLOWLY BUT THE IMPROVEMENT IS THERE IF YOU LOOK FOR IT. EVERYONE OF THE ROK UNITS HAS BEEN CHEWED UP BADLY AT ONE TIME OR ANOTHER AND THEY FREQUENTLY HAVE NOT HAD TIME TO TRAIN AS A TEAM BEFORE BEING HIT AGAIN.

"IT WOULD BE FINE IF WE HAD ENOUGH TRAINED AMERICAN TROOPS TO COVER THE ENTIRE FRONT. WE JUST DON'T HAVE THEM AND AS A RESULT WE HAVE TO USE THE ROK UNITS WITH THEIR ADMITTED DRAWBACKS. WITH THE PASSAGE OF TIME THOSE DRAWBACKS WILL BECOME FEWER.

"AND SOME DAY," LADUE ADDED, "WE MAY WANT TO LEAVE KOREA IN THEIR HANDS. WE MUST MAKE CERTAIN THEY HAVE BEEN PROPERLY TRAINED."

EAST CENTRAL FRONT, KOREA, TUESDAY, MAY 22-(AP)-CHINESE COMMUNIST FORCES WERE BUILDING UP TREMENDOUSLY ALL ALONG THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT TODAY FOR WHAT APPEARED TO BE ANOTHER POWERFUL DRIVE SOUTHWARD.

AN ARMY OFFICER SAID THOUSANDS OF ENEMY TROOPS STREAMED DOWN THE HWACHON-CHUNCHON HIGHWAY AND THE INJE-HANGYE HIGHWAY AND GREAT GROUPS OF CHINESE MOVED EASTWARD OUT OF CHUNCHON. CHUNCHON IS 45 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL. HANGYE IS 15 MILES SOUTHEAST OF CHUNCHON.

LAST NIGHT AND TODAY THE REDS MADE HEAVY PROBING ATTACKS.

A111KX

LAST NIGHT SOUTHEAST OF CHUNCHON, THE ALLIES RESISTED A SHARP RED MACHINEGUN ATTACK. JUST SOUTH OF HANGYE, A SIMILAR ATTACK WAS BROKEN UP AT 3:16 A.M. TODAY. EAST OF PUNGAM, 15 MILES SOUTHEAST OF HANGYE, 1,000 CHINESE REDS LAUNCHED AN ATTACK AND MET STIFF ALLIED RESISTANCE.

NORTHWEST OF SOKSA, LARGE CONCENTRATIONS OF REDS WERE BUILDING UP AND MOVING SOUTHWARD. THE ALLIES CONTROLLED SOKSA TODAY. IT IS 17 MILES SOUTHEAST OF PUNGAM AND WITHIN 25 MILES OF THE EAST KOREAN COAST.

RED TANKS WERE SIGHTED IN CHUNCHON YESTERDAY, THE ARMY OFFICER SAID. HE BELIEVED THE CHINESE MAY BE PREPARING AN ATTACK AS GREAT OR GREATER THAN THE OFFENSIVE BEGUN LAST WEDNESDAY WHEN 125,000 COMMUNISTS HIT THE EAST CENTRAL FRONT.

HIDE AND SEEK

(470)

BY NATE POLOWETZKY

U.S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, KOREA, MAY 21-(AP)-REMEMBER WHEN THE MAGICIAN USED TO MAKE THE EGG DISAPPEAR WITH THE WORDS:

"NOW YOU SEE IT, NOW YOU DON'T"?

THAT DESCRIBES, PRETTY WELL, THE WAY THE CHINESE HAVE BEHAVED IN THE KOREAN WAR, ESPECIALLY IN THEIR LAST TWO OFFENSIVES.

TAKE THE CURRENT OFFENSIVE ON THE EAST CENTRAL FRONT, WHERE THE U.S. 2ND DIVISION HAS BEEN FIGHTING SO VALIANTLY.

AS ONE HIGH RANKING OFFICER PUT IT TODAY:

"IT'S LIKE SOME DEADLY GAME OF HIDE AND SEEK.

"ONE DAY WE SEND A STRONG TANK PATROL UP A ROAD INTO A TOWN, AND A MILE OR SO BEYOND," HE SAID. THEY DON'T SEE A SINGLE ENEMY SOLDIER. ALL'S NICE AND QUIET. THE NEXT DAY WE SEND THAT SAME TANK PATROL UP THAT SAME ROAD AND THERE ARE THOUSANDS OF CHINKS ALL OVER THE PLACE AND THE PATROL CAN'T EVEN GET NEAR THE TOWN.

"WHERE DID THEY COME FROM? WHO KNOWS?

"PROBABLY THEY'VE BEEN HIDING ALL DAY AND ALL NIGHT IN THE MOUNTAINS, IN CAVES, AND IN SOME CASES IN ABANDONED MINES."

THESE HIDE AND SEEK TACTICS HAVE MADE IT ROUGH FOR ARMY INTELLIGENCE AND OPERATIONS OFFICERS.

"TAKE THE OTHER DAY," AN EIGHTH ARMY OFFICER SAID, "WHEN THE SECOND DIVISION WAS IN TROUBLE UP ON THE EAST CENTRAL FRONT.

"I WENT OVER TO ONE OFFICE TO SEE WHAT THE SITUATION WAS. THAT WAS AT 10 A.M. THEY TOLD ME EVERYTHING LOOKED BETTER, THAT THINGS WERE 'SHAPING UP.

"I WENT BACK AT 4 P.M. THE FELLOWS SHOOK THEIR HEADS SADLY. 'THINGS LOOK PRETTY GRIM,' THEY SAID. THEY FOUND THOUSANDS AND THOUSANDS MORE CHINESE THAN WERE REPORTED BEFORE.

"I WENT BACK AT 8 P.M. THINGS WERE LOOKING EVEN WORSE. THE CHINESE WERE MOVING IN ALL DIRECTIONS AND THERE WAS A HUGE MASS IN FRONT OF THE 2ND DIVISION THAT WASN'T THERE BEFORE.

"THEN CAME 10 P.M., AND I WANTED MORE INFORMATION. THE BOYS IN THE OFFICE WERE ALL SMILES NOW. REPORTS HAD JUST COME IN THAT THERE WEREN'T AS MANY CHINESE MASSED UP THERE AS THEY HAD THOUGHT, AFTER ALL.

"IT'S PRETTY CONFUSING, DON'T YOU THINK?"

NEWSPAPERMEN, TRYING TO REPORT THE WAR, FIND IT PRETTY CONFUSING TOO. THEY RECEIVE FOUR OR FIVE DIFFERENT REPORTS A DAY ON ONE SITUATION.

TO FIND ANYONE TO QUOTE DIRECTLY ON THE SITUATION IS PRETTY TOUGH, TOO. AND WHEN YOU FINALLY DO, NINE OUT OF 10 TIMES THE MILITARY CENSOR WON'T LET YOU NAME THE SOURCE. THEY HAVE THEIR VERY GOOD REASONS.

"WE'RE NOT CRYING WOLF WHEN WE SUDDENLY COME UP WITH A FEW HUNDRED THOUSAND TROOPS WHO APPARENTLY WEREN'T THERE BEFORE," THE OFFICER SAID. "AFTER ALL JUST REMEMBER THAT THE CHINESE ARE NOW OPERATING IN SOME OF THE DAMNDEST COUNTRY IN KOREA. THEY CAN HIDE AND COME OUT AND THEN HIDE AGAIN.

"A PILOT GOES UP AND LOOKS OVER THE HILLS AND WOODS AND CAN'T SEE A THING. A COUPLE OF HOURS LATER ANOTHER PILOT GOES UP AND SEES THOSE SAME HILLS AND WOODS CRAWLING WITH CHINAMEN. AND THAT'S THE WAY IT'S BEEN ALL THE TIME.

"IT'S PRETTY CONFUSING."

U.S. FIFTH AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS, KOREA, MAY 21-(AP)-A 26-YEAR-OLD KANSAN BECAME THE FIRST JET ACE IN HISTORY SUNDAY IN A SWIRLING DOG FIGHT OVER NORTHWEST KOREA.

TODAY HE WAS RELIEVED OF COMBAT FLYING DUTY AND MADE AN INSTRUCTOR.

CAPT. JAMES H. JABARA OF [illegible]

30.24- 23241

CAPT. JAMES W. JABARA OF WICHITA DESTROYED TWO OF THE THREE RUSSIAN-MADE MIG-15 JETS SHOT DOWN BY F-86 SABRE JETS NEAR THE MANCHURIAN BORDER. THEY WERE HIS FIFTH AND SIXTH OF THE KOREAN WAR--ONE MORE THAN NEEDED TO BECOME AN ACE.

THE DOUBLE ACE--HE HAD 6 1/2 CONFIRMED AIR VICTORIES OVER EUROPE IN WORLD WAR II--FLEW TO JAPAN TODAY. HE MADE THE 700-MILE FLIGHT SO FAST HE ARRIVED THERE BEFORE THE MESSAGE INFORMING THE JAPANESE FIELD HE HAD TAKEN OFF.

IN SUNDAY'S AIR BATTLE, 50 RED JETS WERE CAUGHT BY THE SABRE JETS SOUTH OF THE YALU RIVER. IN ADDITION TO THE THREE RED PLANES DESTROYED, ONE WAS LISTED AS PROBABLY DESTROYED AND FIVE AS DAMAGED.

"I TACKED ONTO THREE MIGS AT 35,000 FEET AND PICKED OUT THE LAST MAN," JABARA SAID.

"I FIRED TWO BURSTS WHICH RIPPED UP THE FUSELAGE AND THE LEFT WING. THE MIG BURST INTO FLAMES AND SNAPROLLED TWICE. AT ABOUT 10,000 FEET, THE PILOT BAILED OUT. JUST AS HE JUMPED, THE MIG DISINTEGRATED INTO A THOUSAND PIECES OF FLAMING DEBRIS.

"I CLIMBED BACK TO 20,000 FEET AND IMMEDIATELY BOUNCED SIX MORE MIGS. I FIRED TWO BURSTS INTO ONE OF THEM, SCORING HEAVILY BOTH TIMES. HE FELL INTO AN UNCOTROLLED SPIN AND ALL I COULD SEE OF HIM WAS A WHIRL OF FIRE."

IN WORLD WAR II, JABARA WENT ON 133 MISSIONS. HE WAS AWARDED THE AIR MEDAL WITH 20 CLUSTERS, A PRESIDENTIAL CITATION AND THE EUROPEAN CAMPAIGN RIBBON WITH SIX BATTLE STARS.

IN WICHITA, HIS FATHER -- GROCER JOHN JABARA -- SAID JAMES THREATENED TO RUN AWAY FROM HOME WHEN HE WAS 17 TO JOIN THE AIR FORCE.

JAMES JABARA'S WIFE, NINA, AND TWO CHILDREN, CAROL ANN AND JAMES, LIVE IN MCKINNEY, TEX.

THE CAPTAIN'S EXPLOITS KEPT HIS FAMILY UP LATE SUNDAY NIGHT.

"WE GOT AWFULLY EXCITED ABOUT IT," HIS WIFE COMMENTED.

REDS-RELIGION (230)

BY SPENCER MOOSA

TAIPEH, FORMOSA, MAY 21-(AP)-THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS SAID TODAY PICTURES AND IMAGES OF JESUS CHRIST ARE BEING RIPPED FROM THE WALLS OF CHURCHES IN RED CHINA. THEY ARE TO BE REPLACED BY PICTURES OF COMMUNIST LEADER MAO TZE-TUNG AND THE RED CHINESE FLAG.

THE NATIONALIST DEFENSE MINISTRY REPORTED:

THE ORDER WAS ISSUED BY THE COMMUNIST RELIGIOUS AFFAIRS BUREAU IN PEIPING. IT ALSO AFFECTS PICTURES OF THE APOSTLES AND OTHER BIBLIC FIGURES ON THE GENERAL GROUND THAT THEY WERE "IMPERIALISTS."

THE REDS ALSO ORDERED THE DISSOLUTION OF ALL CHRISTIAN ORGANIZATIONS FINANCED FROM THE UNITED STATES, SAYING:

"AMERICAN IMPERIALISTIC ELEMENTS AND THEIR RUNNING DOGS HAVE FOR A LONG TIME MASKED THEIR AGGRESSIVE ACTIVITIES UNDER A CAMOUFLAGE OF RELIGION."

THE MINISTRY SAID THE BUREAU SPECIFICALLY CITED AN AMERICAN MISSIONARY, DR.FRANK PRICE, WHOSE ARREST IN SHANGHAI ON CHARGES OF SPYING WAS REPORTED IN MARCH. HE BELONGS TO THE SOUTHERN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH AND WAS FOR YEARS A PROMINENT MEMBER OF THE NATIONAL CHRISTIAN COUNCIL OF CHINA.

DURING WORLD WAR II HE SERVED CHIANG KAI-SHEK UNOFFICIALLY AS SPIRITUAL ADVISER.

THE MINISTRY ALSO SAID THE COMMUNIST RELIGIOUS AFFAIRS BUREAU HAD ORDERED A PROBE OF ACTIVITIES OF FOREIGN PREACHERS. THEY WERE ACCUSED OF HAVING "HELPED FOREIGN AGGRESSORS IN CHINA AND DONE MANY OTHER THINGS QUITE CONTRARY TO THE INTERESTS OF THE CHINESE PEOPLE."

SINGAPORE, TUESDAY, MAY 22-(AP)-SINGAPORE, THE BRITISH CROWN COLONY WHICH IS THE BIGGEST EXPORTER OF RUBBER, HAS BANNED RUBBER SHIPMENTS TO RED CHINA, GOV. SIR FRANKLIN GIMSON ANNOUNCED TODAY.

THE GOVERNOR DISCLOSED THE BAN ACTUALLY HAS BEEN IN FORCE SINCE MAY 15. SINCE THAT DATE NO RUBBER EXPORT LICENSES FOR COMMUNIST CHINA HAVE BEEN ISSUED, UNDER DESTINATION CONTROL MEASURES INSTITUTED APRIL 9.

THE BAN WAS IMPOSED WITH THE AGREEMENT OF THE GOVERNOR'S COUNCIL AT THE REQUEST OF THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT. IT IS EXPECTED THAT A SPECIAL COMMITTEE WILL BE APPOINTED TO REGULATE PRICES AT WHICH BRITAIN WILL TAKE OVER RUBBER SALE CONTRACTS MADE WITH RED CHINA BY MALAYAN PRODUCERS AND DEALERS BEFORE THE BAN WAS INSTITUTED. THE COMMITTEE WILL CONSIST OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE INDUSTRY.

GIMSON TOLD THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL IN MAKING THE ANNOUNCEMENT THAT INCREASES IN EXPORTS OF RUBBER TO RED CHINA WERE CLEARLY IN EXCESS OF CHINA'S NORMAL PEACETIME CIVILIAN REQUIREMENTS. HE ADDED THAT THE MATERIALS "THEREFORE ARE LIKELY TO BE USED FOR STRATEGIC STOCKPILING AND FOR THE SLAUGHTER OF FORCES OF THE UNITED NATIONS FIGHTING IN KOREA."

THE ACTION ACTUALLY WAS TAKEN FIVE DAYS AFTER BRITAIN HAD ANNOUNCED THAT MALAYA AND BORNEO WERE BEING REQUESTED TO HALT RUBBER SHIPMENTS TO CHINA.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT CAME AS ONE BRITISH SHIP, THE FREIGHTER NANCY MOLLER, LOADED WITH 3,700 TONS OF RUBBER, WAS HEADED BACK TO SINGAPORE AFTER INTERCEPTION BY A BRITISH DESTROYER NEAR HAINAN ISLAND, OFF SOUTHEAST COAST OF CHINA.

ANOTHER SHIP, THE NORBAY, OF PANAMANIAN REGISTRY WITH 750 TONS OF BER INTENDED FOR CHINA, IS BEING HELD IN SINGAPORE HARBOR WITH AN ED GUARD ABOARD.

THE GOVERNMENT'S BAN ON RUBBER SHIPMENTS DOES NOT AFFECT TRANS-SHIPMENT FROM OTHER PLACES, SUCH AS SUMATRA, ON BILLS OF LADING.
IT WAS EXPLAINED THAT THE PERCENTAGE OF SUCH TRANSSHIPMENT IS SMALL, INSOFAR AS HIGH-GRADE RUBBER IS CONCERNED. HOWEVER, BRITAIN CAN STILL "REQUISITION" SUCH SHIPMENTS IF THEY ARE IN BRITISH SHIPS. THE NANCY MOLLER'S CARGO WAS "REQUISITIONED."

THE GOVERNOR SAID THE RUBBER QUESTION HAS RAISED "FUNDAMENTAL POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC ISSUES AFFECTING THE PRESENT CONDITION AND FUTURE WELL BEING OF THIS COLONY AS AN INTERNATIONAL COMMERCIAL CENTER OF FIRST IMPORTANCE."

HE STATED POINTEDLY THAT "NOTHING SHOULD BE DONE OR ALLOWED TO JEOPARDIZE THE FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH AND THE UNITED STATES AND OTHER UNITED NATIONS OR TO WEAKEN THE COMMON CAUSE IN WHICH WE ARE ALL ENGAGED."

SINGAPORE, MAY 21-(AP)-THE FREIGHTER NANCY MOLLER, INTERCEPTED OFF THE CHINA COAST BY A BRITISH DESTROYER, IS NOW MOVING TOWARD SINGAPORE ESCORTED BY ANOTHER BRITISH WARSHIP.

THE NANCY MOLLER WAS HALTED EN ROUTE TO RED CHINA WITH 3,500 TONS OF MALAYAN RUBBER. SHE IS EXPECTED HERE WEDNESDAY MORNING.

A NAVAL VESSEL WENT OUT FROM SINGAPORE NAVAL STATION TO MEET THE NANCY MOLLER AFTER AN R.A.F. PLANE TOOK OVER THE WATCH FOLLOWING INTERCEPTION BY THE DESTROYER COSSACK FRIDAY.

THE FREIGHTER AND HER RUBBER CARGO WERE "REQUISITIONED" BY THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT AFTER SHE SAILED FROM SINGAPORE TWO DAYS AFTER BRITAIN BANNED THE SHIPMENT OF RUBBER TO RED CHINA. THE RUBBER CARGO HOWEVER, WAS COVERED BY AN EXPORT LICENSE ISSUED HERE BEFORE THE BAN WAS IMPOSED.

NIGHT LEAD PROTEST (330)

LONDON, MAY 21-(AP)-THE FOREIGN OFFICE SAID TODAY IT HAS PROTESTED TO COMMUNIST CHINA AGAINST THE ARREST AND CONTINUED IMPRISONMENT WITHOUT TRIAL OF 48 BRITISH, COMMONWEALTH AND AMERICAN CITIZENS.

THE PROTEST WAS MADE APRIL 30, THE FOREIGN OFFICE STATEMENT SAID, AND "NO REPLY HAS YET BEEN RECEIVED FROM THE CHINESE MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS."

BRITAIN, WHO RECOGNIZES THE PEIPING REGIME, HAS BEEN REPRESENTING AMERICAN INTERESTS THROUGH HER DIPLOMATS SINCE THE U.S. EMBASSY AND CONSULATES WERE CLOSED FOLLOWING THE COMMUNIST VICTORY.

THE FOREIGN OFFICE STATEMENT SAID THE RED CHINESE AUTHORITIES WERE HOLDING FOUR BRITONS, SIX CANADIANS, THREE AUSTRALIANS AND ABOUT 35 AMERICANS.

"IN ALMOST EVERY CASE," THE STATEMENT SAID, "THE CHINESE AUTHORITIES HAVE HITHERTO GIVEN NO EXPLANATION OF THE ARRESTS AND NO INFORMATION ABOUT THE WELFARE AND WHEREABOUTS OF THE PERSONS ARRESTED.

"NO ACCESS HAS BEEN ALLOWED TO HIS MAJESTY'S CONSULS OR TO LEGAL ADVISERS, NOR HAS COMMUNICATION NORMALLY BEEN ALLOWED WITH FRIENDS OUTSIDE."

THE BRITISH REPRESENTATIVE IN PEIPING, SAID THE STATEMENT, HAD ALSO REQUESTED "ON HUMANITARIAN NO LESS THAN ON EQUITABLE GROUNDS THAT THE CHINESE AUTHORITIES SHOULD TAKE STEPS TO CAUSE AN EARLY HEARING OF THE CHARGES AGAINST THESE PEOPLE."

IN WASHINGTON, THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID IT IS "EXTREMELY CONCERNED" OVER THE IMPRISONMENT OF THE AMERICANS AND ALSO AT THE PEIPING REGIME'S REFUSAL TO GRANT EXIT VISAS TO A NUMBER OF AMERICANS INCLUDING SOME BUSINESS MEN IN THE PORT OF SHANGHAI. SOME OF THESE HAVE BEEN TRYING TO GET OUT FOR A YEAR, THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID.

THE FOUR BRITONS HELD BY THE COMMUNISTS INCLUDE TWO MISSIONARIES, A RADIO OPERATOR WHO ONCE WORKED FOR THE TIBETAN GOVERNMENT AND A BRITISH SUBJECT OF CHINESE ORIGIN.

INFORMED OFFICIALS IN WASHINGTON SAID MOST OF THE AMERICANS IMPRISONED ARE CATHOLIC MISSIONARIES OF THE MARYKNOLL ORDER, ALTHOUGH SOME PROTESTANT CLERGYMEN ARE INCLUDED, ALSO.

NEARLY ALL ARE IN PRISONS IN KWANGTUNG AND KWANGSI PROVINCES IN SOUTH CHINA, BUT AS MANY AS 30 OTHER AMERICANS ARE UNDER SO-CALLED HOUSE ARREST. ABOUT 10 AMERICANS HAVE BEEN DENIED EXIT VISAS FROM SHANGHAI.

CHARGES AGAINST THE AMERICANS ARE, FOR THE MOST PART VAGUE, BUT SOME HAVE BEEN SUBJECTED TO CHARGES RANGING FROM SPYING TO "CULTURAL AGGRESSION."

WASHINGTON, MAY 21-(AP)-THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID TODAY IT IS "EXTREMELY CONCERNED" AT THE IMPRISONMENT OF MORE THAN 30 AMERICANS BY CHINESE COMMUNIST AUTHORITIES.

A STATEMENT SAID THE CHINESE HAVE GIVEN NO EXPLANATION OF THE ARREST "OR ANY INFORMATION CONCERNING THE WELFARE OR WHEREABOURTS OF THE PERSONS ARRESTED."

THE DEPARTMENT ISSUED THE STATEMENT AS A FOLLOW-UP TO BRITAIN'S PROTEST TO THE PEIPING REGIME AGAINST IMPRISONMENT OF BRITISH COMMONWEALTH AND AMERICAN CITIZENS.

IN ADDITION TO ABOUT 35 AMERICANS, THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SAID FOUR BRITONS, SIX CANADIANS AND THREE AUSTRALIANS HAVE BEEN ARRESTED.

"ACCESS HAS BEEN DENIED TO LEGAL COUNSEL AND TO BRITISH OFFICIALS, WHO HAVE BEEN REPRESENTING AMERICAN INTERESTS IN COMMUNIST CHINA X X X," THE DEPARTMENT'S STATEMENT SAID.

AT THE SAME TIME, THE DEPARTMENT SAID IT ALSO IS CONCERNED AT

THE RED CHINESE DENIAL OF EXIT PERMITS TO A NUMBER OF AMERICANS, INCLUDING SOME BUSINESS MEN, IN THE PORT OF SHANGHAI.

SOME OF THESE, IT SAID, HAVE BEEN TRYING TO LEAVE CHINA FOR MORE THAN A YEAR.

"ARBITRARY REFUSAL TO PERMIT ALIENS TO DEPART FROM A COUNTRY IS, OF COURSE, A VIOLATION OF THE ELEMENTARY PRINCIPLES OF INTERNATIONAL LAW AND PRACTICE," IT ADDED.

INFORMED OFFICIALS SAID MOST OF THE AMERICANS IMPRISONED ARE CATHOLIC MISSIONARIES OF THE MARYKNOLL ORDER. SOME PROTESTANT CLERGYMEN ALSO ARE INCLUDED, HOWEVER.

CHARGES RANGING FROM ESPIONAGE TO CULTURAL AGGRESSION" WERE REPORTED LODGED AGAINST SOME OF THEM. THE EXACT ACCUSATION AGAINST THE MAJORITY, HOWEVER, IS VAGUE.

NEARLY ALL THOSE ARRESTED ARE REPORTED IN PRISONS IN KWANTUNG AND KWANGSI PROVINCES IN SOUTH CHINA.

AS MANY AS 30 ADDITIONAL AMERICANS ARE REPORTED DETAINED BY CHINESE COMMUNIST UNDER SO CALLED "HOUSE ARRESTS". THESE HAVE NOT BEEN THROWN INTO PRISON BUT ARE CONFINED TO THEIR OWN LIVING QUARTERS.

THE AMERICANS DENIED EXIT PERMITS FROM SHANGHAI NUMBER FROM EIGHT TO TEN ACCORDING TO THESE OFFICIALS.

LONDON, MAY 21-(AP)-TEN TIRED JAPANESE ARRIVED AT LONDON AIRPORT 12 HOURS LATE FROM TOKYO TODAY, BOWED POLITELY TO WAITING BRITISH COUNCIL OFFICIALS, AND THEN WENT STRAIGHT TO THEIR HOTELS FOR SOME SLEEP.

THEY WERE THE ADVANCE PARTY OF A DELEGATION OF JAPANESE CIVIL SERVANTS HERE FOR AN 11 WEEKS STUDY OF THE BRITISH SYSTEM OF LOCAL GOVERNMENT.

THEIR LEADER, KIYOHIDE OKANO, MINISTER OF STATE AND DIRECTOR OF THE LOCAL AUTONOMOUS AGENCY, ARRIVES BY AIR IN TEN DAYS TIME.

THE PARTY--THE FIRST OFFICIAL JAPANESE GROUP TO VISIT BRITAIN SINCE THE WAR--HAS BEEN SENT HERE AT THE REQUEST OF THE JAPANESE GOVERNMENT AND THE AMERICAN ADMINISTRATION IN JAPAN, AND FOLLOWS THE VISIT OF OTHER GROUPS TO AMERICA.

IT INCLUDES YOSHIO IYOKU, GOVERNOR OF THE PREFECTURE OF GUMMA, AND SHIGEO IMMURA, MAYOR OF KANAZAWA.

AKIRA MIYAZAKI, DIRECTOR OF THE TOKAI-KOKUIRIKA LIAISON OFFICE OF THE JAPANESE FOREIGN OFFICE, AND SPOKESMAN FOR THE GROUP, SAID BRITISH METHODS OF HOUSING, EDUCATION, HEALTH AND POLICE WILL BE STUDIED DURING THEIR STAY HERE.

THE JAPANESE WILL SPEND MOST OF THEIR TIME IN THE BIG PROVINCIAL CITIES OF LIVERPOOL AND BIRMINGHAM.

PARIS, MAY 21-(AP)-THE WESTERN ALLIES TOOK STEPS TODAY TO REMOVE POSTWAR CONTROLS FROM GERMANY'S VAST RUHR VALLEY INDUSTRIES.

TECHNICAL EXPERTS OF THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE MET IN THE FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTRY FOR THE FIRST OF A SERIES OF CONFERENCES ON THE RUHR'S FUTURE.

FRANCE CALLED THE MEETING, IN THE BELIEF THAT RUHR VALLEY CONTROLS NOW EXERCISED BY THE ALLIED RUHR COMMISSION SHOULD BE TURNED OVER TO THE SIX-NATION SCHUMAN PLAN AUTHORITY, SIGNED HERE A MONTH AGO BY FRANCE, WEST GERMANY, ITALY, BELGIUM, HOLLAND AND LUXEMBOURG.

TODAY'S MEETING WAS CALLED TO PREPARE FOR A HIGH LEVEL DIPLOMATIC CONFERENCE DURING WHICH FRANCE HOPES THE RUHR AUTHORITY WILL BE DISSOLVED AND ITS DUTIES FORMALLY TRANSFERRED TO THE SCHUMAN PLAN'S HIGH AUTHORITY. THE SCHUMAN PLAN, STILL TO BE RATIFIED BY THE SIX PARLIAMENTS, PROVIDES FOR A COMMON POOL OF THE COAL AND STEEL OF THE SIX NATIONS, AND SPECIFICALLY BANS MONOPOLIES SUCH AS CHARACTERIZED THE PREWAR OPERATION OF THE RUHR.

THE RUHR AUTHORITY'S MAIN FUNCTION HAS BEEN TO PREVENT THE REBIRTH OF HUGE "VERTICAL" TRUSTS OF STEEL AND COAL COMPANIES WHICH FORMED THE FOUNDATION OF GERMAN WAR INDUSTRIES.

THE AUTHORITY HAS BANNED OWNERSHIP OF EXTENSIVE COAL MINES BY STEEL COMBINES, AND LIMITED GERMAN STEEL PRODUCTION TO 11,100,000 TONS A YEAR. THIS FIGURE LATER WAS RAISED TO 13,500,000 TONS. THE ESTIMATED TOTAL CAPACITY OF GERMAN STEEL MILLS NOW IS ABOUT 15,500,000 TONS A YEAR.

paris, may 21--(ap)--the big four foreign deputies reduced their differences today to one big point -- whether or not to discuss the atlantic pact and american bases in europe -- and neither russia nor the west gave any sign of giving in.

russia is insisting the item appear on the agenda for the proposed meeting of the foreign ministers of britain, france, russia and the united states. the western powers are adamant in refusing to have it listed. both sides indicated they were willing to sit it out all summer before giving in on this last issue of disagreement.

the soviets would be willing to have the issue submitted to the foreign ministers as an item on which the deputies could NOT agree. but the western delegates said a "disagreed" listing would serve the russian purpose just as well as and "agreed" listing.

one bit of progress was formally put on the record today. that was western acceptance of a russian proposal simplifying disagreement on where the item on demilitarization of germany should appear on the agenda.

russia wants it discussed first, the west wants it in a secondary position.

both versions will be presented to the foreign ministers if they meet, with a footnote calling attention to the disagreement.

BONN, MAY 21-(AP)-VICE CHANCELLOR FRANZ BLUECHER TODAY SHARPLY REJECTED CRITICISM OF WEST GERMANY'S ECONOMIC POLICY BY THE UNITED NATIONS ECONOMIC COMMISSION IN GENEVA.

HE SAID THE COMMISSION'S RECENT REPORT ON EUROPEAN ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENTS LACKED "GOOD WILL AND FAIRNESS IN CONSIDERING THE PECULIAR GERMAN SITUATION."

THE COMMISSION'S ANNUAL SURVEY HAD CHARGED THE WEST GERMAN GOVERNMENT WITH NEGLECTING PROPER INVESTMENT MEASURES TO DEVELOP GERMAN INDUSTRIAL OUTPUT.

THE COMMISSION ALSO SAID THE GERMAN COAL INDUSTRY HAD NOT ESTABLISHED NECESSARY PRE-CONDITIONS FOR RAISING PRODUCTION.

TOO MUCH FOOD AND RAW MATERIALS WERE IMPORTED WITH THE HOPE OF SELLING THE FINISHED GOODS AT HIGHER PRICES LATER, THE COMMISSION DECLARED. CAUSING GERMANY'S DEFICIT IN HER BALANCE TOWARDS OTHER EUROPEAN COUNTRIES.

BLUECHER SAID THE REPORT HAD NOT APPRECIATED GERMANY'S BIG ACHIEVEMENT IN INCREASING HER PART OF THE OVERALL EUROPEAN PRODUCTION FROM EIGHT UP TO 15 PER CENT.
IT WAS "DEPLORABLE," HE SAID, THAT ECONOMICS EXPERTS DID NOT UNDERSTAND GERMANY'S FINANCIAL SITUATION. ONLY TWO YEARS AGO, AT THE TIME OF THE CURRENCY REFORM, "PRACTICALLY NO CAPITAL EXISTED IN GERMANY," HE ADDED. "FOR A SOUND INVESTMENT POLICY, THE FIRST THREE CONDITIONS ARE MONEY, MONEY, MONEY," HE DECLARED.
"THE ONLY ONES WHO HAVE UNDERSTOOD US YET ARE THE O E E C EXPERTS, AND ESPECIALLY THE AMERICANS, WHO DO NOT WRITE VERY MUCH BUT INSTEAD ACT AND HELP US," BLUECHER SAID.
HE POINTED OUT THAT WHEN GERMANY STARTED HER RECONSTRUCTION STARVING REFUGEES HAD TO BE FED FIRST INSTEAD OF POURINL MONEY INTO THE COAL PITS.
THE GERMAN COAL PRODUCTION HAS INCREASED FROM 38,000 TONS DAILY IN 1945 UP TO ALMOST 400,000 TONS TODAY, HE SAID.

MOSCOW, MAY 21-(AP)-EIGHT MONTHS HAS MADE A DIFFERENCE IN 800-YEAR-OLD MOSCOW. THE SKYLINE HAS SHOT UP CLOSER TO THE HEAVENS. THE CITY IS GREENER AND THE LIGHTS ON SOME STREETS DEFINITELY BRIGHTER.
THE DAY'S BURNING TOPIC STILL SEEMS TO BE FOOTBALL. THE FIRST QUESTION A RUSSIAN TAXI DRIVER ASKED ME AS I RETURNED TO THE SOVIET CAPITAL AFTER NEARLY EIGHT MONTHS IN THE UNITED STATES AND PARIS WAS: "DID YOU HEAR TODAY'S FOOTBALL SCORE??"
THERE SEEMS TO BE MORE INTEREST IN FOOTBALL (SOCCER) THAN EVER BEFORE. THE SEASON BEGINS MAY 2 AND CONTINUES TO THE FIRST SNOWS OF AUTUMN.
THE COLD WAR ALSO IS A TOPIC. THE CONFERENCE OF FOREIGN MINISTERS DEPUTIES IN PARIS, AMERICAN REARMAMENT, THE ATLANTIC ALLIANCE, PRESIDENT TRUMAN, SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON, THE U.S.CONGRESS AND THE KOREA WAR COME IN FOR LIVELY COMMENT.
BUT CERTAINLY THERE SEEMS TO BE NO WAR SCARE HERE, OR AMONG THE FEW RUSSIANS WITH WHOM I TALKED AT THE LENINGRAD AIRPORT.
AT THE MOMENT, PEOPLE ARE MAKING EXTENSIVE PLANS FOR SUMMER VACATIONS. FAMILIES ARE RENTING DACHAS (SUMMER COTTAGES) FOR THE SEASON AND CHILDREN ARE LOOKING FORWARD TO THE END OF THE MONTH, WHEN SCHOOL CLOSES.
THERE IS KEEN INTEREST IN NEXT YEAR'S OLYMPIC GAMES, IN WHICH THE U.S.S.R. WILL BE A BIG COMPETITOR. (IT IS THE FIRST TIME FOR THE SOVIET UNION.)
EACH TIME ONE RETURNS TO THE SOVIET UNION, ONE CANNOT HELP BE IMPRESSED BY THE AGE-OLD KINDNESS OF THE RUSSIAN PEOPLE. CUSTOMS OFFICIALS IN LENINGRAD WERE CONSIDERATE AND QUICK. WHEN THEY ASKED IF I DID NOT WANT A GLASS OF TEA IN THE AIRPORT RESTAURANT, I REPLIED THAT I HAD NO SOVIET MONEY IN MY POCKETS, AND WAS TOLD: "OH, THAT'S ALL RIGHT, YOU CAN PAY FOR THAT SOME OTHER TIME."

MY FIRST IMPRESSION WAS HOW THE CITY HAD GROWN UP IN EIGHT MONTHS, FOR NOW A SECTION OF MOSCOW UNIVERSITY IS HOISTING ITSELF 32 STORIES INTO THE SKY ABOVE THE LENIN HILLS; A BIG OFFICE BUILDING ON SMOLENSK BOULEVARD NOW IS ALMOST COMPLETE; A 20-ODD STORY APARTMENT BUILDING ALONG THE MOSCOW RIVER IS GOING UP.

THE HUGE, ROSY STARS ATOP THE ANCIENT BUT REFURBISHED KREMLIN TOWERS GLEAM BRIGHTLY AS EVER OVER THE TRAFFIC, WHICH IS HEAVIER THAN ANY TIME IN MOSCOW'S HISTORY. THE FACE OF THE TRAFFIC IS CHANGING, FOR THE NEW ZIM AUTOMOBILE HAS TAKEN ITS PLACE ALONGSIDE THE SLEEK ZIS CARS. ZIM'S NAME COMES FROM THE ABBREVIATION OF THE MOLOTOV FACTOR, ZIS' NAME FROM THE ABBREVIATION OF THE NAME OF THE STALIN FACTORY.

NIGHT LEAD IRAN

BY ROBERT B.HEWETT
TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 21-(AP)-THE IRANIAN OIL ISSUE GENERATED SO MUCH HEAT TODAY THAT SOME DIPLOMATS FEARED IT MIGHT BREAK OUT INTO ANTI-BRITISH AND ANTI-AMERICAN VIOLENCE.
THE FOREIGN MINISTRY RETORTED SHARPLY TO AN AMERICAN STATEMENT URGING MODERATION ON BOTH SIDES, AND DECLARED ANY DELAY IN CARRYING OUT OIL NATIONALIATION WOULD "PROVOKE THE ANGER OF THE IRANIAN PEOPLE."
MOSLEM RELIGIOUS LEADERS SUMMONED A MAMMOTH MASS MEETING FOR TOMORROW TO DEMONSTRATE THE RISING TEMPER AGAINST THE UNITED STATES AS WELL AS BRITAIN.
THE PRIME MOVER IN THE DEMONSTRATION WAS AYATULLAH SEYED ABOLGHASSEM KASHANI WHO HAS THREATENED A HOLY WAR IF BRITAIN RESISTS AN OUSTER FROM HER GREAT OIL REFINERY AND FIELDS IN SOUTHERN IRAN.
KASHANI, A LEADING PRIEST, IN A PROCLAMATION CALLED ON MOSLEMS TO TURN THE RELIGIOUS HOLIDAY--THE BIRTHDAY OF THEIR TWELFTH PROPHET--INTO A VENT FOR THEIR "HATRED" OF BRITISH INTERFERENCE AND OF THE "AMERICAN

30.24- 23247

GOVERNMENT'S MENACING STATEMENT."

THE BRITISH AND AMERICAN AMBASSADORS WARNED EMBASSY OFFICIALS TO STAY FROM THE DEMONSTRATION TO BE HELD IN FRONT OF THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING WHERE PREMIER MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH HAS LOCKED HIMSELF IN BEHIND BOARDED UP WINDOWS BECAUSE OF ALLEGED ASSASSINATION THREATS.

IN IRANIAN EYES, THE UNITED STATES COMMITTED ITSELF TO BRITAIN'S SIDE BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT DECLARATION FRIDAY NIGHT URGING IRANIANS TO "ACHIEVE THEIR LEGITIMATE OBJECTIVES THROUGH FRIENDLY NEGOTIATIONS."

THE STATEMENT URGED BOTH SIDES TO "AVOID INTIMIDATION AND THREATS OF UNILATERAL ACTION", STRESSED BRITAIN'S READINESS TO NEGOTIATE, AND EXPRESSED SYMPATHY FOR IRAN'S DESIRE FOR "GREATER CONTROL OVER AND BENEFITS FROM" HER OIL. AT THE SAME TIME IT REITERATED AMERICA'S "GREAT INTEREST" IN IRAN'S TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY AND INDEPENDENCE--A CLEAR WARNING TO RUSSIA NOT TO TAKE THE OIL DISPUTE AS AN EXCUSE FOR MOVING INTO THE PERSIAN KINGDOM.

(GEN.OMAR N.BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE U.S. JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, TOLD THE MACARTHUR INQUIRY MONDAY THAT THE UNITED STATES WAS NOT COMMITTED TO GO INTO IRAN WITH THE BRITISH IN EVENT OF TROUBLE THERE.)

THE FOREIGN MINISTRY'S REPLY TO THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT DECLARATION WAS HANDED OUT AT A NEWS CONFERENCE TONIGHT. IT CAPPED A GROWING ANTI-UNITED STATES CAMPAIGN IN THE PRESS AND IN PARLIAMENT.

THE IRANIAN PROTEST, WHICH ALSO WAS HANDED TO U.S. AMBASSADOR HENRY F.GRADY, ACCUSED THE UNITED STATES OF "INTERFERENCE" IN IRANIAN AFFAIRS AND SAID THIS HAD "CREATED A VERY UNDESIRABLE AND UNEXPECTED IMPRESSION IN COMPETENT IRANIAN CIRCLES."

IT ADDED THE HOPE THE UNITED STATES WOULD ADOPT A "FRIENDLY AND IMPARTIAL ATTITUDE."

MAY 22 1951

THE USUALLY MODERATE NEWSPAPER ATECHE DECLARED TODAY THAT "IF THE ENGLISH AND AMERICANS FIGHT AGAINST THE WILL OF THE IRANIAN PEOPLE OUR POLICY WILL TURN IN A DANGEROUS MANNER TOWARD OTHER POWERS AND THE EQUILIBRIUM OF THE EAST WILL BE UPSET."

HOSSEIN MAKKI, SECRETARY GENERAL OF MOSSADEGH'S NATIONAL BLOC AND SECRETARY OF THE GOVERNMENT'S OIL NATIONALIZATION BOARD, DECLARED IN PARLIAMENT YESTERDAY THAT "IT IS BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES WHO ARE PUSHING US TOWARD RUSSIA." HE ACCUSED THE UNITED STATES OF TAKING THE SIDE OF "THE FORMER OIL COMPANY LOOTERS."

IRAN, HE ADDED, WAS AN "INTERNATIONAL POWDER KEG", AND THE BRITISH SHOULD NOT COME CLOSE WITH A MATCH OR "WE'LL GET RID OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE FOREVER."

IN A NOTE SATURDAY, BRITAIN WARNED OF THE "MOST SERIOUS CONSEQUENCES" IF IRAN FAILS TO NEGOTIATE, AND OFFERED TO SEND A HIGH LEVEL MISSION HERE FOR THE PURPOSE.

INFORMED SOURCES SAID MOSSADEGH ALREADY HAD REJECTED THIS NOTE.

AT ANY RATE, THE BRITISH-OWNED ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY, WORTH $500,000,000 TO $1,000,000,000, WAS INFORMED SUNDAY THAT UNDER THE LAW IT ALREADY IS EXCLUSIVELY IRANIAN GOVERNMENT PROPERTY. IT WAS TOLD THA ALL THAT REMAINS IS FOR THE COMPANY TO NAME REPRESENTATIVES TO MEET WITH THE GOVERNMENT AND DECIDE ON DETAILS OF TURNING OVER THE PROPERTY.

BRITAIN HAS CALLED THE NATIONALIZATION LAW A UNILATERAL REPUDIATION OF A 60-YEAR CONTRACT NEGOTIATED IN 1933. THE COMPANY REPRESENTS ONE OF BRITAIN'S LARGEST FOREIGN INVESTMENTS AND IT IS THE BIGGEST MIDDLE EAST OIL PRODUCER. ITS ABADAN REFINERY IS THE LARGEST IN THE WORLD.

TEHRAN, IRAN, MAY 21-(AP)-IRAN RETORTED SHARPLY TODAY TO UNITED STATES CRITICISM OF HER OIL NATIONALIZATION PLANS, DECLARING THAT ANY DELAY IN THE PLANS "WILL PROVOKE THE ANGER OF THE IRANIAN PEOPLE."

THE FOREIGN MINISTRY ISSUED THE STATEMENT AT A NEWS CONFERENCE. EVEN MODERATE SECTIONS OF THE PRESS JOINED IN THE CRITICISM OF THE UNITED STATES, INDICATING THAT THE U.S., ALTHOUGH IT HAS URGED THE BRITISH TO GRANT BETTER ROYALTY TERMS FOR THE OIL TAKEN OUT BY THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL CO., HAS APPROVED THE BRITISH STAND AGAINST NATIONALIZATION.

MOSLEM RELIGIOUS LEADERS CALLED A MAMMOTH MASS MEETING FOR TOMORROW TO DEMONSTRATE AGAINST THE POLICY OF BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES. TOMORROW IS A RELIGIOUS HOLIDAY--BIRTHDAY OF THE MOSLEMS' 12TH PROPHET.

PRIME MINISTER F.MOHAMMED MOSSADEGH, WHOSE NATIONALISTS SPARKED THE NATIONALIZATION PROGRAM, HAS RJECTED A BRITISH PROPOSAL TO ARBITRATE THE EXPLOSIVE DISPUTE.

MAY 22 1951

A GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN ALSO TOLD PARLIAMENT WEDNESDAY THAT BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES ARE PUSHING IRAN CLOSER TO RUSSIA AND A COMMUNIST REVOLUTION BY OPPOSING OIL NATIONALIZATION.

THE SPEAKER, NATIONAL FRONT DEPUTY HOSSEIN MAKKI, RAISED THE THREAT OF A HOLY WAR IF THE BRITISH USE FORCE TO RESIST THE LOSS OF THEIR BIG INVESTMENT IN THE ABADAN REFINERY AND THE NEARBY OIL WELLS IN SOUTHERN IRAN.

THE GOVERNMENT'S LETTER TO THE OIL COMPANY, WHILE REFUSING TO ARBITRATE, CALLED ON THE COMPANY TO SEND REPRESENTATIVES TO PLAN THE METHOD OF TAKING OVER THE SOUTHERN IRANIAN INSTALLATIONS. IT WAS THE FIRST TIME SINCE MOSSADEGH'S SUDDEN RISE TO POWER THREE WEEKS AGO THAT HE HAS OFFERED TO EVEN TALK OVER THE NATIONALIZATION SITUATION WITH THE BRITISH.

THE COMPANY, DECLARING EXPROPRIATION IS ILLEGAL, HAD ASKED THE GOVERNMENT TO APPOINT ITS ARBITRATOR UNDER TERMS OF THE 1933 CONCESSION AGREEMENT WHICH PROVIDED ALL DISPUTES BE SETTLED BY AN ARBITRATION BOARD.

REPLYING FOR MOSSADEGH, FINANCE MINISTER MOHAMMED ALI VARASTEH, DECLARED IRAN HAD THE SOVEREIGN RIGHT TO NATIONALIZE THE INDUSTRY AND REJECTED ARBITRATION.

INFORMED SOURCES SAID MOSSADEGH ALSO, HAD REJECTED A BRITISH NOTE, SENT SATURDAY, OFFERING TO SEND A NEGOTIATING MISSION TO IRAN.

IRAN CONTENDED THAT THE DISPUTE WAS ONE BETWEEN THE NATION AND THE COMPANY, DESPITE THE FACT THAT THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT OWNS MORE THAN HALF OF THE COMPANY STOCK.

A25

MAKKI'S CHARGES OF AMERICAN INTERFERENCE WERE BASED ON A STATE DEPARTMENT APPEAL SATURDAY FOR FRIENDLY NEGOTIATION BETWEEN IRAN AND BRITAIN TO KEEP OIL FLOWING TO THE "FREE WORLD." THE STATEMENT SAID THE U.S. WOULD "STRONGLY OPPOSE" ANY ARBITRARY ACTION.

"WHAT AMERICA DID," MAKKI SAID

INDEPENDENT COUNTRY.' WE EXPECTED THE UNITED STATES TO SUPPORT PUBLIC OPINION IN IRAN AND NOT ENTER A FIGHT WITH IRANIAN NATIONALS BY HELPING THE FORMER OIL COMPANY LOOTERS."

MAKKI WARNED:

"WHEN THE IRANIAN PEOPLE FIND THEMSELVES IN A SITUATION IN WHICH THE ROADS ARE CLOSED FROM EVERY SIDE, THE FOUNDATIONS OF COMMUNISM AND REVOLUTION WILL BE PREPARED. IT IS BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES WHO ARE PUSHING US TOWARDS RUSSIA."

MAKKI DECLARED THAT IRAN IS AN INTERNATIONAL POWDER KEG AND ADDED, "THE FREEDOM LOVERS OF THE WORLD SHOULD TAKE CARE NOT TO COME CLOSE TO THIS POWDER KEG WITH A MATCH IN THEIR HANDS. IF THEY DO, IT WILL GET RID OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE FOREVER. X X X OUR SPIRITUAL LEADERS HAVE ALL DECLARED THAT IF THE BRITISH THREAT IS CARRIED OUT THEY WILL DECLARE A HOLY WAR."

HE WAS REFERRING TO A STATEMENT, MADE PUBLIC YESTERDAY BY AYATOLLAH SEYID ABOLGHASSEM KASHANI, MOSLEM LEADER AND NATIONAL FRONT SUPPORTER, WHICH SAID ANY MOVE BY THE BRITISH FORCES WILL BE MET WITH A HOLY WAR.

MAY 22 1951

Tehran, Iran, May 21--(AP)--The text of the Iranian aide memoire accusing the United States of "interference" in Iranian affairs : (About)

The United States Government's declaration on the oil question and the tone of its ~~XXX~~ peculiar phrases have created a very undesirable, unexpected impression in Competent Iranian circles. Until two days ago, American authorities used to say they were neutral on the oil issue, and the Iranian nation expected this neutral policy would continue.

Now it is surprising that the government of the United States has changed its opinion and wishes to advise us that the issue be settled by negotiations. If the international situation did necessitate a friendly recommendation of the government of the United States, it should have been made in such a way as not ...incompatible with the nationalization of the oil industry throughout the country, how that the said law has been passed and the government is bound to carry it out. A friendly recommendation of a foreign government, no matter in what form it takes place, can only be regarded as an interference in the internal affairs of Iran.

The present premier, at the time when he was a deputy before the nationalization of the oil industry, said once in a meeting in the Majlis:

"I wish some of the deputies of the British House of Commons would come and see for themselves how the Anglo-Iranian Oil Co. is treating the people here and, contrary to all principles of justice and fairness, have made tremendous profits and have appropriated the rights of the people, made them nervous to such an extent that the true will of the nation had made it imperative to put an end to that state of affairs and nationalize the industry. Now that the said law is passed by the two houses, the government has no other alternative than its enforcement, and the slightest delay in its execution will provoke the anger of the Iranian people.

It is therefore expected that the great, freedom-loving nation of the United States, just as in some other cases has rendered moral assistance toward the legitimate ends of Iran from the viewpoint of supporting right and justice, would not give up their friendly and impartial attitude in this case, either.

NEW DELHI, INDIA, MAY 21-(AP)-PRIME MINISTER JAWAHARLAL NEHRU TOLD PARLIAMENT TODAY THAT THE QUESTION OF JAPAN'S DEFENSE FORCES WAS "ENTIRELY UP TO JAPAN TO DECIDE--NOT FOR US."
QUESTIONED ABOUT THE PROPOSED JAPANESE PEACE TREATY AND REARMAMENT, NEHRU SAID JAPAN AND GERMANY WERE TWO SEPARATE QUESTIONS "ON WHICH THERE IS NO CONFLICT."
HE RECALLED EARLIER STATEMENTS IN WHICH HE SAID "ANY PROPOSALS FOR GERMAN REARMAMENT MIGHT ADD TO DIFFICULTIES."

RANGOON, BURMA, MAY 21-(AP)-DR. GORDON SEAGRAVE, FAMED "BURMA SURGEON," TODAY AMENDED HIS APPEAL FOR REVERSAL OF HIS TREASON CONVICTION.
HE WANTS TO STRIKE THE CONVICTION OFF THE BOOKS, ALTHOUGH HE HAS BEEN FREED BY AN APPEALS COURT, WHICH COMMUTED HIS SENTENCE TO THE SEVEN MONTHS HE HAD SERVED, SO HE CAN GO BACK TO WORK AMONG THE TRIBESMEN.
DEFENSE LAWYER KYAW MYINT TOLD THE SUPREME COURT TODAY THAT SEAGRAVE SHOULD BE PERMITTED TO APPEAL BECAUSE HIS SO-CALLED TREASONABLE ACTS WERE ACTUALLY DONE IN DISCHARGE OF THE DUTY OWED BURMA BY CITIZENS AND NON-CITIZENS. HE SAID SEAGRAVE REMAINED IN A REBEL AREA SOLELY TO HELP THE SICK AND SUFFERING AND BY DOING SO HAD SAVED VALUABLE PROPERTY BELONGING TO THE STATE.

JAKARTA, INDONESIA, MAY 21-(AP)-INDONESIA'S 245-MEMBER PARLIAMENT CONVENED TODAY AFTER A RECESS OF SEVERAL WEEKS AND INDICATIONS WERE THAT THE GOVERNMENT FACED STRONG OPPOSITION IN ITS ANNOUNCED INTENTION TO OBEY THE UNITED NATIONS EMBARGO ON WAR GOODS SHIPMENTS TO COMMUNIST CHINA.
THE FOREIGN MINISTER, ACHMAD SOEBARDJO, ANNOUNCED LAST WEEK THIS COUNTRY WOULD OBEY THE U.N. ORDER, BUT DIRECTED THE WEST'S ATTENTION TO INDONESIA'S REELING ECONOMY.
THE MAJORITY OF THE PARLIAMENT SEEMED TO ACCEPT THE U.N. EMBARGO AS A MATTER OF PRINCIPLE, BUT EXPRESS FEAR THAT THE MOVE WILL BE RUINOUS FOR INDONESIA'S ECONOMY. RUBBER EXPORTS ACCOUNT FOR ABOUT 50 PER CENT OF THIS COUNTRY'S FOREIGN EARNINGS, EXCLUDING OIL EXPORTS.
MANY MEMBERS SAY THE EMBARGO, SPONSORED BY THE UNITED STATES, WILL TEND TO STRENGTHEN, INSTEAD OF WEAKEN, COMMUNISM IN INDONESIA. FALLING RUBBER PRICES HERE WOULD FORCE SMALL HOLDERS OUT OF BUSINESS AND THREATEN THE LIVELIHOOD OF TENS OF THOUSANDS OF RUBBER WORKERS.

NIGHT LEAD ISRAEL

TEL AVI, MAY 21-(AP)-ISRAEL'S DISPUTE WITH SYRIA OVER DRAINAGE OF THE DOREIKAIN HULEH SWAMPS--AND THE U.N.SECURITY COUNCIL'S ORDER TO HALT THE WORK TEMPORARILY--MAY DEVELOP INTO A SHARP POLITICAL ISSUE IN THE HOT PRE-ELECTION PERIOD, IT WAS INDICATED TODAY.

UNDER PRESSURE BY THE OPPOSITION, THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT AGREED TO HOLD OPEN DEBATE NEXT WEDNESDAY IN THE KNESSET (PARLIAMENT) ON THE SECURITY COUNCIL ORDER AND ON NEW THREATENING MOVES BY SYRIA AND HER NEIGHBORING ARAB FRIENDS. THE ISSUE COULD BE A MAJOR ITEM IN THE CAMPAIGN NOW GOING ON FOR GENERAL ELECTIONS TO BE HELD JULY 30.

ISRAELI OFFICIALS CONSIDER THE U.N. ORDER A "DIPLOMATIC DEFEAT." BUT THEY SAID THE ORDER TO HALT THE HULEH PROJECT--WHICH TOUCHED OFF NEARLY A MONTH OF BITTER BORDER WARFARE--WAS NOT YET REACHED HERE.

ANNOUNCING ISRAEL'S DETERMINATION TO COMPLETE THE PROJECT "DESPITE ALL OBSTACLES," WORKERS ON ARMORED BULLDOZERS WENT AHEAD WITH THE BUILDING OF A DAM FOR DIVERTING THE SWAMP WATERS SO NEW AGRICULTURAL

BNDS CAN BE CREATED. THE PROJECT IS IN THE DEMILITARIZED ZONE OF PALESTINE. SYRIA CLAIMS THE WORK IS IN VIOLATION OF THE ARMISTICE WHICH ENDED THE PALESTINE WAR IN 1948.

THE GOVERNMENT INTERPRETS THE SECURITY COUNCIL ORDER AS A "DIRECTION" TO MAJ.GEN.WILLIAM RILEY, CHIEF OF STAFF OF THE U.N. TRUCE OBSERVERS TO SEEK AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE PALESTINE LAND DEVELOPMENT COMPANY, WHICH HOLDS THE HULEH CONCESSION, AND CERTAIN ARAB LAND OWNERS WHOSE WORK IS AFFECTED BY THE PROJECT.

RILEY RETURNED TO JERUSALEM TODAY FOR TALKS WITH ISRAELI FOREIGN MINISTER MOSHE SHARRET AFTER HAVING HELD SIMILAR CONFERENCES ON THE ISSUE IN DAMASCUS, THE SYRIAN CAPITAL.

AMONG OTHER FOREIGN OFFICE CALLERS WAS RUSSIAN AMBASSADOR PAVLOV YERSHOFF, WHO CONFERRED WITH DR.WALTER EYTAN, GENERAL DIRECTOR OF THE FOREIGN OFFICE. THE SOVIET UNION ABSTAINED IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL VOTE.

SYRIA BITTERLY OPPOSES THE DRAINAGE PROJECT BECAUSE, ACCORDING TO ARMY STATEMENTS IN DAMASCUS, IT WOULD REMOVE A NATURAL MILITARY BARRIER.

TEL AVIV, MAY 21-(AP)-ISRAEL IS "DETERMINED TO BRING THE DRAINAGE OF THE HULEH SWAMP TO A SUCCESSFUL CONCLUSION DESPITE ALL OBSTACLES," ACCORDING TO A GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN.

ONE OF THE "OBSTACLES" IS A UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION, ADOPTED FRIDAY, ORDERING A TEMPORARY HALT TO THE PROJECT UNTIL ISRAEL AND SYRIA REACH AGREEMENT ON THE DISPUTED BORDER AREA.

WORK ON THE PROJECT WAS RESUMED YESTERDAY WITHOUT INTERFERENCE.

SYRIA CONTENDS THAT THE DRAINAGE WORK VIOLATES THE TRUCE AGREEMENT WITH ISRAEL. THE COUNCIL RESOLUTION FOLLOWED RECURRENT FIGHTING BETWEEN JEWS AND ARABS IN THE REGION.

MEANWHILE IT WAS LEARNED THAT RUSSIAN AMBASSADOR PAVLOV YERSHOFF CONFERRED HERE TODAY WITH DR. WALTER EYTAN, GENERAL DIRECTOR OF THE FOREIGN OFFICE ABOUT THE MATTER. THE SOVIET UNION ABSTAINED IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL VOTE.

OFFICIALS SAID THE ACTUAL COUNCIL ORDER HAS NOT YET ARRIVED HERE. THE OFFICIAL INTERPRETATION GIVEN HERE TO THE ORDER IS THAT IT IS A "DIRECTION" TO MAJ.GEN. WILLIAM RILEY. U.N. CHIEF OF STAFF, TO SEEK AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE ALESTINE LAND DEVELOPMENT COMPANY, WHICH HOLDS THE HULEH CONCESSION, AND CERTAIN ARAB LAND OWNERS WHOSE WORK IS AFFECTED BY THE PROJECT.

AN ISRAELI LABOR CREW HELPED BY TWO BULLDOZERS AND SIX ARMORED TRACTERS WORKED ON THE DRAINAGE PROJECT TODAY.

OTTAWA, MAY 21-(AP)-CANADA WILL URGE BRITAIN TO EASE SOME OF HER RESTRICTIONS AGAINST CANADIAN MANUFACTURED GOODS AS A MEANS OF FURTHERING TRADE BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES.

BRITAIN, ON HER PART, WILL ASK ASSURANCE FROM CANADA THAT BRITAIN WILL CONTINUE TO GET ADEQUATE SUPPLIES OF SCARCE RAW MATERIALS TO DEVELOP BRITAIN'S THREE-YEAR, $14,000,000,000 DEFENSE PROGRAM.

BOTH REQUESTS WILL BE AIRED AT THE FIFTH SESSION OF THE CANADA-UNITED KINGDOM CONTINUING TRADE COMMITTEE THAT OPENED HERE TODAY AND WILL CONTINUE UNTIL WEDNESDAY.

HIGH-RANKING TRADE, ECONOMIC AND FINANCE OFFICIALS FROM BOTH COUNTRIES HUDDLED IN PRELIMINARY DISCUSSIONS PRIOR TO THE OPENING OF THE SESSION. THE TALKS ARE SECRET AND NO ANNOUNCEMENT OF DEVELOPMENTS WILL BE MADE.

HOWEVER, INFORMED QUARTERS, DISCLOSING SEGMENTS OF THE AGENDA, WERE OPTIMISTIC THAT THE OFFICIALS WILL BE ABLE TO WORK OUT A FIRM BASIS FOR AGREEMENT, IN THE FORM OF RECOMMENDATIONS FOR ADOPTION BY BOTH COUNTRIES.

FOLLOWING THESE TALKS, A DELEGATION FROM THE BRITISH WEST INDIES WILL ARRIVE, PROBABLY ON MAY 25, TO OPEN DETAILED TRADE-EXPANDING DISCUSSIONS WITH CANADA, BASED MAINLY ON THE AGREEMENTS WHICH MAY BE ACHIEVED BY THE CONTINUING TRADE COMMITTEE.

OTTAWA, MAY 21-(AP)-PRODUCTION MINISTER C.D.HOWE TODAY ANNOUNCED THAT RATIONING OF ALUMINUM, COPPER AND BRASS WILL COME UNDER COMPULSORY GOVERNMENT CONTROL BEGINNING JUNE 1.

PREVIOUSLY, THESE ITEMS WERE RATIONED INFORMALLY AND ON A VOLUNTARY BASIS BY THE PRODUCING COMPANIES TO MANUFACTURERS.

UNDER THE COMPULSORY CONTROL SCHEME, 4-589,8,& 149. .8))' 59 .-,71-1?7434' 28)) ?3 9, 5E3 ?-'8' 91 100 PER CENT OF 1950 PURCHASES. THAT WILL MEAN

UNDER THE COMPULSORY CONTROL SCHEME, RATIONING FROM MILLS TO MANUFACTURERS WILL BE ON THE BASIS OF 100 PER CENT OF 1950 PURCHASES. THAT WILL MEAN THAT IF A MANUFACTURER USED 100,000 TONS OF COPPER IN 1950, HE WILL CONTINUE TO GET MONTHLY ALLOTMENTS ON THAT BASIS.

HOWEVER, OFFICIALS SAID THE CANADIAN DEFENSE EFFORT WILL BE GETTING FIRST CALL ON THESE ITEMS AND WITHIN A MATTER OF MONTHS IT APPEARED LIKELY THAT CERTAIN NON-ESSENTIAL MANUFACTURING USING THESE ITEMS WOULD BE CUT.

THE ORDER EMBRACES PRIMARY AND WROUGHT ALUMINUM, PRIMARY COPPER, BRASS MILL PRODUCTS, COPPER WIRE ROD AND COPPER WIRE.

TWO OTHER METALS, NICKEL AND STEEL, ALREADY ARE UNDER COMPULSOY RATIONING CONTROL.

UNDER COMPULSORY CONTROL. NO USER OF ALUMINUM, BRASS OR

COPPER WOULD BE ALLOWED TO BUY EXTRA SUPPLIES IF HIS STOCKPILE IS CONSIDERED SUFFICIENT TO MEET HIS CURRENT NEEDS.

AFTER JUNE 1, BUYERS WILL HAVE TO GET THEIR PURCHASE ORDERS APPROVED BY THE METALS ADMINISTRATOR BEFORE SHIPMENTS CAN BE MADE BY PRODUCING MILLS.

THE ORDER APPLIES TO THE RAW FORMS OF THESE METALS, BEFORE THEY CAN BE DEVELOPED INTO USABLE GOODS.

MAINLY T IS DIRECTED AT GOVERNMENT CONTROL OVER SHIPMENTS FROM MILLS. ONCE APPROVAL IS GIVEN TO ALLOW THE METALS TO LEAVE THE MILL, GOVERNMENT CONTROL ENDS.

IN THE CASE OF ALUMINUM, THE ORDER APPLIES TO PRIMARY ALUMINUM, WHICH IS ALUMINUM IN RAW OR INGOT FORM, AND TO WROUGHT ALUMINUM, MEANING ALUMINUM IN THE FORM OF WIRE, RODS, BARS, PLATES, SHEETS, TUBES AND FORGINGS.

BY DON WHITEHEAD

WASHINGTON,MAY 21-(AP)-GEN.OMAR N.BRADLEY SAID TODAY THERE IS NO MILITARY OBJECTION TO CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS HARRASSING RED CHINA FROM FORMOSA--SO LONG AS AMERICAN FORCES ARE NOT INVOLVED. BUT HE ADVISED AGAINST SUCH A MOVE.

THE FIVE-STAR GENERAL TOLD SENATORS THE NATIONALISTS MIGHT SUFFER SUCH LOSSES IN MEN AND EQUIPMENT THAT THE SECURITY OF FORMOSA WOULD BE JEOPARDIZED.

SOMEDAY, HE ARGUED, IT MIGHT BE "PROPER" TO USE THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS IN THE WAR AS GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR HAS PROPOSED. HE INSISTED NOW IS NOT THE TIME.

THE CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF GAVE THESE VIEWS TO THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES IN HIS THIRD DAY OF OUTSPOKEN OPPOSITION TO THE WAR PROGRAM PROPOSED BY MACARTHUR. HE IS SCHEDULED TO TESTIFY AGAIN TOMORROW.

MACARTHUR HAS URGED THE USE OF THE NATIONALIST TROOPS AS PART OF HIS PLAN TO STEP UP THE WAR AGAINST RED CHINA WITH BOMBING AND A NAVAL BLOCKADE. AT PRESENT, FORMOSA IS BEING "IMMOBILIZED" BY THE U.S. 7TH FLEET TO PREVENT A RED INVASION AND TO PREVENT CHIANG'S FORCES FROM INVADING THE MAINLAND.

BRADLEY SAID MACARTHUR'S PROGRAM WOULD RISK WAR WITH RUSSIA AND WOULD FORCE THE UNITED STATES TO "STRIP" ITS DEFENSES ELSEWHERE. HE ARGUED THE BEST WAY TO AVOID WAR WITH RUSSIA IS TO BUILD UP THE MILITARY MIGHT OF EUROPE AND CONTINUE THE PRESENT "LIMITED" WAR POLICY IN KOREA.

HE TESTIFIED THERE WAS NO RIFT BETWEEN MACARTHUR AND THE ADMINISTRATION OVER THE BELIEF THAT THE ISLAND STRONGHOLD OF FORMOSA SHOULD REMAIN IN FRIENDLY HANDS.

AND HE SAID MACARTHUR WAS OUSTED BECAUSE HE WAS "NOT IN SYMPATHY" WITH THE KOREAN WAR PLANS APPROVED BY THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF AND PRESIDENT TRUMAN.

IN FACT, BRADLEY SAID, MACARTHUR'S ACTIONS JEOPARDIZED CIVILIAN CONTROL OF THE ARMED FORCES.

SENATOR GEORGE (D-GA) BROUGHT UP THE QUESTION OF USING CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S TROOPS ON FORMOSA. HE SAID HE COULDN'T SEE WHY THESE TROOPS SHOULDN'T BE USED TO HARRASS CHINA.

BRADLEY REPLIED: "WELL, FROM THE MILITARY POINT OF VIEW THERE IS NO OBJECTION, AS I SEE IT, TO REMOVING ANY RESTRICTIONS ON HIS (CHIANG'S) DOING THESE THINGS, PROVIDED HE DOESN'T GET MIXED UP IN SUCH A WAY AS TO INVOLVE OUR OWN FORCES."

A225WX

EARLIER, BRADLEY HAD SAID THAT "SOME DAY" IT MIGHT BE PROPER TO USE CHIANG'S FORCES IF THEY WERE "WELL TRAINED, WELL EQUIPPED, WELL SUPPLIED AND WELL LED."

BUT HE ADDED "THEIR CAPABILITIES ARE SUCH THAT IT WOULDN'T BE PROPER ACTION TO TAKE" TO USE THEM NOW IN KOREA.

"IN OTHER WORDS," HE SAID, "WE WOULD NOT GET RETURN FOR WHAT WE DO. IF YOU TAKE THEM INTO KOREA, YOU ARE GOING TO HAVE TO FULLY EQUI THEM, TRANSPORT THEM, FURNISH THE LOGISTIC SUPPORT, AND AS I SAY, THEY ARE OF DOUBTFUL VALUE WHEN THEY GET THERE.

"TO TURN THEM LOOSE AGAINST THE MAINLAND, THEY DO NOT HAVE THE AIR POWER AND THE NAVAL POWER AND THE NAVY TRANSPORT TO BE EFFECTIVE, UNLESS WE ARE WILLING TO COMMIT A LOT OF OUR FORCES TO SUPPORT THEM."

BRADLEY TESTIFIED HE COULD SEE NO WAY TO END THE WORLD TENSION WITH RUSSIA EXCEPT THROUGH A LONG-RANGE DEFENSE PLAN. AND HE SAID THIS TENSION WITH RUSSIA AND HER SATELLITES IS LIKELY TO GO ON "FOR A LONG TIME."

"WE DON'T LIKE IT," HE SAID, "BUT WE DON'T SEEM TO HAVE THE IMMEDIATE ANSWER TO STOP IT."

MACARTHUR HAS CONTENDED HIS PROGRAM WOULD NOT REQUIRE MUCH MORE MILITARY POWER IN KOREA AND THAT IT WOULD NOT INTERFERE WITH EFFORTS TO BUILD EUROPE'S DEFENSES.

MAY 22 1951

BUT BRADLEY DISPUTED THIS VIEW BY SAYING THE PROGRAM WOULD CALL FOR "SUBSTANTIALLY" MORE AIR AND SEA POWER, MORE MANPOWER, AND MORE AIR AND NAVAL BASES.

SENATOR JOHNSON (D-TEX) ASKED OF THE AIR AND SEA POWER: "IS THAT AVAILABLE?"

BRADLEY REPLIED: "WELL, IF YOU STRIPPED EVERYTHING ELSE YOU MIGHT GET IT, BUT WE WOULD HATE TO SEE OUR OTHER DEFENSE REQUIREMENTS STRIPPED TO THE EXTENT THAT YOU WOULD HAVE TO DO IT TO CARRY IT OUT AT THIS TIME."

"WHAT ABOUT MANPOWER," JOHNSON ASKED.

BRADLEY SAID: "THE SIZE OF MANPOWER WOULD HAVE TO BE INCREASED AND YOUR WHOLE DEFENSIVE EFFORT WOULD HAVE TO BE STEPPED UP SOME, BECAUSE IF YOU GET INTO AN ALL-OUT WAR WITH CHINA AND START BLOCKADE, SHELLING OF COASTAL CENTERS, OF SUPPLY AND COMMUNICATIONS, AND START BOMBING CENTERS OF COMMUNICATION AND SUPPLY, YOU ARE SPREADING YOUR EFFORT A GREAT DEAL MORE THAN IT IS SPREAD AT THE PRESENT TIME."

IN ADDITION, THE GENERAL INSISTED, THE MACARTHUR PROGRAM WOULD REQUIRE MORE PEOPLE AT HOME TO BACK UP THE EFFORT PLUS MORE SUPPLY AND SERVICE TROOPS.

TURNING TO EUROPE, BRADLEY SAID IF THAT AREA FELL TO THE RUSSIANS "IT WOULD MAKE THEM (THE RUSSIANS) EVEN MORE FORMIDABLE AND INCREASES THEIR CHANCES X X X OF BEING ABLE TO EXTEND THEIR WAR OVER EVEN MORE AREA THAN WESTERN EUROPE."

BRADLEY REFERRED TO EUROPE'S 300,000,000 PEOPLE AND ITS "VERY SUBSTANTIAL" INDUSTRIAL CAPACITY.

"IT SEEMS TO ME," HE SAID, "THAT ONE OF OUR BEST CHANCES TO AVOID WAR AND FINALLY GET OUT OF THIS PERIOD OF TENSION IS TO GET THE POWER OF EUROPE BUILT UP TO THE POINT WHERE THEIR SECURITY FORCES ARE ADEQUATE, AND WOULD CAUSE ANY NATION TO HESITATE TO START A WAR.

"IF WE DON'T DO THAT, I AM AFRAID WE ARE GOING TO BE IN A PERIOD OF TENSION OR WORSE FOR MANY, MANY YEARS. SO, I CONSIDER THAT OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH EUROPE IS HIGHLY IMPORTANT FROM A MILITARY POINT OF VIEW."

A5WX

DISCUSSING THE MACARTHUR OUSTER, BRADLEY GAVE THREE REASONS WHY

30.24- 23253

THE JOINT CHIEFS APPROVED HIS REMOVAL BY THE PRESIDENT:
1. MACARTHUR'S STATEMENTS AND COMMUNIQUES "INDICATED THAT HE WAS NOT IN SYMPATHY WITH THE DECISION TO TRY TO LIMIT THE CONFLICT TO KOREA."
2. MACARTHUR HAD "FAILED TO COMPLY WITH THE PRESIDENTIAL DIRECTIVE TO CLEAR STATEMENTS ON POLICY BEFORE MAKING SUCH STATEMENTS PUBLIC."
3. THE JOINT CHIEFS FELT MACARTHUR'S ACTIONS CONTINUED TO "JEOPARDIZE THE CIVILIAN CONTROL OVER THE MILITARY AUTHORITIES." HE SAID THE JOINT CHIEFS THEMSELVES "HAVE FELT AND FEEL NOW THAT THE MILITARY MUST BE CONTROLLED BY CIVILIAN AUTHORITY IN THIS COUNTRY."

SENATOR GEORGE REFERRED TO A STATEMENT BY SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL THAT U.S. PLANES WOULD BOMB RED BASES IN MANCHURIA IF THERE WAS ANY ASSURANCE RUSSIA WOULD NOT ENTER THE WAR.

BRADLEY SAID THAT WAS TRUE, AND GEORGE THEN SAID:

"THAT MEANS THEN THAT, FROM A STRICTLY MILITARY POINT, THE REQUEST (BY MACARTHUR) TO BOMB THE SUPPLY DEPOTS AND CONCENTRATION POINTS IN MANCHURIA WAS CORRECT?"

BRADLEY: NO, SIR, I DON'T AGREE WITH THAT, SIR. KOREA IS A POOR PLACE TO FIGHT A WAR AND A LOT OF MILITARY IMPLICATIONS ARE INVOLVED IN EXTENDING THE WAR.

"NOW IF RUSSIA SHOULD COME INTO THIS WAR, IT WOULD BE VERY DIFFICULT TO SUPPLY THE TROOPS IN KOREA OR TO GET THEM OUT, AND SO--SPEAKING ENTIRELY FROM A MILITARY POINT OF VIEW--WE DO NOT WANT TO TAKE THAT RISK."

GEORGE SAID HE WAS ASSUMING RUSSIA WOULD NOT COME INTO THE WAR.

"YES," BRADLEY REPLIED, "BUT WHO CAN TELL US THEY WON'T?"

AT ONE POINT IN THE HEARING, MORSE CAME OUT OF THE HEARING ROOM TO TELL REPORTERS THAT "BRADLEY BOMBED A BIG HOLE" IN MACARTHUR'S TESTIMONY.

HE SAID BRADLEY HAD SHOWN THE JOINT CHIEFS ARE FOLLOWING A POLICY "TO AVOID ALL-OUT WAR AND SAVE AMERICAN LIVES" WHILE THE MACARTHUR PROGRAM "WOULD THROW US INTO AN ALL-OUT WAR AND COSTS US TREMENDOUS CASUALTIES."

BRADLEY SAID "FROM A STRICTLY MILITARY STANDPOINT" MACARTHUR HAD NOT BEEN GUILTY OF INSUBORDINATION. THIS WAS THE SAME VIEW TAKEN BY MARSHALL--BUT MARSHALL ARGUED MACARTHUR SHOULD NOT HAVE TAKEN ISSUE PUBLICLY WITH THE ADMINISTRATION ON POLICY MATTERS.

IN THE HEARING, MORSE ASKED BRADLEY IF MACARTHUR HAD LOOKED ON THE KOREAN SITUATION FROM A THEATER COMMANDER'S VIEWPOINT WITH "TOO LITTLE CONSIDERATION TO THE GLOBAL PROBLEM INVOLVED."

BRADLEY REPLIED: "WELL, I THINK IN GENERAL, YES. AND I THINK THAT IS NOT UNUSUAL. EVERY THEATER COMMANDER NATURALLY IS MORE INTERESTED IN HIS OWN THEATER THAN HE IS IN SOME OTHER ONE.

A43WX

"AND I WOULD NOT SAY THAT WAS A FAULT X X X HE IS NOT IN A POSITION TO KNOW THE WORLDWIDE IMPLICATIONS AND HAS NO RESPONSIBILITY FOR WORLDWIDE COMMITMENTS."

LATE IN 1949, BRADLEY SAID, THERE WAS A DIFFERENCE OF OPINION BETWEEN THE JOINT CHIEFS AND THE STATE DEPARTMENT OVER FORMOSA. IT WAS IN DECEMBER, 1949, THAT THE STATE DEPARTMENT TOLD CONSULAR OFFICERS TO PREPARE FOR THE FALL OF FORMOSA, SAYING IT HAD NO REAL STRATEGIC IMPORTANCE.

BRADLEY SAID THE JOINT CHIEFS AT THAT TIME HAD RECOMMENDED "A MODEST PROGRAM OF MILITARY ASSISTANCE" TO CHIANG KAI-SHEK--AND FELT THAT FORMOSA DID HAVE STRATEGIC VALUE. THIS PROPOSAL WAS DROPPED, HE SAID, WHEN PRESIDENT TRUMAN ANNOUNCED IN JANUARY, 1950, THAT CHIANG WOULD BE GIVEN NO MILITARY AID.

MAY 22 1951

QUESTIONED BY MORSE ABOUT MACARTHUR'S PROPOSAL TO BLOCKADE THE RED-HELD COASTLINE IN ASIA, BRADLEY REPLIED:

"IF YOU START OUT TO STOP RUSSIAN SHIPPING GOING INTO PORT ARTHUR, FOR EXAMPLE--WHICH WOULD NATURALLY FALL UNDER THE BLOCKADE--YOU ARE APT TO FIND YOURSELF COMMITTING AN ACT OF WAR, AND FIND YOURSELF AT WAR."

HE ALSO SAID IF BOMBING MANCHURIA BROUGHT RUSSIA INTO THE WAR "WE WOULD BE IN AN INFINITELY WORSE POSITION THAN WE ARE TODAY."

AND HE ADDED: "NO ONE KNOWS WHETHER OR NOT RUSSIA IS GOING TO COME IN. SOME PEOPLE THINK THAT IF WE BOMB BASES IN MANCHURIA AND CHINA THEY WILL. OTHERS THINK THEY WOULD NOT COME IN.

"I DO NOT THINK THAT THEY KNOW--I DO NOT THINK ANYONE KNOWS, OTHER THAN PROBABLY THE 14 PEOPLE IN THE KREMLIN THAT FORM THE POLITBURO." #

BRADLEY HIGHLIGHTS

WASHINGTON,MAY 21-(AP)-GEN.OMAR N.BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, RESUMED HIS TESTIMONY TODAY BEFORE THE SENATE'S ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES IN THEIR INVESTIGATION OF GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S REMOVAL.

HERE ARE THE HIGHLIGHTS OF THE CLOSED HEARING, TAKEN FROM A CENSORED TRANSCRIPT OF THE QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS:

-DASH-

SENATOR LYNDON JOHNSON (D-TEXAS): WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF, IN THE LIGHT OF ALL THE FACTS THAT APPEARED, YOU LEFT HIM (MACARTHUR) IN THE POST?

BRADLEY: XXXX IT IS POSSIBLE THAT BY NOT TRYING TO CONFINE THE CONFLICT TO KOREA WE MIGHT FIND THE WAR ENLARGED BEYOND OUR CAPABILITY TO CARRY IT OUT SUCCESSFULLY.

JOHNSON: SPEAKING FROM PURELY A MILITARY VIEWPOINT, WHAT IS YOUR ESTIMATE OF THE STRATEGIC VALUE OF FORMOSA?

BRADLEY: I THINK IT HAS GREAT STRATEGIC VALUE IN THE HANDS OF AN ENEMY. IT WOULD SERIOUSLY AFFECT OUR LINE OF DEFENSES IF IT FELL INTO THE HANDS OF AN UNFRIENDLY POWER, PARTICULARLY IN TIME OF WAR, BECAUSE OF ITS NAVAL AND AIR BASES WHICH WOULD EXTEND THE ACTION OF SHIPS AND PLANES A CONSIDERABLE DISTANCE ALONG OUR LINE OF COMMUNICATION BETWEEN THE PHILIPPINES, OKINAWA AND JAPAN.

JOHNSON: IN THE EVENT GEN.MACARTHUR'S PROGRAM SHOULD BE ADOPTED, XXX DO YOU HAVE A ROUGH ESTIMATE OF WHAT OUR ADDITIONAL NEEDS WOULD BE XXX?

BRADLEY: XXX ALL I CAN SAY IS THAT IT CERTAINLY WOULD REQUIRE MORE AIR POWER, MORE NAVAL POWER, AND --

JOHNSON: SUBSTANTIALLY MORE?

BRADLEY: SUBSTANTIALLY MORE AIR, AND I WOULD SAY SUBSTANTIALLY MORE NAVAL.

JOHNSON: IS THAT AVAILABLE?

BRADLEY: WELL, IF YOU STRIPPED EVERYTHING ELSE YOU MIGHT GET IT.

JOHNSON: SPEAKING PURELY FROM A MILITARY POINT, GEN.BRADLEY, WHAT IS THE VALUE OF THE WESTERN EUROPEAN ALLIES TO THE UNITED STATES?

BRADLEY: WE ESTIMATE THAT THE MANPOWER, THAT IS THE POPULATION, OF THE COUNTRIES THAT WOULD BE INVOLVED IS SOMETHING OVER 300 MILLION. THEIR INDUSTRIAL CAPACITY IS VERY SUBSTANTIAL XXX. PEOPLE IN EUROPE ARE VERY CAPABLE ALLIES, IF THEY CAN BE MAINTAINED ON OUR SIDE AND THEIR SECURITY BUILT UP; AND, IN FACT, IT SEEMS TO ME THAT ONE OF OUR BEST CHANCES TO AVOID WAR AND FINALLY GET OUT OF THIS PERIOD OF TENSION IS TO GET THE POWER OF EUROPE BUILT UP TO THE POINT WHERE THEIR SECURITY FORCES ARE ADEQUATE, AND WOULD CAUSE ANY NATION TO HESITATE TO START A WAR.

A72WX

JOHNSON: WOULD YOU POINT OUT THOSE EXCEPTIONS (WHERE AMERICAN POLICY IS NOT FOLLOWING THE LINES RECOMMENDED BY MACARTHUR)?

BRADLEY: XXX IF YOU TAKE THEM (CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS) INTO KOREA, YOU ARE GOING TO HAVE TO FULLY EQUIP THEM, TRANSPORT THEM, FURNISH THE LOGISTIC SUPPORT, AND AS I SAY, THEY ARE OF DOUBTFUL VALUE WHEN THEY GET THERE. TO TURN THEM LOOSE AGAINST THE MAINLAND, THEY DO NOT HAVE THE AIR POWER AND THE NAVAL POWER AND THE NAVY TRANSPORT TO BE EFFECTIVE, UNLESS WE ARE WILLING TO COMMIT A LOT OF OUR FORCES TO SUPPORT THEM.

SENATOR GEORGE (D-GA): XXX FROM A STRICTLY MILITARY POINT, THE REQUE TO BOMB THE SUPPLY DEPOTS AND CONCENTRATION POINTS IN MANCHURIA WAS CORRECT?

BRADLEY: NO, SIR. XXX KOREA IS A POOR PLACE TO FIGHT A WAR, AND A LOT OF MILITARY IMPLICATIONS ARE INVOLVED IN EXTENDING THE WAR. NOW IF RUSSIA SHOULD COME INTO THIS WAR, IT WOULD BE VERY DIFFICULT TO SUPPLY TROOPS IN KOREA OR TO GET THEM OUT, AND SO, SPEAKING ENTIRELY FROM A MILITARY POINT OF VIEW, WE DO NOT WANT TO TAKE THAT RISK.

SENATOR MORSE (R-ORE): DO YOU CARE TO SAY THAT IT IS YOUR OPINION THAT GEN.MACARTHUR LOOKED AT THE KOREAN WAR PRIMARILY FROM THE STANDPOINT OF THE THEATER AND THERE WAS TOO LITTLE CONSIDERATION BEING GIVEN TO THE GLOBAL PROBLEM INVOLVED?

BRADLEY: WELL, I THINK IN GENERAL, YES. AND I THINK THAT IS NOT UNUSUAL.

MORSE: WOULD IT BE FAIR TO SAY XXX THAT IT HAS BEEN THE OPINION OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF XXX, THAT IF THEY WERE RUNNING THE MILITARY PLANS OF THE RUSSIANS THEY WOULD LIKE TO SUCK THE ALLIES INTO AN ALL-OUT WAR IN ASIA?

BRADLEY: YES, SIR. WE ARE VERY DEFINITELY OF THAT OPINION, THAT RUSSIA, RIGHT NOW, IS FOLLOWING A POLICY OF TRYING TO CAUSE AS MUCH TROUBLE IN THE WORLD AS POSSIBLE, EVEN TO THE POINT OF CONFLICTS AND WARS, AND USING AS MUCH AS POSSIBLE, HER SATELLITES' TROOPS AND NOT HER OWN.

GEORGE: WELL, I CAN UNDERSTAND THAT, GENERAL (THAT IT IS DIFFICULT TO DETERMINE RUSSIAN INTENTIONS). HOW CAN YOU TELL US THAT WE WON'T GET INTO WAR IF WE GO INTO IRAN TOMORROW WITH THE BRITISH AND SAY THAT YOU MUST NOT TAKE THIS OIL OR YOU MUST NOT NATIONALIZE? WE ARE TAKING CHANCES, GENERAL, EVERYWHERE.

BRADLEY: THAT IS RIGHT. (THEN, LATER:) I DON'T WANT IT TO SAY IN THE RECORD THAT I AM SAYING THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF WOULD ADVOCATE OUR GOING INTO IRAN. WE HAVE NO COMMITMENT OF GOING INTO IRAN WITH THE BRITISH. THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF CERTAINLY HAVE NOT MADE ANY SUCH DECISION, AND THAT OUGHT TO BE CLEARED UP.

(300) MACARTHUR MESSAGE

WASHINGTON,MAY 21-(AP)-SENATE HEARINGS MADE PUBLIC TODAY GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S OFFER ON JAN. 10, 1951, TO HOLD A BEACH HEAD IN KOREA UNTIL THE "COMPLETE DESTRUCTION" OF HIS COMMAND "IF OVERRIDING POLITICAL CONSIDERATIONS SO DICTATE."

THE DEPOSED PACIFIC COMMANDER'S MESSAGE TO THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF --PREVIOUSLY MENTIONED IN TESTIMONY AND DESCRIBED AS "GLOOMY" BY SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL--WAS PUT INTO THE RECORD TODAY OF THE SENATE COMMITTEES INQUIRING INTO MACARTHUR'S OUSTER.

MACARTHUR TOLD THE JOINT CHIEFS HE BELIEVED HIS COMMAND WAS "INSUFFICIENT TO HOLD A POSITION IN KOREA AND PROTECT SIMULTANEOUSLY JAPAN AGAINST EXTERNAL ASSAULT."

BUT HE RECOGNIZED, HE SAID, THAT "STRATEGIC DISPOSITIONS TAKEN IN THE PRESENT SITUATION MUST BE BASED UPON OVERRIDING POLITICAL POLICY ESTABLISHING THE RELATIVITY OF AMERICAN INTERESTS IN THE FAR EAST."

THE MESSAGE CONTINUED:

"THAT A BEACHHEAD LINE CAN BE HELD BY OUR EXISTING FORCES FOR A LIMITED TIME IN KOREA, THERE IS NO DOUBT, BUT THIS COULD NOT BE ACCOMPLISHED WITHOUT LOSSES. WHETHER OR NOT SUCH LOSSES WERE REGARDED AS 'SEVERE', WOULD TO A CERTAIN EXTENT D ACCOMPLISHED WITHOUT LOSSES. WHETHER OR NOT SUCH LOSSES WERE REGARDED AS 'SEVERE', WOULD TO A CERTAIN EXTENT DEPEND UPON THE CONNOTATION ONE GIVES THE TERM."

THE MACARTHUR MESSAGE WAS DISPATCHED AT A TIME WHEN HIS TROOPS HAD BEEN THROWN BACK INTO SOUTH KOREA BY THE INTERVENTION OF CHINESE COMMUNISTS INTO THE WAR. LATER, THE TIDE OF BATTLE TURNED AND U.N. TROOPS BEGAN ADVANCING AGAIN UNDER GEN.MATTHEW B.RIDGWAY.

MACARTHUR SAID THAT IF IT HAD BEEN KNOWN AT THE START THAT THE CHINESE REDS WOULD INTERVENE, HIS COMMAND PROBABLY NEVER WOULD HAVE BEEN COMMITTED TO KOREA.

"THE TROOPS ARE EMBITTERED BY THE SHAMEFUL PROPAGANDA WHICH HAS FALSELY CONDEMNED THEIR FIGHTING QUALITIES AND COURAGE IN MISUNDERSTOOD RETROGRADE MANEUVER, ARE TIRED FROM A LONG AND DIFFICULT CAMPAIGN, AND -- UNLESS THE POLITICAL BASIS UPON WHICH THEY ARE ASKED TO TRADE LIFE FOR TIME IS CLEARLY DELINEATED, FULLY UNDERSTOOD, AND SO IMPELLING THAT THE HAZARDS OF BATTLE ARE ACCEPTED CHEERFULLY--THEIR MORALE WILL BECOME A SERIOUS THREAT TO THEIR BATTLE EFFICIENCY," MACARTHUR SAID.

WASHINGTON, MAY 21-(AP)-HERE IS A PARTIAL CENSORED TRANSCRIPT OF GENERAL BRADLEY'S TESTIMONY BEFORE SENATE COMMITTEES TODAY, DEALING WITH U.S. MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO CHINESE NATIONALIST FORCES ON FORMOSA:

GENERAL BRADLEY. X X X

IN RESPONSE TO A REQUEST FROM THE STATE DEPARTMENT FOR VIEWS ON FORMOSA, THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF IN JULY 1950 REAFFIRMED THAT FORMOSA WAS STRATEGICALLY IMPORTANT TO THE UNITED STATES AND THAT RESISTANCE BY CHINESE NATIONALIST FORCES WAS MILITARILY IMPORTANT TO THE UNITED STATES.

THEY RECOMMENDED DENYING FORMOSA TO THE COMMUNISTS, MODIFYING POLICY SO AS TO GRANT MILITARY AID, AND A SURVEY OF THE CHINESE NATIONALIST FORCES BY GENERAL MACARTHUR AND HIS STAFF.

THIS SURVEY WAS MADE -- INCIDENTALLY, THIS RECOMMENDATION WAS APPROVED AT THIS TIME BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND A SURVEY WAS MADE IN AUGUST, AND AS A RESULT INITIATION OF SHIPMENTS OF CRITICALLY NEEDED AMMUNITION WAS APPROVED.

THE SURVEY REPORT MADE BY GENERAL FOX, WHO WAS ON GENERAL MACARTHUR'S STAFF, WAS RECEIVED IN SEPTEMBER, AND THAT WAS USED TO DEVELOP PROGRAMS FOR MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO THE CHINESE NATIONALISTS ON FORMOSA.

X X X

THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF ON 9 JANUARY IN ANSWER TO GENERAL MACARTHUR INDICATED THE USE OF CHINESE NATIONALISTS IN KOREA WAS NOT FAVORED DUE TO THEIR PROBABLE USEFULNESS ELSEWHERE AND IMPROBABILITY OF A DECISIVE CONTRIBUTION FROM THEM IN KOREA.

THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF TENTATIVE AGREEMENT ON COURSES OF ACTION WHICH HAVE BEEN TALKED ABOUT SO MUCH HERE, DATED 12 JANUARY, DID INCLUDE THE USE OF THESE CHINESE NATIONALIST FORCES AGAINST THE MAINLAND IF FEASIALBE BUT NOT IN KOREA, AND NEAR THE END OF JANUARY

THE 1951 SUPPLEMENTAL PROGRAM FOR THE ARMY MILITARY ASSISTANCE FROM FORMOSA WAS APPROVED, AND AIR AND NAVY PROGRAMS WERE APPROVED IN LATE FEBRUARY.

AND IN MARCH THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF RECOMMENDED ESTABLISHMENT OF A MILITARY ASSISTANCE ADVISORY GROUP AND TRAINING MISSION FOR FORMOSA. THIS WAS APPROVED BY OUR GOVERNMENT, AND THE MISSION IS NOW IN FORMOSA. A TOTAL MILITARY AID PROGRAM OF SOMETHING LIKE $300 MILLION HAS BEEN STUDIED AND RECOMMENDED FOR THE NATIONALISTS ON FORMOSA TO BE PROVIDED IN DUE COURSE.

BRADLEY-IRAN

WASHINGTON,MAY 21-(AP)-GEN.OMAR N.BRADLEY TOLD SENATORS TODAY THE UNITED STATES HAS NO COMMITMENT TO GO INTO IRAN WITH THE BRITISH IN EVENT OF ANY TROUBLE THERE.

BRADLEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF, MADE THE STATEMENT AT THE SENATE INQUIRY INTO DISMISSAL OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR.

SENATOR BREWSTER (R-ME) SUGGESTED THAT BRADLEY'S REMARK ABOUT NO COMMITMENTS BE STRICKEN FROM THE PUBLIC RECORD OF THE HEARINGS, BUT THE MILITARY CENSOR COMBING THE RECORD FOR THE COMMITTEE LET THE STATEMENT STAND.

"I AM VERY RELUCTANT TO SAY WE WILL OR WILL NOT GO INTO IRAN," BREWSTER DECLARED. "I WOULD LIKE TO LEAVE THE RUSSIANS A LITTLE IN IGNORANCE IF POSSIBLE. IF IT COULD BE ELIMINATED, I WOULD THINK THAT BEST."

THE BRITISH AT PRESENT ARE IN THE MIDST OF A DISPUTE WITH THE IRANIAN GOVERNMENT OVER IRAN'S DECISION TO NATIONALIZE ITS RICH OIL FIELDS. THEY HAVE BEEN UNDER LEASE TO A BRITISH COMPANY.

THE FIELDS ARE A SOURCE OF IMPORTANT SUPPLY TO GREAT BRITAIN, AND ARE ONE REASON WHY IT HAS LONG BEEN REGARDED AS STRATEGICALLY IMPORTANT TO KEEP THE MIDDLE EAST OUT OF RUSSIAN HANDS.

MAY 22 1951

WASHINGTON,MAY 21-(AP)-SENATOR WILEY (R-WIS) TOLD THE SENATE TODAY "WE'RE NOT GOING TO GET ALL THE FACTS" ON THE OUSTING OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR FROM HIS FAR EAST COMMANDS.

BUT HE SAID HE HOPES THE PRESENT SENATE INQUIRY WON'T BE REGARDED AS A "WHITEWASH" OR A WASH OUT."

WILEY WAS DISCUSSING LAST WEEK'S 18 TO 8 VOTE BY THE SENATE INQUIRY PANEL--MADE UP OF THE ARMED SERVICES AND FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEES--AGAINST DEMANDING THAT GEN.OMAR BRADLEY TESTIFY ABOUT PRIVATE CONVERSATIONS WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN.

WILEY, WHO HAS ASKED FOR THE TESTIMONY FROM BRADLEY, SAID THE VOTE "CONTRIBUTED TO THE WHITTLING AWAY OF CONGRESS' POWER."

REFERRING TO HIS SUGGESTION THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN BE INVITED TO TESTIFY BEFORE THE COMMITTEES, WILEY SAID:

"WHY SHOULDN'T THE PRESIDENT COME BEFORE THIS COMMITTEE AND TELL THE FACTS?"

WILEY, QUOTING FROM CHIEF JUSTICE MARSHALL IN THE AARON BURR TREASON CASE, SAID THE PRESIDENT MAY BE SUBPOENAED AND CROSS-EXAMINED AS A WITNESS BEFORE A CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE. BUT HE CONCEDED THERE IS NO POWER TO COMPEL THE PRESIDENT TO TESTIFY.

AT A NEWS CONFERENCE, PRESIDENTIAL PRESS SECRETARY JOSEPH SHORT WAS ASKED TODAY FOR COMMENT ON WILEY'S PROPOSAL THAT THE PRESIDENT TESTIFY. SHORT REPLIED THAT HE DIDN'T CARE TO COMMENT ON IT.

Transcript of General Bradley's Third Day of Testimony as Senate Resumes Policy Hearing

MAY 22 1951

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—Following is the censored transcript of testimony today before the Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services Committees inquiring into the Administration foreign policy (* * denote censorship deletions):*

CHAIRMAN RUSSELL — The committee will be in order.

Before we start today's proceedings there are a few procedural matters I would like to bring to the attention of the committee before we resume the examination of General Bradley.

The first one is a brief statement of the progress being made in printing the hearings. The Government printer has completed what I believe they call the half-galleys covering the first three days of the hearing. There are several copies of this available in case any member of the committee wishes to glance through them.

The reason I call it to your attention is because of the fact that considerable titling and sub-titling has been used in the preparation of the proofs, and for that reason I thought that the members of the committee ought to have an opportunity, if they desired, to see the form that this material is in before the final printing is accomplished.

The other procedural matter I desired to bring to the attention of the committee involves a communication that I, as chairman of the committee, received from a member of the committee. Inasmuch as that member is not present, I think it would be best to proceed with the examination of General Bradley.

Senator Johnson?

SENATOR JOHNSON — Mr. chairman.

General Bradley, it has been stated that you personally recommended relieving General MacArthur. I should like for you to state for the record whether or not that is true and, if so, give the committee some details and elaborate on the reasons for your recommendation and the conclusions that you reached.

Testimony of General of the Army Omar N. Bradley—resumed —accompanied by Lieut. Col. Chester V. Clifton.

GENERAL BRADLEY—I think I could probably give a better answer to that if I would go back just a little bit to the meetings preceding the recommendation of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

SENATOR JOHNSON—General, I purposely made my question as brief as possible in order that you could make your explanation as lengthy as you desire.

GENERAL BRADLEY — All right, sir.

The first meeting which I attended at the White House was on Friday, the 6th of April, in which the President called the four of us in—I believe that has been stated —Secretary Acheson, General Marshall, Mr. Harriman and myself, and we discussed the various things involved in the matter.

He told us to go back, and the four of us to get together and discuss it further among ourselves, which we did that afternoon. At neither of these meetings were any decisions made.

Then when we went back to the White House on Saturday morning, we suggested to the President that he make no decision until he had studied it over the week-end and other people had had a chance to study it, and he said he would discuss it with other Government leaders.

Who they were I do not know, but at that same meeting on Saturday he directed that we get an opinion of the Joint Chiefs of Staff in the matter, strictly from a military point of view. So I called such a meeting on Sunday afternoon with the three Chiefs, and we discussed the matter, and then we went up to General Marshall's office at 4:00 o'clock, and the Chiefs gave him their reasons why from a military point of view they thought that General MacArthur should be relieved, and they set forth these from a military point of views as follows:

One. That by his public statements and by his official communications to us, he had indicated that he was not in sympathy with the decision to try to limit the conflict to Korea. This would make it difficult for him to carry out Chiefs of Staff directives. ... we had decided to try to ... the conflict to Korea and ... a third World War, it was necessary to have a commander more responsive to control from Washington.

The second reason advanced by the Chiefs was that General MacArthur had failed to comply with the Presidential directive to clear statements on policy before making such statements public. He had also taken independent action in proposing to negotiate directly with the enemy field commander for an armistice and had made that statement public despite the fact that he knew the President had such a proposal under consideration from a governmental level.

The third reason advanced by the Chiefs was that "they, the Joint Chiefs of Staff, have felt and feel now that the military must be controlled by civilian authority in this country." They have have always adhered to this principle and they felt that General MacArthur's actions were continuing to jeopardize the civilian control over the military authorities.

These reasons were given by the Chiefs to General Marshall on Sunday afternoon.

General Declares That He Concurred

Q.—General, this paper that you just read, is that a paper that was concurred in by all three of the Joint Chiefs? A.—Yes, sir. We sat down afterwards and wrote these up. First, they were given orally to General Marshall. We sat down afterwards with the three Chiefs and they agreed that these were the reasons they gave to General Marshall on that Sunday afternoon.

Q.—Did you personally concur in those recommendations that you have just read or did you just transmit the recommendations of the various chiefs? A.—I transmitted these to the President the next day as the three statements of the Joint Chiefs of Staff to General Marshall, and General Marshall has stated that I would make these known, and since they were given to him as an adviser, I think that releases me to give these to you by his statement before this committee.

Q.—First, I want to ask you this: You told us about the position taken by Admiral Sherman, General Vandenburg and General Collins. Now, did you share the same views, and did you express those views to the President? A.—I expressed these to the President as the views of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Q.—Did you express any personal views to him? A.—I did not express any, one way or the other, because I pass on to him the opinions of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. If I had not concurred in them I would have said so.

Q.—But you did concur in the recommendations made by the Joint Chiefs of Staff? A.—I did.

Q.—Did you indicate to the President that you did concur? A.—No, except the fact that I did not state any nonconcurrence. I transmit him the views of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and if I did not concur in them, I would have said so; that is according to the law.

Q.—So then, the President— A.—That is according to the law. You see, they have the vote, and I am their spokesman on certain occasions.

Q.—I am not asking about any votes. I am just asking about opinions. We know what that opinion was, and is it fair to state that you had the same opinion? A.—I did.

Q.—General, had there been any discussions in the Joint Chiefs of Staff about General MacArthur's public statements, and official recommendations, prior to your calling them together just before this April 5th meeting?

A.—Yes; from time to time there had been discussions of the matter; and as a matter of fact, it had been through the Joint Chiefs of Staff that the message went out on Dec. 6 to all commanders requiring them to submit statements on policy for clearance.

Conjecture on Consequences Of Not Ousting MacArthur

Q.—Would you care to give the committee some details of what led to the issuance of the Dec. 6 directive?

A.—I will be glad to, sir. The first matter that was called to our attention was last summer, on the V. F. W. [Veterans of Foreign Wars] statement. However, that was merely taken cognizance of, because the President made the decision to direct him to withdraw it without referring it to us.

Then there was a statement in THE NEW YORK TIMES, Dec. 1, and another one Dec. 2, which indicated that General MacArthur had given certain interviews, discussing policy, and those were of concern to the Chiefs.

That led to the sending out on Dec. 6 of the directive from the President, directing field commanders to clear statements.

Q.—Then as early as last fall the Joint Chiefs were discussing the desirability or undesirability of certain of General MacArthur's statements? A.—That is right, and the propriety of his making them.

Q.—Could you tell us what opinions were expressed, what your view was about the propriety of those statements? A.—Well, we didn't think he should make them. They impinged, however, primarily on Government policy and at that time we discussed more or less their application under this third one, I would say, they fell more under that than the others.

Q.—Were the Joint Chiefs of the unanimous opinion that the statements were not desirable? A.—Yes.

Q.—General, it would appear to be obvious that a number of important factors would have to be considered before removing a general of the stature and proven ability of General MacArthur from his key post in the Far East. I would think one of those factors would be the consequences of not removing him. In other words, what would happen if, in the light of all the facts that appeared, you left him in the post? Was that factor taken into consideration before the decision was made to dismiss General MacArthur?

A.—Yes, that was taken into consideration and his military views, because it is possible that by not trying to confine the conflict to Korea we might find our war enlarged beyond our capability to carry it out successfully.

Q.—Was it your estimate of the consequences—good or bad—that would have flowed from leaving General MacArthur in the Far East—what is your estimate—is it good or bad—of what would have happened if he had been left in, in the light of all the facts?

A.—Well, I expect that it is more or less conjecture as to what would happen in certain instances. We were afraid that we might become too much involved if he did not try to confine the war to Korea. That was stated in the first reason that the Chiefs were worried about, but whether or not it would happen I don't think anyone knows. There was that danger that it would happen.

Q.—At the time you recommended he be relieved it was your opinion that one who entertained the views he had expressed should not be left in command in view of the fact that those views were quite different from the Joint Chiefs' views? A.—That is right, and that is, as I stated, from a military point of view. We realized there are other considerations than military, and we confined our statement to the military reasons why we thought he should be relieved.

Q.—But from a military point of view it was your personal opinion, as well as the opinion of each Chief of Staff that serves on the Joint Chiefs of Staff, that General MacArthur should be relieved? A.—That is correct.

Q.—At the time the Jan. 12 memorandum of the Joint Chiefs was prepared had General MacArthur recommended the bombing of Manchuria and Chinese mainland targets? A.—I don't remember the date. For a long time he did not make a specific recommendation to bomb across the Yalu. He merely suggested that he was being hampered by not being able to do so, without a specific recommendation that he do it. Later on I believe he made a specific recommendation, but I don't remember the date offhand.

Q.—Do you think you have it available there? A.—I think I can find it. I can't answer that question hurriedly. I can look it up and give you a chronological——

Q.—Did the Jan. 12 memorandum of the Joint Chiefs recommend the bombing of Manchuria and Chinese mainland targets. A.—The study of Jan. 12 you are talking about now?

Q.—Yes. A.—It set that forth as part of the objectives and actions to be taken under the assumptions that we had made when we wrote the paper—that if we suddenly found ourselves at all-out war with China, either declared or undeclared, we would have to have certain objectives and take certain lines of action, and that was included in that study at that time to be taken under those conditions.

Q.—But the bombing was to take place only in case of retaliatory attacks; is that not correct? A.—No, not necessarily. But if we were driven out of Korea and found ourselves in all-out war with China, recognized as such, that might be an action taken. But as far as making a specific recommendation to bomb beyond the Yalu into Manchuria, we never did make any such specific recommendation that the action be taken.

Q.—General Bradley, speaking from purely a military viewpoint, what is your estimate of the strategic value of Formosa?

A.—I think it has great strategic value in the hands of an enemy. It would seriously affect our line of defenses if it fell into the hands of an unfriendly power, particularly in time of war, because of its naval and air bases which would extend the action of ships and planes a considerable distance along our line of communication between the Philippines, Okinawa and Japan. So the Joint Chiefs have always felt that it is very important that it not be in the hands of an unfriendly power during war with such power, but that we should not try to occupy it with U. S. forces.

Q.—In the event General MacArthur's program should be adopted, General Bradley, do you have a rough estimate of what our additional needs would be, if any, in terms of manpower, ships, planes and other types of equipment? A.—No, sir, not an accurate one. All I can say is that it certainly would require more air power, more naval power and——

Q.—Substantially more? A.—Beg pardon?

Q.—Substantially more? A.—Substantially more air, and I would say substantially more naval.

Estimate on Alternative Not Made by the Chiefs

Q.—Is that available? A.—Well, if you stripped everything else you might get it, but we would hate to see our other defense requirements stripped to the extent that you would have to do it to carry it out at this time.

Q.—What about manpower?

A.—The size of manpower would have to be increased, and your whole defensive effort would have to be stepped up some; because, if you get into an all-out war with China and start blockade, shelling of coastal centers, of supply and communications and start bombing centers of communication and supply, you are spreading your effort a great deal more than it is spread at the present time.

You are going to require more bases and more units, both naval and air to do it. You are going to require more people to back them up here at home, more supply and service troops in your line of communications. We have never tried to estimate just what that would be because so much would depend upon how deeply we became involved in it.

Q.—I realize it is very difficult to estimate ahead of time all that would be required, but you are familiar with the testimony of General MacArthur before this committee as to his view of the additional requirements, and as I remember it he felt that it would not be substantial.

Now it seems to me if you have given serious consideration to the alternate course that he proposes, that the Joint Chiefs would have some general idea about what they should have before launching onto that course, and that is what I would like the committee to get from you.

A.—As I say, we have never made that estimate. Had we been driven out of Korea, we could have used the units that we are now employing in Korea to do these other things that we had set forth in this Jan. 12 study as objectives in the possible lines of action, so that you would have been using the same forces there, partly at least and possibly almost wholly, that we are now employing in Korea.

Q.—And it is fair to say that none of our military leaders has made any estimate of the requirements and the needs to carry out the MacArthur program? A.—Not to carry those out in addition to what we are doing now.

Q.—But you do believe that the additional requirements would be substantial in both air power, ships and manpower? A.—I do.

Q.—And you do not think we have available, without stripping our continental defense or commitments we have made to our allies, sufficient power to carry out that program? A.—No. You would have to take them from somewhere else at this time.

Q.—Speaking purely from a military point, General Bradley, what is the value of the Western European Allies to the United States? Will you elaborate on that some?

A.—Yes, sir. We estimate that the manpower, that is the population, of the countries that would be involved is something over 300,000,000.

Their industrial capacity is very substantial, and if that were added to that which Russia already has, it would make them even more formidable, and increase their chances, and their possibility of being able to extend thir war over even more area than Western Europe.

Further than that, people in Europe are very capable allies, if they can be maintained on our side and their security built up; and, in fact, it seems to me that one of our best chances to avoid war and finally get out of this period of tension is to get the power of Europe built up to the point where their security forces are adequate, and would cause any nation to hesitate to start a war.

If we don't do that, I am afraid we are going to be in a period of tension or worse for many, many years. So, I consider that our relationship with Europe is highly important from a military point of view.

Q.—Would you care to discuss that from the standpoint of either air bases or strategic material that we rely on them for? A.—Yes. If we lose Europe, we certainly would lose the oil in the Middle East, which now supplies part of our own needs, as well as the needs of Europe, and that would be a very serious blow. We would also lose other strategic materials concerned. There was one other part of the question—

Q.—Bases and strategic materials. A.—Bases, yes, sir. On bases, we would be deprived of certain bases which we consider essential for use in any war with Russia.

Bases Declared Absolute Necessity

Q.—If we were deprived of those bases would you think that it would seriously cripple our ability to wage war against Russia? A.—It would very seriously affect our ability to destroy Russia's industrial capacity and war-making machine.

Q.—Do we have the bases from which we could launch retaliatory bombing attacks against industrial centers within Russia? A.—We do now, yes.

Q.—But if we lose our allies, would we have them? A.—We still would have some, but we would lose some very important ones.

Q.—We would lose a great deal of our air strength, would we not, General? A.—I beg your pardon?

Q.—If we were confined to our own bases we would lose a great deal of our potential air strength. A.—We would lose a lot of our effectiveness, yes.

Q.—General, in the light of current world conditions are you satisfied with the progress that this country is making on our manpower and our industrial mobilization? A.—Not entirely; no, sir.

Q.—Would you tell us why you are not?

A.—Well, to go back to the statement I made a minute ago, I think we face a period of tension for a long time, and I would think that the only way to solve that is by some long-range policy, military policy, which would provide adequate defense and security forces, and more or less along the line that we have recommended to the Congress last fall, so that we can eventually reduce the size of our active forces that we have to keep on daily duty.

It is very expensive to keep troops on active duty the way we have—three and a half million of them—for an indefinite period of time. Not only is it costly in money, in taxpayers' money, but it means that more people have to stay away from home in the service than we would like to have over a long period.

If we could work out some long-range military policy whereby we could have a certain number of units readily available, quickly available, and the rest of our forces to come from well-trained reserves who are available, trained and equipped and ready for action in a much less time than it now takes, in my opinion we would be much stronger.

We would carry more weight at the council table.

It would act as a greater deterrent to war, and we might, given time, be sufficiently strong so that we would no longer fear war the way we do at the present time.

In other words, anyone would hesitate to jump us, if we had a highly trained reserve that could be called out very quickly.

Q.—Do you think, under the terms of the manpower bill passed by the Senate, that your manpower requirements could be met?

A.—Senator, I haven't studied the final draft of your bill recently. I was given the impression that it very nearly fulfilled all the recommendations that we made last fall, and I am hoping that whatever comes out of the conference, and that your Congress sees fit to pass eventually, will provide that long-range military policy which will strengthen us materially.

Q.—General, would you give us a brief summary of your position in connection with the two proposals that have been presented to this committee, the MacArthur proposal and the course we are now following in Korea; and, give us your reasons for your preference.

A.—Well, actually I don't think there are too many differences. I think that of all of the lines of action open to us, we are following the ones that General MacArthur thinks proper, except in four or five instances. I think it might be well——

Bradley Analyzes Basis Of World Tension Today

Q.—Would you point out those exceptions?

A.—Yes, sir; but may I first analyze what I think is back of this question, and then I will come back to the differences.

I can readily understand why the people of the United States, collectively and as individuals, are worried about the situation in the world today, and have a feeling of frustration.

We won a war, and finished it in 1945—the biggest war that had ever been fought. We won it, and we came back from it with the idea that now we were through with wars for a long time to come. I know I had that feeling; but in about a year, we began to realize that things were not quite as smooth and lovely as we had hoped they would be, and it was through no fault of our own. It was because one nation, and its satellites, saw fit to keep the world stirred up, and in a period of turmoil.

We also found ourselves in a position of leadership in the world, which we had never occupied before, which placed a great deal of responsibility on us to maintain the peace and keep the world from going communistic.

It is hard for our people to realize this change in our position. It is hard for them to understand why it is necessary to have bigger services, Army, Navy and Air Force; why we have a Berlin situation; why we have a Greek situation; why we have a Korean situation; and I think it is readily understandable why they feel confused and frustrated. I think we all do.

This is not a situation to our liking at all, but we find ourselves in it, and what we are facing up to now, is what is the best way to solve it.

So far, our Government has seen fit to try to solve the Berlin blockade; to keep Greece and Turkey from communistic domination. Our European recovery plan helped keep France and Italy from going communistic; and, I think we have done pretty well under the circumstances.

But, as I say, still we are faced with a world of tension. We don't like it, but we don't seem to have the immediate answer to stop it. We are trying to contain aggressions, and this action in Korea is one of them, and containing it in Korea—from a military point of view, we have tried to confine it to Korea.

Now, in fighting that war in Korea, there have been certain actions taken. Some people feel that we should take additional actions, and among those, for example, was the use of Nationalist troops in Korea; and the use of Nationalist troops against the mainland, both of these sources coming from Formosa.

If all of those troops on Formosa were well-trained, well-equipped, well-supplied, well-led, those courses of action might be very proper, and some day they may be proper; but right now, we feel that the capabilities of the troops on Formosa, that is, the Chinese Nationalist troops, their capabilities are such that it wouldn't be proper action to take.

In other words, we would not get return for what you do. If you take them into Korea, you are going to have to fully equip them, transport them, furnish the logistic support, and as I say, they are of doubtful value when they get there.

To turn them loose against the mainland, they do not have the air power and the naval power and the navy transport to be effective, unless we are willing to commit a lot of our forces to support them. * * * (eight and one-half lines deleted).

A fourth point is the bombing of bases in Manchuria, the limit of the bases you can bomb in Manchuria are naval bases—excuse me—I mean air bases and certain supply and troop concentrations.

The planes that have been coming up at our planes and engaging them in combat have mostly come from just across the river; so that we do not know in general where they come from, and it is true that we could go over and destroy a lot of Chinese planes. On the other hand, they have not been effective to date.

They have confined their efforts almost entirely to attacking our formations that approach the Manchurian border. They have not caused any serious difficulty with our troops, and so far we have not felt that it was necessary to go after them except, as I pointed out the other day, we did think it would be advantageous if we were permitted to follow across the river in hot pursuit because in getting into a dogfight near the river, it is quite a handicap if you can't pass the river at all.

If you could cross over for two or three minutes even, it would give our fighters a better chance to shoot them down, but other than that, we have not seen fit to recommend the bombing of the bases in Manchuria.

We have a supply line about 200 miles long to work on now and we can exercise very concentrated attacks on that supply line. If you extend the length another 100 miles back into Manchuria, you can get certain other bases, but with the same air power you would thin out your present attacks against the 200 miles of supply line that is in Korea.

Normally you go after certain targets with strategic bombing that are producing the war materials of a nation. In this case most of these supplies are not made in China, but they are made in Russia, so that you cannot go after the real source of supply. You can only get the supply installations where they are moving them down toward the front.

There was one other minor one that General MacArthur mentioned, and that was the bombing of Rashin. I believe I explained that to the committee. We authorized its bombing twice. In one case the bombing was carried out, and in the second case it had to be diverted to a secondary objective. * * * (four lines deleted).

THE CHAIRMAN—I am sorry, Senator Johnson, but your time has expired. Senator George.

SENATOR GEORGE—General, please explain exactly what is meant by hot pursuit. General Marshall told this committee that the proposal to permit hot pursuit was vetoed by the thirteen nations that were contributing some more or less to the Korean fighting.

GENERAL BRADLEY—Yes, sir. By that we meant that when we got into what is commonly termed a "dog fight" between fighters of our two forces, that we not have to stop the minute we get to the Yalu River. At the time this came up—.

Q.—In other words, you could pursue the planes as long as you were in hot pursuit; is that right? A.—Yes, we could follow the planes back across the border.

Q.—That is what I was getting at, General. Now, when did this come up? A.—It came up early in November.

Q. —Early in November. At that time General MacArthur's forces were in North Korea, where they not? A.—I did not get the last part.

Q.—At that time General MacArthur's forces or a great part of his forces were in North Korea? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—And they were moving towards the northern boundary? A.—That is correct.

Q.—And motion was in that direction. And he proposed hot pursuit. Now we understood that the General Staff approved the hot pursuit. A.—We did. The State Department approved it and the President approved it.

Q.—But the thirteen nations or some number of other nations vetoed it? A.—Yes. Certain other nations who had troops in Korea—

Q.—How many troops did they have there at that time? In the actual battle line, how many troops did they have up in North Korea fighting? A.—Approximately, I would estimate around 30,000 ground force and Navy and Air Forces supporting.

Q.—I am not talking about the air particularly, but the ground forces. Anyway, that was vetoed. From a strictly military point of view, the General Staff found no difficulty in approving General MacArthur's request to pursue these planes—that is, to continue "hot pursuit" of planes?

A.—That is correct; from a military point of view we thought it was desirable, because it would be tough for a man in a dogfight to keep one eye on the Yalu River and stop the minute he gets there. It is very difficult.

Q. I think you were very sensible about it. I am not a military man, but it looks like common sense to me.

* * * (eight lines deleted).

Q.—With respect to the handling of his air power there, there is no substantial disagreement, except at one time he wished to bomb Rashin, and, after insistence, he was given that privilege—or, that is, the Air Force was given that authority.

General MacArthur, when he had his forces in North Korea moving toward the northern boundary of North Korea, was insistent that he have the right to bomb concentrations of forces in Manchuria, down near the border. I believe you said that that was his viewpoint?

A.—Yes, he expressed himself at various times as feeling that he was fighting under certain restrictions, which should not apply.

Was MacArthur's View Understood by Chiefs?

Q.—Well, now, General, let me ask you this. At all times did the General Staff know General MacArthur's viewpoint about this Korean fighting, about this question of the use of his air power and the taking off of the wraps, as he expressed it, of the Nationalists down on Formosa, and other points. Was his viewpoint understood by the Chiefs of Staff?

A.—I think, as I recall, although he did not make a specific recommendation originally, he indicated he felt he was being restricted, which is the same thing, and I think he felt that we realized he felt we should allow him to bomb in Manchuria.

Q.—Now, in answer to Senator Johnson, you recited three points that were in the mind and were expressed by the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

I believe your first point was you said that the Joint Chiefs didn't approve, didn't find it desirable to have General MacArthur expressing his opinion about certain public policy matters, certain questions of policy.

Did you communicate that decision to General MacArthur specifically?

A.—We did on Dec. 6. Up to that time we had not called his attention to it. As a matter of fact, up to that time we had not thought it was necessary because it is tradition and custom and common practice of military men, when speaking on policy matters, to submit them, submit their views, for approval.

Q.—I understand, General; but you had not thought it necessary up until December—Dec. 6? A.—That is correct.

Q.—And in the Dec. 6 statement that went to General MacArthur, you did undertake to call his attention to what you, the chiefs of the general staff or the Chiefs of Staff, thought he should have in mind, should bear in mind. Is that right? A.—That is correct. It went to all theatre commanders, not only to General MacArthur.

Q.—Yes, I see, it went to all of them. Wasn't General MacArthur's views and viewpoints about the value of Formosa well known to the Joint Chiefs of Staff? A.—Yes, sir; and——

Q.—To the President? Was there ever any doubt about where he stood upon that question, General? A.—Not that I know of. As far as the finding out of what was needed on Formosa, the defense importance of Formosa, the value of Formosa, in the hands of an enemy——

Q.—That is what I mean. A.—(Continuing)—There is no difference in the opinion of General MacArthur and ourselves on that.

Q.—I understand that. That is the thing that mystifies me. Now, General, you speak of losing our allies. When the decision was made to go into Korea, did you consider the question of losing your allies? A.—Well, we went into Korea on a resolution of the United Nations, and I don't think——

Q.—I understand; but then did you give any consideration to whether or not you would be weakening your hold with your allies at that time? A.—No, sir; I don't think so, because they were fully with us on this in the United Nations voting.

Q.—Yes, sir. General, tell me in plain language why did we send our armed forces into Korea.

A.—Well, the decision was made that here was another act of aggression that if we appeased in this case, something else would come along, and you either appeased again or took action in the next one, and I think it was fully realized by everyone, and it seemed to meet the approval of the people at that time, that one appeasement leads to another until you eventually make war inevitable. That is——

Q.—That is the reason? A.—And that is the reason, perhaps, that the people thought we should take action at this time.

Q.—What did we mean for our troops to do when we sent them into Korea? Specifically? The defending forces in South Korea had been driven down a considerable distance in South Korea when we got into it, had they not? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Most of the—— A.—(Continuing)—And the South Koreans were retreating when we first went into it.

Q.—They were retreating. Very well. What did we mean to do? What did we mean for our troops to do when we sent them into Korea?

A.—Well, the first commitment of troops was to help get our nationals out; and then the further commitment was to stop the aggression and carry out the United Nations resolution of stopping aggression of the North Koreans in South Korea and drive them back.

Statement by Marshall On Bombing Is Recalled

Q.—Well, that required fighting, did it not, General? I mean, you meant for our troops to fight, did you not, that were put in under General MacArthur, the troops you committed to Korea; were they not sent there to fight? A.—Yes; yes, indeed.

Q.—Yes, sir. Well now, General, General Marshall stated to this committee that if he knew or if we knew, that the Soviets would not come into this fighting, if we should bomb the supply depots, concentration points in Manchuria, that we would take that action, is that right?

A.—I think that is correct. In other words, you would extend your bombing of a line of supply.

Q.—That is it exactly, General, exactly. I think it is quite correct to say that that is true. That means then that from a strictly military point, the request to bomb the supply depots and concentration points in Manchuria was correct? A.—No, sir; I don't agree with that, sir.

Q. — From a strictly military point of view. A.—No, sir; and I will tell you why I don't think so from a military point of view.

Q.—Yes, sir. A.—Korea is a poor place to fight a war, and a lot of military implications are involved in extending the war.

Now if Russia should come into this war, it would be very difficult to supply the troops in Korea or to get them out, and so, speaking entirely from a military point of view, we do not want to take that risk.

Q.—I understood, General, but I said with Russia not coming in and we knew Russia was not coming in, there was nothing wrong in us striking back at the concentration points in Manchuria. A.—Yes, but who can tell us they won't?

Q.—Well, I can understand that, General. How can you tell us that we won't get into war if we go into Iran tomorrow with the British and say that you must not take this oil or you must not nationalize? We are taking chances, General, everywhere. A. — That is right.

Q.—And that is all I am saying. I was asking you this simple question: That from a strictly military point of view, with the assurance that Russia was not going to intervene directly, there was nothing wrong with General MacArthur's request that his planes be permitted to break up the concentrations across the Yalu river, troop concentrations that were coming down on his own troops.

A.—If you put in the condition, the assurance that Russia would not come into it, naturally the answer to your question is yes, it would be a military advantage.

Q.—That is what I meant. A.—But no one can give us that assurance.

Q.—I understand that, General. I am not insisting that anyone can give us that assurance.

Now, then, I did not understand General MacArthur—I listened very carefully to him. I did not hear his speech before the Congress except over the radio. I was ill, and I heard his opening statements here before this committee and most of his statements before this committee.

I did not understand that General MacArthur ever at any time recommended that Generalissimo Chiang's troops in Formosa be sent to the mainland of China.

My understanding and my interpretation was that he said, "Turn them loose and leave Generalissimo Chiang to determine himself where, if at all, he would employ his troops." That was my understanding of his position.

And with respect to retaining Formosa, that is to the extent of not allowing it to fall into unfriendly hands, I have never been able to see any difference between the viewpoint of General MacArthur and the general staff, the Chiefs of Staff.

There was at one time a difference of viewpoint, a very different and very marked difference of viewpoint on the part of the State Department, but that is a different matter and would not involve you in it, but at this time according to Secretary Rusk in New York just within hours, it is very difficult to see why he has not gone all the way that General MacArthur would go in taking the wraps off of Chinese Nationalist troops in Formosa and leaving it up to their own generals, their own commanders to determine what if anything they would do with those troops.

A.—Well, from the military point of view there is no objection as I see it to removing any restrictions on his doing these things, provided he doesn't get mixed up in such a way as to involve our own forces.

Q.—Well, I do not agree myself, General, with everything that I have heard here from General MacArthur's viewpoint about the use of those troops, but so far as turning them loose is concerned and leaving it up to their judgment, with the provision that you have put in, I can't see strictly from a military point of view why it would be harmful.

A.—I can see none from a military view except that if by so doing they took such losses both in men and equipment that they then jeopardized the security of Formosa. Then you might get into military reasons.

Q.—I think undoubtedly that would be true if we were going to supply them heavily. That raises in my mind a different question altogether. If we are going to supply them for an invasion of the mainland, why, the obligation that would be implied, or of course, would be very clear, and I think that would be altogether a different question.

But I do not see, General, why General MacArthur's suggestion could be objectionable from a strictly military point of view—to take the wraps off of Chiang Kai-shek down in Formosa and off his troops.

The element of uncertainty, certainly, of what he might do, might have proved helpful to General MacArthur when he was moving up towards the northern boundary of North Korea and when the Chinese had not come in in force. Now when the Chinese came in in force, why it looked then, of course, that China is in this war. There is not any doubt about that is there?

A.—No.

Q.—You speak of an all-out war with China? And you mean all-out on our side, do you not, General? So far as you know, China is doing about as much to us as she can at this time, is she not? A.—By that I mean the extension of it outside of Korea, so that you—

Q.—Yes, General, of course, everybody, I think, would agree that we would not want to extend this war. A.—May I finish the answer to the other question?

Q.—Yes, sir.

A.— * * * (six lines deleted). There are a lot of things that they can do that they haven't done yet, so I don't think we could say that China is at all-out war against us yet any more than we are at all-out war against them. In other words, the conflict is being played under certain ground rules which are short, in the case of both China and the United States, as to what each can do to the other one.

Q.—General, let me ask you a question on an altogether different line right now. How many of your troops, that is, of the U. N. troops or of the American components of the U. N. army in Korea, who have been recorded as missing in action or taken as prisoners of war, do you estimate are still alive? Have you any means of estimating the number of the missing in action troops that are still alive?

A.—We have no way of estimating that. We do know that of those taken by North Koreans before China came into the war, many of them undoubtedly lost their lives. We do know that some of them were moved north and kept just out of reach of our forces as they advanced rapidly into North Korea. We also know that in certain cases the Chinese have released prisoners of war who have come back.

So I think it would be very difficult to try to estimate the number that are alive either in the hands of the North Koreans or in the hands of the Chinese—that is, those that are listed as missing; because a lot of those that are listed as missing in a retrograde movement undoubtedly are killed and left on the position. Others are captured and others are wounded. So those that are killed and left on position, we naturally carry them as missing in action because we do not know whether they are dead or prisoners, and I do not see any way you could make an estimate of it.

Whether MacArthur Was Insubordinate

Q.—No. Now, General, I asked this question of General Marshall, and I think he rather referred the matter to you.

I think my recollection is correct. I asked what was the initial estimate of the number of troops that would be necessary—ground troops, I am speaking of now, in connection with whatever Air we employed—would be necessary to repel the invasion of South Korea and drive the North Koreans back. Can you give the committee the initial estimate of the number of the troops that would be required?

A.—We estimated early in the conflict that the divisions that were in Japan, plus the additional divisions we sent them, would be sufficient to accomplish the mission.

Q.—Well, was that in the beginning or as it progressed? A.—That was after it progressed to some extent. The first few days we did not know just how good these North Koreans were, and it was some time before we could get a good picture of it.

Q.—Do you concur with General Marshall's statement that with respect to strictly military orders there had been no insubordination on the part of General MacArthur in that he failed to carry them out? A.—I know of none.

Q.—You know of none? A.—No.

Q.—Your judgment and the judgment of the Chiefs of Staff was very largely based upon the three points which in the beginning of your testimony this morning you detailed to the committee? A.—That is correct; and we never did say that we thought he had been insubordinate.

Q.—So far as his strictly military duties and responsibilities were concerned? A.— That is correct.

SENATOR GEORGE — Thank you. That is all, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN — Senator Morse.

SENATOR MORSE — General Bradley, do you care to say that it is your opinion that General MacArthur looked at the Korean war primarily from the standpoint of the theatre and there was too little consideration being given to the global problem involved?

GENERAL BRADLEY—Well, I think in general, yes. And I think that is not unusual. Every theatre commander naturally is more interested in his own theatre than he is in some other one, and I would not say that was a fault, I would say that, in a way, is what he should do—think more of his own theatre. He is not in a position to know the world-wide implications and has no responsibility for world-wide commitments.

Distinctive Role Defined For Theatre Commanders

SENATOR MORSE—It is a very natural position for a theatre commander to take, is it not?

GENERAL BRADLEY — Yes, sir. I think if you will go back into the last world war you will find that the Chiefs of Staff here at that time were dealing with about six different theatre commanders, all of whom thought theirs was of primary importance.

Q.—It is true, is it not, that the responsibility and obligation of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, contrasted with the responsibilities and obligations of a theatre commander, are responsibilities and obligations to make global planning for the defense of our country in this period of crisis?

A.—Yes. The Joint Chiefs must consider at all times the whole world-wide commitments of our Government and be prepared to meet them.

Q.—Therefore, is it not true that since the outset of the Korean war, while General MacArthur had been concerned with the conduct of the war, the Joint Chiefs of Staff have been concerned with war plans on a global basis in the event war should break out on a global basis? A.—That is correct.

Q.—In your opinion, does the difference in the responsibilities between General MacArthur as the theatre commander and the Joint Chiefs of Staff as global commanders, so to speak, explain in a large measure some of the differences in points of view that developed between the Joint Chiefs of Staff and General MacArthur as to the military policies that should be followed in the Korean war?

A.—Yes, sir, I think it does. I think that condition is more or less always going to exist—the differences in opinion between a theatre commander and the chiefs who have to look at all the theatres simultaneously.

Q.—In looking at your global problems as the men charged with the responsibilities of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, did you not at all times have to give careful consideration to the then existing evidence, at any given period of time, of the military potential of the United States, including both troops, Navy, Air Force and military matériel?

A.—Yes. We have these commitments possibilities of the world, and we must take a look at those, we must always study the capabilities of our forces here at home, their state of equipment, training, and readiness for combat and possible places where they may have to be employed. We must consider all those at all times.

Q.—Was one of the reasons why the Joint Chiefs of Staff attempted since the outbreak of the Korean war to keep it on a basis of a limited war, as that term has been used in these hearings, due to the fact that they thought it was dangerous to the security of our country on a global basis to commit on an all-out basis the military potential of the United States in Asia?

A.—Yes. We do not think that Korea is the place to fight a major war. In other words, in case you get into a third world war, I don't think you would choose Korea as a place to fight it.

So that we would like to have our forces committed to Korea limited for that reason, and we would also like to limit our commitments there so that these other forces would be available in other parts of the world if something else happens.

Q.—Would it be correct to say, General, that in preparing the plans for the global defense of the United States the Joint Chiefs of Staff have given a great deal of consideration to what they surmised might be the Russian strategy on a global basis? A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—It is true, is it not, that one of the chief responsibilities of any group of American military officers such as the Joint Chiefs of Staff, charged with the responsibility of the global defense of the United States, is to at all times try to figure out, within the realm of reasonable conjecture, what the enemy may do if we follow one course of action, in contrast with another?

A.—Yes, we are constantly working on world-wide war plans in case of war, and as part of those plans we have what is called an intelligence estimate, in which we study the enemy capabilities in various parts of the world as compared to our own capabilities, and we discuss in that estimate not only his capabilities, but probable lines of action.

Those are under constant study in our joint staff all the time. They don't come up every day before the Joint Chiefs, of course, but frequently they come up for revisions and we have committees working on those plans continuously, an intelligence committee and a planning committee.

Q.—General, would it be fair to say that in view of the military plans and war plans which the Joint Chiefs of Staff have had constantly under study and revision since the outbreak of the Korean war, that it has been the opinion of the Joint Chiefs of Staff during that period of time, that if they were running the military plans of the Russians, they would like to suck the allies into an all-out war in Asia?

30.24- 23259

A.—Yes, sir. We are very definitely of that opinion, that Russia, right now, is following a policy of trying to cause as much trouble in the world as possible, even to the point of conflicts and wars, and using as much as possible, her satellites' troops, and not her own.

Q.—At the risk of repetition, but for the purpose of emphasis, I put the question this way, General:

Has it been the viewpoint of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, since the outbreak of the Korean war, that on the basis of the military potential we have been in a position to muster during that period of time, the security of the United States, on a global basis, dictated that we do what we could to avoid an all-out war, and keep the Korean war on a so-called limited basis?

A.—Yes. We feel that we are not in the best position to meet a global war. We feel that we are improving all the time our own position, and that of our allies, and we would like very much to avoid a war at this time, not only as to our own readiness, but the longer you can avoid a war, the better chance you have of avoiding it altogether, in the end.

Q.—Looking for a moment at the probable results of an all-out war in Asia at any time up to date during the period that the Korean war has been fought, has it been the position of the Joint Chiefs of Staff that keeping the war within the limitations that it has been fought in Korea would save us many more American lives and allied lives than would be the case if at any time during that period it had been extended into an all-out war in Asia?

A.—Yes, and we also feel that by fighting this war in Korea, even on a limited basis, that we may be postponing other actions which may have been on the timetable, and we have possibly avoided the outbreak of war in other parts of the world.

And if we can continue to keep the attention focused on Korea without becoming too much involved in it, in other words if we can fight this limited action in Korea without its being spread, we may be going a long way toward avoiding World War III.

Q.—Is it not true, General, that the Joint Chiefs of Staff have never taken the position that in the event our enemies followed a course of action in Asia that might precipitate World War III, we would not be in a position to do them great damage immediately?

Rather it has been the position of the Joint Chiefs of Staff that although we can do them great damage, we can come closer to giving them an immediate knock-out punch if we first get our defenses stronger on a global basis?

'No One Knows' if Soviet Would Enter Fight

A.—That is right. We are very anxious to improve our own military stature as fast as we can, both manpower-wise, and as I stated a while ago, with a long-range policy and by our industrial mobilization and industrial production and a betterment of our equipment situation.

We are very anxious to get those things done very quickly so that if something does happen, we will be in a better position, and we are hoping that nothing will happen until we are in that better condition. * * * (Fifteen lines deleted.)

Q.—Is it your opinion, General, and the opinion of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, that if prior to this time we had adopted General MacArthur's recommendations for a blockade, and for bombing the mainland of China, that we would have greatly weakened America's military power as the result of the conflict that would have followed in Asia if Russia had decided to come into the war at that point?

A.—Well, if I can answer your question in two parts: The extension at one time of bombing just across the Manchurian border, when we only had a short distance to bomb it, might not have taken any more strength, but if by doing so it had brought Russia into war, we would be in an infinitely worse position than we are today.

Now, no one knows whether or not Russia is going to come in. Some people think that if we bomb bases in Manchuria and China they will. Others think that they would not come in.

I do not think that they know—I do not think anyone knows, other than probably the fourteen people in the Kremlin that form the Politburo.

However, our feeling is that as long as we are not suffering too much from the avoidance of going across and bombing it, that we shouldn't take the chance, whatever it is.

Now, it may be a big chance; it may be a little chance, no one knows; but we don't think the advantages of doing it now are great enough to outweigh the disadvantages of the possibility of bringing Russia into the war.

Q.—In other words — in a way, General, you have just answered my next question, but I want it put down in the record, so I will put it this way: Has it been your personal opinion, in view of your knowledge of the military potential of our country on a global basis, that it would have been a military mistake for us to carry out General MacArthur's recommendations for a blockade, with all that a blockade means, including the sinking of ships, if they try to run the blockade; and the bombing of the Manchurian bases, because of the possibility that that might run too great a risk of bringing Russia into the war before we are ready to meet her in Asia or elsewhere?

A.—Yes. I think it would increase the chances of war very materially, particularly the blockade.

As you say, where if you start out to stop Russian shipping going into Port Arthur, for example — which would naturally fall under the blockade — you are apt to find yourself committing an act of war, and find yourself at war. So that those things very materially increase the chance of war, in our opinion.

Q.—Therefore, General, has it been your opinion that you have believed that implementing General MacArthur's recommendations in respect to bombing and blockading would run a very great risk of bringing Russia into the war?

A.—Yes, I think it would run that risk. * * * (eighteen lines deleted).

Q.—Would it be fair for me, acting as a juror on this committee, General Bradley, to form the conclusion that the primary difference between the Joint Chiefs of Staff and General MacArthur in respect to implementing his recommendation has been a difference of timing? A.—It might eventually come down to a simple question of timing. I think it goes a little bit beyond that. In other words, if in our opinion we have a chance to solve it without this; if we can't, then it will devolve down into a question of timing.

Q.—Is it not true that to date the difference might be described in terms of timing in the sense that the Joint Chiefs of Staff have recommended against adopting General MacArthur's recommendations because of the risks involved and because they have felt that at the times he has made the recommendations the timing has not been right? A.—And that there was a chance of solving it without doing it.

Q.—That is, it is true, is it not, that the Joint Chiefs of Staff have been preparing their plans in view of the prayer and the hope that through negotiations an honorable peace can be negotiated in Asia?

A.—Yes, and we hope we can do that without carrying out some of the courses of action which are open to us, but which we think should not be taken at this time, for the reasons stated.

Q.—Now, General, there is one point that I wish you would clear up for my own thinking that has cropped up over and over again in these hearings in the form of questions that have been put to you, General Marshall, and General MacArthur, in the form of observations that have been made by various witnesses and various members of the committee from time to time. Is there any difference if any between a strictly "military"—in quotation marks—or recommendation or opinion, in contrast with a proposal, contrast with a proposal or opinion, in opinion that isn't military?

You have already testified that the Joint Chiefs of Staff have the job of taking into consideration global policy. I always get a little lost when someone says to you, "Now, General, from a strictly military standpoint, what would your answer be to this or that?"

Is it possible, in view of the global problems of the United States to draw the line of demarcation that is attempted to be drawn in these hearings between the strictly military and the strictly diplomatic—the strictly military, on the one hand, and the strictly foreign policy, on the other—or are they so intermingled and comingled that as Joint Chiefs of Staff you have to look at the security of our country and make plans to protect the security of our country from the standpoint of the over-all problem — diplomatic, military, including every other conceivable factor?

A.—We have to take all those into consideration. However, in some cases before a decision is arrived at, we are called upon merely to submit the military side of the question and somebody else presents the other side, the additional points—that is the political and diplomatic—and then the man making the decision weighs all those things—sometimes there is conflict, sometimes there isn't—and arrives at the decision.

However, as you say, naturally the Joint Chiefs of Staff have to know considerable about the diplomatic and political implications of these questions also.

Q.—Is it not true, General, that we no longer in the world can fight a war on a strictly military basis, but that we have to fight it also after giving consideration to diplomatic problems as well as military problems? A.—That is correct, and certainly your objectives in a war are not entirely military. In other words, the end results of a war are a combination of military and political considerations, and you use the military to obtain your political objectives.

Q.—That leads me to ask you a few questions concerning General MacArthur's notice to ultimatum, as some has called it, to the Chinese Communist leaders, that he would meet with them in the field, and indicating in his statement if he didn't meet with them in the field on terms of surrender, there was a danger that military action would be taken against the mainland of China.

Of your own knowledge, General Bradley, do you know whether or not that statement of General MacArthur's to the Chinese Communist leaders created difficulties with our allies?

A.—Yes, it happened that our Government had consulted certain other Governments who had troops in Korea as to certain negotiations which we should try to open for a peaceful settlement.

These various considerations and possible terms were sent to General MacArthur for his comments while they were being discussed with the other Governments.

Before we had finished discussing with the other Governments, General MacArthur came out with his statement, offering a truce and stating that if they did not accept it, the war would be extended.

As a consequence, we had to drop our negotiations with the other powers without making negotiation proposals, and it caused our Government some embarrassment because while Washington was talking to them along one line General MacArthur came out along a little different line.

Q.—General, when you read or heard that General MacArthur had made the statement to the Chinese Communist leaders that he made, were you surprised? A.—As a matter of fact, Senator Morse, I was away at the time and heard about the whole thing when I came back; so I got the whole picture at one time. I am afraid I couldn't say how I was affected by any one part of it.

'We Have No Commitment Of Going Into Iran'

Q.—I cross-examined General MacArthur with regard to that incident, and I think I report the record accurately in meaning when I say he took the position that, as a commander in the field, he thought he was within his military rights as a commander to attempt to negotiate, with the opposing military commanders, a surrender in the field, and that he saw nothing wrong in his reference in his notice to them as to what might happen on the mainland of China if they didn't meet with him in the field.

My question is: Do you as a high military officer believe, in view of the fact that the secret exhibit before us showing the communications between the Joint Chiefs of Staff and General MacArthur leaves no room for doubt that he had been advised of the President's negotiation, I ask, do you as a high military official, believe that General MacArthur exceeded wise discretion, to say the least, in issuing that ultimatum to the Chinese leaders?

A.—Well, I can say, Senator, that certainly I would not have thought—would not have looked at it in the same light that apparently General MacArthur did. I certainly would not have issued any such statement under those circumstances. General MacArthur saw fit to do it, but in my case, I would not have issued any such statement under those conditions.

THE CHAIRMAN—I regret to advise you, Senator Morse, that your time has expired.

SENATOR BREWSTER—Mr. Chairman, could you indicate about your afternoon plans?

THE CHAIRMAN—I thought we would run on here until about 1 o'clock, and recess until tomorrow morning. The reciprocal trade agreements will be on the floor, in charge of the Senator from Georgia, my distinguished colleague, and I suggest that we wait until tomorrow before we try to decide to work out something for two session.

Now, Senator Smith.

SENATOR SMITH — General Bradley, could you advise me when you became Chief of Staff, I don't mean Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, but Chief of Staff?

GENERAL BRADLEY—I became Chief of Staff of the Army on Feb. 8, 1948; Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff on Aug. 15, 1949.

Mr. Chairman, may I correct something which may be a little bit wrong, in the record, from the last two questions; which I think ought to be straightened out before we start another period of questions?

THE CHAIRMAN—If you wish, sir.

GENERAL BRADLEY—I think two points may not be clear, here; and it is my fear they will not be.

A double-barreled question was asked me a while ago by Senator George. One involved going into Iran; and there was a second part of the question, to which I think I answered "yes."

I don't want it to stay in the record that I am saying the Joint Chiefs would advocate our going into Iran. I think that should be cleared for the record's sake, and it was inadvertant on my part. I forgot that was part of the question I later answered.

We have no commitment of going into Iran with the British. The Joint Chiefs of Staff certainly have not made any such decision, and that ought to be cleared up.

The second one—I made the statement, in answer to Senator Morse's question about not going to war until we are better prepared. I stated by not going to war now and avoiding war, now, we could avoid it for all time; and I want to make it clear that my statement, we do not want to go to war until we are better prepared, really means that we hope to not go to war at all, but we don't want to take any more chances than we have to.

THE CHAIRMAN—All right, sir.

SENATOR SMITH — General Bradley, are you familiar——

SENATOR McMAHON—Would you mind if I interrupted for this observation?

If the general thought that was important enough, Mr. Chairman, to interrupt to correct his statement, I would think it would be wise for it to go to the press at once so that the addition will go at the same time as the original statement.

If we could get another stenographer up here, so that it would be possible for it to be taken down right away, do you think there might be something in that?

THE CHAIRMAN—I think that is a very good suggestion. Of course it doesn't look like we are prepared to go to war anyway.

SENATOR BREWSTER — Mr. Chairman, I couldn't hear very well. Do I understand he wanted to eliminate all reference——

THE CHAIRMAN — No, he didn't want to eliminate it. He wanted to arrange to have the press get the statement General Bradley just made at the same time they got the one that could have been the subject of some confusion.

SENATOR BREWSTER — You don't feel that it would be expedient to eliminate the whole thing?

THE CHAIRMAN—I didn't understand that was proposed.

SENATOR BREWSTER—I am very reluctant to say we will or will not go into Iran. I would like to leave the Russians a little in ignorance, if possible. If it could all be eliminated, I would think that best.

GENERAL BRADLEY — The point I was making was: I didn't want to show, in the record, that we had made a decision to do it. We made no decision either way.

SENATOR McMAHON — Would it not be best, Mr. Chairman, to call down to the censors, to say that the general, in the light of his statement, now feels that that should go out of the record?

THE CHAIRMAN — The only difficulty is, as I see it, the question was raised by Senator George, in his question; and it was a two-pronged question, as I recall it, and after the Senator said something about going into Iran tomorrow, he went on to something else about Korea, and General Bradley answered the Korean part of the situation.

SENATOR BREWSTER—Has it gone to the press yet?

THE CHAIRMAN — I hardly think it has.

SENATOR BREWSTER—If it hasn't gone, couldn't it be treated as a security matter?

THE CHAIRMAN — I rather think Admiral Davis would handle that, which he has before. Will you look into that, General Mudge?

Smith Questions Witness About Yalta Conference

SENATOR SMITH — General Bradley, have you covered that? Are you satisfied you have got your position clear?

GENERAL BRADLEY — Yes, sir.

Q.—Were you familiar with the details of the Yalta Conference? I understand you were not at Yalta. A.—No, sir, I was not, and I am not familiar with the details of the arrangements there, sir.

Q.—You know nothing about the secret agreement at Yalta with regard to China? A.—No, sir.

Q.—Were you familiar since you have become Chief of Staff with the fact there was a big difference of opinion in the State Department and with many of our military and naval leaders in the Far East over our China policy? There has been difference of opinion, especially with those questions, or do you take the position that you have all been agreed on it from the beginning?

A. — Well, the question of the China policy, other than the arming of the Chinese Nationalists on Formosa, was taking place at the time I was over in the Veterans Administration and pretty much occupied, and I never did follow it too closely.

By the time I became Chief of Staff. the situation in China was pretty bad and there wasn't too much you could do about it apparently, and so I never did study that too much from the military point of view until we got to studying the importance of Formosa if it should fall into somebody else's hands.

Q.—As I recall when I came back from the Far East in December of 1949 there was some discussion then about Formosa, whether we should or should not let it fall into hostile hands, and I understood the Joint Chiefs thought it should not fall into hostile hands, and then the President in a statement on Jan. 5, 1950, was very clear that we would not do anything further to help the Nationalists arm themselves; in other words, to cut off any further military supplies or aid at that time.

I was wondering whether there was a conflict of view there between the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Department of State that was advising the President on that point.

A.—Yes, sir. Prior to the outbreak of the Korean conflict the Joint Chiefs of Staff had recommended in December of 1949 a modest program of military assistance. This was dropped after the President made a public statement in January, 1950, that the United States would no longer provide military advice to the Chinese national forces.

The next time this came up was when the Chinese Nationalist Government offered 33,000 troops in response to the United Nations resolution calling for assistance in Korea. The Joint Chiefs of Staff recommended on June 30, 1950, that the offer be not accepted in view of the political implications and the questionable military value of the forces.

Q.—I think General MacArthur testified that he was in accord with that view at that time.

A.—General MacArthur was informed and he was in accord with it. And he, in a conversation with General Collins on the 13th of July, expressed his opposition to moving those forces from Formosa to Korea on the grounds that they would be ineffective and also that they were needed on Formosa to secure Formosa against being taken by the Chinese Communists.

In response to a request from the State Department for views on Formosa, the Joint Chiefs of Staff in July, 1950, reaffirmed that Formosa was strategically important to the United States and that resistance by Chinese Nationalist forces was militarily important to the United States.

They recommended denying Formosa to the Communists, modifying policy so as to grant military aid, and a survey of the Chinese Nationalist forces by General MacArthur and his staff.

This survey was made—incidentally, this recommendation was approved at this time by the State Department and a survey was made in August, and as a result initiation of shipments of critically needed ammunition was approved.

The survey report made by General Fox, who was on General MacArthur's staff, was received in September, and that was used to develop programs for military assistance to the Chinese Nationalists on Formosa.

I think an important consideration is the fact that up until November the Joint Chiefs of Staff considered there was less to be gained in utilization of Chinese Nationalists in Korea than would be lost if the Chinese Communists were provoked into entering the Korean conflict in great extent.

Another important consideration was a threat of invasion of Formosa which seemed great in the summer and fall in view of the reported Chinese Communist concentrations for amphibious operations. In late November, after the Chinese Communists had appeared in force in Korea, General MacArthur recommended that he be authorized to negotiate with the Chinese Nationalists for use of certain of their forces in Korea.

The Joint Chiefs of Staff replied that the proposal was being considered, and they cited certain political objections to it. At the end of December, General MacArthur recommended among other things the use of Chinese Nationalist forces from Formosa to reinforce in Korea and to take diversionary action against the Chinese mainland.

The Joint Chiefs of Staff on 9 January in answer to General MacArthur indicated the use of Chinese Nationalists in Korea was not favored due to their probable usefulness elsewhere and improbability of a decisive contribution from them in Korea.

The Joint Chiefs of Staff tentative agreement on courses of action which have been talked about so much here, dated 12 January, did include the use of these Chinese Nationalist forces against the mainland if feasible, but not in Korea, and near the end of January the 1951 supplement program for the Army military assistance from Formosa was approved, and Air and Navy programs were approved in late February.

And in March the Joint Chiefs of Staff recommended establishment of a military assistance advisory group and training mission for Formosa. This was approved by our Government, and the mission is now in Formosa. A total military-aid program of something like $300,000,000 has been studied and recommended for the Nationalists on Formosa to be provided in due course.

Q.—Is not that policy which you have been discussing there practically in line with General MacArthur's position with regard to Formosa, except the interpretation that has been made by some that he was advocating an attack on the mainland from Formosa?

It was brought out this morning, I think by Senator George, that General MacArthur never advocated an attack on the mainland, except he advocated taking the wraps off and leaving it up to Chiang Kai-shek and the Nationalists to take the course they saw fit in order to threaten the Chinese Communists and hoping to divert and bring back some of the troops putting pressure on us in Korea.

A.—I said in answer to that question that the only military danger is if by so doing he lessens the capability of defending Formosa. * * * (Eleven lines deleted).

Q.—There might be a difference between a large scale invasion, which might call for a great deal of shipping and so on, and an attack where they might send a force over and make a beachhead, which I understand from Dean Rusk's speech the other day we were inclined to approve of.

A.—Well, I have not read his statement. I was out on the West Coast and missed it. But they do have some Chinese Nationalist forces now on those small islands off the coast which can be used for such purposes.

Q.—Now, General, to go to another subject. I am not quite clear in my mind as to the powers of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. Do they make decisions or do the Joint Chiefs meet and make recommendations which are reported to you as Chairman, and then those recommendations go to the President and his group of national security advisers? Would major policy, for example, be determined by the Joint Chiefs, or would that be recommended and then cleared by you through the President's group?

A.—I think it might be well to just read it out of the law. I think it is set forth pretty well in the law itself. It says in Section 211, beginning with Subsection B:

"Subject to the authority and direction of the President and the Secretary of Defense, the Joint Chiefs of Staff shall perform the following duties in addition to such other duties as the President or the Secretary of Defense may direct:

"1. Preparation of strategic plans and provisions for the strategic direction of the military forces;

"2. Preparation of joint logistic plans and assignment to the military services of logistic responsibility in accordance with such plans;

"3. Establishment of unified commands in strategic areas;

"4. Review of major material and personnel requirements of the military forces in accordance with strategic and logistic plans;

"5. Formulation of policies for joint training of the military forces;

"6. Formulation of policies for coordinating the military education of members of the military forces; and

"7. Providing United States representation on the military staff committee of the United Nations in accordance with provisions of the Charter of the United Nations."

All of this, you see, pertains to the preparation for war.

Now, after any fighting starts we are working under the arrangement or under the requirement that any directives to a field commander, that is fighting a war, will be cleared by the Secretary of Defense; and if there are political implications, by the State Department, and then final approval by the President, before they are sent to the field commander.

So to that extent we prepare the directives for the military operations.

Now, there was one case, as I mentioned the other day, in which there was a question that arose as to whether or not there should be included in the J. C. S., the Joint Chiefs of Staff, directive to General MacArthur, certain political reasonings, and at our request those were taken out of the directive and sent separately by the President on Jan. 13 so that our directives, and the one that went out on Jan. 12, were purely military.

Message From MacArthur Requesting Directions

Q.—And that, as I understand it, was in reply to a request that General MacArthur had made on Jan. 11 for instructions.

I asked you the last time you were here, I think, if you would put the full text of the request to General MacArthur into the record and also the full text of that military directive of Jan. 12. I am just checking up again because I think it is important that we have the full text of both of those documents in order to fill in what you testified to right now.

I did not see them in the transcript, so I am wondering if they were presented for the record.

A.—I thought I read the directive of the 12th. I can read you a paraphrase of General MacArthur's message on the tenth if you would like to have it at this time.

Q.—That is the 10th or the 11th? A.—The 10th, sir.

Q.—The 10th? A.—Jan. 10th.

Q.—I did not mean to go into that now. If they have already been put into the record you have given us quite an extensive bit of testimony in relations with those documents to your previous testimony, so I do not think it is necessary for you to do that. A.—The directive of the 12th, a paraphrase of it, went into the record the other day.

Q.—It went in? A.—The paraphrase of General MacArthur's message to the Joint Chiefs on the 10th has not been put in the record.

SENATOR SMITH—Let us put it in now, if it is not too long. Is it very long?

GENERAL BRADLEY—No, sir; it is about a page and a half, sir. If you would like for me to read it into the record now, I will do so.

THE CHAIRMAN — Let him read it.

SENATOR SMITH—I think we might have it read into the record now.

GENERAL BRADLEY — This

30.24- 23261

was a message to General MacArthur—from General MacArthur, headed "personal for the Joint Chiefs of Staff." It is as follows:

"Personal for J. C. S.

"This refers to your message of 9 Jan. Clarification requested of your directive in the light of its qualified requirements that (1) I continue to defend in successive positions subject to my basic mission of protecting Japan and to primary consideration of the safety of my troops; and (2) that if in my judgment it becomes evident that evacuation is essential to avoid severe loss of matériel and men that I withdraw from Korea to Japan.

"In view of the self-evident fact that as presently constituted my command is of strength insufficient to hold a position in Korea and protect simultaneously Japan against external assault, strategic dispositions taken in the present situation must be based upon overriding political policy establishing the relativity of American interests in the Far East. That a beachhead line can be held by our existing forces for a limited time in Korea, there is no doubt, but this could not be accomplished without losses. Whether or not such losses were regarded as 'severe' would to a certain extent depend upon the connotation one gives the term.

"The command was committed to the Korean campaign to fight the North Korean invasion army, which in due course was effectively destroyed. It was not the intent that it engage the armies of the Chinese nation and had there been foreseeable prospects that it would find it necessary to do so in its own defense, doubtless it would not have been committed at all. The troops are embittered by the shameful propaganda which has falsely condemned their fighting qualities and courage in misunderstood retrograde maneuver, are tired from a long and difficult campaign, and unless the political basis upon which they are asked to trade life for time is clearly delineated, fully understood, and so impelling that the hazards of battle are accepted cheerfully, their morale will become a serious threat to their battle efficiency.

"I am in full agreement, as I stated in my message of 30 Dec. in reply to your message of the same date, with your estimate that the conditions and limitations, namely: No reinforcements, no measures permissible against China's continental military potential, continued restrictions upon Chinese Nationalist military action, and the concentration in the Korean-Manchurian sector of China's military force, will eventually render untenable the military position of the command in Korea.

"In the absence of overriding political considerations, under these conditions the command should be withdrawn from the peninsula just as rapidly as it is feasible tactically to do so. If, on the other hand, the primary political interests of the United States in the Far East lies in holding a position in Korea and thus pinning down a large segment of the Chinese military potential, the military course is implicit in political policy and we should be prepared to accept any attendant hazard to Japan's security and whatever casulaties result.

"The issue involves a decision of highest national and international importance, far above the competence of a theater commander guided largely by incidents affecting the tactical situation developing upon a very limited field of action, and really boils down to the question of whether or not the United States intends to evacuate Korea. Nor is it a decision which should be left to the initiative of enemy action, which would in effect be the determining criterion under a reasonable interpretation of your message.

"Therefore my query amounts to this: Is it the present objective of United States political policy to minimize losses by evacuation as soon as it can be accomplished, or to maintain a military position in Korea—indefinitely, for a limited time?

"Under the extraordinary limitations and conditions imposed upon the command in Korea, as I have pointed out, its military position is untenable, but it can hold, if overriding political considerations so dictate, for any length of time up to its complete destruction. Your clarification requested."

The Military Directive Sent by Chiefs in Reply

THE CHAIRMAN — Have you read the clarification that you sent him? Did you read that?

GENERAL BRADLEY—I read it in the record the other day, but it might be clearer if it was repeated.

SENATOR SMITH—I think it is important to have the two documents together, what General MacArthur requested in the way of a directive, and what the reply was. If it is already in, it can be done by reference, and I would be satisfied with that.

THE CHAIRMAN—It is perfectly all right. I do not object to its being read again.

SENATOR SMITH — In that case, let us have it read again.

GENERAL BRADLEY—This is the answer to MacArthur on the twelfth of January from the Joint Chiefs, and this is the one which suffered one day's delay because it was a question of whether or not to put in political considerations in the same message or whether to limit this one to military and follow it by political, and the latter decision was made, and this is the military directive here.

SENATOR SMITH—As I understand, this is the military directive, and the President followed with the political of the thirteenth?

GENERAL BRADLEY—That is right, sir.

SENATOR SMITH—But in the meantime the Joint Chiefs also had their research report which covers those four controversial points.

GENERAL BRADLEY—That is a different study, to be taken in case of certain eventualities.

The message to General MacArthur on 12 Jan. 1951 from the Joint Chiefs of Staff was, in substance, and is paraphrased as follows:

"We are forced to the conclusion, based upon all the factors known to us, including particularly those presented by you in your recent message, that it is infeasible under existing conditions, including sustained major effort by Communist China, to hold the position in Korea for a protracted period.

"It would be to our national interest, however, and also to the interest of the U. N., before you issue firm instructions for initiation of evacuation of troops from Korea, to gain some further time for essential military and diplomatic consultations with U. N. countries participating in Korean effort.

"It is important also to future of U. N. and N. A. T. O. [North Atlantic Treaty Organization] organizations to the United States prestige world-wide, and to efforts to organize anti-Communist resistance in Asia that maximum practicable punishment be inflicted on Communist aggressors and that Korea not be evacuated unless actually forced by military considerations.

"In Washington it is not possible to evaluate present state of morale and combat efficiency of U. N. forces. * * * (Ten lines deleted.)

"In your messages of 30 December 1950 and 4 January 1951 you had indicated that it would not be necessary to make an anticipatory decision to evacuate until our forces had arived at the old Pusan beachhead.

"Including consideration of factors outlined above, your estimate is desired as to timing and conditions under which you will have to issue instructions to evacuate Korea.

"Directives contained in Par. C. our message of 9 January meanwhile remain in effect."

Immediately after this message was approved by the President, General Collins and General Vandenberg left that evening for Korea so as to get a first-hand knowledge of the actual condition of the morale and the fighting capabilities of the troops in Korea.

Recommendations Carried By Collins to MacArthur

Q.—I got the impression from General MacArthur's testimony that when it was decided that they would not evacuate, they were to hold there, it was at that point that he thought he working along with the Joint Chiefs in those four points in the controversial, scientific report — whatever it was — of Jan. 12; and I am wondering whether he was ever advised that those recommendations of the Joint Chiefs were not to be followed. That is what troubles me.

A.—They were never sent to him as a directive, and I should think that he would have known that they were not a directive, because the Jan. 12 study was first presented to him and explained to him personally by General Collins, who can tell you first hand about it when he gets here, but it was first presented to him by, in person, General Collins. And I understood from talking to General Collins that he explained to him it was a study.

It was later sent to General MacArthur by more or less routine procedure in the form of a message dated Jan. 22.

In other words, it was not sent immediately, because General Collins carried it to him; and, of course, as I said, the other day, when you consider any one J C S paper, unless you consider the whole series of papers dealing with that subject, you do not get the full picture. And in this case the full picture was not sent in a telegram. Whether or not it was all presented by General Collins when he presented it to him orally, I don't know, and he can answer that better than I can.

Q.—I think it is one of the important matters in this whole discussion here, whether General MacArthur understood fully that he was not working along the line of those four recommendations of the Joint Chiefs and that other document. At least, he implied that in his testimony.

Now, to follow up a little bit on the Joint Chiefs—you testified, General Bradley, that April 6 you were at the White House with this group—the President and others—and that it was suggested that the matter go over until Sunday, as to whether or not General MacArthur should be removed, and you were asked to check up with the Joint Chiefs as to the military reasons for or against the removing of General MacArthur.

Now, you testfied also that on Sunday, April 8, you met with the Joint Chiefs, and then after meeting with them, you met with General Marshall, and you gave us the reasons this morning—military reasons—why it seemed desirable to remove General MacArthur. I want to ask this question:

Were the Joint Chiefs ever directly in contact with the President on this matter, or did they meet separately with you and then you reported to General Marshall and then you and General Marshall together reported to the President that these were the views of the Joint Chiefs?

A.—The Joint Chiefs—the three Chiefs of Staff did not meet with the President.

The President on Saturday directed General Marshall to get the views of the Joint Chiefs of Staff from the military point of view, and that was obtained from the Chiefs and was given to General Marshall on Sunday afternoon.

Then when we met on Monday, General Marshall asked me to repeat the views of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and the reasons why they took those views, to the President; and I did that.

Senator Requests Reason For 'Rush' on Dismissal

Q.—But the Joint Chiefs were not present at any of the discussions in regard to the removal?

A.—Not present with the President, no.

Q.—No. A.—I carried their views to the President for them, sir.

Q.—And then the decision to dismiss General MacArthur abruptly was not in conference with him or anything of that kind. That was made without the Joint Chiefs having anything to do with it. They had no part in the abrupt dismissal at all?

A.—The Joint Chiefs merely stated their views from a military point of view as to why General MacArthur should be relieved, and those were stated to General Marshall. The Joint Chiefs were present with General Marshall. They were not present with the President.

Q.—Were they asked whether in their judgment that this act had to be taken so suddenly, taken within a day, rather than have any contact with General MacArthur, that is to make the transfer without all this what I feel is a humiliation of the general? A.—I don't believe the matter of timing was discussed by the Chiefs.

Q.—That is what I assumed—the Joint Chiefs were not in on that particular discussion.

A.—The Chiefs did discuss the possibility of relieving him of command in Korea and not in Japan. They discussed that angle of it, and they felt that that could not be done very well, because it would be a very unusual situation where General Ridgway would be operating in Korea with all his bases back in somebody else's command. So the military feasibility of that was discussed, but the method of the relief, I don't remember that that—and the timing of the release—I don't believe that was discussed between General Marshall and the Chiefs.

Q.—Did you ever consider the possibility of asking General MacArthur to come on here to consider this difference of opinion on strategy or having some member of the Joint Chiefs or yourself possibly going to Korea, I mean to Tokyo, to discuss it with General MacArthur?

A.—I don't believe the method of relief was discussed along that line. I think in arriving at their final views as to the military reasons why he should be relieved, I think there was some discussion—well, if he is not relieved, is there some step we can take to try to straighten the matter out? I think some of those things were discussed, but they were not included in the reasons why, but merely steps that might be taken in case he was not relieved by the President.

THE CHAIRMAN—I will allow you this last question, but your time is up.

SENATOR SMITH—Thank you very much. Just this last question. When General MacArthur was here I asked him specifically if he had been invited to come to Washington to discuss this matter or if any one of the Joint Chiefs or a representative of the President had gone to Tokyo to discuss it with him, and had agreed that there was a difference in judgment as to strategy and he had been requested to turn his command over to General Ridgway, would he or would he not, and he said, "Of course I would have. I was seeking a directive of what was the right thing to do. I would have turned it over, if I had been requested, without any hesitation."

The record shows that. I did not give his answer very correctly, but the record is very clear on that, but I am still in great doubt in my mind as to the justice that was done him as a five-star general, with his great career. It could not be that it was so immediate that you had to act in a day. There was no crisis pending at that time.

Why didn't the group think in terms of getting to go with the general and requesting him to turn his command over? Then you could have discussed with him the whole situation of the Japanese treaty and the effect it might have of giving up the S. C. A. P. [Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers] job, those things, and things that are giving us so much concern now because of his removal from the Japan situation.

I think it is a very serious matter from the standpoint of the whole country, and I want a good reason why it had to be done in a great rush like that with a group of eminent men like yourself considering it. Can you clarify that for me?

GENERAL BRADLEY — Well, the decision to relieve General MacArthur and the timing of the release was made by the President, sir, and was not included in these views, that is the method of relief and the timing was not included in the views of the Joint Chiefs.

It was not their responsibility. It was the President's responsibility to make the decision and decide upon the timeliness.

SENATOR SMITH—I have some more questions, Mr. Chairman, but I will reserve them on the second round.

THE CHAIRMAN—I am afraid you will be compelled to.

SENATOR SMITH—Well, I do it gladly without being compelled to do it.

THE CHAIRMAN — Gentlemen, there has been considerable complaint about the acoustics in this room, and in view of the fact that our visiting audience has declined considerably at this stage of the proceeding, I thought it might be well for us to try meeting tomorrow down in the Armed Services Committee room. It probably will be necessary for us to return here before the hearings are concluded, but I think we would all feel a little easier asking our questions if we were downstairs, and we can take care of the audience there that we have had for the last two or three days without any difficulty.

Is there any objection to trying that? Senator Brewster, particularly, has been complaining about the acoustics. If there is no objection we will meet tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in the Armed Services Committee Room.

The other procedural matter to which I adverted will, of course, have to wait the return of the member of the committee involved. We will stand in recess until 10 o'clock tomorrow.

Thank you very much, General Bradley.

(Whereupon at 1:10 P. M. [E. D. T.] the hearing was adjourned to reconvene on Tuesday, May 22, 1951, at 10 A. M.)

POLITICS

BY JACK BELL

WASHINGTON, MAY 21-(AP)-DEMOCRATS LAUNCH THE POLITICAL PHASE OF THEIR OFFENSIVE ON THE POLICIES OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR AND HIS SUPPORTERS THIS WEEK WITH A THREE-DAY PARTY RALLY AT DENVER.

WITH MILITARY LEADERS TESTIFYING IN A SENATE INVESTIGATION OF THE OUSTER OF GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR, ADMINISTRATION POLITICAL FIGURES WILL BE CARRYING ON AN ASSAULT AGAINST THE DEPOSED PACIFIC COMMANDER'S POLICIES HALF A CONTINENT AWAY.

SENATOR KERR (D-OKLA) AND W.AVERELL HARRIMAN, PRESIDENTIAL FOREIGN POLICY ASSISTANT, ARE EXPECTED TO BE THE LEADERS IN THIS ATTACK.

VICE PRESIDENT BARKLEY IS LISTED AS A SPEAKER AND COULD STEP INTO THE ARENA IF HE CHOSE.

KERR, WHO STARTED TALKING ABOUT THE NEED TO REPLACE MACARTHUR EVEN BEFORE PRESIDENT TRUMAN DID IT ON APRIL 11, PLAN TO DEVOTE A MAJOR SHARE OF AN OPENING NIGHT TALK AT THE PARTY CONFERENCE WEDNESDAY TO THE MACARTHUR ISSUE.

HARRIMAN IS ONE OF THOSE WHO PARTICIPATED IN THE WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCES WHERE MR.TRUMAN TALKED OVER HIS DECISION--WHICH HE SAID HE REACHED MARCH 24--TO FIRE THE FIVE-STAR GENERAL.

HARRIMAN ALSO IS BATTING FOR SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON, WHO IS GETTING READY TO MAKE A SCHEDULED APPEARANCE BEFORE THE SENATORIAL INVESTIGATORS. ACHESON FACES ROUGH QUESTIONING BY REPUBLICANS.

KERR'S CHIEF ATTEMPT MAY BE TO HANG THE MACARTHUR POLICIES SQUARELY ON THE SHOULDERS OF THE REPUBLICANS, WHO SHIED AWAY FROM ANY SUCH SPONSORSHIP AT THEIR OWN PARTY MEETING IN TULSA, OKLA., RECENTLY.

THE DEMOCRATS APPARENTLY ARE BEGINNING TO FEEL THAT DESPITE THE MACARTHUR PROMISE FOR A QUICKER VICTORY AND END OF THE BLOODSHED IN KOREA UNDER HIS PROGRAM, THEY ARE MAKING HEADWAY POLITICALLY WITH THEIR CLAIM THAT MACARTHUR AND THE REPUBLICANS THREATEN TO INVOLVE THE COUNTRY IN A MORE COSTLY AND BLOODY WAR.

DEMOCRATS IN CONGRESS STILL CONCEDE PRIVATELY THAT THEIR MAIL FAVORS MACARTHUR, BUT THEY DECLARE IT IS FALLING OFF AND SWINGING SOMEWHAT MORE TO THE ADMINISTRATION VIEWPOINT.

A56WX

THEY BELIEVE THE COMBINED TESTIMONY OF SECRETARY OF DEFENSE MARSHALL AND GEN.OMAR N.BRADLEY IN SUPPORT OF THE PRESIDENT'S PROGRAM--AS WELL AS SIMILAR TESTIMONY EXPECTED FROM THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF--GO FAR TO OUTWEIGH WHAT MACARTHUR HAD TO SAY TO THE COUNTRY.

AS SORT OF AN AFTERTHOUGHT TO THE CONFERENCE AT WHICH SECRETARY OF COMMERCE SAWYER, SECRETARY OF INTERIOR CHAPMAN, SECRETARY OF LABOR TOBIN AND SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE BRANNAN ALSO WILL SPEAK, THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE WILL MEET TO PICK A SITE AND TIME FOR ITS 1952 PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATING CONVENTION.

IT SEEMED ALMOST A FOREGONE CONCLUSION THE DEMOCRATS WILL GO TO CHICAGO THE WEEK OF JULY 21. THAT IS JUST TWO WEEKS AFTER THE REPUBLICANS WILL MEET THERE TO CHOOSE THEIR NOMINEE.

SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO) SAID OVER THE WEEK-END IT WILL BE SOME TIME BEFORE HE MAKES UP HIS MIND WHETHER TO MAKE AN ACTIVE BID FOR THE GOP NOMINATION.

TAFT'S FRIENDS SAID THE OHIOAN WILL MAKE THE RUN IF HE THINKS HE HAS A GOOD CHANCE OF GETTING THE NOMINATION BUT WON'T "BEAT HIS BRAINS OUT" TRYING FOR IT IF CONDITIONS LOOK ADVERSE.

HOUSE DEMOCRATS, MEANWHILE, LET IT BE KNOWN THEY ARE GOING TO GO AFTER REPUBLICANS IN THE MIDWEST WITH A BLACK AND WHITE RECORD ON AGRICULTURE AND INTERIOR DEPARTMENT APPROPRIATIONS, ALWAYS TOUCHY

MAY 22 1951

POLITICALLY.

ON THE TWO BIG MONEY BILLS PASSED RECENTLY BY THE HOUSE, DEMOCRATS FORCED NINE SEPARATE ROLLCALLS. THEY SHOWED THAT A MAJORITY OF REPUBLICANS VOTED FOR CUTS AND A MAJORITY OF DEMOCRATS OPPOSED THEM ONE DEMOCRATIC STRATEGIST TOLD NEWSMEN THE IDEA WAS TO COMPILE A RECORD FOR USE IN THE 1952 CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS, AND HE ADDED: "WE NEED AN OFFICIAL RECORD TO ANSWER REPUBLICAN CHARGES THAT THEY ARE NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR WHAT THE 82ND CONGRESS DID TO THE FARMERS AND TO THE RURAL RESIDENTS DEPENDING ON INTERIOR DEPARTMENT PROJECTS FOR THEIR ELECTRICITY."

(210) NIGHT LEAD FOREIGN AID

WASHINGTON,MAY 21--(AP)--PRESIDENT TRUMAN IS ABOUT TO ASK CONGRESS FOR A HUGE APPROPRIATION TO HELP FINANCE REARMAMENT IN WESTERN EUROPE. UNOFFICIAL ESTIMATES FIX THE FIGURE AT ABOUT $9,000,000,000 (B).

AFTER A WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE TODAY, ADMINISTRATION LEADERS REPORT ED THE PRESIDENT PLANS TO SEND A MESSAGE TO CONGRESS IN TWO OR THREE DAYS OUTLINING A NEW "MUTUAL SECURITY PROGRAM."

HOUSE SPEAKER RAYBURN OF TEXAS AND SENATOR MCFARLAND OF ARIZONA, DEMOCRATIC LEADER IN THE SENATE, DECLINED TO SAY HOW MUCH MR.TRUMAN'S REQUESTS WOULD TOTAL.

BUT THEY SAID THE AMOUNT TO BE ASKED FOR THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION (ECA) ALONE WOULD BE SLIGHTLY OVER $2,000,000,000 (B).

THE PROGRAM HAS THE BACKING OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT, WHICH REPORTED EARLIER THIS MONTH THAT THE REBUILDING OF WESTERN EUROPEAN DEFENSES THREATENS TO STRAIN INDUSTRY THERE "BEYOND THE BREAKING POINT."

MR.TRUMAN IS EXPECTED TO ASK FUNDS TO PROVIDE WEAPONS ASSISTANCE IN TRAINING AND ARMS PRODUCTION, AND ECONOMIC DEFENSE AID IN THE FORM

OF RAW MATERIALS AND OTHER GOODS.
A WEEK AGO ECA, THE "MARSHALL PLAN" AGENCY, REPORTED WESTERN EUROPE HAD PUSHED ITS INDUSTRIAL OUTPUT 38 PER CENT HIGHER THAN IT WAS IN 1938. IT WARNED, HOWEVER:
"WESTERN EUROPE'S PRODUCTION MUST BE FURTHER EXPANDED IF DEFENSE PROGRAMS ARE TO BE ACCOMPLISHED WITHOUT MATERIALLY REDUCING LIVING STANDARDS."

MAY 22 1951

RUSSIA-JAPANESE

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, MAY 21-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA HAVE REACHED A PARTING OF THE WAYS OVER PREPARATION OF A PEACE TREATY FOR JAPAN.

THE SPREAD OF THEIR DIFFERENCES WAS SPOTLIGHTED BY AN AMERICAN CHARGE THAT MOSCOW IS "CONNIVING AT AGGRESSION" BY PROPOSING TO DENY TO JAPAN ADEQUATE POST-TREATY DEFENSE ARRANGEMENTS.

AN AMERICAN NOTE PUBLISHED LAST NIGHT MADE IT CLEAR THIS COUNTRY IS DETERMINED TO GO THROUGH WITH ITS PLAN OF USING AMERICAN FORCES TO HELP PROTECT JAPAN AGAINST ANY THREAT OF COMMUNIST AGGRESSION FROM ASIA.

THE NOTE WAS HANDED TO SOVIET AMBASSADOR ALEXANDER S.PANYUSHKIN SATURDAY. IT REPLIED TO A MAY 7 RUSSIAN SET OF PROPOSALS ON PREPARATION OF A JAPANESE PEACE TREATY.

MOSCOW ASKED FOR A MEETING IN JUNE OR JULY OF THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF THE UNITED STATES, CHINA, BRITAIN AND RUSSIA TO START WORK ON A TREATY AND BRING IT TO A "SPEEDY CONCLUSION."

THE U.S. REJECTED THIS PROPOSITION OUTRIGHT ON THE GROUND THAT MIS-USE OF THE VETO POWER BY RUSSIA IN SUCH A FOUR-NATION MEETING ACTUALLY WOULD WORK AGAINST EARLY CONCLUSION OF A TREATY AND ALSO WOULD GIVE "A SECONDARY ROLE" TO NATIONS "WHICH BORE A GREATER BURDEN OF THE PACIFIC WAR THAN DID THE SOVIET UNION." THE NOTE POINTED OUT THAT RUSSIA WAS AT WAR WITH JAPAN FOR ONLY SIX DAYS.

THE U.S. ALSO DECLARED THAT AS FAR AS RED CHINA IS CONCERNED, THIS COUNTRY "DOES NOT SEEK GUIDANCE FROM A CONVICTED AGGRESSOR" ----A REFERENCE TO COMMUNIST CHINA'S ACTIVITIES IN KOREA---AND MADE PLAIN THAT IT HAS NO INTENTION OF DOING SO.

THE HEART OF THE 3,500-WORD AMERICAN REPLY, HOWEVER, WAS NOT SO MUCH CONCERNED WITH THE RUSSIAN PROPOSAL TO SCRAP ALL THAT THIS COUNTRY, BRITAIN AND A DOZEN OTHER NATIONS HAVE ALREADY DONE ON A JAPANESE TREATY AND START OVER. IT WAS CONCERNED MORE WITH THE DEFENSE OF JAPAN AFTER JAPANESE INDEPENDENCE IS RESTORED.

RUSSIA HAD PROPOSED THAT JAPAN'S ARMED FORCES SHOULD BE LIMITED IN THE TREATY TO THOSE NEEDED FOR "SELF-DEFENSE." IT HAD ALSO PROPOSED THAT ALL OCCUPATION TROOPS SHOULD BE WITHDRAWN FROM JAPAN WITHIN A YEAR AFTER THE TREATY BECAME EFFECTIVE. THEREAFTER "NO FOREIGN STATE WILL HAVE TROOPS OR MILITARY BASES IN JAPAN," THE RUSSIANS PROPOSED.

A40WX
THAT WAS A KEY POINT FOR TWO REASONS. FIRST, THE U.S. HAS MADE NO SECRET IT INTENDS TO SIGN SIMULTANEOUSLY WITH THE PEACE TREATY A DEFENSE AGREEMENT WITH JAPAN TO STATION ITS FORCES IN AND AROUND JAPANESE TERRITORY. SECOND, THE U.S. HAS ALSO MADE NO SECRET OF ITS BELIEF THAT RUSSIA'S ULTIMATE AIM IN THE FAR EAST IS TO GAIN CONTROL OVER JAPAN.

IN REPLY TO MOSCOW'S PROPOSAL, THE U.S. SAID IT "SEEMS TO ASSUME THAT JAPAN WILL HAVE TO DEPEND FOR DEFENSE SOLELY ON ITS OWN ARMED FORCES; AND THAT ITS REQUIREMENTS IN THIS RESPECT CAN NOW BE MEASURED DEFINITELY FOR ALL TIME."

"BUT THE CHARTER OF THE UNITED NATIONS RECOGNIZES THE INHERENT RIGHT OF COLLECTIVE AS WELL AS INDIVIDUAL SELF-DEFENSE," THE AMERICAN NOTE ADDED.

THE U.S. NOTE THEN CONTINUED:
"THE PRESENT SUGGESTIONS OF THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT THAT JAPAN SHALL HAVE ARMED FORCES AS REQUIRED FOR ITS SELF-DEFENSE, COUPLED WITH THE FURTHER SOVIET PROPOSAL THAT THERE CAN BE NO OTHER TROOPS IN JAPAN, SEEMS A REVERSION TO THE PRINCIPLE OF 'LET JAPAN DEFEND ITSELF' AND CONSEQUENTLY, AS GENERALISSIMO STALIN SAID, A 'CONNIVING AT AGGRESSION.'"

THE U.S. ALSO REJECTED A RUSSIAN SUGGESTION THAT THE TREATY SHOULD SPECIFY THAT FORMOSA BE RETURNED TO CHINA, DECLARING IT IS SUFFICIENT SIMPLY THAT JAPAN RENOUNCED ITS CLAIMS ON FORMOSA.

IN THIS CONNECTION THE U.S. RECALLED THAT THE WARTIME CAIRO DECLARATION, WHICH RUSSIA HAD CITED, PROVIDED FOR THE RESTORATION NOT ONLY OF FORMOSA BUT ALSO OF MANCHURIA TO THE "REPUBLIC OF CHINA," AND IT NOTED THAT THE REPUBLIC OF CHINA IS A DIFFERENT REGIME FROM THE COMMUNIST "CHINESE PEOPLES REPUBLIC."

THE NATIONALIST CHINESE REGIME OF GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK IS KNOWN AS THE REPUBLIC OF CHINA AND THE U.S. ASKED WHETHER RUSSIA REALLY DESIRES THAT MANCHURIA AND FORMOSA SHOULD BE RESTORED TO THAT REPUBLIC.

MAY 22 1951

THE AMERICAN NOTE ALSO POINTEDLY REMARKED:
"IN VIEW OF THE KNOWN ACQUISITIONS BY THE U.S.S.R OF ZONES OF INTEREST IN MANCHURIA, THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT IS PROMPTED TO INQUIRE AS TO THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE PRESENT AVOIDANCE BY THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT OF REFERENCE TO THE RESTORATION OF MANCHURIA."

DISCUSSING RUSSIA'S EXPRESSED INTEREST IN JAPANESE DEMILITARIZATION, THE UNITED STATES SAID IT HAD COMPLETELY DISARMED ALL THE JAPANESE FORCES WHICH CAME UNDER ITS CONTROL AND ADDED:
"OF THE (WORLD WAR TWO) BELLIGERENTS, ONLY THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT HAS FAILED TO COMPLY WITH THIS PROVISION AND, IN VIOLATION OF THE SURRENDER TERMS WITHHOLDS FROM RETURN TO THEIR HOMES AND PEACE-FUL LIVES APPROXIMATELY 200,000 JAPANESE SOLDIERS."

THE AMERICAN NOTE ENDED WITH A LENGTHY REVIEW OF THE EXCHANGE OF IDEAS AND INFORMATION WHICH HAS ALREADY TAKEN PLACE BETWEEN MOSCOW AND WASHINGTON ON THE JAPANESE PEACE TREATY WHICH THIS COUNTRY AND ITS ALLIES HOPE TO COMPLETE SOMETIME THIS SUMMER. IT EXPRESSED HOPE THAT RUSSIA WOULD RESUM "PROMPT AND INTENSIVE DIPLOMATI

ALLIES HOPE TO COMPLETE SOMETIME THIS SUMMER. IT EXPRESSED HOPE THAT RUSSIA WOULD RESUME "PROMPT AND INTENSIVE DIPLOMATIC DISCUSSIONS" TO BRING THE WHOLE PROJECT TO A SPEEDY CONCLUSION.

THE DIFFERENCES WHICH THE LATEST EXCHANGE BROUGHT OUT HOWEVER, APPEARED TOO GREAT TO FORSHADOW ANY SUCH DEVELOPMENT. AUTHORITIES HERE SAW NO PROSPECT OF COMPROMISE BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES OVER SUCH ISSUES AS JAPAN'S POST-TREATY SECURITY AND RUSSIA'S SPONSORSHIP OF RED CHINA AS A PARTICIPANT IN THE TREATY-MAKING PROCESS.

WASHINGTON,MAY 21-(AP)-THE STATE DEPARTMENT CLEARED THE WAY TODAY FOR THE EXECUTION OF FIVE OF SEVEN GERMANS CONVICTED OF WAR CRIMES.

THE DEPARTMENT NOTIFIED JOHN J.MCCLOY, AMERICAN HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR GERMANY. THE GERMANS HAVE LOST THEIR LEGAL BATTLE IN AMERICAN

COURTS TO STAY THEIR EXECUTIONS.

ACCORDINGLY, THE STATE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCED IT IS REVOKING THE ORDER TO MCCLOY WHICH TOLD HIM TO STAY THEIR EXECUTION UNTIL ALL APPEALS HAD BEEN HEARD.

"FINAL DISPOSITION OF THE CASE IS NOW IN THE HANDS OF MR.MCCLOY," THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID.

THE SUPREME COURT REFUSED TO CONSIDER THE CASES ALONG WITH THE U.S. COURT OF APPEALS.

THE FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT TODAY ENDED THE COURT BATTLE BY ISSUING A FINAL ORDER DISMISSING THEIR PETITIONS.

THE FIVE CRIMINALS INVOLVED ARE PAUL BLOBEL, WERNER BRAUNE, ERICH NAUMAN, OTTO OHLENDORF, OSWALD POHL.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID TWO OTHER GERMANS SENTENCED TO DEATH FOR WAR CRIMES "ARE UNDER THE JURISDICTION OF THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE." PRESUMABLY THEIR FATE WILL BE DECIDED BY THAT DEPARTMENT.

ALL SEVEN WERE CONVICTED OF CONCENTRATION CAMP MURDERS AND ATROCITIES AGAINST ALLIED PERSONNEL AND REFUGEES.

NIGHT LEAD APPROPRIATIONS

WASHINGTON, MAY 21-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN ASKED CONGRESS TODAY FOR A EXTRA $800,000,000 (M) FOR STOCKPILING RAW MATERIALS FOR NATIONAL DEFENSE.

THE REQUEST WAS PART OF A $1,090,491,704 (B) SUPPLEMENTAL APPROPRIATIONS BILL ASKING MONEY FOR FIVE GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS.

CONGRESS ALREADY HAS VOTED $4,400,000,000 (B) FOR STOCKPILING STRATEGIC AND CRITICAL RAW MATERIALS FOR THE GROWING DEFENSE PROGRAM.

TODAY'S BILL ALSO CALLED FOR, AMONG OTHER THINGS, $121,775,000 (M) FOR THE VETERANS ADMINISTRATION. OF THIS, $116,775,000 (M) WOULD BE FOR LIFE INSURANCE PAYMENTS TO BENEFICIARIES OF MEN KILLED IN MILITARY SERVICE.

WASHINGTON, MAY 21-(AP)-CONGRESS TODAY PASSED AND SENT TO THE WHITE HOUSE AN APPROPRIATIONS BILL WITH A SECTION WHICH WOULD CUT OFF ALL U.S ECONOMIC AID TO ANY NATION WHICH SENDS WAR GOODS TO COMMUNIST NATIONS.

THE DEFICIENCY BILL CARRIES $365,000,000 TO FINANCE VARIOUS GOVERNMENT AGENCIES FOR THE REST OF THE CURRENT FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30. THIS WAS LESS THAN HALF OF THE $896,000,000 ASKED BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN. THE CIVIL DEFENSE ADMINISTRATION GOT THE HEAVIEST CUT.

THE RIDER ON ECONOMIC AID WAS ADDED IN THE SENATE AND ACCEPTED BY SENATE-HOUSE CONFEREES. BOTH HOUSES APPROVED THE CONFERENCE AGREEMENT TODAY.

THE BAN ON AID WOULD APPLY FOR THE DURATION OF THE KOREAN WAR AND IS DESIGNED TO CHOKE OFF SUPPLIES TO RED CHINA. COUNTRIES RECEIVING AMERICAN ECONOMIC AID WOULD BE REQUIRED TO CERTIFY THEY ARE NOT SENDING ANY MILITARY GOODS TO ANY COMMUNIST NATION.

THE ONLY EXCEPTIONS WOULD BE IN CASES WHERE THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL MAKES AN OFFICIAL REPORT TO CONGRESS THAT IT WOULD BE IN THE INTEREST OF THE SECURITY OF THE UNITED STATES TO PERMIT SHIPMENTS.

SEIZED UPON AS A CASE IN POINT WAS A DECISION BY THE SUPREME COURT IN THE BRITISH CROWN COLONY OF HONG KONG TODAY WHICH AWARDED 40 FORMER CHINESE NATIONALIST AIRPLANES TO RED CHINA. THE CASE HAS BEEN IN LITIGATION FOR A YEAR, AND FURTHER APPEALS ARE TO BE TAKEN.

SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH) TOLD THE SENATE THAT THE COURT'S ACTION MEANS THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS "WILL HAVE 40 MORE PLANES WITH WHICH TO ATTACK AND KILL AMERICAN BOYS."

HE SAID IT WAS ONE MORE REASON WHY CONGRESS SHOULD ADOPT MEASURES TO DENY ECONOMIC AID TO ANY NATION THAT SHIPPED WAR MATERIALS TO COMMUNIST AREAS, INCLUDING RED CHINA.

CHAIRMAN MCKELLAR (D-TENN) OF THE SENATE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE CALLED THE ANTI-COMMUNIST TRADE AMENDMENT "A TREMENDOUS STEP IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION."

IF IT IS "HONESTLY AND JUSTLY CARRIED OUT", HE SAID, ITS EFFECT WILL BE TO CUT OFF SHIPMENTS OF WAR MATERIALS TO COMMUNIST CHINA.

THE HOUSE VOTED TO ACCEPT IN THE DEFICIENCY BILL AN ALLOTMENT OF $50,000,000 (N) VOTED BY THE SENATE FOR AID IN BUILDING SCHOOLS IN DEFENSE AREAS OVER THE NATION.

THIS WILL BE ADDED TO $46,000,000 PREVIOUSLY APPROPRIATED FOR THE PURPOSE.

CHINA POLICY (180)

WASHINGTON,MAY 21-(AP)-THE STATE DEPARTMENT VIGOROUSLY DENIED TODAY IT HAS REVERSED ITS CHINA POLICY AS A RESULT OF PRESSURE BUILT UP BY GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR.

ANY ATTEMPT TO READ A POLICY SWITCH INTO FRIDAY'S SPEECH BY ASSISTANT SECRETARY DEAN RUSK IS "ABSOLUTELY NOT JUSTIFIED," IT SAID.

THE DEPARTMENT'S STATEMENT APPEARED DESIGNED IN PART TO ANSWER YESTERDAY'S CONTENTION BY SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO) THAT RUSK'S SPEECH MEANT "WE'RE GOING TO PROMOTE REVOLUTION AGAINST CHINESE COMMUNISM."

TAFT SAID ON A TELEVISION PROGRAM THAT THERE HAS BEEN "AN ABSOLUTE REVERSE" OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S POSITION SINCE MACARTHUR WAS REMOVED AS FAR EASTERN COMMANDER.

IN ITS STATEMENT TODAY, THE DEPARTMENT SAID RUSK'S SPEECH "WAS INTENDED TO BE AND WAS A RESTATEMENT OF THE DEEP AND LONG FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN THE CHINESE AND AMERICAN PEOPLE." THE STATEMENT ADDED:

"TO STRIVE TO BUILD THESE STATEMENTS INTO FAR-REACHING CONCLUSIONS OF INVOLVMENT IN THE CHINESE CIVIL WAR IS ABSOLUTELY NOT JUSTIFIED."

SPEAKING BEFORE THE CHINA INSTITUTE IN NEW YORK FRIDAY NIGHT, RUSK SAID THE UNITED STATES "WILL NOT ACQUIESCE" IN THE DEGRADATION FORCED ON THE CHINESE PEOPLE.

HE ADDED: "IF THE CHINESE PEOPLE DECIDE FOR FREEDOM, THEY SHALL FIND FRIENDS AMONG ALL THE PEOPLES OF THE EARTH WHO HAVE KNOWN AND LOVED FREEDOM."

KOREAN

WASHINGTON,MAY 21-(AP)-THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT SAID TODAY THE UNITED NATIONS FORCES IN KOREA LOST 1,618 DEAD AND WOUNDED DURING FIVE DAYS THROUGH MAY 20 OF THE RED OFENSIVE.

A SPOKESMAN SAID THIS COMPARED WITH 58,000 RED TROOPS KILLED AND WOUNDED.

THE DEPARTMENT SAID THE U.S. CASUALTIES WERE 960, INCLUDING 134 KILLED IN ACTION AND 826 WOUNDED. IT SAID NO ACCURATE FIGURES ARE YET AVAILABLE FOR THE NUMBER OF MISSING IN ACTION.

THE FIGURES FOR U.S. AND U.N. BATTLE CASUALTIES ARE BASED ON A SPOT CHECK OF PRELIMINARY REPORTS RECEIVED FROM THE EIGHTH ARMY, A SPOKESMAN SAID.

SOUTH KOREAN FORCES LOST 48 KILLED AND 497 WOUNDED. THE TOTAL OF OTHER UNITED NATIONS TROOPS CASUALTIES WAS LISTED AS 22 KILLED AND 91 WOUNDED.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID ABOUT 70 PER CENT OF THE 44,669 AMERICANS WOUNDED FROM THE BEGINNING OF THE WAR THROUGH MAY 11 HAVE RECOVERED SUFFICIENTLY TO RETURN TO SOME FORM OF MILITARY DUTY.

HE ADDED THAT LESS THAN THREE PER CENT OF THOSE WOUNDED HAD DIED.

UNITED STATES NON-BATTLE CASUALTIES WERE REPORTED TO BE AVERAGING ABOUT 9.5 PERCENT OF THE TOTAL TROOPS INVOLVED IN KOREA. THIS MEANS THAT PERCENTAGE IS AWAY FROM ACTIVE MILITARY DUTIES BECAUSE OF ACCIDENTAL INJURY, DISEASE AND OTHER CAUSES SUCH AS FROST BITE. DURING WINTER AND HEAT PROSTRATION DURING SUMMER.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID THIS COMPARES WITH SIX PER CENT OF TROOPS PRESENT DURING THE OCCUPATION OF KOREA AFTER WORLD WAR TWO.

HE REPORTED ALSO THAT ONLY 117 AMERICAN MILITARY PERSONNEL HAVE DIED OF DISEASE CONTRACTED IN KOREA SINCE THE OUTBREAK OF THE WAR.

TAFT-KOREA

WASHINGTON, MAY 21-(AP)-SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO) SAYS PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S DECISION TO SEND UNITED STATES TROOPS INTO KOREA WAS A MISTAKE AND THE WHOLE VENTURE IS "A FAILURE."

IN A SPEECH HERE SATURDAY NIGHT, TAFT DECLARED:

"THE COST OF THIS WAR WILL EXCEED BY FAR WHAT WE CAN POSSIBLY GAIN NOW THAT THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS HAVE INTERVENED. IT IS ABSOLUTELY IMPOSSIBLE FOR US TO INVADE CHINA AND PUNISH HER FOR HER AGGRESSION -- AND THE GENERAL PURPOSE OF THIS WAR WAS TO PUNISH COMMUNIST AGGRESSION."

THE OHIOAN, CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE REPUBLICAN POLICY COMMITTEE, SLAPPED BACK AT MR.TRUMAN FOR CRITICIZING AS "AN INVITATION TO WAR" TAFT'S EARLIER CALL FOR A REDUCTION IN THE ARMED FORCES GOAL. TAFT HAD SUGGESTED A CUTBACK FROM THE PRESENT GOAL OF 3,500,000 TO 3,000,000.

"EVERYONE WHO KNOWS ANYTHING ABOUT IT KNOWS THERE IS A TREMENDOUS WASTE OF PERSONNEL IN THE ARMED FORCES AS WELL AS IN THE SPENDING OF MONEY FOR SUPPLIES," TAFT SAID.

"WHEN THE ARMED FORCES ARE GOING TO CALL ON US FOR THREE-FOURTHS OF OUR ENTIRE BUDGET FOR A PERIOD OF TEN YEARS, CERTAINLY THEY OUGHT TO BE FORCED TO FIND THE MEANS OF ACCOMPLISHING THE SAME RESULTS WITH LESS MONEY."

TAFT ALSO CRITICIZED AGAIN THE ADMINISTRATION POLICY OF NEUTRALIZING CHIANG KAI SHEK'S CHINESE NATIONALIST FORCES ON FORMOSA. THOSE WHO REFUSE TO PERMIT THEIR USE IN THE FIGHTING, HE SAID, "ARE SACRIFICING THE LIVES OF AMERICAN BOYS."

THE ADMINISTRATION POSITION IS THAT (1) THEHNATIONALISTS ARE NEEDED ON FORMOSA TO DEFEND IT AGAINST POSSIBLE RED ATTACK, AND (2) THEIR USE IN THE FIGHTING MIGHT CONTRIBUTE TO BRINGING RUSSIA INTO THE CONFLICT.

TAFT SAID NATIONALIST RAIDS ON SOUTH CHINA AND ORGANIZATION OF GUERRILLA FORCES THERE "SHOULD AT LEAST DIVERT CHINESE COMMUNIST ARMIES FROM THEIR VIOLENT ATTACKS TODAY IN KOREA."

(ADVANCE)...WASHINGTON, MAY 21-(AP)-A TOP AMERICAN OIL EXECUTIVE TODAY BELITTLED THE POSSIBLE MILITARY ADVANTAGES RUSSIA MIGHT EXPECT FROM SEIZURE OF MIDDLE EASTERN OIL FIELDS.

CONCEDING THAT RUSSIAN CONTROL OF THE MIDDLE EAST WOULD RESULT IN LOSS OF THE OIL TO THE WEST, RALPH G.FOLLIS, CHAIRMAN OF THE STANDARD OIL COMPANY OF CALIFORNIA AND DIRECTOR OF THE ARABIAN AMERICAN OIL CO., SAID:

"THE DANGER OF THEIR AVAILING THEMSELVES OF THE OIL IS ALMOST NIL."

FOLLIS, WHO RECENTLY RETURNED FROM INSPECTING OIL INSTALLATIONS IN THE MIDDLE EAST AND SOUTHEAST ASIA, ALSO WAS OPTIMISTIC ABOUT PROSPECTS OF A SETTLEMENT BETWEEN BRITAIN AND IRAN OF THEIR DIFFICULTIES OVER THE IRANIAN DECISION TO NATIONALIZE THE ANGLO-IRANIAN OIL COMPANY.

"I CAN'T SEE HOW IRAN CAN AFFORD NOT TO WORK THIS OUT WITH THE ANGLO-IRANIAN," FOLLIS SAID IN A COPYRIGHTED INTERVIEW IN THE MAGAZINE U.S. NEWS AND WORLD REPORT. HE ADDED:

"THE ONLY PEOPLE WHO HAVE A MARKET TO ABSORB THIS TREMENDOUS AMOUNT OF OIL IS ANGLO-IRANIAN. THEY ARE THE ONLY PEOPLE WHO HAVE THE SHIPS TO MOVE THAT OIL -- IT TAKES A TREMENDOUS AMOUNT OF SHIPS TO MOVE 500,000 BARRELS A DAY OF REFINED PRODUCTS THEY MAKE AT ABADAN TO THE MARKETS THAT CAN ABSORB IT. AND THE ANGLO-IRANIAN HAS THE MARKETS, AND IF THEY GOT THEIR OIL SOMEWHERE ELSE AND CLOSED THAT GAP, I CAN'T SEE WHAT IRAN WOULD DO."

MAY 22 1951

ANGLO-IRANIAN, CONTROLLED BY THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT, OPERATES THE WORLD'S LARGEST REFINERY AT ABADAN, IRAN, ALONG WITH THE ONLY DEVELOPED IRANIAN OIL FIELDS.

DESPITE EXISTING LONG-TERM CONTRACTS, THE IRANIAN PARLIAMENT RECENTLY VOTED TO NATIONALIZE THE INDUSTRY. IT PRODUCES MUCH OF THE OIL USED IN WESTERN EUROPE. MANY WESTERN OBSERVERS HAVE EXPRESSED CONCERN THAT IRAN MIGHT DIVERT THE OIL TO RUSSIA.

HOWEVER, FOLLIS SAID THIS WOULD BE PRACTICALLY IMPOSSIBLE BECAUSE OF THE DIFFICULTY OF BUILDING PIPELINES ACROSS THE MOUNTAIN RANGES IN NORTHERN IRAN. THE OIL FIELDS ARE IN THE SOUTH NEAR THE PERSIAN GULF.

OF THE AMERICAN-OPERATED OIL FIELDS ACROSS THE PERSIAN GULF IN SAUDI ARABIA, FOLLIS SAID:

"IT'S HARD FOR ME TO SEE, UNLESS THE RUSSIANS HAD COMPLETE CONTROL OF THE AIR AND SEA IN THAT WHOLE PART OF THE WORLD, HOW THEY COULD EVER GET THE OIL OUT."

FOLLIS SAID THAT OIL POTENTIALITIES IN SOUTH EAST ASIA, ESPECIALLY IN SUMATRA "LOOK VERY LARGE." HE ADDED THE AMERICAN STAND ON THE KOREAN SITUATION APPEARED TO HAVE "REVERSED" A TREND TOWARD "THE COMMUNIST SIDE" IN THAT AREA.

AP SPECIAL WASHINGTON SERVICE (440)

WASHINGTON, MAY 21-(AP)-THE SENATE ARMED SERVICES PREPAREDNESS SUBCOMMITTEE REPORTED TODAY ITS INVESTIGATORS HAVE FOUND A "DEPLORABLE SITUATION" AT THE FORT KNOX, KY., ARMY PROCESSING CENTER AND "EXTREMELY LOW MORALE" AMONG THE TRAINEES.

HEADED BY SENATOR LYNDON B.JOHNSON (D-TEXAS) THE SUBCOMMITTEE IS INVESTIGATING THE PREPAREDNESS PROGRAM AND EXAMINING CONDITIONS AT VARIOUS ARMY, NAVY, AIR FORCE AND MARINE TRAINING CENTERS. IT VISITED FORT KNOX FEB. 21-24.

THE FORT KNOX REPORT SAID THAT BLAME FOR THE "SUBSTANDARD CONDITIONS" AT THE TRAINING CENTER STEMS FROM THE FACT THAT THE ARMY HAS ASSIGNED TOO MANY PROGRAMS TO THE POST. IT ADDED:

"WE DO NOT INTEND TO CRITICIZE THE FORT KNOX COMMAND; THEIR ASSIGNED RESPONSIBILITY IS SIMPLY TOO GREAT."

THE INVESTIGATORS SAID IT APPEARED THAT FORT KNOX WAS SUCH A LARGE INSTALLATION WITH SO MANY ACTIVITIES GOING ON "THAT THE CARE AND WELFARE OF THE INDIVIDUAL INDUCTEE WAS NOT CONSIDERED OF PRIMARY IMPORTANCE."
PROCESSING PROCEDURES WERE FOUND "GENERALLY SATISFACTORY," SAID THE REPORT, BUT THE SUBSEQUENT ASSIGNMENT OF RECRUITS TO TRAINING UNITS WAS "INEFFICIENT AND DISORLY RGANIZED."
AS EVICENCE OF LOW MORALE AMONG THE TRAINEES THE INVESTIGATORS SAID THAT ON FEB. 16 A TOTAL OF 327 TRAINEES OUT OF 21,000 IN THE THIRD ARMORED TRAINING DIVISION WERE ABSENT WITHOUT OFFICIAL LEAVE.
"MUCH OF THE LOW MORALE ENCOUNTERED AT FORT KNOX AMONG THE TRAINEE PERSONNEL CAN BE ATTRIBUTED TO THE INEFFICIENT HANDLING OF THE RECRUIT DURING HIS FIRST FEW DAYS AT THE POST. X X X INVESTIGATORS FOUND THE SOLDIER AT FORT KNOX COMPARATIVELY UNINFORMED, CAUSING CONSIDERABLE CONFUSION AND DISGUST ON THE PART OF THE SOLDIER," THE REPORT SAID.
COMMENTING ON THE REPORT, SENATOR JOHNSON SAID THE CONDITIONS "WERE UNFORTUNATE, TO SAY THE LEAST.
"HOWEVER, I AM GRATIFIED TO NOTE THAT THE ARMY HAS TAKEN SOME STEPS TO CORRECT THESE CONDITIONS BY RELIEVING THE POST COMMAND OF THE RESPONSIBILITY FOR RECEPTION AND PROCESSING OF RECRUITS. I AM HOPEFUL THAT OTHER REMEDIAL ACTIONS WILL BE TAKEN."
THE REPORT FOUND THAT TRAINING FACILITIES AND INSTRUCTOR PERSONNEL WERE AMONG THE BEST IN THE ARMY, THAT HOSPITAL FACILITIES, HOUSING, FOOD AND RECREATION WERE ADEQUATE OR GOOD.
RECOMMENDATIONS IN THE REPORT WERE ATHAT:
1. THE WELFARE OF THE INDIVIDUAL RECRUIT BE RAISED FROM A SECONDARY TO A PRIMARY CONSIDERATION;
2. THE ARMY TRY TO REDUCE THE RAPID TURN-OVER OF TRAINING PERSONNEL;

B34WX
3. THE ARMY CONSIDER DISCONTINUANCE OF ITS PRACTICE OF DESIGNATING AND ORGANIZING ITS BASIC TRAINING CENTERS AS COMBAT DIVISIONS, AND
4. THE ARMY TRY TO SUPPLY THE INDOCTRINATION CENTER WITH SUFFICIENT CLOTHING SUPPLIES SO THAT EACH RECRUIT CAN RECEIVE A COMPLETE ALLOWANCE IMMEDIATELY AFTER ENTRY INTO SERVICE.

NIGHT LEAD RECIPROCAL TRADE
WASHINGTON,MAY 21-(AP)-SENATOR MALONE (R-NEV) TOLD THE SENATE TODAY THAT EXTENSION OF THE RECIPROCAL TRADE LAW WOULD "GIVE ABSOLUTE POWER OVER AMERICAN WORKINGMEN TO A THOROUGHLY DISCREDITED SECRETARY OF STATE."
MALONE MADE THE STATEMENT--AND PRODUCED TWO SEWING MACHINES ON THE SENATE FLOOR TO SUPPORT HIS ARGUMENT--DURING DEBATE ON A BILL WHICH WOULD GRANT A TWO-YEAR EXTENSION OF THE LAW. THE HOUSE HAS ALREADY APPROVED A THREE-YEAR EXTENSION. THE PRESENT LAW EXPIRES JUNE 12.
MALONE IS THE AUTHOR OF A SUBSTITUTE BILL DESIGNED TO STRIP THE WHITE HOUSE AND THE STATE DEPARTMENT OF POWER TO LOWER TARIFF BARRIERS IN RETURN FOR SIMILAR CONCESSIONS BY OTHER COUNTRIES.
SENATOR GEORGE (D-GA), FLOOR MANAGER FOR THE ADMINISTRATION'S BILL TO EXTEND THE ACT, SAID THE RECIPROCAL TRADE PROGRAM HAD "BECOME A FUNDAMENTAL PART OF OUR FOREIGN POLICY."
GEORGE NOTED THAT THE LAW HAS BEEN EXTENDED SIX TIMES SINCE IT FIRST WAS PASSED IN 1934, AND ADDED:
"WE HAVE REJECTED THE IDEA OF ISOLATIONISM IN FOREIGN TRADE."
MALONE'S BILL WOULD TRANSFER THE AUTHORITY TO NEGOTIATE TRADE TREATIES TO A NEW AGENCY TO BE CALLED THE U.S. FOREIGN TRADE AUTHORITY. IT WOULD REQUIRE THAT TARIFF RATES BE FIXED AT PROTECTIVE LEVELS AGAINST THE IMPORT OF SO-CALLED "CHEAP LABOR" PRODUCTS FROM ABROAD.
"OUR STANDARD OF LIVING IS SERIOUSLY THREATENED BY FOREIGN SWEATSHOP LABOR COMPETITION, PERMITTED AND ENCOURAGED BY THIS LEGISLATION," MALONE TOLD HIS COLLEAGUES.
THEN MALONE EXHIBITED THE SEWING MACHINES.
THE ONE MANUFACTURED IN THE U.S. RETAILS FOR $109.95, HE SAID, WHILE THE OTHER, MADE IN JAPAN, RETAILS FOR AS LOW AS $42.50 IN THIS COUNTRY.

RECIPROCAL TRADE
BY JOE HALL
WASHINGTON, MAY 21-(AP)-AN EXTENSION OF THE RECIPROCAL TRADE PROGRAM CAME UP FOR SENATE CONSIDERATION TODAY, CARRYING WITH IT AN ECONOMIC WEAPON AIMED AT THE EXPORTS OF RUSSIA AND OTHER COMMUNIST NATIONS.
THE BILL WOULD EXTEND FOR TWO YEARS THE GOVERNMENT'S AUTHORITY TO NEGOTIATE TRADE PACTS. THE HOUSE, IN ACTING ON THE MEASURE EARLIER, VOTED A THREE-YEAR EXTENSION. THE PRESENT AUTHORITY RUNS OUT JUNE 12.
THE RECIPROCAL TRADE PROGRAM, LAUNCHED IN 1934, PERMITS THE ADMINISTRATION TO LOWER TARIFF RATES IN RETURN FOR SIMILAR CONCESSIONS NEGOTIATED WITH OTHER COUNTRIES.
THE SENATE FINANCE COMMITTEE WROTE INTO THE EXTENSION BILL A DIRECTIVE TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN TO WITHDRAW OR SUSPEND "AS SOON AS PRACTICABLE" ANY TRADE CONCESSION MADE TO RUSSIA AND OTHER COMMUNIST COUNTRIES.
THIS PROVISION IS DESIGNED TO DENY BENEFITS TO COMMUNIST NATIONS OF U.S. TRADE AGREEMENTS WITH OTHER COUNTRIES.
AMERICA HAS NO TRADE PACTS WITH ANY IRON CURTAIN NATION EXCEPT CZECHOSLOVAKIA. BUT, UNDER A CLAUSE IN THE AGREEMENTS, ALL COUNTRIES GET THE BENEFIT OF AN IMPORT DUTY CUT GIVEN GREAT BRITAIN, FRANCE OR ANY OTHER COUNTRY.
SENATORS ON THE FINANCE COMMITTEE SAID THEY WERE TRYING TO MAKE THE ANTI-COMMUNIST SECTION OF THE MEASURE TIGHTER THAN THE ONE ADOPTED IN THE HOUSE.
THE LATTER WOULD DIRECT THE PRESIDENT TO PREVENT FUTURE TARIFF CONCESSIONS FROM APPLYING TO IMPORTS FROM THE COMMUNIST AREA.
BOTH VERSIONS OF THE BILL CONTAIN TWO PROVISIONS DESIGNED TO ESTABLISH SOME CHECK ON THE AUTHORITY OF THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH TO NEGOTIATE THE AGREEMENTS.
ONE IS THE "PERIL POINT" AMENDMENT, THE OTHER AN ESCAPE CLAUSE FEATURE.
THE PERIL POINT PROVISION WAS WRITTEN INTO THE TRADE AGREEMENTS LAW IN THE REPUBLICAN-CONTROLLED 80TH CONGRESS IN 1948. BUT IT WAS TAKEN OUT A YEAR LATER AFTER THE DEMOCRATS HAD REGAINED POWER.
THE PROVISION REQUIRES THE PRESIDENT TO GIVE THE FEDERAL TARIFF COMMISSION A LIST OF COMMODITIES ON WHICH HE INTENDS TO NEGOTIATE IN MAKING A TRADE PACT.
THE COMMISSION THEN MAKES A STUDY TO FIND THE POINT BELOW WHICH TARIFFS MAAY NOT BE CUT WITHOUT WHAT IT REGARDS AS SERIOUS INJURY TO A DOMESTIC INDUSTRY.
IF THE PRESIDENT THEREAFTER REDUCES A DUTY BELOW THE PERIL POINT, HE MUST REPORT TO CONGRESS HIS REASONS FOR DOING SO.
ALL TRADE AGREEMENTS WRITTEN SINCE 1943 HAVE CARRIED AN ESCAPE CLAUSE BY EXECUTIVE ORDER. SUCH A CLAUSE PERMITS THE U.S TO WITHDRAW TARIFF CONCESSIONS UNDER CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES.
THE PENDING BILL WOULD ESTABLISH A LEGISLATIVE REQUIREMENT FOR SUCH CLAUSES. THE MEASURE DIRECTS THAT NO CUT IN DUTY SHALL BE ALLOWED TO STAND WHICH RESULTS IN "SUCH RELATIVELY INCREASED

30.24- 23267

QUANTITIES" OF IMPORTS OF A PRODUCT AS TO INJURE SERIOUSLY A DOMESTIC INDUSTRY.

THE PRESIDENT IS TOLD TO INSERT AN ESCAPE CLAUSE IN ALL EXISTING AGREEMENTS, WHERE PRACTICABLE, AS WELL AS TO PUT ONE IN FUTURE PACTS.

THE BILL ALSO SETS UP A PROCEDURE TO SET OPERATION OF THE CLAUSES IN MOTION.

THE TARIFF COMMISSION WOULD HAVE TO MAKE AN INVESTIGATION OF THE EFFECT OF A CUT IN DUTY WHEN ASKED BY THE PRESIDENT, THE CONGRESS "OR ANY INTERESTED PARTY." IT COULD ALSO DO SO ON ITS OWN INITIATIVE.

IF THE COMMISSION RECOMMENDS THAT A CONCESSION BE WITHDRAWN, THE PRESIDENT MAY DECLINE TO DO THIS. BUT, IN THAT CASE, HE MUST FURNISH HIS REASONS IN WRITING TO THE SENATE FINANCE COMMITTEE AND HOUSE WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE.

THE CIRCUIT COURT UPHELD THE DISMISSAL AS TO MAYOR ROBINSON, BUT REINSTATED THE SUIT AGAINST THE SENATORS WHO THEN APPEALED TO THE SUPREME COURT. THEY ARE: JACK B.TENNEY, HUGH M.BURNS, NELSON S.DILWORTH, FRED H. KRAFT, LOUIS G.SUTTON AND CLYDE A.WATSON.

FRANKFURTER'S MAJORITY OPINION SAID LEGISLATIVE FREEDOM WAS "SO CAREFULLY PROTECTED" BY THE FRAMERS OF THE U.S. CONSTITUTION AND THAT AS OTHER STATES JOINED THE UNION OR REVISED THEIR CONSTITUTIONS, "THEY TOOK GREAT CARE TO PRESERVE THE PRINCIPLE THAT THE LEGISLATURE MUST BE FREE TO SPEAK AND ACT WITHOUT FEAR OF CRIMINAL AND CIVIL LIABILITY."

FORTY ONE OF THE 48 STATES NOW HAVE SUCH SPECIFIC PROVISIONS PROTECTING THE PRIVILEGE, HE SAID.

MAY 22 1951

FRANKFURTER ADDED EVEN THE CLAIM OF AN UNWORTHY PURPOSE DOES NOT DESTROY THE PRIVILEGE OF SUCH COMMITTEES.

"LEGISLATORS ARE IMMUNE FROM DETERRENTS TO THE UNINHIBITED DISCHARGE OF THEIR LEGISLATIVE DUTY, NOT FOR THEIR PRIVATE INDULGENCE BUT FOR THE PUBLIC GOOD," FRANKFURTER SAID. "ONE MUST NOT EXPECT UNCOMMON COURAGE EVEN IN LEGISLATORS."

"THE PRIVILEGE WOULD BE OF LITTLE VALE," THE MAJORITY SAID, "IF LEGISLATORS COULD BE SUBJECTED TO THE COST AND INCONVENIENCE AND DISTRACTIONS OF A TRIAL X X X OR TO THE HAZARD OF A JUDGMENT AGAINST THEM BASED UPON A JURY'S SPECULATION AS TO MOTIVES."

DOUGLAS' DISSENTING OPINION PROTESTED THAT THE MAJORITY APPARENTLY WAS HOLDING THAT THE ACTIONS OF LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEES "HAVE NO LIMITS IN THE EYES OF THE LAW."

"MAY THEY SUBSTITUTE TRIAL BEFORE COMMITTEES FOR TRIAL BEFORE JURIES?", HE ASKED. "MAY THEY SIT AS A BOARD OF CENSORS OVER INDUSTRY, PREPARE THEIR BLACKLISTS OF CITIZENS, AND ISSUE PRONOUNCEMENTS AS DEVASTATING AS ANY BILL OF ATTAINDER?

"NO OTHER PUBLIC OFFICIAL," DOUGLAS SAID, "HAS COMPLETE IMMUNITY FOR HIS ACTIONS."

HE INSISTED THAT, "WHEN A COMMITTEE PERVERTS ITS POWER, BRINGS DOWN ON AN INDIVIDUAL THE WHOLE WEIGHT OF GOVERNMENT FOR AN ILLEGAL OR CORRUPT PURPOSE, THE REASON FOR IMMUNITY ENDS."

BLACK'S OPINION CONCURRING WITH THE MAJORITY SAID THE FINDING THAT THE COMMITTEE CANNOT BE SUED "IS NOT A HOLDING THAT THEIR ALLEGED PERSECUTION OF BRANDHOVE IS LEGAL CONDUCT."

"INDEED, AS I UNDERSTAND THE DECISION," BLACK WROTE, "THERE IS STILL MUCH ROOM FOR CHALLENGE TO THE COMMITTEE ACTION.

"THUS, FOR EXAMPLE, IN ANY PROCEEDING INSTITUTED BY THE TENNEY COMMITTEE TO FINE OR IMPRISON BRANDHOVE ON PERJURY, CONTEMPT OR OTHER CHARGES, HE WOULD CERTAINLY BE ABLE TO DEFEND HIMSELF ON THE GROUND THAT THE RESOLUTION CREATING THE COMMITTEE OR THE COMMITTEE'S ACTION UNDER IT WERE UNCONSTITUTIONAL AND VOID." BLACK ADDED: "UNFORTUNATELY, IT IS TRUE THAT LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLIES BORN TO DEFEND THE LIBERTY OF

THE PEOPLE, HAVE AT TIMES VIOLATED THEIR SACRED TRUST AND BECOME THE INSTRUMENTS OF OPPRESSION. MANY SPECIFIC INSTANCES COULD BE CITED BUT PERHAPS THE MOST RECENT SPECTACULAR ILLUSTRATION IS THE USE OF A COMMITTEE OF THE ARGENTINE CONGRESS AS THE INSTRUMENT TO STRANGLE THE INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER LA PRENSA BECAUSE OF THE VIEWS IT ESPOUSED."

NIGHT LEAD MEAT

WASHINGTON,MAY 21-(AP)-A SPOKESMAN FOR THE MEAT PACKING INDUSTRY TOLD CONGRESS TODAY RATIONING MUST ACCOMPANY MEAT PRICE CONTROLS, BUT ADDED THAT CONTROLS IN ANY EVENT "SIMPLY WILL NOT WORK."

PAUL C.SMITH, A VICE-PRESIDENT OF SWIFT AND COMPANY, WARNED THE SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE THAT BLACK MARKETS INEVITABLY ARISE FROM CONTROLS. HE TESTIFIED AT HEARINGS ON A BILL TO EXTEND THE DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT, WHICH PROVIDES FOR WAGE-PRICE CONTROLS.

SMITH SAID HE SPOKE FOR THE AMERICAN MEAT INSTITUTE, COMPOSED OF 700 FIRMS WHICH PRODUCE 80 PER CENT OF THE COUNTRY'S MEAT.

"THE OPINION HAS GOT ABOUT THAT THE MEAT PACKING INDUSTRY IS SERVING ITS OWN BEST INTERESTS BY OPPOSING THESE CONTROLS," HE SAID. "IF IT IS SELF-SERVING TO OPPOSE A REGULATION WHICH WILL ROB THE PUBLIC OF MEAT AND WHICH WILL PREVENT LEGITIMATE PACKERS FROM MAKING AN EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION OF THAT MEAT, THEN WE PLEAD GUILTY."

THE GOVERNMENT'S NEW BEEF PRICE ORDER IS AIMED AT BRINGING DOWN THE RETAIL PRICES ABOUT 10 CENTS A POUND BY NEXT OCT. 1. IT PROVIDES FOR A 10 PER CENT ROLLBACK IN PRICES PAID BY PACKERS FOR CATTLE, BEGINNING YESTERDAY, WITH FURTHER CUTS TO COME.

A MEMBER OF THE NATIONAL LIVESTOCK INDUSTRY ADVISORY COMMITTEE TOLD THE SENATORS HIS GROUP WAS NOT CONSULTED REGARDING THE ROLLBACKS.

NORMAN MOSER, DEKALB (CAP D, CAK K), TEXAS LIVESTOCK MAN, SAID HIS GROUP OF ABOUT 16 MET WITH OFFICIALS OF THE OFFICE OF PRICE STABILIZATION ONLY ONE DAY.

PRICE STABILIZER MICHAEL V.DISALLE, MOSER SAID, WAS WITH THE COMMITTEE ONLY ABOUT 15 MINUTES.

MOSER SAID THE GROUP WAS INFORMED OF PROSPECTIVE CEILING PRICES ON BEEF "BUT WE WEREN'T ASKED FOR ANY ADVICE AND WE GOT THE IMPRESSION THE WOULD BE NO ROLLBACKS."

CIO LEADERS URGED EXTENSION AND STRENGTHENING OF THE DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT BEFORE THE HOUSE BANKING COMMITTEE TODAY.

SECRETARY-TREASURER JAMES B.CAREY ADVOCATED THAT THE PROVISIONS AGAINST HOARDING OF SCARCE MATERIALS BE STRENGTHENED. HE STATED:

"WE OPPOSE THAT THERE BE A RIGID CONTROL ON THE CREDIT THAT IS USED FOR SPECULATIVE PURPOSES, WHERE IT SERVES NO USEFUL SOCIAL END. ON THE OTHER HAND, THERE SHOULD BE A LOOSENING OF THE CREDIT RESTRICTIONS ON THE AVERAGE MAN WHO SIMPLY WANTS TO BUY A USEFUL PRODUCT."

CIO VICE PRESIDENT ALLAN S.HAYWOOD TOLD THE COMMITTEE IN ANOTHER STATEMENT THAT "IF WE REALLY MEAN TO STABILIZE THE AMERICAN ECONOMY WE MUST STABILIZE THE COST OF HOUSING, PARTICULARLY THE COST TO THOSE WHO ARE FORCED TO RENT." HE DESCRIBED THE HOUSING SHORTAGE AS "A NATIONAL SCANDAL."

NIGHT LEAD SUPREME COURT (ROUNDUP)

BY CHARLES F.BARRETT

WASHINGTON,MAY 21-(AP)-THE SUPREME COURT TODAY KNOCKED PROPS FROM UNDER "FAIR TRADE" LAWS WHICH LET MERCHANTS FIX RETAIL PRICES ON THOUSANDS OF ARTICLES IN 45 STATES.

THE COURT RULED BY A 6 TO 3 VOTE THAT MERCHANTS WHO DO NOT SIGN FAIR TRADE AGREEMENTS ARE FREE TO CHARGE CUT RATE PRICES IF THEY WISH.

THE 45 "FAIR TRADE" STATES HAVE LAWS COMPELLING ALL DEALERS, THOSE WHO AGREE TO UNIFORM PRICES AND THOSE WHO DO NOT, TO SELL AT THE FAIR TRADE PRICE. THE PRACTICE HAS BEEN WIDESPREAD FOR MANY YEARS.

ATTORNEYS ATTACKING THE COMPULSORY FEATURE SAID THE COURT RULING STRIKES AN IMMEDIATE BLOW AT HIGH PRICES AND INFLATION "IN THE PRESENT CRISIS DETONATED BY THE KOREAN WAR."

OPPOSING LAWYERS SAID SUCH A RULING JUST ABOUT KILLS FAIR TRADE LAWS. THEY ARGUED SUCH LAWS PROTECT THE PUBLIC AND SMALL MERCHANTS FROM MONOPOLIES GAINED BY CUT-THROAT COMPETITION.

GEORGE J.BURGER, VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL FEDERATION OF INDEPENDENT BUSINESS, INC., SAID IN A STATEMENT IN WASHINGTON THAT THE DECISION "MAY LEAD TO THE DESTRUCTION OF HALF A MILLION RETAIL ESTABLISHMENTS." HE PREDICTED THAT "MINORITY INTERESTS" IN THE RETAIL FIELD WILL NOW ENGAGE IN "CUT-THROAT COMPETITION." BURGER SAID THE FEDERATION REPRESENTS 136,000 INDEPENDENT BUSINESSES AND PROFESSIONS.

IN ANOTHER FAR-REACHING OPINION, INVOLVING A CALIFORNIA CASE, THE HIGH COURT APPROVED BROAD POWERS FOR LEGISLATIVE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEES. IT SAID LEGISLATORS ARE IMMUNE FROM COURT ATTACKS UNDER CIVIL RIGHTS LAWS AS LONG AS THEY STICK TO PROPER FIELDS.

JUSTICE DOUGLAS, DISSENTING, SAID THE MAJORITY OPINION GAVE LAWMAKERS A FREE HAND TO TRAMPLE ON CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS "FOR AN ILLEGAL OR CORRUPT PURPOSE."

UNDER STATE FAIR TRADE LAWS, DISTRIBUTORS OF TRADE MARK OR BRAND GOODS MAY ENTER INTO AGREEMENTS WITH RETAIL DEALERS TO SELL THEIR PRODUCT AT FILED MINIMUM PRICES.

THE SUPREME COURT DIDN'T SAY THE AGREEMENTS OR THE LAWS WHICH PERMIT THEM ARE INVALID. IT MERELY SAID A DEALER WHO DOESN'T SIGN THE UNIFORM PRICE AGREEMENT CAN CHARGE ANYTHING HE WISHES.

SPECIFICALLY, A SUPERMARKET IN NEW ORLEANS, SCHWEGMANN BROTHERS, WAS SELLING FIFTHS OF CALVERT RESERVE WHISKEY FOR $3.35 AND SEAGRAMS SEVEN CROWN FOR $3.51. UNDER AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE DISTILLERS AND OTHER RETAILERS, THE "FAIR TRADE" PRICE WAS $4.24 FOR EACH ITEM.

SCHWEGMANN HADN'T SIGNED THE FAIR TRADE AGREEMENT. THE DISTILLERS BROUGHT SUIT TO FORCE SCHWEGMANN TO CHARGE THE HIGHER PRICE. LOWER COURTS UPHELD THE DISTILLERS BUT THE SUPREME COURT REVERSED THEIR DECISION.

THE MAJORITY OPINION, WRITTEN BY JUSTICE DOUGLAS DECLARED:

"IF A DISTRIBUTOR AND ONE OR MORE RETAILERS WANT TO AGREE, COMBINE, OR CONSPIRE TO FIX A MINIMUM PRICE, THEY CAN DO SO IF STATE LAW PERMITS.
X X X

A18WX
"WHEN THEY SEEK, HOWEVER, TO IMPOSE PRICE FIXING ON PERSONS WHO HAVE NOT CONTRACTED OR AGREED TO THE SCHEME, THE SITUATION IS VASTLY DIFFERENT. THAT IS NOT PRICE FIXING BY CONTRACT OR AGREEMENT; THAT IS PRICE FIXING BY COMPULSION. X X X THAT IS RESORT TO COERCION."

JUSTICE FRANKFURTER, IN A DISSENTING OPINION IN WHICH JUSTICES BLACK AND BURTON JOINED, SAID EXPERIENCE HAS PROVED THAT UNLESS MERCHANTS WHO DON'T SIGN FAIR TRADE AGREEMENTS ABIDE BY THE FIXED PRICES, "THE STATE ACTS WOULD HAVE BEEN FUTILE."

PRICE-FIXING IN INTERSTATE COMMERCE GENERALLY WAS PROHIBITED BY THE SHERMAN ANTI-TRUST LAW, PASSED IN 1890. BUT CONGRESS IN 1937 ADOPTED THE MILLER-TYDINGS AMENDMENT TO THE SHERMAN LAW. THIS PERMITTED "CONTRACTS OR AGREEMENTS TO PRESCRIBE MINIMUM PRICES FOR TRADE-MARKED COMMODITIES WHERE STATE LAWS AUTHORIZE SUCH AGREEMENTS."

THE ONLY STATES THAT HAVEN'T ADOPTED SUCH LAWS ARE VERMONT, TEXAS AND MISSOURI.

THE POWER OF LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEES WAS QUESTIONED IN THE CALIFORNI CASE. WILLIAM PATRICK BRANDHOVE SUED THE CALIFORNIA SENATE COMMITTEE ON UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES FOR $250,000. HE CLAIMED HIS CIVIL RIGHTS WERE VIOLATED WHEN THE COMMITTEE SUMMONED HIM FOR QUESTIONING AND LATE HAD HIM ARRESTED FOR REFUSING TO ANSWER ITS QUERIES. CHARGES AGAINST BRANDHOVE WERE DISMISSED.

BRANDHOVE'S ATTORNEYS IMPLIED HE WAS PERSECUTED BECAUSE HE HAD CIRCULATED A PETITION PROTESTING APPROPRIATION OF MORE FUNDS FOR THE COMMITTEE. A FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT DENIED HIS RIGHT TO SUE THE LEGISLATORS FOR DAMAGES, BUT A COURT OF APPEALS SAID HE HAD THAT RIGHT

THE SUPREME COURT UPHELD THE DISTRICT COURT'S VIEW.

JUSTICE FRANKFURTER, WRITING THE MAJORITY OPINION, SAID CONGRESS AND THE STATES HAVE TAKEN GREAT CARE "TO PRESERVE THE PRINCIPLE THAT THE LEGISLATURE MUST BE FREE TO SPEAK AND ACT WITHOUT FEAR OF CRIMINAL AND CIVIL LIABILITY."

FRANKFURTER NOTED THAT SOME LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEES HAVE BEEN CHARGED WITH "DISHONEST OR VINDICTIVE" MOTIVES BUT HE SAID:

"COURTS ARE NOT THE PLACES FOR SUCH CONTROVERSIES. SELF-DISCIPLINE AND THE VOTERS MUST BE THE ULTIMATE RELIANCE FOR DISCOURAGING OR CORRECTING SUCH ABUSES."

DOUGLAS (370)

CHICAGO,MAY 21-(AP)-JUSTICE WILLIAM O.DOUGLAS SAID TODAY THE UNITED STATES HAS BEEN SO BUSY FIGHTING AGAINST COMMUNISM IT HASN'T TRIED FIGHTING FOR CORRECTION OF CONDITIONS THAT BREED COMMUNISM.

THE SUPREME COURT JUSTICE SAID TWO TRIPS TO ASIA HAVE CONVINCED HIM "THE WORLD IS IN A REVOLUTION WHICH CANNOT BE BOUGHT OFF WITH DOLLARS."

"WE CANNOT REMAKE THE WORLD IN OUR IMAGE, BUT WE CAN HELP THOSE WHO ARE SEEKING AN ESCAPE FROM SQUALOR TO FIND ALTERNATIVES TO COMMUNISN," HE ASSERTED.

DOUGLAS' VIEWS WERE PUBLISHED IN THE ROTARIAN, MONTHLY MAGAZINE OF ROTARY INTERNATIONAL.

"THERE ARE RUMBLINGS IN EVERY VILLAGE FROM THE MEDITERRANEAN TO THE PACIFIC," HE SAID. "A FORCE IS GATHERING FOR A MIGHTY EFFORT. WE THINK OF THAT FORCE AS COMMUNISTIC. COMMUNISTS EXPLOIT THE SITUATION, STIRRING EVERY DISCONTENT AND MAKING THE POT BOIL.

"THE REVOLUTIONS WHICH ARE BREWING ARE NOT, HOWEVER, COMMUNIST IN ORIGIN NOR WILL THEY END EVEN IF SOVIET RUSSIA IS CRUSHED THROUGH WAR. THE REVOLUTIONARIES ARE HUNGRY MEN WHO HVE BEEN EEPLOITED

THE REVOLUTIONARIES ARE HUNGRY MEN WHO HAVE BEEN EXPLOITED FROM TIME OUT OF MIND. THIS IS THE CENTURY OF THEIR AWAKENING AND MOBILIZATION."

DOUGLAS SAID THE PEOPLE OF ASIA HAVE "SPECIFIC COMPLAINTS", INCLUDING ABSENCE OF MEDICAL CARE AND SCHOOLS, A NEED FOR LAND REFORM, A DESIRE TO LEARN MODERN FARMING METHODS, AND THE RIGHT TO VOTE. TOO, THEY HAVE NEW SENSE OF NATIONALISM, HE DECLARED.

"THE FACT IS THAT AMERICA HAS BEEN SO ENGROSSED IN PROVIDING A DEFENSE AGAINST COMMUNISM THAT WE HAVE LOST THE INITIATIVE," DOUGLAS SAID. "OUR GREAT WEAKNESS HAS BEEN OUR NEGATIVE ATTITUDE. WE HAVE BEEN ANTI-COMMUNIST. WE HAVE BEEN PLEDGED TO ROOT IT OUT AND EXPOSE IT FOR ALL ITS UGLINESS. X X X YET NO MATTER HOW FEVERISH OUR EFFORTS, THE RED TIDE OF COMMUNISM SEEMS TO SPREAD ABROAD.

"WE ARE SEIZED WITH PANIC AS THE WATERS LAP AT FEEBLE DIKES. SO WE RUSH TO THE SUPPORT OF EVERY GROUP WHICH OPPOSES SOVIET COMMUNISM. THAT PUTS US IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE CORRUPT AND REACTIONARY GROUPS WHOSE POLICIES BREED THE DISCONTENT ON WHICH SOVIET COMMUNISM FEEDS AND PROSPERS."

ANOTHER MISTAKE, THE JUSTICE ASSERTED, IS "THAT WE HAVE RELIED MORE AND MORE ON OUR MILITARY TO DO OUR THINKING AND PLANNING FOR US."

"IT IS NO REFLECTION ON THE MILITARY TO DEPLORE THAT FACT" HE CONTINUED. "THE SITUATION IN ASIA IS DELICATE AND COMPLEX. IT REQUIRES ASTUTE HANDLING AT THE POLITICAL LEVEL--THE BEST THAT WE CAN MUSTER IN SKILL AND UNDERSTANDING."

DOUGLAS SAID THAT IF AMERICA UNDERTOOK TO MATCH THE SOVIETS IN A PROGRAM OF POLITICAL ACTION, "THE CHANCES OF SUCCESS WOULD BE CONSIDERABLE."

THAT, HE SAID, IS BECAUSE THE AIMS OF THE ASIATIC PEASANTS ARE "BASICALLY IMCOMPATIBE WITH COMMUNISM"

"BASICALLY IMCOMPATIBLE WITH COMMUNISM" IN SUCH MATTERS AS RELIGION, FREE ELECTIONS, LAND REFORM AND NATIONALISTIC FEELING.

NIGHT LEAD CATTLE PRICES (520)

CHICAGO,MAY 21-(AP)-THERE WAS A GENERAL DROP IN THE NUMBERS OF CATTLE RECEIVED AT THE NATION'S STOCKYARDS TODAY AS PRICE CONTROLS ON BEEF ANIMALS BECAME TECHNICALLY EFFECTIVE.

BUT THAT WAS THE ONLY APPARENT RESULT OF THE CATTLE CEILING ORDER --PART OF THE GOVERNMENT'S CAMPAIGN TO BRING ABOUT REDUCTIONS IN MEAT PRICES--SINCE IT BECAME LEGALLY OPERATIVE SUNDAY.

BECAUSE OF THE LIGHT RECEIPTS, PRICES PAID FOR CATTLE WERE GENERALLY 50 CENTS PER ONE HUNDRED POUNDS HIGHER THAN SATURDAY. SOME VEALERS SOLD $1 HIGHER.

THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE REPORTED THAT RECEIPTS OF CATTLE AT 12 PRINCIPAL MARKETS TOTALED 41,100. THIS WAS SHARPLY UNDER LAST MONDAY'S UNUSUALLY HEAVY RECEIPTS OF 77,700, AND THE 68,800 HEAD WHICH CAME TO MARKET A YEAR AGO.

ACTUALLY, THE CATTLE PRICE CEILINGS ARE NOT IN EFFECT FOR MOST BUYERS YET. THE ORDER BY THE OFFICE OF PRICE STABILIZATION CALLS FOR PAYMENT BY PACKERS OF PRICES TO AVERAGE 10 PER CENT BELOW THOSE OF JANUARY DURING THE ACCOUNTING PERIODS WHICH BEGIN MAY 20 OR THEREAFTER.

MANY PACKERS WILL NOT BEGIN THEIR NEW ACCOUNTING PERIODS UNTIL JUNE 4. THEN, ALTHOUGH AVERAGE PRICES FOR THE PERIOD MUST BE AT LEAST 10 PER CENT UNDER JANUARY AVERAGES, COMPARATIVELY HIGH PRICES MAY STILL BE OFFERED FOR SOME LOTS.

COMMENTING ON THE LIGHT RECEIPTS OF CATTLE TODAY, MARKET SOURCES GENERALLY AGREED THAT A "WAIT AND SEE" ATTITUDE BY FEEDERS MIGHT HAVE BEEN PARTLY RESPONSIBILE. OTHER FACTORS MENTIONED INCLUDED THE POSSIBILITY THAT SOME SHIPPERS DID NOT REALIZE THAT MANY PACKERS ARE NOT YET AFFECTED BY CEILINGS. AND, ONE BUYER SAID, A SLUMP IN RECEIPTS WOULD HAVE COME AT SOME MARKETS ANYWAY, FOLLOWING LAST WEEK'S HEAVY RUNS.

AT CHICAGO, WHERE 7,000 CATTLE WERE RECEIVED, COMPARED WITH 16,500 A WEEK EARLIER, BUYERS SAID SUBSTANTIALLY LARGER NUMBERS ARE EXPECTED TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY.

MICHAEL HOWLETT, DIRECTOR OF THE ILLINOIS-INDIANA-WISCONSIN OPS REGION, SAID EFFECTS OF THE ORDER CANNOT BE GAUGED UNTIL NEXT WEEK.

HIS INVESTIGATORS BEGAN CHECKING STOCKYARD BUYING TODAY, HE SAID, BUT THEY WILL NOT HAVE VALID REPORTS UNTIL THE ORDER HAS BEEN WORKING FOR A COMPARATIVELY LONGER PERIOD.

AS YET, THE GOVERNMENT'S BEEF CONTROL PRICE PROGRAM HAS HAD LITTLE EFFECT ON THE COST OF STEAKS AND ROASTS BOUGHT BY HOUSEWIVES AT THE NEIGHBORHOOD MEAT MARKET OR CHAIN STORE.

CEILING PRICES CALCULATED TO CAUSE LITTLE CHANGE IN CURRENT SALES HAVE ALREADY BEEN APPLIED TO WHOLESALE AND RETAIL BEEF DEALERS. WITH A CONTINUED RISING TREND FOR CATTLE, A SQUEEZE HAS DEVELOPED ON WHOLESALERS WHO MUST MEET RISING PRICES FROM THE PACKERS. THE NEW CATTLE REGULATION IS DESIGNED TO EASE THIS SITUATION GRADUALLY, AND AT THE SAME TIME PUT A LID ON PRICES TO FEEDERS WHICH WILL HAVE SOME FLEXIBILITY.

MAY 22 1951

A31CX

THE OPS PLAN CALLS FOR TIGHTENING OF PRICES OF BOTH CATTLE AND MEAT IN TWO STAGES LATER ON. ON AUGUST 1, CATTLE PRICES WILL BE BROUGHT DOWN AN ADDITIONAL FOUR AND ONE HALF PER CENT AND BUTCHER SHOP CEILINGS WILL BE LOWERED FOUR TO FIVE CENTS A POUND. AND VIRTUALLY THE SAME TWO CUTS WILL BE APPLIED AGAIN OCT.1.

THUS, THE OPS SAYS, HOUSEWIVES SHOULD BE ABLE TO BUY MEAT ABOUT EIGHT TO 10 CENTS CHEAPER AFTER OCT.1.

THE APPLICATION OF CATTLE CEILINGS HAS MET WITH VIGOROUS PROTESTS BY CATTLE RAISERS WHO SAY THE CEILINGS WILL DRIVE THEM OUT OF BUSINESS. OTHER CRITICIS OF THE PLAN HAVE PREDICTED THAT IT WILL REVIVE THE BLACK MARKET IN THE MEAT INDUSTRY.

MICHAEL V.DI SALLE, FEDERAL PRICE STABILIZATION DIRECTOR, SAYS THE ORDER IS FAIR AND NECESSARY. HE SAID CONTROLS WILL NOT BRING BACK RATIONING.

"IF WE COULD NOT TAKE THIS NECESSARY STEP WHEN LIVESTOCK IS SELLING AT 152 PER CENT OF PARITY," HE SAID, "I FEEL THE WHOLE STABILIZATION PROGRAM WOULD BE WRECKED."

PACKERS AND STOCKMEN TESTIFYING AT A HEARING IN WASHINGTON ON A BILL TO EXTEND THE DEFENSE PRODUCTION ACT SAID THE CONTROLS WON'T WORK.

LOREN C.BAMERT, PRESIDENT OF THE AMERICAN NATIONAL CATTLEMEN'S ASSOCIATION, SAID THE EFFECT OF THE ORDER ON CATTLEMEN IS "EQUIVALENT TO CONFISCATION OF PROPERTY."

PAUL C.SMITH, A VICE PRESIDENT OF SWIFT AND COMPANY, SAID RATIONING SHOULD GO ALONG WITH PRICE CONTROLS, BUT THAT EVEN THEN MEAT PRICE CEILINGS "WILL NOT WORK."

BAMERT ALSO CRITICIZED THE OPS ORDER FIXING SLAUGHTERING QUOTAS AT 90 PER CENT OF LAST YEAR'S VOLUME.

"IT SEEMS CLEAR THAT THE PURPOSE OF HOLDING THESE QUOTAS DOWN IN THIS FASHION IS TO FORCE A BREAK IN THE MARKET," HE SAID.

CATTLE RECEIPTS AT DENVER WERE ABOUT AVERAGE FOR THIS TIME OF YEAR, AND STOCKYARD SPOKESMEN THERE SAID "FED CATTLE ARRIVING TODAY WERE IN GOOD FLESH, BETTER THAN LAST MONDAY'S WHEN THEY WERE NOT TO WELL FINISHED."

BOULDER, COLO., MAY 20(AP)-THE COLORADO PLANEAU TODAY IS THE WORLD'S SECOND-LARGEST PRODUCER OF URANIUM. ONLY THE BELGIAN CONGO IS AHEAD.

OUR URANIUM IS A STUNNING ACHIEVEMENT OF FREE ENTERPRISE, WITH ONLY SECOND, THIRD AND FOURTH-RATE NATURAL RESOURCES. THIS STORY IS IN THE FILES OF THE UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO.

THERE IS ONE DISTURBING PROSPECT. RUSSIA CAN DO AS WELL, IF SHE USES SLAVE LABOR AS ASSERTED, AND MAYBE EVEN IF SHE DOESN'T. IN TURKESTAN, MURMANSK AND THE CAUCUSUS SHE HAD URANIUM POSSIBILITIES ALREADY PUBLISHED LONG BEFORE THE WAR.

THE COLORADO FEAT IS THE SUM OF THOUSANDS OF LITTLE PEOPLE PLUS THE NATION'S TOP SCIENTIFIC BRAINS AND RESOURCES. THE LITTLE PEOPLE ARE PROSPECTORS-- OF WHOM SCIENTISTS SAY "BECAUSE THEY DIDN'T KNOW ANY BETTER, THEY OPENED OUR EYES TO NEW POSSIBILITIES."

THEY INCLUDE MAMMA ON A SUNDAY PICNIC, TAKING ALONG A SNIFFER (GEIGER RADIOACTIVITY DETECTOR). THEY INCLUDE THE KEEN EYE OF PADDY MARTINEZ, NEW MEXICO NAVAJO INDIAN. AT A TRADING POST HE SAW URANIUM ORE SAMPLES AND THOUGHT HE COULD FIND MORE ON HAYSTACK MOUNTAIN. HE DI AND STARTED A URANIUM BONANZA.

THE BIGGEST JOB IS SCIENTIFICAM HELICOPTERS HOVER ALONG CLIFFSIDES, LOOKING FOR TELLTALE COLORS OR USING RADIOACTIVITY DETECTORS. PLANES MAP THOUSANDS OF SQUARE MILES WITH AERIAL PHOTOS. OTHER PLANES FLY CLOSE TO THE GROUND PINPOINTING LOCATIONS.

THE U.S. GEOLOGICAL SURVEY STUDIES FORMATIONS. IT ALSO IS DISCOVERING URANIUM IN MINERALS NOT PREVIOUSLY KNOWN TO CONTAIN THE PRECIOUS STUFF. THERE ARE DIAMOND DRILLS, BULLDOZERS AND NUMEROUS MINING COMPANIES. THE U.S.ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION DIRECTS A POLICY THAT GOVERNMENT MONEY SHALL BE SPENT MAINLY WHERE PRIVATE INDUSTRY DOES NOT GO.

THE COLORADO PLATEAU URANIUM IS MOSTLY IN SANDSTONE FORMED IN DINOSAUR DAYS. BEFORE THE SAND HARDENED TO ROCK, UNDERGROUND WATER SEEPED THROUGH. DECAYING VEGETATION MADE THE WATER SO ACID THAT IT DROPPED ITS DISSOLVED URANIUM, WHICH TODAY APPEARS AS A SOFT ALMOST ROSE-GOLD POWDER.

PITCHBLENDE, THE HARD, BLACK ROCK WHICH IS THE RICHEST SOURCE, IS BEGINNING TO TURN UP.

TAFT ENVISIONED AMERICAN SEA AND AIR STRENGTH WITH AN EVENTUAL CAPACITY "TO SECURE A PRACTICAL CONTROL OF SEA AND AIR THROUGHOUT THE WORLD.
HE URGED AIR AND SEA STRENGTH AS A FIRST PRIORITY OVER LAND STRENGTH.

THE REPUBLICAN PRESIDENTIAL POSSIBILITY SPOKE AT THE FIRST AMERICAN ASSEMBLY MEETING AT THE FORMER MOUNTAIN-TOP ESTATE OF W.AVERELL HARRIMAN, ADVISER TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN.
THE ASSEMBLY, UNDER THE SPONSORSHIP OF COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY, AND A FAVORITE PROJECT OF GEN.DWIGHT D.EISENHOWER, WAS FORMED FOR THE DISCUSSION AND CLARIFICATION OF NATIONAL AND WORLD ISSUES BY PRIVATE CITIZENS.
TAFT SPOKE AT A DINNER PRESIDED OVER BY LEWIS W.DOUGLAS, FORMER U.S. AMBASSADOR TO GREAT BRITAIN AND CHAIRMAN OF THE ASSEMBLY'S NATIONAL POLICY BOARD.
AFTER WARNING OF THE TREMENDOUS COST OF LAND ARMIES, TAFT SAID:
"MY OWN VIEW IS THAT WE DO HAVE THE CAPACITY TO SECURE A PRACTICAL CONTROL OF SEA AND AIR THROUGHOUT THE WORLD.
"I BELIEVE WE DO HAVE THE CAPACITY TO BUILD UP AN AIR FORCE SO SUPERIOR TO RUSSIA AS TO GIVE US CONTROL OF THE AIR OVER THIS COUNTRY, OVER THE OCEANS THAT SURROUND THIS CONTINENT AND EVERYWHERE EXCEPT, PERHAPS, OVER RUSSIA ITSELF.
"I BELIEVE THAT SHOULD BE THE FIRST PRIORITY AND I HAVE NOT HEARI ANY SUBSTANTIAL OBJECTION MADE AGAINST THAT PRIORITY. IN THEORY THE ADMINISTRATION AGREES. IN PRACTICE THEY SEEM TO PREFER LAND ARMIES.
"SEA AND AIR CONTROL WOULD PROVIDE A COMPLETE DEFENSE FOR THIS COUNTRY, EXCEPT AGAINST OCCASIONAL RAIDS, PERHAPS EVEN AGAINST THOSE. IT SHOULD GIVE US THE OPPORTUNITY AS IN PAST WARS TO BUILD UP WHATEVEI FORCES ARE NECESSARY TO FIGHT THE KIND OF WAR WE MAY HAVE TO MEET."

A50
TAFT SAID HE FAVORED SOLDIERS FOR THE DEFENSE OF THE U.S. AND ITS POSSESSIONS SUCH AS ALASKA, AND, TO A LIMITED EXTENT, IN EUROPE.
HE ASSERTED:
"I DO NOT BELIEVE THAT WE CAN DEFEND WESTERN EUROPE UNLESS THE WESTERN EUROPEANS THEMSELVES ASSUME THE INITIATIVE IN THAT PROJECT.
"THERE IS, PERHAPS, SOME FEELING ON THE PART OF THE EUROPEANS THAT, IF WE DO NOT SEND LAND TROOPS, WE WOULD NOT BE SHARING IN THE MOST DANGEROUS PROJECT OF ALL, SO I THINK THAT SOME TROOPS ARE JUSTIFIABLE.
"I BELIEVE THE POWER OF THE U.S. IS SUCH THAT WE CAN BE SAFE IF WE USE THAT POWER EFFECTIVELY. BUT THERE IS ONE POLICY AND ONLY ONE POLICY WHICH CAN DESTROY THIS NATION--THE COMMITMENT TO PROJECTS BEYOND OUR CAPACITY TO FULFILL.
"WE CANNOT PERMIT ANY EMOTIONAL AFFECTION FOR OTHER NATIONS TO DIVERT US FROM THE POLICY OF AMERICAN SECURITY."
THE OHIO REPUBLICAN SAID THE U.S. SHOULD MAINTAIN A "CLOSE AND FRIENDLY ALLIANCE" WITH THE BRITISH AND GIVE EVERY ASSISTANCE TO WESTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS. BUT HE CONCLUDED:
"WE CANNOT SAFELY COMMIT OUR ENTIRE EFFORT OR MOST OF OUR ARMY TO BATTLE ON THE CONTINENT OF EUROPE ANY MORE THAN WE CAN UNDERTAKE AN INVASION OF CHINA."

ANOTHER SPEAKER, SEN. DUGLAS (D-ILL), TOLD THE ASSEMBLY "AIR AND SE POWER WILL NOT BY THEMSELVES PREVENT RUSSIA FROM TAKING OVER EUROPE."
HE ADDED:
"THE EXPERIENCE IN KOREA (SHOWS) THAT WITH PRESENT WEAPONS, AIR POWER ALONE CANNOT STOP AN ADVANCING ARMY. THE EUROPEANS WILL FIGHT IF THEY FEEL THAT THEY HAVE A CHANCE TO PREVENT THE RUSSIANS FROM TAKING THEM OVER.
"BUT THEY DO NOT WANT TO BE CONQUERED AND THE HAVE US TRY TO RESCUE THEM BY BOMBING THEM TO PIECES. THEY WANT O FEEL THAT WE WILL FIGHT BY THEIR SIDE IF ATTACKED AND NOT MERELY STAND IN THEIR REAR."
"X X X OUR CONTRIBUTION TO THE EUROPEAN LAND FORCE IS APPARENTLY LIMITED," HE CONTINUED. "OUT OF A TOTAL OF BETWEEN 50 TO 60 DIVISIONS WE ARE NOT OBLIGATED TO FURNISH MORE THAN SIX.
"FRANCE WITH AT LEAST 20 DIVISIONS WILL ONCE AGAIN BEAR THE MAJOR SHARE OF LAND DEFENSE." X X X

NEW YORK, MAY 21-(AP)-GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR WENT TO A BASEBALL GAME TONIGHT--HIS SECOND SINCE RETURNING HOME--AND REMINISCED ABOUT TWO OF BASEBALL'S IMMORTALS: BABE RUTH AND LOU GEHRIG.
"UNLIKE OLD SOLDIERS WHO NEVER DIE," HE TOLD FANS AT YANKEE STADIUM, "UNFORTUNATELY THESE MEN DID, BUT AMERICAN SPORTSMANSHIP WILL NEVER LET THEIR MEMORY FADE."
THE GENERAL, WEARING MUFTI AS HE DID WHEN HE WENT TO THE POLO GROUNDS RECENTLY, WAS GREETED WITH A STANDING OVATION AS HE MADE HIS WAY TO A SEAT IN A PRIVATE BOX.
THE PUBLIC ADDRESS SYSTEM BLARED OUT "OLD SOLDIERS NEVER DIE" AS HE WAS GREETED BY YANKEE MANAGER CASEY STENGEL AND ST.LOUIS MANAGER ZACK TAYLOR.
MACARTHUR POSED FOR PHOTOGRAPHERS AND THEN ADDRESSED THE HUGE CROWD.
"IT HAS BEEN MANY YEARS," HE SAID, "SINCE LAST I SAW THE YANKEES PLAY. TWO GREAT NAMES I KNEW SO WELL ARE NOW, MISSING FROM THE SCORE

CARD.
"THE FIRST TIME I SAW (BABE) RUTH, THEN A GREAT SOUTHPAW PITCHER WITH BOSTON, IT WAS IN WASHINGTON WHERE HE WAS ENGAGED IN A PITCHING DUEL WITH WALTER JOHNSON.
"THE FIRST TIME I SAW LOU GEHRIG, WHO PLAYED FIRST BASE, HE WAS WITH COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY WHERE HE HIT FOUR HOME RUNS IN A GREAT GAME AGAINST WEST POINT 30 YEARS AGO."
BOBBY BROWN, YANKEE [redacted]ER, REVERSED THE USUAL ORDER BY ASKING THE FAMOUS FAN FOR AN AUTOGRAPH.
MACARTHUR WROTE ON THE BALL BROWN PROFFERED AND THE PLAYER WENT BACK TO THE DUGOUT GRINNING.

(ADVANCE)...NEW YORK, MAY 21-(AP)-LT.GEN. ALBERT C.WEDEMEYER, WHO PREDICTED THE COMMUNIST INVASION OF SOUTH KOREA A YEAR BEFORE THE EVENT, SAYS PSYCHOLOGICAL WARFARE SHOULD BE OUR FIRST LINE OF DEFENSE AGAINST RUSSIA.
"I FEEL VERY STRONGLY," THE FORMER U.S. COMMANDER IN CHINA TOLD LOOK MAGAZINE, "THAT BILLIONS OF DOLLARS SHOULD BE EXPENDED IN THE PSYCHO-SOCIAL FIELD TO WIN PEOPLE'S HEARTS AND MINDS, TO CREATE CONFUSION AND MISTRUST WITHIN THE SOVIET ORBIT AND TO CLARIFY AMERICAN PRINCIPLES AND OBJECTIVES."
LOOK SAID THE GENERAL'S VIEWS SUMMED UP THOSE OF NINE OTHER PROMINENT AMERICANS WHOM THE MAGAZINE POLLED ON THE QUESTION OF INTENSIFYING OUR PSYCHOLOGICAL WARFARE. THE STATEMENTS APPEAR IN THE JUNE 5 ISSUE OUT TODAY.
A MAJORITY OF THOSE POLLED WAS SAID TO ADVOCATE A "WAR OF MINDS" AIMED AT A "COUNTER-REVOLUTION (IN RUSSIA) OR AT LEAST DISAFFECTION AMONG THE PEOPLE."
ANOTHER RECOMMENDATION WAS THAT "WE OPERATE OR HELP TO OPERATE AN UNDERGROUND MOVEMENT INSIDE THE SOVIET UNION."
THE VOICE OF AMERICA PROGRAM WAS SAID TO BE INADEQUATE ON THE GROUNDS IT "SIMPLY ANSWERS THE OTHER SIDE'S PROPAGANDA."
THOSE INTERVIEWED BY THE MAGAZINE SAID AMERICA'S PSYCHOLOGICAL EFFORT SHOULD "INCLUDE PROPAGANDA OF EVERY FORM, FROM THE 'WHITE' PROPAGANDA OF IDENTIFIABLE RADIO STATIONS TO THE 'BLACK' VARIETY OF WHISPERING CAMPAIGNS, PLUS EVERY OTHER FORM OF NERVE WARFARE."
IN ADDITION TO WEDEMEYER, LOOK ALSO POLLED SEN. WILLIAM BENTON (D-CONN.); SEN. KARL E.MUNDT (R-SD); ELSWORTH RAYMOND, FORMER RESEARCH ANALYST FOR THE U.S. EMBASSY IN MOSCOW; WALLACE CARROLL, FORMER DEPUTY OVERSEAS DIRECTOR OF THE OFFICE OF WAR INFORMATION; REAR ADM. UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., MAY 21-(AP)-CREATION OF A U.N. COMMISSION WHICH WOULD STUDY THE INTERNATIONAL CONTROL OF ATOMIC ENERGY AND ALL ARMAMENTS WAS PROPOSED LY THE UNITED STATES IN A LETTER MADE PUBLIC TODAY.
THE U.N. DISCLOSED THAT THE PROPOSAL WILL COME BEFORE A COMMITTEE OF 12 COUNTRIES AT A MEETING FRIDAY. THIS COMMITTEE WAS SET UP LAST FALL BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY TO STUDY THE POSSIBILITY OF MERGING THE U.N. ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION AND THE COMMISSION FOR CONVENTIONAL ARMAMENTS.
THE U.S. LETTER IS THE OUT-GROWTH OF A SPEECH BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN

TO THE U.N. GENERAL ASSEMBLY LAST OCT.24, SUGGESTING THE TWO COMMISSIONS COULD BE MERGED.

THE U.S. LETTER SAID THE NEW COMMISSION SHOULD BUILD UPON THE WORK ALREADY DONE BY THE TWO EXISTING COMMISSIONS.

"IN PARTICULAR," THE U.S. LETTER CONTINUED, "THE UNITED STATES BELIEVES THAT THE UNITED NATIONS PLAN FOR INTERNATIONAL CONTROL OF ATOMIC ENERGY MUST CONTINUE TO SERVE AS THE BASIS FOR THE WORK OF THE NEW COMMISSION IN THE ATOMIC ENERGY PHASES OF ITS WORK. NEVERTHELESS, THE NEW COMMISSION SHOULD BE EMPOWERED TO CONSIDER ANY OTHER PROPOSALS THAT WOULD BE NO LESS EFFECTIVE THAN THE EXISTING UNITED NATIONS PLAN."

THE UNITED NATIONS PLAN, APPROVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY MAJORITY OVER THE OPPOSITION OF THE RUSSIAN BLOC, CALLS FOR INTERNATIONAL CONTROL OF ATOMIC ENERGY WITH FULL INSPECTION POWERS FOR A SUPERVISORY AGENCY. THE RUSSIANS HAVE AGREED TO INSPECTIONS BUT ONLY AT STATED TIMES IN ATOMIC FACILITIES THEY HAVE THEMSELVES REPORTED TO THE ATOMIC COMMISSION. THE WEST HAS REFUSED THAT TYPE OF INSPECTION AND THE PROBLEM HAS BEEN IN A STALEMATE FOR YEARS.

THE NEW COMMISSION WOULD BE RESPONSIBLE TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL, JUST AS THE TWO PREVIOUS COMMISSIONS WERE RESPONSIBLE.

BY DON HUTH

TOKYO, WEDNESDAY, MAY 23-(AP)-ALLIED TANKS RAMMED RETREATING REDS FROM A STRATEGIC CITY ON THE WESTERN KOREAN FRONT LATE TUESDAY WHILE BIG GUNS AND WARPLANES POUNDED A COMMUNIST BREAKTHROUGH IN THE EAST.

AN ARMORED COLUMN CAPTURED CHANGGONG, 25 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL IN THE BROAD PUKHAN RIVER VALLEY. FIELD DISPATCHES REPORTED BATTALION-SIZED RED GROUPS WERE SCATTERED ALONG THE WEST BANK OF THE STREAM.

THUS UNITED NATIONS FORCES HOUNDED THE HEELS OF COMMUNISTS PULLING BACK ALL ALONG THE WESTERN AND WEST-CENTRAL FRONTS. BUT U. S. EIGHTH ARMY OFFICERS CAUTIONED AGAINST CALLING IT A ROUT.

A123KX

THERE HAVE BEEN NO CURRENT INSTANCES OF U. N. FORCES OVERRUNNING RED MANNED POSITIONS OR SEIZING SIZABLE AMOUNTS OF WAR BOOTY OR PRISONERS, AS OCCURS DURING A ROUT, THESE OFFICERS SAID.

EIGHTH ARMY KEPT A WARY EYE ON REDS TRYING TO EXPLOIT GAINS MADE THROUGH A HOLE IN ALLIED LINES BETWEEN SOKSA AND PUNGNAM, SOME 18 AIR MILES INLAND FROM KOREA'S EAST COAST.

REINFORCEMENTS WERE RUSHED UP TO PLUG THE HOLE ON THE RIGHT FLANK OF THE U. S. SECOND DIVISION, WHICH SHATTERED THE INITIAL PHASE OF THE CHINESE AND KOREAN RED SECOND SPRING OFFENSIVE LAST WEEK.

MAY 23 1951

A124KX

THE SECOND DIVISION HURLED BACK SEVERAL CHINESE ATTACKS TUESDAY. SOME WERE ATTEMPTED DURING PRE-DAWN DARKNESS. RED LOSSES, ALREADY RECKONED IN THE TENS OF THOUSANDS IN THAT SECTOR ALONE, AGAIN WERE REPORTED HEAVY.

EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS ESTIMATED BETWEEN 50,000 AND 60,000 COMMUNIST CASUALTIES WERE INFLICTED BETWEEN MAY 16, THE OUTSET OF THE SECOND RED OFFENSIVE, AND TUESDAY.

OFF THE NORTHEAST KOREAN COAST, THE 45,000-TON U. S. BATTLESHIP NEW JERSEY AND THE U. S. DESTROYER BRINKLEY BASS SWAPPED PUNCHES WITH RED SHORE GUNS. BOTH AMERICAN VESSELS WERE HIT ONCE.

VICE ADM. C. TURNER JOY, COMMANDER OF U. S. NAVAL FORCES IN THE FAR EAST, SAID THE DUEL SUNDAY AND MONDAY OFF WONSAN RESULTED IN THREE AMERICANS WOUNDED FATALLY AND NINE (CORRECT) WOUNDED, FIVE SLIGHTLY. HE SAID NEITHER SHIP WAS DAMAGED SERIOUSLY.

THE NEW JERSEY IS A SISTER SHIP OF THE BATTLESHIP MISSOURI---THE MIGHTY MO---WHICH SAW MORE THAN SIX MONTHS OF ACTION IN KOREAN WATERS. AN EARLIER ANNOUNCEMENT FROM WASHINGTON TOLD OF THE /ESSELS BEING HIT.

JAPAN-BASED B-29 SUPERFORTS AND MEDIUM B-26 BOMBERS JOINED AGAIN IN SEARING A BUILDUP OF RED FORCES NORTH OF CHUNCHON. THIS IS NORTH OF SECOND DIVISION POSITIONS AND ABOUT 45 AIR MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

THE BOMBERS DROPPED SOME 250 TONS OF FRAGMENTATION AND FIRE BOMBS ON THE REDS. IT WAS ANOTHER NIGHT ATTACK, GUIDED BY NEW SPECIAL RADAR BOMBING TECHNIQUES. FAR EAST AIR FORCE PLANES FLEW ABOUT 1,000 SORTIES

FEAF ESTIMATED 1,700 RED CASUALTIES INFLICTED TUESDAY.

IN THE LATEST ESTIMATE OF SOME 60,000 RED CASUALTIES, THE EIGHTH ARMY MADE IT CLEAR THESE DID NOT INCLUDE COMMUNIST LOSSES FROM THE REPEATED NIGHT LOW-LEVEL BOMBINGS.

GEN. MATTHEW B. RIDGWAY, ON A RECENT VISIT TO THE FRONT, TOLD CORRESPONDENTS THAT EIGHTH ARMY ESTIMATES OF RED CASUALTIES IN THE NEW OFFENSIVE WOULD INCLUDE ONLY THOSE BODIES COUNTD BY GROUND TROOPS.

A LONE RED FIGHTER PLANE ZOOMED OUT OF THE DARKNESS EARLY WEDNESDAY AND STRAFED ALLIED GROUND TROOPS ON THE WESTERN SECTOR, ONE MILE SOUTH OF MUNSAN. IT WAS THE FIRST SUCH ATTACK AGAINST U.N. GROUND FORCES IN MANY WEEKS.

ALLIED TANK-INFANTRY TEAMS SMASHED WITHIN FIVE MILES OF PARALLEL 38 AT ONE POINT ON THE WESTERN FRONT--NEAR KARANGPO--LATE TUESDAY WHEN THE REDS WITHDREW ACROSS THE IMJIN RIVER. KARANGPO IS EIGHT MILES NORTH OF MUNSAN AND SOME 30 MILES NORTH OF SEOUL.

THE WORST RED THREAT APPARENTLY WAS BUILDING UP ABOVE THE SECOND DIVISION, ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT. ON THE DIVISION'S RIGHT FLANK THE REDS WERE TRYING TO BROADEN THEIR BREAK-THROUGH UNDER HEAVY FIRE.

IN WASHINGTON, THE NAVY DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCED THE BATTLESHIP NEW JERSEY HAD BEEN HIT BY RED SHORE GUNS MONDAY AND THE DESTROYER BRINKLEY BASS HAD BEEN HIT SUNDAY. BOTH HAD BEEN ANCHORED FOR BOMBARDMENTS OFF WONSAN, ON KOREA'S EAST COAST AT THE TIME, THE NEW JERSEY HAVING GONE INTO ACTION ONLY ONE DAY EARLIER.

TOTAL CASUALTIES WERE TWO KILLED AND 12 WOUNDED.

FAR EAST NAVY HEADQUARTERS DECLINED COMMENT PENDING OFFICIAL NOTIFICATION FROM WASHINGTON.

THE REGULAR NAVAL COMMUNIQUE ISSUED THIS MORNING, AFTER WASHINGTON'S ANNOUNCEMENT, MERELY LISTED THE BRINKLEY BASS AMONG FOUR U. S. DESTROYERS BOMBARDING WONSAN ON TUESDAY BUT DID NOT MENTION THE NEW JERSEY AT ALL.

A NAVY SPOKESMAN IN WASHINGTON SAID THERE HAD BEEN AN "ALMOST CONTINUOUS ARTILLERY DUEL" AT WONSAN BETWEEN U. S. SHIPS AND RED SHORE GUNS SINCE THE NEW JERSEY WAS HIT.

MAY 23 1951

TWO OTHER ATTEMPTS BY CHINESE COMMUNIST FORCES TO BLAST THROUGH U.S. SECOND DIVISION POSITIONS, ABOUT 75 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL WERE BLOODILY REPULSED. B-29 SUPERFORTS BOMBING WITHIN 300-YARDS OF AMERICAN FOXHOLE POSITIONS AND DEVASTATING ARTILLERY FIRE WIPED OUT AT LEAST 1,000 ATTACKING REDS. THIS WAS ABOUT 17 AIR MILES NORTHWEST OF THE SCENE OF THE REDS' END-RUN ATTEMPT NEAR SOKSA.

WITH THE FAILURE OF THESE JABS AT THE SECOND DIVISION, THE MAIN BODY OF CHINESE BROKE CONTACT FOR THE TIME BEING AND PULLED BACK OUT OF RANGE OF THE DEADLY AMERICAN ARTILLERY.

ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT WILLIAM C. BARNARD, HOWEVER, WARNED THAT AN ESTIMATED 130,000 COMMUNISTS WERE BEING GROUPED FOR NEW STRIKES ALONG THE CRITICAL EAST-CENTRAL FRONT. THEY WERE ASSEMBLING FROM CHUNCHON, 45 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL, EASTWARD TO INJE, WHERE ONE WEEK AGO THE REDS HURLED THEIR HEAVIEST CONCENTRATED ATTACK OF THE WAR. THAT ATTACK COST THE REDS 60,000 OR MORE CASUALTIES IN FIVE DAYS WITHOUT WINNING A DECISIVE BREAKTHROUGH.

ALONG THE REST OF THE FRONT--FROM THE PUKHAN VALLEY NORTHEAST OF SEOUL ON WEST TO MUNSAN, 22 MILES NORTHWEST OF SEOUL--THE REDS SLOWLY PULLED BACK FOR THE SECOND STRAIGHT DAY.

AMERICAN , BRITISH AND SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS HAMMERED HARD AT THE RETREATING CHINESE AND GAINED UP TO FIVE AND ONE-HALF MILES.

DOUGHBOYS SPLASHED ACROSS THE WAISTDEEP HONGCHON RIVER UNDER VICIOUS MACHINEGUN AND MORTAR FIRE, SAID CORRESPONDENT BARNARD. THEY ATTACKED RIDGES THE REDS YIELDED RELUCTANTLY ONE BY ONE. STRONG ARTILLERY BARRAGES AND TANKS SUPPORTED THE ADVANCING AMERICANS.

BY THE END OF THE DAY, THE REDS HAD YIELDED BRIDGEHEADS ACROSS THREE IMPORTANT RIVERS--THE HONGCHON, PUKHAN AND IMJIN.

A188KX

SOUTH KOREAN UNITS REACHED THE SOUTH BANKS OF THE IMJIN RIVER NO OF MUNSAN. THEY WERE JUST FIVE MILES SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL.

ALLIED REINFORCEMENTS HURRIED UP TO SUPPORT SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS ON THE FAR EASTERN END OF THE LINE. THE REDS HAD SWEPT SOUTHEAST PAST SOKSA, A LITTLE HIGHWAY TOWN SOME 18 MILES INLAND FROM THE EAST COAST. THE ROAD WINDS SOUTHWEST INTO WONJU, WHERE BITTER FIGHTING TOOK PLACE LAST FEBRUARY.

CENSORS DELETED REFERENCES TO THE NUMBER OF CHINESE WHO MADE THE PENETRATION AND THEIR EXACT LOCATION. AN EIGHTH ARMY SPOKESMAN TOLD AP CORRESPONDENT NATE POLOWETZKY THE SITUATION "SHOULD NOT BE TAKEN TOO SERIOUSLY."

THE MAIN CHINESE THREAT WAS FARTHER WEST WHERE THE U.S. SECOND DIVISION HAD STARRED ALL WEEK LONG IN ITS FAMOUS ROLE AS "CORK IN THE BOTTLE."

MAJ.GEN.CLARK L.RUFFNER, COMMANDING THE SECOND DIV

DIVISION HAD STARRED ALL WEEK LONG IN ITS FAMOUS ROLE AS "CORK IN THE BOTTLE."

MAJ.GEN.CLARK L.RUFFNER, COMMANDING THE SECOND DIVISION, CONFIDENTLY DECLARED THAT HIS MEN HAD STOPPED THE COMMUNISTS.

"THE RED UNITS IN FRONT OF US NOW ARE NO LONGER CAPABLE OF LAUNCHING A POTENT ATTACK," HE DECLARED. "THE BOYS HAVE STOPPED THEM COLD.

RUFFNER TOLD AP CORRESPONDENT TOM BRADSHAW THAT IN FIGHTING OVER THE PAST WEEK "THE DIVISION HAS TAKEN ON FOUR CHINESE CORPS AND WHIPPED THEM. WE DID IT ONCE IN THE WONJU-CHIPYONG CAMPAIGN. (IN MID-FEBRUARY). I DON'T KNOW THE LIMIT OF THE DIVISION'S ABILITY BUT I THINK WE COULD HANDLE SIX CHINESE CORPS ON THE BASIS OF PAST PERFORMANCE.

FOUR CHINESE CORPS WOULD NUMBER ABOUT 96,000 TROOPS. THERE ARE THREE DIVISIONS TO ONE CORPS AND EACH DIVISION HAS ABOUT 8,000 MEN AT FULL. STRENGTH.

SIX CORPS WOULD NUMBER ABOUT 144,000 REDS, IF AT FULL STRENGTH.

WHEN THE CHINESE OPENED THEIR SECOND HEAVY SPRING ATTACK MAY 16, OFFICERS ESTIMATE BETWEEN 90,000 AND 100,000 MEN SLUGGED AT THE SECOND DIVISION ALONE. AN ESTIMATED 40,000 WERE KILLED ON THAT NARROW FRONT ALONE BY ALLIED GROUND AND AIR FIRE.

RUFFNER SAID, "IT'S ALWAYS BEEN MY AMBITION TO MEET THE COMMUNISTS ON OUR TYPE OF GROUND. WE HAD IT HERE. THE TERRAIN WAS FAVORABLE FOR THE TEST AND WE WERE DUG IN WAITING FOR THEM. THE MEN DID THE REST."

THE LATEST CHINESE ATTEMPT TO CRACK THE SECOND DIVISION CAME NEAR PUNGAM, ABOUT 75 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL. IT GUARDS A LATERAL ROAD APPROACH TO HONGCHON, 18 MILES DUE WEST.

TWENTY-THREE B29'S DROPPED 230 TONS ON THREE RED BATTALIONS WHO WERE MASSED IN A SMALL VALLEY.

ALLIED PATROLS INCLUDING TWO STRONG TANK FORCES PROBED AS FAR AS 2,000 YARDS INTO NO-MAN'S-LAND AFTER THE RAID WITHOUT FINDING MORE THAN A FEW SMALL GROUPS OF REDS.

ONE PATROL REPORTED 1,000 ENEMY DEAD AND WOUNDED IN A SINGLE VALLEY.

ABOUT 800 REDS STUMBLED INTO AMERICAN MINEFIELDS ON THE HONGCHON-INJE HIGHWAY. FRONTLINE OFFICERS SAID THEY WERE "VIRTUALLY WIPED OUT."

CHINESE BODIES WERE FOUND BURNED BLACK BY JELLIED GASOLINE (NAPALM) FIRE BOMBS. PROBING UNITS SAID SOME STILL LIVING BEGGED TO BE SHOT.

A FRONTLINE OFFICER TOLD AP WAR PHOTOGRAPHER ED JOHNSON ON THE CENTRAL FRONT, "THE SECOND ROUND OF THEIR (THE REDS' SPRING OFFENSIVE HAS DEFINITELY PETERED OUT IN THE LAST THREE DAYS."

ALLIED COMMANDERS KNEW THE CHINESE STILL WERE CAPABLE OF CONTINUING THEIR DRIVE, HOWEVER, WITH REPLACEMENTS FROM THE MORE THAN 1,000,000 COMMUNISTS REPORTED MASSED IN KOREA AND ON THE MANCHURIAN BORDER.

ON THE WEST-CENTRAL FRONT, AP CORRESPONDENT BARNARD SAID LARGE GROUPS OF REDS WERE OBSERVED MAKING A GENERAL NORTHWARD WITHDRAWAL.

THE LARGEST WAS OBSERVED FORDING THE HONGCHON RIVER NEAR THE CHONPYONG RESERVOIR.

OPERATIONS OFFICERS DESCRIBED THE RETREAT AS A "STUBBORN DELAYING ACTION," SCREENING THE WITHDRAWAL OF THE BULK OF CHINESE FORCES NORTH OF THE PUKHAN RIVER.

THE HONGCHON RIVER JOINS THE PUKHAN ABOUT 29 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

AMERICAN, BRITISH AND SOUTH KOREAN TROOPS BRUSHED ASIDE LAST DITCH DEFENDERS FROM TERRAIN THE REDS HAD PAID A BLOODY PRICE TO SEIZE ON THE PUKHAN.

SOUTH KOREAN ELEMENTS CROSSED THE PUKHAN SOUTH AND SOUTHEAST OF CHANGGONG, 25 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL. A U.S. TANK-INFANTRY TEAM CLANKED TOWARD CHANGGONG WHILE THE COMMUNISTS RESISTED STUBBORNLY EAST OF THAT BATTERED TOWN.

AP CORRESPONDENT JOHN RANDOLPH SAID THE REDS BEAT A HASTY RETREAT NORTHEAST OF SEOUL, ABANDONING AMMUNITION AND SUPPLIES.

LOW CLOUDS HINDERED AIR SUPPORT TUESDAY MORNING BUT 535 COMBAT SORTIES WERE FLOWN BY THE FIFTH AIRFORCE BY 6 P.M. AT LEAST 400 CHINESE WERE KILLED OR WOUNDED IN A FIGHTER STRIKE EAST OF KAESONG, JUST SOUTH OF THE 38TH PARALLEL. THREE FLIGHTS OF MUSTANGS HIT AN ESTIMATED 2,000 CHINESE ASSEMBLED IN AN OPEN FIELD.

FIGHTERS REPORTED SIGHTING 40 RUSSIAN-BUILT MIGS ACROSS THE YALU RIVER BOUNDARY WITH MANCHURIA ON TUESDAY BUT THE RED AIRCRAFT MADE NO ATTEMPT TO PUT UP A FIGHT. ALLIED PLANES ARE FORBIDDEN TO CROSS THE BOUNDARY.

FIRST LEAD KOREAN WAR ROUNDUP (500)

BY OLEN CLEMENTS

TOKYO, MAY 22-(AP)-ALLIED TROOPS ADVANCED IN WESTERN KOREAN TODAY, PROBED AN OMINOUS CHINESE BUILDUP ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT, AND FOUGHT TO STEM A RED SWEEP IN THE EAST.

INFANTRY TROOPS WAGED SEE-SAW BATTLES IN THE EASTERN MOUNTAINS 25 MILES SOUTH OF PARALLEL 38. COMMUNIST TROOPS WERE TRYING TO EXPAND A WEDGE DRIVEN IN SOUTH KOREAN LINES NEAR SOKSA.

FRONT LINE REPORTS SAID SOUTH KOREANS WERE FORCED TO ADJUST THEIR LINES FOR 25 MILES EASTWARD TO THE SEA OF JAPAN. ALL DISPATCHES REFERRING TO THIS ACTION WERE HEAVILY CENSORED.

THIS FIGHTING WAS ON THE EASTERN FLANK OF THE HEROIC U.S.SECOND DIVISION WHICH HACKED FOUR CHINESE CORPS TO PIECES IN A RED OFFENSIVE STARTED LAST WEDNESDAY.

SECOND DIVISION PATROLS PROBED NORTHWARD TUESDAY INTO A NEW FORCE OF 130,000 CHINESE REPORTED MASSING NORTH OF THEIR LINES FOR A NEW STRIKE.

AP CORRESPONDENT WILLIAM C.BARNARD SAID THE NEW ALLIED AGGRESSIVE-NESS AND THE ENEMY BUILDUP INDICATED A SHOWDOWN BATTLE.

HOWEVER, AP CORRESPONDENT TOM BRADSHAW REPORTED SCOUTS FOUND NO SIZABLE CHINESE CONCENTRATIONS IMMEDIATELY IN FRONT OF THE SECOND DIVISION TUESDAY AFTERNOON. ONLY SMALL GROUPS WERE SPOTTED BY PLANES HUNTING THROUGH THE CLOUDS AND TWO TANK PATROLS WHICH RECONNOITERED MORE THAN A MILE INTO NO-MAN'S-LAND.

PLANES AND ARTILLERY HACKED AT REDS WITHDRAWING ON THE WEST CENTRAL AND WESTERN FRONTS.

ONE U.N. OFFICER SAID HE SAW NOTHING "TOO SIGNIFICANT" IN THIS NORTHWARD MOVEMENT. HE CALLED IT A SLOWDOWN. HE SAID THE RED OFFENSIVE "DEFINITELY PETERED OUT IN THE LAST THREE DAYS."

"BUT," THIS OFFICER CAUTIONED, "THE ENEMY IS STILL CAPABLE OF CONTINUING HIS ADVANCE.

U.N. PATROLS REPORTED ENTERING VALLEYS STACKED WITH CHINESE DEAD.

"WE COULD HEAR THE WOUNDED MOANING AS WE APPROACHED," A SERGEANT SAID.

IN THE FAR WEST A STRONG TASK FORCE STABBED DEEP INTO ENEMY TERRITORY AND SOUTH KOREANS PUSHED WITHIN FIVE MILES OF PARALLEL 38.

30.24- 23279

THE COMMUNISTS PUT UP ONLY LIGHT RESISTANCE TO THE UNITED NATIONS ADVANCE, AP CORRESPONDENT NATE POLOWETZKY REPORTED FROM U.S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS. ALLIED TROOPS PUSHED AHEAD TWO MILES AND MORE TUESDAY MORNING.

AN EIGHTH ARMY OFFICER SAID THE WITHDRAWALS WERE BEING MADE BY SMALL COMMUNIST CONTINGENTS. HE ADDED:

"THESE SMALL GROUPS USUALLY GO TO AN ASSEMBLY POINT WHERE THEY CONGREGATE AND MOVE NORTHWARD AGAIN IN LARGE NUMBERS."

REDS WERE REPORTED WITHDRAWING ACROSS THE IMJIN RIVER NORTHWEST OF SEOUL. PURSUING SOUTH KOREANS MARCHED THROUGH MUNSAN FOR THE SECOND STRAIGHT DAY. SOME UNITS REACHED AS FAR AS 25 MILES NORTH WEST OF SEOUL.

BRITISH, AMERICAN AND KOREAN FORCES PUSHED UP TO THE HONGCHON AND PUKAN RIVERS SOUTHEAST OF CHANGGONG, 25 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

AMERICAN UNITS CROSSED THE HONGCHON SOUTHEAST OF KAPYONG, RED ARTILLERY CENTER 32 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL. THE RED BRIDGEHEAD ACROSS THE RIVERS VIRTUALLY HAD DISAPPEARED.

AN EIGHTH ARMY OFFICER SAID THE REDS WERE WITHDRAWING TO ESCAPE AMERICAN ARTILLERY FIRE, A MAJOR FACTOR IN THE DESTRUCTION OF AN ESTIMATED 60,000 OF THEIR COMRADES IN FIVE DAYS ON THE CENTRAL FRONT.

MAY 23 1951

SOUTH KOREANS MADE A FIGHTING ADVANCE OF A FEW HUNDRED YARDS IN THE CENTER, SOUTH OF CHUNCHON. RED-HELD CHUNCHON IS 45 MILES NORTH-EAST OF SEOUL.

U.S.SECOND DIVISION TROOPS FOUGHT SHARP SKIRMISHES AS THEY STABBED OUT FROM HANGYE ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT TO TEST THE STRENGTH OF NEW CHINESE MASSES GATHERING IN FRONT OF THEM.

ONE CHINESE PROBING ASSAULT WAS SMASHED BEFORE IT BEGAN. THE ON RUSHING CHINESE TRIPPED ALLIED FLARES. THE ENTIRE AREA BLAZED INTO LIGHT, EXPOSING TWO CHINESE BATTALIONS.

AMERICANS LAID DOWN "A SOLID WALL OF ARTILLERY AND BOXED THE ENEMY IN AND THEN SHELLACKED THEM," AN EIGHTH ARMY OFFICER SAID.

SECOND DIVISION PATROLS CHECKING THE RESULTS OF ARTILLERY BARRAGES AND NIGHT BOMBING FOUND ONE SMALL VALLEY LITTERED WITH CHINESE DEAD. SURVIVORS WERE IN A DAZED CONDITION. ALL WERE WELL CLOTHED, EQUIPPED WITH EXTRA SOCKS AND EVEN EXTRA SHOES FOR A LONG CAMPAIGN.

MAJ.GEN.CLARK L.RUFFNER PROUDLY ANNOUNCED HIS SECOND DIVISION HAD BROKEN THE BACK OF THE CHINESE OFFENSIVE AND COULD DO IT AGAIN AGAINST EVEN GREATER NUMBERS. HE SAID:

"THE BOYS HAVE STOPPED THEM COLD. THE RED UNITS IN FRONT OF US NOW ARE NO LONGER CAPABLE OF LAUNCHING A POTENT ATTACK."

OTHER OFFICERS REPORTED REDS WERE BUILDING UP IN FRONT OF THE SECOND DIVISION AND PURING DOWN ITS EASTERN FLANK TO HIT SOUTH KOREANS AROUND SOKSA.

THE REDS HAD ALREADY PUSHED SOUTHWEST OF SOKSA. A NEW REPORT TUESDAY SAID THEY HAD ALSO PENETRATED EAST OF THE CITY. ONE HILL CHANGED HANDS FOUR TIMES IN BITTER HAND TO HAND FIGHTING.

THE EIGHTH ARMY SAID THERE WAS HEAVY FIGHTING ALL DAY IN THE AREA. "MANY CHINESE AND NORTH KOREANS" WERE REPORTED PRESSING SOUTHWARD.

BARNARD REPORTED OTHER RED COLUMNS WERE STREAMING DOWN TOWARD THE CENTRAL FRONT.

HE QUOTED A SPOKESMAN ON THE EAST-CENTRAL FRONT AS SAYING THE REDS MAY BE PREPARING FOR AN ATTACK AS BIG OR BIGGER THAN THE ONE LAUNCHED LAST WEDNESDAY.

THAT OFFENSIVE COST THE REDS 60,000 CASUALTIES IN FIVE DAYS, AMERICAN OFFICERS SAID. U.N.CASUALTIES WERE PLACED AT 1,618, INCLUDING 960 AMERICAN.

A SOUTH KOREAN FORCE IN THE FAR WEST PUSHED WITHIN EIGHT MILES OF THE 38TH PARALLEL. U.N.TROOPS REOCCUPIED MUNSAN AND UIJONGBU, NORTH OF SEOUL. OTHER ALLIES PUSHED TO THE PUKHAN AND HONGCHON RIVERS EAST OF THE OLD SOUTH KOREAN CAPITAL.

BUT THE REDS APPEARED TO BE SHIFTING THEIR WEIGHT EASTWARD RATHER THAN MAKING A GENERAL WITHDRAWAL.

COMMUNIST ARTILLERY IN KAPYONG, 32 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL, OPENED UP ON AMERICAN POSITIONS SOUTH OF THE HONGCHON RIVER.

RUSSIAN-TYPE TANKS WERE SEEN IN CHUNCHON, 45 MILES NORTHEAST OF SEOUL.

DIRECTLY SOUTH, REDS FOUGHT DOGGEDLY AGAINST U.S.UNITS COUNTERATTACKING NEAR HONGCHON. AT THIS POINT COMMUNISTS ARE DUE WEST OF HONGCHON AND SOUTH OF THE HONGCHON RIVER, MORE THAN 20 MILES SOUTH OF THE RED KOREAN BORDER.

THE WIDE SECTOR HELD BY THE SECOND DIVISION BULGES UP THROUGH THE HILLS TO THE NORTHEAST.

RUFFNER SAID RED COMMANDERS HAD HURLED FOUR CORPS--90,000 TO 100,000 MEN--AT HIS INDIANHEAD DIVISION. THE DIVISION NOT ONLY STOPPED THEM BUT SHIFTED EASTWARD TO PLUG A GAPING HOLE OPENED ON ITS FLANK WHEN TWO SOUTH KOREAN DIVISIONS COLLAPSED. OFFICERS ESTIMATED THE SECOND DIVISION KNOCKED OUT ABOUT 40,000 REDS.

"THAT MARKS THE SECOND TIME THE DIVISION HAS TAKEN ON FOUR CHINESE CORPS AND WHIPPED THEM," THE GENERAL SAID. "WE DID IT ONCE BEFORE IN THE WONJU-CHIPYONG CAMPAIGN.

"I DON'T KNOW THE LIMIT OF THE DIVISION'S ABILITY, BUT I THINK WE COULD HANDLE SIX CHINESE CORPS ON THE BASIS OF PAST PERFORMANCE."

THAT MEANS THE GENERAL THINKS HIS DOUGHBOYS COULD BE OUTNUMBERED 10 TO ONE AND WIN.

MAY 23 1951

"IT'S ALWAYS BEEN MY AMBITION TO MEET THE COMMUNISTS ON OUR TYPE OF GROUND," RUFFNER SAID. "WE HAD IT HERE. THE TERRAIN WAS FAVORABLE FOR THE TEST AND WE DUG IN WAITING FOR THEM. THE MEN DID THE REST."

THE SECOND DIVISION WAS AIDED BY ROUND-THE-CLOCK AIR SUPPORT.

WARPLANES WERE AT IT AGAIN TUESDAY DESPITE UNFAVORABLE WEATHER. DURING THE NIGHT B-29S DROPPED 840 BOMBS ON THE RED FRONT LINES. FAR EAST AIR FORCES SAID THEY WERE PIN POINTED BY RADAR "WITH ACCURACY ALMOST AS EFFECTIVE AS VISUAL DAYLIGHT ASSAULTS."

RESULTS OF "PRECISION BOMBING CARRIED OUT WITHIN 400 YARDS OF THE FRONT LINE WERE AMAZING," RUFFNER RADIOED LT.GEN.EARLE E.PARTRIDGE, ACTING COMMANDER OF THE FAR EAST AIR FORCES.

(FEAF) PARTRIDGE, COMMANDER OF THE FIFTHAIR FORCE, IS FILLING IN FOR LT.GEN.GEORGE E.STRATEMEYER. THE FEAF SAID STRATEMEYER WOULD BE HOSPITALIZED "FOR A CONSIDERABLE TIME" FROM A HEART ATTACK.

FEAF SAID ITS DAYTIME RAIDERS INFLICTED 750 RED CASUALTIES. THE NAVY REPORTED ITS CARRIER BASED PLANES ACCOUNTED FOR 650 MORE.

ALLIED PLANES HAMMERED TUESDAY AT REDS REPORTED STREAMING SOUTHWARD DOWN THE HWACHON-CHUNCHON AND INJE-HANGYE HIGHWAYS.

PLANES AND ARTILLERY HELPED BREAK UP A SERIES OF NIGHT AND EARLY MORNING PROBING ATTACKS AT THE SECOND DIVISION.

TO THE EAST COMMUNISTS PUSHED BACK SOUTH KOREANS AROUND SOKSA. THEY HAVE PENETRATED SOUTHWEST OF THE HIGHWAY TOWN TO A POINT 25 MILES SOUTH OF PARALLEL 38 AND 25 MILES FROM THE EAST COAST.

HEAVY FIGHTING WAS REPORTED IN THE MOUNTAINOUS AREA. AMERICAN TROOPS HAD BEEN SHIFTED TO CLOSE A COMMUNIST INFILTRATION ROUTE BETWEEN SOKSA AND PUNGNAM, HELD BY THE SECOND DIVISION.

NEW JERSEY (PRECEDE WASHN)

TOKYO, WEDNESDAY, MAY 23-(AP)-VICE-ADM. C. TURNER JOY ANNOUNCED TODAY THAT THREE AMERICAN NAVY MEN WERE KILLED AND NINE WOUNDED SUNDAY

WHEN SHORE BATTERIES AT WONSAN, ON THE KOREAN EAST COAST, STRUCK THE 45,000-TON BATTLESHIP NEW JERSEY AND THE DESTROYER BRINKLEY BASS.

TWO WERE KILLED AND SIX WERE WOUNDED ABOARD THE DESTROYER. ON THE BATTLESHIP, ONE WAS KILLED AND THREE WOUNDED. SHELL FRAGMENTS STRUCK BOTH VESSELS DURING A BOMBARDMENT OF SHORE INSTALLATIONS. THE DAILY BOMBARDMENT BEGAN FEB. 16.

ADMIRAL JOY, COMMANDER OF NAVAL FORCES IN THE FAR EAST, SAID ENEMY GUNFIRE BEGAN SPLASHING AROUND THE BATTLESHIP AND DESTROYER AT 7 P.M. THE BRINKLEY BASS WAS STRUCK FIRST BY SHELL FRAGMENTS. ONE MAN WAS KILLED OUTRIGHT, TWO WERE WOUNDED SERIOUSLY AND FIVE WERE HURT SLIGHTLY. THREE OF THE WOUNDED WERE TRANSFERRED TO THE CRUISER MANCHESTER FOR MEDICAL TREATMENT, AND ONE OF THEM DIED MONDAY.

ONE ARTILLERY SHELL STRUCK THE NO. 1 TURRET OF THE NEW JERSEY, WHICH ENTERED THE KOREAN WAR ONLY THE DAY BEFORE. IT CAUSED NO DAMAGE TO THE HEAVILY-ARMORED TURRET.

BUT THE ADMIRAL SAID ANOTHER SHELL EXPLODED CLOSE ABOARD THE SHIP, KILLING ONE MAN AND INJURING THREE. NO DAMAGE WAS DONE TO THE SHIP.

DURING THE EXCHANGE OF GUNFIRE, THE BRINKLEY BASS BLASTED ENEMY GUN EMPLACEMENTS ON KALMA PENINSULA AT THE CLOSE RANGE OF FIVE MILES. MORE ENEMY GUNS WERE MOVED ONTO THE PENINSULA SUNDAY NIGHT. THEY OPENED FIRE ON THE NEW JERSEY, THE MANCHESTER AND DESTROYERS, INCLUDING THE BRINKLEY BASS. ALL UNITED NATIONS SHIPS RETURNED THE FIRE AND SILENCED THE SHORE GUNS, WITH DIRECT HITS OBSERVED ON GUNS AND AMMUNITION ON THE PENINSULA.

THE NEW JERSEY HURLED MORE THAN 20 ONE-TON SHELLS AND 100 FIVE-INCH ROUNDS DURING THE RETURN BOMBARDMENT.

IN WASHINGTON, THE NAVY HAD ANNOUNCED THE NAMES OF TWO MEN KILLED AND NINE MEN WOUNDED ABOARD THE TWO VESSELS. PRESUMABLY, THE THIRD MAN TO DIE WAS AMONG THOSE LISTED AS WOUNDED.

MAY 23 1951

AMS BUDGET (520)
NIGHT LEAD JET ACE
BY O.H.P. KING

TOKYO, MAY 22-(AP)-THE WORLD'S FIRST JET ACE HAD A DISTINGUISHED SERVICE CROSS PINNED ON HIS CHEST LATE TODAY.

CAPT. JAMES JABARA STOOD ERECT AS LT.GEN.EARL E.PARTRIDGE, ACTING FAR EAST AIR FORCES COMMANDER, PINNED ON THE DSC, WHICH IS SECOND ONLY TO THE MEDAL OF HONOR.

BUT HE WAS SORE ALL OVER, MIGHTY SORE. HE STILL FELT THE EFFECTS OF THAT BIG JET BATTLE SUNDAY WHERE HE BAGGED TWO MIGS, HIS FIFTH AND SIXTH. THIS PUT HIM ONE OVER THE TOTAL NEEDED TO MAKE HIM AN ACE.

BEING AN ACE WAS NOT NEW FOR THE WICHITA, KAS., PILOT. HE GOT NINE AND A HALF KILLS IN WORLD WAR II--(THREE OF THEM ON THE GROUND). BUT HE WASN'T FLYING JETS THEN.

JET COMBAT PUTS SUCH STRESSES ON A PILOT THAT HE GETS ACHES ALL OVER.

"I FEEL LIKE I'VE BEEN THROUGH A FOOTBALL GAME," THE ONE-TIME WICHITA, KANS., HIGH SCHOOL QUARTERBACK TOLD CORRESPONDENTS. "MY BACK MUSCLES ARE AWFULLY SORE.

"IN FACT, I CAN HARDLY SIT, MY FANNY IS SO SORE. THE MANEUVERING REQUIRED TO MATCH THE EVASIVE TACTICS OF THE MIGS TRYING TO GET AWAY PULLS AND STRAINS YOU ALL OVER, EVEN THOUGH THE FIGHT ONLY LASTS ABOUT FIVE MINUTES."

THE SHORT, DARK, 27-YEAR-OLD ACE HAD NO BUSINESS IN SUNDAY'S BATTLE, SAID BRIG.GEN.WILLIAM P.NUCKOLS, PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICER, WITH A SMILE.

WHEN JABARA REACHED THE COMBAT AREA NEAR THE NORTHWEST BORDER OF KOREA, HE COULD NOT SHAKE LOOSE ONE OF HIS WING TANKS.

NUCKOLS SAID THIS MADE THE CAPTAIN'S JET SO UNBALANCED THAT HE HAD TO USE TWO HANDS ON THE CONTROL STICK. THE USUAL PROCEDURE IS TO RETURN TO BASE, BUT NOT FOR JABARA.

MAY 23 1951

IN THE WORDS OF THE OFFICIAL CITATION, JABARA DISRUPTED ONE FORMATION OF COMMUNIST JETS AND SHOT DOWN ONE MIG PLANE.

"BREAKING OFF THE ATTACK," THE CITATION CONTINUED, "CAPTAIN JABARA SIGHTED ANOTHER NUMERICALLY SUPERIOR FORMATION OF ENEMY AIRCRAFT PREPARING TO ATTACK A FLIGHT OF F-86S ALREADY ENGAGED IN BATTLE.

"ALTHOUGH LOW ON FUEL, ALONG WITH ONE TANK STILL ON, AND OUTNUMBERED SIX TO ONE, CAPTAIN JABARA DAUNTLESSLY FLEW INTO THEIR MIDST EXPOSING HIMSELF TO THEIR FIRE IN ORDER TO DIVERT THEM FROM THEIR OBJECTIVE."

IN THIS SECOND ENCOUNTER, ANOTHER ENEMY JET FELL IN FLAMES UNDER JABARA'S BLAZING GUNS.

JABARA DISCLOSED THAT HE ALMOST GOT IT HIMSELF IN THAT SECOND ENCOUNTER. HE LOST CONTACT WITH HIS WINGMAN IN THE DOG FIGHT AND, "I ENDED UP WITH TWO MIGS SHOOTING AT ME FROM BEHIND.

"I NOTICED THE BURSTS FROM THEIR HEAVY CALIBER CANNON PUPPING AROUND ME," HE RELAT

"I NOTICED THE BURSTS FROM THEIR HEAVY CALIBER CANNON POPPING AROUND ME," HE RELATED, "AND FOR TWO MINUTES I MADE DIVING TURNS TO THE LEFT AND RIGHT AND ALL KINDS OF VIOLENT MANEUVERS TO GET AWAY.

"TWO OF MY BUDDIES SAW IT AND ASKED WHO IT WAS. I JUST MANAGED TO GROAN OUT 'JABAR-R-R-R-RA' WITH THE LITTLE WIND IN ME, AND THEY CAME TO MY HELP."

THE CAPTAIN SAID THE MIGS HAVE ONE BIG ADVANTAGE OVER THE SWIFT SABRE JETS SUCH AS HE PILOTS. THE MIGS KEEP WITHIN 30 TO 50 MILES FROM THEIR BASE ACROSS THE YALU RIVER IN MANCHURIA. THEY GO INTO COMBAT WITH PLENTY OF FUEL, WHILE THE SABRE JETS USE UP TWO-THIRDS OF THEIRS TRAVELING TO AND FROM "MIG ALLEY."

JABARA SAID IF MIG PILOTS ARE SHOT DOWN AND BAIL OUT, "THEY HAVE A GOOD CHANCE TO BE HAVING MARTINIS IN THEIR OFFICERS' CLUB IN A FEW MINUTES."

30.24- 23281

IF RED PLANES ARE DAMAGED, "THEY CAN GLIDE TO SAFETY ACROSS THE YALU TO THEIR SANCTUARY, WHERE WE ARE FORBIDDEN TO GO."

IT MAY HAVE BEEN THE LAST AIR BATTLE FOR JABARA. MONDAY HE WAS CALLED BACK TO TOKYO TO TAKE AN INSTRUCTOR'S ASSIGNMENT. HE MADE THE 700 MILES TO TOKYO IN HIS SABRE JET IN ONE HOUR FLAT.

IN SUCH HOT WARPLANES, QUICK REFLEXES AND QUICK DECISIONS ARE VITAL. JABARA SAID HE EXPECTED TO WASH OUT MANY MEN IN TRAINING, TO SAVE BOTH LIVES AND PLANES.

JET ACE (720)

BY O.H.P.KING

TOKYO,MAY 22-(AP)-THEY PINNED THE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE CROSS ON THE WORLD'S FIRST JET ACE TODAY. THE MEDAL, SECOND ONLY TO THE MEDAL OF HONOR, BROUGHT JOY TO THE ACHING BODY OF CAPT. JAMES JABARA OF WICHITA, KAS.

JABARA HASN'T PLAYED FOOTBALL FOR NINE YEARS, BUT HE SAID HE FELT AS IF HE'D BEEN THROUGH 60 MINUTES OF THE "BIG GAME."

HE'S STILL STIFF AND SORE FROM SUNDAY'S AIR BATTLE IN WHICH HE DESTROYED TWO RUSSIAN-TYPE MIG-15 JETS TO RUN HIS SCORE TO SIX.

"MY BACK MUSCLES ARE AWFULLY SORE," HE SAID. "IN FACT, I CAN HARDLY SIT DOWN, MY FANNY IS SO SORE. THE MANEUVERING REQUIRED TO MATCH THE EVASIVE TACTICS OF THE MIGS PULLS AND STRAINS YOU ALL OVER, EVEN THOUGH THE FIGHT LASTS ONLY FIVE MINUTES."

THINGS HAVE HAPPENED FAST TO JABARA--NO SLOW POKE HIMSELF.

SUNDAY HE BECAME A JET ACE.

MONDAY HE WAS RELIEVED OF COMBAT DUTY AND ORDERED TO JAPAN AS AN INSTRUCTOR. (HE MADE THE 700 MILE HOP IN ONE HOUR.)

TODAY, BEFORE A GROUP OF SENIOR AIR FORCE OFFICERS, HE WAS DECORATED FOR DAUNTLESS COURAGE IN ATTACKING NUMERICALLY SUPERIOR FORMATIONS OF COMMUNIST AIRCRAFT.

ALL THIS IN A FIGHT HE SHOULDN'T EVEN HAVE BEEN IN, ACCORDING TO BRIG.GEN.WILLIAM P.NUCKOLS, PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICER OF THE FAR EASTERN AIR FORCES.

"JABARA WON'T TELL YOU THIS," NUCKOLS SAID, "BUT WHEN HE REACHED THE COMBAT AREA AND TRIED TO DROP HIS WING TANKS, ONE WOULDN'T SHAKE LOOSE. THAT MADE HIS AIRCRAFT UNBALANCED AND DIFFICULT TO MANAGE. HE HAD TO USE TWO HANDS ON THE CONTROL STICK. HE SHOULD HAVE RETURNED TO BASE IMMEDIATELY."

HABARA ONLY SMILED. HE HAD WAITED SINCE APRIL 22, WHEN HE DOWNED JET NO.4, FOR HIS CHANCE AT THE ACE-MAKER, (NO.5) AND WOULDN'T BE DENIED.

THE 27-YEAR OLD DOUBLE ACE--HE WAS CREDITED WITH NINE AND ONE-HALF (CORRECT) AIR VICTORIES OVER EUROPE IN WORLD WAR II--WAS GRADUATED FROM HIGH SCHOOL IN WICHITA IN MAY, 1942. HE ENLISTED AS AN AIR CADET THE SAME DAY.

HE HAD THIS TO SAY ABOUT THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN AIR COMBAT IN KOREA AND EUROPE:

"THERE'S A LOT OF DIFFERENCE--AS MUCH AS NIGHT AND DAY--BECAUSE (1) OF THE GREAT SPEEDS TODAY, UP TO 700 MILES AN HOUR; (2) THE SHORT TIME FOR FIRING, EVEN WHEN YOU'RE ON THE ENEMY'S TAIL; AND (3) IT'S VERY DIFFICULT TO IDENTIFY FRIEND FROM FOE IN A SPLIT SECOND SINCE BOTH THE (F-86) SABRE JETS AND THE MIGS HAVE SWEPT BACK WINGS AND YOU CAN'T SEE AS WELL AT 45,000 FEET AS YOU CAN AT 10,000".

A99FX

"THE MIGS HAVE MANY ADVANTAGES OVER US. (1) THEY ARE ONLY 30 TO 50 MILES FROM THEIR BASE SO ARE WELL FUELED, WHILE WE USE TWO THIRDS OF OUR FUEL GETTING TO MIG ALLEY AND BACK; (2) IF THEY ARE SHOT DOWN AND BAIL OUT THERE'S A GOOD CHANCE THEY'LL BE BACK HAVING MARTINIS IN THEIR OFFICERS' CLUBS IN A FEW MINUTES; (3) IF THEY GET INTO TROUBLE THEY CAN GLIDE TO SAFETY ACROSS THE YALU TO THEIR SANCTUARY WHERE WE ARE FORBIDDEN TO GO; AND (4) THEY DON'T HAVE OUR WEATHER PROBLEMS IN REACHING THE COMBAT AREA.

"THEY HAVE A PLANE ABOUT AS GOOD AS OUR F-86, BUT WE KNOW OUR ADVANTAGES AND THEIR DISADVANTAGES AND OUR LEADERS TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THEM."

JABARA SAID A JET PILOT RARELY FIGHTS MORE THAN FIVE MINUTES AT A TIME, EXPLAINING:

"EVEN IF YOU ARE ON HIS TAIL AND CAN STAY THERE TWO MINUTES, YOU HAVE ONLY A COUPLE OF SECONDS OF FIRING OPPORTUNITY."

HE SAID TEAMWORK WAS THE BASIS FOR SUCCESS IN AIR COMBAT.

"A GOOD WINGMAN IS WORTH HIS WEIGHT IN GOLD. WHEN A LEADER SEES THE ENEMY HE QUITS LOOKING AROUND AND THE WINGMAN BECOMES HIS EYES AND EARS. HE STICKS TO HIS TARGET, AND THAT'S WHEN HE'S MOST VULNERABLE."

TO ILLUSTRATE...

"I LOST CONTACT WITH MY WINGMAN SUNDAY DURING THE TERRIFIC GYRATIONS I HAD TO MAKE TO KEEP ON THE MIG'S TAIL. I ENDED UP WITH TWO MIGS SHOOTING AT ME FROM BEHIND.

"I NOTICED THE BURSTS FROM THEIR HEAVY CALIBRE CANNONS POPPING AROUND ME AND FOR TWO MINUTES I MADE VIOLENT MANEUVERS TO GET AWAY.

"TWO OF MY BUDDIES SAW IT AND ASKED WHO I WAS. I JUST MANAGED TO GROAN OUT 'J ABAR-R-R-R-A' WITH THE LITTLE WIND I HAD LEFT AND THEY CAME TO HELP ME."

HE SAID THE THREE "A"S OF AERIAL COMBAT ARE: AIR DISCIPLINE, AGGRESSIVENESS AND AERIAL GUNNERY. THESE MUST BE COMBINED WITH THE ABILITY TO MAKE DECISIONS QUICKLY--BEFORE A BRIEF OPPORTUNITY DISAPPEARS."

AS AN INSTRUCTOR HE EXPECTS TO WASH OUT MANY MEN--AND SAVE BOTH THEIR LIVES AND THEIR PLANES. BUT HE SAID THESE MEN WOULD BE ABLE TO PERFORM TOP JOBS ELSEWHERE IN THE MANY-ARMED AIR FORCE.

K ROKS (280)

BY STAN CARTER

U.S. 8TH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, KOREA,MAY 22-(AP)-THE CHIEF OF STAFF OF THE SOUTH KOREAN ARMY SAID TODAY THE CHINESE REDS HAVE AIMED THEIR HEAVIEST BLOWS AT HIS TROOPS IN AN EFFORT TO DESTROY AMERICAN FAITH IN THEIR FIGHTING ABILITY.

LT.GEN.CHUNG IL KWON SAID THE COMMUNISTS HOPE THE AMERICANS WILL WITHDRAW THEIR SUPPORT OF THE KOREAN REPUBLIC ONCE THEY ARE CONVINCED IT IS HOPELESS TO TRY TO BUILD AN EFFECTIVE SOUTH KOREAN ARMY.

CHUNG IN A STATEMENT ATTRIBUTED RECENT SOUTH KOREAN DEFEATS TO LACK OF FIREPOWER, INEXPERIENCED LEADERSHIP AND INSUFFICIENT TRAINING.

HE EXPRESSED FAITH, HOWEVER, IN CONTINUED U.S. SUPPORT.

A SOUTH KOREAN MILITARY COURT TODAY SENTENCED TWO COLONELS TO ONE MONTH'S CONFINEMENT AFTER CONVICTING THEM OF PARTIAL RESPONSIBILITY FOR COLLAPSE OF THE KOREAN SIXTH DIVISION DURING A RED ATTACK LAST MONTH.

LAST WEEK, SIX OTHER KOREAN OFFICERS WERE SENTENCED TO TWO TO 15 YEARS IN PRISON FOR THE SAME OFFENSE.

CHUNG'S STATEMENT SAID:

"IN U.S. ARMY SECTORS, THE ENEMY IS POUNDED BEFORE HIS ATTACKS REACH THE MAIN BATTLE POSITION. ARTILLERY, TANKS AND AUTOMATIC WEAPONS ALL COMBINE TO PRODUCE UNPRECEDENTED SLAUGHTER.

"AS THE FOE REACHES THE AMERICAN LINE OF RESISTANCE, THE WEAKENED SURVIVORS ARE FAIRLY EASILY KILLED OFF BY THE FRONT LINE DOUGHBOYS."

CHUNG SAID SOUTH KOREANS IN CONTRAST LACK HEAVY FIREPOWER.

"EVEN THE ROK SOLDIERS IN FORWARD POSITIONS MUST ENGAGE IN HAND TO HAND COMBAT TO STOP THE ENEMY," HE SAID.

"THE ENEMY IS STILL COMPARATIVELY FRESH BY THE TIME HIS WAVES ASSAULT THE DEFENSE LINE."

THE CHIEF OF STAFF SAID THE 130,000 BATTLE CASUALTIES HIS ARMY HAS SUFFERED SINCE JUNE HAS LOWERED COMBAT EFFICIENCY AND FORCED THE USE OF INEXPERIENCED LEADERS IN POSITIONS OF HIGH COMMAND.

FRONTLINER (300)
BY TOM BRADSHAW

WITH U.S. SECOND DIVISION, KOREA, MAY 22-(AP)-ONE SMALL VALLEY CRAMMED WITH DEAD AND DYING COMMUNISTS TODAY TOLD THE STORY OF THE CHINESE RED DEFEAT ON THIS EAST-CENTRAL FRONT IN KOREA.

FRONT LINE OBSERVERS SAID THE MAIN BODY OF THE CHINESE FORCES APPARENTLY HAVE BROKEN CONTACT. THEY HAVE PULLED BACK OUT OF RANGE OF THE DEADLY AMERICAN ARTILLERY WHICH WAS A MAJOR FACTOR IN SMASHING THE RED DRIVE.

ALLIED PATROLS, INCLUDING TWO STRONG TANK TASK FORCES, MOVED OUT MORE THAN A MILE AND COULD FIND ONLY A FEW SMALL GROUPS OF REDS.

THIS "VALLEY OF DEATH," STREWN WITH RED CASUALTIES WAS FOUND BY ONE PATROL WHICH MOVED OUT NORTHWEST OF PUNGAM, ONE OF THE FOCAL POINTS OF THE BATTLE. EVEN BEFORE IT REACHED THE VALLEY THE PATROL COULD HEAR THE CRIES OF RED WOUNDED.

THE PATROL FOUND 1,000 ENEMY DEAD AND WOUNDED IN THE VALLEY. THIS WAS PART OF THE PRICE THE CHINESE PAID FOR LOSING A BATTLE TWO DAYS BEFORE. THOUSANDS MORE RED DEAD LITTERED OTHER SECTORS.

SGT.CHARLES P. KUCZYSKI, LEADER OF THE PATROL, SAID ARTILLERY AND AIR STRIKES APPARENTLY HAD INFLICTED TERRIBLE LOSSES ON THE COMMUNISTS.

"WE COULD HEAR THE WOUNDED MOANING BEFORE WE ENTERED THE VALLEY," SAID THE SOLDIER FROM EVANSVILLE, IND.

"IT WAS AN AWFUL SIGHT. BODIES WERE STACKED UP. MANY OF THEM WERE BURNED BLACK BY NAPALM (JELLIED GASOLINE FIRE BOMBS). MANY OF THE WOUNDED BEGGED US TO SHOOT THEM TO END THEIR MISERY.

"SOME OF THEM KEPT REPEATING IN ENGLISH 'SHOOT ME, SHOOT ME'."

FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE THE NEW RED OFFENSIVE STARTED LAST WEEK, PILOTS FAILED TO SPOT ANY SIZABLE CONCENTRATIONS OF THE ENEMY.

THE ONLY ACTION CAME DURING THE MORNING. AN ESTIMATED 800 COMMUNISTS STUMBLED INTO AMERICAN MINEFIELDS ON THE HONGCHON-INJE ROAD. MOST OF THEM WERE WIPED OUT BY ARTILLERY AND MORTAR FIRE.

OFFICERS SAID HEAVY SUPERFORT BOMBING OF ENEMY ASSEMBLY AREAS NEAR THE FRONT APPARENTLY FORCED THE REDS TO DISPERSE TO SAFER POSITIONS.

THE SUPERFORTS WENT BACK TONIGHT AND AGAIN STRUCK AT ENEMY ASSEMBLY POINTS. IT WAS THE THIRD NIGHT IN A ROW FOR THESE B-29 ATTACKS.

U.S. 2ND DIVISION, KOREA, MAY 22-(AP)-THE COMMANDING GENERAL OF THE U.S. SECOND DIVISION TODAY SAID HIS MEN HAVE BROKEN THE BACK OF THE COMMUNIST OFFENSIVE ON THE EAST CENTRAL FRONT.

"THE BOYS HAVE STOPPED THEM COLD," SAID MAJ.GEN. CLARK L.RUFFNER. "THE RED UNITS IN FRONT OF US ARE NO LONGER CAPABLE OF LAUNCHING A POTENT ATTACK."

BETWEEN 90,000 AND 100,000 CHINESE REDS HIT THE DIVISION'S FRONT IN THE LATEST COMMUNIST PUSH. AN ESTIMATED 40,000 WERE KILLED BY ALLIED GROUND, AIR AND ARTILLERY FIRE.

SOMEWHERE IN KOREA, MAY 21-(DELAYED)-(AP)-THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS CAME ON SO THICK THAT THEIR UNIFORMS TURNED THE GREEN KOREAN HILLS BROWN.

THAT WAS THE WAY THE SURVIVORS OF A COMPANY FROM THE U.S. SECOND DIVISION TOLD IT. THEY WERE SITTING TODAY ON THE HILLSIDE DRINKING BEER AND POP. EVERY MAN THERE WAS LUCKY TO BE ALIVE.

THEY HAD BEEN SURROUNDED BY THOUSANDS OF CHINESE. EVERY MAN HAD FOUGHT HIS WAY OUT. THEY CAME OUT IN GROUPS OF TWO AND FOUR. THAT WAS THE ONLY WAY IT COULD BE DONE.

THAT WAS THE WAY SURVIVAL CAME ABOUT FOR THESE MEN OF THE SECOND, WHICH TOOK THE HARDEST PUNCH OF THE GREATEST CHINESE OFFENSIVE.

THE MEN OF THE COMPANY WERE ON A RIDGE MAY 17 SOUTHEAST OF CHUNCHON. IT WAS WILD COUNTRY, FIVE MILES FROM ANY ROAD. THEN THE CHINESE HIT.

"WE SAW THEM COMING A LONG WAY OFF," SAID SGT. FLOYD W. FRAZIER, A BLUE-EYED VETERAN FROM CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA. "THEY HAD ON BROWN UNIFORMS AND THEY TURNED THE GREEN HILLS BROWN."

HIS PLATOON WAS HIT BY SMALL ARMS FIRE AS IT TRIED TO REACH THE RIDGE WHERE ITS BATTALION WAS. THE PLATOON SCATTERED AND BEGAN FIRING BACK.

IT WAS ALMOST DARK WHEN FRAZIER AND FOUR OTHERS REACHED THE TOP OF A HILL AND OPENED FIRE.

"THE CHINESE WERE BLOWING WHISTLES AND BUGLES," HE SAID. "WE HAD A COUPLE OF RECOILLESS RIFLES AND WE KEPT ON FIRING. THE MOON CAME UP AND EVERYWHERE YOU LOOKED THERE WERE CHINAMEN. FINALLY THEY OVERRAN US."

FRAZIER SAID HE NEVER KNEW HOW HE GOT OUT OF THERE ALIVE. HE GOT DOWN THE HILL, DODGING THROUGH AN AREA UNDER MORTAR BARRAGE, AND FINALLY REACHED HIS OWN LINES AFTER WALKING ALL NIGHT.

CPL. PAUL ANDERSON OF 60 SAGAMORE ST., REVERE, MASS., SAID HE HAD A SIMILAR EXPERIENCE.

"WE WERE ON A RIDGE TRYING TO ESTABLISH A LINE," HE SAID, "BUT AS FAST AS WE'D GET ON ONE HILL THEY'D SWARM AROUND AND OVER OUR POSITIONS AND WE'D RUN FOR ANOTHER HILL. I NEVER KNEW THERE WERE SO DAMN MANY CHINAMEN."

U.S. 8TH ARMY, KOREA, MAY 22-(AP)- THE GENERAL SELECTED TO ORGANIZE AND COMMAND THE FIRST BRITISH COMMONWEALTH DIVISION IN KOREA SAID TONIGHT IT WILL BE READY FOR COMBAT SHORTLY.

"IT WON'T BE TOMORROW OR NEXT WEEK, BUT IT WILL BE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE," HE ADDED.

MAJ. GEN. A.J.H. CASSELLS SAID THE DIVISION WILL BE FORMED JUST AS SOON AS EXTRA PERSONNEL "COMING HERE FROM THE FOUR CORNERS OF THE WORLD" CAN REACH KOREA.

HE SAID THE INCREASE IN TROOPS WOULD NOT MATERIALLY INCREASE THE SIZE OF BRITISH FORCES IN KOREA. BUT NEW TROOPS WILL BE MOSTLY HEADQUARTERS PERSONNEL.

CASSELLS, AFTER INSPECTING BRITISH UNITS FIGHTING IN KOREA NOW, TOLD A PRESS CONFERENCE HE WAS HIGHLY PLEASED WITH THE TROOPS THAT ARE TO MAKE UP THE BULK OF HIS COMMAND.

"ALL THE TROOPS AND ALL THE OFFICERS I SAW WERE IN ABSOLUTELY THE FINEST FETTLE," HE SAID.

THREE BRITISH BRIGADES ARE IN KOREA. MORE PERSONNEL, GUNS AND EQUIPMENT WILL BE BROUGHT TO HELP MAKE UP THE DIVISION, WHICH WILL BE COMPRISED OF TROOPS FROM SIX NATIONS.

"THOSE COMMONWEALTH BRIGADES HAVE DONE VERY GREAT THINGS HERE," HE SAID.

30.24- 23283

"I FELT VERY PROUD EVERYWHERE I WENT."
HE SAID THE DIVISION WAS BEING FORMED BECAUSE IT WAS FELT IT WOULD BE BETTER TO PLACE ALL COMMONWEALTH TROOPS IN ONE UNIT--"AND GET THEM ALL FIGHTING TOGETHER"--THAN TO HAVE THE BRIGADES FIGHTING SEPARATELY AS PART OF AMERICAN DIVISIONS.
CASSELLS SAID THERE WOULD BE AUSTRALIANS, NEW ZEALANDERS, CANADIANS, INDIAN AND BRITISH TROOPS.
THE CENSORS REFUSED TO ALLOW MENTION OF THE SIXTH NATION WHICH WILL PROVIDE MEN FOR THE NEW DIVISION.
THE LARGEST PROPORTION OF THE NEW DIVISIONAL PERSONNEL IS COMING FROM THE UNITED KINGDOM BUT HE SAID THERE WOULD BE NEW MEN FROM EACH NATION.

LONDON, WEDNESDAY, MAY 23-(AP)-COMMUNIST CHINA WARNED MEMBERS OF THE UNITED NATIONS TODAY THEY WOULD BE HELD RESPONSIBLE "FOR ALL THE CONSEQUENCES" OF ANY EMBARGO ON SUPPLIES TO THE RED NATION.
A STATEMENT FROM THE CHINESE FOREIGN AFFAIRS MINISTRY, REPORTED FROM PEIPING BY THE SOVIET NEWS AGENCY TASS, ASSAILED THE U.N. MAY 18 EMBARGO AS "ILLEGAL, SLANDEROUS, A VIOLATION OF THE U.N. CHARTER" AND "A MALEVOLENT ATTEMPT TO EXTEND AGGRESSIVE WAR."
IT WAS RED CHINA'S FIRST OFFICIAL REACTION TO THE U.N. EMBARGO VOTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY LAST WEEK.
"ALL THOSE COUNTRIES WHICH ARE FOLLOWING THE UNITED STATES IN BANNING SUPPLIES TO CHINA AND KOREA WILL BEAR RESPONSIBILITY FOR ALL THE CONSEQUENCES ARISING FROM THEIR HOSTILE ACTS TOWARDS CHINA," THE STATEMENT SAID.
THE WARNING DID NOT ELABORATE.
THE STATEMENT SINGLED OUT THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT--WHICH HAS RECOGNIZED THE CHINESE COMMUNIST REGIME--FOR SPECIAL MENTION.
IT SAID THAT EVEN BEFORE THE U.N. RESOLUTION WAS ADOPTED, BRITAIN "HAD ALREADY CARRIED OUT A WHOLE NUMBER OF UNFRIENDLY ACTIONS AGAINST THE CHINESE PEOPLES' REPUBLIC IN THE SPHERE OF TRADE AND HAD SHOWN THAT IT IS AN ENEMY OF THE CHINESE PEOPLE."
BUT THE CHINESE STATEMENT SAID THE EMBARGO WOULD MAKE LITTLE DIFFERENCE. IT DECLARED CHINA WAS "FULLY CONVINCED THAT IT WILL BE ABLE TO ANSWER THIS DISGRACEFUL AND ILLEGAL RESOLUTION BY INFLICTING A CRUSHING DEFEAT ON THE AMERICAN AGGRESSORS."

SINGAPORE, MAY 22-(AP)-BRITISH MALAYA--WHICH HAS SOLD MORE THAN 120,000 TONS OF RUBBER TO COMMUNIST CHINA SINCE THE OUTBREAK OF THE KOREAN WAR--TODAY ANNOUNCED THE BAN OF ANY MORE SHIPMENTS OF THAT VITAL PRODUCT TO THE CHINESE REDS.
THE EMBARGO WAS REVEALED BY BOTH THE CROWN COLONY OF SINGAPORE AND THE COMPANION GOVERNMENT OF THE FEDERATION OF MALAYA AT KUALA LUMPUR. THE MAINLAND FEDERATION PRODUCES THE RUBBER--ISLAND SINGAPORE SHIPS MOST OF IT.
THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT HAD REQUESTED THE BAN. ITS DECISION WAS PROVOKED BY AROUSED AMERICAN PUBLIC OPINION AND THE WHIP-SAWING ATTACKS OF WINSTON CHURCHILL'S CONSERVATIVES IN PARLIAMENT. THE UNITED NATIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY LAST FRIDAY ASKED FOR A GLOBAL EMBARGO OF ARMS, AMMUNITION AND WAR MATERIALS AGAINST RED CHINA.
SINGAPORE GOV. SIR FRANKLIN GIMSON, ANNOUNCING THE BAN HERE, SAID RUBBER EXPORTS TO RED CHINA ACTUALLY WERE STOPPED A WEEK AGO--ON MAY 15.
IN A SIMILAR ANNOUNCEMENT AT KUALA LUMPUR, HIGH COMMISSIONER SIR HENRY GURNEY ASKED THE FEDERATION EXECUTIVE COUNCIL TO CONFIRM HIS GOVERNMENT'S COMPLIANCE WITH LONDON'S REQUEST FOR "THE IMPOSITION OF A BAN ON RUBBER EXPORT TO CHINA FOR THE REST OF THE YEAR."
GURNEY SAID HE FELT CONFIDENT THE BAN, "IN THE PRESENT GRAVE CIRCUMSTANCES, WILL COMMAND THE SUPPORT OF ALL THOSE WHO ARE UNITED AND OF SINGLE MIND IN THE STRUGGLE AGAINST COMMUNIST AGGRESSION WHETHER IT BE IN KOREA, MALAYA OR ELSEWHERE."
THE ANNOUNCEMENTS CAME AS THE BRITISH FREIGHTER NANCY MOLLER, WITH 3,700 TONS OF RUBBER IN HER HOLD, WAS HEADED BACK TO SINGAPORE AFTER INTERCEPTION BY A BRITISH DESTROYER NEAR HAINAN ISLAND, OFF THE SOUTHEAST COAST OF CHINA.
ANOTHER SHIP, THE PANAMA-REGISTERED NORBAY, WITH 750 TONS OF RUBBER SLATED FOR CHINA, IS BEING HELD UNDER ARMED GUARD IN SINGAPORE HARBOR.
GIMSON TOLD THE SINGAPORE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL INCREASES IN RUBBER EXPORTS TO RED CHINA CLEARLY EXCEEDED CHINA'S NORMAL PEACETIME CIVILIAN REQUIREMENTS AND "THEREFORE ARE LIKELY TO BE USED FOR STRATEGIC STOCKPILING AND FOR THE SLAUGHTER OF FORCES OF THE UNITED NATIONS FIGHTING IN KOREA."
GIMSON ADDED: "NOTHING SHOULD BE DONE OR ALLOWED TO JEOPARDIZE THE FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH AND THE UNITED STATES AND OTHER UNITED NATIONS OR TO WEAKEN THE COMMON CAUSE IN WHICH WE ARE ALL ENGAGED."
THE BAN ON RUBBER SHIPMENTS DOES NOT AFFECT TRANSSHIPMENT FROM SUCH NON-BRITISH POINTS AS SUMATRA ON BILLS OF LADING, A SPOKESMAN SAID. HOWEVER, BRITAIN CAN STILL "REQUISITION" SUCH SHIPMENTS IN BRITISH VESSELS, AS SHE DID IN THE CASE OF THE NANCY MOLLER'S CARGO. IT WAS EXPLAINED THAT THE PERCENTAGE OF SUCH TRANSHIPMENTS OF HIGH-GRADE RUBBER IS SMALL.

LONDON, MAY 22-(AP)-THE BIG WESTERN POWERS HAVE SET PLANS FOR INTERNATIONAL TALKS DESIGNED TO SETTLE GERMANY'S ESTIMATED $4,500,000,000 (B) PREWAR AND POSTWAR DEBTS.

INFORMED OFFICIALS REPORTED TODAY THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE HAVE AGREED ON THE MAIN PRINCIPLES WHICH THEY THINK SHOULD GOVERN THE FINAL SETTLEMENT. THE WEST GERMAN FEDERAL REPUBLIC LAST MARCH UNDERTOOK RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE PRIVATE AS WELL AS PUBLIC DEBTS OF THE PREWAR REICH.

RRUSSIA AND HER FRIENDS WILL NOT BE INVITED TO THE TALKS. THE SOURCES SAID THE POTSDAM PACT LAID DOWN THAT RUSSIA, AS THE POWER OCCUPYING EAST GERMANY, SHOULD BE RESPONSIBLE FOR SETTLING THE CLAIMS OF EAST EUROPEAN NATIONS, AND THAT THE WESTERN ALLIES SHOULD TAKE CARE OF WESTERN CLAIMS.

THE TALKS WILL BE HELD IN LONDON NEXT JULY OR AUGUST.

GERMANY'S BILLS ARE GROUPED IN PREWAR AND POSTWAR CATEGORIES.

THE PREWAR DEBTS--COMPRISING MAINLY UNREDEEMED PUBLIC AND PRIVATE LIABILITIES--ARE THOUGHT TO TOTAL ABOUT $1,000,000,000 (B).

THE POSTWAR DEBTS--OWED MAINLY TO THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE FOR GOODS, HELP AND SERVICES RECEIVED--RUN TO ABOUT $3,500,000,000 (B).

GERMANY'S MAIN PREWAR DEBTORS INCLUDE THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, SWEDEN AND SWITZERLAND.

THE ALLIES ALREADY HAVE ANNOUNCED THE DEBT SETTLEMENT WILL BE SHAPED BY TWO MAIN FACTORS:
